O Melissokomos: see The Beekeeper

Mélo ★★

France 1986 112m colour
Artificial Eye/MK2/Films A2/CNC (Marin Karmitz)
A wife, tormented by her affair with another man, kills herself.
Deliberately theatrical treatment of a once-potent play of the 1920s that gives its principals a chance to revel in their roles.
wd Alain Resnais play Henry Bernstein ph Charlie Van Damme m Philippe Gérard pd Jacques Saulnier ed Albert Jurgenson, Jean-Pierre Besnard
☆ Sabine Azéma, Fanny Ardant, Pierre Aditi, André Dussollier, Jacques Dacqmine
† The same play was filmed as Dreaming Lips in 1936.

Melody

GB 1971 106m Eastmancolor
Hemdale/Sagittarius/Goodtimes (David Puttnam)

aka: S.W.A.L.K.
Calf love at school causes jealousy between two boys.
Tough-sentimental teenage comedy-drama of little interest to adults.
w Alan Parker d Waris Hussein ph Peter Suschitzky m Richard Hewson ☆ Jack Wild, Mark Lester, Tracy Hyde

Melody Cruise

US 1933 74m bw
Merian C. Cooper/RKO
A lady killer gets his come-uppance on board ship, but wins the girl he really wants.
Very messy mixture of comedy, romance and music.
w Mark Sandrich, Ben Holmes d Mark Sandrich
☆ Phil Harris, Charles Ruggles, Greta Nissen, Helen Mack, Chick Chandler
'Ought to be a moderate grosser ... the meat just isn't there for the principals, and they seem to feel it in their work.' – Variety

Melody for Two

US 1937 60m bw
Warner
A singing bandleader argues with his team and picks up with an all-girl crew.
Simple-minded peg for a few songs; rather a yawn.
w George Bricker, Luci Ward, Joseph K. Watson d Louis King ☆ James Melton, Patricia Ellis, Wini Shaw, Marie Wilson, Fred Keating, Dick Purcell
'Okay twin-bill fodder.' – Variety

Melody Inn: see Riding High

The Melody Lingers On

US 1935 65m bw
Edward Small
During World War I, an Italian soldier is killed after fathering an illegitimate baby, which grows up with no knowledge of mother, who watches from afar.
Old-fashioned tearjerker with musical background.
w Ralph Spence, Philip Dunne novel Lowell Brentano d David Burton ☆ Josephine Hutchinson, George Houston, John Halliday, Mona Barrie, Helen Westley, Laura Hope Crews
'Will probably wind up topping the duals.' – Variety

Melody of Life: see Symphony of Six Million

Melody of Youth: see They Shall Have Music

Melody Time ★

US 1948 75m Technicolor
Walt Disney (Ben Sharpsteen)
An unlinked variety show of cartoon segments.
A mainly mediocre selection with the usual moments of high style: Once upon a Wintertime, Bumble Boogie, Johnny Appleseed, Little Toot, Trees, Blame it on the Samba, Pecos Bill.
wd various.
'There seems to be an obvious connection between the Disney artists' increasing insipidity and their increasing talent for fright, but I will leave it to accredited sado-masochists to make the discovery.' – James Agee

Melvin and Howard ★★★

US 1980 95m Technicolor
Universal (Terry Nelson)

The life of a factory worker is changed when a man he picks up in the Nevada desert claims to be Howard Hughes.
Eccentric comedy which has been compared to the work of Preston Sturges, but has an agreeable style of its own.
w Bo Goldman d Jonathan Demme
ph Tak Fujimoto m Bruce Langhorne ad Richard Sawyer ed Craig McKay
☆ Paul Le Mat (Melvin Dummar), Jason Robards Jnr (Howard Hughes), Mary Steenburgen (Lynda Dummar), Elizabeth Cheshire (Darcy Dummar), Michael J. Pollard (Little Red), Gloria Grahame (Mrs. Sisk)
'An almost flawless act of sympathetic imagination ... it's what might have happened if Jean Renoir had directed a comedy script by Preston Sturges.' – New Yorker
'Commercial American movie-making of a most expansive, entertaining kind.' – Vincent Canby, New York Times
Bo Goldman; Mary Steenburgen
Jason Robards Jnr (supporting actor)

The Member of the Wedding ★

US 1952 91m bw
Columbia/Stanley Kramer

A 12-year-old girl learns something about life when her sister gets married and a young boy dies.
Boringly contained in a kitchen set, this filmed play has interesting characters but is really not good enough for the talent involved.
w Edna and Edward Anhalt play and novel Carson McCullers d Fred Zinnemann ph Hal Mohr m Alex North ☆ Julie Harris, Ethel Waters, Brandon de Wilde, Arthur Franz, Nancy Gates, James Edwards
Julie Harris

Memed My Hawk

GB 1984 110m colour
Fuad Kavur/Peter Ustinov Productions
In 1923 Turkey, an inept tyrant chases one of his young villagers, who flees to the rebels.
Weird but not wonderful mix of comedy and melodrama in an unfamiliar and unattractive setting.
wd Peter Ustinov novel Yashar Kemal ph Freddie Francis m Manos Hadjidakis ad Veljko Despotovic ed Peter Honess
☆ Peter Ustinov, Herbert Lom, Denis Quilley, Michael Elphick, Simon Dutton

'Some Memories Are Best Forgotten.'

Memento ★★★

US 2000 116m FotoKem
Pathé/Newmarket/Summit/Team Todd (Suzanne Todd, Jennifer Todd)

In Los Angeles, an insurance investigator who has lost his short-term memory searches for the man who raped and murdered his wife.
Exceedingly clever, complex drama about identity and its meaning, and the search for a purpose in life, constructed so that the audience, too, experiences events without at first understanding their implications.
wd Christopher Nolan story Jonathan Nolan ph Wally Pfister m David Julyan pd Patti Podesta ed Dody Dorn cos Cindy Evans
☆ Guy Pearce (Leonard), Carrie-Anne Moss (Natalie), Joe Pantoliano (Teddy), Mark Boone Jnr (Burt), Stephen Tobolowsky (Sammy), Harriet Sansom Harris (Mrs Jankis), Callum Keith Rennie (Dodd)
'A remarkable psychological puzzle film.' – Sight and Sound
'Exciting, intriguing and exhausting.' – Empire
Christopher Nolan (Screenplay); Dody Dorn

Memento Mori ★

South Korea 2000 94m colour
Cine 2000/Cinema Service (Oh Ki-min)

original title: Yeogo Goedam 2
A girl investigates the school's sixth suicide, that of a fellow pupil who had close relationships with another girl and a male teacher.
Atmospheric ghost story of requited love, schoolgirl crushes, and betrayal.
wd Kim Tae-yong, Min Kyu-dong ph Kim Yun-su m Jo Seong-woo ad Lee Dae-hun ed Kim Sang-beom
☆ Kim Min-seon (Min-ah), Park Ye-jin (Hyo-shin), Lee Yeong-jin (Shi-eun), Kong Hyo-jin (Ji-won), Kim Min-heui (Yeon-an), Paek Jong-hak (Mr Goh)
'The movie mixes flashbacks with the present in a way that only becomes clear after a while, creating a female hormonal hothouse that makes for compulsive viewing most of the time.' – Derek Elley, Variety
† While not a direct sequel, the movie was a continuation of the themes of Whispering Corridors (qv).

Mémoire Traquée: see Lapse of Memory

Memoirs of a Geisha ★ (5)

US 2005 144m DeLuxe Panavision
Columbia TriStar/DreamWorks/Spyglass/Amblin/Red Wagon (Lucy Fisher, Douglas Wick, Steven Spielberg)

A geisha recalls her rise from a poor fishing village, her tough apprenticeship, the man she loved, and the jealousy of her rivals in pre-war Japan.
Long, stately, old-fashioned Cinderella story, beautiful to look at, though not always to listen to.
w Robin Swicord novel Arthur Golden d Rob Marshall ph Dion Beebe m John Williams pd John Myhre ed Pietro Scalia cos Colleen Atwood
☆ Ziyi Zhang (Sayuri), Ken Watanabe (The Chairman), Michelle Yeoh (Mameha), Koji Yakusho (Nobu), Youki Kudoh (Pumpkin), Kaori Momoi (Mother), Tsai Chin (Auntie), Cary-Hiroyuki Tagawa (The Baron), Gong Li (Hatsumomo)
'Everything you'd expect it to be: beautiful, mesmerizing, tasteful, Japanese. It's just not very hot.' – Stephen Hunter, Washington Post
'An inert teapot, available only to be admired for its mysterious, ineffable Asian teapotness.' – Lisa Schwarzbaum, Entertainment Weekly
† The movie cost around $80m and took some $57m at the US box-office.
†† See also The Geisha House.
Dion Beebe; art direction; Colleen Atwood sound (Kevin O'Connell, Greg P. Russell, Rick Kline, John Pritchett); sound editing (Wylie Stateman)
John Williams; Dion Beebe; Colleen Atwood

Memoirs of a Survivor

GB 1981 115m Technicolor
EMI/Memorial (Michael Medwin, Penny Clark)
In the future, a single woman finds that urban civilization has decayed, and after many horrors finds refuge in an old Victorian house.
Unappetizing mixture of 1984 and Alice in Wonderland, too despairing and plotless to find many takers.
w Kerry Crabbe, David Gladwell novel Doris Lessing d David Gladwell ph Walter Lassally m Mike Thorn pd Keith Wilson ed William Shapter ☆ Julie Christie, Christopher Guard, Debbie Hutchings, Leonie Mellinger, Nigel Hawthorne, Pat Keen
'A film of wild ambition, sadly and hopelessly bungled.' – Geoff Brown, MFB

'Women want him for his wit. The C.I.A. wants him for his body. All Nick wants is his molecules back.'
'An adventure like you've never seen.'

Memoirs of an Invisible Man *

US 1992 99m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Le Studio Canal Plus/Regency Enterprises/Alcor (Bruce Bodner, Dan Kolsrud)

A CIA agent pursues a stock analyst who has turned invisible after an accident.
Clever special effects fail to compensate for the lacklustre script and uninspired performances.
w Robert Collector, Dana Olsen, William Goldman novel H. F. Saint d John Carpenter ph William A. Fraker m Shirley Walker pd Lawrence G. Paull ed Marion Rothman sp Industrial Light and Magic ☆ Chevy Chase, Daryl Hannah, Sam Neill, Michael McKean, Stephen Tobolowsky, Jim Norton

'Where's the wit? It fades into invisibility while you're watching it.' – Los Angeles Times

Memorias De Subdesarollo: see Memories of Underdevelopment

Memories **

Japan 1995 colour
Banda/Mushroom/Memories Production Committee (Shigeru Watanabe)

original title: Memorizu
Three separate stories: Magnetic Rose, in which the crew of a salvage vessel explore the wreck of a spaceship once inhabited by a lovelorn opera singer; Stink Bomb, in which the lowly chemist swallows an experimental drug and turns himself into a biological weapon; Cannon Fodder, in which a war is fought by means of giant cannons fired at an unseen enemy.
An animated film aimed at an international audience, which means that the narrative is accessible and the animation is often masterly. The first story, about the destructive power of memory, works best, while the splendidly drawn final story promises more than it delivers.
w Satoshi Kon manga Katsuhiro Otomo d Katsuhiro Otomo, Koji Morimoto, Tensai Okamura m Yoko Kanno, Jun Miyake, Hiroyuki Nagashima ed Takeshi Seyama

Memories of Me

US 1988 105m colour
MGM/Odyssey (Alan King, Billy Crystal, Michael Hertzberg)

After he suffers a heart attack, a surgeon attempts a reconciliation with his father, an unsuccessful actor working as a Hollywood extra.
Slick, wisecracking mix of comedy and drama in which everyone communicates in one-liners. It is sometimes funny, but more often creakingly sentimental in the manner of soap opera and sitcoms, with nothing to offer in the way of insight except another joke.
w Eric Roth, Billy Crystal d Henry Winkler ph Andrew Dintenfass m Georges Delerue pd William J. Cassidy ed Peter E. Berger
☆ Billy Crystal, Alan King, JoBeth Williams, Janet Carroll, David Ackroyd, Phil Fondacaro

Memories of Murder **

Korea 2003 129m colour
CJ Entertainment/Muhan/iPictures/Sidus (Cha Seung-jae, Romeo Noh)

original title: Sarineui Chueok
An inspector from Seoul causes resentment when he is sent to help two local cops catch a serial killer in a small rural town.
A mordant study of investigative ineptitude among cops who, handicapped by a lack of resources, mix detection with torture. Based on a true story of still unsolved murders in the 1980s, the film also manages an oblique comment on life under a military dictatorship.
w Bong Joon-ho, Shim Seong-bo story Kim Gwang-rim d Bong Joon-ho ph Kim Hyeong-gu m Taro Iwashiro pd Ryu Seong-heui ed Kim Sun-min ☆ Song Kang-ho (Detective Park Du-man), Kim Sang-gyeong (Detective Seo Tae-yun), Kim Roi-ha (Detective Jo Yeong-gu), Song Jae-ho (Chief Shin), Byeon Heui-bong (Gweon Gui-ok), Ryu Tae-ho (Jo Byeong-sun)

'Compelling mix of docu-dramatic realism and stylised character study.' – Empire
'Both horribly, gorily fascinating and, it has to be said, slightly unfulfilling.' – Wendy Ide, Times

Memories of Underdevelopment ***

Cuba 1968 104m bw (Miguel Mendoza)

original title: Memorias De Subdesarollo
In 1961, a blocked writer, left behind in Havana when his family moved to Miami, forms a relationship with a bird-brained actress.
An outsider views with scepticism the revolutionary fervour around him in Alea's film that uses a variety of techniques to express his feelings.
wd Tomas Gutierrez Alea novel Edmundo Desnoes ph Ramon F. Suarez m Leo Brouwer ad Julio Matilla ed Nelson Rodríguez ☆ Sergio Corrieri (Sergio), Daisy Granados (Elena), Eslinda Nuñez (Noemi), Omar Valdes, Rene de la Cruz, Yolanda Far, Beatriz Pocnara (Laura)

'A film about alienation that is wise, sad, and often funny, and that never slips into the bored and boring attitudes that wreck Antonioni's later films' – Vincent Canby, New York Times

Memorizu: see Memories

The Memory Expert: see The Man on the Flying Trapeze

The Memphis Belle *

US/GB 1944 43m Technicolor
War Activities Commission

The last mission over Germany of a Flying Fortress.
Impressive on-the-spot documentary which provided a lot of library footage for later movies.
d William Wyler

Memphis Belle **

GB 1990 106m colour
Warner/Enigma (David Puttnam, Catherine Wyler)

In the Second World War, the crew of an American B-17 bomber fly their final mission over Germany.
Sentimental drama that is a throwback to war films of an earlier era.
w Monte Merrick d Michael Caton-Jones ph David Watkin m George Fenton pd Stuart Craig ed Jim Clark
☆ Matthew Modine, Eric Stoltz, Tate Donovan, D. B. Sweeney, Billy Zane, Sean Astin, Harry Connick Jnr, Reed Edward Diamond, Courtney Gains, Neil Giuntoli

'Another chapter in David Puttnam's peculiar cinema of history lessons without cinematic depth or sound dramatic portfolio.' – Richard Combs, MFB

'A completely new experience between men and women!'
'I was afraid I was gonna die ... now I'm afraid I'm gonna live!'

The Men ***

US 1950 85m bw
Stanley Kramer

reissue title: Battle Stripe
Paraplegic war veterans are prepared for civilian life; the fiancée of one of them helps overcome his problems.
Vivid semi-documentary melodrama, at the time rather shocking in its no-holds-barred treatment of sexual problems.
w Carl Foreman d Fred Zinnemann ph Robert de Grasse m Dimitri Tiomkin pd Edward G. Boyle ed Harry Gerstad ☆ Marlon Brando (Ken), Teresa Wright (Ellen), Everett Sloane (Dr. Brock), Jack Webb (Norm), Howard St John (Ellen's Father)

'Don't be misled into feeling that to see this film is merely a duty; it is, simply, an experience worth having.' – Richard Mallett, Punch
'As a bold, brave motion picture, The Men is to be applauded; but it would be a mistake to imagine that noble intentions and the courage to speak in hitherto unmentionable medical jargon necessarily make great films.' – Margaret Hinxman

Carl Foreman

Men... **

West Germany 1985 99m colour
Artificial Eye/Olga Film/ZDF (Harald Kugler)

original title: Männer...
A bourgeois husband turns his wife's lover, a hippy artist, into a carbon copy of himself
Light-hearted indictment of men as overgrown children
wd Doris Dörrie ph Helge Weindler m Claus Bantzer ed Raimund Barthelmes, Jeanette Magerl ☆ Heiner Lauterbach, Uwe Ochsenknecht, Ulrike Kriener, Janna Marangosoff

'Dörrie's deadpan giddiness is likeable enough. The picture is insignificant, though – a piece of fluff without the wit that you might hope for.' – Pauline Kael, New Yorker

Men Are Not Gods

GB 1936 92m bw
UA/London (Alexander Korda)

An actor playing Othello nearly strangles his wife.
Tepid melodramatic attempt at a theme later used in A Double Life.
w Walter Reisch, G. B. Stern, Iris Wright d Walter Reisch ph Charles Rosher m Geoffrey Toye ad Vincent Korda ed Henry Cornelius ☆ Miriam Hopkins, Sebastian Shaw, Rex Harrison, Gertrude Lawrence, A. E. Matthews, Val Gielgud, Laura Smithson

'A nearer approximation to box office quality than some recent London productions.' – Variety

Men Are Such Fools

US 1938 69m bw
Warner

The worm turns when his wife threatens to leave him for a singing career.
Mediocre is the word for this threadbare drama.
w Norman Reilly Raine, Horace Jackson d Busby Berkeley ☆ Wayne Morris, Humphrey Bogart, Priscilla Lane, Hugh Herbert, Penny Singleton

Men at Work

US 1990 98m DeLuxe
Entertainment/Epic Productions/Euphoria Films/Sarlui/Diamant (Cassian Elwes)

Two garbage men find a corpse and set out to discover its killer.
Clumsily directed, witless rubbish.
wd Emilio Estevez ph Tim Suhrstedt m Stewart Copeland, Greg DeBelles pd Dins Danielsen ed Craig Bassett
☆ Charlie Sheen, Emilio Estevez, Leslie Hope, Keith David, Dean Cameron, John Getz, Hawk Wolinski, John Lavachielli, Geoffrey Blake

'This still manages to be an ordeal thanks to its endless procession of excrement jokes, kindergarten-level sex-jokes, contrived and pointless wandering around, and collection of arbitrary and oft-forgotten MacGuffins.' – Kim Newman, MFB

Men Behind Bars: see Duffy of San Quentin

Men Don't Leave

US 1990 115m CFI color
Warner (Jon Avnet)

Following the death of her husband in an accident, a widow with two sons strives to keep the family together.
Just about rises above the level of an average soap opera.
w Barbara Benedek, Paul Brickman d Paul Brickman ph Bruce Surtees m Thomas Newman pd Barbara Ling ed Richard Chew
☆ Jessica Lange, Arliss Howard, Joan Cusack, Kathy Bates, Tom Mason, Chris O'Donnell, Charlie Korsmo, Belita Moreno, Jim Haynie, Cory Carrier, Shannon Moffett

'Protecting The Earth From The Scum Of The Universe.'

Men in Black **

US 1997 90m Technicolor
Columbia/Amblin (Walter F. Parkes, Laurie MacDonald)

A cop is recruited to be the partner of a government agent whose task it is to track down illegal aliens.
Quick-witted science fiction with a couple of engaging, contrasting performances from its leads, and some excellent special effects, though a little more originality in its Earth-in-peril scenario would have been welcome.
w Ed Solomon comic Lowell Cunningham d Barry Sonnenfeld ph Don Peterman m Danny Elfman pd Bo Welch ed Jim Miller sp Industrial Light and Magic; make-up: Rick Baker, David LeRoy Anderson
☆ Tommy Lee Jones (K), Will Smith (J), Linda Fiorentino (Laurel), Vincent D'Onofrio (Edgar), Rip Torn (Zed), Tony Shalhoub (Jeebs), Siobhan Fallon

'Undemanding popular entertainment with a modicum of irony to back it up. It never becomes camp. But it never becomes truly sophisticated either.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

† The film cost $90m and grossed $250m in the US and another $313m around the world.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

make-up
Bo Welch; Danny Elfman

'Same Planet. New Scum.'

Men in Black II

US 2002 88m DeLuxe
Columbia/Amblin (Walter F. Parkes, Laurie MacDonald)

Two agents foil an alien plot to destroy the world and other parts of the universe.
A sequel that plods along the same track as the original, but with a little sense of fun or invention; a less derivative plot this time around would have been welcome.
w Robert Gordon, Barry Fanaro Malibu comic Lowell Cunningham d Barry Sonnenfeld ph Greg Gardiner m Danny Elfman pd Bo Welch ed Steven Weisberg, Richard Pearson sp ILM
☆ Tommy Lee Jones (Kay), Will Smith (Jay), Rip Torn (Zed), Lara Flynn Boyle (Serleena), Rosario Dawson (Laura Vasquez), Tony Shalhoub (Jeebs), Patrick Warburton (Agent Tee), Johnny Knoxville (Scrad/Charlie)

'Formulaic, flat and unfunny.' – Sunday Times
'Pretty much a disaster – repetitive beyond belief, and so busily inconsequential that it neutralizes your brain and leaves you with nothing to respond to.' – David Denby, New Yorker
'Strange, zany, generally amusing and very likeable without actually being all that hilarious or surprising.' – Angie Errigo, Empire

Men in Her Diary

US 1945 73m bw
Universal

A jealous woman tries to hire an unattractive girl as her husband's secretary.
Very mild lower-berth comedy.
w F. Hugh Herbert and Elwood Ullman story Kerry Shaw d Charles Barton
☆ Peggy Ryan, Jon Hall, Louise Allbritton, William Terry, Virginia Grey, Ernest Truex, Alan Mowbray, Eric Blore, Sig Rumann

Men in War

US 1957 104m bw
Security (Sidney Harmon)

Korea 1950: an infantry platoon is cut off from HQ and tries to take an enemy-occupied hill.
Stereotyped small-scale war heroics; the film makes its points but fails to entertain.
w Philip Yordan novel Day without End by Van van Praag d Anthony Mann
ph Ernest Haller m Elmer Bernstein
☆ Robert Ryan, Robert Keith, Aldo Ray, Vic Morrow, James Edwards, Sen Yung Men in White ★

US 1934 80m bw
MGM (Monta Bell)

An ambitious intern is in love with an attractive socialite who resents his devotion to duty.
Popular but obvious star drama.
w Waldemar Young play Sidney Kingsley d Richard Boleslawski ph George Folsey ☆ Clark Gable, Myrna Loy, Jean Hersholt, Elizabeth Allan, Otto Kruger, C. Henry Gordon, Wallace Ford

'Belongs in the strictly adult class of pictures ... show spells money from plenty of angles.' – Variety

Men Must Fight

US 1933 73m bw
MGM

War comes to New York in 1940.
A forgotten pacifist tract which trod the same paths as did H. G. Wells; of historical interest only apart from a spectacular air raid climax.
w S. K. Lauren, Reginald Lawrence, C. Gardner Sullivan d Edgar Selwyn ☆ Robert Young, Diana Wynyard, May Robson, Phillips Holmes, Lewis Stone

Men o' War ★

US 1929 20m bw
Hal Roach

Two sailors and two girls have adventures in a park.
Simple-minded early talkie star comedy featuring their famous soda fountain routine.
w H. M. Walker d Lewis R. Foster
ph George Stevens, Jack Roach ed Richard Currier ☆ Stan Laurel, Oliver Hardy, James Finlayson, Anne Cornwall, Gloria Greer

Men of Arnhem ★★

GB 1946 82m bw
Rank (Castleton King)

US title: Theirs is the Glory

In 1944, men of the British 1st Airborne Division are dropped behind German lines to capture and hold the bridge across the Rhine against superior German forces.
Fascinating semi-documentary re-enactment of a gallant defeat in the Second World War, made a year after the battle by survivors of the action, incorporating footage shot at the time.
w Terence Young d Brian Desmond Hurst, Terence Young ph C.M. Pennington-Richards † See also A Bridge Too Far.

Men of Boys' Town

US 1941 106m bw
MGM (John W. Considine Jnr)

Further adventures of Father Flanagan.
Mushy sequel to Boys' Town (qv).
w James Kevin McGuinness d Norman Taurog ph Harold Rosson m Herbert Stothart
☆ Spencer Tracy, Mickey Rooney, Bobs Watson, Larry Nunn, Lee J. Cobb, Mary Nash, Henry O'Neill, Darryl Hickman, Anne Revere

'History is made by those who break the rules.'

Men of Honor

US 2000 DeLuxe Super 35
TCF/Fox 2000/State Street (Robert Teitel, Bill Badalato)

GB title: Men of Honour

In the 1950s, Carl Brashear overcomes racial prejudice to be the US navy's first black deep-sea diver.
The sort of patriotic flagwaver that inspired the troops in time of war, this is a surprising movie to find being made at the end of the twentieth century; its simple-minded approach does scant justice to a remarkable life.
w Scott Marshall Smith d George Tillman Jnr ph Anthony B. Richmond m Mark Isham pd Leslie Dilley ed John Carter cos Salvador Perez
☆ Robert De Niro (Billy Sunday), Cuba Gooding Jnr (Carl Brashear), Charlize Theron (Gwen), Aunjanue Ellis (Jo), Hal Holbrook (Mr Pappy), David Keith (Capt Hartigan), Michael Rapaport (Snowhill), Powers Boothe (Capt Pullman), Joshua Leonard (Isert), David Conrad (Hanks)

'Full of easy-to-say, harder-to-do messages about never quitting and surmounting daunting obstacles, pic needs only a chorus of "Climb Every Mountain" to be complete.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

Men of Means

Canada 1999 80m colour
Libra/Producers Network (Daniel D'Or, G. Philip Jackson)

In New York, a loan shark for the mob begins to develop a conscience and decides it is time to find another line of work.
Thuggish chase-thriller, of unpleasant people being nasty to one another; there are many better ways of passing the time.
w Shane Perez d George Mendeluk
ph Ludek Bogner m Donald Quan
pd Thomas Carnegie ed John Whitcher
☆ Michael Paré (Rico 'Bullet' Burke), Kaela Dobkin (Cleo), Raymond Serra (Tommy C.), Austin Pendleton (Jerry Trask), Mark Hutchinson (Joey), Tony Cucci (Angelo), Ron Holgate (Max), Tie Domi (Pete)

Men of Respect

US 1990 113m colour
Central City/Arthur Goldblatt (Ephraim Horowitz)

Told by a fortune-teller that he will become the next Mafia Godfather, a gangster is urged by his wife to make sure the prediction comes true.
Shakespeare's Macbeth is the inspiration for this odd little thriller, with the plot sticking close to the original and some of the dialogue being repeated virtually word for word. But guilt over a murder seems an unlikely emotion for a hitman to feel.
wd William Reilly ph Bobby Bukowski
m Misha Segal ad William Barclay
ed Elizabeth Kling
☆ John Turturro, Katherine Borowitz, Dennis Farina, Peter Boyle, Rod Steiger

'One has the feeling of watching an end-of-the-term show at Yale Drama School.' – Philip French, Observer
† An earlier thriller, Joe Macbeth (qv), also borrowed its plot from Shakespeare's play.

Men of Sherwood Forest

GB 1954 77m Eastmancolor
Hammer (Michael Carreras)

Robin Hood frees King Richard from bondage.
Fairly lively adventure romp on a low level.
w Allan MacKinnon d Val Guest ph Jimmy Harvey m Doreen Corwithen
☆ Don Taylor, Reginald Beckwith, Eileen Moore, David King-Wood, Patrick Holt, John Van Eyssen

Men of Texas

US 1942 81m bw
Universal (George Waggner)

At the end of the American Civil War, a Chicago journalist and a photographer are sent to Texas to find Sam Houston and discover an outlaw gang pretending to be patriots.
Flag-waving minor Western, quite lively when not overearnest.
w Harold Shumate, Richard Brooks d Ray Enright ph Milton Krasner md Edward Ward ad Jack Otterson ed Clarence Kolster
☆ Robert Stack, Broderick Crawford, Jackie Cooper, Anne Gwynne, Ralph Bellamy, Jane Darwell, Leo Carillo, John Litel

Men of the Sea: see Midshipman Easy

Men of Tomorrow

GB 1932 88m bw
Paramount/London Films (Alexander Korda)

Oxford students have more than academic work on their minds.
Dim comedy-drama with an interesting cast.
w Arthur Wimperis, Anthony Gibbs play Young Apollo by Anthony Gibbs
d Leontine Sagan, Zoltan Korda
ph Bernard Browne ad Vincent Korda
ed Leontine Sagan
☆ Maurice Braddell, Joan Gardner, Emlyn Williams, Merle Oberon, Robert Donat

Men of Two Worlds

GB 1946 109m Technicolor
GFD/Two Cities (John Sutro)

US title: Witch Doctor
aka: Kisenga, Man of Africa

In Tanganyika, an educated native helps white men to counter the force of witch doctors and persuade tribes to leave an infected area.
Earnest but totally unpersuasive semi-documentary shot in unconvincing sets and garish colour.
w Thorold Dickinson, Joyce Cary, E. Arnot Robertson, Herbert Victor d Thorold Dickinson ph Geoffrey Unsworth, Desmond Dickinson m Arthur Bliss
☆ Eric Portman, Phyllis Calvert, Robert Adams, Orlando Martins, Arnold Marle, Cathleen Nesbitt, David Horne, Cyril Raymond

Men of War

US 1994 99m DeLuxe Super 35
MDP/Pomerance/Grandview Avenue (Arthur Goldblatt, Andrew Pfeffer)

A Swedish mercenary has a change of heart after hiring a gang of thugs to persuade some islanders in the South China Sea to part with their mining rights.
An action film that tries for a little originality and even wit in dealing with matters of morality versus expediency, but settles in the end for the usual over-the-top psychopathic villain and a gloating emphasis on violence.
w John Sayles, Ethan Reiff, Cyrus Voris story Stan Rogow d Perry Lang ph Ronn Schmidt m Gerald Gouriet pd Steve Spence, Jim Newport ed Jeffrey Reiner
☆ Dolph Lundgren, Charlotte Lewis, B. D. Wong, Anthony John Denison, Tim Guinee, Don Harvey, Trevor Goddard, Kevin Tighe

'Shot from an intelligent, witty, cliché-overturning script and featuring lashings of gritty violence, this is an action gem.' – Film Review

Men of Yesterday

GB 1936 82m bw
UK Films

Old army rivalries die down at a reunion.
Dated but interesting drama with interpolated variety talent.
w Gerald Elliott, Jack Francis d John Baxter
☆ Stewart Rome, Sam Livesey, Hay Petrie, Cecil Parker, George Robey, Ella Shields, Will Fyffe, Dick Henderson

Men on Her Mind: see The Girl from Tenth Avenue

Men with Guns ★

US 1997 126m Technicolor
Lexington Road/Clear Blue Sky/IFC/Anarchists' Convention (R. Paul Miller, Maggie Renzi)

An ageing doctor goes to visit some former students, now working in poor villages, and discovers that they have been killed by those in authority.

A Spanish-language film from an American director, though not obviously set in any particular country; its narrative, about a man whose eyes are opened to the atrocities he has deliberately ignored, is a simple one, but told with feeling.
wd John Sayles ph Slawomir Idziak m Mason Daring pd Felipe Fernandez Del Paso ed John Sayles
☆ Federico Luppi, Damian Delgado, Dan Rivera, Tania Cruz, Damian Alcazar, Mandy Patinkin, Kathryn Grody, Iguandili Lopez, Nandi Luna Ramirez, Rafael de Quevedo, Roberto Sosa
'An absorbing, thoughtful and thoroughly rewarding watch.' – Ian Freer, Empire

'Dreamers Who Dare To Make Their Dreams Come True...'

Men with Wings
US 1938 106m Technicolor
Paramount (William Wellman)
Civil aviation pioneers fall out over a girl.
Disappointing epic from the maker of Wings, with highly predictable story line, modest acting and ho-hum spectacle.
w Robert Carson d William Wellman ph W. Howard Greene m W. Franke Harling, Gerard Carbonara
☆ Fred MacMurray, Ray Milland, Louise Campbell, Andy Devine, Lynne Overman, Porter Hall, Walter Abel, Virginia Weidler, Donald O'Connor
'To all women who love and admire the fearless heroes of the air, and who, with brave hearts, encourage them, hope, and pray for them.' – director's dedication
'Lavish air spectacle in Technicolor that means big business ... it will triumph through rain, sleet or snow.' – Variety

'Give the rats a taste of their own medicine!'

Men without Names
US 1935 67m bw
Paramount
Bank robbers are cornered in a small town and picked off by the FBI.
Routine crime feature, less exciting than it sounds.
w Marguerite Roberts, Kubec Glasmon, Dale Van Every d Ralph Murphy
☆ Fred MacMurray, Madge Evans, Lynne Overman, David Holt, John Wray, Dean Jagger
'Another of the new gangster films, and too flimsy. Grooved for the pops.' – Variety

Men without Women
US 1930 77m bw
Fox
Men in a submarine are trapped on the ocean bed.
Early talkie action drama noted more for its credits than its accomplishment.
w Dudley Nichols d John Ford ph Joseph H. August ☆ Kenneth MacKenna, Frank Albertson, Paul Page, Pat Somerset, Stuart Erwin, Warren Hymer, John Wayne
'Stunning, realistic picture that will make talk.' – Variety

Men, Women: A User's Manual ★★ (5)
France 1996 122m colour 'Scope
Gala/UFD/Films 13/TF1/Canal+ (Claude Lelouch) original title: Hommes, Femmes: Mode d'emploi
An actor-turned-cop and an adulterous and successful businessman are among those who experience the trials of love, chance and betrayal.
Subtitled 'an inhuman comedy', this is an engrossing account about the loss of love and the search for it; despite the title, its perspective is a masculine one.
w Claude Lelouch, Rene Bonnell, Jean-Philippe Chatrier d Claude Lelouch ph Claude Lelouch, Philippe Pavans de Ceccatty m Francis Lai pd Jacques Bufnoir
☆ Fabrice Luchini, Bernard Tapie, Alessandra Martines, Pierre Arditi, Carlone Cellier, Ticky Holgado, Ophélie Winter, Anouk Aimée, Patrick Husson, Salome
'The intricate and suspense-laced narrative is a satisfying puzzle full of funny touches, just-missed opportunities and a few short cuts in social Darwinism.' – Lisa Nesselson, Variety † Bernard Tapie, a controversial French businessman, had not acted before being cast in one of the leading roles, as a controversial businessman.

The Menace
US 1932 64m bw
Columbia
A convict escapes, gets a new face through plastic surgery, and plans his revenge.
Muddled melodrama.
w Dorothy Howell, Charles Logue, Roy Chanslor novel Feathered Serpent by Edgar Wallace d Roy William Neill ☆ Walter Byron, H. B. Warner, Bette Davis, Natalie Moorhead, William Davidson, Halliwell Hobbes
'A halting and frequently clumsy development leads to a weak climax.' – Variety

Menace
US 1934 58m bw
Paramount
Murders follow the suicide of a mining engineer.
Compact little dark house thriller with good stagey performances.
w Chandler Sprague, Anthony Veiller story Philip MacDonald d Ralph Murphy ☆ Gertrude Michael, Paul Cavanagh, Henrietta Crosman, John Lodge, Ray Milland, Berton Churchill, Halliwell Hobbes
'A pat specimen of the mystery film, expertly manipulated.' – Variety

'This is the truth. This is what's real.'

Menace II Society ★
US 1993 97m Foto-Kem
First Independent/New Line (Darin Scott)
In the Watts district of Los Angeles, young blacks become involved in robbery and murder.
A harsh and violent movie that sticks close to the expectations of gangster films while claiming to be dealing with reality; its young directors show promise.
w Tyger Williams, Allen Hughes, Albert Hughes d Allen Hughes, Albert Hughes ph Lisa Rinzler m QD III pd Penny Barrett ed Christopher Koefoed
☆ Tyrin Turner, Jada Pinkett, Larenz Tate, Arnold Johnson, MC Eiht, Marilyn Coleman, Vonte Sweet, Clifton Powell, Samuel L. Jackson
'The clichés of racial stereotyping lie piled as high as the bodies ... It's a dreadfully inflammatory film to bring to our society. Hollywood is exporting too many of America's menaces.' – Alexander Walker, London Evening Standard
'A grim, nihilistic trip to the inner city Fierce, violent and searing in its observation, the film makes all previous excursions seem like a walk in the park.' – Variety

Menilmontant ★
France 1924 50m (24 fps) bw silent
Dimitri Kirsanov (for his own company)
Respected but fairly impenetrable piece of avant-garde which appears to be about two sisters haunted by memories of the murder of their parents, for which they may or may not have been responsible.
wd Dimitri Kirsanov ed Dimitri Kirsanov
'A flurry of hand-held camera shots, incisive montages and elliptical progressions.' – Geoff Brown, MFB, 1981

The Men's Club
US 1986 100m colour
Atlantic Releasing/Howard Gottfried
Friends nearing forty get together and bemoan their lot.
Curious, talky, rather dreary piece which gets almost nowhere.
w Leonard Michaels novel Leonard Michaels d Peter Medak ph John Fleckenstein m Lee Holdridge pd Ken Davis ed Cynthia Scheider, David Dresser, Bill Butler
☆ Roy Scheider, Frank Langella, Harvey Keitel, Treat Williams, Richard Jordan, David Dukes, Craig Wasson, Stockard Channing, Jennifer Jason Leigh
'A club few will want to join ... a distasteful piece of work that displays the worst in men.' – Variety

Menschen am Sonntag: see People on Sunday

Mensonge ★
France 1993 89m colour
Gala/Cuel Lavalette/France-3/Alain Sarde
aka: The Lie
A faithful wife discovers that she is both pregnant and HIV positive.
Interesting, though too easily resolved, exploration of relationships and the effect of AIDS on those innocently involved.
w Denis Saada, François Margolin d François Margolin ph Caroline Champetier pd Julie Sfez, Arnaud de Moleron ed Martine Giordano
☆ Nathalie Baye, Didier Sandre, Hélène Lapiower, Marc Citti, Dominique Besnehard, Christophe Bourseiller, Louis Ducreux, Adrien Beau
'Rather than flagging the disease as a metaphor of sanctification-through-degradation, it rolls it into a disease-of-the-week movie and uses it as a trigger for tears, lots of talk, pat ironies and soapy symbolism. And on that level, it's actually quite accomplished.' – Steve Beard, Empire

Mephisto ★★★★
Hungary 1981 144m Eastmancolor
Mafilm/Manfred Durniok
In Germany in the twenties, an actor committed to the idea of a workers' theatre becomes a puppet of the Nazis.
Chilling and fiercely compelling melodrama of moral corruption, with a bravura performance from Brandauer as a man who willingly sells his soul.
w Peter Dobai, István Szabó novel Klaus Mann d István Szabó ph Lajos Koltai m Zdenko Tamassy ad Jozsef Romvari ed Zsuzsa Csakany
☆ Klaus Maria Brandauer (Hendrik Hofgen), Ildikó Bánsági (Nicoletta Von Niebuhr), Krystyna Janda (Barbara Bruckner)
'Shows extraordinary period flair for the Germany of the 1920s and '30s, balanced acting by a multinational cast, and exemplary direction.' – Variety † A Region 1 DVD release includes conversations with Istvan Szabo and Klaus Maria Brandeur.
best foreign film

The Mephisto Waltz ★
US 1971 109m DeLuxe
TCF/QM Productions
A satanic concert pianist on the point of death wills his soul into the body of a journalist.
Complex diabolical mumbo-jumbo with plenty of style.
w Ben Maddow novel Fred Mustard Stewart d Paul Wendkos ph William W. Spencer m Jerry Goldsmith ☆ Alan Alda, Jacqueline Bisset, Curt Jurgens, Barbara Parkins

Le Mepris: see Contempt

La Mer Cruelle
Kuwait 1983 107m bw
Sakr Films (Abbas Redha, Hassan Redha) original title: Bas Ya Bahar
aka Sea of Silence
In Kuwait before the discovery of oil, a youth becomes a pearl diver against his father's wishes.
Competent, but slow-moving and of interest mainly for its documentary content.
w Rahman Saleh d Khalid Al Siddiq ph Tanfig Al Amir m Abu Tariq ed Hassanof
☆ Saad Al Faraj, Mohammed Al Mansour, Hayat Al Fahd

The Mercenaries
GB 1968 100m Metrocolor Panavision
MGM/George Englund
US title: Dark of the Sun
In the Belgian Congo in 1960 a mercenary officer is ordered to bring back a fortune in diamonds by armoured train.
Basically an old-fashioned thriller about the hazards of a journey beset by brutish villains and damsels in distress, this unpleasant film is notable for the amount of sadistic action it crams into its running time.
w Quentin Werty, Adrian Spies novel Dark of the Sun by Wilbur Smith d Jack Cardiff ph Edward Scaife m Jacques Loussier ed Ernest Walter ☆ Rod Taylor, Yvette Mimieux, Kenneth More, Jim Brown, Peter Carsten, André Morell, Guy Deghy, Calvin Lockhart, Alan Gifford
'The violence done to the human body is matched by violence done to the intelligence by a stock adventure story given a gloss of topicality and social insult.' – Judith Crist

The Mercenary
Italy/Spain 1968 105m Technicolor Techniscope
United Artists/PEA/Delphos/Profilms 21 (Alberto Grimaldi)
aka: A Professional Gun
In revolutionary Mexico, a European gunfighter hires himself out to a group of rebellious peasants and turns them into a rampaging army.
Violent, action-packed spaghetti Western in which all the protagonists are motivated by greed and a pleasure in killing.
w Luciano Vincenzoni, Sergio Spina, Adriano Bolzoni, Sergio Corbucci story Franco Solinas, Giorgio Arlorio d Sergio Corbucci ph Alejandro Ulloa m Ennio Morricone, Bruno Nicolai

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

ad Luis Vazquez ed Eugenio Alabiso
☆ Franco Nero, Tony Musante, Jack Palance, Giovanna Ralli, Franco Giacobini, Eduardo Fajardo, Franco Bessel, Alvaro de Luna
† A sequel, Companeros (qv), followed in 1970.

Merci Docteur Rey

US/France 2002 91m colour
Merchant Ivory/Eat Your Soup (Rahila Bootwala, Nathalie Gastaldo)

Farcical goings on in Paris involve an opera singer, her gay son and murder witness, her gayer former husband, an actress who impersonates a psychiatrist and thinks she's Vanessa Redgrave, and Vanessa Redgrave.
Thanks, but no thanks.
wd Andrew Litvack ph Laurent Machuel pd Jacques Bufnoir ad Geoffrey Alexander ed Giles Gardner
☆ Dianne Wiest (Elisabeth Beaumont), Jane Birkin (Penelope), Stanislas Merhar (Thomas Beaumont), Bulle Ogier (Claude Sabrie), Karim Saleh (Murderer), Didier Flamand (Detective), Simon Callow (Bob), Jerry Hall (Sybil), Vanessa Redgrave (Herself)
'The underdirected actors are ill at ease with a witless script.' – Philip French, Observer

Merci La Vie ★★

France 1991 119m Eastmancolor/bw
Cine Valse/Film par Film/Orly/DD/SEDIF/A2 (Barnard Marescot)

A bored teenager befriends a girl with a venereal disease, who has been persuaded by a doctor to infect as many men as she can in order to provide him with patients.
Inventive, playful film which mixes the present day and the Nazi occupation of France, switching between reality, day-dreams and movies in which the girls appear – though the final effect may be more exhausting than invigorating.
wd Bertrand Blier ph Philippe Rousselot pd Theobald Meurisse ed Claudine Merlin ☆ Charlotte Gainsbourg, Anouk Grinberg, Gérard Depardieu, Michael Blanc, Jean Carmet, Catherine Jacob, Annie Girardot, Jean-Louis Trintignant, Thierry Frémont
'A bold, often exciting, sometimes frustrating but always challenging pic.' – Variety
'The art-house equivalent of a Hollywood rollercoaster where sensation is all and decorous values – logic, good taste, some ultimate meaning – get trampled in the rush to amaze.' – Geoff Brown, The Times

Merci Pour Le Chocolat ★

France/Switzerland 2000 101m colour
Artificial Eye/MK2/CAB (Marin Karmitz)
US title: Nightcap

A piano student becomes involved with the family of a concert pianist who may have been her father.
Icy, ambiguous thriller that exposes the passionate secrets that underlie an apparently conventional bourgeois family.
w Caroline Eliacheff, Claude Chabrol novel The Chocolate Cobweb by Charlotte Armstrong d Claude Chabrol ph Renato Berta m Matthieu Chabrol ad Yvan Niclass ed Monique Fardoulis cos Elisabeth Tavernier
☆ Isabelle Huppert (Marie-Claire 'Mika' Muller), Jacques Dutronc (André Polonski), Anna Mouglalis (Jeanne Pollet), Rodolphe Pauly (Guillaume Polonski), Michel Robin (Dufreigne), Brigitte Catillon (Louise Pollet), Mathieu Simonet (Axel)
'A treat, a delicious blend of perversity, playfulness and deadly passion concealed beneath the tranquil, moneyed surface.' – Derek Elley, Variety

Mercury Rising

US 1998 112m DeLuxe Panavision
Universal/Imagine (Brian Grazer, Karen Kehela)

A maverick agent protects an autistic child whose gift for mathematics makes him a security risk.
A by-the-numbers action flick, through which Willis glowers ferociously.
w Lawrence Konner, Mark Rosenthal novel Simple Simon by Ryne Douglas Peardon d Harold Becker ph Michael Seresin m John Barry pd Patrizia von Brandenstein ed Peter Honess sp Industrial Light & Magic ☆ Bruce Willis, Alec Baldwin, Miko Hughes, Chi McBride, Kim Dickens, Robert Stanton, Bodhi Pine Elfman, Carrie Preston, L. L. Ginter, John Carroll Lynch, Peter Stormare
'A real pot-boiler.' – Guardian

Merely Mary Ann

US 1931 74m bw
Fox

The maid of all work falls for the gentleman lodger.
Cinderella stuff redesigned for two popular stars, but of no lasting appeal.
w Jules Furthman story Israel Zangwill d Henry King ☆ Janet Gaynor, Charles Farrell, Beryl Mercer, J. M. Kerrigan, G. P. Huntley Jnr
'Bound to pull after a summer of gang violence, mystery shockers, and much sex urge study.' – Variety

'A Tale Of Wizards, Warriors, Myth And Magic.'

Merlin: The Return

GB 2000 88m colour
Peakviewing (Elizabeth Matthews, Paul Matthews)

A mad scientist reawakens King Arthur and his knights, who once again do battle with Mordred with the aid of a American boy.
Dire fantasy with a grating mix of modernity and medievalism; most of the cast wander around as if in a daze.
wd Paul Matthews ph Vincent G. Cox m Mark Thomas pd Edward Thomas ed Peter Davies
☆ Rik Mayall (Merlin), Tia Carrere (Joan Maxwell), Patrick Bergin (King Arthur), Adrian Paul (Lancelot), Craig Sheffer (Mordred), Julie Hartley (Guinevere), Leigh Greyvenstein (Kate), Byron Taylor (Richie), Grethe Fox (Morgana)
'Any parent caught taking their unfortunate child to see this film should be reported to the social services immediately.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

Mermaids

US 1990 110m colour
Rank/Orion (Lauren Lloyd, Wallis Nichita, Patrick Palmer)

A daughter, torn between becoming a nun and her feelings for a handsome boy, resolves her difficulties with her flirtatious mother.
A romantic comedy uncertain whether it is trying for laughs or tears; it attempts, unsuccessfully, to settle for both.
w June Roberts novel Patty Dann d Richard Benjamin ph Howard Atherton m Jack Nitzsche pd Stuart Wurtzel ed Jacqueline Cambas
☆ Cher, Bob Hoskins, Winona Ryder, Michael Schoeffling, Christina Ricci, Caroline McWilliams, Jan Miner, Betsey Townsend
'It wavers between arch comedy and hollow melodrama, each desperately over-pitched.' – Sight and Sound † Lasse Halstrom was replaced by Frank Oz as director before filming began. Two weeks after filming started, Richard Benjamin replaced Frank Oz. Winona Ryder's role as Cher's daughter was to have been played by Emily Lloyd until Cher objected that Lloyd did not look like her.

Merrill's Marauders ★

US 1962 98m Technicolor Cinemascope
Warner/US Pictures (Milton Sperling)

Adventures of a crack US army unit in 1942 Burma.
Physically exhausting war adventure with emphasis on hand-to-hand fighting and much bloodshed.
w Samuel Fuller, Milton Sperling novel Charlton Ogburn Jnr d Samuel Fuller ph William Clothier m Howard Jackson ed Folmar Blangsted
☆ Jeff Chandler, Ty Hardin, Andrew Duggan, Peter Brown, Will Hutchins, Claude Akins

Merrily We Go to Hell

US 1932 78m bw
Paramount
GB title: Merrily We Go to –

A socialite marries a dipsomaniac journalist.
Glum problem drama.
w Edwin Justus Mayer novel I Jerry Take Thee Joan by Cleo Lucas d Dorothy Arzner ph David Abel
☆ Sylvia Sidney, Fredric March, Adrianne Allen, Richard Gallagher, Florence Burton, Esther Howard, Kent Taylor

Merrily We Live ★

US 1938 90m bw
Hal Roach

A zany family hires a chauffeur who is actually a famous writer posing as a tramp.
Quite likeable compound of My Man Godfrey and You Can't Take It with You.
w Eddie Moran, Jack Jevne d Norman Z. McLeod ph Norbert Brodine md Marvin Hatley ad Charles D. Hall
☆ Constance Bennett, Brian Aherne, Billie Burke, Alan Mowbray, Patsy Kelly, Ann Dvorak, Tom Brown, Bonita Granville, Marjorie Rambeau, Clarence Kolb
'In the high cost bracket and rates top billing when dualled, with a chance it is strong enough to carry first runs as a single.' – Variety
Norbert Brodine; Billie Burke; title song (m Phil Craig, ly Arthur Quenzer); Charles D. Hall

Merry Andrew

US 1958 103m Metrocolor Cinemascope
MGM/Sol C. Siegel

A stuffy teacher in search of an ancient statue joins a travelling circus.
Deliberately charming star comedy which plumps too firmly for whimsy and, despite its professionalism, provokes barely a smile, let alone a laugh.
w Isobel Lennart, I. A. L. Diamond story Paul Gallico ph Robert Surtees m Saul Chaplin d/ch Michael Kidd ly Johnny Mercer
☆ Danny Kaye, Pier Angeli, Baccaloni, Noel Purcell, Robert Coote, Patricia Cutts, Rex Evans, Walter Kingsford, Tommy Rall, Rhys Williams

Merry Christmas ★★ 6

France/Germany/GB/ Belgium/Romania 2005 116m colour
Columbia TriStar/Nord-Ouest/Senator/Artemis/ The Bureau/Media Pro (Christophe Rossignon)

original title: Joyeux Noël

On Christmas Eve 1914, during World War I, opposing armies call a brief truce and French and Scottish troops fraternize with their German enemies.
Based on a true story, a drama that does not escape contrivance, but still warms the heart while it lasts.
wd Christian Carion ph Walther Vanden Ende m Philippe Rombi pd Jean-Michel Simonet ed Andrea Sedlackova
☆ Diane Kruger (Anna Sorensen), Benno Furmann (Nikolaus Sprin), Guillaume Canet (Lt Audebert), Gary Lewis (Palmer), Daniel Brühl (Lt Horstmayer), Ian Richardson (Bishop), Steven Robertson (Jonathan), Robin Laing (William)
'The kind of feel-good, feel-sad movie with a message that invites you to bask in the glow of communal bonhomie.' – Stephen Holden, New York Times † Anna Sorensen's singing voice is dubbed by Nathalie Dessay; Nikolaus Sprink's singing voice is dubbed by Rolando Villazon.
foreign film

Merry Christmas, Mr Lawrence ★

GB 1982 124m Eastmancolor
Recorded Picture/Cineventure/Oshima (Jeremy Thomas)

In a Japanese prisoner-of-war camp in Java in 1942, an English captive strikes up a strange relationship with the commandant.
Uncomfortably titled and unavoidably downbeat character drama with some unpleasant moments; despite good work all round it seems to head straight for every cliché perpetuated by The Bridge on the River Kwai.
w Nagisa Oshima, Paul Mayersberg novel The Seed and the Sower by Laurens van der Post d Nagisa Oshima ph Toichiro Narushima m Ryuichi Sakamoto ☆ David Bowie, Tom Conti, Ryuichi Sakamoto, Takeshi, Jack Thompson, Johnny Okura, Alistair Browning
'It always seems like a cocktail of saleable ingredients rather than genuine cinema.' – Sunday Times
Ryuichi Sakamoto

Merry Comes to Town

GB 1937 79m bw
Embassy/Sound City
US title: Merry Comes to Stay

A professor's family is disappointed when a relative visiting from America turns out to be as poor as they are.
Thin, predictable comedy with the visitor finally hailed as a saviour.
w Evadne Price d George King ☆ ZaSu Pitts, Guy Newall, Betty Ann Davies, Muriel George, Basil Langton
'A pleasant comedy which will improve with cutting.' – Variety

The Merry Frinks

US 1934 68m bw
First National GB title: Happy Family

A sportswriter down on his luck has a crazy family.

And didn't everybody in the mid-thirties? But this one is crazy without being very funny.

w Gene Markey, Kathryn Scola d Alfred E. Green

☆ Aline MacMahon, Guy Kibbee, Allen Jenkins, Hugh Herbert, Frankie Darro

'The most disagreeable family group since Three Cornered Moon. Poor comedy and lacks names.' – Variety.

'A King's Ransom To Make America Laugh!'

Merry Go Round of 1938

US 1937 87m bw
Universal (Charles R. Rogers)

Four vaudevillians adopt a small girl, and later head for Hollywood.

Sentimental farce with zany moments and an encouraging cast.

w Monte Brice, A. Dorian Otvos d Irving Cummings ph Joseph Valentine
m/ly Jimmy McHugh, Harold Adamson
ed Ted J. Kent, Charles Maynard

☆ Jimmy Savo, Bert Lahr, Mischa Auer, Billy House, Alice Brady, Louise Fazenda

'First rate filmusical packed with laughs.' – Variety

♫ 'I'm In My Glory'; 'More Power To You'; 'You're My Dish'

The Merry Monahans

US 1944 90m bw
Universal (Michael Fessier, Ernest Pagano)

Adventures of a family of vaudeville performers.

Acceptable backstage comedy drama with good atmosphere.

w Michael Fessier, Ernest Pagano
d Charles Lamont ph Charles Van Enger
m Hans Salter

☆ Donald O'Connor, Jack Oakie, Rosemary de Camp, Peggy Ryan, Ann Blyth, Isabel Jewell, John Miljan

Hans Salter

A Merry War: see Keep the Aspidistra Flying

The Merry Widow ★

US 1925 111m (24 fps) bw silent
MGM (Irving Thalberg)

A bankrupt king orders a nobleman to woo a wealthy American widow.

An operetta without music (or dialogue) is usually a poor thing, but the director added a few unpredictable touches.

w Erich von Stroheim, Benjamin Glazer operetta Victor Leon, Leo Stein d Erich von Stroheim ph Oliver Marsh, Ben Reynolds, William Daniels m William Axt, D. Mendoza

☆ Mae Murray, John Gilbert, Roy D'Arcy, Tully Marshall

† The story goes that when reproved by Thalberg for wasting film stock on, for instance, endless shots of a wardrobe full of shoes, von Stroheim remarked: 'The character has a foot fetish.' 'And you,' said Thalberg, 'have a footage fetish!'

'Surrender to the happy seduction of Ernst Lubitsch's most glorious picture holiday!'

The Merry Widow ★★

US 1934 99m bw
MGM

Patchy, but sometimes sparkling version.

w Samson Raphaelson, Ernest Vajda
d Ernst Lubitsch ph Oliver T. Marsh
m Franz Lehar ad Cedric Gibbons, Frederic Hope

☆ Maurice Chevalier, Jeanette MacDonald, Edward Everett Horton, Una Merkel, George Barbier, Donald Meek, Sterling Holloway, Shirley Ross

'Fine all-around job and an entertainment natural.' – Variety

'It is Lubitsch; it is also Hollywood; it is the cream of the American bourgeois film. It is a charlotte russe.' – Peter Ellis, New Masses

art direction

The Merry Widow

US 1952 105m Technicolor
MGM (Joe Pasternak)

Chill, empty remake.

w Sonya Levien, William Ludwig d Curtis Bernhardt ph Robert Surtees

☆ Fernando Lamas, Lana Turner, Richard Haydn, Una Merkel, Thomas Gomez, John Abbott

'Nothing has been omitted (except the spirit of the original).' – MFB

† Lana Turner's singing was dubbed by Trudy Erwin.

The Merry Wives of Reno ★

US 1934 61m bw
Warner

Three couples go to a Reno hotel to get a divorce.

Amusing but scrappy comedy in the vein of the successful Convention City.

w Robert Lord d H. Bruce Humberstone

☆ Margaret Lindsay, Donald Woods, Guy Kibbee, Glenda Farrell, Ruth Donnelly, Hugh Herbert, Frank McHugh, Roscoe Ates, Hobart Cavanaugh

'Stylized farce with excellent cast and considerable humour.' – Variety

Merton of the Movies ★

US 1947 82m bw
MGM

An innocent young man in Hollywood becomes a star.

The plot and characterizations of this old chestnut are resistible, but the Hollywood background is well managed and convincing.

w George Wells, Lou Breslow novel Harry Leon Wilson d Robert Alton ph Paul C. Vogel m David Snell

☆ Red Skelton, Virginia O'Brien, Alan Mowbray, Gloria Grahame, Leon Ames

† There were previous versions in 1924 and (as Make Me a Star) in 1932.

Mery per sempre

Italy 1988 106m Telecolor
BFI/Numero Uno (Claudio Bonivento) aka: Forever Mary
aka: Mary Forever

In Sicily, a new liberal teacher at a reform school tries to win over the tough and suspicious pupils.

Downbeat documentary-style movie that substitutes earnestness for art.

w Sandro Petraglia, Stefano Rulli novel Aurelio Grimaldi d Marco Risi ph Mauro Marchetti m Giancarlo Bigazzi
ad Massimo Spano ed Claudio Di Mauro

☆ Michele Placido, Claudio Amendola, Francesco Benigno, Alessandro Di Sanzo

Mes Petites Amoureuses

France 1975 123m Eastmancolor
Gala/Elite (Pierre Cottrell)

A sex-obsessed schoolboy finds life full of frustrations when he goes to live with his mother and her Spanish lover.

A long-winded exploration of adolescence, which offers no fresh insights.

wd Jean Eustache ph Nestor Almendros
ed Françoise Belleville, Alberto Yacelini, Vincent Cottrell

☆ Martin Loeb, Ingrid Caven, Jacqueline Dufranne, Dionys Mascolo, Henri Martinez, Pierre Edelman, Maurice Pialat

'Super Women Who Kissed and Killed!'

Mesa of Lost Women

US 1952 70m bw
Wade Williams Productions/Howco (G. William Perkins, Melvin Gordon)

A scientist experiments in the Mexican desert to combine the qualities of beautiful women and spiders.

Bizarre B-movie, ineptly directed, with portentous voice-over, a score played by piano and guitar, and two mad scientists, one of them one-eyed, as well as scantily clad female assistants and dwarfs, operating from a laboratory carved into a mountainside. It also has what may be the least erotic would-be seductive dance on film.

w Herbert Tevos d Herbert Tevos, Ron Ormond ph Karl Struss, Gil Warrenton
m Hoyt S. Curtin ed W. Donn Hayes, Hugh Winn, Ray H. Lockert

☆ Jackie Coogan (Dr Aranya), Allan Nixon (Dr Tucker), Richard Travis (Dan Mulcahey), Mary Hill (Doreen Culbertson), Robert Knapp (Grant Phillips), Tandra Quinn (Tarantella)

'A really barmy B-movie that has to be seen to be disbelieved.' – The Dark Side

The Message: see Mohammed, Messenger of God

Message in a Bottle

US 1999 132m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Bel-Air/Tig (Denise Di Novi, Jim Wilson, Kevin Costner)

A female reporter finds a love letter in a bottle on a beach and traces the man who sent it.

Soporific and soft-centred romantic drama that is yet another nail in the coffin of Costner's career.

w Gerald DiPego novel Nicholas Sparks
d Luis Mandoki ph Caleb Deschanel
m Gabriel Yared pd Jeffrey Beecroft
ed Steven Weisberg

☆ Kevin Costner, Robin Wright Penn, John Savage, Illeana Douglas, Robbie Coltrane, Paul Newman, Jesse James, Bethel Leslie, Tom Aldredge, Viveka Davis

'A prettily torpid film with the warm glow of a hazelnut coffee commercial.' – Janet Maslin, New York Times

'Dreary, lachrymose and incredibly poky tear-jerker.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

A Message to Garcia ★

US 1936 86m bw
TCF (Raymond Griffith)

During the Spanish-American war a Cuban girl helps an American agent get through to the rebel leader with a diplomatic message.

Agreeable embroidery of a historical incident: good production values and entertaining star performances.

w W. P. Lipscomb, Gene Fowler book Andrew S. Rowan d George Marshall ph Rudolph Maté md Louis Silvers ad William Darling

☆ Wallace Beery, Barbara Stanwyck, John Boles, Alan Hale, Herbert Mundin, Mona Barrie

'There is evidence to suggest that children are highly susceptible to paranormal phenomena. They see what adults cannot. They believe what adults deny. And they are trying to warn us.'

The Messengers

USA 2007 89m
Momentum/Scarecrow Productions, Bluestar Entertainment, Ghost House Pictures (Sam Raimi, Robert Tapert, Jason Shuman, William Sherak)

On a remote sunflower farm in North Dakota, a family witness terrifying supernatural visitations linked to a past dark secret.

A poor CGI spook show lacking suspense and shock, substituted by a nonsensical patchwork of confused plotting, false scares, loud bangs and ludicrous twists.

w Mark Wheaton, Todd Farmer d Oxide & Danny Pang ph David Geddes m Joe LoDuca pd Alicia Keywan ad Ken Watkins ed John Axelrad, Armen Minasian, Tim Mirkovich sp Tatopoulos Studios

☆ Kristen Stewart (Jess), Dylan McDermott (Roy), Penelope Ann Miller (Denise), John Corbett (Burwell), Evan Turner (Ben)

'Playful artistry seldom jibes with the forced family values plotline.' – Ronnie Scheib, Variety

The Messenger: The Story Of Joan Of Arc ★

France 1999 158m colour
Technovision
Columbia/Gaumont (Patrice Ledoux)

GB title: Joan of Arc

In the 15th century, a young girl, traumatised by the rape and murder of her sister by English soldiers, hears voices telling her to rid France of invaders and put the Dauphin on the throne.

Besson's action-film approach really needed Arnold Schwarzenegger in the title role to make it credible; here he concentrates on the spectacle and lets his cast do what they will, which is overact.

w Andrew Birkin, Luc Besson d Luc Besson ph Thierry Arbogast m Eric Serra
pd Hugues Tissandier ed Sylvie Landra

☆ Milla Jovovich (Joan of Arc), John Malkovich (Charles VII), Dustin Hoffman (The Conscience), Faye Dunaway (Yolande D'Aragon), Pascal Greggory (Duke of Alencon), Vincent Cassel (Gilles de Rais), Tcheky Karyo (Dunois), Richard Ridings (La Hire), Desmond Harrington (Aulon)

'Both visually spectacular and staggeringly awful: a sense-pummeling, mind-numbing feast of bad ideas and laughable performances.' – Michael Wilmington, Chicago Tribune

'The lack of a plausible leading lady is enough to sink what is otherwise an eye-catching, although heavily '90s-style, telling of one of history's most frequently filmed stories.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

'It's five miles wide ... It's coming at 30,000 mph and there's no place on Earth to hide!'

Meteor

US 1979 107m Movielab Panavision
Palladium (Sandy Howard, Gabriel Katzka)

A huge meteor, preceded by dangerous fragments, heads relentlessly towards Earth...

Talkative disaster movie with occasional moments of interest.

w Stanley Mann, Edmund H. North
d Ronald Neame ph Paul Lohmann

m Laurence Rosenthal visual effects Margo Anderson, William Cruse ☆ Sean Connery, Natalie Wood, Karl Malden, Brian Keith, Martin Landau, Trevor Howard, Henry Fonda, Joseph Campanella
'There are moments that make Godzilla look like a masterpiece.' – Boxoffice

The Meteor Man

US 1993 99m DeLuxe
MGM/Tinsel Townsend (Loretha C. Jones)

A schoolteacher hit by a meteor acquires super-human powers and begins to clean up his gang-ridden neighbourhood.
Mild morality tale for our times, pleasant enough, but it lacks impact.
wd Robert Townsend ph John A. Alonzo m Cliff Eidelman pd Toby Corbett ed Adam Bernardi sp Industrial Light and Magic ☆ Robert Townsend, Marla Gibbs, Eddie Griffin, Robert Guillaume, James Earl Jones, Bill Cosby, Frank Gorshin
'A cute skit expanded out of all proportion for the big screen.' – Variety
'Townsend's good nature will win most audiences over.' – Adam Mars-Jones

'Life Is A Negotiation.'

Metro (2)

US 1997 117m Technicolor Panavision
Buena Vista/Touchstone/Caravan (Roger Birnbaum)

In San Francisco, a police hostage negotiator becomes involved in a battle of wits with a murderous jewel thief.
Murphy returns to familiar ground, as a smart, wise-cracking cop, but the style has worn thin through overuse; cast and director go through their predictable motions in an efficient but uninspired manner.
w Randy Feldman d Thomas Carter ph Fred Murphy m Steve Porcaro pd William Elliott ed Peter E. Berger
☆ Eddie Murphy (Scott Roper), Michael Rapaport (Kevin McCall), Michael Wincott (Michael Korda), Carmen Ejogo (Ronnie Tate), Denis Arndt (Capt. Frank Solis), Art Evans (Lt Sam Baffert), Donal Logue (Earl), Paul Ben-Victor (Clarence Teal), Kim Miyori (Detective Kimura)
'This formulaic ordeal – a notably sadistic exercise involving lots of beating, shooting, and stabbing.' – Lisa Schwarzbaum, Entertainment Weekly

Metroland

GB/Germany 1997 105m colour
Pandora/Blue Horizon/Mact/Filmania/BBC/Sogepaq (Andrew Bendel)

When an old friend from his bachelor days in Paris comes calling, a young advertising executive begins to have doubts about his settled life with a wife and young daughter.
Slight drama about the pull between a bourgeois and a bohemian existence; but there's something wrong when the only felt emotion comes in a vignette from John Wood as a teetotal commuter retiring after 42 years in the same firm with a farewell gift of a whisky decanter.
w Adrian Hodges novel Julian Barnes d Philip Saville ph Jean-François Robin m Mark Knopfler pd Don Taylor ed Greg Miller ☆ Christian Bale, Lee Ross, Emily Watson, Elsa Zylberstein, Rufus, Jonathan Aris, Ifan Meredith, Amanda Ryan, John Wood
'The film alternately whines and whimpers its way to a soporific end.' – Demetrios Matheou, Sight and Sound

Metropolis ★★★

Germany 1926 120m approx (24 fps) bw silent
UFA (Erich Pommer)

In the year 2000, the workers in a modernistic city live underground and unrest is quelled by the persuasion of a saintly girl, Maria; but a mad inventor creates an evil Maria to incite them to revolt.
Always somewhat overlong, and certainly heavy-going in places, this futuristic fantasy not only has many brilliant sequences which created genuine excitement and terror, but it inspired a great many Hollywood clichés to come, notably the Frankenstein theme. The BBC's version of the seventies, with an electronic music sound track, is the most satisfactory.
w Thea von Harbou d Fritz Lang ph Karl Freund, Günther Rittau ad Otto Hunte, Erich Kettelhut, Karl Volbrecht sp Eugene Schufftan ☆ Brigitte Helm (Maria/The Robot), Alfred Abel (Joh Frederson), Gustav Fröhlich (Freder Frederson), Rudolf Klein-Rogge (Rotwang), Fritz Rasp (The Man of Black)
'It goes too far and always gets away with it.' – New Yorker, 1978
'A wonderful, stupefying folly.' – New Yorker, 1982
† In 1984 Giorgio Moroder put out his own new version, with tinted sequences and a re-edited running time of 83 minutes. It was received with a mixture of distaste, respect and caution. The latest version on video is 139m long.

Metropolis ★★

Japan 2001 108m colour
Columbia TriStar/Bandai Visual/Metropolis committee

In the future, a ruler's plans to create an all-powerful robot resembling his dead daughter are opposed by his adopted son.
Visually amazing animated feature, creating a monstrous world of inhumanely-scaled skyscrapers through which robots and people scurry; it is let down, though, by its often confusing narrative.
w Katsuhiro Otomo comic book Osamu Tezuka d Rintaro m Toshiyuki Honda ad Shuichi Hirata ☆ voices of: Yuka Imoto (Tima), Kei Kobayashi (Kenichi), Kohki Okada (Rock), Jamieson Price (Duke Red), Toshio Furukawa (General), Dave Mallow (Pero), Scott Weinger (Atlas)
'Inexplicable for much of its running time, Metropolis ends with a grand crescendo of escalating craziness.' – J. Hoberman, Village Voice
'Not a simple-minded animated cartoon, but a surprisingly thoughtful and challenging adventure that looks into the nature of life and love.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times

Metropolitan ★

US 1935 79m bw
TCF (Darryl F. Zanuck)

A capricious prima donna walks out of the Metropolitan Opera and forms her own company.
Earnest and well-made melodrama with song; it earned critical plaudits but was a disappointment at the box-office.
w Bess Meredyth, George Marion Jnr d Richard Boleslawski ph Rudolph Maté md Alfred Newman
☆ Lawrence Tibbett, Alice Brady, Virginia Bruce, Cesar Romero, Thurston Hall, Luis Alberni
'Tibbett and exploitation should carry so-so operatic story into fair money.' – Variety

Metropolitan ★★★

US 1989 98m DuArt
Mainline/Westerly Film-Video/Allagash Films (Whit Stillman)

A left-wing student becomes a member of a group of rich young people intent on having a good time.
A conversation piece with wit and style to recommend it.
wd Whit Stillman ph John Thomas m Mark Suozzo, Tom Judson ed Christopher Tellefsen
☆ Carolyn Farina (Audrey Rouget), Edward Clements (Tom Townsend), Christopher Eigeman (Nick Smith), Taylor Nichols (Charlie Black), Allison Rutledge-Parisi (Jane Clarke), Dylan Hundley (Sally Fowler), Isabel Gillies (Cynthia McClean), Bryan Leder (Fred Neff), Will Kempe (Rick Von Sloneker)
'A cast of attractive young newcomers plays out this ironic, arch, gently mocking and refreshingly original comedy with confident style.' – David Robinson, The Times
best original screenplay

Meurtres ★

France 1950 91m bw
Cité Film/Fides

A doctor's wife suffering from an incurable illness begs him to give her an overdose of morphia; he does so and proposes to give himself up for murder; his family, afraid of scandal, try to have him certified.
A distinct change of pace for a star comedian, and not an unsuccessful one, though the satire is rather crudely handled.
w Charles Plisnier, Maurice Barry d Richard Pottier ph André Germain m Raymond Legrand ☆ Fernandel, Raymond Souplex, Jacques Varennes, Jeanne Moreau

'Love with the safety off.'

The Mexican

US 2001 123m Technicolor Panavision
DreamWorks/Newmarket (Lawrence Bender, John Baldecchi)

An incompetent crook is sent to Mexico to bring back a priceless pistol for his boss, while his girlfriend is taken hostage by a hitman to ensure he carries out the mission.
Interminable and dreary thriller, a mishmash of violence, romance and comedy; there is no spark between the two leads, which may be why they're kept apart for much of the movie.
w J. H. Wyman d Gore Verbinski ph Dariusz Wolski m Alan Silvestri pd Cecilia Montiel ed Craig Wood cos Colleen Atwood
☆ Brad Pitt (Jerry Welbach), Julia Roberts (Samantha), James Gandolfini (Leroy), Bob Balaban (Bernie Nayman), J. K. Simmons (Ted), David Krumholtz (Beck), Richard Coca (Car Thief), Michael Cerveris (Frank), Sherman Augustus (Well Dressed Black Man), Castulo Guerra (Joe the Pawnshop Owner), Gene Hackman (uncredited) (Arnold Margolese)
'An intensely whimsical shaggy-dog crime story that ricochets between goofy violence and some endearing personal moments.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety
'For this inconsequential yarn to work, the script needed to be short and sharp, and no amount of energy from the cast can disguise the fact that it is neither.' – Tim Robey, Daily Telegraph

Mexican Hayride

US 1948 77m bw
Universal (Robert Arthur)

Various swindlers come together at a Mexican bullfight.
A Cole Porter Broadway musical without the music makes an odd sort of vehicle for Abbott and Costello, but they inject a few good vaudeville gags.
w Oscar Brodney, John Grant play Herbert and Dorothy Fields d Charles Barton ph Charles Van Enger
☆ Bud Abbott, Lou Costello, Virginia Grey, John Hubbard, Pedro de Cordoba, Fritz Feld, Luba Malina

Mexican Spitfire

A series of second feature comedies nominally about a young businessman and his temperamental Mexican wife (Donald Woods and Lupe Velez), whose interest shifted firmly to the young man's accident-prone uncle Matt and his aristocratic boss Lord Epping, both of whom were played by the rubber-legged Ziegfeld comic Leon Errol at something near the top of his form. The plots made little sense, but the hectic situations provoked hearty roars of laughter. The films were all made by RKO, and all directed by Leslie Goodwins.
1939 The Girl from Mexico, Mexican Spitfire
1940 Mexican Spitfire Out West
1941 Mexican Spitfire's Baby, Mexican Spitfire at Sea
1942 Mexican Spitfire Sees a Ghost, Mexican Spitfire's Elephant
1943 Mexican Spitfire's Blessed Event

Mexicana

US 1945 83m bw
Republic (Alfred Santell)

The Frank Sinatra of Mexico is beset by bobbysoxers.
Thin excuse for a moderate musical.
w Frank Gill Jnr d Alfred Santell
☆ Tito Guizar, Constance Moore, Leo Carrillo, Howard Freeman, Steve Geray, Estelita Rodriguez

MGM's Big Parade of Comedy: see The Big Parade of Comedy

Mi Familia: see My Family

Mi Vida Loca: see My Crazy Life

Mia Eoniotita Ke Mia Mera: see Eternity and a Day

Miami Blues ★★

US 1990 97m
Rank/Orion/Tristes Tropiques (Jonathan Demme, Gary Goetzman)

A dogged policeman follows the trail of a murderous criminal who pretends to be an undercover cop.
Slick thriller with an undercurrent of lugubrious black humour.
wd George Armitage novel Charles Willeford ph Tak Fujimoto m Gary Chang pd Maher Ahmad ed Craig McKay, Bill Johnson
☆ Fred Ward, Jennifer Jason Leigh, Alec Baldwin, Cecilia Perez-Cervera, Georgie Cranford, Edward Saxon, Jose Perez, Obba Babatunde

'Love is great. Marriage is a completely different affair.'

Miami Rhapsody ★★

US 1995 95m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Hollywood/Cantaloupe (Barry Jossen, David Frankel)

A woman contemplating marriage observes

the marital errors being committed by her siblings and friends.
Deft and observant comedy of relationships, smartly done and neatly worked out; the style is close to Woody Allen's, but lusher.
wd David Frankel ph Jack Wallner
m Mark Isham pd J. Mark Harrington
ed Steven Weisberg
☆ Sarah Jessica Parker, Gil Bellows, Antonio Banderas, Mia Farrow, Paul Mazursky, Kevin Pollak, Barbara Garrick, Naomi Campbell

'No more than superior American sitcom, and the film's wit goes no further than its immaculately tasteful interiors. But it was fun while it lasted, and, anyway, maybe it was never meant to be a long-term-commitment kind of thing.' – Tom Shone, Sunday Times

'An upscale Saturday date movie: not great but polished, amusing and above all competent – a quality which, these days, gives it a head start on most other comers.' – Sheila Johnston, Independent

The Miami Story

US 1954 75m bw
Columbia (Sam Katzman)
The syndicate is cracked by a reformed gangster.
Routine gangster alarms and excursions, like an extended Crime Does Not Pay.
w Robert E. Kent d Fred F. Sears
ph Henry Freulich m Mischa Bakaleinikoff ☆ Barry Sullivan, Luther Adler, John Baer, Adele Jergens, Beverly Garland

'No rules. No law. No order.'

Miami Vice ⑤

US/Germany 2006 132m
UIP/Universal/Forward Pass (Michael Mann, Pieter Jan Brugge)
Two Florida cops go undercover to bust a narcotics ring.
Bloated adaptation of the 1980s TV series that replaces the original's breezy cool with moody pretension; the stars are as dull as the cinematography, while the dialogue is largely inaudible.
wd Michael Mann TV series Anthony Yerkovich ph Dion Beebe m John Murphy pd Victor Kempster ad Seth Reed ed William Goldenberg, Paul Rubell
☆ Colin Farrell (Sonny Crockett), Jamie Foxx (Ricardo Tubbs), Gong Li (Isabella), Naomie Harris (Trudy Joplin), Ciaran Hinds (FBI Agent Fujima), Justin Theroux (Zito)

'Mann delivers what amounts to a slightly overblown episode, brimming with style and characteristically short on substance.' – Brian Lowry, Variety

'A grim genre exercise - fascinating, certainly, and impressive at times, but only intermittently enjoyable.' – David Denby, New Yorker

'He's an angel ... Not a saint.'

Michael ②

US 1996 105m Technicolor
Rank/Castle Rock/Turner/Alphaville (Sean Daniel, Nora Ephron, James Jacks)
Tabloid reporters discover an angel, who turns out to be a charming, beer-swilling, womanizing slob.
Hellish attempt at a romantic comedy, in which unpleasant characters behave badly and fall in love.
w Nora Ephron, Delia Ephron, Peter Dexter, Jim Quinlan d Nora Ephron
ph John Lindley m Randy Newman
pd Dan Davis ed Geraldine Peroni
☆ John Travolta, Andie MacDowell, William Hurt, Bob Hoskins, Robert Pastorelli, Jean Stapleton, Teri Garr

'At once underwritten and overwritten. Rowdy, slapdash and unevenly directed, the movie is basically a collection of episodes tied together with a flimsy string.' – Emanuel Levy, Variety

Michael and Mary

GB 1931 85m bw
Gaumont
A husband thought dead for many years returns to disturb his wife's second marriage.
Acceptable comedy from a popular stage play; it headed its stars towards Hollywood.
w Angus MacPhail, Robert Stevenson, Lajos Biro play A. A. Milne d Victor Saville ☆ Herbert Marshall, Edna Best, Elizabeth Allan, Frank Lawton, D. A. Clarke-Smith

'An Epic Tale Of Passion And Destiny.'

Michael Collins ★

US 1996 132m Technicolor
Warner/Geffen (Stephen Woolley)
Following the failure of the 1916 rising against the British, Michael Collins becomes a leading figure in the Irish Republican Army and, after negotiating the Anglo-Irish treaty, is repudiated by his former colleagues and assassinated.
Effective and dramatic political drama that simplifies the facts and has at its centre a glaring gap – Collins's negotiations with the British – into which the narrative unfortunately collapses.
wd Neil Jordan ph Chris Menges m Elliot Goldenthal pd Antony Pratt ed J. Patrick Duffner, Tony Lawson
☆ Liam Neeson, Aidan Quinn, Stephen Rea, Alan Rickman, Julia Roberts, Ian Hart, Richard Ingram, John Kenny

'Large-scale and comfortably epic in proportion, but, given that any film-maker has to make the best of his fictional way home without regarding facts as absolutely sacred, has a clear sense of history; or at least interprets it with intelligence.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

'A serious historical drama drained of serious history.' – Ken Tucker, Entertainment Weekly

† It won the Golden Lion for best film and Liam Neeson won the award for best actor at the 1996 Venice Film Festival.
♪ Chris Menges; Elliot Goldenthal

Michael Shayne

The private eye created by Brett Halliday was featured in several second features starring Lloyd Nolan, mostly Eugene Forde for Fox. They were adequate time-passers without too much sparkle.
1940 Michael Shayne Private Detective
1941 Dressed to Kill, Just Off Broadway, The Man Who Wouldn't Die
1942 Time to Kill (a version of Chandler's The High Window), Blue White and Perfect

Michael Strogoff: see The Soldier and the Lady

The Michigan Kid

US 1947 70m Cinecolor
Universal
Several people hunt for treasure stolen from a stagecoach.
Lower-berth Western.
w Roy Chanslor novel Rex Beach d Ray Taylor
☆ Jon Hall, Victor McLaglen, Rita Johnson, Andy Devine, Byron Foulger, Milburn Stone

'A Romantic Comedy You Can't Refuse.'

Mickey Blue Eyes ★

US 1999 103m Technicolor
Universal/Castle Rock/Simian (Elizabeth Hurley, Charles Mulvehill)
A very English auctioneer in New York becomes involved with the Mafia when he falls in love with a teacher, whose father is a mobster.
Intermittently amusing comedy of a clash between two cultures, though the mechanical contrivances of farce take over from the intended romantic comedy, and Grant's act as a floppy-haired bumbler is wearing a little thin.
w Adam Scheinman, Robert Kuhn d Kelly Makin ph Donald E. Thorin m Basil Poledouris pd Gregory Keen ed David Freeman cos Ellen Mirojnick
☆ Hugh Grant (Michael Felgate), James Caan (Frank Vitale), Jeanne Tripplehorn (Gina Vitale), Burt Young (Vito Graziosi), James Fox (Philip Cromwell), Joe Viterelli (Vinnie), Gerry Becker (Agent Connell), Maddie Corman (Carol), Tony Darrow (Angelo), Paul Lazar (Ritchie Vitale)

'An engaging, often very funny fish-out-of-water story.' – Lael Loewenstein, Variety

'A promising set-up; but all it develops into are knots of insane plot no one would waste time unpicking.' – Alexander Walker, London Evening Standard

Mickey One ★

US 1965 93m bw
Columbia/Florin/Tatira (Arthur Penn, Harrison Starr)
A night-club entertainer runs away after an orgy to find some meaning in his life.
Obscure symbolic melodrama whose flashes of talent and interest needed firmer control.
w Alan Surgal d Arthur Penn ph Ghislain Cloquet m Eddie Sauter pd George Jenkins ed Aram Avakian
☆ Warren Beatty, Hurd Hatfield, Alexandra Stewart, Franchot Tone, Teddy Hart, Jeff Corey

'Arresting at first, it becomes more and more bogged down by its own pretensions, until one's main interest is simply in seeing it through.' – MFB

Mickey's Christmas Carol ★★★

US 1983 26m Technicolor
Disney
A cartoon version of Dickens with the parts played by familiar Disney characters; and a supreme re-establishment of the old Disney production values.
d Burney Mattinson

'For anyone over 35, this little jewel of a film is truly the Ghost of Christmas Past.' – Gilbert Adair, MFB

♪ animated film

Micki and Maude ★

US 1984 118m Metrocolor Panavision
Columbia/Delphi III/B.E.E. (Tony Adams)
A TV show host accidentally gets his wife and his mistress pregnant at the same time.
Wild and overlong farce with some undeniably funnier scenes than have been noted in the participants' work for some years.
w Jonathan Reynolds d Blake Edwards
ph Harry Stradling Jnr m Lee Holdridge
pd Rodger Maus ed Ralph E. Winters
☆ Dudley Moore, Amy Irving, Ann Reinking, Richard Mulligan, George Gaynes, Wallace Shawn, John Pleshette

Microcosmos ★★

France/Switzerland/Italy 1996 75m colour
Guild/Galatée/France 2/Bac/Delta/JMH/Urania (Jacques Perrin, Christophe Barratier, Yvette Mallet)
A day in the (mainly) insect life of a French meadow.
Intriguing, marvellously photographed documentary evocation of the often-ignored world beneath our feet; there is no commentary, so there is no explanation for the strange behaviour we witness, which detracts from the impact, as does the knowledge that some of the film was shot under studio conditions.
d Claude Nuridsany, Marie Pérennou
ph Claude Nuridsany, Marie Pérennou, Hugues Ryffel, Thierry Machado m Bruno Coulais ed Marie-Josèphe Yoyotte, Florence Ricard sp Ex Machina; Jean-Pierre Maricourt

'What's on screen is no longer primary material but something staged to illustrate observations made elsewhere ... Alarm bells should ring when we're told that in some cases the real sounds "ring false in relation to the images", and have been faked. What sort of nature film is so willing to improve upon nature?' – Adam Mars-Jones, Independent

Midas Run

US 1969 104m Technicolor
Raymond Stross/MPI (Leon Chooluck)
GB title: A Run on Gold
An ageing secret service chief plans to hi-jack a bullion shipment.
Incompetently handled caper story with interest unwisely shifted for romantic purposes to the plotter's recruits.
w James D. Buchanan, Ronald Austin, Berne Giler d Alf Kjellin ph Ken Higgins
m Elmer Bernstein
☆ Fred Astaire, Richard Crenna, Anne Heywood, Ralph Richardson, Roddy McDowall, Adolfo Celi, Maurice Denham, Cesar Romero

Middle Age Crazy

Canada 1980 91m DeLuxe
Barber International/Sid & Marty Krofft/Robert Cooper & Ronald Cohen
A 40-year-old husband begins to feel his age.
Mildly satirical sex comedy, all too easily forgotten among the rest.
w Carl Kleinschmitt d John Trent
ph Reginald Morris m Matthew McCauley
ad Jill Scott ed John Kelly
☆ Bruce Dern, Ann-Margret, Graham Jarvis, Eric Christmas

The Middle Man ★★

India 1975 131m bw
Connoisseur/Indus (Subir Guha)
original title: Jana-Aranya
Unable to find a job in overcrowded Calcutta, a young graduate has no option but to set up as a small 'middle man', buying goods cheaply and selling them at a profit, and slips into acting as a pimp for his customers.
Satirical, cutting portrait of the moral corruption of an innocent, which produces some fine ensemble acting from its cast.
wd Satyajit Ray novel Shankar
ph Soumendu Roy m Satyajit Ray ad Ashoke Bose ed Dulal Dutt
☆ Pradip Mukherji, Satya Bannerji, Dipankar Dey, Lily Chakravarti, Aparna Sen, Goutam Chakravarti, Sudeshna Das, Utpal Dutt

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

'Nothing can detract from the film's overall success and its penetrating charm.' – MFB

Middle of Nowhere: see The Webster Boy

Middle of the Night ★★

US 1959 118m bw
Columbia (George Justin)

An elderly garment manufacturer falls in love with a young girl.
Serious and moving examination of a human predicament, shot against beautifully observed New York backgrounds.
w Paddy Chayefsky, from his TV play
d Delbert Mann ph Joseph Brun
m George Bassman
☆ Fredric March, Kim Novak, Glenda Farrell, Jan Norris, Lee Grant

'A work of greater cogency than his New York play script and of deeper maturity than his Marty.' – Time
'The best of the TV transformations into film.' – Stanley Kauffmann

The Middle Watch

GB 1930 112m bw
BIP

Female guests on board ship have to be hidden from the captain.
Naval froth in primitive talkie form; absurdly long but popular.
w Norman Walker, Frank Launder play Ian Hay, Stephen King-Hall
d Norman Walker
☆ Owen Nares, Jacqueline Logan, Jack Raine, Dodo Watts, Reginald Purdell
† In 1939 ABPC made a smoother version with Jack Buchanan, Greta Gynt, David Hutcheson, Kay Walsh, Fred Emney and Reginald Purdell (in the same role); directed by Thomas Bentley. Another version followed in 1958, titled Girls at Sea (qv).

Middleton's Changeling ★

GB 1997 96m Rank Colour
Cinemascope
UIP/High Time (Marcus Thompson)

An aristocrat's daughter hires a hitman to murder the man her father wants her to marry, and finds herself drawn into sexual intrigue and further killings.
One of those Jacobean plays that still furnishes the basic plots for many films noir and revenge movies is here updated and cut about to provide some rough-and-ready entertainment.
wd Marcus Thompson play Thomas Middleton, William Rowley ph Richard K. J. Butland pd Rob Swinburn ed Marcus Thompson
☆ Ian Dury, Amanda Ray-King, Colm O Maonlai, Billy Connolly, Campbell Morrison, Moya Brady, Richard Mayes, Leo Wringer, Julia Tarnoky, James Maker, Vivian Stanshall

'In modern-day Alicante, characters wander around in Jacobean finery and baseball boots, alighting from horses to get into limousines. These Jarmanesque anachronisms misfire, not helped by the worst mismatch possible – blank verse does not sit well in the mouths of an inexperienced cast.' – Edward Porter, Sunday Times

† The original play was performed in the early 1620s and borrowed its plot from another work of the period, John Reynold's God's Revenge against Murther, adding a comic subplot that was probably the work of William Rowley, an actor noted for his roles as a fat clown.
†† The film took seven years to make, during which time Fernando Rey died before his scenes were filmed, and Vivian Stanshall before he could be voiced.

Middletown

Ireland/UK 2006 89m
Verve/Irish Film Board/Green Park Films/Chapter Four/BBC Northern Ireland (Michael Casey)

A firebrand priest returns to his home town to try and purge it of sin.
Failed attempt to instil a Gothic atmosphere into this odd, faintly deranged story.
w Daragh Carville d Brian Kirk ph Adam Suchitzky m Debbie Wiseman
pd Ashleigh Jeffers ad Kay Brown ed Tim Murrell ☆ Matthew Macfadyen (Gabriel Hunter), Daniel Mays (Jim Hunter), Eva Birthistle (Caroline Hunter), Gerard McSorley (Bill Hunter)

Midnight

US 1934 80m bw
Universal/All Star (Chester Erskine)

aka: Call It Murder

A jury foreman in a murder trial tips the scales in favour of guilty, but is haunted when his own daughter kills her lover.
Tepid family melodrama, very stagebound.
wd Chester Erskine play Paul and Claire Sifton ph William Steiner ☆ Sidney Fox, O. P. Heggie, Henry Hull, Humphrey Bogart, Margaret Wycherly, Lynne Overman, Richard Whorf, Cora Witherspoon

'It's pretty strong stuff and will hold audiences once they're in ... but it's not a good adaptation and is badly dialogued.' – Variety

Midnight ★★★

US 1939 95m bw
Paramount (Arthur Hornblow Jnr)

A girl stranded in Paris is hired by an aristocrat to seduce the gigolo paying unwelcome attention to his wife.
Sparkling sophisticated comedy which barely flags until a slightly disappointing ending; all the talents involved are in excellent form.
w Billy Wilder, Charles Brackett story Edwin Justus Mayer, Franz Schultz
d Mitchell Leisen ph Charles Lang
m Frederick Hollander ad Hans Dreier, Robert Usher ed Doane Harrison ☆ Claudette Colbert (Eve Peabody/'Baroness Czerny'), Don Ameche (Tibor Czerny), John Barrymore (George Flammarion), Francis Lederer (Jacques Picot), Mary Astor (Helene Flammarion), Elaine Barrie (Simone), Hedda Hopper (Stephanie), Rex O'Malley (Marcel)

'Leisen's masterpiece, one of the best comedies of the thirties.' – John Baxter, 1968
'One of the authentic delights of the thirties.' – New Yorker, 1976
'It has the elements of an American La Règle du Jeu.' – John Gillett
'Just about the best light comedy ever caught by the camera.' – Motion Picture Daily

Midnight

US 1989 86m colour
SVS/Kuys Entertainment/Gomillion (Norman Thaddeus Vane, Gloria J. Morrison)

The hostess of a horror movie show on TV is targeted by a murderer.
Occasionally amusing spoof of horror films, though too stately to create any tension on its own account.
wd Norman Thaddeus Vane ph David Golia m Michael Weatherwax ad Mark Simon ed Sam Adelman
☆ Lynn Redgrave, Tony Curtis, Steve Parrish, Rita Gam, Gustav Vintas, Karen Witter, Frank Gorshin

'At the frontlines of life, near the end of innocence, came the beginning of manhood.'

A Midnight Clear ★★

US 1992 107m CFi color
Sovereign/Beacon/A&M (Dale Pollock, Bill Borden)

In the Ardennes Forest in 1944, a reconnaissance patrol composed of young and reluctant American soldiers goes disastrously wrong.
Effectively low-key, quietly ironic tale of the idiocies of war.
wd Keith Gordon novel William Wharton ph Tom Richmond m Mark Isham
pd David Nichols ed Don Brochu
☆ Peter Berg, Kevin Dillon, Arye Gross, Ethan Hawke, Gary Sinise, Frank Whaley, John C. McGinley

'An extremely well-crafted and entirely absorbing movie.' – Philip Thomas, Empire

Midnight Club

US 1933 65m bw
Paramount

An American detective in London nabs a jewel gang.
Very tolerable smart-set crime melodrama.
w Seton I. Miller, Leslie Charteris story E. Phillips Oppenheim d Alexander Hall
☆ Clive Brook, George Raft, Helen Vinson, Alison Skipworth, Sir Guy Standing, Alan Mowbray

'Its London manners and locale lend it a polish which should renew interest in this school of celluloid melodramatics.' – Variety

'To tell you the truth, I ain't a real cowboy. But I'm one helluva stud!'

Midnight Cowboy ★★★★

US 1969 113m DeLuxe
UA/Jerome Hellman

A slightly dim-witted Texan comes to New York to offer his services as a stud for rich ladies, but spends a hard winter helping a tubercular con man.
Life in the New York gutter, brilliantly if not too accurately observed by a master showman with no heart.
w Waldo Salt novel James Leo Herlihy
d John Schlesinger ph Adam Holender md John Barry pd John Robert Lloyd
ed Hugh A. Robertson
☆ Jon Voight (Joe Buck), Dustin Hoffman (Enrico "Ratso" Rizzo), Brenda Vaccaro (Shirley), Sylvia Miles (Cass), John McGiver (Mr. O'Daniel)

'If only Schlesinger's directorial self-discipline had matched his luminous sense of scene and his extraordinary skill in handling actors, this would have been a far more considerable film.' – Arthur Schlesinger Jnr (no relation)
'A great deal besides cleverness, a great deal of good feeling and perception and purposeful dexterity.' – Stanley Kauffmann

best picture; Waldo Salt; John Schlesinger Dustin Hoffman; Jon Voight; Sylvia Miles best picture; Waldo Salt; John Schlesinger; Dustin Hoffman; Jon Voight

Midnight Crossing

US 1987 104m Technicolor
Vestron/Team Effort/Limelite Studios (Mathew Hayden)

An insurance agent returns to a small Caribbean island to retrieve stolen treasure.
Glossily empty, often hysterical thriller that never rises above the ordinary.
w Roger Holzberg, Doug Weiser d Roger Holzberg ph Henry Vargas m Paul Buckmaster, Al Gorgoni pd José Duarte ed Earl Watson
☆ Faye Dunaway, Daniel J. Travanti, Kim Cattrall, Ned Beatty, John Laughlin

Midnight Dancers ★

Philippines 1994 100m colour
Tangent

original title: Sibak

Returning home to Manila, a poor youth joins his two brothers who work as 'macho dancers' in a homosexual night-club.
A gaudy exposé of Manila's gay sub-culture and the moral and social deprivations behind the thriving business of male prostitution; but one that is also concerned with the affirmations of love and desire.
w Ricardo Lee d Mel Chionglo
ph George Tutanes m Nonong Buencamino pd Edgar Martin Littaua
ed Jess Navarro
☆ Alex del Rosario, Lawrence David, Gandong Cervantes, Richard Cassity, Luis Cortes, John Mendoza, Danny Ramos, Leonard Manalansan, Perla Bautista
† The film was banned in the Philippines.

Midnight Episode

GB 1950 78m bw
Columbia/Triangle (Thomas Lageard)

An old busker stumbles over a dead body and a lot of money.
Tame British version of Raimu's French success Monsieur La Souris, saved only by its star performance.
w Rita Barisse, Reeve Taylor, Paul Vincent Carroll, David Evans, William Templeton d Gordon Parry ph Hone Glendinning
☆ Stanley Holloway, Natasha Parry, Leslie Dwyer, Reginald Tate, Meredith Edwards, Wilfrid Hyde-White, Joy Shelton

Midnight Express ★★

GB 1978 121m Eastmancolor
Columbia/Casablanca (Alan Marshall, David Puttnam)

Tribulations of an American student arrested in Turkey for carrying hashish.
Misleadingly-titled wallow in prison atrocities, extremely well made but certainly not entertaining and with little discernible point.
w Oliver Stone memoirs Billy Hayes
d Alan Parker ph Michael Seresin
m Giorgio Moroder
☆ Brad Davis, Randy Quaid, John Hurt, Irene Miracle, Bo Hopkins

'One of the ugliest sado-masochistic trips, with heavy homosexual overtones, that our thoroughly nasty movie age has yet produced.' – Richard Schickel, Time
'The film details all [the horrors] so relentlessly on one screaming note that it is rather like being hit in the gut until you no longer feel a thing.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian
'Muted squalor with a disco beat in the background, all packaged as social protest.' – New Yorker, 1982

script; music
best picture; Alan Parker; John Hurt
Alan Parker; John Hurt

Midnight Fear

US 1990 90m colour
Danyves/Crain

An alcoholic sheriff, investigating the murder of a woman skinned alive, suspects a deaf-mute who has escaped from an institution for the criminally insane.
Dreary pyschological thriller, peopled by familiar and dull stereotypes.
w Chuck Hughes, Bill Crain, Craig Wasson d Bill Crain ph Michael Crain m Steve Edwards pd Pat Tagliaferro ed Brian Crain
☆ Craig Wasson, David Carradine, Page Fletcher, Mark Carlton, August West, Evan Richards

Midnight in Saint Petersburg

GB/Canada/Russia 1995 86m colour
Quebec 3099-3081/Lenfilm/Harry Palmer (Edward Simons, Kent Walwin, Alexander Goloutva, John Dunning, André Link)

In Russia, a British private investigator goes in search of some missing plutonium and a kidnapped ballet dancer.
Slack and uninteresting thriller, a sequel of sorts to Bullet to Beijing (qv), and even worse than that flat film.
w Peter Welbeck (Harry Alan Towers) novel Len Deighton d Douglas Jackson ph Peter Benison m Rick Wakeman pd Chris Tulloch ed Vidal Beique
☆ Michael Caine, Jason Connery, Michael Gambon, Michael Sarrazin, Tanya Jackson, Serge Houde, Anatoly Davidov

'Welcome To Savannah, Georgia. A City Of Hot Nights And Cold Blooded Murder.'

Midnight in the Garden of Good and Evil ★ ③

US 1997 155m Technicolor
Warner/Malpaso/Silver (Clint Eastwood, Arnold Stiefel)

In Savannah, Georgia, a journalist investigates the shooting by a rich bachelor of his young male lover and his subsequent trial for murder.
Overlong retelling of a true story in an exotic setting; the leisurely style allows room for the characters to flower, but at the expense of the narrative tension.
w John Lee Hancock book John Berendt d Clint Eastwood ph Jack N. Green m Lennie Niehaus pd Henry Bumstead ed Joel Cox
☆ Kevin Spacey, John Cusack, Jack Thompson, The Lady Chablis (as herself), Alison Eastwood, Irma P. Hall, Paul Hipp, Jude Law, Dorothy Loudon, Anne Haney, Kim Hunter, Geoffrey Lewis

Midnight Lace ★

US 1960 108m Eastmancolor
Universal (Ross Hunter, Martin Melcher)

The wife of a rich Londoner is terrorized by threatening phone calls and voices in the fog.
Thoroughly silly rehash of Gaslight and The Boy Who Cried Wolf; its glamorous accoutrements can't fight a lack of humour or predictable plot development.
w Ivan Goff, Ben Roberts play Matilda Shouted Fire by Janet Green d David Miller ph Russell Metty m Frank Skinner
☆ Doris Day, Rex Harrison, John Gavin, Myrna Loy, Roddy McDowall, Herbert Marshall, Natasha Parry, John Williams, Anthony Dawson, Hermione Baddeley, Richard Ney, Rhys Williams, Doris Lloyd

Midnight Madonna

US 1937 56m bw
Paramount

There is a legal fight for custody of a child who has inherited a fortune.
Efficient programmer built around a new child actress, Kitty Clancy, who didn't take.
w Doris Malloy, Gladys Lehman d James Flood ☆ Warren William, Mady Correll, Edward Ellis, Robert Baldwin, Jonathan Hale

'It will be found fairly entertaining by the family trade.' – Variety

The Midnight Man

US 1974 117m Technicolor
Universal/Norlan (Roland Kibbee, Burt Lancaster)

An ex-cop, paroled after killing his wife's lover, takes a job as security guard and runs into a murder case.
Muddled mystery with pretentious characterization and bouts of violence.
wd Roland Kibbee, Burt Lancaster novel The Midnight Lady and the Mourning Man by David Anthony ph Jack Priestley m Dave Grusin
☆ Burt Lancaster, Susan Clark, Cameron Mitchell, Morgan Woodward, Harris Yulin, Robert Quarry, Joan Lorring, Lawrence Dobkin, Ed Lauter

'A thriller that has the impenetrability of Chandler but none of the flavour.' – Tom Milne
'Efficient enough but lifeless, and burdened with portentous sentiments about solitude, violence and the nature of the beast.' – Sight and Sound

Midnight Mary

US 1933 76m bw
MGM

A gangster's moll on trial for her life thinks back to her past.
Intolerable now, but a hit of its year despite star miscasting.
w Gene Markey and Anita Loos d William Wellman
☆ Loretta Young, Ricardo Cortez, Franchot Tone, Una Merkel, Andy Devine, Harold Huber

Midnight Melody: see Murder in the Music Hall

Midnight Movies: From the Margin to the Mainstream ④

US/Canada 2005 88m
Metrodome/Starz/Mpix/Movie Central/Stuart Samuels Productions (Stuart Samuels)

The talent behind six movies – including 'El Topo' (qv) and 'Eraserhead' (qv) – discuss how their cutting-edge work transformed the way audiences viewed cult movies during the 1970s.
An always engaging and informative clip-and- interview round-up of the key players in the Midnight Movie trend that found its unlikely apotheosis in 'The Rocky Horror Picture Show' (qv).
w Victor Kushmaniuk, Stuart Samuels d Stuart Samuels ph Richard Fox m Eric Cadesky, Nick Dyer ed Michael;Bembenek, Robert J. Coleman, John Dowding, Lorenzo Massa, Kevin Rollins
☆ George Romero, John Waters, Alejandro Jodorowsky, David Lynch, Perry Henzell, Richard O'Brien

'An enjoyable, if blandly celebratory documentary.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

Midnight Patrol ★

US 1933 20m bw
Hal Roach

Incompetent policemen arrest their own chief as a burglar.
Good standard star slapstick.
w uncredited d Lloyd French
☆ Laurel and Hardy, Charlie Hall, Walter Plinge

Midnight Run ★★

US 1988 126m colour
UIP/Universal (Martin Brest)

A bounty hunter tries to bring in an embezzler, despite attempts by rivals, gangsters and the FBI to stop him.
Fast-paced action comedy, full of quick-fire wit and graced by some excellent performances.
w George Gallo d Martin Brest ph Donald Thorin m Danny Elfman pd Angelo Graham ed Billy Weber, Chris Lebenzon, Michael Tronick
☆ Robert DeNiro, Charles Grodin, Yaphet Kotto, John Ashton, Dennis Farina, Joe Pantoliano

Midnight Sting: see Diggstown

Midnight Taxi

US 1936 73m bw
TCF

A G-man becomes a taxi driver to rout a gang of counterfeiters.
Competent, predictable crime programmer.
w Lou Breslow, John Patrick d Eugene Forde
☆ Brian Donlevy, Frances Drake, Alan Dinehart, Sig Rumann, Gilbert Roland, Harold Huber, Lon Chaney Jnr

The Midshipmaid

GB 1932 84m bw
Gaumont
US title: Midshipmaid Gob

A naval commander loves the daughter of a politician out to effect navy cuts.
Very modest comedy with music, a key step in the star's success story.
w Ian Hay, Stephen King-Hall play Ian Hay, Stephen King-Hall d Albert de Courville m Noel Gay
☆ Jessie Matthews, Frederick Kerr, Basil Sydney, Nigel Bruce, Claud Allister, John Mills, George Zucco

Midshipman Easy

GB 1935 77m bw
ATP (Basil Dean, Thorold Dickinson)
US title: Men of the Sea

In 1790, young naval officers rescue a girl from Spanish bandits.
Stilted adventure story with interesting credits.
w Anthony Kimmins novel Frederick Marryat d Carol Reed ph John W. Boyle ☆ Hughie Green, Margaret Lockwood, Harry Tate, Robert Adams, Roger Livesey, Lewis Casson

'It is simply and dramatically cut, it contains the best fight I can remember on the screen, and I can imagine no child too sophisticated to be excited and amused.' – Graham Greene

A Midsummer Night's Dream: see William Shakespeare's A Midsummer Night's Dream

'Three centuries in the making!'

A Midsummer Night's Dream ★★★

US 1935 133m bw
Warner (Max Reinhardt)

Two pairs of lovers sort out their problems with fairy help at midnight in the woods of Athens.
Shakespeare's play is treated with remarkable respect in this super-glamorous Hollywood adaptation based on the Broadway production by Max Reinhardt. Much of it comes off, and visually it's a treat.
w Charles Kenyon, Mary McCall Jnr play William Shakespeare d Max Reinhardt, William Dieterle ph Hal Mohr, Fred Jackman, Byron Haskin, H. F. Koenekamp m Mendelssohn md Erich Wolfgang Korngold ch Bronislawa Nijinska ad Anton Grot ed Ralph Dawson
☆ James Cagney (Bottom), Dick Powell (Lysander), Jean Muir (Helena), Ross Alexander (Demetrius), Olivia de Havilland (Hermia), Joe E. Brown (Flute), Hugh Herbert (Snout), Arthur Treacher (Ninny's Tomb), Frank McHugh (Quince), Otis Harlan (Starveling), Dewey Robinson (Snug), Victor Jory (Oberon), Verree Teasdale (Hippolyta, Queen of the Amazons), Mickey Rooney (Puck), Anita Louise (Titania) and also Grant Mitchell, Ian Hunter, Hobart Cavanaugh

'General b.o. chances could be improved by judicious pruning and appreciative selling ... a fine prestige picture not only for Warners but for the industry as a whole.' – Variety
'You must see it if you want to be in a position to argue about the future of the film!' – Picturegoer
'The publicity push behind the film is tremendous – it is going to be a success or everyone at Warner Brothers is going to get fired.' – Robert Forsythe
'Its assurance as a work of film technique is undoubted.' – John Baxter, 1968
'Its worst contradiction lies in the way Warners first ordered up a whole batch of foreign and high-sounding names to handle music, dances, general production – and then turned around and handed them empty vessels for actors.' – Otis Ferguson

Academy Award: photography; editing Academy Award nomination: best picture

A Midsummer Night's Dream

GB 1996 105m colour
Film Four/Edenwood/Arts Council/Capitol (Paul Arnott)

In Athens, a boy dreams a dream of lovers whose romances go wrong before they come right.
Originally staged by the Royal Shakespeare Company, this transfers unhappily to the screen as something of a nightmare, messy rather than magical, and too often ill-spoken.
wd Adrian Noble play William Shakespeare ph Ian Wilson m Howard Blake pd Anthony Ward ed Paul Hodgson, Peter Hollywood
☆ Lindsay Duncan, Alex Jennings, Desmond Barrit, Barry Lynch, Monica Dolan, Daniel Evans, Kevin Doyle, Emily Raymond, Alfred Burke, Osheen Jones

'It's so busy whipping up a stylistic storm that it lays low Shakespeare's true topic – love.' – Matt Wolf, Variety

A Midsummer Night's Sex Comedy ★

US 1982 88m Technicolor
Warner/Orion/Rollins-Joffe (Robert Greenhut)

Around the turn of the century, a Wall Street broker expects various weekend guests at his country retreat.
Subdued, melancholy and rather uninventive Woody Allen variation on Smiles of a Summer Night.
wd Woody Allen ph Gordon Willis m from Mendelssohn pd Mel Bourne ed Susan E. Morse
☆ Woody Allen, Mia Farrow, José Ferrer, Julie Hagerty, Tony Roberts, Mary Steenburgen

Midway ★

US 1976 131m Technicolor Panavision Sensurround
Universal/Mirisch Corporation (Walter Mirisch)

GB title: The Battle of Midway
The tide turns for the Americans when the Japanese attack the Pacific island of Midway in 1942.
Noisy flagwaver with confused strategy and too many stars in small parts.
w Donald S. Sanford d Jack Smight ph Harry Stradling Jnr m John Williams
☆ Charlton Heston, Henry Fonda, Robert Mitchum, Glenn Ford, Edward Albert, James Coburn, Hal Holbrook, Toshiro Mifune, Robert Wagner, Robert Webber, Ed Nelson, James Shigeta, Monte Markham, Christopher George, Glenn Corbett

'We are over-informed about the movements of every ship and plane, under-informed about how the battle was finally won, and positively swamped with tedious human interest.' – Sight and Sound

Mies Vailla Menneisyytta: see The Man without a Past

Mifune ★★

Denmark/Sweden 1999 101m colour
Alliance/Nimbus/Zentropa/DRTV/STV (Brigitte Hald, Morten Kaufmann)

original title: Mifunes Sidste Sang
After marrying his boss's daughter, a thrusting young businessman is forced by his father's death to return to the family farm and find a housekeeper to look after his mentally handicapped brother.
Enjoyable, though too often predictable, drama of a tart with a heart of gold redeeming a selfish yuppie.
w Soren Kragh-Jacobsen, Anders Thomas Jensen d Soren Kragh-Jacobsen ph Anthony Dod Mantle m Thor Backhausen, Karl Bille, Christian Sievert ed Valdis Oskarasdottir
☆ Anders W. Berthelsen (Kersten), Iben Hjejle (Liva), Jesper Asholt (Rud), Emil Tarding (Bjarke), Anders Hove (Gerner), Sofie Grabol (Claire), Paprika Steen (Pernille), Mette Bratlann (Nina)

'Well-constructed mixture of romance, sex and humor should be a crowd-pleaser in most territories.' – David Stratton, Variety

Mifunes Sidste Sang: see Mifune

'The quest for friendship is the noblest cause of all.'
'Courage comes in all sizes.'

The Mighty ★

US 1998 100m DeLuxe
Miramax/Scholastic (Jane Startz, Simon Fields)

A small, physically handicapped but bright and brave boy forms a symbiotic friendship with a hulking near-illiterate youth.
Quirky movie about the attraction of opposites that thankfully avoids sentimentality.
w Charles Leavitt novel Freak the Mighty by Rodman Philbrick d Peter Chelsom ph John de Borman m Trevor Jones pd Caroline Hanania ed Martin Walsh ☆ Sharon Stone, Gena Rowlands, Harry Dean Stanton, Kieran Culkin, Elden Hanson, Gillian Anderson, James Gandolfini, Joe Perrino, Meat Loaf, Jenifer Lewis

'While the pic's core appeal is decidedly to young viewers, the material hits an emotional chord for all ages.' – Leonard Klady, Variety

Mighty Aphrodite ★★

US 1995 95m Technicolor
Miramax/Seetland/Jean Doumanian (Robert Greenhut)

A sports writer tries to rescue the mother of his adopted son from a life as a prostitute.
Witty comedy of love and marriage, not up to Allen's best, but highly enjoyable for all that.
wd Woody Allen ph Carlo DiPalma pd Santo Loquasto ed Susan E. Morse
☆ Woody Allen, Helena Bonham Carter, Mira Sorvino, Michael Rapaport, F. Murray Abraham, Claire Bloom, Olympia Dukakis, David Ogden Stiers, Jack Warden, Peter Weller, Dan Moran

'The suspicion lingers that Woody Allen deserves a good spanking, and not from a prostitute with a heart of gold. But, listen: humor and sentiment can triumph over stern morality any day. Once the picture gets going, it reminds us that Allen is also an artist with an acute feel for movie romance. So scruples be damned. This time, Mighty makes all righty.' – Richard Corliss, Time

Mia Sorvino
Woody Allen (as writer)

The Mighty Barnum ★

US 1934 87m bw
Twentieth Century (Darryl F. Zanuck)

A fictionalized biopic of the great showman of the 1890s.
Lively without being very memorable.
w Gene Fowler, Bess Meredyth play Gene Fowler, Bess Meredyth d Walter Lang ph Peverell Marley m Alfred Newman
☆ Wallace Beery, Virginia Bruce, Adolphe Menjou, Janet Beecher, Rochelle Hudson

'Life begins out of the traps.'

The Mighty Celt ★

Ireland/GB 2005 82m colour
Metrodome/BBC/IFB/NIFTC/Treasure (Robert Walpole, Paddy McDonald, Paddy Breathnach)

In Belfast, a boy who works in a greyhound kennel is given a puppy to train.
Pleasing small-scale drama of a boy learning a few lessons from life and his dog.
wd Pearse Elliott ph Seamus Deasy m Adrian Johnston pd Tom McCullagh ed Dermot Diskin ☆ Tyrone McKenna (Donal), Robert Carlyle (O), Gillian Anderson (Kate), Ken Stott (Good Joe)

'There's something doggedly heartfelt about the movie's commitment to unextraordinary lives.' – Tim Robey, Daily Telegraph

The Mighty Ducks

US 1992 101m Technicolor Panavision
Buena Vista/Walt Disney (Jordan Kerner, Jon Avnet)

GB title: Champions
video title: The Mighty Ducks Are Champions
A lawyer doing community service for drunk driving turns a group of drop-out kids into a winning hockey team.
Simple-minded and sentimental movie hymning the joys of team spirit.
w Steven Brill d Stephen Herek ph Thomas Del Ruth m David Newman pd Randy Ser ed Larry Bock, John F. Link ☆ Emilio Estevez, Joss Ackland, Lane Smith, Heidi King, Josef Sommer, Joshua Jackson

'A formulaic pic meant for children but actually focusing on a yuppie's struggle for redemption. Mildly entertaining but unexciting.' – Variety

† A sequel, D2: The Mighty Ducks (qv), followed in 1994.

'The ten most terrific thrills ever pictured!'

Mighty Joe Young ★

US 1949 94m bw
RKO (Merian C. Cooper)

A little girl brings back from Africa a pet gorilla which grows to enormous size and causes a city to panic.
Rather tired comic-sentimental follow-up to King Kong, with a tedious plot and variable animation but a few endearing highlights.
w Ruth Rose d Ernest Schoedsack ph J. Roy Hunt m Roy Webb sp Willis O'Brien, Ray Harryhausen
☆ Terry Moore, Ben Johnson, Robert Armstrong, Frank McHugh, Douglas Fowley

Mighty Joe Young ★

US 1998 114m colour
Panavision
Buena Vista/Walt Disney/RKO (Ted Hartley, Tom Jacobson)

GB title: Mighty Joe
Fearing for the safety of a giant gorilla she has known since both were young, a woman takes him from Africa to live in LA.
An ecologically sound remake with splendid special effects, though it is no more successful than the original version as a successor to King Kong.
w Mark Rosenthal, Lawrence Konner screenplay Ruth Rose story Merian C. Cooper d Ron Underwood ph Don Peterman, Oliver Wood m James Horner pd Michael Corenblith ed Paul Hirsch sp creature designer: Rick Baker; Dreamquest Images; Industrial Light & Magic ☆ Charlize Theron, Bill Paxton, Rade Sherbedgia, Peter Firth, David Paymer, Regina King, Robert Wisdom, Naveen Andrews, Lawrence Pressman, Linda Purl, Mika Boorem, John Alexander

'Makes the most of modern technology, adding color, computer graphics and impressive animatronics to a rather predictable storyline.' – Lael Loewenstein, Variety

visual effects

The Mighty McGurk

US 1946 83m bw
Nat Perrin/MGM

In the Bowery in the 1890s, a bragging ex-fighter takes in a small boy.
Sentimental melodrama which unspools like a joint remake of The Champ and The Bowery.
w William R. Lipman, Grant Garrett, Harry Clork d John Waters
☆ Wallace Beery, Dean Stockwell, Edward Arnold, Aline MacMahon, Cameron Mitchell, Aubrey Mather

Mighty Morphin Power Rangers: The Movie

US 1995 95m DeLuxe
TCF/Saban/Toei (Haim Saban, Shuki Levy, Suzanne Todd)

Six teenagers who can transform themselves into Power Rangers, martial arts experts on the side of good, combat the evil Ivan Ooze.
Criticism is redundant faced with the movie version of a vapid though aggressive fantasy that was briefly many children's favourite television viewing. The TV original showed the joins between its tacky fights and special effects, filmed in Japan, and the remainder, made in America. The movie is considerably slicker, but as depressing in the low quality of its imagination.
w Arne Olsen, John Kamps d Bryan Spicer ph Paul Murphy m Graeme Revell pd Craig Stearns ed Wayne Wahrman
☆ Karan Ashley, Johnny Yong Bosch, Steve Cardenas, Jason David Frank, Amy Jo Johnson, David Yost, Paul Schrier, Jason Narvy, Paul Freeman

'A curious hybrid of tepid California teen drama and "chop socky" karate serial. Watching it provides the strange sensation of channel-surfing without having to touch the remote.' – Stephen Amidon, Sunday Times

The Mighty Quinn

US 1989 98m colour
UIP/MGM/Star partners II/A & M Films (Sandy Lieberson, Marion Hunt, Ed Elbert)

On a Caribbean island, the police chief investigates the murder of an American.
Routine thriller offering little in the way of suspense or excitement.
w Hampton Fancher novel Finding Maubee by A. H. Z. Carr d Carl Shenkel ph Jacques Steyn m Anne Dudley pd Roger Murray-Leach ed John Jympson
☆ Denzel Washington, James Fox, Mimi Rogers, M. Emmet Walsh, Sheryl Lee Ralph, Art Evans, Esther Rolle, Norman Beaton, Alex Colon

'A spy thriller, a buddy movie, a musical, a comedy, and a picture that is wise about human nature. And yet with all of those qualities, it never seems to strain. This is a graceful, almost charmed, entertainment.' – Roger Ebert

Mighty Ursus: see Ursus

The Mighty Warrior: see The Vengeance of Ursus

'Back together for the first time, again.'

A Mighty Wind ★ 6

US 2003 90m Technicolor
Warner/Castle Rock (Karen Murphy)

Three folk groups from the 1960s reunite for a memorial concert.
A mock documentary that captures the style and the sound of the past, when folk was, briefly, pop; its tone is too genial for effective satire.
w Christopher Guest, Eugene Levy d Christopher Guest ph Arlene Donnelly Nelson m Christopher Guest, Michael McKean, Harry Shearer, Eugene Levy, Annette O'Toole, Catherine O'Hara, C.J. Vanston, John Michael Higgins pd Joseph

T. Garrity ed Robert Leighton cos Durinda Wood
☆ Bob Balaban (Jonathan Steinbloom), Christopher Guest (Alan Barrows), John Michael Higgins (Terry Bohner), Eugene Levy (Mitch Cohen), Jane Lynch (Laurie Bohner), Michael McKean (Jerry Palter), Catherine O'Hara (Mickey Devlin Crabbe), Parker Posey (Sissy Knox)
'An amusing gallery of incisively observed characters, riffing off each other with enjoyment levels that frequently prove contagious.' – David Rooney, Variety ♫ song "A Kiss at the End of the Rainbow" (m/l Michael McKean, Annette O'Toole

Mignon Has Left ★★

Italy/France 1988 90m Eastmancolor
Metro/Ellepi Film/Chrysalide Film/RAI/RAITRE (Leo Pescarolo, Guido de Laurentiis) original title: Mignon è Partita
Adolescent traumas come to a head in a Rome household when their French cousin comes to stay.
A slight but charming study of children in the transition to adulthood, much admired by Continental audiences.
w Francesca Archibugi, Gloria Malatesta, Claudia Sbarigia d Francesca Archibugi ph Luigi Verga m Roberto Gatto, Battista Lena ad Massimo Spano ed Alfredo Muschietti ☆ Stefania Sandrelli, Jean-Pierre Duriez, Leonardo Ruta, Celine Beauvallet, Francesca Antonelli, Lorenzo de Pasqua, Eleonora Sambiagio, Daniele Zaccaria

The Mikado ★

GB 1939 91m Technicolor
GFD/G and S (Geoffrey Toye, Joseph Somlo)
In Japan, a timid official is appointed Lord High Executioner and finds that his first intended victim is the Emperor's son, travelling incognito.
Agreeable film version of the classic Gilbert and Sullivan comic opera, with some of the D'Oyly Carte Company's most celebrated members in excellent form.
w Geoffrey Toye opera W. S. Gilbert
d Victor Schertzinger ph Bernard Knowles
m Arthur Sullivan
☆ Martyn Green, John Barclay, Sydney Granville, Kenny Baker, Jean Colin, Constance Willis
'An odd film that pulls this way and that way and never quite gets anywhere. On the credit side must be put down the colour and the music.' – C. A. Lejeune
† The 1966 version by British Home Entertainment featured a later D'Oyly Carte company including John Reed but suffered from a frozen camera and flat lighting, so that little of the original vivacity and charm came over

'He Knows F.A. About Football.'

Mike Bassett: England Manager

GB 2001 89m Technicolor
Entertainment/Film Council/Hallmark/AIN (Neil Peplow, Steve Barron)
A old-fashioned First Division manager is the only person who can be found to take charge of England in the World Cup.
Documentary-styled comedy with feeble and obvious jokes.
w Rob Sprackling, J. R. N. Smith d Steve Barron ph Mike Eley m Antony Genn, Duncan Mackay, Mark Neary pd John Reid ed Colin Green
☆ Ricky Tomlinson (Mike Bassett), Amanda Redman (Karine Bassett), Philip Jackson (Lonnie Urquart), Bradley Walsh (Dave Dodds), Phill Jupitus (Tommo Thompson), Ulrich Thomsen (Dr Hans Shoegaarten), Robert Putt (Jack Marshall), Martin Bashir (Interviewer), Geoffrey Hutchings (Gordon Lightfoot), Pelé (Himself)
'There's certainly room for a comedy of mismanagement, but not one in which every scene hammers individual stupidity and national inferiority into the mud.' – Alexander Walker, London Evening Standard

Mike's Murder

US 1984 97m Technicolor
Warner/Ladd Company/Skyeway
A bank teller decides to investigate the killing of the man she loved, an unstable, bisexual drug-dealer and tennis coach.
A turn-off: a combination of an unlikely narrative, a mediocre script, sleazy characters and indifferent performances.
wd James Bridges ph Reynaldo Villalobos m John Barry, Joe Jackson pd Peter Jamison ed Jeff Gourson, Dede Allen
☆ Debra Winger, Mark Keyloun, Darrell Larson, Brooke Alderson, Paul Winfield, Daniel Shor

Mikey and Nicky

US 1976 118m colour
Paramount (Michael Hausman)
Two crooks are old friends, but one has been hired to kill the other...
Intolerable improvisatory sentimental melodrama. Who on earth shells out the money for pictures like this?
wd Elaine May ph Victor Kemper m John Strauss pd Paul Sylbert ed John Carter
☆ Peter Falk (Mikey), John Cassavetes (Nicky), Ned Beatty (Kinney), Sanford Meisner (Dave Resnick), Rose Arrick (Annie), Joyce Van Patten (Jan), M. Emmet Walsh (Bus driver)
'An impenetrable, ugly and almost unendurable mess.' – Frank Rich, New York Post
'A pretext for Falk and Cassavetes to indulge in one of those long, lugubrious Actors' Studio exercises that wore out its welcome with the last frame of Husbands and the first frame of The Killing of a Chinese Bookie.' – Molly Haskell, Village Voice

The Milagro Beanfield War

US 1988 118m MGM Color
Universal (Robert Redford)
Impoverished farmers in New Mexico defy developers who try to take over their land.
Serious issues treated with quirky humour and visual lyricism.
w David Ward, John Nichols book John Nichols d Robert Redford ph Robbie Greenberg m Dave Grusin ad Joe Aubel
☆ Ruben Blades, Richard Bradford, Sonia Braga, Julie Carmen, James Gammon, John Heard, M. Emmet Walsh
'A very peculiar mixture of warmed-over movie conventions.' – MFB
♟ Dave Grusin

'The kind of woman most men want ... and shouldn't have!'

Mildred Pierce ★★

US 1945 113m bw
Warner (Jerry Wald)
A dowdy housewife breaks with her husband, becomes the owner (through hard work) of a restaurant chain, and survives a murder case before true love comes her way.
A woman's picture par excellence, glossily and moodily photographed, with a star suffering in luxury on behalf of the most ungrateful daughter of all time.
w Ranald MacDougall, Catherine Turney novel James M. Cain d Michael Curtiz ph Ernest Haller m Max Steiner ad Anton Grot
☆ Joan Crawford, Jack Carson, Zachary Scott, Eve Arden, Ann Blyth, Bruce Bennett, George Tobias, Lee Patrick, Moroni Olsen 'Constant, lambent, virulent attention to money and its effects, and more authentic suggestions of sex than one hopes to see in American films.' – James Agee
♟ Joan Crawford
♫ best picture; script; Ernest Haller; Eve Arden; Ann Blyth Miles from Home ★

US 1988 108m DeLuxe
Fox/Braveworld/Cinemcom/J & M Entertainment (Frederick Zollo, Paul Kurta)
Facing hard times, two brothers burn down their farm and take to the road.
Unconventional road movie with some interesting moments.
w Chris Gerolmo d Gary Sinise ph Elliot Davis m Robert Folk pd David Gropman ed Jane Schwartz Jaffe
☆ Richard Gere, Kevin Anderson, Brian Dennehy, Jason Campbell, Austin Bamgarner, Larry Poling, Terry Kinney, Penelope Ann Miller, Helen Hunt, John Malkovich

Military Policeman: see Off Limits

Militia

US 2000 90m Foto-Kem
Cinetel
An agent infiltrates a militia group that plans to kill the US President with missiles containing anthrax.
Dismal action flick with an opening borrowed from Terminator 2; the cast overact in an attempt to compensate for its poor quality.
w Steve Latshaw, William Carson d Jay Andrews (Jim Wynorski) ph Mario D'Ayala m Neal Acree pd Gilbert Alan ed William Daniels
☆ Dean Cain (Ethan Carter), Jennifer Beals (Julie Sanders), Frederic Forrest (William Fain), Stacy Keach (Montgomery), John Beck (Anderson), Brett Butler (Bobbi), Christopher Maleki (Staley)

Milk and Honey

Canada 1988 95m colour
Zenith/JA Film (Peter O'Brian)
In an attempt to improve her life, a Jamaican woman leaves her home and young son to work in Canada as a nanny.
Moderate domestic drama, given a little fillip by the novelty of its subject matter.
w Glen Salzman, Trevor Rhone d Rebecca Yates, Glen Salzman ph Guy Dufaux m Mickey Erbe, Maribeth Solomon ad François Seguin ed Bruce Nyznik ☆ Josette Simon, Lyman Ward, Djanet Sears, Fiona Reid, Leonie Forbes, Richard Mills

Milk Money

US 1994 109m DeLuxe
UIP (Kathleen Kennedy, Frank Marshall)
A big-city tart with a heart of gold returns to their homes three 12-year-old boys who paid to see her strip and falls for the father of one of them.
Uninteresting would-be romantic comedy, which fails on both counts.
w John Mattson d Richard Benjamin ph David Watkin m Michael Convertino pd Paul Sylbert ed Jacqueline Cambas
☆ Melanie Griffith, Ed Harris, Michael Patrick Carter, Malcolm McDowell, Anne Heche, Casey Siemaszko, Philip Bosco, Brian Casey
'Could curdle your stomach and the execution of the idea is just plain rancid ... obvious, loud, mean-spirited and has its mind in the gutter.' – Variety

The Milkman

US 1950 87m bw
Universal-International (Ted Richmond)
Two milkmen tangle with gangsters.
Odd little comedy which gets the benefit of the doubt more by bringing its stars together than by giving them anything to do.
w Albert Beich, James O'Hanlon, Martin Ragaway, Leonard Stern d Charles Barton ph Clifford Stine m Milton Rosen
☆ Donald O'Connor, Jimmy Durante, Joyce Holden, Piper Laurie, William Conrad, Paul Harvey, Henry O'Neill

The Milky Way ★

US 1936 88m bw
Paramount/Harold Lloyd (Edward Sheldon)
A milkman becomes a prizefighter and overcomes a gang of crooks.
Modest Harold Lloyd comedy towards the end of his career; remade as The Kid from Brooklyn (qv).
w Grover Jones, Frank Butler, Richard Connell play Lynn Root, Harry Clork
d Leo McCarey ph Alfred Gilks
☆ Harold Lloyd, Adolphe Menjou, Verree Teasdale, Helen Mack, William Gargan, George Barbier, Lionel Stander
'The work of many hands, all laid on expertly.' – Otis Ferguson
'One is more amazed than ever at the good fortune of this youngish man whose chief talent is not to act at all, to do nothing, to serve as a blank wall for other people to scrawl their ideas on.' – Graham Greene

The Milky Way ★

France/Italy 1968 102m Eastmancolor
Greenwich/Medusa (Serge Silberman) original title: La Voie Lactée
Two tramps set off on pilgrimage from Paris to a Spanish shrine, and have various surprising encounters.
A picaresque examination of Catholic doctrine, full of surface interest but requiring special knowledge for full appreciation.
w Luis Buñuel, Jean-Claude Carrière
d Luis Buñuel ph Christian Matras
m Luis Buñuel
☆ Laurent Terzieff, Paul Frankeur, Delphine Seyrig, Edith Scon
'A mere trifle wrapped in a triple cloak of befuddling obscurantism.' – John Simon

The Mill on the Floss

GB 1937 94m bw
Morgan/National Provincial
A Victorian mill owner and the lord of the manor start a family feud which ends in tragedy.
Romeo and Juliet in crinolines; a stilted and unpersuasive film of the book.
w John Drinkwater, Garnett Weston, Austin Melford, Tim Whelan novel George Eliot
d Tim Whelan
☆ Geraldine Fitzgerald, Frank Lawton,

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

James Mason, Victoria Hopper, Fay Compton, Griffith Jones, Mary Clare, Athene Seyler, Felix Aylmer

'A series of stiff little sequences, decorously posed.' – New York Times.

Mille Mois: see A Thousand Months

Millennium

US 1989 105m DeLuxe
Rank/First Millennium Partnership/Gladden Entertainment (Douglas Leiterman, Robert Vince)

The investigator of a mid-air collision of two planes discovers that people from the future are involved.

Implausible time travel story that never holds together or keeps an audience's interest.

w John Varley story Air Raid by John Varley d Michael Anderson ph Rene Ohashi pd Gene Rudolf ed Ron Wisman

☆ Kris Kristofferson, Cheryl Ladd, Daniel J. Travanti, Robert Joy, Lloyd Bochner, Brent Carver, David McIlwraith, Maury Chaykin, Al Waxman

Millennium Actress ★★ (7)

Japan 2001 86m bw/colour
Genco/Chiyoko Committee

original title: Sennen Joyu Chiyoko

As a TV director and his assistant make a documentary about a reclusive, legendary movie star and her search for her lost love, they find themselves caught up in her life and roles.

Clever, witty animated movie that takes in a thousand years of Japanese history and a hundred of its cinematic past, as reflected in popular culture; it uses film as memory, lovingly encompassing every genre of Japanese film, from Kurosawa's samurai epics to Godzilla and beyond.

w Sadayuki Murai, Satoshi Kon d Satoshi Kon ph Hisao Shirai m Susumu Hirasawa ad Nobutaka Ike ed Takeshi Honda animation director Takeshi Honda

☆ voices of: Miyoko Shoji (Chiyoko Fujiwara in her 70's), Mami Koyama (Chiyoko Fujiwara in her mid-20's to 40's), Fumiko Orikasa (Chiyoko Fujiwara in her teens to early 20's), Shozo Iizuka (Genya Tachibana), Masaya Onosaka (Kyoji Ida), Syouko Tsuda (Eiko Shimao)

'Sweeping, beautifully drawn mélange of fantasy and history.' – A.O. Scott, New York Times

Miller's Crossing ★★

US 1990 115m DuArt
Fox/Circle Films/Ted and Jim Pedas/Ben Barenholtz/Bill Durkin (Ethan Coen)

The duplicitous aide to a corrupt and powerful politician is caught in the crossfire between two rival gangsters.

Sombre, solidly made thriller, directed with a macabre skill.

w Joel Coen, Ethan Coen d Joel Coen ph Barry Sonnenfeld m Carter Burwell pd Dennis Gassner ed Michael Miller

☆ Gabriel Byrne, Marcia Gay Harden, John Turturro, Jon Polito, J. E. Freeman, Albert Finney, Mike Starr, Al Mancini, Richard Woods

Le Million ★★★★

France 1931 89m bw
Tobis (Frank Clifford)

An artist and an ingratiating crook search Paris for a lost lottery ticket.

With its delicate touch, perfect sense of comedy timing and infectious use of recitative and song, this is superb screen entertainment using most of the medium's resources.

wd René Clair musical comedy Georges Berr, M. Guillemaud ph Georges Périnal m Georges Van Parys, Armand Bernard, Philippe Parès ad Lazare Meerson

☆ Annabella (Beatrice), René Lefèvre (Michel), Paul Olivier ("Father Tulipe" Crochard), Louis Allibert (Prosper), Vanda Gréville (Vanda), Raymond Cordy (Taxi Driver)

'A good musical farce that ought to do well everywhere ... it has speed, laughs, splendid photography and a good cast.' – Variety

'René Clair at his exquisite best; no one else has ever been able to make a comedy move with such delicate inevitability.' – New Yorker, 1978

'I wanted an atmosphere of foolishness ... we put gauze between the actors and the sets, which created an illusion of unreality.' – René Clair

† The style of this film was developed and expanded in Hollywood by Lubitsch in One Hour with You and by Mamoulian in Love Me Tonight.

Million Dollar Baby

US 1941 100m bw
Warner (Hal B. Wallis, David Lewis)

A girl inherits a fortune and a lot of problems.

Very predictable but sometimes sprightly comedy with a hard-working cast.

w Richard Macaulay, Jerry Wald, Casey Robinson story Miss Wheelwright Discovers America by Leonard Spigelgass d Curtis Bernhardt ph Charles Rosher m Max Steiner

☆ Priscilla Lane, Jeffrey Lynn, Ronald Reagan, May Robson, Lee Patrick, Helen Westley, George Barbier, John Qualen, Walter Catlett, Nan Wynn

Million Dollar Baby ★★★ (8)

US 2005 132m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Lakeshore/Malpaso (Clint Eastwood, Albert S. Ruddy, Tom Rosenberg, Paul Haggis)

A hard-bitten trainer reluctantly agrees to take on a tough woman determined to become a champion boxer.

A knockout, affecting drama of an ageing boxing trainer, almost waiting for death, his commonsensical sidekick, and a young woman hoping for a life; Eastwood wrings true emotion from a narrative that goes in unexpected directions and the performances are impeccable.

w Paul Haggis stories Rope Burns: Stories From the Corner by F.X. Toole d Clint Eastwood ph Tom Stern m Clint Eastwood pd Henry Bumstead ed Joel Cox

☆ Clint Eastwood (Frankie Dunn), Hilary Swank (Maggie Fitzgerald), Morgan Freeman (Eddie Scrap-Iron Dupris), Anthony Mackie (Shawrelle Berry), Jay Baruchel (Danger Barch), Mike Colter (Big Willie Little)

'A measured movie, deeply involving us in its characters and their problems and played with immense feeling and grace.' – Philip French, Observer

'With so much success behind him, Eastwood continues to fearlessly tackle disturbing material that offers no assurance of public acceptance.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

'One of Hollywood's most durable cowboys is saying that it's not always morning in America, and that it may take more than faith to get us through the night.' – Frank Rich, New York Times

♟ film; Clint Eastwood (as director); Hilary Swank; Morgan Freeman

♙ Joel Cox; Clint Eastwood (as actor); Paul Haggis; Joel Cox

Million Dollar Duck

US 1971 92m Technicolor
Walt Disney (Bill Anderson)

A duck lays eggs with solid gold yolks, which provoke interest from gangsters as well as the government.

Minor Disney fantasy borrowed without permission from Mr Drake's Duck (qv).

w Roswell Rogers d Vincent McEveety ph William Snyder m Buddy Baker

☆ Dean Jones, Sandy Duncan, Joe Flynn, Tony Roberts

The Million Dollar Hotel ★

Germany/US 1999 122m colour
Panavision
Icon/Road MoviesKintop (Deepak Nayar, Bono, Nicholas Klein, Bruce Davey, Wim Wenders)

An FBI agent investigates the death of the son of a media tycoon, who fell off the roof of a seedy Los Angeles hotel inhabited by social misfits.

An intermittently engaging look at the trashier side of American culture, though you need more than a collection of freaks and eccentrics to make an interesting movie.

w Nicholas Klein idea Bono d Wim Wenders ph Phedon Papamichael m Jon Hassell, Bono, Daniel Lanois, Brian Eno pd Robbie Freed ed Tatiana S. Riegel

☆ Jeremy Davies (Tom Tom), Milla Jovovich (Eloise), Mel Gibson (Skinner), Jimmy Smits (Geronimo), Peter Stormare (Dixie), Amanda Plummer (Vivien), Gloria Stuart (Jessica), Tom Bower (Hector), Donal Logue (Charley Best), Bud Cort (Shorty), Julian Sands (Terence Scopey), Harris Yulin (Stanley Goldkiss), Richard Edson (Joe), Charlayne Woodard (Jean Swift), Tim Roth (Izzy Goldkiss)

'Profoundly irritating.' – Times

'Ultimately, the superb craftsmanship and cultish aura can't compensate for an underdeveloped and not very interesting story, especially when none of the characters is the least bit sympathetic or engaging.' – David Stratton, Variety

'Roaring laughs in a story built of goofer dust and frog fur!'

Million Dollar Legs ★

US 1932 64m bw
Paramount

A mythical sport-ridden country decides to enter the Olympic Games.

The good gags in this film are weighted down by plodding treatment, and the general effect is more doleful than funny.

w Harry Myers, Nick Barrows, Joseph L. Mankiewicz d Edward F. Cline ph Arthur Todd

☆ W. C. Fields, Jack Oakie, Andy Clyde, Lyda Roberti, Ben Turpin, Hugh Herbert, Billy Gilbert, George Barbier, Susan Fleming

'One of the silliest and funniest pictures ever made.' – New Yorker, 1977

Million Dollar Legs

US 1939 59m bw
Paramount

College students back a favourite horse.

Very modest collegiate comedy.

w Lewis Foster, Richard English d Nick Grinde ph Harry Fischbeck

☆ Betty Grable, John Hartley, Donald O'Connor, Jackie Coogan, Buster Crabbe, Thurston Hall

Million Dollar Mermaid ★

US 1952 115m Technicolor
MGM (Arthur Hornblow Jnr)

GB title: The One Piece Bathing Suit

The story of Australian swimmer Annette Kellerman.

Inaccurate biopic with a raison d'être in its spectacular aquashow scenes, but nothing at all new in its script.

w Everett Freeman d Mervyn Le Roy ph George J. Folsey md Adolph Deutsch ch Busby Berkeley

☆ Esther Williams, Victor Mature, Walter Pidgeon, David Brian, Jesse White, Maria Tallchief, Howard Freeman

♙ George J. Folsey

Million Dollar Mystery: see Money Mania

Million Dollar Ransom

US 1934 67m bw
Universal

A racketeer consolidates his family affairs before being bumped off by his gang.

Slightly odd underworld melodrama, interesting but not very satisfying.

w William R. Lipman, Ben Ryan story Damon Runyon d Murray Roth

☆ Edward Arnold, Phillips Holmes, Mary Carlisle, Wini Shaw, Andy Devine

'Lacks names but offers fair possibilities.' – Variety

The Million Pound Note ★

GB 1953 91m Technicolor
GFD/Group Films (John Bryan)
US title: Man with a Million

A man is given a million pounds in the form of a single banknote and finds it difficult to spend.

Fairly pleasing period comedy which wears its one joke pretty thin but is nicely decorated and acted.

w Jill Craigie story Mark Twain d Ronald Neame ph Geoffrey Unsworth m William Alwyn ed Clive Donner

☆ Gregory Peck, Jane Griffiths, Ronald Squire, Joyce Grenfell, A. E. Matthews, Reginald Beckwith, Hartley Power, Wilfrid Hyde-White

The Millionaire ★

US 1931 80m bw
Warner

A bored millionaire retires and secretly buys a garage.

Fairly deft star comedy which well satisfied Depression audiences.

w Julien Josephson and Booth Tarkington story Earl Derr Biggers d John Adolfi

☆ George Arliss, Florence Arliss, Evalyn Knapp, David Manners, Noah Beery, J. Farrell MacDonald, James Cagney

'Should bring Arliss within mental reach of all theatres ... Should enjoy a substantial career.' – Variety

† Remade in 1947 as That Way with Women (qv)

A Millionaire for Christy

US 1951 91m bw
TCF (Bert Friedlob)

A lawyer's secretary is sent to Los Angeles to inform an heir of his good fortune, and decides to marry him.

Modest romantic comedy with plenty to be modest about.

w Ken Englund d George Marshall ph Harry Stradling m Victor Young

☆ Eleanor Parker, Fred MacMurray, Richard Carlson, Douglass Dumbrille

Millionaire Merry Go Round: see Kicking the Moon Around

'From naughty, notorious George Bernard Shaw, the sultry story of the beautiful babe in the Balmain gowns who pants for romance ... !'

The Millionairess ★

GB 1960 90m DeLuxe Cinemascope
TCF/Dimitri de Grunwald (Pierre Rouve)

The richest woman in the world falls for a poor Indian doctor.
Messy travesty of a Shavian comedy that was never more than a star vehicle to begin with. Hardly any of it works despite the star cast, who are mostly miscast.
w Wolf Mankowitz play Bernard Shaw
d Anthony Asquith ph Jack Hildyard
m Georges Van Parys
☆ Sophia Loren, Peter Sellers, Alastair Sim, Vittorio de Sica, Dennis Price, Gary Raymond, Alfie Bass, Miriam Karlin, Noel Purcell

'The result, lacking any sort of dramatic cohesion or continuity and seemingly planned less as a film than as a series of haphazard effects, is merely tiring.' – Peter John Dyer

Millions

GB 1936 70m bw
Herbert Wilcox

A struggling composer is really the son of a millionaire.
Fairly lively comedy of rival self-made men.
w Michael Barringer d Leslie Hiscott
ph Freddie Young
☆ Gordon Harker, Frank Pettingell, Richard Hearne, Jane Carr

'Can anyone be truly good?'

Millions ★★ (7)

GB/US 2004 98m colour
Pathé/UKFC/BBC/Mission/Inside Track (Andrew Hauptman, Graham Broadbent, Damian Jones)

In Liverpool, two young brothers stumble upon a bag stuffed with money and decide to spend it.
Charming, funny comedy with a light-hearted attitude to reality and a broad family appeal.
w Frank Cottrell Boyce d Danny Boyle
ph Anthony Dod Mantle m John Murphy
pd Mark Tildesley ed Chris Gill
☆ Alex Etel (Damian Cunningham), Lewis McGibbon (Anthony Cunningham), James Nesbitt (Ronnie Cunningham), Daisy Donovan (Dorothy), Christopher Fulford (The Poor Man), Pearce Quigley (Community Policeman), Alun Armstrong (St Peter)

'A family film of limitless imagination and surprising joy.' – Roger Ebert

Millions in the Air

US 1935 72m bw
Harold Hurley/Paramount

Complications of a radio amateur contest.
Scrappy comedy with more historical interest than entertainment value.
w Sig Herzig, Jane Storm d Ray McCarey
☆ Willie Howard, John Howard, Robert Cummings, Inez Courtney, Benny Baker, Dave Chasen, Wendy Barrie, Samuel S. Hinds

'Without a substantial monicker in the cast, it hasn't much to offer at the box office.' – Variety

Millions like Us ★★

GB 1943 103m bw
GFD/Gainsborough (Edward Black)

The tribulations of a family in wartime, especially of the meek daughter who goes into war work and marries an airman, who is killed.
Fragmentary but reasonably accurate picture of the Home Front during World War II; a little more humour would not have been out of place, but as propaganda it proved an effective weapon.
wd Frank Launder, Sidney Gilliat ph Jack Cox md Louis Levy ad John Bryan ed Alfred Roome
☆ Patricia Roc, Gordon Jackson, Moore Marriott, Eric Portman, Anne Crawford, Basil Radford, Naunton Wayne, Joy Shelton, Megs Jenkins

'There is an unsentimental warmheartedness which I hope we shall cling to and extend in filmed representations of the British scene.' – Richard Winnington

† The only picture Launder and Gilliat directed side by side on the floor.

Milou in May ★★★

France/Italy 1989 108m colour
Gala/Nouvelles Editions de Films/TFI/Ellepi Film (Jean-Yves Asselin)

original title: Milou en Mai US title: May Fools

Following the death of his mother, a 60-year-old man invites her relatives to the funeral.
Gentle, well-observed study of family relationships.
w Louis Malle, Jean-Claude Carrière
d Louis Malle ph Renato Berta
m Stéphane Grappelli ed Emmanuelle Castro
☆ Michel Piccoli (Milou), Miou-Miou (Camille), Michel Duchaussoy (Georges), Dominique Blanc (Claire), Harriet Walter (Lily), Bruno Carette (Grimaldi), François Berléand (Daniel), Martine Gautier (Adele), Paulette Dubost (Mme. Vieuzac)

'A film of Chekhovian generosity that never strays into sentimentality or cynicism.' – Philip French, Observer

Milwaukee, Minnesota ★

US 2002 96m FotoKem
Tartan/Framework/Empire State (Jeff Kirshbaum, Michael Brody)

A simple-minded man who is a superb ice-fisherman is targeted by con-men and killers after the money he has won in fishing tournaments.
Downbeat comedy that has a nostalgia for the style of underground movies, and comes with Andy Warhol favourite Holly Woodlawn; Troy Garrity's idiot savant gives it some more modern interest.
w R.D. Murphy d Allan Mindel ph Bernd Heinl pd Dina Goldman ed David Rawlins
☆ Troy Garity (Albert Burroughs), Alison Folland (Tuey Stites), Randy Quaid (Jerry James), Bruce Dern (Sean McNally), Hank Harris (Stan Stites), Debra Monk (Edna Burroughs), Josh Brolin (Gary), Holly Woodlawn (Transvestite)

'Too taken with a Midwestern strain of weirdos who flounder in ramshackle houses, no-tell hotels and depressing juke joints.' – Ned Martel, New York Times

Mimi

GB 1935 94m bw
BIP

In a Paris garret, a poor girl dies after encouraging a playwright.
La Bohème without the music; not a good idea.
w Clifford Grey, Paul Merzbach, Jack Davies, Denis Waldock novel La Vie Bohème by Henri Murger d Paul Stein
☆ Douglas Fairbanks Jnr, Gertrude Lawrence, Diana Napier, Harold Warrender, Carol Goodner, Richard Bird

Mimic ★ (4)

US 1997 105m DeLuxe
Buena Vista/Dimension (Bob Weinstein, B. J. Rack, Ole Bornedal)

Mutant killer bugs, created to rid New York of a plague, evolve into creatures that resemble human beings.
Effective and atmospheric horror movie, with much of the action taking place in subway tunnels; its visual style creates unease without resorting to shock effects.
w Matthew Robbins, Guillermo Del Toro, Matthew Greenberg, John Sayles story Donald A. Wolheim d Guillermo Del Toro ph Dan Laustsen m Marco Beltrami pd Carol Spier ed Patrick Lussier sp creature design: Rob Bottin, Tyruben Ellingson ☆ Mira Sorvino, Jeremy Northam, Josh Brolin, Giancarlo Giannini, Charles S. Dutton, Alexander Goodwin, Alix Koromzay, F. Murray Abraham

'A murkily good job in scary subterranean suspense of the Alien kind, with sound effects prompting worse apocalyptic imaginings than the actual sight of the VW-sized bugs.' – Alexander Walker, London Evening Standard

'A cyclone of human emotion roars across the screen!'

Min and Bill ★★

US 1930 69m bw
MGM

A boozy old waterfront character and his wife try to keep her daughter from being placed in care.
Well-remembered and much-loved character comedy which led to the even more successful Tugboat Annie with the same team.
w Frances Marion, Marion Jackson play Dark Star by Lorna Moon d George Hill ph Harold Wenstrom ☆ Marie Dressler, Wallace Beery, Dorothy Jordan, Marjorie Rambeau, Donald Dillaway, Russell Hopton

'Comedy-drama of distinction. All ingredients for all theatres, from keys down.' – Variety

Marie Dressler

Mina Tannenbaum ★★

France 1993 128m colour
Mayfair/IMA/UGC/Christian Bourgois/La Sept/SFPC/L'Etang/Belbo/RTBF (Georges Benayoun)

Friends and relatives remember the life of a gifted Jewish artist, a misfit as a young girl, who kills herself after the relationships in her life go awry.
Assured exploration of the lives of two women growing up over 25 years, with men relegated to walk-on parts although the women also become marginalized; it starts light-heartedly and becomes much darker, while some of the narrative devices distance the audience, with the dead commenting on the action, and the women seen with 'ghosts' of how they might have been.
wd Martine Dugowson ph Dominique Chapuis m Peter Chase ad Philippe Chiffre ed Martine Barraqué, Dominique Gallieni
☆ Romane Bohringer, Elsa Zylberstein, Hugues Quester, Nils Tavernier, Stéphane Slima, Chantal Krief, Florence Thomassin, Eric Defosse, Jean-Philippe Ecoffey

'An unusual, sometimes uneven mix of comedy and melodrama. Yet it is a film of immense charm and humour which works surprisingly well.' – Ginette Vincendeau, Sight and Sound

Minbo No Onna ★★

Japan 1992 126m colour
Itami Films (Yasushi Tamaoki)
aka: Anti-Extortion Woman
aka: The Gangster's Moll

A female lawyer is hired to prevent yakuza from ruining a high-class hotel and blackmailing its manager.
Engaging, though sometimes broad, satire that changes tone into a more straightforward drama halfway through, mocking Japanese gangsters and exposing their methods of extortion and intimidation.
wd Juzo Itami ph Yonezo Maeda
m Toshiyuki Honda pd Shuji Nakamura
ed Akira Suzuki
☆ Nobuko Miyamoto, Yasuo Daichi, Takehiro Murata, Shiro Ito, Akira Nakao, Akira Takarada, Hideji Otaki, Norburo Mitani, Hosei Komatsu

† Japan's yakuza were not amused by the film: six days after its release Itami was hospitalized after being cut around the face and neck by gangsters. In a related incident in Tokyo, a man slashed a cinema screen during the showing of another of Itami's films.

The Mind Benders ★

GB 1963 113m bw
Anglo-Amalgamated/Novus (Michael Relph)

A scientist undergoes an experiment aimed at depriving him of all sensation. It works too well; he becomes a sadist; and his colleagues can't reverse the process.
Matter-of-factly played hocus-pocus with spy asides; quite gripping while it's on, but in no way memorable.
w James Kennaway d Basil Dearden
ph Denys Coop m Georges Auric
☆ Dirk Bogarde, John Clements, Mary Ure, Michael Bryant

The Mind of Mr Reeder ★

GB 1939 75m bw
Jack Raymond

An elderly government employee unmasks a forger and murderer.
Entertaining crime comedy-drama which never quite realizes its potential.
w Bryan Edgar Wallace, Marjorie Gaffney, Michael Hogan novel Edgar Wallace
d Jack Raymond
☆ Will Fyffe, Kay Walsh, George Curzon, Chili Bouchier, John Warwick

The Mind of Mr Soames

GB 1970 98m Technicolor
Columbia/Amicus (Teresa Bolland)

A man who has lived in a coma for thirty years is cured but faces the world as a new-born infant.
Ill-advised attempt at science fiction with meaning; its earnestness becomes a bore.
w John Hale, Edward Simpson novel Charles Eric Maine d Alan Cooke ph Billy Williams m Michael Dress ☆ Terence Stamp, Robert Vaughn, Nigel Davenport, Donal Donnelly, Christian Roberts, Vickery Turner, Scott Forbes

The Mind Reader ★

US 1933 69m bw
Warner

A phoney mind reader tries to go straight for his wife's sake, and ends up in jail.
Reasonably mordant satirical drama with good performances.
w Wilson Mizner, Robert Lord play Vivian Cosby d Roy del Ruth

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

☆ Warren William, Constance Cummings, Allen Jenkins, Donald Dillaway, Mayo Methot, Clarence Muse

'Star performance plus laugh dialogue enough to send this into okay programmer class.' – Variety

Mind Your Own Business

US 1937 75m bw
Paramount/Emmanuel Cohen

Boy scouts help to capture gangsters.
Slightly rocky comedy which finally comes across as unsatisfactory.
w Dore Schary story John Francis Larkin d Norman Z. McLeod
☆ Charles Ruggles, Alice Brady, Lyle Talbot, Benny Baker, Jack La Rue, William Demarest, Frankie Darro

'It will have a tough time standing alone.' – Variety

'For seven elite profilers, finding a serial killer is a process of elimination. Their own.'

Mindhunters

GB/Netherlands/Finland/US 2004 106m colour
Dimension/Intermedia/Outlaw/Avenue/Weed Road (Jeffrey Silver, Bobby Newmyer, Cary Brokaw, Rebecca Spikings)

Isolated on a small island for a training exercise, a group of FBI agents are murdered one after another.
Ludicrous thriller in the Ten Little Indians mould, overheated and so far fetched that it is more likely to invoke laughter rather than terror. Judging by these agents, the FBI would be better off recruiting The Three Stooges.
w Wayne Kramer, Kevin Brodbin d Renny Harlin ph Robert Gantz m Tuomas Kantelinen pd Charles Wood ed Paul Martin Smith, Neil Farrell
☆ James Todd Smith (aka LL Cool J) (Gabe Jensen), Jonny Lee Miller (Lucas Harper), Kathryn Morris (Sara Moore), Patricia Velasquez (Nicole Willis), Clifton Collins Jnr (Vince Sherman), Eion Bailey (Bobby Whitman), Will Kemp (Rafe Perry), Val Kilmer (Jake Harris), Christian Slater (J.D. Reston)

'A thudding dud, crammed with clunky dialogue, bad acting and gruesome but unpersuasive gore.' – Kevin Thomas, Los Angeles Times
† The film was made in 2002 and not released for three years.

Mine Own Executioner ★★★

GB 1947 108m bw
London Films (Anthony Kimmins, Jack Kitchin)

A lay psychiatrist undertakes the care of a mentally disturbed war veteran, but fails to prevent him from murdering his wife.
When this film first appeared it seemed like the first adult drama featuring sophisticated people to emerge from a British studio. Time and television have blunted its impact, but it remains a well told suspense melodrama with memorable characters.
w Nigel Balchin novel Nigel Balchin d Anthony Kimmins ph Wilkie Cooper m Benjamin Frankel ad William C. Andrews ed Richard Best ☆ Burgess Meredith (Felix Milne), Kieron Moore (Adam Lucian), Dulcie Gray (Patricia Milne), Barbara White (Molly Lucian), Christine Norden (Barbara Edge), Michael Shepley (Peter Edge), Walter Fitzgerald (Dr. Norris Pile), John Laurie (Dr. James Garsten), Clive Morton (Robert Paston)

'The first psychoanalytical film that a grown-up can sit through without squirming.' – Richard Winnington
'One feels invigorated by having seen and understood other people's lives.' – Daily Worker

Mingri Tianya: see All Tomorrow's Parties

'His secret meant death to one man if he didn't talk ... to countless thousands if he did!'

Ministry of Fear ★★

US 1944 85m bw
Paramount (Seton I. Miller)

During World War II in England, a man just out of a mental hospital wins a cake at a village fair and finds himself caught up in bewildering intrigues.
Little to do with the novel, but a watchable, well-detailed little thriller on Hitchcock lines, once you forgive the usual phoney Hollywood England.
w Seton I. Miller novel Graham Greene d Fritz Lang ph Henry Sharp m Victor Young ad Hans Dreier, Hal Pereira ed Archie Marshek
☆ Ray Milland (Stephen Neale), Marjorie Reynolds (Carla Hilfe), Carl Esmond (Willi Hilfe), Hillary Brooke (Mrs Bellane), Dan Duryea (Cost/Travers), Percy Waram (Inspector Prentice), Alan Napier (Dr Forrester), Erskine Sanford (Mr Rennit)

'A crisp and efficiently made thriller with no pretension to intellectual content.' – Paul Jensen

The Miniver Story

GB 1950 104m bw
MGM (Sidney Franklin)

Mrs Miniver faces the tribulations of post-war Britain.
Glum sequel to Mrs Miniver, with the dauntless heroine finally succumbing to a glossy but fatal disease. Well enough made, but very hard to take.
w Ronald Millar, George Froeschel d H. C. Potter ph Joseph Ruttenberg m Miklos Rozsa ☆ Greer Garson, Walter Pidgeon, Cathy O'Donnell, John Hodiak, Leo Genn, Reginald Owen, Henry Wilcoxon, William Fox, Anthony Bushell

Minna-yatteruka!: see Getting Any?

Minnie and Moskowitz ★

US 1971 115m Technicolor
Universal (Al Rubin)

Two lonely Los Angeles misfits have a bumpy courtship.
Enjoyably aimless character comedy.
wd John Cassavetes ph Arthur J. Ornitz m Bob Harwood ed Robert Heffernan, Frederic Knudtson ☆ Gena Rowlands (Minnie Moore), Seymour Cassel (Seymour Moskowitz), Val Avery (Zelmo Swift), Tom Carey (Morgan Morgan)

Minor Mishaps ★★

Denmark 2002 109m colour
Artificial Eye/Zentropa (Ib Tardini)

original title: Sma Ulykker
After their mother dies unexpectedly, the children rally round to support their father.
With characters fleshed out rather than the usual ciphers, this is an engaging account of an often troubled group of siblings and their morose father that nevertheless functions well as a family unit.
w Kim Fupz Aakeson d Annette K. Olesen ph Morten Soborg m Jeppe Kaas ed Nicolaj Monberg ☆ Jorgen Kiil (John), Maria Wurgler Rich (Marianne), Jannie Faurschou (Eva), Henrik Prip (Tom), Jesper Christensen (Soren), Karen-Lise Mynster (Hanne), Tina Gylling (Ellen)

'By the end of this film we know and care as little about this family as we did at the beginning.' – Geoffrey Mcnab, Sight and Sound

'What would you do if you were accused of a murder you had not committed... yet?'

Minority Report ★

US 2002 144m Technicolor Panavision
TCF

In a future where product placement is ubiquitous and pyschics identify murderers in advance of the crime, a cop goes on the run when he is accused of planning to kill a man he doesn't know.
Tense paranoid thriller that gives every indication of being brilliant until the halfway mark, when it becomes just another glossy action pic with the corniest of endings.
w Scott Frank, Jon Cohen story Philip K. Dick d Steven Spielberg ph Janusz Kaminski m John Williams pd Alex McDowell ed Michael Kahn sp ILM
☆ Tom Cruise (Chief John Anderton), Colin Farrell (Danny Witwer), Samantha Morton (Agatha), Max von Sydow (Director Lamar Burgess), Lois Smith (Dr Iris Hineman), Peter Stormare (Dr Solomon Eddie), Tim Blake Nelson (Gideon), Steve Harris (Jad)

'May be a shade too serious and contemplative to completely enchant the thrill-seeking masses, while simultaneously seeming too mainstream-minded and genre-bound to be entirely embraced by highbrows.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety
'My own minority report is that it stinks... sinks to the level of pornographically violent video games.' – Andrew Sarris, New York Observer
sound editing (Richard Hymns, Gary Rydstrom)

Minstrel Man ★

US 1944 70m bw
PRC

A minstrel star seeks his long-lost daughter.
Interesting sidelights on old-time minstrel shows in a production somewhat less tatty than is usual from this company.
w Irwin Franklin, Pierre Gendron d Joseph H. Lewis m Leo Erdody, Ferde Grofe ☆ Benny Fields, Gladys George, Roscoe Karns song, 'Remember Me to Carolina' (m Harry Revel, ly Paul Webster); music

A Minute to Pray, a Second to Die: see Dead or Alive

The Miracle

Italy 1948 40m bw
Tania Film (Roberto Rossellini)

A simple-minded peasant woman is seduced by a shepherd but believes her baby has been immaculately conceived.
Curious, rather unsatisfactory parable originally intended as part of a two-item tribute to the power of a star actress. (The other section, Cocteau's The Human Voice, was withdrawn for copyright reasons.)
w Tullio Pinelli, Roberto Rossellini, Federico Fellini d Roberto Rossellini ph Aldo Tonti m Renzo Rossellini
☆ Anna Magnani, Federico Fellini

'Acting on a plane scarcely known to the cinema.' – Sunday Times

'The mightiest story of fame and the flesh known to our time!'

The Miracle

US 1959 121m Technirama
Warner (Henry Blanke)

In Spain during the Peninsular War, a nun breaks her vows in order to follow a British soldier, and a statue of the Virgin Mary steps down to take her place.
And that's only the beginning in this very tall tale, full of heavy breathing, violent action and religiosity, from the old Max Reinhardt pageant. Quite incredible, and sloppily done.
w Frank Butler, Jean Rouverol play Karl Vollmoeller d Irving Rapper ph Ernest Haller m Elmer Bernstein
☆ Carroll Baker, Roger Moore, Walter Slezak, Vittorio Gassman, Katina Paxinou, Dennis King, Isobel Elsom, Torin Thatcher
† Jean Rouverol was blacklisted at the time of the film's original release and omitted from the credits.

The Miracle

GB 1990 97m colour
Palace/Promenade/British Screen/Film Four (Stephen Woolley, Redmond Morris)

An actress becomes the focus of the romantic attentions of an adolescent saxophonist.
Desultory tale of incipient incest with a few striking moments.
wd Neil Jordan ph Philippe Rousselot m Anne Dudley pd Gemma Jackson ed Joke Van Wijk ☆ Beverly D'Angelo, Donal McCann, Niall Byrne, Lorraine Pilkington, J. G. Devlin, Cathleen Delany, Tom Hickey, Shane Connaughton

'Insubstantial fare, with predictable situations and plotting.' – Variety

A Miracle Can Happen: see On Our Merry Way

Miracle in Milan ★★

Italy 1951 101m bw
PDS/ENIC (Vittorio de Sica)

A foundling goes to live with the poor on the outskirts of Milan, and his erstwhile guardian returns from heaven to help them repel capitalists and fly away on broomsticks to a better land.
An unlikely fable which manages to avoid all the obvious pitfalls and sends one out of the cinema in a warm glow.
w Cesare Zavattini, Vittorio de Sica novel Toto il Buono by Cesare Zavattini d Vittorio de Sica ph G. R. Aldo m Alessandro Cicognini
☆ Francesco Golisano, Brunella Bovo, Emma Gramatica, Paolo Stoppa

Miracle in Soho

GB 1957 93m Eastmancolor
Rank (Emeric Pressburger)

A Soho roadworker falls for a barmaid.
Rudimentary romantic whimsy in an unconvincing street set, with characters either too voluble or just plain dull.
w Emeric Pressburger d Julian Amyes ph Christopher Challis m Brian Easdale
☆ John Gregson, Belinda Lee, Cyril Cusack

'A street corner pick-up that worked a miracle of love! A picture of very special greatness!'

Miracle in the Rain ★★

US 1955 107m bw
Warner (Frank P. Rosenberg)

A plain New York girl falls for a soldier; when he is killed in action, he keeps their appointment on the church steps as a ghost.
Archetypal Hollywood schmaltz, half acute observation of amusing types, half sentimental whimsy, with a final supernatural touch of eating your cake and having it.

w Ben Hecht novel Ben Hecht d Rudolph Maté ph Russell Metty m Franz Waxman
☆ Jane Wyman, Van Johnson, Fred Clark, Eileen Heckart, William Gargan

The Miracle Maker

GB/Russia 1999 91m Technicolor
Icon/S4C/British Screen/Christmas (Naomi Jones, Renat Zinnurov)

Jesus leaves home to do God's work, performs miracles, is crucified and rises from the dead.
Reverential treatment of the Gospel story, told using animated clay figures.
w Murray Watts d Stanislav Sokolov, Derek Hayes ph Alexander Vikhanski m Anne Dudley ad Helena Livanova ed William Oswald, John Richards
☆ Featuring voices of: Ralph Fiennes, Michael Bryant, Julie Christie, Rebecca Callard, James Frain, Richard E. Grant, Ian Holm, William Hurt, Anton Lesser, Daniel Massey, Tim McInnerny, Alfred Molina, Bob Peck, Miranda Richardson, Anthony Sher, David Thewlis, Ken Stott

'Even as one admires the aesthetics and good intentions of this piece, the film falls flat since it's hard to feel in any way emotionally connected.' – James Cameron-Wilson, Film Review

The Miracle Man

US 1932 85m bw
Paramount

A gang of crooks is reformed by a faith healer they have exploited.
Adequate remake of the silent Lon Chaney vehicle; no sparks this time.
w Waldemar Young, Samuel Hoffenstein play Frank L. Packard, George M. Cohan d Norman Z. McLeod ph David Abel m W. Franke Harling
☆ Sylvia Sidney, Chester Morris, Irving Pichel, John Wray, Robert Coogan, Hobart Bosworth, Boris Karloff, Ned Sparks, Virginia Bruce

'50 minutes and counting...'

Miracle Mile ★

US 1989 88m CFI color
Hemdale (John Daly, Derek Gibson)

A town panics as it learns that a nuclear strike is on the way.
Suspense and black humour are maintained to the final moments in an engagingly odd little movie.
wd Steve DeJarnatt ph Theo Van de Sande m Tangerine Dream pd Christopher Horner ed Stephen Semel, Kathie Weaver
☆ Anthony Edwards, Mare Winningham, John Agar, Lou Hancock, Mykel T. Williamson, Kelly Jo Minter, Kurt Fuller, Denise Crosby

The Miracle of Fatima: see The Miracle of Our Lady of Fatima

The Miracle of Morgan's Creek ★★★

US 1943 99m bw
Paramount (Preston Sturges)

Chaos results when a stuttering hayseed tries to help a girl accidentally pregnant by a soldier she met hazily at a dance.
Weird and wonderful one-man assault on the Hays Office and sundry other American institutions such as motherhood and politics; an indescribable, tasteless, roaringly funny mêlée, as unexpected at the time as it was effective, like a kick in the pants to all other film comedies.
wd Preston Sturges ph John Seitz m Leo Shuken, Charles Bradshaw ad Hans Dreier, Ernst Fegte ed Stuart Gilmore
☆ Betty Hutton (Trudy Kockenlocker), Eddie Bracken (Norval Jones), William Demarest (Officer Kockenlocker), Diana Lynn (Emmy Kockenlocker), Porter Hall (Justice of the Peace), Akim Tamiroff (The Boss), Brian Donlevy (Governor McGinty), Alan Bridge (Mr. Johnson)
OFFICER KOCKENLOCKER (WILLIAM DEMAREST): 'Daughters. They're a mess no matter how you look at 'em. A headache till they get married – if they get married – and after that they get worse ... Either they leave their husbands and come back with four kids and move into your guest room or the husband loses his job and the whole caboodle comes back. Or else they're so homely that you can't get rid of them at all and they sit around like Spanish moss and shame you into an early grave.'
EMILY KOCKENLOCKER (DIANA LYNN): 'If you don't mind my mentioning it, father, I think you have a mind like a swamp.'

'Like taking a nun on a roller coaster.' – James Agee
'This film moves in a fantastic and irreverent whirl of slapstick, nonsense, farce, sentiment, satire, romance, melodrama – is there any ingredient of dramatic entertainment except maybe tragedy and grand opera that hasn't been tossed into it?' – National Board of Review
'Bad taste, or no bad taste, I thoroughly enjoyed it.' – Richard Mallett, Punch

Preston Sturges (as writer)

The Miracle of Our Lady of Fatima

US 1952 102m Warnercolor
Warner (Bryan Foy)

GB title: The Miracle of Fatima
An account of the 1917 appearance of the Virgin Mary to three Portuguese peasant children.
Poorly staged religious film which manages to be less pro-Catholic than anti-communist, and was clearly seen by Jack L. Warner as a means of atoning for Mission to Moscow. A real cold war piece.
w Crane Wilbur, James O'Hanlon d John Brahm ph Edwin DuPar m Max Steiner ad Edward Carrere
☆ Gilbert Roland, Frank Silvera, Angela Clarke, Jay Novello

Max Steiner

The Miracle of the Bells

US 1948 120m bw
Jesse L. Lasky

The death of a glamorous film star causes a small-town miracle and a nationwide publicity stunt.
One hopes that this oddity was intended as a satire; as a straight entertainment it's more than a little icky, and good production values scarcely help.
w Ben Hecht novel Russell Janney d Irving Pichel ph Robert de Grasse m Leigh Harline
☆ Fred MacMurray, Alida Valli, Frank Sinatra, Lee J. Cobb

'An offensive exhibition of vulgar insensitivity.' – MFB
'I hereby declare myself the founding father of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to God.' – James Agee

The Miracle of the White Stallions ★

US 1963 118m Technicolor
Walt Disney (Peter V. Herald)

GB title: The Flight of the White Stallions
During World War II the Nazis occupy Vienna and the owner of the Spanish Riding School guides his stallions to safety.
Adequate family adventure fare with a dull hero but interesting backgrounds.
w A. J. Carothers d Arthur Hiller ph Gunther Anders m Paul Smith
☆ Robert Taylor, Lilli Palmer, Eddie Albert, Curt Jurgens

Miracle on 34th Street ★★★

US 1947 94m bw
TCF (William Perlberg)

GB title: The Big Heart
A department store Santa Claus claims to be the real thing.
Mainly charming comedy fantasy which quickly became an American classic but does suffer from a few dull romantic stretches.
wd George Seaton story Valentine Davies ph Charles Clarke, Lloyd Ahern m Cyril Mockridge ad Richard Day, Richard Irvine ed Robert Simpson
☆ Edmund Gwenn (Kris Kringle), Maureen O'Hara (Doris Walker), John Payne (Fred Gailey), Natalie Wood (Susan Walker), Gene Lockhart (Judge Henry X. Harper), Porter Hall (Mr. Sawyer), William Frawley (Charles Halloran), Jerome Cowan (Thomas Mara), Thelma Ritter (Mother)

'Altogether wholesome, stimulating and enjoyable.' – Motion Picture Herald

George Seaton (as writer); Valentine Davies; Edmund Gwenn best picture

'Discover the Miracle.'

Miracle on 34th Street ★

US 1994 114m DeLuxe
TCF (John Hughes)

A department store Santa Claus promises a child that he will provide her with a house, a father and a brother for Christmas.
A rather tired remake of the original which makes little attempt to engage with present-day realities, but gains from Attenborough's cuddly performance as Kriss Kringle.
w George Seaton, John Hughes d Les Mayfield ph Julio Macat m Bruce Broughton pd Doug Kraner ed Raja Gosnell
☆ Richard Attenborough, Elizabeth Perkins, Dylan McDermott, Mara Wilson, Robert Prosky, J. T. Walsh, James Remar, William Windom

'Glaringly predictable, and although some may succumb to its old-fashioned charm and naïvely simple message, others will find its look and feel too cloying.' – Patricia Dobson, Screen International

Miracle on Main Street ★

US 1940 76m bw
RKO/Jack Skirball

A cabaret dancer finds an abandoned baby but her plans are thwarted by the return of her husband.
Odd, interesting but flatly handled melodrama.
w Sam Ornitz, Boris Ingster story Felix Jackson d Steve Sekely ph Charles Van Enger m Walter Jurmann, Hans Salter
☆ Walter Abel, Margo, William Collier, Jane Darwell, Lyle Talbot, Wynne Gibson

'Never give away what you can sell!'

The Miracle Woman ★

US 1931 90m bw
Columbia (Harry Cohn)

A lady evangelist turns confidence trickster.
Mild satirical drama inspired by the career of Aimée Semple Macpherson.
w Jo Swerling play Bless You Sister by Robert Riskin, John Meehan d Frank Capra ph Joseph Walker
☆ Barbara Stanwyck, Sam Hardy, David Manners, Beryl Mercer, Russell Hopton

'Splendid programme leader, a big and strong film opening up numerous channels of publicity.' – Variety
'Such a beauty, well staged and handsomely lighted.' – New Yorker, 1977

The Miracle Worker ★

US 1962 106m bw
UA/Playfilms (Fred Coe)

The childhood of Helen Keller, taught by Annie Sullivan after being left blind, deaf and dumb in an illness.
A moving real-life story is given hysterical treatment and the good scenes have a hard task winning through; in any case a documentary might have been more persuasive.
w William Gibson play William Gibson d Arthur Penn ph Ernest Caparros m Laurence Rosenthal ad George Jenkins
☆ Anne Bancroft, Patty Duke, Victor Jory, Inga Swenson, Andrew Prine, Beah Richards

Anne Bancroft; Patty Duke
William Gibson; Arthur Penn
Anne Bancroft

Miracles

US 1985 87m Technicolor Super Techniscope
Orion/Steve Roth, Bernard Williams

A chase begins when bank robbers kidnap an innocent couple.
Exhausting action comedy with no real finesse.
wd Jim Kouf ph John Alcott m Peter Bernstein pd Terence Marsh
☆ Tom Conti, Teri Garr, Paul Rodriguez, Christopher Lloyd

Miracles for Sale

US 1939 71m bw
MGM

An illusionist catches a murderer.
What could have been a smart mystery piece is sabotaged by stilted writing and direction, a muddled narrative style, and illusions which are patently faked by the camera.
w James Edward Grant, Marion Parsonnet, Harry Ruskin novel Death in a Top Hat by Clayton Rawson d Tod Browning ph Charles Lawton
☆ Robert Young, Florence Rice, Henry Hull, Frank Craven, Lee Bowman, William Demarest

'Unexciting whodunit ... the plot stumbles over itself most of the time.' – Variety

Mirage ★★

US 1965 109m bw
U-I (Harry Keller)

During a New York power blackout, an executive falls to his death from a skyscraper and a cost accountant loses his memory.
Striking puzzler, rather slowly developed but generally effective and with a strong sense of place and timing.
w Peter Stone novel Walter Ericson

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

d Edward Dmytryk ph Joe MacDonald m Quincy Jones ad Frank Arrigo, Alexander Golitzen ed Ted J. Kent ☆ Gregory Peck, Diane Baker, Walter Abel, Walter Matthau, Leif Erickson, Kevin McCarthy, Jack Weston, George Kennedy
'Worthy of Hitchcock at his vintage best.' – Daily Express

'smartsexydangeroussmartsexydangeroussmart'

Miranda ★

GB 1947 80m bw
GFD/Gainsborough/Sydney Box (Betty Box)
A doctor on holiday in Cornwall catches a mermaid and takes her to London disguised as an invalid.
Simple-minded comedy which scores a few easy laughs on obvious targets.
w Peter Blackmore play Peter Blackmore d Ken Annakin ph Ray Elton m Temple Abady ed Gordon Hales
☆ Glynis Johns, Griffith Jones, Googie Withers, Margaret Rutherford, David Tomlinson, Sonia Holm, John McCallum
'Having dunked itself well in sub-aqueous whimsy, the picture proceeds to titter its way through all sorts of arch situations.' – John McCarten, New Yorker † Sequel 1949, Mad about Men.

Miranda (dubbed)

Italy 1985 90m colour
San Francisco (Giovanni Bertolucci)
A woman keeps an inn and also manages to service a string of lovers.
From the opening shot of a woman's pubic hair and a man's bare bottom, we are in the tiresome world of Tinto Brass, a director who concentrates on voyeuristic, soft-focus scenes of sexual activity and displays no interest in style or narrative.
w Carla Cipriani, Tinto Brass d Tinto Brass ph Silvano Ippoliti m Riz Ortolani ad Paolo Biagetti ed Tinto Brass ☆ Serena Grandi, Andrea Occhipinti, Franco Interlenghi, Andy J. Forest, Franco Branciaroli

Miranda

UK/Germany 2002 93m Technicolor Panavision
FilmFour/Film Council/Senator/Feelgood (Laurence Bowen)
In the North of England, a librarian falls for a mysterious con-woman.
Risible romantic drama that gets sillier by the minute; it attempts to be a comedy and an erotic thriller, and becomes a witless, unlovely mess.
w Rob Young d Marc Munden ph Ben Davis m Murray Gold pd Alice Normington ed Bill Diver
☆ Christina Ricci (Miranda), John Simm (Frank), Kyle MacLachlan (Nailor), John Hurt (Christian), Julian Rhind-Tutt (Rod), Cavan Clerkin (Gerry), Matthew Marsh (Charles)
'This execrable film is so depressingly bad that audiences should be deprived of their ties, belts and bootlaces on their way into the cinema.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

Mirror ★★

USSR 1974 106m bw/colour
Artificial Eye/Mosfilm Unit 4 (E. Waisberg) original title: Zerkalo
An artist considers his relationships with his parents and with his wife and young son.
Intensely personal meditation, with the director's father reading his own poems and his mother playing the narrator's mother, which may baffle audiences, despite its assurance and visual beauty.
w Andrei Tarkovsky, Aleksandr Misharin d Andrei Tarkovsky ph Georgy Rerberg m Eduard Artemyev ad Nikolai Dvigubsky ed L. Feiginova ☆ Innokenti Smoktunovsky, Margarita Terekhova, L. Tarkovskaya, Philip Yankovsky, Ignat Daniltsev, Anatoli Solonitsin
'Tarkovsky's autobiographical essay in the interaction of private and collective memories, via a multi-layered structure of flashbacks, dream sequences and newsreel footage, is chillingly impressive even at its most hermetic.' – Sight and Sound
† Tarkovsky said of the film, 'We wanted to make a simple film which would signify only what was shown'. It was given a very restricted release in the USSR.

The Mirror

West Germany/Turkey 1984 94m colour
Von Vietinghoff Filmproduction/ZDF/Channel 4 (Joachim von Vietinghoff) original title: Der Spiegel Ayna
A Turkish peasant reacts violently on discovering that the son of the local landowner is in love with his wife.
Ponderously told folk tale, full of stolid symbolism.
wd Erden Kiral novel The White Ox by Osman Sahin ph Kenan Ormanler m Brymor Jones
☆ Nur Surer, Suavi Eren, Hikmet Celik

'Mirror, mirror, on the wall, who's the killer among them all?'

The Mirror Crack'd

GB 1980 105m Technicolor
EMI/John Brabourne, Richard Goodwin
Murders result from the making of an all-star film in an English village.
After adventures on the Orient Express and the Nile, this follow-up in the Agatha Christie stakes seems woefully restricted with stilted dialogue and playing.
w Jonathan Hales, Barry Sandler novel Agatha Christie d Guy Hamilton ph Christopher Challis m John Cameron pd Michael Stringer
☆ Angela Lansbury, Geraldine Chaplin, Elizabeth Taylor, Rock Hudson, Tony Curtis, Edward Fox, Kim Novak, Marella Oppenheim, Charles Gray

'A story about just how wrong two people can be before they can be right...'

The Mirror Has Two Faces ④

US 1996 126m Technicolor
Columbia TriStar/Phoenix/Arnon Milchan/Barwood (Barbra Streisand, Arnon Milchan)
A dowdy academic marries a professor more interested in companionship than sex, until she reinvents herself as a desirable woman.
Creaky, frequently risible romantic hokum about the need to be adored, somewhat undermined by the fact that Streisand looks better before, rather than after, her transformation into a sex goddess.
w Richard LaGravenese d Barbra Streisand ph Dante Spinotti, Andrzej Bartkowiak m Marvin Hamlisch, Barbra Streisand pd Tom John ed Jeff Werner
☆ Barbra Streisand, Jeff Bridges, Pierce Brosnan, George Segal, Mimi Rogers, Brenda Vaccaro, Lauren Bacall, Austin Pendleton, Elle Macpherson
'A vanity production of the first order. A staggeringly obsessive expression of the importance of appearances, good looks and being adored, Barbra Streisand's third directorial outing is also, incidentally, a very old-fashioned wish-fulfillment romantic comedy that has been directed and performed in the broadest possible manner.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety
'I have never seen so many shots of a star staring into a mirror. Streisand seems to be in the unique position of being her own co-star for most of the movie. This has to be a cinema first: a romantic comedy for one.' – Tom Shone, Sunday Times
† It is based on the French film Le Miroir a Deux Faces, written by André Cayatte and Gerard Oury, directed by Cayatte in 1958 and starring Michele Morgan.
♫ Lauren Bacall; song 'I Finally Found Someone' (m/ly Barbra Streisand, Marvin Hamlisch, Bryan Adams, Robert 'Mutt' Lange)

'Try Not To Stare. Mirrors Never Lie.'

Mirror, Mirror

US 1990 98m colour
Orphan Eyes (Jimmy Lifton)
A shy and troubled teenage girl uses the power in a demonic mirror to torment and kill the classmates and teachers who persecute her.
Unpleasant gothic horror that is obviously heavily indebted to Carrie, though much sillier.
w Annette Cascone, Gina Cascone, Yuri Zeltser, Marina Sargenti d Marina Sargenti ph Robert Brinkmann m Jimmy Lifton pd Stuart Blatt ed Barry Dresner, Glenn Morgan
☆ Karen Black (Susan Gordon), Yvonne De Carlo (Emelin), Rainbow Harvest (Megan Gordon), Kristin Dattilo (Nikki Chandler), Ricky Paull Goldin (Ron), Dorit Sauer (Kim), Stephen Tobolowsky (Mr Anderson), William Sanderson (Mr Vere)

'A World Where Dreams Are Real.'

Mirrormask ★

US 2004 101m colour
Tartan/Destination/Jim Henson (Simon Moorhead)
A teenage girl, unhappy with her life in her parents' circus, travels to a fantasy world that reflects her dreams and fears.
A visually interesting feature, mixing live action and computer-generated effects, but one that is less interesting in its exploration of adolescent troubles.
w Neil Gaiman d David McKean ph Antony Shearn m Ian Ballamy pd David McKean ed Nicolas Gaster
☆ Jason Barry (Valentine), Rob Brydon (Morris Campbell/Prime Minister), Stephanie Leonidas (Helena/Anti-Helena), Gina McKee (Joanne/Queen of Light/Queen of Shadows)
'Like many dreams, you won't remember it when you wake up. The style obliterates any emotional attachment.' – Jami Bernard, New York Daily News

'In her book, there's a fine line between fantasy and reality – and she's walking it!'

The Misadventures of Margaret

GB/France 1998 93m DeLuxe
Feature/Mandarin/TF1/Lunatics and Lovers (Ian Benson)
A married American writer becomes excessively flirtatious as the result of researching a novel set in 18th-century France.
An odd comedy of sexual exploration that never quite manages the sophistication it needs.
wd Brian Skeet novel Rameau's Niece by Cathleen Schine ph Romain Winding m James Shearman pd Martin Childs ed Clare Douglas ☆ Parker Posey, Jeremy Northam, Craig Chester, Elizabeth McGovern, Brooke Shields, Corbin Bernsen, Justine Waddell, Patrick Bruel
'Coarse in the current female-laddish fashion, but not badly performed. And it's often verbally funny.' – Philip French, Observer

Mischief ★

US 1985 93m DeLuxe
Jere Henshaw-Michael Nolin/TCF
Teenage anxieties in smalltown America in 1956
Clearly not for export, but a smooth piece of its kind.
w Noel Black d Mel Damski ph Donald E. Thorin pd Paul Peters ed Nick Brown ☆ Doug McKeon, Catherine Mary Stewart, Kelly Preston, Chris Nash

Mischief Night ★ ⑥

UK 2006 93m
Verve Pictures/Company Pictures/Film Four/Screen Yorkshire/UK Film Council (Abi Bach, Willow Grylls)
Whites and Asians on a Leeds sink estate interact in the run-up to Yorkshire's traditional night of juvenile hi-jinks.
Humorous depiction of urban blight that offers a refreshing alternative to the Ken Loach school of gritty social realism.
wd Penny Woolcock ph Robbie Ryan m Murray Gold pd John Ellis ad Sami Khan, Jo Baker ed Michael Parker
☆ Kelli Hollis (Tina), Ramon Tikaram (Immie), Christopher Simpson (Qassim), Michael Taylor (Tyler), Qasim Akhtar (Asif), Holly Kenny (Kimberley)
'Broad and bawdy and brimming with life.' – Xan Brooks, Guardian

Les Misérables ★★★★

US 1935 109m bw
Twentieth Century (Darryl F. Zanuck)
Unjustly convicted and sentenced to years in the galleys, Jean Valjean emerges to build up his life again but is hounded by a cruel and relentless police officer.
Solid, telling, intelligent version of a much-filmed classic novel; in adaptation and performance it is hard to see how this film could be bettered.
w W. P. Lipscomb novel Victor Hugo d Richard Boleslawski ph Gregg Toland m Alfred Newman ed Barbara McLean
☆ Fredric March (Jean Valjean), Charles Laughton (Javert), Cedric Hardwicke (Bishop Bienvenu), Rochelle Hudson (Big Cosette), Frances Drake (Eponine), John Beal (Marius), Jessie Ralph (Mme. Magloire), Florence Eldridge (Fantine)
'Brilliant filmization, sure fire for heavy money.' – Variety
'Unbelievably thrilling in all the departments of its manufacture ... a memorable experience in the cinema.' – New York Times
'A superlative effort, a thrilling, powerful, poignant picture.' – New York Evening Post
'Deserving of rank among the cinema's finest achievements.' – New York World Telegram
† Other versions of the story: 1909, 1913 (French); 1917 (William Farnum); 1923

(French: Gabriel Gabrio); 1929 as The Bishop's Candlesticks (Walter Huston); 1934 (French: Harry Baur); 1946 (Italian: Gino Cervi); 1952 (see below); 1956 (French: Jean Gabin; see below); 1978 (British: Richard Jordan)

best picture; Gregg Toland; editing

Les Misérables ★★

US 1952 106m bw
TCF (Fred Kohlmar)

Solemn remake, well done but lacking the spark of inspiration.
w Richard Murphy d Lewis Milestone ph Joseph LaShelle m Alex North ☆ Michael Rennie, Robert Newton, Edmund Gwenn, Debra Paget, Cameron Mitchell, Sylvia Sidney, Elsa Lanchester, James Robertson Justice, Joseph Wiseman, Rhys Williams

Les Misérables ★★★

France 1995 177m colour Super 35
Warner/Films 13/TF1/Canal (Claude Lelouch)

A former boxing champion who helps a Jewish couple during the Nazi occupation of France finds that his life begins to resemble that of Jean Valjean, the hero of Victor Hugo's novel.
An engrossing, intriguing, emotionally satisfying drama that both echoes and dramatizes Hugo's epic, revealing the timelessness of the story and the changes that time and circumstance might have made to its characters.
wd Claude Lelouch novel Victor Hugo ph Claude Lelouch, Philippe Pavans de Ceccatty m Francis Lai, Didier Barbelivien, Philippe Servain, Erik Berchot, Michel Legrand ad Jacques Bufnoir ed Hélène de Luze ☆ Jean-Paul Belmondo (Henri Fortin/Jean Valjean/Roger Fortin), Michel Boujenah (Andre Ziman), Alessandra Martines (Elise Ziman), Annie Girardot (Farmer Woman), Philippe Leotard (Farmer), Clementine Celarie (Catherine/Fantine), Rufus (Thenardier Father and Son), Ticky Holgado (The Kind Hoodlum)
'Hugely ambitious in both theme and scope and brimming with sheer delight in the medium.' – Derek Elley, Variety
'A righteous, passionate and witty soap opera.' – Sarah Kerr, New Yorker

Les Misérables ★

US 1998 134m Technicolor Panavision
Entertainment/Mandalay (Sarah Radclyffe, James Gorman)

A former convict who makes good is hounded by a ruthless policeman.
Dour version of the classic novel, one that takes itself too seriously, repressing the romantic sweep of its narrative.
w Rafael Yglesias novel Victor Hugo d Bille August ph Jörgen Persson m Basil Poledouris pd Anna Asp ed Janus Billeskov-Jansen
☆ Liam Neeson, Geoffrey Rush, Uma Thurman, Claire Danes, Hans Matheson, Reine Brynolfsson, Peter Vaughan
'An impressive, brooding monolith of a film ... Unfortunately, it really isn't much fun, a cardinal sin in this sort of epic spectacle.' – Andrew O'Hehir, Sight and Sound

Les Misérables de Victor Hugo ★

France/Italy 1958 210m Technicolor Technirama
Pathé/P.A.C./Serena (Paul Cadeac)

Jean Valjean escapes from prison and makes a new life for himself, but his old one catches up with him.
Stolid version of Hugo's classic, gaining what distinction it has from Gabin's performance.
w René Barjavel, Jean-Paul Le Chanois d Jean-Paul Le Chanois ph Jacques Natteau m Georges Van Parys ad Serge Pimenoff, Karl Schneider ed Emma Le Chanois
☆ Jean Gabin (Jean Valjean), Bernard Blier (Javert), Danièle Delorme, Serge Reggiani, Bourvil, Gianni Esposito, Martine Havet, Béatrice Altariba, Elfriede Florin, Jimmy Urbain, Jean Murat, Lucien Baroux, Silvia Monfort
† The film is sometimes shown in two parts. The best French version is that of Raymond Bernard, who made a three-part adaptation of the novel in 1933 starring Harry Baur under the titles Tempête sous un Crane (120m), Les Thénardiers (90m), and Liberté, Liberté Chérie (95m). He later cut it to a two-part film: Jean Valjean (109m) and Cosette (100m).

'Paul Sheldon used to write for a living. Now he's writing to stay alive.'

Misery ★★

US 1990 107m CFI color
Medusa/Castle Rock/Nelson (Andrew Scheinman, Rob Reiner)

A disturbed fan kidnaps an injured novelist and forces him to write a novel featuring her favourite heroine.
Impeccably directed, tense thriller.
w William Goldman novel Stephen King d Rob Reiner ph Barry Sonnenfeld m Marc Shaiman pd Norman Garwood ed Robert Leighton
☆ James Caan, Kathy Bates, Richard Farnsworth, Frances Sternhagen, Lauren Bacall, Graham Jarvis, Jerry Potter
'This astonishing film is a taut, darkly comic thriller and a post-modernist examination of the relationship between writer and reader, detached producer and vulnerable consumer, artist and critic.' – Philip French, Observer
Kathy Bates

'It shouts and sings with life ... explodes with love!'

The Misfits ★

US 1961 124m bw
United Artists/Seven Arts (Frank E. Taylor)

Cowboys gather in the Nevada desert to rope wild mustangs, and a divorcee becomes involved with one of them.
Ill-fated melodrama whose stars both died shortly afterwards; a solemn, unattractive, pretentious film which seldom stops wallowing in self-pity.
w Arthur Miller d John Huston ph Russell Metty m Alex North ad Stephen Grimes, William Newberry ed George Tomasini
☆ Clark Gable (Gay Langland), Marilyn Monroe (Roslyn Taber), Montgomery Clift (Perce Howland), Eli Wallach (Guido), Thelma Ritter (Isabelle Steers), James Barton (Old man), Estelle Winwood (Church lady), Kevin McCarthy (Raymond Taber)
'The theme with its implications of an essentially male savagery suits Mr Huston, and he has drawn extraordinary qualities from all his chief players.' – Dilys Powell

Mishima ★

US 1985 120m Technicolor Panavision
Coppola-Lucas/Warner

Fragments of autobiography by the self-destructing Japanese writer.
A complete switch-off for all but the initiated, this indulgent, delicate, violent kaleidoscope is half a work of art and half an utter waste of other people's money.
w Paul and Leonard Schrader d Paul Schrader ph John Bailey m Philip Glass ☆ Ken Ogata, Kanji Sawada, Yasosuke Bando

Misplaced

US 1989 95m colour
Subway (Lisa Zwerling)

In the early 80s, a Polish woman and her teenage son leave the political unrest of Poland to settle in Washington with family that she has not seen for more than 30 years.
Earnestly effective low-key drama of the problems of assimilation into a different culture, on a personal and a public level.
w Louis Yansen, Thomas DeWolfe d Louis Yansen ph Igor Sunara m Michael Urbaniak pd Beth Kuhn ed Michael Berenbaum
☆ John Cameron Mitchell, Viveca Lindfors, Elzbieta Czyzewska, Drew Snyder, Deirdre O'Connell, John Christopher Jones, Debralee Scott

Miss Amerigua

Paraguay/Sweden 1994 93m colour
FilmTeknik/Latino (Luis R. Vera)

A man returns home from Nicaragua to revenge the death of his father, which he witnessed as a boy, only to discover that the city is in the grip of a beauty competition.
Ham-fisted, if amiable and meandering, political farce.
w Luis R. Vera, Andrés Colmán d Luis R. Vera ph Mårten Nilsson m Jan Tolf ad Carlos dos Santos ed Lisskulla Moltke-Hoff
☆ Sonia Marchewka, Raquel Baeza, Ayesa Frutos, Jesús Perez, Hector Silva, Jorge Baez, Jorge Ramos
'Mild political satire with touches of magical realism that paints an agreeably sketchy portrait of a fictional South American town.' – Ken Eisner, Variety
† It was the first feature to be made in Paraguay for 30 years.

Miss Annie Rooney

US 1942 86m bw
Edward Small

Poor Irish girl loves rich boy.
A totally routine offering for a teenage star; no wonder she didn't make it.
w George Bruce d Edwin L. Marin ph Lester White md Edward Paul ☆ Shirley Temple, William Gargan, Guy Kibbee, Dickie Moore, Peggy Ryan, Gloria Holden, Jonathan Hale, Mary Field

'She's Got A Killer to Catch...Right After The Swimsuit Competition.'

Miss Congeniality ★

US 2000 111m Technicolor
Warner/Castle Rock/Village Roadshow/NPV/Fortis (Sandra Bullock)

An uncouth, graceless FBI agent has to be transformed from an ugly duckling into a swan so that she can go undercover as a contestant in the Miss United States contest, which is being threatened by a terrorist.
A broad comedy of a familiar kind with a few good laughs among the pratfalls.
w Marc Lawrence d Donald Petrie ph Laszlo Kovacs m Edward Shearmur ch Scott Grossman pd Peter Larkin ed Billy Weber cos Susie De Santo ☆ Sandra Bullock (Gracie Hart), Michael Caine (Victor Melling), Benjamin Bratt (Eric Matthews), William Shatner (Stan Fields), Ernie Hudson (McDonald), John DiResta (Agent Clonsky), Candice Bergen (Kathy Morningside), Heather Burns (Cheryl 'Rhode Island'), Melissa De Sousa (Karen 'New York'), Steve Monroe (Frank Tobin)
'Happily, deliberately second-rate, as if its ideal audience consisted of weary airline passengers.' – A.O. Scott, New York Times

Miss Congeniality 2: Armed & Fabulous ③

US/Australia 2005 115m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Castle Rock/Village Roadshow/Fortis (Sandra Bullock, Marc Lawrence)

An FBI agent is groomed as the public face of the agency after her cover is blown.
Dull, coarse slapstick comedy that plays down Sandra Bullock's natural ebullience in favour of a less likeable personality.
w Marc Lawrence d John Pasquin ph Peter Menzies m Christophe Beck, Randy Edelman pd Maher Ahmad ed Garth Craven
☆ Sandra Bullock (Gracie Hart), Regina King (Sam Fuller), Enrique Murciano (Jeff Foreman), William Shatner (Stan Fields), Ernie Hudson (McDonald), Heather Burns (Cheryl)
'It's unnecessary in the sense that there is no good reason to go and actually see it.' – Roger Ebert
'Must be seen to be believed, though I'm not suggesting you actually see it.' – Joe Morgenstern, Wall Street Journal

Miss Fane's Baby Is Stolen

US 1933 67m bw
Paramount
GB title: Kidnapped

A film star's baby is kidnapped.
Fairly straightforward crime yarn with comic asides.
w Adela Rogers St Johns, Rupert Hughes d Alexander Hall
☆ Dorothea Wieck, Alice Brady, Baby LeRoy, William Frawley, George Barbier, Alan Hale, Jack La Rue
'Box office as well as entertainment ... the first picture of its kind since the Lindbergh kidnapping.' – Variety

Miss Firecracker

US 1989 103m DuArt
Rank/Firecracker Company/Corsair (Fred Berner)

An orphaned girl enters her home-town beauty contest.
Unconvincing in its portrayal of a young woman discovering her individuality.
w Beth Hanley play The Miss Firecracker Contest by Beth Hanley d Thomas Schlamme ph Arthur Albert m David Mansfield, Homer Denison pd Maher Ahmad ed Peter C. Frank ☆ Holly Hunter, Mary Steenburgen, Tim Robbins, Alfre Woodard, Scott Glenn, Veanne Cox, Ann Wedgeworth, Trey Wilson, Amy Wright, Kathleen Chalfant

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Miss Grant Takes Richmond ★

US 1949 87m bw
Columbia (S. Sylvan Simon)
GB title: Innocence Is Bliss

A dumb secretary helps defeat crooks and improve the local housing situation.
Mildly amusing star comedy.
w Nat Perrin, Devery Freeman, Frank Tashlin d Lloyd Bacon ph Charles Lawton Jnr m Heinz Roemheld md Morris Stoloff
☆ Lucille Ball, William Holden, Janis Carter, James Gleason, Gloria Henry, Frank McHugh, George Cleveland

'One of the more delightful comedies of the season.' – Lawrence J. Quirk

Miss Julie ★

Sweden 1950 87m bw
Sandrew (Rune Waldekranz)

In a lonely house, the count's daughter kills herself after being seduced by a valet.
Intense melodramatic fragment, just a little long for comfort.
wd Alf Sjöberg play August Strindberg
ph Göran Strindberg m Dag Wirén
☆ Anita Björk, Ulf Palme, Anders Henrikson

'The outstanding achievement of the Swedish cinema in recent years.' – Gavin Lambert, Sight and Sound

'Worlds apart...bound by desire.'

Miss Julie ★

GB/US 1999 101m colour
Optimum/Moonstone/Red Mullet (Mike Figgis, Harriet Cruikshank)

A footman begins a doomed love affair with his employer's flirtatious daughter.
A low budget version of Strindberg's study of sexual desire, power and ambition, shot on video with handheld cameras, which provide immediacy but also distract from the drama.
w Helen Cooper play August Strindberg
d Mike Figgis ph Benoit Delhomme
m Mike Figgis pd Michael Howells
ed Matthew Wood
☆ Saffron Burrows (Miss Julie), Peter Mullan (Jean), Maria Doyle Kennedy (Christine)

'Worth seeing because films rarely contain characters of such quality and intricacy.' – Film Review

Miss London Ltd

GB 1943 99m bw
GFD/Gainsborough (Edward Black)

An escort agency is formed to assist soldiers on leave.
Flagwaving light entertainment with popular performers of the time.
w Val Guest, Marriott Edgar d Val Guest ph Basil Emmott md Louis Levy songs Manning Sherwin (m), Val Guest (ly) ☆ Arthur Askey, Anne Shelton, Evelyn Dall, Richard Hearne, Max Bacon, Jack Train, Peter Graves, Jean Kent

Miss Marple

Agatha Christie's inquisitive spinster detective was brought to the screen by director George Pollock and star Margaret Rutherford in four increasingly disappointing films for MGM.
1962 Murder She Said (qv)
1963 Murder at the Gallop
1964 Murder Most Foul, Murder Ahoy
See also The Mirror Crack'd.

Miss Mary

Argentina 1986 110m Eastmancolor
New World/GEA (Lita Stantic)

During the period between the two world wars, an English governess of a wealthy Argentinian family forms too close an attachment to the young son of the household.
An attempt to chart the social changes in Argentina, culminating in Perón's takeover, through the upheavals in one dysfunctional family; but the focus is too diffused, and there is little cohesion between its succession of effective individual episodes.
w Maria Luisa Bemberg, Jorge Goldenberg
d Maria Luisa Bemberg ph Miguel Rodriguez ed Luisa Cesar d'Angiolillo ☆ Julie Christie, Nacha Guevara, Eduardo Pavlovsky, Luisina Brando, Gerardo Romano, Iris Marga, Guillermo Battaglia

Miss Pacific Fleet

US 1935 76m bw
Warner

Two stranded show girls enter a popularity contest to win the fare back home.
A comedy with little to laugh at.
w Lucille Newmark, Peter Milne, Patsy Flick
d Ray Enright ph Arthur Todd md Leo F. Forbstein ad Esdras Hartley ed Clarence Kolster ☆ Glenda Farrell, Joan Blondell, Hugh Herbert, Allen Jenkins, Warren Hull, Guinn Williams

'Maybe OK for double feature bills, but that's the best it can hope for.' – Variety

Miss Pilgrim's Progress

GB 1949 82m bw
Daniel M. Angel

An American working girl in Britain helps to save a village from development.
Wholly artificial and unendearing comedy.
wd Val Guest ph Bert Mason m Phillip Martell
☆ Yolande Donlan, Michael Rennie, Garry Marsh, Emrys Jones, Reginald Beckwith, Helena Pickard, Jon Pertwee

Miss Pinkerton ★

US 1932 66m bw
Warner

A private nurse helps a police detective to solve a murder case.
Pleasing little mystery comedy.
w Lillian Hayward, Niven Busch story Mary Roberts Rinehart d Lloyd Bacon ph Barney McGill
☆ Joan Blondell, George Brent, Mae Madison, John Wray, Ruth Hall, C. Henry Gordon, Elizabeth Patterson

'Formula mystery story ... picture is outdated and has nothing to draw.' – Variety † Remade as The Nurse's Secret (1946).

'The life of Beatrix Potter is the most enchanting tale of all.'

Miss Potter ⑥

UK/US 2006 93m
Momentum/Phoenix Pictures/David Kirschner Productions/Isle of Man Film/UK Film Council/Weinstein Company (Arnold W. Messer, David Thwaites, Mike Medavoy, David Kirschner, Corey Sienega)

An account of the life of children's author Beatrix Potter, creator of Peter Rabbit and Jemima Puddleduck.
Exasperating film that hovers between grown-up biography and syrupy adorability. It short-changes Potter's remarkably broad range of interests with a big lie: that her whole life was devoted to writing and illustrating books. Her romance with publisher Norman Warne is milked for all it's worth, yet it sits uncomfortably beside another assertion: that Beatrix was feisty, independent and reluctant to marry. These were not Zellweger's finest moments, and scenes in which she talks to her illustrated animals, who come to life on the page, are jarring. Ewan McGregor provides the best moments as the eager, self-effacing Norman, but overall it's an incoherent mess.
w Richard Maltby Jr. d Chris Noonan
ph Andrew Dunn m Nigel Westlake pd Martin Childs ad Mark Raggett
ed Robin Sales
☆ Renee Zellweger (Beatrix Potter), Ewan McGregor (Norman Warne), Emily Watson (Millie Warne), Bill Paterson (Rupert Potter), Barbara Flynn (Helen Potter)

'Horrifically twee.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian
'Tepid biopic.' – Kirk Honeycutt, Hollywood Reporter
'Pitched awkwardly – neither for children nor cool young adults – it's very sweet, very nice, and just the thing for a girlie matinee with mum and nan.' – Angie Errigo, Empire

Miss Robin Hood

GB 1952 78m bw
Group 3

A lady author pits her wits against crooks and saves an old lady's fortune.
Disappointing star comedy with no build-up.
w Val Valentine, Patrick Campbell, Geoffrey Orme d John Guillermin ph Arthur Grant m Temple Abady
☆ Margaret Rutherford, Richard Hearne, Michael Medwin, Peter Jones, James Robertson Justice, Sidney James, Dora Bryan

'She's The Only Dame With A Kiss Of Flame!'

Miss Sadie Thompson ★

US 1953 91m Technicolor 3-D
Columbia (Lewis J. Rachmil)

On a Pacific island, a singer becomes involved with a marine, to the consternation of a local preacher.
Vigorous semi-musical remake of Rain (qv); a good star vehicle, but not otherwise notable.
w Harry Kleiner d Curtis Bernhardt
ph Charles Lawton m George Duning md Morris W. Stoloff ch Lee Scott ad Carl anderson ed Viola Lawrence
☆ Rita Hayworth (Sadie Thompson), José Ferrer (Rev Alfred Davidson), Aldo Ray (Sgt Phil O'Hara), Russell Collins (Dr Robert MacPhail), Harry Bellaver (Joe Horn), Wilton Graf (Governor), Peggy Converse (Margaret Davidson), Charles Buchinsky (Bronson) (Edwards)
♫ song 'Blue Pacific Blues' (m Lester Lee, ly Ned Washington)

'A story for lovers ... past, present and perfect!'

Miss Susie Slagle's

US 1946 88m bw
Paramount (John Houseman)

Romances of nursing students in 1910 Baltimore.
Modest melodramatic potboiler.
w Anne Froelick, Hugo Butler novel Augusta Tucker d John Berry
ph Charles Lang Jnr m Daniele Amfitheatrof
☆ Veronica Lake, Joan Caulfield, Sonny Tufts, Lillian Gish, Ray Collins, Billy de Wolfe, Bill Edwards, Roman Bohnen, Morris Carnovsky, Lloyd Bridges

Miss Tatlock's Millions ★

US 1948 101m bw
Paramount (Charles Brackett)

A stunt man impersonates the idiot heir to a fortune.
Tasteless but quite funny comedy with a cast of eccentrics indulging in enjoyable fooling.
w Charles Brackett, Richard L. Breen
d Richard Haydn ph Charles Lang Jnr
m Victor Young
☆ John Lund, Wanda Hendrix, Monty Woolley, Barry Fitzgerald, Robert Stack, Ilka Chase, Dorothy Stickney

Miss V from Moscow

US 1942 70m bw
PRC

A Russian spy impersonates a German spy in Paris.
Hilariously inept propaganda piece; since the Cold War it has been retitled Intrigue in Paris.
w Arthur St Claire and Sherman Lowe
d Albert Herman ☆ Lola Lane, Noel Madison, Howard Banks

'Loyalty Without Question. Friendship Without Equal.'

Mrs Brown ★★★ ⑧

GB 1997 103m colour
Miramax/Ecosse (Sarah Curtis)

Faithful Scottish servant John Brown lifts Queen Victoria out of her funereal gloom, arousing the jealousy of her other household staff.
Absorbing, deftly directed, excellently acted drama that, while concentrating on personal relationships, raises still-vital questions about the point and purpose of the monarchy.
w Jeremy Brock d John Madden
ph Richard Greatrex m Stephen Warbeck pd Martin Childs ad Charlotte Watts
ed Robin Sales
☆ Judi Dench (Queen Victoria), Billy Connolly (John Brown), Geoffrey Palmer (Henry Ponsonby), Anthony Sher (Disraeli), Gerald Butler (Archie Brown), Richard Pasco (Doctor Jenner), David Westhead (Bertie, Prince of Wales)

'Possesses resonances that are rich, complex and instructive.' – Richard Williams, Guardian

† Executive producer Douglas Rae conceived the film in the 60s and originally planned to cast Sean Connery in the role of John Brown, but the film was then abandoned when he learned that the Royal Family was not happy with the project.
♗ Judi Dench; make-up
♉ Judi Dench; Deidre Clancy (costumes)

Mrs Brown, You've Got a Lovely Daughter

GB 1968 95m Metrocolor Panavision
MGM/Allen Klein

A young singer inherits a prize greyhound.
Inoffensive comedy musical with a swinging London background.
w Thaddeus Vane d Saul Swimmer ph Jack Hildyard m/ly Graham Couldman, Geoff Stephens, Kenny Young ☆ Peter Noone and Herman's Hermits, Stanley Holloway, Mona Washbourne, Lance Percival, Marjorie Rhodes

Mrs Caldicot's Cabbage War

GB 2001 110m colour
Arrow/Evolution/Cabbage (Andy Birmingham)

A widow leads residents of an old people's home in a revolt against the unfeeling way it is run.

Amiable but limp comedy that begins well but quickly runs of of steam; it might have made an amusing half-hour TV sitcom.
w Malcolm Stone novel Vernon Coleman d Ian Sharp ph Sue Gibson m Alan Lisk pd Malcolm Stone ed Gerry Hambling
☆ Pauline Collins (Mrs Caldicot), Peter Capaldi (Derek Caldicot), Anna Wilson-Jones (Veronica Caldicot), Gwenlian Davies (Audrey), Sheila Reid (Joyce), Frank Mills (Leslie), Frank Middlemass (Bernard), John Alderton (Hawksmoor), Isla Blair (Matron), Paul Freeman (Peter Jenkins), Martin Jarvis (JB)

'About 10 minutes in, I all but lost the will to live.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

Mrs Dalloway ★★

GB/US/Netherlands 1997 97m Rank Colour
Artificial Eye/First Look (Stephen Bayly, Lisa Katselas Paré)

In the 20s, a society hostess looks back on her life and thinks of what might have been.
Gripping, pensive examination of the possibilities and missed opportunities of life.
w Eileen Atkins novel Virginia Woolf d Marleen Gorris ph Sue Gibson m Ilona Sekacz pd David Richens ed Michiel Reichwein
☆ Vanessa Redgrave, Natascha McElhone, Rupert Graves, Michael Kitchen, John Standing, Alan Cox, Lena Headey, Margaret Tyzack, Sarah Badel, Phyllis Calvert

'A highly romantic, deeply melancholy drama, the film offers psychological and existential insights about the inevitable effects – and price – of life choices.' – Emanuel Levy, Variety

'She makes dinner. She does windows. She reads bedtime stories. She's a blessing ... in disguise.'

Mrs Doubtfire ★

US 1993 125m DeLuxe
Panavision
TCF/Blue Wolf (Marcia Garces Williams, Robin Williams, Mark Radcliffe)

An unemployed actor, allowed only weekly visits to his two children, disguises himself as a nanny so that he can spend more time with them.
If you can accept Williams as a Scotswoman – he looks like a truck driver in drag and sounds like Miss Jean Brodie long past her prime – there is occasional slapstick amusement to be found in this over-long and sickly sweet comedy.
w Randi Mayem Singer, Leslie Dixon novel Alias Madam Doubtfire by Anne Fine d Chris Columbus ph Donald McAlpine m Howard Shore pd Angelo Graham ed Raja Gosnell sp Greg Cannom
☆ Robin Williams, Sally Field, Pierce Brosnan, Harvey Fierstein, Polly Holiday, Lisa Jakub, Matthew Lawrence, Mara Wilson, Robert Prosky

'Lessons are learned, loved ones are hugged, and personal growth is achieved – as usual, at the expense of the comedy. Some, apparently, including Williams, like it warm and cuddly, too. Nobody's perfect.' – Terrence Rafferty, New Yorker
'A really wholesome movie about a man in a bra; it's like watching a John Waters movie rewritten by John Hughes.' – Libby Gelman-Waxner, Premiere
'This Robin Williams-in-drag vehicle provides the comic with a slick surface for doing his shtick, within a story possessing broad family appeal.' – Variety

† The film was a success in America, taking more than $200m at the box-office.
♗ make-up

Mrs Fitzherbert

GB 1947 99m bw
British National (Louis H. Jackson)
The Prince Regent secretly marries a Catholic widow.
Stilted, ill-cast historical charade.
wd Montgomery Tully novel Winifred Carter ph James Wilson m Hans May ad R. Holmes Paul ed Charles Hasse
☆ Peter Graves, Joyce Howard, Leslie Banks, Margaretta Scott, Mary Clare, Frederick Valk, Ralph Truman, John Stuart, Chili Bouchier

'Nudity - Variety - High Society .'

Mrs Henderson Presents ★ ⑤

GB/US 2005 103m Technicolor
Pathé/BBC/Future Films/Micro-Fusion/Weinstein Co (Norma Heyman)

An elderly widow buys London's Windmill Theatre and ensures it stays open during the Second World War, putting on nude revues for audiences of servicemen.
Rose-tinted nostalgia which gives the past and the actual theatre a gloss it did not possess; it comes alive only in the clashes between the formidable egos of Mrs H and her right-hand man, Vivian Van Damm.
w Martin Sherman d Stephen Frears ph Andrew Dunn m George Fenton ch Eleanor Fazan, Debbie Astell pd Hugo Luczyc-Wyhowski ed Lucia Zucchetti cos Sandy Powell
☆ Judi Dench (Laura Henderson), Bob Hoskins (Vivian Van Damm), Will Young (Bertie), Christopher Guest (Lord Cromer), Kelly Reilly (Maureen), Thelma Barlow (Lady Conway)

'Bigscreen feature executed with a cookie-cutter small-screen sensibility' – David Rooney, Variety
'An insidiously ghastly piece of Blitz-kitsch nostalgia, reeking with chirpiness.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian
♗ Judi Dench; Sandy Powell

Mrs Loring's Secret: see The Imperfect Lady

Mrs Mike

US 1949 99m bw
Nassour/Huntingdon Hartford (Edward Gross)
A Mountie takes his new wife to live in the frozen northwest.
Predictable sentimental drama, well enough done to keep interest, but only just.
w Lewis Levitt, De Witt Bodeen d Louis King ph Joseph Biroc m Max Steiner ☆ Dick Powell, Evelyn Keyes, J. M. Kerrigan, Angela Clarke

Mrs Miniver ★★

US 1942 134m bw
MGM (Sidney Franklin)

An English housewife survives World War II.
This is the rose-strewn English village, Hollywood variety, but when released it proved a beacon of morale despite its false sentiment, absurd rural types and melodramatic situations. It is therefore beyond criticism, except that some of the people involved should have known better.
w Arthur Wimperis, George Froeschel, James Hilton, Claudine West novel Jan Struther d William Wyler ph Joseph Ruttenberg m Herbert Stothart ed Harold F. Kress
☆ Greer Garson, Walter Pidgeon, Teresa Wright, Richard Ney, Dame May Whitty, Henry Travers, Reginald Owen, Henry Wilcoxon, Helmut Dantine, Rhys Williams, Aubrey Mather
VICAR (HENRY WILCOXON) PREACHING FINAL SERMON IN BOMBED CHURCH: 'This is not only a war of soldiers in uniforms. It is a war of the people – of all the people – and it must be fought not only on the battlefield but in the cities and in the villages, in the factories and on the farms, in the home and in the heart of every man, woman and child who loves freedom. Well, we have buried our dead, but we shall not forget them. Instead, they will inspire us with an unbreakable determination to free ourselves and those who come after us from the tyranny and terror that threaten to strike us down. This is the people's war. It is our war. We are the fighters. Fight it, then. Fight it with all that is in us. And may God defend the right.'

'That almost impossible feat, a war picture that photographs the inner meaning, instead of the outward realism of World War II.' – Time
♗ best picture; script; William Wyler; Joseph Ruttenberg; Greer Garson; Teresa Wright
♗ Walter Pidgeon; Dame May Whitty; Henry Travers; Harold F. Kress

Mrs O'Malley and Mr Malone ★

US 1950 69m bw
MGM (William H. Wright)
On a train to New York, a radio contest winner and a lawyer help solve a murder.
Lively second feature farce.
w William Bowers d Norman Taurog ph Ray June m Adolph Deutsch ☆ Marjorie Main, James Whitmore, Ann Dvorak, Fred Clark, Dorothy Malone, Phyllis Kirk

'A Woman Ahead Of Her Time. A Movie That Can't Be Missed.'
'New York in the 1920's. The only place to be was the Algonquin, and the only person to know was Dorothy Parker.'

Mrs Parker and the Vicious Circle

US 1994 124m colour Super 35
Artificial Eye/Miramax/Fine Line (Robert Altman)

Dorothy Parker, a successful Hollywood screenwriter, recalls her earlier days and love affairs with wits and writers in New York and her regard for Robert Benchley.
A disappointing biopic of a complex, unhappy and talented writer. Jennifer Jason Leigh's mannered performance and drawled monotone may be true to the externals of Dorothy Parker but render her witticisms in such an unintelligible way that it is surprising that anyone was able to record them.
w Alan Rudolph, Randy Sue Coburn d Alan Rudolph ph Jan Kiesser m Mark Isham pd François Séguin ed Suzy Elmiger
☆ Jennifer Jason Leigh, Matthew Broderick, Campbell Scott, Peter Gallagher, Jennifer Beals, Andrew McCarthy, Wallace Shawn, Martha Plimpton, Sam Robards, Lili Taylor, James LeGros

'Buys into the self-pity, morbidity and pathos of Dorothy Parker's writing and life, rather than her robustness, comic verve and bracing good sense; it also seems to buy into the modern therapised view that wounding wit is the first resort of the wounded.' – Kevin Jackson, Independent

Mrs Parkington

US 1944 124m bw
MGM (Leon Gordon)

A lady's maid marries a miner who becomes wealthy, and pushes her way into society.
Thoroughly unconvincing three-generation drama, with a bewigged and powdered star giving the boot to her conniving relations. It has production values and nothing else.
w Robert Thoeren, Polly James novel Louis Bromfield d Tay Garnett ph Joseph Ruttenberg m Bronislau Kaper
☆ Greer Garson, Walter Pidgeon, Edward Arnold, Agnes Moorehead, Cecil Kellaway, Gladys Cooper, Frances Rafferty, Tom Drake, Peter Lawford, Dan Duryea, Hugh Marlowe, Selena Royle
† The heroine is shown having a romance with Edward VII when Prince of Wales; special scenes were shot for the European version substituting Cecil Kellaway, who played Edward, by Hugo Haas who played a European king of indeterminate origin.
♗ Greer Garson; Agnes Moorehead

Mrs Pollifax – Spy

US 1970 110m DeLuxe
UA/Mellor (Frederick Brisson)
A respectable American matron offers her services to the CIA and sees active service in Albania.
Incredible comedy-dramatic vehicle for a star who won't give up. An obvious failure from the word go.
w C. A. McKnight novel Dorothy Gilman d Leslie Martinson ph Joseph Biroc m Lalo Schifrin
☆ Rosalind Russell, Darren McGavin
† C. A. McKnight was Rosalind Russell.

Mrs Pym of Scotland Yard

GB 1939 65m bw
Hurley/Grand National
A lady detective exposes a fake spiritualist.
A would-be series character bites the dust through plot malnutrition.
w Fred Elles, Peggy Barwell, Nigel Morland novel Nigel Morland d Fred Elles
☆ Mary Clare, Edward Lexy, Nigel Patrick, Anthony Ireland, Irene Handl

Mrs Soffel

US 1984 110m Metrocolor
MGM-UA/Edgar Scherick/Scott Rudin

In 1901 Pittsburgh, a warder's wife falls for a prisoner and helps him escape.
A basis in truth does not prevent this from being both glum and dull from beginning to end, and pretentious treatment doesn't help.
w Ron Nyswaner d Gillian Armstrong ph Russell Boyd m Mark Isham pd Luciana Arrighi ed Nicholas Beauman
☆ Diane Keaton, Mel Gibson, Matthew Modine, Edward Herrmann

Mrs Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch ★

US 1934 80m bw
Paramount (Douglas MacLean)
Adventures of a poor family who live on the wrong side of the tracks in a broken down old shack.
A Depression fantasy of respectability and optimism, almost incredible to see now, although it plumbed the same never-never milieu as did Chaplin. Moments of comedy still please, but one does long for Mr Fields's delayed entry.
w William Slavens McNutt, Jane Storm novel Alice Hegan Rice d Norman Taurog ph Charles Lang

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · ♗ Academy Award · ♗ Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

☆ Pauline Lord, ZaSu Pitts, W. C. Fields, Evelyn Venable, Kent Taylor, Charles Middleton, Donald Meek, Edith Fellows, Virginia Weidler, George Breakston

'A nasty all's-right-with-the-world burlesque of poverty, with emotions to tug at such heartstrings as are worn dangling from the mouth.' – Otis Ferguson

Mrs Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch

US 1942 80m bw
Paramount

Curiously quick remake, almost word for word, but without the moments of inspiration.

w Doris Anderson, Jane Storm, William Slavens McNutt d Ralph Murphy ph Leo Tover

☆ Fay Bainter, Hugh Herbert, Vera Vague, Barbara Britton, Carl Switzer, Moroni Olsen, Billy Lee

Mrs Winterbourne

US 1996 104m Technicolor
TriStar/A&M (Dale Pollock, Ross Canter, Oren Koules)

A poor, pregnant woman is mistaken for the widow of a millionaire and taken in by his family.

A thriller is here turned into a family comedy for no good reason.

w Phoef Sutton, Lisa-Maria Radano story I Married a Dead Man by Cornell Woolrich d Richard Benjamin ph Alex Nepomniaschy m Patrick Doyle pd Evelyn Sakash ed Jacqueline Cambas, William Fletcher

☆ Shirley MacLaine, Ricki Lake, Brendan Fraser, Miguel Sandoval, Loren Dean, Paula Prentiss

'A sappy, old-fashioned and predictable vehicle ... that delivers requisite warmth but few laughs.' – Brian Lowry, Variety

† It is a remake of No Man of Her Own (qv), directed in 1950 by Mitchell Leisen and starring Barbara Stanwyck.

'Adventure Into The Unknown.'

Missile to the Moon

US 1959 69m bw
Astor/Layton (Marc Frederic)

With two escaped convicts and some stowaways, a scientist travels in a solar-powered rocket to the moon, which is inhabited by rock men, giant spiders and beauty queens in high heels.

Risible, bargain basement, rough and ready remake of The Cat Women on the Moon, with a cast full of beauty contest winners, including Miss Miami, Miss New Hampshire, Miss Yugoslavia, Miss France, Miss Germany and Miss Minnesota.

w H. E. Barrie, Vincent Fotre d Richard Cunha ph Meredith Nicholson m Nicholas Carras ad Sham Unlimited ed Everett Dodd sp Ira Anderson

☆ Richard Travis (Steve Dayton), Cathy Downs (June Saxton), K. T. Strevens (The Lido), Tommy Cook (Gene Fennell), Nina Bara (Alpha), Gary Clarke (Lon), Michael Whalen (Dirk Green)

Missiles from Hell: see The Battle of the V1

Missing ★

US 1982 122m Technicolor
Universal/Polygram/Peter Guber, Jon Peters (Edward and Mildred Lewis)

An American seeks his young son who has disappeared in Chile.

A further link in the chain of political thrillers from this director; well-wrought and compulsive but finally disappointing in its mixture of fact and fiction.

w Costa-Gavras, Donald Stewart book Thomas Hauser d Costa-Gavras ph Ricardo Aronovich m Vangelis pd Peter Jamison ed Françoise Bonnot

☆ Jack Lemmon, Sissy Spacek, Melanie Mayron, John Shea, Charles Cioffi, Richard Bradford

'Provocation and entertainment prove to be uneasy allies.' – Tom Milne, MFB

♟ screenplay (adaptation)
♙ Jack Lemmon; best picture; Sissy Spacek
♈ screenplay

'How far would you go, how much would you sacrifice to get back what you have lost?'

The Missing ★ (5)

US 2003 137m DeLuxe Arriflex Cameras widescreen
Columbia/Revolution (Brian Grazer, Daniel Ostroff, Ron Howard)

In New Mexico of the 1880s, a mother and her estranged father, who lives as a Native American, search for her daughter, kidnapped by renegade Apaches.

Old-fashioned Western with some interesting moments, but it never quite emerges from the great shadow cast by John Ford's The Searchers on a similar theme.

w Ken Kaufman novel The Last Ride by Thomas Eidson d Ron Howard ph Salvatore Totino m James Horner pd Guy Barnes ed Dan Hanley, Mike Hill

☆ Tommy Lee Jones (Samuel Jones), Cate Blanchett (Maggie Gilkeson), Eric Schweig (Chidin), Evan Rachel Wood (Lilly Gilkeson), Jenna Boyd (Dot Gilkeson), Steve Reevis (Two Stone), Ray McKinnon (Russell J. Wittick), Val Kilmer (Lt. Jim Ducharme)

'Nearly 50 years after John Ford's "Searchers" we have arrived at a point in film history when the movie industry can offer a less sophisticated version of the same material.' – Elvis Mitchell, New York Times

'Howard's finest film, a work of complexity and maturity, underpinned by a wry humour.' – Philip French, Observer

The Missing Gun ★

China 2002 86m colour
Columbia/First Film/Huayi Brothers/Taihe (Wang Zhongjun)

original title: Xun Qiang

In a small Chinese town, a hung-over cop discovers that his gun is missing and goes in search of it.

Pleasant drama of a man determined to redeem his reputation in a country where only police and criminals carry guns. It begins as a domestic comedy and gradually shades into something more sinister; it is also of interest for its depiction of rural life in modern China.

wd Lu Chuan story Fan Yiping ph Xie Zhengyu m Felling Band ad Lv Dong ed Zhang Yifan

☆ Jiang Wen (Ma Shan), Ning Jing (Li Xiaomeng), Wu Yujuan (Han Xiaoyun), Liu Xiaoning (Chen Jun), Wei Xiaoping (Stutterer Liu), Shi Liang (Zhou Xiaomeng), Pan Yong (Old Tree Ghost), Wang Xiaofan (Ma Dong)

'Graced by a sharp visual aesthetic and vigorous pacing.' – Variety

Missing in Action

US 1984 101m Metrocolor
Cannon (Menahem Golan, Yoram Globus)

An American colonel, having been taken prisoner and escaped, returns to Vietnam to find other 'missing' men.

Naïve, violent, jingoistic romp which caused quite a lot of box-office business around the world.

w James Bruner d Joseph Zito ph Joao Fernandes m Jay Chattaway ad Ladi Wilheim, Toto Castillo ed Joel Goodman

☆ Chuck Norris, M. Emmet Walsh, Lenore Kasdorf, James Hong

Missing in Action 2 – The Beginning

US 1985 95m TVC Color
Cannon (Menahem Golan, Yoram Globus)

A prequel to the above, showing the colonel's first escape.

More cheaply made, it runs like a series of offcuts, with emphasis on unpleasant violence.

w Arthur Silver, Larry Levinson, Steve Bing d Lance Hool ph Jorge Stahl Jnr m Brian May pd Michael Baugh ed Mark Conte, Marcus Nanton

☆ Chuck Norris, Soon Teck-Oh, Cosie Costa, Steven Williams

The Missing Juror

US 1944 71m bw
Columbia

Members of a murder jury are killed off one by one.

Minor puzzle piece from the I Love a Mystery series.

w Charles O'Neal d Budd Boetticher

☆ Jim Bannon, Janis Carter, George Macready

Missing Link

US 1988 92m colour
Universal

A million years in the past, a solitary man-ape, the rest of his kind having been killed by humans, wanders across the African continent.

Quirky film with no dialogue, notable for some arresting wildlife photography – of nature red in tooth and claw – though it does not convince with its creation of a missing link between ape and humans, a hairy, harmless dimwit who walks into trees.

wd David and Carolyn Hughes sp make-up: Rick Baker

☆ Peter Elliott, Michael Gambon (narrator)

Missing Pieces

US 1991 92m colour
Rank/Aaron Russo Entertainment

An out-of-work writer and an unemployed musician are pursued by crooks as they try to solve a riddle that will net them a fortune.

A chase comedy that rounds up the usual clichés and then recycles them.

wd Leonard Stern ph Peter Stein m Marvin Hamlisch pd Michael Z. Hanan ed Evan Lottman

☆ Eric Idle, Robert Wuhl, Lauren Hutton, Bob Gunton, Richard Belzer, Bernie Kopell, Kim Lankford, Don Gibb

The Missing Rembrandt

GB 1932 82m bw
Twickenham

Sherlock Holmes saves a lady's honour and nails a blackmailer.

Not the best of this particular series, but Wontner is a Holmes to relish.

w Cyril Twyford, H. Fowler Mear story Charles Augustus Milverton by Arthur Conan Doyle d Leslie Hiscott ph Basil Emmott

☆ Arthur Wontner, Ian Fleming, Jane Welsh, Miles Mander, Francis L. Sullivan

Missing Ten Days: see Ten Days in Paris

The Mission ★★

GB 1986 128m Rank Colour JDC wide screen
Goldcrest/Kingsmere/Enigma/Fernando Ghia (David Puttnam)

In mid-18th-century South America, Jesuit priests fall foul of avaricious colonialists.

Sincere to the point of boredom, this 22-million-dollar would-be epic is short on plot development, long on superb photography of remote actualities.

w Robert Bolt d Roland Joffé ph Chris Menges m Ennio Morricone pd Stuart Craig, Norman Dorme ed Jim Clark

☆ Robert De Niro, Jeremy Irons, Ray McAnally, Liam Neeson, Aidan Quinn, Ronald Pickup, Cherie Lunghi

♟ Chris Menges
♙ best picture; Roland Joffe; Ennio Morricone; Jim Clark; art direction (Stuart Craig); sound (Jack Stephens); costumes (Enrico Sabbatini)
♈ Ray McAnally; Ennio Morricone

'Expect the impossible.'

Mission: Impossible ★

US 1996 110m DeLuxe Panavision
Paramount (Tom Cruise, Paula Wagner)

A secret agent sets out to discover who double-crossed him and killed his colleagues.

A movie very much in the James Bond style, with added paranoia; the gimmick-laden narrative makes little sense, but the set-piece stunts are spectacularly over-the-top.

w David Koepp, Robert Towne, Steven Zaillian d Brian de Palma ph Stephen H. Burum m Danny Elfman pd Norman Reynolds ed Paul Hirsch sp visual: John Knoll; make-up: Rob Bottin

☆ Tom Cruise, Jon Voight, Emmanuelle Beart, Henry Czerny, Jean Reno, Ving Rhames, Kristin Scott-Thomas, Vanessa Redgrave

'A headache with a great soundtrack and some lustrous set pieces.' – Tom Shone, Sunday Times

† The film is based on the TV series created by Bruce Geller, which ran from 1967 to 1973 and from 1988 to 1990. The theme music, which was written by Lalo Schifrin and also features in the movie, was a hit in 1968.

†† It was among the box-office successes of 1996, grossing more than $452m around the world.

'Expect the impossible again.'

Mission: Impossible 2

US 2000 123m Technicolor Panavision
Paramount (Tom Cruise, Paula Wagner)

A special agent is ordered to find a deadly virus stolen by a criminal mastermind.

Empty-headed action flick, even more like a James Bond adventure than its predecessor, with a risible narrative gimmick of face-mask disguises; the stunts are often spectacular, but as they are staged like circus turns, they rapidly become uninvolving.

w Robert Towne story Ronald D. Moore, Brannon Braga d John Woo ph Jeffrey L. Kimball m Hans Zimmer pd Tom Sanders ed Christian Wagner, Steven Kemper cos Lizzy Gardiner

☆ Tom Cruise (Ethan Hunt), Dougray Scott (Sean Ambrose), Thandie Newton (Nyah Hall), Ving Rhames (Luther Stickell), Richard Roxburgh (Hugh Stamp), John Polson (Billy Baird), Brendan Gleeson (McCloy), Rade Sherbedgia (Dr Nekhorvich), Anthony Hopkins (Boss)

'This self-destructs in 124 minutes.' – Times

'A pretty good ride, but so flashy, so empty, so utterly devoid of real risk, real sweat or real danger that in the end it's just Mission: Improbable or Mission: Untenable.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

'Even more empty a luxury vehicle than its predecessor, "M:I 2" pushes the envelope in terms of just how much flashy packaging an audience will buy when there's absolutely nada inside.' – Dennis Harvey, Variety

† The film was the biggest international success of 2000, taking $545.4m at the box office worldwide.

Mission: Impossible III ★ 6

US 2006 DeLuxe Panavision
Paramount (Tom Cruise, Paula Wagner)

A trainer of secret agents returns to the field to capture a ruthless arms dealer who plans to sell a deadly secret weapon.

James Bond with an American accent and a latex mask, Tom Cruise's special agent grins and runs through frantic, improbable action and a convoluted, paranoid narrative to minor effect.

w Alex Kurtzman, Roberto Orci, J.J. Abrams d J.J. Abrams ph Dan Mindel m Michael Giacchino pd Scott Chambliss ed Mary Jo Markey, Maryann Brandon sp ILM cos Colleen Atwood

☆ Tom Cruise (Ethan Hunt), Philip Seymour Hoffman (Owen Davian), Ving Rhames (Luther), Billy Crudup (Musgrave), Michelle Monaghan (Julia), Jonathan Rhys Meyers (Declan), Keri Russell (Lindsey Farris), Laurence Fishburne (Theodore Brassel)

'Gratifyingly clever, booby-trapped thriller that has enough fun and imagination and dash to more than justify its existence.' – Owen Gleiberman, Entertainment Weekly

'Here we are again for a third jog around Mission Impossible track and it's turning into a very tired experience.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

'As idiot movies go, this one is as sub-mental as you might expect.' – Rex Reed, New York Observer

† Director Joe Carnahan left the production due to creative differences a month before shooting was to have begun. Originally, Kenneth Branagh was to have played the villain but had to withdraw when the start of the production was delayed.

Mission in Morocco

US/Spain 1959 79m bw
Republic/John Mather/Hispamer (Sergio Newman)

An oil-man goes to Morocco to investigate the murder of his partner and the whereabouts of a missing microfilm.

Sub-standard action adventure, with acting to match.

w Brian Clemens story Guy Elmes, Ken Annakin d Anthony Squire ph Cecilio Paniagua m Guenther Kauer ad Tadeo Villalba ed Max Benedict

☆ Lex Barker, Juli Reding, Fernando Rey, Silvia Morgan, Alfredo Mayo

'For centuries we've been looking for the origin of life on earth. We've been looking on the wrong planet.'

Mission to Mars

US 2000 112m Technicolor Panavision
Buena Vista/Touchstone (Tom Jacobson)

A rescue party goes to Mars to find the sole survivor of the first manned expedition to the planet, who has discovered evidence that it was once inhabited.

Grandiose attempt at science-fiction with a spiritual message; it never achieves lift-off.

w Jim Thomas, John Thomas, Graham Yost d Brian De Palma ph Stephen H. Burum m Ennio Morricone pd Ed Verreaux ed Paul Hirsch sp Industrial Light & Magic; Dream Quest Images; CIS Hollywood

☆ Gary Sinise (Jim McConnell), Tim Robbins (Woody Blake), Don Cheadle (Luke Graham), Connie Nielsen (Terri Fisher), Jerry O'Connell (Phil Ohlmyer), Kim Delaney (Maggie McConnell), Elise Neal (Debra Graham), Peter Outerbridge (Sergei Kirov), Jill Teed (Renee Cote), Kavan Smith (Nicholas Willis)

'Dull and eventually ludicrous while trying to be moving and profound.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

'It's been a long time since such a grandiloquent souffle of majesty and silliness refused to rise on the big screen.' – Elvis Mitchell, New York Times

Mission to Moscow ★★

US 1943 112m bw
Warner (Robert Buckner)

The Russian career of US Ambassador Joseph E. Davies.

Stodgy but fascinating wartime propaganda piece viewing the Russians as warm-hearted allies; in the later days of the McCarthy witch hunt, Jack L. Warner regretted he had ever allowed it to be made.

w Howard Koch book Joseph E. Davies d Michael Curtiz ph Bert Glennon m Max Steiner ad Carl Weyl

☆ Walter Huston, Ann Harding, Oscar Homolka, George Tobias, Gene Lockhart, Eleanor Parker, Richard Travis, Helmut Dantine, Victor Francen, Henry Daniell, Barbara Everest, Dudley Field Malone, Roman Bohnen, Maria Palmer, Moroni Olsen and also Minor Watson

'A mishmash: of Stalinism with New Dealism with Hollywoodism with opportunism with shaky experimentalism with mesmerism with onanism, all mosaicked into a remarkable portrait of what the makers of the film think the Soviet Union is like – a great glad two-million-dollar bowl of canned borscht, eminently approvable by the Institute of Good Housekeeping.' – James Agee

Carl Weyl

The Missionary ★

GB 1983 86m colour Panavision
HandMade Films (Michael Palin)

In 1906, a clergyman returns from darkest Africa and sets up a Mission to Fallen Women in the East End of London.

Sporadically amusing comedy of a reformer being tempted; the decoration is funnier than the central theme.

w Michael Palin d Richard Loncraine ph Peter Hannan m Mike Moran ad Norman Garwood

☆ Michael Palin, Maggie Smith, Michael Hordern, Trevor Howard, Denholm Elliott, Graham Crowden, Phoebe Nicholls, Roland Culver

'It leaves one with a half-frozen smile, in anticipation of a comic fulfilment which never quite happens.' – Nick Roddick, MFB

'A deliciously straight-faced acceptance of the palpably absurd.' – Daily Mail

Mississippi ★

US 1935 75m bw
Paramount (Arthur Hornblow Jnr)

A showboat singer has a cloud on his reputation.

Mild period musical with occasional stops for comedy.

w Herbert Fields, Claude Binyon story Booth Tarkington d A. Edward Sutherland ph Charles Lang m/ly Rodgers and Hart

☆ Bing Crosby, W. C. Fields, Joan Bennett, Gail Patrick, Claude Gillingwater, John Miljan, Queenie Smith

'A dull film, rambling and hokey.' – Variety

Mississippi Burning ★★

US 1988 127m DeLuxe
Rank/Orion (Frederick Zollo, Robert F. Colesberry)

In Mississippi in the mid-1960s, FBI agents investigate the murder of three civil rights workers.

Melodramatic and sensational account of racism in action that caused controversy on its release because of its concentration on white activists; but it has a power that sweeps its audience along with it.

w Chris Gerolmo d Alan Parker ph Peter Biziou m Trevor Jones pd Philip Harrison, Geoffrey Kirkland ed Gerry Hambling

☆ Gene Hackman, Willem Dafoe, Frances McDormand, Brad Dourif, R. Lee Ermey, Gailard Sartain, Stephen Tobolowsky, Michael Rooker, Pruitt Taylor Vince

Peter Biziou

best picture; Alan Parker; Gene Hackman; Frances McDormand; Gerry Hambling; best sound

Peter Biziou

Mississippi Gambler

US 1953 98m Technicolor
U-I (Ted Richmond)

A showboat gambler has trouble with a bad loser, but finally marries his sister.

Picturesque star melodrama with period settings and not much meat in the story.

w Seton I. Miller d Rudolph Maté ph Irving Glassberg m Frank Skinner

☆ Tyrone Power, Piper Laurie, John McIntire, Julia Adams, Dennis Weaver

'Romeo And Juliet Had It Easy.'

Mississippi Masala ★

US 1991 113m colour
SCS/Odyssey/Cinecom/Film Four/Mirabai/Movieworks/Black River (Michael Nozick, Mira Nair)

A young Asian woman living in Mississippi falls in love with a black American, to the distress of both their families.

Uninvolving treatment of romance and racism.

w Sooni Taraporevala d Mira Nair ph Ed Lachman m L. Subramaniam pd Mitch Epstein ed Roberto Silvi

☆ Denzel Washington, Roshan Seth, Sarita Choudhury, Charles S. Dutton, Joe Seneca, Sharmila Tagore, Ranjit Chowdhry

'A film about racial issues which manages to avoid hatred and this leaves a joyously hopeful, if occasionally naive, aftertaste.' – Empire

The Mississippi Mermaid ★

France/Italy 1969 123m Eastmancolor Dyaliscope
Films du Carrosse/PAA/Delphos (Marcel Berbert)

original title: La Sirène du Mississippi

After a courtship by mail, a factory owner on a remote African island finds that the girl who arrives by steamer does not fit his preconceptions...

Oddly obsessive romantic murder mystery: the hero continues to love the girl who tries to kill him, and at the end they are still together. Interesting when it is not uncomfortable.

wd François Truffaut novel Waltz into Darkness by William Irish ph Denys Clerval m Antoine Duhamel ad Claude Pignot ed Agnès Guillemot

☆ Jean-Paul Belmondo, Catherine Deneuve, Michel Bouquet, Nelly Borgeaud, Marcel Berbert

'One Steals. One Kills. One Dies.'

The Missouri Breaks

US 1976 126m DeLuxe
UA/Elliott Kastner/Robert B. Sherman

Montana ranchers and rustlers fight over land and livestock, and a hired killer shoots it out with a horse thief.

Savage, dislikeable Western with both stars over the top.

w Thomas McGuane d Arthur Penn ph Michael Butler m John Williams

☆ Marlon Brando, Jack Nicholson, Randy Quaid, Kathleen Lloyd, Frederic Forrest, Harry Dean Stanton

'It is typical of the film's richness and ambiguity that the title has about five possible punning meanings.' – Michael Billington, Illustrated London News

'Although listed as the director, Mr Penn finds himself perched on Brando's knee and manipulated as shamelessly as Edgar Bergen used to waggle Charlie McCarthy.' – Benny Green, Punch

'Nothing more than the self-conscious cleverness of some merry prankster with a blanket of scorn for all who don't share his flippancy.' – William S. Pechter

'A pair of million dollar babies in a five and ten cent flick.' – Charles Champlin, Los Angeles Times

'A picture of which it might be said they shouldn't make 'em like that any more – a picture that explains very little, including why anyone thought it a work that demanded to be made.' – Robert Hatch, Nation

Mister 880 ★★

US 1950 90m bw
TCF (Julian Blaustein)

An elderly counterfeiter perplexes the US Secret Service.

Whimsical star comedy which moves along cheerfully enough to be a good example of the Hollywood programmer at its prime.

w Robert Riskin d Edmund Goulding ph Joseph LaShelle m Sol Kaplan

☆ Edmund Gwenn, Burt Lancaster, Dorothy McGuire, Millard Mitchell

Edmund Gwenn

Mr Ace

US 1946 84m bw
Benedict Bogeaus

A rich, spoiled congresswoman is backed by a gangster but gets religion.

Odd star drama, perfunctorily made.

w Fred Finklehoffe d Edwin L. Marin ph Karl Struss m Heinz Roemheld

☆ Sylvia Sidney, George Raft, Stanley Ridges, Sara Haden, Jerome Cowan

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Mr and Mrs North

US 1941 68m bw
Irving Asher/MGM

Mr and Mrs find a corpse in their closet.
Reasonably lively transcription of a Broadway success.
w S. K. Lauren play Owen Davis d Robert B. Sinclair ☆ Gracie Allen, William Post Jnr, Paul Kelly, Rose Hobart, Virginia Grey, Tom Conway, Felix Bressart, Porter Hall, Millard Mitchell, Keye Luke, Jerome Cowan

Mr and Mrs Smith ★

US 1941 95m bw
RKO (Harry E. Edington)

A much-married couple discover that their marriage wasn't legal.
Smartish matrimonial comedy, surprisingly but not obviously by the master of suspense.
w Norman Krasna d Alfred Hitchcock ph Harry Stradling m Edward Ward ☆ Carole Lombard, Robert Montgomery, Gene Raymond, Jack Carson, Philip Merivale, Lucile Watson, William Tracy
'I doubt that your interest or amusement will last as long as the picture.' – Otis Ferguson

Mr Arkadin: see Confidential Report

Mr Ashton Was Indiscreet: see The Senator Was Indiscreet

Mr Baseball

US/Japan 1992 109m DeLuxe Panavision
Buena Vista/Walt Disney/Universal/Outlaw/Pacific Artists/Dentsu (Fred Schepisi, Doug Claybourne, Robert Newmyer)

A failing American baseball player is traded to a Japanese team.
Unhappy comedy of a culture clash, unlikely to be of interest to anyone except the keenest and most undemanding fan of the sport.
w Gary Ross, Kevin Wade, Monte Merrick story Theo Pelletier, John Junkerman d Fred Schepisi ph Ian Baker m Jerry Goldsmith pd Ted Haworth ed Peter Honess
☆ Tom Selleck, Ken Takakura, Aya Takanashi, Dennis Haysbert, Toshi Shioya, Kohsuke Toyohara
'A strikeout is a strikeout. Universal's $40 million-plus exercise in cross-cultural comedy will land in a b.o. league of its own – in the cellar.' – Variety

'Disaster has a passport.'

Mr Bean's Holiday

UK/US/Germany/France 2007 89m
Universal/Working Title/Alpha Produktiongesellschaft/Tiger Aspect (Tim Bevan, Eric Fellner, Peter Bennett-Jones)

German theatrical title: Mr Bean macht Ferien
French theatrical title: Les Vacances de Mr. Bean
Bean wins a Riviera holiday in a church raffle, and stumbles his way through France to the Cote d'Azur.
Again, Bean is a fish out of water, getting by with what he fondly imagines are his three words of French: 'oui,' 'non' and 'gracias.' Tolerably amusing the first time, but not the third. The script puts Atkinson through a series of over-elaborate sight gags and laboriously conceived comic routines. Bean's core fan base of children will not mind one bit, but the film feels cheaper than it need be – harshly lit and directed in pallid fashion. Never the most likeable of characters, Bean seems more petulant and mean-minded than ever – and as Atkinson gets older, even faintly creepy.
w Hamish McColl, Robin Driscoll, Simon McBurney original character Mr. Bean by Rowan Atkinson, Richard Curtis d Steve Bendelack ph Baz Irvine m Howard Goodall pd Michael Carlin ad Franck Schwarz ed Tony Cranstoun
☆ Rowan Atkinson (Mr. Bean), Jean Rochefort (Maitre d'), Emma de Caunes (Sabine), Willem Dafoe (Carson Clay), Max Baldry (Stepan)
'The jokes are weak. There's a complacency to the comedy that suggests that nobody could be bothered.' – Wendy Ide, Times
'There are innumerable set pieces, most of which take an awfully long time to deliver an awfully weak gag.' – Steve Rose, Guardian

Mr Belvedere Goes to College ★

US 1949 88m bw
TCF (Samuel G. Engel)

A self-styled genius goes back to school and helps a college widow.
Flat follow up to Sitting Pretty (qv), with only a few laughs.
w Richard Sale, Mary Loos, Mary McCall Jnr d Elliott Nugent ph Lloyd Ahern m Alfred Newman
☆ Clifton Webb, Shirley Temple, Alan Young, Tom Drake, Jessie Royce Landis, Kathleen Hughes, Taylor Holmes

Mr Belvedere Rings the Bell ★

US 1951 87m bw
TCF (André Hakim)

Imperturbable Mr Belvedere enters an old folk's home under false pretences to test his theories of ageing.
A not unagreeable star vehicle for those who can stand the sentiment.
w Ranald MacDougall play The Silver Whistle by Robert E. McEnroe d Henry Koster ph Joseph LaShelle m Cyril Mockridge
☆ Clifton Webb, Joanne Dru, Hugh Marlowe, Zero Mostel, Doro Merande

Mr Big

US 1943 73m bw
Ken Goldsmith/Universal

Drama school students concoct a musical show.
Tolerable minor showcase for a new young star.
w Jack Pollexfen, Dorothy Bennett
d Charles Lamont
☆ Donald O'Connor, Gloria Jean, Peggy Ryan, Robert Paige, Elyse Knox, Samuel S. Hinds, Florence Bates

Mr Billion ★

US 1977 93m DeLuxe
TCF/Pantheon (Gabriel Katzka, Steve Bach, Ken Friedman)

An Italian garage mechanic becomes heir to a vast estate, providing he can get to San Francisco in time for the signing ceremony and outwit the villains trying to stop him.
Moderately engaging old-fashioned comedy-adventure.
w Ken Friedman, Jonathan Kaplan
d Jonathan Kaplan ph Matthew F. Leonetti m Dave Grusin ☆ Terence Hill (Mario Girotti), Valerie Perrine, Jackie Gleason, Slim Pickens, William Redfield, Chill Wills

Mr Blandings Builds His Dream House ★★★

US 1948 84m bw
RKO (Norman Panama, Melvin Frank)

A New York advertising man longs to live in the Connecticut countryside, but finds the way to rural satisfaction is hard.
It hasn't the lightness and brightness of the book, but this is a fun film for the middle-aged who like to watch three agreeable stars doing their thing.
w Norman Panama, Melvin Frank novel Eric Hodgins d H. C. Potter
ph James Wong Howe m Leigh Harline md Constantin Bakaleinikoff ad Albert S. D'Agostino, Carroll Clark ed Harry Marker
☆ Cary Grant (Jim Blandings), Myrna Loy (Muriel Blandings), Melvyn Douglas (Bill Cole), Reginald Denny (Simms), Louise Beavers (Gussie), Ian Wolfe (Smith), Harry Shannon (Tesander), Nestor Paiva (Joe Apollonio), Jason Robards (John Retch), Lex Barker (Carpenter Foreman)
MURIEL: 'Now, this is the paper we're going to use in the hall. It's flowered, but I don't want the ceiling to match any of the colors of the flowers.'
DELFORD: 'No.'
MURIEL: 'There's some little dots in the background, and it's these dots I want you to match. Not the little greenish dot near the hollyhockle...'
DELFORD: 'No.'
MURIEL: '... but the little blueish dot between the rosebud and the delphinium blossom. Is that clear?'
'A bulls-eye for middle-class middlebrows.' – James Agee
'I loved it. That was really a pleasure to make.' – H. C. Potter, 1973

Mister Buddwing

US 1966 99m bw
MGM/DDD/Cherokee (Douglas Laurence, Delbert Mann)
GB title: Woman without a Face

An amnesiac wakes up in Central Park and goes in search of his identity.
Rather muddled melodrama in which the characters are so dull that by the time the flashbacks fall into place we scarcely care.
w Dale Wasserman novel Buddwing by Evan Hunter d Delbert Mann
ph Ellsworth Fredericks m Kenyon Hopkins ☆ James Garner, Jean Simmons, Angela Lansbury, Suzanne Pleshette, Katharine Ross, George Voskovec, Jack Gilford, Joe Mantell, Raymond St Jacques
'Its distinction is its pretension, its banality and its complete success in making all the authentic New York backgrounds look like the studio's cheaper backdrops.' – Judith Crist

Mr Bug Goes to Town ★

US 1941 78m Technicolor
Max Fleischer

aka: Hoppity Goes to Town
An urban community of insects is in danger from developers.
A cartoon feature which failed to make its mark despite clever detail; perhaps because insects make poor heroes, or because there simply wasn't enough plot.
d Dave Fleischer m Leigh Harline

Mr Chedworth Steps Out

Australia 1939 92m bw Cinesound

In a period of redundancy a clerk has to take a job as a caretaker, but discovers a cache of counterfeit money.
Mild comedy-drama.
w Frank Harvey d Ken G. Hall
☆ Cecil Kellaway, Jean Hatton, James Raglan, Rita Pauncefort, Peter Finch

Mister Cinderella

US 1936 75m bw
Hal Roach/MGM

A meek-and-mild youth aspires to crash high society.
Milk-and-water comedy with insufficient get-up-and-go.
w Arthur Vernon Jones, Richard Flournoy, Jack Jevne d Edward Sedgwick ☆ Jack Haley, Betty Furness, Arthur Treacher, Raymond Walburn, Rosina Lawrence, Monroe Owsley
'Too crammed with slaptrap hokum to stand alone.' – Variety

Mister Cory

US 1957 92m Eastmancolor Cinemascope
U-I (Robert Arthur)

A small-time gangster leaves the Chicago slums to seek fame and fortune among the country-club set.
Modest star comedy drama.
wd Blake Edwards ph Russell Metty m Joseph Gershenson ☆ Tony Curtis, Martha Hyer, Charles Bickford, Kathryn Grant

'Don't let the fancy clothes fool you.'

Mr Deeds

US 2002 96m colour
Columbia/New Line/Happy Madison/Out of the Blue (Sid Ganis, Jack Giarraputo)

A small town pizzeria owner inherits a $40m media empire and outfoxes big city swindlers.
Witless and banal movie with moments of crude slapstick and cruder jokes.
w Tim Herlihy story Clarence Budington Kelland film Mr. Deeds Goes to Town by Robert Riskin, d Frank Capra d Steven Brill
☆ Adam Sandler (Longfellow Deeds), Winona Ryder (Babe Bennett), Peter Gallagher (Chuck Cedar), Jared Harris (Mac McGrath), Allen Covert (Marty), Erick Avari (Cecil Anderson), John Turturro (Emilio Lopez), Peter Dante (Murph), Conchata Ferrell (Jan), Harve Presnell (Preston Blake), Steve Buscemi (Crazy Eyes), John McEnroe (Himself), Rev. Al Sharpton (Himself)
'Might have been thrown together in even less time than it takes Sandler to get dressed in the morning; it feels sort of like the dumbest corporate comedy of 1987.' – Owen Gleiberman, Entertainment Weekly
'There is hardly anything more dismaying about American movie-goers than their affection for Sandler: can they not see him for the smug, charmless, oafish berk that he is?' – Anthony Quinn, Independent
† The film took more than $126m at the US box-office.

Mr Deeds Goes to Town ★★★

US 1936 118m bw
Columbia (Frank Capra)

A small-town poet inherits a vast fortune and sets New York on its heels by his honesty.

What once was fresh and charming now seems rather laboured in spots, and the production is parsimonious indeed, but the courtroom scene still works, and the good intentions conquer all.
w Robert Riskin story Opera Hat by Clarence Budington Kelland d Frank Capra ph Joseph Walker m Adolph Deutsch md Howard Jackson ad Stephen Goosson ed Gene Havlick
☆ Gary Cooper (Longfellow Deeds), Jean Arthur (Babe Bennett), Raymond Walburn (Walter), Lionel Stander (Cornelius Cobb), Walter Catlett (Morrow), George Bancroft (MacWade), Douglass Dumbrille (John Cedar), H. B. Warner (Judge Walker), Ruth Donnelly (Mabel Dawson), Margaret Seddon (Jane Faulkner), Margaret McWade (Amy Faulkner)
'I have an uneasy feeling he's on his way out. He's started to make pictures about themes instead of people.' – Alistair Cooke
'Everywhere the picture goes, from the endearing to the absurd, the accompanying business is carried through with perfect zip and relish.' – Otis Ferguson
'A comedy quite unmatched on the screen.' – Graham Greene
'The film culminates in a courtroom sequence that introduced the word "pixilated" to just about every American home, and set people to examining each other's casual scribbles or sketches – their "doodles".' – Pauline Kael, 70s
Frank Capra
best picture; Robert Riskin; Gary Cooper

Mr Denning Drives North

GB 1951 93m bw
London Films (Anthony Kimmins, Stephen Mitchell)
A wealthy man accidentally kills a criminal in love with his daughter; he hides the body, which then disappears.
Initially suspenseful but finally disappointing melodrama which seems to lack a twist or two.
w Alec Coppel d Anthony Kimmins ph John Wilcox m Benjamin Frankel ☆ John Mills, Phyllis Calvert, Sam Wanamaker, Freda Jackson

Mr Destiny

US 1990 105m colour
Buena Vista/Touchstone/Silver Screen Partners IV (James Orr, Jim Cruikshank)
A 35-year-old failure is given the chance to re-live his life as a success.
Dim comedy with the dimmer moral that everyone gets the life they deserve.
w James Orr, Jim Cruickshank d James Orr ph Alex Thomson m David Newman pd Michael Seymour ed Michael R. Miller
☆ James Belushi, Linda Hamilton, Michael Caine, Jon Lovitz, Hart Bochner, Bill McCutcheon, René Russo
'A heavy-handed by-the-numbers fantasy.' – Variety

Mr Dodd Takes the Air

US 1937 78m bw
Warner (Mervyn Le Roy)
A country cousin becomes a hit as a crooner.
Modest comedy for small towns.
w William Wister Haines, Elaine Ryan story Clarence Budington Kelland d Alfred E. Green ph Arthur Edeson md Adolph Deutsch songs Al Dubin, Harry Warren ☆ Kenny Baker, Jane Wyman, Alice Brady, Gertrude Michael, Frank McHugh, Luis Alberni, Henry O'Neill, Harry Davenport
Al Dubin and Harry Warren for 'Remember Me'

Mr Drake's Duck ★★

GB 1950 85m bw
Daniel M. Angel/Douglas Fairbanks
A duck lays a uranium egg, and a gentleman farmer finds himself at the centre of international military disagreement.
Brisk and amusing minor comedy deploying British comic types to good purpose.
wd Val Guest radio play Ian Messiter ph Jack Cox m Philip Martell
☆ Douglas Fairbanks Jnr, Yolande Donlan, Wilfrid Hyde-White, A. E. Matthews, Jon Pertwee, Reginald Beckwith, Howard Marion-Crawford, Peter Butterworth, Tom Gill
'One of the funniest films I have ever seen.' – News of the World

Mr Dynamite

US 1935 75m bw
Universal
An unconventional private detective outsmarts the police.
Amusing, wisecracking crime caper.
w Doris Malloy, Harry Clork story Dashiell Hammett d Alan Crosland ☆ Edmund Lowe, Jean Dixon, Esther Ralston, Victor Varconi, Minor Watson, Robert Gleckler
'Nice entertainment.' – Variety

Mr Emmanuel ★

GB 1944 97m bw
Two Cities (William Sistrom)
In 1936 an elderly Jew visits Germany in search of the mother of an orphan boy.
Simply made but quite effective and unusual story giving Aylmer his only star part.
w Gordon Wellesley, Norman Ginsburg novel Louis Golding d Harold French ph Otto Heller
☆ Felix Aylmer, Greta Gynt, Walter Rilla, Peter Mullins, Ursula Jeans, Elspeth March, Meier Tzelniker

Mr Forbush and the Penguins ★

GB 1971 101m Technicolor
EMI/PGI/Henry Trettin
A biologist is sent to the Antarctic to study penguins, and gets a new understanding of life.
Rather broken-backed animal film with a moral; pleasant enough, its two halves don't fit together.
w Anthony Shaffer novel Graham Billey d Roy Boulting, Arne Sucksdorff ph Harry Waxman, Ted Scaife m John Addison ☆ John Hurt, Hayley Mills, Tony Britton, Thorley Walters, Judy Campbell, Joss Ackland, Sally Geeson, Cyril Luckham

Mister Frost

France/GB 1990 104m colour
Blue Dolphin/AAA/Hugo Films/Overseas Multi Media (Xavier Gelin)
The devil incarnate tempts a hospital doctor.
Nonsensical and incomprehensible, a lurid mess from start to finish.
w Philippe Setbon, Brad Lynch d Philippe Setbon ph Dominique Brenguier m Steve Levine ad Max Berto ed Ray Lovejoy
☆ Jeff Goldblum, Alan Bates, Kathy Baker, Roland Giraud, Jean-Pierre Cassel, Daniel Gelin, François Negret, Maxime Leroux, Boris Bergman
'Staggeringly bad.' – Philip French, Observer

Mr Griggs Returns: see The Cockeyed Miracle

Mr Hobbs Takes a Vacation ★

US 1962 116m DeLuxe Cinemascope
TCF (Jerry Wald)
A city dweller takes a seaside house for a family holiday, but it turns out to be a crumbling ruin.
Overlong, sloppy comedy which devotes too much time to teenage romance but manages occasional smiles.
w Nunnally Johnson novel Edward Streeter d Henry Koster ph W. C. Mellor m Henry Mancini ☆ James Stewart, Maureen O'Hara, Fabian, John Saxon, Marie Wilson, Reginald Gardiner, John McGiver

Mr Hobo: see The Guvnor

Mr Holland's Opus ★

US 1995 143m Technicolor Panavision
Polygram/Interscope/Charlie Mopic (Ted Field, Michael Nolin, Robert W. Cort)
An ambitious composer takes a temporary job as a teacher and discovers that his true vocation is to inspire others with a love of music.
A relentlessly corny and sentimental drama that pulls out all the emotional stops as it plays slight variations on the themes of It's a Wonderful Life and Goodbye Mr Chips. Its tone is populist: classical music is regarded as much less fun than jazz or rock.
w Patrick Sheane Duncan d Stephen Herek ph Oliver Wood m Michael Kamen pd David Nichols ed Trudy Ship
☆ Richard Dreyfuss, Glenne Headly, Jay Thomas, Olympia Dukakis, W. H. Macy, Alicia Witt, Jean Louisa Kelly, Anthony Natale
'Older audiences will be moved by the story, but the crucial variable is to what extent younger viewers will embrace this schmaltzy, Capraesque saga that's not only set mainly in the past but also feels as if it were made back when.' – Emanuel Levy, Variety
Richard Dreyfuss

Mr Imperium

US 1951 87m Technicolor
MGM (Edwin H. Knopf)
GB title: You Belong to My Heart
An exiled king in Hollywood meets a famous film star with whom he once had a romance.
Minor romantic drama with songs.
w Edwin Knopf, Don Hartman d Don Hartman ph George J. Folsey m Bronislau Kaper songs Harold Arlen (m), Dorothy Fields (ly)
☆ Lana Turner, Ezio Pinza, Marjorie Main, Barry Sullivan, Cedric Hardwicke, Debbie Reynolds

'He's a proper Englishman in his heart. But Africa is in his soul'

Mr Johnson ★★

US 1990 101m Eastmancolor Panavision
TCF/Avenue Pictures (Michael Fitzgerald)
In West Africa in the 1920s a naïve and feckless clerk, who attempts to be more English than the English, destroys himself by seeking the easy way out of his problems.
Deftly acted and directed tragi-comedy of human fallibility and colonial attitudes.
w William Boyd novel Joyce Cary d Bruce Beresford m Georges Delerue pd Herbert Pinter ed Humphrey Dixon ☆ Pierce Brosnan, Edward Woodward, Maynard Eziashi, Beatie Edney, Denis Quilley, Bella Enahoro, Kwabena Manso, Nick Reding, Femi Fatoba
'Suffers the same fate as its title character, never coming close to being as important as it desperately wants to be.' – Variety
'A very generous, thoughtful and affecting movie.' – Philip French, Observer

Mr Jones

US 1993 114m Technicolor
Columbia TriStar/Rastar (Alan Greisman, Debra Greenfield)
A manic depressive begins an affair with the psychiatrist who treats him for his condition.
An unsatisfactory movie that was cut by the studio over the director's objections; the result is less a psychological drama than a standard Hollywood romance with a slightly different twist that gives Richard Gere the chance to display energy and charm.
w Eric Roth, Michael Cristofer d Mike Figgis ph Juan Ruiz Anchia m Maurice Jarre pd Waldemar Kalinowski ed Tom Rolf ☆ Richard Gere, Lena Olin, Anne Bancroft, Bruce Altman, Delroy Lindo, Tom Irwin, Lauren Tom
'Inoffensive rainy afternoon fodder, this is one Jones most cinemagoers would be wise not to keep up with.' – Film Review

Mister Kingstreet's War

US 1970 92m colour
H.R.S. Films (Thys Heyns)
aka: Heroes Die Hard
In Central Africa in 1939, an American game warden and his wife try to prevent the Italian and British armies from ruining his reserve, which contains the only water-holes in the area.
Clichéd drama – the baddie wears a black eye-patch – that makes no perceptible point and takes little advantage of the local flora and fauna.
w Percival Rubens, George Harding d Percival Rubens ph Grenville Middleton m Harry Sukman ad Roy Taylor ed John Bushelman
☆ John Saxon, Tippi Hedren, Rossano Brazzi, Brian O'Shaughnessy, Kerry Jordan, Joseph Sekatski

Mr Klein ★

France/Italy 1976 123m Eastmancolor
Lira/Adel/Nova/Mondial Te-Fi (Raymond Danon, Alain Delon)
In 1942 Paris, a prosperous antique dealer is mistaken for a mysterious Jew of the same name, and despite the danger gradually assumes his identity.
Complex Kafkaesque character study: occasionally arresting but generally rather glum.
w Franco Solinas d Joseph Losey ph Gerry Fisher m Egisto Macchi, Pierre Porte
☆ Alain Delon, Jeanne Moreau, Suzanne Flon, Michael Lonsdale, Louis Seigner, Juliet Berto

Mr Love

GB 1986 91m colour
Warner/Goldcrest/Enigma (Susan Richards, Robin Douet)
A mild-mannered cinema projectionist develops an erroneous reputation as a Don Juan.
Ineffective character comedy with too few laughs and a minimum of accurate observation.

w Kenneth Eastaugh d Roy Battersby ph Clive Tickner m Willy Russell ☆ Barry Jackson, Maurice Denham, Margaret Tyzack, Linda Marlowe, Cristina Collier
'It renders would-be regional fantasy into something merely parochial.' – Tim Pulleine, MFB

Mr Lucky ★

US 1943 98m bw
RKO (David Hempstead)
During World War II a gambling ship owner goes straight and instigates Bundles for Britain.
Unconvincing mixture of comedy and drama with the actors looking somewhat bewildered.
w Milton Holmes, Adrian Scott d H. C. Potter ph George Barnes m Roy Webb ☆ Cary Grant, Laraine Day, Charles Bickford, Gladys Cooper, Alan Carney, Henry Stephenson, Paul Stewart, Walter Kingsford
'If it weren't for Cary Grant's persuasive personality the whole thing would melt away to nothing at all.' – Philip G. Hartung † Remade 1950 as Gambling House.

Mr Magoo

US 1997 87m colour
Buena Vista/Walt Disney (Ben Myron)
A myopic millionaire stumbles into trouble.
Tedious live-action version of the briefly witty UPA cartoons of the early 50s, with some misfiring slapstick and ponderous jokes.
w Pat Proft, Tom Sherohman d Stanley Tong ph Jingle Ma m Michael Tavera pd John Willett ed Stuart Pappe, David Rawlins, Michael R. Miller
☆ Leslie Nielsen, Kelly Lynch, Matt Keeslar, Nick Chinlund, Stephen Tobolowsky, Ernie Hudson, Jennifer Garner, Malcolm McDowell, Miguel Ferrer
'Unlikely to engage the younger audience for whom it is so obviously intended. When even the outtakes you see over the end titles don't raise a single titter, you know you're in trouble.' – Bob McCabe, Empire
† The National Federation of the Blind asked Disney to halt production because the character was insulting to the visually impaired. The credits include the announcement: 'Nothing in Mr Magoo should be interpreted as an accurate portrayal of blindness or poor eyesight.'

Mr Majestyk ★

US 1974 103m DeLuxe
UA/Mirisch (Walter Mirisch)
A Colorado melon grower crosses swords with the local Mafia.
Violent but unexpectedly enjoyable action melodrama.
w Elmore Leonard d Richard Fleischer ph Richard Kline m Charles Bernstein ☆ Charles Bronson, Al Lettieri, Linda Cristal, Lee Purcell, Paul Keslo
'What I liked best about this trash is that Bronson begins each action sequence like Nureyev beginning a difficult solo.' – Stanley Kauffmann

Mr Mom

US 1983 91m Metrocolor
Fox/Sherwood (Lynn Loring)
GB title: Mr Mum
Dad loses his executive job and stays home to mind the kids while his wife works.
Obvious farce with too much messy slapstick and no real development.
w John Hughes d Stan Dragoti ph Victor J. Kemper m Lee Holdridge pd Alfred Sweeney ed Patrick Kennedy
☆ Michael Keaton, Teri Garr, Frederick Koehler, Martin Mull, Ann Jillian
'The jokes almost sink without trace in a hazy domestic setting straight from the hoariest sitcom.' – Geoff Brown, MFB

Mister Moses ★

GB 1965 103m Technicolor Panavision
UA/Frank Ross/Talbot
A quack doctor is the only person who can persuade an African tribe to move before their land is flooded, and he leads them to their promised land.
Adventure spectacle with naïve biblical parallels; quite agreeable.
w Charles Beaumont, Monja Danischewsky novel Max Catto d Ronald Neame ph Oswald Morris m John Barry
☆ Robert Mitchum, Carroll Baker, Ian Bannen, Alexander Knox, Reginald Beckwith, Raymond St Jacques

Mr Moto

The Japanese detective created by John P. Marquand and played by Peter Lorre figured in several above-average second features of the late thirties, but the outbreak of war caused him to vanish.
The casts were interesting, the TCF production excellent, and the director usually Norman Foster. The 1965 attempt to revive the character with Henry Silva was painfully boring.
1937 Think Fast Mr Moto (with Virginia Field, Sig Rumann), Thank You Mr Moto (with Pauline Frederick, Sidney Blackmer)
1938 Mr Moto's Gamble (qv) (with Keye Luke, Lynn Bari), Mr Moto Takes a Chance (qv) (with Rochelle Hudson, J. Edward Bromberg), Mysterious Mr Moto (qv) (with Henry Wilcoxon, Erik Rhodes)
1939 Mr Moto's Last Warning (qv) (with Ricardo Cortez, George Sanders, Robert Coote, John Carradine), Mr Moto in Danger Island (qv) (with Jean Hersholt, Warren Hymer), Mr Moto Takes a Vacation (with Joseph Schildkraut, Lionel Atwill)
1965 The Return of Mr Moto

Mr Moto in Danger Island

US 1939 64m bw
TCF
Mr Moto investigates diamond smuggling in Puerto Rico with the aid of a dim-witted wrestler.
Moderately entertaining fast-paced programmer.
w Peter Milne novel John W. Vandercook story John Reinhardt, George Bricker d Herbert I. Leeds ph Lucien Andriot md Samuel Kaylin ad Richard Day, Chester Gore ed Harry Reynolds
☆ Peter Lorre, Jean Hersholt, Amanda Duff, Warren Hymer, Richard Lane, Leon Ames, Douglas Dumbrille
† Rewritten to feature Moto, the film was a remake of Murder in Trinidad (qv), which was made in 1934 by Seton I. Miller, starring Nigel Bruce. It was the last of the Moto series to be made, though it was released before Mr Moto Takes a Vacation.

Mr Moto Takes a Chance

US 1938 63m bw
TCF
Mr Moto thwarts two rebellions and helps save the life of a spy and two naïve American film-makers.
Enjoyable, though silly, jungle adventure set in Indonesia.
w Lou Breslow, John Patrick story Willis Cooper, Norman Foster d Norman Foster ph Virgil Miller md Samuel Kaylin ad Albert Hogsett ed Nick DeMaggio
☆ Peter Lorre, Rochelle Hudson, Robert Kent, Edward Bromberg, Chick Chandler, George Regis, Fredrik Vogeding

Mr Moto's Gamble

US 1938 71m bw
TCF
Mr Moto investigates the murder of a boxer in the ring.
An enjoyable, if silly, B feature; it is a more conventional mystery than most of the Moto series, owing to its origins as a movie intended to feature Charlie Chan.
w Charles Belden, Jerry Cady d James Tinling ph Lucien Andriot ad Bernard Herzbrun, Haldane Douglas ed Nick DeMaggio
☆ Peter Lorre, Keye Luke, Dick Baldwin, Lynn Bari, Douglas Fowley, Jayne Regan, Harold Huber, Maxie Rosenbloom, Ward Bond, Lon Chaney Jnr
† The script was originally intended as a Charlie Chan mystery, but was changed following the death of the star of that series, Warner Oland. It explains the appearance here of Key Luke as Chan's Number One son.

Mr Moto's Last Warning

US 1939 71m bw
TCF
Mr Moto outwits agents and double agents who gather in Port Said to scupper the French fleet in the Suez Canal.
Pleasant thriller with some heavy-handed comedy but displaying a notable collection of suave villains.
w Philip MacDonald, Norman Foster d Norman Foster ph Virgil Miller md Samuel Kaylin pd Bernard Herzbrun, Lewis Creber ed Norman Colbert ☆ Peter Lorre, Ricardo Cortez, Virginia Field, John Carradine, George Sanders, Joan Carol, Robert Coote, Leyland Hodgson

Mr & Mrs Bridge ★★

US 1990 124m Technicolor
Palace/Cineplex Odeon/Merchant Ivory/Robert Halmi (Ismail Merchant)
An inhibited lawyer snuffs out his wife's individuality during a long and apparently happy marriage.
Intriguing portrait of two self-limiting lives, made more effective by being played by a real-life husband and wife.
w Ruth Prawer Jhabvala novels Evan S. Connell d James Ivory ph Tony Pierce-Roberts m Richard Robbins pd David Gropman ed Humphrey Dixon
☆ Paul Newman, Joanne Woodward, Robert Sean Leonard, Margaret Walsh, Kyra Sedgwick, Blythe Danner, Simon Callow, Saundra McClain
'Brilliantly written and acted, and immensely watchable.' – MFB
Joanne Woodward

Mr & Mrs Smith ★ 5

US 2005 115m Technicolor
TCF/New Regency/Summit/Weed Road (Arnon Milchan, Aikva Goldsman, Lucas Foster, Patrick Wachsberger, Eric McLeod)
A couple who kill people for a living discover that they have been assigned to assassinate one another.
A romantic comedy about murder; as the body count mounts up, much of the glamour, and all of the humour, wears off.
w Simon Kinberg d Doug Liman ph Bojan Bazelli m John Powell pd Jeff Mann ed Michael Tronick
☆ Brad Pitt (John Smith), Angelina Jolie (Jane Smith), Vince Vaughn (Eddie), Adam Brody (Benjamin Danz), Kerry Washington (Jasmine), Keith David (Father), Chris Weitz (Martin Coleman), Rachael Huntley (Suzy Coleman)
'An undemanding Saturday night popcorn movie that's as glossy as Jolie's hair.' – Nicholas Barber, Independent
'A technological and publicity triumph, and a calamity in every other way.' – David Denby, New Yorker
† It cost around $110m to make, and took around $187m at the US box-office.

Mr Muggs Rides Again

US 1945 63m bw
Monogram/Pathé/Banner (Sam Katzman, Jack Dietz)
Framed by his crooked employer and suspended, a jockey rights wrongs and rides a winner.
Familiar East Side Kids material, mixing gangsters and guns, romance and gags in which the cast go through their usual routines with a notable lack of interest and enthusiasm.
w Harvey H. Gates d Wallace Fox ph Ira Morgan md Edward Kay ad David Milton ed William Austin
☆ Leo Gorcey, Huntz Hall, Billy Benedict, Nancy Brinkman, Bernard Thomas, George Meeker, Minerva Urecal, Johnny Duncan, Milton Kibbee

Mr Mum: see Mr Mom

Mr Music ★

US 1950 113m bw
Paramount (Robert L. Welch)
A college girl is employed to keep an idle middle-aged songwriter's nose to the grindstone.
Bland musical remake of Accent on Youth (qv); pleasant performances, moments of comedy, guest stars.
w Arthur Sheekman play Samson Raphaelson d Richard Haydn ph George Barnes ad Hans Dreier, Earl Hedrick songs Johnny Burke, James Van Heusen
☆ Bing Crosby, Nancy Olson, Charles Coburn, Ruth Hussey, Marge and Gower Champion, Peggy Lee, Groucho Marx

Mr Nanny

US 1992 84m colour
Entertainment (Bob Engelman)
A child-hating wrestler acts as a bodyguard to the two small and mischievous children of an inventor.
Wearying comedy that might amuse the very young, in which Hulk Hogan can be seen trying, and failing, to find a suitable role for himself in the movies.
w Edward Rugoff, Michael Gottlieb d Michael Gottlieb ph Peter Stein m David Johansen, Brian Koonin pd Don de Fina ed Earl Ghaffari, Michael Ripps
☆ Terry 'Hulk' Hogan, Sherman Hemsley, Austin Pendleton, Robert Gorman, Madeline Zima, Raymond O'Connor, David Johansen
'A banal exercise in low-budget comedy.' – Sight and Sound

'Fight First ... Apologise Later.'

Mr Nice Guy

Hong Kong 1997 113m Cineart
Panavision
New Line/Raymond Chow/Golden Harvest (Chua Lam)

A television chef goes to the aid of an investigative reporter threatened by a gangster.
An entertaining mix of comedy and martial arts, undemanding to watch and with some enjoyable stunts.
w Edward Tang, Fibe Ma d Samo Hung ph Raymond Lam m J. Peter Robinson pd Horace Ma ed Peter Cheung
☆ Jackie Chan, Richard Norton, Gabrielle Fitzpatrick, Miki Lee, Karen McLymont, Vince Poletto, Barry Otto, Samo Hung

'Chock-a-block with stunts and gags definitely ranks as one of his most entertaining outings. Properly promoted and positioned, the film could prove to be his most popular outside Asia.' – Leonard Klady, Variety

Mr North

US 1988 93m Metrocolor
Columbia TriStar/Heritage Entertainment/Showcase Productions (Steven Haft, Skip Steloff)

In the wealthy society of Newport in the 1920s, a young man angers the local doctor by gaining a reputation as a miracle healer.
Gentle, amusing fable, peopled by some engaging eccentrics.
w Janet Roach, John Huston, James Costigan novel Theophilus North by Thornton Wilder d Danny Huston ph Robin Vidgeon m David McHugh pd Eugene Lee ed Roberto Silvi
☆ Anthony Edwards, Robert Mitchum, Lauren Bacall, Harry Dean Stanton, Anjelica Huston, Mary Stuart Masterson, Virginia Madsen, Tammy Grimes, David Warner

Mr Peabody and the Mermaid

US 1948 89m bw
U-I (Nunnally Johnson)

A middle-aged husband imagines an affair with a mermaid.
Bone-headed quick-cash-in on Miranda (qv); it never begins to work.
w Nunnally Johnson novel Guy and Constance Jones d Irving Pichel ph Russell Metty m Robert Emmett Dolan
☆ William Powell, Ann Blyth, Irene Hervey, Andrea King, Clinton Sundberg

Mr Perrin and Mr Traill

GB 1948 92m bw
GFD/Two Cities (Alexander Galperson)

A handsome young master at a boys' school incurs the jealousy of an embittered colleague.
Flat, over-acted but mildly watchable picturization of a well-known story.
w L. A. G. Strong novel Hugh Walpole d Lawrence Huntington ph Erwin Hillier m Alan Gray ad Tom Orahan
☆ Marius Goring, David Farrar, Greta Gynt, Edward Chapman, Raymond Huntley, Mary Jerrold, Finlay Currie, Ralph Truman

Mr Potts Goes to Moscow: see Top Secret

Mister Quilp

GB 1975 119m Technicolor
Panavision
Reader's Digest (Helen M. Straus)
aka: The Old Curiosity Shop

In 1840 London, an antique-shop owner is in debt to a hunchback moneylender who has designs on his business.
The novel, with its villainous lead, is a curious choice for musicalizing, and in this treatment falls desperately flat, with no sparkle of imagination visible anywhere.
w Louis Kamp, Irene Kamp novel The Old Curiosity Shop by Charles Dickens d Michael Tuchner ph Christopher Challis m Anthony Newley md Elmer Bernstein ch Gillian Lynne pd Elliot Gould
☆ Anthony Newley, Michael Hordern, David Hemmings, Sarah-Jane Varley, David Warner, Paul Rogers, Jill Bennett

'Another soggy piece of family entertainment from Reader's Digest, who produced the toothless screen musicals of Tom Sawyer and Huckleberry Finn.' – Philip French
'Dickens shorn of sentiment, melodrama or love ... Mr Newley's Quilp, a galvanized Quasimodo on a permanent high, is something of a strain to watch.' – Michael Billington, Illustrated London News

'A wickedly comic tale of cold drinks, Barbies, a seige [sic], & a shot dog!'
'An unbelievable true story.'

Mr Reliable (A True Story)

Australia 1996 113m Cinevex
Polygram/AFFC/Hayes McElroy/Specific (Jim McElroy, Terry Hayes, Michael Hamlyn)

Police mistakenly believe that a convict is holding his girlfriend and her child hostage and besiege his house.
A ramshackle, misfiring comedy, apparently based on an actual incident in 1968, but with little sense of reality in evidence.
w Don Catchlove, Terry Hayes d Nadia Tass ph David Parker m Philip Judd pd Jon Dowding ed Peter Carrodus
☆ Colin Friels, Jacqueline McKenzie, Paul Sonkkila, Frank Gallacher, Lisa Hensley, Aaron Blabey, Geoff Morrell, Neil Fitzpatrick

'You should enjoy this charming, riotous comedy as a satire on the Australian condition.' – Film Review

Mr Ricco

US 1975 98m colour Panavision
MGM (Douglas Netter)

A defence counsel risks his life to prove his black client innocent.
Complex urban action thriller with a tired, ageing hero and impenetrable plot.
w Robert Hoban d Paul Bogart ph Frank Stanley m Chico Hamilton ☆ Dean Martin, Eugene Roche, Thalmus Rasulala, Denise Nicholas, Cindy Williams, Geraldine Brooks, Frank Puglia

Mister Roberts

US 1955 123m Warnercolor
Cinemascope
Warner/Leland Hayward

Life aboard a World War II cargo ship yearning for action.
A mixture of comedy and sentimentality which has become an American minor classic as a play; this film version is a shambling affair but gets most of the effects over.
w Frank Nugent, Joshua Logan play Thomas Heggen and Joshua Logan novel Thomas Heggen d John Ford, Mervyn Le Roy ph Winton Hoch m Franz Waxman
☆ Henry Fonda, James Cagney, William Powell, Jack Lemmon, Betsy Palmer, Ward Bond, Phil Carey, Ken Curtis, Harry Carey Jnr

'Probably the most eagerly awaited movie of the year. It is also one of the best.' – Newsweek
Jack Lemmon
best picture

Mr Robinson Crusoe

US 1932 76m bw
Douglas Fairbanks

A playboy takes a bet that he could live alone on a desert island ... but a girl turns up.
Mild adventure comedy with the star in subdued form.
w Douglas Fairbanks d A. Edward Sutherland ph Max Dupont m Alfred Newman ☆ Douglas Fairbanks, William Farnum, Earle Browne, Maria Alba

'A man so evil – his face could stop a heart!'

Mr Sardonicus

US 1961 90m bw
Columbia/William Castle

A surgeon is lured to an ex-girlfriend's remote home to cure her sadistic husband's crippled face.
Flatly handled, boring semi-horror.
w Robb White d William Castle ph Burnett Guffey m Von Dexter ☆ Ronald Lewis, Guy Rolfe, Audrey Dalton, Oscar Homolka

'It's lonely at the middle.'

Mr Saturday Night

US 1992 119m colour
Columbia/Castle Rock/New Line (Billy Crystal)

In his dotage, a successful comedian looks back over his long career.
Intermittently amusing comedy, not helped by over-generous dollops of sentimentality.
w Billy Crystal, Lowell Ganz, Babaloo Mandel d Billy Crystal ph Don Peterman m Marc Shaiman pd Albert Brenner ed Kent Beyda
☆ Billy Crystal, David Paymer, Julie Warner, Helen Hunt, Ron Silver

'What's so special about this movie is that the funny parts are so funny, with gags coming too fast and too good to be assimilated on first hearing. At such moments, the main reaction is exhausted gratitude. It's as if you hired a painter to do your bathroom and he gave you the Sistine Chapel at no extra cost.' – Richard Corliss, Time
David Paymer

Mr Scoutmaster

US 1953 87m bw
TCF

A TV personality wants to understand children and is persuaded to take over a scout troop.
A star vehicle which starts promisingly enough in the Sitting Pretty vein but quickly falls headlong into an abyss of sentimentality.
w Leonard Praskins, Barney Slater d Henry Levin ph Joseph LaShelle m Cyril Mockridge md Lionel Newman
☆ Clifton Webb, Edmund Gwenn, George Winslow, Frances Dee, Veda Ann Borg

Mr Skeffington

★★★

US 1944 127m bw
Warner (Julius J. and Philip G. Epstein)

A selfish beauty finally turns to her discarded dull husband; when he is blind, he doesn't mind her faded looks.
Long, patchily made, but thoroughly enjoyable star melodrama.
w Julius J. and Philip G. Epstein novel Elizabeth von Arnim d Vincent Sherman ph Ernest Haller m Franz Waxman ad Robert Haas ed Ralph Dawson
☆ Bette Davis ("Fanny" Beatrice Trellis Skeffington), Claude Rains (Job Skeffington), Walter Abel (George Trellis), Richard Waring (Trippy Trellis), George Coulouris (Dr. Byles), John Alexander (Jim Conderley), Jerome Cowan (Edward Morrison)

'An endless woman's page dissertation on What To Do When Beauty Fades.' – James Agee
'To call the film a good one would be to exaggerate; but entertaining and interesting, I insist, it is.' – Richard Mallett, Punch
Bette Davis; Claude Rains

Mr Skitch

US 1933 70m bw
Fox

A Missouri family heads for California.
Very passable star family entertainment.
w Anne Cameron novel Green Dice by Anne Cameron d James Cruze ☆ Will Rogers, ZaSu Pitts, Florence Desmond, Rochelle Hudson

'Enough laughs to please in general.' – Variety

'Stirring – in the seeing! Precious – in the remembering'

Mr Smith Goes to Washington

★★★★

US 1939 130m bw
Columbia (Frank Capra)

Washington's youngest senator exposes corruption in high places, almost at the cost of his own career.
Archetypal high-flying Capra vehicle, with the little man coming out top as he seldom does in life. Supreme gloss hides the corn, helter-skelter direction keeps one watching, and all concerned give memorable performances. A cinema classic.
w Sidney Buchman story Lewis R. Foster d Frank Capra ph Joseph Walker m Dimitri Tiomkin ad Lionel Banks ed Al Clark, Gene Havlick montage Slavko Vorkapich
☆ James Stewart (Jefferson Smith), Claude Rains (Sen. Joseph Paine), Jean Arthur (Saunders), Thomas Mitchell (Diz Moore), Edward Arnold (Jim Taylor), Guy Kibbee (Gov. Hubert Hopper), Eugene Pallette (Chick McGann), Beulah Bondi (Ma Smith), Harry Carey (President of the Senate), H. B. Warner (Sen. Fuller), Astrid Allwyn (Susan Paine), Ruth Donnelly (Mrs. Emma Hopper), Charles Lane (Nosey), Porter Hall (Sen. Monroe)
SMITH (JAMES STEWART): 'I wouldn't give you two cents for all your fancy rules if, behind them, they didn't have a little bit of plain, ordinary kindness – and a little looking out for the other fella, too.'

'Timely and absorbing drama presented in best Capra craftsmanship.' – Variety
'More fun, even, than the Senate itself . . . not merely a brilliant jest, but a stirring and even inspiring testament to liberty and freedom.' – Frank S. Nugent, New York Times
'It says all the things about America that have been crying out to be said again – and says them beautifully.' – Los Angeles Times
'The great American picture.' – Billboard
'I feel that to show this film in foreign countries will do inestimable harm to American prestige all over the world.' –

Joseph P. Kennedy, then American ambassador to Great Britain
'A totally compelling piece of movie-making, upholding the virtues of traditional American ideals.' – NFT, 1973
'Very good, beautifully done and extremely entertaining; long, but worth the time it takes.' – Richard Mallett, Punch
'More of the heartfelt than is good for the stomach.' – New Yorker, 1977
Lewis R. Foster
best picture; Sidney Buchman; Frank Capra; Dimitri Tiomkin; James Stewart; Claude Rains; Harry Carey; Lionel Banks

Mr Soft Touch

US 1949 93m bw
Columbia
GB title: House of Settlement
A gangster is reformed at Christmas by a social worker.
Dewy-eyed romance with Damon Runyonish asides; only for soft touches.
w Orin Jannings d Henry Levin, Gordon Douglas ph Joseph Walker m Heinz Roemheld ☆ Glenn Ford, Evelyn Keyes, John Ireland, Beulah Bondi, Percy Kilbride, Roman Bohnen

Mister Ten Per Cent

GB 1967 84m Technicolor
ABPC (W. A. Whittaker)
An impresario stages a play, expecting it to flop in order to provide a tax loss, and finds himself with a hit on his hands.
A comedy vehicle for its dimunitive, slapstick star, but too ramshackle to carry him very far.
w Norman Hudis, Charlie Drake story Mira Avrech d Peter Graham Scott ph Gerald Gibbs m Ron Goodwin ch Gillian Lynne ad Terence Knight ed Jack Harris
☆ Charlie Drake, Derek Nimmo, John Le Mesurier, Wanda Ventham, Anthony Nicholls, Noel Dyson, Ronald Radd, John Laurie, George Baker, Una Stubbs

Mr Topaze

GB 1961 84m Eastmancolor
Cinemascope
TCF/Dimitri de Grunwald (Pierre Rouve)
US title: I Like Money
An honest ex-schoolmaster becomes prosperous when he joins some shady businessmen.
Predictable, sluggish character comedy, with a good actor unable to make it as a star. Or as a director.
w Pierre Rouve play Topaze by Marcel Pagnol d Peter Sellers ph John Wilcox m Georges Van Parys
☆ Peter Sellers, Herbert Lom, Leo McKern, Nadia Gray, Martita Hunt, John Neville, Billie Whitelaw, Michael Gough, Joan Sims, John Le Mesurier, Michael Sellers
'A film of minor pleasures and major inadequacies.' – Penelope Houston, MFB † See also Topaze (1933).

Mr Universe

US 1951 79m bw
Laurel/Eagle Lion
Con men promote a new wrestler.
Fair low-class comedy with some laughs.
w Earle Kramer d Joseph Lerner ph Gerald Hirschfeld m Dimitri Tiomkin
☆ Bert Lahr, Jack Carson, Vincent Edwards, Janis Paige, Robert Alda

Mister V: see Pimpernel Smith

'Sometimes the wrong person is the only right person for you.'

Mr Wonderful

US 1992 97m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Samuel Goldwyn (Marianne Moloney)
A divorced couple decide to get together again.
A romantic comedy about star-crossed lovers becoming uncrossed that lacks force or passion.
wd Anthony Minghella from original screenplay by Amy Schor, Vicki Polon ph Geoffrey Simpson m Michael Gore pd Doug Kraner ed John Tintori
☆ Matt Dillon, Annabella Sciorra, Mary-Louise Parker, William Hurt, Vincent D'Onofrio, David Barry Gray, Dan Hedaya
'Makes a good shot at the difficult assignment of making romantic comedy for a modern audience.' – Adam Mars-Jones, Independent

Mr Wong

A cheeseparing set of second features from Monogram, based on stories by Hugh Wiley.
Boris Karloff was unsuitably cast as a Chinese detective, and in the last film he was replaced by Keye Luke. The films were directed by William Nigh.
1938 Mr Wong Detective
1939 The Mystery of Mr Wong, Mr Wong in Chinatown
1940 The Fatal Hour, Doomed to Die (GB title: The Mystery of the Wentworth Castle)
1941 Phantom of Chinatown

Mr Wrong ★

New Zealand 1985 89m colour
NZFC/Barclays (Robin Laing, Gaylene Preston) aka: Dark of the Night
A young woman moves to the big city and discovers that the car she buys to make weekend visits to her parents appears to be haunted by a woman who was murdered by a hitch-hiker.
An intriguing psychological thriller, though occasionally it makes heavy weather of marrying its ghost story with a feminist account of a woman trying to survive among predatory men.
w Gaylene Preston, Geoff Murphy, Graeme Tetley story Elizabeth Jane Howard d Gaylene Preston ph Thom Burstyn m Jonathan Crayford ad Mike Becroft ed Simon Reece
☆ Heather Bolton, David Letch, Perry Piercy, Suzanne Lee, Margaret Umbers, Danny Mulheron, Gary Stalker, Kate Harcourt

'He loved her from afar. It wasn't far enough.'

Mr Wrong

US 1995 97m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Touchstone/Mandeville (Marty Katz)
A single 31-year-old woman discovers that her new romance is not the sensitive caring person he appears to be.
Weak one-joke comedy, so ill-constructed that all its jokes fall flat.
w Chris Matheson, Kerry Ehrin, Craig Munson d Nick Castle ph John Schwartzman m Craig Safan pd Doug Kraner ed Patrick Kennedy cos Ingrid Ferrin
☆ Ellen DeGeneres (Martha Alston), Bill Pullman (Whitman Crawford), Joan Cusack (Inga), Dean Stockwell (Jack Tramonte), John Livingston (Walter), Robert Goulet (Dick Braxton), Ellen Cleghorne (Jane), Polly Holiday (Mrs Alston), Camille Saviola (Consuela), Joan Plowright (Mrs Crawford), Hope Davis (Annie), Brad Henke (Bob)
'Takes an overworked genre – modern, angst-ridden romance – and drives it right around the bend.' – John Anderson, LA Times

Mr Wu ★

US 1927 80m approx (24 fps) bw silent
MGM
A Chinese villain kills his daughter when she wants to marry an Englishman.
Turgid outmoded melodrama from a stage success: purely a star vehicle.
w Lorna Moon play Maurice Vernon, Harold Owen d William Nigh ph John Arnold
☆ Lon Chaney, Louise Dresser, Anna May Wong, Ralph Forbes, Renee Adoree, Holmes Herbert

Il Mistero di Oberwald: see The Oberwald Mystery

'Everybody's trying to get their girlfriend into the movies...'

Mistress ★

US 1992 110m CFI color
Tribeca (Meir Teper, Robert DeNiro)
A writer-director discovers that all those approached to finance his movie have girlfriends who want a leading part in it, providing he changes the script to suit them.
Enjoyable satire on the dangers of integrity among minor players in a movie-making industry.
w Barry Primus, Jonathan L. Lawton d Barry Primus ph Sven Kirsten m Galt MacDermot pd Phil Peters ed Steve Weisberg
☆ Robert Wuhl, Martin Landau, Robert DeNiro, Jace Alexander, Laurie Metcalf, Danny Aiello, Christopher Walken, Eli Wallach, Tuesday Weld, Sheryl Lee Ralph, Ernest Borgnine
'Can't seem to decide if it's supposed to be a comedy about Hollywood small-timers trying to get an indie pic off the ground, or a somber drama in which greed and lust overwhelm art.' – Variety

'One spice for passion. And one woman who knows its name.'

Mistress of Spices ★ (2)

UK/Germany 2005 92m
Entertainment/Kintop/Balle/Capitol/Ingenious/Isle of Man Film (Deepak Nayar)
German theatrical title: Die Huterin der Gewurze
Shy young Indian spice-shop owner in San Francisco uses spices to cure her clients' relationship problems, before getting entangled romantically herself.
Based on an Oprah-friendly novel, an east-west love story that founders on the shores of magical realism, a literary device that has sunk many a film. This one retreats too easily into whimsy and exoticism. Neither Bollywood superstar Aishwarya Rai, often leaden in the context of Western films, nor Dylan McDermott as her rugged architect love interest, look comfortable. In its restraint, the film stands valiantly against modern sensibilities, but in the end it's too winsome by far.
w Gurinder Chadha, Paul Mayeda Berges novel Chitra Banerjee Divakaruni d Paul Mayeda Berges ph Santosh Sivan m Craig Pruess pd Amanda McArthur ad John Reid, Don Day ed Alexander Rodriguez
☆ Aishwarya Rai (Tilo), Dylan McDermott (Doug), Nitin Ganatra (Haroun), Sonny Gill Dulay (Jaglit)
'Beautiful but lifeless, poetic but unelevated.' – Derek Elley, Variety

Mix Me a Person

GB 1961 116m bw
Wessex (Sergei Nolbandov)
A barrister's psychiatrist wife takes on one of his failures, a client condemned to death for murder.
Once it gets started, a routine suspense thriller with the wrong man convicted and an espresso bar background. Not a very good one, though.
w Ian Dalrymple novel Jack Trevor Story d Leslie Norman ph Ted Moore md Muir Mathieson songs Johnny Worth ☆ Anne Baxter, Donald Sinden, Adam Faith, Walter Brown, Glyn Houston

Mixed Company

US 1974 109m DeLuxe
UA/Cornell (Melville Shavelson)
A basketball coach and his wife adopt several children of different races.
Room for One More and then some, but not very interesting.
w Melville Shavelson, Mort Lachman d Melville Shavelson ph Stan Lazan m Fred Karlin pd Stan Jolley ☆ Barbara Harris, Joseph Bologna, Lisa Gerritsen, Ariane Heller

Mixed Nuts

US 1995 97m Technicolor
TriStar (Paul Junger Witt, Tony Thomas, Joseph Hartwick)
The staff of a telephone help-line face eviction from their office as they are overwhelmed by eccentrics needing aid.
Absolutely absymal comedy, in which all hands sink without trace, leaving not a joke behind.
w Nora Ephron, Delia Ephron Film Le Père Noël est une ordure d Nora Ephron ph Sven Nykvist m George Fenton pd Bill Groom ed Robert Reitano
☆ Steve Martin, Madeline Kahn, Robert Klein, Anthony LaPaglia, Juliette Lewis, Rob Reiner, Adam Sandler, Rita Wilson, Garry Shandling
'It's a total misfire with no commercial vital signs registering on-screen.' – Variety

M'liss

US 1936 66m bw
RKO
A drunkard's daughter washes dishes in a Western saloon.
Laundered and fairly inept family version of a roistering tale.
w Dorothy Yost story Bret Harte d George Nicholls Jnr ☆ Anne Shirley, Guy Kibbee, John Beal, Douglass Dumbrille, Moroni Olsen, Arthur Hoyt

Mo' Better Blues ★

US 1990 127m DeLuxe
UIP/40 Acres and a Mule Filmworks/Spike Lee
A jazz trumpeter redeems himself as a person, but loses out as a musician.
An unfocused narrative, caused by trying to say too much about too many things, results in an unsatisfactory film, though it has its moments.
wd Spike Lee ph Ernest Dickerson m Bill Lee pd Wynn Thomas ed Sam Pollard ☆ Denzel Washington, Spike Lee, Wesley

Snipes, Joie Lee, Cynda Williams, Giancarlo Esposito, Robin Harris, Bill Nunn

'The film's movement is fitful and arbitrary – all mood swings and unpersuasive melodrama.' – Richard Schickel, Time

Mo' Money

US 1992 90m colour
Columbia TriStar/Columbia/A Wife N'Kids (Michael Rachmil)

After trying and failing to go straight, a hustler and his brother make money with a stolen credit card but also expose a big-time crook.

A vehicle of dubious morality, with some street-wise comedy, expertly delivered, from its star.

w Damon Wayans d Peter Macdonald ph Don Burgess m Jay Gruska pd William Arnold ed Hubert C. de La Bouillerie

☆ Damon Wayans, Stacey Dash, Joe Santos, John Diehl, Harry J. Lennix, Marlon Wayans, Mark Beltzman

'The comedy is, in truth, pretty feeble – rancid without the redeeming virtue of wit.' – Sheila Johnston, Independent

'If this is grown-up cinema, give me Peter Rabbit.' – Geoff Brown, The Times

The Mob ★

US 1951 87m bw
Columbia (Jerry Bresler)
GB title: Remember That Face

A policeman works undercover to catch a dockside racketeer.

Tough, lively thriller with effectively sustained mystery and a serial-like finale.

w William Bowers d Robert Parrish ph Joseph Walker m George Duning

☆ Broderick Crawford, Richard Kiley, Ernest Borgnine, Neville Brand, Charles Bronson

Mob Town

US 1941 61m bw
Universal

A policeman tries to rehabilitate the young brother of an executed gangster.

Another spin-off from the Dead End Kids, quite unremarkable.

w Brenda Weisberg d William Nigh

☆ Dick Foran, Anne Gwynne, Billy Halop, Huntz Hall, Bernard Punsley, Gabriel Dell, Samuel S. Hinds

Mobsters

US 1991 104m DeLuxe
Universal (Steve Roth)

GB title: Mobsters – The Evil Empire

Four youths grow up to become gangsters Lucky Luciano, Meyer Lansky, Bugsy Siegel and Frank Costello.

Bungled attempt, full of gratuitous violence, to create an adolescent Godfather.

w Michael Mahern, Nicholas Kazan d Michael Karbelnikoff ph Lajos Koltai m Michael Small pd Richard Sylbert ed Scott Smith, Joe D'Augustine

☆ Christian Slater, Patrick Dempsey, Richard Grieco, Costas Mandylor, F. Murray Abraham, Lara Flynn Boyle, Michael Gambon, Christopher Penn, Anthony Quinn

'Armed with teen appeal thanks to its leads, this hollow pic may mow down strong boxoffice early but will start hemorrhaging quickly as mixed-to-poor word-of-mouth cuts off its legs.' – Variety

'America's greatest actor – as you like him!'

Moby Dick ★

US 1930 75m bw
Warner

Captain Ahab returns minus a leg from fighting the white whale, and finds that his fiancée is too shocked to love him.

Mangled remake of a fine novel filmed in silent form as The Sea Beast.

w J. Grubb Alexander novel Herman Melville d Lloyd Bacon ph Robert Kurrie

☆ John Barrymore, Joan Bennett, Lloyd Hughes, May Boley, Walter Long

'Money picture, guaranteed by its action and by Barrymore.' – Variety

'In All The World – In All The Seas – In All Adventure There Is No Might Like The Might of Moby Dick.'

Moby Dick ★★

GB 1956 116m Technicolor
Warner/Moulin (John Huston)

A whaling skipper is determined to harpoon the white whale which robbed him of a leg.

Pretentious period adventure, rather too slowly developed, but full of interesting detail which almost outweighs the central miscasting.

w Ray Bradbury, John Huston novel Herman Melville d John Huston ph Oswald Morris m Philip Sainton

☆ Gregory Peck, Richard Basehart, Friedrich Ledebur, Leo Genn, Orson Welles, James Robertson Justice, Harry Andrews, Bernard Miles, Noel Purcell, Edric Connor, Joseph Tomelty, Mervyn Johns

'Interesting more often than exciting.' – Variety

Mockery

US 1927 75m approx (24 fps) bw silent
MGM

A noble peasant saves a countess from the Russian revolution.

Overly serious vehicle for a star more at ease in melodrama.

wd Benjamin Christensen ph Merritt B. Gerstad

☆ Lon Chaney, Barbara Bedford, Ricardo Cortez, Emily Fitzroy, Mack Swain

'Sexy. Cool. Mod.'

The Mod Squad

US 1999 94m DeLuxe
MGM (Ben Myron, Alan Riche, Tony Ludwig)

After infiltrating the counter-culture, three young hippie undercover agents discover that LA cops are involved with drug pushers.

Trivial movie version of an uninteresting TV series that recalls some of the worst of the 'swinging' films of the 60s.

w Stephen Kay, Scott Silver, Kate Lanier characters created by Buddy Ruskin d Scott Silver ph Ellen Kuras m B. C. Smith pd Patrick Sherman ed Dorian Harris

☆ Claire Danes, Giovanni Ribisi, Omar Epps, Dennis Farina, Josh Brolin, Steve Harris, Richard Jenkins, Larry Brandenburg, Lionel Mark Smith, Sam McMurray, Michael Lerner

'Foul word of mouth will spread quickly to send this exercise in pipsqueak crime-fighting back to its vid roots in short order.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

† The TV series ran from 1968 to 1973 and starred Michael Cole, Clarence Williams III and Peggy Lipton as the three agents. It was based on the experiences of its creator, Bud Ruskin, a former cop who had been a member of an undercover narcotics squad.

The Model and the Marriage Broker

US 1951 103m bw
TCF (Charles Brackett)

A broker conceals her profession from a friend but gets the friend fixed up.

Moderate, unsurprising comedy somewhat overweighted by talent which can't express itself.

w Charles Brackett, Walter Reisch, Richard Breen d George Cukor ph Milton Krasner m Cyril Mockridge

☆ Thelma Ritter, Jeanne Crain, Scott Brady, Zero Mostel, Michael O'Shea, Nancy Kulp

The Model Murder Case: see The Girl in the Headlines

A Modern Hero ★

US 1934 70m bw
Warner

A young circus rider becomes an automobile tycoon but overreaches himself.

Unconvincing moral tale, performed and presented with nice touches.

w Gene Markey, Kathryn Scola novel Louis Bromfield d G. W. Pabst

☆ Richard Barthelmess, Jean Muir, Marjorie Rambeau, Verree Teasdale, Florence Eldridge

'Essentially weak on plot and characterization.' – Variety

A Modern Hero: see Knute Rockne, All American (1940)

Modern Love

US 1990 109m CFI color Panavision
Skouras/SVS/Lyric (Robby Benson)

A man and a woman meet, marry, have a child and keep on smiling most of the time.

A story that is about as modern as Adam and Eve; it is given a resolutely old-fashioned comic treatment that quickly becomes tedious.

wd Robby Benson ph Christopher G. Tufty m Don Peake pd Carl E. Copeland ed Gib Jaffe

☆ Robby Benson, Karla DeVito, Rue McClanahan, Burt Reynolds, Frankie Valli, Kaye Ballard, Cliff Bemis, Louise Lasser, Lyric Benson

The Modern Miracle: see The Story of Alexander Graham Bell

Modern Romance ★

US 1981 93m Metrocolor
Columbia (Andrew Scheinman, Martin Shafer)

A film editor leaves his girlfriend, then tries to get her back and becomes jealous of her every move.

Clever study of a neurotic in love, with some good jokes about the film business along the way.

w Albert Brooks, Monica Johnson d Albert Brooks ph Eric Saarinen m Lance Rubin pd Edward Richardson ed David Finfer

☆ Albert Brooks, Kathryn Harrold, Bruno Kirby, James L. Brooks, Meadowlark Lemon, George Kennedy, Jane Hallaren, Bob Einstein, Albert Henderson

'You'll never laugh as long and as loud again as long as you live! The laughs come so fast and so furious you'll wish it would end before you collapse!'

Modern Times ★★★

US 1936 87m bw
Charles Chaplin

An assembly-line worker goes berserk but can't get another job.

Silent star comedy produced in the middle of the sound period; flashes of genius alternate with sentimental sequences and jokes without punch.

wd Charles Chaplin ph Rollie Totheroh, Ira Morgan m Charles Chaplin ad Charles D. Hall, J. Russell Spencer

☆ Charles Chaplin (A Worker), Paulette Goddard (Gamine), Henry Bergman (Gamine), Chester Conklin (Mechanic), Tiny Sandford (Big Bill/Worker)

'A natural for the world market ... box office with a capital B.' – Variety

'A feature picture made out of several one- and two-reel shorts, proposed titles being The Shop, The Jailbird, The Singing Waiter.' – Otis Ferguson

Modern Vampires

US 1998 95m FotoKem
Storm/Muse (Brad Wyman, Chris Hanley)

GB title: Revenant

Vampire fighter Van Helsing co-opts an LA street gang to deal with an infestation of vampires in Hollywood.

A jokey, revisionist take on the vampire myths, with Van Helsing as a crypto-Nazi and Dracula as a ruler under threat from rebel vampires in a society that outdoes them in decadence; a great deal of blood is mixed in with the humour.

w Matthew Bright d Richard Elfman ph Robin Brown m Danny Elfman, Michael Wandmacher pd Robyn Costa ed Larry Bock

☆ Casper Van Dien (Dallas), Natasha Gregson Wagner (Nico), Gabriel Casseus (Time Bomb), Kim Cattrall (Ulrike), Craig Ferguson (Richard), Natasha Lyonne (Rachel), Natasha Andreichenko (Panthea), Robert Pastorelli (The Count), Udo Kier (Vincent), Rod Steiger (Dr Frederick Van Helsing), Flex (Trigger), Marco Hofschneider (Hans), Conchata Ferrell (Nico's Mom)

'A bloody, ugly, prurient affair that makes everyone connected with it look foolish.' – Mick LaSalle, San Francisco Chronicle

El Moderno Barba Azul: see Boom in the Moon

The Moderns ★★

US 1988 126m colour
Rank/Alive Films/Nelson (Carolyn Pfeiffer, David Blocker)

In Paris in the 1920s a struggling American expatriate artist agrees to fake some modern masterpieces.

Witty recreation of the past and an enjoyable dissection of the aspirations of the second-rate.

w Alan Rudolph, Jon Bradshaw d Alan Rudolph ph Toyomichoi Kurita m Mark Isham pd Steven Legler ed Debra T. Smith, Scott Brock

☆ Keith Carradine, Linda Fiorentino, Geneviève Bujold, Geraldine Chaplin, Wallace Shawn, John Lone, Kevin O'Connor, Elsa Raven, Ali Giron

'Beautifully shot and impeccably acted all the way down the cast list, weaving an astonishingly complex path through the "seems" and "is" of countless varieties of relationship, The Moderns is undoubtedly Rudolph's best film to date.' – Tom Milne, MFB

Modesty Blaise

GB 1966 119m Technicolor
TCF/Modesty Blaise Ltd (Joseph Janni)

Female arch-agent Modesty Blaise defends a shipload of diamonds against a sadistic master criminal.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Comic-strip adventures made by people with no sense of humour; Fu Manchu was much more fun.
w Evan Jones comic strip Peter O'Donnell, Jim Holdaway d Joseph Losey ph Jack Hildyard m Johnny Dankworth ☆ Monica Vitti, Dirk Bogarde, Terence Stamp, Harry Andrews, Michael Craig, Scilla Gabel, Clive Revill, Rossella Falk, Joe Melia 'Demonstrated that Joseph Losey is completely without a sense of humour when dealing with comedy.' – Judith Crist

Modigliani
GB/Germany/Romania/France/Italy 2004 126m colour
Bauer Martinez/UKFS/Frame Werk/ MediaPro/ Aliceleo/Buskin/France3 (Stephane Martinez-Campeau, Philippe Martinez, Andre Djaoui, Alan Latham)
In the last months of his life in Paris, the penniless Modigliani attempts to cope with his relationship with his Catholic mistress, the mother of his child, and his rivalry with Picasso.
Well-meaning biopic that never comes to life, with the ever-smiling Garcia unable to suggest the artist's self-destructive passions.
wd Mick Davis ph Emmanuel Kadosh m Guy Farley pd Giantito Burchiellaro ed Emma E. Hickox
☆ Andy Garcia (Amedeo Modigliani), Elsa Zylberstein (Jeanne Hebuterne), Hippolyte Girardot (Utrillo), Omid Djalili (Pablo Picasso), Eva Herzigova (Olga), Udo Kier (Max Jacob), Peter Capaldi (Jean Cocteau), Beatrice Chiriac (Frida Kahlo), Lance Henriksen (Foster Kane), Miriam Margolyes (Gertrude Stein), Jim Carter (Achilles Hébuterne)
'Earnest misfire... All set pieces and forced intensity, pic never really settles into a rhythm conducive to suspension of disbelief.' – Lisa Nesselson, Variety † Modigliani's life was also the subject of an earlier film Lovers of Montparnasse (qv).

Modigliani of Montparnasse: see Lovers of Montparnasse

'Flaming love found in the savage heart of the jungle!'

Mogambo ★
GB 1953 116m Technicolor
MGM (Sam Zimbalist)
The headquarters of a Kenyan white hunter is invaded by an American showgirl and a British archaeologist and his wife, and they all go off on a gorilla hunt.
Amiable, flabby remake of Red Dust, with direction scarcely in evidence and the gorillas out-acting a genial cast.
w John Lee Mahin d John Ford ph Robert Surtees, F. A. Young m A. N. Watkins
☆ Clark Gable, Ava Gardner, Grace Kelly, Donald Sinden, Laurence Naismith, Philip Stainton
† The story was also made as Congo Maisie in 1940.
Ava Gardner; Grace Kelly

La Moglie del Prete: see The Priest's Wife

'Six guys who don't have a clue just got the picture.'

The Moguls ②
UK/US 2006 96m
UIP/Qwerty Films/ N1 European Film Produktions/Raygun Productions (Aaron Ryder)
aka: The Amateurs
Middle-aged friends in a small American town make a pornographic movie.
Witless comedy without the gumption to capitalise on its saucy premise; flaccid in just about every department.
wd Michael Traeger ph Denis Maloney m Nic. Tenbroek pd Bob Ziembicki ad Brandee Dell'Aringa ed Raul Davalos
☆ Jeff Bridges (Andy Sargentee), Tim Blake Nelson (Barney Macklehatton), Joe Pantoliano (Some Idiot), William Fichtner (Otis), Ted Danson (Moose), Patrick Fugit (Emmett)
'Like Calendar Girls with money shots. But without laughs.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

Mohammed, Messenger of God
Lebanon 1976 182m Eastmancolor Panavision
Filmco International (Moustapha Akkad)
aka: The Message
The life of the seventh-century religious leader.
Predictably reverential and exceedingly tedious religious epic, rather like a lesser de Mille item and fatally handicapped by the decision never to show Mohammed at all.
w H. A. L. Craig (with Arab advice) d Moustapha Akkad ph Jack Hildyard m Maurice Jarre pd Tambi Larsen, Maurice Fowler
☆ Anthony Quinn, Irene Papas, Michael Ansara, Johnny Sekka, Michael Forest, André Morell
'For well over three hours this film stumbles, staggers, lurches and bumbles ahead, without any true rhythm, construction, vision, or even bare minimum of craft.' – John Simon, New York
Maurice Jarre

Mohawk
US 1956 79m Pathécolor
National Pictures (Edward L. Alperson)
An artist falls in love with the daughter of an Iriquois chief who is provoked into waging war on the settlers.
Amiable Western, with a modicum of originality in its narrative, though the implausibility of its romance is increased by the unconvincing performances of the actors playing the Indians.
w Maurice Geraghty, Milton Krims d Kurt Neumann ph Karl Struss m Edward L. Alperson Jnr md Raoul Kraushaar pd Ernst Fegté ed William B. Murphy
☆ Scott Brady, Rita Gam, Neville Brand, Allison Hayes, Lori Nelson, John Hoyt, Rhys Williams, Mae Clarke, Tommy Cook, Vera Vague, Ted de Corsia, John Hudson

Moi Drug Ivan Lapshin: see My Friend Ivan Lapshin

Le Moine: see The Monk (1972)

Mojo
GB 1997 93m Technicolor
Portobello/BBC/British Screen/Mojo (Paul Cowan)
In Soho of the 50s, a club-owner and a gangster battle over who controls a new rock singer.
Lurid melodrama which was a stage success, but transfers uneasily to the screen; it has its moments, particularly in a confrontation between Hart and Pinter, but they are few and far between.
wd Jez Butterworth play Jez Butterworth ph Bruno de Keyzer m Murray Gold pd Hugo Luczyc-Wyhowski ed Richard Milward
☆ Ian Hart, Ewen Bremner, Aiden Gillen, Martin Gwynn Jones, Hans Matheson, Andy Serkis, Ricky Tomlinson, Harold Pinter
'There's talent and substance to distract in a picture that never quite gels into an effective whole.' – Darren Bignell, Empire

'Horror crawls from the depths of the earth!'

The Mole People
US 1956 78m bw
Universal-International
Archaeologists fall down a shaft and find themselves in a subterranean civilization where mole people are ruled by albinos.
Thoroughly boring nonsense which would insult a Saturday matinée.
w Laszlo Gorog d Virgil Vogel ph Ellis Carter ☆ John Agar, Cynthia Patrick, Hugh Beaumont, Alan Napier

'The remarkable story of one woman's unbreakable spirit.'

Moll Flanders ③
US 1996 123m DeLuxe 'Scope
TCF/Spelling (John Watson, Richard B. Lewis, Pen Densham)
In 18th-century London, a poor woman becomes a prostitute and wife before escaping to a better life in the New World.
A very free adaptation of Defoe's novel, substituting a less interesting narrative, in which the bawdiness of the original is replaced by a tedious gentility.
wd Pen Densham based on the character from the novel by Daniel Defoe ph David Tattersall m Mark Mancina pd Caroline Hanania ed Neil Travis, James R. Symons
☆ Robin Wright, Morgan Freeman, Stockard Channing, John Lynch, Brenda Fricker, Geraldine James, Aisling Corcoran, Jim Sheridan, Jeremy Brett, Harry Towb
'Comprehensively dire.' – Independent

Molly
Australia 1983 82m colour
NSW Film Corp./Greater Union/M&L (Hilary Linstead)
A little girl, with the help of some circus children, looks after a singing dog when its owner is taken ill.
Amusing, although slow-moving, family film that will appeal most to soft-hearted sub-teens.
w Phillip Roope, Mark Thomas, Hilary Linstead, Ned Lander d Ned Lander ph Vincent Monton md Graeme Isaac ad Robert Dein ed Stewart Young ☆ Claudia Karvan, Garry McDonald, Reg Lye, Melissa Jaffer, Ruth Cracknell

Molly and Me
US 1945 76m bw
TCF
A cantankerous old man is tamed by his new housekeeper.
Sentimental little star vehicle.
w Leonard Praskins d Lewis Seiler ph Charles G. Clarke m Cyril Mockridge ☆ Gracie Fields, Monty Woolley, Reginald Gardiner, Roddy McDowall, Natalie Schafer, Edith Barrett
† This followed the more successful teaming of the stars in Holy Matrimony.

The Molly Maguires
US 1970 123m Technicolor Panavision
Paramount/Tamm (Martin Ritt, Walter Bernstein)
In the Pennsylvania coalmining district in the 1870s, an undercover detective exposes the leaders of a secret society.
Sober-sided and slow-moving account of actual events which also formed the basis for Conan Doyle's rather more entertaining The Valley of Fear. Expensive, nicely photographed, but unpersuasive and empty.
w Walter Bernstein d Martin Ritt ph James Wong Howe m Henry Mancini ad Tambi Larsen
☆ Richard Harris, Sean Connery, Samantha Eggar, Frank Finlay, Anthony Zerbe, Bethel Leslie, Art Lund
'The film's vague sense of grievance and harrowing circumstances hangs in the air like the smoky pall cast up by the anthracite workings.' – Richard Combs
'A cold, dry and rather perfunctory film.' – Arthur Schlesinger Jnr
Tambi Larsen

Mom and Dad Save the World
US 1992 88m Foto-Kem
Warner/HBO/Cinema Plus/Douglas (Michael Phillips)
A Californian couple are transported to an alien planet ruled by a mad dictator who has imprisoned the king.
A dim comedy for easily pleased children.
w Chris Matheson, Ed Solomon d Greg Beeman ph Jacques Haitkin m Jerry Goldsmith pd Craig Stearns ed W. O. Garret sp Alterian Studios; Perpetual Motion Pictures ☆ Teri Garr, Jeffrey Jones, Jon Lovitz, Thalmus Rasulala, Wallace Shawn, Eric Idle, Dwier Brown, Kathy Ireland
'With garish color, goofy-looking creatures in rubbery costumes and sets parodying old Flash Gordon serials, pic flaunts its modest budget with engaging candor.' – Variety

Moment by Moment
US 1979 105m Technicolor Panavision
Universal (Robert Stigwood)
A bored Beverly Hills wife has an affair with a young drifter.
Tedious proof that even the biggest new stars of the seventies can't carry a no-good picture.
wd Jane Wagner ph Philip Lathrop m Lee Holdridge pd Harry Horner ☆ John Travolta, Lily Tomlin, Andra Akers, Bert Kramer, Debra Feuer
'Little more than an animated snapshot of its leading man, baring body and soul to various effect ... truly terrible.' – Gilbert Adair, MFB

Un Moment d'Egarement: see A Summer Affair

Moment of Danger
GB 1960 87m bw
ABPC/Douglas Fairbanks Jnr
US title: Malaga
Thieves fall out and pursue each other to Malaga.
Falling between the stools of thriller and character drama, this is a poor effort in either category.
w David Osborn, Donald Ogden Stewart novel The Scent of Danger by Donald MacKenzie d Laslo Benedek ph Desmond Dickinson m Matyas Seiber
☆ Trevor Howard, Dorothy Dandridge, Edmund Purdom, Michael Hordern, Paul Stassino
† Donald Ogden Stewart's name was omitted from the film's original credits at the time because he was blacklisted.

Moment to Moment
US 1966 108m Technicolor
Universal (Mervyn Le Roy)
A housewife finds herself with a body on her hands.

Incredibly old-fashioned romantic/melodramatic malarkey set on the French Riviera but scarcely moving a step out of Hollywood. Lush settings made it marketable to women.
w John Lee Mahin, Alec Coppel d Mervyn Le Roy ph Harry Stradling m Henry Mancini
☆ Jean Seberg, Honor Blackman, Sean Garrison, Arthur Hill, Grégoire Aslan

Mommie Dearest

US 1981 129m Metrocolor
Paramount/Frank Yablans

An account of the private life of Joan Crawford, from the biography by her adopted daughter Christina, who claimed spectacular ill-treatment.
On the screen it all seemed too silly for words, and nobody cared anyway.
w Frank Yablans, Frank Perry, Tracy Hotchner, Robert Getchell d Frank Perry ph Paul Lohmann m Henry Mancini pd Bill Malley
☆ Faye Dunaway, Diana Scarwid, Steve Forrest, Howard da Silva (Louis B. Mayer)
'The only thing that is not transparent about this film is why it was ever made.' – Jo Imeson, MFB

The Mommy Market: see Trading Mom

Mon Homme ②

France 1996 99m colour Panavision
Artificial Eye/BAC/Alain Sarde

A contented prostitute takes in a tramp, who becomes her pimp; when he is imprisoned and she discovers he has been unfaithful, she becomes a housewife.
An oddly broken-backed and unsatisfactory movie, though it begins well as a brisk comedy of sexual needs before shifting into sentimentality and pointlessness.
wd Bertrand Blier ph Pierre Lhomme m Barry White et al pd Willy Holt, Georges Glon ed Claudine Merlin ☆ Anouk Grinberg, Gérard Lanvin, Valéria Bruni-Tedeschi, Olivier Martinez, Dominique Valadié, Jacques François, Michel Galabru, Robert Hirsch, Bernard Fresson, Aurore Clément, Jean-Pierre Léaud, Sabine Azéma
'Since pic isn't sure what it's about (except flying in the face of conventional morality), this stylish, keenly acted item runs out of both steam and substance before its less than satisfying conclusion.' – Lisa Nesselson, Variety

Mon Oncle ★

France 1956 116m Eastmancolor
Specta/Gray/Alterdel-Centaure (Louis Dolivet)

A small boy has less affection for his parents than for his vague, clumsy uncle.
Tiresomely long star vehicle, with Tati harping on his theory of detachment, i.e. keeping his comic character on the fringes of the action. It really doesn't work in a film of this length, and the jokes are thin.
w Jacques Tati, Jacques Lagrange d Jacques Tati ph Jean Bourgoin m Alain Romains, Franck Barcellini
☆ Jacques Tati, Jean-Pierre Zola, Adrienne Servatie, Alain Becourt, Yvonne Arnaud
'Deft, elusive, full of heart.' – Brenda Davies, MFB
'Cinema humour at its brilliant best.' – Daily Worker
♟ best foreign film

Mon Oncle Américain: see My American Uncle

Mon Oncle Benjamin: see Uncle Benjamin

Mon Père, Ce Héros

France 1991 104m colour
Gala/Film Par Film/DD/Orly/TF1/Paravision/Canal (Jean-Louis Livi)

A teenage girl on holiday tells a boy she fancies that her father is a spy and her lover.
A dull and sentimental comedy that sanitizes incest.
wd Gérard Lauzier ph Patrick Blossier m François Bernheim ad Christian Marti ed Georges Klotz
☆ Gérard Depardieu, Marie Gillain, Patrick Mille, Catherine Jacob, Charlotte de Turckheim, Jean-François Rangasamy, Koomaren Chetty
'This syrupy teen romance would be all but unwatchable were it not for the presence of Depardieu.' – Empire
† The film was remade in America in 1994 as My Father, the Hero, again starring Gèrard Depardieu.

Mona Lisa ★★

GB 1986 104m Technicolor
HandMade/Palace (Stephen Woolley, Patrick Cassavetti)

An ex-con becomes chauffeur for a prostitute and becomes involved in the kinkier areas of the vice trade.
Only this actor could make a hit of this unsavoury yarn, with its highlights of sex and violence. But he did.
w Neil Jordan, David Leland d Neil Jordan ph Roger Pratt m Michael Kamen pd Jamie Leonard ed Lesley Walker
☆ Bob Hoskins, Cathy Tyson, Michael Caine, Robbie Coltrane, Clarke Peters, Sammi Davis
'A film to see again, with the certainty that each viewing will add something new.' – MFB
♉ Bob Hoskins

'In a world that told them how to think, she showed them how to live.'

Mona Lisa Smile ★ ④

US 2003 117m DeLuxe
Columbia/Revolution/Red Om (Elaine Goldsmith-Thomas, Deborah Schindler, Paul Schiff)

In 1953, a new English teacher at an elite and conservative woman's college encourages her students to think of careers rather than making good marriages.
Slick, predictable drama with Roberts miscast as the earnest pedagogue.
w Lawrence Konner, Mark Rosenthal d Mike Newell ph Anastas Michos m Rachel Portman pd Jane Musky ed Mick Audsley
☆ Julia Roberts (Katherine Ann Watson), Kirsten Dunst (Betty Warren), Julia Stiles (Joan Brandwyn), Maggie Gyllenhaal (Giselle Levy), Juliet Stevenson (Amanda Armstrong), Dominic West (Bill Dunbar), Ginnifer Goodwin (Connie Baker), Marcia Gay Harden (Nancy Abbey), Terence Rigby (Dr Edward Staunton)
'Has an air of measured craft and intelligence.' – David Denby, New Yorker
'Intelligent, attractive and good-looking film.' – Philip French, Observer

Monache di Sant'Arcangelo: see The Nun and the Devil

Monday Morning ★

France/Italy 2002 128m colour
Artificial Eye/Pierre Grise/Rhone-Alpes/Mikado (Martine Marignac, Maurice Tinchant, Roberto Cicutto, Luigi Musini)

original title: Lundi Matin

Tiring of his repetitive job and rural life with his family, a welder goes to Venice on an impulse.
Gentle, understated comedy of mundane life and incidents that meanders back to where it began.
wd Otar Iosseliani ph William Lubtchansky m Nicolas Zourabichvili pd Manu de Chauvigny ed Otar Iosseliani
☆ Jacques Bidou (Vincent), Arrigo Mozzo (Carlo), Anne Kravz-Tamavsky (Josephine), Narda Blanchet (Vincent's mother), Dato Tarielashvili (Nicolas), Anna Lamour-Flori (Berthe), Adrien Pachod (Gaston), Otar Iosseliani (Enzo de Martini)
'An impeccably made production which beautifully encapsulates a world of serenity and timelessness.' – David Stratton, Variety

'This film is not based on a real story. It is based on thousands.'

Mondays in the Sun

Spain/France/Italy 2002 114m colour
Feature Film/MediaPro/Quo Vadis/Eyescreen/Elias Querejeta

original title: Los Lunes al Sol

In northern Spain, shipyard workers lose their jobs and contemplate a bleak future.
Tough, tender account of the emasculation of the unemployed amid the frustrations of their lives.
w Fernando León de Aranoa, Ignacio del Moral d Fernando León de Aranoa ph Alfredo Mayo m Lucio Godoy ad Julio Esteban ed Nacho Ruiz Capillas
☆ Javier Bardem (Santa), Luis Tosar (José), José Ángel Egido (Lino), Nieve de Medina (Ana), Enrique Villén (Reina)
'A triumph of quiet realism, a piece of sophisticated, subtle filmmaking that is both thoughtful and thought-provoking.' – Kenneth Turan, Los Angeles Times
'Prodigiously uneventful, though its heart is in the right place. It would be easier to dismiss if it weren't.' – Andrew Sarris, New York Observer

Un Monde Presque Paisible: see Almost Peaceful

Un Monde sans Pitié: see A World without Pity

Mondo Cane ★

Italy 1961 105m Technicolor
Cineriz

aka: A Dog's Life

A documentary of thirty sequences of violently eccentric human behaviour, including cannibalism, pig killing, a dog meal restaurant, etc.
Emetic exploitation piece, quite glibly assembled. Its huge commercial success made one worry for the world.
wd Gualtiero Jacopetti ph Antonio Climati, Benito Frattari
♫ song 'More' (m Riz Ortolani, Nino Oliviero, ly Norman Newell)

Money for Jam: see It Ain't Hay

Money from Home

US 1954 100m Technicolor 3-D
Paramount/Hal Wallis

A racing tipster and an assistant veterinary surgeon find themselves in charge of a horse.
A comedy with two strokes against it: the stars, and that never-never gangster land which was already a terrible cliché in the early fifties.
w Hal Kanter story Damon Runyon d George Marshall ph Daniel L. Fapp m Leigh Harline ☆ Dean Martin, Jerry Lewis, Marjie Millar, Pat Crowley, Richard Haydn, Robert Strauss, Gerald Mohr, Sheldon Leonard

Money Mania

US 1987 95m Technicolor J-D-C Scope
De Laurentiis (Stephen F. Kesten)

aka: Million Dollar Mystery

A dying man tells a group of people at a wayside diner that he has hidden four million dollars in four hiding places.
A vigorous reworking of It's a Mad Mad Mad Mad World, even broader and cruder than the original.
w Tim Metcalfe, Miguel Tejada-Flores, Rudy de Luca d Richard Fleischer ph Jack Cardiff m Al Gorgoni pd Jack G. Taylor Jnr ed John W. Wheeler
☆ Jamie Alcroft, Royce D. Applegate, Penny Baker, Eddie Deezen, Mack Dryden, Douglas Emerson, Tawny Ferée, H. B. Haggerty, Rich Hall, Tom Bosley

Money Movers

Australia 1978 90m colour
South Australian Film Corp (Matt Carroll)

A supervisor of a security firm plans a $20-million robbery.
An engaging, though occasionally violent, tale of crooked cops and double-crossing robbers.
wd Bruce Beresford novel The Money Movers by Devon Minchin ph Don McAlpine ed William Anderson, Jeanine Chialvo ☆ Terence Donovan, Tony Bonner, Ed Devereaux, Charles 'Bud' Tingwell, Candy Raymond, Jeanie Drynan, Bryan Brown, Lucky Grills

The Money Pit

US 1986 91m DuArt
Universal/Steven Spielberg (Frank Marshall, Kathleen Kennedy, Art Levinson)

New Yorkers take on an old suburban house, and find it was no bargain.
Witless semi-remake of Mr Blandings Builds His Dream House, with screams instead of subtlety and no real humour at all.
w David Giler d Richard Benjamin ph Gordon Willis m Michel Colombier pd Patrizia von Brandenstein ed Jacqueline Cambas
☆ Tom Hanks, Shelley Long, Alexander Godunov, Maureen Stapleton, Joe Mantegna, Philip Bosco, Josh Mostel
'It begins unpromisingly and slides irrevocably downward from there.' – Variety

Money Talks

US 1997 96m DeLuxe Super 35
Entertainment/New Line (Walter Coblenz, Tracy Kramer)

A campaigning journalist shields an escaped convict in return for an exclusive story.
Indifferent thriller that seems a pale imitation of the Eddie Murphy–Nick Nolte pairing in 48 Hrs.
w Joel Cohen, Alec Sokolow d Brett Ratner ph Russell Carpenter, Robert Primes m Lalo Schifrin pd Robb Wilson King ed Mark Helfrich
☆ Chris Tucker, Charles Sheen, Heather Locklear, Gerard Ismaël, Damian Chapa, Elise Neal, Michael Wright, Veronica Cartwright, David Warner
'Chemistry between the mismatched stars is imperceptible. A new low point in Sheen's career slide.' – Sight and Sound

Money Train

US 1995 110m Technicolor Super 35
Columbia/Peters Entertainment (Jon Peters, Neil Canton)

Two New York cops who are foster brothers decide to rob a train carrying the money collected from the subway system each day.
A tired action movie, loud and unsubtle with performances to match.
w Doug Richardson, David Loughery d Joseph Ruben ph John W. Lindley m Mark Mancina pd Bill Groom ed George Bowers, Bill Pankow
☆ Wesley Snipes, Woody Harrelson, Jennifer Lopez, Robert Blake, Chris Cooper, Joe Grifasi

'Bounces along with a lame script and inconsistent pace.' – Variety
'A big, noisy headache of a movie.' – Entertainment Weekly

The Money Trap

US 1966 92m bw Panavision
MGM (Max E. Youngstein, David Karr)

A hard-up policeman turns to crime.
A cheap thriller decorated with waning stars; competent at the lowest level.
w Walter Bernstein novel Lionel White d Burt Kennedy ph Paul C. Vogel m Hal Schaefer
☆ Glenn Ford, Rita Hayworth, Elke Sommer, Ricardo Montalban, Joseph Cotten, Tom Reese, James Mitchum

Money, Women and Guns

US 1959 80m Eastmancolor Cinemascope
Universal-International

A murdered prospector scrawls a will before dying; a detective investigates the beneficiaries.
What could have been an effective Western whodunnit is jinxed by erratic writing and direction.
w Montgomery Pittman d Richard H. Bartlett ph Philip Lathrop ad Alexander Golitzen ☆ Jock Mahoney, Kim Hunter, Tim Hovey, Gene Evans, William Campbell, Lon Chaney Jnr, Tom Drake, James Gleason

Mongkok Kamun: see As Tears Go By

The Monk (dubbed)

France/Italy/West Germany 1972 90m Eastmancolor Rank/Maya/Comacico/Peri/Tritone/Studio Films (Henry Lange) original title: Le Moine

An abbot, seduced by a woman disguised as a monk, sinks into a life of debauchery and escapes punishment by selling his soul to the devil.
Ineptly directed, poorly dubbed version of the classic Gothic novel which makes one regret that Buñuel did not direct as well as writing the script.
w Luis Buñuel, Jean-Claude Carrière novel M. G. Lewis d Ado Kyrou ph Sacha Vierny m Piero Piccione ad Max Douy ed Eric Pluet ☆ Franco Nero, Nathalie Delon, Nicol Williamson, Nadja Tiller, Elizabeth Wiener, Denis Manuel

'A near disaster ... Kyrou's treatment, in fact, reduces the whole thing to the level of a kinky charade.' – MFB

The Monk

GB/Spain 1990 106m colour
Arrow/Celtic/Mediterraneo Cine-TV (Muir Sutherland, Paco Lara)

A priest is corrupted by a woman who enters his monastery disguised as a boy.
Highly coloured version of a Gothic classic, although it adds a touch of morality and repentance missing from the original.
wd Paco Lara novel M. G. Lewis ph Angel Luis Fernandez m Anton Garcia Abril pd Gumersindo Andres ed José Luis Matesanz sp Alberto Nombela
☆ Paul McGann, Sophie Ward, Isla Blair, Freda Dowie, Aitana Sanchez-Gijon, Laura Davenport, Suzanne Bertish, Mark Elstob

Monk Dawson

GB 1997 107m colour
De Warrenne (Tom Waller)

An outspoken monk leaves the priesthood to become a tabloid journalist, and then has second thoughts.
Glossy melodrama of the tug between spiritual and fleshy needs, but one that carries no great conviction.
w James Magrane novel Piers Paul Read d Tom Waller ph Teoh Gay Hian m Mark Jensen pd Harold Chapman ed Tom Waller ☆ John Michie, Ben Taylor, Paula Hamilton, Martin Kemp, Rupert Vansittart, Frances Tomelty, Rhona Mitra

'A rewarding low-budget British independent that really deserves to find an audience.' – Mark Wyman, Sight and Sound

'The 1931 nut crop is ready!'

Monkey Business ★★★

US 1931 81m bw
Paramount (Herman J. Mankiewicz)

Four ship's stowaways crash a society party and catch a few crooks.
The shipboard part of this extravaganza is one of the best stretches of Marxian lunacy, but after the Chevalier impersonations it runs out of steam. Who's grumbling?
w S. J. Perelman, Will B. Johnstone, Arthur Sheekman d Norman Z. McLeod ph Arthur L. Todd ☆ Groucho Marx (Groucho), Chico Marx (Chico), Harpo Marx (Harpo), Zeppo Marx (Zeppo), Thelma Todd (Lucille), Rockcliffe Fellowes (Joe Helton), Ruth Hall (Mary Helton), Harry Woods ("Alky" Briggs)

'Surefire for laughs despite working along familiar lines ... picture has started off by doing sweeping business all over, and no reason why it shouldn't continue to tickle wherever it plays.' – Variety

Monkey Business ★

US 1952 97m bw
TCF (Sol C. Siegel)

original title: Darling I Am Growing Younger

A chimpanzee in a research lab accidentally concocts an elixir of youth.
Remarkably laboured comedy by and with top people; it can't fail to have funny moments, but they are few and far between.
w Ben Hecht, Charles Lederer, I.A.L. Diamond d Howard Hawks ph Milton Krasner m Leigh Harline
☆ Cary Grant, Ginger Rogers, Charles Coburn, Marilyn Monroe, Hugh Marlowe
CHARLES COBURN TO MARILYN MONROE (PLAYING HIS SECRETARY): 'Find someone to type this.'

Monkey Grip

Australia 1983 102m Eastmancolor
Mainline/Pavilion/Cinecom (Patricia Lovell)

A single mother begins an affair with a drug-addict.
Sprawling, downbeat story of suburban desolation and shiftless lives in Melbourne.
w Ken Cameron, Helen Graham novel Helen Graham d Ken Cameron ph David Gribble m Bruce Smeaton pd Clark Munro ed David Huggett
☆ Noni Hazelhurst, Colin Friels, Alice Garner, Harold Hopkins, Candy Raymond, Michael Caton, Tim Burns, Christina Amphlett

A Monkey in Winter ★

France 1962 103m bw Totalvision
CIPRA/Cité (Jacques Bar)
aka: Une Singe en Hiver
aka: It's Hot in Hell

In a small Normandy resort, a hotel owner and a literary guest get drunk together and plan great fantasies, but finally return to their responsibilities.
Amiable, meandering star character comedy.
w François Boyer novel Antoine Blondin d Henri Verneuil ph Louis Page m Michel Magne
☆ Jean Gabin, Jean-Paul Belmondo, Suzanne Flon, Noël Roquevert, Paul Frankeur, Gabrielle Dorziat

Monkey on My Back

US 1957 93m bw
UA/Imperial/Edward Small

A Guadalcanal hero is given morphine to relieve malaria and becomes addicted.
Dreary case history sold as exploitation.
w Crane Wilbur, Anthony Veiller, Peter Dudley, from the experiences of Barney Ross d André de Toth ph Maury Gertsman m Paul Sawtell, Bert Shefter
☆ Cameron Mitchell, Dianne Foster, Jack Albertson, Paul Richards

Monkey Shines ★

US 1988 109m DeLuxe
Rank/Orion (Charles Evans)

A student, paralysed in an accident, forms a deadly symbiotic relationship with a monkey trained to help him.
Deft psychological thriller, spoilt by its ending, which was forced on its director.
wd George A. Romero novel Michael Stewart ph James A. Contner m David Shire pd Cletus Anderson ed Pasquale Buba
☆ Jason Beghe, John Pankow, Kate McNeil, Joyce Van Patten, Christine Forrest

'He's Cute. He's Cuddly. He's A Klepto.'

Monkey Trouble

US 1994 95m Technicolor
Entertainment/New Line/Percy Main/Effe/Victor (Mimi Polk, Heidi Rufus Isaacs)

A small girl adopts a light-fingered monkey and cures him of his thieving ways, to the annoyance of his owner, an organ grinder in league with gangsters.
Amiable comedy for children, provided you don't mind its reliance for laughs on a domesticated performing monkey in waistcoat and fez.
w Franco Amurri, Stu Krieger d Franco Amurri ph Luciano Tovoli m Mark Mancina pd Les Dilley ed Ray Lovejoy, Chris Peppe
☆ Harvey Keitel, Thora Birch, Mimi Rogers, Christopher McDonald, Kevin Scannell, Finster

'A touching children's adventure that belongs among the great animal movies.' – Variety

'If It Yells, If It Swings, It's Got To Be Monkeybone!'

Monkeybone

US 2001 93m DeLuxe
TCF/1492 (Michael Barnathan, Mark Radcliffe)

A cartoonist in a coma goes into a surreal world of dreams, and his creation, a ribald monkey, takes over his body in real life.
Gross, unfunny comedy that seems uncertain of its purpose.
w Sam Hamm graphic novel Dark Town by Kaja Blackley, Vanessa Chong d Henry Selick ph Andrew Dunn m Anne Dudley pd Bill Boes ed Mark Warner, Jon Poll, Nicholas C. Smith sp Greg Cannom; Keith VanderLaan
☆ Brendan Fraser (Stu Miley), Bridget Fonda (Julie McElroy), Whoopi Goldberg (Death), Chris Kattan (Organ Donor Stu), Dave Foley (Herb), Giancarlo Esposito (Hypnos), Rose McGowan (Kitty), Megan Mullally (Kimmy), Lisa Zane (Medusa), voice of Monkeybone (John Turturro)

'The movie is booby-trapped with so many loud gags that some of its sneakier humor is nearly lost in the din...Imagine if Luis Buñuel had returned from the grave and hooked up with the Farrelly brothers.' – A. O. Scott, New York Times
'Too grotesque for children and just too silly for their parents.' – Mick LaSalle, San Francisco Chronicle

Monkeys Go Home

US 1966 101m Technicolor
Walt Disney (Ron Miller)

An American inherits a French olive farm and trains chimpanzees to harvest the crop.
Footling comedy with not much of an idea, let alone a plot.
w Maurice Tombragel novel The Monkeys by G. K. Wilkinson d Andrew V. McLaglen ph William Snyder m Robert F. Brunner
☆ Maurice Chevalier, Dean Jones, Yvette Mimieux, Bernard Woringer, Jules Munshin, Alan Carney

'Innocuous, extrovertly cheerful and good-humoured – and very dull.' – MFB

El Mono Loco: see The Mad Monkey

The Monolith Monsters

US 1957 77m bw
U-I (Howard Christie)

A meteorite lands in the desert and causes rocks to rise and expand, becoming toppling pillars which threaten a local community.
Dully-written science fiction with moderate special effects.
w Norman Jolley, Robert M. Fresco d John Sherwood ph Ellis Carter md Joseph Gershenson ☆ Lola Albright, Grant Williams, Les Tremayne, Phil Harvey

'The Fate Of The World Rests On The Courage Of One Warrior.'

Mononoke-hime ★★

Japan 1998 133m Fujicolor Panavision
Buena Vista/Tokuma Shoten/Nippon TV/Dentsu/Studio Ghibli (Toshio Suzuki)

GB and US title: Princess Mononoke

Searching for a cure for an infection given to him by a demon, a warrior becomes involved in a war between the spirits of the forest, led by a wolf-girl, and a mining town that is destroying the environment.
Beautifully animated fable whose cultural concepts can be more than a little confusing even though its message comes through clearly.
wd Hayao Miyazaki ph Atsushi Okui m Joe Hisaishi ed Takeshi Seyama, Hayao Miyazaki
☆ voices of: Yoji Matsuda (Ashitaka), Yuriko Ishida (San), Yuko Tanaka (Lady Eboshi), Kaori Kobayashi (Jiko), Masahiko Nishimura (Koroku), Tsunehiko Kamijyo (Gonza)

'A great film... one of the most visually inventive films I have ever seen.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago-Sun Times

'As spectacular as it is dense and as dense as it is colorful and as colorful as it is meaningless and as meaningless as it is long.' – Stephen Hunter, Washington Post

† The film was released in a dubbed version in America with the voices of Billy Crudup, Claire Danes, Minnie Driver, Gillian Anderson and Billy Bob Thornton.

Monsieur Beaucaire ★

US 1946 93m bw
Paramount (Paul Jones)

King Louis XV's bumbling barber impersonates a court dandy.

What seemed a lively period burlesque has faded somewhat with age, but it still has its moments. Any relation between this and the silent Valentino film is quite accidental.

w Melvin Frank, Norman Panama d George Marshall ph Lionel Lindon md Robert Emmett Dolan

☆ Bob Hope, Joan Caulfield, Patric Knowles, Marjorie Reynolds, Cecil Kellaway, Joseph Schildkraut, Reginald Owen, Constance Collier, Hillary Brooke, Douglass Dumbrille, Mary Nash

'Whether you yawn or rather wearily laugh depends chiefly on your chance state of mind.' – James Agee

Monsieur Hire ★★

France 1989 82m colour Panavision
Palace/Cinea/Hachette Premiere/FR3

A middle-aged voyeur, disliked by his neighbours and suspected by the police of murder, becomes involved with a young girl on whom he spies.

Meticulously stylish study of sexual obsession.

w Patrice Leconte, Patrick Dewolf novel Les Fiançailles de M. Hire by Georges Simenon d Patrice Leconte ph Denis Lenoir m Michael Nyman pd Ivan Mausson ed Joelle Hache

☆ Michel Blanc, Sandrine Bonnaire, André Wilms, Luc Thuillier

'Brilliantly conceived, admirably acted, and staged with stunning confidence.' – Tom Milne, MFB

'A classic pyschological thriller made with all the subtlety, elegance and skill which have placed the French at the head of the field in this genre.' – Daily Telegraph

Monsieur Hulot's Holiday ★★★★

France 1953 91m bw
Cady/Discina (Fred Orain)

original title: Les Vacances de Monsieur Hulot

An accident-prone bachelor arrives at a seaside resort and unwittingly causes havoc for himself and everyone else.

Despite lame endings to some of the jokes, this is a film to set the whole world laughing, Hulot himself being an unforgettable character and some of the timing magnificent. One feels that it could very nearly happen.

w Jacques Tati, Henri Marquet d Jacques Tati ph Jacques Mercanton, Jean Mouselle m Alain Romans ad Henri Schmitt, R. Brian Court ed Charles Bretoneiche, Suzanne Baron, Jacques Grassi

☆ Jacques Tati (Mr. Hulot), Nathalie Pascaud (Martine), Michèle Rolla (The Aunt), Valentine Camax (Englishwoman)

'The casual, amateurish air of his films clearly adds to their appeal: it also appears to explain their defects.' – Penelope Houston, MFB

'It had me laughing out loud with more enjoyment than any other comedy film this year.' – Daily Express

'Its humour is gentle, innocent and charming and the semi-silent idiom is superbly managed. The movie is perfectly composed with a light touch that is the work of a certain kind of gravity and sophistication.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

🎗 script

Monsieur N

France/GB/South Africa 2003 128m colour
Redbus/Loma Nasha/Studio CanalFrance 3/Scion/IMGIMG (Marie-Castille Mention-Schaar, Pierre Kubel)

Imprisoned on St Helena, Napoleon dreams of escaping; later when his corpse is taken from the island to be buried in Paris, a British officer decides that he did get away, to live in America.

Glossy but dull historical fantasy with some unconvincing performances.

w Rene Manzor idea Pierre Kubel d Antoine de Caunes ph Pierre Aim m Stephan Eicher pd Patrick Durand ed Joelle Van Effenterre

☆ Philippe Torreton (Napoleon), Richard E. Grant (Hudson Lowe), Jay Rodan (Basil Heathcote), Elsa Zylberstein (Albine de Montholon), Roschdy Zem (Marshal Bertrand), Bruno Putzulu (Cipriani), Siobhan Hewlett (Betsy Balcombe)

'Dour and thankless.' – James Christopher, Times

† Speculation about Napoleon escaping from St Helena was also the subject of a comedy The Emperor's New Clothes, 2001.

Monsieur Ripois et Son Némésis: see Knave of Hearts

Monsieur Verdoux ★★

US 1947 125m bw
Charles Chaplin

A bank cashier marries and murders rich women to support his real wife.

Interesting but unsatisfactory redrafting of the Landru case; the star is more dapper than funny, the moral is unconvincing, and the slapstick sequences too often raise yawns.

wd Charles Chaplin ph Rollie Totheroh m Charles Chaplin

☆ Charles Chaplin, Martha Raye, Isobel Elsom

'The cleverest and most brilliant film I have yet made.' – Charles Chaplin

'The result is pure Chaplin; and his genius alone has perfected the astonishing central portrait, among the few which, owing nothing to stage or fiction, belong entirely to the cinema.' – Dilys Powell

'Even today it will seem a failure to anyone who has taken half a dozen lessons in film technique.' – Andrew Sarris, 1970

🎗 Charles Chaplin (as writer)

Monsieur Vincent ★

France 1947 113m bw
EDIC/UGC

The life of 17th-century St Vincent de Paul, who gave up all worldly goods to devote his life to the poor.

Earnest, realistic Catholic biopic.

w Jean-Bernard Luc, Jean Anouilh d Maurice Cloche ph Claude Renoir m J. J. Grunenwald

☆ Pierre Fresnay, Aimé Clairiond, Jean Debucourt, Lise Delemare

'In the sum of things writers and director, players, composer and technicians, have laboured together to make a film with a humanity which makes one forget the narrow criteria of cinema.' – Dilys Powell

🎗 best foreign film

Monsignor

US 1982 121m DeLuxe
TCF/Frank Yablans (Kurt Neumann)

An Irish cardinal supports the Vatican by doubtful financial means.

A largely boring roman à clef, with a sluggish story and uninspired performances.

w Abraham Polonsky, Wendell Mayes novel Jack Alain Leger d Frank Perry ph Billy Williams m John Williams pd John DeCuir

☆ Christopher Reeve, Geneviève Bujold, Fernando Rey, Jason Miller, Joe Cortese, Adolfo Celi, Leonardo Cimino

'Irrevocably grounded in a hash of breast-beating and pious platitudes.' – Sight and Sound

'The Rain Is Coming. And So Is The Family.'

Monsoon Wedding ★★

US/Italy/Germany/France 2001 113m Swiss Effects
Film4/IFC/Mirabai/Keyfilms/Pandora/Paradis (Caroline Baron, Mira Nair)

Relatives gather in Delhi for the marriage of a reluctant couple.

Colourful, enjoyably sprawling comedy on cross-cultural confusions among sophisticated middle-class Indian households.

w Sabrina Dhawan d Mira Nair ph Declan Quinn m Mychael Danna pd Stephanie Carroll ed Allyson C. Johnson cos Arjun Bhasin

☆ Naseeruddin Shah (Lalit Verma), Lillete Dubey (Pimmi Verma), Shefali Shetty (Ria Verma), Vasundhara Das (Aditi Verma), Parvin Dabas (Hemant Rai), Vijay Raaz (P. K. Dubei), Tilotama Shome (Alice), Rajat Kapoor (Tej Puri)

'Splashy, noisy and downright fun.' – Variety

'One of those joyous films that leaps over national boundaries and celebrates universal human nature.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times

† The film won the Golden Lion award at the Venice Film Festival in 2001.

The Monster

US 1925 70m approx (24 fps) bw silent
MGM

A scientist abducts passing motorists and uses them in his experiments at bringing the dead back to life.

Typical star grotesquerie without much flair.

w Willard Mack, Albert Kenyon play Crane Wilbur d Roland West

☆ Lon Chaney, Gertrude Olmstead, Hallam Cooley, Walter James

The Monster: see I Don't Want to Be Born (1975)

Monster: see Humanoids of the Deep (1980)

Monster ★★ (7)

Germany/US 2003 109m FotoKem
Metrodome/Newmarket/Media 8/DEJ/K/W/Delilah (Charlize Theron, Mark Damon, Clark Peterson, Donald Kushner, Brad Wyman)

Biopic of Aileen Wuornos, a prostitute who shot at least six men, from the time she began killing to her execution.

True life crime story, somewhat doggedly directed, but notable for a remarkable performance from Theron as the abused and abusive killer.

wd Patty Jenkins ph Steven Bernstein m BT pd Edward T. McAvoy ed Jane Kurson, Arthur Coburn

☆ Charlize Theron (Aileen Wuornos), Christina Ricci (Selby Wall), Bruce Dern (Thomas), Scott Wilson (Horton), Pruitt Taylor Vince (Gene), Lee Tergesen (Vincent Corey), Annie Corley (Donna Tentler)

'An okay movie made nearly great by one great thing: the bravura, mercilessly watchable performance of Charlize Theron.' – Michael O'Sullivan, Washington Post

'A disquieting portrait of a soul in stress.' – Antony Quinn, Independent

🎗 Charlize Theron

The Monster and the Girl

US 1940 64m bw
Paramount (Jack Moss)

A man is wrongfully executed and his brain is implanted in a gorilla, which goes on the rampage.

Curiously ineffectual considering its plot and cast, this little horror thriller seems to have been the first to use this particular situation, which became very well worn later.

w Stuart Anthony d Stuart Heisler ph Victor Milner m Sigmund Krumgold

☆ Paul Lukas, Ellen Drew, Joseph Calleia, George Zucco, Robert Paige, Rod Cameron, Phillip Terry, Onslow Stevens, Gerald Mohr

'The ape steals the picture.' – Variety

Monster City

Japan 1991 78m colour
Asahi Sonorama/Video Art/Japan Home Video/Hideyuki Kikuchi (Kenji Kurada, Makoto Sedani)

A boy and a girl set out to save the world from being taken over by demons.

Dull sequel to Wicked City, with little to recommend it even to fans of anime

w Kaoru Okamura d Yoshiaki Kawajiri ph Kinichi Ishikawa md Motoichi Umeda ad Yuji Ikeda ed Nobuyuki Ogata

☆ Featuring the voices of Teresa Gallagher, Brad Lovelle, Alan Sherman, George Little, Bob Sessions, Gareth Armstrong

'Style, wit and an eerie twisted beauty are a refreshing change from the usual "rape 'n' pillage" supernatural fare.' – Manga Mania

The Monster Club

GB 1980 97m colour
ITC/Chips (Milton Subotsky)

A vampire introduces his victim to a club for ghouls and witches, who tell their stories.

A spoofy but not very entertaining variation on a too-familiar formula.

w Edward and Valerie Abraham stories R. Chetwynd-Hayes d Roy Ward Baker ph Peter Jessop md Graham Walker

☆ Vincent Price, John Carradine, Anthony Steel, Simon Ward, James Laurenson, Geoffrey Bayldon, Donald Pleasence, Richard Johnson, Britt Ekland, Anthony Valentine, Stuart Whitman, Patrick Magee

Monster from Green Hell

US 1956 71m bw/colour
Grosse-Krasne (Al Zimbalist)

Wasps sent into space and exposed to cosmic radiation in an experiment return to Earth as huge killer mutants with tiny wings.

Silly low-budget science fiction, with risible monsters, which has an underlying theme of the fear of a nuclear holocaust.

w Louis Vittes, Endre Bohem d Kenneth G. Crane ph Ray Flin m Albert Glasser pd Ernst Fegte ed Kenneth G. Crane sp Jack Rabin, Louis DeWitt

☆ Jim Davis, Robert E. Griffin, Barbara Turner, Joel Fluellen, Eduardo Ciannelli, Vladimir Sokoloff

'There goes the neighbourhood.'

Monster House ★ (7)

US 2006 90m
Sony Pictures/Relativity Media/ImageMovers/Amblin Entertainment (Jack Rapke, Steve Starkey)

Three children become convinced a dilapidated house in their neighbourhood is haunted.
Inventive and fast-paced horror comedy with a pleasingly Gothic sensibility.
w Dan Harmon, Pamela Pettler, Rob Schrab story Dan Harmon, Rob Schrab d Gil Kenan ph Paul C Babin, Xavier Perez Grobet m Douglas Pipes pd Ed Verraux ed Fabienne Rawley, Adam P Scott ☆ Featuring the voices of: Steve Buscemi (Nebbercracker), Maggie Gyllenhaal (Zee), Kathleen Turner (Constance), Mitchel Musso (DJ Walter), Spencer Locke (Jenny), Sam Lerner (Chowder)
CHOWDER: 'It mocks us with its... house-ness!'
'Marvellously creepy.' – A O Scott, New York Times
† The film was shot with live actors whose movements and expressions were then replicated digitally.

Monster in a Box ★

GB 1991 88m Eastmancolor
ICA/Jon Blair Film Co.

A monologue by actor Spalding Gray about his 'monster' of an autobiographical novel.
Engaging encounter with a master of the casual anecdote.
w Spalding Gray play Spalding Gray d Nick Broomfield ph Michael Coulter m Laurie Anderson ed Graham Hutchings ☆ Spalding Gray

The Monster Maker

US 1944 64m bw
Sigmund Neufeld/PRC

A doctor frustrated in love turns his girlfriend's father into a monster by injecting him with acromegaly, a distorting disease.
Ludicrous tinpot shocker.
w Pierre Gendron, Martin Mooney, Lawrence Williams d Sam Newfield
☆ Ralph Morgan, J. Carrol Naish, Tala Birell, Wanda McKay, Glenn Strange

'On this highway, the roadkill is Human!'

Monster Man

US 2003 96m colour
Tartan/Dream/Road Brothers (Ehud Bleiberg, Yitzhak Ginsberg, Larry Rattner)

Two men on their way to a wedding are menaced by a chainsaw wielding driver of a monster truck.
Low budget gore-filled horror.
wd Michael Davis ph Matthew Irving m John Coda pd Reuben Freed ed Kevin D. Ross ☆ Eric Jungmann (Adam), Justin Urich (Harley), Aimee Brooks (Sarah), Michael Bailey Smith (Monster Man), Joe Goodrich (Brother Fred)
'Utterly stupid, but not entirely without cheap'n'cheerful chutzpah.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

'Horror that waited 100 million years becomes a terrifying reality!'

Monster on the Campus

US 1958 76m bw
Joseph Gershenson/Universal

A college professor studies a prehistoric fossilized fish, which turns everything that touches it into monsters.
Silly horror stuff with little to take the attention.
w David Duncan d Jack Arnold ph Russell Metty md Joseph Gershenson ed Ted J. Kent ☆ Arthur Franz, Whit Bissell, Joanna Moore, Judson Pratt, Nancy Walters, Troy Donahue, Phil Harvey, Helen Westcott

The Monster Squad ★

Canada 1987 81m Metrocolor Panavision
Keith Barish/Taft/Tri-Star

Dracula, Frankenstein's monster, the Wolf Man, the Gill Man and the Mummy take refuge in a small American town.
Mildly amusing spoof for the teenage audience.
w Shane Black, Fred Dekker d Fred Dekker
☆ Stephen Macht, Duncan Regehr, Andre Gower, Robby Kiger, Tom Noonan

'Crawling Up From The Depths ... To Terrify And Torture!'
'A New Kind Of Terror To Numb The Nerves!'

The Monster that Challenged the World

US 1957 83m bw
Levy-Gardner-Laven/United Artists

A giant caterpillar lays eggs in California's Salton Sea: one hatches...
Overlong shocker for kids.
w Pat Fielder d Arnold Laven ph Lester White m Heinz Roemheld ☆ Tim Holt, Audrey Dalton, Hans Conried, Harlan Warde

The Monster Walks

US 1932 57m bw
Like/Action

A supposed paralytic plans the death of his rich niece.
Spooky house murder mystery, too hammy by half.
w Robert Ellis d Frank Strayer
☆ Sheldon Lewis, Mischa Auer, Martha Mattox, Vera Reynolds, Willie Best
'Not badly done, but lacking utterly in novelty.' – Variety

Monster Zero: see Invasion of the Astro-Monsters

'She met the perfect man. Then she met his mother.'

Monster-in-law

US 2005 DeLuxe
Benderspink/Spring Creek (Paula Weinstein, Chris Bender, JC Spink)

A potential mother-in-law does her worst to prevent her doctor son marrying a dog-walker.
"This will end badly" says the assistant to the screaming neurotic ex-tv personality played by Jane Fonda in full harridan mode in her first screen role in fifteen years. She doesn't know the half of it: it also begins badly and the middle is no better.
w Anya Kochoff d Robert Luketic ph Russell Carpenter m David Newman pd Missy Stewart ed Scott Hill, Kevin Tent
☆ Jennifer Lopez (Charlie Cantilini), Jane Fonda (Viola Fields), Michael Vartan (Kevin Fields), Wanda Sykes (Ruby), Adam Scott (Remy), Monet Mazur (Fiona), Annie Parisse (Morgan), Elaine Stritch (Gertrude)
'Shrill, undermotivated, feature-length catfight.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety
'The self-confident fatuity and condescension of the movie is offensive' – David Denby, New Yorker

'A lifetime of change can happen in a single moment.'

Monster's Ball ★★

US 2001 111m DeLuxe Panavision
Entertainment/Lions Gate (Lee Daniels)

In a small Georgia town, a black waitress unknowingly begins a relationship with a white former deathrow guard, who escorted her husband to the electric chair.
Violent deaths, beatings and racism form the background to this downbeat domestic drama, filmed in an understated manner that gives space for its unhappy characters to display their humanity.
w Milo Addica, Will Rokos d Marc Forster ph Roberto Schaefer m Asche and Spencer pd Monroe Kelly ed Matt Chesse
☆ Billy Bob Thornton (Hank Grotowski), Heath Ledger (Sonny Grotowski), Halle Berry (Leticia Musgrove), Peter Boyle (Buck Grotowski), Sean Combs (Lawrence Musgrove), Mos Def (Ryrus Cooper), Will Rokos (Warden Velasco), Milo Addica (Tommy Roulaine)
'The raw intimacy of some of the scenes – whether they take place at a diner, in the death house or in the bedroom – is breathtaking.' – A. O. Scott, New York Times
'It's a sour little soaper that ends 2001 on a downbeat note of suicidal despair.' – Rex Reed, New York Observer
Halle Berry
Milo Addica, Will Rokos

Monsters from an Unknown Planet (dubbed)

Japan 1975 80m colour
Tohoscope
Miracle/Toho (Tomoyuki Tanaka)

original title: Mekagojira No Gyakushu
aka: The Escape of Mechagodzilla; Terror of Mechagodzilla
Godzilla is outclassed when aliens reanimate Mechagodzilla and loose Titanosaurus on Tokyo with the help of a renegade scientist and his cyborg daughter.
The usual nonsense from one of the later Godzilla movies, with the monsters inactive for much of the time.
w Yukiko Takayama d Inoshiro Honda ☆ Katsuhiko Sasaki, Tomoko Ai, Akihiko Mirata, Tadao Nakamaru, Katsumasu Uchida

'We Scare Because We Care.'

Monsters, Inc. ★★

US 2001 92m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Walt Disney/Pixar (Darla K. Anderson)

A little girl is stranded in Monstropolis, a town which is powered by children's screams and inhabited by nightmare creatures, who are frightened of her.
Marvellously animated movie that reveals another leap forward in computer animation; but there's a step back in content here, which is too cute and sentimental by half.
w Andrew Stanton, Daniel Gerson story Pete Docter, Jill Culton, Jeff Pidgeon, Ralph Eggleston d Pete Docter m Randy Newman pd Harley Jessup, Bob Pauley ed Jim Stewart ☆ voices of: John Goodman (Sulley), Billy Crystal (Mike Wazowski), Steve Buscemi (Randall Boggs), Mary Gibbs (Boo), James Coburn (Henry J. Waternoose), Jennifer Tilly (Celia), John Ratzenberger (Yeti), Frank Oz (Fungus)
'Pic is clever and jokey in a vaudeville sort of way, but lacks the heart and sheer imagination of the company's best work for Disney.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety
'Stingy on context, commentary, and the prism-ing view of pop culture that made the earlier films mint.' – Michael Atkinson, Village Voice
song 'If I Didn't Have You' (m/l Randy Newman) animated feature film; Randy Newman; sound editing (Gary Rydstrom, Michael Silvers)

La Montagna del Dio Cannibale

(dubbed)
Italy 1978 92m colour
Medusa/Dania (Luciano Martino)

aka: The Mountain of the Cannibal God
GB title: Prisoner of the Cannibal God
A woman goes in search of her husband, an anthropologist who has gone missing in the jungles of New Guinea.
Risible jungle adventure of a forgotten cannibal tribe, with some nasty moments of actual violence to animals, including a lizard eviscerated and skinned, a monkey swallowed by a snake.
w Cesare Frugoni, Sergio Martino d Sergio Martino ph Giancarlo Ferrando m Guido De Angelis, Maurizio De Angelis pd Massimo Antonello Geleng ed Eugenio Alabiso ☆ Ursula Andress (Susan Stevenson), Stacy Keach (Dr Edward Foster), Claudio Cassinelli (Manolo), Antonio Marsina (Arthur Stevenson), Franco Fantasia (Father Moses), Lanfranco Spinola, Carlo Longhi, Luigina Rocchi, Akushia Sellajaah, Dudley Wanaguru
'Very much a spiced-up dish of left-overs.' – MFB

Montana

US 1950 76m Technicolor
Warner (William Jacobs)

An Australian sheepman fights the cattle barons of Montana.
Modest Western from the star's declining years at Warner.
w James R. Webb, Borden Chase, Charles O'Neal story Ernest Haycox d Ray Enright ph Karl Freund m David Buttolph
☆ Errol Flynn, Alexis Smith, S. Z. Sakall, Douglas Kennedy, James Brown, Ian MacDonald

Montana Belle

US 1952 82m Trucolor
RKO (Howard Welsch)

The Daltons rescue Belle Starr and insist that she works with them on a dangerous raid.
Warmed-over Western melodramatics, quite unmemorable.
w Horace McCoy, Norman S. Hall d Allan Dwan ph Jack Marta m Nathan Scott ☆ Jane Russell, George Brent, Scott Brady, Forrest Tucker, Andy Devine, Jack Lambert, John Litel, Ray Teal
† The film was completed in 1948, but held over.

Montana Moon

US 1930 88m bw
MGM

A wealthy rancher's spoiled daughter is about to leave for New York when she falls for a handsome cowboy.
A long string of nothings with bursts of song; incompetent early talkie.
w Sylvia Thalberg, Frank Butler
d Malcolm St Clair
☆ Joan Crawford, Johnny Mack Brown, Ricardo Cortez, Lloyd Ingraham, Cliff Edwards

Monte Carlo ★

US 1930 94m bw
Paramount (Ernst Lubitsch)

A count passes himself off as a hairdresser to win a gambling lady.
Faded but charming romantic comedy with music, the first to show its director's sound style in full throttle, notably in the final 'Beyond the Blue Horizon' sequence.
w Ernest Vajda play The Blue Coast by Hans Muller novel Monsieur Beaucaire by Booth Tarkington d Ernst Lubitsch
ph Victor Milner m W. Franke Harling
ad Hans Dreier songs Leo Robin, Richard Whiting
☆ Jack Buchanan, Jeanette MacDonald, ZaSu Pitts, Tyler Brooke, Claud Allister, Lionel Belmore

'Nothing extra beyond usual par programmer.' – Variety
'Very stylish and sly, not to be missed.' – New Yorker, 1978

Monte Carlo or Bust: see Those Daring Young Men in Their Jaunty Jalopies

The Monte Carlo Story

Italy/US 1956 101m Technirama
Tatanus (Marcello Girosi)

A gambler looks for a rich wife, and finds instead a glamorous woman as penniless as himself: they become confidence tricksters but suffer a change of heart.
Lubitsch might have made something of it, but this is a flavourless pudding of a film and the stars can do nothing with it.
wd Sam Taylor story Marcello Girosi, Dino Risi ph Giuseppe Rotunno m Renzo Rossellini
☆ Marlene Dietrich, Vittorio de Sica, Arthur O'Connell, Mischa Auer, Natalie Trundy, Jane Rose, Renato Rascel

'He's a cowboy. She's a woman. He's the best at what he does. And so is she.'

Monte Walsh ★

US 1970 108m Technicolor
Cinema Center (Hal Landers, Bobby Roberts)

Two ageing cowboys find life increasingly hard and hopeless; an old acquaintance kills one and is shot by the other.
'Realistic' Western developed in leisurely style with the emphasis on character and on the real drudgery of frontier life.
w David Z. Goodman, Lukas Heller novel Jack Schaefer d William A. Fraker
ph David M. Walsh m John Barry
☆ Lee Marvin, Jack Palance, Jeanne Moreau, Mitch Ryan, Jim Davis

'As boring a western as ever involved a bronco-busting scene that alone cost almost half a million dollars.' – Judith Crist

Montenegro ★

Sweden/GB 1981 96m Eastmancolor
Viking/Europa/Smart Egg (Bo Jonsson)

A housewife driven mad by boredom takes a lover and murders him.
Another case history in which the creator finds more symbolic meaning than the audience is likely to see. On the surface, a mildly entertaining piece of near-pornography.
wd Dusan Makavejev ph Tomislav Pinter
m Kornell Kovach
☆ Susan Anspach, Erland Josephson, Bora Todorovic, Per Oscarsson

'A charming, wealthy English gentleman. Two beautiful women. If it only takes a moment to fall in love, imagine what can happen in...'

A Month by the Lake Ⓢ

US/GB 1994 91m Telecolor
Buena Vista/Miramax/Anuline (Robert Fox)

Holidaying in a villa on Lake Como in the mid-30s, a middle-aged English spinster tries to attract the attentions of an English major.
Moody, languid, reticent romance, pretty to look at but without much substance.
w Trevor Bentham novella H. E. Bates
d John Irvin ph Pasqualino de Santis
m Nicola Piovani pd Gianni Giovagnoni
ed Peter Tanner
☆ Vanessa Redgrave, James Fox, Uma Thurman, Alida Valli, Alessandro Gassman, Carlo Cartier, Natalia Bizzi, Paolo Lombardi

'This isn't exactly a vacation to remember.' – Sight and Sound

A Month in the Country ★

GB 1987 96m colour
Euston Films (Kenith Trodd)

In the English countryside, two men recover from the horrors of World War I.
Traditional British teledrama with much going for it despite a final lack of direction.
w Simon Gray novel J. L. Carr d Pat O'Connor ph Kenneth MacMillan
m Howard Blake pd Leo Austin ed John Victor ☆ Colin Firth, Kenneth Branagh, Natasha Richardson, Patrick Malahide, Tony Haygarth, Richard Vernon

'Makes Ben-Hur look like an epic!'

Monty Python and the Holy Grail ★★★

GB 1975 90m Technicolor
EMI/Python (Monty) Pictures/Michael White (Mark Forstater)

King Arthur and his knights seek the Holy Grail.
Hellzapoppin-like series of linked sketches on a medieval theme; some slow bits, but often uproariously funny and with a remarkable visual sense of the Middle Ages.
w Graham Chapman, John Cleese, Terry Gilliam, Eric Idle, Michael Palin d Terry Gilliam, Terry Jones ph Terry Bedford
m Neil Innes pd Roy Smith ed John Hackney
☆ Graham Chapman (King Arthur etc), John Cleese (Lancelot etc.), Terry Gilliam (Patsy etc.), Eric Idle (Sir Robin etc.), Michael Palin (Galahad etc.)

'The team's visual buffooneries and verbal rigmaroles are piled on top of each other with no attention to judicious timing or structure, and a form which began as a jaunty assault on the well-made revue sketch and an ingenious misuse of television's fragmented style of presentation, threatens to become as unyielding and unfruitful as the conventions it originally attacked.' – Geoff Brown

'See the movie that's controversial, sacrilegious, and blasphemous. But if that's not playing, see The Life of Brian.'

Monty Python's Life of Brian ★★★

GB 1979 93m Eastmancolor
Hand Made Films (John Goldstone)

A contemporary of Jesus is mistaken for him and crucified.
Controversial middle-eastern romp which left its creators battered but extremely wealthy. The hilarious Spartacus*-like finale, with a crucified choir singing 'Look on the Bright Side of Life' hints at what might have been: a brilliant comedy rather than just a good one.*
w John Cleese, Graham Chapman, Eric Idle, Michael Palin, Terry Gilliam, Terry Jones
d Terry Jones ph Peter Biziou m Geoffrey Burgon ad Roger Christian ed Julian Doyle ☆ Graham Chapman (Brian etc), John Cleese (Reg etc), Terry Gilliam, Eric Idle (Stan/Loretta etc.), Michael Palin (Pontius Pilate etc), Terry Jones (The Virgin Mandy etc), Kenneth Colley (Jesus the Christ), Gwen Taylor (Mrs. Big Nose etc.), Carol Cleveland (Mrs Gregory)

'It took God six days to create the earth, and Monty Python just 90 minutes to screw it up.'

Monty Python's The Meaning of Life

GB 1983 90m Technicolor
Universal/Celandine/The Monty Python Partnership (John Goldstone)

A series of sketches in questionable taste.
Subjects include organ transplants, sex, death and the results of overeating.
w Graham Chapman, John Cleese, Terry Gilliam, Eric Idle, Michael Palin, Terry Jones
d Terry Jones ph Peter Hannan m various pd Harry Lange ed Julian Doyle animation Terry Gilliam
☆ Graham Chapman, John Cleese, Eric Idle, Terry Jones, Michael Palin, Terry Gilliam, Carol Cleveland

Moolaadé ★★★ Ⓑ

Senegal 2004 124m colour
Filmi Doomirew (Ousmane Sembene)

aka: Protection

In Burkina Faso, a mother refuses to allow her 15-year-old daughter to be circumcised and provides a refuge for other girls – to the disgust of her husband and the anger of village elders.
Colourful, energetic and compelling drama of a spirited woman opposing patriarchal authority and traditional attitudes.
wd Ousmane Sembene ph Dominique Gentil m Boncana Maiga pd Joseph Kpobly ed Abdellatif Raiss ☆ Fatoumata Coulibaly (Colle), Maimouna Helene Diarra (Hadjatou), Salimata Traore (Amsatou), Dominique T. Zeida (Mercenaire), Mah Compaore (Circumcision Elder), Aminata Dao (Alima Ba)

'This great work of art has the potential to change the world.' – Lisa Schwarzbaum, Entertainment Weekly
'This has to be the most richly entertaining movie anyone has ever made on the subject of female genital mutilation.' – J. Hoberman, Village Voice

† Female genital mutilation of young girls is still a tradition in 38 African countries.

Moon 44

West Germany 1989 99m colour
Panavision
Medusa/Centropolis Filmproduktion (Dean Heyde, Roland Emmerich)

In the future, an undercover agent is sent to a far-away planet to unearth a saboteur.
Science fiction melodrama that borrows from most other recent films in the genre to little effect.
w Dean Heyde, Oliver Eberle story Roland Emmerich, Dean Heyde, Oliver Eberle, P. J. Mitchell d Roland Emmerich ph Karl Walter Undenlaub m Joel Goldsmith
pd Oliver Scholl ed Tony Wigand
☆ Michael Pare, Lisa Eichhorn, Malcolm McDowell, Dean Devlin, Brian Thompson, Stephen Geoffreys, Leon Rippy, Jochen Nickel, Mechmed Yilmez

The Moon and Sixpence ★★★

US 1943 85m bw (colour sequence)
Albert Lewin/David L. Loew (Stanley Kramer)

A stockbroker leaves his wife and family, spends some selfish years painting in Paris and finally dies of leprosy on a South Sea island.
Pleasantly literary adaptation of an elegant novel based on the life of Gauguin; a little stodgy in presentation now, but much of it still pleases.
wd Albert Lewin novel W. Somerset Maugham ph John Seitz m Dimitri Tiomkin ad Gordon Willis ed Richard L. Van Enger
☆ George Sanders (Charles Strickland), Herbert Marshall (Geoffrey Wolfe), Steve Geray (Dirk Stroeve), Doris Dudley (Blanche Stroeve), Elena Verdugo (Ata), Florence Bates (Tiara Johnson), Heather Thatcher (Rose Waterford), Eric Blore (Captain Nichols), Albert Basserman (Dr Coutras)

'An admirable film until the end, when it lapses into Technicolor and techni-pathos.' – James Agate

Dimitri Tiomkin

The Moon in the Gutter

France/Italy 1983 130m Eastmancolor
Panavision
Palace/Gaumont/TF1 Films/SFPC/Opera Film Produzione (Lise Fayolle)

original title: La Lune dans le Caniveau

A stevedore, haunting the docks to find the man who raped his sister, becomes involved with a rich woman.
Relentlessly fashionable, now dated, low-life mystery that gets nowhere slowly.
w Jean-Jacques Beineix, Olivier Mergault novel David Goodis d Jean-Jacques Beineix ph Philippe Rousselot m Gabriel Yared ad Hilton McConnico ed Monique Prim, Yves Deschamps ☆ Gérard Depardieu, Nastassia Kinski, Victoria Abril, Beatrice Reading, Gabriel Monnet, Dominique Pinon, Milena Vukotic, Vittorio Mezzogiorno

The Moon Is Blue ★

US 1953 99m bw
Otto Preminger

A spry young girl balances the attractions of a middle-aged lover against her young one.
Paper-thin comedy partly set on top of the Empire State Building (and thereafter in a dowdy set); mildly amusing in spots, it gained notoriety, and a Production Code ban, by its use of such naughty words as 'virgin' and 'mistress'.

w F. Hugh Herbert play F. Hugh Herbert d Otto Preminger ph Ernest Laszlo m Herschel Burke Gilbert ed Otto Ludwig

☆ Maggie McNamara, David Niven, William Holden, Tom Tully, Dawn Addams PATTY (MAGGIE MCNAMARA): 'Men are usually bored with virgins. I'm so glad you're not ... Have you a mistress?' DONALD: 'Don't you think it's better for a girl to be preoccupied with sex than occupied with it?'

'It adds nothing to the art of cinema and certainly does not deserve the attention it will get for flouting the Production Code.' – Philip T. Hartung

† The film was made simultaneously in German, as Die Jungfrau auf dem Dach, with Hardy Kruger, Johanna Matz and Johannes Heesters.

Maggie McNamara; title song (m Herschel Burke Gilbert, ly Sylvia Fine); editing

The Moon Is Down ★★

US 1943 90m bw
TCF (Nunnally Johnson)

A Norwegian village resists the Nazis.

Sombre, talkative, intelligent little drama, the best of the resistance films, shot on the set of How Green Was My Valley (with snow covering).

w Nunnally Johnson novel John Steinbeck d Irving Pichel ph Arthur Miller m Alfred Newman ad James Basevi, Maurice Ransford ed Louis Loeffler

☆ Henry Travers, Cedric Hardwicke, Lee J. Cobb, Dorris Bowdon, Margaret Wycherly, Peter Van Eyck, John Banner

'This may well be a true picture of Norway and its people. But it fails to strike fire, to generate passion. It leaves one feeling rather proud but also sad.' – Bosley Crowther

Moon over Miami ★

US 1941 92m Technicolor
TCF (Harry Joe Brown)

Two sisters seek rich husbands in Florida.

Musical remake of Three Blind Mice, which was suspiciously similar to Golddiggers of Broadway, The Greeks Had a Word for Them, etc., and the later How to Marry a Millionaire and Three Little Girls in Blue. In short, a Hollywood standard, not too badly done.

w Vincent Lawrence, Brown Holmes d Walter Lang ph Peverell Marley, Leon Shamroy md Alfred Newman songs Leo Robin, Ralph Rainger

☆ Don Ameche, Betty Grable, Carole Landis, Robert Cummings, Charlotte Greenwood, Jack Haley, Cobina Wright Jnr, Robert Greig

Moon over Parador

US 1988 104m DeLuxe
UIP/Universal (Paul Mazursky)

An actor is kidnapped and forced to impersonate the president of a Caribbean country.

Occasionally amusing, but the joke is too thin to bear much watching.

w Leon Capetanos, Paul Mazursky story Charles G. Booth d Paul Mazursky ph Donald McAlpine m Maurice Jarre pd Pato Guzman ed Stuart Pappe

☆ Richard Dreyfuss, Raul Julia, Sonia Braga, Jonathan Winters, Fernando Rey, Sammy Davis Jnr, Michael Greene, Polly Holliday, Milton Goncalves, Charo, Marianne Sagebrecht

Moon Pilot ★★

US 1961 98m Technicolor
Walt Disney (Ron Miller)

A reluctant astronaut falls in love with a girl from outer space, who finally accompanies him on his mission.

Engaging science-fiction spoof with good performances.

w Maurice Tombragel serial Robert Buckner d James Neilson ph William Snyder m Peter Smith sp Eustace Lycett

☆ Edmond O'Brien, Tom Tryon, Brian Keith

The Moon Spinners ★

GB 1964 119m Technicolor
Walt Disney (Bill Anderson)

A young girl holidaying in Crete becomes involved with jewel robbers.

Teenage adventure against attractive locations; quite agreeable but overlong.

w Michael Dyne novel Mary Stewart d James Neilson ph Paul Beeson m Ron Grainer

☆ Hayley Mills, Peter McEnery, Eli Wallach, Joan Greenwood, John Le Mesurier, Pola Negri

Moon Warriors

Hong Kong 1992 83m colour
Team Work (Andy Lau)

An exiled prince, escaping from his usurping brother's army, finds refuge with a fisherman and his friendly killer whale.

Epic romance with spectacular, acrobatic sword fights, and good to look at despite its often trite narrative.

w Ching Siu Tung d Samo Hung

☆ Andy Lau, Maggie Cheung, Anita Mui, Kenny Bee

'Delirious feudal martial arts adventure which boasts expensive production values, well-composed widescreen images and flawless choreography ... highly enjoyable.' – Sight and Sound

'The number one space western!'

Moon Zero Two

GB 1969 100m Technicolor
Hammer (Michael Carreras)

In 2021, the moon is being colonized and crooks are trying to get control of an asteroid.

A self-acknowledged 'space western' which has a few bright ideas but suffers from a childish script.

w Michael Carreras story Gavin Lyall, Frank Hardman, Martin Davidson d Roy Ward Baker ph Paul Beeson m Don Ellis

☆ James Olson, Catherina von Schell, Warren Mitchell, Ori Levy, Adrienne Corri, Dudley Foster, Bernard Bresslaw, Neil McCallum

'It's all just about bad enough to fill older audiences with nostalgia for the inspired innocence of Flash Gordon, or even the good old days of Abbott and Costello in outer space.' – MFB

Moonfleet ★

US 1955 87m Eastmancolor Cinemascope
MGM (John Houseman)

In Dorset in 1770 an orphan boy finds that his elegant guardian leads a gang of smugglers.

Period gothic melodrama which nearly, but not quite, comes off; the script simply doesn't build to the right climax, and too many characters come to nothing. But there are splendid moments.

w Margaret Fitts, Jan Lustig novel J. Meade Falkner d Fritz Lang ph Robert Planck m Miklos Rozsa

☆ Stewart Granger, Jon Whiteley, George Sanders, Joan Greenwood, Viveca Lindfors, Liliane Montevecchi, Melville Cooper, Sean McClory, John Hoyt, Alan Napier

'A film as funny, complicated and real ... as life itself.'

Moonlight and Valentino

US 1995 104m Technicolor Panavision
Polygram/Working Title (Alison Owen, Eric Fellner, Tim Bevan)

Her friend, a sister and her divorced stepmother help a young academic cope with the unexpected death of her husband.

Talky drama of female bonding and dealing with grief that has some, but not enough, effective moments.

w Ellen Simon play Ellen Simon d David Anspaugh ph Julio Macat m Howard Shore pd Robb Wilson King ed David Rosenbloom

☆ Elizabeth Perkins, Gwyneth Paltrow, Jon Bon Jovi, Kathleen Turner, Whoopi Goldberg, Jeremy Sisto, Josef Sommer

'"Gently dreary" would be the best chosen words for this film which is so slow at times it is almost stationary.' – Marianne Gray, Film Review

Moonlight in Havana

US 1942 63m bw
Bernard W. Burton/Universal

A baseball catcher goes to Havana for spring training.

Another in the long line of lightweight musical supports from this studio.

w Oscar Brodney d Anthony Mann

☆ Allan Jones, Jane Frazee, Marjorie Lord, William Frawley, the Jiving Jacks and Jills

'In life and love, expect the unexpected.'

Moonlight Mile ★

US 2002 117m Technicolor Panavision
Buena Vista/Touchstone/Hyde Park/Reveal/Gran Via/Punch (Mark Johnson, Brad Silberling)

A businessman and his wife, mourning over the accidental death of their daughter, invite her fiancé to live with them, not knowing that their romance was over.

Over-sweet account of how various individuals cope with loss; it has its moments, though they are not as many as one would hope.

wd Brad Silberling ph Phedon Papamichael m Mark Isham pd Missy Stewart ed Lisa Zeno Churgin

☆ Jake Gyllenhaal (Joe Nast), Dustin Hoffman (Ben Floss), Susan Sarandon (JoJo Floss), Holly Hunter (Mona Camp), Ellen Pompeo (Bertie Knox), Richard T. Jones (Ty), Allan Corduner (Stan Michaels), Dabney Coleman (Mike Mulcahey)

'Full of sharp acting and home truths, but its ambition to be different finally surrenders to its need to be loved.' – Richard Corliss, Time

'Awkward tragicomedy about bereavement that features a strong cast but a feeble script.' – Anthony Quinn, Independent

Moonlight Sonata ★

GB 1937 90m bw
Pall Mall (Lothar Mendes)

Stranded victims of a plane crash are affected by the art of a famous pianist.

Curious, slight, unexpected play-on-film designed to showcase the talent of Paderewski.

w Edward Knoblock, E. M. Delafield d Lothar Mendes ph Jan Stallich

☆ Ignace Paderewski, Eric Portman, Marie Tempest, Charles Farrell, Barbara Greene, Binkie Stuart

'Should make good with class audiences.' – Variety

'Dame Marie is a sparking line-tosser who keeps the script alive when Paderewski (then 77) is not putting it to music.' – New York Times

The Moonlighter

US 1953 77m bw 3-D
Warner (Joseph Bernhard)

A cattle rustler moves towards reforming.

Ho-hum Western which offers its stars little to work with and was not even very exciting in 3-D.

w Niven Busch d Roy Rowland ph Bert Glennon m Heinz Roemheld

☆ Fred MacMurray, Barbara Stanwyck, Ward Bond, William Ching, John Dierkes, Morris Ankrum

Moonlighting ★★★

GB 1982 97m colour
Michael White/Channel 4 (Mark Shivas, Jerzy Skolimowski)

In 1981 four Polish building workers arrive in London to renovate a house for their boss and make a quick profit. The scheme is somewhat upset by the news of martial law at home...

Very interesting and well-acted anecdote, virtually constructed out of the headlines.

wd Jerzy Skolimowski ph Tony Pierce Roberts m Stanley Myers pd Tony Woollard ed Barrie Vince

☆ Jeremy Irons (Nowak), Eugene Lipinski (Banaszak), Jiri Stanislaw (Wolski), Eugeniusz Haczkiewicz (Kudaj)

The Moonraker ★

GB 1957 82m Technicolor
ABPC (Hamilton Inglis)

During the English Civil War, a noble highwayman smuggles the king's son into France.

Likeable swashbuckler which confines its second half to suspense at an inn, a who-is-it rather than a whodunnit. Good fun.

w Robert Hall, Wilfred Eades, Alistair Bell play Arthur Watkyn d David MacDonald ph Max Greene m Laurie Johnson

☆ George Baker, Sylvia Syms, Marius Goring, Peter Arne, Richard Leech, Clive Morton, Paul Whitsun-Jones, Gary Raymond, John Le Mesurier (Oliver Cromwell), Patrick Troughton, Michael Anderson Jnr

Moonraker

GB 1979 126m Technicolor Panavision
UA/Eon (Albert R. Broccoli)

James Bond investigates the disappearance of a space shuttle during a test flight.

Adventures in Venice, Rio and the upper Amazon; all very repetitive and no longer more than faintly amusing.

w Christopher Wood novel Ian Fleming d Lewis Gilbert ph Jean Tournier m John Barry pd Ken Adam

☆ Roger Moore, Lois Chiles, Michael Lonsdale, Richard Kiel, Geoffrey Keen, Lois Maxwell, Bernard Lee

'Conspicuously expensive production values but an unmistakably cut price plot.' – Sight and Sound

Moonrise ★

US 1948 90m bw
Republic/Frank Borzage Productions (Charles F. Haas)

A murderer's son is driven into violence by memories and fears of his childhood.
Broody melodrama set against a remote village and swamp background; not a very interesting story, but memorable detail.
w Charles Haas d Frank Borzage ph John L. Russell m William Lava ed Harry Keller
☆ Gail Russell, Dane Clark, Ethel Barrymore, Allyn Joslyn, Rex Ingram

'The story is told with a unity of mood, sombre and poignant, set by some impressionistic opening passages and sustained by the slow yet firmly compressed style and the strong, low-toned images.' – Gavin Lambert

'If the world is sane – then they're completely mad!'

The Moon's Our Home ★

US 1936 80m bw
Paramount (Walter Wanger)

A headstrong actress marries an adventurer on impulse, and they both try to work it out.
Light, bright romantic comedy with the zany tinge then in fashion.
w Isabel Dawn, Boyce DeGaw novel Faith Baldwin d William A. Seiter ph Joseph Valentine m Gerard Carbonara
☆ Margaret Sullavan, Henry Fonda, Beulah Bondi, Charles Butterworth, Margaret Hamilton, Dorothy Stickney, Lucien Littlefield

'It isn't, of course, as good as all that; nothing is as good as all that in the cinema, but the great commercial wheels don't grind here quite so effortlessly; a little satire, a little imagination, a little feeling for human inconsistency, has got into the works.' – Graham Greene, The Spectator

The Moonshine War

US 1970 100m Metrocolor Panavision
MGM/Filmways (James C. Pratt, Leonard Blair)

In Kentucky just before the repeal of prohibition, a corruptible revenue agent regrets bringing in a sadistic crook to help confiscate illegal whisky.
Downright peculiar hillbilly melodrama, neither straight nor satirical; interesting only in fits and starts.
w Elmore Leonard novel Elmore Leonard d Richard Quine ph Richard H. Kline m Fred Karger
☆ Patrick McGoohan, Richard Widmark, Alan Alda, Melodie Johnson, Will Geer

'Patrick McGoohan walked over to me the only day I was on the set and said, "What's it like to hear your lines all fucked up?" – Elmore Leonard

The Moonspinners: see The Moon Spinners

Moonstruck ★

US 1987 102m Technicolor
Patrick Palmer/Norman Jewison

Young widow falls for the estranged brother of her husband-to-be.
Noisy, sometimes heavy-handed romantic comedy of Italian-American manners.
w John Patrick Shanley d Norman Jewison ph David Watkin m Dick Hyman pd Philip Rosenberg
☆ Cher, Nicolas Cage, Vincent Gardenia, Olympia Dukakis, Danny Aiello
🏆 Cher; John Patrick Shanley; Olympia Dukakis
🎗 best picture; Norman Jewison; Vincent Gardenia

Moontide ★

US 1942 94m bw
TCF (Mark Hellinger)

A seaman cares for an unhappy waif.
A Hollywood attempt at romantic melodrama in the French manner. It looks good, and the cast is fine, but everything is just a bit too glum.
w John O'Hara novel Willard Robertson d Archie Mayo ph Charles G. Clarke m Cyril Mockridge, David Buttolph
☆ Jean Gabin, Ida Lupino, Claude Rains, Thomas Mitchell, Jerome Cowan, Sen Yung, Tully Marshall, Helene Reynolds
🎗 Charles G. Clarke

Moonwalker

US 1988 93m
Warner/Ultimate Productions

Episodic look at the life and performances of Michael Jackson, culminating in a fantasy in which he stops a gangster turning children into junkies.
Strictly for fans.
w David Newman story Michael Jackson d Colin Chilvers, Jerry Kramer ph John Hora, Tom Ackerman, Bob Collins, Fred Elmes, Crescenzo Notarile m Bruce Broughton pd Michael Ploog ed David E. Blewitt, Mitchell Sinoway, Dale Beldin
☆ Michael Jackson, Joe Pesci, Sean Lennon, Kellie Parker, Brandon Adams

The Morals of Marcus

GB 1936 75m bw
Real Art (W. J. Locke)

A girl escapes from a Middle Eastern harem by stowing away with a British aristocrat.
Feeble 'naughty' comedy, killed by lack of wit and pace.
w Guy Bolton, Miles Mander play W. J. Locke d Miles Mander ph John W. Boyle ☆ Lupe Velez, Ian Hunter, Adrianne Allen, Noel Madison, J. H. Roberts, H. F. Maltby

'Acceptable feature for general consumption.' – Variety

Die Morder Sind Unter Uns: see The Murderers Are Among Us

More American Graffiti

US 1979 111m Technicolor
Universal/Lucasfilm (Howard Kazanjian)

In 1964, American small-town teenagers quarrel over drugs and drag racing.
Tedious sequel to a movie which was more than enough.
wd Bill L. Norton ph Caleb Deschanel m various ☆ Candy Clark, Bo Hopkins, Ron Howard, Paul Le Mat, Mackenzie Phillips, Richard Bradford

'What once was a crate of dynamite has been cosmetically giftwrapped à la Happy Days.' – Cynthia Rose, MFB

More Dead Than Alive

US 1968 99m DeLuxe
United Artists/Aubrey Schenck

Revenge erupts some years after a violent jail break.
Eccentric and pretentious Western with a complex story which might have intrigued if handled better.
w George Schenck d Robert Sparr ph Jack Marquette m Philip Springer ☆ Clint Walker, Vincent Price, Anne Francis, Paul Hampton, Mike Henry, Craig Littler

More than a Secretary

US 1936 80m bw
Columbia

A dowdy secretary loses her glasses and wins her boss.
That old story, and the treatment isn't anything to get excited about either.
w Dale Van Every, Lynn Starling d Alfred E. Green ☆ Jean Arthur, George Brent, Lionel Stander, Ruth Donnelly, Reginald Denny, Dorothea Kent, Charles Halton

'Fair b.o. possibilities, but the story doesn't belong on the same block as the production afforded to it.' – Variety

The More the Merrier ★★★

US 1943 104m bw
Columbia (George Stevens)

In crowded Washington during World War II, a girl allows two men to share her apartment and falls in love with the younger one.
Thoroughly amusing romantic comedy with bright lines and situations; remade less effectively as Walk Don't Run (qv).
w Robert Russell, Frank Ross, Richard Flournoy, Lewis R. Foster d George Stevens ph Ted Tetzlaff m Leigh Harline md Morris Stoloff ad Lionel Banks, Rudolph Sternad ed Otto Meyer
☆ Jean Arthur (Connie Milligan), Joel McCrea (Joe Carter), Charles Coburn (Benjamin Dingle), Richard Gaines (Charles J. Pendergast), Bruce Bennett (Evans)

'The gayest comedy that has come from Hollywood in a long time. It has no more substance than a watermelon, but is equally delectable.' – Howard Barnes

'Farce, like melodrama, offers very special chances for accurate observation, but here accuracy is avoided ten times to one in favour of the easy burlesque or the easier idealization which drops the bottom out of farce. Every good moment frazzles or drowns.' – James Agee

† Garson Kanin has claimed to have written virtually all the script.
🏆 Charles Coburn
🎗 best picture; script; original story (Frank Ross, Robert Russell); George Stevens; Jean Arthur

The More Things Change...

Australia 1985 95m Eastmancolor Panvision
Syme International/NSWFC (Jill Robb)

A successful journalist tries to cope with the strains of a demanding job and marriage when her husband decides to move to the country to become self-sufficient.
Small-scale, routine drama of a marriage in trouble; nothing out of the ordinary.
w Moya Wood d Robyn Nevin ph Dan Burstall m Peter Best pd Josephine Ford ed Jill Bilcock
☆ Judy Morris, Barry Otto, Victoria Longley, Peter Carroll, Louise Le Nay, Lewis Fitz-Gerald, Owen Johnson

Morgan – A Suitable Case for Treatment ★★★★

GB 1966 97m bw
British Lion/Quintra (Leon Clore)

US title: Morgan!

A young woman determines to leave her talented but half-mad artist husband, who has a fixation on gorillas and behaves in a generally uncivilized manner.
A frequently very funny movie, from an anarchic screenplay by David Mercer, one of Britain's leading playwrights of the 60s, who often dealt with society's misfits. It is an archetypal marital fantasy, an extension of Look Back in Anger in the mood of swinging London.
w David Mercer play David Mercer d Karel Reisz ph Larry Pizer, Gerry Turpin m Johnny Dankworth ad Philip Harrison ed Victor Proctor, Tom Priestley
☆ Vanessa Redgrave (Leonie Delt), David Warner (Morgan Delt), Robert Stephens (Charles Napier), Irene Handl (Mrs. Delt), Newton Blick (Mr. Henderson), Nan Munro (Mrs. Henderson)

'Poor Morgan: victim of a satire that doesn't bite, lost in a technical confusion of means and ends, and emerging like an identikit photograph, all bits and pieces and no recognizable face.' – Penelope Houston

'The first underground movie made above ground.' – John Simon

'I think Morgan is so appealing to college students because it shares their self-view: they accept this mess of cute infantilism and obsessions and aberrations without expecting the writer and director to resolve it and without themselves feeling a necessity to sort it out.' – Pauline Kael

🎗 Vanessa Redgrave
BAFTA David Mercer

Moriturl: The Saboteur: see The Saboteur, Code Name Moriturl

The Morning After

US 1986 103m DeLuxe
TCF/Lorimar/American Filmworks (Bruce Gilbert)

A drunken actress wakes up one morning next to a man with a dagger in his heart.
A mystery which starts as intriguing but is insufficiently developed and peters out into a series of casual encounters between unattractive people.
w James Hicks d Sidney Lumet ph Andrzej Bartkowiak m Paul Chihara pd Albert Brenner ed Joel Goodman ☆ Jane Fonda, Jeff Bridges, Raul Julia, Diane Salinger
🎗 Jane Fonda

Morning Departure ★

GB 1950 102m bw
Rank/Jay Lewis (Leslie Parkyn)

US title: Operation Disaster

Twelve men are caught in a trapped submarine, and only eight can escape.
Archetypal stiff-upper-lip service tragedy, which moves from briskness to a slow funereal ending.
w William Fairchild play Kenneth Woollard d Roy Baker ph Desmond Dickinson
☆ John Mills, Richard Attenborough, Nigel Patrick, Lana Morris, Peter Hammond, Helen Cherry, James Hayter, Andrew Crawford, George Cole, Michael Brennan, Wylie Watson, Bernard Lee, Kenneth More

Morning Glory ★★

US 1933 74m bw
RKO (Pandro S. Berman)

A young actress comes to New York determined to succeed.
Marvellously evocative theatrical drama which provided a strong star part for a fresh young actress and surrounded her with accomplished thespians. Remade to much less effect as Stage Struck (qv).
w Howard J. Green play Zoe Akins d Lowell Sherman ph Bert Glennon m Max Steiner

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · 🏆 Academy Award · 🎗 Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

☆ Katharine Hepburn, Douglas Fairbanks Jnr, Adolphe Menjou, Mary Duncan, C. Aubrey Smith, Don Alvarado

'Star vastly superior to this sometimes misdirected arty story.' – Variety

Katharine Hepburn

Morning Glory

US 1993 95m Foto-Kem
Overseas/Dove Audio (Michael Viner)

In 1941, a former convict, who answers an advert for a husband by a pregnant widow with three children, is accused of murder when the town's good-time girl is killed.
Dull and predictable small-town soap opera, given a plodding treatment.
w Charles Jarrott, Deborah Raffin novel Lavyrle Spencer d Steven Hilliard Stern ph Laszlo George m Jonathan Elias ad David Hiscox ed Richard Benwick ☆ Christopher Reeve, Deborah Raffin, Lloyd Bochner, Nina Foch, Helen Shaver, J. T. Walsh

Morning of the Earth

Australia 1972 80m colour
Woolloomooloo/AFD (David Elfick)

Documentary film that tries to communicate the pleasure and adrenalin rush of surfing big waves in Australia and Hawaii.
Surfers are likely to enjoy this the most; the images of sand, sea and surfers have a charm, though after a while one wave begins to look much like another.
d Albert Falzon ph Albert Falzon m G. Wayne Thomas, Brian Cadd, Taman Shud et al ed Grant Shanks
☆ Nat Young, Chris Brock, Stephen Cooney, David Treloar, Mark Warren, Rusty Miller, Michael Peterson, Terry Fitzgerald, Ted Spencer, Reno Abelliro, Jerry Lopez

'Revealing the amazing things a woman will do for love!'

Morocco ★★★

US 1930 97m bw
Paramount (Louis D. Lighton)

A cabaret singer arrives in Morocco and continues her wicked career by enslaving all the men in sight; but true love reaches her at last.
The star's first American film reveals her quintessence, and although wildly dated in subject matter remains a perversely enjoyable entertainment.
w Jules Furthman novel Amy Jolly by Benno Vigny d Josef von Sternberg ph Lee Garmes m Karl Hajos ad Hans Dreier ed S.K. Winston ☆ Marlene Dietrich (Amy Jolly), Gary Cooper (Tom Brown), Adolphe Menjou (Mons. Le Bessiere), Ullrich Haupt (Adjutant Caesar), Juliette Compton (Anna Dolores), Francis McDonald (Cpl. Tatoche)

'Lightweight story with good direction ... needs plenty of exploitation to do over average.' – Variety

'A definite step forward in the art of motion pictures.' – National Board of Review

'A cinematic pattern, brilliant, profuse, subtle, and at almost every turn inventive.' – Wilton A. Barrett

'Enchantingly silly, full of soulful grand passions, drifting cigarette smoke, and perhaps a few too many pictorial shots of the Foreign Legion marching this way and that.' – New Yorker, 1979

Josef von Sternberg; Lee Garmes; Marlene Dietrich; Hans Dreier

Morons from Outer Space

GB 1985 91m colour
Thorn EMI (Barry Hanson)

Dopey space travellers arrive on Earth.
Spoofy comedy which, apart from staging a spectacular motorway landing and mocking various popular film genres, never decides where to go.
w Griff Rhys Jones, Mel Smith d Michael Hodges ph Phil Meheux m Peter Brewis ☆ Mel Smith, Griff Rhys Jones, Paul Bown, Joanne Pearce, Jimmy Nail, Dinsdale Landen, James B. Sikking

'It remains stuck on the launch pad.' – Variety

Morris West's The Naked Country: see The Naked Country

Mortal Conqest: see G2: Mortal Combat

Mortal Kombat

US 1995 101m colour
First Independent/New Line/Threshold (Lawrence Kasanoff)

Good guys with muscles battle evil in an attempt to save the world from the denizens of another universe.
On its level, of mindless, violent entertainment, this can be counted something of a success: it is the first film based on a video game to reproduce some of the visceral excitement of the original.
w Kevin Droney d Paul Anderson ph John R. Leonetti m George S. Clinton pd Jonathan Carlson ed Martin Hunter
☆ Christopher Lambert, Robin Shou, Cary-Hiroyuki Tagawa, Bridgette Wilson, Talisa Soto, Chris Casamassa, Linden Ashby

'It is well-served by a cast clearly well-versed in dopey grinning. All the actors have to do is talk, fight a bit, and vaguely resemble their digitised counterparts. Tough gig.' – Guardian

Mortal Kombat 2: Annihilation

US 1997 94m Foto-Kem
Entertainment/New Line/Threshold/Lawrence Kasanoff

Martial artists who triumphed over evil are attacked by a wicked emperor who wants to create hell on Earth.
There is a problem in converting the mindless mayhem of video games to the mindless mayhem of action films: the latter require an engaging narrative to replace the interactive charms of the former, something this mess fails to achieve.
w Brent V. Friedman, Bryce Zabel d John R. Leonetti ph Matthew F. Leonetti m George S. Clinton pd Charles Wood ed Peck Prior sp Chuck Comisky, Alison Savitch ☆ Robin Shou, Talisa Soto, James Remar, Sandra Hess, Lynn Red Williams, Brian Thompson, Reiner Schoene

'Consists largely of choppily edited fight scenes (usually involving somersaults and back flips) combined with various computer graphic effects.' – Variety

Mortal Passions

US 1990 98m Foto-Kem
Gibraltar (Gwen Field)

A lying wife, attempting to manipulate her lover into killing her weak husband, finds herself unexpectedly involved in murder.
A feeble, vacuous attempt at a thriller in the tradition of film noir, with dull characters, uninteresting dialogue and no suspense.
w Alan Moscowitz d Andrew Lane ph Christian Sebaldt m Parmer Fuller pd Robert Sissman ed Kimberly Ray ☆ Zach Galligan, Krista Errickson, Michael Bowen, Luca Bercovici, Sheila Kelley, Cassandra Gava, David Warner

'The love story of today with the popular stars of The Shop Around the Corner!'

The Mortal Storm ★★

US 1940 100m bw
MGM (Sidney Franklin)

A German family in the thirties is split by Nazism.
Solid anti-Nazi melodrama typical of the period before America entered the war; good performances outweigh unconvincing studio sets.
w Claudine West, George Froeschel, Anderson Ellis novel Phyllis Bottome d Frank Borzage ph William Daniels m Edward Kane
☆ Margaret Sullavan, Robert Young, James Stewart, Frank Morgan, Robert Stack, Bonita Granville, Irene Rich, Maria Ouspenskaya
† The film caused Goebbels to ban the showing of MGM pictures in all German territories.

'Murder is a secret that should never be shared.'

Mortal Thoughts ★

US 1991 103m DeLuxe
Columbia TriStar/New Visions/Polar/Rufglen (John Fiedler, Mark Tarlov)

Two women, who are best friends, are questioned about the murder of the husband of one of them.
Entertaining thriller which sustains its mystery to the end.
w William Reilly, Claude Kerven d Alan Rudolph ph Elliot Davis m Mark Isham pd Howard Cummings ed Tom Walls ☆ Demi Moore, Glenne Headly, Bruce Willis, John Pankow, Harvey Keitel, Billie Neal, Frank Vincent

'A bravely downbeat movie.' – Empire

Morte a Venezia: see Death in Venice

La Morte Vivante: see The Living Dead Girl

Mortifero: see The Stranger (1987)

Morvern Callar ★

GB/Canada 2001 98m colour
Momentum/Alliance Atlantis/BBC/Company (Robyn Slovo, Charles Pattinson, George Faber)

A Scottish supermarket worker strikes lucky when she passes off her dead boyfriend's novel as her own work.
A grim fairy-tale, a psychological fantasy of feckless escape from the world, that occasionally charms.
w Lynne Ramsay, Liana Dognini novel Alan Warner d Lynne Ramsay ph Alwin Kuchler pd Jane Morton ed Lucia Zucchetti
☆ Samantha Morton (Morvern Callar), Kathleen McDermott (Lanna), Raife Patrick Burchell (Boy in Room 1022), Dan Cadan (Dazzer), Carolyn Calder (Sheila Tequila), Jim Wilson (Tom Boddington), Dolly Wells (Susan), Ruby Milton (Couris Jean)

'This minimalist film is slightly hobbled by its minimal plot; it's the crucial difference between a movie with moments of greatness and a great movie.' – Elvis Mitchell, New York Times

'A mesmeric, startling and sometimes baffling movie from Lynne Ramsay and it announces her as one of the most distinctive talents in British cinema.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

Moscow Distrusts Tears ★

USSR 1979 148m Sovcolor
Mosfilm (V. Kuchinsky)
original title: Moskva Slezam Ne Verit
US title: Moscow Does Not Believe In Tears

In Moscow in 1958, three working girls have love affairs. Twenty years later they compare notes.
Odd portmanteau drama, most interesting for its picture of life in Russia.
w Valentin Chernykh d Vladimir Menshov ph Igor Slabnevich m Sergei Nikitin ☆ Vera Alentova, Alexei Batalov, Irina Muravera, Alexander Fatiushin, Raisa Ryazanova, Boris Smorchkov
best foreign film

Moscow Nights

GB 1936 75m bw
London Films/Capitol Films (Alexis Granowsky, Max Schach)

US title: I Stand Condemned
A Russian girl sacrifices her virtue to save her lover from execution.
Cardboard melodrama of pre-revolutionary Moscow; not by any means a classic.
w Erich Seipmann novel Pierre Benoît d Anthony Asquith ph Phil Tannura md Muir Mathieson ad Vincent Korda ed Francis Lyon
☆ Laurence Olivier, Penelope Dudley Ward, Harry Baur, Robert Cochran, Morton Selten, Athene Seyler

'Completely bogus ... The direction is puerile.' – Graham Greene, The Spectator
† This was based directly on a 1934 French film, Nuits Moscovites, with Annabella, Pierre-Richard Willm, and Harry Baur.

Moscow on the Hudson ★

US 1984 117m Metrocolor
Columbia/Delphi (Paul Mazursky)

A Soviet circus artiste defects in New York but has second thoughts.
Not so much a political comedy as an immigrant one, with the Big Apple shown at its worst. As such, occasionally funny in a desperate way, but overlong.
w Paul Mazursky, Leon Capetanos d Paul Mazursky ph Donald McAlpine m David McHugh pd Pato Guzman
☆ Robin Williams, Maria Conchita Alonso, Cleavant Derricks, Alejandro Rey, Savely Kramarov

The Mosquito Coast ★

US 1986 117m Technicolor
Saul Zaentz/Jerome Hellman

A frustrated visionary packs up and moves his family to a remote Caribbean island, where he fails to notice the seeds of downfall.
An antidote to Robinson Crusoe which is often wryly amusing, but the leading character is too hysterical and his fall too complete to make good drama.
w Paul Schrader novel Paul Theroux d Peter Weir ph John Seale m Maurice Jarre pd John Stoddart ed Thom Noble
☆ Harrison Ford, Helen Mirren, River Phoenix, Jadrien Steele, André Gregory

'In the end there is barely a thread of hope to take home, other than some strikingly beautiful and sad images of a man grasping for something just beyond his reach.' – Variety

Mosquito Squadron

GB 1968 90m DeLuxe
Lewis J. Rachmil/UA

In 1944, the RAF tries out bouncing bombs in a French offensive.

Very minor and belated war heroics for double-billing.

w Donald Sanford, Joyce Perry d Boris Sagal ph Paul Beeson m Frank Cordell

☆ David McCallum, Suzanne Neve, David Buck, Dinsdale Landen, Charles Gray

Moss Rose

US 1947 82m bw
TCF (Gene Markey)

A Victorian chorus girl suspects her aristocratic admirer of being a murderer.

Absurd, stilted mystery melodrama with a better-looking production than it deserves.

w Jules Furthman, Tom Reed d Gregory Ratoff ph Joe MacDonald m David Buttolph

☆ Peggy Cummins, Victor Mature, Ethel Barrymore, Vincent Price

The Most Dangerous Game ★★★

US 1932 63m bw
(RKO)

GB title: The Hounds of Zaroff

A mad hunter lures guests on to his island so that he can hunt them down like animals.

Dated but splendidly shivery melodrama with moments of horror and mystery and a splendidly photographed chase sequence. Much imitated in curious ways, and not only by direct remakes such as A Game of Death and Run for the Sun (qv).

w James Creelman story Richard Connell d Ernest B. Schoedsack, Irving Pichel ph Henry Gerrard m Max Steiner ed Archie Marshek

☆ Leslie Banks (Count Zaroff), Joel McCrea (Bob Rainsford), Fay Wray (Eve Trowbridge), Robert Armstrong (Martin Trowbridge), Noble Johnson (Tartar Servant)

'Futile stab at horror film classification, ineffective as entertainment and minus cast names to compensate.' – Variety

The Most Dangerous Man in the World

GB 1969 99m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF/APJAC (Mort Abrahams)
US title: The Chairman

A top scientist is sent by western intelligence on a mission into Red China, with a transmitter and a detonator implanted in his skull.

Wild Boys' Own Paper adventure which regrettably slows down in the middle for political philosophizing.

w Ben Maddow novel The Chairman by Jay Richard Kennedy d J. Lee-Thompson ph Ted Moore m Jerry Goldsmith

☆ Gregory Peck, Anne Heywood, Arthur Hill, Conrad Yama, Francisca Tu, Keye Luke, Alan Dobie, Ori Levy

The Most Desired Man

Germany 1994 94m colour
Gala/Neue Constantin/Olga (Bernd Eichinger) original title: Der Bewegte Mann

After he is thrown out of their flat by his girlfriend, a handsome philanderer moves in with two homosexual men, who both fall for him.

Perhaps something has been lost in the translation, but this highly regarded (in Germany) comedy has little wit and not much humour.

wd Sönke Wortmann comics Der Bewegte Mann by Ralf König ph Gernot Roll m Torsten Breuer pd Monika Bauert ed Ueli Christen

☆ Til Schweiger, Katja Reimann, Joachim Krol, Rufus Beck, Armin Rohde, Nico van der Knapp, Antonia Lang

'Capped by endearing performances all round, this is a very funny movie which should ring recognition bells with under-35s of every romantic persuasion.' – Empire

'Ends up being a drab miscalculation.' – Sight and Sound

† It is the highest-grossing German film so far released in Germany.

The Most Fertile Man in Ireland

Ireland 2000 96m colour
Alibi/Sky/IFB/Samson/Hot (David Collins)

An exceptionally fertile Belfast youth runs into religious and political prejudice when he becomes a full-time impregnator of women who haven't been able to conceive.

Stillborn, flaccid comedy with a sniggering adolescent attitude towards sex and no grasp of political satire.

w Jim Keeble d Dudi Appleton ph Ronan Fox m James Johnson pd Tom Conroy ed Emer Reynolds

☆ Kris Marshall (Eamonn Manley), Kathy Kiera Clarke (Rosie), Bronagh Gallagher (Millicent), James Nesbitt (Billy Wilson), Kenneth Cranham (Father), Tara Lynne O'Neill (Mary Mallory), Toyah Willcox (Dr Johnson)

'Attempted farce mixes with raunch, politics and religion, missing the mark on every front.' – Carla Meyer, San Francisco Chronicle

The Most Terrible Time of My Life: see Waga Jinsei Saiaku No Toki

Most Wanted

US 1997 99m DeLuxe Super 35
New Line/Ivory Way (Eric L. Gold)

A former marine, working as an undercover agent, becomes the chief suspect when the President's wife is murdered.

Formulaic conspiracy-and-chase thriller; its only interest lies in another over-the-top performance from Voight as a crazed general.

w Keenen Ivory Wayans d David Glenn Hogan ph Marc Reshovsky m Paul Bruckmaster pd Jean-Philippe Carp ed Michael J. Duthie

☆ Keenen Ivory Wayans, Jon Voight, Jill Hennessy, Paul Sorvino, Eric Roberts, Robert Culp, Wolfgang Bodison, Simon Baker Denny

'Plays like a made-for-video B movie that somehow won the lottery and got a theatrical release.' – Joe Leydon, Variety

Mostly Martha ★ (7)

Germany/Austria/Switzerland 2001 107m colour
Optimum/Pandora/Prisma/T&C/Palomar (Karl Baumgartner, Christoph Friedel)

A workaholic Hamburg chef's life is thrown into turmoil when she has to become a mother to her disapproving 8-year-old niece and deal with a new Italian under-chef.

Well-acted, food-centred comedy about relationships that charms for much of the time.

wd Sandra Nettelbeck ph Michael Bertl m Keith Jarrett, Arvo Part, David Darling pd Thomas Freudenthal ed Mona Brauer

☆ Martina Gedeck (Martha Klein), Sergio Castellito (Mario), Maxime Foerste (Lina), August Zirner (Therapist), Ulrich Thomsen (Sam Thalberg)

'A feel-good movie that doesn't think it needs to rub people's noses in the happy stuff to get its points across or eliminate all the disturbing shades to make a uniformly glowing whole.' – Shawn Levy, Portland Oregonian

'It takes all kinds of critters to make Farmer Vincent's fritters!'

Motel Hell

US 1980 106m Technicolor
United Artists/Camp Hill (Herb Jaffe)

Benign motel owners are famous for their spiced meat, which is in fact made from their human guests.

Horror comic intended to amuse, but too repulsive to do so.

w Robert Jaffe, Steven-Charles Jaffe d Kevin Connor ph Thomas Del Ruth m Lance Rubin

☆ Rory Calhoun, Paul Linke, Nancy Parsons, Nina Axelrod, Wolfman Jack Mother ★★★

USSR 1926 90m approx (24 fps) bw
silent
Mezhrabpom-Russ

original title: Mat

A mother incriminates her strike-breaking son, but realizes her error.

Propagandist social melodrama which is also brilliantly conceived and edited, with sequences matching those of Eisenstein.

w N. Zarkhi, V. I. Pudovkin novel Maxim Gorky d V. I. Pudovkin ph A. Golovnia ad Sergei Kozlovsky

☆ Vera Baranovskaya (Niovna-Vlasova, the Mother), Nikolai Batalov (Pavel Vlasov), Ivan Koval-Samborsky (Strike organiser), Anna Zemtsova (Revolutionary)

† Other versions appeared in 1920 and (*d*Mark Donskoi) 1955

'It can take a lifetime to feel alive.'

The Mother ★★ (6)

GB 2003 122m bw/colour
Momentum/BBC/Renaissance/Free Range (Kevin Loader)

After her husband dies, a middle-aged woman goes to stay with her married children and begins an affair with her daughter's young lover.

Effective domestic drama of the re-awakening of a woman in her 60s and an incisive account of modern family life, where a parent can be an unnecessary intrusion.

w Hanif Kureishi d Roger Michell ph Alwin Kuchler m Jeremy Sams pd Mark Tildesley ed Nicolas Gaster

☆ Anne Reid (May), Daniel Craig (Darren), Steven Mackintosh (Bobby), Cathryn Bradshaw (Paula), Oliver Ford Davies (Bruce), Anna Wilson Jones (Helen), Peter Vaughn (Toots)

'Bluntly faces anxieties of aging that are rarely voiced in the movies, and it is too hard-headed to offer comfy palliatives.' – Stephen Holden, New York Times

'Along with the myth that seniors don't have sex drives, the film dispels a larger one: that the years bring wisdom.' – Peter Rainer, New York

Mother and Son ★★★

Russia/Germany 1997 71m colour
Zero/O-Film/Severnij Fond/Lenfilm

original title: Mat i syn

In a large house near the sea, a son tends his dying mother.

A gently lyrical film about love and the imminence of death, and the beauty of the natural world. It has little dialogue, the actors are not professional, and it has no action in the conventional sense; yet it maintains a hushed, hypnotic hold.

w Yuri Arabov d Alexandr Sokurov ph Alexei Yodorov m Mikhail Ivanovich Glinka, Otmar Nussio ad Vera Zelinskaya ed Leda Semyonova

☆ Gudrun Geyer (Mother), Alexei Ananishov (Son)

'Its majestic, affective power makes most of cinema seem trivial, raucous, faked.' – Julian Graffy, Sight and Sound

The Mother and the Whore ★★

France 1973 219m bw
Gala/Films du Losange/Elite/Cine Qua Non/Simar/V.M. (Pierre Cottrell)

original title: La Maman et la Putain

A charming but idle man, who lives with his older mistress, dates a young nurse who moves in with them.

A long, sometimes desultory, but often engrossing debate on love, fidelity, sex, marriage and the comedy of human affairs.

wd Jean Eustache ph Pierre Lhomme, Jacques Renard, Michel Cenet m Mozart, Offenbach and others ed Jean Eustache, Denise de Casabianca

☆ Jean-Pierre Léaud, Françoise Lebrun, Bernadette Lafont, Isabelle Weingarten, Jacques Renard, Jean Eustache

'What is extraordinary is that Eustache mesmerises us into caring about each emotional quaver, creating suspense from seemingly inert surfaces, a tension between elusive sensibility and indisputable presence.' – Jan Dawson, MFB

Mother Carey's Chickens

US 1938 82m bw
RKO (Pandro S. Berman)

The tribulations of a small-town family in the 1890s.

Modest domestic drama, not totally unpleasing.

w S. K. Lauren, Gertrude Purcell novel Kate Douglas Wiggin d Rowland V. Lee ph Roy Hunt m Frank Tours

☆ Anne Shirley, Ruby Keeler, Fay Bainter, James Ellison, Walter Brennan, Donnie Dunagan, Frank Albertson, Alma Kruger, Jackie Moran, Virginia Weidler, Margaret Hamilton

† Remade 1963 as Summer Magic.

Mother Didn't Tell Me

US 1950 88m bw
TCF (Fred Kohlmar)

A working girl marries a doctor and their off duty hours don't coincide.

Thin comedy.

wd Claude Binyon novel The Doctor Wears Three Faces by Mary Baird ph Joseph LaShelle m Cyril Mockridge

☆ Dorothy McGuire, William Lundigan, June Havoc, Gary Merrill, Jessie Royce Landis

Mother Is a Freshman

US 1948 80m Technicolor
TCF

GB title: Mother Knows Best

A mother goes to college and falls for the teacher with whom her daughter is infatuated.

Thin romantic comedy lacking the piquancy at which it aims.

w Mary Loos, Richard Sale d Lloyd Bacon ph Arthur Arling m Alfred Newman ☆ Loretta Young, Van Johnson, Rudy Vallee, Barbara Lawrence, Betty Lynn, Robert Arthur

'The film is one that would not be tolerated in a day nursery.' – John McCarten, New Yorker

Mother Joan of the Angels: see The Devil and the Nun

Mother, Jugs and Speed

US 1976 98m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF (Joseph R. Barbera)

Comic and tragic events in the lives of Los Angeles drivers of private commercial ambulances.
Black comedy of incidents ranging from farcical to sentimental, sometimes funny but basically unacceptable in either vein.
w Tom Mankiewicz d Peter Yates
ph Ralph Woolsey m various md Joel Sill
☆ Bill Cosby, Raquel Welch, Harvey Keitel, Allen Garfield, Bruce Davison, Larry Hagman

'The writer has found a way to get into the underbelly of a city, to survey the twilight territory where tragedy and comedy trip over each other and make an unsightly mess.' – Time

Mother Knows Best: see Mother Is A Freshman

'The lure of gold can make a man do anything!'

Mother Lode

US 1982 101m colour
Agamemnon/Martin Shafter, Andrew Scheinman (Fraser Clarke Heston, Andrew Snell)

A villainous miner stops at nothing to protect his goldfield.
More-or-less old-fashioned Western with a change of pace for the star. No world beater, but not bad.
w Fraser Clarke Heston, Peter Snell
d Charlton Heston ph Richard Leiterman
m Ken Wannberg pd Douglas Higgins ☆ Charlton Heston, Nick Mancuso, Kim Basinger, John Marley

'Howard W. Campbell, Jr. Is The Most Patriotic American In The Third Reich.'

Mother Night ★★ ⑤

US 1996 110m bw/Foto-Kem
Fine Line/Whyaduck (Keith Gordon, Robert B. Weide)

While awaiting trial for war crimes, a German-born American recalls his career as an Allied agent and a Nazi sympathizer.
An engrossing attempt to film a complex novel concerned with moral relativities, although, despite its intelligence, it doesn't quite capture the original's ironic humour.
w Robert B. Weide novel Kurt Vonnegut
d Keith Gordon ph Tom Richmond
m Michael Convertino pd François Seguin
ed Jay Rabinowitz
☆ Nick Nolte, Sheryl Lee, Alan Arkin, John Goodman, Kirsten Dunst, Arye Gross, Frankie Faison, David Strathairn, Bernard Behrens, Henry Gibson

'A movie that offers no easy rewards, this is still a deeply satisfying experience.' – Bob McCabe, Empire

Mother Riley Meets the Vampire

GB 1952 74m bw
Renown (John Gilling)

US title: My Son the Vampire

An old washerwoman accidentally catches a robot-wielding crook called The Vampire.
Childish farce notable for Lucan's last appearance in his dame role, and Lugosi's last substantial appearance of any kind – two pros at the end of their tether.
w Val Valentine d John Gilling ph Stan Pavey m Linda Southworth ☆ Arthur Lucan, Bela Lugosi, Dora Bryan, Richard Wattis

'Stupid, humourless and repulsive.' – MFB

Mother, Sir!: see Navy Wife

Mother Wore Tights ★

US 1947 109m Technicolor
TCF (Lamar Trotti)

Recollections of a vaudeville team and their growing family.
Well-mounted, reasonably charming family musical, one of the best of the many TCF examples of this genre.
w Lamar Trotti book Miriam Young
d Walter Lang ph Harry Jackson md Alfred Newman, Charles Henderson
☆ Betty Grable, Dan Dailey, Mona Freeman, Connie Marshall, Vanessa Brown, Robert Arthur, Sara Allgood, William Frawley, Ruth Nelson
♟ Alfred Newman, Charles Henderson
♗ Harry Jackson; song 'You Do' (m Josef Myrow, ly Mack Gordon)

Mother's Boys

US 1994 95m colour
Miramax/CBS (Jack E. Freedman, Wayne S. Williams, Patricia Herskovic)

A mother who left her husband and three sons decides she wants to return, despite the fact that no one wants her back.
Uninteresting attempt at a psychological thriller-cum-chiller, with an unconvincing script that steers clear of any suspense or emotional involvement.
w Barry Schneider, Richard Hawley novel Bernard Taylor d Yves Simoneau ph Elliot Davis m George S. Clinton ad David Bomba ed Michael Ornstein
☆ Jamie Lee Curtis, Peter Gallagher, Joanne Whalley-Kilmer, Vanessa Redgrave, Luke Edwards, Joss Ackland, Colin Ward, Joey Zimmerman

'A film that has an uninteresting beginning, an exploitative middle that actually cheats by genre standards, and a ludicrous climax that is borderline laughable.' – Emanuel Levy, Variety

'What do you see?'

The Mothman Prophecies

US 2001 119m colour Super 35
Helkon SK/Screen Gems/Lakeshore (Tom Rosenberg, Gary Lucchesi, Gary Goldstein)

A journalist investigates paranormal happenings that seem to be connected to the death of his wife and presage some disaster.
A gloomy trip into the twilight zone with a movie that follows the usual ominous conventions of the horror genre, but dispenses with the monster.
w Richard Hatem book John A. Keel
d Mark Pellington ph Fred Murphy
m Tomandandy pd Richard Hoover
ed Brian Berdan sp Cinesite
☆ Richard Gere (John Klein), Laura Linney (Connie), Will Patton (Gordon Smallwood), Debra Messing (Mary Klein), Lucinda Jenney (Denise Smallwood), Alan Bates (Alexander Leek), David Eigenberg (Ed Fleischman), Ann McDonough (Lucy Griffin)

'A portentous journey into cinematic doom which fails to fully evoke its chilling and tragic dimensions.' – Robert Koehler, Variety
'Solemn, credulous junk.' – Observer

La Motocyclette: see Girl on a Motorcycle

'Let the world change you… and you can change the world.'

The Motorcycle Diaries ★★★ ⑦

US/Argentina/Chile/Peru 2004 126m colour
FilmFour/South Fork/Tu Vas Voir (Michael Nozik, Edgard Tenembaum, Karen Tenkhoff)

original title: Diarios de Motocicleta

A womanising biochemist and an earnest young medical student attempt to ride a battered old motorcycle round South America, stopping on the way to visit a leper hospital.
High-spirited, well observed road movie about a man who had yet to become the revolutionary Che Guevara, though it does concern itself with his social and political education through encounters with poverty and exploitation on his travels.
w José Rivera books The Motorcycle Diaries; With Che Through Latin America by Ernesto Che Guevara, Alberto Granado d Walter Salles ph Eric Gautier m Gustavo Santaolalla pd Carlos Conti ed Daniel Rezende
☆ Gael Garcia Bernal (Ernesto Guevara de la Serna), Rodrigo de la Serna (Alberto Granado), Mia Maestro (Chichina), Gustavo Bueno (Dr Hugo Pesce), Jorge Chiarella (Dr Bresciani)

'Epic road movie with everything you'd want from such a film: laughs, kicks, adventures, pathos, poetry, natural beauty, strange encounters and friendship tested and strengthened.' – Shawn Levy, Portland Oregonian

♟ song 'Al Otro Lado Del Rio' (m/l Jorge Dexler)
♗ José Rivera

Motorcycle Gang

US 1957 78m bw
AIP/Golden State (Alex Gordon)

A bad boy returns from prison to antagonize the local law-abiding motorcycle club.
Low-budget, low-grade drive-in movie, though its dialogue, written in what purports to be the latest teenage slang ('You're not hip to this new lingo. Miger? Mad tiger') has acquired a period curiosity.
w Lou Rusoff d Edward L. Cahn
ph Frederick E. West m Albert Glasser ad Don Ament ed Richard C. Meyer
☆ Anne Neyland, Steve Terrell, John Ashley, Carl Switzer, Raymond Hatton, Wayne Taylor, Hal Bogart, Edmund Cobb

Mouchette ★

France 1966 90m bw
Argos/Parc (Anatole Dauman)

An unloved 14-year-old schoolgirl contemplates her unhappy life with her alcoholic father and dying mother.
Grim, austere, unsparing examination of the misery of an outsider.
wd Robert Bresson novel Nouvelle Histoire de Mouchette by Georges Bernanos ph Ghislain Cloquet m Jean Wiener, Monteverdi ad Pierre Guffroy
ed Raymond Lamy
☆ Nadine Nortier, Jean-Claude Guilbert, Marie Cardinal, Paul Hébert, Jean Vimenet, Marie Susini

Moulin Rouge

US 1934 69m bw
Twentieth Century (Darryl F. Zanuck)

The wife of a songwriter impersonates her own sister in order to revitalize her marriage and her stage career.
Predictable minor star vehicle, quite competently done.
w Nunnally Johnson, Henry Lehrman play Lyon de Bri d Sidney Lanfield ph Charles Rosher md Alfred Newman songs Harry Warren, Al Dubin ☆ Constance Bennett, Franchot Tone, Tullio Carminati, Helen Westley, Andrew Tombes, Hobart Cavanaugh

Moulin Rouge ★★

GB 1952 119m Technicolor
Romulus (Jack Clayton)

Fictional biopic of Toulouse Lautrec.
The dramatic emphasis is on the love affairs of the dwarfish artist, but the film's real interest is in its evocation of 19th-century Montmartre, and especially in the first twenty-minute can-can sequence. Nothing later can stand up to the exhilaration of this, and the film slowly slides into boredom.
w John Huston, Anthony Veiller novel Pierre La Mure d John Huston ph Oswald Morris m Georges Auric ad Paul Sheriff ed Ralph Kemplen cos Marcel Vertes
☆ José Ferrer (Henri de Toulouse-Lautrec), Zsa Zsa Gabor (Jane Avril), Katherine Kath (La Goulue), Colette Marchand (Marie Charlet), Suzanne Flon (Myriamme Hayem), Muriel Smith (Aicha), Lee Montague (Maurice Joyant), Harold Kasket (Zidler), Jill Bennett (Sarah), Christopher Lee (Scurat), Peter Cushing (Marcel de la Voisier)
♟ Paul Sheriff; Marcel Vertes
♗ picture; John Huston (as director); José Ferrer; Colette Marchand; Ralph Kemplen

'Some Things Are Worth The Risk.'

Moulin Rouge ★

Australia/US 2001 128m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF/Bazmark (Martin Brown, Baz Luhrmann, Fred Baron)

In 19th-century Paris, a penniless poet vies with a rich aristocrat for the love of a courtesan.
Hyperkinetic, attention-seeking pop variation on La Bohème and La Traviata that is so over the top it parodies itself; its modern songs cannot carry the weight of emotion piled upon them, though it might have helped to have had a few singers in the cast.
w Baz Luhrmann, Craig Pearce d Baz Luhrmann ph Donald M. McAlpine
m Craig Armstrong md Marius DeVries
pd Catherine Martin ed Jill Bilcock cos Catherine Martin, Angus Strathie
☆ Nicole Kidman (Satine), Ewan McGregor (Christian), John Leguizamo (Toulouse-Lautrec), Jim Broadbent (Zidler), Richard Roxburgh (Duke of Worcester), Garry McDonald (The Doctor), Matthew Whittet (Satie), Kerry Walker (Marie), Kylie Minogue (Green Fairy)

'A tour de force of artifice, a dazzling pastiche of musical and visual elements at the service of a blatantly artificial story.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety
'Like being thrust into the middle of a loud and frantic party whether you want to be there or not. You can go with it or resist it, be exhilarated or worn out. But forgetting the experience is not one of your options.' – Kenneth Turan, Los Angeles Times

'Overwrought and underwhelming...This tawdry bauble has less drama and lousier karaoke than any given episode of Ally McBeal.' – J. Hoberman, Village Voice

♫ 'Nature Boy'; 'Lady Marmalade'; 'Children of the Revolution'; 'Diamonds Are a Girl's Best Friend'; 'Material Girl'; 'Your Song'; 'Sound of Music'; 'One Day I'll Fly Away'; 'All You Need is Love'; 'Like a Virgin'; 'Come What May'; 'Fool To Believe'; 'The Show Must Go On'

♟ Catherine Martin (art direction); Catherine Martin, Angus Strathie (costumes)

♗ picture; Nicole Kidman; Donald M. McAlpine; Jill Bilcock; Maurizio Silvi, Aldo Signoretti; sound (Andy Nelson, Anna Behlmer, Roger Savage, Guntis Sics)

♉ Jim Broadbent; sound; music

The Mountain ★

US 1956 105m Technicolor Vistavision
Paramount (Edward Dmytryk)

After an airplane crash the wreck is difficult to reach. A young man sets off alone to loot it, and his elder brother follows to stop him.

An indeterminate production in which one believes neither the setting, the plot nor the characters, especially not with Vistavision making everything sharply unreal and the brothers seeming two generations apart.

w Ranald MacDougall novel Henri Troyat d Edward Dmytryk ph Franz Planer m Daniele Amfitheatrof

☆ Spencer Tracy, Robert Wagner, Claire Trevor, William Demarest, E. G. Marshall

'A terrible picture. It goes on forever and it's bad.' – Claire Trevor

The Mountain Eagle

GB 1926 72m approx (24 fps) bw silent
Gainsborough/Emelka (Michael Balcon)
US title: Fear o' God

A young schoolmistress resists the attentions of a businessman, escapes to the mountains, and marries a recluse.

Unremarkable romantic drama; one of the lost Hitchcock films.

w Eliot Stannard d Alfred Hitchcock ph Baron Ventimiglia

☆ Nita Naldi, Bernard Goetzke, Malcolm Keen

Mountain Justice

US 1937 82m bw
Warner

A frightened hillbilly girl kills her brutal father and is protected by a lawyer.

Involved backwoods melodrama, not really worth the trouble.

w Norman Reilly Raine, Luci Ward d Michael Curtiz ph Ernest Haller md Leo F. Forbstein ad Max Parker ed George Amy

☆ Josephine Hutchinson (Ruth Harkins), George Brent (Paul Cameron), Robert Barrat (Jeff Harkins), Guy Kibbee (Doc Barnard), Mona Barrie (Evelyn Wayne), Margaret Hamilton (Phoebe), Robert McWade (Horace Bamber), Marcia Mae Jones (Bethie Harkins)

'Too much plot, but okay for duals.' – Variety

The Mountain Men

US 1980 102m Metrocolor Panavision
Columbia (Martin Ransohoff)

Two 19th-century trappers have adventures with Indians.

Rumbustious, foul-mouthed and lethargic Western of the primitive kind; no possible interest.

w Fraser Clarke Heston d Richard Lang ph Michel Hugo m Michel Legrand

☆ Charlton Heston, Brian Keith, Victoria Racimo, Stephen Macht, John Glover

'It plays like a Sunn Classic four-waller uncomfortably spiced up with violence and profanity.' – Variety

'It's The Snappiest Ole Swing Music, An' It's Echoin' Thru The Land.'

Mountain Music

US 1937 76m bw
Paramount (Benjamin Glazer)

A hillbilly runs from a marriage and loses his memory.

Tiresome comedy with music.

w J. C. Moffitt, Duke Atterbury, Russel Crouse, Charles Lederer story Mackinlay Kantor d Robert Florey ph Karl Struss m Sam Coslow md Boris Morros ad Hans Dreier, John B. Goodman ed Eda Warren

☆ Martha Raye (Mary Beamish), Bob Burns (Bob Burnside), John Howard (Ardinger), George 'Gabby' Hayes (Grandpappy), Rufe Davis (Ham), Fuzzy Knight (Amos), Terry Walker (Lobelia)

'Burns and Raye have trouble topping a cast. Mild and minor.' – Variety

The Mountain of the Cannibal God: see La Montagna del Dio Cannibale

The Mountain Road

US 1960 102m bw
Columbia/William Goetz

In 1944 China, an American officer helps peasants against the Japanese.

Confused and rather dreary war adventure with pretensions.

w Alfred Hayes novel Theodore White d Daniel Mann ph Burnett Guffey m Jerome Moross md Morris Stoloff

☆ James Stewart (Major Baldwin), Lisa Lu (Mme Sue-Mei Hung), Glenn Corbett (Collins), Henry Morgan (Michaelson), Frank Silvera (General Kwan), James Best (Niergaard), Mike Kellin, Frank Maxwell, Alan Baxter

Mountains of the Moon ★★

US 1989 136m Technicolor
Guild/Carolco/IndieProd (Daniel Melnick)

Explorers Richard Burton and John Hanning Speke go in search of the source of the Nile.

Exuberant and engrossing epic that catches the mood of the times.

w William Harrison, Bob Rafelson story Burton and Speke by William Harrison d Bob Rafelson ph Dick Pope m Michael Small pd Norman Reynolds ed Thom Noble

☆ Patrick Bergin, Iain Glen, Richard E. Grant, Fiona Shaw, John Savident, James Villiers, Adrian Rawlins, Peter Vaughan, Delroy Lindo, Bernard Hill

'Somehow it conveys, as few movies ever have, the miserable realities that underlay the 19th century's heroic age of exploration.' – Richard Schickel, Time

'Worth seeing principally because it is a real film, by a director who understands the true nature of cinema as a visual medium.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

'Mother and daughter! Rivals in love!'

Mourning Becomes Electra ★

US 1947 170m bw
RKO/Theatre Guild (Dudley Nichols)

Murder, doom and guilt affect a New England family at the end of the Civil War.

A mark for trying is all. This is a clearly fated attempt to film the unfilmable, a long and lugubrious updating of Sophocles with more than its share of risible moments.

wd Dudley Nichols play Eugene O'Neill ph George Barnes m Richard Hagemann ad Albert D'Agostino

☆ Michael Redgrave, Rosalind Russell, Katina Paxinou, Kirk Douglas, Raymond Massey, Nancy Coleman, Leo Genn

'A star cast fumbles with helpless and sometimes touching ineptitude.' – Gavin Lambert

'Within its own terms of mistaken reverence, a good, straight, deliberately unimaginative production.' – James Agee

'It is apparent from their accents that they have only recently become a family.' – Pauline Kael, 70s

♗ Michael Redgrave; Rosalind Russell

'The squeak shall inherit the earth'

Mouse Hunt ★★

US 1997 97m Technicolor
DreamWorks (Alan Riche, Tony Ludwig, Bruce Cohen)

Two antagonistic brothers attempt to get rid of a mouse that inhabits the derelict mansion they inherit.

Slick slapstick comedy with a dark, Gothic tone that only lightens at the very end. There's an occasional nod to Laurel and Hardy, but the edgy humour owes much more to Tom and Jerry.

w Adam Rifkin d Gore Verbinski ph Phedon Papamichael m Alan Silvestri pd Linda DeScenna ed Craig Wood sp Stan Winston

☆ Nathan Lane (Ernie Smuntz), Lee Evans (Lars Smuntz), Vicki Lewis (April Smuntz), Maury Chaykin (Alexander Falko), Eric Christmas (Lawyer), Michael Jeter (Quincy Thorpe), Christopher Walken (Caesar), Debra Christofferson (Ingrid), Camilla Soeberg (Hilde), William Hickey (Rudolf Smuntz)

'This often screamingly funny comedy about a resilient rodent has enough across-the-board appeal to click with audiences of all ages.' – Joe Leydon, Variety

† The picture is dedicated to William Hickey, who died soon after his filming was completed.

The Mouse on the Moon

GB 1963 85m Eastmancolor
UA/Walter Shenson

The tiny duchy of Grand Fenwick discovers that its home-made wine makes excellent rocket fuel.

Piddling sequel to The Mouse that Roared, suffering from a hesitant script, too few jokes, and overacting.

w Michael Pertwee novel Leonard Wibberley d Richard Lester ph Wilkie Cooper m Ron Grainer

☆ Margaret Rutherford, Ron Moody, Bernard Cribbins, David Kossoff, Terry-Thomas, Michael Crawford

The Mouse that Roared ★★

GB 1959 85m Technicolor
Columbia/Open Road (Carl Foreman)

The tiny duchy of Grand Fenwick is bankrupt, and its minister decides to declare war on the United States, be defeated, and receive Marshall Aid.

Lively comedy which sounds rather better than it plays, but has bright moments.

w Roger Macdougall, Stanley Mann novel Leonard Wibberley d Jack Arnold ph John Wilcox m Edwin Astley ad Geoffrey Drake ed Raymond Poulton

☆ Peter Sellers (Tully Bascombe/Grand Duchess/Prime Minister), Jean Seberg (Helen), David Kossoff (Professor Kokintz), William Hartnell (Will), Leo McKern (Benter), Macdonald Parke (Snippe5), Harold Kasket (Pedro), Timothy Bateson (Roger)

'The kind of irrepressible topical satire whose artistic flaws become increasingly apparent but whose merits outlast them.' – Peter John Dyer

Mouth to Mouth

Australia 1978 94m colour
Vega (Jon Sainken)

Two sisters, who squat in a deserted warehouse and live by petty theft and occasional prostitution, form a casual relationship with two young men looking for work.

A dull slice of Melbourne low-life, peopled by no-hopers looking for something to rebel against.

wd John Duigan ph Tom Cowan m Roy Ritchie ad Tracy Watt ed Tony Paterson

☆ Kim Krejus, Sonia Peat, Ian Gilmour, Sergio Frazzetto, Walter Pym, Michael Carman

The Mouthpiece ★★

US 1932 90m bw
Warner (Lucien Hubbard)

A prosecuting counsel successfully turns to defence but becomes corrupt.

A hard-hitting and entertaining melodrama allegedly based on the career of William Fallon, a New York lawyer.

w Joseph Jackson, Earl Baldwin d James Flood, Elliott Nugent ph Barney McGill

☆ Warren William, Sidney Fox, Aline MacMahon, John Wray, Ralph Ince, Guy Kibbee

'First-grade melodrama, a bet for all grades of houses.' – Variety

Le Mouton a Cinq Pattes: see The Sheep Has Five Legs

Move

US 1970 88m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF

A frustrated playwright writes pornography to make money; he moves to a larger apartment but his mind is full of fantasies.

None of which are of much interest to the paying customers, the movie being drenched with self-pity.

w Joel Lieber, Stanley Hart novel Joel Lieber d Stuart Rosenberg

☆ Elliott Gould, Paula Prentiss, Genevieve Waite, John Larch, Joe Silver

Move Over Darling ★★

US 1963 103m DeLuxe Cinemascope
TCF/Arcola/Arwin (Aaron Rosenberg, Marty Melcher)

A wife who has spent five years shipwrecked on a desert island returns to find that her husband has just remarried.

Thin but fitfully amusing remake of My Favorite Wife; sheer professionalism gets it by.

w Hal Kanter, Jack Sher d Michael Gordon ph Daniel L. Fapp m Lionel Newman

☆ Doris Day, James Garner, Polly Bergen, Thelma Ritter, Chuck Connors, Fred Clark

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · ♟ Academy Award · ♗ Academy Award nomination · ♉ BAFTA

Movers and Shakers

US 1985 79m Metrocolor
MGM-UA/BHC (Charles Grodin, William Asher)

A Hollywood writer tries to cope with a difficult project while having personal problems with his wife.
Mishmash of unrealized anecdotes with pauses for studio in-jokes. Despite the talent, it could never have worked, not even under the previously announced title Dreamers.
w Charles Grodin d William Asher
ph Robbie Greenberg m Ken and Mitzie Welch
☆ Walter Matthau, Charles Grodin, Vincent Gardenia, Tyne Daly, Bill Macy, Gilda Radner, Steve Martin, Nita Talbot

'Only occasionally amusing: faces a bleak box-office future.' – Variety

Movie Crazy ★★

US 1932 82m bw
Harold Lloyd

A filmstruck young man is mistakenly invited to Hollywood for a film test.
The silent comedian is not quite at his best in this early sound comedy, but it contains his last really superb sequences and its picture of Hollywood is both amusing and nostalgic.
w Harold Lloyd and others d Clyde Bruckman ph Walter Lundin
☆ Harold Lloyd, Constance Cummings

'A corking comedy, replete with wow belly laughs. Sure-fire.' – Variety

Movie Movie ★★

US 1978 106m bw/colour
ITC (Stanley Donen)

A pastiche of a thirties double bill, including a boxing yarn (Dynamite Hands) and a Busby-Berkeley style girlie show (Baxter's Beauties of 1933).
Unfortunately there weren't enough paying customers to appreciate the spoofs, which are pretty patchy anyway; but golden moments stay in the mind.
w Larry Gelbart, Sheldon Keller d Stanley Donen ph Chuck Rosher Jnr, Bruce Surtees m Ralph Burns ch Michael Kidd
☆ George C. Scott, Trish Van Devere, Red Buttons, Eli Wallach, Michael Kidd, Barbara Harris, Barry Bostwick, Art Carney, Jocelyn Brando

'Camp, which has to do with a switch of vision from one era to another, cannot be created, and where it is, as this and previous attempts testify, it is immediately swallowed in its own idiocy.' – Richard Combs, MFB

Movietone Follies of 1930

US 1930 70m bw
Fox

A rich boy courts a chorus girl, and her friends give a show on his estate.
Thin, fumbling drama which doesn't remember to become a musical till it's halfway through, and even then has little spark.
w William K. Wells d Ben Stoloff
ph William O'Connell md Arthur Kay
☆ El Brendel, Marjorie White, William Collier Jnr, Miriam Seegar, Frank Richardson

Moving

US 1988 89m Technicolor
Warner (Stuart Cornfeld)

A traffic engineer runs into all kinds of trouble when he decides to move his family from New Jersey to Idaho.
Disappointingly predictable comedy, making all the obvious jokes in a leaden way.
w Andy Breckman d Alan Metter
ph Donald McAlpine m Howard Shore
pd David L. Snyder ed Alan Balsam
☆ Richard Pryor, Beverly Todd, Randy Quaid, Dave Thomas, Dana Carvey, Stacey Dash, Gordon Jump, Morris Day

The Moving Target: see Harper

Moving Violation ★

US 1976 91m DeLuxe
TCF/Roger Corman

Small-town teenagers are pursued by the sheriff because they saw him commit a murder.
Old hat suspenser with a smart new line in thrills.
w David R. Osterhout, William Norton
d Charles S. Dubin ph Charles Correll
m Don Leake
☆ Stephen McHattie, Kay Lenz, Eddie Albert, Lonny Chapman, Will Geer

'Probably the most hair-raising pursuit sequences in the history of film.' – Cleveland Amory

Moving Violations

US 1985 90m DeLuxe
Ufland-Roth-IPI-James G. Robinson/TCF

Misadventures of trainee traffic school cops.
Wasn't Police Academy bad enough?
w Neal Israel, Pat Proft d Neal Israel
☆ John Murray, Jennifer Tilly, James Keach, Brian Backer

Mua He Chieu Thang Dung

France/Germany/Vietnam 2000 112m colour
Artificial Eye/Lazennec/Canal+/Arte France/Hang Phim Truyen (Christophe Rossignon)

aka: At the Height of Summer
US title: The Vertical Ray of the Sun
In Hanoi, three sisters, two of them married, come to terms with the men in their life.
Ravisingly photographed domestic drama, set between memorial celebrations of the death of parents, that deals with the pains and pleasures of love and the familiar.
wd Tran Anh Hung ph Mark Lee m Ton That Tiet pd Benoit Barouh ed Mario Battistel
☆ Tran Nu Yen Khe (Lien), Nguyen Nhu Quynh (Suong), Le Khanh (Khanh), Ngo Quang Hai (Hai), Chu Hung (Quoc), Tran Manh Cuong (Kien), Le Tuan Anh (Tuan), Le Ngoc Dung (Huong)

'Beautiful, languorous, passive – it plays like background music for itself.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times

Mua Len Trau: see Buffalo Boy

'A Romantic Comedy For Anyone Who's Ever Been In Love.'

Much Ado about Nothing ★★

GB 1993 111m Technicolor
Samuel Goldwyn/Renaissance (Steven Evans, David Parfitt, Kenneth Branagh)

A man and a woman who have sworn never to marry are tricked into falling in love with each other.
A lively version of Shakespeare's witty romantic comedy, but suffering from some miscasting, plodding direction and rather too much forced jollity to be entirely successful.
wd Kenneth Branagh play William Shakespeare ph Roger Lanser m Patrick Doyle pd Tim Harvey ed Andrew Marcus ☆ Kenneth Branagh, Richard Briers, Michael Keaton, Denzel Washington, Robert Sean Leonard, Keanu Reeves, Emma Thompson, Kate Beckinsale, Brian Blessed, Patrick Doyle, Imelda Staunton, Phyllida Law, Ben Elton

'This isn't the best Shakespeare on film … but it may be the best movie Shakespeare.' – Richard Corliss, Time

'Triumphantly romantic, comic and emotionally alive.' – Vincent Canby, New York Times

'One of the few movies of recent years that could leave audiences weeping for joy.' – David Denby, New York

Much Too Shy

GB 1942 92m bw
Columbia (Ben Henry)

A gormless handyman gets into trouble when the portraits of his lady clients are sold to an advertising agency with nude bodies added to them.
A slightly vulgar and talkative farce which restricts the star.
w Ronald Frankau d Marcel Varnel
ph Arthur Crabtree
☆ George Formby, Kathleen Harrison, Hylda Bayley, Eileen Bennett, Joss Ambler, Jimmy Clitheroe

Muddy River ★

Japan 1981 105m bw
Unifilm/Contemporary/Kimura Productions (Motoyasu Kimura)
original title: Doro No Kawa

Two nine-year-old boys become friends and try to make sense of the adult world around them.
A small and charming story, sharply observed and photographed.
w Takaki Shigemori novel Teru Miyamoto
d Kohei Oguri ph Shohei Ando
m Kuroudo Mori ad Akira Naito
ed Nobuo Ogawa
☆ Nobutaka Asahara, Takahiro Tamura, Yumiko Fujita, Masako Yagi, Minoru Sakurai, Makiko Shibata, Mariko Kaga
best foreign film

Der Müde Tod: see Destiny

The Mudge Boy ★

US 2003 94m colour
First Cold Press (Elizabeth W. Alexander, Alison Benson, Randy Ostrow)

A motherless, sensitive farm boy suffers the derision of his peers and the betrayal of his only friend.
Quirky account of a youth with odd habits – he puts his pet chicken's head in his mouth in order to calm it – but one that displays insight into the emotional vulnerability of adolescence.
wd Michael Burke ph Vanja Cernjul
m Marcelo Zarvos pd David Doernberg
ed Alfonso Goncalves
☆ Emile Hirsch (Duncan Mudge), Thomas Guiry (Perry Foley), Richard Jenkins (Edgar Mudge), Pablo Schreiber (Brent), Zachary Knighton (Travis), Ryan Donowho (Scotty), Meredith Handerhan (Tonya), Beckie King (April)

'Odd and intense, very well acted, and impossible to dismiss.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times

The Mudlark ★★

GB 1950 98m bw
TCF (Nunnally Johnson)

A scruffy boy from the docks breaks into Windsor Castle to see Queen Victoria and ends her fifteen years of seclusion.
A pleasant whimsical legend which could have done without the romantic interest, but which despite an air of unreality provides warm-hearted, well upholstered entertainment for family audiences.
w Nunnally Johnson novel Theodore Bonnet d Jean Negulesco ph Georges Périnal m William Alwyn ad C. P. Norman ☆ Alec Guinness, Irene Dunne, Andrew Ray, Anthony Steel, Constance Smith, Finlay Currie, Edward Rigby

La Muerte de un Burocrata: see Death of a Bureaucrat

Muerte de un Ciclista: see Death of a Cyclist

Mug Town

US 1942 60m bw
Universal

The Little Tough Guys get mixed up with hi-jackers.
A failing entry in this series: the ageing teenagers shortly decided to play for laughs.
w Brenda Weisberg, Harold Tarshis, Harry Sucher and Lewis Amster d Ray Taylor ☆ Billy Halop, Huntz Hall, Bernard Punsley, Gabriel Dell, Grace McDonald, Edward Norris, Jed Prouty

Mùi Du Du Xanh: see The Scent of the Green Papaya

Mujeres al Borde de un Ataque de Nervios: see Women on the Verge of a Nervous Breakdown

Mulan ★

US 1998 88m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Walt Disney (Pam Coats)

A Chinese girl disguises herself as a warrior and rescues the Emperor from the barbarian hordes threatening the country.
An animated film that will no doubt be enjoyed by its target audience; for adults it offers less, despite its attractive style, incorporating something of a Chinese approach to art within the familiar Disney manner.
w Rita Hsiao, Christopher Sanders, Philip Lazebnik, Raymond Singer, Eugenia Bostwick-Singer story Robert D. San Souci
d Barry Cook, Tony Bancroft m Jerry Goldsmith m/ly Matthew Wilder, David Zippel pd Hans Bacher ed Michael Kelly
☆ Featuring the voices of: Ming-Na Wen (singing: Lea Salonga), Eddie Murphy, B. D. Wong (singing: Donny Osmond), Harvey Fierstein, Jerry S. Tondo, Gedde Watanabe (singing: Matthew Wilder), James Hong, Miguel Ferrer, Soon-Tek Oh, Freda Foh Shen, Pat Morita, June Foray (singing: Marni Nixon), George Takei, Miriam Margolyes, James Shigeta, Frank Welker

'Quite likely the first animated cross-dressing action musical.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

'Kids are going to love this movie.' – Observer

Jerry Goldsmith, Matthew Wilder, David Zippel

'A Love Story In The City Of Dreams.'

Mulholland Dr. ★★

US/France 2001 146m FotoKem
Pathé/Alain Sarde/Studio-Canal/Asymmetrical (Mary Sweeney, Alain Sarde, Neal Edelstein, Michael Polaire, Tony Krantz)

aka: Mulholland Drive
A would-be actress goes to Hollywood in search of stardom and finds disappointment, heartbreak and, possibly, death instead.
Based in part on an abortive pilot for a TV series, this recycles too many motifs from Lynch's previous work, from a mysterious dwarf to slipping and shared identities and contrived coincidences. But, showing life as a succession of power struggles, it holds the attention, even if, under the deliberate obfuscation, it seems no more than a trite stripping away of the false tinsel of Hollywood to reveal the real tinsel beneath.

wd David Lynch ph Peter Deming
m Angelo Badalamenti pd Jack Fisk
ed Mary Sweeney cos Amy Stofsky
☆ Justin Theroux (Adam Kesher), Naomi Watts (Betty Elms), Laura Elena Harring (Rita), Ann Miller (Coco Lenoix), Dan Hedaya (Vincenzo Castigliane), Mark Pellegrino (Joe), Brian Beacock (Studio Singer), Robert Forster (Det Harry McKnight)
'Endless tedious mind-rot.' – Barbara Ellen, Times
'Compelling but intentionally inscrutable return of the "weird" David Lynch that will please his hardcore fans even if it has them scratching their heads as well.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety
David Lynch (as director)
Mary Sweeney

'A New Kind Of Law Enforcement.'

Mulholland Falls ★

US 1996 107m DeLuxe
Polygram/MGM/Largo/Zanuck (Richard D. Zanuck, Lili Fini Zanuck)

In Los Angeles in the 50s, four detectives investigate the death of a woman who is linked with work at an atomic test site.
Period thriller that looks better than it plays; it never fully engages an audience's attention, and the ending is unsatisfactory.
w Pete Dexter, Floyd Mutrux d Lee Tamahori ph Haskell Wexler m Dave Grusin pd Richard Sylbert ed Sally Menke
☆ Nick Nolte, Melanie Griffith, Chazz Palminteri, Michael Madsen, Chris Penn, Treat Williams, Jennifer Connelly, Daniel Baldwin, Andrew McCarthy, John Malkovich, Bruce Dern, Ed Lauter
'It will pleasure everyone in love with the old Forties landscape of no-nonsense cynicism that Bogart and Stanwyck sculpted.' – Alexander Walker

'She's always known he's the one. She didn't know he was also the two, the three and the four...'

Multiplicity

US 1996 117m Technicolor Panavision
Columbia (Trevor Albert, Harold Ramis)

A workaholic runs into problems when he clones himself in order to spend more time with his wife and children.
A clever concept, which ought to have resulted in a much funnier comedy instead of this conventional farce, though Keaton does well in differentiating his various roles.
w Chris Miller, Mary Hale, Lowell Ganz, Babaloo Mandel d Harold Ramis ph Laszlo Kovacs m George Fenton
pd Jackson DeGovia ed Pem Herring, Craig Herring
☆ Michael Keaton, Andie MacDowell, Harris Yulin, Richard Masur, Eugene Levy, Ann Cusack, John de Lancie, Brian Doyle-Murray
'Afterwards you can't help wishing you'd got someone else to watch it for you.' – Tom Shone, Sunday Times

'Some towns have all the fun.'

Mumford

US 1999 112m colour
Buena Vista/Touchstone (Charles Okun, Lawrence Kasdan)

A new psychiatrist in town, who attracts many new patients, is not all he seems to be.
Mild and underdeveloped small-town comedy.
wd Lawrence Kasdan ph Ericson Core
m James Newton Howard pd Jon Hutman
ed Carol Littleton, William Steinkamp
☆ Loren Dean (Mumford), Hope Davis (Sofie Crisp), Jason Lee (Skip Skipperton), Alfre Woodard (Lily), Mary McDonnell (Althea Brockett), Pruitt Taylor Vince (Henry Follett), Zooey Deschanel (Nessa Watkins), Martin Short (Lionel Dillard), David Paymer (Dr Ernest Delbanco), Jane Adams (Dr Phyllis Sheeler), Dana Ivey (Mrs Crisp), Kevin Tighe (Mr Crisp)
'It's neither funny, heart-warming nor star-powered enough to motivate the public to turn out in very large numbers.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

'It comes to life!'
'A love story that lived for three thousand years!'

The Mummy ★★

US 1932 72m bw
Universal (Stanley Bergerman)

An Egyptian mummy comes back to life and covets a young girl.
Strange dreamlike horror film with only fleeting frissons but plenty of narrative interest despite the silliest of stories and some fairly stilted acting.
w John L. Balderston d Karl Freund ph Charles Stumar m Tchaikovsky ad Willy Pogany ed Milton Carruth
sp make-up: Jack Pierce
☆ Boris Karloff, Zita Johann, David Manners, Arthur Byron, Edward Van Sloan
'Should show profit despite fairy tale theme.' – Variety
'It beggars description ... one of the most unusual talkies ever produced.' – New York Times
'Editing very much in the Germanic style, magnificent lighting and a superb performance from Karloff make this a fantasy almost without equal.' – John Baxter, 1968
† The star was billed simply as 'Karloff the uncanny'.

The Mummy ★

GB 1959 88m Technicolor
Hammer (Michael Carreras)

A mummy brought back to England by archaeologists wakes up and goes on the rampage.
Typical Hammer vulgarization of a Hollywood legend; starts slowly and unpleasantly, but picks up speed and resource in the last half hour.
w Jimmy Sangster d Terence Fisher
ph Jack Asher m Frank Reizenstein
☆ Peter Cushing, Christopher Lee, Yvonne Furneaux, Eddie Byrne, Felix Aylmer, Raymond Huntley, John Stuart
† Hammer sequels, of little interest, were Curse of the Mummy's Tomb (1964), The Mummy's Shroud (1966) and Blood from the Mummy's Tomb (1971).

'The Legend Rises Again.'

The Mummy ★

US 1999 124m DeLuxe Panavision
Universal/Alphaville (James Jacks, Sean Daniel)

An Egyptian priest, who was mummified alive more than two thousand years previously, is revived when his burial place is discovered by an American explorer.
A tongue-in-the-cheek Boy's Own adventure, which is played mostly for laughs and the occasional shock, and is notable only for its computer-generated special effects.
wd Stephen Sommers ph Adrian Biddle
m Jerry Goldsmith pd Allan Cameron
ed Bob Ducsay sp John Andrew Berton Jnr; Chris Corbould; Nick Dudman ☆ Brendan Fraser, Rachel Weisz, John Hannah, Arnold Vosloo, Kevin J. O'Connor, Jonathan Hyde, Oded Fehr, Erick Avari, Stephen Dunham, Corey Johnson, Tuc Watkins
'Universal's attempt to find gold by bringing to new life one of the mustier items in its vaults is pure hokum and scarcely of the first order.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety
† The film was a box-office success, taking $43.3m in its first three days at the US box-office, the ninth-best opening gross so far. It went on to gross more than $155m at the US box-office.
sound (Leslie Shatz, Chris Carpenter, Rick Kline, Chris Munro)

'Adventure Is Reborn.'

The Mummy Returns

US 2001 129m DeLuxe Panavision
Universal/Alphaville (James Jacks, Sean Daniel)

A young boy discovers in an Egyptian tomb a bracelet that results in the resurrection of the mummy of Imhotep and of his ancient adversary, the Scorpion King, threatening the future of the world.
Woefully unimaginative adventure that is no more than an overblown Saturday morning serial; it shuffles musty narrative artifices, mainly derived from pulp fiction of eighty years ago, and downplays the Mummy in favour of unexciting computer-generated effects.
wd Stephen Sommers ph Adrian Biddle
m Alan Silvestri pd Allan Cameron
ed Bob Ducsay, Kelly Matsumoto
sp Industrial Light & Magic ☆ Brendan Fraser (Rick O'Connell), Rachel Weisz (Evelyn/Nefertiti), John Hannah (Jonathan), Arnold Vosloo (Imhotep), Oded Fehr (Ardeth Bay), Patricia Velasquez (Meela/Anck-Su-Namun), Alex (Freddie Boath), Alun Armstrong (Curator), The Rock (The Scorpion King), Adewale Akinnuoye-Agbaje (Lock-Nah), Shaun Parkes (Izzy)
'May be the least original motion picture ever, and there's a lot of competition for that title these days...This enterprise is to the movies what an average boy band is to pop; just because there's an audience for it doesn't mean it's any good.' – Elvis Mitchell, New York Times
'This follow-up still lacks the wit and elan that would have made this burgeoning series more than a popcorn-picture franchise. But the widescreen here virtually bursts with visual goodies.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety
† The film cost $100m to make. It had the second biggest opening in cinema history, taking $68.1m at the US box-office.

Mummy's Boys

US 1936 68m bw
RKO (Lee Marcus)

Two ditch diggers in Egypt encounter some dirty work by a mad archaeologist.
Ho-hum comedy with tired old gags.
w Jack Townley, Philip G. Epstein, Charles Roberts d Fred Guiol ph Jack MacKenzie md Roy Webb ☆ Bert Wheeler, Robert Woolsey, Barbara Pepper, Moroni Olsen, Willie Best
'Poorly acted, raggedly written ... net result of the dialogue is about four snickers.' – Variety

'Egypt's ancient loves live again in evil!'

The Mummy's Curse

US 1945 62m bw
Universal (Oliver Drake)

Sequel to The Mummy's Ghost (qv), notable for many loose ends of narrative.
Last of the Universal mummy films (until Abbott and Costello met him).
w Bernard Schubert d Leslie Goodwins
☆ Peter Coe, Martin Kosleck, Kay Harding, Kurt Katch, Virginia Christine, Lon Chaney Jnr
'This film contains the most nauseous horror imaginable and is not for the squeamish.' – MFB † See also Abbott and Costello Meet the Mummy.

'Nameless! Fleshless! Deathless!'

The Mummy's Ghost

US 1944 60m bw
Universal (Ben Pivar)

The slow but unstoppable Kharis is now on the trail of his long-lost princess.
A slight improvement on its predecessor, The Mummy's Tomb.
w Griffin Jay, Henry Sucher, Brenda Weisberg d Reginald LeBorg ph Virgil Miller md Paul Sawtell
☆ John Carradine, George Zucco, Ramsay Ames, Robert Lowery, Barton MacLane, Lon Chaney Jnr

'Tomb of a thousand terrors!'

The Mummy's Hand ★★

US 1940 67m bw
Universal (Ben Pivar)

The high priest of an evil sect revivifies an Egyptian mummy and uses it to kill off members of an archaeological expedition.
Semi-sequel to 1932's The Mummy, economically using the same flashback. It starts off in comedy vein, but the last half hour is among the most scary in horror film history.
w Griffin Jay, Maxwell Shane d Christy Cabanne ph Elwood Bredell ☆ Dick Foran, Wallace Ford, George Zucco, Cecil Kellaway, Peggy Moran, Tom Tyler, Eduardo Ciannelli
† Sequels, of decreasing merit, were The Mummy's Tomb (1942) (in which the heroes of The Mummy's Hand are killed off), The Mummy's Ghost (1944) and The Mummy's Curse (1944). See also Abbott and Costello Meet the Mummy.

'Buried alive for 3700 years! Brought back to live, love and kill!'
'Beware the beat of the cloth-wrapped feet!'

The Mummy's Shroud

GB 1966 84m Technicolor
Hammer (Anthony Nelson-Keys)

In the twenties, an exhumed mummy brought to the city museum is restored to life and slaughters those who disturbed his rest.

Uninventive rehash of every other mummy movie; too hackneyed to be saved even by a good cast and production values.
wd John Gilling ph Arthur Grant m Don Banks
☆ John Phillips, André Morell, David Buck, Elizabeth Sellars, Catherine Lacey, Maggie Kimberley, Michael Ripper, Tim Barrett, Roger Delgado, Dickie Owen

'Eyes That Crawl With Madness! Hands That Creep Like Cobras!'

The Mummy's Tomb

US 1942 61m bw
Ben Pivar/Universal

The aged high priest sends a young disciple to America, where Kharis dutifully kills off those who violated his tomb.
Shoddily made sequel to The Mummy's Hand, with much re-used footage; astonishingly, it broke box-office records for its year, and provoked two more episodes.
w Griffin Jay, Henry Sucher d Harold Young ph George Robinson ad Jack Otterson ed Milton Carruth
☆ Turhan Bey, George Zucco, Dick Foran, Wallace Ford, Elyse Knox, Lon Chaney Jnr

Mumsy, Nanny, Sonny and Girly

GB 1969 102m Eastmancolor
CIRO/Brigitte (Ronald J. Kahn)

aka: Girly
Two adolescents bring home lonely people as playthings for a homicidal family.
Revolting black comedy for masochists, representing the British cinema at its lowest ebb.
w Brian Comport play Maisie Mosco d Freddie Francis ph David Muir m Bernard Ebbinghouse ☆ Michael Bryant, Ursula Howells, Pat Heywood, Howard Trevor, Vanessa Howard

Münchausen ★★

Germany 1943 134m Agfacolor
UFA (Eberhard Schmidt)
aka: The Adventures of Baron Münchausen
In the 1940s Baron Münchausen tells stories of his fabulous ancestor who, it is soon clear, is himself, having been given immortality by a magician.
Lavish but somewhat stilted spectacle, produced on the orders of Nazi propagandist Joseph Goebbels to mark the studio's twenty-fifth anniversary. His influence is evident in the way that all other nationalities are shown as comic.
w Berthold Bürger (Erich Kästner) d Josef von Baky ph Werner Krien m Georg Haentzschel ad Emil Hasler, Otto Gulstorff
☆ Hans Albers, Wilhelm Bendow, Michael Bohnen, Marina von Ditmar, Hans Brausewetter, Brigitte Horney, Käthe Haack
† Kästner used a pseudonym because his writings had been banned since 1933. After the film was released, Hitler ordered that he should receive no further commissions.

'The world was watching in 1972 as 11 Israeli athletes were murdered at the Munich Olympics. This is the story of what happened next.'

Munich ★★ 6

US/Canada 2005 164m Fujicolor
DreamWorks/Amblin/Alliance Atlantis (Kathleen Kennedy, Steven Spielberg, Barry Mendel, Colin Wilson)

A team of Israeli agents is assembled to assassinate those responsible for the massacre of Israeli athletes at the Olympic Games in Munich in 1972.
As a thriller, this works well for much of its excessive length; but as a meditation on the morality of revenge and the political implications of acts of assassination, it hardly rises above the banal.
w Tony Kushner, Eric Roth book Vengeance by George Jonas d Steven Spielberg ph Janusz Kaminski m John Williams pd Rick Carter ed Michael Kahn
☆ Eric Bana (Avner), Daniel Craig (Steve), Ciaran Hinds (Carl), Mathieu Kassovitz (Robert), Hanns Zischler (Hans), Ayelet Zurer (Daphna), Geoffrey Rush (Ephraim), Michael Lonsdale (Papa)
'All the film does is add another tallish tale to the deadlocked mythology of the Middle East, and all the controversies will do is stoke its sense of earnestness, which has to be its least appealing aspect.' – Anthony Lane, New Yorker
'Overlong, psychologically unfocused, thematically devious and curiously anachronistic in its crypto-pacifism.' – Andrew Sarris, New York Observer
'Audiences will weigh "Munich" and find it wanting – wanting involving characters and economical storytelling, for starters.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety † See also One Day in September.
♗ picture; Steven Spielberg; Tony Kushner, Eric Roth; John Williams; Michael Kahn

Munkbrogreven: see The Count of the Old Town

The Muppet Christmas Carol ★

US 1992 86m colour
Buena Vista/Walt Disney/Jim Henson (Brian Henson, Martin G. Baker)

A Christmas-hating miser is reformed by the visitations of five ghosts.
Cheerful adaptation of the perennial story, in a version that should appeal to the young.
w Jerry Juhl story A Christmas Carol by Charles Dickens d Brian Henson ph John Fenner m Miles Goodman m/ly Paul Williams pd Val Strazovec ed Michael Jablow sp The Computer Film Company
☆ Michael Caine, Steven MacKintosh, Meredith Brown, Robin Weaver, Kermit the Frog, Miss Piggy, The Great Gonzo, Fozzie Bear
'The film sinks into a quagmire of sentimentality; the Muppets withdraw discreetly during Scrooge's ghostly visitations and the dominant flavour is more saccharine than humbug. Nice try, though.' – Sheila Johnston, Independent

'More entertainment than humanly possible!'

The Muppet Movie ★★

GB 1979 97m Eastmancolor
ITC (Jim Henson)

Kermit the Frog and friends travel across America to Hollywood and are offered a film contract by Lew Lord, the famous impresario.
Technically an adroit transfer of the celebrated puppets from their TV backstage milieu to a wider canvas; but the latter tends to dwarf them, the material is very variable, the guest stars look embarrassed and the show goes on too long.
w Jerry Juhl, Jack Burns d James Frawley ph Isidore Mankofsky m Paul Williams, Kenny Ascher pd Joel Schiller
☆ Charles Durning, Edgar Bergen, Bob Hope, Milton Berle, Mel Brooks, James Coburn, Dom DeLuise, Elliott Gould, Cloris Leachman, Telly Savalas, Orson Welles
♗ Paul Williams, Kenny Ascher; song 'The Rainbow Connection'

Muppet Treasure Island

US 1996 99m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Walt Disney/Jim Henson (Martin G. Baker, Brian Henson)

The adventures of an orphan who is given a map to buried pirate treasure and sets sail to find it.
A rollicking, unmemorable musical treatment of an oft-told tale which has some difficulty accommodating the story to its Muppet characters: Miss Piggy appears as Benjamina Gunn, Fozzie Bear is Squire Trelawney and Kermit becomes Captain Smollett.
w Jerry Juhl, Kirk R. Thatcher, James V. Hart novel Robert Louis Stevenson d Brian Henson ph John Fenner m Hans Zimmer m/ly Barry Mann, Cynthia Weil pd Val Strazovec ed Michael Jablow
☆ Tim Curry, Kevin Bishop, Steve Whitmire, Frank Oz, Billy Connolly, David Goelz, Jennifer Saunders
'A breezily entertaining yet old-fashioned brew.' – Empire

'The Ultimate Muppet Trip.'

Muppets from Space

GB/US 1999 88m DeLuxe
Columbia/Jim Henson Pictures (Brian Henson, Martin G. Baker)

Gonzo discovers he is an alien and that his relatives are coming to take him home.
Lacklustre movie with few jokes and unexciting action that concentrates on one of the least charismatic of Henson's creations.
w Jerry Juhl, Joseph Mazzarino, Ken Kaufman d Tim Hill ph Alan Caso m Jamshied Sharifi ch Toni Basil pd Stephen Marsh ed Michael A. Stevenson, Richard Pearson ☆ Jeffrey Tambor (K. Edgar Singer), F. Murray Abraham (Noah), Rob Schneider (TV Producer), Josh Charles (Agent Barker), Ray Liotta (Gate Guard), David Arquette (Dr Tucker), Andie MacDowell (Shelley Snipes), Kathy Griffin (Armed Guard), Pat Hingle (General Luft), Hollywood Hogan (Man in Black) and also voices of: Dave Goelz, Steve Whitmire, Bill Barretta, Jerry Nelson, Brian Henson, Kevin Clash, Frank Oz
'Ploddingly whimsical caper.' – Entertainment Weekly
'The movie peaks very early, and never quite regains its early momentum until the end. But even in its slackest moments you've been put in such a good mood you can let them get away with the occasional lapse.' – Lee Binding, Film Review

The Muppets Take Manhattan ★

US 1984 94m Technicolor
Tri-Star (David Lazer)

The Muppets' varsity show is promised a New York opening.
Probably the best of the Muppet features, but by the time of its arrival the early brilliance had been forgotten and even Miss Piggy had worn out her welcome.
w Frank Oz, Tom Patchett, Jay Tarses d Frank Oz ph Bob Paynter m Ralph Burns
☆ Dabney Coleman, Art Carney, James Coco, Joan Rivers, Gregory Hines, Linda Lavin
♗ Jeffrey Moss (music)

Le Mur: see The Wall

La Mura de Malapaga: see Au delà des Grilles

Murder ★★

GB 1930 92m bw
British International (John Maxwell)

A girl is convicted of murder, but one of the jurors sets out to prove her innocent.
Interesting early Hitchcock, a rare whodunnit for him.
w Alma Reville novel Enter Sir John by Clemence Dane, Helen Simpson d Alfred Hitchcock ph Jack Cox
☆ Herbert Marshall, Norah Baring, Phyllis Konstam, Edward Chapman, Miles Mander, Esmé Percy, Donald Calthrop
'If Hitchcock produced in Hollywood and was wise enough to keep his films to six or seven reels, he might be a rave anywhere.' – Variety

Murder Ahoy

GB 1964 74m bw
MGM (Lawrence P. Bachmann)

Miss Marple investigates murders on a naval cadet training ship.
Weakest of the Marple mysteries: all chat and no interest.
w David Pursall, Jack Seddon d George Pollock ph Desmond Dickinson m Ron Goodwin ad Bill Andrews ed Ernest Walter ☆ Margaret Rutherford (Miss Marple), Lionel Jeffries (Capt. Rhumstone), Stringer Davis (Mr Stringer), Charles Tingwell (Det. Insp. Craddock), William Mervyn (Breeze-Connington), Joan Benham (Matron Alice Fanbraid), Nicholas Parsons (Dr Crump), Miles Malleson (Bishop), Henry Oscar (Lord Rudkin), Derek Nimmo (Humbert), Francis Matthews (Compton), Gerald Cross (Brewer)

Murder among Friends

US 1941 61m bw
Ralph Dietrich-Walter Morosco/TCF

Subscribers to a 200,000-dollar insurance policy die one by one.
Pleasingly efficient supporting mystery.
w John Larkin d Ray McCarey
☆ John Hubbard, Marjorie Weaver, Cobina Wright Jnr, Mona Barrie, Douglass Dumbrille, Sidney Blackmer, Lucien Littlefield, Milton Parsons

'This address changes all the rules'

Murder at 1600

US 1997 107m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Monarchy/Regency (Arnold Kopelson, Arnon Milchan)

A detective who investigates the murder of the mistress of the President's son in the White House discovers a conspiracy that threatens the nation.
Dull and unconvincing thriller, lacking both mystery and suspense.
w Wayne Beach, David Hodgin d Dwight Little ph Steven Bernstein m Christopher Young pd Nelson Coates ed Billy Weber, Leslie Jones
☆ Wesley Snipes (Detective Harlan Regis), Diane Lane (Nina Chance), Daniel Benzali (Nick Spikings), Dennis Miller (Detective Stengel), Alan Alda (Alvin Jordan), Ronny Cox (President Jack Neil), Diane Baker (Kitty Neil), Tate Donovan (Kyle Neil), Mary Moore (Carla Town), Harris Yulin
'A trashy movie that's intermittently intriguing and enjoyable on its own terms.' – Emanuel Levy, Variety

Murder at Monte Carlo

GB 1934 70m bw
Warner (Irving Asher)

A professor is murdered for his roulette system.

Modest second feature notable only as a springboard for the career of its star.

w John Hastings Turner, Michael Barringer novel Tom Van Dyke d Ralph Ince ph Basil Emmott

☆ Errol Flynn, Eve Gray, Paul Graetz, Molly Lamont, Ellis Irving

Murder at the Baskervilles: see Silver Blaze

'By the first lady of mystery – with the last word in detectives!'

Murder at the Gallop ★

GB 1963 81m bw
MGM (George H. Brown)

Miss Marple investigates when an old man is apparently frightened to death by a cat.

Probably the best of the Marples, with a good sense of place and lively performances.

w James P. Cavanagh novel After the Funeral by Agatha Christie d George Pollock ph Arthur Ibbetson m Ron Goodwin ad Frank White

☆ Margaret Rutherford, Flora Robson, Robert Morley, Stringer Davis, Charles Tingwell, Duncan Lamont, James Villiers, Robert Urquhart, Katya Douglas Murder at the Vanities ★

US 1934 95m bw
Paramount (E. Lloyd Sheldon)

Murder backstage at the first night of Earl Carroll's Vanities.

Curious, stylish mixture of musical numbers, broad comedy and mystery. Dated, but fun.

w Carey Wilson, Joseph Gollomb, Sam Hellman d Mitchell Leisen ph Leo Tover md Rudolph Kopp songs Arthur Johnston, Sam Coslow

☆ Jack Oakie, Victor McLaglen, Carl Brisson, Kitty Carlisle, Dorothy Stickney, Gertrude Michael, Jessie Ralph, Gail Patrick

'Above average and for the masses ... long but does not drag.' – Variety

'It can boast lavish staging, tuneful melodies, and a host of attractive girls.' – New York Times

Murder at the Windmill

GB 1949 70m bw
Daniel Angel and Nat Cohen
US title: Murder at the Burlesque

At London's famous girlie show, a front row patron is murdered.

Rather rushed-looking whodunnit with interesting detail.

wd Val Guest ph Bert Mason md Phillip Martell

☆ Garry Marsh, Jack Livesey, Jon Pertwee, Diana Decker, Jimmy Edwards, Eliot Makeham Murder by Contract ★

US 1958 81m bw
Columbia/Orbin (Leon Chooluck)

A professional killer makes a fatal mistake and is shot down by police.

Low-budgeter which seemed stark and original at the time, but television has familiarized its contents. Moody, contrasty photography and restrained style give it a minor distinction.

w Ben Simcoe d Irving Lerner ph Lucien Ballard m Perry Botkin

☆ Vince Edwards, Philip Pine, Herschel Bernardi, Caprice Toriel

'Ice cold and completely unsentimental.' – John Gillett

'A bloody funny movie!'

Murder by Death ★

US 1976 94m Metrocolor
Columbia/Ray Stark

Several (fictional) detectives are invited to stay at the home of a wealthy recluse, and mystery and murder follow.

Sometimes thin but generally likeable spoof of a longstanding genre; the stars seize their opportunities avidly, and the film does not outstay its welcome.

w Neil Simon d Robert Moore ph David M. Walsh m Dave Grusin pd Stephen Grimes

☆ Peter Falk, Alec Guinness, Peter Sellers, Truman Capote, Estelle Winwood, Elsa Lanchester, Eileen Brennan, James Coco, David Niven, Maggie Smith, Nancy Walker

'Plenty of scene-stealing actors but not many scenes worth stealing.' – Michael Billington, Illustrated London News

'Polished performances fail to compensate for a vacuous and frustratingly tortuous plot.' – Sight and Sound

'It seems to me that if you haven't watched the real Thin Man and the real Bogie in the real Maltese Falcon you won't see the joke; and if you have watched them, the joke is not good enough.' – Dilys Powell, Sunday Times

Murder by Decree

GB/Canada 1978 112m Metrocolor
Avco/Decree Productions/Saucy Jack (René Dupont, Bob Clark)

Sherlock Holmes investigates the matter of Jack the Ripper and comes upon a Masonic conspiracy.

Interminably long and unpardonably muddled variation on this over-familiar theme, with halts for the performances of guest artists and no clear grip on narrative or character.

w John Hopkins d Bob Clark ph Reginald H. Morris m Carl Zittrer, Paul Zaza pd Harry Pottle

☆ Christopher Plummer, James Mason, Anthony Quayle, David Hemmings, Susan Clark, John Gielgud, Donald Sutherland, Frank Finlay, Geneviève Bujold

Murder by Illusion: see Fix

'Let The Mind Games Begin.'

Murder by Numbers

US 2002 120m Technicolor
Warner/Castle Rock (Barbet Schroeder, Susan Hoffman, Richard Crystal)

A tough cop suspects two high-school students of committing a random murder.

An unconvincing star vehicle of startling unoriginality.

w Tony Gayton d Barbet Schroeder ph Luciano Tovoli m Clint Mansell pd Stuart Wurtzel ed Lee Percy

☆ Sandra Bullock (Cassie Mayweather), Ryan Gosling (Richard Haywood), Michael Pitt (Justin Pendleton), Agnes Bruckner (Lisa Mills), Chris Penn (Ray), R. D. Call (Captain Rod Cody), Ben Chaplin (Sam Kennedy)

'Endeavors to turn the standard murder-mystery formula inside out but ends up making it even more boring and predictable than usual.' – Andrew O'Hehir, Salon.com

Murder by Television

US 1935 60m bw
Edward M. Spitz/Imperial

The inventor of a television process is murdered.

Static whodunnit with the star as twin brothers. Only a curio.

w Joseph O'Donnell d Clifford Sanforth ph Arthur Reed m Oliver Wallace

☆ Bela Lugosi, June Collyer, Huntley Gordon, George Meeker

Murder by the Clock

US 1931 76m bw
Paramount

Creepy goings on in an old house after the death of a dowager who has built herself a tomb from which she can escape if buried alive.

Tasteless chiller which had the distinction of being withdrawn from British circulation after public protests.

w Henry Myers, Rufus King, Charles Beahan play Charles Beahan novel Rufus King d Edward Sloman ph Karl Struss

☆ Lilyan Tashman, William 'Stage' Boyd, Regis Toomey, Irving Pichel, Blanche Frederici, Walter McGrail

'Lacking in punch as a strongie for first runs. Below that should do oke.' – Variety

Murder Can Be Deadly: see The Painted Smile

Murder Goes to College

US 1937 77m bw
Paramount

A reporter on vacation helps solve a campus killing.

Reasonably lively comedy mystery which might have started a series, but didn't.

w Brian Marlow, Eddie Welch, Robert Wyler novel Kurt Steele d Charles Reisner

☆ Roscoe Karns, Lynne Overman, Marsha Hunt, Astrid Allwyn, Harvey Stephens, Larry Crabbe

'Dialogue crackles with humour ... this whodunit will be welcome material on many programmes.' – Variety

'You'll die laughing!'

Murder He Says ★★

US 1945 91m bw
Paramount (E. D. Leshin)

An insurance salesman stays with a homicidal family of hillbillies.

A curious black farce which seems to be compounded of Cold Comfort Farm and The Red Inn. Very funny, and ahead of its time.

w Lou Breslow d George Marshall ph Theodor Sparkuhl

☆ Fred MacMurray, Marjorie Main, Helen Walker, Peter Whitney, Jean Heather, Porter Hall, Mabel Paige

Murder in a Blue World: see Una Gota De Sangre Para Morir Amando

'What If The Perfect Crime Was All In Your Mind?'

Murder in Mind

US/GB 1996 85m CFI color
Lakeshore/Evergreen/BBC/Alva/Storyteller (Vicki Slotnick, Jeremy Paige)

A psychiatrist who uses hypnotic techniques is called in by the police to examine a woman accused of murdering her wealthy husband.

Tricksy thriller that betrays its stage origins, relying entirely on narrative twists to maintain interest and distract attention from its implausibilities.

w Michael Cooney play Michael Cooney d Andrew Morahan ph John Aranson m Paul Buckmaster pd Ben Morahan ed Andrea MacArthur

☆ Nigel Hawthorne, Mary Louise Parker, Jimmy Smits, Gailard Sartain, Jason Scott Lee

Murder in Reverse

GB 1945 88m bw
British National

After long imprisonment for a supposed murder, a convict comes out and hunts down the victim, who isn't really dead.

A reasonable crime entertainment of its day which seemed to introduce a new star; but it hasn't worn well.

wd Montgomery Tully novel Austin Small ph Ernest Palmer m Hans May

☆ William Hartnell, Jimmy Hanley, Chili Bouchier, John Slater, Dinah Sheridan, Wylie Watson

Murder in the Big House

US 1942 67m bw
Warner

Two reporters uncover a murder ring in a prison.

Acceptable second feature which catapulted its star to fame – at another studio.

w Raymond Schrock d B. Reeves Eason

☆ Van Johnson, George Meeker, Faye Emerson, Frank Wilcox

† A previous 1936 version was called Jailbreak and starred Craig Reynolds. Murder in the Big House was reissued in 1945 as Born for Trouble.

Murder in the Blue Room

US 1944 61m bw
Frank Gross/Universal

Volunteering to sleep in a room where a murder was committed, a guest is found dead.

Tepid remake of The Secret of the Blue Room.

w I. A. L. Diamond, Stanley Davis d Leslie Goodwins

☆ Anne Gwynne, Donald Cook, John Litel, Grace McDonald, June Preisser, Regis Toomey

Murder in the Cathedral

GB 1951 136m bw
Film Traders/George Hoellering

The 12th-century struggle between Henry II and his archbishop culminates in the assassination of Becket in Canterbury Cathedral.

Plainly filmed, slightly amateur version of the celebrated verse play; scarcely a rewarding cinematic experience.

wd George Hoellering play T. S. Eliot ph David Kosky m Laszlo Lajtha ad Peter Pendrey

☆ Father John Grosner, Alexander Gauge, David Ward, George Woodbridge, Basil Burton, Paul Rogers, Niall MacGinnis, Mark Dignam, Leo McKern

'A curious ordeal for the audience ... a no-man's-land between cinema and drama has been discovered, rather than any extension of either.' – Gavin Lambert

Murder in the Family

GB 1938 75m bw
TCF

Who killed rich Aunt Octavia?

Mild whodunnit with interesting cast.

w David Evans novel James Ronald d Al Parker

☆ Barry Jones, Jessica Tandy, Evelyn Ankers, Donald Gray, David Markham, Glynis Johns, Roddy McDowall

'One Broke His Silence. The Other Broke The System'

Murder in the First ★

US 1995 122m Foto-Kem
Guild/Canal/Wolper (Marc Frydman, Mark Wolper)

In the early 40s, a young lawyer defends on a murder charge a prisoner who spent three years in solitary confinement in Alcatraz and exposes the brutalities of the system.
Effective and powerful courtroom drama, with some good performances; yet right and wrong are so clearly delineated from the opening scenes that there is no tension, apart from that supplied by the nervy camerawork.
w Dan Gordon d Marc Rocco ph Fred Murphy m Christopher Young pd Kirk M. Petruccelli ed Russell Livingstone
☆ Christian Slater, Kevin Bacon, Gary Oldman, Embeth Davidtz, Bill Macy, Stephen Tobolowsky, Brad Dourif, Mia Kirshner, Kyra Sedgwick

'From among the flotsam of prison movie clichés emerges a flawed but stirring piece of entertainment.' – Empire

Murder in the Fleet

US 1935 70m bw
MGM (Lucien Hubbard)

Sabotage on a navy cruiser turns out to be the work of a mad inventor.
Weak and confused mixture of melodrama and comedy.
wd Edward Sedgwick ph Milton Krasner
☆ Robert Taylor, Jean Parker, Jean Hersholt, Ted Healy, Una Merkel, Nat Pendleton, Raymond Hatton, Donald Cook, Mischa Auer

Murder in the Music Hall

US 1946 84m bw
Republic (Herman Millakowsky)
reissue title: Midnight Melody

A former criminal, now Broadway producer, is murdered on opening night.
Humdrum extravaganza built round its star, whose last skating appearance this was.
w Frances Hyland, Laszlo Gorog d John English ph John Alton md Walter Scharf ☆ Vera Hruba Ralston, William Marshall, Helen Walker, Nancy Kelly, William Gargan, Ann Rutherford, Julie Bishop, Jerome Cowan, Edward Norris, Paul Hurst, Jack La Rue

Murder in the Private Car ★

US 1934 60m bw
Lucien Hubbard/MGM
GB title: Murder on the Runaway Train

Mysteries proliferate aboard a fast-moving train.
Adequate second feature which builds up to a remarkably well-staged climax in a runaway carriage.
w Ralph Spence, Edgar Allan Woolf, Al Boasberg, Harvey Thew d Harry Beaumont
☆ Russell Hardie, Charles Ruggles, Mary Carlisle, Una Merkel, Porter Hall

'About the swiftest 61 minutes of entertainment you are ever likely to see.' – Picturegoer

The Murder in Thornton Square: see Gaslight (1944)

Murder in Times Square

US 1943 72m bw
Columbia

An actor-playwright is suspected of four theatrical murders.
Standard detection work with some slight claim to sophistication.
w Stuart Palmer, Paul Gangelin d Lew Landers
☆ Edmund Lowe, Sidney Blackmer, Marguerite Chapman, John Litel

Murder in Trinidad

US 1934 74m bw
Fox

A quiet detective solves a murder in the tropics.
Modest whodunnit with Nigel Bruce for once playing the sleuth instead of Watson.
w Seton I. Miller novel John W. Vandercook d Louis King ☆ Nigel Bruce, Heather Angel, Victor Jory, Murray Kinnell, Douglas Walton, J. Carrol Naish

'Amusing, but not particularly intriguing.' – Variety

Murder Inc: see The Enforcer

Murder, Incorporated

US 1960 103m bw Cinemascope
TCF (Burt Balaban)

In the thirties, Anastasia and Lepke build up their crime syndicate which spreads terror through New York.
Tedious and poorly made gangster thriller, unforgivable faults considering the many admirable models it has to follow.
w Irv Tunick, Mel Barr d Burt Balaban, Stuart Rosenberg ph Gayne Rescher m Frank de Vol
☆ Stuart Whitman, May Britt, Henry Morgan, Peter Falk, David J. Stewart, Simon Oakland, Morey Amsterdam
Peter Falk

Murder Is News: see The Delavine Affair

The Murder Man ★

US 1935 84m bw
MGM (Harry Rapf)

A reporter investigating a murder becomes one of the suspects.
Good low-key melodrama with an interesting cast.
w Tim Whelan, John C. Higgins d Tim Whelan ph Lester White m William Axt ☆ Spencer Tracy, Virginia Bruce, Lionel Atwill, James Stewart, Harvey Stephens, William Collier Snr

'It will please in the lesser houses.' – Variety

Murder Most Foul

GB 1964 91m bw
MGM/Lawrence P. Bachmann (Ben Arbeid)

Refusing to return a guilty verdict, juror Miss Marple makes her own murder investigation backstage at a third-rate repertory company.
Moderate Marple mystery which hasn't quite found the light touch it seeks.
w David Pursall, Jack Seddon novel Mrs McGinty's Dead by Agatha Christie d George Pollock ph Desmond Dickinson m Ron Goodwin ed Ernest Walter
☆ Margaret Rutherford, Ron Moody, Charles Tingwell, Andrew Cruickshank, Megs Jenkins, Ralph Michael, James Bolam, Stringer Davis, Francesca Annis, Dennis Price, Terry Scott

Murder My Sweet: see Farewell My Lovely (1944)

The Murder of Dr Harrigan

US 1935 67m bw
Warner

A hospital founder disappears while on his way to the operating room.
Formula murder mystery without much special interest.
w Peter Milne, Sy Bartlett novel Mignon G. Eberhart d Frank McDonald
☆ Kay Linaker, Ricardo Cortez, Mary Astor, John Eldredge, Joseph Crehan, Frank Reicher

'Will probably do no better than mildly.' – Variety

Murder on a Honeymoon

US 1935 74m bw
RKO (Kenneth Macgowan)

When a passenger dies on a holiday flight, a schoolmistress is convinced that it is murder.
Deft little comedy thriller that has acquired a period charm.
w Seton I. Miller, Robert Benchley story Puzzle of the Pepper Tree by Stuart Palmer d Lloyd Corrigan ph Nick Musuraca md Alberto Colombo ad Van Nest Polglase, Perry Ferguson ed William Morgan
☆ Edna May Oliver, James Gleason, Lola Lane, Chick Chandler, George Meeker, Dorothy Libaire, Morgan Wallace, Leo G. Carroll
† It was the third, and last, film in the Hildegarde Withers series starring Edna May Oliver, following on from Penguin Pool Murder and Murder on the Blackboard (qqv).

Murder on Diamond Row: see The Squeaker

Murder on Monday: see Home at Seven

Murder on the Blackboard

US 1934 72m bw
RKO (Kenneth Macgowan)

When the music teacher is murdered at her school, Hildegarde Withers helps the police with their enquiries.
Pleasant little mystery, with some enjoyable exchanges between Gleason's inspector and Oliver's tart-tongued teacher.
w Willis Goldbeck story Stuart Palmer d George Archainbaud ph Nick Musuraca md Max Steiner ad Van Nest Polglase, Albert D'Agostino ed Archie F. Marsheck
☆ Edna Mae Oliver, James Gleason, Bruce Cabot, Gertrude Michael, Regis Toomey, Tully Marshall, Fredrik Vogeding, Edgar Kennedy
† It was the second film in the Hildegarde Withers series. See also: Penguin Pool Murder, Murder on a Honeymoon.

Murder on the Orient Express ★★

GB 1974 131m Technicolor
EMI/GW Films (John Brabourne, Richard Goodwin)

In the early thirties, Hercule Poirot solves a murder on a snowbound train.
Reasonably elegant but disappointingly slackly-handled version of a classic mystery novel. Finney overacts and his all-star support is distracting, while as soon as the train chugs into its snowdrift the film stops moving too, without even a dramatic 'curtain'.
w Paul Dehn novel Agatha Christie d Sidney Lumet ph Geoffrey Unsworth m Richard Rodney Bennett pd Tony Walton
☆ Albert Finney, Ingrid Bergman, Lauren Bacall, Wendy Hiller, Sean Connery, Vanessa Redgrave, Michael York, Martin Balsam, Richard Widmark, Jacqueline Bisset, Jean-Pierre Cassel, Rachel Roberts, George Coulouris, John Gielgud, Anthony Perkins and also Colin Blakely, Jeremy Lloyd, Denis Quilley

'Audiences appear to be so hungry for this type of entertainment that maybe it hardly matters that it isn't very good.' – Judith Crist
Ingrid Bergman
Paul Dehn; Geoffrey Unsworth; Richard Rodney Bennett; Albert Finney
Richard Rodney Bennett; John Gielgud; Ingrid Bergman

Murder She Said ★

GB 1961 87m bw
MGM (George H. Brown)

An elderly spinster investigates after seeing a woman strangled in a passing train.
Frightfully British and disappointingly tame adaptation of an Agatha Christie character, with only the star (who is somewhat miscast) holding one's attention.
w David Pursall, Jack Seddon novel 4.50 from Paddington by Agatha Christie d George Pollock ph Geoffrey Faithfull m Ron Goodwin ed Ernest Walter ☆ Margaret Rutherford, Charles Tingwell, Muriel Pavlow, Arthur Kennedy, James Robertson Justice, Thorley Walters, Gerald Cross, Conrad Phillips
† Thanks to Miss Rutherford's popularity, three increasingly poor sequels were made: Murder at the Gallop (qv) (1963), Murder Most Foul (qv) (1964), Murder Ahoy (qv) (1964).

Murder Will Out: see The Voice of Merrill

Murder without Crime

GB 1950 76m bw
ABPC

A blackmailer extracts money for a crime not yet committed.
Thin four-hander from a rather mysterious West End success.
wd J. Lee-Thompson play Double Error by J. Lee-Thompson ph William McLeod m Philip Green
☆ Dennis Price, Derek Farr, Joan Dowling, Patricia Plunkett

The Murderer Lives at 21: see L'Assassin habite au 21

The Murderers Are Among Us*

Germany 1947 87m bw
Defa
original title: Die Mörder Sind Unter Uns

In the ruins of Berlin several post-war characters indulge in gloomy self-examination.
Almost a caricature of what one would expect from a defeated people, this now-curious item has a certain power of its own.
wd Wolfgang Staudte ph Friedl Behn-Grund, Eugen Klagemann m Ernst Roters ☆ Hildegard Knef, Ernst Fischer, Arno Paulsen

'It is sombre, slow, intense, tragically moving and in common with the post-war Italian films as true as it can be to the surrounding reality. It would seem that only the impoverished and defeated can focus the camera lens on life.' – Richard Winnington

Murderer's Row

US 1966 108m Technicolor
Columbia/Meadway-Claude/Euan Lloyd

Matt Helm tracks down an international villain who has kidnapped an inventor.
Witless and uninventive spy spoof which drags itself wearily along but never attempts an explanation of its own title.
w Herbert Baker novel Donald Hamilton d Henry Levin ph Sam Leavitt m Lalo Schifrin

☆ Dean Martin, Ann-Margret, Karl Malden, Camilla Sparv, James Gregory, Beverly Adams, Tom Reese

'The blood will run cold in your veins!'

Murders in the Rue Morgue ★

US 1932 62m bw
Universal (Carl Laemmle Jnr)

A series of grisly murders prove to be the work of a trained ape.
A distant relation of the original story, mildly interesting for its obvious Caligari influences, but not very good in any way.
w Tom Reed, Dale Van Every, John Huston story Edgar Allan Poe d Robert Florey ph Karl Freund ed Milton Carruth
☆ Bela Lugosi, Sidney Fox, Leon Ames, Bert Roach, Brandon Hurst

'Synthetic studio rewrite ... Poe wouldn't recognize his story.' – Variety

'Where sights of passion end in screams of terror!'

Murders in the Rue Morgue ★

US 1971 86m Foto Film Color
AIP (Louis M. Heyward)

Poe's story is being presented at a Grand Guignol theatre in Paris, and when murders happen within the company Inspector Vidocq comes to investigate.
Playfully plotted chiller which has more to do with The Phantom of the Opera than with Poe. A good time-waster for addicts.
w Charles Wicking, Henry Slesar d Gordon Hessler ph Manuel Berengier m Waldo de Los Rios
☆ Jason Robards Jnr, Herbert Lom, Lilli Palmer, Adolfo Celi, Michael Dunn, Christine Kaufmann

Murders in the Zoo

US 1933 64m bw
Paramount

A jealous zoologist finds interesting ways to murder any man who shows interest in his wife.
Modest time-passer with a rampant star.
w Philip Wylie, Seton I. Miller d A. Edward Sutherland ph Ernest Haller ☆ Lionel Atwill, Charles Ruggles, Kathleen Burke, John Lodge, Randolph Scott, Gail Patrick

'Has what it takes to chill and entertain.' – Variety

Muriel ★

France/Italy 1963 116m Eastmancolor
Argos/Alpha/Eclair/Films de la Pléiade/Dear Films (Anatole Dauman)

aka: Muriel, ou le Temps d'un Retour
A widow and her stepson are both misled by memories of past loves.
Elusive character drama which, though over-generous in length, fails to satisfy.
w Jean Cayrol d Alain Resnais ph Sacha Vierny m Hans Werner Henze ☆ Delphine Seyrig, Jean-Pierre Kérien, Nita Klein, Jean-Baptiste Thierrée

'One has to watch and listen with every nerve alert.' – Tom Milne, MFB

Muriel, ou le Temps d'un Retour: see Muriel

'A Story of Love, Laughter and the Pursuit of Matrimony.'

Muriel's Wedding ★

Australia 1994 105m colour
Buena Vista/CIBY 2000/AFFC (Lynda House, Jocelyn Moorhouse)

A fat, unhappy 22-year-old, the butt of her companions, robs her father and sets out to enjoy herself and find a husband.
Enjoyable, rumbustious soap opera, poking fun at small-time political corruption and the small-town desire for marriage at any cost, though it offers little that is positive and the constant presence of Abba on the soundtrack does little for its feel-good qualities.
wd P. J. Hogan ph Martin McGrath
m Peter Best pd Patrick Reardon ed Jill Bilcock
☆ Toni Collette, Bill Hunter, Rachel Griffiths, Jeanie Drynan, Gennie Nevinson, Matt Day, Daniel Lapaine, Sophie Lee, Chris Haywood

'The film would be more convincing in poking fun at the world of soap opera if it didn't reach for the instant dramas of illness and breakdown, cancer and kleptomania in such a soapy way.' – Adam Mars-Jones, Independent
'Provides a nicely vicious portrait of Australian suburban life, with its young people aiming to be as much like their peers as possible and the older generation piously performing moral somersaults to justify their tepid respectability.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

† The film won the 1994 Australian Film Institute awards for best film, best actress (Toni Colette), best supporting actress (Rachel Griffiths), and sound.

Murmur of the Heart: see Le Souffle au Coeur

Un Muro de Silencio: see Black Flowers

Murph the Surf: see Live a Little, Steal a Lot

Murphy's Law

US 1986 100m TVC Color
Cannon (Pancho Kohner)

A tough LA cop with a drink problem is arrested for his ex-wife's murder.
Unattractively violent and foul-mouthed urban thriller in the wake of Dirty Harry.
w Gail Morgan Hickman d J. Lee Thompson ph Alex Phillips m Marc Donahue, Valentine McCallum
☆ Charles Bronson, Carrie Snodgress, Kathleen Wilhoite, Robert F. Lyons, Richard Romanus

Murphy's Romance

US 1985 107m Metrocolor Panavision
Columbia/Martin Ritt-Fogwood (Laura Ziskin)

A divorcée determined to make a living as a horse trainer in rural Arizona falls for the ageing local chemist.
Well-meaning but somewhat yawnworthy romantic comedy-drama which might almost have strayed from the days of the Hardy family.
w Harriet Frank Jnr, Irving Ravetch
d Martin Ritt ph William A. Fraker
m Carole King pd Joel Schiller
☆ Sally Field, James Garner, Brian Kerwin, Corey Haim

'Sweet and homey, but falls far short of compelling film-making.' – Variety
James Garner; photography

Murphy's War ★

GB 1971 108m Eastmancolor Panavision
Hemdale/Yates-Deeley (Michael Deeley)

A torpedoed British merchantman in Venezuela devotes himself to bombing a U-boat from a home-made plane.
Modest adventure story with the star in better form than the script.
w Stirling Silliphant novel Max Catto
d Peter Yates ph Douglas Slocombe
m John Barry
☆ Peter O'Toole, Sian Phillips, Philippe Noiret, Horst Janson

'Korea's Biggest Ever Motion Picture.'

Musa ★

South Korea 2001 157m colour Super-35
CJ Entertainment/KTB/Sidus (Cho Min-hwan, Zhang Xia)

GB title The Warrior
In the 14th century, exiled Korean diplomats and soldiers try to win favour with the Chinese court by rescuing a princess and fighting their way across the desert to safety.
Epic adventure, with some factual basis, that begins slowly but works up to an impressive climax in a beleaguered fort.
wd Kim Sung-su ph Kim Hyung-ku
m Shiro Sagisu ad Xiao Huoting ed Kim Hyun martial arts director Jung Du-hong ☆ Ahn Sung-ki (Sgt Jin-lip), Jung Woo-sung (Yeo-sol), Ju Jin-mo (Gen Choi Jung), Princess Furong (Zhang Ziyi), Yu Rongguang (Yuan General), Park Jung-hak (Lt Ga-nam), Park Yong-woo (Ju-myung, the Interpreter)

'Crammed with incident and oaths, it nevertheless falls short of epic grandeur.' – Ed Park, Village Voice

† The Region 2 Collector's Edition DVD includes the original Korean movie and a version dubbed into English.

Musashi Miyamoto: see Samurai I: Musashi Miyamoto

Muscle Beach Party

US 1964 94m Pathecolor Panavision
AIP (James H. Nicholson, Robert Dillon)

A fickle, rich Italian widow falls for a teenage surfer and plans to make him a star, to the annoyance of his friends, whose beach has been invaded by body-builders.
Tiresome comedy of teenage bonding, one of the many pumped out in the mid-60s and marked by banal plot, dialogue and songs, though providing brief employment for some ageing actors and comedians.
w Robert Dillon d William Asher ph Harold Wellman m Les Baxter
m/ly Roger Christian, Gary Usher, Brian Wilson, Guy Hemric, Jerry Styner
ad Lucius Croxton ed Eve Newman, Fred Feitshans
☆ Frankie Avalon, Annette Funicello, Luciana Paluzzi, John Ashley, Don Rickles, Peter Turgeon, Jody McCrea, Dick Dale and the Del Tones, Candy Johnson, Morey Amsterdam, Buddy Hackett, Little Stevie Wonder, Peter Lorre

† It was a sequel to Beach Party and was followed by Bikini Beach and Pajama Party (qqv).

'If You Want A Leg Up In Hollywood, It's Time You Met...'

The Muse ★★

US 1999 96m DeLuxe
Entertainment/October (Herb Nanas)

A Hollywood screenwriter in trouble meets a woman claiming to be a daughter of Zeus, who offers to inspire him providing that he indulges her every whim.
Sourly amusing take on what constitutes success and failure in Hollywood, though slackly directed.
w Albert Brooks, Monica Johnson
d Albert Brooks ph Thomas Ackerman
m Elton John pd Dina Lipton ed Peter Teschner
☆ Albert Brooks (Steven Philips), Sharon Stone (Sarah), Andie MacDowell (Laura Phillips), Jeff Bridges (Jack Warrick), Mark Feuerstein (Josh Martin), Steven Wright (Stan Spielberg), Bradley Whitford (Hal), Mario Opinato (European Man), Dakin Matthews (Dr Jacobson), Concetta Tomei (Nurse Rennert)

'Brooks will always be funny; but, if anything, his own muse deserts him here, revealing a man with a cynical view of the town he works in.' – Bob McCabe, Empire

† Cybill Shepherd, Lorenzo Lamas, Jennifer Tilly, Rob Reiner, James Cameron and Martin Scorsese appear as themselves.

Mushrooms

Australia 1994 93m colour
J.A.M./AFFC/Rosen-Harper

The ageing widows of two fences have problems when a police sergeant becomes a lodger at the same time as a violent criminal seeks refuge in their house.
Gruesome black comedy, done with a certain style, but likely to be best enjoyed by cannibals.
wd Alan Madden ph Louis Irving m Paul Grabowsky pd George Liddle ed Henry Dangar
☆ Julia Blake, Simon Chilvers, Lynette Curran, Brandon Burke, George Shevtsov, Boris Brkic

Music and Lyrics

US/Australia 2007 104m
Warner Bros/Castle Rock Entertainment/Reserve Room (Liz Glotzer, Martin Shafer)

A washed-up '80s pop star enlists his maid's help to write his comeback song.
The pleasure of seeing Hugh Grant ape George Michael isn't enough to sustain a formulaic romantic comedy that could have used some fine tuning at the script stage.
wd Marc Lawrence ph Xavier Perez Grobet
m Adam Schlesinger pd Jane Musky
ad Patricia Woodbridge ed Susan E. Morse
☆ Hugh Grant (Alex Fletcher), Drew Barrymore (Sophie Fisher), Brad Garrett (Chris Riley), Kristen Johnson (Rhonda), Campbell Scott (Sloan Cates), Haley Bennett (Cora Corman)

ALEX: 'I have great insight. I'd use it on myself only I don't have any problems.'

'The melody might be familiar, but Grant and Barrymore keep this catchy rom-com humming along agreeably.' – Michael Rechtshaffen, Hollywood Reporter

The Music Box ★★★★

US 1932 30m bw
Hal Roach

Two delivery men take a piano to a house at the top of a flight of steps.
Quintessential Laurel and Hardy, involving almost all their aspects including a slight song and dance. With Billy Gilbert.
w H. M. Walker d James Parrott best short

'As a lawyer all she wanted was the truth. As a daughter all she wanted was his innocence. How well do you really know your father?'

Music Box ★

US 1989 126m colour Cinemascope
Guild/Carolco (Irwin Winkler)

A lawyer defends her father against charges that he was a war criminal.
An effectively melodramatic courtroom

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA drama, but no more than that, despite winning the Golden Bear at the Berlin Film Festival in 1990.

w Joe Eszterhas d Costa-Gavras
ph Patrick Blossier m Philippe Sarde
pd Jeannine Claudia Oppewall ed Joelle Van Effenterre ☆ Jessica Lange, Armin Mueller-Stahl, Frederic Forrest, Donald Moffat, Lukas Haas, Cheryl Lynn Bruce, Mari Torocsik, J. S. Block, Sol Frieder
♗ Jessica Lange

Music for Madame
US 1937 81m bw
RKO (Jesse L. Lasky)
An opera singer goes to Hollywood and becomes the dupe of jewel thieves.
Tolerable star musical with rather stale comedy elements.
w Gertrude Purcell, Robert Harari d John G. Blystone ☆ Nino Martini, Joan Fontaine, Alan Mowbray, Erik Rhodes, Alan Hale, Billy Gilbert, Grant Mitchell, Lee Patrick
'Seems that Nino just can't make the grade as a film star.' – Variety

Music for Millions ★
US 1944 117m bw
MGM (Joe Pasternak)
A small girl helps her pregnant sister who is a member of José Iturbi's orchestra.
Dewy-eyed wartime musical, full of popular classics, sentimentality and child interest, all smoothly packaged. As an example of what the public wanted in 1944, quite an eye-opener.
w Myles Connolly d Henry Koster
ph Robert Surtees md George Stoll
☆ Margaret O'Brien, June Allyson, José Iturbi, Jimmy Durante, Marsha Hunt, Hugh Herbert, Harry Davenport, Connie Gilchrist
♗ Myles Connelly

Music Hath Charms ★
GB 1935 70m bw
BIP (Walter C. Mycroft)
A dance band's broadcast has various effects on listeners.
Pleasing, modest portmanteau of sketches with music.
w L. du Garde Peach, Jack Davies Jnr d Thomas Bentley, Alexander Esway, Walter Summers, Arthur Woods ph Horace Wheddon, Jack Cox, Bryan Langley, Otto Kanturek ad Clarence Elder ed J. Corbett
☆ Henry Hall and his Orchestra, Carol Goodner, W. H. Berry, Arthur Margetson, Antoinette Cellier, Billy Milton

Music in Darkness: see Music Is My Future

Music in Manhattan
US 1944 81m bw
RKO
A Broadway actress is rumoured to be secretly married to a war hero, much to the annoyance of her fiancé.
A minor musical that gets up a little comic steam until the unmemorable songs cool it down.
w Lawrence Kimble story Maurice Tombragel, Hal Smith, Jack Scholl d John H. Auer ph Russell Metty m Leigh Harline m/ly Herb Magidson, Lew Pollack
☆ Anne Shirley, Dennis Day, Phillip Terry, Raymond Walburn, Jane Darwell, Patti Brill, Nino Menendez, Charlie Barnet, Jason Robards

Music in My Heart
US 1940 70m bw
Columbia
An alien singer wins the lead in a Broadway musical, which prevents him from being deported.
Forgettable second feature which was its leading lady's last stepping stone before stardom.
w James Edward Grant d Joseph Santley
☆ Rita Hayworth, Tony Martin, Edith Fellows, Alan Mowbray, George Tobias, Eric Blore, André Kostelanetz and his orchestra
♗ song 'It's a Blue World' (m/ly Chet Forrest, Bob Wright)

Music in the Air
US 1934 85m bw
Fox (Erich Pommer)
An opera singer is torn between two men.
Heavy-going light entertainment.
w Howard Young, Billy Wilder play Oscar Hammerstein II, Jerome Kern d Joe May ph Ernest Palmer
☆ Gloria Swanson, John Boles, Douglass Montgomery, June Lang, Al Shean, Reginald Owen, Joseph Cawthorn, Hobart Bosworth
'Mild operetta of class appeal, which limits its b.o. sturdiness.' – Variety

Music Is Magic
US 1935 67m bw
TCF
By a series of unexpected events, a young girl becomes a Hollywood star.
Unpretentious and fairly snappy musical which still provides moments to enjoy.
w Edward Eliscu, Lou Breslow d George Marshall ☆ Alice Faye, Bebe Daniels, Ray Walker, Frank Mitchell, Jack Durant, Hattie McDaniel
'One of those flighty affairs that will have trouble getting past the dual barricade.' – Variety

Music Is My Future ★
Sweden 1948 85m bw
Terrafilm (Lorens Marmstedt)
original title: Musik i Mörker
aka: Music In Darkness, Night is My Future
Blinded in an accident, a young pianist forms a relationship with a poor girl.
Saved from its persistent sentimentality by occasional stringency, it survives as an early example of a developing talent.
w Dagmar Edquist novel Dagmar Edquist d Ingmar Bergman ph Göran Strindberg m Erland von Koch ad P. A. Lundgren ed Lennart Wallén
☆ Mai Zetterling, Birger Malmsten, Olaf Winnerstrand, Naima Wifstrand, Bibi Skoglund, Hilda Borgström, Douglas Hage, Gunnar Björnstrand, Bengt Eklund
'My fourth film became a modest success, thanks to Lorens Marmstedt's wisdom, thoughtfulness and patience ... It was he who taught me how to make films.' – Ingmar Bergman, The Magic Lantern

'The story of a homosexual who married a nymphomaniac!'

The Music Lovers ★
GB 1970 123m Eastmancolor
Panavision
UA/Rossfilms (Roy Baird)
Homosexual composer Tchaikovsky is impelled to marry, loses his sponsor, drives his wife into an asylum and dies of cholera.
Absurd fantasia on the life of a great composer, produced in a manner reminiscent of MGM's sillier musicals; up to a point hysterically (and unintentionally) funny, then rather sickening.
w Melvyn Bragg book Beloved Friend by C. D. Bowen, Barbara von Meck d Ken Russell
ph Douglas Slocombe md André Previn
☆ Richard Chamberlain, Glenda Jackson, Christopher Gable, Max Adrian, Isabella Telezynska, Maureen Pryor, Andrew Faulds
'Tchaikovsky has been made the excuse for a crude melodrama about sex.' – Konstantin Bazarov
'Libellous not only to the composer but to his music.' – Roger Ebert

The Music Man ★★★
US 1962 151m Technirama
Warner (Morton da Costa)
A confidence trickster persuades a small-town council to start a boys' band, with himself as the agent for all the expenses.
Reasonably cinematic, thoroughly invigorating transference to the screen of a hit Broadway musical. Splendid period 'feel', standout performances, slight sag in second half.
w Marion Hargrove book Meredith Willson d Morton da Costa ph Robert Burks md Ray Heindorf ch Onna White ad Paul Groesse ed William Ziegler songs Meredith Willson
☆ Robert Preston (Harold Hill), Shirley Jones (Marian Paroo), Buddy Hackett (Marcellus Washburn), Hermione Gingold (Eulalie MacKechnie Shinn), Pert Kelton (Mrs. Paroo), Paul Ford (Mayor Shinn)
'This is one of those triumphs that only a veteran performer can have; Preston's years of experience and his love of performing come together joyously.' – Pauline Kael
† Robert Preston, who originated the part on Broadway, was only offered the film role after Cary Grant had turned it down.
♫ 'Rock Island'; Iowa Stubborn'; 'Ya Got Trouble'; '76 Trombones'; 'Pick-a-Little, Talk-a-Little'; 'The Sadder But Wiser Girl'; 'Wells Fargo'; 'Will I Ever Tell You?'; 'It's You'; 'Being in Love'; 'Till There Was You'
♟ Ray Heindorf
♗ best picture

The Music of Chance ★
US 1993 97m Foto-Kem
Feature film/I.R.S. Media/American Playhouse
(Frederick Zollo, Dylan Sellers)
Two millionaires force two poker players, who lose all their money in a game, to work off the debt by remaining on their estate and building a wall.
A good-looking, well-acted, minimalist, lightweight drama of men trapped by their own greed.
w Philip Haas, Belinda Haas novel Paul Auster d Philip Haas m Philip Johnston pd Hugo Luczyc-Wyhowski ed Belinda Haas
☆ James Spader, Mandy Patinkin, M. Emmet Walsh, Charles Durning, Joel Grey, Samantha Mathis, Christopher Penn
'A lean, convincing fable in the tradition of Kafka, Borges and Pinter.' – Philip French, Observer

'She gave them a gift they could never imagine. They gave the system a fight it would never forget.'

Music of the Heart ★
US 1999 124m DeLuxe
Miramax (Marianne Maddalena, Susan Kaplan, Allan Miller, Walter Scheuer)
Abandoned by her husband, a mother of two small children becomes a noted children's violin teacher; when her work is threatened by cuts in funding, she organises a charity concert at Carnegie Hall.
A heartening true life story re-told without much subtlety or finesse; Craven goes unashamedly for tears as he more usually does for shocks.
w Pamela Gray documentary Small Wonders by Allan and Lana Miller d Wes Craven ph Peter Deming m Mason Daring pd Bruce Miller ed Patrick Lussier
☆ Meryl Streep (Roberta Guaspari), Aidan Quinn (Brian Sinclair), Angela Bassett (Janet Williams), Cloris Leachman (Isabel Vasquez), Josh Pais (Dennis), Jay O. Sanders (Dan), Charlie Hofheimer (Nick), Kieran Culkin (Lexi), Michael Angarano (Nick (7)), Henry Dinhofer (Lexi (5))
'A gloriously sentimental true-life drama in which Meryl Streep offers another indelible portrayal.' – David Stratton, Variety † Isaac Stern, Itzhak Perlman, and Arnold Steinhardt appear as themselves.
♗ Meryl Streep; song 'Music of My Heart' (m/l Diane Warren)

The Music Room ★★
India 1958 100m bw
Satyajit Ray Productions original title: Jalsaghar
An elderly and reclusive aristocratic connoisseur of music stages a magnificent musical evening in his crumbling palace as a gesture of defiance at the modern world.
Elegant, small-scale work of a man destroying himself through his obsessive pride.
wd Satyajit Ray story Tarasankar Banerjee
ph Subrata Mitra m Vilayat Khan
ad Bansi Chandragupta ed Dulal Dutta
☆ Chhabi Biswas, Padman Devi, Pinaki Sen Gupta, Gangapada Bose
'A deeply felt, extremely tedious film. On the one hand its western derivations are patent (the Greek-revival mansion no more than the Chekhovian theme). On the other hand its chief indigenous element, the Indian music, is simply uncongenial and tiresome to our ears. No doubt these are excellent musical performances for those who understand them, but they make us start counting the bulbs in the theater chandelier.' – Stanley Kauffman
'A great, flawed, maddening film – hard to take but probably impossible to forget. It's often crude and it's poorly constructed, but it's a great experience.' – Pauline Kael
† The film was hampered by casting an unmusical actor in the leading role.

The Music Teacher ★
Belgium 1988 98m Fujicolour
Mainline/RTBF/K2-One (Alexandre Pletser) original title: Le Maître de Musique
Protégées of two rival singing teachers engage in a contest.
Resolutely old-fashioned drama, done with a certain style.
w Gérard Corbiau, André Corbiau story Luc Jabon, Gérard Corbiau d Gérard Corbiau ph Walther Van Den Ende
m Ronald Zollman ad Zouc Lanc
ed Denise Vindevogel
☆ José Van Dam, Anne Roussel, Philippe Volter, Sylvie Fennec, Patrick Bauchau, Johan Leysen, Marc Schreiber
'Verbal and visual clichés provide the setting for a selection of popular operatic gems. Culture of this kind makes gun-

reaching Goerings of us all.' – Philip French, Observer
best foreign film

Musik I Mörker: see Music Is My Future

Musíme Si Pomáhat: see Divided We Fall

'As You've Never Seen It Before'

The Musketeer

US 2001 105m Technicolor
Universal/Miramax/D'Artagnan/Apollomedia/Q&Q/Carousel (Moshe Diamant)

D'Artagnan becomes involved in a political struggle for France when he sets out to avenge his parents' death.
Dire version of the familiar story, with a dull hero, unspeakable dialogue, overblown supporting performances and Hong Kong-styled martial arts to sabotage any sense of period.
w Gene Quintano novel The Three Musketeers by Alexandre Dumas d Peter Hyams ph Peter Hyams m David Arnold pd Philip Harrison ed Terry Rawlings fight choreography Xin-Xin Xiong ☆ Justin Chambers (D'Artagnan), Catherine Deneuve (The Queen), Mena Suvari (Francesca), Stephen Rea (Cardinal Richelieu), Tim Roth (Febre), Bill Treacher (Bonacieux), Daniel Mesguich (Louis XIII), David Schofield (Rochefort)
'If this is Dumas, there's a "b" in the middle and an extra "s" at the end.' – Mike Clark, USA Today
'Belongs to the school of new-style adventure movies that confuse visual energy with visual coleslaw.' – Stephen Holden, New York Times

Muss 'em Up

US 1936 70m bw
RKO/Pandro S. Berman

A cop with a Philo Vance complex routs out gangsters.
Competent crime programmer.
w Erwin Gelsey, James Edward Grant d Charles Vidor ☆ Preston Foster, Margaret Callahan, Alan Mowbray, Ralph Morgan, Guinn Williams, Maxie Rosenbloom 'Enough comedy and other values to make it fairly passable fare.' – Variety

Mustang Country

US 1976 79m Technicolor
Universal (John Champion)

In 1925 Montana, a rancher comes out of retirement to help to round up a wild stallion.
Mild outdoor yarn for family audiences.
wd John Champion ph J. Barry Herron m Lee Holdridge ☆ Joel McCrea, Nika Mina, Robert Fuller, Patrick Wayne

The Mutations

GB 1974 92m Eastmancolor
Columbia/Getty (Robert D. Weinbach)

A bio-chemist uses circus freaks in his experiments to find the perfect synthesis of plant and animal.
Tasteless horror film with little style of any kind.
w Robert D. Weinbach, Edward Mann d Jack Cardiff ph Paul Beeson m Basil Kirchin
☆ Donald Pleasence, Tom Baker, Brad Harris, Julie Ege, Michael Dunn, Scott Antony, Jill Haworth, Lisa Collings
'Bloody awful!' – Julie Ege

Mute Witness ★★

GB 1995 90m colour
Columbia TriStar/Cobblestone (Alexander Buchman, Norbert Soentgen, Anthony Waller)

In a Moscow film studio, a mute make-up artist is locked in at night and witnesses the filming of a real-life murder.
Tense, darkly comic chase thriller that maintains an exciting level of suspense and plays some clever tricks along the way.
wd Anthony Waller ph Egon Werdin m Wilbert Hirsch pd Matthias Kammermeir ed Peter Adam ☆ Mary Sudina, Fay Ripley, Evan Richards, Oleg Jankowskij, Igor Volkow, Sergei Karlenkov, Alec Guinness
'A seductive piece of real filmmaking that should keep audiences hyperventilating to the last reel.' – Variety

Mutiny

US 1952 77m Technicolor
King Brothers/United Artists

During the war of 1812, an American ship runs the English blockade to collect gold bullion from France.
Fairly lively swashbuckler.
w Philip Yordan, Sidney Harmon d Edward Dmytryk ph Ernest Laszlo m Dimitri Tiomkin ☆ Mark Stevens, Angela Lansbury, Patric Knowles, Gene Evans, Rhys Williams

Mutiny in the Big House

US 1939 83m bw
Monogram

A chaplain is at the centre of a prison break, and tries to calm the mob.
Archetypal cellblock movie, and not the worst of them.
w Robert D. Andrews, Martin Mooney d William Nigh
☆ Charles Bickford, Barton MacLane
'Will edge toward the profit side of the ledger for the pop-pricers.' – Variety

The Mutiny of the Elsinore

GB 1937 79m bw
Argyle British

A reporter on a sailing ship for a story finds himself in the middle of a mutiny.
Very studio-bound seafaring adventure.
w Walter Summers and Beaufoy Milton novel Jack London d Roy Lockwood ph Bryan Langley m Guy Jones
☆ Paul Lukas, Lyn Harding, Kathleen Kelly, Clifford Evans

'They'll take this town by storm ... fighting, laughing, loving, breaking every law of the seven seas!'

Mutiny on the Bounty ★★★

US 1935 135m bw
MGM (Irving Thalberg, Albert Lewin)

An 18th-century British naval vessel sets off for South America but during a mutiny the captain is cast adrift and the mutineers settle in the Pitcairn Islands.
A still-entertaining adventure film which seemed at the time like the pinnacle of Hollywood's achievement but can now be seen to be slackly told, with wholesale pre-release editing very evident. Individual scenes and performances are however refreshingly well-handled.
w Talbot Jennings, Jules Furthman, Carey Wilson book Charles Nordhoff, James Hall d Frank Lloyd ph Arthur Edeson m Herbert Stothart ad Cedric Gibbons, Arnold Gillespie ed Margaret Booth
☆ Charles Laughton (Capt. William Bligh), Clark Gable (1st Mate Fletcher Christian), Franchot Tone (Roger Byam), Movita (Tehani), Dudley Digges (Bacchus), Henry Stephenson (Sir Joseph Banks), Donald Crisp (Burkitt), Eddie Quillan (Ellison), Francis Lister (Capt. Nelson), Spring Byington (Mrs. Byam), Ian Wolfe (Maggs)
BLIGH (CHARLES LAUGHTON): 'Casting me adrift 3,500 miles from a port of call! You're sending me to my doom, eh? Well, you're wrong, Christian. I'll take this boat, as she floats, to England if I must. I'll live to see you – all of you – hanging from the highest yardarm in the British fleet...'
'Nothing to stand in the way of a box office dynamite rating.' – Variety
'Incidents are made vivid in terms of the medium – the swish and pistol crack of the lash, the sweating lean bodies, the terrible labour, and the ominous judgment from the quarterdeck.' – Otis Ferguson
best picture
script; Frank Lloyd; Herbert Stothart; Charles Laughton; Clark Gable; Franchot Tone (whose role was originally to have been played by Robert Montgomery); Margaret Booth

Mutiny on the Bounty

US 1962 185m Technicolor Ultra Panavision 70
MGM/Arcola (Aaron Rosenberg)

Overlong and unattractive remake marred principally by Brando's English accent and various production follies, not to mention his overlong and bloody death scene.
The shipboard sadism still works pretty well, but after the landing in Tahiti boredom takes over.
w Charles Lederer d Lewis Milestone ph Robert Surtees m Bronislau Kaper ☆ Trevor Howard, Marlon Brando, Richard Harris, Hugh Griffith, Tarita, Richard Haydn, Percy Herbert, Duncan Lamont, Gordon Jackson, Chips Rafferty, Noel Purcell best picture; Robert Surtees; Bronislau Kaper; Song 'Follow Me' (m Bronislau Kaper, ly Paul Francis Webster)

Mutiny on the Buses

GB 1972 89m Technicolor
MGM-EMI/Hammer (Ronald Wolfe, Ronald Chesney)

A bus driver, who is trying to raise the money to get married, finds his life complicated by his incompetent out-of-work brother-in-law and a fierce new depot manager.
Dreadful, broad slapstick comedy, based on a TV sitcom, with jokes that are both feeble and heavy-handed.
w Ronald Wolfe, Ronald Chesney d Harry Booth ph Mark McDonald m Ron Grainer md Philip Martell ad Scott MacGregor ed Archie Ludski
☆ Reg Varney (Stan Butler), Doris Hare (Mrs Butler), Anna Karen (Olive), Michael Robbins (Arthur), Bob Grant (Jack), Stephen Lewis (Inspector Blake), Pat Ashton (Nora), Janet Mahoney (Susy), Caroline Dowdeswell (Sandra), Kevin Brennan (Mr Jenkins), Bob Todd (New Inspector), David Lodge (Safari Guide)
'Shot in the same flat, one-dimensional style as its predecessor and appears even more hard up for humour.' – Paul Madden, MFB
† It was a sequel to On the Buses (qv).

Mutual Appreciation ★

US 2006 109m bw
Diffusion/Miracle (Ethan Vogt, Morgan Faust, Dia Sokol)

A singer-songwriter heads for New York after his group disbands, trying to make a musical career for himself.
The same elements as in Bujalski's first film Funny Ha Ha (qv): an ultra-low budget, with painfully inarticulate twentysomething characters trying to make their way in the world, and drifting through a series of largely inconclusive events. It's amusing, though on occasions the quirkiness and incessant mumbling can wear a little thin.
wd Andrew Bujalski ph Matthias Grunsky ed Andrew Bujalski
☆ Justin Rice (Alan Peoples), Rachel Clift (Ellie), Andrew Bujalski (Lawrence), Seung-Min Lee (Sara)
'Every scene in Bujalski's films is a little awkward, and just right.' – Tim Robey, Daily Telegraph

Muyeong Geom: see Shadowless Sword

My Ain Folk ★★★

GB 1973 55m bw
Connoisseur/BFI (Nick Nascht)

Following the death of his maternal grandmother, a boy is reluctantly taken in by his father's mother until he goes away to an orphanage.
Stark account of narrow and damaged lives, told with an intense sympathy.
wd Bill Douglas ph Gale Tattersall ed Peter West ☆ Stephen Archibald (Jamie), Hughie Restorick (Tommy), Jean Taylor Smith (Grandmother), Bernard McKenna (Tommy's Father), Mr Munro (Jamie's Grandad), Paul Kermack (Jamie's Father), Helena Gloag (Father's Mother), Jessie Combe (Father's Wife)
'A very considerable work of art, more profound, more terrible and ultimately more inspiring than My Childhood, all of whose virtues it shares.' – Elizabeth Sussex, MFB
† The second part of an autobiographical trilogy that began with My Childhood and was completed by My Way Home (qqv).

My American Cousin ★

Canada 1985 95m Alpha Cine
Borderline/Okanagan/Peter O'Brian

In the summer of 1959, a 12-year-old girl falls for her blond Californian cousin when he arrives in his red Cadillac on a visit to her home in British Columbia.
Gently nostalgic film of family life and mild teenage rebellion, with a rock soundtrack.
wd Sandy Wilson ph Richard Leiterman ad Phil Schmidt ed Haida Paul ☆ Margaret Langrick, John Wildman, Richard Donat, Jane Mortifee, T. J. Scott, Camille Henderson, Darsi Bailey, Allison Hale, Samantha Jocelyn
† The film won Canadian Genie awards for best film, director, screenplay, editing, actress (Margaret Langrick), and actor (John Wildman).

My American Uncle ★★★

France 1980 126m Eastmancolor
Andrea Films/TF1 (Philippe Dussart)

original title: Mon Oncle Américain
Professor Henri Laborit explains the lives of two men and a woman in terms of animal behaviour.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Fascinatingly assembled but basically pessimistic dissection of human life, in the director's most meticulous style. The American uncle is the piece of good luck which may be just around the corner (but probably isn't).
w Jean Gruault books Henri Laborit d Alain Resnais ph Sacha Vierny m Arié Dzierlatka ed Albert Jurgenson ☆ Gérard Depardieu (Rene Ragueneau), Nicole Garcia (Janine Garnier), Roger Pierre (Jean Le Gall), Henri Laborit (Himself)
'Fine, funny new French comedy… immensely good-humored and witty.' – Vincent Canby 🎗 screenplay

My Angel ★ ④

France / Belgium 2006 92m
Parasol Peccadillo/Victoire Prods / MK2 (Claude Ossard / Marin Karmitz)
French theatrical: Mon Ange
At his mother's behest, a teenage boy is collected from an orphanage by a good-hearted hooker who wants to get pregnant. This ill-assorted pair hit the road across Belgium and the Netherlands, each confronting personal demons en route.
This first film from writer Serge Frydman demonstrates considerable visual flair and decent performances by Paradis and Rottiers, but is let down by a contrived, meandering script.
wd Serge Frydman ph Vilko Filac m Colin Towns pd Pierre-François Limbosch
☆ Vanessa Paradis (Colette), Vincent Rottiers (Billy), Eduardo Noriega (Romain), Eric Ruf (Kovarski)
† Written specifically for Paradis (her first screen role in six years) after they worked together on Frydman's script for The Girl on the Bridge by Patrice Leconte.

'The secret life of architectural genius Louis Kahn.'

My Architect ★★ ⑧

US 2003 116m colour
Louis Kahn Project (Susan Rose Behr, Nathaniel Kahn)
Documentary on the life of architect Louis Kahn, who died bankrupt and alone in 1974.
Nathaniel Kahn attempts to discover more about the life and work of the father he briefly knew – he was 11 when his father died – in a film that is as interesting for what it also reveals about him.
wd Nathaniel Kahn ph Bob Richman m Joseph Vitarelli ed Sabine Krayenbuehl ☆ Nathaniel Kahn (narrator)
'Whimsical mix of nostalgia, self-pity and amateur opportunism.' – James Christopher, Times
'For gripping drama and suspense, there are few fictional movies that can hold a candle to Mr Kahn's odyssey through time and space.' – Andrew Sarris

My Beautiful Laundrette ★

GB 1985 97m colour
Working Title/SAF/Channel 4 (Sarah Radclyffe, Tim Bevan)
A young south London Asian manages his uncle's launderette and falls for a white racist boy.
Made for TV, but fashionable enough to get critical acclaim and cinema distribution, this soft-centred anecdote was a bit of a puzzle to those neither Asian nor homosexual.
w Hanif Kureishi d Stephen Frears ph Oliver Stapleton m Ludus Tonalis ☆ Saeed Jaffrey, Roshan Seth, Daniel Day-Lewis, Gordon Warnecke, Shirley Anne Field, Rita Wolf
🎗 best original screenplay

My Best Friend ★

France/Italy 2006 94m
Optimum/Fidelité/Wild Bunch/TFI (Olivier Delbosc, Marc Missonnier)
French theatrical title: Mon meilleur ami
Italian theatrical title: Il mio migliore amico
For a bet, a curmudgeonly Parisian antiques dealer has 10 days to produce a best friend. A laid-back taxi-driver becomes an unlikely front-runner.
Slight, lightweight comedy, with Auteuil reinforcing his reputation as France's Cary Grant with a performance of grumpy charm. A well-constructed script ingeniously introduces the game show Who Wants To Be A Millionaire? as a plot twist.
w Patrice Leconte, Jérôme Tonnerre d Patrice Leconte ph Jean-Marie Dreujou m Xavier Demerliac pd Ivan Maussion ed Joëlle Hache
☆ Daniel Auteuil (François Coste), Dany Boon (Bruno), Julie Gayet (Catherine), Julie Durand (Louise)
'Not a great deal to chew on here beyond a couple of nice performances.' – Tim Robey, Daily Telegraph

My Best Friend's Girl

France 1983 100m Eastmancolor
Cannon/Renn Productions/Sara Films (Alain Sarde) original title: La Femme de Mon Pote
A day worker asks his friend, a night worker, to look after his girlfriend.
Mildly amusing comedy.
w Bertrand Blier, Gérard Brach d Bertrand Blier ph Jean Penzer, Yves Agostini, Michel Coteret, Eric Vallée m J. J. Cale ed Claudine Merline, Sylvie Quester, Annick Menier, Jeanne Kef ☆ Coluche, Isabelle Huppert, Thierry Lhermitte, Farid Chopel, François Perrot, Daniel Colas, Frédérique Michot

'Julianne fell in love with her best friend the day he decided to marry someone else.'

My Best Friend's Wedding ★★ ④

US 1997 105m Technicolor Panavision
Columbia TriStar/Predawn (Jerry Zucker, Ronald Bass)
When she discovers that her former lover is about to marry, a woman decides to break up the romance and win him back for herself.
Enjoyable, slightly tart comedy, with a star turn from Everett to compensate for the occasional predictability of the plot.
w Ronald Bass d P.J. Hogan ph Laszlo Kovacs m James Newton Howard pd Richard Sylbert ed Garth Craven
☆ Julia Roberts (Julianne Potter), Dermot Mulroney (Michael O'Neal), Cameron Diaz (Kimmy Wallace), Rupert Everett (George Downes), Philip Bosco (Walter Wallace), M. Emmet Walsh (Joe O'Neal), Rachel Griffiths (Samantha Newhouse)
'Straddling several genres, the film has an underlying veracity that should strike an emotional chord with audiences.' – Leonard Klady, Variety
† After preview audiences liked the character played by Rupert Everett, extra scenes involving him were shot, and a new ending added.
†† It was one of the most successful movies of the year, grossing more than $126m in the US, and another $129m elsewhere in the world.
🎗 James Newton Howard

My Best Girl ★

US 1927 84m (24 fps) bw silent
Mary Pickford Corporation
A shopgirl falls for a co-worker, unaware that he is the son of the owner.
The star's last silent film is a charming comedy which tends to fade in the memory.
w Allen McNeil, Tim Whelan d Sam Taylor ph Charles Rosher m Gaylord Carter ☆ Mary Pickford, Charles 'Buddy' Rogers, Sunshine Hart, Lucien Littlefield, Hobart Bosworth
🎗 Charles Rosher

'Love is here to stay…So is her family'

My Big Fat Greek Wedding ★★

US/Canada 2002 95m DeLuxe
Entertainment/Gold Circle/HBO/MPH/Playtone (Rita Wilson, Tom Hanks, Gary Goetzman)
A Greek-American woman horrifies her large family by deciding to marry a non-Greek.
Warm and lively comedy that is just saved from its reliance on stereotyped characters and situations by its generous humanity.
w Nia Vardalos play Nia Vardalos d Joel Zwick ph Jeffrey Jur m Chris Wilson, Alexander Janko pd Gregory Keen ed Mia Goldman ☆ Nia Vardalos (Toula), John Corbett (Ian), Michael Constantine (Gus), Lainie Kazan (Maria), Andrea Martin (Aunt Voula), Joey Fatone (Angelo), Gia Carides (Nikki), Louis Mandylor (Nick)
'Just a routinely sentimental/slapstick march toward the altar, sans any real comic invention.' – Dennis Harvey, Variety
'Insufferably cute pile of tripe.' – Joe Queenan
† The film was the unexpected hit of the year, taking $241.4m at the US box-office and another $115m elsewhere in the world. It also spawned a TV sitcom My Big Fat Greek Life.
🎗 Nia Vardalos (as writer)

'Perhaps it is not for the living to know the truth about reincarnation!'
'If you give away the ending, may your blood run cold forever!'

My Blood Runs Cold

US 1965 108m bw Panavision
Warner (William Conrad)
A spoilt heiress meets a strange young man who claims she is the reincarnation of a long dead charmer; he turns out to be a madman who has come across an old diary.
Initially intriguing but eventually exhausting melodrama with a weak solution.
w John Mantley d William Conrad ph Sam Leavitt m George Duning ☆ Troy Donahue, Joey Heatherton, Barry Sullivan, Jeanette Nolan
'Not all that bad, but not worth missing I Love Lucy for either.' – Leonard Maltin

My Blue Heaven

US 1950 96m Technicolor
TCF (Sol C. Siegel)
A pair of troupers want a family, by adoption if not otherwise.
Routine musical drenched in sentimentality.
w Lamar Trotti, Claude Binyon d Henry Koster ph Arthur E. Arling m Alfred Newman songs Harold Arlen (m), Ralph Blane (ly)
☆ Betty Grable, Dan Dailey, Mitzi Gaynor, David Wayne, Jane Wyatt, Una Merkel

My Blue Heaven

US 1990 95m Technicolor
Warner (Herbert Ross, Anthea Sylbert)
Relocated in a small town, a gangster who has turned state's evidence decides not to go straight.
Dull comedy, broadly acted and directed.
w Nora Ephron d Herbert Ross ph John Bailey m Ira Newborn pd Charles Rosen ed Stephen A. Rotter, Robert Reitano ☆ Steve Martin, Rick Moranis, Joan Cusack, Melanie Mayron, William Irwin, Carol Kane, William Hickey, Deborah Rush, Daniel Stern, Jesse Bradford

My Bodyguard

US 1980 96m CFI color
Market Street/Melvin Simon
A 15-year-old Chicago boy has trouble at school.
Oddly titled, uncommercial but quite watchable drama of adolescence. Not surprisingly, it failed to find an audience.
w Alan Ormsby d Tony Bill ph Michael D. Margulies m Dave Grusin pd Jackson de Govia
☆ Chris Makepeace, Adam Baldwin, Ruth Gordon, Matt Dillon, Martin Mull, John Houseman

'There are some things you just don't do.'

My Boss's Daughter

US 2003 86m DeLuxe
Dimension (Gil Netter, John Jacobs)
Everything goes wrong when a researcher in a publishing company house-sits for his uptight boss.
Dismal comedy that is both predictable and offensive, but never funny.
w David Dorfman d David Zucker ph Martin McGrath m Teddy Castellucci pd Andrew Laws ed Patrick Lussier, Sam Craven
☆ Ashton Kutcher (Tom Stansfield), Tara Reid (Lisa Taylor), Jeffrey Tambor (Ken), Andy Richter (Red Taylor), Michael Madsen (T.J.), Jon Abrahams (Paul), David Koechner (Speed), Carmen Electra (Tina), Terence Stamp (Jack Taylor), Audrey Bennett (Molly Shannon)
'The low point for the cast seems to come when Madsen is reduced to urinating over the furniture, but it's actually later, when Stamp is literally deluged in liquefied garbage and stuffed with a rat.' – Robert Koehler, Variety
'Moronic. Idiotic. Insulting. Pathetic. But enough with the sweet talk.' – Joe Morgenstern, Wall Street Journal

My Boyfriend's Back

US 1993 84m DeLuxe
Buena Vista/Touchstone (Sean S. Cunningham)
A high-school student, killed in a bungled robbery planned to impress a girl, returns as a zombie to demonstrate his undying love.
Ghoulish and unedifying horror.
w Dean Lorey d Bob Balaban ph Mac Ahlberg m Harry Manfredini pd Michael Hanan ed Michael Jablow
☆ Andrew Lowery, Traci Lind, Danny Zorn, Edward Herrmann, Mary Beth Hurt, Austin Pendleton, Cloris Leachman, Paxton Whitehead
'Lacking any redeeming quality, it's a matter of days before this tasteless pic is buried without trace in the sands of Hollywood.' – Variety

My Brilliant Career ★★★

Australia 1979 100m Eastmancolor
NSW Film Corporation/Margaret Fink

The daughter of an Australian bush farmer at the turn of the century dreams of the world beyond and writes a memoir.
Pleasing but very slow picture of a world gone by.
w Eleanor Witcombe novel Miles Franklin d Gillian Armstrong ph Don McAlpine m Nathan Waks pd Luciana Arrighi ed Nicholas Beauman
☆ Judy Davis (Sybylla Melvyn), Sam Neill (Harry Beecham), Wendy Hughes (Aunt Helen), Robert Grubb (Frank Hawdon), Max Cullen (Mr. McSwat)
'Tasteful, slow, pictorial.' – Pauline Kael
Judy Davis

My Brother Jonathan

GB 1947 108m bw
ABP (Warwick Ward)

The life of a small-town doctor who wanted to be a great surgeon.
Unobjectionable, unexciting novel-on-film with the typically British artificial studio look of the time.
w Leslie Landau, Adrian Arlington novel Francis Brett Young d Harold French ph Derick Williams m Hans May ad Douglas Daniels ed Charles Hasse
☆ Michael Denison, Dulcie Gray, Ronald Howard, Stephen Murray, Mary Clare, Finlay Currie, Beatrice Campbell

My Brother Talks to Horses

US 1946 93m bw
MGM (Samuel Marx)

A boy who can talk to horses finds himself in demand by racetrack gamblers.
Well-mounted but uninspired whimsy with a fatal lack of pace.
w Morton Thompson novel Joe the Wounded Tennis Player by Morton Thompson d Fred Zinnemann ph Joseph Ruttenberg m Rudolph Kopp ☆ Butch Jenkins, Peter Lawford, Charlie Ruggles, Edward Arnold, Beverly Tyler, Spring Byington

My Brother Tom

GB/Germany 2001 111m DeLuxe
Film4/Film Council/British Screen/W.O.W./Trijbits (Carl Schonfeld)

An unhappy teenage girl forms a close relationship with an abused boy who spends most of his time in a wood.
Shot on digital video, the film has an intense sense of reality about it, in its portrait of misunderstood adolescents, but that does not survive the increasingly melodramatic nature of the narrative.
w Dom Rotheroe, Alison Beeton-Hilder d Dom Rotheroe ph Robby Muller pd Isolde Sommerfeldt ed David Charap
☆ Jenna Harrison (Jessica), Ben Whishaw (Tom), Adrian Rawlins (Jack), Jonathan Hackett (Tom's Dad), Richard Hope (Jessica's Dad), Judith Scott (Jessica's Mum), Honeysuckle Weeks (Sarah)
'Notable for its atmospheric fairy-tale setting, its dark intensity and aching depiction of adolescent vulnerability, the overwrought drama nonetheless fails to summon the edge and emotional truth that it aims for.' – David Rooney, Variety
'A more amateurish, misbegotten and badly made film it would be hard to find this year.' – Alexander Walker, London Evening Standard

My Brother's Keeper

GB 1948 91m bw
GFD/Gainsborough (Anthony Darnborough)

Two convicts escape, handcuffed together; one is violent, the other innocent.
Pre-Defiant Ones social melodrama, quite well made but suffering from miscasting.
w Frank Harvey story Maurice Wiltshire d Alfred Roome, Roy Rich ph Gordon Lang m Clifton Parker
☆ Jack Warner, George Cole, Jane Hylton, David Tomlinson, Bill Owen, Raymond Lovell, Yvonne Owen, Beatrice Varley

My Buddy ★

US 1944 67m bw
Eddy White/Republic

A World War I veteran is forced into crime.
Not a new message, but a second feature with sincerity and conviction. A better title would have helped.
w Arnold Manoff, Prescott Chaplin d Steve Sekely ☆ Don Barry, Alexander Granach, Ruth Terry, Lynne Roberts, Emma Dunn, John Litel, George E. Stone

My Childhood ★★★

GB 1972 48m bw
Connoisseur/BFI (Geoffrey Evans)

An eight-year-old boy lives with his half-brother and ailing grandmother in dire poverty in a Scottish mining village.
Passionate, autobiographical account of a life of almost total bleakness observed with scrupulous honesty.
wd Bill Douglas ph Mick Campbell ed Brand Thumim
☆ Stephen Archibald (Jamie), Hughie Restorick (Tommy), Jean Taylor Smith (Grandmother), Karl Fieseler (Helmuth), Paul Kermack (Jamie's Father), Helena Gloag (Father's Mother)
'The story unfolds with pathos, tension and considerable humour.' – MFB
† The first part of an autobiographical trilogy that was followed by My Ain Folk and My Way Home (qqv).

My Cousin Rachel ★

US 1952 98m bw
TCF (Nunnally Johnson)

A Cornish gentleman dies in Italy after marrying a mysterious lady; when she comes to England she arouses the hostility, and love, of her husband's foster son.
Well-wrought but dramatically unsatisfactory Victorian melodrama from a bestseller; plenty of suspicion but no solution makes Rachel a dull girl.
w Nunnally Johnson novel Daphne du Maurier d Henry Koster ph Joseph LaShelle m Franz Waxman ad Lyle Wheeler, John DeCuir
☆ Olivia de Havilland, Richard Burton, John Sutton, Audrey Dalton, Ronald Squire
Joseph LaShelle; Richard Burton; art direction

My Cousin Vinny ★

U.S. 1992 119m DeLuxe
TCF/Peter V. Miller Investment Corp. (Dale Launer, Paul Schiff)

An inexperienced New York lawyer goes to Alabama to defend his cousin who is charged with murder.
Ramshackle comedy that raises an occasional smile and one or two laughs.
w Dale Launer d Jonathan Lynn ph Peter Deming m Randy Edelman pd Victoria Paul ed Tony Lombardo
☆ Joe Pesci, Ralph Macchio, Marisa Tomei, Mitchell Whitfield, Fred Gwynne, Lane Smith, Austin Pendleton, Bruce McGill, Maury Chaykin
'The bits and pieces never quite add up. Somewhere during this film's making I suspect that half the script was mysteriously lost down a street grating.' – Nigel Andrews, Financial Times
Marisa Tomei

My Crasy Life

US 1992 98m colour
BBC/FR3 (Daniel Marks, Cameron Allan)

American-Samoan members of a Californian street-gang talk about their violent lives.
Unilluminating mix of documentary and fiction about the inarticulate young being assimilated into a ghetto culture.
w Jean-Pierre Gorin, Howard Rodman d Jean-Pierre Gorin ph Babette Mangolte m Joyi Yuasa ed Brad Thumin
'An aggravatingly tedious docu-drama.' – Variety

'Lipstick and attitude – the girls from Echo Park are hard!'

My Crazy Life

US 1993 95m DeLuxe

aka: Mi Vida Loca

In Los Angeles, Hispanic teenagers, members of a street gang, hang out, talk tough and try to make sense of their lives and the men they become involved with.
Voice-overs rob this account of young street-wise women of much of its dramatic impact; the narrative interest is slight and the performances often amateurish despite their authenticity.
wd Allison Anders ph Rodrigo Garcia m John Taylor pd Jane Stewart ed Kathryn Himoff, Tracy Granger
☆ Angel Aviles, Seidy Lopez, Jacob Vargas, Mario Marron, Nelida Lopez, Jessie Borrego, Magali Alvarado
'Dramatically fuzzy and very flat visually and in performance.' – Variety

'She was everything the west was – young, fiery, exciting!'

My Darling Clementine ★★★

US 1946 98m bw
TCF (Samuel G. Engel)

Wyatt Earp cleans up Tombstone and wipes out the Clanton gang at the OK corral.
Archetypal Western mood piece, full of nostalgia for times gone by and crackling with memorable scenes and characterizations.
w Samuel G. Engel, Winston Miller book Wyatt Earp, Frontier Marshal by Stuart N. Lake d John Ford ph Joe MacDonald m Cyril Mockridge ad James Basevi, Lyle Wheeler ed Dorothy Spencer ☆ Henry Fonda (Wyatt Earp), Victor Mature (Doc Holliday), Walter Brennan (Old Man Clanton), Linda Darnell (Chihuahua), Cathy Downs (Clementine), Tim Holt (Virgil Earp), Ward Bond (Morgan Earp), Alan Mowbray (Granville Thorndyke), John Ireland (Billy Clanton), Jane Darwell (Kate)
'Every scene, every shot is the product of a keen and sensitive eye.' – Bosley Crowther
'Considerable care has gone to its period reconstruction, but the view is a poetic one.' – Lindsay Anderson

My Daughter Joy

GB 1950 81m bw
London Films/Gregory Ratoff
US title: Operation X

In order to cement a new trade pact, an international financier plans to marry his daughter to the son of an African sultan.
Turgid melodrama swamping some good actors.
w Robert Thoeren, William Rose novel David Golder by Irene Neirowsky d Gregory Ratoff ph Georges Périnal m Raymond Gallois-Montbrun
☆ Edward G. Robinson, Peggy Cummins, Nora Swinburne, Richard Greene, Finlay Currie, Gregory Ratoff, Ronald Adam, Walter Rilla, James Robertson Justice, David Hutcheson

My Dear Miss Aldrich

US 1937 73m bw
MGM

The glamorous new owner of a newspaper never agrees with its editor.
Skilful light comedy with good work all round.
w Herman Mankiewicz d George B. Seitz
☆ Maureen O'Sullivan, Walter Pidgeon, Edna May Oliver, Rita Johnson, Janet Beecher

My Dear Secretary

US 1948 96m bw
Cardinal/UA

A secretary marries her boss and becomes jealous of his new secretary.
Slow-paced, frivolous romantic comedy.
wd Charles Martin
☆ Kirk Douglas, Laraine Day, Keenan Wynn, Rudy Vallee, Helen Walker, Florence Bates, Alan Mowbray
'A comedy I think you'll find hard to tolerate for more than half an hour – no, fifteen minutes.' – John McCarten, New Yorker

My Dinner with André ★

US 1981 111m Movielab
André Company/George W. George/Michael White

Two men start a dinner table conversation which becomes a philosophical argument.
Curious two-hander which can please the right audience when it's in the mood; for selling tickets, forget it.
w Wallace Shawn, André Gregory d Louis Malle ph Jeri Sopanen m Allen Shawn pd David Mitchell ed Suzanne Baron
☆ Wallace Shawn, André Gregory, Jean Lenauer, Roy Butler
'A magical mystery tour of thoughts, dreams, fantasies and emotions.' – Time Out
'An adventure through a magically cracked looking glass.' – San Francisco Chronicle
'A dazzling cerebral comedy of ideas.' – Los Angeles Times

'Every Family Needs An Optimist.'

My Dog Skip ★

US 2000 95m DeLuxe
Warner/Alcon (Broderick Johnson, Andrew A. Kosove, Mark Johnson, John Lee Hancock)

In Mississippi in the 1940s, a shy nine-year-old boy learns to cope with life with the help of his dog.
Nostalgic account of growing up that has plenty of charm, though it is tinged with too much sentimentality.
w Gail Gilchriest book Willie Morris d Jay Russell ph James L. Carter m William Ross pd David J. Bomba ed Harvey Rosenstock, Gary Winter cos Edi Giguere
☆ Frankie Muniz (Willie Morris), Diane

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Lane (Ellen Morris), Luke Wilson (Dink Jenkins), Kevin Bacon (Jack Morris), Caitlin Wachs (Rivers Applewhite), Bradley Coryell (Big Boy Wilkinson), Daylan Honeycutt (Henjie Henick), Cody Linley (Spit McGee), Peter Crombie (Junior Smalls), Clint Howard (Millard), Harry Connick Jnr (Narrator)

'Family entertainment that has no ambition beyond continuing America's love affair with the pet pooch.' – Anthony Quinn, Independent

My Dream Is Yours

US 1949 101m Technicolor
Warner (Michael Curtiz)

A Hollywood talent scout discovers a new singer.

Competent, forgettable musical.

w Harry Kurnitz, Dane Lussier d Michael Curtiz ph Ernest Haller m Harry Warren ch Le Roy Prinz ly Ralph Blane

☆ Doris Day, Jack Carson, Lee Bowman, Adolphe Menjou, Eve Arden, S. Z. Sakall

'A Hollywood musical about life among the radio artistes. If this is even a remotely accurate account, God help them!' – John McCarten, New Yorker

† A remake of Twenty Million Sweethearts.

My English Grandfather ★★

USSR 1986 75m colour/bw Georgia Film Studios
aka: Robinson Crusoe in Georgia

A Russian composer dedicates his new symphony to his English grandfather, sent to Georgia to maintain the London–Delphi telephone line, who takes up residence in the three metres around a telephone post which remain British territory when the revolution comes.

Enjoyable and quirky drama, with ironic and comic overtones, which shuttles between the present, in colour, and the past, mainly in monochrome.

w Irakli Kvirikadze d Nana Djordjadze ph Levan Paatashvili m Enri Lolashvili ad Vakhtang Rurua

☆ Zhanri Lolashvili, Nineli Chankvetadze, Guram Pirtskhalava, Gudja Burduli, Rusudan Bolkvadze, Tiko Eliosidze

My Fair Lady ★★★

US 1964 175m Technicolor Super Panavision 70
CBS/Warner (Jack L. Warner)

Musical version of Pygmalion, about a flower girl trained by an arrogant elocutionist to pass as a lady.

Careful, cold transcription of a stage success; cinematically quite uninventive when compared with Pygmalion itself, but a pretty good entertainment.

w Alan Jay Lerner play Pygmalion by Bernard Shaw d George Cukor ph Harry Stradling m Frederick Loewe md André Previn ch Hermes Pan ad Gene Allen ed William Ziegler cos Cecil Beaton

☆ Rex Harrison (Prof. Henry Higgins), Audrey Hepburn (Eliza Doolittle), Stanley Holloway (Alfred P. Doolittle), Wilfrid Hyde-White (Col. Hugh Pickering), Gladys Cooper (Mrs. Higgins), Jeremy Brett (Freddy Eynsford-Hill), Theodore Bikel (Zoltan Karpathy), Isobel Elsom (Mrs. Eynsford-Hill), Mona Washbourne (Mrs. Pearce), Walter Burke (Main Bystander)

'The property has been not so much adapted as elegantly embalmed.' – Andrew Sarris

† Audrey Hepburn's singing was dubbed by Marni Nixon. In the restored 30th-anniversary laser disc edition, Hepburn can be heard singing two songs – 'Wouldn't It Be Luvverly' and 'Show Me' – on alternate tracks on the disc.

†† A Region 1 special edition two-disc DVD included commentary by Gene Allen, Marni Nixon, Robert A. Harris and James C. Katz.

♫ 'Why Can't the English'; 'Wouldn't It Be Luverly'; 'I'm an Ordinary Man'; 'With a Little Bit of Luck'; 'Just You Wait'; 'The Rain in Spain'; 'I Could Hve Danced All Night'; 'Ascot Gavotte'; 'On the Street Where You Live'; 'Get Me to the Church on Time'; 'I've Grown Accustomed to Her Face' best picture; George Cukor; Harry Stradling; Rex Harrison; André Previn (scoring of music); costumes; sound

Alan Jay Lerner; Stanley Holloway; Gladys Cooper; editing

best picture

My Family

US 1995 125m colour
Entertainment/New Line/Majestic/American Playhouse/American Zoetrope/Newcomm/Anna Thomas

aka: Mi Familia
UK video title: East L.A.

The life of a Mexican family in California over three generations, from the 20s to the 80s.

A soft-centred domestic saga that never quite engages the heart or the mind.

w Gregory Nava, Anna Thomas d Gregory Nava ph Edward Lachman m Pepe Avila, Mark McKenzie pd Barry Robison ed Nancy Richardson

☆ Jimmy Smits, Esai Morales, Eduardo Lopez Rojas, Jenny Gago, Elpidia Carrillo, Lupe Ontiveros, Edward James Olmos, Scott Bakula

'More a superior television soap than a proper film.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

make-up

My Father Is Coming

Germany/US 1991 81m TVC Color
Out on a Limb/Hyane/Hyena (Monika Treut)

A German would-be actress in New York auditions for a sex movie, makes friends with a transsexual and goes to bed with a Puerto Rican woman.

A movie without a redeeming feature, other than its short running time.

w Monika Treut, Bruce Benderson, Sarah Schulman d Monika Treut ph Elfi Mikesch m David Van Tieghem pd Robin Ford ed Steve Brown

☆ Alfred Edel, Shelley Kästner, Annie Sprinkle, Mery Lou Graulau, David Bronstein, Michael Massee

'A scrappy little film, ill-scripted, photographed and, in particular, directed, and the weird, but very likeable cast is the only reason to see it.' – Sheila Johnston, Independent

'Treut's film seems to condemn rather than celebrate the effects of implementing consumerist notions of choice within the field of sexuality.' – Verina Glaessner, Sight and Sound

My Father, the Hero

US 1994 90m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Touchstone/Cité (Jacques Bar, Jean-Louis Livi)

A young girl on holiday in the Caribbean pretends that her father is actually her lover.

Dull and corny comedy, with little appeal to any age group.

w Francis Veber, Charlie Peters d Steve Miner ph Daryn Okada m David Newman pd Christopher Nowak ed Marshall Harvey

☆ Gérard Depardieu, Katherine Heigl, Emma Thompson, Dalton James, Lauren Hutton, Faith Prince, Stephen Tobolowsky, Ann Hearn

'You don't have to be a black-polo-neck-wearing francophile to see that hardly a single remake of a French movie has been any good. Let us hope the flopping of this latest atrocity augurs the cessation of this insidious Hollywood habit.' – Leslie Felperin Sharman, Sight and Sound

† The film is a remake of Mon Père, Ce Héros, which also starred Gérard Depardieu.

My Father's Glory: see La Gloire de mon père

My Favorite Blonde ★★★

US 1942 78m bw
Paramount (Paul Jones)

A burlesque comic travelling by train helps a lady in distress and lives to regret it.

Smartly paced spy comedy thriller, one of its star's best vehicles.

w Don Hartman, Frank Butler, Melvin Frank, Norman Panama d Sidney Lanfield ph William Mellor m David Buttolph ad Hans Dreier, Robert Usher ed William Shea cos Edith Head

☆ Bob Hope (Larry Haines), Madeleine Carroll (Karen Bentley), Gale Sondergaard (Mme. Stephanie Runick), George Zucco (Dr. Hugo Streger), Lionel Royce (Karl), Walter Kingsford (Dr. Faber), Victor Varconi (Miller)

My Favorite Brunette ★

US 1947 87m bw
Paramount/Hope Enterprises (Daniel Dare)

A photographer gets mixed up with mobsters.

Pretty fair star vehicle which half-heartedly spoofs Farewell My Lovely.

w Edmund Beloin, Jack Rose d Elliott Nugent ph Lionel Lindon m Robert Emmett Dolan

☆ Bob Hope, Dorothy Lamour, Peter Lorre, Lon Chaney Jnr, John Hoyt, Charles Dingle, Reginald Denny

My Favorite Martian

US 1999 93m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Walt Disney (Robert Shapiro, Jerry Leider, Mark Toberoff)

A TV producer rescues a stranded Martian, who has the ability to assume human form.

Yet another lumbering attempt to turn a forgotten sitcom into a movie, and yet more evidence that dead television comedy isn't worth reviving.

w Sherri Stoner, Deanna Oliver TV serial John L. Greene d Donald Petrie ph Thomas Ackerman m John Debney pd Sandy Veneziano ed Malcolm Campbell sp Phil Tippett, John T. Van Vliet; Alec Gillis, Tom Woodruff Jnr

☆ Christopher Lloyd, Jeff Daniels, Elizabeth Hurley, Daryl Hannah, Wallace Shawn, Christine Ebersole, Michael Lerner, Ray Walston

'The kind of leering, obnoxious picture that seizes you by the neck and gnaws at your skull like a giant, snot-nosed child.' – New York Post

† The TV series, starring Ray Walston and Bill Bixby, ran from 1963 to 1966.

My Favorite Spy

US 1942 86m bw
RKO

The bandleader Kay Kyser has to postpone his honeymoon when he is called up and set to spy-catching.

Fairly slick nonsense featuring a band popular at the time.

w Sig Herzig, William Bowers d Tay Garnett ph Robert de Grasse

☆ Kay Kyser, Ginny Simms, Ish Kabibble, Ellen Drew, Jane Wyman

My Favorite Spy ★

US 1951 93m bw
Paramount (Paul Jones)

A burlesque comic is asked by the US government to pose as an international spy who happens to be his double.

Moderately funny star vehicle with more willing hands than good ideas. The chase finale however is worth waiting for.

w Edmund Hartmann, Jack Sher d Norman Z. McLeod ph Victor Milner m Victor Young

☆ Bob Hope, Hedy Lamarr, Francis L. Sullivan, Arnold Moss, Mike Mazurki, Luis Van Rooten

'The funniest, fastest honeymoon ever screened!'

My Favorite Wife ★★★

US 1940 88m bw
RKO (Leo McCarey)

A lady explorer returns after several shipwrecked years to find that her husband has married again.

A well-worn situation gets its brightest treatment in this light star vehicle.

w Sam and Bella Spewack, Leo McCarey d Garson Kanin ph Rudolph Maté m Roy Webb ad Van Nest Polglase ed Robert Wise

☆ Cary Grant (Nick Arden), Irene Dunne (Ellen Arden), Randolph Scott (Stephen Burkett), Gail Patrick (Bianca), Ann Shoemaker (Ma), Donald MacBride (Hotel Clerk)

'One of those comedies with a glow on it.' – Otis Ferguson

† Other variations (qv): Too Many Husbands, Our Wife, Three for the Show, Move Over Darling.

story; Roy Webb; art direction

'I can't go on live! I'm a movie star, not an actor!'

My Favorite Year ★★★

US 1982 92m Metrocolor
MGM-UA/Brooksfilms/Michael Gruskoff

In 1954, a legendary Hollywood star noted for wine and women is unwisely invited to star in a television series.

A good-humoured and well-researched romp with a central character not too far removed from Errol Flynn.

w Norman Steinberg, Dennis Palumbo d Richard Benjamin ph Gerald Hirschfeld m Ralph Burns pd Charles Rosen ed Richard Chew

☆ Peter O'Toole (Alan Swann), Mark Linn-Baker (Benjy Stone), Jessica Harper (K.C. Downing), Joseph Bologna (King Kaiser), Bill Macy (Sy Benson), Lainie Kazan (Belle Carroca), Lou Jacobi (Uncle Morty), Cameron Mitchell (Karl Rojeck)

'A field day for a wonderful bunch of actors.' – Variety

† A Region 1 DVD release includes commentary by Richard Benjamin.

Peter O'Toole

My Fellow Americans

US 1996 101m colour
Warner/Peters/Storyline (Jon Peters)

Two ageing and antagonistic former presidents of the USA are forced to co-operate with one another when they find themselves targeted for assassination.
An uneasy mix of weak political satire and thriller, with the Odd Couple pairing of Lemmon as an uptight conservative and Garner as a libidinous liberal, swopping insults as they dodge bullets.
w E. Jack Kaplan, Richard Chapman, Peter Tolan d Peter Segal ph Julio Macat m William Ross pd James Bissell ed William Kerr
☆ Jack Lemmon (Russell P. Kramer), James Garner (Matt Douglas), Dan Aykroyd (William Haney), John Heard (Ted Matthews), Sela Ward (Kaye Griffin), Wilford Brimley (Joe Hollis), Everett McGill (Col Paul Tanner), Bradley Whitford (Carl Witnaur), Lauren Bacall (Margaret Kramer), James Rebhorn (Charlie Reynolds)

My First 40 Years

Italy 1989 107m Technicolor
Columbia TriStar/CG Silver Film/Reteitalia (Mario Cecchi Gori, Vittorio Cecchi Gori)

A fashion designer recalls her numerous affairs on her fortieth birthday.
Charmless romantic drama, not helped by some inept dubbing.
w Enrico Vanzina, Carlo Vanzina novel I Miei Primi 40 Anni by Marina Ripa Di Meana d Carlo Vanzina ph Luigi Kuveiller m Umberto Smaila ad Mario Chiari ed Ruggero Mastroianni
☆ Carol Alt, Elliott Gould, Jean Rochefort, Pierre Cosso, Massimo Venturiello, Isabel Russinova, Paolo Quattrini, Riccardo Garrone, Capucine

'Mismatched. Misguided. Unmistakably friends.'
'Meet the new odd couple.'

My First Mister

US 2001 109m DeLuxe 'Scope
Paramount/Total/Film Roman/Firelight/Apollo Media (Mitchell Solomon, Sukee Chew, Anne Kurtzman, Carol Baum, Jane Goldenring)

An unhappy teenager goes to work for a fussy shopkeeper, and the experience changes them both.
A sitcom masquerading as a movie, and abandoning a character study of two misfits for mawkish sentimentality.
w Jill Franklyn d Christine Lahti ph Jeffrey Jur m Steve Porcaro pd Dan Bishop ed Wendy Greene Bricmont ☆ Albert Brooks (Randall), Leelee Sobieski (Jennifer), Desmond Harrington (Randy), Carol Kane (Mrs Benson), Mary Kay Place (Patty), Michael McKean (Bob), John Goodman (Benjamin)
'Mild, obvious but not entirely unappealing.' – Todd Mccarthy, Variety

My First Wife ★

Australia 1984 98m colour
Artificial Eye/Dofine Productions/Film Victoria/Spectrafilm (Jane Ballantyne, Paul Cox)

A composer is heart-stricken when his wife decides to leave him.
Passionate, emotionally painful study of relationships over two generations that comes to the somewhat pat conclusion that the family is everything.
w Paul Cox, Bob Ellis d Paul Cox ph Yuri Sokol m Gluck, Orff, Haydn and others pd Asher Bilu ed Tim Lewis
☆ John Hargreaves, Wendy Hughes, Lucy Angwin, David Cameron, Anna Jemison, Charles Tingwell, Betty Lucas, Robin Lovejoy

'I was a good girl – wasn't I?'

My Foolish Heart ★

US 1949 98m bw
Samuel Goldwyn

A woman deceives her husband into thinking her forthcoming child is his.
A 'woman's picture' par excellence, and among the first to benefit from commercial plugging of a schmaltzy theme tune.
w Julius J. and Philip G. Epstein story J. D. Salinger d Mark Robson ph Lee Garmes m Victor Young ☆ Susan Hayward, Dana Andrews, Kent Smith, Robert Keith, Gigi Perreau, Lois Wheeler, Jessie Royce Landis
'Obviously designed to pull the plugs out of the tear glands and cause the ducts to overflow.' – Bosley Crowther, New York Times
'In its dry-eyed moments, this damp fable is brightened by some well-written patches of wryly amusing dialogue.' – Time
Susan Hayward; title song (m Victor Young, ly Ned Washington)

My Forbidden Past

US 1951 81m bw
RKO (Polan Banks)

A New Orleans beauty seeks vengeance when her cousin prevents her marriage.
Stuffy period melodrama with vigorous performances.
w Marion Parsonnet novel Polan Banks d Robert Stevenson ph Harry J. Wild m Frederick Hollander ad Albert S. D'Agostino
☆ Ava Gardner, Melvyn Douglas, Robert Mitchum, Janis Carter, Lucile Watson

My Friend Flicka ★

US 1943 89m Technicolor
TCF (Ralph Dietrich)

Adventures of a young boy and his pet colt.
Winsome boy-and-horse story, one of the most popular family films of the forties. Sequel 1945 with virtually the same cast: Thunderhead Son of Flicka.
w Lillie Hayward novel Mary O'Hara d Harold Schuster ph Dewey Wrigley m Alfred Newman ☆ Roddy McDowall, Preston Foster, Rita Johnson, James Bell, Jeff Corey

My Friend Irma ★

US 1949 103m bw
Paramount/Hal B. Wallis

Dumb blonde Irma's con man boyfriend lends her apartment to two soda jerks.
Comic strip humour responsible for the screen début of Martin and Lewis. Sequel 1950: My Friend Irma Goes West.
w Cy Howard, Parke Levy radio show Cy Howard d George Marshall ph Leo Tover m Roy Webb
☆ Marie Wilson, John Lund, Diana Lynn, Dean Martin, Jerry Lewis, Don Defore, Hans Conried, Kathryn Givney

My Friend Irma Goes West

US 1950 90m bw
Paramount/Hal Wallis

Irma's friends Steve and Seymour are offered a Hollywood contract and have adventures on the train.
Witless farce of mild historical interest.
w Cy Howard, Parke Levy d Hal Walker ph Lee Garmes m Leigh Harline ☆ John Lund, Marie Wilson, Dean Martin, Jerry Lewis, Diana Lynn, Corinne Calvet, Lloyd Corrigan
'The general mental level can be judged from the fact that the performance of the chimpanzee seems the most natural thing in the film.' – MFB

My Friend Ivan Lapshin ★★

USSR 1986 99m bw/colour
Metro/Lenfilm

Memories of life in a provincial Russian town in the 1930s, where a harassed policeman pursues a criminal gang.
Made in 1982, but not shown for four years, this is a well-observed, well-directed and acted slice-of-Soviet-life.
w Eduard Volodarski d Alexei Gherman ph Valeri Fedosov m Arkadi Gagulachvili ad Yuri Pougatch ed L. Semionovi ☆ Andrei Boltnev, Nina Rousianova, Andrei Mironov, Alexei Zharkov, Z. Adamovich, A. Filippenko

'It takes a girl like Rita to play a gal like Sal!'

My Gal Sal ★

US 1942 103m Technicolor
TCF (Robert Bassler)

The career and romances of songwriter Paul Dresser.
Conventional 1890s musical biopic, more vigorous and likeable than most.
w Seton I. Miller, Darrell Ware, Karl Tunberg book My Brother Paul by Theodore Dreiser d Irving Cummings ph Ernest Palmer md Alfred Newman ad Richard Day, Joseph Wright
☆ Rita Hayworth, Victor Mature, John Sutton, Carole Landis, James Gleason, Phil Silvers, Walter Catlett, Mona Maris, Frank Orth
† The title role was intended for Alice Faye, but she was pregnant. Irene Dunne was too busy, Mae West refused, and Betty Grable didn't test well.
†† Rita Hayworth's singing was dubbed by Nan Wynn.
Richard Day, Joseph Wright
Alfred Newman

My Geisha

US 1962 120m Technirama
Paramount/Steve Parker

A director makes a film in Japan; his wife disguises herself as a geisha and gets the leading role.
Silly, overstretched comedy with pretty locations.
w Norman Krasna d Jack Cardiff ph Shunichuro Nakao m Franz Waxman ☆ Shirley Maclaine, Yves Montand, Robert Cummings, Edward G. Robinson, Yoko Tani

My Giant

US 1998 103m Technicolor
Columbia/Castle Rock/Face (Billy Crystal)

An unsuccessful agent discovers a giant-sized Romanian and takes him to America to make him into a movie star.
Strangely unappealing drama that veers between mawkishness and acerbity and seems uncertain about the point of its odd central relationship.
w David Seltzer, Billy Crystal d Michael Lehman ph Michael Coulter m Marc Shaiman pd Jackson DeGovia ed Stephen Semel
☆ Billy Crystal, Kathleen Quinlan, Gheorghe Muresan, Joanna Pacula, Zane Carney, Rider Strong, Steven Seagal (as himself), Harold Gould, Doris Roberts, Philip Sterling, Heather Thomas
'An uneven film with limited commercial appeal.' – Variety

'Mac's back and he's not alone...'

My Girl

US 1991 102m Technicolor
Columbia TriStar/Imagine (Brian Grazer)

In the 1970s, the 11-year-old daughter of an undertaker comes to terms with her widowed father's romance and the death of a friend.
Slick, over-sentimental account of growing up, part of Hollywood's early 90s cycle of films centred on children. It provided the first screen kiss for Culkin.
w Laurice Elehwany d Howard Zieff ph Paul Elliott m James Newton Howard pd Joseph T. Garrity ed Wendy Greene Bricmont
☆ Dan Aykroyd, Jamie Lee Curtis, Macaulay Culkin, Anna Chlumsky, Richard Masur, Griffin Dunne, Ann Nelson
'As pleasant as a warm summer day and as ephemeral.' – Variety
'A hilarious mix of schmaltz, angst and shlock. In other words a joy to watch. One asks hopefully, it can't get worse, surely, can it? But it does.' – Alexander Walker, London Evening Standard

My Girl II

US 1994 99m colour
Columbia TriStar/Imagine (Brian Grazer)

In the mid-70s, a young teenage girl travels to Los Angeles to find out more about her mother, who died giving birth to her.
Enjoyable enough sentimental domestic drama, although its appeal is likely to be limited to those of the same gender and age group as its heroine.
w Janet Kovalcik d Howard Zieff ph Paul Elliott m Cliff Eidelman pd Charles Rosen ed Wendy Greene Bricmont
☆ Dan Aykroyd, Jamie Lee Curtis, Anna Chlumsky, Richard Masur, Austin O'Brien, Christine Ebersole, Aubrey Morris, Gerrit Graham, Keone Young
'Pleasant, painless and, as sequels go, genuinely ambitious in its efforts to be a continuation rather than just a retread.' – Joe Leydon, Variety

My Girl Tisa ★★

US 1948 95m bw
United States Pictures (Milton Sperling)

An immigrant girl in New York in the 1890s falls for an aspiring politician, is threatened with deportation but saved by the intervention of Theodore Roosevelt.
Charming period fairy tale with excellent background detail and attractive performances.
w Allen Boretz play Lucille S. Prumbs, Sara B. Smith d Elliott Nugent ph Ernest Haller m Max Steiner
☆ Lilli Palmer, Sam Wanamaker, Alan Hale, Stella Adler, Akim Tamiroff

My Girlfriend's Boyfriend ★

France 1987 102m colour
Artificial Eye/AAA/Les Films Du Losange (Margaret Menegoz)

original title: L'Ami de Mon Amie
Two young couples find themselves attracted to each other's partner.
Charming conversation piece, the sixth in Rohmer's series of Comedies and Proverbs.

wd Eric Rohmer ph Bernard Lutic, Sabine Lanceline m Jean-Louis Valero ed Luisa Garcia ☆ Emmanuelle Chaulet, Sophie Renoir, Anne-Laure Meury, Eric Vieillard, François-Eric Gendron
'Fluff of a rarefied order. The movie is so rigorous and elegant and extreme that it seems, finally, to be about its own weightlessness – not so much a thin romantic comedy as a comic meditation on the thinness of romance.' – Terrence Rafferty, New Yorker

My Gun Is Quick
US 1957 90m bw
United Artists/Victor Saville
Mike Hammer investigates the murder of a bar girl and is led to rival gangs of jewel thieves.
Impenetrably plotted but quite violent brew of typical Spillane ingredients.
w Richard Collins, Richard Powell novel Mickey Spillane d George A. White, Phil Victor ph Harry Neumann m Marlin Skiles
☆ Robert Bray, Whitney Blake, Pat Donahue, Pamela Duncan, Booth Colman

My Heart Goes Crazy: see London Town

My Heart Is Calling
GB 1935 91m bw
Cine-Allianz (Ivor Montagu, Arnold Pressburger)
An opera singer falls for a stowaway to Monte Carlo.
Musical trifle with little to be said for or against it.
w Sidney Gilliat story Ernst Marischka d Carmine Gallone ph Glen MacWilliams m Robert Stolz
☆ Jan Kiepura, Marta Eggerth, Sonnie Hale, Hugh Wakefield, Ernest Thesiger, Marie Lohr

My Hero: see A Southern Yankee

My Heroes Have Always Been Cowboys
US 1991 106m DeLuxe
Samuel Goldwyn (Martin Poll, E. K. Gaylord II)
A rodeo rider, returning home to look after his ageing father, resumes his relationship with an old girlfriend and decides to try for the big time once more.
Moderate but unoriginal drama of domestic wranglings, with some spectacular bull-riding footage at the climax.
w Joel Don Humphreys d Stuart Rosenberg ph Bernd Heinl m James Horner ed Dennis M. Hill
☆ Scott Glenn, Kate Capshaw, Ben Johnson, Tess Harper, Balthazar Getty, Gary Busey, Mickey Rooney, Clarence Williams III, Dub Taylor, Clu Gulager
'Pic casts its lot with the underdog in true American fashion, but is bland and unexciting.' – Variety

'When you open your door to strangers, you never know who might come in.'

My House in Umbria ★
US/GB/Italy 2003 109m DeLuxe
Canine/Panorama (Anne Wingate)
In Italy, a romantic novelist invites three other survivors of a terrorist bombing to convalesce at her home in Umbria.
Lushly photographed story of a temporary family that takes advantage of the Italian setting; despite its opening in death and destruction, nostalgia is the dominant emotion so that, although set in the present day, it has the feeling of a period film.
w Hugh Whitemore wd Richard Loncraine novella William Trevor ph Marco Pontecorvo m Claudio Capponi pd Luciana Arrighi ed Humphrey Dixon
☆ Maggie Smith (Emily Delahunty), Chris Cooper (Tom Riversmith), Timothy Spall (Quinty), Ronnie Barker (The General), Emmy Clarke (Aimee), Giancarlo Giannini (Inspector Girotti), Libero de Rienzo (Dr Innocenti)
'Condescendingly machine-tooled for the Saga market, a bit soppy, a bit soggy, and set somewhere nice.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

My Hustler ★
US 1965 70m bw
Vaughan/Factory Films (Andy Warhol)
Two men and two women compete for the sexual attentions of a blond hustler.
An apparently unedited two reels of film that, for all its apparent casualness and spontaneity, maintains its interest.
w Chuck Wein d Andy Warhol ph Andy Warhol
☆ Paul America, Ed Hood, Joseph Campbell, John McDermott, Genevieve Charbon, Dorothy Dean
'A complex and unified whole, in which the form and the content relate in new and surprising ways. The film is the clearest guide we have to the innovations which are uniquely Warhol's.' – Tony Rayns, MFB
'The downer, and it is a major one, is that these shallow, one-dimensional people are worth examining at all. They, and their situation, like their existence, are not really worth a second look, let alone seventy minutes of film.' – Peter Buckley, Films and Filming

My Kingdom
GB 2001 116m DeLuxe
Metro Tartan/Sky/Close Grip/Primary (Neal Weisman, Gabriela Bacher)
An ageing gangster lives to regret handing over his organisation to his daughters.
A trite thriller based on King Lear, and as sadistic without being in the least tragic.
w Nick Davies, Don Boyd inspired by King Lear by William Shakespeare d Don Boyd ph Dewald Aukema m Deirdre Gribbin, Simon Fisher Turner pd Luana Hanson ed Adam Ross
☆ Richard Harris (Sandeman), Lynn Redgrave (Mandy), Tom Bell (Quick), Emma Catherwood (Jo), Aidan Gillen (Barry Puttnam), Louise Lombard (Kath), Paul McGann (Dean), Jimi Mistry (Jug)
'Bleakly satisfying drama.' – Film Review

My Kingdom for a Cook
US 1943 81m bw
P. J. Wolfson/Columbia
An English author on a US lecture tour steals his hostess's cook.
Curious comedy with the star seeming to play an unsympathetic Alexander Woollcott type.
w Harold Goldman, Andrew Solt, Joseph Hoffman, Jack Henley d Richard Wallace ☆ Charles Coburn, Marguerite Chapman, Bill Carter, Isobel Elsom, Ed Gargan

My Learned Friend ★★★
GB 1943 76m bw
Ealing (Michael Balcon)
A shady lawyer is last on a mad ex-convict's murder list of those who helped get him convicted.
Madcap black farce, plot-packed and generally hilarious; the star's last vehicle, but one of his best, with superbly timed sequences during a pantomime and on the face of Big Ben.
w John Dighton, Angus MacPhail d Basil Dearden, Will Hay ph Wilkie Cooper m Ernest Irving ad Michael Relph ed Charles Hasse
☆ Will Hay (William Fitch), Claude Hulbert (Claude Babbington), Mervyn Johns (Grimshaw), Ernest Thesiger (Ferris), Charles Victor ("Safety" Wilson), Lloyd Pearson (Col. Chudleigh), Maudie Edwards (Aladdin), G. H. Mulcaster (Dr. Scudamore), Gibb McLaughlin (Butler)

My Left Foot ★★
GB 1989 103m Technicolor
Palace/Fernadale Films/Granada TV International/Radio Telefis Eireann (Noel Pearson)
Biopic of the Irish writer and painter Christy Brown, crippled from birth by cerebral palsy.
Pedestrian narrative, relying on cinematic clichés, but enlivened by the intensity of Day-Lewis's performance and some good ensemble acting.
w Shane Connaughton, Jim Sheridan book Christy Brown d Jim Sheridan ph Jack Conroy m Elmer Bernstein pd Austen Spriggs ed J. Patrick Duffner
☆ Daniel Day-Lewis, Ray McAnally, Brenda Fricker, Ruth McCabe, Fiona Shaw, Eanna MacLiam, Alison Whelan, Declan Croghan, Hugh O'Conor, Cyril Cusack
Daniel Day-Lewis; Brenda Fricker best picture; best director; best adapted screenplay
Daniel Day-Lewis; Ray McAnally (as supporting actor)

My Life
US 1993 116m Technicolor
Guild/Zucker Brothers (Jerry Zucker, Bruce Joel Rubin, Hunt Lowry)
A man dying of cancer decides to make a videotape explaining himself to his unborn son.
A film that is interesting as a social document, in articulating American attitudes to life and its championing of childish attitudes, but which is much less successful as a movie, content to evoke easy tears.
wd Bruce Joel Rubin ph Peter James m John Barry pd Neil Spisak ed Richard Chew
☆ Michael Keaton, Nicole Kidman, Bradley Whitford, Queen Latifah, Michael Constantine, Rebecca Schull, Mark Lowenthal, Haing S. Ngor
'The sincere, often touching story tugs shamelessly at the heart strings.' – Variety
'This bravely sentimental Hollywood film misses the mark.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian
'The sort of New Age film that believes in everything and nothing at the same time, and turns every emotion into a therapy-wallow.' – Adam Mars-Jones, Independent

My Life and Times with Antonin Artaud ★
France 1993 90m bw
Metro Tartan/Archipel 33/Laura/La Sept/France 2 (Denis Freyd) original title: En compagnie d'Antonin Artaud
In 1946, an unsuccessful poet becomes a friend of Artaud, the writer and actor, on his release from the asylum where he has been held for nine years.
An understated biopic of the last two years of Artaud's life, as witnessed by a young admirer; despite its portrait of a driven, self-obsessed man only slightly sane, it has both charm and wit.
w Gérard Mordillat, Jérôme Prieur book Jacques Prevel d Gérard Mordillat ph François Catonné m Jean-Claude Petit ad Jean-Pierre Clech ed Sophie Rouffio ☆ Sami Frey, Marc Barbé, Julie Jézéquel, Valérie Jeannet, Clotilde de Bayser, Charlotte Valandrey
'Compulsively told, its (sometimes heavyweight) intellectualizing never fails to engage both the mind and the eye.' – Nigel Robinson, Film Review

My Life as a Dog ★★★
Sweden 1985 101m Fujicolour
Svensk Filmindustri/Film-Teknik original title: Mitt Liv Som Hund
12-year-old Ingemar learns to cope with his mother's illness and death, and his own propensity for getting into trouble, while staying with his aunt and uncle in the country.
By turns painful and funny, the film manages to achieve genuine charm while steering clear of sentimentality.
w Lasse Hallström, Reidar Jonsson, Brasse Brännström, Per Berglund novel Reidar Jonsson d Lasse Hallström ph Jörgen Persson, Rolf Lindström m Björn Isfält ad Lasse Westfelt ed Christer Furubrand, Susanne Linnman ☆ Anton Glanzelius (Ingemar Johansson), Manfred Serner (Erik), Anki Lidén (His Mother), Tomas von Bromssen (Uncle Gunnar), Melinda Kinnaman (Saga), Ing-Marie Carlsson (Berit) best director; best adapted screenplay

My Life with Caroline ★
US 1941 81m bw
RKO (Lewis Milestone)
An understanding husband thinks his high-spirited wife may be having an affair.
Very minor romantic comedy with an agreeable air but no substance whatever.
w John Van Druten, Arnold Belgard d Lewis Milestone ph Victor Milner m Werner Heymann ☆ Ronald Colman, Anna Lee, Reginald Gardiner, Charles Winninger, Gilbert Roland

My Life Without Me
Canada/Spain 2003 106m colour
El Deseo/Milestones (Esther Garcia, Gordon McLennan)
Discovering that she has three months to live, a 23-year-old wife and mother puts her life, and the lives of those around her, in order.
Relentlessly feelgood weepie, in which our heroine, suffering from one of those terminal illnesses that leaves you radiant until the end, puts the world to rights.
wd Isabel Coixet story Pretending the bed is a raft by Nanci Kincaid ph Jean-Claude Larrieu m Alfonso de Villalonga pd Carol Lavalle ed Lisa Robinson
☆ Sarah Polley (Ann), Scott Speedman (Don), Deborah Harry (Ann's mother), Mark Ruffalo (Lee), Leonor Watling (Ann), Amanda Plummer (Laurie), Julian Richings (Dr Thompson), Maria de Medeiros (Hairdresser)
'Genuinely moving and even inspirational yarn.' – David Stratton, Variety
'Contrived, unconvincing and curiously

unmoving, though not badly acted.' – Philip French, Observer

My Little Chickadee

US 1939 83m bw
Universal (Lester Cowan)

A shady lady and an incompetent cardsharp unmask a villain in the old West.
A clash of comedy personalities which is affectionately remembered but in truth does not play very well apart from the odd line.
w Mae West, W. C. Fields d Edward F. Cline ph Joseph Valentine m Frank Skinner md Charles Previn
☆ Mae West, W. C. Fields, Joseph Calleia, Dick Foran, Margaret Hamilton

'It obstinately refuses to gather momentum.' – The Times
'A classic among bad movies ... the satire never really gets off the ground. But the ground is such an honest mixture of dirt, manure and corn that at times it is fairly aromatic.' – Pauline Kael, 1968

'Fear Is Not Knowing. Terror Is Finding Out.'

My Little Eye

GB/France/US 2002 95m Technicolor
Momentum/Universal/StudioCanal/Working Title/WT (Jonathan Finn, Jane Villiers, David Hilton, Alan Greenspan)

Five contestants, who join a TV project to stay in a remote and isolated house for six months, begin to panic when one of them is murdered.
Deft thriller that makes confident use of the tricks of reality television and webcasts, though in the end it's just another slasher movie.
w David Hilton, James Watkins d Marc Evans ph Hubert Taczanowski m Bias pd Crispian Sallis ed Marguerite Arnold
☆ Sean CW Johnson (Matt), Kris Lemche (Rex), Stephen O'Reilly (Danny), Laura Regan (Emma), Jennifer Sky (Charlie), Bradley Cooper (Travis Patterson), Nick Mennell (Cop)

'Effective enough, though it doesn't bear thinking about too much' – Philip French, Observer

My Little Girl

US 1986 117m colour
Hemdale (Ismail Merchant)

A privileged teenager encounters problems when she goes to work at a centre for children in care.
Well-acted, moderately engaging drama of innocence and experience.
w Connie Kaiserman, Nan Mason d Connie Kaiserman ph Pierre Lhomme m Richard Robbins pd Dan Leigh ed Katherine Wenning
☆ James Earl Jones, Geraldine Page, Mary Stuart Masterson, Anne Meara, Pamela Payton Wright, Peter Michael Goetz, Peter Gallagher, Erika Alexander, Traci Lin

My Little Pony

US 1986 100m Technicolor
Sunbow/Hasbro

The inhabitants of Ponyland fear the wicked witch Hydia.
Immensely distended cartoon meant to plug a fashionable line of children's dolls.
w George Arthur Bloom d Michael Jones † Animated in Japan.

'A Modern Girl Having A Modern Good Time.'

My Lucky Star

US 1938 84m bw
TCF (Harry Joe Brown)

A shopgirl is innocently caught in a compromising situation with the owner's son.
Fluffy comedy, acceptable as a background for skating sequences.
w Harry Tugend, Jack Yellen story Karl Tunberg, Don Ettlinger d Roy del Ruth ph John Mescall md Louis Silvers songs Mack Gordon, Harry Revel
☆ Sonja Henie, Richard Greene, Joan Davis, Buddy Ebsen, Cesar Romero, Arthur Treacher, George Barbier, Louise Hovick, Billy Gilbert

'She rich and hairbrained. He's down and out but about to become her new butler...'

My Man Godfrey

★★★
US 1936 90m bw
Universal (Gregory La Cava)

A zany millionaire family invite a tramp to be their butler and find he is richer than they are.
Archetypal Depression concept which is also one of the best of the thirties sophisticated screwball comedies, though its pacing today seems somewhat unsure.
w Morrie Ryskind, Eric Hatch, Gregory La Cava d Gregory La Cava ph Ted Tetzlaff m Charles Previn ad Charles D. Hall ed Ted J. Kent
☆ Carole Lombard (Irene Bullock), William Powell (Godfrey Parke), Alice Brady (Angelica Bullock), Mischa Auer (Carlo), Eugene Pallette (Alexander Bullock), Gail Patrick (Cornelia Bullock), Alan Mowbray (Tommy Gray), Jean Dixon (Molly, Maid)

'Entertaining (and hugely successful) screwball comedy.' – Pauline Kael
§ script; Gregory La Cava (as director); Carole Lombard; William Powell; Alice Brady; Mischa Auer

'The butler did it! He made every lady in the house oh so very happy!'

My Man Godfrey

US 1957 92m Technicolor
Cinemascope
U-I (Ross Hunter)

The daughter of a rich and eccentric family hires an illegal immigrant as her butler.
Tepid remake which without the period background, and in unsuitable wide screen, raises very few laughs.
w Everett Freeman, Peter Berneis, William Bowers d Henry Koster ph William Daniels m Frank Skinner ad Alexander Golitzen, Richard H. Riedel ed Milton Carruth
☆ June Allyson, David Niven, Jessie Royce Landis, Jay Robinson, Robert Keith, Martha Hyer, Eva Gabor

My Mother's Castle: see Le Château de ma Mere

My Mother's Courage

Germany/Austria/GB 1995 90m colour
Clarence/Sentana/Little Bird/Vega (Michael Verhoeven)

An author, celebrating his 80th birthday, explains that we are to see a film based on his novel about his mother's escape from a Nazi train taking her from Budapest to Auschwitz.
A small-scale sidelight on the horror of the concentration camps, effective and moving in its focus on a fortunate individual.
wd Michael Verhoeven novel George Tabori ph Michael Epp, Theo Bierkens m Julian Nott, Simon Verhoeven ed David Freeman
☆ Pauline Collins, Ulrich Tukur, Heirbert Sasse, Natalie Morse, Robert Giggenbach, Günther Bothur, Simon Verhoeven, George Tabori (as himself)

'Achieves its aims with something of a twinkle in its eye. For that, it's rather remarkable, in its understated way.' – Nick Kimberley, Sight and Sound

My Name Is Joe

★★★
GB/Germany 1998 105m colour
Parallax/Road Movies (Rebecca O'Brien)

In Glasgow, a reformed alcoholic ruins his developing relationship with a nurse when he agrees to carry drugs for a local gangster in order to help a friend stay out of trouble.
Grim, compassionate account of deprivation, and the desperation of poverty, in which only the energy of Mullan's performance offers any optimism for the future.
w Paul Laverty d Ken Loach ph Barry Ackroyd m George Fenton pd Martin Johnson ad Fergus Clegg ed Jonathan Morris ☆ Peter Mullan (Joe Kavanagh), Louise Goodall (Sarah Downie), David McKay (Liam), Annemarie Kennedy (Sabine), David Hayman (McGowan), Gary Lewis (Shanks), Lorraine McIntosh (Maggie)

'Ken Loach works very near the top of his form, his angrily unblinkered vision of life at the rough end of modern Britain tempered with humanity, humour and a storyline that could almost come from a classic screwball romantic comedy.' – Kim Newman, Empire
† Peter Mullan won the best actor award at the Cannes Film Festival of 1998.
†† The film was subtitled for American audiences.

My Name Is Julia Ross

★★
US 1945 65m bw
Columbia

A girl is kidnapped and forced to impersonate an heiress.
A very good second feature which has been culted into a reputation beyond its worth, though it is undeniably slick and entertaining.
w Muriel Roy Bolton novel The Woman in Red by Anthony Gilbert d Joseph H. Lewis ph Burnett Guffey md Mischa Bakaleinikoff ☆ Nina Foch, Dame May Whitty, George Macready, Roland Varno, Doris Lloyd

'A superior, well-knit thriller.' – Don Miller
'A likeable, unpretentious, generally successful attempt to turn good trash into decently artful entertainment.' – James Agee

My Name Is Nobody

Italy/France/West Germany 1973 116m Technicolor Panavision
Gala/Rafran/Jacques Leitienne/Alcinter/Société Imp. Ex. Ci./Rialto (Claudio Mancini)

original title: Il mio nome è Nessuno
A young admirer persuades an ageing gunfighter to end his career in an explosive fashion.
This is less a conventional Western and more a comic horse opera, complete with a tombstone bearing the name of Sam Peckinpah and with Wagner's Ride of the Valkyrie, scored country and western style, accompanying the 150-strong Wild Bunch as they thunder by. Along the way it makes the occasional interesting comment about the reality and the mythology of the West.
w Ernesto Gastaldi story Fulvio Morsella, Ernesto Gastaldi, from an idea by Sergio Leone d Tonino Valerii ph Giuseppe Ruzzolini, Armando Nannuzzi m Ennio Morricone ad Gianni Polidori ed Nino Baragli
☆ Henry Fonda, Terence Hill (Mario Girotti), Jean Martin, Piero Lulli, Leo Gordon, Neil Summers, R. G. Armstrong, Steve Kanaly, Geoffrey Lewis

'Constitutes an explicit, thoroughgoing critique of Sam Peckinpah's work up to 1970, and if its own whimsical/elegiac tone is closer to the romantic comedy of Cable Hogue than to the romantic tragedies of Major Dundee and The Wild Bunch, then that signifies the warmth of its engagement with its subject rather than any reluctance to face up to Peckinpah's capacity for nihilism.' – Tony Rayns, MFB

My New Gun

US 1992 99m Foto-Kem
Feature/IRS (Michael Flynn)

A housewife finds that her life becomes full of danger after her husband buys her a gun and she lends it to her neighbour.
A one-joke suburban sitcom that misses most of its targets.
wd Stacy Cochran ph Ed Lachman m Pat Irwin pd Tony Corbett ed Camilla Toniolo ☆ James LeGros, Diane Lane, Stephen Collins, Tess Harper, Bruce Altman, Maddie Corman, Phillip Seymour, Bill Raymond

'Feeble farrago ... flimsily inept.' – Tom Hutchinson, Film Review
'In a word? Dull.' – Independent

My Night with Maud: see Ma Nuit chez Maud

My Old Man's a Fireman. see The Chief

My Outlaw Brother

US 1951 78m bw
Eagle Lion

A young man is shocked to find that his elder brother is a notorious bandit.
Glum little semi-Western, unpersuasively cast.
w Gene Fowler Jnr d Elliott Nugent
☆ Mickey Rooney, Robert Preston, Robert Stack, Wanda Hendrix

'Wherever, Whatever, Have a nice day.'

My Own Private Idaho

US 1991 102m Alpha Cine
New Line (Laurie Parker)

A narcoleptic male prostitute makes friends with a slumming rich youth.
A variation on Shakespeare's Henry IV, complete with a seductive but dangerous Falstaffian figure, which becomes a distracting device, lessening the film's impact.
wd Gus Van Sant ph Eric Alan Edwards, John Campbell pd David Brisbin ed Curtiss Clayton ☆ River Phoenix, Keanu Reeves, James Russo, William Richert, Rodney Harvey, Michael Parker, Udo Kier

'One of those ambitious, over-reaching disappointments that is more interesting than some conservative successes.' – Variety
'It's a beautiful disaster, like a bomb test in the middle of nowhere.' – New Yorker

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

My Pal Gus

US 1952 84m bw
TCF (Stanley Rubin)

A business man has a five-year-old problem son and in sorting him out falls in love with his schoolteacher.
Unrewarding domestic drama with actors who look as though they would rather be somewhere else.
w Fay and Michael Kanin d Robert Parrish ph Leo Tover m Leigh Harline ☆ Richard Widmark, Joanne Dru, Audrey Totter, George Winslow, Joan Banks, Regis Toomey, Ludwig Donath

My Pal Trigger

US 1946 79m bw
Armand Schaefer/Republic

A cowboy tracks down the man who killed his horse's sire.
Folksy Western drama, a cut above the usual Rogers episode.
w Jack Townley, John K. Butler d Frank McDonald
☆ Roy Rogers, Dale Evans, Jack Holt, George 'Gabby' Hayes, Roy Barcroft

My Reputation

US 1946 96m bw
Warner (Henry Blanke)

A widow is talked about for dispensing too soon with her weeds.
Dim drama, hastily shot on familiar sets with a reach-me-down script.
w Catherine Turney novel Instruct My Sorrows by Clare Jaynes d Curtis Bernhardt ph James Wong Howe m Max Steiner
☆ Barbara Stanwyck, George Brent, Warner Anderson, Lucile Watson, John Ridgely, Eve Arden, Jerome Cowan, Esther Dale, Scotty Beckett

My Science Project

US 1985 91m Technicolor Panavision
Touchstone/Silver Screen Partners

A high school student investigates an old UFO and finds an energy-absorbing machine which can materialize objects from the past and future.
Disney-style fare with teenage sex: the mixture may not be for many.
wd Jonathan R. Betuel ph David M. Walsh m Peter Bernstein
☆ John Stockwell, Danielle von Zerneck, Fisher Stevens, Raphael Sbarge, Richard Masur, Dennis Hopper

My Sister Eileen ★

US 1942 96m bw
Columbia (Max Gordon)

Two Ohio girls come to New York and live with some zany friends in a Greenwich Village basement apartment.
Rather strained high jinks which were, not surprisingly, later musicalized.
w Ruth McKinney, Joseph Fields, Jerome Chodorov book Ruth McKinney d Alexander Hall ph Joseph Walker md Morris Stoloff ☆ Rosalind Russell, Janet Blair, Brian Aherne, Allyn Joslyn, George Tobias, Elizabeth Patterson, June Havoc ♗ Rosalind Russell

'Gayest Show Ever To Go Singing Across The CinemaScope Screen!'

My Sister Eileen ★

US 1955 108m Technicolor Cinemascope
Columbia (Fred Kohlmar)

Two Ohio girls move to an eccentric rooming house in Greenwich Village.
A musical version of a collection of stories that became a book, a film and a play: watchable but hardly stimulating.
w Blake Edwards, Richard Quine play Joseph Fields, Jerome Chodorov d Richard Quine ph Charles Lawton Jnr m George Duning md Morris Stoloff ch Bob Fosse songs Jule Styne, Leo Robin
☆ Betty Garrett, Janet Leigh, Jack Lemmon, Bob Fosse, Kurt Kasznar, Horace MacMahon, Dick York
'Even those well-acquainted with all of the material will find a freshness here that assures acceptance.' – Variety
† The play was also the basis of a later Broadway musical, Wonderful Town.

My Six Convicts ★

US 1952 104m bw
Columbia/Stanley Kramer

A psychologist joins the staff of an American prison and gains the trust of six inmates.
Moderately interesting semi-documentary melodrama marred by a conventional prison break climax.
w Michael Blankfort book Donald Powell Wilson d Hugo Fregonese ph Guy Roe m Dmitri Tiomkin
☆ John Beal, Millard Mitchell, Gilbert Roland, Marshall Thompson, Regis Toomey

My Six Loves

US 1963 101m Technicolor
Paramount/Gant Gaither

A musical comedy star goes to the country for a rest and with the help of the local minister adopts six scruffy children.
Icky sentimental comedy for the easily pleased.
w John Fante, Joseph Calvelli, William Wood d Gower Champion ph Arthur E. Arling m Walter Scharf songs Jimmy Van Heusen, Sammy Cahn
☆ Debbie Reynolds, David Janssen, Cliff Robertson, Eileen Heckart
'Enough to make you settle for cyclamates – or cyanide.' – Judith Crist, 1973

My Son Alone: see American Empire

My Son John

US 1952 122m bw
Paramount/Rainbow (Leo McCarey)

An American Catholic family is horrified when its eldest son is revealed as a communist.
The lower depths of Hollywood's witch hunt cycle are marked by this Goldwynesque family saga, all sweetness and light, in which the commie son is treated as though he had rabies. Purely as entertainment the plot is pretty choppy and defeats all attempts at acting.
w Myles Connolly, Leo McCarey d Leo McCarey ph Harry Stradling m Robert Emmett Dolan
☆ Helen Hayes, Robert Walker, Dean Jagger, Van Heflin, Minor Watson, Frank McHugh, Richard Jaeckel
♗ Leo McCarey (original story)

'Their tangled loves wove a web of hate!'

My Son, My Son ★

US 1940 117m bw
Edward Small

A man who becomes rich spoils his son and lives to regret it.
Solid narrative from a bestseller.
w Lenore Coffee novel Howard Spring d Charles Vidor ph Harry Stradling m Edward Ward ad John DuCasse Schulze
☆ Brian Aherne, Madeleine Carroll, Louis Hayward, Laraine Day, Henry Hull
♗ art direction

My Son the Fanatic ★★

GB 1997 86m Metrocolor
BBC/UGC/Arts Council/Zephyr (Chris Curling)

A Pakistani taxi driver, who has embraced British ways, is horrified by his son's reversion to a fundamentalist religious outlook.
Engrossing domestic drama with a twist, as the young uphold traditional values; it makes some effective points about tolerance and bigotry and the clash between cultures and generations.
w Hanif Kureishi story Hanif Kureishi d Udayan Prasad ph Alan Almond m Stephen Warbeck pd Grenville Horner ed David Gamble
☆ Om Puri, Rachel Griffiths, Stellan Skarsgard, Akbar Kurtha, Gopi Desai, Harish Patel, Sarah Jane Potts
'An engagingly offbeat love story.' – Variety

My Son the Vampire: see Mother Riley Meets the Vampire

My Stepmother Is an Alien

US 1988 108m Film House colour
Columbia TriStar/Weintraub Entertainment (Ronald Parker, Franklin R. Levy)

A scientist marries a beautiful woman from another planet.
Feeble comedy with little point and no taste.
w Jerico, Herschel Weingrod, Timothy Harris, Jonathan Reynolds d Richard Benjamin ph Richard H. Kline m Alan Silvestri pd Charles Rosen ed Jacqueline Cambas, Brian Chambers
☆ Dan Aykroyd, Kim Basinger, Jon Lovitz, Alyson Hannigan, Joseph Maher, Seth Green, Ann Prentiss, Wesley Mann, Tony Jay, Peter Bromilow

'The most dangerous thing to want is more.'

My Summer of Love ★★ 6

GB 2004 83m Technicolor
ContentFilm/BBC Films, Film Consortium/Baker Street/Take/Apocalypso (Tanya Seghatchian, Chris Collins)

During a hot summer in a Yorkshire town, an unhappy and lonely 16 year-old girl, living with her evangelical born-again brother, forms a loving relationship with a bored rich girl.
Despite an unconvincing ending, an insightful, bittersweet story of a brief love that captures the indolent delights of a hot spell and also illumines class attitudes.
w Paul Pawlikowski, Michael Wynne novel Helen Cross d Paul Pawlikowski ph Ryszard Lenczewski m Alison Goldfrapp, Will Gregory pd John Stevenson ed David Charap ☆ Nathalie Press (Mona), Emily Blunt (Tamsin), Paddy Considine (Phil), Dean Andrews (Ricky)
'A film that aches with passion yet smothers it at the same time... intelligent, taboo, and extremely funny.' – James Christopher, Times ♈ British film

'He broke her heart. She broke his everything.'

My Super Ex-Girlfriend ★ 4

US 2006 95m
TCF/New Regency/Pariah (Arnon Milchan, Gavin Polone)

When a New York architect dumps his superhero girlfriend G-Girl, she uses all her crime-fighting powers to make his life a misery.
Distinct lack of focus and energy in this heavy-handed misfire makes its one-joke premise quickly disappear into a laughter-free zone.
w Don Payne d Ivan Reitman ph Don Burgess m Teddy Castellucci pd Jane Musky ad Patricia Woodbridge ed Wendy Green Bricmont, Sheldon Kahn sp Clay Pinney
☆ Uma Thurman (Jenny Johnson/G-Girl), Luke Wilson (Matt Saunders), Anna Faris (Hannah Lewis), Rainn Wilson (Vaughn Haige), Eddie Izzard (Professor Bedlam/Barry)
'Fatal Attraction meets Wonder Woman.' – Manohla Dargis, The New York Times

My Sweet Little Village ★★

Czechoslovakia 1985 100m colour
Cannon/Barrandov Film Studio '85 (Jan Suster)

Life in a small village, where a mentally-retarded worker is forced to move to Prague.
Charming, good-hearted film of a small community where individuality flourishes.
w Zdenek Sverak d Jiri Menzel ph Jaromir Sofr m Jiri Sust pd Zbyner Hoch ed Jiri Brozeck
☆ Janos Ban, Marian Labuda, Rudolf Hrusinsky, Milena Dvorska, Ladislav Zupanic, Petr Cepek
♗ best foreign film

My Teenage Daughter

GB 1956 100m bw
British Lion/Everest (Herbert Wilcox)
US title: Teenage Bad Girl

A widow's seventeen-year-old daughter meets an aggressive young man and ends up in court.
Predictable domestic drama, a tame British version of Rebel without a Cause.
w Felicity Douglas d Herbert Wilcox ph Max Greene
☆ Anna Neagle, Sylvia Syms, Kenneth Haigh, Norman Wooland, Wilfrid Hyde-White, Julia Lockwood, Helen Haye

'School's out...but Bobby's education has just begun!'

My Tutor

US 1982 97m DeLuxe
Crown

Two teenage boys try to lose their virginity.
As woeful as it sounds.
w Joe Roberts d George Bowers ph Mac Ahlberg m Webster Lewis ad Linda Pearl ed Sidney Wolinsky
☆ Matt Lattanzi (Bobby Chrystal), Caren Kaye (Terry Green), Kevin McCarthy (Mr Chrystal), Arlene Golonka (Mrs Chrystal), Crispin Glover (Jack)

My Two Husbands: see Too Many Husbands

My Uncle Antoine

Canada 1971 110m Eastmancolor
National Film Board of Canada

In a Quebec village a young boy reluctantly helps his undertaker uncle to deliver a coffin.

French speaking comedy drama with a sour edge, as thoughts of death mar a family Christmas.
w Clément Perron d Claude Jutra
ph Michel Brault m Jean Cousineau ☆ Jacques Gagnon, Lyne Champagne, Jean Duceppe, Olivette Thibault

My Way Home ★★★

GB 1979 72m bw
BFI (Judy Cottam, Richard Craven)

Leaving a children's home to become a miner and then a tramp, a young man's miserable life changes for the better when he is called up for National Service and goes to Egypt.
The poverty of the lives depicted is mirrored by the directorial style – austere, spare, non-committal – to create a Calvinist masterpiece illuminated by a little hope.
wd Bill Douglas ph Ray Orton ad Oliver Bouchier, Elsie Restorick ed Mick Audsley
☆ Stephen Archibald (Jamie), Paul Kermack (Jamie's father), Jessie Combe (Father's wife), William Carrol (Their son, Archie), Morag McNee (Father's girl friend), Lennox Milne (Grandmother), Gerald James (Mr. Bridge)
† The third of a trilogy of autobiographical films that began with My Childhood and My Ain Folk (qqv).

My Wife is an Actress: see Ma Femme Est Une Actrice

My Wife's Best Friend

US 1952 87m bw
TCF

A wife learns of her husband's infidelity, and imagines how Cleopatra, Joan of Arc and other historical figures might handle the situation.
A sharp little comedy rather similar to Unfaithfully Yours.
w Isobel Lennart d Richard Sale
☆ Anne Baxter, Macdonald Carey, Cecil Kellaway, Casey Adams, Catherine McLeod

My Wife's Family

GB 1931 80m bw
BIP

A wife thinks her husband has an illegitimate child.
Archetypal British farce. This may be the best version; it was also made with Charlie Clapham in 1941 and with Ronald Shiner in 1956.
w Fred Duprez and Val Valentine play Fred Duprez, Hal Stephens and Harry B. Linton d Monty Banks ☆ Gene Gerrard, Muriel Angelus, Jimmy Godden, Amy Veness

My Wild Irish Rose

US 1947 101m Technicolor
Warner (William Jacobs)

The ups and downs of Irish tenor Chauncey Olcott and his encounters with Lillian Russell.
Inoffensive but not very exciting period musical, rather lacking in humour.
w Peter Milne book Rita Ilcott d David Butler ph Arthur Edeson m Ray Heindorf, Max Steiner ch Le Roy Prinz
☆ Dennis Morgan, Arlene Dahl, Andrea King, Alan Hale, George Tobias
♪ Ray Heindorf, Max Steiner

My World Dies Screaming: see Terror in the Haunted House

'At last, the book that couldn't be written is now the motion picture that couldn't be made!'

Myra Breckinridge

US 1970 94m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF (Robert Fryer)

After a sex-change operation a film critic goes to Hollywood to accomplish the deflation of the American male.
A sharply satirical novel has been turned into a sleazy and aimless picture which became a watershed of permissiveness; after international outcry it was shunned even by its own studio. A few good laughs do emerge from the morass, but even the old clips are misused.
w Mike Sarne, David Giler novel Gore Vidal d Mike Sarne ph Richard Moore m John Philips md Lionel Newman
☆ Mae West, Raquel Welch, John Huston, Rex Reed, Jim Backus, John Carradine, Andy Devine

'Whatever the novel may be like, it surely cannot be this sort of witless, lip-smacking, continuously inept cop-out.' – John Simon
'About as funny as a child molester.' – Time
'A disjointed patchwork of leers, vulgarity and general ineptness.' – Cue
'An incompetent attempt at exploitation by an industry that knew once, at the very least, how to make a dishonest buck.' – Newsweek
'I don't want subtlety. I want vulgarity.' – Michael Sarne

The Mysterious Dr Fu Manchu

US 1929 80m bw
Paramount

After the Boxer rebellion an evil Chinese seeks the death of British officers.
First but not the worst of the yellow peril's sinister adventures; to be taken for what it is, however.
w Florence Ryerson, Lloyd Corrigan
d Rowland V. Lee
☆ Warner Oland, Jean Arthur, Neil Hamilton, O. P. Heggie, William Austin

Mysterious Intruder

US 1946 62m bw
Columbia

A private detective seeks a missing heiress.
Intriguing minor thriller, part of the Whistler series.
w Eric Taylor d William Castle
☆ Richard Dix, Barton MacLane, Nina Vale, Regis Toomey

Mysterious Invader: see The Astounding She-Monster

Mysterious Island ★

GB 1961 101m Technicolor
Columbia/Ameran (Charles Schneer)

Union officers escape by balloon and join shipwrecked English ladies on a strange island where they are menaced by prehistoric monsters and helped by Captain Nemo.
Rambling, lively juvenile adventure with good moments and excellent monsters.
w John Prebble, Dan Ullman, Crane Wilbur novel Jules Verne d Cy Endfield ph Wilkie Cooper m Bernard Herrmann sp Ray Harryhausen
☆ Joan Greenwood, Michael Craig, Herbert Lom, Michael Callan, Gary Merrill
† An early sound version was made by MGM in 1929, directed by Lucien Hubbard. Despite Technicolor and a cast which included Lionel Barrymore it was judged unsatisfactory, and concentrated less on stop-frame monsters than on the submarine elements ignored in the above but remade in Captain Nemo and the Underwater City (qv).

The Mysterious Lady

US 1928 84m (24 fps) bw silent
MGM

A glamorous Russian spy has to save her lover from execution as a traitor.
Threadbare star melodrama.
w Bess Meredyth d Fred Niblo
ph William Daniels
☆ Greta Garbo, Conrad Nagel, Gustav von Seyffertitz

Mysterious Mr Moto

US 1938 62m bw
TCF

Mr Moto goes to London to expose the leader of The League of Assassins, Continental criminals who work as contract killers.
One of the lesser episodes in the series; the problem is what one character calls 'local character': London has rarely looked so unconvincing.
w Philip MacDonald, Norman Foster
d Norman Foster ph Virgil Miller md Samuel Kaylin ad Bernard Herzbrun, Lewis Creber ed Norman Colbert ☆ Peter Lorre, Mary Maguire, Henry Wilcoxon, Erik Rhodes, Harold Huber, Leon Ames, Forrester Harvey, Karen Sorrell

Mysterious Mr Wong

US 1935 60m bw
Monogram

A mandarin in New York's Chinatown will stop at nothing to collect the twelve coins of Confucius.
Tolerable programme filler with old-fashioned thrills.
w Nina Howatt story Stephen Keeler
d William Nigh
☆ Bela Lugosi, Wallace Ford, Arline Judge, Fred Warren

'Passably exciting.' – Variety

Mysterious Skin ★★★

USW/Netherlands 2004 105m colour
Tartan/Fortissimo/Antidote/Desperate (Mary Jane Skalski, Jeffrey Levy-Hinte, Gregg Araki)

In a small Kansas town, a teenage hustler and a boy who believes he was abducted by aliens are able to trace their problems back to traumatic events when they were younger.
Affecting film of child neglect and molestation, with an hallucinatory atmosphere.
wd Gregg Araki novel Scott Heim
ph Steve Gainer m Harold Budd, Robin Guthrie pd Devorah Herbert ed Gregg Araki
☆ Brady Corbett (Brian), Joseph Gordon-Levitt (Neil), Michelle Trachtenberg (Wendy), Jeff Licon (Eric), Bill Sage (Coach), Mary Lynn Rajskub (Avalyn Friesen), Elisabeth Shue (Mrs McCormick)

'Gorgeous, heartbreaking and utterly convincing work of art. Its characters stay with you, and by concentrating on the lives of two very different young men, it seems effortlessly to illuminate a period and a milieu.' – A. O. Scott, New York Times

'Dull film about pedophilia that fails to shed any light on the topic.' – Ray Bennett, Hollywood Reporter

Mystery, Alaska

US 1999 118m Technicolor Panavision
Buena Vista/Hollywood/Baldwin/Cohen–Rocking Chair (David E. Kelley, Howard Baldwin)

Life in an ice-hockey crazy, small Alasakan town is turned upside down when a match is arranged between its amateur players and New York professionals.
Genial but unremarkable tale of a small town entirely inhabited by stereotypical characters; the narrative strays into too many dull subplots to maintain any momentum.
w David E. Kelley, Sean O'Byrne d Jay Roach ph Peter Deming m Carter Burwell pd Rusty Smith ed Jon Poll cos Deena Appel
☆ Russell Crowe (John Biebe), Hank Azaria (Charles Danner), Mary McCormack (Donna Biebe), Burt Reynolds (Judge Walter Burns), Lolita Davidovich (Mary Jane Pitcher), Ron Eldard ('Skank' Marden), Colm Meaney (Mayor Scott Pitcher), Maury Chaykin (Bailey Pruitt), Michael McKean, Judith Ivey (Joanne Burns), Rachel Wilson (Marla Burns), Michael Buie (Connor Banks), Ryan Northcott (Stevie Weeks), Scott Grimes ('Birdie' Burns), Mike Myers (Donnie Shulzhoffer) and also Little Richard

'Curiously mild and underwhelming.' – Variety

Mystery Date

US 1991 99m DeLuxe
Orion (Cathleen Summers)

Out on a date with a new girlfriend, a shy youth is mistaken for a thief and a killer.
Dim, blackish 'teen comedy that tries hard to amuse and fails miserably.
w Parker Bennett, Terry Runté d Jonathan Wacks ph Oliver Wood m John DuPrez pd John Willett ed Tina Hirsch
☆ Ethan Hawke, Teri Polo, Brian McNamara, Fisher Stevens, Tony Rosato, Don Davis, James Hong, Victor Wong, B. D. Wong

'A reasonably entertaining pic but too lame to generate word-of-mouth.' – Variety

Mystery Liner

US 1934 62m bw
Monogram

Several murders take place at sea on a passenger liner.
Reputedly above-average whodunnit.
w Wellyn Totman novel The Ghost of John Holling by Edgar Wallace d William Nigh ☆ Noah Beery, Astrid Allwyn, Cornelius Keefe, Gustav von Seyffertitz, Edwin Maxwell

'Too good for the lesser grinds: exceptional indie entertainment.' – Variety

'They're Not Your Classic Superheroes... They're The Other Guys.'

Mystery Men ★

US 1999 120m DeLuxe
Universal/Dark House (Lawrence Gordon, Mike Richardson, Lloyd Levin)

An odd group of incompetent would-be superheroes attempt to fight crime.
An often amusing send-up of superheroes,

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

slickly made and with an excellent cast, though it would have been a much funnier film had it been half-an-hour shorter.
w Neil Cuthbert comic book Bob Burden d Kinka Usher ph Stephen H. Burum m Stephen Warbeck pd Kirk M. Petruccelli ed Conrad Buff ☆ Hank Azaria (Blue Raja), Janeane Garofalo (Bowler), William H. Macy (Shoveler), Kel Mitchell (Invisible Boy), Paul Reubens (Spleen), Ben Stiller (Mr Furious), Wes Studi (Sphinx), Greg Kinnear (Captain Amazing), Lena Olin (Dr Anabel Lee), Geoffrey Rush (Casanova Frankenstein), Tom Waits (Doc Heller), Eddie Izzard (Tony P), Claire Forlani (Monica), Ricky Jay (Vic Weems), Louise Lasser (Violet)

'A better action movie than the last Batman and funnier than most recent comedies.' – Hot Dog

The Mystery of Alexina

France 1985 90m colour
Electric Pictures/Les Cinéastes Associés/TF1 original title: Mystère Alexina
A convent-educated girl discovers that in reality she is masculine.
Although based on the diary of a 19th-century hermaphrodite, it fails to explore the subject in any depth, preferring a glossy romanticism instead.
w Jean Gruault, René Feret d René Feret ph Bernard Zitzermann m Anne-Marie Deschamps ed Ariane Boeglin
☆ Philippe Vuillemin, Valerie Stroh, Véronique Silver, Bernard Freyd, Marianne Basler, Pierre Vial

'A thing to bewitch your senses for days and days! Charming in the thrills! Gripping in the suspense!'

The Mystery of Edwin Drood ★

US 1935 85m bw
Universal
In a cathedral town, a drug-addicted choirmaster is his nephew's rival for the hand of Rosa Bud.
Fairly creditable attempt to deal with a famous unfinished novel. Slightly stilted, but good visuals and performances.
w John L. Balderston, Gladys Unger, Bradley King, Leopold Atlas novel Charles Dickens d Stuart Walker ph George Robinson m Edward Ward
☆ Claude Rains, Douglass Montgomery, Heather Angel, David Manners, E. E. Clive, Valerie Hobson

The Mystery of Edwin Drood

GB 1993 112m Metrocolor
Mayfair/First Standard Media (Keith Hayley)
An opium-addicted choirmaster becomes obsessed with the fiancée of his nephew and plots to marry her.
A low-budget thriller that fails to match Dickens's lurid imaginings and makes a poor job of completing the novel satisfactorily.
wd Timothy Forder novel Charles Dickens ph Martin McGrath m Kick Production pd Edward Thomas ed Sue Alhadeff
☆ Robert Powell, Nanette Newman, Gemma Craven, Jonathan Phillips, Rupert Rainsford, Michelle Evans, Rosemary Leach, Finty Williams, Ronald Fraser, Glyn Houston, Andrew Sachs, Freddie Jones, Barry Evans

'The only mystery about this Edwin Drood is why anyone bothered to make it.' – Philip Kemp, Sight and Sound

The Mystery of Kaspar Hauser: see The Enigma of Kaspar Hauser

The Mystery of Mr X ★

US 1934 84m bw
MGM (Lawrence Weingarten)
In foggy London, a jewel thief protects himself by finding the murderer of several policemen.
Passable mystery, later remade as The Hour of Thirteen.
w Howard Emmett Rogers, Philip MacDonald, Monckton Hoffe novel X vs Rex by Philip MacDonald d Edgar Selwyn ph Oliver T. Marsh
☆ Robert Montgomery, Elizabeth Allan, Lewis Stone, Ralph Forbes, Henry Stephenson, Forrester Harvey

'One of the best-made mystery mellers yet.' – Variety

The Mystery of the 13th Guest

US 1943 60m bw
Lindsley Parsons/Monogram
A girl beneficiary under her uncle's will is menaced when she goes to visit.
Ham-fisted remake of The Thirteenth Guest, which was a mite too complex in the first place. This version makes no sense at all and is cheaply produced.
w Charles Marion, Tim Ryan play Armitage Trail d William Beaudine
☆ Helen Parrish, Dick Purcell, Tim Ryan, Frank Faylen

The Mystery of the Mary Celeste

GB 1935 80m bw
Hammer
US title. Phantom Ship
A mad sailor kills his fellow crew members and jumps overboard.
Unpersuasive solution to an unsolved mystery in a production which sounds more interesting than it is.
wd Denison Clift
☆ Bela Lugosi, Shirley Grey, Arthur Margetson, Edmund Willard, Dennis Hoey

'Very strong stuff for those who like tragic entertainment.' – Variety

'Images of wax that throbbed with human passion. Almost woman! What did they lack?'

Mystery of the Wax Museum ★★★

US 1933 77m Technicolor
Warner (Henry Blanke)
A sculptor disfigured in a fire builds a wax museum by covering live victims in wax.
Archetypal horror material is augmented by a sub-plot about drug-running and an authoritative example of the wisecracking reporter school of the early thirties. The film is also notable for its highly satisfactory use of two-colour Technicolor and for its splendid art direction. Remade 1953 as House of Wax (qv).
w Don Mullally, Carl Erickson play Charles S. Belden d Michael Curtiz ph Ray Rennahan ad Anton Grot ed George Amy ☆ Lionel Atwill (Ivan Igor), Fay Wray (Charlotte Duncan), Glenda Farrell (Florence Dempsey), Frank McHugh (Jim), Gavin Gordon (Harold Winton), Allen Vincent (Ralph Burton), Edwin Maxwell (Joe Worth)
ATWILL: 'I offer you immortality, my child. Think of it: in a thousand years you shall be as lovely as you are now!'

'Would have been certain of better gate support a year ago. Recognizing this, the Technicolor and hyper-weirdness were apparently mandatory studio precautions to offset the element of belated arrival.' – Variety
'Marvellously grisly chiller.' – Judith Crist, 1977
'Its most telling details are its horrific ones. The fire at the beginning, with lifelike figures melting into grisly ooze; night time in the city morgue, with a dead body suddenly popping up as a side effect of embalming fluid; chases through shadows as the ghoulish sculptor collects bodies for his exhibit; and the shock when Atwill's homemade wax face crumbles to the floor and exposes the hidden demon.' – Tom Shales, The American Film Heritage, 1972
† A Region 1 DVD release includes this and the 1953 version of the film.

The Mystery of the Wentworth Castle: see Mr Wong

The Mystery of the Yellow Room ★

France 1931 96m bw
Osso
An attempt is made on the life of a scientist's daughter.
Complex mystery which has maintained some reputation.
wd Marcel L'Herbier novel Gaston Leroux ph L. H. Burel m Edouard Flament ☆ Hugette Ex-Duclos, Roland Toutain, Maxime Desjardins

Mystery Science Theater 3000: The Movie

US 1996 73m DeLuxe
Gramercy/Best Brains (Jim Mallon)
A mad scientist forces an astronaut and his robots to watch an edited version of the 50s sci-fi movie This Island Earth.
A joke that anyone can play at home, since it consists of three characters, seen in silhouette at the bottom of the screen, making fun of an old movie; occasionally the remarks are amusing, but more often they are irritating.
w Michael J. Nelson, Trace Beaulieu, Jim Mallon, Kevin Murphy, Mary Jo Pehl, Paul Chaplin, Bridget Jones d Jim Mallon ph Jeff Stonehouse m Billy Barber pd Jef Maynard ed Bill Johnson
☆ Michael J. Nelson, Trace Beaulieu, Kevin Murphy, Jim Mallon, John Brady

'Infectiously funny while it's unspooling but instantly forgettable, goofy item will play best to teenagers in an altered state and looks unlikely to go beyond cult status.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

Mystery Street ★

US 1950 93m bw
MGM (Frank E. Taylor)
Harvard medical scientists help solve a murder by examining the victim's bones.
Standard semi-documentary police thriller; well paced and quite entertaining.
w Sydney Boehm, Richard Brooks d John Sturges ph John Alton m Rudolph Kopp ☆ Ricardo Montalban, Sally Forrest, Elsa Lanchester, Bruce Bennett, Marshall Thompson, Jan Sterling
Leonard Spigelgass (original story)

Mystery Train ★★

US 1989 110m DuArt
Palace/JVC (Jim Stark)
Episodic film involving two Elvis Presley fans in Memphis, an Italian woman who sees Elvis's ghost and a Presley look-alike, all of whom converge on a seedy hotel for the night.
Rambling, leisurely film that contains a multitude of small pleasures.
wd Jim Jarmusch ph Robby Müller m John Lurie pd Dan Bishop ed Melody London ☆ Masatoshi Nagase, Youki Kudoh, Screamin' Jay Hawkins, Cinque Lee, Rufus Thomas, Nicoletta Braschi, Elizabeth Bracco, Joe Strummer, Rick Aviles, Steve Buscemi

The Mystic Masseur

GB/India 2001 118m colour
Miracle/Merchant Ivory/British Nandy Communications (Nayeem Hafizka, Richard Hawley)
An unsuccessful school teacher returns home and, after making his name as a healer and masseur, becomes a politician.
Uninvolving, episodic plod through a not very engaging life, told with little feel for character or setting.
w Caryl Phillips novel V. S. Naipaul d Ismail Merchant ph Ernie Vincze m Richard Robbins, Zakir Hussain pd Lucy Richardson ed Roberto Silvi cos Michael O'Connor
☆ Om Puri (Ramlogan), James Fox (Mr Stewart), Aasif Mandvi (Ganesh), Sanjeev Bhaska (Beharry), Ayesha Dharker (Leela), Jimi Mistry (Partap), Zohra Segal (Auntie), Sakina Jaffrey (Suruj Mooma)

'The combination of ... lack of substance and Merchant's lack of flair doesn't make for scintillating cinema.' – Edward Porter, Sunday Times
'A limp though not dislikeable affair.' – Observer

Mystic Pizza

US 1988 104m colour
Virgin/Samuel Goldwyn Company (Mark Levinson, Scott Rosenfelt)
Three young women experience love and affairs for the first time.
Likely to appeal to a young female audience and offering little of interest to anyone else.
w Amy Jones, Perry Howze, Randy Howze, Alfred Uhry story Amy Jones d Donald Petrie ph Tim Suhrstedt m David McHugh pd David Chapman ed Marion Rothman, Don Brochu
☆ Vincent Phillip D'Onofrio, Annabeth Gish, William R. Moses, Julia Roberts, Adam Storke, Lili Taylor, Conchata Ferrell, Porscha Radcliffe

'We bury our sins, we wash them clean.'

Mystic River ★★

US/Australia 2003 137m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Village Roadshow/NPV (Robert Lorenz, Judie G. Hoyt, Clint Eastwood)
In working-class Boston, the murder of the daughter of a tough ex-criminal brings together three childhood friends whose lives were wrenched apart by an earlier shocking event.

Brooding, grey-tinged drama that aspires to the stature ot tragedy, but falls short; the narrative is too manipulative and fatalistic, and buckles under the weight put upon it.
w Brian Helgeland novel Dennis Lehane d Clint Eastwood ph Tom Stern m Clint Eastwood pd Henry Bumstead ed Joel Cox
☆ Sean Penn (Jimmy Markum), Tim Robbins (Dave Boyle), Kevin Bacon (Sean Devine), Laurence Fishburne (Whitey Powers), Marcia Gay Harden (Celeste Boyle), Laura Linney (Annabeth Markum), Kevin Chapman (Val Savage), Thomas Guiry (Brendan Harris), Emmy Rossum (Katie Markum)

'As close as we are likely to come on the screen to the spirit of Greek tragedy.' – David Denby, New Yorker

'Solid whodunit, with disturbing, provocative, take-home insights into human nature.' – Rex Reed, New York Observer

'A true American beauty of a movie, a tale of men and their bonds told by and for adults who value the old-fashioned Hollywood-studio notion of narrative.' – Lisa Schwarzbaum, Entertainment Weekly

Sean Penn; Tim Robbins best picture; Clint Eastwood (as director); Brian Helgeland; Maria Gay Harden

The Myth

Hong Kong/China 2005 118m colour Panavision
JCE/China Film Group (Willie Chan, Solon So, Barbie Tung) original title: Sen-Hua

As he helps his scientist friend search for the secret of anti-gravity, an archaeologist dreams of an ancient time when he was a general in love with a concubine of the first Qin emperor.
Extravagant, over-long production that shifts from an epic period drama to Chan's more familiar modern mix of derring-do and comedy, throwing in along the way the Great Wall, the terracotta army, an underground palace and immortals; the mixture will be too rich for most tastes.
w Stanley Tong, Wang Hui Ling, Li Hai Shu d Stanley Tong ph Wong Wing Hang pd Oliver Wong ed Yau Chi Wai sp DCDC cos Thomas Chong
☆ Jackie Chan (Jack/Meng Yi), Kim Hee Seon (Ok Soo), Tony Leung Ka Fai (William), Mallika Sherawat (Samantha), Sun Zhou (Mr Ku), Shao Bin (Nangong Yin)

'Multi-period adventure flirts with considerable entertainment on one hand and near self-destruction on the other.' – Robert Koehler, Variety

The Myth of Fingerprints ②

US 1997 90m DuArt
Feature Film/Good Machine/Eureka (Mary Jane Skalski, Tim Perell, Bart Freundlich)

Four children return home to their ageing parents for the Thanksgiving weekend.
A predictable slice of dysfunctional family life, with a distant, overbearing father and a forgiving mother.
wd Bart Freundlich ph Stephen Kazmierski m David Bridie, John Phillips pd Susan Bolles ed Kate Williams, Ken J. Sackheim
☆ Arija Bareikis, Blythe Danner, Hope Davis, Laurel Holloman, Brian Kerwin, James LeGros, Julianne Moore, Roy Scheider, Michael Vartan, Noah Wyle

'This is one angst-ridden family saga that needn't be a totally repellent experience.' – Empire

Nacho Libre

US/Germany 2006 92m
UIP/Nickelodeon Movies/Black & White (Jack Black, David Klawans, Julia Pistor, Mike White)

A hapless cook moonlights as a masked wrestler to raise money for the monastery that raised him.

Oddball comedy. Its appeal depends on one's desire to see its portly star in figure-hugging spandex and Mexicans being ridiculed.

w Jared Hess, Jerusha Hess, Mike White d Jared Hess ph Xavier Perez Grobet m Danny Elfman pd Gideon Ponte ad Hania Robledo ed Billy Weber

☆ Jack Black (Ignacio), Ana del la Reguera (Sister Encarnacion), Hector Jimenez (Esqueleto), Darius A. Rose (Chancho), Moises Arias (Juan Pablo), Diego Eduardo Gomez (Chuy)

'An interminable journey through corny accents and gross sight gags.' – Steven Rosen, Screen International

'A daft idea perfectly calibrated to Black's pop mania.' – Ian Nathan, Empire

Nada ★★★

France/Italy 1974 134m Eastmancolor
Academy/Connoisseur/Verona/Films La Boétie (André Génovès)

A tough policeman tracks down a group of anarchists who kidnap the American Ambassador in Paris.

Bleak and violent film, expertly made, in which it is difficult to tell the good guys from the bad.

w Jean-Patrick Manchette novel Jean-Patrick Manchette d Claude Chabrol ph Jean Rabier m Pierre Jansen ad Guy Littaye ed Jacques Gaillard

☆ Fabio Testi (Diaz), Michel Duchaussoy (Treuffais), Maurice Garrel (Epaulard), Michel Aumont (Inspector Goemond), Lou Castel (D'Arey), Didier Kaminka (Meyer), Lyle Joyce (Ambassador Richard Poindexter), Viviane Romance (Gabrielle)

'Chabrol's most profoundly cynical film to date ... he lays bare the cause-and-effect mechanism of terrorism.' – Jan Dawson, MFB

Nadine

US 1987 88m Metrocolor
Columbia TriStar/ML Delphi (Arlene Donovan)

Husband and wife on the brink of divorce are drawn together by a suspicious killing.

Unresolvedly old-fashioned comedy which seems to need the Cary Grant touch.

wd Robert Benton ph Nestor Almendros m Howard Shore pd Paul Sylbert ed Sam O'Steen

☆ Jeff Bridges, Kim Basinger, Rip Torn, Gwen Verdon, Glenne Headly, Jerry Stiller

'Hurry, The Dead Travel Fast!'

Nadja

US 1995 100m bw
ICA/Kino Link (Mary Sweeney, Amy Hobby)

Dracula's daughter attempts to revive her father while beginning an affair with the wife of the nephew of vampire hunter Van Helsing.

Despite being executive-produced by David Lynch, this is more an exhumation than a revival of an increasingly tired genre: the narrative owes much to Dracula's Daughter, merely adding a lesbian twist, and its use of the toy camera Pixelvision to suggest a vampire's-eye view emphasizes that the project lacks any sharpness of style.

wd Michael Almereyda ph Jim Denault m Simon Fisher Turner pd Kurt Ossenfort ed David Leonard

☆ Suzy Amis, Elina Löwensohn, Galaxy Craze, Martin Donovan, Peter Fonda, Karl Geary, Jared Harris

'Almost completely devoid of urgency or warmth. A calculated attempt to evoke the zero degree existential dreadfulness of its immortal predators' lifestyles, the film is a pretty slow one to watch.' – Kim Newman

Naechyureol Siti: see Natural City

Nagaya Shinshiroku: see Record of a Tenement Gentleman

Nagisa no Sindbad: see Like Grains of Sand

Naked ★

GB 1993 131m Metrocolor
First Independent/Thin Man/Film Four (Simon Channing-Williams)

Running away from Manchester, where he rapes a woman, an unemployed, compulsively talkative misogynist comes to London and moves in with a former girlfriend.

A saga of an unlovely man out to destroy himself and others, which is bleak and despairing at its best, but more often is embittered overstatement and caricature.

wd Mike Leigh ph Dick Pope m Andrew Dickson pd Alison Chitty ed Jon Gregory

☆ David Thewlis, Lesley Sharp, Katrin Cartlidge, Greg Cruttwell, Claire Skinner, Peter Wight, Ewen Bremner, Susan Vidler

'It would be hard to imagine a film much sourer than Naked, but sourness is not a fault, merely a characteristic. Hollowness, now, self-indulgence, a sort of gloating emotional ugliness – those are faults.' – Adam Mars-Jones, Independent

'This is a neorealist monster movie, and the monster won't lie down and die – he just keeps coming.' – Gavin Smith, Film Comment

'A startling leap from the petty comic viciousness of Mike Leigh's domestic satires into darker, more complex philosophical territory.' – Claire Monk, Sight and Sound

† David Thewlis won the award for best actor, and Mike Leigh for best director, at the Cannes Film Festival in 1993.

Naked Alibi

US 1954 85m bw
U-I (Ross Hunter)

The police track a homicidal baker to a Mexican border town.

Modest police thriller which sags after it crosses the border.

w Lawrence Roman d Jerry Hopper ph Russell Metty m Hans Salter

☆ Sterling Hayden, Gene Barry, Gloria Grahame, Marcia Henderson, Casey Adams, Chuck Connors

The Naked and the Dead

US 1958 131m Technicolor RKOscope
RKO Teleradio/Gregjac (Paul Gregory)

Adventures of an army platoon in the Pacific war.

Shorn of the four letter words which made the novel notorious, this is a routine war film, neither very good nor very bad.

w Denis and Terry Sanders novel Norman Mailer d Raoul Walsh ph Joseph LaShelle m Bernard Herrmann

☆ Aldo Ray, Cliff Robertson, Raymond Massey, William Campbell, Richard Jaeckel, James Best, Joey Bishop, Robert Gist, Jerry Paris, L. Q. Jones

'One of the worst movies ever made.' – Norman Mailer

Naked as Nature Intended

GB 1961 65m Eastmancolor
Compass/Markten (Harrison Marks)

Five women visit British tourist attractions before going to a Cornish naturist resort, where they briefly take off their clothes and romp in the sun.

Innocuous film that helped start the British sexploitation cycle of the 60s and 70s and made Pamela Green the best-known unclothed actress of her time.

wd Harrison Marks ph Roy Poynter

☆ Pamela Green, Jackie Salt, Petrina Forsyth, Stuart Samuels, Bridget Leonard, Angela Jones

† The film was originally going to be titled Cornish Holiday. It was at first banned by the British Board of Film Censors, but the makers submitted it to the London County Council and other local authorities who passed it for exhibition, forcing the BBFC to change its policy and certify such films.

'The Most Exciting Story Of The World's Most Exciting City!'

The Naked City ★★★★

US 1948 96m bw
Universal (Mark Hellinger)

New York police track down a killer.

Highly influential documentary thriller which, shot on location in New York's teeming streets, claimed to be giving an impression of city life; actually its real mission was to tell an ordinary murder tale with an impressive accumulation of detail and humour. The narrator's last words became a cliché: 'There are eight million stories in the naked city. This has been one of them.'

w Malvin Wald, Albert Maltz d Jules Dassin ph William Daniels m Frank Skinner, Miklos Rozsa md Milton Schwarzwald ad John DeCuir ed Paul Weatherwax

☆ Barry Fitzgerald (Lt. Dan Muldoon), Don Taylor (Jimmy Halloran), Howard Duff (Frank Niles), Dorothy Hart (Ruth Morrison), Ted de Corsia (Garzah), Adelaide Klein (Mrs. Batory)

William Daniels; Paul Weatherwax original story (Malvin Wald)

The Naked Country

Australia 1985 90m colour
Naked Country Productions (Ross Dimsey)

aka: Morris West's The Naked Country

In the outback, a rancher engaged in a bloody conflict with the aborigines over land they regard as sacred comes to understand their attitudes through his suffering.

An Australian variation on cowboys and Indians, average for the most part though managing a rousing climax reminiscent of Sam Peckinpah in its theme of redemption through violence.

w Tim Burstall, Ross Dimsey novel Morris West d Tim Burstall ph David Eggby m Bruce Smeaton ad Philip Warner ed Tony Paterson

☆ John Stanton, Rebecca Gilling, Ivar Kants, Tommy Lewis, Donald Blitner, Simon Chilvers, Malcolm Cork, John Jarratt

The Naked Dawn

US 1956 82m Technicolor
Universal-International

A hired robber finds that his boss is not to be trusted.

Heavy-going Mexican Western.

w Nina and Herman Schneider (Julian Zimet) d Edgar G. Ulmer ph Frederick Gately m Herschel Burke Gilbert

☆ Arthur Kennedy, Eugene Iglesias, Betta St John

† Screenwriter Julian Zimet was blacklisted, so at the time of the film's release the screenplay was credited to Zimet's brother-in-law and his wife.

Naked Earth

GB 1958 96m bw Cinemascope
TCF/Foray Films (Adrian Worker)

In 1895 a young Irish farmer goes to Africa to grow tobacco, but moves on to crocodile hunting.

Predictable and uninteresting epic of endurance; not very convincing either.

w Milton Holmes d Vincent Sherman ph Erwin Hillier

☆ Richard Todd, Juliette Greco, John Kitzmiller, Finlay Currie, Laurence Naismith, Christopher Rhodes, Orlando Martins

† Screenwriter Harold Buchman was forced to take his name off the credits of the film because he was blacklisted.

The Naked Edge

GB 1961 100m bw
UA/Pennebaker/Baroda (Walter Seltzer, George Glass)

A successful executive is suspected by his wife of an old murder in which he testified against the man who was convicted.
Dreary thriller which piles up red herrings in shoals, then abandons them all for a razor-and-bathroom finale.
w Joseph Stefano novel First Train to Babylon by Max Ehrlich d Michael Anderson ph Erwin Hillier m William Alwyn
☆ Gary Cooper, Deborah Kerr, Peter Cushing, Eric Portman, Diane Cilento, Hermione Gingold, Michael Wilding, Ronald Howard

The Naked Face

US 1984 106m Metrocolor
Cannon (Rony Yacov)

A Chicago psychiatrist finds himself a potential victim of the Mafia.
Muddled and violent mystery with a rather boring solution.
wd Bryan Forbes novel Sidney Sheldon ph David Gurfinkel m Michael J. Lewis pd William Fosser
☆ Roger Moore, Rod Steiger, Elliott Gould, Anne Archer, David Hedison, Art Carney, Ron Parady

Naked Fury

GB 1959 60m bw
Butcher's/Coenda (Guido Coen)

A robbery goes wrong when a gang is forced to take the night watchman's daughter as well as their loot.
Unconvincing thriller in which most of the crooks act like gentlemen, which robs the drama of any suspense as well as credibility.
w Brock Williams story Guido Coen d Charles Saunders ph Jimmy W. Harvey m Edwin Astley ad Duncan Sutherland ed Peter Pitt
☆ Reed de Rouen, Kenneth Cope, Leigh Madison, Arthur Lovegrove, Alexander Field, Tommy Eytle, Ann Lynn, Marianne Brauns, Arthur Gross

Naked Gun 2½: The Smell of Fear

US 1991 85m Technicolor
UIP/Paramount/Zucker/Abrahams/Zucker (Robert K. Weiss)

A clumsy police lieutenant investigates an attempt to kill a solar energy expert.
The mixture as before, although this time around the slapstick comedy is enlivened with fewer good jokes.
w David Zucker, Pat Proft d David Zucker ph Robert Stevens m Ira Newborn pd John J. Lloyd ed James Symons, Chris Greenbury
☆ Leslie Nielsen, Priscilla Presley, George Kennedy, O.J. Simpson, Robert Goulet, Richard Griffiths, Jacqueline Brookes, Anthony James, Lloyd Bochner
'At least two-and-a-half times less funny than its hilarious progenitor.' – Variety
'An appealing rag-bag of the ribald and the ridiculous, showing only the slightest signs of running out of steam.' – Philip Strick, Sight and Sound

Naked Gun 33⅓: The Final Insult ★

US 1994 82m DeLuxe
Paramount (Robert K. Weiss, David Zucker)

Detective Frank Drebin retires from the force and is persuaded to return as an undercover cop.
With some new jokes this time around, and deft parodies, this is the funniest of the series so far.
w Pat Proft, David Zucker, Robert LoCash d Peter Segal ph Robert Stevens m Ira Newborn pd Lawrence G. Paull ed Jim Symons
☆ Leslie Nielsen, Priscilla Presley, George Kennedy, O. J. Simpson, Fred Ward, Kathleen Freeman, Anna Nicole Smith, Ellen Greene, Ed Williams
'Loaded with the usual barrage of irreverent, politically incorrect and virtually non-stop gags.' – Variety

The Naked Gun: From the Files of Police Squad ★

US 1988 85m Technicolor
UIP/Paramount (Robert K. Weiss)

A bungling detective foils attempts to assassinate the Queen in Los Angeles.
A barrage of gags, some good, some dreadful, is harnessed to a limp narrative. Not as funny as it should be.
w Jerry Zucker, Jim Abrahams, David Zucker, Pat Proft d David Zucker ph Robert Stevens m Ira Newborn pd John J. Lloyd ed Michael Jablow
☆ Leslie Nielsen, Priscilla Presley, Ricardo Montalban, George Kennedy, O. J. Simpson, Susan Beaubian, Nancy Marchand, Raye Birk, Jeannette Charles
'Quickly and efficiently establishes its pattern of wildly escalating absurdity within each scene, combined with a series of gags related to each character throughout the film' – Philip Strick, MFB

The Naked Hills

US 1955 73m Pathécolor
Allied Artists/La Salle (Josef Shaftel)

Starting in 1849, a young prospector spends his life looking for gold.
Curious, mildly interesting saga with an obsession instead of a plot.
wd Josef Shaftel ph Frederick Gately m Herschel Burke Gilbert
☆ David Wayne, Marcia Henderson, Keenan Wynn, James Barton, Jim Backus, Denver Pyle

Naked in New York ★

US 1993 86m colour
Fine Line/Pandora (Frederick Zollo)

A young hopeful playwright reflects on his upbringing in a fatherless home, his on-and-off relationship with his girlfriend and the way his life is taken over by others.
Pleasant low-key drama of the young attempting to come to terms with the compromises of life.
w Dan Algrant, John Warren d Dan Algrant ph Joey Forsyte m Angelo Badalamenti pd Kalina Ivanov ed Bill Pankow
☆ Eric Stoltz, Mary-Louise Parker, Ralph Macchio, Jill Clayburgh, Tony Curtis, Kathleen Turner, Timothy Dalton, Roscoe Lee Browne, Whoopi Goldberg, Eric Bogosian, Quentin Crisp
'A charming, creative, but slightly inconsistent look at the dreams and loves of the artsy twentysomethings.' – Variety
† Martin Scorsese became the film's executive producer after reading Algrant's semi-autobiographical script.

The Naked Jungle ★

US 1954 95m Technicolor
Paramount/George Pal (Frank Freeman Jnr)

In 1901 a young woman is married by proxy to a South American cocoa planter, and when she arrives at his jungle home she has to conquer not only him but an army of soldier ants.
Mixture of Rebecca elements with a more unusual kind of thrill; all quite watchable, and the ant scenes very effective.
w Philip Yordan, Ranald MacDougall story Leiningen Versus the Ants by Carl Stephenson d Byron Haskin ph Ernest Laszlo m Daniele Amfitheatrof ☆ Charlton Heston, Eleanor Parker, William Conrad, Abraham Sofaer, John Dierkes, Douglas Fowley

The Naked Kiss ★

US 1964 92m bw
Allied Artists/F and F/AA (Samuel Fuller)

A prostitute tries to enter mainstream society.
Tough early work by a director who never compromised but seldom hit the public fancy.
wd Samuel Fuller ph Stanley Cortez m Paul Dunlap ad Eugene Lourie ed Jerome Thoms
☆ Constance Towers, Anthony Eisley, Michael Dante, Virginia Grey, Patsy Kelly, Betty Bronson

'Exterminate all rational thought.'

Naked Lunch ★

Canada/GB 1991 115m Film House colour
First Independent (Jeremy Thomas)

In the 1950s, a drug-addicted writer kills his wife while trying to emulate William Tell and flees to Interzone, an exotic place of paranoid fantasy.
Instead of the savagery and rampant homosexuality of the original, the film concerns the act of the book's creation, through the hallucinatory experiences of a writer, based on Burroughs, among the expatriate artistic community of Tangier. All that is carried over from the novel is the title and lack of narrative coherence.
wd David Cronenberg novel William S. Burroughs ph Peter Suschitzky m Howard Shore, Ornette Coleman (alto sax solos) pd Carol Spier ed Ronald Sanders sp creature effects: Chris Walas Inc.
☆ Peter Weller, Judy Davis, Ian Holm, Julian Sands, Roy Scheider, Monique Mercure, Nicholas Campbell, Michael Zelniker, Robert A. Silverman, Joseph Scorsiani
'A fascinating, demanding, mordantly funny picture that echoes many of the book's chief concerns, but also stands as a distinctively personal creation in its own right.' – Variety
'It's impossible to make a movie out of Naked Lunch. A literal translation just wouldn't work. It would cost $400 million to make and would be banned in every country of the world.' – David Cronenberg

The Naked Maja

Italy/US 1959 112m Technirama
MGM/Titanus (Goffredo Lombardo)

Peasant Francisco Goya becomes a famous painter through the influence of the Duchess of Alba.
Boring and unconvincing biopic.
w Giorgio Prosperi, Norman Corwin, Albert Lewin, Oscar Saul d Henry Koster ph Giuseppe Rotunno m Francesco Lavagnino
☆ Anthony Franciosa, Ava Gardner, Amedeo Nazzari, Gino Cervi, Lea Padovani, Massimo Serrato
'This travesty of Goya's life, country and period adds up to nothing more entertaining than a perfunctory, heavy-handed pageant.' – MFB

'Chiropractor by day. Wrestler by night.'

The Naked Man ★

US 1998 93m FotoKem
October (Ben Barenholtz)

A chiropractor-cum-wrestler becomes an all-action crusader for spinal integrity after his family is murdered.
Quirky comedy with some funny moments, including a shabby detective who makes Colombo look like Lord Peter Wimsey; but its stylised approach and broad tone cannot encompass the gruesome deaths which punctuate the action.
w J. Todd Anderson, Ethan Coen d J. Todd Anderson ph Jeff Barklage m Edward Bilous pd Kathleen M. McKernin ed Tricia Cooke, Mark Cretcher
☆ Michael Rapaport (Ed Bliss Jnr), Arija Bareikis (Kim), Rachael Leigh Cook (Delores), Martin Ferrero (Sammy), Joe Grifasi (Kaski), John Carroll Lynch (Driver), Michael Jeter (Sticks), John Slattery (Burns)

The Naked Night: see Sawdust and Tinsel

The Naked Prey ★

US 1966 94m Technicolor Panavision
Paramount/Theodora/Sven Persson (Cornel Wilde)

In 1840, a white hunter becomes brutalized when a tribe hunts him down as though he were a lion.
Savage adventure story with bloodthirsty detail; unusual and certainly effective.
w Clint Johnston, Don Peters d Cornel Wilde ph H. A. R. Thomson md Andrew Tracy, from African folk music ☆ Cornel Wilde, Gert Van Den Berg, Ken Gampu
'Overtones pretentious, but it tries.' – Sight and Sound
† script

The Naked Runner

GB 1967 104m Techniscope
Warner/Artanis (Brad Dexter)

British intelligence conceive a plan to turn an innocent businessman into a spy killer.
Silly espionage thriller further marred by its director's penchant for making a zany composition of every frame.
w Stanley Mann novel Francis Clifford d Sidney J. Furie ph Otto Heller m Harry Sukman
☆ Frank Sinatra, Peter Vaughan, Derren Nesbitt, Nadia Gray, Toby Robins, Cyril Luckham, Edward Fox, Inger Stratton
'It might be a good movie to read by if there were light in the theatre.' – Pauline Kael

The Naked Spur ★

US 1952 91m Technicolor
MGM (William H. Wright)

A bounty hunter has trouble getting his quarry back to base.
Standard big-studio Western shot in Colorado, with all characters motivated by greed.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

w Sam Rolfe, Harold Jack Bloom
d Anthony Mann ph William Mellor
m Bronislau Kaper ad Cedric Gibbons, Malcolm Brown ed George White ☆ James Stewart (Howard Kemp), Robert Ryan (Ben Vandergroat), Janet Leigh (Lina Patch), Millard Mitchell (Jesse Tate), Ralph Meeker (Roy Anderson)
♙ script

The Naked Street

US 1955 83m bw
Edward Small

A racketeer's daughter marries a worthless crook: her father saves him from the electric chair but he murders again.
Semi-documentary exposé melodrama about unpleasant people; reasonably proficient on its level.
w Maxwell Shane, Leo Katcher d Maxwell Shane ph Floyd Crosby m Ernest Gold md Emil Newman
☆ Anthony Quinn, Anne Bancroft, Farley Granger, Peter Graves

Naked Tango

US 1990 92m DeLuxe
Blue Dolphin/Sugarloaf/Gotan/Towa/Praesens/Grupo Baires (David Weisman)

In the 1920s a bored wife assumes the identity of a suicide, marries a dubious night-club owner in Buenos Aires, and falls in love with a tango-dancing gangster.
Luridly directed and acted, over-the-top romance that fails to convince, particularly in its attempt at a period setting.
wd Leonard Schrader story inspired by the work of Manuel Puig ph Juan Ruiz-Anchia m Thomas Newman pd Anthony Pratt ed Lee Percy, Debra McDermott ☆ Vincent D'Onofrio, Mathilda May, Esai Morales, Fernando Rey, Cipe Lincovsky, Josh Mostel, Patricio Bisso, Constance McCashin

'Too morbid and narrowly conceived to interest mainstream audiences.' – Variety

The Naked Truth ★

GB 1957 92m bw
Rank/Mario Zampi

US title: Your Past is Showing

Celebrities band together to kill a blackmailer who threatens to expose unsavoury aspects of their lives.
Frenzied black farce, quite a lot of which comes off.
w Michael Pertwee d Mario Zampi ph Stan Pavey m Stanley Black ☆ Peter Sellers, Terry-Thomas, Peggy Mount, Dennis Price, Shirley Eaton, Georgina Cookson

Naked under Leather: see Girl on a Motorcycle

The Naked Vampire: see La Vampire Nue

Naked Warriors: see The Arena

Namayeh Nazdik: see Close-Up

'Even men of God can trade with the Devil'

The Name of the Rose ★

US 1986 130m colour
TCF/Bernd Eichinger/Bernd-Schaefers/Cristaldi/Ariane/ZDF

In the 14th century, an English monk's visit to an Italian abbey is soured by a series of murders.
Curious, remote, randomly developed and edited, this can never have been an obvious candidate for box-office success: yet it did pretty well.
w Andrew Birkin, Gerard Brach, Howard Franklin, Alain Godard novel Umberto Eco d Jean-Jacques Annaud ph Tonino Delli Colli m James Horner pd Dante Ferretti ed Jane Seitz
☆ Sean Connery, F. Murray Abraham, Christian Slater, Michael Lonsdale, Elya Baskin

'A plodding misfire ... sorrowfully mediocre.' – Variety
♈ Sean Connery

'Two worlds. One journey.'

The Namesake ★★★

US/India/Japan 2007 121m
TCF/Fox Searchlight/Entertainment Farm/UTV/Mirabai/Cine Mosaic (Lydia Dean Pilcher, Mira Nair)

An Indian couple leave Calcutta for a new life in New York. Their son, torn between his Bengali roots and his American peers, struggles to find his identity – a problem that affects his romantic relationships.
A classic immigrant story about cultural clashes. Nair astutely contrasts the warm, exuberant colours of Calcutta with the bleached-out tones of wintry but more affluent New York: a perfect visual metaphor for what Ashoke and Ashima have lost and gained. This delicate balance informs the whole film: there's laughter through tears, hope mixed with sadness and pride in achievement laced with melancholy. It's ravishing to look at, genuinely touching, with a wisdom shot through with poignancy. The romantic life of the son, Gogol, takes an unexpected and hugely welcome twist near the end. But what stays in the memory is a deep empathy for these voluntary exiles, for whom no one place can ever be totally home again.
w Sooni Taraporevala novel Jhumpa Lahiri d Mira Nair ph Frederick Elmes m Nitin Sawnhey pd Stephanie Carroll ad Suttirat Larlarb, Tanmoy Chakroborty ed Allyson C. Johnson ☆ Irrfan Khan (Ashoke Ganguli), Tabu (Ashima), Kal Penn (Gogol Ganguli), Jacinda Barrett (Maxine), Zuleikha Robinson (Moushumi Mazumdar), Brooke Smith (Sally), Sahira Nair (Sonia)

'A considerable achievement, assured, moving, often very funny.' – Philip French, Observer
'Making you feel the presence of absences – of the distant and the departed, of dreams that never quite come true – is the key thing that this uneven film gets exactly right.' – Michael Sragow, Baltimore Sun

Namu the Killer Whale ★

US 1966 88m DeLuxe
United Artists (Lazlo Benedek)

A marine biologist traps a killer whale in a small cove so that he can study it, causing fear and suspicion among the local fishermen and villagers.
Pleasant movie of prejudice overcome by reason and example, aimed at a family audience and treating its animals with respect.
w Arthur Weiss d Laslo Benedek ph Lamar Boren m Samuel Matlovsky ad Eddie Imazu ed Erwin Dumbrille
☆ Robert Lansing, John Anderson, Richard Erdman, Lee Meriwether, Robin Mattson, Joe Higgins, Michael Shea

Nana ★

US 1934 89m bw
Samuel Goldwyn

GB title: Lady of the Boulevards

The high life and subsequent degradation of a Parisian demi-mondaine in the 1890s.
Stylish yet stolid slice of le beau monde, intended to create a new star.
w Willard Mack, Harry Wagstaff Gribble novel Emile Zola d Dorothy Arzner ph Gregg Toland m Alfred Newman
☆ Anna Sten, Lionel Atwill, Phillips Holmes, Richard Bennett, Mae Clarke, Muriel Kirkland, Reginald Owen, Jessie Ralph

'The star's resources should be sufficient to offset some of the lesser script deficiencies.' – Variety

Nana

France/Italy 1955 100m
Cygno Films/FLF (Jacques Roitfeld)

A courtesan and actress comes to grief.
Glossily unconvincing version, with a performance in the title role in the style of Lucille Ball.
w Henri Jeanson, Albert Valentin
d Christian-Jaque ph Christian Matras
m Georges Van Parys ad Robert Gys
ed Jacques Desagneaux
☆ Charles Boyer, Martine Carol, Walter Chiari, Marguerite Pierry, Paul Frankeur, Elisa Cegani, Dora Doll, Jacques Castlelot, Noel Roquevert

Nancy Drew

This series of second features starring Bonita Granville as a teenage small-town detective was moderately well received but quickly forgotten. The character was created in novels by Edward Stratemeyer and his daughter Harriet Evans; the films were all directed by William Clemens for Warner.
1938 Nancy Drew, Detective
1939 Nancy Drew, Reporter, Nancy Drew, Trouble Shooter, Nancy Drew and the Hidden Staircase

Nancy Goes to Rio

US 1950 99m Technicolor
MGM (Joe Pasternak)

Two actresses, mother and daughter, are both after the same part.
Mild shipboard musical.
w Sidney Sheldon d Robert Z. Leonard ph Ray June m George Stoll ☆ Jane Powell, Ann Sothern, Carmen Miranda, Barry Sullivan, Louis Calhern, Fortunio Bonanova, Hans Conried

Nancy Steele is Missing ★

US 1937 85m bw
TCF (Nunnally Johnson)

Crooks try to pass off a girl as the long lost heir to a fortune.
Slightly unusual, well cast melodrama.
w Gene Fowler, Hal Long novel C. F. Coe d George Marshall ph Barney McGill
m David Buttolph
☆ Victor McLaglen, Peter Lorre, June Lang, Jane Darwell, John Carradine, Walter Connolly

The Nanny ★

GB 1965 93m bw
ABP/Hammer (Jimmy Sangster)

A 10-year-old boy hates his nanny, and with good reason, for she is a neurotic murderess.
Muted Hammer experiment in psycho-pathology, with too much equivocation before the dénouement; the star's role allows few fireworks, and the plot is rather unpleasant.
w Jimmy Sangster novel Evelyn Piper
d Seth Holt ph Harry Waxman m Richard Rodney Bennett ☆ Bette Davis, Jill Bennett, William Dix, James Villiers, Wendy Craig, Pamela Franklin, Maurice Denham

'You'll Learn To Love Her. Warts And All.'

Nanny McPhee ★ 6

GB/US/France 2005 98m colour
Universal/MGM/StudioCanal/Working Title (Lindsay Doran, Tim Bevan, Eric Fellner)

A fearsome-looking nanny tames the unruly seven children of a widowed funeral director.
Gaudy, pleasantly untidy comedy of living by the rules.
w Emma Thompson book Nurse Matilda by Christianna Brand d Kirk Jones ph Henry Braham m Patrick Doyle pd Michael Howells ed Justin Krish, Nick Moore
☆ Emma Thompson (Nanny McPhee), Colin Firth (Mr Brown), Kelly Macdonald (Evangeline), Derek Jacobi (Mr Whee), Patrick Barlow (Mr Jowls), Celia Imrie (Mrs Quickly), Imelda Staunton (Mrs Blatherwick), Angela Lansbury (Aunt Adelaide)

'The kids will love the candy-box sets and costumes like confectionery-shop windows, the whimsy and farcical grotesqueness of it all.' – Rex Reed, New York Observer

Nanook of the North ★

US 1921 57m bw silent
Revillon Frères

The life of an Eskimo and his family.
Primitive but trail-blazing documentary, hard to sit through for modern audiences.
wd/ph/ed Robert Flaherty

'In a day of emotional and artistic deliquescence on the screen. a picture with the fresh strength and pictorial promise of Nanook of the North is in the nature of a revolution.' – Frances Taylor Patterson

† Nanook himself died of hunger on the ice shortly after the film was released.

Nanou

GB/France 1986 110m Eastmancolor
Umbrella-Caulfield/Arion

A young English girl, travelling through France, has an affair with a political activist.
Unsatisfactory film of an unsatisfactory romance.
wd Conny Templeman ph Martin Fuhrer m John Keane pd Andrew Mollo ed Tom Priestley
☆ Imogen Stubbs, Jean-Philippe Ecoffey, Daniel Day-Lewis, Lou Castel, Valentine Pelka, Anne-Marie Jabraud, Dominique Rousseau, Michel Robin, Roger Ibanez

Napló Gyermekeimnek: see Diary for My Children

Napoleon ★★★★

France 1927 378m approx (24 fps) bw (some colour) silent
WESTI/Société Générale de Films

The early life of Napoleon.
A cinematic epic which, although brilliant in most particulars, owes its greatest interest to its narrative sweep, its flair for composition and its use of triptych screens which at the end combine to show one giant picture, the clear precursor of Cinerama. In 1934 Gance revised his film and added stereophonic sound.
wd Abel Gance ph various m Arthur Honegger ad Schnitt, Schildnecht, Alexandre Benois, Jacouty, Meinhardt, Eugene Lourie ed Abel Gance
☆ Albert Dieudonné (Napoleon Bonaparte), Antonin Artaud (Marat), Pierre

Batcheff (General Lazare Hoche)
† The 1934 version ran 140m and included three-dimensional sound.

Napoleon and Samantha

US 1972 91m Technicolor
Walt Disney (Winston Hibler)

When his old guardian dies, a small boy and his girl friend run away with their pet lion.
Patchy, episodic action drama for older children, with a very sleepy lion.
w Stewart Raffill d Bernard McEveety ph Monroe Askins m Buddy Baker
☆ Michael Douglas, Will Geer
♗ Buddy Baker

'He's out to prove he's got nothing to prove.'

Napoleon Dynamite

US 2004 86m DeLuxe
Fox Searchlight/Paramount, MTV (Jeremy Coon, Sean C. Covel, Chris Wyatt)

A nerdy high school fantasist succeeds in getting his equally awkward friend elected as class president.
Deadpan comedy of social misfits sleepwalking through life, taken at a slow and soporific pace. The humour, such as it is, comes from the contrast between the characters' view of themselves and the chill reality.
w Jared and Jerusha Hess d Jared Hess
ph Munn Powell m John Swihart
pd Cory Lorenzen ed Jeremy Coon
☆ Jon Heder (Napoleon Dynamite), Jon Gries (Uncle Rico), Aaron Ruell (Kip), Efren Ramirez (Pedro), Tina Majorino (Deb), Diedrich Bader (Rex)
'Represents the definition of the comedy of condescension and ridicule.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety
'Its appeal eludes me.' – Philip French, Observer
† The film cost $500,000 and took more than $44m at the US box office.
†† The Region 1 DVD release includes commentary by Jared Hess, Jeremy Coon and Jon Heder.

Nāra Livet: see So Close to Life

Narayama Bushi-Ko: see The Ballad of Narayama

Narc ★

US 2002 105m DeLuxe
UIP/Lions Gate/Tiara Blu/Cutting Edge (Diane Nabatoff, Ray Liotta, Michelle Grace)

In Detroit, a disgraced undercover cop is forced to find the drug dealers who killed a colleague, in order to be rehabilitated.
Tough, rough-edged thriller about policemen on the edge of compromise and criminality.
wd Joe Carnahan ph Alex Nepomnischy
m Cliff Martinez pd Taava Sooder
ed John Gilroy
☆ Ray Liotta (Lt Henry Oak), Jason Patric (Nick Tellis), Chi McBride (Capt. Cheevers), Busta Rhymes (Beery), Anne Openshaw (Katherine Calvess), Richard Chevolleau (Steeds), John Ortiz (Ruiz)
'A movie that bristles with energy, from its stand-out, hand-held opening chase to its brutal, bloody denouement.' – Alan Morrison, Empire

The Narrow Corner

US 1933 71m bw
Warner

On an eastern island, a man on the run for murder finds he can't escape his fate.
Mediocre adaptation of a Somerset Maugham novel in which very little happens; the added love interest doesn't help.
w Robert Presnell d Alfred E. Green
☆ Douglas Fairbanks Jnr, Ralph Bellamy, Dudley Digges, Arthur Hohl, Patricia Ellis 'Considerably better than fair.' – Variety
† Remade three years later as Isle of Fury (qv).

The Narrow Margin ★★★

US 1952 70m bw
RKO (Stanley Rubin)

Police try to guard a prosecution witness on a train from Chicago to Los Angeles.
Tight little thriller which takes every advantage of its train setting. What the trade used to call a sleeper, it gave more satisfaction than many a top feature.
w Earl Fenton d Richard Fleischer
ph George E. Diskant ad Albert D'Agostino, Jack Okey ed Robert Swink
☆ Charles McGraw (Walter Brown), Marie Windsor (Mrs. Neall), Jacqueline White (Ann Sinclair), Queenie Leonard (Mrs. Troll)
'A taut, breathlessly fast and highly suspenseful "sleeper" par excellence.' – Time Out, 1986
original story (Martin Goldsmith, Jack Leonard)

'They Want Her Dead. He Needs Her Alive.'

Narrow Margin

US 1990 97m Technicolor Panavision
Guild/Carolco (Jonathan A. Zimbert)

A district attorney and a key witness in a trial take refuge on a train from pursuing gangsters.
Inferior remake of the 1952 film, with little sense of suspense.
w Earl Fenton Jnr story Martin Goldsmith, Jack Leonard m Bruce Broughton pd Joel Schiller ad Kim Mooney ed James Mitchell d/ph Peter Hyams
☆ Gene Hackman, Anne Archer, James B. Sikking, J. T. Walsh, M. Emmet Walsh, Susan Hogan, Nigel Bennett, J. A. Preston † Variety reported that while the original film cost $230,000 to make, the remake was nearly a hundred times more expensive, at $21 million.

The Narrowing Circle

GB 1955 66m bw
Fortress Films/Eros

Murder on the staff of a magazine.
Very tolerable mystery which wastes no time and plays fair.
w Doreen Montgomery novel Julian Symons d Charles Saunders ph Jonah Jones m Reg Owen
☆ Paul Carpenter, Hazel Court, Ferdy Mayne, Russell Napier, Trevor Reid

'The damnedest thing you ever saw!'

Nashville ★★★

US 1975 161m Metrocolor Panavision
Paramount/ABC (Robert Altman)

A political campaign in Nashville organizes a mammoth pop concert to gain support.
Kaleidoscopic, fragmented, multi-storied musical melodrama, a mammoth movie which can be a bore or an inspiration according to taste. Certainly many exciting moments pass by, but the length is self-defeating.
w Joan Tewkesbury d Robert Altman
ph Paul Lohmann md Richard Baskin
ed Sidney Levin, Dennis M. Hill
☆ Geraldine Chaplin (Opal), David Arkin (Norman Chauffeur), Barbara Baxley (Lady Pearl), Ned Beatty (Delbert Reese), Karen Black (Connie White), Keith Carradine (Tom Frank), Henry Gibson (Haven Hamilton), Keenan Wynn (Mr. Green), Lily Tomlin (Linnea Reese), Ronee Blakley (Barbara Jean)
'A gigantic parody ... crammed with samples taken from every level of Nashville society, revealed in affectionate detail bordering on caricature in a manner that would surely delight Norman Rockwell.' – Philip Strick
'Wildly over-praised Altman, with all the defects we once looked on as marks of healthy ambitiousness: terrible construction, messy editing, leering jokes at its own characters, unending pomposity.' – Time Out, 1980
† The Region 1 DVD release includes commentary by Altman.
♗ song 'I'm Easy' (m/ly Keith Carradine) best picture; Robert Altman; Lily Tomlin; Ronee Blakley

The Nasty Girl ★★★

West Germany 1990 92m Eastmancolor
Mainline/Sentana/ZDF

original title: Das Schreckliche Mädchen
Despite local hostility, a girl researches into events in her home town during the Nazi regime.
A witty and exuberant social satire, using very effectively a documentary approach to the subject.
wd Michael Verhoeven ph Axel de Roche m Mike Hertung, Elmar Schloter, Billy Gorlt, Lydie Auvray ad Hubert Popp ed Barbara Hennings
☆ Lena Stolze (Sonja), Monika Baumgartner (Maria), Michael Gahr (Paul Rosenberger), Fred Stillkrauth (Uncle), Elisabeth Bertram (Grandmother), Robert Giggenbach (Martin), Karin Thaler (Nina), Hans-Reinhard Muller (Dr. Juckenack)
'The story itself is fascinating, but the style seems to add another tone, a level of irony that is somehow confusing.' – Roger Ebert
'Energetic, black-comic celebration of a gutsy gal news-gatherer and the high cost of digging for truth.' – Rita Kempley, Washington Post
best foreign film
best foreign film

Nasty Habits ★

GB 1976 92m Technicolor
Brut/Bowden (Robert Enders)

An abbess dies and the nuns vie for succession.
Satirical comedy rather obviously based on the Watergate scandals; initially amusing, but very tiresome by the end.
w Robert Enders novel The Abbess of Crewe by Muriel Spark d Michael Lindsay-Hogg ph Douglas Slocombe m John Cameron
☆ Glenda Jackson, Melina Mercouri, Geraldine Page, Sandy Dennis, Anne Jackson, Anne Meara, Edith Evans, Susan Penhaligon, Rip Torn, Eli Wallach, Jerry Stiller
'The sort of material just about fit for a half-hour TV sketch.' – Richard Combs, MFB

Nasty Neighbours

GB 2000 88m colour
Redbus

Family rivalries erupt when a brash young couple move in next door to a middle-aged suburban couple.
Tiny comedy that looks lost on the big screen: the most exciting moment comes when one neighbour damages the other's prize pansies.
wd Debbie Isitt play Debbie Isitt
ph Simon Reeves, Sam McCurdy
m Jocelyn Pook pd Tim Streater ed Nicky Ager cos Sally Plum ☆ Ricky Tomlinson (Harold Peach), Marion Bailey (Jean Peach), Phil Daniels (Chapman), Rachel Fielding (Mrs Chapman), Hywel Bennett (The Boss), Dawn Butler (Travel agent), Nick Whitfield (Estate agent), Gordon Coulson (Stan)
'Characters and incidents are strictly from stock, and pretty dated stock at that.' – Philip Kemp, Sight and Sound

Nathalie...

France 2003 105m colour Panavision
France 2/DD/Vertigo/Canal+/Sofica (Alain Sarde)

Upset by her husband's infidelity, a gynaecologist hires a prostitute to seduce him and keep her informed of their activities together.
A bit of intellectual slumming that is remote from reality and not interesting enough as a fantasy to sustain interest.
w Anne Fontaine, François-Olivier Rousseau screenplay Philippe Blasband
d Anne Fontaine ph Jean-Marc Fabre m Michael Nyman pd Michel Barthélémy
ed Emmanuelle Castro
☆ Fanny Ardant (Catherine), Emmanuelle Béart (Nathalie/Marlène), Gérard Depardieu (Bernard), Judith Magre (Catherine's mother), Wladimir Yordanoff (François)
'The sheer smugness of this movie, its fatuous belief in how daringly sophisticated it is, can't be overestimated. It is like a nightmare parody of French cinema with almost every visual and dramatic cliché present and correct.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

The National Health ★

GB 1973 97m Eastmancolor
Columbia (Ned Sherrin, Terry Glinwood)

Life in the general men's ward of a large antiquated hospital.
Acerbic comedy from a National Theatre play which mixes tragedy and farce into a kind of Carry on Dying.
w Peter Nichols play Peter Nichols d Jack Gold ph John Coquillon m Carl Davis
pd Ray Simm
☆ Jim Dale, Lynn Redgrave, Eleanor Bron, Sheila Scott-Wilkinson, Donald Sinden, Colin Blakely, Clive Swift

National Lampoon Goes to the Movies: see National Lampoon's Movie Madness

'It was the Deltas against the rules... the rules lost!'

National Lampoon's Animal House ★

US 1978 109m Technicolor
Universal (Matty Simmons, Ivan Reitman)

On an American campus around 1962, scruffy newcomers challenge the elegant élite.
A ragbag of college gags, of interest only to those who have had the experience; but its success caused much imitation, especially in American television.
w Harold Ramis, Douglas Kenney, Chris Miller d John Landis ph Charles Correll
m Elmer Bernstein
☆ John Belushi, Tim Matheson, John Vernon, Donald Sutherland, Verna Bloom, Cesare Danova, Mary Louise Weller

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · ♗ Academy Award · ♗ Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

National Lampoon's Christmas Vacation

US 1989 97m colour
Warner/Hughes Entertainment (John Hughes, Tom Jacobson)

A father decides to give the family an old-fashioned Christmas at home.

Unsubtle comedy that always goes for the easy laugh.

w John Hughes d Jeremiah S. Chechik ph Thomas Ackerman m Angelo Badalmenti pd Stephen Marsh ed Jerry Greenberg

☆ Chevy Chase, Beverly D'Angelo, Randy Quaid, Diane Ladd, E. G. Marshall, Doris Roberts, Julia Louis-Dreyfus, Mae Questel, William Hickey

National Lampoon's Class Reunion

US 1982 85m Metrocolor
Fox/ABC Productions (Matty Simmons)

The class of '72 foregathers at Lizzie Borden High, where a murderer is lurking.

An entertainment in which the presentation is better than the material, which is a vague spoof of high school and horror films.

w John Hughes d Michael Miller ph Phil Lathrop m Peter Bernstein, Mark Goldenberg pd Dean Edward Mitzner ed Richard C. Meyer, Ann Mills

☆ Gerrit Graham, Michael Lerner, Fred McCarren, Miriam Flynn, Stephen Furst

National Lampoon's European Vacation

US 1985 94m Technicolor
Warner (Matty Simmons)

An American family determines to see Europe.

Hopelessly unfunny and simple-minded comedy, lacking even the usual schoolboy smut.

w John Hughes, Robert Klane d Amy Heckerling ph Bob Paynter m Charles Fox pd Bob Cartwright ed Paul Herring

☆ Chevy Chase, Beverly D'Angelo, Jason Lively, Dana Hill, Eric Idle

'See it before they make the sequel!'

National Lampoon's Loaded Weapon 1

US 1993 83m DeLuxe
Guild/New Line (Suzanne Todd, David Willis)

Two cops investigate a cocaine-cookie smuggling ring.

A lacklustre parody of the Lethal Weapon movies; it not only has no style, it does not even have any jokes.

w Don Holley, Gene Quintano d Gene Quintano ph Peter Dening m Robert Folk pd Jaymes Hinkle ed Christopher Greenbury

☆ Emilio Estevez, Samuel L. Jackson, Jon Lovitz, Tim Curry, Kathy Ireland, Frank McRae, William Shatner, James Doohan, F. Murray Abraham

'This would-be comedy is very short on laughs and virtually all are given away in its trailer.' – Variety

National Lampoon's Movie Madness

US 1981 89m Technicolor Panavision
UA (Matty Simmons)

aka: National Lampoon Goes to the Movies

Three parodies of movie genres: an insurance salesman seeks personal growth; a stripper becomes First Lady in three days; a young cop learns how to be tough.

Cinema audiences were spared this inept and witless display, though it turns up on late-night TV to bore the unwary.

w Tod Carroll, Shary Flenniken, Pat Mephitis, Gerald Sussman, Ellis Weiner d Bob Giraldi, Henry Jaglom ph Charles Correll, Tak Fujimoto m Andy Stein ad Alexander A. Mayer ed James Coblentz, Bud S. Isaacs

☆ Robby Benson, Richard Widmark, Diane Lane, Candy Clark, Christopher Lloyd, Peter Riegert, Ann Dusenberry, Elisha Cook, Robert Culp

National Lampoon's Senior Trip

US 1995 91m colour
New Line/Alliance (Wendy Grean)

High-school seniors cause political mayhem when the US President invites them to Washington.

Dim and dumb comedy with jokes that rarely rise above the subjects of flatulence and vomit; sick-making it is.

w Roger Kumble, I. Marlene King d Kelly Makin ph François Protat m Steve Bartek pd Gregory Keen ed Stephen Lawrence

☆ Matt Frewer, Valerie Mahaffey, Lawrence Dane, Thomas Chong, Jeremy Renner, Rob Moore

'A witless item.' – Variety

National Lampoon's Vacation

US 1983 98m Technicolor
Warner (Matty Simmons)

An inventor drives his family on a holiday starting in Chicago and ending in California, but the journey is fraught with disaster.

Episodic, more or less straight black comedy, with detail more often boring or repellent than funny.

w John Hughes d Harold Ramis ph Victor J. Kemper m Ralph Burns pd Jack Collis ed Paul Herring

☆ Chevy Chase, Imogene Coca, Beverly D'Angelo, Randy Quaid, Eddie Bracken

'Don't Graduate. Celebrate.'

National Lampoon's Van Wilder

US/Germany 2001 92m Fotokem
Momentum/Artisan/MyriadIn/Motion AG/WMF V/Tapestry (Robert L. Levy, Peter J. Abrams, Andrew Panay, Jonathon Komack-Martin)

GB title: Van Wilder Party Liaison

An eternal student has no desire to graduate as long as he can continue to party.

Gruesome concoction of coarse and feeble jokes, mainly concerning masturbation and vomit; it is ike Animal House without the animals.

w Brent Goldberg, David T. Wagner d Walt Becker ph James Bagdonas m David Lawrence pd Rachel Kamerman ed Dennis M. Hill

☆ Ryan Reynolds (Van Wilder), Tara Reid (Gwen Pearson), Tim Matheson (Vance Wilder Snr), Kal Penn (Taj Mahal Badalandabad), Teck Holmes (Hutch), Daniel Cosgrove (Richard Bagg), Deon Richmond (Mini Cochran)

'Dreadful.' – Observer

'Painfully flat gross-out comedy.' – Rolling Stone

'They only look like cops.'

National Security

US/GB 2003 88m colour
Columbia/Outlaw/Intermedia/Firm Films (Bobby Newmyer, Jeff Silver, Michael Green)

Two antagonistic security guards team up to foil a ruthless robber.

Dim comedy that cannot even raise a smile; Lawrence's performance is notably charmless.

w Jay Scherick, David Ronn d Dennis Dugan ph Oliver Wood m Randy Edelman pd Larry Fulton ed Debra Neil-Fisher

☆ Martin Lawrence (Earl Montgomery), Steve Zahn (Hank Rafferty), Colm Feore (Det. Frank McDuff), Bill Duke (Lt Washington), Eric Roberts (Nash), Timothy Busfield (Charlie Reed), Robinne Lee (Denise), Matt McCoy (Robert Barton)

'A film that's both laugh out loud funny and surprisingly subtle.' – Kevin Thomas, Los Angeles Times

'Can you believe there are movie producers who still think it worthwhile ripping off Beverly Hills Cop?' – Anthony Quinn, Independent

'The greatest adventure history has ever revealed.'

National Treasure

US 2004 125m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Walt Disney/Junction/Saturn/Jerry Bruckheimer Films

A treasure hunter uses knowledge handed down in his family to try to find treasures taken from King Solomon's Temple, for which he needs to steal the Declaration of Independence.

Thrills are hard to find in this adolescent hokum that is treated in a half-hearted fashion.

w Jim Kouf, Cormac Wibberley, Marianne Wibberley d Jon Turteltaub ph Caleb Deschanel m Trevor Rabin pd Norris Spencer ed William Goldenberg

☆ Nicolas Cage (Ben Gates), Hunter Gomez (Young Ben Gates), Diane Kruger (Abigail Chase), Justin Bartha (Riley Poole), Sean Bean (Ian Howe), Jon Voight (Patrick Gates), Harvey Keitel (Sadusky), Christopher Plummer (John Adams Gates)

'This long, and long-winded, series of middling cliffhangers won't pump the adrenaline of action aficionados.' – Scott Foundas, Variety

National Velvet ★

US 1945 125m Technicolor
MGM (Pandro S. Berman)

Children train a horse to win the Grand National.

A big bestseller from another era; its flaws of conception and production quickly became evident.

w Theodore Reeves, Helen Deutsch novel Enid Bagnold d Clarence Brown ph Leonard Smith m Herbert Stothart ed Robert J. Kern

☆ Mickey Rooney, Elizabeth Taylor, Anne Revere, Donald Crisp, Angela Lansbury, Jackie Jenkins, Reginald Owen, Terry Kilburn, Norma Varden, Alec Craig, Arthur Shields, Dennis Hoey

† Sequel 1978: International Velvet.

♟ Anne Revere; Robert J. Kern

♙ Clarence Brown; Leonard Smith

Nationale 7: see Uneasy Riders

Native Son

US 1986 112m colour
Cinecom/Diane Silver/American Playhouse/Cinetudes

A poor black teenager commits murder.

Heavy-going adaptation of a novel seen in some American quarters as a symbol of classic guilt.

w Richard Wesley novel Richard Wright d Jerrold Freedman ph Thomas Burstyn m James Mtume

☆ Carroll Baker, Akousuwa Busia, Matt Dillon, Art Evans, Elizabeth McGovern, John McMartin, Geraldine Page

† A low-budget Argentine version had been filmed in 1950 by Pierre Chenal, with the author in the leading role

'One family. One journey. One child who would change the world forever.'

The Nativity Story ④

US 2006 100m
Entertainment/New Line Cinema/Temple Hill (Wyck Godfrey, Marty Bowen)

The events leading up to the birth of Jesus Christ, as seen through the eyes of Joseph and Mary.

Stodgy, naturalistic retelling of the Bible story aimed squarely at the devout. An odd choice of project for the director of teen dramas Thirteen and Lords of Dogtown.

w Mike Rich d Catherine Hardwicke ph Elliot Davis m Mychael Danna pd Stefano Maria Ortolani ad Maria Teresa Barbasso, Antonio Tarolla ed Robert K Lambert, Stuart Levy

☆ Keisha Castle-Hughes (Mary), Oscar Isaac (Joseph), Ciaran Hinds (Herod), Shohreh Aghdashloo (Elizabeth), Alexander Siddig (The Angel Gabriel), Stanley Townsend (Zechariah)

'One of the most bizarre matches of talent and material this year.' – Mike Goodridge, Screen International † Keisha Castle-Hughes became pregnant shortly after filming was completed.

Nattevagten: see Nightwatch

Nattlek: see Night Games

Nattvardsgästerna: see Winter Light

'He lived for a dream that wouldn't die.'

The Natural ★

US 1984 137m Technicolor
Tri-Star/Delphi II (Mark Johnson)

The life of a baseball star who reaches the heights and can only fall.

Curious attempt to modernize the King Arthur legend, with a baseball bat substituting for Excalibur and hints of magic everywhere. A generally mystifying if occasionally an attractive experience.

w Roger Towne, Phil Dusenberry novel Bernard Malamud d Barry Levinson ph Caleb Deschanel m Randy Newman

☆ Robert Redford, Robert Duvall, Glenn Close, Kim Basinger, Wilford Brimley, Barbara Hershey, Robert Prosky, Joe Don Baker, Richard Farnsworth

♙ Glenn Close (supporting actress); photography; music; art direction

'In The Media Circus Of Life, They Were The Main Attraction.'

Natural Born Killers ★

US 1994 119m Technicolor
Warner/Regency/Alcor/JD/Ixtlan/New Regency (Jane Hamsher, Don Murphy, Clayton Townsend)

A young couple become mass murderers and media favourites.

An over-the-top assault on an audience's sensibilities, making its points with a heavy hand and a brutally jokey style, utilizing every movie- and video-making style in its deadly assault through a dislocating barrage of images. The message of all this manipulation is that the media manipulate violence for their own sensationalist aims. As a technical exercise, it is dazzling; as a contribution to a moral debate, it is deadening.

w David Veloz, Richard Rutowski, Oliver Stone story Quentin Tarantino ph Robert Richardson pd Victor Kempster ed Hank Corwin, Brian Berdan
☆ Woody Harrelson (Mickey), Juliette Lewis (Mallory), Robert Downey Jnr (Wayne Gale), Tommy Lee Jones (Dwight McClusky), Rodney Dangerfield (Mallory's Dad), Edie McClurg (Mallory's Mom)
'Plunders every visual trick of avant-garde and mainstream cinema – morphing, back projection, slow motion, animation and pixilation on five kinds of film stock – and, for two delirious hours, pushes them in your face like a Cagney grapefruit. The actors go hyper-hyper, the camera is ever on the bias, the garish colors converge and collide into a vision of America in heat. The ride is fun, too, daredevil fun of the sort only Stone seems willing to provide in this timid-film era.' – Richard Corliss, Time
'The oddest thing about this would-be satire is that, for all the gore and hysteria, the film doesn't feel particularly impassioned; it's a frivolous barrage.' – Terrence Rafferty, New Yorker
'Oliver Stone would have a lot more chance of proving the proposition that violence is only exciting at second hand if he himself were able to show a prison riot without adding a pounding rock soundtrack. What makes him think he's a critic of an over-stimulated society when synthetic adrenalin is his stock-in-trade?' – Adam Mars-Jones, Independent
'How is it possible that Stone has made a picture of such staggering awfulness and jaw-dropping amateurishness?' – Henry Joyce, Movie Collector
'Isn't so much a cry against the dying of the light as the kind of movie that dims the light in the first place. We all make mistakes. But this time Stone has made a colossal blunder.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian
'It's like watching two weeks of television in two hours.' – Oliver Stone
† Quentin Tarantino objected when his original script was rewritten by Stone.
†† Although the video was given an '18' certificate in Britain, Warner Home Video withdrew its UK release indefinitely following mass killings in Scotland and Tasmania in 1996.

A Natural Born Salesman: see Earthworm Tractors

'AD 2080. A Cyborg Rebellion. Humanity Under Threat. Welcome To...'

Natural City ★

South Korea 2003 112m colour Super 35
Tube/Jowoo (Lee Dong-ju) original title: Naechyureol Siti
In a war-ravaged future where cyborgs fight humans, a special agent risks everything to save the life of his lover, a cyborg dancer who has only three days to live.
Moody, atmospheric science-fiction in the manner of Blade Runner, though with a less interesting, soft-centred narrative and one-dimensional characters.
wd Min Byeong-cheon ph Lee Jun-gyu m Lee Jae-jin pd Kang Tae-woo ed Gyeong Min-ho martial arts director Jeong Du-hong ☆ Yu Ji-tae (R), Seo Rin (Ria), Lee Jae-eun (Cyon), Yun Chan (Noma), Jeong Du-hong (Cypher)
'The movie's super-tight editing works against it. Much of the tangled plot is only evident on a second viewing.' – Derek Elley, Variety

The Nature of the Beast ★

GB 1988 95m colour
Cannon/Film Four International/British Screen (Joanna Smith)
In a small industrial town, where unemployment is rife, a young boy and his friend stalk a mysterious beast that is killing animals.
An unsuccessful allegory of social disintegration that stays in the shadow of Kes.
w Janni Howker novel Janni Howker d Franco Rosso ph Nat Crosby m Stanley Myers, Hans Zimmer pd Jamie Leonard ed George Akers
☆ Lynton Dearden, Paul Simpson, Tony Melody, Freddie Fletcher, Dave Hill, Roberta Kerr, David Fleeshman

The Nature of the Beast: see Hatchet Man (1994)

Naughty Arlette: see The Romantic Age

Naughty Blue Knickers: see The Folies of Elodie

Naughty but Nice

US 1939 90m bw
Warner (Sam Bischoff)
A professor of classical music accidentally writes a popular song.
Mildly amusing comedy musical with all the tunes adapted from the classics (cf That Night with You*).*
w Jerry Wald, Richard Macaulay d Ray Enright ph Arthur L. Todd songs Harry Warren, Johnny Mercer
☆ Dick Powell, Ann Sheridan, Ronald Reagan, Gale Page, ZaSu Pitts, Jerry Colonna Naughty Marietta ★★

US 1935 106m bw
MGM (Hunt Stromberg)
A French princess goes to America and falls in love with an Indian scout.
Period operetta which set the seal of success on the MacDonald-Eddy team. In itself, dated but quite pleasing for those who like the genre.
w John Lee Mahin, Frances Goodrich, Albert Hackett operetta Rida Johnson Young d W. S. Van Dyke ph William Daniels m Victor Herbert ad Cedric Gibbons
☆ Jeanette MacDonald, Nelson Eddy, Frank Morgan, Elsa Lanchester, Douglass Dumbrille, Joseph Cawthorn, Cecilia Parker, Walter Kingsford
'Slow-moving operetta which singing must sustain.' – Variety
'When these two profiles come together to sing Ah Sweet Mystery of Life, it's beyond camp, it's in a realm of its own.' – Judith Crist, 1977
♁ best picture

The Naughty Nineties

US 1945 72m bw
Universal (Edward L. Hartmann, John Grant)
Two incompetents help an old showboat owner.
Dim star comedy apart from the team's rendition of their most famous routine, 'Who's On First'.
w Edmund L. Hartmann, John Grant, Edmund Joseph, Hal Fimberg d Jean Yarbrough ph George Robinson
☆ Bud Abbott, Lou Costello, Henry Travers, Alan Curtis, Rita Johnson, Joe Sawyer

The Navigator ★★★★

US 1924 63m approx (24 fps) bw silent
Metro-Goldwyn/Buster Keaton (Joseph M. Schenck)
A millionaire and his girl are the only people on a transatlantic liner marooned in mid-ocean.
A succession of hilarious sight gags: the star in top form.
w Jean Havez, Clyde Bruckman, J. A. Mitchell d Buster Keaton, Donald Crisp ph Elgin Lessley, Byron Houck
☆ Buster Keaton (Rollo Treadway), Kathryn McGuire (Betsy O'Brien), Frederick Vroom ("Cappy" John O'Brien)
'Studded with hilarious moments and a hundred and one adroit gags.' – Photoplay

The Navigator: A Medieval Odyssey ★★★

Australia 1988 91m colour/bw
Recorded Releasing/Arenafilm (John Maynard, Gary Hannam)
Medieval villagers, fearful of the Black Death, go on a pilgrimage through a mine and emerge in the modern world.
Oddly disturbing fable, imaginatively presented.
w Vincent Ward, Kely Lyons, Geoff Chapple d Vincent Ward ph Geoffrey Simpson m Davood A. Tabrizi pd Sally Campbell ad Mike Becroft ed John Scott
☆ Bruce Lyons (Connor), Chris Haywood (Arno), Hamish McFarlane (Griffin), Marshall Napier (Searle), Noel Appleby (Ulf), Paul Livingstone (Martin), Sarah Pierse (Linnet), Mark Wheatley (Tog 1), Tony Herbert (Tog 2)
'Rather modest in scale, but its themes are grand and there's a grand passion behind its images.' – Washington Post

The Navigators ★★

GB/Spain/Germany 2001 96m colour
BFI/Parallax/Road Movies/Tornasol/Alta (Rebecca O'Brien)
When British Rail is privatised, a group of workers responsible for track maintenance discover that their skills are no longer valued.
Topical drama, full of righteous anger at the dismantling of Britain's rail service to the detriment of efficiency and safety, but the script is sometimes too polemical for its own good.
w Rob Dawber d Ken Loach ph Mike Eley, Barry Ackroyd m George Fenton pd Martin Johnson ed Jonathan Morris
☆ Dean Andrews (John), Tom Craig (Mick), Joe Duttine (Paul), Steve Huison (Jim), Venn Tracey (Gerry), Andy Swallow (Len), Sean Glenn (Harpic), Charlie Brown (Jack), Juliet Bates (Fiona), Angela Saville (Tracy)
'A very low-key, modest film, but an important one, and one to which audiences, given the chance, should certainly respond.' – David Stratton, Variety

'It is not the victory that is important, it is how the game is played!'

Navy Blue and Gold

US 1937 93m bw
Sam Zimbalist/MGM
An unpopular naval cadet makes good.
Ingenuous flagwaver, like a wrap-up of umpteen others but with better production.
w George Bruce d Sam Wood
☆ Robert Young, James Stewart, Florence Rice, Billie Burke, Lionel Barrymore, Tom Brown, Samuel S. Hinds, Paul Kelly
'Expertly made and sure box office.' – Variety

Navy Blues

US 1941 109m bw
Warner (Jerry Wald)
Naval ratings get into trouble in Honolulu.
Undernourished musical comedy with not too much of either commodity.
w Jerry Wald, Richard Macaulay, Arthur T. Horman d Lloyd Bacon ph Tony Gaudio ch Seymour Felix songs Arthur Schwartz, Johnny Mercer
☆ Ann Sheridan, Jack Oakie, Martha Raye, Jack Haley, Herbert Anderson, Jack Carson, Richard Lane, Jackie Gleason, Howard da Silva

The Navy Comes Through

US 1942 81m bw
RKO
The story of a merchant marine ship.
Propaganda potboiler with a reasonably efficient cast and production.
w Roy Chanslor, Aeneas Mackenzie story Borden Chase d A. Edward Sutherland ph Nick Musuraca m Roy Webb
☆ Pat O'Brien, George Murphy, Jane Wyatt, Jackie Cooper, Carl Esmond, Max Baer, Desi Arnaz, Ray Collins

Navy SEALS

US 1990 114m Technicolor
Rank/Orion (Brenda Feigen, Bernard Williams)
Naval commandos attempt to kidnap an Arab terrorist and destroy a missile store in Lebanon.
Flaccid action picture, peopled by comic-strip stereotypes and full of nothing but sound and fury.
w Chuck Pfarrer, Gary Goldman d Lewis Teague ph John A. Alonzo m Sylvester Levay pd Guy J. Comtois, Veronica Hadfield ed Don Zimmerman
☆ Charlie Sheen, Michael Biehn, Joanne Whalley-Kilmer, Rick Rossovich, Cyril O'Reilly, Bill Paxton, Dennis Haysbert, Paul Sanchez
'Quite what this balefully predictable action-adventure is trying to prove totally escapes me. Unless it is that there is nothing much these days that the American public won't take in the way of flag-waving juvenilia.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

The Navy Steps Out: see A Girl, a Guy and a Gob

The Navy versus The Night Monsters

US 1965 90m DeLuxe
Standard Club (George Edwards)
aka: Monsters of the Night
aka: Night Crawlers
Botanical specimens taken from the Antarctic to a remote naval base include man-eating plants.
There is a certain silly pleasure to be derived from watching Mamie Van Doren being threatened by carnivorous vegetables, which hardly look a match for her, but The Day of the Triffids it isn't, despite some atmospheric photography.
wd Michael A. Hoey novel Monsters from the Earth's End by Murray Leinster ph Stanley Cortez m Gordon Zahler ad Paul Sylos ed George White ☆ Anthony Eisley, Mamie Van Doren,

Walter Sande, Bobby Van, Billy Gray, Phillip Terry, Pamela Kellino

Navy Wife
US 1935 72m bw
Fox
A girl who marries a navy doctor is unhappy with the life.
Routine domestic drama with a propaganda angle.
w Sonya Levien novel Beauty's Daughter by Kathleen Norris d Allan Dwan ☆ Claire Trevor, Ralph Bellamy, Jane Darwell, Ben Lyon, Warren Hymer, Kathleen Burke 'Problem play for the duals.' – Variety

Navy Wife
US 1956 83m bw
Allied Artists
GB title: Mother, Sir!
A commander's wife visits her husband in Japan and learns about Japanese attitudes.
Silly hands-across-the-sea comedy which takes a long time to get nowhere.
w Kay Lenard d Edward Bernds
ph Wilfred Cline m Hans Salter
☆ Joan Bennett, Gary Merrill, Shirley Yagamuchi, Judy Nugent

Nazarin ★
Mexico 1958 94m bw
Barbachano Ponce
A Catholic priest tries to take the teachings of Christ literally, but is drastically misunderstood.
A black atheistic satire pretty typical of its director, but not among his most enjoyable works.
w Julio Alejandro, Luis Buñuel novel Benito Perez Galdos d Luis Buñuel
ph Gabriel Figueroa
☆ Francisco Rabal, Marga Lopez, Rita Macedo, Ignacio Lopez Tarso

Nazi Agent ★
US 1942 84m bw
MGM (Irving Asher)
A German-American is forced by his Nazi twin to help a group of German spies.
Modest suspenser with a plot twist similar to The Great Impersonation and Dead Ringer.
w Paul Gangelin, John Meehan Jnr d Jules Dassin ph Harry Stradling m Lennie Hayton
☆ Conrad Veidt, Ann Ayars, Frank Reicher, Dorothy Tree, Martin Kosleck

Neak Sre: see Rice People

The Neanderthal Man
US 1953 75m bw
United Artists/Global
A scientist transforms a cat into a sabre-toothed tiger and himself into a neanderthal man; he is then eaten by the tiger.
By no means as amusing as it sounds.
w Aubrey Wisberg, Jack Pollexfen d E. A. Dupont ph Stanley Cortez ☆ Robert Shayne, Richard Crane, Doris Merrick, Joyce Terry

Near Dark
US 1987 94m colour
Entertainment/Scotti Brothers/International Video Entertainment (Steven-Charles Jaffe)
A cowboy is seduced into joining a roving gang of vampires.
Fast moving, moderately successful attempt to bring the vampire movie screaming into the 20th century.
w Eric Red, Kathryn Bigelow d Kathryn Bigelow ph Adam Greenberg
m Tangerine Dream pd Stephen Altman ed Howard Smith
☆ Adrian Pasdar, Jenny Wright, Lance Henriksen, Bill Paxton, Jenette Goldstein, Tim Thomerson, Joshua Miller
'Projects a truly upsetting image of revulsion and horror, and its scenes of blood-letting – especially a long spectacular set piece featuring the killing of the clientele of a lowlife tavern – are not merely gross, but genuinely disturbing.' – Henry Sheehan, L.A. Reader

Near Misses: see Near Mrs

Near Mrs
US/France 1991 89m colour
Chrysalide/Canal+/Movie Group (Monique Annaud)
aka: Near Misses
A bigamist runs into difficulties when he assumes the identity of a marine in order to have a dirty weekend with his mistress.
Frenetic but rarely amusing farce; its opening sequence of multiple murder kills the fun before the film has begun.
w Peter Baloff, David Wollert d Baz Taylor ph Yves Dahan m Didier Vasseur ad Nicolas Prier ed Michele Robert-Lauliac
☆ Judge Reinhold, Casey Siemaszko, Rebecca Pauly, Cecile Paoli, Kashia Figura, Muriel Combeau, Andrzej Jagora

The Near Room
GB 1995 90m colour
Metrodome/Inverclyde/Glasgow Film Fund/British Screen (Len Crooks)
An investigative journalist, who is hired by his former wife to track down a missing teenager involved in prostitution and drugs, realizes that she is the illegimate daughter he abandoned at birth.
A low-budget film noir, stylishly made but lacking conviction and often bordering on the incomprehensible.
w Robert Murphy d David Hayman ph Kevin Rowley m James Grant, Paul McGeechan pd Andy Harris ed Martin Sharpe
☆ Adrian Dunbar, David O'Hara, Julie Graham, David Hayman, Tom Watson, James Ellis, Robert Pugh, Emma Faulkner, Andy Serkis, Peter McDougall
'Aspires to delve into the dark side: to show madness, violence and exploitation. Instead, it is as ludicrous and as luridly enjoyable as an old B-movie.' – Geoffrey Macnab, Sight and Sound

Nearly a Nasty Accident
GB 1961 91m bw
British Lion/Britannia/Marlow (Bertram Ostrer)
A mild-mannered aircraftman causes disaster wherever he goes.
Familiar faces just about save from disaster this underscripted comedy for indulgent audiences.
w Jack Davies, Hugh Woodruff play Touch Wood by David Stringer, David Carr d Don Chaffey ph Paul Beeson m Ken Jones
☆ Kenneth Connor, Jimmy Edwards, Shirley Eaton, Richard Wattis, Ronnie Stevens, Jon Pertwee, Eric Barker, Peter Jones, Jack Watling, Joyce Carey, Terry Scott

'Neath the Arizona Skies
US 1934 54m bw
Monogram/Lone Star (Paul Malvern)
A cowboy searches for the father of a young Indian girl, who is heiress to oil riches, and threatened by bandits.
One of the nine films that Wayne rolled out in the same year, and a standard production-line effort, with the usual fist- and gunfights, chases, and good triumphing over evil.
w Burl Tuttle d Harry Fraser ph Archie Stout ad E. R. Hickson ed Charles Hunt
☆ John Wayne, Sheila Terry, Shirley Jane Rickert, Jack Rockwell, Yakima Canutt, Weston Edwards, Buffalo Bill Jnr, George Hayes

'Three men and a woman face death beside a man they want to kill!'

The Nebraskan
US 1953 66m Technicolor 3D
Columbia
An army scout proves the innocence of an Indian supposed to have murdered a Sioux chief.
Two-bit Western which looked even worse in three dimensions.
w David Lang, Martin Berkeley d Fred F. Sears
☆ Phil Carey, Roberta Haynes, Wallace Ford, Richard Webb, Lee Van Cleef

Necessary Roughness
US 1991 104m Technicolor
UIP/Paramount (Mace Neufeld, Robert Rehme)
After a college football team has been dismissed for corruption, a coach attempts to create a new squad from unathletic students.
Drear movie that is never less than predictable and never more than tedious.
w Rick Natkin, David Fuller d Stan Dragoti ph Peter Stein m Bill Conti pd Paul Peters ed John Wright, Steve Mirkovich, Wayne Wahrman
☆ Scott Bakula, Robert Loggia, Hector Elizondo, Harley Jane Kozak, Larry Miller, Sinbad, Fred Dalton Thompson
'All the expected clichés of the losers-make-a-comeback plot.' – Variety
'As phoney as the Astroturf on which most of it takes place.' – Philip French, Observer

Necromancy
US 1973 83m colour
Cinerama (Bert I. Gordon)
Two young people become involved in small-town witchcraft.
Low-key, low-talent thriller overbalanced by its star.
wd Bert I. Gordon ph Winton C. Hoch m Fred Karger ☆ Orson Welles, Pamela Franklin, Michael Ontkean, Lee Purcell

'It'll Take You To Hell and Back...'

Necronomicon
US 1993 Foto-Kem
August/Davis Film/Brian Yuzna (Samuel Hadida, Brian Yuzna)
Horror writer H. P. Lovecraft discovers that a copy of the Necronomicon, containing the secrets of the universe, is in America and seeks it out to inspire his work.
Dull compendium of three stories of demonic possession, with cheesey special effects and little that will either thrill or terrify.
w Brent V. Friedman, Christophe Gans, Kazunori Ito, Brian Yuzna d Brian Yuzna, Christophe Gans, Shusuke Kaneko
ph Gerry Lively, Russ Brandt m Joseph Lo Duca, Daniel Licht pd Antony Tremblay ed Christopher Roth sp Thomas C. Rainone, John Vulich, Magic Media, Screaming Mad George, Todd Masters, Bart Mixon's Monster Fixin's and others
☆ Jeffrey Combs, Bruce Payne, Belinda Bauer, David Warner, Signy Coleman, Don Calfa, Bess Meyer, Millie Perkins, Dennis Christopher, Maria Ford, Richard Lynch
'B horror movies are often fun but this is Pillocksville.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

Necronomicon – Geträumte Sünden: see Succubus

Ned Kelly
GB 1970 103m Technicolor
UA/Woodfall (Neil Hartley)
The career of a 19th-century Australian outlaw.
Obstinately unlikeable action picture with some kind of message which never becomes clear amid all the cleverness.
w Tony Richardson, Ian Jones d Tony Richardson ph Gerry Fisher m Shel Silverstein pd Jocelyn Herbert ☆ Mick Jagger, Allen Bickford, Geoff Gilmour, Mark McManus

'You Can Kill A Man. But Not A Legend.'

Ned Kelly ★ (5)
Australia/GB/US/France 2003 110m colour 'scope
Universal/StudioCanal/Working Title/Endymion/WTA (Lynda House, Nelson Woss)
In Australia in the 1870s, a farmhand and his brothers become outlaws after police persecute the family.
Often handsome but sometimes turgid account of the life of an often celebrated figure that seems uncertain whether to treat him as a folk hero or as an ordinary person driven to extremes.
w John Michael McDonagh novel Our Sunshine by Robert Drewe d Gregor Jordan ph Oliver Stapleton m Klaus Badelt pd Steven Jones-Evans ed Jon Gregory ☆ Heath Ledger (Ned Kelly), Orlando Bloom (Joe Byrne), Naomi Watts (Julia Cook), Geoffrey Rush (Superintendent Francis Hare), Rachel Griffiths (Mrs Scott), Laurence Kinlan (Dan Kelly), Philip Barantini (Steve Hart), Joel Edgerton (Aaron Sherritt)
'At last the cinema has done Kelly justice.' – Cosmo Landesman, Sunday Times
'A wannabe Western epic that never quite fills the widescreen, but is quite lovely around the fringes.' – Colin Kennedy, Empire

'The town of Castle Rock just made a deal with the Devil ... Now it's time to pay!'

Needful Things
US 1993 120m Technicolor
Rank/Castle Rock/New Line (Jack Cummins)
The owner of an antique shop creates havoc and murder by offering customers what they want in return for carrying out practical jokes on their neighbours.
A down-market version of Faust that provides some moments of black comedy in its depiction of small-town rivalries, but outstays its welcome.
w W. D. Richter novel Stephen King d Fraser C. Heston ph Tony Westman m Patrick Doyle pd Douglas Higgins ed Rob Kobrin sp make-up: Tibor Furkas
☆ Max von Sydow, Ed Harris, Bonnie Bedelia, Amanda Plummer, J. T. Walsh, Ray McKinnon, Duncan Fraser, Shane Meier, Valri Bromfield
'This darkly comic picture proves a sadistic, mean-spirited, overlong exercise that should have a devilish time sustaining any box-office fire.' – Brian Lowry, Variety

Negatives ★

GB 1968 98m Eastmancolor
Crispin/Kettledrum (Judd Bernard)

Three people indulge in sexual fantasies involving Dr Crippen and Baron von Richthofen.
Smoothly done but impenetrable psychological poppycock: what is fact and what is fancy, only the author knows.
w Peter Everett, Roger Lowry novel Peter Everett d Peter Medak ph Ken Hodges m Basil Kirchin ☆ Glenda Jackson, Peter McEnery, Diane Cilento, Maurice Denham, Stephen Lewis, Norman Rossington

'Justice At Any Price.'

The Negotiator

US 1998 138m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Regency/Mandeville/Taurus (David Hoberman, Arnon Milchan)

Realizing that he is being set up by his colleagues, a police hostage negotiator takes hostages of his own, and is besieged by corrupt cops who want him dead.
A noisy thriller that delivers big bangs and obtrusive acting.
w James DeMonaco, Kevin Fox d F. Gary Gray ph Russell Carpenter m Graeme Revell pd Holger Gross ed Christian Wagner
☆ Samuel L. Jackson, Kevin Spacey, David Morse, Ron Rifkin, John Spencer, J. T. Walsh, Regina Taylor, Siobahn Fallon, Paul Giamatti

'Doesn't stretch the Hollywood thriller much beyond its big, loud self-important traditions.' – Anthony Quinn, Independent

Neighbors ★

US 1981 94m Technicolor
Columbia/Zanuck-Brown

A staid suburbanite is first irritated, then taken over by his splashy neighbours.
Hit-or-miss but generally quite funny comedy in a style familiar to viewers of American late night television.
w Larry Gelbart novel Thomas Berger d John G. Avildsen ph Gerald Hirschfeld m Bill Conti pd Peter Larkin ed Jan Kurson
☆ John Belushi, Dan Aykroyd, Kathryn Walker, Cathy Moriarty, Igors Gavon, Dru-Ann Chukron

Neil Young: Heart of Gold ★★ 8

US 2006 103m
UIP/Paramount/Shangri-La/Clinica Estetico/Shakey Pictures (Jonathan Demme, Ilona Herzberg)

Singer-songwriter Neil Young premieres his album Prairie Wind at Nashville's Ryman Auditorium.
The indefatigable Young covers his almost 40 year career in this lovely concert film. Demme films him discreetly, mostly in unobtrusive long takes. The stage in bathed in gold – appropriately for an artist whose life has now reached the season of mellow fruitfulness.
d Jonathan Demme ph Ellen Kuras pd Michael Zansky ed Andy Keir ☆ Neil Young, Emmylou Harris, Ben Keith, Spooner Oldham, Rick Rosas, Karl Himmel, Chad Cromwell, Wayne Jackson, Pegi Young, Grant Boatwright

'The concert film has never looked or sounded classier.' – Robert Koehler, Variety
'All in all, a visual and musical feast.' – Peter Rainer, Christian Science Monitor † Neil Young's album Prairie Wind was released in 2005.

Neither the Sea nor the Sand

GB 1972 94m Eastmancolor
LMG/Portland (Jack Smith, Peter Fetterman)

Holidaying in Jersey, a married woman begins a love-affair with a local man which survives his sudden death.
An attempt at a Gothic romance ruined by half-hearted acting and direction; all that remains is a dull zombie movie and an unpleasant exercise in necrophilia.
w Gordon Honeycombe, Rosemary Davies novel Gordon Honeycombe d Fred Burnley ph David Muir m Nachum Heiman ad Michael Bastow ed Norman Wanstall
☆ Susan Hampshire, Frank Finlay, Michael Petrovitch, Michael Craze, Jack Lambert, Betty Duncan, David Garth, Tony Booth

'To depict the macabre in the midst of the everyday requires a greater degree of artifice than is displayed here.' – MFB
'Hampshire and Petrovitch are no Heathcliff and Cathy, and the director's "realistic" style which stops short at the genuinely macabre makes a mockery of the story's metaphysical overtones.' – Films and Filming

Nel Segno di Roma: see Sign of the Gladiator

'An Extraordinary Motion Picture About the Power of Innocence.'
'Her heart. Her soul. Her language are a mystery
A mystery called...'

Nell

US 1994 113m colour Panavision
Polygram/Egg Pictures/Lost Pond (Jodie Foster, Renée Missel)

Two doctors study, and try to communicate with, a young woman, brought up in the wilderness and speaking a language only she and her speech-impaired mother, now dead, can understand.
This is little more than an ordinary romance between two opposites, spiced with a bizarre turn from Jodie Foster; it confuses innocence and ignorance.
w William Nicholson, Mark Handley play Idioglossia by Mark Handley d Michael Apted m Mark Isham pd Dante Spinotti ed Jim Clark
☆ Jodie Foster, Liam Neeson, Natasha Richardson, Richard Libertini, Nick Searcy, Robin Mullins, Jeremy Davies

'One of those films about the mentally challenged that is so anxious to be politically correct that it over-compensates every which way it can.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian
Jodie Foster

Nell Gwyn ★★

GB 1934 85m bw
B and D (Herbert Wilcox)

The affair of Charles II and an orange seller.
Naïve, vivid account of a famous couple; physically cheap and rather faded, but the best film on the subject and one of the best covering this period.
w Miles Malleson d Herbert Wilcox ph F. A. Young ☆ Anna Neagle, Cedric Hardwicke, Jeanne de Casalis, Muriel George, Miles Malleson, Esmé Percy, Moore Marriott

'Slow costumer, also lacking marquee value.' – Variety

Nelly and M Arnaud ★★

France/Germany/Italy 1995 106m colour
Guild/TFI/Cecchi Gori/Prokino/Canal/Alain Sarde

A young wife leaves her husband to form an uneasy relationship with a wealthy elderly businessman for whom she works as a secretary.
A cool, immacutely acted, restrained drama of two people unable or unwilling to resolve their feelings for one another.
w Claude Sautet, Jacques Fieschi, Yves Ulmann d Claude Sautet ph Jean-François Robin m Philippe Sarde pd Carlos Conti ed Jacqueline Thiedot ☆ Emmanuelle Béart, Michel Serrault, Jean-Hugues Anglade, Claire Nadeau, Françoise Brion, Michèle Laroque, Michel Lonsdale

'Orchestrates the progress of the obsessional relationship with the precision that only a director fully in command of both his style and material can muster. As a quiet, intimate dissection of the emotions, it is hard to beat.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

The Nelson Affair: see Bequest to the Nation

The Nelson Touch: see Corvette K 225

'In The Future ... It Pays To Be More Than Human.'

Nemesis

US 1993 95m colour
Imperial (Ash R. Shah, Eric Karson, Tom Karnowski)

In Los Angeles in 2027, where most people speak with thick foreign accents, a cop shot to pieces is reassembled as an android for a special assignment and uncovers a plot to take over the world.
Derivative and violent action film, strictly for those whose idea of a good time is bimbos with big guns.
w Rebecca Charles d Albert Pyun ph George Mooradian m Michel Rubini pd E. Colleen Saro ed David Kern, Mark Conte sp Gene Warren Jnr, Fantasy II Film Effects ☆ Olivier Gruner, Tim Thomerson, Cary-Hiroyuki Tagawa, Merle Kennedy, Yuji Okumoto, Marjorie Monaghan, Brion James, Deborah Shelton

'Fails in almost every respect.' – Variety

The Neon Bible ★

GB/US 1995 92m Metrocolor
Cinemascope
Artificial Eye/Mayfair/Scala/Channel 4 (Elizabeth Karlsen, Olivia Stewart)

A boy grows up in Georgia in the 1940s, living with a harsh and unsuccessful father and his increasingly demented mother, with only his aunt, a singer, adding any colour to his narrow life.
A carefully composed account of a very limited and repressed existence, much in the style of Davies's earlier The Long Day Closes, but lacking its wider resonance.
wd Terence Davies novel John Kennedy Toole ph Mick Coulter pd Christopher Hobbs ed Charles Rees ☆ Gena Rowlands, Jacob Tierney, Diana Scarwid, Denis Leary, Leo Burmester, Frances Conroy, Peter McRobbie, Drake Bell

'Kitchen-sink drama that pulls its own plug.' – Tom Shone, Sunday Times

The Neptune Disaster: see The Neptune Factor

'Wherever you've been – this is where you've never been before!'

The Neptune Factor

Canada 1972 98m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF/Quadrant/Bellevue-Pathé (Sanford Howard)

later retitled: The Neptune Disaster
American oceanologists conduct an experiment in underwater living.
Wet 'actioner' in which very little happens except a few porthole views of magnified fish.
w Jack de Witt d Daniel Petrie ph Harry Makin m Lalo Schifrin ☆ Ben Gazzara, Walter Pidgeon, Yvette Mimieux, Ernest Borgnine, Chris Wiggins

Neptune's Daughter ★

US 1949 93m Technicolor
MGM (Jack Cummings)

A lady bathing suit designer has a South American romance.
Generally thought one of the better aquatic musicals, and certainly very typical of them and its studio at this time.
w Dorothy Kingsley d Edward Buzzell ph Charles Rosher m George Stoll songs Frank Loesser
☆ Esther Williams, Red Skelton, Ricardo Montalban, Betty Garrett, Keenan Wynn, Xavier Cugat and his Orchestra, Mike Mazurki, Ted de Corsia, Mel Blanc
♪ song 'Baby, It's Cold Outside'

Neskolko Intervyu Po Lichnyam Voprosam: see Several Interviews On Personal Problems

The Nest ★

France 2002 105m colour
Pathé/Cinemane/Carrere/ France 2/Embellie/Pendrake/Canal Plus (Patrick Gouyou Beauchamps, Claude Carriere)

original title: Nid de Guêpes
In Strasbourg, pollce and a gang of thieves find themselves on the same side when attacked by Albanian gangsters.
Lively action drama that may recall John Carpenter's Assault on Precinct 13.
w Florent-Emilio Siri, Jean-François Tarnowski d Florent-Emilio Siri ph Giovanni Fiore Coltellaci m Alexandre Desplat pd Dominique Carrara ed Olivier Gajan, Christophe Danilo ☆ Samy Naceri (Nasser), Benoit Magimel (Santino), Nadia Fares (Helene Laborie), Pascal Greggory (Louis), Sami Bouajila (Selim), Anisia Uzeyman (Nadia)

'At first exquisitely suspenseful, but the carnage-heavy venture sacrifices much of its intensity to mere firepower.' – Lisa Nesselson, Variety

The Net

GB 1953 86m bw
Rank/Two Cities (Anthony Darnborough)
US title: Project M7

Tension among boffins in an aviation research station leads to murder and the discovery of a spy.
Low-key suspenser, quite adequately presented.
w William Fairchild novel John Pudney d Anthony Asquith ph Desmond Dickinson m Benjamin Frankel ☆ Phyllis Calvert, Noel Willman, Herbert Lom, James Donald, Robert Beatty, Muriel Pavlow, Walter Fitzgerald, Maurice Denham

The Net

US 1995 112m Technicolor
Columbia (Irwin Winkler, Rob Cowan)

A reclusive software tester's life is threatened after she discovers a conspiracy that allows crooks to gain access to, and manipulate, top-secret data held on government computers.
A dully paranoid thriller that is a bad imitation of Hitchcock. Its plot is full of implausibilities and it is also computer illiterate, which doesn't help, though Sandra Bullock's performance does, even if it is not enough to save the film.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · ♪ Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

w John Brancato, Michael Ferris d Irwin Winkler ph Jack N. Green m Mark Isham pd Dennis Washington ed Richard Halsey

☆ Sandra Bullock, Jeremy Northam, Dennis Miller, Diane Baker, Wendy Gazelle, Ken Howard, Ray McKinnon

'This high-tech but modestly scaled meller adroitly alternates between anxiety provoked by powerful computers and old-fashioned peril posed by duplicitous men, dark alleys, speeding cars and deserted warehouses.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

† The film was the basis of a US TV series, The Net, starring Brooke Langton.

'Television will never be the same!'
'Prepare yourself for a perfectly outrageous motion picture!'

Network ★★★★

US 1976 121m Metrocolor Panavision
MGM/UA (Howard Gottfried, Fred Caruso)

A network news commentator begins to say what he thinks about the world and becomes a new messiah to the people and an embarrassment to his sponsors.

A deliberately melodramatic satire on media corruption, it is passionate and compulsively watchable in its attack on demagoguery and in its depiction of the dangerous madness exploited by the mass media. What once seemed overheated satire has come, with time, to resemble accurate reporting. Its very existence in a commercial system is as remarkable as its box-office success.

w Paddy Chayefsky d Sidney Lumet ph Owen Roizman m Elliot Lawrence ed Alan Heim

☆ Peter Finch (Howard Beale), William Holden (Max Schumacher), Faye Dunaway (Diana Christensen), Robert Duvall (Frank Hackett), Wesley Addy (Nelson Chaney), Ned Beatty (Arthur Jensen), Beatrice Straight (Louise Schumacher), John Carpenter (George Bosch)

HOWARD BEALE (PETER FINCH) ON LIVE TELEVISION: 'I don't know what to do about the depression and the inflation and the Russians and the crime in the streets. All I know is that first you've got to get mad. You've got to say: "I'm a human being, god damn it, my life has some value!" So I want you to get up now. I want all of you to get up out of your chairs. I want you to get up right now and go to the window, open it and stick your head out and yell "I'm mad as hell, and I'm not going to take this any more!"'

HOWARD BEALE: 'Ladies and gentlemen, I would like at this moment to announce that I will be retiring from this programme in two weeks' time because of poor ratings. Since this show was the only thing I had going for me in my life, I have decided to kill myself. I'm going to blow my brains out right on this programme a week from today.'

MAX SCHUMACHER (WILLIAM HOLDEN): 'You're television incarnate, Diana, indifferent to suffering, insensitive to joy. All of life is reduced to the common rubble of banality. War, murder, death – all the same to you as bottles of beer, and the daily business of life is a corrupt comedy. You even shatter the sensations of time and space into split seconds and instant replays. You're madness, Diana.'

'The cast of this messianic farce take turns yelling at us soulless masses.' – New Yorker
'Too much of this film has the hectoring stridency of tabloid headlines.' – Michael Billington, Illustrated London News

† The theme was taken up a year later in the shortlived TV series W.E.B.

Paddy Chayefsky; Peter Finch; Faye Dunaway; Beatrice Straight

best picture; Sidney Lumet; Owen Roizman; William Holden; Ned Beatty

BAFTA Peter Finch

Nevada Smith ★

US 1966 131m Eastmancolor Panavision
Avco/Solar (Joe Levine, Henry Hathaway)

A cowboy takes a long revenge on the outlaws who murdered his parents.

Violent, sour, occasionally lively but frequently boring Western melodrama on a well worn theme.

w John Michael Hayes, from the 'early life' of a character in The Carpetbaggers by Harold Robbins d Henry Hathaway ph Lucien Ballard m Alfred Newman

☆ Steve McQueen, Karl Malden, Brian Keith, Suzanne Pleshette, Arthur Kennedy, Janet Margolin, Howard da Silva, Raf Vallone, Pat Hingle

The Nevadan

US 1950 81m Cinecolor
Harry Joe Brown/Columbia
GB title: The Man from Nevada

A marshal recovers stolen gold.

Solid Western programmer, compromised by poor colour.

w George W. George, George F. Slavin d Gordon Douglas ph Charles Lawton Jnr m Arthur Morton

☆ Randolph Scott, Dorothy Malone, Forrest Tucker, Frank Faylen, George Macready

Never a Dull Moment

US 1943 60m bw
Universal

Three comedians prevent a night-club owner from carrying out a robbery.

The last thin vehicle for a famous comedy trio; even here they have their moments.

w Mel Ronson, Stanley Roberts d Edward Lilley

☆ The Ritz Brothers, Frances Langford, Mary Beth Hughes, George Zucco, Franklin Pangborn

Never a Dull Moment

US 1950 89m bw
RKO (Harriet Parsons)

A lady music critic marries a rodeo cowboy and finds life hard down on the ranch.

Very mild star programmer.

w Lou Breslow, Doris Anderson novel Who Could Ask for Anything More? by Kay Swift d George Marshall ph Joseph Walker m Frederick Hollander md Constantin Bakaleinikoff

☆ Irene Dunne, Fred MacMurray, William Demarest, Andy Devine, Gigi Perreau, Natalie Wood, Philip Ober, Jack Kirkwood

Never a Dull Moment

US 1967 100m Technicolor
Walt Disney (Ron Miller)

An unsuccessful actor is mistaken for a notorious gangster.

Slapstick romp with vigour but not much flair.

w A. J. Carothers novel John Godey d Jerry Paris ph William Snyder m Robert F. Brunner

☆ Dick Van Dyke, Edward G. Robinson, Dorothy Provine, Henry Silva, Joanna Moore, Tony Bill, Slim Pickens, Jack Elam

'Some Things Are Worth Waiting For.'
'The Class Geek Just Turned Chic.'

Never Been Kissed

US 1998 107m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF/Fox 2000/Flower/Bushwood (Sandy Isaac, Nancy Juvonen)

A journalist in her mid-20s pretends to be a high-school girl so that she can write a feature on modern teenagers.

Mildly amusing comedy of a clash between generations, in which the teens are cool and the adults are silly; teenagers are most likely to enjoy it.

w Abby Kohn, Marc Silverstein d Raja Gosnell ph Alex Nepomniaschy m David Newman pd Steven Jordan ed Debra Chiate, Marcelo Sansevieri

☆ Drew Barrymore (Josie Geller), David Arquette (Rob Geller), Michael Vartan (Sam Coulson), Leelee Sobieski (Aldys), Jeremy Jordan (Guy Perkins), Molly Shannon (Anita), Garry Marshall (Rigfort), John C. Reilly (Gus), Sean Whalen (Merkin)

'If you like your cinema entertainment broad and drippy, then this is for you.' – James Cameron-Wilson, Film Review

'They thought he couldn't do the job: that's why they chose him!'

Never Cry Wolf

US 1983 105m Technicolor
Walt Disney

A scientist is dumped alone in the Arctic to collect evidence against wolves.

Weird fable whose comic asides diminish its serious intent, and whose leading characterization is so eccentric as to bewilder any audience.

w Curtis Hanson, Sam Hamm, Richard Kletter book Farley Mowat d Carroll Ballard

☆ Charles Martin Smith, Brian Dennehy, Samson Jorah

'There are sequences in this movie that make your jaw drop open out of genuine amazement. To put it simply, he shows you sights you've never seen before ... It's no mere environmentalist film, but a meditation on survival and the story of its hero's inner rebirth.' – David Ansen, Newsweek

'No king rules forever.'

Never Die Alone ③

US 2004 88m FotoKem
Fox Searchlight/Content/Bloodline/White Orchid (Alessandro Camon, Earl Simmons)

A drug dealer who returns to his old haunts determined to go straight recalls how he met his death.

Gritty, brutal urban thriller of resentment, redemption and revenge that offers nothing original but manages to hold the attention.

w James Gibson novel Donald Goines d Ernest Dickerson ph Matthew Libatique m George Duke, Damon 'Grease' Blackmon ed Stephen Lovejoy

☆ DMX (King David), David Arquette (Paul), Michael Ealy (Mike), Reagan Gomez-Preston (Juanita), Clifton Powell (Moon)

'Jazzy, darkly textured rendering of the ghetto pulp of late African-American ex-con author Donald Goines.' – David Rooney, Variety

Never Give a Sucker an Even Break ★

US 1941 70m bw
Universal

GB title: What a Man

W. C. Fields dives off an aeroplane into the lap of a young woman who has never seen a man; she falls in love with him.

Stupefyingly inept in its scripting and pacing, this comedy is often irresistibly funny because of the anti-everything personality of its writer-star. No one else could have got away with it, or would have been likely to try.

w John T. Neville, Prescott Chaplin story Otis Criblecoblis (W. C. Fields) d Edward F. Cline ph Charles Van Enger m Frank Skinner

☆ W. C. Fields, Gloria Jean, Leon Errol, Butch and Buddy, Franklin Pangborn, Anne Nagel, Mona Barrie, Susan Miller, Margaret Dumont

'A beautifully timed exhibition of mock pomposity, puzzled ineffectualness, subtle understatement and true-blue nonchalance.' – James Agee

Never Give an Inch: see Sometimes a Great Notion

Never Let Go

GB 1960 91m bw
Rank/Julian Wintle-Leslie Parkin (Peter de Sarigny)

A travelling salesman has his car stolen and stands up to the sadistic gang boss responsible.

Brutishly unattractive thriller, apparently designed for the sole purpose of giving Peter Sellers a villainous part.

w Alun Falconer d John Guillermin ph Christopher Challis m John Barry

☆ Richard Todd, Peter Sellers, Elizabeth Sellars, Adam Faith, Carol White, Mervyn Johns, Noel Willman

Never Let Me Go

GB 1953 94m bw
MGM (Clarence Brown)

After World War II an American correspondent marries a Russian ballerina but is later deported by the authorities.

Ho-hum romantic melodrama, quite interestingly cast.

w Ronald Millar, George Froeschel novel Came the Dawn by Roger Bax d Delmer Daves ph Robert Krasker m Hans May

☆ Clark Gable, Gene Tierney, Richard Haydn, Belita, Bernard Miles, Kenneth More, Karel Stepanek, Theodore Bikel, Frederick Valk

Never Look Back

GB 1952 73m bw
Exclusive/Hammer (Michael Carreras)

A lady barrister finds she must defend an old boyfriend on a murder charge.

Plausible drama which never quite comes to the boil.

w John Hunter, Guy Morgan, Francis Searle d Francis Searle ph Reginald Wyer m Temple Abady

☆ Rosamund John, Hugh Sinclair, Guy Middleton, Henry Edwards, Terence Longdon

Never Love a Stranger

US 1958 93m bw
Harold Robbins/Allied Artists (Peter Gettlinger)

A Catholic boy who has become a gangster helps his Jewish friend who has become assistant district attorney to trap a vicious hoodlum.

The old Manhattan Melodrama theme is dusted off once again, this time to very little effect.

w Harold Robbins, Richard Day

novel Harold Robbins d Robert Stevens
ph Lee Garmes m Raymond Scott
☆ John Drew Barrymore, Steve McQueen, Robert Bray, Lita Milan, R. G. Armstrong, Salem Ludwig

Never on Sunday ★

Greece 1959 97m bw
Lopert/Melinafilm (Jules Dassin)

original title: Pote tin Kyriaki
An American scholar in Greece is infatuated by a prostitute and sets about improving her.
Amiable if rather shoddy variation on Pygmalion: the star performance and the music carried it, along with its own naughtiness, to success.
wd Jules Dassin ph Jacques Natteau
m Manos Hadjidakis
☆ Melina Mercouri, Jules Dassin, Georges Foundas, Titos Vandis, Despo Diamantidou
'It barely stands scrutiny, but it communicates cheerfulness, and this in itself is no mean achievement.' – Penelope Houston, MFB
♟ title song (Manos Hadjidakis)
♙ direction; script; Melina Mercouri

Never Put It in Writing ★

GB 1963 93m bw
MGM/Andrew Stone
A young executive tries to recover from the mail an indiscreet letter he has written to his boss.
Frantic hit-or-miss farcical comedy distinguished by Dublin locations and cast.
wd Andrew Stone ph Martin Curtis
m Frank Cordell
☆ Pat Boone, Fidelma Murphy, Reginald Beckwith, John Le Mesurier, Colin Blakely, Milo O'Shea

Never Say Die ★

US 1939 80m bw
Paramount (Paul Jones)
A millionaire hypochondriac is convinced he is dying.
Thin farce with Hope on the very brink of stardom; some bright moments.
w Don Hartman, Frank Butler, Preston Sturges d Elliott Nugent ph Leo Tover md Boris Morros
☆ Martha Raye, Bob Hope, Andy Devine, Alan Mowbray, Gale Sondergaard, Sig Rumann, Ernest Cossart, Monty Woolley, Christian Rub
'Needs strong support for top dual spots.' – Variety
'The most enjoyable film for weeks ... consistently absurd ... no dignity, no passion, and a magnificent cast.' – Graham Greene

Never Say Goodbye

US 1946 97m bw
Warner (William Jacobs)
A seven-year-old girl draws her divorced parents back together.
Highly derivative romantic comedy mishmash which did its star's career no good at all.
w James V. Kern, I. A. L. Diamond, Lewis R. Foster, Ben and Norma Barzman d James V. Kern ph Arthur Edeson m Frederick Hollander ☆ Errol Flynn, Eleanor Parker, Lucile Watson, S. Z. Sakall, Donald Woods, Patti Brady, Forrest Tucker, Hattie McDaniel

Never Say Goodbye

US 1955 96m Technicolor
U-I (Albert J. Cohen)
In 1945 Berlin an American army doctor marries a pianist who is later trapped in the Russian zone; they meet years later in America.
Romantic drama aimed at a female audience, remade from This Love of Ours (qv).
w Charles Hoffman d Jerry Hopper
ph Maury Gertsman m Frank Skinner ☆ Rock Hudson, George Sanders, Cornell Borchers, Ray Collins, David Janssen

Never Say Never Again ★

GB 1983 134m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Woodcote/Taliafilm (Jack Schwartzman)
James Bond foils a world domination attempt by Blofeld.
Reasonably enjoyable mishmash of Bondery; the plot is technically a remake of Thunderball, not that it matters much until the end, when the underwater stuff becomes tiresome because one hardly knows who is under the masks.
w Lorenzo Semple Jnr d Irvin Kershner
ph Douglas Slocombe m Michel Legrand
pd Philip Harrison, Stephen Grimes
☆ Sean Connery, Klaus Maria Brandauer, Max von Sydow, Barbara Carrera, Kim Basinger, Bernie Casey, Alec McCowen, Edward Fox, Rowan Atkinson
'Q' (Alec McCowen): 'Good to see you again, Mr Bond. Let's get back to some gratuitous sex and violence, I say.'

Never So Few

US 1959 124m Metrocolor Cinemascope
MGM/Canterbury (Edmund Grainger)
Adventures of World War II Americans commanding Burmese guerrillas.
Jungle actioner with pauses for philosophizing; well enough made but not very interesting.
w Millard Kaufman novel Tom Chamales
d John Sturges ph William H. Daniels
m Hugo Friedhofer
☆ Frank Sinatra, Gina Lollobrigida, Peter Lawford, Steve McQueen, Paul Henreid, Richard Johnson, Brian Donlevy, Charles Bronson, Dean Jones

Never Steal Anything Small

US 1958 94m Eastmancolor Cinemascope
U-I (Aaron Rosenberg)
The reformation of a corrupt but sympathetic dockers' union boss.
Curious semi-musical which doesn't come off at all despite excellent credentials.
wd Charles Lederer play The Devil's Hornpipe by Rouben Mamoulian, Maxwell Anderson ph Harold Lipstein m Allie Wrubel ch Hermes Pan ly Maxwell Anderson
☆ James Cagney, Shirley Jones, Roger Smith, Cara Williams, Nehemiah Persoff, Royal Dano, Anthony Caruso
'The closest thing to it, I'd say, is The Threepenny Opera. It's witty, and it has some good radical lyrics. Films must have some comment to make.' – James Cagney

Never Take No for an Answer ★

GB 1951 82m bw
Constellation (Anthony Havelock-Allan)
A small boy goes to Rome to get permission from the Pope to take his sick donkey to be blessed in the church.
Slight, easy-going whimsy with attractive sunlit locations.
w Paul and Pauline Gallico novel The Small Miracle by Paul Gallico d Maurice Cloche, Ralph Smart ph Otto Heller
m Nino Rota
☆ Vittorio Manunta, Denis O'Dea, Guido Cellano, Nerio Bernardi
'The main pleasures of this slender film are visual ones.' – MFB † Remade as a TV movie The Small Miracle.

Never Take Sweets from a Stranger

GB 1960 81m bw Megascope
Hammer/Columbia
In a Canadian town, a respected elderly man is accused of improper sexual advances to a child.
In the awful warning category, and rather predictable.
w John Hunter play The Pony Cart by Roger Garis d Cyril Frankel ph Freddie Francis m Elisabeth Lutyens
☆ Gwen Watford, Patrick Allen, Felix Aylmer, Niall MacGinnis, Bill Nagy, Janina Faye, Michael Gwynn

Never Talk to Strangers

Canada/US 1995 86m DeLuxe
Columbia TriStar/Never Talk to Strangers/Alliance (Andras Hamori, Jeffrey R. Neuman, Martin J. Wiley)
A criminal psychologist, who is examining a serial killer, begins to receive death threats.
Risible thriller, stuffed with clichés and given a fashionable gloss with talk of multiple personality disorders and repressed memory syndrome; it is one memory that most audiences will be anxious to suppress.
w Lewis Green, Jordan Rush d Peter Hall
ph Elemér Ragályi m Pino Donaggio pd Linda del Rosario, Richard Paris
ed Roberto Silvi
☆ Rebecca De Mornay, Antonio Banderas, Dennis Miller, Len Cariou, Harry Dean Stanton, Beau Starr, Tim Kelleher, Eugene Lipinski
'The plot is so silly and the screenplay so unconvincing that nothing could be done to save it.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

Never the Twain Shall Meet

US 1931 89m bw
MGM
A young lawyer goes native when he falls for a South Sea island girl.
Stilted misalliance melodrama, previously made in 1925 as a silent with Bert Lytell and Anita Stewart; its faded notions simply didn't survive sound.
w Ruth Cummings and Edwin Justus Mayer novel Peter B. Kyne d W. S. Van Dyke
☆ Leslie Howard, Conchita Montenegro, Karen Morley, C. Aubrey Smith

Never to Love: see A Bill of Divorcement (1940)

Never Too Late

US 1965 104m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Lear-Yorkin (Norman Lear)
A well-to-do middle-aged housewife discovers she is pregnant.
Predictable, rather hysterical domestic comedy, flatly developed from a successful play which offered two star parts for old stagers.
w Sumner Arthur Long play Sumner Arthur Long d Bud Yorkin ph Philip Lathrop m David Rose ☆ Paul Ford, Maureen O'Sullivan, Connie Stevens, Jim Hutton, Lloyd Nolan, Henry Jones, Jane Wyatt

Never Too Young to Rock

GB 1975 99m Fujicolour
GTO (Greg Smith, Ron Inkpen)
After rock'n'roll is no longer shown on TV in the near future, one man gathers together leading groups to perform at a concert to get the ban overturned, hampered by his elderly driver.
An inept comedy by a director who believes punch-ups and chickens are automatically funny. It is an excuse for a succession of performances by various bubblegum and glam-rock groups, including Mud performing Tiger Feet, a No. 1 hit at the time, and the Glitter Band.
w Ron Inkpen, Dennis Abey d Dennis Abey ph Harvey Harrison ad Denis Gordon-Orr ed Ray Lovejoy
☆ Peter Denyer, Freddie Jones, Sheila Steafel, Joe Lynch, John Clive, Peter Noone, Sally James, Scott Fitzgerald, Mud, Bob Kerr's Whoopee Band, The Glitter Band, The Rubettes, Slick

Never Wave at a WAC

US 1952 87m bw
Independent Artists (Frederick Brisson)

GB title: The Private Wore Skirts
A Washington hostess joins the WACs and finds she can't get beyond the rank of private.
Pattern comedy, unconvincing in all respects but with a smattering of funny moments. Flagwaving takes over towards the end.
w Ken Englund d Norman Z. McLeod
ph William Daniels m Elmer Bernstein
☆ Rosalind Russell, Paul Douglas, Marie Wilson, William Ching, Leif Erickson, Arleen Whelan, Charles Dingle

'A boy who needs a friend finds a world that needs a hero in a land beyond imagination!'

The Neverending Story ★

West Germany 1984 94m Technicolor Technovision
Warner/Bavaria Studios/WDR/Neue Constantin Filmproduktion (Bernd Eichinger, Dieter Geissler)
A reluctant student reads a book instead: dealing with mystical monsters and make-believe, it takes him back into their world.
Slow-starting fantasy with agreeable enough creations but not a lot of humour despite its intended stimulus to the imagination.
wd Wolfgang Petersen novel Michael Ende ph Jost Vacano m Klaus Doldinger, Giorgio Moroder pd Rolf Zehetbauer
ed Jane Seitz
☆ Barret Oliver, Gerald McRaney, Moses Gunn, Patricia Hayes

The Neverending Story II: The Next Chapter

Germany 1990 89m Eastmancolor Panavision
Warner/Soriba & Dehle (Dieter Geissler)
A boy and his fantasy alter-ego search for an imprisoned empress in a fairy-tale land of dreams.
Sequel that does little to expand the imagination.
w Karin Howard novel Michael Ende d George Miller ph Dave Connell
m Robert Folk pd Bob Laing, Götz Weidner ed Peter Hollywood, Chris Blunden sp creature effects Colin Arthur ☆ Jonathan Brandis, Kenny Morrison, Clarissa Burt, Alexandra Johnes, Martin Umbach, John Wesley Shiff, Helena Michell, Chris Burton, Thomas Hill

The Neverending Story III

Germany 1994 95m Agfacolor
Warner/Cinevox/Babelsberg/Dieter Geissler
School bullies corrupt the book of the Neverending Story, so that the kingdom of Fantasia begins to decay and some of its inhabitants escape into the real world.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Limp sequel that cuts down on the magic and sets most of the action in a dull, real world of shopping malls and school.
w Jeff Lieberman story Karin Howard d Peter Macdonald ph Robin Vidgeon m Peter Wolf pd Rolf Zehetbauer ed Michael Bradsell
☆ Jason James Richter, Melody Kay, Freddie Jones, Ryan Bollman, Jack Black, Tracey Ellis, Kevin McNulty, Carole Finn, Julie Cox
'A charmless, desperate reworking ... aimed at a generation of moppets with one finger on the fast forward button.' – Derek Elley, Variety

The New Adventures of Don Juan: see The Adventures of Don Juan

The New Adventures of Get-Rich-Quick Wallingford
US 1931 76m bw
MGM
Exploits of an attractive go-getter.
Reliable comedy of its day.
w Charles MacArthur novel G. R. Chester d Sam Wood ☆ William Haines, Jimmy Durante, Leila Hyams, Guy Kibbee

The New Adventures of Pippi Longstocking
US/Sweden 1988 100m DeLuxe
Columbia/Svensk Filmindustri (Gary Mehlman, Walter Moshay)
Pippi Longstocking causes havoc when she returns home alone from a sea voyage.
The classic children's stories were turned into some dreary Swedish movies; this American effort is no better, being tiresome, dull and witless, unsuited to any age of audience.
wd Ken Annakin novel Astrid Lindgren ph Roland 'Ozzie' Smith m Misha Segal pd Jack Senter ed Ken Zemke ☆ Tami Erin, Eileen Brennan, Dennis Dugan, Dianne Hull, George di Cenzo, John Schuck, Dick Van Patten

The New Age
US 1994 110m Technicolor
Warner/Regency/Alcor (Nick Wechsler, Keith Addis)
A couple's upwardly mobile progress, founded on the belief that shopping is good, comes to an abrupt stop.
A bleak look at a vapid society, so distanced from the characters it dispassionately observes that they dwindle to the level of uninteresting insects.
wd Michael Tolkin ph John H. Campbell m Mark Mothersbaugh pd Robin Standefer ed Suzanne Fenn
☆ Peter Weller, Judy Davis, Patrick Bauchau, Corbin Bernsen, Jonathan Hadary, Patricia Heaton, Samuel L. Jackson, Adam West
'Suffers from the pretentiousness it is surely designed to expose.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

The New Babylon ★
USSR 1929 80m approx (24 fps) bw silent
Sovkino
original title: Novyi Vavilon
The rise and fall of the 1871 French commune, seen through the eyes of a girl department store worker.
Propagandist socio-historical melodrama, most interesting now for its sub-Eisenstein technique.
wd Leonid Trauberg, Grigori Kozintsev ph Andrei Moskvin, Yevgeni Mikhailov m Dmitri Shostakovich ad Yevgeni Enei ☆ Yelena Kuzmina, Pyotr Sobelevsky, Sophie Magarill
'A slow decorative romantic picture.' – Graham Greene

The New Barbarians
Italy 1983 91m Telecolor
Entertainment/Deaf International (Fabrizi de Angelis)
original title: I Nuovi Barbari
In a post-holocaust future, two wandering warriors destroy a vicious gang of murdering homosexuals.
Mad Max, Italian-style, in an untalented low-budget rip-off.
w Tito Carpi, Enzo Girolami d Enzo G. Castellari ph Fausto Amicucci m Claudio Simonetti pd Antonio Visone ed Gianfranco Amicucci
☆ Fred Williamson, Timothy Brent, George Eastman, Anna Kanakis, Thomas Moore

The New Centurions ★
US 1972 103m Eastmancolor
Panavision
Columbia/Chartoff-Winkler
GB title: Precinct 45: Los Angeles Police
An old cop teaches a new one.
'Realistic' crime prevention saga which spawned the TV series Police Story and Police Woman. Well done within its limits.
w Stirling Silliphant novel Joseph Wambaugh d Richard Fleischer ph Ralph Woolsey m Quincy Jones
☆ George C. Scott, Stacy Keach, Jane Alexander, Rosalind Cash, Scott Wilson

The New Eve ★
France/Portugal 1999 94m colour
Gala/Gemini/Arte France/Mandragoa (Paulo Branco) original title: La Nouvelle Eve
A party- and sex-loving woman, who is dissatisfied with life and loathes domesticity, finds herself obsessed by a middle-aged married man.
Intermittently amusing study of an emotional woman who wants the impossible; it has its longeurs, though many individual scenes are arresting.
w Catherine Corsini, Marc Syrigas d Catherine Corsini ph Agnès Godard ad Solange Zeitoun ed Sabine Mamou cos Anne Schotte
☆ Karin Viard (Camille), Pierre-Loup Rajot (Alexis), Catherine Frot (Isabelle), Sergi Lopez (Ben), Laurent Lucas (Emile), Mireille Roussel (Louise), Nozha Khouadra (Solveig), Valentine Vidal (Sophie)
'Pithy portrait of an irresponsible and free-spirited scatterbrain who's alternately endearing and exasperating, pic pokes fun at both bourgeois coupledom and the swinging singles scene.' – Lisa Nesselson, Variety

New Face in Hell: see P.J.

New Faces ★
US 1954 99m Eastmancolor
Cinemascope
Edward L. Alperson (Leonard Sillman)
A revue goes on despite money problems.
Five minutes of plot, ninety-five minutes of revue from the Broadway stage; mostly quite amusing, and chiefly notable for introducing Eartha Kitt with all her standards.
w various d Harry Horner ph Lucien Ballard m Raoul Kraushaar revue deviser John Murray Anderson ☆ Eartha Kitt, Ronny Graham, Alice Ghostley, Robert Clary, Paul Lynde

New Faces of 1937
US 1937 105m bw
RKO
Talent auditions for a Broadway show.
Shapeless agglomeration of variety acts with a wisp of story; the level of talent is not outstandingly high.
w Nat Perrin, P. G. Epstein, Irving Brecher, Harold Russell, Harry Clork, Howard J. Green story Shoestring by George Bradshaw d Leigh Jason ☆ Joe Penner, Milton Berle, Parkyakarkus, Harriet Hilliard, Jerome Cowan, Bert Gordon, Ann Miller, Richard Lane
'A hodgepodge of vaudeville, night club and radio talent, unskilfully blended and rather inanely promulgated.' – Variety

New Frontier
US 1939 57m bw
Republic (William Berke)
aka: Frontier Horizon
aka: Raiders of the Wasteland
Cowboys come to the rescue of settlers who are losing their land to crooked dam builders.
A typical action-packed adventure for the Three Mesquiteers, which was also Wayne's last film in the series before he went on to better movies.
w Betty Burbridge, Luci Ward d George Sherman ph Reggie Lanning m William Lava
☆ John Wayne, Ray Corrigan, Raymond Hatton, Phylis Isley (Jennifer Jones), Eddy Waller, LeRoy Mason, Sammy McKim

The New Gulliver ★
USSR 1933 85m approx bw
Gulliver's Travels is retold in puppet form, but the plot has become a satire against capitalism.
Interesting both as animation and as propaganda.
w A. Ptoushko, B. Roshal d Alexander Ptoushko, A. Vanitchkin
'The invention is often delightful (one wonders how such humour in detail can exist with so humourless a philosophy), and the marvellous ingenuity of the puppets is beyond praise.' – Graham Greene, The Spectator

'Popularity isn't a contest... It's a war!'

The New Guy
US 2002 88m DeLuxe
Columbia/Revolution (Todd Garner, Gordon Gray, Mark Ciardi)
An unpopular teenager changes schools so that he can re-invent himself as a cool guy.
An all-American theme given a trite treatment; it makes a new low in the current stream of dreary high-school comedies;
w David Kendall d Ed Decter ph Michael D. O'Shea m Ralph Sall pd Dina Lipton ed David Rennie ☆ DJ Qualls (Dizzy), Eliza Dushku (Danielle), Zooey Deschanel (Nora), Lyle Lovett (Bear), Jerod Mixon (Kirk), Illeana Douglas (Kiki Pierce), Parry Shen (Glen), Kurt Fuller (Mr Undine)
'Bad beyond belief and ridiculous beyond description.' – Michael Wilmington, Chicago Tribune
'A trashy, crass piece of work that panders to the anxieties and desires of adolescents without a scintilla of sympathy or coherence.' – Ann Hornaday, Washington Post

The New Interns
US 1964 123m bw
Columbia (Robert Cohn)
Young doctors at a city hospital have trouble saving a rapist and his victim.
Unnecessary sequel to The Interns, its 'realism' requiring large pinches of salt.
w Wilton Schiller d John Rich ph Lucien Ballard m Earle Hagen
☆ George Segal, Telly Savalas, Michael Callan, Dean Jones, Inger Stevens, Stefanie Powers, Lee Patrick

New Jack City ★★
US 1991 100m Technicolor
Warner (Doug McHenry, George Jackson)
Undercover cops go after a successful gangster dealing drugs in Harlem.
Fast-moving, street-wise thriller with an anti-drugs stance.
w Thomas Lee Wright, Barry Michael Cooper d Mario Van Peebles ph Francis Kenny m Michel Colombier pd Charles C. Bennett ed Steven Kemper, Kevin Stitt
☆ Wesley Snipes, Ice T, Allen Payne, Chris Rock, Mario Van Peebles, Michael Michele, Bill Nunn, Russell Wong, Bill Cobbs
'A provocative, pulsating update on gangster pics.' – Variety

New Jersey Drive
US 1995 95m Technicolor
Universal/Gramercy/40 Acres and a Mule Filmworks/Shooting Gallery (Larry Meistrich, Bob Gosse)
Police engage in a war with young black joyriders and car thieves.
Gritty but unconvincing urban melodrama; its feeling for street life doesn't compensate for its reliance on stereotypical characters and situations.
wd Nick Gomez ph Adam Kimmel m Wendy Blackstone pd Lester Cohen ed Tracy Granger ☆ Sharron Corley, Gabriel Casseus, Saul Stein, Gwen McGee, Andre Moore, Donald Adeosun Faison, Conrad Meertin, Christine Baranski
'Lack of a discernible point of view on this out-of-control lawlessness and mayhem until the final minutes is a nagging problem throughout, leaving the viewer nowhere to put one's concerns or sympathies.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

A New Kind of Love
US 1963 110m Technicolor
Paramount/Llenroc (Melville Shavelson)
An American dress designer in Paris is softened by a boorish newspaper columnist.
Very thin sex comedy, dressed to kill but with nowhere to go.
wd Melville Shavelson ph Daniel Fapp m Leith Stevens
☆ Paul Newman, Joanne Woodward, Maurice Chevalier, Thelma Ritter, George Tobias
♫ Leith Stevens

The New Land: see The Emigrants

A New Leaf ★
US 1970 102m Movielab
Paramount/Aries/Elkins (Joe Manduke)
A middle-aged playboy, close to bankruptcy, thinks of acquiring a wealthy wife.
Agreeably mordant comedy which sparkles in patches rather than as a whole.
wd Elaine May story The Green Heart by Jack Ritchie ph Gayne Rescher m John Mandel, Neal Hefti pd Richard Fried ☆ Walter Matthau, Elaine May, Jack

Weston, George Rose, William Redfield, James Coco

'Unashamedly a thirties fairy tale in modern, but not fashionable, dress.' – Jan Dawson

A New Life

US 1988 104m Technicolor Panavision
Paramount (Martin Bregman)

A middle-aged couple divorce and find new partners and problems.
Occasionally wry, but more often sentimental, romantic comedy.
wd Alan Alda ph Kelvin Pike m Joseph Turrin pd Barbara Dunphy ed William Reynolds
☆ Alan Alda, Ann-Margret, Hal Linden, Veronica Hamel, John Shea, Mary Kay Place

New Mexico

US 1952 78m Anscocolor
United Artists (Irving Allen)

A cavalry officer tries to make peace with the Indians, but when an Indian child is accidentally killed a savage war breaks out.
Standard Western, not badly made.
w Max Trell d Irving Reis ph William Snyder m Lucien Moraweck, Rene Garriguenc ☆ Lew Ayres, Marilyn Maxwell, Robert Hutton, Andy Devine, Raymond Burr, Jeff Corey

New Moon ★

US 1940 105m bw
MGM (Robert Z. Leonard)

Romance in old French Louisiana.
Stalwart adaptation of an operetta previously filmed in 1930 with Lawrence Tibbett and Grace Moore.
w Jacques Deval, Robert Arthur d Robert Z. Leonard ph William Daniels m/ly Sigmund Romberg, Oscar Hammerstein
☆ Jeanette MacDonald, Nelson Eddy, Mary Boland, George Zucco, H. B. Warner, Stanley Fields, Grant Mitchell

New Morals for Old

US 1932 77m bw
MGM

John Van Druten's play After All, about the generation gap in the London aristocracy, was here rather unwisely translated to the American middle class and emerged as a decided curiosity.
w Zelda Sears, Wanda Tuchock d Charles Brabin
☆ Robert Young, Myrna Loy, Jean Hersholt, Lewis Stone, Laura Hope Crews, Elizabeth Patterson

'A weak sister, swathed in gloom, muddled, and without names that will draw.' – Variety

New Orleans ★

US 1947 89m bw
Jules Levey

How jazz was born, according to the movies.
Routine low-budgeter enlivened by a splendid array of guest musicians.
w Elliot Paul, Dick Irving Hyland d Arthur Lubin ph Lucien Andriot md Nathaniel Finston
☆ Louis Armstrong and his All Stars, Arturo de Cordova, Dorothy Patrick, Richard Hageman, Billie Holiday, Meade Lux Lewis, Woody Herman and his Orchestra
† Richard Hageman's piano-playing was dubbed by Arthur Schutt.

New Police Story (8)

Hong Kong/China 2004 122m
Contender/China Film Group Corporation/JCE Entertainment (Willie Chan, Solon So, Barbie Tung)

Original title: San ging chaat goo si

A disgraced Hong Kong cop beats the booze to avenge himself on the thrill-seeking criminals who murdered his team.
Chan on autopilot, albeit with above-average stunts and a darker plot than his usual fare.
w Alan Yuen d Benny Chan ph Anthony Pun m Tommy Wai ad Wong Ching Ching, Sung Pong Choo, Oliver Wong ed Chi Wai Yau
☆ Jackie Chan (Chan Kwok-Wing), Nicholas Tse (Frank Cheng), Charlene Choi (Sa Sa), Charlie Yeung (Sun Ho Yee), John Sham (Eric Chow), Coco Chiang (Sue Chow)

'Disliking Mr. Chan is a physical impossibility. I'd hoped for more stunts, or at any rate more gags.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

New Tale of Zatoichi: see Zatoichi: The Blind Swordsman's Return

'Once discovered, it was changed forever.'

The New World ★★ (6)

US 2005 150m Technicolor Panavision
New Line (Sarah Green)

In the 17th century, English adventurer John Smith discovers the pleasures of Virginia and Pocahontas, who goes on to discover England.
A dramatically-inert meditation on a Paradise lost that never quite coheres, despite its ravishing images, being too reliant on voice-over to convey its meaning.
wd Terrence Malick ph Emmanuel Lubezki m James Horner pd Jack Fisk ed Richard Chew, Hank Corwin, Saar Klein, Mark Yoshikawa ☆ Colin Farrell (Captain John Smith), Q'orianka Kilcher (Pocahontas), Christopher Plummer (Captain Newport), Christian Bale (John Rolfe), August Schellenberg (Powhatan), Wes Studi (Opechancanough), David Thewlis (Wingfield), Ben Mendelsohn (Ben), Noah Taylor (Selway), Jonathan Pryce (King James)

'Two and a half hours of paralyzing tedium.' – Rex Reed, New York Observer
'Malick's exalted visuals and isolated metaphysical epiphanies are ill-supported by a muddled, lurching narrative, resulting in a sprawling, unfocused account of an epochal historical moment.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety
'Malick has a pure, fluent cinematic idiom; his expedition into the past is ambitious and glorious.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian
† The film was subsequently re-edited, to run for 130m.
†† It cost around $30m and took nearly $13m at the US box-office.
Emmanuel Lubezki

New World Disorder

GB 1999 94m Technicolor
Promark/Videal/Carousel (Silvio Muraglia, Tom Reeve)

An old-fashioned cop and a young female FBI agent clash during an investigation of a murder in a high-tech computer firm in Silicon Valley.
Ludicrously overheated thriller, notable for its low-resolution acting, direction and script.
w Jeffrey Smith, Ehren Kruger d R. C. Spence ph Ivan Strasburg m Gast Waltzing pd Humphrey Bangham ed Graham Walker
☆ Rutger Hauer (David Marx), Andrew McCarthy (Kurt Bishop), Tara Fitzgerald (Kris Paddock), Hari Dhillon (Mark Ohal), Branwell Donaghey (Leo), Lawrence Elman (Maximilian Biggs)
† Despite its ostensible setting in Silicon Valley, the movie was shot in Luxembourg

New Year Sacrifice ★

China 1956 100m colour
Beijing Film Studio

original title: Zhu Fu

In 1911, in a remote village in eastern China, a young widow is sold into marriage by her mother-in-law and endures tragedy and ostracism after her new husband dies and her baby is eaten by wolves.
A film much admired in China, particularly for its adaptation of a story by a leading writer about a subservient woman's search for enlightenment in a repressive society, though the directorial approach now seems stiff and formal and the story melodramatic.
w Xia Yan story Lu Xan d Sang Hu ph Qian Jiang m Liu Ruzeng ad Chi Ning
☆ Bai Yang (Xianglin's wife), Wei Heling (He Laoliu), Le Jingbo (4th Master Lu), Shi Lin (Madame Lu), Li Jian (Mother-in-law), Guan Zongxiang (Wei)
† Leading Chinese film historians and critics voted it among the hundred greatest Chinese films of the Twentieth Century.

New Year's Day ★

US 1989 92m Technicolor
Contemporary/International Rainbow/Jagfilm (Judith Wolinsky)

A writer moves back from Los Angeles to his New York apartment and becomes involved in the lives of three young women, his previous tenants, and their friends.
A conversation piece, in which a varied group sound off about their lives and loves in a manner ranging from the engaging to the uninteresting; worth a listen for the most part.
wd Henry Jaglom ph Joey Forsyte ad Barbara Flood ed Ruth Zucker Ward ☆ Maggie Jakobson, Gwen Welles, Henry Jaglom, David Duchovny, Milos Forman, Michael Emil, Donna Germain, Tracy Reiner, Harvey Miller, Irene Moore

'Warm, perceptive, wryly comic.' – Philip French, Observer

'12 reasons to live. 12 reasons to die.'

New Year's Day

GB/France 1999 101m DeLuxe 'Scope
Optimum/Flashpoint/Alchymie/ECF/Liberator/Canal+ (Stephen Cleary, Simon Channing-Williams)

Two teenagers, who are the only survivors of an avalanche that killed their friends, agree to carry out twelve anti-social tasks in a year before they kill themselves.
Tame and shallow drama of adolescent angst, lacking the necessary sense of danger.
w Ralph Brown d Suri Krishnamma ph John de Borman m Julian Nott pd Eve Stewart ed Adam Ross
☆ Andrew Lee Potts (Jake), Robby Barry (Steven), Marianne Jean-Baptiste (Veronica), Jacqueline Bisset (Geraldine), Anastasia Hille (Shelley), Michael Kitchen (Robin), Ralph Brown (Mr Diamond), Sue Johnston (Mrs Fisher)

'There are false notes everywhere: all the rebellion is a fantasy, miles away from real grief or real adolescent pain.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

New York Confidential

US 1955 87m bw
Warner/Russel Rouse, Clarence Greene

The head of a crime syndicate is assassinated by his own hired killer.
Unexciting 'realistic' thriller with the gangsters presented as family and businessmen; seventeen years later The Godfather did it rather better.
w Clarence Greene, Russel Rouse d Russel Rouse ph Edward Fitzgerald m Joseph Mullendore pd Fernando Carrere
☆ Broderick Crawford, Richard Conte, Anne Bancroft, Marilyn Maxwell, Onslow Stevens, J. Carrol Naish, Barry Kelley, Mike Mazurki, Celia Lovsky

The New York Hat ★

US 1912 10m approx (24 fps) bw
silent
D. W. Griffith

A small-town minister is gossiped about when he buys a hat for a young girl.
Influential early short story film with good local backgrounds.
w Anita Loos d D. W. Griffith ph Billy Bitzer
☆ Mary Pickford, Lionel Barrymore, Lillian Gish, Dorothy Gish, Robert Harron, Mack Sennett, Mae Marsh

New York Minute

US 2004 91m DeLuxe
Warner/Dualstar/Di Novi Pictures (Denise Di Novi, Robert Thorne, Mary-Kate Olsen, Ashley Olsen)

Twins, one hard-working, the other a slacker, forget their differences during an adventurous time in New York.
The infant phenonmena that were the Olsen twins hardly registered outside the USA. Now in their late teens, they star in a vehicle that is both twee and raucous and will ensure that their appeal remains a local one.
w Emily Fox, Adam Cooper, Bill Collage d Dennie Gordon ph Greg Gardiner m George S. Clinton pd Michael Carlin ed Michael Jablow, Roderick Davis
☆ Ashley Olsen (Jane Ryan), Mary-Kate Olsen (Roxy Ryan), Eugene Levy (Max Lomax), Andy Richter (Bennie Bang), Riley Smith (Jim, the Bike Messenger)

'Loud and annoying.' – Variety

New York, New York ★

US 1977 153m Technicolor Panavision
UA/Chartoff-Winkler (Gene Kirkwood)

In the late forties in New York, a single-minded saxophonist fails to do right by his girlfriend, who becomes a Hollywood star.
A clever recreation of the big band era, hampered by gross overlength, unattractive characters and a pessimistic plot.
w Earl Mac Rauch, Mardik Martin d Martin Scorsese ph Laszlo Kovacs md Ralph Burns pd Boris Leven
☆ Liza Minnelli, Robert DeNiro, Lionel Stander, Barry Primus

'A dazzling modern musical, this is one of the rare films which is actually constructed with as much passion as it depicts.' – Judith Williamson

New York Nights

US 1929 81m bw
UA/Talmadge

A musical comedy star has a husband who drinks, and she accepts help from a gangster.
The star's sound début was a hit-and-miss affair composed of familiar elements.
w Jules Furthman play Tin Pan Alley by Hugh Stanislaus Stange d Lewis Milestone

☆ Norma Talmadge, Gilbert Roland, John Wray, Lilyan Tashman, Roscoe Karns

'Good performance, fair picture.' – Variety

New York Stories ★★

US 1989 124m Technicolor
Warner/Touchstone (Robert Greenhut)

Anthology of three stories: 'Life Lessons', dealing with a painter's attitude to life and art; 'Life Without Zoë', in which a 12-year-old girl brings her parents back together; and 'Oedipus Wrecks', in which a son is tyrannized by his mother materializing in the sky over New York.

Worth watching for Scorsese's sharp look at the art world and Allen's ultimate Jewish mother joke. Sandwiched between them is Coppola at his most disastrously winsome.

w Richard Price, Francis Coppola, Sofia Coppola, Woody Allen d Martin Scorsese, Francis Coppola, Woody Allen ph Nestor Almendros, Vittorio Storaro, Sven Nykvist m Carmine Coppola, Kid Creole and the Coconuts pd Kristi Zea, Dean Tavoularis, Santo Loquasto ed Thelma Schoonmaker, Barry Malkin, Susan E. Morse

☆ Nick Nolte, Patrick O'Neal, Rosanna Arquette, Heather McComb, Talia Shire, Gia Coppola, Giancarlo Giannini, Woody Allen, Marvin Chatinover, Mae Questel, Mia Farrow

New York Town

US 1941 94m bw
Paramount (Anthony Veiller)

A girl new to the Big Apple befriends a sidewalk photographer.

Flat romantic comedy, a soufflé which doesn't rise despite the talents involved.

w Lewis Seltzer (and, uncredited, Preston Sturges) d Charles Vidor (and Sturges) ph Charles Schoenbaum m Leo Shuken

☆ Fred MacMurray, Mary Martin, Robert Preston, Akim Tamiroff, Lynne Overman, Eric Blore, Cecil Kellaway, Fuzzy Knight

Newman's Law

US 1974 99m Technicolor
Universal (Richard Irving)

A cop uses unconventional methods to trap drug smugglers.

Very routine police actioner, just above TV movie level.

w Anthony Wilson d Richard Heffron ph Vilis Lapenieks m Robert Prince

☆ George Peppard, Roger Robinson, Eugene Roche, Gordon Pinsent, Abe Vigoda

The News Boys: see Newsies

News Is Made at Night

US 1939 72m bw
TCF

To boost circulation, a news editor pins a string of murders on a well-known gangster, and soon regrets it.

Pacy crime comedy-drama, very acceptable as the lower half of a double bill.

w John Larkin d Alfred Werker

☆ Preston Foster, Lynn Bari, Eddie Collins, Russell Gleason, George Barbier, Charles Halton

'Above average B; should do all right where properly placed.' – Variety

Newsboys' Home

US 1939 73m bw
Universal

A girl inherits a newspaper which sponsors a home for boys.

Modest debut for the East Side Kids, a spin-off group from the Dead End Kids.

w Gordon Kahn d Harold Young

☆ Jackie Cooper, Edmund Lowe, Wendy Barrie, Edward Norris, Samuel S. Hinds; and Elisha Cook Jnr, Hally Chester, Harris Berger, David Gorcey, Billy Benedict, Charles Duncan

'Another in the tough kid cycle. Will easily handle its end of dual depots.' – Variety

Newsfront ★★★

Australia 1978 110m colour/bw
Palm Beach Productions (David Elfick)

In the fifties, rival news teams battle to get the best shots for cinema newsreels.

Lively nostalgic feature with slick modern technique.

wd Phillip Noyce, from a concept by David Elfick ph Vincent Monton pd Lissa Coote ad Lawrence Eastwood ed John Scott

☆ Bill Hunter (Len Maguire), Wendy Hughes (Amy McKenzie), Gerard Kennedy (Frank Maguire), Chris Haywood (Chris Hewett)

Newsies

US 1992 121m Technicolor
Panavision
Warner/Walt Disney/Touchwood Pacific Partners I (Michael Finnell)

In the 1890s news boys in New York call a strike when a newspaper publisher charges them more for his papers.

Unsuccessful attempt to create a youthful musical – the model seems to be Oliver! but it lacks any Dickensian dimension despite its subplot of the exploitation of child labour.

w Bob Tzudiker, Noni White d Kenny Ortega ph Andrew Laszlo m Alan Menken ch Kenny Ortega, Peggy Holmes pd William Sandell ed William Reynolds

☆ Christian Bale, Bill Pullman, Ann-Margret, Robert Duvall, David Moscow, Ele Keats, Kevin Tighe, Luke Edwards

'With many catchy if forgettable ditties littered throughout, one is led to the inevitable conclusion that nine-year-old girls will just love it.' – Angie Errigo, Empire

The Newton Boys

US 1998 122m colour Panavision
TCF/Detour (Anne Walker-McBay)

In the 20s, four rural brothers become bank robbers.

Atmospheric but somewhat lethargic drama, set in a period of change.

w Richard Linklater, Claude Stanush, Clark Lee Walker book Claude Stanush d Richard Linklater ph Peter James m Edward D. Barnes pd Catherine Hardwicke ed Sandra Adair

☆ Matthew McConaughey, Skeet Ulrich, Ethan Hawke, Vincent D'Onofrio, Julianna Margulies, Dwight Yoakam, Chloe Webb

'A story that's too diffuse and lacks a discernible point of view that would make it dramatically engaging.' – Variety

† The film was released direct to video in Britain.

'If you can see the future, you can save it.'

Next ③

US 2007 95m
Entertainment/Revolution Studios/IEG Virtual Studios/Saturn Films/Broken Road (Nicolas Cage, Norm Golightly, Todd Garner, Arne L. Schmidt, Graham King)

A stage clairvoyant who can genuinely see into the future is recruited by the FBI to foil nuclear terrorists.

Fast-paced fantasy that exhausts its central gimmick early on; the writers respond by augmenting its lead character's facilities to the point he becomes virtually superhuman.

w Gary Goldman, Jonathan Hensleigh, Paul Bernbaum short story The Golden Man by Philip K. Dick d Lee Tamahori ph David Tattersall m Mark Isham pd William Sandell ad Kevin Ishioka ed Christian Wagner

☆ Nicolas Cage (Cris Johnson), Julianne Moore (Callie Ferris), Jessica Biel (Elizabeth Cooper), Thomas Kretschmann (Mr Smith), Tory Kittles (Agent Cavanaugh), Peter Falk (Irv)

CRIS: 'I've seen every possible ending. None of them are good for you.'

'Despite an outlandish premise, Next suffers from being too conventional.' – Kirk Honeycutt, Hollywood Reporter

'As straggly and ill-judged as Cage's rotten crop.' – Tim Robey, Daily Telegraph

'Best friends make the best mistakes.'

The Next Best Thing

US 2000 108m DeLuxe
Paramount/Lakeshore (Tom Rosenberg, Leslie Dixon, Linne Radmin)

A yoga instructor and her gay friend, parents of a six-year-old son, fall out when she finds the man she wants to marry.

A movie that may appeal to fans of Madonna, but otherwise does little to add to the gaiety of nations, with its awkward drama that resorts to court scenes in the hope of adding a little excitement to a bland, romantic serio-comedy.

w Thomas Ropelewski d John Schlesinger ph Elliot Davis m Gabriel Yared pd Howard Cummings ed Peter Honess cos Ruth Myers

☆ Rupert Everett (Robert), Madonna (Abbie), Benjamin Bratt (Ben), Michael Vartan (Kevin), Josef Sommer (Richard Whittaker), Lynn Redgrave (Helen Whittaker), Malcolm Stumpf (Sam), Neil Patrick Harris (David), Illeana Douglas (Elizabeth Ryder), Mark Valley (Cardiologist), Suzanne Krull (Annabel), Stacy Edwards (Finn)

'Resoundingly adequate Advanced Family Values comedy-drama.' – Variety

'The suburbs make the hood look good.'

Next Friday

US 2000 98m DeLuxe
Entertainment/New Line/Cubevision (Ice Cube)

Hiding from a thug, a unemployed man leaves his neighbourhood to stay with his lottery-rich uncle in the suburbs.

Amiable enough romp, a sequel of sorts to Friday (qv), which ambles along without getting anywhere very interesting.

w Ice Cube d Steve Carr ph Christopher J. Baffa m Terence Blanchard pd Dina Lipton ed Elena Maganini

☆ Ice Cube (Craig Jones), Mike Epps (Day-Day), Justin Pierce (Roach), John Witherspoon (Mr Jones), Don "DC" Curry (Uncle Elroy), Jacob Vargas (Joker), Lobo Sebastian (Lil Joker), Rolando Molina (Baby Joker), Lisa Rodriguez (Karla)

'There are a good few laughs but few surprises.' – Joe Leydon, Variety

The Next Karate Kid

US 1994 104m Technicolor
Columbia (Jerry Weintraub)

An unhappy teenage girl, whose parents died in a car crash, discovers that karate is a means of gaining self-respect.

This is another series running out of steam; the attempt to revive it by changing the gender of its protagonist yields small returns, since otherwise the story is as before.

w Mark Lee d Christopher Cain ph Laszlo Kovacs m Bill Conti pd Walter P. Martishius ed Ronald Roose

☆ Pat Morita, Hilary Swank, Michael Ironside, Constance Towers, Christian Conrad, Arsenio Trinidad, Michael Cavalieri

'Wholesome apprenticeship tale has its scattered moments of humor and insight but lacks sustained verve.' – Variety

The Next Man

US 1976 107m Technicolor
Artists Entertainment Complex (Martin Bregman)

A female assassin is hired to kill the Saudi Arabian Minister of State at the United Nations.

Fractured and uninteresting thriller in which all manner of cinematic styles obscure the storyline but point up the lack of narrative skill.

w Mort Fine, Alan R. Trustman, David M. Wolf, Michael Chapman d Richard C. Sarafian ph Michael Chapman m Michael Kamen pd Gene Callahan

☆ Sean Connery, Cornelia Sharpe, Albert Paulsen, Adolfo Celi, Charles Cioffi

'The director takes forever to set up the film's premise, and then he lingers over interminable street festivals and lush scenery.' – Dave Pomeroy, Film Information

The Next of Kin ★★

GB 1942 102m bw
Ealing (S. C. Balcon)

Careless talk causes loss of life in a commando raid.

A propaganda instructional film which was made so entertainingly that it achieved commercial success and remains an excellent example of how to make a bitter pill palatable.

w Thorold Dickinson, Basil Bartlett, Angus Macphail, John Dighton d Thorold Dickinson ph Ernest Palmer m William Walton

☆ Mervyn Johns, Nova Pilbeam, Stephen Murray, Reginald Tate, Basil Radford, Naunton Wayne, Geoffrey Hibbert, Philip Friend, Mary Clare, Basil Sydney

'The detail everywhere is curious and surprising, with something of the fascination of a Simenon crime being unravelled.' – William Whitebait

Next of Kin

Australia 1982 86m Eastmancolor
Miracle/SIS Productions/Filmco (Robert Le Tet)

A young girl teacher inherits an old people's home, and finds murder lurking.

Slow-starting but finally over-the-top melodrama, with elements borrowed from Psycho, Taste of Fear and a score of other creepies.

w Michael Heath, Tony Williams d Tony Williams ph Gary Hansen m Klaus Schulze ad Richard Francis, Nick Hepworth ed Max Lemon

☆ Jackie Kerin, John Jarratt, Alex Scott, Gerda Nicolson

'Genre awareness is one thing; a dreary sense of déjà vu is another matter entirely.' – Paul Taylor, MFB

Next of Kin

US 1989 108m Metrocolor
Warner/Lorimar (Les Alexander, Don Enright)

Two brothers, one a cop, the other a hillbilly, take their revenge when another brother is killed by gangsters.

Dreary action movie of no originality.
w Michael Jenning, Jeb Stuart d John Irvin ph Steven Poster m Jack Nitzsche, Gary Chang, Todd Hayen pd Jack T. Collis ed Peter Honess
☆ Patrick Swayze, Liam Neeson, Adam Baldwin, Helen Hunt, Andreas Katsulas, Bill Paxton, Ben Stiller, Michael J. Pollard, Ted Levine

The Next One

US 1984 105m colour
Allstar Productions (Constantine Vlachakis)

An American widow, living on a Greek island, becomes involved with a mysterious stranger she finds washed up on the beach.
Glossy, dull fantasy about a man from the future with a Christ complex, made in 1981.
wd Nico Mastorakis ph Ari Stavrou m Stanley Myers pd Paul Acciari ed George Rosenberg
☆ Keir Dullea, Adrienne Barbeau, Peter Hobbs, Phaedon Georgitsis, Betty Arvanitis, Jeremy Licht

Next Stop Greenwich Village *

US 1975 111m Movielab
TCF (Paul Mazursky, Tony Ray)

In 1953 in a poor quarter of New York, a young Jew tries to stretch his wings.
A bumper bundle of Jewish clichés dressed up as autobiography, and switching abruptly from comedy to tragedy and back. Vivid, but not exactly entertaining.
wd Paul Mazursky ph Arthur Ornitz m Bill Conti
☆ Lenny Baker, Shelley Winters, Ellen Greene, Lois Smith, Dori Brenner

'Some tartly comic observation, but the fragmented structure keeps the mixture inert.' – Sight and Sound

The Next Time I Marry

US 1938 64m bw
RKO

In order to become the richest girl in America, an heiress must marry in haste.
Tedious comedy which falls apart halfway.
w John Twist, Helen Meinardi d Garson Kanin ph Russell Metty md Roy Webb ☆ Lucille Ball, James Ellison, Lee Bowman, Granville Bates, Mantan Moreland

'A very poor entry. The story is banal, production values poor, direction sloppy and most of the performances bad.' – Variety

Next Time We Live: see Next Time We Love

Next Time We Love

US 1936 87m bw
Universal (Paul Kohner)
GB title: Next Time We Live

The wife of a war correspondent has plenty of time for romance.
Romantic drama which badly needs an injection of comedy.
w Melville Baker stories Ursula Parrott d Edward H. Griffith ph Joseph Valentine m Franz Waxman ad Charles D. Hall ed Ted J. Kent
☆ Margaret Sullavan, Ray Milland, James Stewart, Grant Mitchell, Robert McWade

'Draggy, complex tale ... will have to be sold on the star's past performances.' – Variety

Next to No Time

GB 1958 93m Eastmancolor
British Lion/Montpelier (Albert Fennell)

A meek-and-mild engineer crossing the Atlantic gains confidence when told that anything is possible during the hour 'lost' every day.
Whimsical comedy which never gains momentum.
wd Henry Cornelius story The Enchanted Hour by Paul Gallico ph Freddie Francis m Georges Auric
☆ Kenneth More, Betsy Drake, Bessie Love, Harry Green, Roland Culver, Reginald Beckwith, John Welsh, John Laurie, Howard Marion-Crawford

The Next Voice You Hear *

US 1950 83m bw
MGM (Dore Schary)

God speaks to mankind on the radio, and the life of Joe Smith American is changed.
Soppy parable, the archetypal instance of Schary's reign of do-goodery at MGM. (He wrote a book about it, Case History of a Movie.) The idea is handled with deadly reverence, and falls quite flat, while the depiction of the inhabitants of American suburbia is depressing.
w Charles Schnee d William Wellman ph William Mellor m David Raksin ☆ James Whitmore, Nancy Davis, Lillian Bronson, Jeff Corey

'The sins of the American working man are singularly uninteresting and their obliteration seems scarcely to require the very voice of God.' – Henry Hart

Ngati *

New Zealand 1987 90m colour
Pacific/NZFC (John O'Shea)

In the late 40s, a young Australian-born doctor returns to the small New Zealand community where his father lived and his mother, a Maori, died.
Austere and affecting study of the sometimes uneasy relations between two cultures, and between modern and traditional attitudes to life, filmed in a deliberately spare manner.
w Tama Poata d Barry Barclay ph Rory O'Shea m Dalvanius ad Matthew Murphy ed Dell King ☆ Tuta Ngarimu Tamati, Iranui Haig, Tawai Moana, Michael Tibble, Oliver Jones, Wi Kuki Kaa, Ross Girven

Ni ju-seiki Shonen Dokuhon: see Circus Boys

Ni Neibian Jidian: see What Time Is It There?

'A raging torrent of emotion that even nature can't control!'

Niagara ***

US 1952 89m Technicolor
TCF (Charles Brackett)

While visiting Niagara Falls, a faithless wife is plotting to murder her husband, but he turns the tables.
Excellent suspenser with breathtaking locations; in the best Hitchcock class though slightly marred by the emphasis on Monroe's wiggly walk (it was her first big part).
w Charles Brackett, Walter Reisch, Richard Breen d Henry Hathaway ph Joe MacDonald m Sol Kaplan ad Maurice Ransford, Lyle Wheeler ed Barbara McLean
☆ Joseph Cotten (George Loomis), Jean Peters (Polly Cutler), Marilyn Monroe (Rose Loomis), Don Wilson (Mr. Kettering), Casey Adams

'The story is most imaginatively treated, the production values are excellent.' – CEA Film Report
'Seen from any angle, the Falls and Miss Monroe leave little to be desired.' – New York Times
'A masterly example of fluid screen narrative.' – Charles Higham
'It would have turned out a much better picture if James Mason had played the husband as I wanted. He has that intensity, that neurotic edge. He was all set to do it, but his daughter Portland said she was sick of seeing him die in his pictures.' – Henry Hathaway
'This isn't a good movie but it's compellingly tawdry and nasty ... the only movie that explored the mean, unsavoury potential of Marilyn Monroe's cuddly, infantile perversity.' – Pauline Kael, 70s

Niagara Falls

US 1941 43m bw
Hal Roach

Confusion reigns in a hotel overlooking the falls.
Potted farce in the producer's season of 'shorties'; not the worst, but far from brilliant.
w Paul Gerard Smith, Hal Yates, Eugene Conrad d Gordon Douglas ☆ ZaSu Pitts, Slim Summerville, Tom Brown, Marjorie Woodworth, Chester Clute

'Pack your bags.'

Niagara Motel

Canada/GB 2004 89m colour
Soda/Indian Grove/Muse/Buffalo Gal (Michael Prupas, Bernard Zukerman, Phyllis Laing, Terrence Potter)

People with problems gather at a sleazy motel at Niagara Falls.
Adapted from six short plays dealing with the shadier aspects of life, this never coheres into a satisfying experience; indeed, it's best to check out as speedily as possible.
w Dani Romain, George F. Walker plays Suburban Motel by George F. Walker d Gary Yates ph Ian Wilson m Guy Fletcher pd Deanne Rohde ed Simon Cozens
☆ Kevin Pollak, Anna Friel, Craig Ferguson, Caroline Dhavernas, Wendy Crewson

'Cringeworthy multi-character drama... Someone jumps over the falls, but only one person, and not soon enough.' – Tim Robey, Daily Telegraph

Nice Girl? *

US 1941 95m bw
Universal (Joe Pasternak)

A teenager finds herself in demand by two older men.
Amusing romantic trifle supposed to mark the growing up of Universal's great teenage star.
w Richard Connell, Gladys Lehman d William A. Seiter ph Joseph Valentine md Charles Previn
☆ Deanna Durbin, Franchot Tone, Robert Stack, Walter Brennan, Robert Benchley, Helen Broderick, Ann Gillis

A Nice Girl Like Me

GB 1969 91m Eastmancolor
Anglo Embassy/Partisan (Roy Millichip)

A sheltered young lady sets out to see life but keeps getting pregnant.
Insufferable romantic whimsy, made to look like a marathon TV commercial but never so interesting.
w Anne Piper, Desmond Davis d Desmond Davis ph Gil Taylor, Manny Wynn m Pat Williams
☆ Barbara Ferris, Harry Andrews, Gladys Cooper, Joyce Carey, Bill Hinnant, James Villiers, Christopher Guinee, Fabia Drake

'High-toned woman's magazine nostalgia.' – MFB

Nice Girls Don't Explode

US 1987 92m colour
New World/Nice Girls (Douglas Curtis, John Wells)

An over-protective mother persuades her teenage daughter that she will cause fires whenever she becomes sexually excited.
Dim and exceedingly unfunny comedy, taken at a painfully slow pace.
w Paul Harris d Chuck Martinez ph Stephen Katz m Anthony Marinelli, Brian Banks pd Sarina Rotstein ed Wende Phifer Mate
☆ Barbara Harris, Michelle Meyrink, William O'Leary, Wallace Shawn, James Nardini, Irwin Keyes, Belinda Wills

A Nice Little Bank That Should Be Robbed

US 1958 87m bw Cinemascope
TCF (Anthony Muto)
GB title: How to Rob a Bank

Two incompetent crooks rob a bank and buy a racehorse.
Feeble comedy, a sad waste of its stars.
w Sydney Boehm d Henry Levin ph Leo Tover m Lionel Newman
☆ Mickey Rooney, Tom Ewell, Mickey Shaughnessy, Dina Merrill

Nicholas and Alexandra *

GB 1971 189m Eastmancolor Panavision
Columbia/Horizon (Sam Spiegel)

The life of Tsar Nicholas II from 1904 to the execution of the family in 1918.
Inflated epic of occasional interest, mainly for its sets; generally heavy going.
w James Goldman book Robert K. Massie d Franklin Schaffner ph Frederick A. Young m Richard Rodney Bennett pd John Box ed Ernest Walter ☆ Michael Jayston, Janet Suzman, Laurence Olivier, Jack Hawkins, Tom Baker, Harry Andrews, Michael Redgrave, Alexander Knox
† Original preferred casting: Rex Harrison, Vanessa Redgrave
♟ art direction; costumes (Yvonne Blake, Antonio Castillo)
♙ best picture; Frederick A. Young; Richard Rodney Bennett; Janet Suzman

Nicholas Nickleby **

GB 1947 108m bw
Ealing (John Croydon)

The adventures of a Victorian schoolmaster, deprived of his rightful fortune, who joins a band of travelling entertainers.
Quite tasteful and expert but too light-handed potted version of Dickens, which suffered by comparison with the David Lean versions.
w John Dighton novel Charles Dickens d Alberto Cavalcanti ph Gordon Dines m Lord Berners md Ernest Irving ad Michael Relph ed Leslie Norman ☆ Derek Bond (Nicholas Nickleby), Cedric Hardwicke (Ralph Nickleby), Alfred Drayton (Wackford Squeers), Sybil Thorndike (Mrs Squeers), Stanley Holloway (Vincent Crummles), James Hayter (Cheeryble Brothers), Sally Ann Howes (Kate Nickleby), Jill Balcon (Madeline Bray), Cyril Fletcher (Alfred Mantalini), Fay Compton (Madame Mantalini), Bernard Miles (Newman Noggs), Athene Seyler (Miss LaCreevy), Vida Hope (Fanny Squeers), Aubrey Woods (Smike), Patricia Hayes (Phoebe) and also Cathleen Nesbit (Miss Knag), Vera Pearce (Mrs Crummles), Una Bart (Infant

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · ♟ Academy Award · ♙ Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Phenomenon), George Relph, Michael Shepley, Cecil Ramage

'Here's richness! Not all the novel, perhaps, but enough to make a film full of the Dickens spirit.' – Star

'Every family needs a hero.'

Nicholas Nickleby ★ ⑦

US/GB/Germany/Netherlands 2002 132m DeLuxe Panavision
MGM/UA/Hart Sharp/Cloud Nine (Simon Channing Williams, John N. Hart, Jeffrey Sharp)

A young man seeks his way in the world so that he can save his mother and sister from the depredations of his wicked uncle.
Provides a swift succession of set pieces from Dickens' novel, enlivened by the performances of Plummer as a grasping rogue and Courtney as his lugubrious clerk.
wd Douglas McGrath novel Charles Dickens ph Dick Pope m Rachel Portman pd Eve Stewart ed Lesley Walker
☆ Charlie Hunnam (Nicholas Nickleby), Christopher Plummer (Ralph Nickleby), Jim Broadbent (Wackford Squeers), Juliet Stevenson (Mrs Squeers), Tom Courtenay (Newman Noggs), Jamie Bell (Smike), Edward Fox (Sir Mulberry Hawk), Romola Garai (Kate Nickleby), Nathan Lane (Vincent Crummles), Barry Humphries (Mrs Crummles), Alan Cumming (Mr Folair), Anne Hathaway (Madeline Bray), Timothy Spall (Charles Cheeryble)

'Colorful, affecting collage of Dickensian moods and motifs, a movie that elicits an overwhelming desire to plunge into 900 pages of 19th-century prose.' – A. O. Scott, New York Times

'Derivative, slightly saccharine and sugar-coated.' – Charlie Hunnam

Nick Carter, Master Detective

US 1939 57m bw
MGM (Lucien Hubbard)

Carter uncovers a spy ring in a plane factory.
Dull, devitalized version of the old dime novel adventures; generally characterless and unmemorable.
w Bertram Millhauser d Jacques Tourneur ph Charles Lawton Jnr m Edward Ward
☆ Walter Pidgeon, Rita Johnson, Henry Hull, Stanley Ridges, Donald Meek, Addison Richards, Milburn Stone, Martin Kosleck

'Just another screen sleuth.' – Variety

Nick of Time

US 1995 89m DeLuxe
Paramount (John Badham)

A man is given 90 minutes to kill the Governor of California or his young daughter will die.
A thriller in which real time and the film's time are the same, but it still drags at times, failing to create the necessary suspense, owing mainly to the spiralling absurdity of its narrative.
w Patrick Sheane Duncan d John Badham ph Roy H. Wagner m Arthur B. Rubinstein pd Philip Harrison ed Frank Morriss, Kevin Stitt
☆ Johnny Depp, Christopher Walken, Courtney Chase, Charles S. Dutton, Roma Maffia, Marsha Mason, Peter Strauss, Gloria Reuben

'This OK but undistinguished thriller takes a simple Hitchcockian premise and milks things about as well as it can, given its confines, before a rather silly and abrupt conclusion.' – Brian Lowry, Variety

The Nickel Ride

US 1975 110m DeLuxe
TCF

A wheeler dealer in downtown Los Angeles learns that he is marked for elimination.
Unpleasant and entirely uninteresting low-life crime melodrama.
w Eric Roth d Robert Mulligan
☆ Jason Miller, Linda Haynes, Victor French, John Hillerman, Bo Hopkins

'Love. Action. Comedy. Suspense. Excitement.'

Nickelodeon ★

US/GB 1976 122m Metrocolor
Columbia/EMI/Chartoff-Winkler (Frank Marshall)

In 1910, various characters come together to make movies, finally attending the 1915 opening in Hollywood of The Birth of a Nation.
What should have been a hugely entertaining chunk of comic nostalgia is killed stone dead by embarrassed acting, poor timing, and a general lack of funny ideas, despite having so much to borrow from.
w W. D. Richter, Peter Bogdanovich d Peter Bogdanovich ph Laszlo Kovacs md Richard Hazard
☆ Ryan O'Neal, Burt Reynolds, Tatum O'Neal, Brian Keith, Stella Stevens, John Ritter, Jane Hitchcock

'Ponderous slapstick and a pathetic parody of Harold Lloyd.' – Sight and Sound

'Another collection of scenes from other people's films.' – Howard Kissel, Women's Wear Daily

'The slightest familiarity with the early works of Hal Roach – not to mention D. W. Griffith, here pretentiously quoted – reveals how little Bogdanovich understands his vastly superior predecessors.' – Robert Asahina, New Leader

'The crudest, stupidest, unfunniest farce of this or any other year.' – John Simon, New York

Nick's Movie: see Lightning Over Water

Nicky and Gino

US 1988 109m DeLuxe
Rank/Orion (Marvin Minoff, Mike Farrell)

aka: Dominick and Eugene

A hospital doctor tries to keep his brain-damaged twin brother out of trouble.
Sentimental drama of no particular distinction.
w Alvin Sargent, Corey Blechman story Danny Porfirio d Robert M. Young ph Curtis Clark m Trevor Jones pd Doug Kraner ed Arthur Coburn
☆ Tom Hulce, Ray Liotta, Jamie Lee Curtis, Todd Graff, Bill Cobbs, David Strathairn, Mimi Cecchini, Robert Levine

Nico: see Above the Law

Nid de Guêpes: see The Nest

The Niebelungen ★★★

Germany 1924 bw silent
Decla-Bioscop (Erich Pommer)

Part 1: Siegfried, 115m approx (24 fps)
Part 2: Kriemheld's Revenge, 125m approx (24 fps)

Siegfried kills a dragon and marries a princess of Burgundy but the fierce queen Brunhilde arranges his death. His widow marries Attila the Hun and they massacre the Burgundians.
Stately, warlike legends are transformed into a slow, chilling, awe-inspiring sequence of films, the décor being of special interest. The films were conceived as a tribute to the German nation, and were among Hitler's favourites.
w Thea von Harbou d Fritz Lang ph Carl Hoffman, Günther Rittau ad Otto Hunte, Karl Vollbrecht, Erich Kettelhut ed Fritz Lang
☆ Paul Richter (Siegfried), Marguerite Schön (Kriemhild), Theodor Loos (Gunther), Hannah Ralph (Brunhilde), Rudolf Klein-Rogge (Attila, King of the Huns)
† A Region 1 two-disc DVD release features the original 1924 orchestral score and footage of Fritz Lang on the set.

'They all loved him – a schoolteacher, a night club hostess, and a luscious society bud!'

Night after Night ★

US 1932 76m bw
Paramount

An ex-boxer seeking refinement buys a night-club and falls for a socialite.
Dim little drama which is remembered for introducing Mae West to the screen with her famous line, 'Goodness had nothing to do with it'.
w Vincent Laurence novel Single Night by Louis Bromfield d Archie Mayo ph Ernest Haller
☆ George Raft, Constance Cummings, Wynne Gibson, Mae West, Alison Skipworth, Roscoe Karns, Louis Calhern

'Mae West stole everything but the cameras. I never made another picture with her. I knew she had me licked.' – George Raft

Night Ambush: see Ill Met by Moonlight

Night and Day ★

US 1946 132m Technicolor
Warner (Arthur Schwarz)

The life of Cole Porter.
Or rather, a fictitious story about a composer who happens to be called Cole Porter. A careful but undistinguished musical with pleasant moments.
w Charles Hoffman, Leo Townsend, William Bowers d Michael Curtiz ph Peverell Marley, William V. Skall m/ly Cole Porter md Max Steiner, Ray Heindorf ch Le Roy Prinz ☆ Cary Grant, Alexis Smith, Monty Woolley, Mary Martin, Ginny Simms, Jane Wyman, Eve Arden, Victor Francen, Alan Hale, Dorothy Malone
Max Steiner, Ray Heindorf

Night and Day ★

France 1991 100m colour
Artificial Eye/Pierre Grise Productions (Martine Marignac, Maurice Tinchant)

original title: Nuit et Jour

A woman has simultaneous and passionate affairs with two men.
A celebration of guilt-free sex, rather than love, with men depicted as adjuncts to a strong woman.
wd Chantal Akerman ph Jean-Claude Neckelbrouck m Marc Herouet ad Michel Vandestein, Dominique Douret ed Francine Sandberg, Camille Bordes-Resnais
☆ Guillaine Londez, Thomas Langmann, François Negret, Nicole Colchat, Pierre Laroche

Night and Fog ★

France 1955 31m Eastmancolor
Argos/Como

original title: Nuit et Brouillard

An account of the concentration camp at Auschwitz, contrasted with the peaceful surroundings ten years after its disbandment.
An official film of great dignity.
ph Ghislain Cloquet, Sacha Vierny d/ed Alain Resnais

Night and the City

GB 1950 101m bw
TCF (Samuel G. Engel)

A crooked wrestling promoter is tracked down by an underworld gang.
A fated attempt to extend the success of Naked City in a London setting; the surface is accomplished enough, but the plot and characters are just plain dull, especially as little is seen of the police.
w Jo Eisinger novel Gerald Kersh d Jules Dassin ph Max Greene m Benjamin Frankel ☆ Richard Widmark, Gene Tierney, Googie Withers, Hugh Marlowe, Herbert Lom

'Brilliantly photographed, it is an example of neo-expressionist techniques at their most potent.' – Richard Roud, 1964

'When you're down to your last dream, you either live it or lose it.'

Night and the City

US 1992 104m colour
First Independent/Penta/Tribeca (Jane Rosenthal, Irwin Winkler)

A small-time lawyer talks himself into trouble when he sets up as a boxing promoter and has an affair with the wife of one of his backers.
Dully directed, the movie comes to life only spasmodically; for the most part, it just lies there, completely inert.
w Richard Price novel Gerald Kersh d Irwin Winkler ph Tak Fujimoto m James Newton Howard pd Peter Larkin ed David Brenner
☆ Robert DeNiro, Jessica Lange, Cliff Gorman, Jack Warden, Alan King, Eli Wallach, Barry Primus

'It resembles a cigarette lighter with a worn flint and a dry wick that never ignites, leaving everyone with bruised thumbs from vainly flicking the spiked wheel.' – Philip French, Observer

'A useless film.' – Rupert Murdoch

† A remake of Jules Dassin's 1950 film.

The Night Angel

US 1931 75m bw
Paramount

A Prague lawyer falls for the daughter of the brothel keeper he has sent to prison, and after killing a jealous suitor is himself accused of murder.
Would-be Dietrichean high-style melodrama which did its stars no good at all and virtually ended Miss Carroll's career.
wd Edmund Goulding
☆ Fredric March, Nancy Carroll, Alan Hale, Alison Skipworth, Katherine Emmett

'Mild and frequently boring entertainment of the kind that can just about last a week in most of the de luxers.' – Variety

'Everything comes to life.'

Night at the Museum ④

US 2006 108m
TCF/1492 Pictures/21 Laps (Michael Barnathan, Chris Columbus, Shawn Levy)

A security guard at New York's Natural History Museum discovers its exhibits create havoc after hours.
One-joke fantasy with nowhere to go once its gimmick is revealed; as so often with movies of this genre, special effects fail to fill the void where a plot should be.

w Robert Ben Garant, Thomas Lennon book Milan Trenc d Shawn Levy ph Guillermo Navarro m Alan Silvestri pd Claude Pare ad Helen Jarvis ed Dan Zimmerman sp Jim Rygiel
☆ Ben Stiller (Larry Daley), Carla Gugino (Rebecca), Dick Van Dyke (Cecil), Mickey Rooney (Gus), Robin Williams (Teddy Roosevelt), Ricky Gervais (Dr. McPhee)
'About as dull as a film could be with Attila the Hun, Teddy Roosevelt and lots of exotic wildlife rounding out the cast.' – Justin Chang, Variety † Owen Wilson received no screen credit for his role as a miniature cowboy.

A Night at the Opera ★★★★

US 1935 96m bw
MGM (Irving Thalberg)

Three zanies first wreck, then help an opera company.
Certainly among the best of the Marxian extravaganzas, and the first to give them a big production to play with as well as musical interludes by other than themselves for a change of pace. The mix plays beautifully.
w George S. Kaufman, Morrie Ryskind d Sam Wood ph Merritt Gerstad md Herbert Stothart ad Cedric Gibbons, Ben Carre ed William LeVanway ☆ Groucho Marx (Otis B. Driftwood), Chico Marx (Fiorello), Harpo Marx (Tomasso), Margaret Dumont (Mrs Claypool), Kitty Carlisle (Rosa Castaldi), Allan Jones (Riccardo Baroni), Walter Woolf King (Rodolfo Lassparri), Sig Rumann (Herman Gottlieb)
'Corking comedy with the brothers at par and biz chances excellent ... songs in a Marx picture are generally at a disadvantage because they're more or less interruptions, the customers awaiting the next laugh.' – Variety † Zeppo Marx absented himself from here on.

'Score!'

A Night at the Roxbury

US 1998 81m DeLuxe
Paramount/SNL (Lorne Michaels, Amy Heckerling)

Two brothers, desperate to be cool, manage against the odds to be allowed into an exclusive LA night-club.
Yet another comic spin-off from the US TV series Saturday Night Live*; on the big screen, it is dumb, stupid and not at all funny.*
w Steve Koren, Will Ferrell, Chris Kattan d John Fortenberry ph Francis Kenny m David Kitay pd Steven Jordan ed Jay Kamen
☆ Will Ferrell, Chris Kattan, Molly Shannon, Dan Hedaya, Richard Grieco (as himself), Loni Anderson, Elisa Donovan, Gigi Rice, Lochlyn Munro
'We have to survive on a diet of low calorie slapstick and quick-fix buffoonery. Even at just 82 minutes it can still seem like an hour-and-a-half too long.' – Trevor Lewis, Empire

Night Beat

GB 1948 91m bw
BLPA (Harold Huth)

Demobbed, a commando becomes a policeman and his friend becomes a crook.
Manhattan Melodrama*, British style; no more than an adequate offering of its type.*
w T. J. Morrison, Roland Pertwee, Guy Morgan d Harold Huth ph Vaclav Vich m Benjamin Frankel ad F. Bellan ed Grace Garland ☆ Anne Crawford, Maxwell Reed, Ronald Howard, Christine Norden, Hector Ross, Sidney James

Night Boat to Dublin

GB 1945 99m bw
ABP (Hamilton Inglis)

An MI5 man saves an atom scientist from kidnapping.
Generally watchable low key thriller with familiar British ingredients.
w Lawrence Huntington, Robert Hall d Lawrence Huntington ph Otto Heller
☆ Robert Newton, Raymond Lovell, Muriel Pavlow, Guy Middleton, Herbert Lom, Martin Miller, Marius Goring

The Night Caller ★

GB 1965 84m bw
New Art/Armitage

US title: Blood Beast from Outer Space
An alien being arrives on Earth to abduct girls for genetic purposes.
Reasonably well made science fiction thriller.
w Jim O'Connolly novel Frank Crisp d John Gilling ph Stephen Dade m Johnny Gregory ☆ John Saxon, Maurice Denham, Patricia Haines, Alfred Burke, John Carson, Jack Watson, Warren Mitchell

Night Caller (dubbed)

France/Italy 1975 125m Eastmancolor
Columbia-Warner/Cerito/Mondial (Henri Verneuil) original title: Peur sur la Ville

A moody inspector, obsessed with his personal vendetta against a crook, pays little attention to tracking down a serial killer who is murdering women.
Slight but enjoyable thriller, with some fancy stunts to enliven a familiar story.
w Henri Verneuil, Francis Veber d Henri Verneuil ph Jean Penzer m Ennio Morricone ad Jean André ed Pierre Gillette, Henri Lanoë
☆ Jean-Paul Belmondo, Charles Denner, Catherine Morin, Adalberto-Maria Merli, Lea Massari, Giovanni Cianfriglia, Rosy Varte, Henri-Jacques Huet
'A routine policier, which seems to have one eye on the American tough cop series.' – John Gillett, MFB

Night Club Hostess: see Unmarried

Night Club Lady

US 1932 66m bw
Columbia

A police commissioner solves the murder of a night-club hostess.
Straightforward cops and killers melodrama with the star in his first non-romantic role.
w Robert Riskin novel Anthony Abbott d Irving Cummings
☆ Adolphe Menjou, Mayo Methot, Skeets Gallagher, Blanche Friderici, Nat Pendleton

Night Club Scandal

US 1937 74m bw
Paramount

A society doctor murders his wife and incriminates her lover.
Smooth second feature remake of Guilty as Hell*, chiefly notable for its star's last controlled performance.*
w Lillie Hayward play Riddle Me This by Daniel Rubin d Ralph Murphy ph Leo Tover
☆ John Barrymore, Lynne Overman, Charles Bickford, Elizabeth Patterson, Evelyn Brent, Louise Campbell, J. Carrol Naish

Night Court

US 1932 90m bw
MGM
GB title: Justice for Sale

A corrupt judge frames a girl on a prostitution charge.
Tough star melodrama.
w Mark Hellinger, Bayard Veiller, Charles Beehan, Lenore Coffee d W. S. Van Dyke
☆ Walter Huston, Lewis Stone, Anita Page, Phillips Holmes, Jean Hersholt
'Political frame-up of women is made the subject of a vigorous melodrama, though it comes after the New York scandal on the subject is largely forgotten.' – Variety

Night Crawlers: see The Navy versus The Night Monsters

Night Creatures: see Captain Clegg

Night Crossing

US 1982 106m Technicolor
Walt Disney (Tom Leetch)

East Germans escape to the west via air balloon.
Well-meaning melodrama which sadly lacks plot development and suspense, and is also rather miserable to look at.
w John McGreevey d Delbert Mann ph Tony Imi m Jerry Goldsmith ☆ John Hurt, Jane Alexander, Doug McKeon, Frank McKeon, Beau Bridges, Glynnis O'Connor, Ian Bannen

The Night Digger

GB 1971 100m colour
MGM

A frustrated spinster protects a handyman clearly guilty of murder, and runs away with him.
How this came to be made at all when the Finney version of Night Must Fall had recently flopped is a mystery; it had so little box-office appeal that it was barely released.
w Roald Dahl story Joy Cowley d Alastair Reid
☆ Patricia Neal, Nicholas Clay, Pamela Browne, Jean Anderson, Yootha Joyce, Peter Sallis, Graham Crowden

Night Eyes

US/India 1990 98m colour
Amritraj-Baldwin (Ashok Amritraj)

A rock star hires a security guard to look after his estranged wife, hoping to catch her in an affair.
Cheap, unsubtle thriller of the sort that gives direct-to-video movies a bad name: the dialogue sounds as if it was bought by the yard, and the acting and direction are uninteresting.
w Tom Citrano, Andrew Stevens d Jag Mundhra ph James Mathers m Richard Glasser pd Brian McCabe ed David H. Lloyd
☆ Andrew Stevens, Tanya Roberts, Warwick Sims, Karen Elise Baldwin, Cooper Huckabee, Stephen Meadows, Chick Vennera
† It was followed by three sequels, none of which managed to be any more watchable.

'In a city of nine million people is there room for one honest man?'

Night Falls on Manhattan ★ (6)

US 1997 114m DuArt
Paramount/Spelling (Thom Mount, Josh Kramer)

Investigating the shooting of his father, a policeman, by a drug dealer, an honest cop-turned-lawyer uncovers high-level corruption.
Effective investigative drama on a somewhat familiar theme, but given urgency by the lead performances.
wd Sidney Lumet novel Tainted Evidence by Robert Daley ph David Watkin m Mark Isham pd Philip Rosenberg ed Sam O'Steen
☆ Andy Garcia, Richard Dreyfuss, Lena Olin, Ian Holm, James Gandolfini, Colm Feore, Ron Liebman
'Intelligent and reasonably compelling, this is solid fare.' – Empire

Night Fighters: see A Terrible Beauty

Night Flight ★

US 1933 84m bw
MGM (David O. Selznick)

The president of a civil airline insists that dangerous night flights must continue as a mark of progress.
Spurious, unsatisfactory, multi-star air melodrama lacking both narrative flow and the common touch.
w Oliver H. P. Garrett stories Antoine de St Exupéry d Clarence Brown ph Oliver T. Marsh, Elmer Dyer, Charles Marshall ☆ John Barrymore, Helen Hayes, Lionel Barrymore, Clark Gable, Robert Montgomery, Myrna Loy, William Gargan, C. Henry Gordon
'Punch aviation film with a flock of potent marquee names.' – Variety
'It is in the sense it conveys of human beings caught in the swift machinery of modern living that Night Flight soars above other pictures of its kind.' – James Shelley Hamilton

Night Full of Rain: see The End of the World (in our usual bed in a night full of rain)

Night Games ★

Sweden 1966 105m bw
Sandrews (Lena Malmsjö)
original title: Nattlek

A 35-year-old man is sexually inhibited by memories of his dead mother's passions and perversions.
Curious Freudian parable apparently intended as a comment on the state of Europe. Audiences found it merely peculiar.
wd Mai Zetterling novel Mai Zetterling ph Rune Ericson m Jan Johansson, George Riedel
☆ Ingrid Thulin, Keve Hjelm, Lena Brundin, Naima Wifstrand
'The best one can say is that it never lets up for a moment.' – David Wilson, MFB

Night Games

US 1980 100m Technicolor
Golden Harvest/Avco

A neurotic Beverly Hills housewife is terrified of men.
Crazy mix of case history, eroticism and suspense with insufficient of any to satisfy fans.
w Anton Diether, Clarke Reynolds d Roger Vadim ph Denis Lewiston m John Barry ☆ Cindy Pickett, Joanna Cassidy, Barry Primus

Night Hair Child

GB 1971 89m Movielab
Leander/Harry Alan Towers (Graham Harris)

A 12-year-old boy makes sexual advances to his stepmother.
Corrupt voyeuristic weirdie which has to be seen to be believed.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

w Trevor Preston d James Kelly ph Harry Waxman m Stelvio Cipriani
☆ Mark Lester, Britt Ekland, Hardy Kruger, Harry Andrews, Lilli Palmer

'Was his strange power a blessing or a curse? He was a refugee from love – because he could foretell that their marriage and their kisses would dissolve in a tragedy of tears!'

Night Has a Thousand Eyes

US 1948 80m bw
Paramount (André Boehm)
A vaudeville mentalist finds that he really does have the power to predict the future.
Predictable supernatural melodrama closely modelled on The Clairvoyant (qv); quite nicely made but simply not exciting.
w Barre Lyndon, Jonathan Latimer novel Cornell Woolrich d John Farrow
ph John F. Seitz m Victor Young ☆ Edward G. Robinson, Gail Russell, John Lund, Virginia Bruce, William Demarest, Richard Webb, Jerome Cowan

'For those who like sweet hocus-pocus and Edward G. Robinson.' – Sunday Express

The Night Has Eyes ★

GB 1942 79m bw
ABP (John Argyle)
US title: Terror House
A young teacher disappears on the Yorkshire moors; her friend goes in search, and comes under the influence of a strange young man and his sinister housekeeper.
Stagey but effective little thriller, with oodles of fog and bog to help the suspense.
w Alan Kennington d Leslie Arliss
ph Günther Krampf m Charles Williams
☆ James Mason, Joyce Howard, Wilfrid Lawson, Mary Clare, Tucker McGuire, John Fernald

'Some ingenuity and not a little style.' – The Times

The Night Holds Terror ★

US 1955 86m bw
Columbia (Andrew Stone)
Three gunmen on the run kidnap a factory worker and hold him to ransom.
Effective, detailed, low-budget police melodrama; its plot may be over familiar now, but at the time it was refreshing and the whole film an intelligent exercise in suspense.
wd Andrew Stone ph Fred Jackman Jnr
m Lucien Cailliet
☆ Jack Kelly, Hildy Parks, John Cassavetes, David Cross, Edward Marr, Jack Kruschen

A Night in Cairo: see The Barbarian

A Night in Casablanca ★★

US 1946 85m bw
David L. Loew
Three zanies rout Nazi refugees in a North African hotel.
The last authentic Marxian extravaganza; it starts uncertainly, builds to a fine sustained frenzy, then peters out in some overstretched airplane acrobatics.
w Joseph Fields, Roland Kibbee, Frank Tashlin d Archie Mayo ph James Van Trees m Werner Janssen pd Duncan Cramer
☆ Groucho Marx, Chico Marx, Harpo Marx, Sig Rumann, Lisette Verea, Charles Drake, Lois Collier, Dan Seymour
KORNBLOW (GROUCHO MARX): 'I don't mind being killed, but I resent hearing it from a character whose head comes to a point.'
KORNBLOW: 'From now on the essence of this hotel will be speed. If a customer asks you for a three-minute egg, give it to him in two minutes. If he asks you for a two-minute egg, give it to him in one minute. If he asks you for a one-minute egg, give him the chicken and let him work it out for himself.'
BEATRICE (LISETTE VEREA): 'My name's Beatrice Ryner. I stop at the hotel.'
KORNBLOW: 'My name's Ronald Kornblow. I stop at nothing.'

'It is beside the main point to add that it isn't one of their best movies; for the worst they might ever make would be better worth seeing than most other things I can think of.' – James Agee

A Night in Havana: see The Big Boodle

A Night in Paradise

US 1946 84m Technicolor
(Universal)
Aesop falls in love at the court of King Croesus.
Deadly boring, unintentionally funny Arabian Nights farrago without the saving grace of action.
w Ernest Pascal, Emmet Lavery novel Peacock's Feather by George S. Hellman d Arthur Lubin ph Hal Mohr m Frank Skinner ad Alexander Golitzen, John B. Goodman ed Milton Carruth
☆ Merle Oberon, Turhan Bey, Thomas Gomez, Gale Sondergaard, Ray Collins, George Dolenz, John Litel, Ernest Truex, Jerome Cowan, Douglass Dumbrille

A Night in the Life of Jimmy Reardon: see Jimmy Reardon

Night into Morning

US 1951 86m bw
MGM (Edwin H. Knopf)
A college professor loses his wife and son in an accident; despair drives him to drink and attempted suicide.
Well-made and well-meaning melodrama whose virtual absence of plot makes it seem by the end merely maudlin.
w Karl Tunberg, Leonard Spigelgass
d Fletcher Markle ph George Folsey
m Carmen Dragon
☆ Ray Milland, Nancy Davis, John Hodiak, Lewis Stone, Jean Hagen, Rosemary de Camp

'Tediously uneventful, as sincere and futile as a note of condolence.' – Time

The Night Is Ending: see Paris After Dark

Night Is My Future: see Music Is My Future

The Night Is Young

US 1934 82m bw
MGM
A European archduke loves a ballerina.
High-class musical which failed despite an intriguing cast and a Romberg and Hammerstein score.
w Vicki Baum d Dudley Murphy
☆ Evelyn Laye, Ramon Novarro, Una Merkel, Edward Everett Horton, Rosalind Russell, Charles Butterworth, Herman Bing, Henry Stephenson, Donald Cook

'Disappointing entertainment ... feeble in plot, with a cast struggling to carry assignments and failing to ignite any real romantic fire, film also seems to lack a single strong musical number.' – Variety

The Night Is Young

France 1986 119m colour
Artificial Eye/Les Films Plain Chant/Soporfilms/FR3 (Philippe Diaz) original title: Mauvais Sang
In the future, a gang of criminals sets out to steal an antidote to a disease which kills those who indulge in sex without love.
Chic, slight tale, influenced for the bad by Godard.
wd Leos Carax ph Jean-Yves Escoffier
pd Michel Vandestien ed Nelly Quettier
☆ Michel Piccoli, Juliette Binoche, Denis Lavant, Hans Meyer, Julie Delpy, Carroll Brooks, Hugo Pratty

Night Key

US 1937 67m bw
Universal (Robert Presnell)
An inventor's idea is stolen by his former partner, and he takes an appropriate revenge.
Low-key star melodrama: competent, but no great shakes.
w Tristram Tupper, John C. Moffitt
d Lloyd Corrigan ph George Robinson
m Louis Forbes make-up Jack Pierce
☆ Boris Karloff, Jean Rogers, Warren Hull, Samuel S. Hinds, Alan Baxter, Ward Bond, Edwin Maxwell

'Mildly entertaining dualler ... one of those impossible gadget yarns with liberal injections of cops and robbers stuff.' – Variety

The Night Life of the Gods

US 1935 75m bw
Universal
An inventor turns statues into people, and vice versa.
Fantasy comedy from a well-known comic novel; interesting despite low level of invention.
w Barry Trivers novel Thorne Smith
d Lowell Sherman ph John Mescall
ed Ted J. Kent
☆ Alan Mowbray, Florine McKinney, Richard Carle, Peggy Shannon

'Universal has managed to keep in the fun and restrain it from getting too rough.' – Variety

'Listen for the truth.'

The Night Listener ★ (5)

US 2006 81m
Icon/Hart Sharp/IFC Films/Fortissimo (Robert Kessel, Jeffrey Sharp, John N. Hart Jr., Jill Footlick)
A late-night radio presenter becomes involved by phone with the teenage author of a misery memoir and his adoptive mother, until he suspects they are frauds.
Absorbing, underrated psychological thriller that does a good job in keeping audiences guessing.
w Armistead Maupin, Terry Anderson, Patrick Stettner d Patrick Stettner novel Armistead Maupin ph Lisa Rinzler
m Peter Nashel pd Michael Shaw ad Eva Radke ed Andy Keir
☆ Robin Williams (Gabriel Noone), Toni Collette (Donna D. Logand), Rory Culkin (Pete D. Logand), Bobby Cannavale (Jess), Joe Morton (Ashe), Sandra Oh (Anna)

'Explores a shadowy region between truth and fiction.' – A.O. Scott, New York Times

Night Mail ★★★

GB 1936 24m bw
GPO Film Unit (John Grierson)
A 'film poem' showing the journey of the mail train from London to Glasgow.
One of the best and most influential of British documentaries: despite a few absurdities, it remains a pleasure to watch.
wd Basil Wright, Harry Watt poem W. H. Auden ph J. Jones, H. E. Fowle
m Benjamin Britten sound arrangements Alberto Cavalcanti

'The final sequences as the train drives at dawn through the northern moors, the sheep-dog racing the train and the rabbits scurrying to cover, set to the simple visual verses of Mr Auden, are extraordinarily exciting.' – Graham Greene, The Spectator

Night Mayor

US 1932 65m bw
Columbia
The Mayor of New York pays too much attention to night life and not enough to his desk.
Thinly veiled account of the Jimmy Walker affair, released after Walker had been discredited. As entertainment, punchy, but in the end only fair.
w Gertrude Purcell, Sam Marx d Ben Stoloff
☆ Lee Tracy, Evalyn Knapp, Eugene Pallette, Warren Hymer, Donald Dillaway, Astrid Allwyn

'It is a safe general statement that the screen ought never to exploit a public character who is the center of debate.' – Variety

Night Monster

US 1942 73m bw
Universal (Ford Beebe)
GB title: House of Mystery
Murders are committed in a spooky house by a cripple who produces synthetic legs by self-hypnotism.
Stilted, creaky would-be thriller with a good cast and an impertinent plot.
w Clarence Upson Young d Ford Beebe
ph Charles Van Enger m H. J. Salter ad Jack Otterson, Richard H. Riedel
ed Milton Carruth
☆ Ralph Morgan, Don Porter, Irene Hervey, Bela Lugosi, Lionel Atwill, Nils Asther, Leif Erickson, Frank Reicher

'Night, Mother

US 1986 96m DeLuxe
Universal/Aaron Spelling, Alan Greisman
A mother gets to grips with the problems of her suicidal daughter.
Rueful drama which pares down the nerve ends but was clearly not designed for box-office, and remains a play rather than a film.
w Marsha Norman play Marsha Norman d Tom Moore ph Stephen M. Katz
m David Shire
☆ Anne Bancroft, Sissy Spacek, Ed Berke, Carol Robbins

'Maybe he would find the girl – maybe he would find himself!'

Night Moves ★

US 1975 99m Technicolor
Warner/Hiller/Layton (Robert M. Sherman)
A private eye is engaged to find a runaway teenager.
Apparently a Chandlerish mystery, this is really a Pinterish audience-teaser with obsessions about communication and the meaning of life. A smart-ass entertainment for eager trendies.
w Alan Sharp d Arthur Penn ph Bruce Surtees m Michael Small pd George Jenkins
☆ Gene Hackman, Jennifer Warren, Edward Binns, Harris Yulin, Kenneth Mars

'Beneath the complicated unravelling of a mystery, an anti-mystery, with the hero's detection registering as an evasion of his own problems; beneath a densely charted intrigue of betrayals and cross purposes, a cryptic void...' – Jonathan Rosenbaum

'A suspenseless suspenser ... there's very little rhyme or reason for the plot's progression.' – Variety

'Rich and dense enough to set up reverberations long after one has left the cinema.' – Michael Billington, Illustrated London News

Night Must Fall ★★

US 1937 117m bw
MGM (Hunt Stromberg)
A bland young bellboy who is really a psychopathic murderer attaches himself to the household of a rich old lady.
Unconvincing but memorable Hollywood expansion of an effective British chiller.
w John Van Druten play Emlyn Williams d Richard Thorpe ph Ray June m Edward Ward
☆ Robert Montgomery, Rosalind Russell, May Whitty, Alan Marshal, Merle Tottenham, Kathleen Harrison, Matthew Boulton, E. E. Clive
'Too long and not box office ... tedious, slow, and even dull in spots.' – Variety
'A pretty little murder play has made a long dim film.' – Graham Greene
'The most exhilarating shrouds of horror hang over it. It represents a provocative imagination, a skilled adapter, a sensitive director, a splendid acting job.' – Bland Johaneson, New York Daily Mirror † Louis B. Mayer so disliked this film that at the New York première he ordered the distribution of leaflets disowning it on behalf of MGM.
Robert Montgomery; May Whitty

Night Must Fall

GB 1964 105m bw
MGM (Albert Finney, Karel Reisz)
Dreary remake with a mannered star performance and the emphasis on axe murders. A mistake from beginning to end.
w Clive Exton d Karel Reisz ph Freddie Francis m Ron Grainer
☆ Albert Finney, Susan Hampshire, Mona Washbourne, Sheila Hancock, Michael Medwin, Joe Gladwin, Martin Wyldeck
'Not so much a thriller as a typically humourless example of that overworked genre known as psychological drama ... [Finney] constantly recalls a ventriloquist's dummy.' – MFB

The Night My Number Came Up ★

GB 1954 94m bw
Ealing (Tom Morahan)
A man dreams that his plane will crash, and the dream begins to come true.
Intriguing little melodrama which badly lacks a twist ending and foxes itself by a flashback construction which leaves very little open to doubt. Production generally good.
w R. C. Sherriff d Leslie Norman ph Lionel Banes m Malcolm Arnold
☆ Michael Redgrave, Alexander Knox, Sheila Sim, Denholm Elliott, Ursula Jeans, George Rose, Nigel Stock, Michael Hordern, Ralph Truman, Victor Maddern, Bill Kerr, Alfie Bass
'A story which, in its delicately measured suspenses and reliefs, has been beautifully built.' – Times Educational Supplement
'The idea of destiny as predestiny is an old psychological trump, but it still takes tricks.' – Time
† The story was taken from a personal account by Sir Victor Goddard.

Night Nurse ★

US 1931 72m bw
Warner
A nurse uncovers a plot by other members of the household against her patient's children.
Fast-moving melodrama with solid star performances; just what the public wanted in 1931.
w Oliver H. P. Garrett, Charles Kenyon novel Dora Macy d William Wellman ph Chick McGill md Leo Forbstein ad Max Parker ed Edward M. McDermott ☆ Barbara Stanwyck, Ben Lyon, Joan Blondell, Clark Gable, Charles Winninger, Vera Lewis, Blanche Frederici, Charlotte Merriam
'A conglomeration of exaggerations, often bordering on serial dramatics.' – Hollywood Reporter

Night of Counting the Years ★★

Egypt 1969 102m colour
Egyptian Cinema General Organization original title: El Mumia
Horrified to discover that his tribe has grown rich by robbing the tombs of the Pharaohs, a young leader faces the dilemma of what to do about it.
Engrossing, if rather stately, account of a moral choice against the magnificent background of Egypt's past. The film was sponsored by Italian director Roberto Rossellini.
wd Shadi Abdelsalam ph Abdel Aziz Fahmy m Mario Nascimbene ad Salah Marei ed Kamal Abou ☆ Ahmed Marel (Wanniss), Zouzou El Hakim (Mother), Ahmad Hegazi (Brother), Nadia Loutfy (Zeena), Gaby Karraz (Maspero)
'Film-making of the highest order.' – MFB

Night of Dark Shadows

US 1971 97m Metrocolor Panavision
MGM (Dan Curtis)
aka: Curse of Dark Shadows
After moving to his ancestral home, an artist begins to experience strange and violent visions of the past.
Tame tale of the supernatural that fails to hold one's interest.
w Sam Hall story Sam Hall, Dan Curtis d Dan Curtis ph Richard Shore m Robert Cobert pd Trevor Williams ed Charles Goldsmith
☆ David Selby, Grayson Hall, Lara Parker, John Karlen, Nancy Barrett, James Storm, Thayer David, Christopher Pennock, Diana Millay, Kate Jackson
† The film was an unsuccessful follow-up to Curtis's 1970 film House of Dark Shadows (qv).

The Night of January 16th

US 1941 79m bw
Paramount
A secretary is arrested for her boss's murder; but is he really dead?
A stage thriller full of theatrical trickery becomes a very mundane film.
w Delmer Daves, Robert Pirosh, Eve Greene play Ayn Rand d William Clemens
☆ Robert Preston, Ellen Drew, Nils Asther, Margaret Hayes

The Night of June 13th

US 1932 76m bw
Paramount
A suburban street is transformed when one of its residents goes on trial for murder.
Combination courtroom and slice-of-life drama which satisfied most audiences.
w Agnes Brand Leahy, Brian Marlow, William Slavens McNutt story Vera Caspary d Stephen Roberts
☆ Clive Brook, Lila Lee, Mary Boland, Adrianne Allen, Gene Raymond, Frances Dee, Charley Grapewin
'Absorbingly worked out with fascinating character study and a touch of satire.' – Variety

A Night of Love: see Manifesto

'What happens after they turn the lights out on Broadway?'

The Night of Nights

US 1939 86m bw
Paramount
A once-famous Broadway writer, now a drunk, tries to ensure his daughter's fame.
Curious downbeat melodrama without the courage of its convictions, or the actors to give the right bravura performances.
w Donald Ogden Stewart d Lewis Milestone ☆ Pat O'Brien, Olympe Bradna, Reginald Gardiner, Roland Young
'Backstage drama lightened by direction and cast performances. Nominal supporter for key duals.' – Variety

The Night of San Lorenzo ★★

Italy 1981 107m Agfacolor
UA/Premier/RAI/Ager Cinematografica (Giuliani G. de Negri) original title: La Notte Di San Lorenzo aka: Night of the Shooting Stars
In the Second World War a six-year-old girl watches events in her town as American forces advance to liberate it.
Touching, powerfully nostalgic study of a community in ferment.
wd Paolo Taviani, Vittorio Taviani
ph Franco Di Giacomo m Nicola Piovani ad Gianni Sbarra ed Roberto Perpignani ☆ Omero Antonutti, Margarita Lozano, Claudio Bigagli, Massimo Bonetti, Norma Martelli, Enrica Maria Modugno, Sabina Vannucchi

Night of the Big Heat

GB 1967 94m Eastmancolor
Tom Blakeley/Planet
US title: Island of the Burning Damned
Invaders from outer space take over a remote Scottish island and make it unbearably hot so that they can survive.
Sloppily made and over-prolonged science fiction with far too much irrelevant talk.
w Ronald Liles novel John Lymington
d Terence Fisher ph Reginald Wyer
m Malcolm Lockyer
☆ Christopher Lee, Peter Cushing, Patrick Allen, Sarah Lawson, Jane Merrow, William Lucas, Kenneth Cope

Night of the Bloody Apes (dubbed)

Mexico 1970 82m Eastmancolor
Grand National/Unistar (Alfredo Salazar) original title: Horriplante Bestia Humana aka: Gomar the Human Gorilla
In an attempt to save his son's life, a doctor gives him the heart of a gorilla, causing him to change into a murderous ape.
Bizarre horror that may appeal to lovers of terrible movies; it borrows from every major film of the genre, from Jekyll and Hyde and Frankenstein to King Kong and The Murders of the Rue Morgue.
w René Cardona, René Cardona Jnr
d René Cardona ph Raúl Martinez Solares
m Antonio Diaz Conde ad Carlos Arjona
ed Jorge Bustos sp Javier Torres Torija ☆ José Elias Moreno, Carlos López Moctezuma, Armando Silvestre, Norma Lazareno, Agustin Martinez Solares, Noelia Noel
'Patience is severely tried by the stately pace, the endless expressions of paternal devotion, and the script's risible attempts to offer medical explanations and justifications.' – Tom Milne, MFB

Night of the Comet

US 1984 98m colour
Atlantic/Thomas Coleman-Michael Rosenblatt (Andrew Lane, Wayne Crawford)
In Los Angeles two sisters are the only survivors of a cosmic storm that kills the population or turns them into zombies.
Low-budget science-fiction thriller, done with humour and some imagination.
wd Thom Eberhardt ph Arthur Albert
m David Richard Campbell pd John Muto
ed Fred Stafford
☆ Robert Beltran, Catherine Mary Stewart, Kelli Maroney, Sharon Farrell, Mary Woronov, Geoffrey Lewis

Night of the Cyclone

US 1990 90m colour
Maroon (Edgar Bold)
aka: Perfume of the Cyclone
A maverick Chicago cop goes to a tropical island to find his spoilt 16-year-old daughter, who has not returned from a modelling assignment.
Glossy thriller that is both exotic and uninteresting, affected and very ordinary.
w Rick Brotherhood d David Irving
ph James Robb m David Pollecutt
pd Graeme Orwin ed Ettie Feldman
☆ Kris Kristofferson, Jeff Meek, Marisa Berenson, Winston Ntshona, Dick Reineke, Marcel van Heerden, Alla Korot

Night of the Demon ★★★

GB 1957 87m bw
Columbia/Sabre (Frank Bevis)
US title: Curse of the Demon
An occultist despatches his enemies by raising a giant medieval devil.
Despite dim work from the leads, this supernatural thriller is intelligently scripted and achieves several frightening and memorable sequences in the best Hitchcock manner.
w Charles Bennett, Hal E. Chester story Casting the Runes by M. R. James d Jacques Tourneur ph Ted Scaife
m Clifton Parker ad Ken Adam
ed Michael Gordon
☆ Dana Andrews (John Holden), Peggy Cummins (Joanna Harrington), Niall MacGinnis (Dr. Karswell), Athene Seyler (Mrs. Karswell), Brian Wilde (Rand Hobart), Maurice Denham (Prof. Harrington), Ewan Roberts (Lloyd Williamson), Liam Redmond (Mark O'Brien), Reginald Beckwith (Mr. Meek)
† A Region 1 DVD release includes both the UK release and the shorter US version, Curse of the Demon.

Night of the Demons

US 1988 92m colour
Meridian/Paragon (Joe Augustyn, Jeff Geoffray, Walter S. Josten)
Teenagers release demonic spirits when they hold a Halloween party in a mortuary.
Direly predictable, cheaply produced horror flick with some gruesome make-up effects.
w Joe Augustyn d Kevin S. Tenney
ph David Lewis m Dennis Michael Tenney ad Ken Aichele ed Daniel Duncan sp make-up: Steve Johnson
☆ Alvin Alexis, Alison Barron, Lance Fenton, William Gallo, Hal Havins, Mimi

Kinkade, Linnea Quigley; Lance Fenton

'Angela's Back ... And She's Throwing Another Party ... Trick Or Treat, Sucker!'

Night of the Demons 2

US 1994 98m colour
Republic/Blue Rider (Walter Josten, Jeff Geoffray)

aka: Night of the Demons: Angela's Revenge

A girl invites fellow students to a creepy old house for Halloween night, causing the malevolent spirit of its former owner to wreak havoc and create zombie killers.

A more polished retread of the original, with the welcome addition of graveyard humour.

w Joe Augustyn, James Penzi d Brian Trenchard-Smith ph David Lewis m Jim Manzie pd Wendy Guidery ed Daniel Duncan sp prosthetic make-up: Steve Johnson

☆ Cristi Harris, Bobby Jacoby, Merle Kennedy, Amelia Kinkade, Rod McCary, Zoe Trilling, Jennifer Rhodes

'Rises above most slice-and-dice fare and may tantalize some more discriminating palettes in addition to the usual teen suspects.' – Variety

Night of the Doomed

Italy 1965 97m bw
Emmeci (Carlo Caiano)

original title: Amanti d'Oltretomba
GB title: The Faceless Monster; US title: Nightmare Castle

A sadistic scientist tries to drive his dead wife's stepsister, who has inherited her money, insane.

Lurid thriller that circles endlessly around Barbara Steele, running the gamut of emotions in two roles.

w Carlo Caiano, Fabio de Agostini d Allan Grunewald (Mario Caiano) ph Enzo Barboni m Ennio Morricone ad Massimo Tavazzi ed Renato Cinquini

☆ Barbara Steele, Paul Muller, Helga Liné, Laurence Clift, Rik Battaglia, Giuseppe Addobbati

'Do the undead demons of hell still arise to terrorize the world?'

Night of the Eagle ★★

GB 1961 87m bw
Independent Artists (Albert Fennell)

US title: Burn, Witch, Burn

At a medical school, a jealous witch sets an evil force on her rival.

Pretty good supernatural thriller, let down by leading performances and sustained by character roles and solid production values in creepy sequences.

w Charles Beaumont, Richard Matheson, George Baxt novel Conjure Wife by Fritz Leiber Jnr d Sidney Hayers ph Reg Wyer m William Alwyn

☆ Margaret Johnston, Janet Blair, Peter Wyngarde, Anthony Nicholls, Reginald Beckwith, Kathleen Byron

The Night of the Following Day ★

US 1969 100m Technicolor
Universal/Gina (Hubert Cornfield)

A young girl arriving in Paris to stay with her father is kidnapped and held to ransom by an eccentric gang.

Straightforward suspense thriller with delusions of grandeur; the second half bogs down in pretentious talk and the end suggests that the whole thing was a dream.

w Hubert Cornfield, Robert Phippeny novel The Snatchers by Lionel White d Hubert Cornfield ph Willy Kurant m Stanley Myers

☆ Marlon Brando, Richard Boone, Rita Moreno, Pamela Franklin, Jess Hahn

Night of the Garter

GB 1933 86m bw
British and Dominions (Herbert Wilcox)

A newly married man tries to retrieve an intimate gift from an old flame.

One of the best-remembered comedies of Sydney Howard.

w Austin Melford, Marjorie Gaffney play Getting Gertie's Garter by Avery Hopwood, Wilson Collison d Jack Raymond

☆ Sydney Howard, Winifred Shotter, Elsie Randolph, Austin Melford

The Night of the Generals ★★

GB 1967 148m Technicolor Panavision
Columbia/Horizon/Filmsonor (Sam Spiegel)

A German intelligence agent tracks down a psychopathic Nazi general who started killing prostitutes in Warsaw during World War II.

A curiously bumpy narrative which is neither mystery nor character study but does provide a few effective sequences and impressive performances. The big budget seems well spent.

w Joseph Kessel, Paul Dehn novel Hans Helmut Kirst d Anatole Litvak ph Henri Decaë m Maurice Jarre pd Alexander Trauner

☆ Peter O'Toole, Omar Sharif, Tom Courtenay, Donald Pleasence, Joanna Pettet, Philippe Noiret, Charles Gray, Coral Browne, John Gregson, Harry Andrews, Nigel Stock, Christopher Plummer, Juliette Greco

'The "who" is obvious from the first and the "dunnit" interminable.' – Judith Crist, 1973

'Lurid and vivid, if nothing else.' – Robert Windeler

Night of the Ghouls

US 1958 75m bw
Wade Williams (Edward D. Wood Jnr)

aka: Revenge of the Dead

Dr Acula, a fake medium, takes up residence in a haunted house where he manages to raise the dead.

Aficianados of the work of the totally inept Wood may enjoy this, since it has all the hallmarks of his movies: bad acting, irrelevant voice-over and hopeless direction, although it lacks the delirium of Plan 9 from Outer Space.

wd Edward D. Wood Jnr ph William C. Thompson md Gordon Zahler ad Kathleen O'Hara Everett

☆ Criswell, Kenne Duncan, 'Duke' Moore, Valda Hansen, Tor Johnson, John Carpenter, Paul Marco

The Night of the Grizzly

US 1966 102m Techniscope
Paramount (Burt Dunne)

A Wyoming ex-sheriff kills a marauding bear and earns the respect of his son.

Stout-hearted family film, rather sluggishly made.

w Warren Douglas d Joseph Pevney ph Harold Lipstein, Loyal Griggs m Leith Stevens

☆ Clint Walker, Martha Hyer, Keenan Wynn, Leo Gordon, Kevin Brodie, Nancy Kulp, Ellen Corby, Jack Elam, Ron Ely

'The scenes! The story! The stars! But above all – the suspense!'

The Night of the Hunter ★★★★

US 1955 93m bw
UA/Paul Gregory

A psychopathic preacher goes on the trail of hidden money, the secret of which is held by two children.

Weird, manic fantasy in which evil finally comes to grief against the forces of sweetness and light (the children, an old lady, water, animals). Although the narrative does not flow smoothly there are splendidly imaginative moments, and no other film has ever quite achieved its texture.

w James Agee novel Davis Grubb d Charles Laughton ph Stanley Cortez m Walter Schumann ad Hilyard Brown ed Robert Golden

☆ Robert Mitchum (Preacher Harry Powell), Shelley Winters (Willa Harper), Lillian Gish (Rachel), Don Beddoe (Walt Spoon), Evelyn Varden (Icey Spoon), Peter Graves (Ben Harper), James Gleason (Birdie)

PREACHER (ROBERT MITCHUM): 'Lord, you sure knew what you was doing when you brung me to this very cell at this very time. A man with ten thousand dollars hid somewhere, and a widder in the makin'.'

'One of the most frightening movies ever made.' – Pauline Kael, 1968

'A genuinely sinister work, full of shocks and over-emphatic sound effects, camera angles and shadowy lighting.' – NFT, 1973

'One of the most daring, eloquent and personal films to have come from America in a long time.' – Derek Prouse

'One man ... three women ... one night!'

The Night of the Iguana ★★★

US 1964 125m bw
MGM/Seven Arts (Ray Stark)

A disbarred clergyman becomes a travel courier in Mexico and is sexually desired by a teenage nymphomaniac, a middle-aged hotel owner and a frustrated itinerant artist.

The author is most tolerable when poking fun at his own types, and this is a sharp, funny picture with a touch of poetry.

w Anthony Veiller play Tennessee Williams d John Huston ph Gabriel Figueroa m Benjamin Frankel ad Stephen Grimes ed Ralph Kemplen

☆ Richard Burton (Rev. T. Lawrence Shannon), Deborah Kerr (Hannah Jelkes), Ava Gardner (Maxine Faulk), Sue Lyon (Charlotte Goodall), Grayson Hall (Judith Fellowes), Cyril Delevanti (Nonno)

'Whatever poetry it had seems to have leaked out.' – New Yorker, 1982

Gabriel Figueroa; Grayson Hall

Night of the Juggler

US 1980 100m Technicolor
Columbia

A New Yorker relentlessly pursues the kidnapper of his daughter.

Average chase thriller with good location staging of car crashes.

w Bill Norton Snr, Rick Natkin novel William P. McGivern d Robert Butler ph Victor J. Kemper m Art Kane

☆ James Brolin, Cliff Gorman, Richard Castellano, Abby Bluestone

Night of the Laughing Dead: see The House in Nightmare Park

'There's a herd of killer rabbits heading this way!'

Night of the Lepus

US 1972 88m Metrocolor
MGM (A. C. Lyles)

A serum meant to control a surplus of rabbits instead produces monster varieties four feet tall.

Tolerable sci-fi tailored to a very tired formula.

w Don Holiday, Gene R. Kearney novel The Year of the Angry Rabbit by Russell Braddon d William F. Claxton ph Ted Voigtlander m Jimmie Haskell

☆ Stuart Whitman, Rory Calhoun, Janet Leigh, Paul Fix, DeForest Kelley

'For insomniacs with lax standards.' – Judith Crist

'Pits the dead against the living in a struggle for survival!'

The Night of The Living Dead ★★★

US 1968 98m bw
Image Ten

Flesh-eating zombies, activated by radiation from a space rocket, ravage the countryside.

Gruesome horror comic with effective moments; the director was still doing the same schtick ten years later. One of the most influential, and most imitated, of modern horror movies.

w John A. Russo d George A. Romero ph George A. Romero ed George Romero

☆ Judith O'Dea (Barbara), Duane Jones (Ben), Karl Hardman (Harry Cooper), Keith Wayne (Tom), Russell Streiner (Johnny)

'The best film ever made in Pittsburgh.' – Anon.

'Casts serious aspersions on the integrity of its makers ... the film industry as a whole and exhibs who book the pic, as well as raising doubts about the future of the regional cinema movement and the moral health of filmgoers who cheerfully opt for unrelieved sadism.' – Variety

† The Region 1 millennium edition DVD release includes commentary by Romero and the entire cast and the shooting script.

Night of The Living Dead

US 1990 89m TVC Color
Columbia/21st Century/George A. Romero/Menahem Golan (John A. Russo, Russ Steiner)

Cannibalistic corpses rise from their graves to terrorize people trapped in a farmhouse.

Remake lacking the relentless intensity of the original.

w George A. Romero d Tom Savini ph Frank Prinzi m Paul McCollough ad James Feng ed Tom Dubensky

☆ Tony Wood, Patricia Tallman, Tom Towles, McKee Anderson, William Butler, Katie Finnerman, Bill Mosley, Heather Mazur

'A crass bit of cinematic grave-robbing.' – Variety

The Night of the Party

GB 1934 60m bw
Gaumont-British (Jerome Jackson)

A game of murder at a dinner party leads to a real one.

Solid supporting thriller with interesting credits.

w Ralph Smart play Roland Pertwee, John Hastings Turner d Michael Powell ph Glen MacWilliams ad Alfred Junge

☆ Leslie Banks, Jane Baxter, Viola Keats, Ian Hunter, Ernest Thesiger, Malcolm Keen

'Nothing original, but good entertainment.' – Variety

'Assigned to kill ... There can be no escape.'

Night of the Running Man

US 1994 89m CFI color
Trimark/American World (Mark L. Lester, Dana Dubovsky, George W. Perkins)

A Las Vegas taxi driver finds a suitcase containing a million stolen dollars in his cab and goes on the run with it, hunted by a ruthless hitman from the Mob.
Unpleasantly violent and sleazy chase thriller with a narrative that favours repetition over invention.
w Lee Wells novel Lee Wells d Mark L. Lester ph Mark Irwin m Christopher Franke pd Alfred Sole ed David Berlatsky
☆ Scott Glenn, Andrew McCarthy, Janet Gunn, Wayne Newton, John Glover, Peter Lacangelo, Matthew Laurance

'A run-of-the-mill thriller plucked from obscurity by its prolonged torture sequence which will have even hardened viewers squirming.' – Sight and Sound

Night of the Shooting Stars: see The Night of San Lorenzo

Night of the Sunflowers ★ ③

Spain/Portugal/France 2006 123m
Yume Pictures/Back Up Films/Alta Films/Fado/The Film/Stopline/Arte France Cinema (Enrique Gonzalez Macho)

Spanish theatrical title: La noche de los girasoles
French theatrical title: La nuit des tournesols
When the intended victim of a serial rapist-murderer escapes, the ripple effects of the crime affect a rural Spanish community.
Impeccable acting, ominous atmosphere and an ambitious six-plot strand overlap give compulsive interest to a dark thriller revolving around flawed humanity.
wd Jorge Sanchez-Cabezudo ph Angel Iguacel m Krishna Levy pd Diego Modino, Alberto Sanchez-Cabezudo ad Diego Modino, Alberto Sanchez-Cabezudo ed Pedro Ribeiro sp David Campos, Pau Costa ☆ Mariana Alameda (Pedro), Celso Bugallo (Amadeo), Nadia Casado (Girl), Judith Diakhate (Gabi), Cesareo Estebanez (Cecilio)

'A torrid tale of rape and revenge.' – Xan Brooks, Guardian

Night on Earth ★★

US 1992 129m colour
Electric/Locus Solus/Victor/Victor Musical Industries/Pyramide/Canal/Pandora/Channel 4 (Jim Jarmusch)

Five individuals take simultaneous taxi rides in five cities: Los Angeles, New York, Paris, Rome and Helsinki.
Engaging series of shaggy dog stories, expertly told.
wd Jim Jarmusch ph Frederick Elmes m Tom Waits ed Jay Ribinowitz ☆ Winona Ryder, Gena Rowlands, Giancarlo Esposito, Armin Mueller-Stahl, Rosie Perez, Isaach de Bankolé, Béatrice Dalle, Roberto Benigni, Paolo Bonacelli, Matti Pellonpää

'For the most part, the movie induces in the viewer an eerie, suspended feeling that mimics the time-stands-still monotony of a long airplane journey. It tries for a chipper, lighthearted tone, but it gives the audience a gruelling flight – a red-eye to nowhere.' – Terrence Rafferty, New Yorker

Night on the Town

US 1987 99m DeLuxe
Touchstone/Silver Screen Partners III/Debra Hill/Linda Obst

US title: Adventures in Babysitting
Babysitting young children, a girl takes them for a ride in her car and unwittingly becomes a target for gangsters.
A sequence of tepid chases aimed at an undemanding audience.
w David Simkins d Chris Columbus ph Ric Waite m Michael Kamen pd Todd Hallowell ad Gregory Keen ed Fredric Steinkamp ☆ Elisabeth Shue, Maia Brewton, Keith Coogan, Anthony Rapp, Calvin Levels

Night Owls ★

US 1930 20m bw
Hal Roach

A policeman wanting to record an arrest bribes two tramps to burgle a house.
The stars at their most hilariously incompetent, unable even to get through a doorway efficiently.
w Leo McCarey, H. M. Walker d James Parrott ph George Stevens ed Richard Currier
☆ Stan Laurel, Oliver Hardy, Edgar Kennedy, James Finlayson

Night Passage ★

US 1957 90m Technirama
U-I (Aaron Rosenberg)

A railroad worker entrusted with a payroll finds that the bandits trying to rob it are led by his own brother.
Obscurely titled and rather empty Western providing standard excitements.
w Borden Chase d James Neilson ph William Daniels m Dimitri Tiomkin ☆ James Stewart, Audie Murphy, Dan Duryea, Brandon de Wilde, Dianne Foster, Elaine Stewart

'You have never really seen Gregory Peck until you see him in CinemaScope!'
'We didn't say nice people, we said night people!'

Night People ★

US 1954 93m Technicolor
Cinemascope
TCF (Nunnally Johnson)

When a US corporal stationed in Berlin is kidnapped by the Russians, his influential father flies into action.
Curiously titled cold war suspenser which would have been more memorable if not in Cinemascope; the pace and talent are visible, but the wide screen and poor colour dissipate them.
wd Nunnally Johnson ph Charles G. Clarke m Cyril Mockridge
☆ Gregory Peck, Broderick Crawford, Anita Bjork, Walter Abel, Rita Gam, Buddy Ebsen, Jill Esmond, Peter Van Eyck
§ original story (Jed Harris, Tom Reed)

'Seven in the skies over China – and one of them a dangerous Axis spy!'

Night Plane from Chungking

US 1942 69m bw
Paramount

Assorted international passengers are flown from Chungking to India, but one of their number is a German spy who will kill to get his hands on vital information.
A lower-case 'who is it' based on Shanghai Express. Not bad according to its lights.
w Earl Felton, Theodore Reeves, Lester Cole d Ralph Murphy ph Theodor Sparkuhl m Gerard Carbonara
☆ Ellen Drew, Robert Preston, Otto Kruger, Steve Geray, Ernest Dorian, Tamara Geva, Sen Yung

'The most controversial film of our time!'

The Night Porter

Italy 1973 118m Technicolor
Lotar Films (Robert Gordon Edwards, Esa de Simone)

The wife of an opera conductor recognizes a hotel porter as the sadistic SS commandant of a concentration camp in which she spent the war years; they now resume a sado-masochistic love affair.
A downright deplorable film, with no cinematic skill or grace to excuse it; the visuals are as loathsome as the sound is indecipherable, and the sheer pointlessness of it is insulting.
w Liliana Cavani, Italo Moscati d Liliana Cavani ph Alfio Contini m Daniele Paris ☆ Dirk Bogarde, Charlotte Rampling, Philippe Leroy, Gabriele Ferzetti, Isa Miranda

'Its claim to be saying something important is offensive, but the picture is too crudely trumped up to be a serious insult.' – New Yorker

Night Ride

GB 1937 70m bw
Paramount

Unemployed lorry drivers start an independent co-operative.
Brisk action programmer.
w Ralph Bettinson d John Paddy Carstairs
☆ Julian Vedey, Wally Patch, Jimmy Hanley, Joan Ponsford

Night Shift

US 1982 106m Technicolor
Warner/Ladd (Brian Grazer)

A weary financial analyst becomes a morgue attendant and finds himself involved with gangsters and pimps.
Unattractive comedy that outstays its welcome, which wasn't very enthusiastic in the first place.
w Lowell Ganz, Babaloo Mandel d Ron Howard ph James Crabe m Burt Bacharach pd Jack Collis
☆ Henry Winkler, Michael Keaton, Shelley Long, Gina Hecht

Night Song

US 1947 101m bw
RKO (Harriet Parsons)

A wealthy socialite falls for a blind pianist and pretends to be blind also, and poor to boot.
Silly, pretentious soaper, moodily photographed.
w Frank Fenton, Irving Hyland, De Witt Bodeen d John Cromwell ph Lucien Ballard m Leith Stevens
☆ Dana Andrews, Merle Oberon, Hoagy Carmichael, Ethel Barrymore, Artur Rubinstein, Eugene Ormandy

Night Sun ★

Italy/France/Germany 1990 113m
Eastmancolor
Artificial Eye/Filmtre/Raiuno/Capoul/Interpool/Sara/Direkt (Giuliani G. de Negri)

original title: Il sole anche di notte
In 18th-century Italy, a nobleman, upset to discover that he is expected to marry the king's mistress, becomes a hermit credited with miraculous powers.
Austere fable of a search for salvation that is likely to tire most audiences before the end.
w Paolo and Vittorio Taviani, Tonino Guerra story Father Sergius by Leo Tolstoy d Paolo and Vittorio Taviani ph Giuseppe Lanci m Nicola Piovani ad Gianni Sbarra ed Roberto Perpignani
☆ Julian Sands, Charlotte Gainsbourg, Nastassja Kinski, Massimo Bonetti, Margarita Lozano, Patricia Millardet, Rudiger Vogler, Pamela Villoresi

'A hauntingly spiritual film which is never afraid to explore the unfashionable themes of longing, solitude and meditation.' – Sight and Sound

The Night the Lights Went Out in Georgia

US 1981 120m Technicolor
Avco Embassy/Viacom (Elliot Geisinger, Howard Kuperman, Ronald Saland, Howard Smith)

A young girl tries to guide her rambunctious brother to success as a country and western singer.
A poorly constructed narrative ensures that the level of interest remains low.
w Bob Bonney d Ronald F. Maxwell ph Bill Butler m David Shire pd Gene Rudolf ed Anne Goursaud song Bobby Russell
☆ Kristy McNichol, Dennis Quaid, Don Stroud, Mark Hamill, Arlen Dean Snyder

The Night They Invented Striptease: see The Night They Raided Minsky's

The Night They Killed Rasputin

France/Italy 1960 95m Eastmancolor
Faro/Explorer/Rialto

original title: Les Nuits de Raspoutine
In 1916, a prince leads a gang of aristocrats to kill Rasputin, a monk who exercises an evil power over the Russian court and the Tsarina.
This is bad history and not a very good film, with a great deal of posturing from its cast.
w Ugo Liberatore, André Tabet d Pierre Chénal ph Adalberto Albertini m Angelo Francesco Lavagnino ad Arrigo Equini ed Antonietta Zita
☆ Edmund Purdom, Gianna Maria Canale, Jany Clair, John Drew Barrymore, Ugo Sasso, Giulia Rubini

The Night They Raided Minsky's ★★

US 1968 99m DeLuxe
UA/Tandem (Norman Lear)

GB title: The Night They Invented Striptease
Various human problems are posed and solved during a night at a burlesque theatre.
Marvellous kaleidoscopic ragbag of brilliant fragments which unfortunately don't cohere in the mind into a really memorable film, though it gives detailed pleasure on every viewing.
w Arnold Schulman, Sidney Michaels, Norman Lear book Rowland Barber d William Friedkin ph Andrew Laszlo m Charles Strouse ch Danny Daniels pd William Eckart, Jean Eckart narrator Rudy Vallee
☆ Jason Robards, Britt Ekland, Norman Wisdom, Forrest Tucker, Joseph Wiseman, Bert Lahr, Harry Andrews, Denholm Elliott, Elliott Gould, Jack Burns

'The Fanny Brice country stunningly brought to life – every face a snapshot of yesterday.' – Alexander Walker
'It's lightweight and disorganized; it's a shambles; yet a lot of it is charming, and it has a wonderful seedy chorus line – a row of pudgy girls with faces like slipped discs.' – Pauline Kael, New Yorker

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · § Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

'A brilliant pastiche of classic American burlesque on the lower east side in the twenties.' – Time
'An entire way of life is encapsulated' – Morning Star

'Was she human?'

Night Tide

US 1961 84m bw
Virgo Films

A sailor falls in love with a fairground freak show girl who may be a real mermaid.
Cheaply made and very derivative romantic fantasy which seemed to hold a promise never fulfilled.
wd Curtis Harrington ph Vilis Lapenieks m David Raksin
☆ Dennis Hopper, Linda Lawson, Gavin Muir, Luana Anders

A Night to Remember ★

US 1943 91m bw
Columbia (Samuel Bischoff)

A Greenwich Village mystery-writing couple try to solve a murder.
Reasonably sparkling comedy whodunnit with a zany tinge.
w Richard Flournoy, Jack Henley d Richard Wallace ph Joseph Walker m Werner Heymann md Morris Stoloff ☆ Loretta Young, Brian Aherne, Jeff Donnell, William Wright, Sidney Toler, Gale Sondergaard, Donald MacBride, Lee Patrick, Blanche Yurka
'A first-rate gloom chaser.' – Picture Show

'Titanic... The greatest sea drama in living memory told as it really happened!'

A Night to Remember ★★★

GB 1958 123m bw
Rank (William Macquitty)

The story of the 1912 sea disaster when the Titanic struck an iceberg.
A major film enterprise featuring hundreds of cameos, none discernibly more important than the other. On this account the film seems alternately stiff and flabby as narrative, but there is much to enjoy and admire along the way, though the sense of awe is dissipated by the final model shots.
w Eric Ambler book Walter Lord d Roy Ward Baker ph Geoffrey Unsworth m William Alwyn ad Alex Vetchinsky ed Sidney Havers
☆ Kenneth More (Herbert Lightoller), Honor Blackman (Mrs. Lucas), Michael Goodliffe (Thomas Andrews), David McCallum (Bride), George Rose (Joughin), Anthony Bushell (Capt. Rostron), Ralph Michael (Yates), John Cairney (Murphy), Kenneth Griffith (Phillips), Frank Lawton (Chairman), Michael Bryant (Moody)
'A worthy, long-drawn-out documentary, with noticeably more honesty about human nature than most films, but little shape or style.' – Kenneth Cavender
'As fine and convincing an enactment as anyone could wish – or expect.' – Bosley Crowther, New York Times

Night Train: see Night Train to Munich

Night Train to Munich ★★★

GB 1940 93m bw
TCF (Edward Black)

aka: Gestapo
aka: Night Train
A British agent poses as a Nazi in order to rescue a Czech inventor.
First-rate comedy suspenser obviously inspired by the success of The Lady Vanishes and providing much the same measure of thrills and laughs.
w Frank Launder, Sidney Gilliat novel Report on a Fugitive by Gordon Wellesley d Carol Reed ph Otto Kanturek m Charles Williams md Louis Levy ad Vetchinsky ed R. E. Dearing
☆ Margaret Lockwood (Anna Bomasch), Rex Harrison (Gus Bennett), Basil Radford (Charters), Naunton Wayne (Caldicott), Paul Henreid (Karl Marsen), Keneth Kent (Controller), Felix Aylmer (Dr. John Fredericks), Roland Culver (Roberts), Eliot Makeham (Schwab), Raymond Huntley (Kampenfeldt), Wyndham Goldie (Dryton), Billy Russell (Adolph Hitler)
'A very nice triumph of skill and maturity in films, and thus a pleasure to have.' – Otis Ferguson
♗ Gordon Wellesley

Night Train to Venice

Germany 1993 97m colour
Take Munich (Toni Hirtreiter)

aka: Train to Hell
A journalist travelling to Venice to deliver an exposé of fascist groups falls in love with an actress he meets on the Orient Express; also on board is a gang of neo-Nazi thugs.
A senseless and incomprehensible thriller with occult overtones, one in which everyone behaves oddly, never making a normal response to any situation. Irrelevant dream sequences interrupt what action there is; it ends with the lines: 'Imagine you woke up one day and realized it was all a dream.' This is a nightmare.
w Leo Tichat, Toni Hirtreiter d Carlo U. Quinterio ph Armando Nannuzzi m Wolfgang Hammerschmid pd Heinz Eickmeyer ed Wicktor Grodecki
☆ Hugh Grant, Tahnee Welch, Malcolm McDowell, Evelyn Opela, Samy Langs, Rachel Rice, Kristina Soederbaum
'A work of such thoroughgoing ineptitude it makes even Ed Wood's movies look like they're touched by genius.' – Film Review
'Too deadingly awful to be enjoyably bad.' – Variety

Night unto Night ★

US 1949 85m bw
Warner (Owen Crump)

An epileptic scientist falls for a girl hallucinated by the ghost of her dead husband.
Cheerless nuthouse melodrama, one of the well-meant aberrations which Hollywood studios used to produce as a sop to conscience.
w Kathryn Scola novel Philip Wylie d Don Siegel ph Peverell Marley m Franz Waxman
☆ Ronald Reagan, Viveca Lindfors, Rosemary de Camp, Broderick Crawford, Osa Massen, Craig Stevens, Erskine Sanford

'Locked in the cold asylum of the mind – a sane man stalks his prey!'

The Night Visitor

Sweden/US 1971 102m Eastmancolor
UMC/Hemisphere

Imprisoned for an axe murder he didn't commit, a man escapes and takes revenge.
Overdone Grand Guignol which simply doesn't come off.
w Guy Elmes story Salem Came to Supper by Samuel Roecca d Laslo Benedek ☆ Max von Sydow, Trevor Howard, Liv Ullmann, Rupert Davies, Per Oscarsson, Andrew Keir

'Do you know that a dream can kill you?'

The Night Walker ★

US 1965 86m bw
U-I/William Castle

The widow of a tough executive, killed and disfigured in an explosion, is haunted in her dreams not only by him but by a mysterious lover who turns up in reality.
Stiff and unconvincing but still fairly frightening low-budget shocker with a plot twist or two.
w Robert Bloch d William Castle
ph Harold Stine m Vic Mizzy
☆ Robert Taylor, Barbara Stanwyck, Lloyd Bochner, Rochelle Hudson, Judi Meredith, Hayden Rorke

Night Watch

GB 1973 98m Technicolor
Avco/Brut (David White)

A widow recovering from a nervous breakdown keeps seeing bodies in the night. Her friends try to help, but things are not quite what they seem.
Predictable coiled-spring shocker which goes curiously flat despite a star cast and lashings of blood. Perhaps we have all been here once too often.
w Tony Williamson play Lucille Fletcher d Brian G. Hutton ph Billy Williams m John Cameron
☆ Elizabeth Taylor, Laurence Harvey, Billie Whitelaw, Robert Lang, Tony Britton, Bill Dean
'It has all the trappings of a Joan Crawford vehicle of the forties, with numerous elegant dresses for Miss Taylor, an appropriately unbecoming wardrobe for Miss Whitelaw, and a set which is an art director's dream.' – Brenda Davies
'Elizabeth Taylor's gowns are by Valentino, her jewellery is by Van Cleef and Arpels, even her kitchen is by Westinghouse. And she is still going out of her mind.' – Alexander Walker

'All That Stands Between Light And Darkness Is The Night Watch.'

Night Watch ⑤

Russia 2004 115m colour
TCF/Channel One Russia/Tabbak/Bazelevs (Elena Bolshun)

original title: Nochnoi Dozor
In modern-day Moscow, immortal and equally balanced forces of good and evil await the coming of The Great Other, who will decide the outcome of the centuries-old battle.
The first episode in a trilogy of vampire-cum-action movies, heavily influenced for the bad by Hollywood blockbusters; Russian audiences loved every minute of this tedious and mind-numbing hokum.
w Timur Bekmambetov, Oaeta Kalogrdis novel Sergei Lukyanenko d Timur Bekmambetov ph Sergei Trofimov m Yuri Poteyenko pd Mukhtar Mirzakeyev, Valeri Viktorov ed Dmitri Kiselyov ☆ Konstantin Khabensky (Anton Gorodetsky), Vladimir Menshov (Gesser), Valeri Zolotukhin (Kostya's father), Mariya Poroshina (Svetlana), Galina Tyunina (Olga), Yuri Kutsenko (Ignat), Dmitry Martynov (Yegor), Viktor Verzbitsky (Zavulon)
'I can't think of a film which is so militant and self-congratulatory in its dullness.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian
'Splendidly diverting Saturday night entertainment.' – Leslie Felperin, Sight & Sound
† The film broke all box-office records in Russia and was followed by a sequel, Day Watch (qv), which was also successful in its homeland.

Night Watch ★

Argentina/France 2005 86m colour
Cine Ojo/Les Films d'Ici (Marcelo Cespedes, Serge Lalou)

original title: Ronda Nocturna
A night in the life of a male prostitute and small-time drug dealer on the streets of Buenos Aires
Semi-documentary style account of night life, from homeless, scavenging kids to a prostitute keeping the Falklands War alive by dressing as Margaret Thatcher; it concentrates, to its eventual detriment, on an increasingly strung-out hustler, whose grip on reality is slipping.
wd Edgardo Cozarinsky ph Javier Miquelez m Carlos Franzetti ad Ignacio Lago ed Martine Bouquin ☆ Gonzalo Heredia (Victor), Moro Anghileri (Cecilia), Rafael Ferro (Mario), Dario Tripicchio (Carlitos)
'Fine but dramatically flawed homage to the city.' – Variety

'This nobody is about to catch a big somebody.'

The Night We Called It a Day

Australia/GB 2003 96m DeLuxe
Content/Ocean/Scala (Emile Sherman, Nik Powell, Peter Clifton)

In 1974, a struggling concert promotor arranges a Austrlain tour for Frank Sinatra, but the singer is trapped in a hotel room in Sydney by angry trade unionists after insulting a journalist.
Although based on an actual rumpus that was brought to an end by union leader Bob Hawke, who later became prime minister, this is a lucklustre affair with an unconvincing performance from Hopper.
w Michael Thomas, Peter Clifton d Paul Goldman ph Danny Ruhlmann m Rupert Gregson-Williams pd Michael Philips ed Stephen Evans
☆ Dennis Hopper (Frank Sinatra), Joel Edgerton (Rod Blue), Rose Byrne (Audrey Rose Appleby), Melanie Griffith (Barbara Marx), Portia De Rossi (Hilary Hunter), David Hemmings (Mickey Rudin), David Field (Bob Hawke)
'Mildly entertaining.' – Sydney Morning Herald
† Hopper's singing is dubbed by Tom Burlinson.

The Night We Never Met

US 1993 99m DuArt
Guild/Miramax (Michael Peyser)

Three young New Yorkers organize a time-share on a Greenwich Village apartment, but the days on which each uses the place become confused.
Brash and not very likeable farce that will mean little outside the city in which it is set.
wd Warren Leight ph John A. Thomas m Evan Lurie pd Lester Cohen ed Camilla Toniolo
☆ Matthew Broderick, Annabella Sciorra, Kevin Anderson, Jeanne Tripplehorn, Justine Bateman, Michael Mantell, Christine Baranski
'If you're in the mood to indulge in some light cultural snobbery, you'll enjoy this film ... a rickety structure with trendy interior design, an old-fashioned sex comedy for the nouveau hip.' – Leslie Felperin Sharman, Sight and Sound

Night without Stars

GB 1951 86m bw
Hugh Stewart/GFD

A blind lawyer solves the death of a traitor.
Enervated romantic melodrama.
w Winston Graham novel Winston Graham d Anthony Pelissier ph Guy Green m William Alwyn
☆ David Farrar, Nadia Gray, Maurice Teynac, Gilles Queyant

Night World

US 1932 58m bw
Universal

Characters with an assortment of problems congregate in a night-club.
Tolerable slice-of-life drama with interesting cast.
w Richard Schayer story P.J. Wolfson and Allen Rivkin d Hobart Henley ☆ Lew Ayres, Boris Karloff, Mae Clarke, Russell Hopton, George Raft, Dorothy Revier, Bert Roach, Hedda Hopper 'Sum total is an impression that this was a two-reeler blown up into five.' – Variety

Night Zoo

Canada 1987 115m colour
Hendring/Oz Productions/National Film Board Of Canada (Roger Frappier, Pierre Gendron)

original title: Un Zoo la Nuit

A drug dealer, out of prison on parole, is reconciled with his father and outwits his former bosses, who include a sadistic homosexual cop.
Lurid thriller which, inexplicably, was much honoured in its home country.
wd Jean-Claude Lauzon ph Guy Dufaux m Jean Corriveau ad Jean-Baptiste Tard ed Michel Arcand
☆ Roger Le Bel, Gilles Maheu, Lorne Brass, Germain Houde, Jerry Snell, Corrado Mastropasqua, Lynne Adams, Amulette Garneau, Anna-Maria Giannotti

Nightbreed

US 1990 102m Technicolor
Fox/Morgan Creek (Gariella Martinelli)

A teenager discovers Midian, a world of shape-shifting monsters.
Novel horror movie, in which the monsters are nicer than the humans, but without much narrative drive.
wd Clive Barker novel Cabal by Clive Barker ph Robin Vidgeon pd Steve Hardie, Mark Haskins ed Richard Marden, Mark Goldblatt sp Image Animation
☆ Craig Sheffer, Anne Bobby, David Cronenberg, Charles Haid, Hugh Quarshie, Hugh Ross, Doug Bradley, Catherine Chevalier, Malcolm Sith, Bob Sessions, Oliver Parker

Nightcap: see Merci Pour Le Chocolat

The Nightcomers ★

GB 1971 96m Technicolor
Scimitar/Kastner-Kanter-Ladd (Michael Winner)

How the ghost-ridden children in The Turn of the Screw turned evil; they became involved in aberrant sexual activities between the gardener and the housekeeper, and finally murdered the former.
Despite its unexpected literariness this is unpleasant and unconvincing nonsense with a boring script punctuated by shock cuts and very little period feel.
w Michael Hastings d Michael Winner ph Robert Paynter m Jerry Fielding ad Herbert Westbrook ed Frederick Wilson
☆ Stephanie Beacham (Miss Jessel), Marlon Brando (Peter Quint), Thora Hird (Mrs Grose), Harry Andrews (Master of the House), Verna Harvey (Flora), Christopher Ellis (Miles), Anna Palk (New governess)
'It leaves the viewer cold – perhaps even repelled. How could anybody think this movie would be entertaining?' – Pauline Kael, New Yorker

Nightfall: see Abendland

Nightfall ★

US 1956 78m bw
Columbia (Ted Richmond)

The police and two bank robbers chase an innocent artist who happens to know that the loot is hidden in a Wisconsin snowdrift.
Occasionally stylish but obscurely narrated suspenser.
w Stirling Silliphant novel David Goodis d Jacques Tourneur ph Burnett Guffey m George Duning
☆ Anne Bancroft, Aldo Ray, Brian Keith, James Gregory, Jocelyn Brando, Frank Albertson

Nighthawks

GB 1978 113m Eastmancolor
Cinegate/Nashburgh/Four Corner Films (Ron Peck, Paul Hallam)

The life of an actively homosexual schoolteacher.
Painful low-life drama with many signs of its amateur status.
wd Ron Peck, Paul Hallam ph Joanna Davis, Patrick Duval, Sebastian Dewsbery, Ian Owles, Steve Shaw m David Graham Ellis ad Jan Sender ed Richard Taylor, Mary Pat Leece, Debra Daley, Tim Horrocks
☆ Ken Robertson and non-professionals

Nighthawks

US 1981 99m Technicolor
Universal/Herb Nanas (Martin Poll)

New York cops track an international terrorist.
Kojak-style thriller with a rather glum attitude to its subject.
w David Shaber d Bruce Malmuth ph James A. Contner m Keith Emerson
☆ Sylvester Stallone, Billy Dee Williams, Rutger Hauer, Lindsay Wagner, Persis Khambatta, Nigel Davenport

Nighthawks 2: Strip Jack Naked

GB 1991 94m bw/colour
BFI/Channel 4 (Ron Peck)

An autobiographical documentary on the background to the making of Nighthawks, including material cut from the original film.
An amateurish and boring film, on the level of a home movie, and a demonstration that earnestness can be trying.
w Ron Peck, Paul Hallam d Ron Peck ph Ron Peck, Christopher Hughes m Adrian James Carbutt ed Ron Peck, Adrian James Carbutt
☆ John Brown, John Daimon, Nick Bolton

Nightmare: see Nightmares in a Damaged Brain

Nightmare

US 1942 81m bw
Universal (Dwight Taylor)

A gambler in wartime London helps a beautiful girl escape from Nazi spies.
Thin espionage thriller with a good sequence or two and a smooth villain.
w Dwight Taylor novel Escape by Philip MacDonald d Tim Whelan ph George Barnes m Frank Skinner
☆ Brian Donlevy, Diana Barrymore, Gavin Muir, Henry Daniell, Hans Conried, Arthur Shields

Nightmare ★

US 1956 89m bw
UA/Pine-Thomas/Shane (Maxwell Shane)

A young musician is hypnotized into committing a murder, and reconstructs his actions with the help of his policeman brother-in-law.
Lethargic remake of the ingenious Fear in the Night (qv). Watchable.
wd Maxwell Shane novel Cornell Woolrich ph Joseph Biroc m Herschel Burke Gilbert
☆ Edward G. Robinson, Kevin McCarthy, Virginia Christine, Connie Russell
'A chilling, highly suspenseful little item.' – Motion Picture Herald

'Three shocking murders ... did she dream them? or do them?'

Nightmare ★

GB 1964 82m bw Hammerscope
U-I/Hammer (Jimmy Sangster)

18-year-old Janet still has nightmares after seeing her mad mother kill her father six years ago; brought home, even more frightening visions afflict her.
Genuinely scary Diabolique*-type mystery with the usual Hammer borrowings put to good use.*
w Jimmy Sangster d Freddie Francis ph John Wilcox m Don Banks ☆ Moira Redmond, David Knight, Brenda Bruce, John Welsh, Jennie Linden

Nightmare Alley ★★

US 1947 112m bw
TCF (George Jessel)

A fairground barker becomes a successful confidence trickster dealing with the supernatural, but finally sinks to the depths.
Unusual road to ruin melodrama, a striking oddity from Hollywood at the time, and still quite interesting and well done.
w Jules Furthman novel William Lindsay Gresham d Edmund Goulding ph Lee Garmes m Cyril Mockridge ☆ Tyrone Power, Coleen Gray, Joan Blondell, Taylor Holmes, Helen Walker, Mike Mazurki, Ian Keith
'The picture goes just short of all that might have made it very interesting ... even so, two or three sharply comic and cynical scenes make it worth seeing.' – James Agee

The Nightmare before Christmas ★★★

US 1993 75m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Touchstone (Tim Burton, Denise Di Novi)

aka: Tim Burton's The Nightmare before Christmas

Jack Skellington, Pumpkin King of Halloween Town, tries to take over Christmas as well.
Imaginative, superbly animated (using stop-motion techniques with figures) musical, although children may not warm to its quirky humour.
w Caroline Thompson, Michael McDowell story Tim Burton d Henry Selick ph Pete Kozachik m/ly Danny Elfman ad Deane Taylor ed Stan Webb sp Pete Kozachik, Eric Leighton, Ariel Velasco Shaw, Gordon Baker ☆ Featuring the voices of Danny Elfman, Chris Sarandon, Catherine O'Hara, William Hickey, Glenn Shadix, Paul Reubens
'The dazzling techniques employed here create a striking look that has never been seen in such a sustained form before, making this a unique curio that will appeal to kids and film enthusiasts alike.' – Variety
'An animated fun-house for eeek freaks of all ages.' – Peter Travers, Rolling Stone
'It displays more inventiveness than some studios can manage in an entire year.' – Kenneth Turan, Los Angeles Times † Regions 1 and 2 special edition includes commentary by Henry Selick and two short films, Vincent and Frankenweenie.
visual effects

Nightmare Castle: see Night of the Doomed

'Now They Are Everywhere! There Is No Escape!'

Nightmare City

Italy/Spain 1980 88m colour
Lotus/Dialchi (Luis Méndez, Diego Alchimede)

original title: Incubo Sulla Città Contaminata
aka: City of the Walking Dead

A TV reporter discovers that a nuclear accident has turned a planeload of people into blood-drinking zombies.
Gory horror movie with a script that even the director thought was bad.
w Antonio Cesare Corti, Luis María Delgado, Piero Regnoli d Umberto Lenzi ph Hans Burman m Stelvio Cipriani ad Mario Molli ed Daniele Alabiso ☆ Hugi Stiglitz (Dean Miller), Mel Ferrer (General Murchison), Laura Trotter (Dr Anna Miller), Maria Rosaria Omaggio (Sheila Holmes), Francisco Rabal (Major Warren Holmes), Sonia Viviani (Cindy)

Nightmare in the Sun ★

US 1963 81m DeLuxe
Afilmco (Marc Lawrence, John Derek)

A rich man kills his wife and blames a hitch-hiker who has had a brief affair with her.
Modest independent melodrama, quite interestingly made though not entirely effective.
w Ted Thomas d Marc Lawrence ph Stanley Cortez m Paul Glass
☆ John Derek, Ursula Andress, Arthur O'Connell, Aldo Ray

'See Freddy – before he sees you!'

A Nightmare on Elm Street

US 1984 91m DeLuxe
New Line/Media/Smart Egg/Elm Street Venture/Robert Shaye

Suburban teenagers find their communal dreams becoming reality when they are menaced by a creepy figure with knives for fingernails.
Unpleasant semi-splatter movie which was well enough made to take a lot of money.
wd Wes Craven ph Jacques Haitkin m Charles Bernstein pd Greg Fonseca ed Rick Shaine sp Jim Doyle
☆ John Saxon (Lt Thompson), Ronee Blakley (Marge Thompson), Heather Langenkamp (Nancy Thompson), Amanda Wyss (Tina Gray), Nick Corri (Rod Lane), Robert Englund (Freddy Krueger), Johnny Depp (Glen Lantz), Charles Fleischer (Dr King)

A Nightmare on Elm Street Part Four: The Dream Master

US 1988 93m Metrocolor
Palace/New Line Cinema/Heron Communications/Smart Egg Pictures (Robert Shaye, Rachel Talalay)

As Freddy goes on his usual killing spree, a

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA teenager discovers that she can destroy him.

A mixture, as before, of spectacularly unpleasant special effects and grotesque humour, except that Freddy is now firmly established as the star.
w Brian Helgeland, Scott Pierce story Brian Helgeland, William Kotzwinkle d Renny Harlin ph Steven Fierberg m Craig Safan pd Mick Strawn, C. J. Strawn ed Michael N. Knue, Chuck Weiss, Jack Tucker, Charley Coleman
☆ Robert Englund, Rodney Eastman, Danny Hassel, Andras Jones, Tuesday Knight, Toy Newkirk, Ken Sagoes
'The fact remains that the child-killer of Elm Street has simply run out of things to do and say.' – MFB

A Nightmare on Elm Street Part Three: Dream Warriors

US 1987 96m DeLuxe
Heron/Smart Egg/New Line/Robert Shaye

Freddy now invades the minds of teenagers under group hypnosis for nightmares.
Diminishing returns set in as this tedious bloodbath (all in the mind) gets under way.
w Wes Craven, Bruce Wagner d Chuck Russell ph Roy H. Wagner m Angelo Badalamenti, Don Dokken ad Mick Strawn, C. J. Strawn ed Terry Stokes
☆ Heather Langenkamp, Patricia Arquette, Larry Fishburne, Robert Englund, Priscilla Pointer, Craig Wasson

A Nightmare on Elm Street Part Two: Freddy's Revenge

US 1985 84m DeLuxe
Heron/Smart Egg/New Line/Robert Shaye

Freddy comes back and tries to take over the mind and body of a young boy.
More horror nonsense in the same mould as the above.
w David Chaskin d Jack Sholder ph Jacques Haitkin m Christopher Young ed Bob Brady
☆ Mark Patton, Kim Myers, Hope Lange, Clu Gulager, Robert Englund
'Much as one loves watching unpleasant American teenagers ripped to death, the slasher formula has worn thin of late.' – Time Out

A Nightmare on Elm Street: The Dream Child

US 1989 89m Metrocolor
Enterprise/New Line Cinema/Heron Communications/Smart Egg Pictures (Robert Shaye, Rupert Harvey)

Freddy attempts to possess a girl's unborn child.
The murderer of the young continues in an incoherent sequel with some clever special effects. It is time that Freddy was laid to rest.
w Leslie Bohem story John Skipp, Craig Spector, Leslie Bohem d Stephen Hopkins ph Peter Levy m Jay Ferguson pd C. J. Strawn ed Chuck Weiss, Brent Schoenfeld
☆ Robert Englund, Lisa Wilcox, Kelly Jo Minter, Danny Hassel, Erika Anderson, Nick Mele, Whitby Hertford, Joe Seely
'The scariest idea in the film, underlined by yet another open ending, is the possibility that this nightmare will never end, the non-existent story spinning out forever.' – Kim Newman, MFB
† The sequel was Freddy's Dead: The Final Nightmare (qv)

'The Dream You Can't Escape Alive!'

Nightmares in a Damaged Brain

US 1981 97m Technicolor
Watchgrove/Goldmine (John L. Watkins, William Milling)

aka: Nightmare
A murderous psychopath, tormented by nightmares, terrorises a single mother and her children.
Ineptly made, badly acted, derivative horror that gained a little notoriety in the mid-80s when it was withdrawn during the "video nasties" controversy.
wd Romano Scavolini ph Gianni Fiore m Jack Eric Williams ad Jan Foster, Gary Olson ed Robert T. Megginson sp Tom Savini
☆ Baird Stafford (George Tatum), Sharon Smith (Susan Temper), C. J. Cook (C. J. Temper), Mik Cribben (Bob Rosen), Danny Ronen (Kathy the Babysitter)
'Dismayingly routine.' – MFB
'Severed heads and axings galore, but the end result is not that memorable.' – Allan Bryce, Dark Side
† The 1981 GB release was cut, running for 93m. The DVD version, released in 2002, runs for 96m

Nightmaster: see Watch the Shadows Dance

Nights of Cabiria: see Cabiria

Nightshift: see Trois Huit

Nightwatch ★

Denmark 1994 105m colour
Metro Tartan/Thura/DR TV/Danske Filminstitut (Michael Obel)

original title: Nattevagten
A law student who also works as a night watchman in a morgue is suspected of killing and scalping prostitutes.
Slow but suspenseful thriller that comes near to equating sex and death; it manages some jokes to lighten its pervading and chilling claustrophobia.
wd Ole Bornedal ph Dan Laustsen m Joachim Holbek ad Soren Krag Sorensen ed Camilla Skousen
☆ Nicolai Coster Waldau, Sofie Grabol, Kim Bodnia, Ulf Pilgaard, Lotte Andersen, Rikke Louise Andersson, Stig Hoffmeyer
'The movie took Scandinavia by storm, which says something rather quaint about Scandinavia's desire to import the blueprint for the serial killer movie and make their own version with local ingredients. Like a Big Mac, it's a bit stale by the time it's re-exported.' – Tom Shone, Sunday Times

Nightwatch

US 1998 101m colour
Miramax/Dimension (Michael Obel)

A student takes a job in a city morgue, and is suspected of being a serial killer.
Although it retains its original director, this American remake of a Danish thriller has lost the creepiness that made it memorable.
w Steven Soderbergh, Ole Bornedal d Ole Bornedal ph Dan Lausten m Joachim Holbeck pd Richard Hoover ed Sally Menke
☆ Ewan McGregor, Nick Nolte, Josh Brolin, Patricia Arquette, Alix Koromzay, John C. Reilly, Brad Dourif
'A laboured black comedy which is overacted, overwritten and far too conceited for its own good.' – Sight and Sound

Nightwing

Netherlands 1979 105m Metrocolor
Columbia/Polyc/Martin Ransohoff

In Arizona, mysterious deaths turn out to be caused by plague-bearing vampire bats.
Tedious shocker in the vein of Them but with 'modern' unpleasantness of detail.
w Steve Shagan, Bud Shrake novel Martin Cruz Smith d Arthur Hiller ph Charles Rosher m Henry Mancini
☆ David Warner, Kathryn Harrold, Stephen Macht, Strother Martin, Nick Mancuso, Ben Piazza

Nihon Kuroshakai: see Ley Lines

'Genius. Madman. Animal. God.'

Nijinsky ★

US 1980 125m Metrocolor
Paramount/Hera (Harry Saltzman)

The rise and fall of a great dancer groomed for stardom in the Ballets Russes by the impresario Diaghilev.
Rather boringly scripted with the emphasis on homosexual love, this film finally survives through its electrifying personalities and its strong sense of period.
w Hugh Wheeler d Herbert Ross ph Douglas Slocombe md John Lanchbery pd John Blezard
☆ Alan Bates, George de la Pena, Leslie Browne, Alan Badel, Colin Blakely, Ronald Pickup, Ronald Lacey, Jeremy Irons, Anton Dolin, Janet Suzman, Sian Phillips, members of the London Festival Ballet
'The impression is left of a fascinating subject which proved too challenging for its makers, who settle eventually for what is uncomfortably near All About Eve with Bette Davis in a dinner jacket and Anne Baxter in a jock strap.' – Alan Brien, Sunday Times

Nikita ★

France/Italy 1990 117m Eastmancolor Technovision
Palace/Gaumont/Cecci/Tiger (Jérôme Chalou)

aka: La Femme Nikita
A young criminal turns assassin for the intelligence services.
Implausible, though stylish and very watchable, thriller.
wd Luc Besson ph Thierry Arbogast m Eric Serra pd Dan Weil ed Olivier Mauffroy ☆ Anne Parillaud, Jean-Hugues Anglade, Tcheky Karyo, Jeanne Moreau, Jean Reno, Roland Blanche, Marc Duret
'An absurd, shrill, ultraviolent but soft-centered urban thriller.' – Variety † In 1997 the film was turned into a successful US TV series, La Femme Nikita, starring Peta Wilson.

Nikki, Wild Dog of the North ★

US 1961 74m Technicolor
Walt Disney (Winston Hibler)

The life of a Canadian trapper's wolf dog.
Pleasing 'true life fiction' which didn't quite reach top feature status.
w Ralph Wright, Winston Hibler novel James Oliver Curwood d Jack Couffer m Oliver Wallace
☆ Emile Genest, Jean Coutu

Nikogarsnja Zemlja ★★

France/Italy/Belgium/U.K/Slovenia 2001 98m colour CinemaScope Momentum/Noe/Fabrica/Man's Films/Counihan-Villiers/Maj-Casablanca (Frederique Dumas-Zajdela, Marc Baschet, Cedomir Kolar)

aka: No Man's Land
In 1993, a Bosnian and a Serb find themselves isolated in a trench with a booby-trapped soldier.
Witty, angry satire on the large and small idiocies of war, from the inadequacies of international peace-keepers to the compliance of reporters and the determination of two men to kill another one when, in other circumstances, they might have been friends.
wd Danis Tanovic ph Walther Vanden Ende m Danis Tanovic pd Dusko Milavec ed Francesca Calvelli
☆ Brancko Djuric (Chiki), Rene Bitoraja (Nino), Filip Sovagovic (Chera), Georges Siatidis (Marchand), Katrin Cartlidge (Jane Livingstone), Simon Callow (Col Soft), Serge-Henri Valcke (Capt Dubois)
'A smart, entertainingly acrid thumbnail sketch of the ironies and absurdities of the Bosnian war.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian † In 2001, Danis Tanovic won the European Film Award, and the Cannes Film Festival Award, for best screenplay.
foreign film

Nil by Mouth ★★

GB 1997 128m DuArt
TCF/SE8 (Luc Besson, Douglas Urbanski, Gary Oldman)

In South London, a violent alcoholic terrorizes his family.
A bleak and unsparing account of devastated life in the slums, where drinks and drugs provide a momentary escape and masculinity is measured by the size of the fist; this semi-autobiographical drama is given vitality by the conviction of its performances.
wd Gary Oldman ph Ron Fortunato m Eric Clapton pd Hugo Luczyc-Wyhowski ed Brad Fuller
☆ Ray Winstone, Kathy Burke, Charlie Creed-Miles, Laila Morse, Edna Doré, Chrissie Cotterill, Jon Morrison, Jamie Forman
'A film of hard, unyielding brilliance that, given the choice, I would quite happily unwatch.' – Tom Shone, Sunday Times † Kathy Burke won the best actress award at the Cannes Film Festival in 1997, and Gary Oldman the best director award at the 1997 Edinburgh Film Festival.
best British film; Gary Oldman (as writer)

Nilouhe, Nuer: see Daughter of the Nile

Nina's Heavenly Delights ②

UK 2006 94m
Verve Pictures/Kali Films/Priority Pictures (Chris Atkins, Pratibha Parmar, Marion Pilowsky)

A young Scottish Asian fights to save her late father's curry house.
Tepid comedy whose cross-cultural setting and lesbian subplot makes it resemble a female spin on My Beautiful Laundrette.
w Andrea Gibb d Pratibha Parmar ph Simon Dennis m Steve Isles pd Andy Harris ad Margaret Horspool ed Mary Finlay ☆ Shelley Conn (Nina Shah), Laura Fraser (Lisa MacKinlay), Ronny Jhutti (Bobbi), Art Malik (Raj Khanna), Raad Rawi (Mohan Shah), Atta Yaqub (Kary Shah)
'Stilted dialogue, underwater acting and some of the most timid gay kissing ever recorded on screen.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

9/30/55 ★

US 1977 101m colour
Columbia (Jerry Weintraub)

The death of James Dean on 30 September

1955 has a devastating effect on a teenager at an Arkansas college who identifies with him.
Effective story of adolescent feelings and frustrations.
wd James Bridges ph Gordon Willis
m Leonard Rosenman ad Robert Luthardt
ed Jeff Gourson
☆ Richard Thomas, Susan Tyrrell, Deborah Benson, Lisa Blount, Thomas Hulce, Dennis Quaid, Dennis Christopher

'This is the sort of low-budget, personal moviemaking that Hollywood is presumed to shy away from, and it would be a shame if it got overlooked.' – David Ansen, Newsweek

† Leonard Rosenman wrote the music for two films starring James Dean, East of Eden and Rebel without a Cause.

Nine and a Half Weeks

US 1986 113m colour
MGM/UA/PSO/Sidney Kimmel/Keith Barish/Jonesfilm/Galactic Films/Triple Ajaxx (Anthony Rufus Isaacs, Zalman King)

A Wall Street executive and an art gallery employee embark upon a passionate affair.
Crash course in hot sex for those who wish to major in such studies; of no other interest despite its aspirations to being some sort of art.
w Patricia Knop, Zalman King, Sarah Kernochan novel Elizabeth McNeill d Adrian Lyne ph Peter Biziou m Jack Nitzsche pd Ken Davis
☆ Mickey Rourke, Kim Basinger, Margaret Whitton, David Margulies, Christine Baranski

'The virtual absence of anything happening between them – like plausible attraction, amazing sex or, God forbid, good dialogue – leaves one great hole on the screen for two hours.' – Variety

Nine Days a Queen: see Tudor Rose

9 Deaths of the Ninja

US 1985 94m colour
Crown International (Ashok Amritraj)

An anti-terrorist outfit rescues hostages captured by a mad German drug dealer.
Bungled attempt at a comic martial arts movie.
wd Emmett Alston ph Roy H. Wagner
m Cecile Colayco pd Rodell Cruz
ed Emmett Alston, Robert E. Waters
☆ Sho Kosugi, Brent Huff, Emilia Lesniak, Regina Richardson, Vijay Amritraj, Blackie Dammett

Nine Hours to Rama

GB 1962 125m DeLuxe Cinemascope
TCF/Red Lion (Mark Robson)

Events leading to the assassination of Mahatma Gandhi.
Fictionalized, sensationalized and very dull, this multi-character drama holds interest only for snatches of acting and location backgrounds.
w Nelson Gidding novel Stanley Wolpert
d Mark Robson ph Arthur Ibbetson
m Malcolm Arnold ad Elliot Scott, Ram Yedekar ed Ernest Walter ☆ José Ferrer (Supt Gopal Das), Diane Baker (Sheila), Robert Morley (P.K. Mussadi), J. S. Casshyap (Mahatma Gandhi), Horst Buchholz (Naturam Godse), Harry Andrews (Gen Singh), Valerie Gearon (Rani Mehta), Don Borisenko (Naryan Apte)

'The only interesting line in the movie is the thick brown one visible on the inside of every white collar.' – John Simon

976-Evil

US 1988 100m colour
Medusa/Cinetel/Horrorscope (Lisa M. Hansen)

A teenager gains evil powers after summoning a demon by telephone.
Directed by the star of A Nightmare on Elm Street and its sequels, it resembles those films in its mixture of grotesque humour and gruesome special effects.
w Rhet Topham, Brian Helgeland
d Robert Englund ph Paul Elliott
m Thomas Chase, Steve Rucker ad David Brian Miller ed Stephen Myers ☆ Stephen Geoffreys, Patrick O'Bryan, Sandy Dennis, Jim Metzler, Maria Rubell, Robert Picardo, Lezlie Deane, J. J. Cohen, Paul Wilson

Nine Lives Are Not Enough

US 1941 63m bw
Warner

A reporter solves a multi-murder in a boarding house.
Lively second feature which moves at a commendable pace.
w Fred Niblo Jnr d A. Edward Sutherland
☆ Ronald Reagan, Howard da Silva, James Gleason, Ed Brophy, Faye Emerson, Peter Whitney, Charles Drake

The Nine Lives of Fritz the Cat

US 1974 76m DeLuxe
AIP/Two Gees (Steve Krantz)

Stoned on pot, a cat dreams of the lives he might have led.
An animated sequel of sorts to Fritz the Cat (qv), but done by other, cruder hands and lacking imagination and wit; it is far removed from Robert Crumb's original.
w Fred Halliday, Eric Monte, Robert Taylor
d Robert Taylor m Tom Scott and the LA Express ed Marshall M. Borden ☆ Featuring the voices of Skip Hinnant, Reva Rose, Bob Holt, Fred Smoot, Robert Ridgely

'Boringly diffuse, completely negating any possible shock effect through the overwhelming quantity of obscenity and gutter language.' – David Rider, MFB

The Nine Lives of Tomas Katz

Germany/GB 1999 87m bw
NFT/Geissendorfer/G2/Strawberry Vale (Caroline Hewitt)

In London, a stranger emerges from a sewer and takes over the identities of the people he meets so that he can cause chaos and bring about the apocalypse.
Weird, low-budget surrealism that is defiantly original and obscure; crossword-puzzlers may be able to tease some meaning from it.
w Ben Hopkins, Thomas Browne d Ben Hopkins ph Julian Court m Dominik Scherrer pd Gideon Davey ed Alan Levy
☆ Thomas Fisher (No/Tomas Katz), Ian McNeice (Inspector), Tim Barlow (Mr Browne), Janet Henfrey (Janice Waily), Will Keen (Cuthbert), Tony Maudsley (Taxi driver), David De Keyser (Exhumed Rabbi)

'Beyond art school outings, pic's only audience will be the director's friends and family.' – Derek Elley, Variety

'Nothing so obvious as a plot is allowed to cramp this movie's style as it swoops weirdly across the dream landscape of London like a demented, dishevelled bird.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

Nine Men

GB 1943 68m bw
Ealing

A sergeant and a handful of men in an old fort hold off the Italians in the Libyan desert.
Sharp semi-documentary of the war which paled against the mightier epics to follow.
wd Harry Watt ph Roy Kellino m John Greenwood ☆ Jack Lambert, Gordon Jackson, Frederick Piper, Grant Sutherland, Bill Blewett

'Ready or Not.'

Nine Months

US 1995 103m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF/1492 (Ann François, Chris Columbus, Mark Radcliffe, Michael Barnathan)

An English child psychologist working in San Francisco is horrified to discover that his girlfriend is pregnant.
A still-born comedy, bereft of wit or style, in which Hugh Grant acts embarrassed for most of the time, as well he might.
wd Chris Columbus ph Donald McAlpine
m Hans Zimmer pd Angelo P. Graham
ed Raja Gosnell
☆ Hugh Grant, Julianne Moore, Tom Arnold, Joan Cusack, Jeff Goldblum, Robin Williams

'A dim-witted romp that makes little use of its leading man – if Tinseltown is looking for the next Cary Grant, this isn't the vehicle.' – Denis Seguin, Screen International

'Truly dreadful.' – Guardian

† It is based on a French film, Neuf Mois, written and directed by Patrick Brauodé.

Nine Queens: see Nueve Reinas

'2 Lovers. 1 Year.'

9 Songs

GB 2004 71m colour
Optimum/Revolution (Andrew Eaton)

A member of the British Antarctic Survey team recalls his compulsive sexual encounters with an American woman in between attending nine rock concerts.
It is hard to decide which is the most anaphrodisiac, the music or the copulation; both are repetitive to the point of monotony.
w uncredited d Michael Winterbottom
ph Marcel Zyskind m Black Rebel Motorcycle Club, Super Furry Animals, Franz Ferdinand, Dandy Warhols, Primal Scream ed Matt Whitecross, Michael Winterbottom ☆ Margo Stilley (Lisa), Kieran O'Brien (Matt)

'A piece of bad pornography that seems to have got fatally mixed up with his record collection.' – James Christopher, Times

'Touching, often poetic, sometimes achingly real snapshot of a brief encounter related almost entirely through the bedroom.' – Derek Elley, Variety

'The power behind the throne.'

Nine to Five

US 1980 110m DeLuxe
TCF/IPC (Bruce Gilbert)

Three office women plot to get rid of their boss, and nearly make it.
Sporadically agreeable comedy somewhat reminiscent of Sturges's Unfaithfully Yours.
w Colin Higgins, Patricia Resnick d Colin Higgins ph Reynaldo Villalobos
m Charles Fox pd Dean Mitzner
☆ Jane Fonda, Dolly Parton, Lily Tomlin, Dabney Coleman, Sterling Hayden, Elizabeth Wilson, Henry Jones

'An effective escapist feast with lotsa funny physical schtick.' – Variety

♫ title song (Dolly Parton)

1900

Italy/France/West Germany 1976 320m
Technicolor
TCF/PEA/Artistes Associés/Artemis (Alberto Grimaldi)

original title: Novecento

The political and personal vicissitudes of a noble Italian family between 1900 and 1945.
Immensely long and heavy-going study of the rise of fascism in the form of a family saga. For specialists only.
w Bernardo Bertolucci, Franco Arcalli, Giuseppe Bertolucci d Bernardo Bertolucci ph Vittorio Storaro m Ennio Morricone
ad Enzo Frigiero
☆ Burt Lancaster, Robert de Niro, Gérard Depardieu, Dominique Sanda, Donald Sutherland, Sterling Hayden

'Exasperatingly uneven, but its most powerful moments can't be matched by any movie since Godfather Two.' – Time

'Bertolucci tried to write a 19th-century novel on film: the result is appalling, yet it has the grandeur of a classic visionary folly.' – New Yorker

† The film was normally shown in two separate parts.

1941

US 1979 118m Metrocolor Panavision
Columbia/Universal/A-Team (John Milius)

Just after Pearl Harbor, a stray Japanese submarine terrorizes Hollywood.
Absurdly over-budgeted manic farce which substitutes noise for wit and slapstick for comedy; it fails on every level.
w Robert Zemeckis, Bob Gale d Steven Spielberg ph William A. Fraker m John Williams pd Dean Edward Mitzner
☆ Dan Aykroyd, Ned Beatty, John Belushi, Lorraine Gary, Murray Hamilton, Christopher Lee, Tim Matheson, Toshiro Mifune, Warren Oates, Robert Stack, Elisha Cook Jnr

'So overloaded with visual humour of rather monstrous nature that the feeling emerges that once you've seen ten explosions, you've seen them all.' – Variety

'Aimed at young audiences, who deserve better fun.' – New Yorker

'Its sheer relentless physicality, its elaborately orchestrated pointlessness on every other level, make it probably the purest demonstration of what it means to have two of the all-time commercial blockbusters to one's record and one's hands firmly on the fantasy machine.' – Richard Combs, MFB

'Spielberg intended it as "a stupidly outrageous celebration of paranoia" .. audiences found it curiously unfunny and elephantine.' – Les Keyser, Hollywood in the Seventies

♗ William A. Fraker

1969

US 1988 96m colour
Entertainment/Atlantic (Daniel Grodnick, Bill Badalato)

As the Vietnam War gets under way, two small-town youths protest for peace.
A nostalgic wallow that never rises above cliché.
wd Ernest Thompson ph Jules Brenner
m Michael Small pd Marcia Hinds
ed William Anderson
☆ Robert Downey Jnr, Kiefer Sutherland, Bruce Dern, Mariette Hartley, Winona Ryder, Joanna Cassidy, Christopher Wynne

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · ♗ Academy Award · ♗ Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

1984 ★

GB 1955 91m bw
Holiday (N. Peter Rathvon)

Europe has become the fascist state of Oceania, ruled by Big Brother; Winston Smith yearns for the old days, and is brainwashed.

The famous prophecy of a dehumanized future is followed with reasonable fidelity apart from the defiant ending, but the novel is too literary for cinematic success and the result is too often both downbeat and boring.

w William P. Templeton, Ralph Bettinson novel George Orwell d Michael Anderson ph C. Pennington Richards m Malcolm Arnold

☆ Michael Redgrave, Edmond O'Brien, Jan Sterling, David Kossoff, Mervyn Johns, Donald Pleasence

'Will ecstasy be a crime – in the terrifying world of the future?'

1984 ★

GB 1984 110m Eastmancolor
Umbrella/Rosenblum/Virgin (Simon Perry)

Winston Smith comes to love Big Brother after being brainwashed and taught Doublethink.

Pointless, perhaps, to make a prophetic film in the year it was supposed to be prophesying, but this version adds a few twists to Orwell's nightmarish original and is well if sometimes confusingly made.

wd Michael Radford novel George Orwell m Dominic Muldowney pd Allan Cameron ed Tom Priestley d/ph Roger Deakins

☆ John Hurt, Richard Burton, Suzanna Hamilton, Cyril Cusack, Gregor Fisher, James Walker

'A tale of unrelieved bleakness is told with relentless accuracy to Mr Orwell's novel, to which it is a kind of homage.' – Quentin Crisp

99 and 44/100 Per Cent Dead

US 1974 98m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF/Joe Wizan/Vashon

aka: Call Harry Crown

A losing gang boss hires a trouble shooter.

Violent gangster melodrama apparently intended as a black comedy; if so, as clumsy as its title.

w Robert Dillon d John Frankenheimer ph Ralph Woolsey m Henry Mancini

☆ Richard Harris, Edmond O'Brien, Bradford Dillman, Ann Turkel, Chuck Connors, Constance Ford

'Esthetically, commercially and morally, a quintessential fiasco.' – Variety

† The title in fact spoofs an ad familiar to Americans for a soap which was said to bé '99 and 44/100 per cent pure'.

99 River Street ★

US 1953 83m bw
UA/Edward Small

A taxi driver becomes involved in a diamond robbery.

Adequate thick ear with quite good detection and action sequences.

w Robert Smith d Phil Karlson ph Franz Planer

☆ John Payne, Evelyn Keyes, Frank Faylen, Brad Dexter, Peggie Castle

92 in the Shade ★

US 1975 88m colour
United Artists (George Pappas)

A drifter who becomes a fishing guide in Florida's Key West finds himself in competition with the captain of another fishing boat.

For the most part, an engaging and atmospheric study of coolly observed eccentricity, though lacking any narrative thrust.

wd Thomas McGuane novel Thomas McGuane ph Michael C. Butler m Michael J. Lewis ed Ed Rothkowitz

☆ Peter Fonda, Warren Oates, Margot Kidder, Elizabeth Ashley, Burgess Meredith, Harry Dean Stanton, Sylvia Miles, William Hickey, Louise Latham

† The film was recut and re-released in 1981.

'He has the Power. He can stop the killings. He is the...'

Ninja Dragon (dubbed)

Hong Kong 1986 87m colour
IFD Films and Arts (Joseph Lai, Betty Chan)

The daughter of a murdered gang-leader returns to take over his territory and precipitates a power struggle between rival gangsters on the streets of Shanghai.

Ludicrous thriller, with unconvincing martial arts interludes, notable for its high body-count and for having not one redeeming character in its large cast; with its hooded avenger, wearing a great deal of eye-liner, and cackling black-hatted hoodlums, its overwrought style can best be described as high camp.

wd Godfrey Ho story Frank Hor, AAV Creative Unit d Joseph Lai ph Raymond Chang m Stephen Tsang pd Hiram Lai ed Nicky Au sp Simon Chu

☆ Richard Harrison, Bruce Stallion, Melvin Pitcher, Konrad Chang, Lily Lan, Freya Patrick

Ninja in a Lion's Den: see Long Zhi Ren Zhe

Ninja Scroll (dubbed)

Japan 1995 94m colour
Toho/Animaze/Mad House/JVC (Shigeaki Komatsu, Haruo Sai, Masaki Sawanobori)

original title: Jubei Ninpocho

A ninja-for-hire teams up with a government spy to defeat a group of supernatural monsters and the forces of the Shogun of the Dark, who plans to rule the world.

Dramatically and stylishly animated action movie that is extremely violent, with rape, torture and multiple deaths in which blood flows like water.

wd Yoshiaki Kawajiri ph Hitoshi Yamaguchi m Kaoru Wada ad Hiromasa Ogura ed Yukiko Ito, Harutoshi Ogata

☆ voices of: Brad Lavelle (Jubei), Wendee Day (Kagero), Andrew Philpot (Yurimaru), Richard George (Lord Himaru Gemma)

'When the last three ninjas fight... only one will survive!'

Ninja Terminator (dubbed)

Hong Kong/Canada/UK 1986 85m colour
IFD (Joseph Lai, Betty Chan)

Warriors track down ninja traitors who steal a precious statue.

Bizarre, hilariously ridiculous martial arts movie that seems to have been put together from bits and pieces left on several cutting-room floors.

wd Godfrey Ho story Warren See, AAV Creative Unit ph Raymond Chang pd Anthony Chow ed Norton Wong martial arts director Dennis Shin

☆ Richard Harrison, Wong Cheng Li, Jonathan Wattis, Maria Francesca, Philip Ko

'The picture that kids the commissars!'
'Garbo laughs!'
'Don't pronounce it – see it!'

Ninotchka ★★★

US 1939 110m bw
MGM (Ernst Lubitsch)

A Paris playboy falls for a communist emissary sent to sell some crown jewels.

Sparkling comedy on a theme which has been frequently explored; delicate pointing and hilarious character comedy sustain this version perfectly until the last half hour, when it certainly sags; but it remains a favourite Hollywood example of this genre.

w Charles Brackett, Billy Wilder, Walter Reisch story Melchior Lengyel d Ernst Lubitsch ph William Daniels m Werner Heymann ad Cedric Gibbons, Randall Duell ed Gene Ruggiero

☆ Greta Garbo (Lena Yakushova, "Ninotchka"), Melvyn Douglas (Count Leon Dolga), Sig Rumann (Michael Ironoff), Alexander Granach (Kopalski), Felix Bressart (Buljanoff), Ina Claire (Grand Duchess Swana), Bela Lugosi (Commissar Razinin)

PROLOGUE: THIS PICTURE TAKES PLACE IN PARIS IN THOSE WONDERFUL DAYS WHEN A SIREN WAS A BRUNETTE AND NOT AN ALARM – AND IF A FRENCHMAN TURNED OUT THE LIGHT IT WAS NOT ON ACCOUNT OF AN AIR RAID!

ninotchka (Greta Garbo): 'I must have a complete report of your negotiations and a detailed expense account.'

BULJANOFF (FELIX BRESSART): 'No, non, Ninotchka. Don't ask for it. There is an old Turkish proverb that says, if something smells bad, why put your nose in it?'

NINOTCHKA: 'And there is an old Russian saying, the cat who has cream on his whiskers had better find good excuses.'

NINOTCHKA: 'The last mass trials were a great success. There are going to be fewer but better Russians.'

'High calibre entertainment for adult audiences, and a top attraction for the key de-luxers.' – Variety

'The Lubitsch style, in which much was made of subtleties – glances, finger movements, raised eyebrows – has disappeared. Instead we have a hard, brightly lit, cynical comedy with the wisecrack completely in control.' – John Baxter, 1968

† William Powell and Robert Montgomery were formerly considered for the Melvyn Douglas role.

best picture; script; story; Greta Garbo

'They stood together while their country fell apart.'

9th Company ★

Russia/Finland/Ukraine 2005 139m
Contender/Art Pictures Group/1+1 Television/Slovo/STS Television (Elena Yatsura, Sergei Melkumov, Alexander Rodnyansky)

Russian theatrical title: 9-ya rota

A group of raw Russian recruits set off in 1989 to the war in Afghanistan.

There's little new in this war story, which follows the template of Kubrick's Full Metal Jacket. But it looks expensive, with various filters reproducing Afghanistan's ochre landscapes in the Crimea, where it was largely shot. Some bravura set pieces from the front line maintain the pace and narrowly justify its length.

w Yuri Korotkov d Fedor Bondarchuk ph Maxim Osadchy m Dato Evgenidze pd Grigori Pushkin

☆ Artur Smolyaninov (Lyutaev), Alexei Chadov (Vorobyev), Konstantin Kryukov (Petrovsky ('Gioconda')), Ivan Kokorin (Chugun), Artem Mikhalkov (Stas), Soslan Fidarov (Pinochet), Mikhail Evlanov (Ryaba), Mikhail Porechenkov (Warrant Officer Dygalo), Fedor Bondarchuk (Warrant Officer Khokhol)

'The film has no real thematic ambition beyond restating the old "war is hell" adage.' – Anthony Quinn, Independent

'Tells a familiar story very well, thanks to a charismatic ensemble cast and boundless ambition when it comes to the scale.' – Wendy Ide, Times

† It became the highest grossing film in post-communist Russia, surpassing the $20 million mark at the box-office.

The Ninth Configuration

US 1980 105m Metrocolor Panavision
ITC/Lorimar (William Peter Blatty)

A new psychiatrist in a compound of military misfits becomes the victim of a terror campaign.

Weirdly obscure would-be thriller which only mystifies and annoys.

wd William Peter Blatty novel Twinkle, Twinkle 'Killer' Kane by William Peter Blatty ph Gerry Fisher m Barry DeVorzon pd Bill Malley, J. Dennis Washington ed Peter Taylor

☆ Stacy Keach (Col Vincent Kane), Scott Wilson (Capt. Billy Cutshaw), Jason Miller (Lt Frankie Reno), Ed Flanders (Col Hudson Kane), Neville Brand (Maj. Marvin Groper), Moses Gunn (Maj. Nammack), Robert Loggia (Lt Bennish), Joe Spinell (Lt Spinell)

'Quite astonishingly garbled, trailing yards of portentous religious allegory.' – Observer

'The pretensions are enough to raise the Titanic – and sink it again.' – Guardian † Blatty released a longer version, running for 118m, in 1985.

'Leave the unknown alone.'

The Ninth Gate ★

France/Spain 1999 127m colour Super 35
Artisan/R.P./OrlyTF1/Kino Vision/Origen/Bac/Canal+/Via Digital (Roman Polanski)

A wealthy New York collector hires a rare-book dealer to check the authenticity of a 17th century book said to have been co-authored by the devil.

An uncertain tone bedevils this tale of decadence and satanism among the very rich, veering as it does between horror and satire; ultimately, it's nothing very much.

w Enrique Urbizu, John Brownjohn, Roman Polanski novel El Club Dumas by Arturo Perez-Reverte d Roman Polanski ph Darius Khondji m Wojciech Kilar pd Dean Tavoularis ed Herve de Luze cos Anthony Powell

☆ Johnny Depp (Dean Corso), Frank Langella (Boris Balkan), Lena Olin (Liana Telfer), Emmanuelle Seigner (The Girl), Barbara Jefford (Baroness Kessler), Jack Taylor (Victor Fargas), Jose Lopez Rodero (Pablo and Pedro Ceniza), James Russo (Bernie)

'About as scary as a sock-puppet re-enactment of The Blair Witch Project and not nearly as funny.' – Elvis Mitchell, New York Times

The Ninth Guest

US 1934 65m bw
Columbia

Eight people are trapped by a murderer in a penthouse suite.

Whodunnit which must have been seen by Agatha Christie before she wrote And Then There Were None. This version however is flatly scripted and characterized, with no real interest in the (unlikely) outcome.

w Garnett Weston novel Gwen Bristow stage play Owen Davis d Roy William Neill ☆ Donald Cook, Genevieve Tobin, Hardie Albright, Edward Ellis, Edwin Maxwell, Vince Barnett, Samuel S. Hinds
'It ought to get a neat return in most spots.' – Variety

Nirvana Street Murder
Australia 1990 75m colour
AFC (Fiona Cochrane)
An abattoir worker tries to keep control of his own life, and that of his simple-minded, violent brother, who has hazy notions of right and wrong.
A short, grimly realistic working-class drama that quickly degenerates into unconvincing melodrama.
wd Aleksi Vellis ph Mark Lane pd Lisa Thompson ed Aleksi Vellis ☆ Mark Little, Ben Mendelsohn, Mary Coustas, Sheila Florance, Roberto Micale, Tamara Saulwick, Yiorgo, Russell Gilbert

The Nitwits
US 1935 81m bw
RKO
Two cigar-stand assistants solve the murder of a music publisher.
Overlong crime comedy with a good finale.
w Fred Guiol, Al Boasberg, Stuart Palmer d George Stevens ☆ Bert Wheeler, Robert Woolsey, Fred Keating, Betty Grable, Evelyn Brent 'Fair.' – Variety

Niu-Peng ★★
China/France 1989 100m colour
Titane/Flach Film/La Sept (Jean-Luc Ormieres)
aka: China, My Sorrow
A 13-year-old boy is sent to Niu-Peng, a detention centre for 'the re-education of enemies of the people', for listening to love songs on his record-player.
Moving and compassionate account of a community of independent spirits surviving in the face of intransigence.
w Dai Sijie, Shan Yuan Zhu d Dai Sijie ph Jean-Michael Humeau m Chen Qi Gang ad Christian Marti ed Chantal Delattre
☆ Guo Liang Yi, Tien Quan Nghieu, Vuong Han Lai, Sam Chi-Vy, Truong Loi Nixon ★★★

US 1995 192m Technicolor Panavision
Entertainment/Illusion/Cinergi (Clayton Townsend, Oliver Stone, Andrew G. Vajna)
As the Watergate cover-up begins to unravel, Richard Nixon recalls his past, from his Quaker childhood to his marriage and the triumphs of his political career.
A boldly conceived film on the corruption of power. It attempts to cast Nixon as the protagonist of a tragedy in a Shakespearean mould – like Macbeth, he clambers over the dead bodies of others to seize power and to retain it. While the film fails to show that Nixon had sufficient stature to qualify as a tragic hero, it does provide a fascinating portrait of a flawed and envious man, seeking support from dubious allies and brought down by his own failings. Hopkins is utterly convincing in the title role.
w Stephen J. Rivele, Christopher Wilkinson, Oliver Stone d Oliver Stone ph Robert Richardson m John Williams pd Victor Kempster ad Richard Mays, Donald Woodruff, Margery Zweizig ed Brian Berdan, Hank Corwin ☆ Anthony Hopkins (Nixon), Joan Allen (Pat Nixon), Powers Boothe (Alexander Haig), Ed Harris (E. Howard Hunt), E. G. Marshall (John Mitchell), David Paymer (Ron Ziegler), David Hyde Pierce (John Dean), Paul Sorvino (Henry Kissinger), J. T. Walsh (John Erlichman), James Woods (H. R. Haldeman), Mary Steenburgen (Hannah Nixon)
'Inescapably interesting due to the parade of recent history on view, but it finally emerges as an honorable, and rather too strenuous, failure.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety
'Achieves the dubious distinction of being a film about Nixon that is actually more paranoid than Nixon was.' – Tom Shone, Sunday Times
† A Region 1 collector's edition two-disc set includes commentary by Oliver Stone.
Anthony Hopkins, Joan Allen; John Williams; screenplay

Nô ★
Canada 1998 85m colour/bw
Alliance/In Extremis Images/Telefilm Canada/Sodec (Bruno Jobin)
In 1970, at a time of martial law in Quebec, a pregnant Canadian actress decides to return home to her lover, who has become involved with violent separatists.
An enjoyable, cleverly constructed movie that moves from stylized comedy to realistic drama, though its political concerns are too local to mean much in the wider world.
w Robert Lepage, Andre Morency play The Seven Branches of the River Ota by Robert Lepage d Robert Lepage ph Pierre Mignot m Michel F. Cote, Bernard Falaise pd Fanfan Boudreau ed Aube Foglia
☆ Anne-Marie Cadieux, Alexis Martin, Marie Brassard, Richard Fréchette, Marie Gignac, Eric Bernier
'Witty, always intriguing and amusing, and maintains the director's reputation as an inventive cinematic stylist.' – Richard Falcon, Sight and Sound

No Big Deal
US 1984 86m Movielab
Kandel/Film Gallery/Cinétudes (Gale Goldberg, Christine Jurzykowski)
A juvenile delinquent fails to make the grade.
Drear high-school drama of adolescent angst, indifferently acted and directed.
w Jeffrey Kindley book Would You Settle for Improbable? by P. J. Petersen d Robert Charlton ph Jeff Lion Weinstock m Lynn Ahrens ad Joshua Harrison ed Margot Francis ☆ Kevin Dillon, Christopher Gartin, Mary Joan Negro, Jane Krakowski, Stacy Lauren, Daniel Hess, Wayne Daniels, Tammy Grimes, Sylvia Miles

No Blade of Grass
GB 1970 97m Metrocolor Panavision
MGM (Cornel Wilde)
Industrial pollution sets a destructive virus ruining the crops of the world; anarchy spreads through Britain and one family takes refuge in the Lake District.
Apocalyptic sci-fi, moderately well done though so humourless as to be almost funny.
w Sean Forestal, Jefferson Pascal novel The Death of Grass by John Christopher d Cornel Wilde ph H. A. R. Thomson m Burnell Whibley ☆ Nigel Davenport, Jean Wallace, Patrick Holt, John Hamill

'When Corruption Strikes the Police Force... Trust No One!'

No Code of Conduct
US 1998 93m FotoKem
Nu Image/Millennium/Sheen/Michaels (Avi Lerner, Elie Samaha, Danny Dimbort, Trevor Short)
A cop with family problems tracks down drug dealers attempting to shift a $50m consignment of heroin.
Banal, loud and ludicrous movie, recycling a familiar narrative without style or impact, and with an irritating method of cutting between one predictable scene and the next. Ironically, at the beginning Martin Sheen's retiring policeman tells young recruits that police-work bears no resemblance to TV cop shows; what follows includes all the worst moments of the genre.
w Brett Michaels, Charles Sheen, Shane Stanley, William Gucwa, Edward Masterson d Bret Michaels ph Adam Kane m Bret Michaels, Kyle Level pd Marc Fisichella ed Shane Stanley
☆ Charles Sheen (Jake Peterson), Martin Sheen (Bill Peterson), Mark Dasascos (Paul Delucca), Paul Gleason (Bagwell), Joe Lando (Willdog), Courtney Gains (Cameron), Meredith Salinger (Rebecca Peterson), Joe Estevez (Pappy), Tina Nguyen (Shi), Ron Masak (Julian Disanto)

No Deposit, No Return
US 1976 112m Technicolor
Walt Disney (Ron Miller)
Airport confusion causes crooks to abduct (unwittingly) a millionaire's grandchildren; the millionaire gives chase.
Overlong and tedious action comedy which makes little sense.
w Arthur Alsberg, Don Nelson d Norman Tokar ph Frank Phillips m Buddy Baker ☆ David Niven, Darren McGavin, Don Knotts, Herschel Bernardi, Barbara Feldon, John Williams, Vic Tayback, Kim Richards
'Once again one is left wondering why there should be such an unbridgeable gulf between the brilliant professionalism and sometimes innovative genius of the Disney animated films, and the dull artlessness of the majority of their live-action pictures.' – Philip French, The Times

'You can't throw so many young couples together and not expect explosions!'

No Down Payment ★★
US 1957 105m bw Cinemascope
TCF (Jerry Wald)
Tension among smart suburban couples in a Los Angeles housing development.
Lively domestic melodrama, very useful to sociologists as a mirror of its times.
w Philip Yordan novel John McPartland d Martin Ritt ph Joseph LaShelle m Leigh Harline ☆ Joanne Woodward, Tony Randall, Sheree North, Jeffrey Hunter, Cameron Mitchell, Patricia Owens, Barbara Rush, Pat Hingle

No End ★
Poland 1984 107m colour
Artificial Eye/Zespoly Filmowe (Ryszard Chutkowski) original title: Bez Konca
The ghost of a radical lawyer watches over his wife and son and an elderly lawyer who has taken over his final case, defending the leader of a strike.
Intense domestic and political drama, set against a background of the imposition of martial law.
w Krzysztof Kieslowski, Krzysztof Piesiewicz d Krzysztof Kieslowski ph Jacek Petrycki m Zbigniew Preisner ad Allan Starski ed Krystyna Rutowska
☆ Grazyna Szapolowska, Maria Pakulnis, Aleksander Bardini, Jerzy Radziwilowicz, Artur Barcis, Michel Bajor, Marek Kondrat

No Escape
GB 1936 85m bw
Pathé Welwyn
A man pretends to be dead as a hoax, and when he is found so, his accomplice is suspected.
Twisty thriller from a popular play.
w George Goodchild, Frank Witty play No Exit by George Goodchild, Frank Witty d Norman Lee ☆ Valerie Hobson, Leslie Perrins, Robert Cochran, Billy Milton, Henry Oscar
'Good programme picture for almost anywhere.' – Variety

'No Guards. No Walls.'

No Escape
US 1994 118m Eastmancolor
Arriscope
Savoy/Allied Filmmakers/Pacific Western (Gale Anne Hurd)
In 2022, when prisons have been privatized, a vicious warden illegally dumps a convicted soldier on a remote island where gangs of criminals, some violent, one attempting to be civilized, strive for supremacy.
Slick action movie that follows conventional lines and, despite its future setting, most closely resembles ancient jungle escape stories; all it lacks is Tarzan.
w Michael Gaylin, Joel Gross novel The Penal Colony by Richard Herley d Martin Campbell ph Phil Meheux m Graeme Revell pd Allan Cameron ed Terry Rawlings
☆ Ray Liotta, Lance Henriksen, Stuart Wilson, Kevin Dillon, Kevin J. O'Connor, Don Henderson, Ian McNeice, Jack Shepherd, Michael Lerner, Ernie Hudson
'This offers muscular widescreen thrills, but is sorely lacking in any cranial tissue.' – Jack Yeovil, Empire

No Funny Business
GB 1933 75m bw
John Stafford
Two professional co-respondents are sent to the Riviera; each mistakes the other as his client.
Stagey farce, notable for its unlikely star teaming and its hilariously dated style.
w Victor Hanbury, Frank Vosper, Dorothy Hope d John Stafford, Victor Hanbury ph Bryan Langley songs Noel Gay, Clifford Grey ☆ Gertrude Lawrence, Laurence Olivier, Jill Esmond, Edmund Breon, Gibb McLaughlin, Muriel Aked

No Greater Glory
US 1934 78m bw
Columbia
Boys learn through their play that there is no greater glory than to die for one's country.
Glum parable which probably worked better in the original German.
w Jo Swerling film script The Paul Street Boys by Ferenc Molnar d Frank Borzage
☆ George Breakston, Jimmy Butler, Jackie Searl, Frankie Darro, Ralph Morgan, Christian Rub

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

'Not for the general trade, but a prospective hit in the arties.' – Variety

No Habra Mas Penas Ni Olvido: see A Funny Dirty Little War

'Turn back, I tell you! Any minute may be too late!'

No Highway ★★

GB 1951 98m bw
TCF (Louis D. Lighton)
US title: No Highway in the Sky

During a transatlantic flight, a boffin works out that the plane's tail is about to fall off from metal fatigue.

The central premise of this adaptation from a popular novel is fascinating, but the romantic asides are a distraction and the characters cardboard; the film still entertains through sheer professionalism.

w R. C. Sherriff, Oscar Millard, Alec Coppel novel Nevil Shute d Henry Koster ph Georges Périnal

☆ James Stewart, Marlene Dietrich, Glynis Johns, Jack Hawkins, Janette Scott, Elizabeth Allan, Kenneth More, Niall MacGinnis, Ronald Squire

No Highway in the Sky: see No Highway

No Leave, No Love

US 1946 118m bw
MGM (Joe Pasternak)

Sailors on leave meet an English girl.

Witless, overlong musical extravaganza.

w Charles Martin, Leslie Karkos d Charles Martin ph Harold Rosson, Robert Surtees md Georgie Stoll

☆ Van Johnson, Pat Kirkwood, Keenan Wynn, Guy Lombardo and his Orchestra, Edward Arnold, Marie Wilson, Leon Ames

No Limit ★

GB 1935 79m bw
ATP (Basil Dean)

A motor mechanic enters for the TT Races.

Lively star comedy with Isle of Man locations.

w Tom Geraghty, Fred Thompson story Walter Greenwood d Monty Banks ph Bob Martin

☆ George Formby, Florence Desmond, Edward Rigby, Jack Hobbs, Peter Gawthorne, Alf Goddard

No Love for Johnnie ★

GB 1960 111m bw Cinemascope
Rank/Five Star (Betty E. Box)

The personal and political problems of a Labour MP.

Predictable but quite lively study of ambition and frustration, with good cameos; Cinemascope all but ruins its impact.

w Nicholas Phipps, Mordecai Richler novel Wilfred Fienburgh d Ralph Thomas ph Ernest Steward m Malcolm Arnold

☆ Peter Finch, Mary Peach, Stanley Holloway, Donald Pleasence, Billie Whitelaw, Hugh Burden, Rosalie Crutchley, Michael Goodliffe, Mervyn Johns, Geoffrey Keen, Paul Rogers, Dennis Price, Peter Barkworth, Fenella Fielding, Gladys Henson

Peter Finch

No Man Is an Island

US 1962 114m Eastmancolor
U-I/Gold Coast (John Monks Jnr, Richard Goldstone)
GB title: Island Escape

After the Japanese attack on Guam, a radioman finds refuge in a leper colony and sets up his own resistance unit.

Unexceptionable war adventure in the jungle.

wd John Monks Jnr, Richard Goldstone ph Carl Kayser m Restie Umali

☆ Jeffrey Hunter, Marshall Thompson, Barbara Perez, Ronald Remy

'Good clean fun for right-minded teenagers.' – MFB

'He was a hit and run lover ... personally, he preferred a cigarette to any dame!'

No Man of Her Own ★

US 1933 98m bw
Paramount

A big-time gambler marries a local girl on a bet and tries to keep her innocent of his activities.

Star romantic comedy drama, quite professionally assembled and played.

w Maurine Watkins, Milton H. Gropper d Wesley Ruggles ph Leo Tover

☆ Clark Gable, Carole Lombard, Dorothy Mackaill, Grant Mitchell, George Barbier, Elizabeth Patterson, J. Farrell MacDonald

'Entertaining film with national appeal.' – Variety

'Just about everything that the ordinary picture fan looks for: drama, romance, comedy, strong build-ups, exciting climaxes, a fine line of human interest.' – Film Daily

No Man of Her Own ★

US 1950 98m bw
Paramount (Richard Maibaum)

A pregnant wanderer is involved in a train crash and assumes the identity of the wife of a dead passenger.

Glossy star melodrama, very watchable.

w Catherine Turney, Sally Benson, Mitchell Leisen novel William Irish (Cornell Woolrich) d Mitchell Leisen ph Daniel L. Fapp m Hugo Friedhofer

☆ Barbara Stanwyck, John Lund, Lyle Bettger, Jane Cowl, Phyllis Thaxter, Henry O'Neill, Richard Denning

No Man's Land: see Nikogarsnja Zemlja

No Man's Land ★

France/Switzerland 1985 110m colour
Filmograph/MK2 (Alain Tanner, Marin Karmitz)

A group of smugglers, each wanting a better way of life, operate on the borders of France and Switzerland.

Coolly detached account of people on the point of breakdown.

wd Alain Tanner ph Bernard Zitzermann m Terry Riley pd Alain Nicolet ed Laurent Uhler

☆ Jean-Philippe Ecoffey, Betty Berr, Marie-Luce Felber, Hugues Quester, Myriam Mézières

No Man's Land

1987 105m colour
Rank/Orion (Joseph Stern, Dick Wolf)

A young undercover cop falls in love with the sister of the car thief he is trying to bring to justice.

Moderate low-key thriller with lacklustre performances.

w Dick Wolf d Peter Werner ph Hiro Narita m Basil Poledouris pd Paul Peters ed Steve Cohen

☆ D. B. Sweeney, Charlie Sheen, Lara Harris, Randy Quaid, Bill Duke, R. D. Call, Arlen Dean Snyder, M. Emmet Walsh, Al Shannon

foreign film

No Mercy

US 1986 105m Metrocolor
Tri-Star/Delphi IV (D. Constantine Conte)

Policemen pretend to be hit men in an attempt to infiltrate a murder-by-contract organization.

Fashionable violence, slick production, nothing new.

w Jim Carabatsos d Richard Pearce ph Michael Brault m Alan Silvestri pd Patrizia von Brandenstein ed Jerry Greenberg, Bill Yahraus

☆ Richard Gere, Kim Basinger, Jeroen Krabbe, George Dzundza, Gary Basaraba, William Atherton

No Mercy, No Future

West Germany 1981 100m colour
Mainline/Helma Sanders-Brahms original title: Die Berührte

A suicidal schizophrenic wanders through Berlin looking for Christ and indulging in casual affairs.

Uncompromisingly downbeat study of madness that provides a succession of shocking images which become hard to bear.

wd Helma Sanders-Brahms ph Thomas Mauch m Manfred Opitz, Harald Grosskopf ed Ursula West, Hanni Lewerenz

☆ Elisabeth Stepanek, Hubertus von Weyrauch, Irmgard Mellinger, Nguyen Chi Canh

No Minor Vices

US 1948 96m bw
(MGM) Enterprise (Lewis Milestone)

A doctor brings home an artist friend who proceeds to wreck his household.

Interminable thin comedy which gives no clue as to what the talent involved thought it was doing.

w Arnold Manoff d Lewis Milestone ph George Barnes m Franz Waxman

☆ Dana Andrews, Lilli Palmer, Louis Jourdan, Jane Wyatt, Norman Lloyd

No More Ladies

US 1935 79m bw
MGM

A society girl thinks that by marrying a rake she can reform him.

Breezy sophisticated comedy which doesn't quite maintain its impetus.

w Donald Ogden Stewart, Horace Jackson play A. E. Thomas d Edward H. Griffith, George Cukor ph Oliver T. Marsh m Edward Ward

☆ Joan Crawford, Robert Montgomery, Franchot Tone, Charles Ruggles, Edna May Oliver, Gail Patrick, Reginald Denny, Arthur Treacher

'Sophistication plus in society setting and probably too much on the ultra side for sock appreciation. But okay.' – Variety

No More Women

US 1934 73m bw
Paramount

Deep-sea divers compete for jobs and a woman.

Flagg and Quirt in all but name, with action melodrama largely substituted for skirt-chasing.

w Delmer Daves, Lou Breslow story John M. Strong d Albert S. Rogell

☆ Edmund Lowe, Victor McLaglen, Sally Blane, Minna Gombell, Harold Huber

'Quirt and Flagg under the Hays morality code, and they can't take it.' – Variety

No, My Darling Daughter

GB 1961 96m bw
Rank/Five Star/Betty E. Box-Ralph Thomas

Chaos ensues when a tycoon's daughter is thought to be eloping with an American boyfriend.

Clumsy comedy with moments of brightness provided by the actors.

w Frank Harvey play A Handful of Tansy by Harold Brooke, Kay Bannerman d Ralph Thomas ph Ernest Steward m Norrie Paramor

☆ Michael Redgrave, Michael Craig, Roger Livesey, Rad Fulton, Juliet Mills, Renee Houston, Joan Sims, Peter Butterworth

No Name on the Bullet

US 1958 77m Eastmancolor
Cinemascope
Universal (Howard Christie, Jack Arnold)

A hired gunman books into the hotel of a small Western town, and everybody wonders who he is after.

Tolerable Western programmer with more emphasis than usual on characterization.

w Gene L. Coon d Jack Arnold ph Harold Lipstein m Herman Stein

☆ Audie Murphy, Charles Drake, Joan Evans, R. G. Armstrong, Willis Bouchey, Karl Swenson

No, No, Nanette

US 1930 90m approx bw with Technicolor sequences
Warner

A married bible publisher secretly helps three girls, who all visit him on the same day.

Early talkie version of the rather naïve musical hit, with a priceless moment or two among the dross.

w Howard Emmett Rogers play Otto Harbach, Frank Mandel d Clarence Badger ch Larry Ceballos

☆ Bernice Claire, Lucien Littlefield, Lilyan Tashman, Bert Roach, ZaSu Pitts

♫ 'Dance of the Wooden Shoes'; 'As Long as I'm with You'; 'King of the Air'; No, No, Nanette'; 'Dancing to Heaven'; 'Tea for Two'; 'I Want to be Happy'

No No Nanette

US 1940 90m bw
RKO/Suffolk (Herbert Wilcox)

Slightly altered remake with too little attention to the musical numbers.

w Ken Englund d Herbert Wilcox md Anthony Collins

☆ Anna Neagle, Richard Carlson, Victor Mature, Helen Broderick, Roland Young, ZaSu Pitts, Eve Arden, Billy Gilbert

'It's overboard on inaction, with most of the dead wood up front.' – Variety

♫ 'No, No Nanette'; 'I Want to Be Happy'; 'Tea for Two'

No Orchids for Miss Blandish

GB 1948 102m bw
Alliance/Tudor (A. R. Shipman, Oswald Mitchell)

An heiress is kidnapped by gangsters and falls for their psychopathic leader.

Hilariously awful gangster movie from a bestselling shocker. Everyone concerned is all at sea, and the result is one of the worst films ever made.

wd St John L. Clowes novel James Hadley Chase ph Gerald Gibbs m George Melachrino ad Harry Moore ed Manuel Del Campo

☆ Jack La Rue, Linden Travers, Hugh McDermott, Walter Crisham, Lily Molnar, Zoe Gail

'This must be the most sickening exhibition of brutality, perversion, sex and sadism ever to be shown on a cinema screen ... with pseudo-American accents the actors literally battle their way through a script laden with suggestive dialogue.' – MFB

'A most vicious display of sadism, brutality and suggestiveness.' – Milton Shulman, Evening Standard

'The morals are about level with those of a scavenger dog.' – Daily Express
'It has all the morals of an alley cat and all the sweetness of a sewer.' – Observer
'The worst film I have ever seen.' – Sunday Express † Remade as The Grissom Gang (qv).

No Parking
GB 1938 72m bw
Herbert Wilcox
A car park attendant is mistaken for an American killer.
Modest, entertaining star comedy.
w Gerald Elliott story Carol Reed d Jack Raymond ph Francis Carver ☆ Gordon Harker, Leslie Perrins, Irene Ware, Cyril Smith

No Peace among the Olives
Italy 1950 99m bw
Lux (Domenico Davanzati)
A young shepherd goes home after the war and finds himself at war again – against a local racketeer.
A rather crude melodrama comparable with the American Thieves' Highway and other films noirs of the time.
w Giuseppe de Santis and others
d Giuseppe de Santis ph Pietro Portalupi m Goffredo Petrassi ☆ Lucia Bose, Raf Vallone, Folco Lulli, Dante Maggio

No Place for Jennifer
GB 1949 90m bw
ABPC
Divorcing parents think again when their twelve-year-old daughter runs away.
Very predictable tearjerker which kept box offices busy in its day.
w J. Lee-Thompson novel No Difference to Me by Phyllis Hambledon d Henry Cass ph William McLeod m Allan Gray
☆ Leo Genn, Rosamund John, Janette Scott, Beatrice Campbell, Guy Middleton, Anthony Nicholls, Jean Cadell

No Problem! (dubbed) ★
France 1975 100m Eastmancolor
Gaumont International 2000 (Alain Poiré) original title: Pas de Problème
Enlisting the aid of a medical student in ridding her flat of a dead man, a young woman triggers a series of mishaps.
A hectic farce that, despite some unsympathetic dubbing, manages to raise a few smiles.
w Jean-Marie Poiré d Georges Lautner ph Maurice Fellous m Philippe Sarde ed Michelle David ☆ Miou-Miou, Bernard Menez, Jean Lefebvre, Anny Duperey, Henri Guybet, Renée Saint-Cyr, Patrick Dewaere (cameo)

No Questions Asked
US 1951 80m bw
MGM (Nicholas Nayfack)
A young lawyer undertakes shady business and finds himself framed for murder.
Well made second feature on conventional lines.
w Sidney Sheldon d Harold Kress ph Harold Lipstein m Leith Stevens
☆ Barry Sullivan, George Murphy, Arlene Dahl, Jean Hagen, William Reynolds, Mari Blanchard

No Regrets for Our Youth ★★
Japan 1946 110m bw
Toho (Keiji Matsuzaki)
original title: Waga Seishun ni Kui Nashi
The urbane widow of a left-wing journalist goes to live and work with his parents, who are peasants.
A moving account of the cost of individual survival, and of liberal ideals, at a time of repression and militarism in Japan.
w Eijiro Hisaita, Akira Kurosawa d Akira Kurosawa ph Asakazu Nakai m Tadashi Hattori ☆ Setsuko Hara, Susumu Fujita, Denjiro Okochi, Eiko Miyoshi, Kokuten Kodo, Haruko Sugimura

No Resting Place
GB 1951 77m bw
Colin Lesslie
A wandering Irish tinker accidentally kills a man and is hounded by a Civil Guard.
Interesting attempt at realistic location drama, suffering from a dejected plot and unsympathetic characters.
w Paul Rotha, Colin Lesslie, Michael Orrom novel Ian Niall d Paul Rotha ph Wolfgang Suschitzky m William Alwyn
☆ Michael Gough, Noel Purcell, Jack MacGowran

No Retreat, No Surrender
US 1986 90m Technicolor
Entertainment/New World/Seasonal/Balcor (Ng See Yuen)
An American kick-boxer, aided by the ghost of Bruce Lee, conquers a Russian champion who beat up his father.
Standard martial arts revenge movie, with Van Damme as the villain of the piece.
w Keith W. Strandberg story Ng See Yuen, Corey Yuen d Corey Yuen ph John Huneck, David Golia m Paul Gilreath ed Alan Poon, Mark Pierce, James Melkonian, Dane Davis
☆ Jean-Claude Van Damme, Kurt McKinney, J. W. Fails, Kathie Sileno, Kim Tai Chong, Kent Lipham

No Road Back
GB 1957 83m bw
Gibraltar/RKO (Steven Pallos)
A doctor discovers that his blind mother and fiancée are involved with a gang of violent thieves.
Agreeable time-waster, competently made but unexciting and notable mainly for one of Connery's early performances, as a Scottish crook with a speech impediment.
w Charles A. Leeds, Montgomery Tully play Falkland L. Cary, Philip Weathers d Montgomery Tully ph Lionel Banes m John Veale md Philip Martell ad John Stoll ed Jim Connock ☆ Skip Homeier, Paul Carpenter, Patricia Dainton, Norman Wooland, Margaret Rawlings, Eleanor Summerfield, Alfie Bass, Sean Connery

No Room at the Inn
GB 1948 82m bw
British National (Ivan Foxwell)
A monstrous woman half-starves evacuees and turns her house into a brothel.
Absurd melodrama from a play which was popular because it offered a full-blooded star performance. The film is less convincing but works pretty well on its level.
w Ivan Foxwell, Dylan Thomas play Joan Temple d Daniel Birt ph James Wilson ☆ Freda Jackson, Joy Shelton, Hermione Baddeley, Joan Dowling, Harcourt Williams, Sydney Tafler, Frank Pettingell, Niall MacGinnis

No Room for the Groom ★
US 1952 82m bw
Universal-International (Ted Richmond)
An army veteran returns to his wife, who has moved in with her family without telling them of her marriage.
Amiable comedy which rises to a fair pitch of frenzy.
w Joseph Hoffman story Darwin H. Teilhet d Douglas Sirk ph Clifford Stine m Frank Skinner ☆ Tony Curtis, Piper Laurie, Don Defore, Spring Byington, Lee Aaker, Jack Kelly, Lillian Bronson

No Sad Songs for Me
US 1950 89m bw
Columbia (Buddy Adler)
A young wife discovers she has only eight months to live, and spends it planning her husband's future.
Well-meant but rather icky melodrama featuring one of those beautiful illnesses that appear to have no physical effect.
w Howard Koch novel Ruth Southard d Rudolph Maté ph Joseph Walker m George Duning
☆ Margaret Sullavan, Wendell Corey, Viveca Lindfors, Natalie Wood, John McIntire
♪ George Duning

No Secrets
GB 1982 90m colour
Fulsetcourt (Elizabeth Curran)
With the help of a female spy, an African emperor kidnaps two US astronauts and demands a huge ransom.
An unbelievably atrocious movie: a crude mix of dim-witted script, bad acting and heavy-handed, mistimed comedy.
w George Fowler, Peter Curran d Peter Curran ph David Mason ed Peter Curran
☆ Oliver Reed, Sylvaine Charlet, Peter Cushing, Keenan Wynn, Edwin Manda, Wilfrid Hyde-White, Hilary Pritchard, Melvyn Hayes

No Sex Please, We're British
GB 1973 91m Technicolor
Columbia/BHP (John R. Sloan)
Confusion ensues when a wrongly addressed parcel of dirty postcards arrives at a bank.
Fairly lively farce with everything from mistaken identity to falling trousers.
w Anthony Marriott, Johnnie Mortimer, Brian Cooke play Anthony Marriott, Alistair Foot d Cliff Owen ph Ken Hodges m Eric Rogers
☆ Ronnie Corbett, Arthur Lowe, Beryl Reid, Ian Ogilvy, Susan Penhaligon, David Swift, Michael Bates

No Sleep Till Dawn: see Bombers B52

No Smoking
GB 1955 72m bw
Tempean (Robert S. Baker, Monty Berman)
Tobacco companies take action when a simple-minded village chemist invents a no-smoking pill that works.
Dreary B-feature comedy with a ludicrous plot that failed to make an amiable radio comedian funny on the screen.
w Kenneth Hayles, Phil Park play George Moresby-White, Rex Rientis d Henry Cass ph Monty Berman m Ivor Slaney md Stanley Black ad Wilfred Arnold ed Jack Slade
☆ Reg Dixon, Belinda Lee, Lionel Jeffries, Ruth Trouncer, Alexander Gauge, Myrtle Rowe, Arthur Young, Hal Osmond, Tom Gill, Ronnie Stevens

No Surrender ★
GB 1985 104m colour
Dumbarton/NFFC/Lauron/Film Four International (Mamoun Hassan)
Irish factions collide in a Liverpool club.
Black comedy typical of the author of Boys from the Black Stuff.
w Alan Bleasdale d Peter Smith ph Mick Coulter m Daryl Runswick
☆ Michael Angelis, Avis Bunnage, James Ellis, Ray McAnally, Tom Georgeson, Bernard Hill, J. G. Devlin
'Monstrous and marvellous, it combines the disturbing, the disorienting and the downright daft.' – Paul Taylor, MFB

No Time for Comedy ★
US 1940 93m bw
Warner (Robert Lord)
A playwright is depressed by the times and has lost the knack of making people laugh.
Smooth film version of a thoughtful romantic comedy play.
w Julius J. and Philip G. Epstein play S. N. Behrman d William Keighley ph Ernest Haller m Heinz Roemheld
☆ James Stewart, Rosalind Russell, Charles Ruggles, Genevieve Tobin, Allyn Joslyn, Clarence Kolb, Louise Beavers

'Claudette loves the men with muscles!'

No Time for Love ★
US 1943 83m bw
Paramount (Mitchell Leisen)
A lady photographer falls for the foreman of a crew digging a tunnel under the Hudson.
Agreeable romantic slapstick farce.
w Claude Binyon d Mitchell Leisen ph Charles Lang Jnr m Victor Young ad Hans Dreier, Robert Usher
☆ Claudette Colbert, Fred MacMurray, Ilka Chase, Richard Haydn, June Havoc, Marjorie Gateson, Bill Goodwin
♪ art direction

No Time for Sergeants
US 1958 111m bw
Warner (Mervyn Le Roy)
Adventures of a hillbilly army conscript.
Heavy-handed adaptation of the stage success, a real piece of filmed theatre with not much sparkle to it.
w John Lee Mahin play Ira Levin novel Mac Hyman d Mervyn Le Roy ph Harold Rosson m Ray Heindorf
☆ Andy Griffith, William Fawcett, Murray Hamilton, Nick Adams, Myron McCormick, Bartlett Robinson

No Time for Tears
GB 1957 86m Eastmancolor Cinemascope
ABPC (W. A. Whittaker)
Problems of a children's hospital.
Totally predictable British tearjerker with a happy ending.
w Anne Burnaby d Cyril Frankel ph Gilbert Taylor m Francis Chagrin
☆ Anna Neagle, Anthony Quayle, Sylvia Syms, Flora Robson, George Baker, Alan White, Daphne Anderson, Michael Hordern, Joan Hickson, Sophie Stewart, Rosalie Crutchley

No Trace
GB 1950 70m bw
Eros/Tempean (Robert S. Baker, Monty Berman)
An English crime novelist is invited by the police to help investigate a murder he has committed.
Ingenious minor thriller, not helped by being directed at a plodding pace.
wd John Gilling story Robert S. Baker, Carl

Nystrom ph Monty Berman m John Lanchberry md Eric Robinson ad Walter Scott ed Gerald Landau
☆ Hugh Sinclair, Dinah Sheridan, John Laurie, Dora Bryan, Barry Morse, Beatrice Varley, Michael Brennan, Michael Ward

No Trees in the Street
GB 1958 96m bw
ABP/Allegro (Frank Godwin)
Problems of a London slum family in the thirties.
Artificial and unconvincing attempt at a London Love on the Dole, dragged up and redigested in a later era when 'realism' was thought to be fashionable.
w Ted Willis play Ted Willis d J. Lee-Thompson ph Gilbert Taylor m Laurie Johnson ☆ Sylvia Syms, Herbert Lom, Joan Miller, Melvyn Hayes, Stanley Holloway, Liam Redmond, Ronald Howard, Carole Lesley, Lana Morris, Lily Kann
'Nothing remains but crude sensationalism and several moments of unconscious humour.' – MFB

No Way Home ★ (2)
US 1996 93m DuArt
Blue Dolphin/Back Alley/Orenda (Lisa Bruce, Robert Nickson)
A gentle, dim-witted man leaves jail after serving a six-year sentence for murder to live with his drug-dealing brother and new sister-in-law, who is a stripper.
Effective, low-key, foul-mouthed drama of sibling differences for the most part, until it resolves its narrative problems with a melodramatic climax.
wd Buddy Giovinazzo ph Claudia Raschke m Rick Giovinazzo pd Phyllis Cedar ed Stan Warnow ☆ Tim Roth, James Russo, Deborah Kara Unger, Joseph Ragno, Catherine Kellner, Saul Stein, Bernadette Penotti
'This feels like a down-market Martin Scorsese movie – which makes it engaging enough.' – Amanda Lipman, Sight and Sound

No Way Out ★
US 1950 106m bw
TCF (Darryl F. Zanuck)
A crook stirs up racial feeling against a black doctor in whose hands his brother has died.
Vivid, hard-hitting melodrama with a hospital background and a strong sociological flavour.
w Joseph L. Mankiewicz, Lesser Samuels d Joseph L. Mankiewicz ph Milton Krasner m Alfred Newman
☆ Richard Widmark, Sidney Poitier, Linda Darnell, Stephen McNally, Harry Bellaver, Stanley Ridges, Ossie Davis, Ruby Dee
'A production designed solely for purposes of agitation and propaganda, unworthy of literary or cinematic consideration.' – Henry Hart, Films in Review
script

No Way Out ★
US 1987 116m Metrocolor
Orion/Neufeld/Ziskin/Garland (Laura Ziskin, Robert Garland)
A Pentagon officer is convinced his boss is guilty of murder, but the evidence points to himself.
Fast-paced remake of The Big Clock (qv) which does not efface the memory of the original.
w Robert Garland novel Kenneth Fearing d Roger Donaldson ph John Alcott m Maurice Jarre pd Dennis Washington
☆ Kevin Costner, Gene Hackman, Sean Young, Will Patton, Howard Duff, George Dzundza

No Way to Treat a Lady ★
US 1968 108m Technicolor
Paramount/Sol C. Siegel
A mass murderer of women who is also a master of disguise has a running battle with a police detective.
Curious mixture of star show-off piece, murder mystery, black farce, suspense melodrama and Jewish comedy. Bits of it come off very well, but it's a bumpy ride.
w John Gay novel William Goldman d Jack Smight ph Jack Priestley m Stanley Myers ☆ Rod Steiger, George Segal, Lee Remick, Eileen Heckart, Murray Hamilton, Michael Dunn

'The sweetest love story ever told! The epic drama of the age! Drama with a world sweep, colossal and sublime!'

Noah's Ark ★★
US 1929 135m bw
Warner
The biblical story of Noah is paralleled, rather loosely, with a tragedy of World War I.
Naïve but fascinating Hollywood epic which in patches triumphantly overcomes the problems of the part-talkie period and is always fascinating to look at.
w Anthony Coldeway, Darryl F. Zanuck d Michael Curtiz ph Hal Mohr, Barney McGill pd Anton Grot
☆ Dolores Costello, Noah Beery, Louise Fazenda, Guinn Williams, Paul McAllister, Myrna Loy, George O'Brien
'The biggest and best edited picture of the industry ... mobs, Niagaras, train wrecks, war aplenty, crashes, deluges and everything that goes to give the picture fan a thrill.' – Variety
'Staggering ... the greatest thing the screen has done.' – The Film Spectator
† On première it was Warner's longest film, but the release version was cut by nearly half.

Nob Hill ★
US 1945 95m Technicolor
TCF (André Daven)
In the gay 1890s, a San Francisco saloon owner tries to step into society and win one of its most eligible young ladies.
Engaging period musical drama with all talents working well.
w Wanda Tuchock, Norman Reilly Raine d Henry Hathaway ph Edward Cronjager m David Buttolph md Emil Newman, Charles Henderson
☆ George Raft, Joan Bennett, Peggy Ann Garner, Vivian Blaine, Alan Reed, B. S. Pully, Edgar Barrier

Nobi: see Fires on the Plain

Nobody Lives Forever
US 1946 100m bw
Warner (Robert Buckner)
A con man fleeces a rich widow, then falls in love with her.
Forgettable romantic melodrama.
w W. R. Burnett d Jean Negulesco ph Arthur Edeson m Adolph Deutsch ☆ John Garfield, Geraldine Fitzgerald, Walter Brennan, Faye Emerson, George Coulouris, George Tobias

Nobody Runs Forever ★
GB 1968 101m Eastmancolor
Rank/Selmur (Betty E. Box)
US title: The High Commissioner
An Australian detective is sent to arrest the high commissioner in London on a charge of murdering his first wife.
Sub-Hitchcock thriller which comes to life in patches but has a plot and dialogue which obviously embarrass the actors.
w Wilfred Greatorex novel The High Commissioner by Jon Cleary d Ralph Thomas ph Ernest Steward m Georges Delerue
☆ Rod Taylor, Christopher Plummer, Lilli Palmer, Camilla Sparv, Daliah Lavi, Clive Revill, Lee Montague, Calvin Lockhart, Derren Nesbitt, Leo McKern, Franchot Tone

Nobody's Baby
US 1937 67m bw
MGM (Hal Roach)
Girls at a training school for nurses find themselves looking after a baby.
Lightweight comedy filler.
w Harold Law, Hal Yates, Pat C. Flick d Gus Meins
☆ Lyda Roberti, Patsy Kelly, Lynne Overman, Robert Armstrong, Rosina Lawrence, Don Alvarado, Tom Dugan
'Agreeable enough number two feature for duals.' – Variety

Nobody's Fool
US 1986 107m CFI color
Enterprise/Island (James C. Katz, Jon S. Denny)
A small-town girl with a mild past falls for a lighting technician with a visiting theatrical troupe.
Much ado about nothing; good observant touches don't stifle the yawns.
w Beth Henley d Evelyn Purcell ph Mikhail Suslov m James Newton Howard pd Jackson DeGovia ed Dennis Virkler
☆ Rosanna Arquette, Eric Roberts, Mare Winningham, Jim Youngs, Louise Fletcher, Gwen Welles

'In A Town Where Nothing Ever Happens ... Everything Is About To Happen To Sully.'

Nobody's Fool ★
US 1994 110m colour
TCF/Paramount/Capella/Scott Rudin/Cinehaus (Scott Rudin, Arlene Donovan)
In a small town, a 60-year-old handyman, for whom life has rarely gone right, has one more chance to make good.
A story of understated charm that also observes sharp-edged and unsuccessful relationships with a beady eye.
wd Robert Benton novel Richard Russo ph John Bailey m Howard Shore pd David Gropman ed John Bloom
☆ Paul Newman, Jessica Tandy, Bruce Willis, Melanie Griffith, Dylan Walsh, Pruitt Taylor Vince, Gene Saks, Philip Bosco
'Shrewd, agreeable, ultimately dishonest.' – Richard Schickel, Time
'A nice film, funny and doleful at the same time, which says more than most about those small things which, taken together, make up most of our everyday lives.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian
Paul Newman; Robert Benton (Screenplay)

Nobody's Perfect
US 1968 103m Techniscope
Universal (Howard Christie)
An ex-naval officer returns to Japan to make amends for stealing a buddha.
Flatfooted comedy adventure.
w John D. F. Black novel The Crows of Edwina Hill by Allan R. Bosworth d Alan Rafkin ph Robert H. Wyckoff m Irving Gertz
☆ Doug McClure, Nancy Kwan, Steve Carlson, James Whitmore, David Hartman, Gary Vinson, James Shigeta

Noce Blanche
France 1989 92m colour
Gala/Les films du Losange/La Sept/La Sorcière Rouge/Sofia/Investimage 2 (Margaret Menégoz)
A middle-aged teacher has a stormy affair with his seventeen-year-old pupil.
Cliché-ridden account of mid-life fantasies and adolescent problems, from drugs to prostitution, that offers little in the way of enlightenment.
wd Jean-Claude Brisseau ph Romain Winding ad Maria-Luisa Garcia ed Maria-Luisa Garcia
☆ Vanessa Paradis, Bruno Cremer, Ludmila Mikael, François Negret, Jean Daste, Véronique Silver, Philippe Tuin

La Noche del Terror Ciego: see Tombs of the Blind Dead

Nochnoi Dozor: see Nightwatch (2004)

Nocturne ★
US 1946 87m bw
RKO (Joan Harrison)
A police detective investigates the death of a composer.
Amusingly self-mocking crime thriller, quite smoothly done in all departments.
w Jonathan Latimer d Edwin L. Marin ph Harry J. Wild m Leigh Harline
☆ George Raft, Lynn Bari, Virginia Huston, Joseph Pevney, Myrna Dell, Edward Ashley, Walter Sande, Mabel Paige
'As for the plot, I confess I could not follow it, nor did I care.' – Paul Holt, Daily Express

'Miracles are closer than you think.'

Noel
US 2004 96m colour
Convex/Neverland/ (Zvi Howard Rosenmen, Al Corley, Bart Rosenblatt, Eugene Musso)
On Christmas Eve in a hospital, the lives collide of a dying priest, an editor caring for her oblivious mother, a waiter overcome by guilt, a disturbed man, and a madly jealous cop and his girlfriend.
Predictably sentimental drama about unhappy people finding spiritual uplift at Christmas; the narrative is too contrived to carry conviction and the cast and director settle for easy tears.
w David Hubbard d Chazz Palminteri ph Russell Carpenter pd Carol Spier ed Susan Morse
☆ Susan Sarandon (Rose), Penélope Cruz (Nina), Paul Walker (Mike), Alan Arkin (Artie), Marcus Thomas (Jules), Robin Williams (Charlie Boyd (uncredited)), Daniel Sunjata
'Though clearly meant as a heartwarmer in the long-standing holiday tradition, the film comes off as strange and sour.' – David Kehr, New York Times
'A bad TV movie with bigscreen aspirations.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

Noi Albinoi

Iceland/Germany/GB/Denmark 2002 93m colour
Artificial Eye/Zik Zak/Essential/the Bureau/M&M (Philippe Bober, Kim Magnusson, Skuli Fr. Malmquist, Thorir Snaer Sigurjonsson)

In a small, remote Icelandic town, under the shadow of a mountain, a rebellious albino youth makes plans to escape to somewhere less boring.
Engaging and quirky drama of dissatisfaction, set in an icy landscape as frozen and immutable as the townspeople themselves.
wd Dagur Kari ph Rasmus Videbaek m slowblow pd Jon Steinar Ragnarsson ed Daniel Dencik ☆ Tomas Lemarquis (Noi), Throstur Leo Gunnarsson (Kiddi), Elin Hansdottir (Iris), Anna Fridriksdottir (Lina), Hjalti Rognvaldsson (Oskar)
'A droll and sweet-natured comedy.' – Guardian

Noi Tre

Italy 1984 96m colour
Instituto Luce/Duea Film/RAI (Paolo Bacchi, Francesco Guerrieri)

aka: The Three of Us
On a summer visit to the estate of an Italian count, the young Mozart falls in love.
Pleasant but inconsequential pastoral idyll which treats the composer as an exceptionally innocent adolescent.
w Pupi Avati, Antonio Avati, Cesare Bornazzini d Pupi Avati ph Pasquale Rachini m Riz Ortolani pd Giancarlo Basili, Leonardo Scarpa ed Amedeo Salfa
☆ Lino Capolicchio, Gianni Cavina, Carlo Delle Piane, Ida Di Benedetto, Giulio Pizzirani

La Noia: see The Empty Canvas

Noir et Blanc

France 1986 80m bw
Electric/Les Films Du Volcan

A timid accountant forms a sado-masochistic relationship with a black masseur.
Claustrophobic study of sexual obsession which eschews sensationalism.
wd Claire Devers story Desire and the Black Masseur by Tennessee Williams ph Daniel Desbois, Christopher Doyle, Alain Lasfargues, Jean-Paul de Costa pd Claire Devers ed Fabienne Alvarez, Yves Sarda
☆ Francis Frappat, Jacques Martial, Joséphine Fresson, Marc Berman, Claire Rigollier

Noises Off

US 1992 104m Technicolor
Warner/Touchstone/Touchstone Pacific Partners 1/Amblin (Frank Marshall)

The American cast of a British sex comedy suffers a series of disasters, on-stage and off, during a pre-Broadway tour.
Brave though misguided attempt to transfer to the screen an intensely theatrical work, depending on live performance for its effect. It begins well but soon ceases to amuse.
w Marty Kaplan play Michael Frayn d Peter Bogdanovich ph Tim Suhrstedt m Phil Marshall pd Norman Newberry ed Lisa Day
☆ Carol Burnett, Michael Caine, Denholm Elliott, Julie Hagerty, Marilu Henner, Mark Linn-Baker, Christopher Reeve, John Ritter, Nicollette Sheridan
'Serves up plenty of laughs, and in many ways it stands as a model transfer of a play to the screen.' – Variety
'If I say that I laughed till I cried, I have a dreadful fear the words will be ripped out and stuck on the poster. But I did.' – Nigel Andrews, Financial Times
'On screen, Noises Off fails in the only way that films can fail – bit by bit. But utterly.' – Adam Mars-Jones, Independent

Nomads

US 1985 100m Eastmancolor
PSO/Elliott Kastner/Cinema 7 (George Pappas, Cassian Elwes)

An anthropologist settling in Los Angeles is haunted by vengeful spirits of remote tribes he had investigated.
Stylish nonsense, but nonsense none the less: it would have seemed more striking if it hadn't been five-hundredth in line.
wd John McTiernan ph Stephen Ramsey m Bill Conti pd Marcia Hinds ☆ Pierce Brosnan, Lesley-Anne Down, Anna Maria Monticelli, Adam Ant, Hector Mercado

Non Stop New York

GB 1937 71m bw
GFD/Gaumont (Michael Balcon)

In 1940, gangsters on a transatlantic airliner try to kill a key witness.
Slightly futuristic thriller of its time, now hilariously dated but quite entertaining as well as giving a rare picture of air travel in the thirties.
w Curt Siodmak, Roland Pertwee, J. O. C. Orton, Derek Twist novel Sky Steward by Ken Attiwill d Robert Stevenson ph Max Greene md Louis Levy
☆ John Loder, Anna Lee, Francis L. Sullivan, Frank Cellier, Desmond Tester, Athene Seyler, Jerry Verno

Non Ti Muovere: see Don't Move

None but the Brave: see For the Love of Mike (1960)

None but the Brave

US 1965 105m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Eiga/Toho/Artanis (Frank Sinatra)

During World War II a plane carrying US Marines to the Pacific front crashlands on an island held by Japanese.
Anti-war melodrama in which the action scenes are more memorable than the admirable sentiments.
w John Twist, Katsuya Susaki story Kikumaru Okuda d Frank Sinatra ph Harold Lipstein m Johnny Williams ☆ Frank Sinatra, Clint Walker, Tommy Sands, Tony Bill, Brad Dexter

'When is the world coming out of its midnight? When is the human race going to get off its knees?'

None but the Lonely Heart ★

US 1944 113m bw
RKO (David Hempstead)

In the thirties, a Cockney drifter finds himself when he learns that his mother is dying.
Wildly astonishing moodpiece to come from Hollywood during World War II; its picture of East End low life is as rocky as its star performance, but it started Miss Barrymore on the west coast career which sustained her old age.
wd Clifford Odets novel Richard Llewellyn ph George Barnes m Hanns Eisler md Constantin Bakaleinikoff ed Roland Gross
☆ Cary Grant, Ethel Barrymore, June Duprez, Barry Fitzgerald, Jane Wyatt, George Coulouris, Dan Duryea, Konstantin Shayne, Morton Lowry, Helene Thimig
'A perplexing mixture of good and bad, authentic and phony.' – Hermione Rich Isaacs, Theatre Arts
♟ Ethel Barrymore
♙ Hanns Eisler; Cary Grant; Roland Gross

None Shall Escape ★

US 1944 85m bw
Columbia (Sam Bischoff)

The career of a Nazi officer shown as flashbacks from his trial as a war criminal.
Taut topical melodrama reflecting the mood of the time.
w Lester Cole d André de Toth ph Lee Garmes m Ernst Toch
☆ Alexander Knox, Marsha Hunt, Henry Travers, Dorothy Morris, Richard Crane
♙ original story (Alfred Neumann, Joseph Thau)

De Noorderlingen: see The Northerners

Noose

GB 1948 98m bw
ABPC/Edward Dryhurst

A Soho black market gang is exposed.
Vivid though rather tatty film version of a West End play success.
w Richard Llewellyn play Richard Llewellyn d Edmond T. Gréville ph Hone Glendinning m Charles Williams
☆ Nigel Patrick, Carole Landis, Derek Farr, Joseph Calleia, Stanley Holloway, Hay Petrie, John Slater

Noose: see Snitch (1998)

The Noose Hangs High

US 1948 77m bw
Eagle-Lion

Two window washers are hired by a crooked bookie who finds their incompetence hard to tolerate when they lose his winnings.
Thin star comedy filled with the team's cornier routines, not too cleverly revived.
w John Grant and Howard Harris d Charles Barton
☆ Bud Abbott, Lou Costello, Leon Errol, Joseph Calleia, Murray Leonard, Cathy Downs, Mike Mazurki, Fritz Feld
† A previous film of the same story was made in 1939 under the title For Love or Money, with June Lang, Robert Kent and Ed Brophy.

Nor Chor: The Prisoners: see Bangkok Hell

Nor the Moon By Night

GB 1958 92m Eastmancolor
Rank (John Stafford)
US title: Elephant Gun

An African game warden marries a longtime penfriend who finds that Africa presents unexpected problems.
Paperback romance with pleasant backgrounds.
w Guy Elmes novel Joy Packer d Ken Annakin ph Harry Waxman m James Bernard ☆ Belinda Lee, Michael Craig, Patrick McGoohan, Anna Gaylor, Eric Pohlmann
'Neither character nor incident nor theme has any coherence or interest.' – MFB

Nora

GB/Ireland/Germany 2000 107m DeLuxe
Alliance/Natural Nylon/IAC/Volta/Road Movies//Gam/Metropolitan/IFB (Bradley Adams, Damon Bryant, Tracey Seaward)

In the early 1900s Nora Barnacle moves from Galway to Dublin and begins a stormy relationship with the writer James Joyce.
This portrait of the artist's wife and muse as a young, free-spirited woman is oddly uncompelling, reducing her to little more than an orgasmic 'yes', despite Lynch's efforts to give some body to an underwritten role; but it is handsomely photographed.
w Pat Murphy, Gerard Stembridge book Brenda Maddox d Pat Murphy ph Jean François Robin m Stanislas Syrewicz pd Alan Macdonald ed Pia Di Ciaula cos Consolata Boyle
☆ Ewan McGregor (James Joyce), Susan Lynch (Nora Barnacle), Peter McDonald (Stànislaus Joyce), Roberto Citran (Roberto Prezioso), Veronica Duffy (Annie Barnacle), Aedin Moloney (Eva Joyce), Pauline McLynn (Miss Kennedy), Andrew Scott (Michael Bodkin), Alan Devine (Gogarty), Vinnie McCabe (Uncle Tommy), Paul Hickey (Curran), Kate O'Toole (Miss Delahunty), Darragh Kelly (Cosgrave)
'It's as hard to watch as it is to read Joyce's Ulysses – but less rewarding.' – Demetrious Matheou, Total Film

'A mouth like hers is just for kissing ... not for telling!'

Nora Prentiss ★

US 1946 117m bw
Warner (William Jacobs)

A doctor falls for a café singer who ruins his life.
Standard star melodrama aimed at women, and appreciated by them.
w N. Richard Nash story Paul Webster, Jack Sobell d Vincent Sherman ph James Wong Howe m Franz Waxman
☆ Ann Sheridan, Kent Smith, Bruce Bennett, Robert Alda, Rosemary de Camp, John Ridgely, Wanda Hendrix

'Have you ever made a really big mistake?'

Norbit

US 2007 101m
Paramount/DreamWorks SKG/Davis Entertainment (John Davis, Eddie Murphy, Mike Tollin)

A hen-pecked husband tries to jettison his grotesquely obese wife.
Crude farce with caricatures from Murphy that trade on racist and sexist stereotypes; a low career point even by this star's erratic standards.
w Eddie Murphy, Charles Murphy, Jay Scherick, David Ronn d Brian Robbins ph Clark Mathis m David Newman pd Clay A. Griffith ad Jay Pelissier ed Ned Bastille
☆ Eddie Murphy (Norbit/Rasputia/Mr Wong), Thandie Newton (Kate Thomas), Eddie Griffin (Pope Sweet Jesus), Teddy Crews (Big Jack Latimore), Cuba Gooding Jr. (Deion Hughes), Clifton Powell (Earl Latimore)
'Sensationally abysmal.' – Luke Sader, Hollywood Reporter
† The film's release coincided with Murphy's Oscar nomination for Dreamgirls.

Norma Rae ★

US 1979 114m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF (Tamara Asseyev, Alex Rose)

A Southern girl becomes an angry union organizer.
Well-intentioned and well-acted pamphlet of political enlightenment with an inevitably ambivalent attitude.
w Irving Ravetch, Harriet Frank Jnr d Martin Ritt ph John A. Alonzo m David Shire pd Walter Scott Herndon

☆ Sally Field, Beau Bridges, Ron Leibman, Pat Hingle, Barbara Baxley
Sally Field; song 'It Goes Like It Goes' (m David Shire, ly Norman Gimbel) best picture; best script

Normal Life

US 1996 103m colour
First Independent/Spelling/Fine Line (Richard Maynard)

A Chicago cop marries an alcoholic, drug-addicted blonde, loses his job and turns bank robber.
Bleak, documentary-style narrative of a downward spiral into despair and death, based on a true story.
w Peg Haller, Bob Schneider d John McNaughton ph Jean DeSegonzac m Robert McNaughton pd Rick Paul ed Elena Maganini
☆ Luke Perry, Ashley Judd, Bruce Young, Jim True, Edmund Wyson, Michael Skewes, Dawn Maxey
'Hasn't quite been able to translate its diverse raw elements into fully formed drama.' – Variety

Norman, Is That You?

US 1976 92m Metrocolor
MGM (George Schlatter)

Adulterous parents find that their son is a homosexual.
Unattractive comedy roughly filmed and given a black ambience. Not worth buying a ticket.
w Ron Clark, Sam Bobrick play Ron Clark, Sam Bobrick d George Schlatter ph Gayne Rescher m William Goldstein ☆ Redd Foxx, Pearl Bailey, Dennis Dugan, Michael Warren, Tamara Dobson

The Norseman

US 1978 90m Movielab Panavision
AIP/Charles B. Pierce/Fawcett Majors

A Viking heads across the sea to America in search of his long lost father.
Low grade hokum for the easily pleased.
wd Charles B. Pierce ph Robert Bethard m Jaime Mendoza-Nava
☆ Lee Majors, Cornel Wilde, Mel Ferrer, Jack Elam, Chris Connelly

El Norte ★★

GB/US 1983 139m
Independent Productions/American Playhouse Theatre/Channel 4 (Anna Thomas)

Fleeing from a murderous army in Guatemala, a brother and sister travel north to try to make a new life in the United States.
Conceived on a grand scale and often moving, it is nevertheless too long to bear its fragile narrative.
w Gregory Nava, Anna Thomas d Gregory Nava ph James Glennon ed Betsy Blankett ☆ Zaide Silvia Gutierrez, David Villalpando, Ernesto Gomez Cruz, Alicia del Lago, Eraclio Zepeda
screenplay

'North's hopping mad with his parents and now he's off on a world wide adventure!'

North

US 1994 88m Technicolor
Rank/Columbia/Castle Rock (Rob Reiner, Alan Zweibel)

An 11-year-old boy, who decides to divorce his parents, sets out to find the ideal mother and father.
A disaster, unless you can derive pleasure from Bruce Willis dressed as a fluffy, bright pink bunny rabbit; it is neither amusing nor adventurous and fails to be interesting or enlightening as it drags its child hero from one grotesque encounter to another.
w Alan Zweibel, Andrew Scheinman novel Alan Zweibel d Rob Reiner ph Adam Greenberg m Marc Shaiman pd J. Michael Riva ed Robert Leighton
☆ Elijah Wood, Bruce Willis, Jon Lovitz, Matthew McCurley, Alan Arkin, Abe Vigoda, Richard Belzer, Kathy Bates, Jason Alexander, Dan Aykroyd, Kelly McGillis, Alexander Godunov
'The director, Rob Reiner, slips on a banana peel and crushes an entire cast in this fantasy.' – Michael Sragow, New Yorker
'Embarrassingly bad.' – Guardian

The North Avenue Irregulars

US 1978 99m Technicolor
Disney

GB title: Hill's Angels
A Presbyterian minister becomes an undercover agent for the FBI, helping to expose a crooked gambling syndicate.
Very heavy comedy which seems to find itself much funnier than the audience does.
w Don Tait novel the Rev. Albert Fay Hill d Bruce Bilson ph Leonard South m Robert F. Brunner
☆ Edward Herrmann, Barbara Harris, Susan Clark, Karen Valentine, Michael Constantine, Cloris Leachman, Patsy Kelly, Douglas Fowley, Alan Hale Jnr

North by Northwest ★★★★

US 1959 136m Technicolor Vistavision
MGM (Alfred Hitchcock)

A businessman is mistaken for a spy, and enemy agents then try to kill him because he knows too much.
Delightful chase comedy-thriller with a touch of sex, a kind of compendium of its director's best work, with memories of The 39 Steps, Saboteur and Foreign Correspondent among others.
w Ernest Lehman d Alfred Hitchcock ph Robert Burks m Bernard Herrmann ad William A. Horning, Robert Boyle, Merrill Pye ed George Tomasini ☆ Cary Grant (Roger O. Thornhill), Eva Marie Saint (Eve Kendall), James Mason (Phillip Vandamm), Leo G. Carroll (Professor), Martin Landau (Leonard), Jessie Royce Landis (Clara Thornhill), Adam Williams (Valerian)
'It is only when you adopt the basic premise that Cary Grant could not possibly come to harm that the tongue in Hitchcock's cheek becomes plainly visible.' – Hollis Alpert, Saturday Review
'North by Northwest is never brutal. Mr Grant calls it a comedy; I would agree that it is consistently entertaining, its excitement pointed by but never interrupted by the jokes.' – Dilys Powell
'You get a lot of entertainment for your money. You get a couple of clever, sophisticated screen actors and an elegant actress with a fine-drawn, exciting face. You get one scene that will be talked about as long as people talk about films at all.' – C. A. Lejeune
† The Region 1 and 2 DVD releases include commentary by Ernest Lehman.
Ernest Lehman; art direction; editing

'All She Wanted Was To Make A Living. Instead She Made History.'

North Country ★★ ⑤

Germany/US 2005 126m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Participant (Nick Weschler)

A woman working in a Minnesota mine becomes the first woman to sue the company for sexual harassment.
After her performance in Monster, Charlize Theron revels in another unglamorous role, inspired by a true story, but one that here resembles other Hollywood movies in its manipulative ways, rather than actual life in all its messiness.
w Michael Seitzman book Class Action: The Landmark Case That Changed Sexual Harassment Law by Clara Bingham, Laura Leedy Gansler d Niki Caro ph Chris Menges m Gustavo Santaolalla pd Richard Hoover ed David Coulson ☆ Charlize Theron (Josey Aimes), Frances McDormand (Glory), Sean Bean (Kyle), Richard Jenkins (Hank), Jeremy Renner (Bobby Sharp), Michelle Monaghan (Sherry), Woody Harrelson (Bill White), Sissy Spacek (Alice)
'The taint of the melodramatic techniques used in key segments infects the entire movie and makes us question the truth of a significant historical reality.' – Kenneth Turan, Los Angeles Times
Charlize Theron; Frances McDormand

North Dallas Forty

US 1979 118m Metrocolor
Paramount (Frank Yablans)

The gruelling life of a professional football player, laced with drugs, sex and alcohol.
Well made but generally unattractive, the kind of movie for which one wouldn't expect to find an audience.
w Frank Yablans, Ted Kotcheff, Peter Gent novel Peter Gent d Ted Kotcheff ph Paul Lohmann m John Scott pd Alfred Sweeney
☆ Nick Nolte, Mac Davis, Charles Durning, Dayle Haddon, Bo Svenson

North Sea Hijack

GB 1979 100m Technicolor
Universal/Cinema Seven (Mo Rothman)

US title: ffoulkes
A British oil rig in the North Sea is held for ransom.
Asinine Boys' Own Paper adventure story with the very minimum of thrills and a totally miscast hero.
w Jack Davis novel Esther, Ruth and Jennifer by Jack Davis d Andrew V. McLaglen ph Tony Imi m Michael J. Lewis pd Maurice Carter
☆ Roger Moore, Anthony Perkins, James Mason, Michael Parks, David Hedison, Jack Watson, George Baker, Faith Brook

North Star ★

US 1943 105m bw Technovision
Samuel Goldwyn (William Cameron Menzies)

aka: Armored Attack
A Russian village defends itself against the Nazi onslaught.
Highly artificial propaganda piece later disowned by its makers and retitled. Good acting can't make its mark when the Russian steppes become a never-never land.
w Lillian Hellman d Lewis Milestone ph James Wong Howe m Aaron Copland ad Perry Ferguson
☆ Anne Baxter, Farley Granger, Jane Withers, Dana Andrews, Walter Brennan, Erich von Stroheim, Dean Jagger, Ann Harding, Carl Benton Reid, Walter Huston
'Putting American villagers into Russian costumes and calling them by Russian names is never going to deceive this old bird.' – James Agate
'Its failure is the case history of every Hollywood film that steps out of its scope.' – Richard Winnington
'Something to be seen more in sorrow than in anger and more in the attitude of the diagnostician in any emotion at all.' – James Agee
Lillian Hellman; James Wong Howe; Aaron Copland; Perry Ferguson

North Star

GB/France/Norway/Italy 1996 88m colour
Warner/Regency/AFCL/M6/Federal (Anne François)

In Alaska in the 1890s, a halfbreed trapper earns the enmity of a crooked businessman when he refuses to mine for gold on land that he considers sacred.
Broadly acted chase drama that lacks any impetus or dramatic interest.
w Sergio Donati, Lorenzo Donati, Paul Ohl novel Will Henry story Gilles Behat, Philippe Schwartz, Marc Pecas d Nils Gaup ph Bruno de Keyzer m Bruce Rowland pd Ben Morahan ed Kant Pan, Michael A. Hoey ☆ James Caan, Christopher Lambert, Catherine McCormack, Burt Young 'Drearily uninspired.' – Variety

North to Alaska ★

US 1960 122m DeLuxe Cinemascope
TCF (Henry Hathaway)

In 1900, two successful gold prospectors have woman trouble.
Good-natured brawling adventure story which could do with cutting but is certainly the type of action movie they don't make 'em like any more.
w John Lee Mahin, Martin Rackin, Claude Binyon play Birthday Gift by Ladislas Fodor d Henry Hathaway ph Leon Shamroy m Lionel Newman
☆ John Wayne, Stewart Granger, Fabian, Capucine, Ernie Kovacs, Mickey Shaughnessy, Karl Swenson, Joe Sawyer, John Qualen

Northern Pursuit ★

US 1943 94m bw
Warner (Jack Chertok)

A Mountie tracks a stranded Nazi pilot through the Canadian wastes.
Rather unusual star actioner, not badly done.
w Frank Gruber, Alvah Bessie d Raoul Walsh ph Sid Hickox m Adolph Deutsch ☆ Errol Flynn, Helmut Dantine, Julie Bishop, John Ridgely, Gene Lockhart, Tom Tully, Bernard Nedell

The Northerners ★

Holland 1993 105m colour
Mayfair/First Floor (Laurens Geels, Dick Maas)

original title: De Noorderlingen
In the only occupied street on a half-built housing estate at the edge of nowhere, everyone is acting rather strangely.
A cool and bizarre comedy of frustrated lives and eccentric behaviour.
w Alex Van Warmerdam, Aat Ceelen d Alex Van Warmerdam ph Marc Felperlaan m Vincent Van Warmerdam pd Rikke Jelier ed René Wiegmans

☆ Leonard Lucieer, Jack Wouterse, Rudolf Lucieer, Alex Van Warmerdam, Annet Malherbe, Loes Wouterson, Veerle Dobbelaere

'Witty and original comedy ... Showcases a vision and style reminiscent of both Jacques Tati and Aki Kaurismäki.' – Variety

'Mean-spirited in its emphasis on the characters' physical indignity, this is a cold, unwelcoming movie whose studied weirdness soon becomes wearisome in the extreme.' – Kim Newman

Northfork ★★

US 2003 103m Technicolor Panavision
Metrodome/Paramount Classics/Romano/Shane (Mark Polish, Michael Polish)

Some residents of a small Montana town refuse to be evacuated before it is flooded as part of a dam-building project.

Visually arresting, odd little drama that is as much concerned with the angel-filled dream-life of a dying boy as with the fate of the few who are resistant to change.

w Mark Polish, Michael Polish d Michael Polish ph M. David Mullen m Stewart Matthewman pd Ichelle Spitzig, Del Polish ed Leo Trombetta

☆ James Woods (Walter O'Brien), Nick Nolte (Father Harlan), Claire Forlani (Mrs Hadfield), Duel Farnes (Irwin), Mark Polish (Willis O'Brien), Daryl Hannah (Flower Hercules), Peter Coyote (Eddie), Anthony Edwards (Happy), Kyle MacLachlan (Mr Hope)

'Visionary and elegiac, more a fable than a story, and frame by frame, it looks like a portfolio of spaces so wide, so open, that men must wonder if they have a role beneath such indifferent skies.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times

Northwest Frontier ★★

GB 1959 129m Eastmancolor Cinemascope
Rank (Marcel Hellman)

US title: Flame Over India

In 1905 an English officer during a rebellion escorts a young Hindu prince on a dangerous train journey.

Thoroughly enjoyable Boys' Own Paper adventure story with excellent set-pieces and a spot-the-villain mystery.

w Robin Estridge d J. Lee-Thompson ph Geoffrey Unsworth m Mischa Spoliansky ad Alex Vetchinsky ed Frederick Wilson

☆ Kenneth More (Captain Scott), Lauren Bacall (Catherine Wyatt), Herbert Lom (Van Layden), Ursula Jeans (Lady Windham), Wilfrid Hyde-White (Bridie), I. S. Johar (Gupta), Eugene Deckers (Peters), Ian Hunter (Sir John Wyndham)

'Northwest Frontier seems to have borrowed its eccentric engine from The General, its hazardous expedition from Stagecoach and its background of tribal violence from The Drum.' – Penelope Houston

'Ten stars! Two love stories! One thousand thrills!'

Northwest Mounted Police ★

US 1940 125m Technicolor
Paramount (Cecil B. de Mille)

A Texas Ranger seeks a fugitive in Canada.

Typical big-scale action concoction by de Mille, but in this case none of it's very memorable and the detail is poor.

w Alan Le May, Jesse Lasky Jnr, C. Gardner Sullivan d Cecil B. de Mille ph Victor Milner, Howard Greene m Victor Young ad Hans Dreier, Roland Anderson ed Anne Bauchens

☆ Gary Cooper, Paulette Goddard, Madeleine Carroll, Preston Foster, Robert Preston, George Bancroft, Lynne Overman, Akim Tamiroff, Walter Hampden, Lon Chaney Jnr, Montagu Love, George E. Stone

'Two hours of colour, killing, kindness and magnificent country.' – Otis Ferguson

'A movie in the grand style. God's own biggest trees and mountains for prop and backdrop; staunch courage and lofty aims among the good people; cunning and treachery lurking within the sinister forces; the ominous note of doom finally stifled by the fortitude of noble men.' – Time

♟ Anne Bauchens

♗ Victor Milner, Howard Greene; Victor Young; art direction

Northwest Outpost

US 1947 91m bw
Republic (Allan Dwan)

GB title: End of the Rainbow

Adventures of California cavalrymen.

Milk-and-water adventures in a forgettable operetta.

w Elizabeth Meehan, Richard Sale d Allan Dwan ph Reggie Lanning m Rudolf Friml

☆ Nelson Eddy, Ilona Massey, Hugo Haas, Elsa Lanchester

'Half men, half demons, warriors such as the world has never known ... they lived with death and danger for the women who hungered for their love!'

Northwest Passage (Part One, Rogers' Rangers) ★★

US 1940 126m Technicolor
MGM (Hunt Stromberg)

Colonial rangers fight it out with hostile Indians.

Part Two was never made, but no one seemed to mind that the characters in Part One never got round to seeking the titular sea route. The adventures depicted had the feel of historical actuality, and the star was well cast.

w Laurence Stallings, Talbot Jennings novel Kenneth Roberts d King Vidor ph Sidney Wagner, William V. Skall m Herbert Stothart

☆ Spencer Tracy, Robert Young, Ruth Hussey, Walter Brennan, Nat Pendleton, Robert Barrat, Lumsden Hare, Donald MacBride

♗ Sidney Wagner, William V. Skall

Northwest Stampede

US 1948 79m Cinecolor
Eagle-Lion (Albert S. Rogell)

The female foreman of a horse ranch hires a new hand, not knowing that he is the son of its recently dead owner, come to claim his inheritance.

An easy-going outdoor drama, although it is a slightly uncomfortable mix of documentary-style footage of rodeo events and capturing and breaking wild horses, and a broadly comic battle of the sexes.

w Art Arthur, Lillie Hayward Saturday Evening Post article Wild Horse Roundup by Jean Muir d Albert S. Rogell ph John W. Boyle m Paul Sawtell md Irving Friedman ad Edward L. Ilou ed Philip Cahn

☆ Joan Leslie, James Craig, Jack Oakie, Chill Wills, Victor Kilian, Stanley Andrews, Ray Bennett, Lane Chandler

Norwood

US 1969 95m Technicolor
Paramount/Hal B. Wallis

A Vietnam veteran returns to his Texas home but feels restless and decides to become a radio singer.

A rather ordinary film about an innocent abroad, neither very funny nor very moving.

w Marguerite Roberts d Jack Haley Jnr ph Robert B. Hauser m Al de Lory

☆ Glen Campbell, Kim Darby, Joe Namath, Carol Lynley, Pat Hingle, Tisha Sterling, Dom DeLuise, Jack Haley, Cass Daley, Gil Lamb

Nosferatu ★★★

Germany 1921 72m approx (24 fps) bw Prana

Count Dracula goes to Bremen and is destroyed by sunlight.

An unofficial treatment of the Bram Stoker novel, with a terrifying count and several splendid moments. It took its director to Hollywood.

w Henrik Galeen d F. W. Murnau ph Fritz Arno Wagner ad Albin Grau

☆ Max Schreck (Count Orlok, Nosferatu the Vampire), Gustav von Wangenheim (Thomas Hutter), Greta Schröder (Ellen), Alexander Granach (Knock)

'The film is in awe of its material. It seems to really believe in vampires.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times

'A concentrated essay in horror fantasy, full of weird, macabre camera effects.' – Pauliner Kael

Nosferatu a Venezia: see Vampires in Venice

Nosferatu, Phantom der Nacht: see Nosferatu the Vampyre

Nosferatu the Vampyre ★

West Germany/France 1979 107m Eastmancolor
Gaumont/Werner Herzog Filmproduktion

original title: Nosferatu, Phantom der Nacht

Excruciatingly slow retread of the German silent film.

Despite the star's splendidly loathsome appearance, the overall is no improvement, and the colour in the English prints is quite dreadful.

wd Werner Herzog ph Jörg Schmidt-Reitwein m Popol Vuh

☆ Klaus Kinski, Isabelle Adjani, Bruno Ganz, Walter Ladengast

'Like a dream from which you keep waking with indigestion.' – Guardian

Nostalgia ★

Italy 1983 126m Eastmancolor
Artificial Eye/Opera Film/Sovin Film/RAI (Francesco Casati)

A Russian writer in Italy meets a social outcast who is expecting the end of the world.

Indescribably doomladen, occasionally beautiful, stylistically interesting and for the most part very boring parable of a kind unique to this director.

w Andrei Tarkovsky, Tonino Guerra d Andrei Tarkovsky ph Giuseppe Lanci ad Andrea Crisanti ed Erminia Marani, Amedeo Salfa

☆ Oleg Jankovsky, Erland Josephson, Domiziana Giordano

'Tarkovsky... may well be a film poet but he's a film poet with a tiny vocabulary. The same, eventually- boring images keep recurring in film after film – shots of damp landscapes, marshes, hills in fog, and abandoned buildings with roofs that leak.' – Vincent Canby, New York Times

'There's Still Time To Understand His Words...'

Nostradamus

GB/Germany 1994 118m DeLuxe
First Independent/Allied/Vereinigte (Edward Simons, Harald Reichebner)

In the early 16th century, a French scientist is persecuted for his visions of future catastrophic events.

Rambling bio-pic, with its visionary hero watching modern newsreels in a bowl of water, which fails to tell its audience anything it didn't know about the present and reveals the past as a time of hysterical sexually influenced power struggles; not even Hauer, as 'The Mystic Monk' in an illuminated hat, can save it.

w Knut Boeser, Brian Clark story Piers Ashworth, Roger Christian d Roger Christian ph Denis Crossan m Barrington Pheloung pd Peter J. Hampton ed Alan Strachan

☆ Tcheky Karyo, Amanda Plummer, Julia Ormond, Assumpta Serna, Rutger Hauer, F. Murray Abraham, Anthony Higgins, Diana Quick, Michael Gough, Maja Morgenstern

'Crushingly dull.' – Sheila Johnston, Independent

'The Teen Mother Of All Movies!'

Not Another Teen Movie

US 2001 89m DeLuxe
Columbia/Original (Neal H. Moritz)

A high school football star accepts a bet that he can turn any girl into the prom queen.

A movie with more writers than jokes, and those few involve flatulence and other bodily functions, so that it is indistinguishable from any other teen movie.

w Michael G. Bender, Adam Jay Epstein, Andrew Jacobson, Phil Beauman, Buddy Johnson d Joel Gallen ph Reynaldo Villalobos m Theodore Shapiro pd Joseph T. Garrity ed Stephen Welch

☆ Chyler Leigh (Janey Briggs), Chris Evans (Jake Wyler), Jaime Pressly (Priscilla), Eric Christian Olsen (Austin), Mia Kirshner (Catherine), Deon Richmond (Malik)

'Give it a wide berth.' – Observer

Not as a Stranger ★★

US 1955 135m bw
UA/Stanley Kramer

A medical student has professional and personal struggles.

Earnest filming of a bestseller, with all the actors too old for their parts.

w Edna and Edward Anhalt novel Morton Thompson d Stanley Kramer ph Franz Planer m George Antheil pd Rudolph Sternad

☆ Robert Mitchum, Olivia de Havilland, Broderick Crawford, Frank Sinatra, Gloria Grahame, Charles Bickford, Myron McCormick, Lon Chaney Jnr, Jesse White, Henry Morgan, Lee Marvin, Virginia Christine

Not Here to be Loved ★★ (8)

France 2005 93m
Artificial Eye/TS Productions (Milena Poylo / Gilles Sacuto)

French theatrical: Je ne suis pas là pour etre aimé

Jean-Claude, a 50-year-old bailiff, has given up on life's pleasures. Suddenly he decides to join a tango club across from his office. There he meets Françoise – and a whole new world opens up via music and dance.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · ♟ Academy Award · ♗ Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

An affecting and touching portrait of late blooming love in the most unlikely places, rendered totally believable by the excellent playing of hang-dog Patrick Chesnais and the delightful Anne Consigny.
w Stephane Brizé / Juliette Sales
wd Stephane Brizé ph Claude Garnier
m Christoph H Muller, Eduardo Makaroff
pd Valerie Saradjian ed Anne Klotz
☆ Patrick Chesnais (Jean-Claude Delsart), Anne Consigny (Françoise), Lionel Abelanski (Thierry), Georges Wilson (Jean-Claude's father)

Not Now, Comrade

GB 1977 90m Technicolor
EMI/Not Now (Martin C. Chute)
A defecting Russian ballet dancer, and his girlfriend, a stripper, are offered refuge by the daughter of a top-ranking Ministry of Defence official, without the knowledge of her father.
Depressing, frenetic farce that worked on the stage but looks lost, cramped and merely silly on the screen.
w Ray Cooney play Chase Me, Comrade by Ray Cooney d Harold Snoad, Ray Cooney ph Jack Hildyard m Harry Robinson ad Edward Marshall ed Peter Thornton
☆ Leslie Phillips, Roy Kinnear, Windsor Davies, Don Estelle, Michele Dotrîce, Ray Cooney, June Whitfield, Carol Hawkins, Lewis Fiander, Ian Lavender
'Settles into the familiar round of harmless double entendres buried in the ramifications of a mistaken-identity plot played by the familiar troupers of British farce ... mirthless.' – John Pym, MFB

Not Now, Darling

GB 1972 97m Eastmancolor
LMG/Sedgemoor/Not Now Films
A furrier gets into a complicated situation when he arranges for his mistress to have a cheap mink coat.
Interminable film version (in Multivista, a shoot-and-edit equivalent to TV taping which gives a dingy look and can only work in a single set) of a West End farce which wasn't marvellous to begin with.
w John Chapman play Ray Cooney d Ray Cooney, David Croft ph Alan Hume m Cyril Ornadel
☆ Leslie Phillips, Ray Cooney, Moira Lister, Julie Ege, Joan Sims, Derren Nesbitt, Barbara Windsor, Jack Hulbert, Cicely Courtneidge, Bill Fraser

Not of This Earth ★★

US 1957 72m bw
AA (Roger Corman)
An alien comes to Earth in human form in search of blood which may save his planet.
Modestly budgeted minor sci-fi; ruthless, original and competent.
w Charles Griffith, Mark Hanna d Roger Corman ph John Mescall m Ronald Stein
☆ Paul Birch, Beverly Garland, Morgan Jones

'In her village, she was the teacher... In the city, she discovered how much she had to learn.'

Not One Less ★

China 1999 106m colour
Columbia/Guangxi/Bejing New Picture (Zhao Yu) original title: Yi Ge Dou Bu Neng Shao
Promised a bonus if numbers at the village school do not fall any lower, a 13 year-old temporary teacher goes to the city in search of a missing pupil.
Zhang Yimou coaxes good performances from a cast of non-professionals in a small-scale movie that begins as a vivid portrait of modern China before succumbing to sentimentality, complete with a plug for Coca-Cola, and a contrived, feel-good ending.
w Shi Xiangsheng d Zhang Yimou
ph Hou Yong m San Bao pd Cao Jiuping ed Zhai Ru cos Dong Huamiao ☆ Wei Minzhi (Wei Minzhi), Zhang Huike (Zhang Huike), Tian Zhenda (Village chief), Gao Enman (Teacher Gao), Sun Zhimei (Sun Zhimei), Feng Yuying (TV receptionist), Li Fanfan (TV host)
'The story is simple, moving and universal.' – Variety
† The film won the Golden Lion at the 1999 Venice Film Festival.

Not Quite Jerusalem

GB 1985 114m colour
Rank/Acorn/Lewis Gilbert
An Israeli girl and an American volunteer fall in love on the kibbutz.
A curious misfire. Interest in the subject is cancelled out by unattractive, slangy or caricatured people and by a muddled approach suggesting that a fairer title might have been Carry on Terrorist.
w Paul Kember play Paul Kember
d Lewis Gilbert ph Tony Imi m Rondo Veneziano ☆ Joanna Pacula, Sam Robards, Kevin McNally, Todd Graff, Selina Cadell

Not So Dumb

US 1929 80m bw
MGM
A naïve girl throws a big party in the hope of advancing her boyfriend's career.
Popular comedy of its time.
w Wanda Tuchock, Edwin Justus Mayer play Dulcy by George S. Kaufman, Marc Connolly d King Vidor
☆ Marion Davies, Elliott Nugent, Raymond Hackett, Franklin Pangborn, Julia Faye † Previously made as Dulcy by Warner in 1923, directed by Sidney Franklin, with Constance Talmadge.

Not Wanted on Voyage

GB 1957 82m bw
Renown
A necklace is stolen on an ocean liner.
Feeble fun from an old play.
w Michael and Roland Pertwee and others play Evadne Price, Ken Attiwill d Maclean Rogers ph Arthur Grant m Tony Lowry ☆ Ronald Shiner, Brian Rix, Griffith Jones, Katie Boyle, Fabia Drake, Michael Brennan

Not with My Wife, You Don't!

US 1966 119m Technicolor
Warner/Fernwood/Reynard (Norman Panama, Joel Freeman)
A Korean war veteran is furious when an old rival turns up in London and again makes eyes at his wife.
Extraordinarily flat star comedy of cross and double cross among friends.
w Norman Panama, Larry Gelbart, Peter Barnes d Norman Panama ph Charles Lang, Paul Beeson m Johnny Williams pd Edward Carrere ed Aaron Stell
☆ Tony Curtis (Tom Ferris), George C. Scott ('Tank' Martin), Virna Lisi (Julie Ferris), Carroll O'Connor (General Parker), Richard Eastham (General Walters), Eddie Ryder (Sgt Gilroy), George Tyne (Sgt Dogerty)
'About as frothy as a tin of dehydrated milk.' – MFB
'It has all the verve, subtlety and sophistication of its title.' – Judith Crist

Not without My Daughter

US 1991 114m colour
UIP/MGM/Pathé (Harry J. and Mary Jane Ufland)
Accompanying her Iranian husband to his homeland for a holiday, an American-born wife discovers that she and her young daughter will not be permitted by him to return to America.
A plodding account of a true story, told with little imagination or flair.
w David W. Rintels book Betty Mahmoody, William Hoffer d Brian Gilbert ph Peter Hannan m Jerry Goldsmith pd Anthony Pratt ed Terry Rawlings
☆ Sally Field, Alfred Molina, Sheila Rosenthal, Roshan Seth, Sarah Badel, Soudabeh Farrokhnia
'It is certainly as propaganda that the film is most successful, for its artlessness in all other respects will be noticeable even to those who may be convulsed by the central dilemma.' – Variety
'Fits with eerie precision into the cycle of paranoid and xenophobic Hollywood films familiar from the Cold War era.' – Verina Glaessner, Sight and Sound

'Behind every great love is a great story.'

The Notebook ★ (5)

US 2004 123m DeLuxe 'Scope
Gran Via (Mark Johnson, Lynn Harris)
In a retirement home, an elderly man reads to a senile woman the diary of their youthful love affair.
Tear-jerking romantic drama, as seen through rose-coloured filters.
w Jeremy Leven novel Nicholas Sparks adaptation Jan Sardi d Nick Cassavetes ph Robert Fraisse m Aaron Zigman pd Sarah Knowles ed Alan Heim
☆ Ryan Gosling (Noah), Rachel McAdams (Allie), James Garner (Duke), Gena Rowlands (Allie Calhoun), James Marsden (Lon Hammond), Kevin Connolly (Fin), Sam Shepard (Frank Calhoun), Joan Allen (Anne Hamilton)
'Determined and often affecting romance that doesn't speak down to audiences.' – Robert Koehler, Variety
'Dentistry in the Renaissance could not have been more painful than watching this.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

Notebook on Cities and Clothes ★

Germany 1989 80m colour
Road Movies
A documentary on the Japanese fashion designer Yohji Yamamoto and his relationship to, and with, Tokyo and Paris.
A quirky examination of the images we create of ourselves and the people we really are, or may be, in a world of quick change. Yamamoto is thoughtful but not particularly articulate about his work, other than when expressing his enjoyment of irresponsibility, which contrasts with Wenders's fussily pedantic style. The quality of the images is variable, owing to much of the material being shot with a video camera.
wd Wim Wenders ph Robby Müller, Muriel Edelstein, Uli Kidicke, Wim Wenders, Masatoshi Nakajima, Masashi Chikamori m Laurent Petitgand ed Dominique Auvray

'One woman's mistake is another's opportunity.'

Notes on a Scandal ★★ (8)

UK/US 2006 91m
TCF/Fox Searchlight/DNA/Scott Rudin/Robert Fox (Scott Rudin, Robert Fox)
Barbara, a lonely middle-aged London teacher, befriends Sheba, a new younger colleague who embarks on a secret affair with one of her pupils, aged 15.
Entertaining adaptation of an ingenious story in which an older woman's friendship is gradually revealed as menacing manipulation. This could have made a wan, wistful or judgemental piece, bur director Eyre chooses an amusing, melodramatic approach; the dominant tone is barely suppressed hysteria, complemented perfectly by Philip Glass's insistent, fever-dreamlike score. It isn't perfect: the novel's 'unreliable narrator' device fails to translate, partly because the disparity between Barbara's musings and what is seen on screen is all too apparent. But it's an exhilarating ride, and Dench gives one of the finest performances of her long career.
w Patrick Marber novel Zoe Heller
d Richard Eyre ph Chris Menges
m Philip Glass pd Tim Hatley ad Mark Raggett ed John Bloom, Antonia Van Drimmelen ☆ Judi Dench (Barbara Covett), Cate Blanchett (Sheba Hart), Bill Nighy (Richard Hart), Andrew Simpson (Steven Connelly), Phil Davis (Brian Bangs), Julia McKenzie (Marjorie)
'A sensationally stylish and tense drama. Great performances all round make this a movie to remember.' – Mark Adams, Sunday Mirror
'There are brilliantly handled scenes of anger, embarrassment and humiliation, and brutal physical and emotional confrontations of great power.' – Philip French, Observer
Music; lead sctress (Judi Dench); supporting actress (Cate Blanchett); adapted screenplay.

Nothing but a Man ★

US 1964 95m bw
Roemer-Young/DuArt (Robert Young, Michael Roemer, Robert Rubin)
In a small Southern town, a black railroad worker, who decides to marry and settle down, runs into trouble with the locals when he asserts his independence.
One of the first movies to treat the subject of racial discrimination without condescension, it is effective and engaging for the most part with its documentary-style approach, even though Abbey Lincoln's wife is too good to be true.
w Michael Roemer, Robert Young
d Michael Roemer ph Robert Young ed Luke Bennett
☆ Ivan Dixon, Abbey Lincoln, Julius Harris, Gloria Foster, Martin Priest, Leonard Parker, Yaphet Kotto, Stanley Greene
'A fine film – a first one that sets a towering standard for its makers.' – Judith Crist

Nothing but the Best ★★★

GB 1964 99m Eastmancolor
Anglo Amalgamated/Domino (David Deutsch)
An ambitious clerk learns to fight his way to the top by cheek and one-upmanship.
Hard, skilful, rather unattractive comedy with interesting social comments on its time.
w Frederic Raphael d Clive Donner ph Nicolas Roeg m Ron Grainer ad Reece Pemberton ed Fergus McDonell

☆ Alan Bates (Jimmy Brewster), Denholm Elliott (Charlie Prince), Harry Andrews (Mr. Horton), Millicent Martin (Ann Horton), Pauline Delany (Mrs. March)

'It is a film with a smooth, smiling elegant fun, witty but never concentrating on wit to the detriment of tension; it makes a logical step-by-step progression towards a climax which is hilarious in a Stygian way without resort to the usual bangabout.' – Dilys Powell

'The nightmare has already killed five people
Now it's yours to live!'

Nothing but the Night ★

GB 1972 90m Eastmancolor
Rank/Charlemagne (Anthony Nelson Keys)

The trustees of an orphanage die off mysteriously, and it seems that the orphans themselves are responsible.
Convoluted murder mystery with horror elements and a twist hardly worth waiting for; earnest performances help.
w Brian Hayles novel John Blackburn
d Peter Sasdy ph Ken Talbot m Malcolm Williamson ☆ Christopher Lee, Peter Cushing, Diana Dors, Georgia Brown, Keith Barron, John Robinson

Nothing but the Truth

US 1941 90m bw
Paramount (Arthur Hornlow Jnr)

A stockbroker takes a bet that he can tell the absolute truth for twenty-four hours.
Rather unsurprising version of a stage comedy previously filmed as a silent. It lacks the style one might expect from the team which made The Cat and the Canary.
w Don Hartman, Ken Englund play James Montgomery novel Frederic S. Isham
d Elliott Nugent ph Charles Lang
☆ Bob Hope, Paulette Goddard, Edward Arnold, Leif Erickson, Glenn Anders, Helen Vinson, Grant Mitchell, Willie Best

Nothing but Trouble

US 1944 70m bw
MGM (B. F. Ziedman)

A chef and butler accidentally prevent a poison plot against a young king.
Feebly-devised star comedy, their last for a big studio.
w Russel Rouse, Ray Golden d Sam Taylor ph Charles Salerno Jnr m Nathaniel Shilkret ad Cedric Gibbons, Henry McAfee ed Conrad Nervig
☆ Stan Laurel, Oliver Hardy, Mary Boland, Henry O'Neill, David Leland

Nothing but Trouble

US 1991 94m Technicolor
Warner/Applied Action (Robert K. Weiss)

A New York couple find themselves stranded in a village where a centenarian judge has absolute rule.
Exceedingly dismal comedy, in which a group of self-indulgent comedians, having been given a great deal of rope, proceed to hang themselves; it is not a pretty sight.
wd Dan Aykroyd story Peter Aykroyd
ph Dean Cundey m Michael Kamen
pd William Sandell ed Malcolm Campbell, James Symons
☆ Chevy Chase, Dan Aykroyd, John Candy, Demi Moore, Valri Bromfield, Taylor Negron, Bertila Damas, Raymond J. Barry, Brian Doyle-Murray, Peter Aykroyd

'Astonishingly poor effort ... one of the longest 94 minutes on record.' – Variety

'Combines absolute failure as a comedy with a surprisingly interesting and disgusting vision of grotesque America.' – Kim Newman, Sight and Sound

Nothing in Common

US 1986 118m Metrocolor Super 35
Tri-Star/Rastar (Alexandra Rose)

Problems of an eccentric family when mum decides to walk out after 36 years.
Edgy comedy which misfires in all directions.
w Rick Podell, Michael Preminger d Garry Marshall ph John A. Alonzo m Patrick Leonard ☆ Jackie Gleason, Eva Marie Saint, Tom Hanks, Hector Elizondo, Barry Corbin, Bess Armstrong

Nothing Lasts Forever ★

US 1984 82m bw/Metrocolor
MGM/Broadway (Lorne Michaels)

The adventures of an innocent returning from abroad and seeking artistic fulfilment in a New York he hardly recognizes.
Engagingly bizarre comedy, part parody of 30s biopics, which eventually goes out of control as it takes our hero on a shopping trip to the Moon.
wd Tom Schiller ph Fred Schuler
m Howard Shore pd Woods Mackintosh
ed Kathleen Dougherty, Margot Francis ☆ Zach Galligan, Apollonia Van Ravenstein, Lauren Tom, Dan Aykroyd, Imogene Coca, Anita Ellis, Eddie Fisher, Sam Jaffe, Bill Murray, Paul Rogers, Mort Sahl

Nothing Personal

US 1980 97m Movielab
AIP (David M. Perlmutter)

A professor and a lady lawyer try to stop seal hunting.
The subject is an unsuitable starting point for a thin and zany comedy which gets nowhere and stays there.
w Robert Kaufman d George Bloomfield ph Arthur Ibbetson, Laszlo George m Peter Mann
☆ Donald Sutherland, Suzanne Somers, Lawrence Dane, Roscoe Lee Browne

Nothing Personal

GB/Ireland 1995 85m Metrocolor
Film Four/Irish Film Board/British Screen/Little Bird (Jonathan Cavendish, Tracey Seaward)

In Belfast in the mid-70s, armed conflict between republican and loyalist paramilitary groups claims innocent lives.
A well-made drama of the Irish troubles, showing faults on both sides, but one that is likely to leave a viewer little wiser, other than with the conclusion that violence causes more problems than it solves.
w Daniel Mornin novel All Our Fault by Daniel Mornin d Thaddeus O'Sullivan ph Dick Pope m Philip Appleby pd Mark Geraghty ed Michael Parker ☆ Ian Hart, John Lynch, James Frain, Michael Gambon, Gary Lydon, Ruaidhri Conroy, Maria Doyle Kennedy, Jeni Courtney, Gerard McSorley

'A film to laud for the courage and sincerity of its aspirations rather than its modest, perhaps muffled achievement.' – Trevor Johnston, Sight and Sound

'Boy Makes Girl Make Fool Of New York.'

Nothing Sacred ★★★

US 1937 77m Technicolor
David O. Selznick

A girl thought to be dying of a rare disease is built up by the press into a national heroine; but the diagnosis was wrong.
Hollywood's most bitter and hilarious satire, with crazy comedy elements and superb wisecracks; a historical monument of screen comedy, though its freshness at the time can't now be recaptured.
w Ben Hecht story Letter to the Editor by James H. Street d William Wellman ph W. Howard Greene m Oscar Levant ad Lyle Wheeler ed James E. Newcom
☆ Carole Lombard (Hazel Flagg), Fredric March (Wally Cook), Walter Connolly (Oliver Stone), Charles Winninger (Dr. Enoch Downer), Sig Rumann (Dr. Emile Egglehoffer), Frank Fay (MC), Maxie Rosenbloom (Max Levinsky), Margaret Hamilton (Drug Store Lady), Hedda Hopper (Dowager), Monty Woolley (Dr. Vunch), Hattie McDaniel (Mrs. Walker), Olin Howland (Baggage Man), John Qualen (Swedish Fireman)
DOCTOR (CHARLES WINNINGER): 'I'll tell you briefly what I think of newspapermen. The hand of God, reaching down into the mire, couldn't elevate one of them to the depths of degradation.'
EDITOR (WALTER CONNOLLY): 'I am sitting here, Mr Cook, toying with the idea of cutting out your heart and stuffing it – like an olive!'

'Hit comedy ... will be one of the big grossers of the year.' – Variety
'Because it does hold up a mirror, even though a distorting mirror, to a very real world of ballyhoo and cheap sensationalism, the pleasure to be obtained from it is something more than the usual mulish guffaw.' – Spectator

† Refashioned in 1953 as a stage musical, Hazel Flagg, with Jule Styne; this in turn became a Martin and Lewis comedy Living It Up (Jerry Lewis in the Carole Lombard part).

'Slick advertising guy who's lost it. Small-time thief who can't find it. When life sucks this bad, you may as well blow it all...'

Nothing to Lose (2)

US 1997 98m Technicolor Panavision
Buena Vista/Touchstone (Martin Bregman, Dan Jinks, Michael Bregman)

Believing that his wife is having an affair with his boss, an advertising executive goes on the rampage with the aid of a petty thief.
Tired and dim-witted action comedy in desperate search of an audience.
wd Steve Oedekerk ph Donald E. Thorin
m Robert Folk pd Maria Caso
ed Malcolm Campbell
☆ Tim Robbins, Martin Lawrence, John C. McGinley, Giancarlo Esposito, Michael McKean, Susan Barnes

'Sharper and funnier than you'd expect from a racist, formulaic comedy starring a high-minded director and an angry sitcom star.' – Entertainment Weekly

'Fateful Fascination! Electric Tension!'
'The screen's top romantic stars in a melodramatic masterpiece!'

Notorious ★★★

US 1946 101m bw
RKO (Alfred Hitchcock)

In Rio, a notorious lady marries a Nazi renegade to help the US government but finds herself falling in love with her contact.
Superb romantic suspenser containing some of Hitchcock's best work.
w Ben Hecht d Alfred Hitchcock ph Ted Tetzlaff m Roy Webb ad Albert D. D'Agostino, Carroll Clark ed Theron Warth
☆ Cary Grant (Devlin), Ingrid Bergman (Alicia Huberman), Claude Rains (Alexander Sebastian), Louis Calhern (Paul Prescott), Leopoldine Konstantin (Mme. Sebastian), Reinhold Schünzel (Dr. Anderson)

'Velvet smooth in dramatic action, sharp and sure in its characters, and heavily charged with the intensity of warm emotional appeal.' – Bosley Crowther
'The suspense is terrific.' – New Yorker, 1976
'A film in the supercharged American idiom which made Casablanca popular.' – Hermione Rich Isaacs, Theatre Arts

† A Region 1 DVD release has commentary by Hitchcock scholar Marian Keane and Rudy Behlmer.
Ben Hecht; Claude Rains

'Show Some Restraint.'

Notorious Bettie Page ★ (6)

US 2005 91m
Icon/HBO/Killer Films/John Wells (Pamela Koffler, Katie Roumel, Christine Vachon)

The story of an American pin-up model in the 1950s, best known for bondage poses. Later in life she becomes a born-again Christian.
Director Harron adeptly pastiches the styles of the period: home movies, film noir, garish Technicolor for beach scenes. But to what end? We're invited to accept that Page was somehow significant, rather than a bit-part player in history. Mol, unclothed for much of the time, certainly has the ability (and the physique) for this leading role, but as Page is scripted, her dimness overshadows her purity. The film, like its heroine, is a good-looking nothing.
w Mary Harron, Guinevere Turner biography The Real Bettie Page by Richard Foster d Mary Harron ph Mott Hupfel
m Mark Suozzo pd Gideon Ponte
ad Thomas Ambrose ed Tricia Cooke
☆ Gretchen Mol (Bettie Page), Chris Bauer (Irving Klaw), Lili Taylor (Paula Klaw), Jared Harris (John Willie), David Strathairn (Senator Estes Kefauver)

'A handsome, often funny piece of work with a nearly fatal inability to settle on a tone.' – Ty Burr, Boston Globe

A Notorious Gentleman

US 1935 73m bw
Universal

A man plans murder and incriminates the victim's fiancée.
Basically intriguing crime yarn spoiled by over-enthusiastic direction.
w Leopold Atlas, Robert Trasker d Edward Laemmle
☆ Charles Bickford, Helen Vinson, Sidney Blackmer, Onslow Stevens, Dudley Digges

'Too heavily handled for first consideration.' – Variety

Notorious Gentleman: see The Rake's Progress (1945)

The Notorious Landlady

US 1962 127m bw
Columbia/Kohlmar/Quine (Fred Kohlmar)

An American diplomat in London takes rooms with a murder suspect; after many mysterious happenings he helps to clear her.
Flatly whimsical goings on in comical old London, complete with fog and eccentrics. The actors all try hard but are deflated by the script.
w Larry Gelbart, Richard Quine d Richard

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Quine ph Arthur E. Arling m George Duning
☆ Kim Novak, Jack Lemmon, Fred Astaire, Lionel Jeffries, Estelle Winwood, Maxwell Reed
'A picture that is entertaining and exciting, often simultaneously, and that ends with a wildly funny chase.' – Edith Oliver, New Yorker

The Notorious Sophie Lang
US 1934 60m bw
Paramount
A lady jewel thief matches wits with a rival from abroad.
Frothy crime comedy which isn't quite smart enough to avoid boredom.
w Anthony Veiller d Ralph Murphy
☆ Gertrude Michael, Paul Cavanagh, Arthur Byron, Alison Skipworth, Leon Errol
'No marquee strength, but nice pace and some genuine amusement.' – Variety
† There was a sequel in 1937, Sophie Goes West, also starring Gertrude Michael, directed by Charles Reisner.

Notre Histoire: see Our Story

La Notte ★
Italy/France 1960 121m bw
Nepi/Sofitedip/Silver
A moderately successful novelist and his wife begin to question their marriage and their life.
Slow but engaging character drama set during one night in Milan.
w Michelangelo Antonioni, Ennio Flaiano, Antonio Guerra d Michelangelo Antonioni ph Gianni di Venanzo m Giorgio Gaslini
☆ Marcello Mastroianni, Jeanne Moreau, Monica Vitti, Bernhard Wicki
'A film of supreme, of ferocious elegance: a film belonging in its rejection of the traditional forms of narrative to the new worlds of fiction.' – Dilys Powell

La Notte di San Lorenzo: see The Night of San Lorenzo

Le Notti di Cabiria: see Cabiria

Notting Hill ★★
US/GB 1999 123m DeLuxe Super 35
Polygram/Working Title (Duncan Kenworthy)
In a fashionable part of London, a diffident English bookseller becomes romantically involved with a famous American film star.
Slight but clever and often funny romantic comedy, making witty use of national stereotypes.
w Richard Curtis d Roger Michell ph Michael Coulter m Trevor Jones pd Stuart Craig ed Nick Moore
☆ Julia Roberts, Hugh Grant, Hugh Bonneville, Emma Chambers, James Dreyfus, Rhys Ifans, Tim McInnerny, Gina McKee, Richard McCabe, Alec Baldwin
'Solid, crowd-pleasing entertainment.' – Empire
audience award

Nous Sommes Tous les Assassins ★
France 1952 108m bw
UGC
aka: Are We All Murderers?
An illiterate youth is taught to kill during the war; afterwards he kills again for money and is sent for execution.
A solemn sermon on capital punishment, and a powerful though rather glib one.
w André Cayatte, Charles Spaak d André Cayatte ph Jean Bourgoin ☆ Marcel Mouloudji, Raymond Pellégrin, Antoine Balpêtre, Claude Laydu

Les Nouveaux Messieurs ★
France 1928 135m approx (24 fps) bw silent
Albatros/Séquance
A glamorous dancer forsakes a count for a rising trade union official.
Lengthy political satire which caused a few headlines when first released.
w Charles Spaak, Jacques Feyder play Robert de Flers, Francis de Grosset d Jacques Feyder ph Georges Périnal, Maurice Defassiaux ad Lazare Meerson
☆ Albert Préjean, Gaby Morlay, Henri Roussel

La Nouvelle Eve: see The New Eve

Novecento: see 1900

A Novel Affair: see The Passionate Stranger

'The truth lies outside the frame.'
November
US 2002 76m colour
IFC/IDE (Danielle Renfrew, Gary Winick, Jake Abraham)
A photographer obsessively examines the moment her boyfriend was shot dead during a robbery.
A movie that moves through several stages of a person experiencing a death, from denial to acceptance, in a deliberately puzzling, and unsatisfying, manner.
w Benjamin Brand d Greg Harrison ph Nancy Schreiber m Lew Baldwin pd Tracey Gallacher ed Greg Harrison ☆ Courteney Cox (Sophie), James Le Gros (Hugh), Michael Ealy (Jesse), Nora Dunn (Dr Fayn), Nick Offerman (Officer Roberts), Anne Archer (Sophie's Mother)
'A puzzle without a satisfying solution. Even at its supposedly heartfelt conclusion, it's more ironic than emotional, more of an art thing than a suspense movie.' – Michael Sragow, Baltimore Sun

Novembermond
West Germany 1984 106m colour
ICA/Ottokar Runze Film/Sun 7
A Jewish refugee fleeing from Nazi Germany has a lesbian love affair in Germany.
Slight, anecdotal film with little insight into the period.
wd Alexandra von Grote ph Bernard Zitzermann ad Helger Gross, Jean-Pierre Balzerolla ed Susan Lahaye ☆ Gabrile Osburg, Christine Millet, Danièle Delorme, Bruno Pradal, Stéphane Garcin, Louise Martini

'Till Death They Do Part!'
La Novia Ensangrentada
Spain 1972 102m colour
Eagle/Morgana
aka: The Blood Spattered Bride
A newly married man discovers that his bride is haunted by a woman who killed her husband on their wedding night two hundred years before.
Coarse and unattractive vampire movie; the narrative leaves too much unexplained.
wd Vicente Aranda novella Carmila by Sheridan Le Fanu ph Fernando Arribas m Antonio Perez Olea pd Juan Alberto Soler ed Pablo Gonzalez del Amo sp Antonio Molina ☆ Simon Andreu (Husband), Maribel Martín (Susan), Alexandra Bastedo (Mircala/Carmila), Dean Selmier (Doctor), Rosa Ma Rodrígues (Carol), Montserrat Julio (Maid), Angel Lombarte (Servant)
'Unappealing combination of explicit brutality and sadistic sexism.' – Scott Meek, MFB

The Novices (dubbed)
France/Italy 1970 95m Eastmancolor
Scotia-Barber/Les Films La Boétie/Rizzoli (André Génovès) original title: Les Novices
After trying to become a prostitute in Paris, a nun decides that convent life is best.
Occasionally amusing comedy, sabotaged by its unsympathetic and out-of-sync dubbing.
wd Guy Casaril ph Claude Lecomte m François de Roubaix ed Nicole Gauduchon ☆ Brigitte Bardot, Annie Girardot, Lucien Barjon, Angelo Bardi, Jean Carmet, Jess Hahn
† The film was cut to 90m on its British release.

Novo
France/Spain/Switzerland 2002 98m colour
Lumen/Alta/Amka (Hengameh Panahi)
A married man suffering from the loss of his memory falls in love with a temporary secretary at his place of work.
Thin, idealized drama that fades from the memory as you watch it.
w Christophe Honore, Jean-Pierre Limosin d Jean-Pierre Limosin ph Julien Hirsch m Kraked, Zend Avesta pd Jimmy Vansteenkiste ed Cristina Otero Roth ☆ Eduardo Noriega (Graham), Anna Mouglalis (Irène), Nathalie Richard (Sabine), Eric Caravaca (Fred), Paz Vega (Isabelle), Lény Bueno (Antoine)
'This is a cinema of pure mannerism, pure surface. It is varnished up to a plausible gloss: but with no real emotions or ideas.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

'Crime Is Not Only Done By Criminals.'
Novocaine
US 2001 94m DeLuxe
Artisan (Paul Mones, Daniel M. Rosenberg)
A dentist falls for a woman who is only interested in his drugs.
A black farce without laughs; it rapidly spins out of control of its actors and director.
wd David Atkins ph Vilko Filac m Steve Bartek pd Sharon Seymour ed Melody London
☆ Steve Martin (Dr Frank Sangster), Helena Bonham Carter (Susan Ivey), Laura Dern (Jean Noble), Elias Koteas (Harlan Sangster), Scott Caan (Duane), Keith David (Detective Lunt), Lynne Thigpen (Pat)
'O.K., so it's different and peculiar. It's also confused, repulsive and unconvincing. I've had more fun at root canals.' – Rex Reed, New York Observer

Novyi Vavilon: see The New Babylon

Now About These Women ... ★
Sweden 1964 80m Eastmancolor
Svensk Filmindustri
aka: All These Women
A critic comes to stay with a famous cellist whose biography he is writing, but his efforts are hampered by all the women in the house.
Virtually indescribable black farce comedy which doesn't really work, yet, as always with this director, is continually of interest.
w Erland Josephson, Ingmar Bergman d Ingmar Bergman ph Sven Nykvist m Erik Nordgren ☆ Jarl Kulle, Georg Funkquist, Eva Dahlbeck, Karen Kavli, Harriet Andersson, Bibi Andersson, Gertrud Fridh

Now and Forever ★
US 1934 82m bw
Paramount (Louis D. Lighton)
A jewel thief and his mistress are taught a thing or two by his small daughter.
Odd mixture of comedy and drama which was box-office at the time but seems pretty dated after nearly fifty years, though technically very smooth.
w Vincent Lawrence, Sylvia Thalberg d Henry Hathaway ph Harry Fischbeck ☆ Gary Cooper, Carole Lombard, Shirley Temple, Guy Standing, Charlotte Granville, Gilbert Emery, Henry Kolker
'Cinch b.o. entertainment.' – Variety
'Expertly contrived to furnish first-rate entertainment.' – Thornton Delehanty, New York Post

Now and Forever
GB 1955 91m Technicolor
ABPC/Mario Zampi
A lonely schoolgirl plans an elopement and is chased across England by two sets of parents.
Teenage romance with elements of both farce and melodrama. It seemed to please at the time.
w R. F. Delderfield, Michael Pertwee play The Orchard Walls by R. F. Delderfield d Mario Zampi ph Erwin Hillier m Stanley Black ☆ Janette Scott, Vernon Gray, Kay Walsh, Jack Warner, Pamela Brown, Charles Victor, Wilfrid Lawson, Marjorie Rhodes, Sonia Dresdel, Ronald Squire, David Kossoff

'A summer when four friends made a promise to return anytime they needed each other. Twenty years later, that time has come.'
Now and Then
US 1995 96m DeLuxe
First Independent/New Line/Moving Pictures (Suzanne Todd, Demi Moore)
A novelist, an actress and a doctor meet at the home of a pregnant friend and recall their childhood friendship.
Routine coming-of-age drama, given an overtly sentimental and nostalgic treatment.
w I. Marlene King d Lesli Linka Glatter ph Ueli Steiger m Cliff Eidelman pd Gershon Ginsburg ed Jacqueline Cambas
☆ Rosie O'Donnell, Christina Ricci, Melanie Griffith, Thora Birch, Demi Moore, Gaby Hoffmann, Rita Wilson, Ashleigh Aston Moore, Janeane Garofalo, Lolita Davidovich
'Semi-autobiographical screenplay is so predictable, audiences may grow impatient while waiting for the inevitable to occur.' – Variety

Now Barabbas...
GB 1949 87m bw
Warner/Anatole de Grunwald aka: Now Barabbas Was a Robber
Stories of men in prison.
Thinly intercut dramas; from a stage success.
w Anatole de Grunwald play William Douglas Home d Gordon Parry ph Otto Heller
☆ Richard Greene, Cedric Hardwicke, William Hartnell, Kathleen Harrison, Leslie Dwyer, Richard Burton, Kenneth More, Ronald Howard, Stephen Murray, Beatrice Campbell, Betty Ann Davies, Alec Clunes

Now Barabbas Was a Robber: see Now Barabbas...

Now I'll Tell

US 1934 72m bw
Fox (Winfield Sheehan)
GB title: When New York Sleeps

The story of Arnold Rothstein, gambler-racketeer of the twenties, as told by his widow.

Competent crime/domestic programmer.
wd Edwin Burke ph Ernest Palmer m Hugo Friedhofer
☆ Spencer Tracy, Helen Twelvetrees, Hobart Cavanaugh, Alice Faye, G. P. Huntley Jnr, Shirley Temple, Leon Ames

'In spite of the breezy sequences with which it starts, it quickly gets improbable and goes from bad to maudlin.' – Otis Ferguson

'It happens in the best of families.'

Now Voyager ★★★

US 1942 117m bw
Warner (Hal B. Wallis)

A dowdy frustrated spinster takes the psychiatric cure and embarks on a doomed love affair.

A basically soggy script still gets by, and how, through the romantic magic of its stars, who were all at their best; and suffering in mink went over very big in wartime.
w Casey Robinson novel Olive Higgins Prouty d Irving Rapper ph Sol Polito m Max Steiner ad Robert Haas ed Warren Low
☆ Bette Davis (Charlotte Vale), Claude Rains (Dr. Jaquith), Paul Henreid (Jerry D. Durrance), Gladys Cooper (Mrs. Henry Windle Vale), John Loder (Elliott Livingston), Bonita Granville (June Vale), Ilka Chase (Lisa Vale), Lee Patrick ("Deb" McIntyre), Charles Drake (Leslie Trotter), Franklin Pangborn (Mr. Thompson), Janis Wilson (Tina Durrance)

CHARLOTTE (BETTE DAVIS): 'Oh, Jerry, don't let's ask for the moon. We have the stars!'

'If it were better, it might not work at all. This way, it's a crummy classic.' – New Yorker, 1977

♟ Max Steiner
Bette Davis; Gladys Cooper

Now You See Him Now You Don't

US 1972 88m Technicolor
Walt Disney

Two students discover an elixir of invisibility and help prevent a gangster from taking over the college.

Flat Disney frolic with fair trick effects.
w Joseph L. McEveety d Robert Butler ph Frank Phillips m Robert F. Brunner sp Eustace Lycett, Danny Lee ☆ Kurt Russell, Cesar Romero, Joe Flynn, Jim Backus, William Windom, Edward Andrews, Richard Bakalyan

Nowhere ★

US/France 1997 82m colour
Pathé/Kill/Desperate/Blurco/Why Not (Andrea Sperling, Gregg Araki)

A group of friends indulge in a variety of sexual experiences.

Delirious send-up of high-school movies – one character turns into a giant cockroach – with alienated teenagers indulging in polymorphous perversities.
wd Gregg Araki ph Arturo Smith pd Patti Podesta ed Gregg Araki
☆ James Duval (Dark), Rachel True (Mel), Nathan Bexton (Montgomery), Chiara Mastroianni (Kriss), Debi Mazar (Kozy), Kathleen Robertson (Lucifer), Joshua Gibran Mayweather (Zero), Christina Applegate (Dingbat), Jordan Ladd (Alyssa), Ryan Phillippe (Shad), Heather Graham (Lilith)

'Without a doubt his most accessible, sensual and superficially entertaining movie to date.' – Emanuel Levy, Variety
'Its storm of sex and violence celebrates American pop culture with punning, postmodern artifice.' – Liese Spencer, Sight and Sound

'1938. One family's story of a homeland lost and a new one found...'

Nowhere in Africa ★★

Germany 2001 141m colour
Optimum/MTM/Constantin/Bavaria Film/MC-One (Peter Herrmann)

The experiences of a Jewish lawyer, his wife and daughter, who leave Germany for a tougher, poorer life on a farm in Kenya.

Engaging account of an unlooked-for colonial adventure, as seen through the eyes of a young girl, and encompassing marital problems and homesickness along the way.
wd Caroline Link novel Stefanie Zweig ph Gernot Roll m Niki Reiser pd Susann Bieling, Uwe Szielasko ed Patricia Rommel ☆ Juliane Koehler (Jettel Redlich), Merab Ninidze (Walter Redlich), Matthias Habich (Suesskind), Sidede Onyulo (Owuor), Lea Kurka (Regina Redlich (younger)), Karoline Eckertz (Regina Redlich (older)), Gerd Heinz (Max), Hildegard Schmahl (Ina)

'This is an intelligent epic told without special pleading, a film able to cut deep enough to reveal a keen specificity of experience.' – Kenneth Turan, Los Angeles Times
'Has the sturdiness of an old-fashioned Hollywood epic. What isn't Hollywood is Link's refusal to tell the audience how to feel at every moment.' – David Ansen, Newsweek

♟ foreign film

Nowhere to Go

GB 1958 87m bw
Ealing (Eric Williams)

A thief escapes from prison but can get no help from the underworld and is accidentally shot after being sheltered by a socialite.

Glum character melodrama which fails to sustain interest despite the best intentions.
w Seth Holt, Ken Tynan book Donald MacKenzie d Seth Holt ph Paul Beeson m Dizzy Reece
☆ George Nader, Maggie Smith, Bernard Lee, Geoffrey Keen, Andree Melly, Bessie Love, Howard Marion Crawford

Nowhere to Hide: see Injeong Sajeong Bolgeos Eobsda

'When the law can't protect the innocent . . it takes an outlaw to deliver justice.'

Nowhere to Run

US 1992 94m Technicolor
Columbia (Craig Baumgarten, Gary Adelson)

An escaped prisoner helps a widow and her two young sons who are being threatened by an evil property developer.

Tedious action movie with a little added sentimentality, intended, but failing, to give its star a wider appeal.
w Joe Eszterhas, Leslie Bohem, Randy Feldman d Robert Harmon ph David Gribble m Mark Isham pd Dennis Washington ed Zach Staenberg, Mark Helfrich
☆ Jean-Claude Van Damme, Rosanna Arquette, Kieran Culkin, Ted Levine, Tiffany Taubman, Edward Blatchford, Anthony Starke, Joss Ackland

'A relentlessly corny and shamelessly derivative vehicle.' – Variety

Noz w Wodzie: see Knife in the Water

Nuclear Run: see The Chain Reaction

The Nude Bomb

US 1980 94m Technicolor
Universal/Time-Life Films (Jennings Lang)

aka: The Return of Maxwell Smart

An incompetent secret agent chases a missile launching villain.

Curious and unsatisfactory attempt to revive a twenty-year-old TV situation comedy minus half its personnel.
w Arne Sultan, Bill Dana, Leonard B. Stern d Clive Donner ph Harry L. Wolf m Lalo Schifrin pd William Tuntke ed Walter Hannemann
☆ Don Adams, Sylvia Kristel, Dana Elcar, Rhonda Fleming, Andrea Howard, Norman Lloyd

'Fans of the vidshow will derive much more enjoyment by crowding round their television sets with a bowl of popcorn watching Get Smart reruns.' – Variety.

Nueve Reinas ★

Argentina 2001 114m colour
Optimum/Patagonik (Pablo Bossi)

aka: Nine Queens

A conman persuades a younger operator to become his new partner in a scam involving forged copies of rare stamps.

Much lauded in its home country, this moderately clever slow-paced movie of con-men in a collapsing economy does not always play fair with its audience, who may also feel cheated by the end.
wd Fabian Bielinsky ph Marcelo Camorino m Cesar Lerner pd Marcelo Salvioli ed Sergio Zottola
☆ Ricardo Darin (Marcos), Gaston Pauls (Juan), Leticia Bredice (Valeria), Tomas Fonzi (Federico), Ignasi Abadal (Vidal Gandolfo), Alejandro Awada (Washington), Antonio Ugo (D'Agostino), Oscar Nunez (Sandler)

'A clever, entertaining and amusing piece of film-making.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

La Nuit Américaine: see Day for Night

La Nuit de Varennes ★

France/Italy 1982 165m Eastmancolor Technovision
Electric/Contemporary/Gaumont-FR3/Opera Film (Renzo Rossellini)

In the early days of the French Revolution, a mixed coachload of travellers, including Restif de la Bretonne, Tom Paine and Casanova, make their way to Varennes, where King Louis is held captive.

Moderately engaging historical tale that does not take itself, or the times, too seriously.
w Sergio Amidei, Ettore Scola d Ettore Scola ph Armando Nannuzzi m Armando Trovajoli pd Dante Ferretti ed Raimondo Crociani
☆ Jean-Louis Barrault, Marcello Mastroianni, Hanna Schygulla, Harvey Keitel, Jean-Claude Brialy, Daniel Gelin, Andrea Ferreol, Michael Vitold, Laura Betti

Nuit et Brouillard: see Night and Fog

Les Nuits de la Pleine Lune: see Full Moon in Paris

Les Nuits Fauves: see Savage Nights

Number One

US 1969 105m DeLuxe
Walter Seltzer

Age and injury overtake a quarterback, once regarded as the greatest.

Unconvincing sporting drama, which plods around its subject-matter without creating anything of even passing interest.
w David Moessinger d Tom Gries ph Michel Hugo m Dominic Frontiere ad Arthur Loel ed Richard Brockway
☆ Charlton Heston, Jessica Walter, Bruce Dern, John Randolph, Diana Muldaur, Al Hirt, Roy Jenson, Mike Henry, Bobby Troup, Richard Elkins, Ernie Barnes

Number One

GB 1984 106m Technicolor
Videoform (Mark Forstater, Raymond Day)

Adventures of a snooker hall hustler.

Unappetizingly foul-mouthed low-life saga.
w G. F. Newman d Les Blair ph Bahram Manocheri m David Mackay pd Martin Johnson ed Jon Gregory
☆ Bob Geldof, Mel Smith, Alison Steadman, P. H. Moriarty, Phil Daniels, Alfred Molina

Number One Fan

US 1994 93m CFI color
MCEG Sterling

A film star is seduced by an unbalanced female fan, who is determined to have him for herself.

Lurid and increasingly risible thriller, notable only for the number of children of successful stars that it features.
w Anthony Laurence Greene d Jane Simpson ph Sead Mutarevic m Robert J. Walsh pd Gary Randall ed Ivan Ladizinsky
☆ Chad McQueen, Catherine Mary Stewart, Rennee Ammann, Paul Bartel, Charles Matthau, Hoyt Axton, Dean Morris, Mary Woronow, Eric Da Re, Dick Miller

Number One with a Bullet

US 1987 101m colour
Cannon

An LA detective is obsessed with busting a big drug dealer who is also a pillar of the community.

Ho-hum policier with routine violence.
w Gail Morgan Hickman and others d Jack Smight
☆ Robert Carradine, Billy Dee Williams, Valerie Bertinelli, Peter Graves, Doris Roberts

'The truth will find you.'

The Number 23 ①

US 2007 97m
Entertainment/Contrafilm/Firm Films (Beau Flynn, Tripp Vinson)

A married man becomes obsessed with numerology after reading a mystery novel that mirrors his life.

Far-fetched thriller with a plot that unravels faster than its hero; clarity is hardly assisted by a monotonously murky palette.
w Fernley Phillips d Joel Schumacher ph Matthew Libatique m Harry Gregson-Williams pd Andrew Laws ad Jon Billington, David Sandefur ed Mark Stevens
☆ Jim Carrey (Walter Sparrow/Fingerling), Virginia Madsen (Agatha Sparrow/Fabrizia), Logan Lerman (Robin Sparrow), Danny Huston (Isaac French/Dr. Miles Phoenix), Rhona Mitra (Laura Tollins), Mark Pellegrino (Kyle Finch)

'An accidental comedy starring a deadly serious Jim Carrey.' – Manohla Dargis, New York Times

† The film was released in the US and UK on 23 February 2007.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · ♟ Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Number Seventeen ★

GB 1932 63m bw
BIP (John Maxwell)

A girl jewel thief reforms and helps the police track down her former gang.
Minor Hitchcock thriller largely confined to a single interior until the final train chase, which despite obvious models remains exhilarating.
w Alfred Hitchcock, Alma Reville, Rodney Ackland play J. Jefferson Farjeon d Alfred Hitchcock ph Jack Cox
☆ Leon M. Lion, Anne Grey, John Stuart, Donald Calthrop, Barry Jones, Garry Marsh
'Only spasmodically good photography and usual slow tempo British direction. Wonder why they can't speed up a picture? Maybe it's the tea.' – Variety
† The same play had been filmed as a silent in 1928 by Geza Bolvary, with Guy Newall; it was shot in Germany.

The Nun and the Devil

Italy/France 1973 102m Technicolor
PAC/Splendida/Jacques Leitienne (Tonino Cervi)

original title: Monache di Sant'Arcangelo
aka: The Nuns of Saint Archangel
At an Italian convent in the 1570s, one sister uses any means at her disposal to become Mother Superior.
Sex and death among the nuns turns out to be a dull affair.
wd Domenico Paolella story Stendhal ph Giuseppe Ruzzolini m Piero Piccioni ed Nino Baragli
☆ Anne Heywood, Ornella Muti, Duilio del Prete, Martine Brochard, Luc Merenda, Claudia Gravi
'Basically a sexploitation piece of exceeding dignity, it boasts a modestly attractive visual surface, with deft photography and neat compositions, and suffers from a debilitating lack of dramatic impetus.' – Geoff Brown, MFB
† The version released in Britain ran for 93m.

The Nuns of Saint Archangel: see The Nun and the Devil

'The Story of an Immaculate Deception.'

Nuns on the Run

GB 1990 92m Technicolor
Palace/Handmade Films (Michael White)

Two petty criminals disguise themselves as nuns to escape capture.
Broad, slapstick comedy that provides scant amusement, although it went down well in America.
wd Jonathan Lynn ph Michael Garfath m Hidden Faces pd Simon Holland ed David Martin ☆ Eric Idle, Robbie Coltrane, Camille Coduri, Janet Suzman, Doris Hare, Lila Kaye, Robert Patterson, Robert Morgan, Winston Dennis, Tom Hickey

'Filmed in Belgium, Italy, Africa ... and mostly in the conscience of a beautiful young girl!'

The Nun's Story ★★★

US 1959 151m Technicolor
Warner (Henry Blanke)

A Belgian girl joins a strict order, endures hardship in the Congo, and finally returns to ordinary life.
The fascinating early sequences of convent routine are more interesting than the African adventures, but this is a careful, composed and impressive film with little Hollywood exaggeration.
w Robert Anderson book Kathryn C. Hulme d Fred Zinnemann ph Franz Planer m Franz Waxman ad Alexander Trauner ed Walter Thompson
☆ Audrey Hepburn (Sister Luke/Gabrielle Van Der Mal), Peter Finch (Dr. Fortunati), Edith Evans (Mother Emmanuel Superior General), Peggy Ashcroft (Mother Mathilde), Dean Jagger (Dr. Van Der Mal), Mildred Dunnock (Sister Margharita), Patricia Collinge (Sister William), Beatrice Straight (Mother Christophe)
'A major directorial achievement ... the best study of the religious life ever made in the American cinema.' – Albert Johnson, Film Quarterly
🏆 picture; Robert Anderson; Fred Zinnemann; Franz Planer; Franz Waxman; Audrey Hepburn; editing 🏆 Audrey Hepburn

I Nuovi Barbari: see The New Barbarians

Nuovo Cinema Paradiso: see Cinema Paradiso

'She's chasing a dream...they're chasing her.'
'She Needs To See A Doctor.'

Nurse Betty ★★

US 2000 108m Technicolor
Gramercy/Pacifica/Propaganda/ab'-strakt/IMF (Gail Mutrux, Steve Golin)

After seeing her drug-dealing husband murdered, a waitress in a small Kansas town believes she is in love with a doctor in her favourite soap opera and travels to California to meet him.
A comic thriller with a sour edge, balancing precariously on the point where television-fuelled fantasy spills over into real life.
w John C. Richards, James Flamberg d Neil LaBute ph Jean Yves Escoffier m Rolfe Kent pd Charles Breen ed Joel Plotch, Steven Weisberg cos Lynette Meyer
☆ Renée Zellweger (Betty Sizemore), Morgan Freeman (Charlie), Chris Rock (Wesley), Greg Kinnear (Dr David Ravell/George McCord), Aaron Eckhart (Del), Tia Texada (Rosa), Crispin Glover (Roy), Pruitt Taylor Vince (Ballard), Allison Janney (Lyla), Kathleen Wilhoite (Sue Ann), Harriet Sanson Harris (Ellen), Laird Macintosh (Dr Lonnie Walsh)
'A weirdly uneven, ultimately dissatisfying experience.' – Empire
'A clever, vastly entertaining film.' – Variety

Nurse Edith Cavell

US 1939 98m bw
Imperator/RKO

The story of a British nurse executed as a spy during World War I; previously filmed in 1930 as Dawn with Sybil Thorndike.
This is a moderately touching but uninspired treatment.
w Michael Hogan novel Dawn by Reginald Berkeley d Herbert Wilcox m Anthony Collins ☆ Anna Neagle, George Sanders, May Robson, Edna May Oliver, Alan Marshal
'Excellently produced documentary film, but not for general audience appeal ... no light moments to relieve the tragic aspects.' – Variety
'Miss Neagle looked nice as Queen Victoria, she looks just as nice as Nurse Cavell: she moves rigidly on to the set, as if wheels were concealed under the stately skirt: she says her piece with flat dignity and trolleys out again – rather like a mechanical marvel from the World's Fair.' – Graham Greene, The Spectator
🏆 Anthony Collins

Nurse on Wheels

GB 1963 86m bw
Anglo Amalgamated/GHW (Peter Rogers)

Adventures of a young District Nurse.
Part sentimental, part Carry On; watchable of its curious kind.
w Norman Hudis novel Nurse Is a Neighbour by Joanna Jones d Gerald Thomas ph Alan Hume m Eric Rogers ☆ Juliet Mills, Ronald Lewis, Joan Sims, Raymond Huntley, Athene Seyler

The Nursemaid Who Disappeared

GB 1939 86m bw
Warner

A domestic agency hides a gang of kidnappers.
Fairly pleasing mystery of the old school.
w Paul Gangelin and Connery Chappell novel Philip MacDonald d Arthur Woods ☆ Arthur Margetson, Peter Coke, Lesley Brook, Edward Chapman, Coral Browne, Martita Hunt

The Nurse's Secret

US 1941 56m bw
First National/Warner

A hired nurse solves her patient's murder.
Potboiling remake of Miss Pinkerton, rather better written than the original.
w Anthony Coldeway d Noel M. Smith
☆ Lee Patrick, Regis Toomey, Julie Bishop, Charles D. Waldron, Charles Trowbridge, Leonard Mudie

Nutcracker

GB 1982 101m Eastmancolor
Rank/Ezshaw (Panos Nicolaou)

A Russian ballerina defects in London but finds that she is being used for business/political purposes.
Weird, dated and utterly mediocre melodrama with pauses for sexual revels. Not a goer.
w Raymond Christodoulou d Anwar Kawadri ph Peter Jessop m Simon Park ☆ Joan Collins, Carol White, Paul Nicholas, Finola Hughes, William Franklyn, Murray Melvin Nutcracker – The Motion Picture ★

US 1986 85m colour
Entertainment/Hyperion/Kushner/Locke

A movie based on the Pacific Northwest Ballet company's version of the classic ballet.
The restless and moody direction does not always do justice to the dancing, although it effectively conjures a slightly sinister atmosphere.
d Carroll Ballard ph Stephen M. Burum m Tchaikovsky pd Maurice Sendak ed John Nutt, Michael Silvers ☆ Hugh Bigney, Vanessa Sharp, Patricia Barker, Wade Walthall

Nuts

US 1987 116m Technicolor
Warner (Barbra Streisand)

Classy prostitute kills a client; at her trial she battles against attempts to find her mentally unstable.
Star vehicle, strictly for fans.
w Tom Topor and others play Tom Topor d Martin Ritt ph Andrzej Bartkowiak m Barbra Streisand pd Joel Schiller
☆ Barbra Streisand, Richard Dreyfuss, Maureen Stapleton, Karl Malden, Eli Wallach

The Nutty Professor

US 1963 107m Technicolor
Paramount/Jerry Lewis (Ernest D. Glucksman)

An eccentric chemistry professor discovers an elixir which turns him into a pop idol.
Long dreary comedy which contains patches of its star at somewhere near his best; but even Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde is funnier.
w Jerry Lewis, Bill Richmond d Jerry Lewis ph W. Wallace Kelley m Walter Scharf ad Hal Pereira, Walter Tyler ed John Woodcock ☆ Jerry Lewis, Stella Stevens, Howard Morris, Kathleen Freeman, Del Moore, Les Brown and His Band of Renown

The Nutty Professor ★

US 1996 95m DeLuxe
UIP/Universal/Imagine (Brian Grazer, Russell Simmons)

A shy, fat chemistry professor discovers a formula that turns him into a slim, brash man-about-town.
One of the few remakes that is an improvement on the original, with Murphy demonstrating his abilities by playing an entire family at dinner; the humour is broad, but occasionally beguiling.
w David Sheffield, Barry W. Blaustein, Tom Shadyac, Steve Oedekerk film Jerry Lewis, Bill Richmond d Tom Shadyac ph Julio Macat m David Newman pd William Elliott ed Don Zimmerman sp make ☆ Eddie Murphy, Jada Pinkett, James Coburn, Larry Miller, Dave Chappelle, John Ales
'Combining the riotously funny and the sweetly sentimental, the new outing is a welcome entry in a season suffering from a paucity of comedy.' – Variety
† It was among the box-office successes of 1996, grossing around $254m around the world.
†† A sequel is planned.
🏆 Rick Baker, David Leroy Anderson

'Eddie Murphy Is The Klumps!'

Nutty Professor II: The Klumps

US 2000 106m DeLuxe
Universal/Imagine (Brian Grazer)

A fat professor discovers that his slim but unpleasant alter ego has become a separate person.
A too often crude and tasteless sequel that is notable for Murphy's impersonation of the entire Klump family.
w Barry W. Blaustein, David Sheffield, Paul Weitz, Chris Weitz d Peter Segal ph Dean Semler m David Newman pd William Elliott ed William Kerr sp makeup fx: Rick Baker cos Sharen Davis
☆ Eddie Murphy (Sherman Klump/Buddy Love/Granny Klump/ Mama Klump/Papa Klump/Young Papa Klump/Ernie Klump/Lance Perkins), Janet Jackson (Denise Gaines), Larry Miller (Dean Richmond), John Ales (Jason), Richard Gant (Denise's Father), Anna Maria Horsford (Denise's Mother), Melinda McGraw (Leanne Guilford), Jamal Mixon (Ernie Klump Jnr)
'As silly and as marginally endearing as its high-earning predecessor.' – Adam Mars-Jones, Times
'A heavy handful of comic crudity with gross-out gags.' – Cosmo Landesman, Sunday Times

O

'Everything Comes Full Circle...'

O

US 2001 95m colour
Buena Vista/Chickie the Cop/Daniel Fried/Rhulen Entertainment

At an exclusive Southern school, the only black pupil, a baseball star, arouses the jealousy of the coach's son over his romance with a white girl.

What a noble play is here overthrown in this high school variation on Shakespeare's Othello, which does no more than trivialise the drama.

w Brad Kaaya d Tim Blake Nelson ph Russell Lee Fine m Jeff Danna pd Dina Goldman ed Kate Sanford

☆ Mekhi Phifer (Odin James), Josh Hartnett (Hugo Goulding), Julia Stiles (Desi Brable), Elden Henson (Roger Rodriguez), Michael Casio (Andrew Keegan), Rain Phoenix (Emily), John Heard (Dean Brable), Anthony 'A. J.' Johnson (Dell), Martin Sheen (Coach Duke Goulding)

'Something that never should have gone further than a class assignment to see if it could be made to work. It doesn't.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

'All the conflicts have been laid out in fairly simple terms, as if the writer was in a hurry to get to the point before the butterlike topping on the audience's popcorn congealed.' – Elvis Mitchell, New York Times

† The movie was completed in 1999, but its release was delayed following a high school shooting in America.

O Brother, Where Art Thou? ★★★

US 2000 106m DeLuxe
Universal/Touchstone/StudioCanal/Working Title (Ethan Coen)

In Mississippi in the 1930s, three convicts escape a chain gang and go in search of buried treasure.

No one, least of all its makers, would take seriously the claim that this is based on Homer: rather it journeys through more modern American myths and legends with a lightly satirical touch and enormous charm; it comes closer than most modern movies to re-inventing the musical as a potent form of entertainment.

w Ethan and Joel Coen poem The Odyssey by Homer d Joel Coen ph Roger Deakins m T Bone Burnett pd Dennis Gassner ed Roderick Jaynes, Tricia Cooke cos Mary Zophres

☆ George Clooney (Everett Ulysses McGill), John Turturro (Pete), Tim Blake Nelson (Delmar), Charles Durning (Pappy O'Daniel), John Goodman (Big Dan Teague), Michael Badalucco (George Nelson), Holly Hunter (Penny), Stephen Root (Radio Station Man), Chris Thomas King (Tommy Johnson), Wayne Duvall (Homer Stokes), Daniel Von Bargen (Sheriff Cooley)

'The pace of the action, the brilliance of the dialogue, the spinning of a narrative out of scraps of Faulkner and Moby Dick, all consolidate the reputation that the brothers have earned.' – Adam Mars-Jones, Times

'It's such a charming, happy and beautiful film that the only possible response is one of admiration and gratitude.' – Edward Porter, Sunday Times

† The title is taken from the serious movie that the hero of Preston Sturges' Sullivan's Travels intended to make.

†† George Clooney's singing is dubbed by Dan Tyminski.

♌ script (Ethan Coen, Joel Coen)

O. C. and Stiggs

US 1987 109m Metrocolor Panavision
MGM (Robert Altman, Peter Newman)

Two teenagers spend their summer playing practical jokes, particularly on their obnoxious neighbour.

Tedious comedy with an air of desperate improvisation about it.

w Donald Cantrell, Ted Mann story Tod Carroll, Ted Mann d Robert Altman ph Pierre Mignot m King Sunny Ade and his African Beats pd Scott Bushnell ed Elizabeth Kling

☆ Daniel H. Jenkins, Neill Barry, Paul Dooley, Jane Curtin, Jon Cryer, Ray Walston, Louis Nye, Tina Louise, Dennis Hopper, Melvin Van Peebles

O Despertar da Besta: see Ritual Dos Sadicos

O Dragao da Maldade contra o Santo Guerreiro: see Antonio das Mortes

O.H.M.S.

GB 1936 86m bw
Gaumont (Geoffrey Barkas)
US title: You're in the Army Now

British forces fighting in China are joined by an American gangster on the run, who dies a hero.

Stiff-upper-lip adventure of no particular interest.

w Bryan Edgar Wallace, Austin Melford, A. R. Rawlinson story Lesser Samuels, Ralph Bettinson d Raoul Walsh ph Roy Kellino

☆ John Mills, Wallace Ford, Anna Lee, Frank Cellier, Grace Bradley, Frederick Leister

'As near 100% entertainment value as can reasonably be hoped for without the employment of a superstar, super-cast, super-director and super-production.' – Variety

O. Henry's Full House ★★

US 1952 117m bw
TCF (André Hakim)
GB title: Full House

John Steinbeck introduces five stories by O. Henry.

Modelled on the success of Quartet (qv), this compendium was less successful because these turn-of-the-century tales of New York depend less on character than on the sting in the tail; but the cast and production were lavish.

The Cop and the Anthem:
w Lamar Trotti d Henry Koster ph Lloyd Ahern with Charles Laughton, David Wayne, Marilyn Monroe

The Clarion Call:
w Richard Breen d Henry Hathaway ph Lucien Ballard with Dale Robertson, Richard Widmark

The Last Leaf:
w Ivan Goff, Ben Roberts d Jean Negulesco ph Joe MacDonald with Anne Baxter, Jean Peters, Gregory Ratoff

The Ransom of Red Chief:
w Nunnally Johnson d Howard Hawks ph Milton Krasner with Fred Allen, Oscar Levant

The Gift of the Magi:
w Walter Bullock d Henry King ph Joe MacDonald with Jeanne Crain, Farley Granger m Alfred Newman

'Smile while you're makin' it/Laugh while you're takin' it/Even though you're fakin' it/Nobody's gonna know...'

O Lucky Man! ★★★

GB 1973 174m Eastmancolor
Warner/Memorial/Sam (Michael Medwin, Lindsay Anderson)

The odyssey of a trainee salesman who after a while as an international financier settles down to be a do-gooder.

Modern revue-style version of Candide/Decline and Fall; very hit or miss in style and effect, and hellishly overlong, but with good things along the way.

w David Sherwin d Lindsay Anderson ph Miroslav Ondricek m Alan Price pd Jocelyn Herbert ad Alan Withy ed David Gladwell

☆ Malcolm McDowell (Mick Travis), Arthur Lowe (Mr. Duff/Charlie Johnson/Dr. Munda), Ralph Richardson (Monty/Sir James Burgess), Rachel Roberts (Gloria Rowe/Mme. Paillard/Mrs. Richards), Helen Mirren (Patricia Burgess), Mona Washbourne (Sister Hallett/Usher/Neighbor), Dandy Nichols (Tea Lady/Neighbor)

'A sort of mod Pilgrim's Progress.' – New Yorker

♈ Alan Price; Arthur Lowe

O Mary This London

GB 1994 90m colour
BBC (Helen Greaves)

Two Irish teenagers and their girlfriend come to London in search of adventure and an abortion.

A desultory, episodic road movie that manages to caricature the English and the Irish without creating any identity of its own.

w Shane Connaughton d Suri Krishnamma ph Sean Van Hales m Stephen Warbeck ed Sue Wyatt

☆ Jason Barry, Oba Seagrave, Dylan Tighe, Ram John Holder, Lesley Manville, John Otway

'The writer of this dismal, overlong farrago did his research in three London hostels; which suggests that the young Irish people he talked to must enjoy playing up all the most damaging stereotypes of their nation.' – Hugh Hebert, Guardian

'An implausible production, full of cultural clichés and based on a plot which threw in a dollop of mindless violence whenever things began to pall. The fact that much of the dialogue sounded like a preliminary read-through by an amateur dramatic society might be taken as a clever way of symbolising the inarticulateness of the characters, but somehow I don't think it was that smart.' – John Naughton, Observer

† Seen first in BBC-TV's Screen Two series, it was shown in cinemas in the United States.

'He's deep in danger, deeper in love!'

O.S.S. ★

US 1946 107m bw
Paramount (Richard Maibaum)

American spies are parachuted into France in 1943.

Espionage heroics with an unhappy ending and a slight documentary flavour. Not bad of its kind.

w Richard Maibaum d Irving Pichel ph Lionel Lindon m Daniele Amfitheatrof, Heinz Roemheld

☆ Alan Ladd, Geraldine Fitzgerald, Patric Knowles, John Hoyt, Don Beddoe

O-Kay for Sound ★

GB 1937 85m bw
GFD/Gainsborough (Edward Black)

The Crazy Gang runs amok in a film studio.

Patchy farce with music hall talents of the time.

w Marriott Edgar, Val Guest, R. P. Weston, Bert Lee d Marcel Varnel ph Jack Cox m/ly Michael Carr, Jimmy Kennedy md Louis Levy pd Vetchinsky ed R. E. Dearing

☆ Bud Flanagan, Chesney Allen, Jimmy Nervo, Teddy Knox, Charlie Naughton, Jimmy Gold, Fred Duprez, Enid Stamp-Taylor, Graham Moffatt, Meinhart Maur, H. F. Maltby, Peter Dawson, The Radio Three, The J. Sherman Fisher Girls

Oasis

France/Germany 1956 100m approx Eastmancolor Cinemascope
TCF/Roxy/Criterion (Gerd Oswald, Luggi Waldleitner)

An ex-pilot gets involved with two attractive women who are smuggling gold across the Sahara.

Glum romantic adventure.

w Joseph and Georges Kessel d Yves Allégret ph Roger Hubert m Paul Misraki

☆ Pierre Brasseur, Michèle Morgan, Cornell Borchers, Grégoire Aslan

Obchod na Korze: see The Shop on Main Street

Obecna Skola: see Elementary School

Oberst Redl: see Colonel Redl

The Oberwald Mystery

Italy 1980 129m colour
Artificial Eye/Polytel International/RAI (Sergio Benevenuti, Alessandro von Norman) original title: Il Mistero di Oberwald

The queen of a Middle European country falls in love with an assassin who looks like her dead husband.
Shot on videotape and transferred to film, it is in unpleasing colour and takes an understated approach to a melodramatic work.
w Michelangelo Antonioni, Tonino Guerra play L'Aigle A Deux Têtes by Jean Cocteau d Michelangelo Antonioni ph Luciano Tovoli m Strauss, Schoenberg, Brahms ad Mischa Scandella ed Michelangelo Antonioni, Francesco Grandoni
☆ Monica Vitti, Franco Branciaroli, Luigi Diberti, Elisabetta Pozzi, Amad Saha Alan, Paolo Bonacelli

Object of Beauty

US/GB 1991 103m colour
Samuel Goldwyn/Winston/Avenue/BBC (Jon S. Denny, Alex Gohar)

In a luxurious London hotel, a deaf-mute maid steals a Henry Moore bronze from the bedroom of an adulterous American couple.
Dull and muted romantic comedy with obnoxious protagonists.
wd Michael Lindsay-Hogg ph David Watkin m Tom Bahler pd Derek Dodd ed Ruth Foster
☆ John Malkovich, Andie MacDowell, Lolita Davidovich, Rudi Davies, Joss Ackland, Bill Paterson, Ricci Harnett, Peter Riegert, Jack Shepherd
'A mildly diverting but empty picture.' – Variety

'Sometimes The Most Desirable Relationship Is The One You Can't Have.'

The Object of My Affection

US 1998 111m DuArt
TCF (Laurence Mark)

As they lose their existing boyfriends, a pregnant woman and a gay teacher develop a close relationship.
Another contemporary American take on relationships, which seems predicated on a dislike of sexual activities, insisting that a homosexual man is a woman's best friend.
w Wendy Wasserstein novel Stephen McCauley d Nicholas Hytner ph Oliver Stapleton m George Fenton pd Jane Musky ed Tariq Anwar
☆ Jennifer Aniston, Paul Rudd, Alan Alda, Nigel Hawthorne, John Pankow, Tim Daly, Allison Janney, Steve Zahn, Amo Gulinello, Bruce Altman, Kevin Carroll
'Tries to mix the messy realities of mismatched relationships with the structural neatness of a musical-comedy view of the world, with mild, occasionally diverting results.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

Objective Burma!

US 1945 142m bw
Warner (Jerry Wald)

Exploits of an American platoon in the Burma campaign.
Overlong but vivid war actioner which caused a diplomatic incident by failing to mention the British contribution.
w Ranald MacDougall, Lester Cole, Alvah Bessie d Raoul Walsh ph James Wong Howe m Franz Waxman ed George Amy ☆ Errol Flynn, James Brown, William Prince, George Tobias, Henry Hull, Warner Anderson, John Alvin
'At the rate Errol Flynn and co. knock off the Japanese, it may make you wonder why the war need outlast next weekend.' – Time
'I am amazed that Warner Brothers ever made it, or having made it failed to think again and smother it.' – Reynolds News
† The film was not released in Britain until 1952, and then with an apologetic prologue.
Ⱥ original story (Alvah Bessie); Franz Waxman; George Amy

The Obliging Young Lady

US 1941 80m bw
RKO

A secretary escorts a wealthy child out of town while her parents wrangle over custody.
Tedious comedy with interest occasionally provided by the supporting cast.
w Frank Ryan, Bert Granet d Richard Wallace
☆ Joan Carroll, Ruth Warrick, Edmond O'Brien, Eve Arden, Franklin Pangborn, Marjorie Gateson, John Miljan, George Cleveland, Luis Alberni, Charles Lane

The Oblong Box

GB 1969 95m Eastmancolor
AIP (Gordon Hessler)

One of two 19th-century brothers is mysteriously disfigured and buried alive; he recovers and runs amok.
Nastily effective horror film with a frail story but good background detail.
w Lawrence Huntington d Gordon Hessler ph John Coquillon m Harry Robinson
☆ Vincent Price, Christopher Lee, Alastair Williamson, Hilary Dwyer, Peter Arne, Maxwell Shaw, Rupert Davies
'A pervasive aura of evil.' – MFB

Obsessed: see The Late Edwina Black (1951)

Obsessed

Canada 1989 100m colour
Telescene (Robin Spry, Jamie Brown)

A mother is determined to track down and bring to justice the hit-and-run driver who killed her skateboarding son.
A movie as relentlessly one-track as its title suggests; it is well enough done, but somewhat wearing, and less than believable, by the end.
w Douglas Bowie, Robin Spry novel Hit and Run by Tom Alderman d Robin Spry ph Ron Stannett m Jean-Alain Roussel pd Claude Paré ed Diann Ilnicki
☆ Kerrie Keane, Daniel Pilon, Saul Rubinek, Alan Thicke, Mireille Deyglun, Leif Anderson, Colleen Dewhurst Obsession ★

GB 1948 98m bw
GFD/Independent Sovereign (Nat Bronsten)
US title: The Hidden Room

A doctor decides to kill his wife's lover by imprisoning him in a lonely cellar while he accumulates enough acid to destroy all traces of his body.
Implausible, overstretched thriller, carefully enough done to be bearable.
w Alec Coppel play A Man About a Dog by Alec Coppel d Edward Dmytryk ph C. Pennington Richards m Nino Rota ☆ Robert Newton, Sally Gray, Phil Brown, Naunton Wayne

Obsession ★

US 1976 98m Technicolor Panavision
Columbia (Robert S. Bremson)

A widower with guilt feelings meets the double of his dead wife and is drawn into a strange plot.
Hitchcockian adventure with a few unwise attempts at seriousness, à la Don't Look Now. Generally entertaining, skilled and quite rewarding.
w Paul Schrader d Brian de Palma ph Vilmos Zsigmond m Bernard Herrmann ad Jack Senter ed Paul Hirsch
☆ Cliff Robertson, Geneviève Bujold, John Lithgow, Sylvia Williams, Wanda Blackman, Patrick McNamara
'An unholy mess. Intended as an hommage to Hitchcock ... it attitudinizes [also] towards the old-fashioned tearjerker and towards the sophisticated European film, with cultural references strewn like breadcrumbs along the way of Hansel and Gretel...' – John Simon, New York
'Merely a mannered cerebral exercise without any emotional underpinning or unconscious feeling of its own.' – Andrew Sarris, Village Voice
Ⱥ Bernard Herrmann

Occupe-Toi d'Amélie ★★★

France 1949 95m bw
Lux (Louis Wipf)
aka: Keep an Eye on Amelia

A Parisian cocotte agrees to go through a mock marriage ceremony with her lover's best friend to fool his uncle: but the ceremony turns out to be real.
Hilarious and superbly stylized adaptation of a period boulevard farce: the play starts in a theatre, showing the audience, but gradually cinema technique takes over. Acting, timing and editing are all impeccable, and the production stands as a model of how such things should be done.
w Jean Aurenche, Pierre Bost play Georges Feydeau d Claude Autant-Lara ph André Bac m René Cloërc pd Max Douy ed Madeleine Gug
☆ Danielle Darrieux, Jean Desailly, Bourvil, Carette, Grégoire Aslan
'Even those who do not respond to the artificialities of French vaudeville will admire the ingenuity and elegance of treatment.' – Gavin Lambert, MFB
'Most people, I think, could see it with considerable enjoyment even twice on the same evening.' – Richard Mallett, Punch

Ocean's Eleven ★

US 1960 128m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Dorchester (Lewis Milestone)

A gang of friends plan to rob a Las Vegas casino.
Self-indulgent and overlong caper comedy which marked Hollywood's entry into a subsequently much overworked field. In this case the plot stops all too frequently for guest spots and in-jokes.
w Harry Brown, Charles Lederer d Lewis Milestone ph William H. Daniels m Nelson Riddle
☆ Frank Sinatra, Peter Lawford, Sammy Davis Jnr, Richard Conte, Dean Martin, Angie Dickinson, Cesar Romero, Joey Bishop, Patrice Wymore, Akim Tamiroff, Henry Silva, Ilka Chase

'Are You In Or Out?'

Ocean's Eleven

US 2001 116m Technicolor Super 35
Warner/Village Roadshow/NPV/JW/Section Eight (Jerry Weintraub)

Released from prison, a conman recruits old friends to rob three Las Vegas casinos.
A remake as self-indulgent as the original, though slightly more fun; a little more wit, and less striving to seem cool, would have been welcome.
w Ted Griffin screenplay Harry Brown, Charles Lederer story George Clayton Johnson, Jack Golden Russell d Steven Soderbergh ph Peter Andrews m David Holmes pd Philip Messina ed Stephen Mirrione cos Jeffrey Kurland
☆ George Clooney (Danny Ocean), Matt Damon (Linus), Andy Garcia (Terry Benedict), Brad Pitt (Rusty Ryan), Julia Roberts (Tess Ocean), Casey Affleck (Virgil Malloy), Scott Caan (Turk Malloy), Don Cheadle (Basher Tarr), Elliott Gould (Reuben Tishkoff), Eddie Jemison (Livingston Dell), Bernie Mac (Frank Catton), Shaobo Qin (Yen), Carl Reiner (Saul Bloom)
'Made with so much wit and brains and dazzle and virtuosity that the sheer speed and cleverness of the caper hits you like a shot of pure oxygen.' – Owen Gleiberman, Entertainment Weekly
'High-style nonsense.' – Sight and Sound
'Slick and studiously cool—with plenty of visual flourishes but not too much soul.' – J. Hoberman, Village Voice

'What are the odds of getting even? 13 to one.'

Ocean's Thirteen ★ (6)

US 2007 122m
Warner/Section Eight/Village Roadshow/WV Films III (Jerry Weintraub)

Danny Ocean's gang plot a spectacular revenge on a Vegas casino boss who conned one of their number out of a hotel construction deal.
An improvement on the scandalously lazy Ocean's Twelve (qv), and undeniably a good-looking film. But the plot, and the means by which the gang lays waste to Bank's new casino, are complicated and silly beyond belief. Scenes involving Barkin's Abigail also betray a misogynist streak. Creatively, this would be a good time to call a halt to this franchise.
w Brian Koppelman, David Levien d Steven Soderbergh ph Peter Andrews m David Holmes pd Philip Messina ad Tony Fanning ed Stephen Mirrione
☆ George Clooney (Danny), Brad Pitt (Rusty), Matt Damon (Linus), Elliott Gould (Reuben), Al Pacino (Willie Bank), Don Cheadle (Basher), Casey Affleck (Virgil), Scott Caan (Turk), Bernie Mac (Frank), Ellen Barkin (Abigail)
'This fantastically smug, empty picture.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian
'As big, bloated and soulless as the modern Vegas Soderbergh's film is set in.' – Cosmo Landesman, Sunday Times
'Too complicated for its own mediocrity.' – Stephen Hunter, Washington Post † Director Steven Soderbergh photographed the film under the pseudonym 'Peter Andrews.'

'Twelve is the new eleven.'

Ocean's Twelve

US Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Village Roadshow/Jerry Weintraub/Section Eight

A tycoon gives the gang that stole his money

two weeks in which to return it to him.
It is obvious that the cast were enjoying themselves in making this dismal, smug sequel and a pity that they were unable to communicate that pleasure to an audience.
w George Nolfi d Steven Soderbergh ph Peter Andrews m David Holmes pd Philip Messina ed Stephen Mirrione
☆ George Clooney (Danny Ocean), Brad Pitt (Rusty Rya), Matt Damon (Linus Caldwell), Catherine Zeta-Jones (Isabel Lahiri), Don Cheadle (Basher Tarr), Bernie Mac (Frank Catton), Casey Affleck (Virgil Malloy), Scott Caan (Turk Malloy), Vincent Cassel (François Toulour), Julia Roberts (Tess Ocean)
'Provides a cornucopia of fizzy, post–New Wave imagery, fitting for a picture that's pretty much all about surfaces.' – Glenn Kenny, Premiere
'it's actually this follow-up, with its lazy, thrown-together plot and insufferably complacent Hollywood in-jokery, which truly keeps faith with the rotten Rat Pack original.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

Ochazuke No Aji: see Flavour of Green Tea Over Rice

October ★★★★

USSR 1927 95m approx bw silent
Sovkino

In 1917, the Kerensky regime is overthrown by the Bolsheviks.
A propaganda masterpiece whose images have all too often been mistaken and used for genuine newsreel. Cinematically, an undoubted masterpiece.
w Sergei M. Eisenstein, Grigory Alexandrov d Sergei M. Eisenstein ph Edouard Tissé, V. Popov
☆ Vasili Nikandrov (Lenin), N. Popov (Kerensky), Boris Livanov (Minister Tereschenko)
'The film lacks excitement and may leave you cold.' – Pauline Kael
'Some of the action scenes are genuinely stirring--when he wasn't editorializing, the man really could cut film.' – David Kehr, Chicago Reader

The October Man ★★

GB 1947 98m bw
GFD/Two Cities (Eric Ambler)

After an accident which causes a head injury and subsequent depression, a lonely man staying at a small hotel is suspected of a local murder.
Nice blend of character study, mystery and suspense, with excellent attention to suburban detail.
w Eric Ambler d Roy Baker ph Erwin Hillier m William Alwyn md Muir Mathieson ad Alex Vetchinsky ed Alan L. Jaggs
☆ John Mills (Jim Ackland), Joan Greenwood (Jenny Carden), Edward Chapman (Mr Peachey), Kay Walsh (Molly), Catherine Lacey (Miss Selby), Joyce Carey (Mrs Vinton), Adrianne Allen (Joyce Carden), Felix Aylmer (Dr Martin), Frederick Piper (Godby), Patrick Holt (Harry), Juliet Mills (Little Girl)
'This film of psychological suspense tells its complicated story with complete clarity, but it is mainly to be noted for its settings.' – Basil Wright, 1972
'A new type of thriller in which tension is heightened by the vivid realism of its setting and the complete credibility of its characters.' – Reynolds News
† Kenneth Pakeman was originally hired to write the music, but his score was dropped during production.

October Moth

GB 1959 54m bw
Independent Artists

A mentally retarded farmhand goes berserk after causing a fatal car crash.
Unattractive and singularly pointless little melodrama which neither edifies nor entertains.
wd John Kruse ph Michael Reed m Humphrey Searle
☆ Lana Morris, Lee Patterson, Peter Dyneley, Robert Cawdron

'A boy who could see the future. A father stuck in the past. A dream that wouldn't die.'

October Sky

US 1999 107m DeLuxe Panavision
Universal Pictures (Charles Gordon, Larry Franco)

Inspired by the sight of Sputnik, a teenager in a coal-mining town decides to build his own rocket with a little help from his friends.
Based on the biography of a man who became a NASA engineer, this is a gently nostalgic flag-waver of small-town Americana in the 50s, amiable but forgettable.
w Lewis Colick book Rocket Boys by Homer H. Hickam Jnr d Joe Johnston ph Fred Murphy m Mark Isham pd Barry Robinson ed Robert Dalva
☆ Jake Gyllenhaal (Homer Hickam), Chris Cooper (John Hickam), Laura Dern (Miss Riley), Chris Owen (Quentin), William Lee Scott (Roy Lee), Chad Lindberg (O'Dell), Natalie Canerday (Elsie Hickam), Scott Miles (Jim Hickam), Randy Stripling (Leon Bolden), Chris Ellis (Principal Turner)
'A feelgood movie of some power.' – Empire

'A Cruise to Hell.'

Octopus

US 2000 100m colour
Nu Image (David Varod, Danny Lerner, Boaz Davidson)

An American nuclear submarine with a dangerous terrorist on board is attacked by a giant, mutant octopus.
Feeble attempt to combine a spy thriller with horror; the cast compensate for its cheapness by over-acting.
w Michael D. Weiss story Boaz Davidson d John Eyres ph Adolfo Bartoli m Marco Marinangeli pd Carlos DaSilva ed Amanda I. Kirpaul sp Willie Botha; Mark Harris
☆ Jay Harrington (Roy Turner), Ravil Isyanov (Casper), David Beecroft (Captain Shaw), Carolyn Lowery (Dr Lisa Finch), Ricco Ross (Brickman), Jeff Nuttall (Henry Campbell), George Stanchev (Salvanto), Martin McDougall (Taylor)

Octopussy

GB 1983 131m Technicolor Panavision
Eon/Danjaq (Albert R. Broccoli)

James Bond takes on an evil Afghan prince and a glamorous woman who plan between them to plunder Tsarist treasures.
Bond at the end of his tether: such far-stretched adventures have become merely a tedious way of passing the time.
w George MacDonald Fraser, Richard Maibaum, Michael G. Wilson d John Glen ph Alan Hume m John Barry pd Peter Lamont
☆ Roger Moore, Maud Adams, Louis Jourdan, Kristina Wayborn, Kabir Bedi, Desmond Llewelyn, Lois Maxwell
'As the films drift further and further into self-parody, no one seems to notice and no one (at any rate in box office terms) seems to mind.' – Nick Roddick, MFB

The Odd Couple ★★

US 1968 105m Technicolor Panavision
Paramount (Howard W. Koch)

A fussy divorce-shocked newswriter moves in with his sloppy sportscaster friend, and they get on each other's nerves.
Straight filming of a funny play which sometimes seems lost on the wide screen, but the performances are fine.
w Neil Simon play Neil Simon d Gene Saks ph Robert B. Hauser m Neal Hefti
☆ Jack Lemmon, Walter Matthau, John Fiedler, Herb Edelman, David Sheiner, Larry Haines, Monica Evans, Carole Sheely, Iris Adrian
OSCAR (WALTER MATTHAU): 'I can't take it anymore, Felix. I'm crackin' up. Everything you do irritates me. And when you're not here, the things I know you're gonna do when you come in irritate me. You leave me little notes on my pillow. I told you 158 times I cannot stand little notes on my pillow. "We are all out of cornflakes, F.U." It took me three hours to figure out that F.U. was Felix Ungar. It's not your fault, Felix. It's a rotten combination, that's all.'
Neil Simon

The Odd Couple II

US 1998 96m DeLuxe Panavision
UIP/Paramount (Neil Simon, Robert W. Cort, David Madden)

The adventures of two fathers, whose children are marrying one another, on the road to Los Angeles.
Not content with the derivative Grumpy Men series, Lemmon and Matthau revive their earlier, grumpiest success; but it lacks any semblance of life.
w Neil Simon d Howard Deutch ph Jamie Anderson m Alan Silvestri pd Dan Bishop ed Seth Flaum
☆ Jack Lemmon, Walter Matthau, Christine Baranski, Barnard Hughes, Jonathan Silverman, Jean Smart, Lisa Waltz
'The film feels like an extended television episode.' – Sight and Sound

The Odd Job

GB 1978 86m colour
Charisma/Steve O'Rourke (Mark Forstater, Graham Chapman)

A husband, upset because his wife has left him, hires an odd-job man to kill him; then his wife returns...
Listless comedy that lacks the necessary invention or style to be funny.
w Bernard McKenna, Graham Chapman d Peter Medak ph Ken Hodges m Howard Blake ad Tony Curtis ed Barrie Vince
☆ Graham Chapman, David Jason, Simon Williams, Diana Quick, Edward Hardwicke, Bill Paterson, Michael Elphick, Joe Melia, Carolyn Seymour, Richard O'Brien

Odd Man Out ★★★

GB 1946 115m bw
GFD/Two Cities (Carol Reed)

US title: Gang War

An IRA gunman, wounded and on the run in Belfast, is helped and hindered by a variety of people.
Superbly crafted but rather empty dramatic charade, visually and emotionally memorable but with nothing whatever to say.
w F. L. Green, R. C. Sherriff novel F. L. Green d Carol Reed ph Robert Krasker m William Alwyn ad Roger Furse ed Fergus McDonnell ☆ James Mason (Johnny), Robert Newton (Lukey), Kathleen Ryan (Kathleen), F. J. McCormick (Shell), Cyril Cusack (Pat), Robert Beatty (Dennis), Fay Compton (Rosie), Dan O'Herlihy (Nolan), Denis O'Dea (Head Constable), Maureen Delany (Theresa), Joseph Tomelty (Carby), William Hartnell (Barman), Beryl Measor (Maudie)
'The story seems to ramify too much, to go on too long, and at its unluckiest to go arty. Yet detail by detail Odd Man Out is made with great skill and imaginativeness and with a depth of ardour that is very rare.' – James Agee
'Quite simply the most imaginative film yet produced in England, comparable with Quai des Brumes and Le Jour se Lève.' – William Whitebait, New Statesman
Fergus McDonnell
British picture

Odds against Tomorrow ★

US 1959 96m bw
UA/Harbel (Robert Wise)

Three crooks plan to rob a bank, but two of them cause the enterprise to fail because of their own racist hatreds.
Sour, glossy crime thriller with elementary social significance.
w John O. Killens (Abraham Polonsky), Nelson Gidding novel William P. McGivern d Robert Wise ph Joseph Brun m John Lewis ☆ Robert Ryan, Harry Belafonte, Ed Begley, Shelley Winters, Gloria Grahame, Will Kuluva, Kim Hamilton
'An efficient but unnecessarily portentous thriller.' – Penelope Houston † Abraham Polonsky was excluded from the screenwriting credit because he was blacklisted at the time.

Ode to Billy Joe ★

US 1976 106m CFI color
Columbia-Warner/Max Baer Productions (Max Baer, Roger Camras)

In Mississippi in the early 1950s a 17-year-old youth, who is in love with a 15-year-old girl, is driven to kill himself.
Based on the hit song of the 1960s by Bobbie Gentry, a melodramatic account of the frustrations of growing up in a small town.
w Herman Raucher d Max Baer ph Michel Hugo m Michel Legrand ad Philip Jefferies ed Frank E. Morriss
☆ Robby Benson, Glynnis O'Connor, Joan Hotchkis, Sandy McPeak, James Best, Terence Goodman, Becky Brown
'The ultimate tribute earned by the film is that it retrospectively makes Bobbie Gentry's song sound still better – the distillation of a complex experience charted by the film rather than just an isolated epigram and postscript framing it.' – Jonathan Rosenbam, MFB
'Unusually refreshing and moving' – Films and Filming

The Odessa File ★★

GB 1974 129m Eastmancolor Panavision
Columbia/Domino/Oceanic (John Woolf)

In 1963, a young German reporter tracks down a gang of neo-Nazis.

Elaborate but uninvolving suspenser with several excellent cliffhanging sequences and a let-down climax.
w Kenneth Ross, George Markstein novel Frederick Forsyth d Ronald Neame ph Oswald Morris m Andrew Lloyd Webber pd Rolf Zehetbauer ☆ Jon Voight, Maria Schell, Maximilian Schell, Mary Tamm, Derek Jacobi, Peter Jeffrey, Noel Willman
'As resistible a parcel of sedative entertainment as ever induced narcolepsy in a healthy man.' – Benny Green, Punch

Odette ★
GB 1950 123m bw
Herbert Wilcox

A Frenchwoman with an English husband spies for the French resistance, is caught and tortured.
Deglamorized true life spy story with emotional moments let down by generally uninspired handling, also by the too well-known image of its star, who however gives a remarkable performance.
w Warren Chetham Strode book Jerrard Tickell d Herbert Wilcox ph Max Greene m Anthony Collins
☆ Anna Neagle, Trevor Howard, Peter Ustinov, Marius Goring
'As a work of art, pretty flat ... though innumerable people will find it moving and impressive, they will have done the work themselves.' – Richard Mallett, Punch

'She always gets a part.'

Odishon ★★★
Japan 1999 115m colour
Metro Tartan/Omega (Akemi Suyama, Satoshi Hukushima)

aka: Audition
A middle-aged widower and TV producer auditions actresses as a means of finding a new wife, and gets more than he has bargained for.
Chilling and ultimately extremely violent and gruesome drama that opens in a leisurely fashion before overturning its audience's expectations, climaxing with a tortured, hallucinatory finale that many may find unwatchable.
w Daisuke Tengan novel Ryu Murakami d Takashi Miike ph Hideo Yamamoto m Koji Endo pd Tatsuo Ozeki ed Yasushi Shimamura ☆ Ryo Ishibashi (Shigeharu Aoyama), Eihi Shiina (Asami Yamasaki), Jun Kunimura (Yoshikawa), Miyuki Matsuda (Ryoko Aoyama), Ren Osugi (Shibata), Tetsu Sawaki (Shigehiko Aoyama), Renji Ishibashi (Old Man)
'The best-disguised psychotronic splatter flick in recent memory... a lethally poised Venus flytrap of a movie.' – Dennis Lim, Village Voice
'The grimmest exploitation of sadistic violence I have seen in months... pornographic.' – Alexander Walker, London Evening Standard

Odongo
GB 1956 85m Technicolor Cinemascope
Warwick/Columbia

A collector of animals for zoos runs into various kinds of trouble during an African safari.
Elementary jungle adventure centring on a small Sabu-like jungle boy. For the now extinct family audience.
wd John Gilling ph Ted Moore m George Melachrino ☆ Macdonald Carey, Rhonda Fleming, Juma, Eleanor Summerfield, Francis de Wolff, Earl Cameron

Oedipus Rex ★★
Italy/Morocco 1967 110m Technicolor Panoramica
Arco/Somafis

original title: Edipo Re
Oedipus, returning to his home of Thebes, suffers through unwittingly killing his father and marrying his mother.
Austerely involving adaptation of the Greek tragedy, sandwiched between scenes set in modern Italy.
wd Pier Paolo Pasolini play Sophocles ph Giuseppe Ruzzolini ad Luigi Scaccianoce ed Nino Baragli
☆ Franco Citti, Silvana Mangano, Carmelo Bene, Julian Beck, Pier Paolo Pasolini, Alida Valli, Ninetto Davoli

Of Freaks and Men ★★
Russia 1998 94m sepia/bw
Metro Tartan/STV/Soiuzkino (Sergei Selyanov, Oleg Botogov)

original title: Po Urodov i Liudei
In St. Petersburg in the early 1900s, a pornographer and his assistant destroy two families by exposing them to photographs of scenes of flagellation.
A genuinely original and very strange movie, tinted to look like old photographs and dealing with the corruption and liberation that photography and film brings in its wake.
d Alexei Balabanov ph Sergei Astakhov pd Vera Zelinskaya ed Marina Lipartia cos Nadya Vasilyeva
☆ Sergei Makovetskii (Johan), Dinara Drukarova (Lisa), Lika Nevolina (Ekaterina Kirillovna), Victor Sukhorukov (Victor Ivanovich), Alyesha De (Kolya), Chingiz Tsydendabayev (Tolya), Vadim Prokhorov (Pytilov), Alexandr Mezentsev (Dr Stasov), Darya Lesnikova (Grunya), Igor Shibanov (Radlov), Tatyana Polonskaya (Darya)
'A film of pungent and distinctive flavour, maybe not to all tastes; but, for its originality and style, it must be seen.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian
'Thought-provoking, funny, disturbing, utterly involving.' – Steven Gaydos, Variety

Of Human Bondage ★★
US 1934 83m bw
(RKO)

A well-to-do Englishman is brought down by his infatuation with a sluttish waitress.
This version of the famous novel brought Bette Davis to prominence but is not otherwise any better than the others.
w Lester Cohen novel W. Somerset Maugham d John Cromwell ph Henry W. Gerrard m Max Steiner ad Van Nest Polglase, Carroll Clark ed William Morgan
☆ Leslie Howard, Bette Davis, Frances Dee, Reginald Owen, Reginald Denny, Kay Johnson, Alan Hale
'Stars and the novel rep will have to carry a lethargic romance.' – Variety
'A totally obtuse concoction, serving only to demonstrate how untalented an actress Bette Davis was before she perfected those camp mannerisms.' – John Simon, 1967

Of Human Bondage ★
US 1946 105m bw
Warner (Henry Blanke)

A doctor suffers through his infatuation with a common waitress.
Good-looking but thoroughly dull remake of Maugham's novel.
w Catherine Turney novel Somerset Maugham d Edmund Goulding ph Peverell Marley m Erich Wolfgang Korngold ad Henry Kelso, Hugh Reticker ed Clarence Kolster
☆ Paul Henreid, Eleanor Parker, Alexis Smith, Edmund Gwenn, Patric Knowles, Janis Paige, Henry Stephenson

Of Human Bondage
GB 1964 99m bw
MGM/Seven Arts (James Woolf)

An upper-class doctor is brought low by his relationship with a waitress.
Disastrous remake with both star roles miscast.
w Bryan Forbes d Henry Hathaway, Ken Hughes ph Oswald Morris m Ron Goodwin pd John Box
☆ Laurence Harvey, Kim Novak, Nanette Newman, Roger Livesey, Jack Hedley, Robert Morley, Siobhan McKenna, Ronald Lacey

Of Human Hearts ★
US 1938 100m bw
MGM (John Considine Jnr)

A 19th-century idyll of middle America and especially of a preacher and his wayward son.
Curious all-American moral fable, splendidly made and acted.
w Bradbury Foote novel Benefits Forgot by Honoré Morrow d Clarence Brown ph Clyde de Vinna m Herbert Stothart
☆ Walter Huston, James Stewart, Beulah Bondi, Gene Reynolds, Charles Coburn, Guy Kibbee, John Carradine, Gene Lockhart, Ann Rutherford
'Long on narrative and short on romance ... the box office reaction is likely to dampen the enthusiasm of those who believe the film possesses any wide public appeal.' – Variety
† The title was chosen via a radio contest, the winner being a high-school student.
Beulah Bondi

Of Love and Desire
US 1963 97m DeLuxe
New World (Victor Stoloff)

An engineer in Mexico takes up with the boss's nymphomaniac sister.
Unwise sensationalist vehicle for an ageing leading lady who is past such carryings on.
w Laslo Gorag, Richard Rush d Richard Rush ph Alex Phillips m Ronald Stein
☆ Merle Oberon, Steve Cochran, John Agar, Curt Jurgens

'I'm decent, I tell ya! Nobody's got the right to call me names!'
'The picture Hollywood said could never be made!'

Of Mice and Men ★★★
US 1939 107m bw
Hal Roach (Lewis Milestone)

An itinerant worker looks after his mentally retarded cousin, a giant who doesn't know his own strength.
A strange and unexpected tragedy which has strength and is very persuasively made.
w Eugene Solow novel John Steinbeck d Lewis Milestone ph Norbert Brodine m Aaron Copland ad Nicolai Remisoff ed Bert Jordan
☆ Burgess Meredith (George), Lon Chaney Jnr (Lennie), Betty Field (Mae), Charles Bickford (Slim), Roman Bohnen (Candy), Bob Steele (Curley), Noah Beery Jnr (Whit)
'The film is excellently acted by everyone ... there are, mercifully, no stars to intrude their tedious flat personalities into this picture of life. It is a picture which, for all its grief, is not depressing; and if it should be said that this is no time for adding to one's own melancholy, let me reply that it is sometimes well not to lose from sight the individual pity of the lives of men.' – Dilys Powell best picture; Aaron Copland

'We have a dream. Someday we'll have a little house and a couple of acres. A place to call home.'

Of Mice and Men ★
US 1992 111m DeLuxe
UIP/MGM (Russ Smith, Gary Sinise)

While dreaming of better times, an itinerant farm worker tries to keep his companion, a dim but well-meaning giant, out of trouble.
Despite the good intentions of those involved, a strangely unemotional and inert remake.
w Horton Foote novel John Steinbeck d Gary Sinise ph Kenneth MacMillan m Mark Isham pd David Gropman ed Robert L. Sinise
☆ John Malkovich, Gary Sinise, Ray Walston, Casey Siemaszko, Sherilyn Fenn, John Terry
'Little more than a lacklustre ramble through an old favourite.' – Geoffrey Macnab, Sight and Sound

Ofelas: see Pathfinder

Off and Running
US 1991 90m colour
Rank/Aaron Russo Entertainment (Aaron Russo, William C. Carraro)

An actress flees from the killer of her fiancé while she tries to discover why he was murdered.
Misfiring romantic comedy with some violent action thrown in for bad measure.
w Mitch Glazer d Edward Bianchi ph Andrzej Bartkowiak m Mason Daring ad Norman E. Weber ed Rick Shaine ☆ Cyndi Lauper, David Keith, Johnny Pinto, David Thornton, Richard Belzer, José Perez, Anita Morris, Hazen Gifford

Off Beat
US 1986 92m DeLuxe
Buena Vista/Touchstone/Ufland/Roth/Ladd

An accident-prone librarian, persuaded by his policeman friend to take his place at a charity dance competition, falls in love with a female cop and continues with his impersonation.
A pleasant, though undistinguished romantic comedy, undermining macho posturings.
w Mark Medoff story Dezso Magyar d Michael Dinner ph Carlo DiPalma m James Horner pd Woods Mackintosh ed Dede Allen, Angelo Corrao
☆ Judge Reinhold, Meg Tilly, Cleavant Derricks, Harvey Keitel, Joe Mantegna, Jacques D'Amboise, Amy Wright, John Turturro, James Tolkan, Fred Gwynne

Off Limits: see Saigon

Off Limits
US 1953 89m bw
Paramount (Harry Tugend)
GB title: Military Policemen

A boxing manager trains a young fighter in the military police.
Flat star comedy.
w Hal Kanter, Jack Sher d George Marshall ph Peverell Marley m Van Cleave
☆ Bob Hope, Mickey Rooney, Marilyn Maxwell, Marvin Miller

Off the Beaten Track: see Behind the Eight Ball

Off the Dole
GB 1935 89m bw
Mancunian
An amateur detective catches burglars.
Artless comedy shot on a minuscule budget; it helped to make George Formby a star.
wd Arthur Mertz
☆ George Formby, Beryl Formby, Constance Shotter, Dan Young

Off the Record
US 1939 71m bw
Warner
A star reporter exposes the mob's use of youngsters as spotters in the gambling racket.
Predictable crime support.
w Niven Busch, Lawrence Kimble, Earl Baldwin d James Flood ☆ Pat O'Brien, Joan Blondell, Bobby Jordan, Alan Baxter, Morgan Conway 'Stereotype dualler.' – Variety

Offbeat ★
GB 1960 72m bw
British Lion/Northiam (M. Smedley Aston)
An MI5 undercover man finds himself sympathizing with a gang of robbers and falling in love with one of them.
Sharply observed thriller which gets a bit glum in dealing with its rather contrived 'switch'.
w Peter Barnes d Cliff Owen ph Geoffrey Faithfull m Ken Jones
☆ William Sylvester, Mai Zetterling, Anthony Dawson, John Meillon, John Phillips, Victor Brooks, Joseph Furst, Neil McCarthy, Harry Baird

The Offence ★
GB 1972 113m DeLuxe
United Artists/Tantallon (Denis O'Dell)
A tough police inspector bullies a suspected child molester.
Tortuous psychological study on the fringe of hysteria; good performances.
w John Hopkins play This Story of Yours by John Hopkins d Sidney Lumet
ph Gerry Fisher m Harrison Birtwistle
☆ Sean Connery, Trevor Howard, Ian Bannen, Vivien Merchant

Offending Angels
GB 2000 93m colour
Guerrilla Films/Pants (Andrew Rajan)
Guardian angels give hope for the future to two young men, addicts of drugs and pornography.
Muddled metaphysical fable of no discernible purpose.
w Andrew Rajan, Tim Moyler d Andrew Rajan ph Alvin Leong m Martin Ward
ad Annie Gosney ed Roger Burgess, Catherine Fletcher ☆ Susannah Harker (Paris), Andrew Lincoln (Sam), Shaun Parkes (Zeke), Andrew Rajan (Baggy), Paula O'Grady (Alison), Marion Bailey (Mentor), Michael Cochrane (Mentor), Sophie Dix (Mandy)
'An excruciating British fantasy romcom, where the direction's out to lunch and the script's three or four drafts away from anything usable.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

Office Killer
US 1997 83m Technicolor
Strand/Good Machine/Kardana/Swinsky (Christine Vachon, Pamela Koffler)
Problems escalate on a magazine when a copy editor accidentally electrocutes a writer and discovers that she enjoys killing.
Dimly lit experimental movie, directed by a fashionable photographer, that has all the attraction of the most inept 'B' movie ever.
w Elise MacAdam, Tom Kalin, Todd Haynes d Cindy Sherman ph Russell Fine
m Evan Lurie pd Kevin Thompson ed Merril Stern
☆ Carol Kane, Molly Ringwald, Jeanne Tripplehorn, Barbara Sukowa, Michael Imperioli, David Thornton, Mike Hodge, Alice Drummond 'Deep-sixed by klutzy direction, mostly sophomoric performances and a script so flat it isn't even laughably bad, Office Killer sinks like a stone.' – Derek Elley, Variety
† The film was a low-budget production, costing $300,000.

Office Space ★★
US 1999 89m DeLuxe
TCF (Michael Rotenberg, Daniel Rappaport)
After a visit to an occupational hypnotherapist goes wrong, a downhearted computer programmer ceases to care about his boring job.
Witty demolition of corporate culture, deftly skewering all the petty nuisances of office routine.
wd Mike Judge animated shorts Milton by Mike Judge ph Tim Suhrstedt m John Frizzell pd Edward McAvoy ed David Rennie
☆ Ron Livingston (Peter Gibbons), Jennifer Aniston (Joanne), Stephen Root (Milton), Gary Cole (Bill Lumbergh), John C. McGinley (Bob Slydell), Diedrich Bader (Lawrence), David Herman (Michael Bolton), Ajay Naidu (Samir), Michael McShane (Dr Swanson), Richard Riehle (Tom Smykowski)
'This satirical comedy about white-collar wage-slavery is amusing and accessible enough to have wide-ranging appeal.' – Joe Leydon, Variety

An Officer and a Gentleman ★
US 1982 126m Metrocolor
Paramount/Lorimar (Martin Elfand)
A potential officer suffers thirteen weeks of agony at the Naval Aviation Officer Candidate School.
Old-hat stuff given a fresh look and some smart acting.
w Douglas Day Stewart d Taylor Hackford
ph Donald Thorin m Jack Nitzsche
pd Philip M. Jefferies
☆ Richard Gere, Debra Winger, Louis Gossett Jnr, David Keith, Lisa Blount, Lisa Eilbacher
'Shamelessly manipulative, but whether the manipulations are funny, dramatic or tear-jerking, it knows exactly what and how to deliver.' – Sunday Telegraph
† John Travolta turned down the lead because 'I was just more interested in pursuing my actual life as a jet pilot than my film life as a jet pilot'.
♟ Louis Gossett Jnr (as supporting actor); song 'Up Where We Belong' by Jack Nitzsche, Buffy Sainte-Marie (m), Will Jennings (ly)
♘ Debra Winger; original screenplay; editing (Peter Zinner); music

The Officers' Ward: see La Chambre des Officiers

The Official Version ★★
Argentina 1985 115m Eastmancolor
Virgin/Almi/HistoriasCinematograficas/Progress Communications (Marcelo Pineyro) original title: La Historia Oficial
aka: The Official Story
A teacher begins to realize that her adopted daughter was probably the child of parents murdered by the regime under which she lives.
Strong and moving drama of the stirrings of a political conscience.
w Aida Bortnik, Luis Puenzo d Luis Puenzo ph Felix Monti m Atilio Stampone ad Abel Facello ed Juan Carlos Macias
☆ Hector Alterio, Norma Aleandro, Chela Ruiz, Chunchuna Villafane, Hugo Arana, Patricio Contreras
♟ best foreign film
♘ screenplay

Offret: see The Sacrifice

Offside ★★ (8)
Iran 2006 92m
Artificial Eye (Jafar Panahi)
A group of soccer-loving teenage girls decide to pass themselves off as boys to gate-crash the Iran-Bahrain game at Tehran stadium, a 2006 World Cup qualifying match.
Director Jafar Panahi provides a sharp, fast-paced comedy about the deprivation for women of basic human rights under Iran's strict segregation policies between the sexes. Lively ensemble playing from the soccer "boys," all non-professional, enhances its minimalist appeal.
w Jafar Panahi / Shadmehr Rastin d Jafar Panahi ph Mahmoud Kalari ad Iraj Raminfar ed Jafar Panahi ☆ Sima Mobarak-Shahi (First girl), Shayesteh Irani (Smoking girl), Ayda Sadeqi (Soccer girl), Golnaz Farmani (Girl with tchador), Mahnaz Zabihi (Female Soldier), Nazanin Sediq-zadeh (Young girl), Safdar Samandar (Soldier from Azerbaijan)
'It's a wisp of a movie, but it has stayed with me longer than much supposedly weightier fare.' – Peter Rainer, Christian Science Monitor
'The amateur ensemble cast and superb satire make this one of the best football films going.' – David Parkinson, Empire

Oggi a Me ... Domani a Te!: see Today It's Me, Tomorrow You!

Oh Dad, Poor Dad, Mamma's Hung You in the Closet and I'm Feelin' So Sad
US 1966 86m Technicolor
Paramount/Seven Arts (Ray Stark, Stanley Rubin)
A dead father helps his son to get married despite his mother's influence to the contrary.
Zany black comedy which never really worked on the stage, let alone the screen.
w Ian Bernard play Arthur Kopit
d Richard Quine ph Geoffrey Unsworth
m Neal Hefti
☆ Rosalind Russell, Jonathan Winters, Robert Morse, Hugh Griffith, Barbara Harris, Lionel Jeffries, Cyril Delevanti, Hiram Sherman

Oh, Daddy!
GB 1935 77m bw
Gaumont-British/Gainsborough (Michael Balcon)
Aristocratic and abstemious members of the League of Purity are converted to pleasure by a trip to London.
A not very successful transfer of a stage play to the screen, though the stars occasionally show why they were so admired by their theatre audiences.
w Michael Powell, Austin Melford play Franz Arnold, Ernst Bach d Graham Cutts, Austin Melford ph Mutz Greenbaum (Max Greene) m/ly Sam Coslow md Louis Levy ad Ernö Metzner ed Charles Frend ☆ Leslie Henson, Frances Day, Robertson Hare, Barry Mackay, Marie Löhr, Alfred Drayton, Tony de Lungo, Daphne Courtney

Oh Doctor
US 1937 67m bw
Universal
A rich hypochondriac is the target of confidence tricksters.
Moderate star comedy.
d Edmund Grainger
☆ Edward Everett Horton, Donrue Leighton, Eve Arden, Thurston Hall, William Demarest
'Smooth dialogue keeps this hokey picture from going completely corkscrew.' – Variety

Oh! For a Man!: see Will Success Spoil Rock Hunter?

'It's an almighty laugh!'

Oh, God ★
US 1977 104m Technicolor
Warner (Jerry Weintraub)
A bewildered supermarket manager is enlisted by God to prove to the world that it can only work if people try.
Overlong but generally amiable reversion to the supernatural farces of the forties: its success seems to show that people again need this kind of comfort.
w Larry Gelbart novel Avery Corman
d Carl Reiner ph Victor Kemper m Jack Elliott
☆ George Burns, John Denver, Ralph Bellamy, Donald Pleasence, Teri Garr, William Daniels, Barnard Hughes, Paul Sorvino, Barry Sullivan, Dinah Shore, Jeff Corey, David Ogden Stiers
'Undeniably funny and almost impossible to dislike.' – Tom Milne, MFB
'Basically a single-joke movie: George Burns is God in a football cap.' – Pauline Kael, New Yorker
♘ Larry Gelbart

Oh God Book Two
US 1980 94m Technicolor
Warner (Gilbert Cates)
God enlists a child to remind people that he is still around.
Crass sequel with sentiment replacing jokes.
w Josh Greenfeld, Hal Goldman, Fred S. Fox, Seaman Jacobs, Melissa Miller
d Gilbert Cates ph Ralph Woolsey
m Charles Fox pd Preston Ames ed Peter E. Berger
☆ George Burns, Suzanne Pleshette, David Birney, Louanne, Howard Duff, Hans Conried, Wilfrid Hyde-White

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · ♟ Academy Award · ♘ Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Oh God, You Devil

US 1984 96m Technicolor
Warner (Robert M. Sherman)

A struggling musician sells his soul to the devil in exchange for success.
A comic version of Faust, appended to the two films in which George Burns played God; he now puts on the other hat to fairly, but not very, comic effect.
w Andrew Bergman d Paul Bogart
ph King Baggot m David Shire pd Peter Wooley ed Andy Zall ☆ George Burns, Ted Wass, Ron Silver, Roxanne Hart, Eugene Roche

Oh Heavenly Dog

US 1980 103m DeLuxe
Mulberry Square/TCF

A private eye is reincarnated as a dog and solves his own murder.
Witless fantasy comedy, an uncredited remake of You Never Can Tell which also rates as a Benji movie with curious additions of sex and profanity. A total muddle.
w Rod Browning, Joe Camp d Joe Camp
☆ Chevy Chase, Jane Seymour, Omar Sharif, Robert Morley, Alan Sues

Oh Men! Oh Women!

US 1957 90m Eastmancolor Cinemascope
TCF (Nunnally Johnson)

A psychoanalyst discovers that his wife is involved with two of his patients.
Scatty Broadway comedy which strains the patience.
wd Nunnally Johnson play Edward Chodorov ph Charles G. Clarke m Cyril Mockridge ☆ David Niven, Ginger Rogers, Dan Dailey, Barbara Rush, Tony Randall

'The ugliest sort of fun.' – Observer
'Cinemascope discovers a solution to the problem of filling its wide screen; the characters spend most of their time full length on the psychoanalyst's couch.' – Sunday Times

Oh Mr Porter ★★★★

GB 1937 84m bw
GFD/Gainsborough (Edward Black)

The stationmaster of an Irish halt catches gun-runners posing as ghosts.
Marvellous star comedy showing this trio of comedians at their best, and especially Hay as the seedy incompetent. The plot is borrowed from The Ghost Train, but each line and gag brings its own inventiveness. A delight of character comedy and cinematic narrative.
w Marriott Edgar, Val Guest, J. O. C. Orton story Frank Launder d Marcel Varnel
ph Arthur Crabtree md Louis Levy
☆ Will Hay (William Porter), Moore Marriott (Jeremiah Harbottle), Graham Moffatt (Albert Brown), Dave O'Toole (Postman), Dennis Wyndham (Grogan)

'That rare phenomenon: a film comedy without a dud scene.' – Peter Barnes, 1964
'Behind it lie the gusty uplands of the British music hall tradition, whose rich soil the British film industry is at last beginning to exploit.' – Basil Wright
† The Region 2 DVD release is part of a two-disc set with Convict 99.

Oh Rosalinda!

GB 1955 105m Technicolor Cinemascope
ABP/Powell and Pressburger

A playboy in four-power Vienna plays a practical joke on four officers and the flirtatious wife of one of them.
Lumbering attempt to modernize Die Fledermaus, unsuitably wide-screened and totally lacking the desired Lubitsch touch. A monumental step in the decline of these producers, and a sad stranding of a brilliant cast.
wd Michael Powell, Emeric Pressburger
ph Christopher Challis m Johann Strauss ad Hein Heckroth ☆ Anton Walbrook, Michael Redgrave, Anthony Quayle, Mel Ferrer, Dennis Price, Ludmilla Tcherina

Oh What a Lovely War ★★

GB 1969 144m Technicolor Panavision
Paramount/Accord (Brian Duffy, Richard Attenborough)

A fantasia with music on World War I.
A brave all-star attempt which comes off only in patches; the pier apparatus from the stage show really doesn't translate, the piece only works well when it becomes cinematic, as in the recruiting song and the final track-back from the graves. But there are many pleasures, as well as yawns, along the way.
w Len Deighton stage show Joan Littlewood, Charles Chilton d Richard Attenborough ph Gerry Turpin m various md Alfred Ralston pd Don Ashton
☆ Ralph Richardson, Meriel Forbes, John Gielgud, Kenneth More, John Clements, Paul Daneman, Joe Melia, Jack Hawkins, John Mills, Maggie Smith, Michael Redgrave, Laurence Olivier, Susannah York, Dirk Bogarde, Phyllis Calvert and also Vanessa Redgrave

'This musical lampoon is meant to stir your sentiments, evoke nostalgia, and make you react to the obscenity of battles and bloodshed, and apparently it does all that for some people.' – New Yorker, 1977
'A naïve, sentimental, populist affair, using many (too many) clever devices yet making the same old simplistic statements.' – John Simon
'An overlong and rarely cinematic musical satire that ladles its anti-war message on by the bucketload.' – Time Out, 1984
BAFTA cinematography; production design; Laurence Olivier

Oh, What a Night

Canada 1992 93m colour
Norstar (Peter Simpson)

In the 50s, a teenager moves with his father to live in Ontario and becomes infatuated with a married woman.
Routine drama of teenage fumblings to a soundtrack of gentler hits of the period.
w Richard Nielsen d Eric Till ph Brian R. R. Hebb m Ian Thomas ad David Moe ed Susan Shipton ☆ Corey Haim, Barbara Williams, Keir Dullea, Genevieve Bujold, Robbie Coltrane, Andrew Miller

Oh You Beautiful Doll ★

US 1949 93m Technicolor
TCF (George Jessel)

Fred Fisher wants to write opera but is more successful with pop songs.
Standard turn-of-the-century biopic, very pleasantly handled and performed.
w Albert and George Lewis d John M. Stahl ph Harry Jackson md Alfred Newman
☆ S. Z. Sakall, Mark Stevens, June Haver, Charlotte Greenwood, Jay C. Flippen, Gale Robbins

O'Hara's Wife

US 1982 87m DeLuxe
David-Panzer

A widower is helped by his wife's ghost.
Rather icky sentimental comedy.
w James Nasella, William S. Bartman
d William S. Bartman
☆ Ed Asner, Mariette Hartley, Jodie Foster, Perry Lang, Tom Bosley, Ray Walston

Ohayo: see Good Morning

Oil for the Lamps of China ★

US 1935 98m bw
Warner (Robert Lord)

The career in China of an American oil company representative.
Adequate general audience picture from a bestseller.
w Laird Doyle novel Alice Tisdale Hobart d Mervyn Le Roy ph Tony Gaudio
m Heinz Roemheld md Leo F. Forbstein
☆ Pat O'Brien, Josephine Hutchinson, Jean Muir, Lyle Talbot, Arthur Byron, John Eldredge, Henry O'Neill, Donald Crisp

'Long and choppy version of a best-seller novel. Little marquee strength will probably mean light returns.' – Variety
'Far above average in performance, direction and content.' – John Baxter, 1968 † Remade 1941 as Law of the Tropics.

Okay ★★

Denmark 2002 97m colour
Metropolis/Angel//TV2/Peter Bech

When her dying father moves in with his controlling daughter, she finds her life in turmoil: her husband begins an affair, her teenage daughter is rebellious, and her estranged brother becomes a donor to a lesbian couple who want a child.
Deft and insightful drama of family relationships and human frailties, with excellent performances.
w Kim Fupz Aakeson d Jesper W. Nielsen ph Erik Zappon m Halfdan E, Nikolaj Steen, Jesper Winge Leisner pd Peter de Neergaard ed Morten Giese ☆ Paprika Steen (Nete), Troels Lyby (Kristian), Ole Ernst, Nicolaj Kopernikus (Martin), Molly Blixt Egelind (Katrine), Laura Drasbaek (Tanja)

'Modestly produced but extremely sympathetic and honest pic' – David Stratton, Variety

Okay America

US 1932 80m bw
Universal
GB title: Penalty of Fame

A brash reporter saves a politician's daughter from kidnapping.
Okay melodrama remade in 1939 as Risky Business.
w William Anthony McGuire d Tay Garnett
☆ Lew Ayres, Maureen O'Sullivan, Louis Calhern, Walter Catlett, Edward Arnold

OK Connery: see Operation Kid Brother

'A picture straight from the heart of America!'

Oklahoma! ★★

US 1955 143m Technicolor Todd-AO
Magna/Rodgers and Hammerstein (Arthur Hornblow Jnr)

A cowboy wins his girl despite the intervention of a sinister hired hand.
Much of the appeal of the musical was in its simple timeworn story and stylized sets; the film makes the first merely boring and the latter are replaced by standard scenery, not even of Oklahoma. The result is efficient rather than startling or memorable.
w Sonya Levien, William Ludwig book Oscar Hammerstein play Green Grow the Rushes by Lynn Riggs d Fred Zinnemann ph Robert Surtees m Robert Russell Bennett, Jay Blackton, Adolph Deutsch pd Oliver Smith ed Gene Ruggiero, George Boemler songs Richard Rodgers, Oscar Hammerstein II
☆ Gordon MacRae, Shirley Jones, Rod Steiger, Gloria Grahame, Charlotte Greenwood, Gene Nelson, Eddie Albert
♫ 'Oh, What a Beautiful Mornin'"; 'The Surrey with the Fringe on Top'; 'Kansas City'; 'I Can't Say More'; 'Many a New Day'; 'People Will Say We're in Love'; 'Pore Jud'; 'Out of My Dreams'; 'The Farmer and the Cowman'; 'All or Nothing'; 'Oklahoma!' Academy Award music score
Academy Award Robert Surtees; editing

'A story of wooden derricks, iron men, and a defiant woman!'

Oklahoma Crude ★

US 1973 111m Technicolor
Columbia/Stanley Kramer

In 1913, a drifting oil man stops to help a girl develop her rig.
Dour, downbeat melodrama with restricted action and much bad language; within its lights quite entertaining, but odd.
w Marc Norman d Stanley Kramer ph Robert Surtees m Henry Mancini
pd Alfred Sweeney
☆ Faye Dunaway, George C. Scott, John Mills, Jack Palance, Woodrow Parfrey

The Oklahoma Kid ★★

US 1939 80m bw
Warner (Samuel Bischoff)

During the settlement of the Cherokee Strip a cowboy avenges the unjust lynching of his father.
Competent but slightly disappointing star Western memorable for the clash in this guise of its protagonists, more usually seen as gangsters.
w Warren Duff, Robert Buckner, Edward E. Paramore d Lloyd Bacon ph James Wong Howe m Max Steiner
☆ James Cagney, Humphrey Bogart, Rosemary Lane, Donald Crisp, Harvey Stephens, Charles Middleton, Edward Pawley, Ward Bond

'Its b.o. potency will depend on Cagney's name and draw, rather than story or production, neither of which is commendable.' – Variety
'There's something entirely disarming about the way he has tackled horse opera, not pretending for a minute to be anything but New York's Jimmy Cagney all dressed up as a Robin Hood of the old west.' – Frank Nugent

The Oklahoma Woman

US 1956 72m bw SuperScope
ARC/Sunset (Roger Corman)

After six years in jail, a gunfighter returns home in search of a quiet life to find that his former girlfriend is taking over the town.
Cliché-ridden Western that follows a familiar story with no sign of enthusiasm.
w Lou Rusoff d Roger Corman ph Fred West m Ronald Stein ed Ronald Sinclair
☆ Richard Denning, Peggie Castle, Cathy Downs, Touch Connors, Martin Kingsley, Tudor Owen, Jonathan Haze, Richard Miller, Edmund Cobb

The Oklahoman

US 1956 78m DeLuxe Cinemascope
Walter Mirisch/Allied Artists

A widowed doctor becomes the subject of gossip when he takes an Indian girl for his housekeeper.
Rather curious domestic Western which erupts into action sequences but devotes too much time to talk and romance.
w Daniel B. Ullman d Francis D. Lyon
ph Carl Guthrie m Hans Salter
☆ Joel McCrea, Barbara Hale, Brad Dexter, Gloria Talbott, Michael Pate

Old Acquaintance **

US 1943 110m bw
Warner (Henry Blanke)

Two jealous lady novelists interfere in each other's love lives.
A dated but rather splendid battle of the wild cats, with two stars fighting their way through a plush production and a rather overlong script.
w John Van Druten, Lenore Coffee play John Van Druten d Vincent Sherman
ph Sol Polito m Franz Waxman
☆ Bette Davis, Miriam Hopkins, Gig Young, John Loder, Dolores Moran, Philip Reed, Roscoe Karns, Anne Revere

'The odd thing is that the two ladies and the director can make the whole business look fairly intelligent, detailed and plausible; and that on the screen such trash can seem, even, mature and adventurous.' – James Agee
'Trashy fun, on an unusually literate level.' – New Yorker, 1978

Old and New: see The General Line

Old Bones of the River *

GB 1938 90m bw
GFD/Gainsborough (Edward Black)

A teacher in Africa accidentally quells a native rising.
Tediously funny star comedy; enough said.
w Marriott Edgar, Val Guest, J. O. C. Orton
character Edgar Wallace d Marcel Varnel ph Arthur Crabtree m Louis Levy ad Vetchinsky
☆ Will Hay, Moore Marriott, Graham Moffatt, Robert Adams, Jack Livesey

Old Boyfriends *

US 1978 103m Technicolor
Edward R. Pressman Productions (Paul Schrader)

A divorcee survives a nervous breakdown and goes on a journey of her past life to find out where she went wrong.
Low-key and somehow rather flat romantic odyssey, with interesting sequences and characters muted by the director's jaundiced eye.
w Paul and Leonard Schrader d Joan Tewkesbury ph William A. Fraker
m David Shire
☆ Talia Shire, Richard Jordan, John Belushi, Keith Carradine, John Houseman, Buck Henry, Bethel Leslie

The Old Curiosity Shop *

GB 1934 95m bw
BIP (Walter C. Mycroft)

The lives of a gambler and his granddaughter are affected by a miserly dwarf.
Heavy-going Dickens novel given reasonably rich production and well enough acted; sentimentality prevented a remake until the unsuccessful Mister Quilp (qv) in 1975.
w Margaret Kennedy, Ralph Neale novel Charles Dickens d Thomas Bentley
ph Claude Friese-Greene
☆ Hay Petrie, Ben Webster, Elaine Benson, Beatrice Thompson, Gibb McLaughlin, Reginald Purdell, Polly Ward

The Old Curiosity Shop: see Mister Quilp (1975)

'Beware The Night!'

The Old Dark House ***

US 1932 71m bw
Universal (Carl Laemmle Jnr)

Stranded travellers take refuge in the house of a family of eccentrics.
Marvellous horror comedy filled with superb grotesques and memorable lines, closely based on a Priestley novel but omitting the more thoughtful moments. A stylist's and connoisseur's treat.
w Benn W. Levy, R. C. Sherriff novel Benighted by J. B. Priestley d James Whale ph Arthur Edeson ad Charles D. Hall ed Clarence Kolster
☆ Melvyn Douglas (Roger Penderell), Charles Laughton (Sir William Porterhouse), Raymond Massey (Philip Waverton), Boris Karloff (Morgan), Ernest Thesiger (Horace Femm), Eva Moore (Rebecca Femm), Gloria Stuart (Margaret Waverton), Lillian Bond (Gladys DuCane), Brember Wills (Saul Femm), John Dudgeon (Elspeth Dudgeon) (Sir Roderick Femm)

'Somewhat inane, it's a cinch for trick ballyhooing. Better for the nabes than the big keys.' – Variety
'An unbridled camp fantasy directed with great wit.' – Charles Higham
'Each threat as it appears is revealed to be burlap and poster paint ... despite storm, attempted rape and a remarkable final chase, the film is basically a confidence trick worked with cynical humour by a brilliant technician.' – John Baxter, 1968
'Basically a jeu d'esprit in which comedy of manners is edged into tragedy of horrors, the film never puts a foot wrong.' – Tom Milne, MFB, 1978
† The Region 1 DVD release includes commentary by Gloria Stuart and by James Whale's biographer James Curtis.

'The ghost doesn't walk in this family – it runs riot!'

The Old Dark House

GB 1962 86m Eastmancolor
Columbia/Hammer/William Castle

An American accepts an invitation to visit Femm Manor and finds the inhabitants either mad or homicidal.
A travesty which has nothing to do with the 1932 film and possesses no merit of its own. The cast is left floundering.
w Robert Dillon d William Castle
ph Arthur Grant m Benjamin Frankel ☆ Tom Poston, Janette Scott, Robert Morley, Joyce Grenfell, Mervyn Johns, Fenella Fielding, Peter Bull

Old Dracula: see Vampira

'Come and meet a grand old sinner!'

Old English

US 1930 87m bw
Warner

In order to provide for his grandchildren, a financier makes certain illegal arrangements which involve his prearranged death.
Satisfying pattern play arranged for its star.
w Walter Anthony, Maude Howell play John Galsworthy d Alfred E. Green ☆ George Arliss, Leon Janney, Doris Lloyd, Betty Lawford, Ivan Simpson

'Will call for most careful placement by chains and indies to draw the class trade it will only appeal to.' – Variety

Old Enough

US 1984 91m colour
Silverfilm (Dina Silver)

During one summer, a rich girl learns about life from a poor girl.
A dull movie about the first slow stirrings of adolescence.
wd Marisa Silver ph Michael Ballhaus
m Julian Marshall pd Jeffrey Townsend
ed Mark Burns
☆ Sarah Boyd, Rainbow Harvest, Neill Barry, Danny Aiello, Fran Brill

Old Gringo

US 1989 120m DeLuxe
Columbia TriStar (Lois Bonfiglio)

The writer Ambrose Bierce and an American schoolteacher become involved in the Mexican revolution of Pancho Villa.
Confused romantic drama that attempts large gestures and bungles even small ones.
w Aida Bortnik, Luis Puenzo novel Gringo Viejo by Carlos Fuentes d Luis Puenzo
ph Felix Monti m Lee Holdridge
pd Stuart Wurtzel, Bruno Rubeo ed Juan Carlos Macias, William Anderson, Glenn Farr
☆ Jane Fonda, Gregory Peck, Jimmy Smits, Patricio Contreras, Jenny Gago, Gabriela Roel, Sergio Calderon
† The film cost $25m and took around $2m at the US box-office.

Old Hutch

US 1936 80m bw
MGM

An idler finds a fortune but can't spend it because everybody knows he hasn't worked for years.
Satisfactory star comedy.
w George Kelly d J. Walter Ruben
☆ Wallace Beery, Elizabeth Patterson, Eric Linden, Cecilia Parker, Donald Meek, Virginia Grey

'Hasn't the backbone usually associated with Wallace Beery's vehicles. A nice light comedy which will doubtless garner fair box office.' – Variety

Old Iron

GB 1938 80m bw
TW Productions/British Lion

A shipping magnate disowns his son for marrying against his will, but a car accident reconciles them.
Very boring drama, an odd choice for this star, who can't cope with it.
w Ben Travers d Tom Walls
☆ Tom Walls, Eva Moore, Cecil Parker, Richard Ainley, David Tree, Enid Stamp-Taylor

'An embarrassing little stage comedy of parental affection, shot hurriedly from the front as you would shoot a charging lion.' – Graham Greene

Old Joy * (8)

US 2006 76m
Soda Pictures/Film Science/Van Hoy/Knudsen Productions/Washington Square Films (Lars Knudsen, Neil Kopp, Anish Savjani, Jay Van Hoy)

Two old friends spend a weekend camping in the Pacific Northwest.
Thoughtful, unhurried meditation on memory, friendship and the passing of time.
w Kelly Reichardt, Jonathan Raymond story Jonathan Raymond d Kelly Reichardt
ph Peter Sillen m Yo La Tengo ed Kelly Reichardt ☆ Will Oldham (Kurt), Daniel London (Mark), Tanya Smith (Tanya)
KURT: "Sorrow is nothing but worn-out joy."

'A spare and satisfying experience.' – Steve Rose, Guardian
'Visually stunning, quietly insightful and more than a little hard to endure.' – Frank Scheck, Hollywood Reporter
† Will Oldham is better known in the US as alternative country singer Bonnie 'Prince' Billy.

The Old Lady Who Walked in the Sea

France 1991 94m colour
Gala/Blue Dahlia/SFC/A2/Little Bear/JM Productions (Gérard Jourd'hui)

original title: La vieille qui marchait dans la mer
Two aged confidence tricksters fall out after they take on a young apprentice in crime.
A defiantly tasteless and foul-mouthed comedy that somehow manages to charm as well, mainly due to Moreau's imperious performance.
w Dominique Roulet, Laurent Heynemann novel San Antonio d Laurent Heynemann ph Robert Alazraki m Philippe Sarde
pd Valérie Grall ed Jacques Comets
☆ Jeanne Moreau, Michel Serrault, Luc Thuillier, Geraldine Danon, Jean Bouchaud, Marie-Dominique Aumont, Hester Wilcox

'A film to test the audience's patience.' – Geoff Brown, The Times
'Tasteless, vulgar and even badly shot.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

The Old Maid **

US 1939 95m bw
Warner (Henry Blanke)

When her suitor is killed in the Civil War, an unmarried mother lets her childless cousin bring up her daughter as her own.
A 'woman's picture' par excellence, given no-holds-barred treatment by all concerned but a little lacking in surprise.
w Casey Robinson play Zoe Akins novel Edith Wharton d Edmund Goulding
ph Tony Gaudio m Max Steiner md Leo F. Forbstein ☆ Bette Davis, Miriam Hopkins, George Brent, Jane Bryan, Donald Crisp, Louise Fazenda, James Stephenson, Jerome Cowan, William Lundigan, Rand Brooks

'Stagey, sombre and generally confusing fare. Must aim for the femme trade chiefly.' – Variety
'It is better than average and sticks heroically to its problem, forsaking all delights and filling a whole laundry bag with wet and twisted handkerchiefs.' – Otis Ferguson
'The picture isn't bad, but it trudges along and never becomes exciting.' – New Yorker, 1977

The Old Man and the Sea *

US 1958 89m Technicolor
Warner/Leland Hayward

An old fisherman dreams of hooking a great fish.
Expensive but poor-looking and stultifyingly dull one-character drama with variable production effects, a low key Moby Dick.
Interesting but not effective.
w Peter Viertel novella Ernest Hemingway
d John Sturges ph James Wong Howe, Floyd Crosby, Tom Tutweiler, Larna Boren
m Dimitri Tiomkin

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

☆ Spencer Tracy, Felipe Pazos, Harry Bellaver

'A literary property about as suited for the movie medium as The Love Song of J. Alfred Prufrock.' – Time

'A strange amalgam of practically unassisted acting, good camerawork and editing, and a lot of special effects.' – Ernest Callenbach, Film Quarterly

'Tracy struggles valiantly with the endless monologues ... misguided in the extreme.' – Time Out, 1984

'This is not a picture audiences are going to tear down the doors to see.' – Motion Picture Herald

† It was remade as a TV film in 1990, starring Anthony Quinn.

Dimitri Tiomkin

James Wong Howe; Spencer Tracy

Old Man Rhythm

US 1935 75m bw
Radio

A wealthy businessman becomes a college freshman to prevent his son marrying a gold-digger.

Amiable, relentlessly cheerful musical entertainment that passes the time pleasantly.

w Sig Herzig, Ernest Pagano, H. W. Hanemann d Edward Ludwig ph Nick Musuraca m/ly Lewis Gensler, Johnny Mercer md Roy Webb ch Hermes Pan ad Van Nest Polglase ed George Crone

☆ Charles Buddy Rogers, George Barbier, Barbara Kent, Grace Bradley, Betty Grable, Eric Blore, Erik Rhodes, John Arledge, Johnny Mercer, Donald Meek

Old Mother Riley

This Irish washerwoman with flailing arms and a nice line in invective was a music hall creation of Arthur Lucan, a variation of a pantomime dame. His wife Kitty McShane played Mother Riley's daughter, and despite personal difficulties they were top of the bill for nearly 30 years. Their first film was Stars on Parade, a collection of music-hall acts, in 1935.

The films were very cheaply made and the padding is difficult to sit through, but Lucan at his best is a superb comedian: they were made for small independent companies such as Butcher's and usually directed by Maclean Rogers.

1937 Old Mother Riley
1938 Old Mother Riley in Paris
1939 Old Mother Riley MP, Old Mother Riley Joins Up
1940 Old Mother Riley in Business, Old Mother Riley's Ghosts
1941 Old Mother Riley's Circus
1942 Old Mother Riley in Society
1943 Old Mother Riley Detective, Old Mother Riley Overseas
1944 Old Mother Riley at Home
1947 Old Mother Riley's New Venture
1949 Old Mother Riley's Jungle Treasure
1950 Old Mother Riley Headmistress (qv)
1952 Mother Riley Meets the Vampire

Old Mother Riley Headmistress

GB 1950 75m bw
Renown (Harry Reynolds)

Old Mother Riley, annoyed that her daughter has been unfairly sacked as a music teacher, buys the school.

A lacklustre comedy that fails to capitalize on Arthur Lucan's anarchic knockabout skills, insisting on a sympathetic mother–daughter relationship rather than the antagonistic one of his music-hall act.

w John Harlow, Ted Kavanagh story Jackie Marks, Con West d John Harlow ph James Wilson md George Melachrino ad C. Wilfred Arnold ed Douglas Myers

☆ Arthur Lucan, Kitty McShane, Willer Neal, Cyril Smith, C. Denier Warren, Enid Hewit, Paul Sheridan, Harry Herbert, The Luton Girls' Choir

'All the fun of college, none of the education.'

Old School

US 2003 90m Technicolor
UIP/DreamWorks/Montecito (Daniel Goldberg, Joe Medjuck, Todd Phillips)

When their bachelor pad on the edge of a university is designated as campus housing, three men form their own fraternity and party on.

Haphazard collection of poor jokes pretending to be a movie.

w Todd Phillips, Scot Armstrong d Todd Phillips ph Mark Irwin m Theodore Shapiro pd Clark Hunter ed Michael Jablow

☆ Luke Wilson (Mitch), Will Ferrell (Frank), Vince Vaughn (Beanie), Jeremy Piven (Pritchard), Ellen Pompeo (Nicole), Juliette Lewis (Heidi), Leah Remini (Lara), Perrey Reeves (Marissa)

'Appalling... shameful' – Philip French, Observer

'Deliberately stupid movie whose crazy charm wins you over in the end.' – Jami Bernard, New York Daily News

The Old Woman Who Walked in the Sea: see The Old Lady Who Walked in the Sea

Old Yeller ★

US 1957 83m Technicolor
Walt Disney

The love of a boy for his dog.

Archetypal family movie set in a remote rural area.

w Fred Gipson, William Tunberg novel Fred Gipson d Robert Stevenson ph Charles P. Boyle m Oliver Wallace

☆ Dorothy McGuire, Fess Parker, Tommy Kirk, Kevin Corcoran, Jeff York, Chuck Connors

'You dastard! Get thee hence or I shall smite thee in the puss!'

The Old-Fashioned Way ★

US 1934 74m bw
Paramount/ (William Le Baron)

Adventures of The Great McGonigle and his troupe of travelling players.

Period comedy tailored for its star and incorporating fragments of The Drunkard. Not so funny as it might be, but essential for students.

w Garnett Weston, Jack Cunningham, Charles Bogle (W. C. Fields) d William Beaudine ph Benjamin Reynolds m Harry Revel

☆ W. C. Fields, Joe Morrison, Judith Allen, Jan Duggan, Jack Mulhall, Baby Leroy

'15 years forced in a cell, only 5 days given to seek revenge.'

Oldboy ★★

South Korea 2004 120m colour 'Scope
Tartan/Show East/Egg (Kim Dong-ju)

original title: Oldeuboi

A man seeks his revenge after being locked up by unknown assailants for fifteen years and framed for the murder of his wife.

An intense and violent drama of vengeance and self-harm that remains both intriguing and terrifying until the over-contrived final moments.

w Hwang Jo-yun, Lim Jun-hyeong, Park Chan-wook story Garon Tsuchiya, Nobuaki Minegishi d Park Chan-wook ph Jeong Jeong-hun m Shim Hyeon-jeong, Lee Ji-su, Choi Sang-beom pd Yu Seong-heui ed Kim Sang-beom

☆ Choi Min-sik (Oh Daesu), Yu Ji-tae (Woo Jin), Gang Hye-jeong (Mido)

'This is cinema that holds an edge of cold steel against your throat.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

'A powerful film not because of what it depicts, but because of the depths of the human heart which it strips bare.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times

The Oldest Profession

France/West Germany/Italy 1967 115m
Eastmancolor
Gibe/Francoriz/Rialto/Rizzoli

Six sketches about prostitution.

Very variable portmanteau, with moments of interest towards the end.

w Ennio Flaiano, Daniel Boulanger, Georges and André Tabet, Jean Aurenche, Jean-Luc Godard d Franco Indovina, Mauro Bolognini, Philippe de Broca, Michel Pfleghar, Claude Autant-Lara, Jean-Luc Godard

☆ Michele Mercier, Elsa Martinelli, Jeanne Moreau, Jean-Claude Brialy, Raquel Welch, Nadia Gray, Anna Karina

Oldeuboi: see Old Boy

Oleanna

US 1994 89m DuArt
Samuel Goldwyn/Channel 4/Bay Kinescope
(Patricia Wolff, Sarah Green)

An unhappy and pedantic professor is accused of sexually harassing a female student, who finds herself unable to understand the course he is teaching.

A controversial and successful two-character play transfers poorly to the screen, where the performances seem too aggressive to compel attention; it is less to do with sexual or male–female relationships than with an exploration of how we use language and what we mean by what we say.

wd David Mamet play David Mamet ph Andrzej Sekula m Rebecca Pidgeon ed Barbara Tulliver

☆ William H. Macy, Debra Eisenstadt

'This film never finds the magic balance between genre convention and sociopolitical currents. Its relevance to sexual harassment is on the same level as "The Hand That Rocks the Cradle's" analysis of contemporary babysitting.' – Leonard Klady, Variety

Olga's Chinon: see Le Chignon D'Olga

'Much much more than a musical!'

Oliver! ★★★

GB 1968 146m Technicolor
Panavision 70
Columbia/Warwick/Romulus (John Woolf)

A musical version of Oliver Twist.

The last, perhaps, of the splendid film musicals which have priced themselves out of existence; it drags a little in spots but on the whole it does credit both to the show and the original novel, though eclipsed in style by David Lean's straight version.

w Vernon Harris play Lionel Bart novel Charles Dickens d Carol Reed ph Oswald Morris m Lionel Bart md John Green ch Onna White pd John Box ad Terence Marsh ed Ralph Kemplen

☆ Ron Moody (Fagin), Oliver Reed (Bill Sikes), Harry Secombe (Mr. Bumble), Mark Lester (Oliver Twist), Shani Wallis (Nancy), Jack Wild (The Artful Dodger), Hugh Griffith (The Magistrate), Joseph O'Conor (Mr. Brownlow), Leonard Rossiter (Mr. Sowerberry), Hylda Baker (Mrs. Sowerberry), Peggy Mount (Widow Corney), Megs Jenkins (Mrs. Bedwin)

'Only time will tell if it is a great film but it is certainly a great experience.' – Joseph Morgenstern

'There is a heightened discrepancy between the romping jollity with which everyone goes about his business and the actual business being gone about ... such narrative elements as the exploitation of child labour, pimping, abduction, prostitution and murder combine to make Oliver! the most non-U subject ever to receive a U certificate.' – Jan Dawson

♫ 'Food Glorious Food'; 'Where Is Love'; 'Boy for Sale'; 'Consider Yourself'; 'You've Got to Pick a Pocket'; 'It's a Fine Life'; 'I'd Do Anything'; 'Be Back Soon'; 'Who Will Buy'; 'As Long As He Needs Me'; 'Reviewing the Situation'; 'Oom-Pah-Pah'; 'Oliver'

best picture; Carol Reed; John Green; Onna White; sound

Vernon Harris; Oswald Morris; Ron Moody; Jack Wild; costumes (Phyllis Dalton); editing

Oliver and Company ★

US 1988 74m Metrocolor
Warner/Walt Disney/Silver Screen Partners III

A kitten becomes friends with a gang of criminal dogs and their human master.

Episodic film, short on charm, that only now and then provides glimpses of stylish animation.

w Jim Cox, Timothy J. Disney, James Mangold novel Oliver Twist by Charles Dickens d George Scribner m J. A. C. Redford ad Dan Hansen ed Jim Melton, Mark Hester

☆ Featuring the voices of Joey Lawrence, Bill Joel, Cheech Marin, Richard Mulligan, Roscoe Lee Browne, Sheryl Lee Ralph, Dom DeLuise, Taurean Blacque, Carl Weintraub, Robert Loggia, Natalie Gregory, William Glover, Bette Midler

Oliver the Eighth

US 1933 20m bw
Hal Roach

Ollie goes on a blind date, and the lady turns out to be homicidal.

Star farce which never quite rises to the occasion; pleasant fooling but no more.

w anon d Lloyd French ph Art Lloyd ed Bert Jordan

☆ Stan Laurel, Oliver Hardy, Mae Busch, Jack Barty

Oliver Twist ★★★★

GB 1948 116m bw
GFD/Cineguild (Ronald Neame)

A foundling falls among thieves but is rescued by a benevolent old gentleman.

Simplified, brilliantly cinematic version of a voluminous Victorian novel, beautiful to look at and memorably played, with every scene achieving the perfect maximum impact.

w David Lean, Stanley Haynes novel Charles Dickens d David Lean ph Guy Green m Arnold Bax md Muir Mathieson pd John Bryan ed Jack Harris cos Margaret Furse

☆ Alec Guinness (Fagin), Robert Newton (Bill Sikes), Francis L. Sullivan (Mr Bumble), John Howard Davies (Oliver Twist), Kay Walsh (Nancy), Anthony Newley (The Artful Dodger), Henry Stephenson (Mr Brownlow),

Mary Clare (Mrs Corney), Gibb McLaughlin (Mr Sowerberry), Diana Dors (Charlotte)
'A thoroughly expert piece of movie entertainment.' – Richard Winnington
'A brilliant, fascinating movie, no less a classic than the Dickens novel which it brings to life.' – Time

Oliver Twist ★★ 6

GB/France/Czech Republic 2005 130m colour Panavision
Pathé/TriStar/RP/RO/Runteam II/Etic (Robert Benmussa, Alain Sarde, Roman Polanski)

The adventures of a workhouse orphan, who finds trouble and happiness when he runs away to London.
A version that brilliantly conveys the squalor and danger of London's slums, but, in dispensing with half the novel, it has also thrown out much of the original's grotesque humour; what is left is a swift moving story of survival.
w Ronald Harwood novel Charles Dickens d Roman Polanski ph Pawel Edelman m Rachel Portman pd Allan Starski ed Herve de Luze
☆ Ben Kingsley (Fagin), Barney Clark (Oliver Twist), Jamie Foreman (Bill Sykes), Harry Eden (Artful Dodger), Leanne Rowe (Nancy), Edward Hardwicke (Mr Brownlow), Ian McNeice (Mr Limbkins), Mark Strong (Toby Crackit)
'Soaring and accomplished... Polanski's Oliver Twist is by far the best I've seen or hope to see.' – John Irving
'The movie lacks any serious point of view about individuality, society, community.' – Philip French, Observer

Oliver's Story

US 1978 92m Technicolor
Paramount (David V. Picker)

A sequel to Love Story, showing how Oliver succumbed to depression but finally found another girlfriend.
Love means never having to watch this trendy rubbish.
w Erich Segal, John Korty d John Korty ph Arthur Ornitz m Francis Lai, Lee Holdridge
☆ Ryan O'Neal, Candice Bergen, Nicola Pagett, Edward Binns, Ray Milland

Olivier, Olivier ★★

France 1992 109m Eastmancolor
Gala/Oliane/A2 (Marie-Laure Reyre)

A middle-class family is thrown into confusion when a 15-year-old male prostitute claims to be the son who vanished six years earlier.
Engrossing examination of identity, credulity and family harmony.
w Agnieszka Holland, Yves Lapointe, Régis Debray d Agnieszka Holland ph Bernard Zitzermann m Zbigniew Preisner pd Helene Bourgy ed Isabelle Lorente ☆ François Cluzet, Brigitte Roüan, Jean-François Stévenin, Grégoire Colin, Marina Golovine, Frédéric Quiring
'What could have been a deadly mysterious tale becomes modestly intriguing, almost prosaic.' – Geoff Brown, The Times
'A seemingly simple but intriguing and ultimately powerful film.' – Variety

Olly Olly Oxen Free

US 1978 93m Metrocolor
Rico Lion (Richard A. Colla)
aka: The Great Balloon Adventure

A junkyard proprietress helps two young children to launch a decrepit hot-air balloon.
Simpleminded children's adventure with a surprising star.
w Eugene Poinc d Richard A. Colla ph Gayne Rescher m Bob Alcivar pd Peter Wooley
☆ Katharine Hepburn, Kevin McKenzie, Dennis Dimster

Los Olvidados ★★★

Mexico 1951 88m bw
Utramar/Oscar Dancigers

aka: The Young and the Damned

A good boy is contaminated by the young thugs in Mexico City's slums, and both he and his tormentor die violently.
Sober but penetrating analysis of social conditions leading to violence. The film was widely acclaimed, yet its very proficiency and excellent photography tend to glamorize its subject. Compare, however, the Hollywood resolutions of Dead End, on a similar subject.
w Luis Buñuel, Luis Alcoriza, Oscar Dancigers d Luis Buñuel ph Gabriel Figueroa m Gustavo Pitaluga ed Carlos Savage ☆ Alfonso Mejia (Pedro), Miguel Inclan (The Blind Man), Estela Inda (The Mother), Roberto Cobo (Jaibo)
'I shall not put Los Olvidados among the films I have most enjoyed; but I am far from sure that it should not go among the monuments of the cinema.' – Dilys Powell

Olympische Spiele ★★★

Germany 1936 225m bw
Leni Riefenstahl

An account of the Berlin Olympic Games.
This magnificent film is in no sense a mere reporting of an event. Camera movement, photography and editing combine with music to make it an experience truly olympian, especially in the introductory symbolic sequence suggesting the birth of the games. It was also, dangerously, a hymn to Nazi strength.
d Leni Riefenstahl ph Hans Ertl, Walter Franz and 42 others m Herbert Windt ed Leni Riefenstahl assistant Walter Ruttman
'Here is the camera doing superbly what only the camera can do: refashioning the rhythms of the visible; of the moment seen.' – Dilys Powell † Part 1 runs to 118m, and Part 2 to 107m.

The Omaha Trail

US 1942 62m bw
MGM

The laying of train track across the west causes Indian wars.
Brisk second-feature Western with good production values.
w Jesse Lasky Jnr, Hugo Butler d Edward Buzzell
☆ James Craig, Dean Jagger, Edward Ellis, Chill Wills, Donald Meek, Pamela Blake, Howard da Silva

'One thousand years ago, Omar Khayyam was a poet, a scientist and military leader so great that an army of Assassins dedicated to world domination fell before his genius!'

Omar Khayyam

US 1956 101m Technicolor Vistavision
Paramount (Frank Freeman Jnr)

The Persian poet and philosopher defends his Shah against the Assassins.
Clean but dull Arabian Nights fantasy with pantomime sets and no humour.
w Barre Lyndon d William Dieterle ph Ernest Laszlo m Victor Young ☆ Cornel Wilde, Michael Rennie, Raymond Massey, John Derek, Yma Sumac, Sebastian Cabot, Debra Paget

L'Ombre du Doute: see A Shadow of a Doubt

'Robots rule the Earth. Only one man can stop them.'

Omega Doom

US 1995 86m colour
Largo/Toga/Filmwerks (Gary Schmoeller, Tom Karnowski)

In a future nuclear winter, an android programmed to know the difference between right and wrong fights against rival robot gangs determined to rid the world of humanity.
Tepid science-fiction, influenced by the styles of spaghetti westerns and kung-fu movies, and a narrative that owes something to A Fistful of Dollars; but genre fans will be disappointed by the confusing and lacklustre action.
w Ed Naha, Albert Pyun d Albert Pyun ph George Mooradian m Tony Riparetti pd Nenad Pecur ed Ken Morrisey, Joe Shugart sp makeup: Maurine Schlenz, Dan Rebert cos Shelley Boies ☆ Rutger Hauer (Omega Doom), Shannon Whirr, Tina Coté, Anna Katarina, Jill Pierce, Jahi Zuri, Cynthia Ireland, Simon Poland, Earl White, Norbert Weisser (The Head)

The Omega Man ★

US 1971 98m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Walter Seltzer

In 1977 a plague resulting from germ warfare has decimated the world's population; in Los Angeles, one man wages war against loathsome carriers of the disease.
'Realistic' version of a novel which was about vampires taking over, and was previously filmed unsatisfactorily as The Last Man on Earth. This nasty version rises to a few good action sequences but is bogged down by talk in between.
w John William Corrington, Joyce H. Corrington novel I am Legend by Richard Matheson d Boris Sagal ph Russell Metty m Ron Grainer
☆ Charlton Heston, Rosalind Cash, Anthony Zerbe

'Good morning. You are one day closer to the end of the world!'

The Omen ★★

US 1976 111m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF (Harvey Bernhard)

The adopted child of an ambassador to Great Britain shows unnerving signs of being diabolically inspired.
Commercially successful variation on The Exorcist, quite professionally assembled and more enjoyable as entertainment than its predecessor.
w David Seltzer d Richard Donner ph Gil Taylor m Jerry Goldsmith ☆ Gregory Peck, Lee Remick, David Warner, Billie Whitelaw, Leo McKern, Harvey Stevens, Patrick Troughton, Anthony Nicholls, Martin Benson
'A cut above the rest in that it has an ingenious premise, a teasingly labyrinthine development, a neat sting in its tail, and enough confidence in its own absurdities to carry them off.' – David Robinson, The Times
'Dreadfully silly ... its horrors are not horrible, its terrors are not terrifying, its violence is ludicrous.' – New York Times
'More laughs than an average comedy.' – Judith Crist
'I did it strictly for the money.' – David Seltzer
† See Damien: Omen II and The Final Conflict.
†† Gregory Peck inherited his role from Charlton Heston, who turned it down.
♪ Jerry Goldsmith
♪ song 'Ave Satani'

'His Day Will Come.'

The Omen 4

US 2006 109m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF (Glenn Williamson, John Moore)

The US ambassador to Britain adopts a son who is sired by Satan.
Pointless remake that is in many respects a faithful copy of the original, but less accomplished and with a cast that does not match the star power of the original.
w David Seltzer d John Moore ph Jonathan Sela m Marco Beltrami pd Patrick Lumb ed Dan Zimmerman
☆ Julia Stiles (Katherine Thorn), Liev Schreiber (Robert Thorn), Mia Farrow (Mrs Baylock), David Thewlis (Keith Jennings), Pete Postlethwaite (Father Brennan), Michael Gambon (Bugenhagen), Seamus Davey-Fitzpatrick (Damien)
'Riveting, imaginative and ultimately bone-chillingly satisfying.' – Rex Reed, New York Observer

Omen III: The Final Conflict: see The Final Conflict

Omen IV: The Awakening

US 1991 97m colour
TCF/FNM (Harvey Bernhard)

A wealthy couple adopt a young girl who turns out to be the daughter of the Anti-Christ.
An American TV movie, virtually rehashing The Omen, that was given a cinema release elsewhere, it has all the sins of a film made for the small screen, looking cheap and clearly intended for audiences with brief attention spans.
w Brian Taggert d Jorge Montesi, Dominique Othenin-Girard ph Martin Fuhrer m Jonathan Sheffer pd Richard Wilcox ed Frank Irvine
☆ Faye Grant, Michael Woods, Michael Lerner, Madison Mason, Asia Vieira
'This mainly serves to remind you that, silly though they were, the earlier films were at least quality entertainment. Further sequels would be as welcome as a plague of locusts.' – Kim Newman, Empire
'While pic offers a few creepy moments, its structure is so convoluted that it's sheer hell to follow.' – Variety

On a Clear Day You Can See Forever ★

US 1970 129m Technicolor Panavision
Paramount (Howard Koch)

A psychiatric hypnotist helps a girl to stop smoking, and finds that in trances she remembers previous incarnations.
Romantic musical which tries, and fails, to substitute wispy charm for its original Broadway vitality. There are compensations.
w Alan Jay Lerner play Alan Jay Lerner d Vincente Minnelli ph Harry Stradling m Burton Lane
☆ Barbra Streisand, Yves Montand, Bob Newhart, Larry Blyden, Jack Nicholson, Simon Oakland

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆Cast in approximate order of importance · †Points of interest · ♪Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

On an Island with You

US 1948 104m Technicolor
MGM (Joe Pasternak)

A film actress on location in the South Seas is chased by a naval officer.

Below par musical which far outstays its welcome.

w Dorothy Kingsley, Dorothy Cooper, Charles Martin, Hans Wilhelm d Richard Thorpe ph Charles Rosher md George Stoll

☆ Esther Williams, Peter Lawford, Jimmy Durante, Ricardo Montalban, Cyd Charisse, Xavier Cugat and his Orchestra

On Approval ★★★

GB 1943 80m bw
(GFD)

An Edwardian duke and an American heiress plan a chaperoned trial marriage in a remote Scottish castle.

Sparkling comedy of manners made even more piquant by careful casting and mounting; a minor delight.

w Clive Brook, Terence Young play Frederick Lonsdale d Clive Brook ph C. Friese-Greene m William Alwyn md Muir Mathieson ad Thomas Morahan ed Fergus McDonell cos Cecil Beaton

☆ Clive Brook (George, Duke of Bristol), Beatrice Lillie (Maria Wislack), Googie Withers (Helen Hale), Roland Culver (Richard Halton), O. B. Clarence (Dr. Graham), Lawrence Hanray (Parkes), Hay Petrie (Landlord)

'Totally diverting, highly cinematic.' – NFT, 1974

'There has probably never been a richer, funnier anthology of late-Victorian mannerisms.' – Time

'I enjoyed it so thoroughly that I have to fight off superlatives.' – James Agee

† Also filmed in 1930 by Tom Walls for Herbert Wilcox, with Walls, Yvonne Arnaud, Winifred Shotter and Edmund Breon.

On Borrowed Time ★

US 1939 98m bw
MGM (Sidney Franklin)

An old man refuses to die and chases Death up the apple tree.

Amiable, very American fantasy with much sentiment and several effective moments.

w Alice Duer Miller, Frank O'Neill, Claudine West novel Lawrence Edward Watkin d Harold S. Bucquet ph Joseph Ruttenberg m Franz Waxman

☆ Lionel Barrymore, Bobs Watson, Beulah Bondi, Cedric Hardwicke (Mr Brink), Una Merkel, Ian Wolfe, Philip Terry, Eily Malyon

'General audiences may cotton to the novelty ... artistically fine prestige production.' – Variety

'A weird, wild, totally unpredictable fantasy with dream sequences more like Buñuel than anything in the cinema.' – John Russell Taylor, 1965

On Connaît la Chanson: see Same Old Song

On Dangerous Ground

US 1951 82m bw
RKO (John Houseman)

A tough cop falls in love with the blind sister of a mentally defective murderer.

Pretentious Hollywood film noir in the Gabin manner, partly redeemed by its glossy surface.

w A. I. Bezzerides novel George Butler d Nicholas Ray ph George E. Diskant m Bernard Herrmann

☆ Robert Ryan, Ida Lupino, Ward Bond, Ed Begley, Cleo Moore, Charles Kemper

'His battle to save the Alaskan wilderness and protect its people can only be won...'

On Deadly Ground

US 1994 101m Technicolor Clairmont Scope
Warner/Seagal/Nasso (Steven Seagal, Julius R. Nasso, A. Kitman Ho)

A former CIA agent protects the Alaskan environment against a wicked oil mogul.

Risible action movie in which the pollution-count is high, particularly since Seagal's notion of saving the environment is to destroy it and everyone who stands in his way.

w Ed Horowitz, Robin U. Russin d Steven Seagal ph Ric Waite m Basil Poledouris pd William Ladd Skinner ed Robert Ferreti, Don Brochu

☆ Steven Seagal, Michael Caine, Joan Chen, John C. McGinley, R. Lee Ermey, Shari Shattuck, Billy Bob Thornton, Richard Hamilton, Chief Irvin Brink

'A vanity production parading as a social statement. It nonetheless has enough sound, fury and flash to satisfy the action crowd who have propped up Seagal's career.' – Variety

'Seagal, of course, remains exactly himself – a human bullet winging its way towards the flabby guts of the baddies. But he seems to be getting a little older now, and the martial arts are not as spectacular.' – Derek Malcolm

On Dress Parade

US 1939 62m bw
Warner

The Dead End Kids go to military school.

Cleaned-up comedy-drama, the last for the Kids before they split up.

w Tom Reed, Charles Belden d William Clemens

☆ Billy Halop, Leo Gorcey, Huntz Hall, Bobby Jordan, Gabriel Dell, Bernard Punsley, John Litel, Frankie Thomas

'It just doesn't ring true. Dualler.' – Variety

On Friday at Eleven

West Germany/France/Italy 1960 93m bw Corona/Criterion/Erredi (Alexander Gruter)
aka: The World in My Pocket

A cold-hearted gang plans to rob a heavily armoured American army truck.

Unsurprising but vaguely unpleasant thriller with nary a character left alive at the end.

w Frank Harvey novel James Hadley Chase d Alvin Rakoff ph Vaclav Vich m Claude Bolling

☆ Rod Steiger, Nadja Tiller, Peter Van Eyck, Jean Servais, Ian Bannen

'Growing up isn't easy at any age'

On Golden Pond ★★★

US 1981 109m colour ' Panavision
ITC/IPC (Bruce Gilbert)

An 80-year-old, his wife and his daughter spend a holiday at their New England lakeside cottage.

A film remarkable not so much for what it is – a well-acted, decent screen presentation of a rather waffling and sentimental play – as for the fact that in the sophisticated eighties enough people paid to see it to make it a box-office record-breaker. This was mainly due to affection for its star, whose last film it was, but also to an American desire for a reversion to the old values of warmth and humanity after the sex and violence which the screen had lately been offering.

w Ernest Thompson play Ernest Thompson d Mark Rydell ph Billy Williams m Dave Grusin ed Robert L. Wolfe

☆ Henry Fonda (Norman Thayer, Jr.), Katharine Hepburn (Ethel Thayer), Jane Fonda (Chelsea Thayer Wayne), Doug McKeon (Billy Ray), Dabney Coleman (Bill Ray)

'Moments of truth survive some cloying contrivance; Rydell directs on bended knees.' – Sight and Sound

'Two of Hollywood's best-loved veterans deserve a far better swansong than this sticky confection.' – Time Out

'The kind of uplifting twaddle that traffics heavily in rather basic symbols: the gold light on the pond stands for the sunset of life, and so on.' – Pauline Kael, New Yorker

† A Region 1 special edition DVD includes commentary by Ernest Thompson.

Ernest Thompson; Henry Fonda; Katharine Hepburn

picture; Mark Rydell; Jane Fonda; Robert L. Wolfe; Dave Grusin; Billy Williams; sound (Richard Portman, David M. Ronne)

Katharine Hepburn

On Her Majesty's Secret Service ★★

GB 1969 140m Technicolor Panavision
UA/Eon/Danilaq (Harry Saltzman, Albert R. Broccoli)

James Bond tracks down master criminal Blofeld in Switzerland.

Perhaps to compensate for no Sean Connery and a tragic ending, the producers of this sixth Bond opus shower largesse upon us in the shape of no fewer than four protracted and spectacular climaxes. Splendid stuff, but too much of it, and the lack of a happy centre does show.

w Richard Maibaum novel Ian Fleming d Peter Hunt ph Michael Reed, Egil Woxholt, Roy Ford, John Jordan m John Barry pd Syd Cain

☆ George Lazenby, Diana Rigg, Telly Savalas, Ilse Steppat, Gabriele Ferzetti, Yuri Borienko, Bernard Lee, Lois Maxwell

'Put on your straw boater and Cuddle Up A Little Closer!'

On Moonlight Bay ★★

US 1951 95m Technicolor
Warner (William Jacobs)

Family crises, to do with growing up and young love, in a 1917 Indiana town.

Pleasant musical, competently made, from the Penrod stories, with the emphasis switched to big sister.

w Melville Shavelson, Jack Rose stories Booth Tarkington d Roy del Ruth ph Ernest Haller md Ray Heindorf

☆ Doris Day, Gordon MacRae, Leon Ames, Rosemary de Camp, Billy Gray

† See also By the Light of the Silvery Moon, a companion piece.

On My Way to the Crusades I Met a Girl Who...: see The Chastity Belt

On Our Merry Way ★

US 1948 107m bw
Miracle Productions (Benedict Bogeaus, Burgess Meredith)
aka: A Miracle Can Happen

A reporter is urged by his wife to dig up some human interest stories.

Frail compendium of anecdotes which barely work.

w Laurence Stallings story Arch Oboler d King Vidor, Leslie Fenton (also John Huston, George Stevens, uncredited) ph Joseph August, Gordon Avil, John Seitz, Edward Cronjager m Heinz Roemheld md David Chudnow, Skitch Henderson

☆ Burgess Meredith, Paulette Goddard, Fred MacMurray, Hugh Herbert, James Stewart, Dorothy Lamour, Victor Moore, Henry Fonda, William Demarest

On Our Selection

Australia 1932 99m bw
Australasian Films

The life of the Rudd family in rural Queensland.

Predictable plot complications and loveable characters.

w Bert Bailey, Ken G. Hall d Ken G. Hall

☆ Bert Bailey, Fred McDonald, Alfreda Bevan, Jack McGowan

† Subsequent Rudd adventures included Dad and Dave Come to Town (1938) and Dad Rudd M.P. (1940).

On Stage Everybody

US 1945 65m bw
Universal

A vaudevillian helps youngsters put on a radio show.

Tired musical support.

w Warren Wilson, Oscar Brodney d Jean Yarbrough

☆ Jack Oakie, Peggy Ryan, Johnny Coy, Julie London, Otto Kruger

On Such a Night

US 1937 71m bw
Emmanuel Cohen/Paramount

Gangsters get caught in a Mississippi flood.

Confusing action yarn which fizzles out before it gets going.

w Doris Malloy, William Lipman, and various hands d E. A. Dupont

☆ Grant Richards, Roscoe Karns, Karen Morley, Eduardo Ciannelli, Alan Mowbray, Robert McWade

'So many baffling twists that the thread of the narrative is soon lost.' – Variety

On Such a Night ★

GB 1955 37m Eastmancolor
Screen Audiences/Rank

An American is initiated into the splendours of Glyndebourne Opera.

Modestly pleasing documentary with fictionalized bookends.

w Paul Dehn d Anthony Asquith

☆ David Knight, Josephine Griffin, Marie Lohr

'The tops in swank! The smoothest in rhythm! The greatest in stars! The newest in love! The fastest in dancing! The last word in entertainment!'

On the Avenue ★★

US 1937 89m bw
TCF (Gene Markey)

An heiress rages because she is being satirized in a revue, but later falls in love with the star.

Bright musical which keeps moving and uses its talents wisely.

w Gene Markey, William Conselman d Roy del Ruth ph Lucien Andriot m/ly Irving Berlin ch Seymour Felix

☆ Dick Powell, Madeleine Carroll, The Ritz Brothers, George Barbier, Alice Faye, Walter Catlett, Joan Davis, E. E. Clive

'An amusing revue, with a pleasant score and a disarming informality in its production to lure us into liking it.' – New York Times

† Revamped as Let's Make Love (qv)

♫ 'He Ain't Got Rhythm'; 'The Girl on the Police Gazette'; 'This Year's Kisses'; 'I've Got My Love to Keep Me Warm'. The title song was dropped before release.

On the Beach ★★

US 1959 134m bw
United Artists/Stanley Kramer

When most of the world has been devastated by atomic waste, an American atomic submarine sets out to investigate.
Gloomy prophecy which works well in spasms but is generally too content to chat rather than imagine. A solid prestige job nevertheless.
w John Paxton, James Lee Barrett novel Nevil Shute d Stanley Kramer ph Giuseppe Rotunno, Daniel Fapp m Ernest Gold pd Rudolph Sternad ed Frederic Knudtson
☆ Gregory Peck, Ava Gardner, Fred Astaire, Anthony Perkins, Donna Anderson, John Tate, Lola Brooks

'Its humanism is clearly of the order that seeks the support of a clamorous music score. The characters remain little more than spokesmen for timid ideas and Salvation Army slogans, their emotions hired from a Hollywood prop room; which is all pretty disturbing in a film about nothing less than the end of the world.' – Robert Vas

Ernest Gold; editing

On the Beat

GB 1962 105m bw
Rank (Hugh Stewart)

A Scotland Yard car park attendant manages to capture some crooks and become a policeman.
Busy but flat comedy vehicle, never very likeable.
w Jack Davies d Robert Asher ph Geoffrey Faithfull m Philip Green ☆ Norman Wisdom, Jennifer Jayne, Raymond Huntley, David Lodge, Esma Cannon, Terence Alexander

On the Black Hill ★

GB 1988 117m colour
BFI/Channel 4/British Screen

Twin brothers grow up on a Welsh hill farm.
Unsentimental and episodic narrative of limited lives, but not without its longueurs.
wd Andrew Grieve novel Bruce Chatwin ph Thaddeus O'Sullivan m Robert Lockhart ad Jocelyn James ed Scott Thomas ☆ Mike Gwilym, Robert Gwilym, Bob Peck, Gemma Jones, Jack Walters, Nesta Harris, Huw Toghill, Gareth Toghill

On the Buses

GB 1971 88m Technicolor
MGM-EMI/Hammer (Ronald Wolfe, Ronald Chesney)

Women drivers cause trouble at a bus depot.
Grotesque, ham-handed farce from a TV series which was sometimes funny; this is merely vulgar.
w Ronald Wolfe, Ronald Chesney d Harry Booth ph Mark MacDonald m Max Harris pd Scott MacGregor ed Archie Ludski
☆ Reg Varney (Stan Butler), Doris Hare (Stan's Mum), Anna Karen (Olive), Michael Robbins (Arthur), Stephen Lewis ('Blakey'), Bob Grant (Jack), Andrea Lawrence (Betty), Pat Ashton (Sally), Brian Oulton (Manager), Pamela Cundell (Ruby), Pat Coombs (Vera), Wendy Richards (Housewife), David Lodge (Busman)

'Reaches a new low in British production standards.' – MFB

† Mutiny on the Buses (qv) followed in 1972 and Holiday on the Buses (qv) in 1973. Both were deplorably witless.
†† It was the highest earning British film of 1971.

On the Carpet: see Little Giant

On the Double ★

US 1961 92m Technicolor Panavision
Paramount/Dena-Capri (Jack Rose)

During World War II, an American private is asked to impersonate a British intelligence officer.
From the plot and the talents it seems one might start laughing at this while still in the queue, but in fact most of it goes sadly awry and it never quite comes to the boil.
w Jack Rose, Melville Shavelson d Melville Shavelson ph Harry Stradling, Geoffrey Unsworth m Leith Stevens
☆ Danny Kaye, Dana Wynter, Wilfrid Hyde-White, Diana Dors, Margaret Rutherford, Allan Cuthbertson, Jesse White

On the Fiddle ★

GB 1961 97m bw
Anglo-Amalgamated/S. Benjamin Fisz
US title: Operation Snafu

A wide boy and a slow-witted gypsy have comic and other adventures in the RAF.
Curious mixture of farce and action, more on American lines than British, but quite entertainingly presented.
w Harold Buchman novel Stop at a Winner by R. F. Delderfield d Cyril Frankel ph Ted Scaife m Malcolm Arnold
☆ Alfred Lynch, Sean Connery, Cecil Parker, Wilfrid Hyde-White, Kathleen Harrison, Alan King, Eleanor Summerfield, Eric Barker, Terence Longdon, John Le Mesurier, Harry Locke

On the Night of the Fire ★

GB 1939 94m bw
GFD/G & S (Josef Somlo)
US title: The Fugitive

A barber kills the blackmailer of his wife.
Dour little drama, rather unusual for pre-war British studios.
w Brian Desmond Hurst, Terence Young novel F. L. Green d Brian Desmond Hurst ph Gunther Krampf
☆ Ralph Richardson, Diana Wynyard, Romney Brent, Mary Clare, Henry Oscar, Frederick Leister

'The kind of film either liked very much or very little ... absorbingly entertaining, and b.o. should profit considerably by word of mouth.' – Variety

On the Riviera ★★

US 1951 90m Technicolor
TCF (Sol C. Siegel)

A cabaret artist is persuaded to pose as a philandering businessman.
Remake of Folies Bergère and That Night in Rio (see also On the Double*); disliked at the time and accused of tastelessness, it now seems smarter and funnier than comparable films of its era.*
w Valentine Davies, Phoebe and Henry Ephron d Walter Lang ph Leon Shamroy m Alfred Newman ad Lyle Wheeler, Leland Fuller
☆ Danny Kaye, Corinne Calvet, Gene Tierney, Marcel Dalio, Jean Murat

Alfred Newman; art direction

On the Run: see Trilogy

On the Run

Hong Kong 1988 96m colour
Bo Ho/Mobile (Raymond Chow)

A cop and the hit-woman who killed his wife go on the run from a gang of corrupt and violent policemen who are dealing in heroin.
Brutal, hard-boiled thriller with a great deal of slaughter and not much plausibility.
wd Alfred Cheung m Lam Man Yee pd Chen Yu ad Kih Chung Man, Loo Kah Hiu ☆ Yuen Biao, Patricia Ha, Kao Fei, Yuen Wah, Loh Lieh, Chan Yoke Lin

'More than just good Hong Kong noir, it is good film noir.' – Jim Morton, Sex and Zen & A Bullet in the Head

On the Threshold of Space

US 1956 96m Eastmancolor
Cinemascope
TCF (William Bloom)

The USAF medical corps explores human reactions at high altitudes.
Semi-documentary flagwaver with dreary domestic asides; very dated now, and of no particular nostalgic interest.
w Simon Wincelberg, Francis Cockrell d Robert D. Webb ph Joe MacDonald m Lyn Murray
☆ Guy Madison, Virginia Leith, John Hodiak, Dean Jagger, Warren Stevens

'They Paint The Town With Joy!'

On the Town ★★★★

US 1949 98m Technicolor
MGM (Arthur Freed)

Three sailors enjoy 24 hours' leave in New York.
Most of this brash location musical counts as among the best things ever to come out of Hollywood; the serious ballet towards the end tends to kill it, but it contains much to be grateful for.
w Betty Comden, Adolph Green ballet Fancy Free by Leonard Bernstein d Gene Kelly, Stanley Donen ph Harold Rosson m Saul Chaplin, Roger Edens, Leonard Bernstein md Lennie Hayton, Roger Edens ch Gene Kelly, Stanley Donen ad Cedric Gibbons, Jack Martin Smith ed Ralph E. Winters cos Helen Rose ☆ Gene Kelly (Gabey), Frank Sinatra (Chip), Jules Munshin (Ozzie), Vera-Ellen (Ivy Smith), Betty Garrett (Brunhilde Esterhazy), Ann Miller (Claire Huddesen), Tom Dugan (Officer Tracy), Florence Bates (Mme. Dilyovska), Alice Pearce (Lucy Shmeeler)

'A film that will be enjoyed more than twice.' – Lindsay Anderson
'So exuberant that it threatens at moments to bounce right off the screen.' – Time
'The speed, the vitality, the flashing colour and design, the tricks of timing by which motion is fitted to music, the wit and invention and superlative technical accomplishment make it a really exhilarating experience.' – Richard Mallett, Punch

♫ 'New York, New York'; 'Prehistoric Man'; 'I Can Cook Too'; 'Main Street'; 'You're Awful'; On the Town'; 'Count on Me'; 'Pearl of the Persian Sea'

Lennie Hayton, Roger Edens

On the Twelfth Day ★

GB 1956 23m Eastmancolor
George K. Arthur/Bahamian

A balletic presentation of the song about the 12 days of Christmas, with plenty of maids a'milking and lords a'leaping.
A refreshing and extravagant novelty.
w James Matthews, Val Valentine d Wendy Toye ph Arthur Grant pd Ronald Searle ☆ Wendy Toye, Franklin Bennett, David O'Brien

On the Waterfront ★★★★

US 1954 108m bw
Columbia/Sam Spiegel

After the death of his brother, a young stevedore breaks the hold of a waterfront gang boss.
Intense, broody dockside thriller with 'method' performances; very powerful of its kind, and much imitated.
w Budd Schulberg novel Budd Schulberg d Elia Kazan ph Boris Kaufman m Leonard Bernstein ad Richard Day ed Gene Milford
☆ Marlon Brando (Terry Malloy), Eva Marie Saint (Edie Doyle), Lee J. Cobb (Johnny Friendly), Rod Steiger (Charley Malloy), Karl Malden (Father Barry), Pat Henning ("Kayo" Dugan), Leif Erickson (Glover), James Westerfield (Big Mac), John Hamilton ("Pop" Doyle)
TERRY (MARLON BRANDO): 'It was you, Charley. You and Mickey. Like the night the two of you's come in the dressing room and says, "Kid, this ain't your night. We're going for the price on Wilson." It ain't my night. I'd of taken Wilson apart that night! I was ready. Remember the early rounds throwing them combinations? So what happens? This bum Wilson he gets the title shot. Outdoors in the ball park! And what do I get? A couple of bucks and a one-way ticket to Palookaville.
'It was you, Charley. You was my brother. You should have looked out for me instead of making me take them dives for the short end money.'
CHARLEY (ROD STEIGER): 'I always had a bet down for you. You saw some money.'
TERRY: 'See! You don't understand! I could've been a contender. I could've had class and been somebody. Real class. Instead of a bum. It was you, Charley.'

'An uncommonly powerful, exciting and imaginative use of the screen by gifted professionals.' – New York Times
'A medley of items from the Warner gangland pictures of the thirties, brought up to date.' – Steven Sondheim, Films in Review

† The Regions 1 and 2 DVD releases include commentary by film critic Richard Schickel and Elia Kazan biographer Jeff Young.

best picture; Budd Schulberg; Elia Kazan; Boris Kaufman; Richard Day; Marlon Brando; Eva Marie Saint; editing

Leonard Bernstein; Lee J. Cobb; Rod Steiger; Karl Malden

Marlon Brando

On the Way Home: see Brat 2

On the Yard

US 1979 102m Technicolor
Midwest (Joan Micklin Silver)

In a tough jail, the controlling convict finds his authority challenged by a wife-killer and a new guard captain.
Bleak drama of prison life, conveying the futility of existence inside, but not much else.
w Malcolm Braly novel Malcolm Braly d Raphael D. Silver ph Alan Metzger

m Charles Gross ad Leon Harris ed Evan Lottman ☆ John Heard, Thomas Waites, Mike Kellin, Richard Bright, Joe Grifasi, Lane Smith, Richard Hayes

On Top of Old Smoky

US 1953 60m bw
Columbia/Gene Autry (Armand Schaefer)

Gene Autry is mistaken for a Texas Ranger when he intervenes in a row between freight operators and a young woman operating a toll road.
Amiable light Western that ambles along, arousing mild interest as it goes.
w Gerald Geraghty d George Archainbaud ph William Bradford md Mischa Bakaleinikoff ad George Brooks ed James Sweeney
☆ Gene Autry, Smiley Burnette, Gail Davis, Grandon Rhodes, Sheila Ryan, Kenne Duncan, Cass County Boys, Champion

On Trial

US 1939 60m bw
Warner

A man kills his wife's lover and is put on trial for murder.
Dozy film version of a once sensational play.
w Don Ryan play Elmer Rice d Terry Morse
☆ John Litel, Margaret Lindsay, Edward Norris, James Stephenson
'Strictly dual fodder, talking along for an hour without going anywhere.' – Variety

On Wings of Song: see Love Me Forever

On with the Show

US 1929 98m Technicolor (two-colour)
Warner

Crude early talkie musical revue with historical interest.
w Robert Lord play Shoestring by Humphrey Pearson d Alan Crosland ph Tony Gaudio m/ly Harry Akst, Grant Clarke ch Larry Ceballos
☆ Betty Compson, Louise Fazenda, Sally O'Neil, Joe E. Brown, Ethel Waters, Arthur Lake

On Your Toes ★

US 1939 94m bw
Warner (Robert Lord)

Backstage jealousies at the ballet.
Smooth film version of a top Broadway show of its time.
w Jerry Wald, Richard Macaulay play George Abbott d Ray Enright ph James Wong Howe, Sol Polito m/ly Richard Rodgers, Lorenz Hart
☆ Vera Zorina, Eddie Albert, Alan Hale, Frank McHugh, James Gleason, Donald O'Connor, Gloria Dickson
'Box office prospects appear to be pretty good, but more than the average campaigning should be indulged.' – Variety

Once a Crook

GB 1941 81m bw
TCF

A publican with a shady past helps his son who is in trouble with the law.
Low-key character comedy for two stars who would benefit from a greater tendency to farce.
w Roger Burford play Evadne Price, Ken Attiwill d Herbert Mason
☆ Gordon Harker, Sydney Howard, Frank Pettingell, Carla Lehmann, Bernard Lee, Kathleen Harrison, Cyril Cusack

Once a Jolly Swagman ★

GB 1948 100m bw
GFD/Wessex (Ian Dalrymple)
US title: Maniacs on Wheels

A factory worker becomes a speedway rider.
Competent sporting drama of no particular interest.
w William Rose, Jack Lee d Jack Lee ph H. E. Fowle m Bernard Stevens ☆ Dirk Bogarde, Renée Asherson, Bonar Colleano, Bill Owen

Once a Lady

US 1931 65m bw
Paramount

An illegitimate baby grows up to meet her mother without recognizing her.
A plot that was often tried out during the early thirties, seldom more boringly than on this occasion.
w Zoe Akins, Samuel Hoffenstein play The Second Life by Rudolf Bernauer, Rudolf Oesterreicher d Guthrie McClintic ☆ Ruth Chatterton, Ivor Novello, Jill Esmond, Geoffrey Kerr, Doris Lloyd
'Another crying towel special.' – Variety

Once a Sinner

US 1930 71m bw
Fox

A girl criminal reforms but almost loses the love of her new boyfriend when he finds out about her past.
Transparent melodrama, strictly for indulgent ladies.
w George Middleton d Guthrie McClintic ph Arthur L. Todd ☆ Dorothy Mackaill, Joel McCrea, John Halliday, C. Henry Gordon, Ilka Chase, Clara Blandick, George Brent
'Slow drama that needs plenty of support.' – Variety

Once a Thief

US 1965 107m bw Panavision
MGM/Cipra/RN/Fred Engel (Jacques Bar)

An ex-convict is hounded by a vengeful cop.
Glum crime melodrama gleamingly photographed but otherwise quite routine.
w Zekial Marko d Ralph Nelson ph Robert Burks m Lalo Schifrin ☆ Alain Delon, Ann-Margret, Van Heflin, Jack Palance, John Davis Chandler

Once a Thief

Hong Kong 1991 108m colour
Milestone (Linda Kuk, Terence Chang)

original title: Zongheng Sihai

A criminal gang of two men and a woman, stealing paintings in France, decide to take their revenge after they are double-crossed by their mentor.
A mix of crime caper and romantic comedy, of minimal appeal other than to aficionados of its cultish director's delight in unlikely violence.
w John Woo, Clifton Ko, Janet Chun d John Woo ph Poon Hang Seng m Violet Lam ad James Leung ed David Wu ☆ Chow Yun-Fat, Leslie Cheung, Cherie Chung
'Packed with so many hilarious, violent action sequences that it becomes silly sophomoric fun.' – Variety
† It was given a US makeover in 1995 to emerge as John Woo's Once a Thief (qv).

Once Around ★★

US 1991 114m colour
Universal/Cinecom (Amy Robinson, Griffin Dunne)

Urged by her loving family to marry, a thirtyish woman chooses as a husband a brash and vulgar salesman who does not win their approval.
Perceptive drama of the swings and roundabouts of marital and family life.
w Malia Scotch Marmo d Lasse Hallström ph Theo Van de Sande m James Horner ad David Gropman ed Andrew Monshein
☆ Richard Dreyfuss, Holly Hunter, Danny Aiello, Laura San Giacomo, Gena Rowlands, Roxanne Hart, Griffin Dunne
'An intelligently engaging domestic comedy-drama.' – Variety

Once Before I Die

US 1966 97m Eastmancolor
F.8 Productions (John Derek)

In the Philippines, after a Jap aerial attack, a cavalry major's girlfriend causes complications in her bids to escape.
Mildly hilarious action melodrama in which the star's superstructure is made the focus of the action.
w Vance Skarstedt d John Derek ph Arthur Arling m Emmanuel Vardi ☆ Ursula Andress, John Derek, Richard Jaeckel, Rod Lauren

'Mark Kendell just found out that his one-night stand has been around for centuries.'

Once Bitten

US 1985 93m Metrocolor
Villard-Wald-Hilderbrand

Teenage sex problems are complicated by a visiting vampiress who needs the blood of a virgin three times before Hallowe'en.
Dispiriting attempt to mix genres without even a tinge of talent or sophistication.
w David Hines, Jeffrey Hause, Jonathan Roberts d Howard Storm ☆ Lauren Hutton, Jim Carrey, Karen Kopins, Cleavon Little
'Mr Storm might have found his ideas for the tone of this movie written on high school locker walls.' – People

Once in a Blue Moon

US 1936 65m bw
Paramount

Adventures of an innocent abroad in contemporary Russia.
Would-be satire which was seen by very few people indeed.
wd Ben Hecht, Charles MacArthur
☆ Jimmy Savo, Nikita Balieff, Whitney Bourne, Cecilia Loftus
'A dud. The exhibitors who are kidded into playing it won't be very happy afterwards.' – Variety † Produced in 1934.

Once in a Lifetime ★

US 1933 80m approx bw
Universal (Carl Laemmle Jnr)

How a script was sold in old-time Hollywood.
Half good-humoured, half-scathing satire on Hollywood; technique dated, content still amusing.
w Seton I. Miller play Moss Hart, George S. Kaufman d Russell Mack ph George Robinson
☆ Jack Oakie, Sidney Fox, Aline MacMahon, Russell Hopton, ZaSu Pitts, Louise Fazenda, Gregory Ratoff, Onslow Stevens
'Idol-smashing satire, strictly for the initiated.' – Variety

Once in Paris

US 1978 100m TVC Color
Frank D. Gilroy

A naïve American writer is introduced to the delights of Paris by a worldly chauffeur and an amorous British noblewoman.
A movie that adds up to very little, but pleases along the way.
wd Frank D. Gilroy
☆ Wayne Rogers, Gayle Hunnicutt, Jack Lenoir, Philippe March, Tanya Lopert

'The darkest alleys of love among the international set!'

Once Is Not Enough

US 1975 122m Movielab Panavision
Paramount/Sujac/Aries (Howard W. Koch)

aka: Jacqueline Susann's Once Is Not Enough

The daughter of a movie producer is corrupted by his circle.
Old-fashioned jet-set melodrama with new-fashioned sexual novelties.
w Julius J. Epstein novel Jacqueline Susann d Guy Green ph John A. Alonzo m Henry Mancini pd John DeCuir
☆ Kirk Douglas, Alexis Smith, David Janssen, George Hamilton, Melina Mercouri, Gary Conway, Brenda Vaccaro, Deborah Raffin
♫ Brenda Vaccaro

Once More My Darling

US 1949 92m bw
Universal (Joan Harrison)

A young girl is romantically pursued by an older man.
Tame comedy.
w Robert Carson d Robert Montgomery ph Franz Planer m Elizabeth Firestone ☆ Robert Montgomery, Ann Blyth, Jane Cowl, Taylor Holmes, Charles McGraw

Once More with Feeling

GB 1960 92m Technicolor
Columbia/Stanley Donen

The volatile private life of an orchestral conductor.
Thin comedy from a West End play, something between a shouting match and a fashion show.
w Harry Kurnitz play Harry Kurnitz d Stanley Donen ph Georges Périnal md Muir Mathieson pd Alexander Trauner
☆ Yul Brynner, Kay Kendall, Geoffrey Toone, Maxwell Shaw, Mervyn Johns, Martin Benson, Gregory Ratoff

Once Upon a Crime

US 1992 94m Technicolor
Entertainment/Troublemakers/Dino de Laurentiis

Two Americans in Europe, hoping to collect a reward for finding a valuable dog, are suspected of murdering the animal's owner.
Hysterically unamusing comedy, performed in a frantic style.
w Charles Shyer, Nancy Myers, Steve Kluger story Rodolfo Sonego d Eugene Levy ph Giuseppe Rotunno m Richard Gibbs pd Pier Luigi Basile ed Patrick Kennedy
☆ John Candy, James Belushi, Cybill Shepherd, Sean Young, Richard Lewis, Ornella Muti, Giancarlo Giannini, George Hamilton, Joss Ackland
'An overacted, unfunny, unexciting comedy-thriller.' – Philip French, Observer
'The film gives the impression of having been assembled, at great haste and in a state of panic, from bits and pieces left over from several other "international comedies".' – Philip Kemp, Sight and Sound

'Abysmal comedy.' – Variety

† A remake of Crimen, directed by Mario Camerini in 1960.

Once Upon a Dream

GB 1948 84m bw
Triton/Rank

An officer's wife has a romantic dream about her husband's batman, and comes to believe it true.

Very wispy comedy which does none of its principals any good.

w Patrick Kirwan, Victor Katona d Ralph Thomas

☆ Googie Withers, Griffith Jones, Guy Middleton, Raymond Lovell, Hubert Gregg

Once Upon a Forest

US 1992 71m CFI color
TCF/Hanna-Barbera/HTV (David Kirschner, Jerry Mills)

After toxic waste destroys their environment, a mouse, a mole and a hedgehog have two days to find herbs that will save the life of their friend, a badger.

Dull and unimaginative animated movie that is unlikely to engage anyone's attention.

w Mark Young, Kelly Ward story Rae Lambert d Charles Grosvenor m James Horner pd Carol Holman Grosvenor, Bill Proctor ed Pat A. Foley

☆ Featuring the voices of Michael Crawford, Ben Vereen, Ellen Blain, Ben Gregory, Paige Gosney, Elizabeth Moss, Paul Elding, Janet Waldo

'It might, just, be of mild interest to the very young. But most kids, you suspect, are unregenerate sadists who will run a mile from something so earnestly improving.' – Sheila Johnston, Independent

'One long yawn.' – Geoff Brown, The Times

Once Upon a Honeymoon ★

US 1942 116m bw
RKO (Leo McCarey)

An American radio correspondent and an ex-burlesque queen cheat the Nazis – and her husband – in Europe during World War II.

Smooth but curious mixture of comedy and drama, a satisfactory but unmemorable star vehicle.

w Sheridan Gibney, Leo McCarey d Leo McCarey ph George Barnes m Robert Emmett Dolan

☆ Cary Grant, Ginger Rogers, Walter Slezak, Albert Dekker, Albert Bassermann, Ferike Boros, Harry Shannon

'The attempt to play for both laughs and significance against a terrifying background of Nazi aggression is on the whole a little disappointing.' – Newsweek

Once Upon a Horse

US 1958 85m bw Cinemascope
Universal (Hal Kanter)

Two cowboys steal a herd of cattle but can't afford to feed them.

Unprepossessing comedy vehicle for a team which found success only on television.

wd Hal Kanter ph Arthur Arling m Frank Skinner ad Robert Clatworthy ed Milton Carruth

☆ Dan Rowan, Dick Martin, Martha Hyer, Leif Erickson, Nita Talbot, James Gleason

Once Upon a Time ★

US 1944 89m bw
Columbia (Louis Edelman)

A luckless producer makes a sensation out of a boy and his dancing caterpillar.

Thin whimsical comedy, too slight to come off given such standard treatment, but with nice touches along the way.

w Lewis Meltzer, Oscar Saul radio play My Client Curley by Norman Corwin, Lucille F. Herrmann d Alexander Hall ph Franz Planer m Frederick Hollander

☆ Cary Grant, Janet Blair, James Gleason, Ted Donaldson, Howard Freeman, William Demarest, Art Baker, John Abbott

'There just isn't enough material here for a full-length feature.' – Philip T. Hartung

'It would be nice to see some screen fantasy if it were done by anyone with half a heart, mind and hand for it. But when the studios try to make it, duck and stay hid till the mood has passed.' – James Agee

'As boys they said they would die for each other. As men, they did.'

Once Upon a Time in America ★★★★

US 1984 228m Technicolor
Warner/Embassy/Ladd/PSO (Arnon Milchan)

The lives of four gangsters between 1922 and 1968.

Vast, sprawling, violent crime saga that is both the epitome and summation of gangster movies, a powerful, almost operatic drama of waste and despair.

w Leonardo Benvenuti, Piero de Bernardi, Enrico Medioli, Franco Arcalli, Franco Ferrini, Sergio Leone novel The Hoods by David Aaronson ('Harry Grey') d Sergio Leone ph Tonino Delli Colli m Ennio Morricone ad Carlo Simi, James Singelis ed Nino Baragli

☆ Robert De Niro (Noodles), James Woods (Max), Elizabeth McGovern (Deborah), Treat Williams (Jimmy O'Donnell), Tuesday Weld (Carol), Burt Young (Joe), Danny Aiello (Police Chief Aiello), William Forsythe (Cockeye)

'It is, finally, a heart-breaking story of mutual need. By matching that need with his own need to come to terms with his own cultural memories, Leone has made his most oneiric and extraordinary film.' – Tony Rayns, MFB

♪ music

'Never was a hero needed more...'

Once Upon a Time in China ★

Hong Kong 1991 140m colour
Panavision
Film Workshop 1 (Zhen Wen Huai, Tsui Hark) original title: Wong Fei Hung

Concerned about the growing Western influences in China, a martial master finds himself arrayed against a combination of triads, English, Americans selling the locals into slavery and prostitution, and government officials.

Anti-West martial arts movie, notable for the vigour and speed of its many scenes of fighting action.

w Tsui Hark, Yuan Zao Zhi, Liang Yao Min, Deng Bi Yan d Tsui Hark ph Chong Zhi Wen, Bill Huang, Arthur Huang, Ardy Chan m James Wong, Dai Le Ming pd David Luo, Jin Yang Xiang ed Mak Zhi Shang

☆ Jet Li, Yuan Biao, Rosamund Kwan, Ken Chung, Jacky Cheung, Wu Ma, Liu Xun, Yuan Xian Ren

'The time has come.'

Once Upon a Time in Mexico ⑤

US 2003 110m DeLuxe
Buena Vista/Columbia/Dimension/Troublemaker (Elizabeth Avellan, Carlos Gallardo, Robert Rodriguez)

In Mexico, a CIA agent persuades a retired gunman to protect the president from being assassinated.

An involved story in which everyone double-crosses and shoots each other, often at the same time; the violence is numbing, the narrative labyrinthine, and the result is close to boredom.

wd Robert Rodriguez ph Robert Rodriguez m Robert Rodriguez pd Robert Rodriguez

☆ Antonio Banderas (El Mariachi), Salma Hayek (Carolina), Johnny Depp (Sands), Mickey Rourke (Billy), Eva Mendes (Ajedrez), Danny Trejo (Cucuy), Ruben Blades (Jorge FBI), Willem Dafoe (Barillo)

'It looks remarkably good, but this counts for little against the tedium of having to suffer such repetitive displays of cartoon violence.' – Peter Whittle, Sunday Times

'Noisy, unholy mess, with moments of wit and surprise that ultimately make its brutal tedium all the more disappointing.' – A. O. Scott, New York Times

'A tinned spaghetti western.'

Once Upon a Time in the Midlands

GB/Germany 2002 103m colour 'Scope
Film4/Film Council/Senator/EMMI/Slate/Big Arty (Andrea Calderwood)

A tough Glaswegian goes to the Midlands to reclaim his girlfriend and daughter, who are now living with a garage owner who likes to avoid trouble.

A minor account of domestic trials couched in the terms of a Sergio Leone movie, but the method merely emphasises the secondhand nature of the narrative and adds nothing to the pawky tone.

w Paul Fraser, Shane Meadows d Shane Meadows ph Brian Tufano m John Lunn pd Crispian Sallis ed Peter Beston, Trevor Waite

☆ Robert Carlyle (Jimmy), Rhys Ifans (Dek), Kathy Burke (Carol), Shirley Henderson (Shirley), Ricky Tomlinson (Charlie), Finn Atkins (Marlene)

'Enjoyable enough, but the un-originality of the script, plot and characters, means it will probably play a lot more convincingly on TV.' – Jonathan Ross, Daily Mirror

'Comedy-wise, there are few laughs, and the emotional heart of the story fails to grip.' – Cosmo Landesman, Sunday Times

Once Upon a Time in the West ★★★

Italy/US 1969 165m Techniscope
Paramount/Rafran/San Marco (Fulvio Morsella)

A lonely woman in the old west is in danger from a band of gunmen.

Immensely long and convoluted epic Western marking its director's collaboration with an American studio and his desire to make serious statements about something or other. Beautifully made and very violent.

w Sergio Leone, Sergio Donati d Sergio Leone ph Tonino Delli Colli m Ennio Morricone pd Carlo Simi ad Carlo Simi ed Nino Baragli

☆ Henry Fonda (Frank), Claudia Cardinale (Jill McBain), Jason Robards (Cheyenne), Charles Bronson (The Man "Harmonica"), Gabriele Ferzetti (Morton), Keenan Wynn (Sheriff), Paolo Stoppa (Sam), Lionel Stander (Barman), Jack Elam (Knuckles), Woody Strode (Stony)

'The paradoxical, but honest 'fun' aspect of Leone's previous preoccupation with elaborately-stylized violence is here unconvincingly asking for consideration in a new 'moral' light.' – Variety

† This film has the longest credits of all: they sprawl through the first twelve minutes.

Once Were Warriors ★★★

New Zealand 1994 103m Eastmancolor
Entertainment/Communicado/NZFC/Avalon/New Zealand On Air (Robin Scholes)

In Auckland, a Maori woman attempts to bring up her children, including a bookish daughter and a son attracted to street gangs, and to cope with her unemployed, heavy-drinking and violent husband.

A powerfully emotional and often disturbing drama of the dispossessed, making its points with sledgehammer force, but also giving a place to the tenderness and pride that exist within a family forced to the edges of society.

w Riwia Brown novel Alan Duff d Lee Tamahori ph Stuart Dryburgh m Murray Grindley, Murray McNabb pd Michael Kane ad Shayne Radford ed Michael Horton

☆ Rena Owen (Beth Heke), Temuera Morrison (Jake Heke), Mamaengaroa Kerr-Bell (Grace Heke), Julian Arahanga (Nig Heke), Taungaroa Emile (Boogie Heke), Rachael Morris (Polly Heke), Joseph Kairau (Huata Heke), Clifford Curtis (Bully)

'Unflinchingly scans the domestic tragedy which can be found in any culture where hope is a luxury no one can afford.' – Time

'It's certainly operatic in style and melodramatic in concept. It shouldn't work as well as it does. But by flinging caution to the winds, it winds up mightily effective.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

† It took more money at the New Zealand box-office than any other film so far.

†† A sequel What Becomes of the Broken-Hearted? (qv) followed in 1999.

❙❙❙ A Region 1 DVD release includes commentary by Lee Tamahori.

'Stealing the power of the universes one by one.'

The One

US 2001 87m DeLuxe Clairmont widescreen
Columbia/Revolution/Hard Eight (Glen Morgan, Steven Chasman)

A man seeks ultimate power by finding and killing his other selves that exist in parallel universes.

An intriguing concept that is used only as a means of having Jet Li fight himself, which isn't as interesting as having him beat up other people.

w Glen Morgan, James Wong d James Wong ph Robert McLachlan m Trevor Rabin pd David L. Snyder ed James Coblentz martial arts choreographer Cory Yuen

☆ Jet Li (Gabe/Yulaw/Lawless), Carla Gugino (T.K./Massie Walsh), Delroy Lindo (Roedecker/Attendant), Jason Statham (Funsch), James Morrison (Aldrich/'A' World Inmate #1), Dylan Bruno (Yates), Richard Steinmetz (D'Antoni)

'It aims low and hits its audience squarely in the nuts.' – James Christopher, Times

One Against Seven: see Counterattack

A One and a Two... ★★★

Taiwan/Japan 2000 173m Eastmancolor
ICA/1+2 Seisaku Iinkai/Pony Canyon/Omega/Hakuhodo/Atom (Shinya Kawai, Naoko Tsukeda)

original title: Yi Yi

While his mother-in-law lapses into a coma, his wife goes to a spiritual retreat, his daughter begins troubled relationships with boys and his son is in trouble at school, a middle-aged man, whose computer firm is failing, meets an old flame and wonders whether his life might have been different.

A cool dissection of three generations of a family, at different but similar points in their trajectories, this wry, detailed narrative, circling at a distance around its protagonists, provides many pleasures, as well as insights into the human condition.

wd Edward Yang ph Yang Wei-han m Peng Kai-li pd Peng Kai-li ed Chen Bo-wen

☆ Wu Nien-jen (NJ Jian), Elaine Jin (Min-Min), Issey Ogata (Mr Ota), Kelly Lee (Ting-Ting), Jonathan Chang (Yang-Yang), Chen Hsi-sheng (A-Di), Ko Su-yun (Sherry), Michael Tao (Da-Da), Hsiao Shu-shen (Xiao Yan), Adrian Lin (Lili)

'No narrative outline can hope to convey anything of the novelistic density of character and incident in Edward Yang's wonderful film.' – Tony Rayns, Sight and Sound

'A movie of formidable intelligence and observation, marbled with moments of magical abstraction.' – Derek Elley, Variety

† It won the Palme D'Or as best film at the Cannes Film Festival in 2000.

†† Region 1 and Region 2 DVD releases include commentary with Edward Yang.

The One and Only

US 1978 98m Movielab
Paramount/First Artists (Steve Gordon, David V. Picker)

A stage-struck egomaniac finds success at the expense of happiness with his wife.

Uneasy mixture of farce and sentiment intended as a star vehicle, but not a very successful one.

w Steve Gordon d Carl Reiner ph Victor J. Kemper m Patrick Williams

☆ Henry Winkler, Kim Darby, Gene Saks, William Daniels, Polly Holiday, Herve Villechaize, Harold Gould, Richard Lane

The One and Only

GB/France 2002 91m DeLuxe
Pathé/TF1/Film Council/Assassin (Leslee Udwin)

On Tyneside, a widower, who is recovering from an unhappy marriage, falls for the unhappy wife of a footballer.

Dull romance that is mired in cliché and corn.

w Peter Flannery Danish film Den Eneste Ene by Susanne Bier d Simon Cellan Jones ph Remi Adefarasin m Gabriel Yared; pd Zoe Macleod ed Pia Di Ciaula

☆ Richard Roxburgh (Neil), Justine Waddell (Stevie), Jonathan Cake (Sonny), Aisling O'Sullivan (Jenny), Patsy Kensit (Stella), Michael Hodgson (Stan), Kerry Rolfe (Sharon)

'Deeply and insultingly awful comedy.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

'Get Ready To Hear! Get ReadyTo Cheer!'

The One and Only Genuine Original Family Band

US 1968 110m Technocolor
Disney

Adventures of a Republican family at the 1888 convention.

Long and rather muddled family comedy with politics and music; not a winner anywhere.

w Lowell S. Hawley book Laura Bower Van Nuys d Michael O'Herlihy

☆ Walter Brennan, Buddy Ebsen, John Davidson, Lesley Ann Warren, Janet Blair, Kurt Russell, Richard Deacon

One Armed Boxer

Hong Kong 1972 97m Eastmancolor 'Scope
Cathay/Champion (Raymond Chow)

original title: Dop Bey Kuan Wan

A young boxer seeks revenge after he loses an arm in a fight against a gang leader and his assorted thugs, each expert in a different martial art.

Little more than a series of fight sequences, which are well choreographed and will no doubt appeal to fans of the genre.

wd Wang Yu ph Mo Shen Ku m Wang Fu Ling, Wang Ping ed Cheng Hung Min

☆ Wang Yu, Tang Shin, Tien Yeh, Lung Fei, Wu Tung Choo, Pan Chun Lin, San Mao

'The photography and cutting of the fights is, as usual, highly expert, with a splendid sense of movement.' – MFB

† The film was cut to 92m for its British release.

One Body Too Many

US 1944 74m bw
Pine-Thomas/Paramount

An insurance salesman arrives at a spooky house to find his prospect murdered.

Comedy melodrama which could have been a lot funnier and more melodramatic; once more, the butler didn't do it.

w Winston Miller, Maxwell Shane d Frank McDonald

☆ Jack Haley, Bela Lugosi, Jean Parker, Bernard Nedell, Blanche Yurka, Douglas Fowley, Lyle Talbot

One Born Every Minute: see The Flim Flam Man

One (Cavale): see Trilogy

One Dangerous Night

US 1943 77m bw
Columbia (David Chatkin)

Reformed jewel thief The Lone Wolf is accused of the murder of a society blackmailer.

Entertaining, fast-paced little thriller, with the usual comedy of bumbling cops kept to the minimum.

w Donald Davis story Arnold Phillips, Max Nosseck d Michael Gordon ph L. W. O'Connell md M. W. Stoloff ad Lionel Banks ed Viola Lawrence

☆ Warren William, Eric Blore, Marguerite Chapman, Mona Barrie, Tala Birell, Margaret Hayes, Ann Savage, Thurston Hall, Warren Ashe

'September 5, 1972. The Munich Games. On This Day, There Would Be No Winners.'

One Day in September ★★

GB 1999 95m colour
Redbus/Passion Pictures (Arthur Cohn, John Battsek)

Documentary on the events at the 1972 Olympic Games in Munich, when Palestinians took Israeli atheletes hostage.

Fascinating documentary that includes interviews with the one surviving Palestinian, Jamal Al Gashey, and also demonstrates the incompetence of the rescue attempt, and the German government's complicity in letting the Palestinians go free.

d Kevin Macdonald ph Alwin Kuchler, Neve Cunningham m Alex Heffes, Craig Armstrong ed Justine Wright

☆ Michael Douglas (Narrator)

'As a dramatic replay of the past, it's terrific: too bad it didn't try harder to say something new.' – Cosmo Landesman, Sunday Times

documentary

One Day in the Life of Ivan Denisovich ★

GB 1971 105m Eastmancolor
Group W/Leontes/Norsk (Caspar Wrede)

Life in a Siberian labour camp in 1950.

A fairly successful book adaptation, as far as mere pictures can cope with the harrowing detail.

w Ronald Harwood novel Alexander Solzhenitsyn d Caspar Wrede ph Sven Nykvist m Arne Nordheim

☆ Tom Courtenay, Espen Skjonberg, James Maxwell, Alfred Burke, Eric Thompson, Matthew Guinness

'The film's general air of earnestness deflects rather than stimulates involvement.' – David Wilson

One Deadly Summer ★

France 1983 133m Eastmancolor
Premier/SNC/CAPAC/TFI (Christine Beytout)

original title: L'été Meurtrier

A nineteen-year-old girl seduces a villager into marrying her as the first step in a long-delayed act of revenge.

Moody psychological thriller, an award-winner in France, that grows more engrossing as it continues.

w Sebastien Japrisot novel Sebastien Japrisot d Jean Becker ph Etienne Becker m Georges Delerue ad Jean-Claude Gallouin ed Jacques Witta

☆ Isabelle Adjani, Alain Souchon, Suzanne Flon, Jenny Clève, Michel Galabru, François Cluzet

One Desire

US 1955 94m Technicolor
U-I (Ross Hunter)

The romantic career of the lady owner of a gambling saloon.

Tawdry 1890s drama which never really gets going.

w Lawrence Roman, Robert Blees novel Tacey Cromwell by Conrad Richter d Jerry Hopper ph Maury Gertsman m Frank Skinner md Joseph Gershenson ad Carroll Clark, Alexander Golitzen ed Milton Carruth

☆ Anne Baxter, Rock Hudson, Julia Adams, Natalie Wood, Barry Curtis, William Hopper, Carl Benton Reid

'The standards of writing and characterization belong to a Victorian servant girl's paper-covered romance.' – MFB

One Exciting Night

GB 1944 89m bw
Columbia British

A singing welfare worker averts a plan to steal a Rembrandt.

Very ho-hum stuff for a very popular but histrionically untried star.

w Howard Irving Young, Peter Fraser, Margaret Kennedy, Emery Bonnet d Walter Forde

☆ Vera Lynn, Donald Stewart, Mary Clare, Frederick Leister, Richard Murdoch

'Revenge and gold are his only motivation.'

One Eyed Jacks ★★★

US 1961 141m Technicolor Vistavision
Paramount/Pennebaker (Frank P. Rosenberg)

An outlaw has a running battle with an old friend.

A moody, romantic Western, a story of betrayal and revenge, set around the beaches and sea of California. The happy ending was forced on Brando by Paramount, which also cut 40m from his final version, but it remains a fascinating character study in a glorious landscape.

w Guy Trosper, Calder Willingham novel The Authentic Death of Hendry Jones by Charles Neider d Marlon Brando ph Charles Lang Jnr m Hugo Friedhofer

☆ Marlon Brando, Karl Malden, Pina Pellicer, Katy Jurado, Slim Pickens, Ben Johnson, Timothy Carey, Elisha Cook Jnr

'This is not the ordinary Western; not the ordinary good Western; not even the ordinary extraordinary Western ... The figures and the background, the colour and the movement repeatedly unite in compositions of mesmerizing beauty.' – Dilys Powell

'The picture is of variable quality: it has some visual grandeur; it also has some bizarrely brutal scenes. It isn't clear why Brando made this peculiarly masochistic revenge fantasy, or whether he hoped for something quite different from what he finished with.' – Pauline Kael

Charles Lang Jnr

One False Move ★★★

US 1992 105m colour
Metro/I.R.S. Media (Jesse Beaton, Ben Myron)

Two killers on the run with their black girlfriend head for a small town in Alabama where the local police chief and two big city detectives are waiting for them.

A tough, complex, suspenseful thriller-cum-road movie that also finds room to concern itself with relationships and racism.

w Billy Bob Thornton, Tom Epperson d Carl Franklin ph James L. Carter m Peter Haycock, Derek Holt pd Gary T. New ad Dana Torrey ed Carole Kravetz

☆ Bill Paxton (Dale "Hurricane" Dixon), Cynda Williams (Fantasia/Lila), Billy Bob Thornton (Ray Malcolm), Michael Beach (Pluto), Jim Metzler (Dud Cole), Earl Billings (McFeely), Natalie Canerday (Cherylann)

'Gives film buffs that special jolt they're always looking for.' – Jami Bernard, New York Post

'A crime film that lifts you up and carries you along in an ominously rising tide of tension, building to an emotional pay-off of amazing power.' – Roger Ebert

One Fine Day

US 1996 109m DeLuxe
TCF/Fox 2000/Via Rosa (Lynda Obst)

Two busy single parents fall in love with each other.

Bland and sentimental romantic comedy.

w Terrel Seltzer, Ellen Simon d Michael Hoffman ph Oliver Stapleton m James Newton Howard pd David Gropman ed Garth Craven

☆ Michelle Pfeiffer, George Clooney, Mae Whitman, Alex D. Linz, Charles Durning, Jon Robin Baitz, Ellen Greene, Joe Grifasi, Pete Hamill

'Made with the right breezy insouciance and performed with consummate flair and sexy star appeal.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

'Was it a great film? Absolutely not.' – George Clooney
song 'For the First Time' (m/ly James Newton Howard, Jud J. Friedman, Allan Dennis Rich)

One Flew over the Cuckoo's Nest ★★★★

US 1975 134m DeLuxe
UA/Fantasy Films (Saul Zaentz, Michael Douglas)

A cheerful immoralist imprisoned for rape is transferred for observation to a state mental hospital.
Wildly and unexpectedly commercial film of a project which had lain dormant for fourteen years, this amusing and horrifying film conveniently sums up anti-government attitudes as well as make love not war and all that. It's certainly impossible to ignore.
w Lawrence Hauben, Bo Goldman novel Ken Kesey d Milos Forman ph Haskell Wexler, Bill Butler, William Fraker m Jack Nitzsche pd Paul Sylbert ad Edwin O'Donovan ed Richard Chew, Sheldon Kahn, Lynzee Klingman
☆ Jack Nicholson (Randle Patrick McMurphy), Louise Fletcher (Nurse Mildred Ratched), William Redfield (Harding), Will Sampson (Chief Bromden), Brad Dourif (Billy Bibbit), Christopher Lloyd (Taber), Scatman Crothers (Turkle), Danny DeVito (Martini)
'Lacks the excitement of movie art, but the story and the acting make the film emotionally powerful.' – New Yorker
'America is much too big and various to be satisfactorily reduced to the dimensions of one mental ward in a movie like this.' – Vincent Canby, New York Times
'It remains enduringly popular as an anti-establishment parable, but achieves its success by deliberately choosing to use the mental patients as comic caricatures.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times
† Kirk Douglas bought the rights to the book and starred in a Broadway adaptation of it, but he was unable to obtain backing for a film version. When Michael Douglas obtained finance from outside the movie industry, his father was too old to play the lead role. James Caan turned down the role. Louise Fletcher's role was turned down by Anne Bancroft, Angela Lansbury and Ellen Burstyn.
†† Regions 1 and 2 two-disc Special Edition DVD releases include commentary by Milos Forman, Michael Douglas and Saul Zaentz. best picture; script; Milos Forman; Jack Nicholson; Louise Fletcher Haskell Wexler; Jack Nitzsche; Brad Dourif; editing best picture; Milos Forman; Jack Nicholson; Louise Fletcher; Brad Dourif; editing

One Foot in Heaven ★

US 1941 108m bw
Warner (Robert Lord, Irving Rapper)

The small-town doings of a methodist minister.
Slow but pleasing chronicle, nicely assembled.
w Casey Robinson biography (of his father) Hartzell Spence d Irving Rapper ph Charles Rosher m Max Steiner ☆ Fredric March, Martha Scott, Beulah Bondi, Gene Lockhart, Elisabeth Fraser, Harry Davenport, Laura Hope Crews, Grant Mitchell, Moroni Olsen, Ernest Cossart, Jerome Cowan
'A clean, sweet, decent picture.' – Cecilia Ager
best picture

One Foot in Hell

US 1960 89m DeLuxe Cinemascope
TCF (Sydney Boehm)

The sheriff of a small Western town is secretly plotting revenge on the townfolk for their long-ago treatment of his wife.
Unusual Western suspenser with plenty of violent action and an extremely equivocal hero.
w Aaron Spelling, Sydney Boehm d James B. Clark ph William C. Mellor
m Dominic Frontière
☆ Alan Ladd, Dan O'Herlihy, Don Murray, Dolores Michaels, Barry Coe. Larry Gates, John Alexander

One for the Book: see The Voice of the Turtle

One for the Road ★

GB colour
EMMI/Film Council/Film Four/One for the Road (Kate Ogborn)

Four motorists ,who have lost their licences for driving while drunk, meet at a group therapy session as part of their sentences and then have a few drinks.
Shrewd, cautionary, low-budget comedy of masculine self-delusion that is long on talk and short on action.
wd Chris Cooke ph N.G. Smith m Steve Blackman pd Jason Carlin ed Nick Fenton
☆ Rupert Proctor (Paul), Greg Chisholm (Jimmy), Mark Devenport (Mark), Hywel Bennett (Richard), Julie Legrand (Liz), Micaiah Dring (Eve), Johann Myers (Dave)
'The first time it had me giggling all the way through. Now it looks even funnier, as well as more deliciously unpleasant.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

One Frightened Night

US 1935 67m bw
Mascot

Relatives assemble in a spooky house in the hope of inheriting an old man's wealth.
Low-budget thriller that sometimes seems like a spoof of The Cat and the Canary.
w Wellyn Totman d Christy Cabanne ph Ernest Miller, William Nobles
☆ Charles Grapewin, Mary Carlisle, Arthur Hohl, Evalyn Knapp, Wallace Ford, Hedda Hopper, Lucien Littlefield, Regis Toomey, Rafaela Ottiano

One from the Heart ★

US 1982 101m Metrocolor
Zoetrope Studios (Gray Frederickson, Fred Roos, Armyan Bernstein)

On Independence Day in Las Vegas, a pair of lovers quarrel and make up.
Extraordinarily slim (for its cost) romantic fantasy which makes one wonder why, of all the stories in the world, its creator chose this one. It does however boast attractive visuals.
w Armyan Bernstein, Francis Coppola d Francis Coppola ph Vittorio Storaro m Tom Waits pd Dean Tavoularis
☆ Frederic Forrest, Teri Garr, Raul Julia, Nastassja Kinski, Lainie Kazan, Harry Dean Stanton
'Giddy heights of visual imagination and technical brilliance are lavished on a wafer-thin story.' – Variety
'If this is the essence of cinema, then Salvador Dali is the essence of painting.' – Sunday Times
'A very beautiful film, the background of which totally drowns a wafer-thin plot. A musical non-musical, a spectacular nonspectacular, a fantasy with realist aspirations.' – Guardian
'Escapism running away with itself.' – Standard original song score

One Good Cop

US 1991 105m colour
Hollywood/Silver Screen Partners IV (Laurence Mark)

A policeman and his wife run into problems when they try to adopt the three young girls of his murdered partner.
Mundane and manipulative drama that is never arresting.
wd Heywood Gould ph Ralf Bode
m David Foster, William Ross ad Sandy Veneziano ed Richard Marks ☆ Michael Keaton, René Russo, Anthony LaPaglia, Kevin Conway, Rachel Ticotin, Tony Plana, Benjamin Bratt
'Excruciating dialogue, stagnant ideas and acting more wooden than Sherwood Forest.' – Sight and Sound

One Good Turn

US 1931 20m bw
Hal Roach

Two odd-job men see their benefactress rehearsing a play, and think she is really being evicted.
Moderate star comedy with nice moments.
w H. M. Walker d James W. Horne ph Art Lloyd ed Richard Currier
☆ Stan Laurel, Oliver Hardy, Mary Carr, Billy Gilbert, James Finlayson, Snub Pollard

One Good Turn

GB 1954 90m bw
GFD/Two Cities (Maurice Cowan)

An orphan stays on to become an odd job man, and tries to raise money to buy an old car.
The star's second comedy is an almost unmitigated disaster, disjointed and depending too much on pathos.
w Maurice Cowan, John Paddy Carstairs, Ted Willis d John Paddy Carstairs ph Jack Cox m John Addison ☆ Norman Wisdom, Joan Rice, Shirley Abicair, Thora Hird, William Russell, Richard Caldicot

One Heavenly Night

US 1930 82m bw
Samuel Goldwyn

A flower girl in a Budapest music hall finds herself imitating the absent star.
Would-be-Lubitsch-like musical comedy which doesn't quite succeed in its pleasant aims.
w Sidney Howard story Louis Bromfield d George Fitzmaurice ph George Barnes, Gregg Toland
☆ Evelyn Laye, John Boles, Leon Errol, Lilyan Tashman, Hugh Cameron, Lionel Belmore
'It will satisfy the customers, but lacks the intrinsic quality that makes 'em talk and recommends it as an entertainment for big grosses.' – Variety

'There's nothing more dangerous than a familiar face.'

One Hour Photo ★★

US 2002 95m DeLuxe
TCF/Fox Searchlight/Catch 23/Killer/Madjak (Christine Vachon, Pamela Koffler, Stan Wlodkowski)

A lonely photo developer becomes obsessed with a suburban family whose snapshots he prints.
Creepy thriller of a voyeur that gets tightly contained performance from Williams as a man going over the edge of madness; the meticolous use of colour and space adds to its chilling quality.
wd Mark Romanek ph Jeff Cronenweth m Reinhold Heil, Johnny Klimek pd Tom Foden ed Jeffrey Ford ☆ Robin Williams (Seymour "Sy" Parrish), Connie Nielsen (Nina Yorkin), Michael Vartan (Will Yorkin), Gary Cole (Bill Owens), Dylan Smith (Jake Yorkin), Eriq La Salle (Detective Van Der Zee), Erin Daniels (Maya Burson)
'What damps down the psychological power... is director Mark Romanek's reluctance to let the film become as idiosyncratically unnerving as its main character.' – David Sterritt, Christian Science Monitor

One Hour with You: see The Marriage Circle (1924)

'Gayest screen event of the year!'

One Hour with You ★★★

US 1932 84m bw
Paramount (Ernst Lubitsch)

The affairs of a philandering Parisian doctor.
Superbly handled comedy of manners in Lubitsch's most inventive form, handled by a most capable cast. Unique entertainment of a kind which is, alas, no more.
w Samson Raphaelson play Only a Dream by Lothar Schmidt d George Cukor, Ernst Lubitsch ph Victor Milner m Oscar Straus, Richard Whiting ad Hans Dreier ed William Shea ly Leo Robin
☆ Maurice Chevalier (Dr. Andre Bertier), Jeanette MacDonald (Colette Bertier), Genevieve Tobin (Mitzi Olivier), Roland Young (Professor Olivier), Charles Ruggles (Adolph), George Barbier (Police Commissioner)
'Sure fire if frothy screen fare, cinch b.o. at all times.' – Variety
'A brand new form of musical entertainment ... he has mixed verse, spoken and sung, a smart and satiric musical background, asides to the audience, and sophisticated dialogue, as well as lilting and delightful songs ... The result is something so delightful that it places the circle of golden leaves jauntily upon the knowing head of Hollywood's most original director.' – Philadelphia Inquirer
† A remake of Lubitsch's silent success The Marriage Circle.
best picture

One Hundred and One Dalmatians ★★★

US 1961 79m Technicolor
Walt Disney

The dogs of London help save puppies which are being stolen for their skins by a cruel villainess.
Disney's last really splendid feature cartoon until the revival in the 1990s, with the old flexible style cleverly modernized and plenty of invention and detail in the story line. The London backgrounds are especially nicely judged.
w Bill Peet novel Dodie Smith
d Wolfgang Reitherman, Hamilton S. Luske,

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Clyde Geronimi m George Bruns ad Ken Anderson ed Roy M. Brewer Jr., Donald Halliday

☆ Featuring the voices of Rod Taylor, Cate Bauer, Betty Lou Gerson, J. Pat O'Malley

'It has the freshness of the early short colour-cartoons without the savagery which has often disfigured the later feature-length stories.' – Dilys Powell

'When schools become war zones and both sides start taking casualties, what then?'

187 ④

US 1997 119m DeLuxe
Warner/Anna K/Icon (Bruce Davey, Stephen McEveety)

A New York teacher recovers from being stabbed by a pupil sufficiently to move to a Los Angeles school, where he reacts violently when he is threatened by some of his students.

Risible and confused melodrama, from which an audience can learn nothing and enjoy even less.

w Scott Yagemann d Kevin Reynolds ph Ericson Core pd Stephen Storer ed Stephen Semel

☆ Samuel L. Jackson, John Heard, Kelly Rowan, Clifton Gonzalez Gonzalez, Tony Plana, Karina Arroyave, Lobo Sebastian

'"A teacher wrote this movie," the final credit reads. It might have made more sense to hire a screenwriter.' – Richard Williams, Guardian

One Hundred Men and a Girl ★★★

US 1937 84m bw
Universal (Joe Pasternak)

A young girl persuades a great conductor to form an orchestra of unemployed musicians.

Delightful and funny musical fable, an instance of the Pasternak formula of sweetness and light at its richest and best.

w Bruce Manning, Charles Kenyon, Hans Kraly d Henry Koster ph Joseph Valentine m Charles Previn m/ly Frederick Hollander, Sam Coslow ad John W. Harkrider ed Bernard W. Burton

☆ Deanna Durbin (Patricia Cardwell), Adolphe Menjou (John Cardwell), Leopold Stokowski (Himself), Alice Brady (Mrs. Frost), Mischa Auer (Michael Borodoff), Eugene Pallette (John R. Frost), Billy Gilbert (Garage Owner), Alma Kruger (Mrs. Tyler), Jed Prouty (Tommy Bitters), Frank Jenks (Taxi Driver), Christian Rub (Gustave Brandstetter)

'Smash hit for all the family ... something new in entertainment.' – Variety

'Apart from its value as entertainment, which is considerable, it reveals the cinema at its sunny-sided best.' – New York Times.

'An original story put over with considerable skill.' – MFB

♫ 'It's Raining Sunbeams'; 'Music in My Dreams'

♟ Charles Previn

♙ best picture; original story (Hans Kraly); editing

'This Time The Magic Is Real.'

101 Dalmatians ④

US 1996 103m Technicolor Panavision
Buena Vista/Walt Disney/Great Oaks (John Hughes, Ricardo Mestres)

After their owners marry, two Dalmatians protect their numerous puppies from a fur-loving woman who wants to turn them into a fur coat.

Live-action remake of a successful animated feature which lacks the charm of the original.

w John Hughes novel The One Hundred and One Dalmatians by Dodie Smith d Stephen Herek ph Adrian Biddle m Michael Kamen pd Assheton Gorton ed Industrial Light and Magic; Jim Henson's Creature Shop

☆ Glenn Close, Jeff Daniels, Joan Plowright, Joely Richardson, Hugh Laurie, Mark Williams, John Shrapnel

'Relentlessly cuddlesome enough to make this, if not enchanting, then sufficiently chucklesome and likeable to send family audiences home with their tails wagging.' – Angie Errigo, Empire

'30 below zero, five hours of daylight, what else can you do but get wrecked?'

101 Reykjavik ★ ⑤

Iceland/France/Denmark/Norway 2000 89m colour
Metrodome/101/Zentropa/Liberator/Filmhuset (Ingvar Thordarson, Baltasar Kormakur)

An unemployed 30-year-old layabout falls for his mother's lesbian flamenco teacher; so does his mother.

Amiable comedy of indolence getting its come-uppance.

wd Baltasar Kormakur novel Hallgrimur Helgason ph Peter Steuger m Damon Albarn, Einar Orn Benediktsson ed Skule Eriksen, Sigvaldi Karason

☆ Hilmir Snaer Gudnason (Hlynur), Victoria Abril (Lola Milagros), Hanna Maria Karlsdottir (Berglind), Baltasar Kormakur (Thröstur), Olafur Darri Olafsson (Marri), Thrudur Vilhjalmdottir (Hofi)

'Funny, touching, off-the-wall relationer.' – Variety

'A lumpy dish of second-hand hippiness – under-cooked and over-familiar.' – Alexander Walker

One Hundred Per Cent Pure: see The Girl from Missouri

100 Rifles ★

US 1969 109m DeLuxe
TCF/Marvin Schwartz

In war-torn Mexico, a black American sheriff and his prisoner become involved in a girl's fight for vengeance after her father's death.

Blood-soaked adventure with plenty of tough action and tight pace. A little too purposeful in its unpleasantness to be very entertaining.

w Clair Huffaker, Tom Gries novel Robert MacLeod d Tom Gries ph Cecilio Paniagua m Jerry Goldsmith

☆ Jim Brown, Raquel Welch, Burt Reynolds, Fernando Lamas, Dan O'Herlihy, Hans Gudegast

120 Days of Sodom ★

Italy/France 1975 117m Technicolor
PEA/PAA

aka: Salo

After the Italian campaign of 1944, four local dignitaries marry each other's daughters, withdraw with a bevy of nubile girls to a mountain retreat, and tell each other sado-masochistic sexual adventures.

Whether you regard this bleak film as obscene or as a relentless examination of the effects of capitalism on sexuality, its scenes of brutal consumption, rape and torture make it difficult to watch; its despair is palpable.

wd Pier Paolo Pasolini novel Marquis de Sade ph Tonino delli Colli ad Dante Ferretti

☆ Paolo Bonacelli, Giorgio Cataldi, Uberto P. Quintavalle, Aldo Valetti

'One of the most scandalous films ever made...comments on the exercise of power, and on a consumer culture where a limitless choice of gratifications disguises an absence of all choice and all resistance.' – Gary Indiana

102 Dalmatians

US 2000 100m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Walt Disney (Edward S. Feldman)

Despite being taught to like dogs, Cruella De Vil lapses into her old ways and longs once more for a Dalmatian coat.

This is not so much a sequel, but virtually a remake of Disney's first live-action version of the story, only much duller.

w Kristen Buckley, Brian Regan, Bob Tzudiker, Noni White novel The One Hundred and One Dalmatians by Dodie Smith d Kevin Lima ph Adrian Biddle m David Newman pd Assheton Gorton ed Gregory Perler cos Anthony Powell

☆ Glenn Close (Cruella De Vil), Ioan Gruffudd (Kevin Shepherd), Alice Evans (Chloe Simon), Tim McInnerny (Alonso), Ian Richardson (Mr Torte), Gerard Depardieu (Jean Pierre Le Pelt), Ben Crompton (Ewan), Carol Macready (Agnes), Jim Carter (Detective Armstrong), Ron Cook (Mr Button), David Horovitch (Doctor Pavlov), Timothy West (Judge), Eric Idle (Voice of Waddlesworth)

'Goes through the motions and big set pieces with the prosaic proficiency of a formulaic sequel.' – Cosmo Landesman, Sunday Times

♙ Anthony Powell

One in a Million ★★

US 1936 94m bw
TCF (Raymond Griffith)

The daughter of a Swiss innkeeper becomes an Olympic ice-skating champion.

Sonja Henie's film debut shows Hollywood at its most professional, making entertainment out of the purest moonshine with considerable injections of novelty talent.

w Leonard Praskins, Mark Kelly d Sidney Lanfield ph Edward Cronjager md Louis Silvers ch Jack Haskell songs Sidney Mitchell, Lew Pollack

☆ Sonja Henie, Don Ameche, The Ritz Brothers, Jean Hersholt, Ned Sparks, Arline Judge, Dixie Dunbar, Borrah Minevitch and his Rascals, Montagu Love

'A very entertaining, adroitly mixed concoction of romance, music, comedy and skating ... Miss Henie is a screen find.' – Variety

♙ Jack Haskell

One Is a Lonely Number ★

US 1972 97m Metrocolor
MGM (Stan Margulies)

When her husband leaves her, a woman tries to develop new interests.

Satirical sentimental view of American divorce, with interesting moments.

w David Seltzer novel Rebecca Morris d Mel Stuart ph Michel Hugo m Michel Legrand

☆ Trish Van Devere, Monte Markham, Melvyn Douglas, Janet Leigh

One Last Chance

GB/Norway 2003 96m DeLuxe
Momentum/Scottish Screen/Vision View (Anne Batz)

Three Highland friends find a nugget of gold and decide to use it to escape from their boring lives.

Bland, uninteresting, though not objectionable, comedy that jogs along without getting anywhere.

wd Stewart Svaasand ph Sven Krøvel m Donald Shaw pd Pat Campbell ed St John O'Rorke

☆ Kevin McKidd (Seany), Iain Robertson (Nellie), Jamie Sives (Fitz), Jimmy Chisholm (Harry), James Cosmo (Big John), Neve McIntosh (Barbara), Dougray Scott (Frankie the Fence)

'For all the film's scruffy charms, it's let down by the lackadaisical plotting.' – Nicholas Barber, Independent

One Little Indian

US 1973 91m Technicolor
Walt Disney (Winston Hibler)

A cavalry corporal escapes from jail and falls in with a ten-year-old Indian.

Sentimental semi-Western, a bit dull for Disney apart from a camel.

w Harry Spalding d Bernard McEveety ph Charles F. Wheeler m Jerry Goldsmith

☆ James Garner, Vera Miles, Pat Hingle, Morgan Woodward, John Doucette

One Magic Christmas

Canada 1985 88m DeLuxe
Silver Screen/Telefilm Canada/Walt Disney (Peter O'Brian, Fred Roos)

An angel interferes in the lives of a family with problems.

Decidedly downbeat Christmas fantasy: daddy gets drowned, mother is a nut, and the angel looks like a tramp. Santa Claus puts in an appearance for a happy finale, but It's a Wonderful Life should sue for plagiarism.

w Thomas Meecham d Phillip Borsos ph Frank Tidy m Michael Conway pd Bill Brodie ed Sidney Wolinsky

☆ Mary Steenburgen, Gary Basaraba, Harry Dean Stanton, Arthur Hill

'No one embraces the law... But he does!'

One Man Force

US 1989 100m colour
Shapiro-Glickenhaus/Maximum Force Joint Venture (Dale Trevillion)

A volatile, suspended cop becomes a private investigator determined to find those responsible for killing his partner.

Standard low-budget action movie stuff, full of the usual car chases and gun fights, with an occasional tendency (possibly not intentional) to parody the excesses of the genre.

wd Dale Trevillion ph Constantine Makris m David Michael Frank pd Stephen Rice ed Lori Kornspun

☆ John Matuszak (Jake), Ronny Cox (McCoy), Charles Napier (Dante), Sharon Farrell (Shirley), Sam Jones (Pete), Chance Boyer (Ronnie), Richard Lynch (Adams), Stacey Q (Lea)

One Man Mutiny: see The Court Martial of Billy Mitchell

One Man's Journey

US 1933 72m bw
RKO

The career of a rural doctor for whom fame arrives too late.

Pleasant, predictable, rather downbeat small-town drama.
w Lester Cohen, Sam Ornitz story Failure by Katharine Haviland Taylor d John Robertson
☆ Lionel Barrymore, May Robson, Dorothy Jordan, Joel McCrea, Frances Dee, David Landau, Samuel S. Hinds 'Carries sympathetic interest and appeal.' – Variety

One Man's Way
US 1964 105m bw
UA
A crime reporter becomes a priest.
Rather self-conscious biography of Norman Vincent Peale, adequately assembled but containing no surprises.
w Eleanore Griffin, John W. Bloch book Minister to Millions by Arthur Gordon
d Denis Sanders
☆ Don Murray, Diana Hyland, William Windom, Virginia Christine, Carol Ohmart

One Mile from Heaven
US 1937 68m bw
TCF
A girl reporter makes hay with the story of a black woman who is raising a white child.
Curious mixture of melodrama and wisecracking farce, with tap dancing from Bill Robinson thrown in.
w Lou Breslow, John Patrick d Allan Dwan
☆ Claire Trevor, Sally Blane, Douglas Fowley, Fredi Washington, Ralf Harolde
'Whether the theme fits into the popular groove is something to think about.' – Variety

'The most exciting adventure in a million years!'
One Million BC ★
US 1940 80m bw
Hal Roach
GB title: Man and His Mate
aka: The Cave Dwellers
Life between warring tribes of primitive man in the stone age.
Impressive-looking but slow-moving grunt-and-groan epic originally based on D. W. Griffith's Man's Genesis and on which Griffith did some work. The totally unhistoric dinosaurs (which had disappeared long before man arrived) are impressively concocted by magnifying lizards.
w Mickell Novak, George Baker, Joseph Frickert d Hal Roach, Hal Roach Jnr, D. W. Griffith ph Norbert Brodine m Werner R. Heymann
☆ Victor Mature, Carole Landis, Lon Chaney Jnr, John Hubbard, Nigel de Brulier, Conrad Nagel
Werner R. Heymann

'This is the way it was!'
One Million Years BC ★
GB 1966 100m Technicolor
Hammer (Michael Carreras)
A vague remake of the above, with animated monsters.
Not badly done, with some lively action.
w Michael Carreras d Don Chaffey
ph Wilkie Cooper m Mario Nascimbene
☆ John Richardson, Raquel Welch, Robert Brown, Percy Herbert, Martine Beswick
'Very easy to dismiss the film as a silly spectacle; but Hammer production finesse is much in evidence and Don Chaffey has done a competent job of direction. And it is all hugely enjoyable.' – David Wilson

One Minute to Zero
US 1952 105m bw
RKO (Edmund Grainger)
In Korea a US colonel is evacuating American civilians but is forced to bomb refugees.
Flat war film with Something To Say and the star at his most humourless.
w Milton Krims, William Haines d Tay Garnett ph William E. Snyder m Victor Young md Constantin Bakaleinikoff
☆ Robert Mitchum, Ann Blyth, William Talman, Charles McGraw, Richard Egan

One More Kiss
GB 1999 102m Technicolor Panavision
Metrodome/Mob/Jam/Freewheel (Vadim Jean, Paul Brooks)
A young woman returns home to Britain to die and to ask a former boyfriend, who is now married, to be with her during her last days.
Tear-jerking drama that, despite its terminal theme, tries to keep death at a distance.
w Suzie Halewood d Vadim Jean ph Mike Fox m David A. Hughes, John Murphy pd Simon Hicks ed Joe McNally
☆ Gerard Butler (Sam), James Cosmo (Frank), Valerie Edmond (Sarah), Valerie Gogan (Charlotte), Carl Proctor (Barry), Danny Nussbaum (Jude), Dilys Miller (Mary), Ron Guthrie (Robin)
'A glossy romance of the Mills and Boon kind...would have played better had some of the gloss been scraped off.' – Alexander Walker

One More River ★
US 1934 88m bw
Universal (James Whale)
GB title: Over the River
A wife runs away from her husband, and he sets detectives on her and her lover.
Old-fashioned, well made picturization of a novel.
w R. C. Sherriff novel John Galsworthy d James Whale ph John Mescall m W. Franke Harling
☆ Colin Clive, Diana Wynyard, C. Aubrey Smith, Jane Wyatt, Lionel Atwill, Mrs Patrick Campbell, Frank Lawton, Reginald Denny, Henry Stephenson, Alan Mowbray, E. E. Clive
'Galsworthy beautifully transmuted to the screen ... Very British and ultra, but should prove nice enough b.o.' – Variety
'Taste, elegance, narrative drive and a deliberate nostalgia for the Galsworthy period.' – Peter John Dyer, 1966
'One of the finest courtroom episodes ever projected on a screen.' – Motion Picture Herald

One More Spring ★
US 1935 87m bw
Fox (Winfield Sheehan)
Three strangers, in reduced circumstances due to the Depression, meet in Central Park and pool their resources.
Topical serio-comedy which looks pretty dated but still serves as a summation of American mid-thirties attitudes.
w Edwin Burke novel Robert Nathan
d Henry King ph John Seitz md Arthur Lange ☆ Janet Gaynor, Warner Baxter, Walter Woolf King, Grant Mitchell, Jane Darwell, Roger Imhof, John Qualen, Dick Foran, Stepin Fetchit
'Whimsical comedy with plenty of laughs. Should do well.' – Variety

One More Time
GB 1969 93m DeLuxe
UA/Chrislaw-Tracemark (Milton Ebbins)
Two London club owners become involved with spies, gangsters and jewel-thieves.
The stars of the tedious Salt and Pepper are reunited for an even less amusing film.
w Michael Pertwee d Jerry Lewis
ph Ernest Steward m Les Reed
☆ Peter Lawford, Sammy Davis Jnr, Esther Anderson, Maggie Wright

One More Tomorrow ★
US 1946 89m bw
Warner (Henry Blanke)
A wealthy playboy marries a left-wing photographer and buys up her magazine.
An interesting but dated play fails to come to life because neither cast nor director seem to understand what it's about.
w Charles Hoffman, Catherine Turney, Julius J. and Philip G. Epstein play The Animal Kingdom by Philip Barry d Peter Godfrey ph Bert Glennon m Max Steiner
☆ Ann Sheridan, Dennis Morgan, Jack Carson, Alexis Smith, Jane Wyman, Reginald Gardiner, John Loder, Marjorie Gateson

One More Train to Rob
US 1971 108m Technicolor
Universal (Robert Arthur)
A train robber comes out of prison and warily takes up with his old partners.
Undistinguished Western which tries to be funny and serious at the same time.
w Don Tait, Dick Nelson d Andrew V. McLaglen ph Alric Edens m David Shire ☆ George Peppard, Diana Muldaur, John Vernon, France Nuyen, Steve Sandor

One New York Night ★
US 1935 80m bw
MGM (Bernard Hyman)
GB title: The Trunk Mystery
A young farmer in Manhattan on a visit finds a body in the hotel room next to his.
Slick comedy thriller very typical of its date and studio.
w Frank Davis play Edward Childs Carpenter d Jack Conway ☆ Franchot Tone, Una Merkel, Steffi Duna, Conrad Nagel, Charles Starrett, Harold Huber
'Sprightly devised murder mystery accounting for plenty of laughs ... studded with multiple touches of production value.' – Variety
'A comedy of astonishing intelligence and finish ... it ought to take its place immediately with the classics.' – Graham Greene

'She's three men over the legal limit.'
One Night at McCool's
US 2001 93m DeLuxe
Entertainment/October/Furthur (Michael Douglas, Allison Lyon Segan)
A bartender, a lawyer and a detective all fall for the same ruthless woman.
Ramshackle comedy that suffers from the miscasting of Liv Tyler as a femme fatale, though there's enjoyment to be found elsewhere, notably in Douglas's toothy, bingo-playing hit-man.
w Stan Seidel d Harald Zwart ph Karl Walter Lindenlaub m Marc Shaiman pd Jon Gary Steele ed Bruce Cannon cos Ellen Mirojnick
☆ Liv Tyler (Jewel), Matt Dillon (Randy), John Goodman (Detective Dehling), Paul Reiser (Carl), Michael Douglas (Mr Burmeister), Richard Jenkins (Father Jimmy), Reba McEntire (Dr Green), Andrew Silverstein (Utah), Andrea Bendewald (Karen), Eric Schaeffer (Greg Spradling), Leo Rossi (Joey Dinardo)
'Packs a lot into one night, but it's wearying. It's like a kid determined to show you every toy in his room, and there's nowhere to escape.' – Elvis Mitchell, New York Times

One Night in Lisbon
US 1941 97m bw
Paramount (Edward H. Griffith)
During World War II an American flyer falls for a British socialite who is being used by the government as a decoy for spies.
Flabby romantic comedy-drama which mostly wastes a good cast.
w Virginia Van Upp play There's Always Juliet by John Van Druten d Edward H. Griffith ph Bert Glennon m Sigmund Krumgold ☆ Madeleine Carroll, Fred MacMurray, Edmund Gwenn, Patricia Morison, Billie Burke, John Loder, Dame May Whitty, Reginald Denny, Billy Gilbert

One Night in the Tropics
US 1940 69m bw
Universal (Leonard Spigelgass)
Holidays on a Caribbean island lead to a double wedding.
Very lightweight comedy-musical notable only for introducing Abbott and Costello.
w Gertrude Purcell, Charles Grayson play Love Insurance by Earl Derr Biggers
d A. Edward Sutherland ph Joseph Valentine m/ly Oscar Hammerstein II, Jerome Kern, Otto Harbach, Dorothy Fields md Charles Previn ch Larry Ceballos ad Jack Otterson ed Milton Carruth
☆ Allan Jones, Nancy Kelly, Bud Abbott, Lou Costello, Robert Cummings, Leo Carrillo, Peggy Moran, Mary Boland

One Night of Love ★★
US 1934 95m bw
Columbia (Harry Cohn)
An opera star rebels against her demanding teacher.
Light classical musical which was a surprising box-office success and brought Hollywood careers for Lily Pons, Gladys Swarthout, Miliza Korjus, etc.
w Dorothy Speare, Charles Beahan, S. K. Lauren, James Gow, Edmund North
d Victor Schertzinger ph Joseph Walker
m Victor Schertzinger, Gus Kahn md Pietro Cimini ed Gene Milford ☆ Grace Moore, Tullio Carminati, Lyle Talbot, Mona Barrie, Nydia Westman, Jessie Ralph, Luis Alberni, Jane Darwell
score
best picture; direction; Grace Moore; editing

One Night Stand
US 1994 92m Foto-Kem
New World/New Horizons/Schwartzman (Alida Camp)
aka: Before the Night
An unhappy, restless career woman falls for a man who picks her up in a night-club and discovers that he is suspected of murdering his wife.
Unconvincing and extremely boring romantic drama, along the lines of a TV soap opera, with trite dialogue.
w Marty Casella d Talia Shire ph Arthur Albert m David Shire pd Rusty Smith
ed Jim Prior

☆ Ally Sheedy, A. Martinez, Frederic Forrest, Diane Salinger, Gina Hecht, Don Novello, Jodi Thelen, Robin Frates, Elsa Raven

'It was just one night that changed everything.'

One Night Stand ★ ④

US 1997 102m DeLuxe
Entertainment/New Line/Red Mullet (Mike Figgis, Annie Stewart, Ben Myron)

Visiting New York, a director of commercials spends the night with a woman he meets at his hotel, and finds he misses her when he returns home to his wife.

Slick, well-acted account of a burgeoning romance, but very forgettable.

wd Mike Figgis ph Declan Quinn m Mike Figgis pd Waldemar Kalinowski ed John Smith

☆ Wesley Snipes, Nastassja Kinski, Robert Downey Jnr, Ming-Na Wen, Kyle MacLachlan, Glenn Plummer, Amanda Donohoe, Thomas Haden Church, Julian Sands

'It's beautiful to look at, but shallow and trivial ... flashy, phoney and as ephemeral as its title.' – Alexander Walker, London Evening Standard

† Joe Eszterhas was reportedly paid $3m for his original script, which was to have been directed by Adrian Lyne; Figgis rewrote it, keeping only the title and the plot device.

†† Wesley Snipes won the best actor award at the Venice Film Festival.

One Night with You

GB 1948 92m bw
Two Cities/Rank

An English girl and an Italian tenor, stranded by a train failure, are taken for forgers.

Rather frantic but occasionally amusing Italian-set comedy.

w Caryl Brahms, S. J. Simon d Terence Young ph André Thomas m Lambert Williamson ad Terence Verity

☆ Nino Martini, Patricia Roc, Hugh Wakefield, Bonar Colleano, Guy Middleton, Stanley Holloway, Irene Worth, Charles Goldner

One of Our Aircraft Is Missing*

GB 1941 102m bw
British National (Michael Powell, Emeric Pressburger)

A bomber is grounded after a raid and its crew is helped by the Dutch resistance.

Efficient propaganda piece which starts vigorously but gets bogged down in talk.

wd Michael Powell, Emeric Pressburger ph Ronald Neame ed David Lean

☆ Godfrey Tearle, Eric Portman, Hugh Williams, Bernard Miles, Hugh Burden, Emrys Jones, Googie Withers, Pamela Brown, Peter Ustinov, Joyce Redman, Hay Petrie, Robert Helpmann, Alec Clunes

§ script

One of Our Dinosaurs Is Missing ★

US 1975 94m Technicolor
Walt Disney (Bill Walsh)

In the 1920s a strip of secret microfilm is smuggled out of China and hidden in a dinosaur's skeleton in the Natural History Museum.

Unexceptionable family comedy with everyone trying hard; somehow it just misses, perhaps because it is told through talk rather than cinematic narrative.

w Bill Walsh novel The Great Dinosaur Robbery by David Forrest d Robert Stevenson ph Paul Beeson m Ron Goodwin

☆ Helen Hayes, Peter Ustinov, Derek Nimmo, Clive Revill, Joan Sims, Bernard Bresslaw, Roy Kinnear, Deryck Guyler, Richard Pearson

One on One

US 1977 98m colour
Warner (Martin Hornstein)

An idealistic young basketball star finds life hard after he wins a scholarship to university.

Dull teen drama of a misfit making good.

w Robby Benson, Jerry Segal d Lamont Johnson ph Donald M. Morgan m Charles Fox ad Sherman Laudermilk ed Robbe Roberts

☆ Robby Benson, Annette O'Toole, G. D. Spradlin, Gail Strickland, Melanie Griffith

The One Piece Bathing Suit: see Million Dollar Mermaid

One Plus One

GB 1968 104m Eastmancolor
Connoisseur/Cupid (Michael Pearson, Iain Quarrier)

aka: Sympathy for the Devil

As the Rolling Stones rehearse their song 'Sympathy for the Devil', the film cuts between black militants, a television interview about revolution and its relationship with culture, and a bookshop where someone recites excerpts from Mein Kampf.

A confused revolutionary statement, with Godard trying to annex rock 'n' roll for his own impenetrable purposes. The last words in the film are the director's, stating that he is fed up and wants to go home; his audience is likely to have left earlier.

wd Jean-Luc Godard ph Tony Richmond m The Rolling Stones ed Ken Rowles

☆ Jean-Luc Godard (voice), Sean Lynch (voice), Mick Jagger, Keith Richard, Brian Jones, Charlie Watts, Bill Wyman, Anne Wiazemsky, Iain Quarrier, Frankie Dymon Jnr, Nike Arrighi

'Regardless of the effectiveness of certain scenes and sequences, one is left with the feeling that the film as a whole doesn't add up. But this is falling into the trap Godard has set for us: it is not meant to add up, and it won't.' – Richard Roud, MFB

† The producers increased Godard's cut by five minutes to 109m to include a full version of the Stones' song 'Sympathy for the Devil' at the end of the film.

One Rainy Afternoon ★

US 1935 79m bw
Pickford-Lasky

In a cinema one afternoon, a gigolo kisses the wrong girl.

Rather heavy-handed light comedy with interesting credentials.

w Stephen Morehouse Avery, Maurice Hanline play Emeric Pressburger and René Pujal d Rowland V. Lee

☆ Francis Lederer, Ida Lupino, Roland Young, Hugh Herbert, Erik Rhodes, Mischa Auer

'Mr Lee has given a useful demonstration of how not to direct this kind of story: he has been remorselessly logical when he should have been crazy; his only idea of humour is speed and noise, not speed of thought or situation, but just literal speed of walking and talking.' – Graham Greene, The Spectator

One Spy Too Many

US 1966 102m Metrocolor
MGM/Arena (David Victor)

A modern-day Alexander the Great is foiled in his attempt to conquer the world.

Trivial spy caper, edited from episodes of the television series The Man from U.N.C.L.E.

w Dean Hargrove d Joseph Sargent ph Fred Koenekamp m Gerald Fried ad George W. Davis, Merrill Pye ed Henry Berman

☆ Robert Vaughn, David McCallum, Rip Torn, Dorothy Provine, Leo G. Carroll, David Opatoshu, David Sheiner

One Summer Love

US 1976 97m colour Panavision
AIP

aka: Dragonfly

A young man leaves mental hospital for his Connecticut home, only to find everyone there nuttier than he is.

Over-the-top melodrama.

w N. Richard Nash d Gilbert Cates

☆ Beau Bridges, Susan Sarandon, Mildred Dunnock, Michael B. Miller

One Sunday Afternoon ★★

US 1933 93m bw
Paramount (Louis D. Lighton)

In 1910, a Brooklyn dentist feels he has married the wrong girl, but discovers that his choice was the right one.

Pleasant period comedy drama which was twice remade: as The Strawberry Blonde (qv) and see below.

w William Slavens McNutt, Grover Jones play James Hagan d Stephen Roberts ph Victor Milner

☆ Gary Cooper, Frances Fuller, Fay Wray, Neil Hamilton, Roscoe Karns

'Still pitched in stage tempo and unfolds haltingly.' – Variety

One Sunday Afternoon

US 1948 90m Technicolor
Warner (Jerry Wald)

Pleasant but undistinguished musical remake of the above.

w Robert L. Richards d Raoul Walsh ph Sid Hickox, Wilfrid M. Cline md Ray Heindorf ad Anton Grot

☆ Dennis Morgan, Dorothy Malone, Janis Paige, Don Defore, Ben Blue

'A lackadaisical and uninspired jaunt down memory lane.' – New Yorker, 1978

One Take Only

Thailand 2001 92m colour
Film Bangkok/Pang Brothers (Uncle, Leo Kittikorn, Udom Piboonlapudom)

aka: Som and Bank: Bangkok for Sale

A drug pusher and a prostitute discover that they live in the same housing project, fall in love and try to become bigtime drug dealers.

Bleak, violent drama that uses flashy camera moves and editing , with coloured filters for dream sequences and flashbacks; it also uses montages set to music to try to convince that it is about something interesting.

wd Oxide Pang ph Decha Srimanta, Krisorn Buranasing m Orange Music pd Visarut Piyakulawat ed Oxide Pang

☆ Pawarith Monkolpisit (Bank), Wanatchada Siwapornchai (Som), Chalermporn Paprach (Porn), Tok Payathai (Mafia)

'Strings together endless music montages instead of developing its characters or building narrative backbone.' – David Rooney, Variety

The One that Got Away ★★

GB 1957 111m bw
Rank (Julian Wintle)

A German flyer, Franz von Werra, is captured and sent to various British prisoner-of-war camps, from all of which he escapes.

True-life biopic, developed in a number of suspense and action sequences, all very well done.

w Howard Clewes book Kendal Burt, James Leasor d Roy Baker ph Eric Cross m Hubert Clifford

☆ Hardy Kruger, Michael Goodliffe, Colin Gordon, Alec McCowen

One Third of a Nation ★

US 1939 79m bw
Federal Theatre (Dudley Murphy)

A shopgirl persuades a landlord to tear down his dangerous slums and put up good buildings.

Naïve do-goodery, not too persuasively managed.

w Dudley Murphy, Oliver H. P. Garrett play Arthur Arent d Dudley Murphy ph William Mellor m Nathaniel Shilkret

☆ Sylvia Sidney, Leif Erickson, Myron McCormick, Hiram Sherman, Sidney Lumet, Percy Waram

'No worse and rather better than a commensurate modest-budgeter essayed on the coast ... the cinematic transition however seems to have almost wholly ditched the Federal Housing "living newspaper" purpose of the stage version, emphasizing the boy-meets-girl premise against the shocking slum background.' – Variety

The One Thousand Plane Raid

US 1969 94m DeLuxe
Oakwood/UA

An American colonel persuades top brass of the need for daylight bombing of Germany.

Reasonable routine war action drama.

w Donald S. Sanford d Boris Sagal

☆ Christopher George, Laraine Stephens, J. D. Cannon, Gary Marshall, Michael Evans, Ben Murphy

'The Gal Who Invented Love!'

One Touch of Venus ★

US 1948 82m bw
Universal/Lester Cowan

In a fashionable department store, a statue of Venus comes to life and falls for a window dresser.

Pleasant satirical comedy, watered down from the Broadway original.

w Harry Kurnitz, Frank Tashlin play S. J. Perelman, Ogden Nash d William A. Seiter ph Franz Planer ad Bernard Herzbrun, Emrich Nicholson songs Kurt Weill

☆ Ava Gardner, Robert Walker, Eve Arden, Dick Haymes, Olga San Juan, Tom Conway

One, Two, Three ★★

US 1961 115m bw Panavision
United Artists/Mirisch/Pyramid (Billy Wilder)

An executive in West Berlin is trying to sell Coca Cola to the Russians while preventing his boss's daughter from marrying a communist.

Back to Ninotchka territory, but this time the tone is that of a wild farce which achieves fine momentum in stretches but also flags a lot in between, teetering the while on the edge of taste.

w Billy Wilder, I. A. L. Diamond play Ferenc Molnar d Billy Wilder ph Daniel Fapp m André Previn
☆ James Cagney, Horst Buchholz, Arlene Francis, Pamela Tiffin, Lilo Pulver, Howard St John, Leon Askin
'A sometimes bewildered, often wonderfully funny exercise in nonstop nuttiness.' – Time
'This first-class featherweight farce is a serious achievement.' – Stanley Kauffmann
Daniel Fapp

One Way Passage ★
US 1932 69m bw
Warner (Robert Lord)
On an ocean voyage, a dying girl falls in love with a crook going home to face a life sentence.
Pattern melodrama which stood Hollywood in good stead.
w Wilson Mizner, Joseph Jackson, Robert Lord d Tay Garnett ph Robert Kurrie m W. Franke Harling
☆ William Powell, Kay Francis, Frank McHugh, Aline MacMahon, Warren Hymer, Herbert Mundin, Roscoe Karns, Stanley Fields
'Will reach house averages for this time of year.' – Variety † Remade as 'Til We Meet Again (qv). original story (Robert Lord)

One Way Pendulum
GB 1964 85m bw
UA/Woodfall (Michael Deeley)
A suburban clerk leads a dream existence; his son teaches speak-your-weight machines to sing, while he sets an imaginary murder trial in motion.
A nonsense play (which has many adherents) resists the literalness of the camera eye.
w N. F. Simpson play N. F. Simpson d Peter Yates ph Denys Coop m Richard Rodney Bennett ☆ Eric Sykes, George Cole, Julia Foster, Jonathan Miller, Peggy Mount, Alison Leggatt, Mona Washbourne

One Way to Love
US 1945 83m bw
Burt Kelly/Columbia
A Chicago radio writer gets a chance in Hollywood.
Hit-and-miss romantic comedy which takes place largely on a westbound train.
w Joseph Hoffman, Jack Henley, Lester Lee, Larry Marks d Ray Enright
☆ Willard Parker, Marguerite Chapman, Hugh Herbert, Chester Morris, Jerome Cowan, Janis Carter

One Wedding and Lots of Funerals: see Leprechaun 2

One Wild Moment: see A Summer Affair

One Wild Night
US 1938 63m bw
John Stone/TCF
Four small-town citizens anxious for vacations away from their wives plot their own kidnapping.
Tolerable second feature comedy, but the plot might have been better developed.
w Charles Belden, Jerry Cady d Eugene Forde
☆ June Lang, Dick Baldwin, Lyle Talbot, J. Edward Bromberg, Sidney Toler, William Demarest, Andrew Tombes, Spencer Charters

One Wild Oat
GB 1951 78m bw
Coronet/Eros
An old flame tries to blackmail a highly respectable solicitor.
Modest film version of a popular West End farce.
w Vernon Sylvaine, Lawrence Huntington play Vernon Sylvaine d Charles Saunders ph Robert Navarro m Stanley Black ☆ Robertson Hare, Stanley Holloway, Sam Costa, Andrew Crawford, Vera Pearce, Robert Moreton, Irene Handl

One Woman or Two: see Une Femme ou Deux

One Woman's Story: see The Passionate Friends

One-Trick Pony ★
US 1980 98m Technicolor
Warner (Michael Tannen)
A veteran rock musician attempts to hold on to his integrity as his career and marriage disintegrate.
An episodic account, broken by songs that carry, not always successfully, the movie's emotional weight; but the scenes detailing the business side of popular music, dealing with a crass DJ and an unsympathetic producer and record boss, have an authentic bitterness about them.
w Paul Simon d Robert M. Young ph Dick Bush m/ly Paul Simon pd David Mitchell ed Edward Beyer, Barry Malkin, David Ray ☆ Paul Simon, Blair Brown, Rip Torn, Joan Hackett, Allen Goorwitz (Garfield), Mare Winningham, Michael Pearlman, Lou Reed, Daniel Stern
† The film also includes performamces by the B-52s, Sam and Dave and the Lovin' Spoonful, and a brief appearance by Tiny Tim.

A One-Way Ticket: see Un Pasaje de Ida

One-Way Ticket
US 1935 66m bw
Columbia
A convicted bank robber falls in love with the warden's daughter.
Prison break drama which seems to be trying to make a point but is not sure what.
w Vincent Lawrence, Joseph Anthony, Oliver H. P. Garrett, Grover Jones novel Ethel Turner d Herbert Biberman
☆ Lloyd Nolan, Walter Connolly, Peggy Conklin, Edith Fellows, Nana Bryant, Thurston Hall
'It is "different" at the cost of credulity.' – Variety

'From Alexander Pushkin's timeless masterpiece of love and obsession.'

Onegin ★
GB/US 1998 106m DeLuxe
Entertainment/Seven Arts/Baby/Protagonist (Ileen Maisel, Simon Bosanquet)
An aristocrat rejects the love of a young woman and lives to regret his action.
Sumptuous version of a classic tale of doomed love, but one that has an unwonted air of Anglo-Saxon repression about it; and Tyler is miscast.
w Peter Ettedgui, Michael Ignatieff verse novel Aleksandr Pushkin d Martha Fiennes ph Remi Adefarasin m Magnus Fiennes pd Jim Clay ed Jim Clark
☆ Ralph Fiennes (Evgeny Onegin), Liv Tyler (Tatyana Larin), Toby Stephens (Vladimir Lensky), Lena Headey (Olga Larin), Martin Donovan (Prince Nikitin), Alun Armstrong (Zaretsky), Harriet Walter (Mme Larina), Irene Worth (Princess Alina), Jason Watkins (Guillot), Francesca Annis (Katiusha)
'There's something frozen about her film, despite its immense decorative appeal.' – Adam Mars-Jones, Times
'Diminishes Alexander Pushkin's epic 19th-century novel ... into a cramped little soap opera whose two stars are painfully mismatched.' – Janet Maslin, New York Times

'A new breed of martial arts hero is born.'

Ong Bak ★
Thailand 2003 105m colour
Premier Asia/Baa-Ram-Ewe/Shamongkolfilm
A young monk, expert in Muay Thai martial arts, has seven days to track down in Bangkok the stolen head of the statue of his village's guardian spirit.
Enjoyable action movie built around the athletic skills of Tony Jaa, whose more spectacular stunts are shown two or three times, shot from different angles and in slow motion in case audiences missed them the first time around.
w Suphachai Sithiamphan story Prachya Pinkaew, Phanna Rithikrai d Prachya Pinkaew ph Natawut Kittikun pd Akhadaet Kaewchote ed Thanat Sunsin martial arts choreographer Phanna Rithikrai
☆ Tony Jaa (Ting), Petchthai Wongkamlao (George), Pumwaree Yodkamol (Muay Lek), Rungrawee Borrijindakul (Ngek), Chetwut Wacharakun (Peng), Wannakit Siriput (Don)
'The no-frills approach and Jaa's virtuosity create the kind of excitement that hasn't often been seen since the early days of Jackie Chan's career.' – Wendy Ide, Times

Onibaba ★★★
Japan 1964 104m bw Tohoscope
Kindai Eiga Kyokai/Tokyo Eiga
aka: The Hole
In medieval times on a remote marshy plain, mother and daughter live by killing stray soldiers and selling their armour, until the daughter takes one for a lover and mother becomes jealous.
A kind of original horror legend is told by this strange, compelling piece with its frequent moments of nastiness. It remains, perhaps mercifully, unique.
wd Kaneto Shindo ph Kiyomi Juroda m Hikaru Hayashi ad Kaneto Shindo ed Kazuo Enoko ☆ Nobuko Otowa (The Mother), Jitsuko Yoshimura (The Daughter-in-Law), Kei Sato (Hachi, the Farmer)
'The film is the most ardent and unflinching celebration of sex. It shows with equal faithfulness the ecstasies of its fulfilment and the agonies of its frustration.' – John Simon

'What happened is true ... but the real crime is what happened after!'

The Onion Field
US 1979 126m Eastmancolor
Black Marble (Walter Coblenz)
Two policemen are shot at by a manic killer, and the one who survives finds that he is suspected of cowardice and has to resign from the force.
Well meaning but lumbering case history. The author must carry the blame, as for once the picture was made exactly on his terms.
w Joseph Wambaugh novel Joseph Wambaugh d Harold Becker ph Charles Rosher m Eumir Deodato pd Brian Eatwell
☆ John Savage, James Woods, Franklyn Seales, Ted Danson, Ronny Cox, David Huffman

Onionhead
US 1958 110m bw
Warner (Jules Schermer)
Adventures of a ship's cook in the US Coastguard.
Service comedy that must have seemed funnier in the US than in Britain.
w Nelson Gidding novel Weldon Hill d Norman Taurog ph Harold Rosson md Ray Heindorf
☆ Andy Griffith, Felicia Farr, Walter Matthau, Erin O'Brien, Joe Mantell, Ray Danton, Roscoe Karns, James Gregory, Tige Andrews
† An attempt to cash in on the success of No Time for Sergeants.

'Romance as glorious as the towering Andes!'

Only Angels Have Wings ★★
US 1939 121m bw
Columbia (Howard Hawks)
Tension creeps into the relationships of the men who fly cargo planes over the Andes when a stranded showgirl sets her cap at the boss.
For an action film this is really too restricted by talk and cramped studio sets, and its theme was more entertainingly explored in Red Dust. Still, it couldn't be more typical of the Howard Hawks film world, where men are men and women have to be as tough as they are.
w Jules Furthman story Howard Hawks d Howard Hawks ph Joseph Walker, Elmer Dyer m Dimitri Tiomkin md Morris Stoloff
☆ Cary Grant, Jean Arthur, Rita Hayworth, Richard Barthelmess, Thomas Mitchell, Sig Rumann, Victor Kilian, John Carroll, Allyn Joslyn
'All these people did the best they could with what they were given – but look at it.' – Otis Ferguson

The Only Game in Town
US 1969 113m DeLuxe
TCF (Fred Kohlmar)
A Las Vegas chorus girl and a piano player have an unhappy life because of his gambling fever.
Uninteresting two-header from a play that didn't make it; no light relief, no action, and not even very good acting.
w Frank D. Gilroy play Frank D. Gilroy d George Stevens ph Henri Decaë m Maurice Jarre
☆ Elizabeth Taylor, Warren Beatty, Charles Braswell, Hank Henry
'It epitomizes the disaster the studio and star systems foist on films ... the only two-character tale around to cost $11 million.' – Judith Crist † Frank Sinatra was originally cast but walked out after production started; Warren Beatty astonishingly chose to do this rather than Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid.

Only Human ★
Spain/GB/Argentina/Portugal 2004 89m colour
Verve/Tornasol/Greenpoint/ Patagonik/ Madragoa (Gerardo Herrero, Javier Lopez Blanco, Mariela Besuievsky, Patrick Cassavetti,

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆Cast in approximate order of importance · †Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Adrian Sturges, Pablo Bossi, Paulo Branco)

original title: Seres Queridos

A Jewish girl brings her Palestinian boyfriend home to meet the family.

Boisterously comic account of disastrous evening that does not take too seriously the political dimension; love conquers all.

wd Teresa de Peligri, Dominic Harari ph Danny Cohen m Charlie Mole ad Soledad Sesena ed Fernando Pardo

☆ Norma Aleandro (Gloria), Guillermo Toledo (Rafi), Maria Botto (Tania), Marian Aguilera (Leni), Fernando Ramallo (David), Alba Molinero (Paula), Max Berliner (Dudu), Mario Martin (Ernesto)

'Intermittently hilarious contraption.' – Village Voice

Only the Best: see I Can Get It for You Wholesale

'A comedy for anyone who's ever had a mother.'

Only the Lonely

US 1991 104m DeLuxe
TCF/Hughes Entertainment (John Hughes, Hunt Lowry)

A mother-dominated cop falls in love with a shy beautician at his neighbourhood undertakers.

Soft-centred, sentimental drama that lacks the courage to be convincing.

wd Chris Columbus ph Julio Macat m Maurice Jarre ch Monica Devereux pd John Muto ed Raja Gosnell

☆ John Candy, Maureen O'Hara, Ally Sheedy, Anthony Quinn, James Belushi, Kevin Dunn, Milo O'Shea, Bert Remsen, Macaulay Culkin

† It was Maureen O'Hara's first film for 20 years.

'On The Streets Survival Is The Only Law.'

Only the Strong

US 1993 96m Eastmancolor
Rank/Polygram/Freestone/Davis (Samuel Hadida, Stuart S. Shapiro, Steven G. Menkin)

An expert in the Brazilian martial art of capoeira teaches it to a school's 12 toughest kids to give them self-respect.

Apart from its use of Brazil's dance-based method of beating opponents to pulp, a standard, forgettable film of its type, surprisingly given a cinema release.

w Sheldon Lettich, Luis Esteban d Sheldon Lettich ph Edward Pei m Harvey J. Mason pd J. Mark Harrington ed Stephen Semel

☆ Mark Dacascos, Geoffrey Lewis, Paco Christian Prieto, Stacey Travis, Todd Susman, Richard Coca

'I strained my neck just watching it, largely because I kept nodding off. I imagine Sheldon Lettich, the director, might have done so too. At any rate, he must have written it in a doze.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

'They were six and they fought like six hundred!'

Only the Valiant

US 1950 105m bw
(Warner)

A tough cavalry officer in a lonely fort wins a battle against Indians.

Standard top-of-the-bill Western; competent but not very gripping.

w Edmund H. North, Harry Brown d Gordon Douglas ph Lionel Lindon m Franz Waxman

☆ Gregory Peck, Ward Bond, Gig Young, Lon Chaney Jnr, Barbara Payton, Neville Brand

Only Two Can Play ★★★

GB 1962 106m bw
British Lion/Vale (Launder and Gilliat)

A much married assistant librarian in a Welsh town has an abortive affair with a councillor's wife.

Well characterized and generally diverting 'realistic' comedy which slows up a bit towards the end but contains many memorable sequences and provides its star's last good character performance.

w Bryan Forbes novel That Uncertain Feeling by Kingsley Amis d Sidney Gilliat ph John Wilcox m Richard Rodney Bennett ad Albert Witherick ed Thelma Connell

☆ Peter Sellers (John Lewis), Mai Zetterling (Elizabeth Gruffydd Williams), Virginia Maskell (Jean Lewis), Richard Attenborough (Gareth Probert), Raymond Huntley (Vernon), John Le Mesurier (Salter), Kenneth Griffith (Iaeun Jenkins)

'It has a kind of near-truth which is at once hilarious and faintly macabre.' – Dilys Powell

Only When I Larf ★

GB 1968 103m Eastmancolor
Paramount/Beecord (Len Deighton, Brian Duffy, Hugh Attwooll)

The adventures of three confidence tricksters.

Quite likeable but unmemorable 'with it' comedy of the sixties; the tricks are more amusing than the characterization.

w John Salmon novel Len Deighton d Basil Dearden ph Anthony Richmond m Ron Grainer

☆ Richard Attenborough, David Hemmings, Alexandra Stewart, Nicholas Pennell, Melissa Stribling, Terence Alexander, Edric Connor, Calvin Lockhart, Clifton Jones

Only When I Laugh

US 1981 120m Metrocolor
Columbia (Roger M. Rothstein, Neil Simon)

GB title: It Hurts Only When I Laugh

An alcoholic actress tries to rebuild her life.

Last desperate fling (one hopes) of the Neil Simon industry, dispensing in this case more bitter tears than laughs, and generally failing to stay the course.

w Neil Simon play The Gingerbread Lady by Neil Simon d Glenn Jordan ph David M. Walsh m David Shire

☆ Marsha Mason, Kristy McNichol, James Coco, Joan Hackett, David Dukes, John Bennett Perry

'One can almost hear the click of typewriter keys.' – Geoff Brown, MFB

Marsha Mason; James Coco (supporting actor); Joan Hackett (supporting actress)

Only Yesterday ★

US 1933 105m bw
Universal

An unmarried mother is seduced twice by the same man.

One that Ross Hunter didn't get around to remaking ... and a good job too.

w William Hurlbut, George O'Neill, Arthur Richman d John M. Stahl ph Merritt Gerstad m Constantine Bakaleinikoff ad Charles D. Hall ed Milton Carruth

☆ Margaret Sullavan, John Boles, Billie Burke, Reginald Denny, Edna May Oliver, Benita Hume

'The film needs little more praise than that it warrants its unusual length.' – Variety

† The original intention seems to have been to mirror recent history as in Frederick Lewis Allen's book of the same title.

Only You ★

US 1994 108m Technicolor
Columbia TriStar/Fried/Woods Films/Yorktown (Norman Jewison, Cary Wood, Robert N. Fried, Charles Mulvehill)

In Italy, a woman pursues the man she believes, on the evidence of a fortune teller, she is destined to marry and finds the love of her life.

Sugary, glossy, nostalgic romantic comedy that deliberately harks back to the 50s Roman Holiday, starring Audrey Hepburn and Gregory Peck, and which seems even more old-fashioned.

w Diane Drake d Norman Jewison ph Sven Nykvist m Rachel Portman pd Luciana Arrighi ed Stephen Rivkin

☆ Marisa Tomei, Robert Downey Jnr, Bonnie Hunt, Billy Zane, Joaquim de Almeida, Fisher Stevens

'Populated by characters who believe in pursuing their amorous destinies as long as it involves staying in five-star hotels, handsomely turned-out trifle has a healthy dose of highly calculated commercial appeal, especially to those who are ready to swallow cornball romance without worrying about excess sweets.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

Ooh, You Are Awful ★

GB 1972 97m Eastmancolor
British Lion/Quintain (E. M. Smedley Aston)

US title: Get Charlie Tully

A London con man seeks a fortune, the clue to which is tattooed on the behind of one of several girls.

Amusing star vehicle with plenty of room for impersonations and outrageous jokes.

w John Warren, John Singer d Cliff Owen ph Ernest Steward m Christopher Gunning ☆ Dick Emery, Derren Nesbitt, Ronald Fraser, Pat Coombs, William Franklyn, Brian Oulton, Norman Bird

Open City ★★★★

Italy 1945 101m bw
Minerva

original title: Roma, Città Aperta

Italian underground workers defy the Nazis in Rome towards the end of the war.

A vivid newsreel quality is achieved by this nerve-stretching melodrama in which all the background detail is as real as care could make it.

w Sergio Amidei, Federico Fellini d Roberto Rossellini ph Ubaldo Arata m Renzo Rossellini

☆ Aldo Fabrizi (Don Pietro Pellegrini), Anna Magnani (Pina), Marcello Pagliero (Giorgio Manfredi), Maria Michi (Marina)

script

Open Hearts ★★

Denmark 2002 114m colour
Icon/Zentropa (Vibeke Windelov)

original title: Elsker Dig For Evigt

A woman falls in love with the doctor who treats her fiancé after he is crippled in an accident caused by the doctor's wife.

Heartfelt drama of love and loss, and the unexpected event that can alter many lives, told in the plain, straightforward manner of a Dogme film

w Anders Thomas Jensen d Susanne Bier ph Morten Soborg m Jesper Winge Leisner ed Pernille Bech Christensen, Thomas Krag

☆ Sonja Richter (Cecilie), Nikolaj Lie Kaas (Joachim), Mads Mikkelsen (Niels), Paprika Steen (Marie), Stine Bjerregaard (Stine), Birthe Neumann (Hanne), Niels Olsen (Finn), Ulf Pilgaard (Thomsen)

'Pounces on all the painful issues of affliction, sex and death that you half wish the movie would sidestep.' – Stephen Holden, New York Times

'Poignant, thoughtful and utterly absorbing.' – Gunnar Rehlin, Variety

'No place to run. No reason to hide.'

Open Range ★★ (6)

US/GB 2003 138m Technicolor Panavision
Winchester/Touchstone/Cobal/Tig (David Valdes, Kevin Costner, Jake Eberts)

Two cowboys, who live on the open range with their herd, are confronted by a hostile landowner and his men.

Elegiac Western in the classic tradition. All the expected elements are here: wide-open spaces, gruff dialogue, hesitant romance, moral choices and gunfights.

w Craig Storper novel The Open Range Men by Lauran Paine d Kevin Costner ph James Muro m Michael Kamen pd Gae Buckley ed Michael J. Duthie, Miklos Wright

☆ Robert Duvall (Boss Spearman), Kevin Costner (Charley Waite), Annette Bening (Sue Barlow), Michael Gambon (Denton Baxter), Michael Jeter (Percy), Diego Luna (Button), James Russo (Sheriff Poole), Abraham Benrubi (Mose), Dean McDermott (Doc Barlow)

'Costner's relentless, root-canal humorlessness turns what might have been an enjoyable B-picture throwback into a ponderous drag.' – A. O. Scott, New York Times

'Imperfect but deeply involving and beautifully made.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times

Open Season

US/Spain/Switzerland 1974 104m Eastmancolor Panavision
Impala/Arpa (George H. Brown, Jose S. Vicuna)

Three young criminals hunt human prey, but one of their victims takes his own revenge.

Rough, flashy, violent melodrama which pretends to have something to say but in fact is merely sensationalist.

w David Osborn, Liz Charles Williams d Peter Collinson ph Fernando Arribas m Ruggero Cini

☆ Peter Fonda, Cornelia Sharpe, John Phillip Law, Richard Lynch, Albert Mendoza, William Holden

'An offensive, gamy potboiler.' – Variety

'Both patience and the plot line are severely strained by the artiness Collinson frequently indulges, with frozen shots to mark the moments of truth and a meaningless punctuation throughout of long shots, angles and flashes.' – Tom Milne

'One fur all, and all fur one.'

Open Season ★ (5)

US 2006 86m
Sony/Sony Pictures Animation (Michelle Murdocca)

A domesticated grizzly bear is shown the delights of the wild by a deer he rescues just as hunters declare open season in the woods.

A slight cartoon caper, with nice graphics, crude wise-cracking creatures, cosy homilies and little new to add to its predictable format.

w Steve Moore, John B. Carls, Jill Culton, Steve Bencich, Ron J. Friedman, Nat Mauldin, Sam Harper d Roger Allers, Jill Culton m Ramin Djawadi m/ly Paul Westerberg pd Michael Humphries ad Luc Desmarchelier, Andrew Edward Harkness ed Ken Solomon, Pam Ziegenhagen sp Chris Kazmier
☆ Martin Lawrence (Boog), Ashton Kutcher (Elliot), Gary Sinise (Garth Shaw), Deborah Messing (Beth), Billy Connolly (McSquizzy)
'Someone ought to declare open season on these copycat movies, but in the meantime you could do worse than this bright-looking, lightly amusing excursion.' – Michael Rechtshaffen, Hollywood Reporter

'Who will save you?'

Open Water ★★

US 2003 79m colour
Redbus/Plunge Pictures (Laura Lau, Chris Kentis)

While enjoying a diving holiday, a couple surface in the middle of the ocean to find themselves alone and abandoned.
Based on a true story, a chilling account that rings emotionally true of being stranded in the seemingly limitless sea, with sharks circling nearby; this is film making stripped of everything extraneous.
wd Chris Kentis ph Chris Kentis, Laura Lau ed Chris Kentis ☆ Blanchard Ryan (Susan), Daniel Travis (David)
'Tour-de-force thriller that deftly transforms its low-budget limitations into spectacular assets.' – Ronnie Scheib, Variety

Open Your Eyes: see Abre Los Ojos

Opening Night

US 1978 144m Metrocolor
Faces Distribution (Al Ruban)

A Broadway actress is on the point of a nervous breakdown.
Interminable addition to the director's list of unwatchable personal films.
wd John Cassavetes ph Al Ruban m Bo Horwood ☆ Gena Rowlands, Ben Gazzara, John Cassavetes, Joan Blondell, Paul Stewart, Zohra Lampert, Laura Johnson
'Shrill, puzzling, depressing and overlong.' – Variety

L'Opéra de Quat' Sous: see Die Dreigroschenoper

Opera do Malandro

Brazil 1986 105m colour
Goldwyn/MK2/Austra/TF1 (Marin Karmitz, Ruy Guerra)

A pro-American pimp in pro-Nazi Brazil becomes involved with the daughter of his enemy, a corrupt night-club owner.
A South American treatment of Brecht's Threepenny Opera without Kurt Weill's music or much to recommend it.
w Chico Buarque, Orlando Senna, Ruy Guerra d Ruy Guerra ph Antonio Luis Mendes m Chico Buarque ed Mair Tavares, Ide Lacreta, Kenout Peltier ☆ Edson Celulari, Claudia Ohana, Elba Ramalho, Ney Latorraca, Fabio Sabag, J. C. Violla, Wilson Grey

Operation Amsterdam ★

GB 1958 104m bw
Rank/Maurice Cowan

In 1940 spies are sent into Holland to prevent the invading Germans from finding Amsterdam's stock of industrial diamonds.
Semi-documentary war adventure, well mounted and played.
w Michael McCarthy, John Eldridge book Adventure in Diamonds by David Walker d Michael McCarthy ph Reg Wyer m Philip Green ☆ Peter Finch, Tony Britton, Eva Bartok, Alexander Knox, Malcolm Keen, Tim Turner, John Horsley, Melvyn Hayes, Christopher Rhodes

Operation Bullshine

GB 1959 84m Technicolor
ABPC

In 1942, complications ensue when an ATS private suspects her husband of infidelity.
Flabby army comedy with a few laughs.
w Anne Burnaby, Rupert Lang, Gilbert Gunn d Gilbert Gunn ph Gilbert Taylor m Laurie Johnson
☆ Donald Sinden, Barbara Murray, Carole Lesley, Ronald Shiner, Naunton Wayne, Daniel Massey, Dora Bryan

Operation CIA

US 1965 90m bw
Allied Artists

An agent is rushed to Saigon to find a secret message which was never delivered.
Crude thick ear with a few suspenseful moments.
w Bill S. Ballinger, Peer J. Oppenheimer d Christian Nyby ph Richard Moore m Paul Dunlap
☆ Burt Reynolds, John Hoyt, Daniele Aubry, Kieu Chinh, Cyril Collick

Operation Condor

Hong Kong 1991 103m colour
Technovision
Golden Harvest/Golden Way (Raymond Chow) original title: Feiying Gaiwak
aka: The Armor of God II

A Chinese explorer is hired by a Spanish aristocrat to find a hoard of Nazi gold buried in the Sahara Desert.
Genial and energetic martial arts movie, less effective than usual because the action is removed from its normal Hong Kong context, though no doubt its desert setting seemed exotic to its home audience.
w Jackie Chan, Edward Tang, Ma Mei-ping d Jackie Chan ph Arthur Wong m Peter Pau ad Oliver Wong, Eddie Ma, Lou Ka-yiu ed Peter Cheung
☆ Jackie Chan, Carol Cheng, Eva Cobo de Garcia, Shoko Ikeda
'A breezy actioneer that's always watchable.' – Variety
† The film was the most expensive so far made in Hong Kong, at a cost of $15 million ($HK115).

Operation Crossbow ★

GB 1965 116m Metrocolor Panavision
MGM/Carlo Ponti

aka: The Great Spy Mission

In World War II, trained scientists are parachuted into Europe to destroy the Nazi rocket-making plant at Peenemunde.
Unlikely, star-packed war yarn with more passing tragedy than most, all obliterated by a shoot-em-up James Bond finale.
w Richard Imrie (Emeric Pressburger), Derry Quinn, Ray Rigby d Michael Anderson ph Erwin Hillier m Ron Goodwin ed Ernest Walter ☆ George Peppard, Tom Courtenay, John Mills, Sophia Loren, Lilli Palmer, Anthony Quayle, Patrick Wymark, Jeremy Kemp, Paul Henreid, Trevor Howard, Sylvia Syms, Richard Todd, Richard Johnson

Operation Daybreak

US 1975 119m Technicolor
Warner/Howard R. Schuster/American Allied (Carter de Haven)

In 1941, Czech patriots kill the hated Nazi Heydrich and are hunted down.
Curiously-timed evocation of wartime resistance adventures, too realistic for the squeamish and certainly not very entertaining despite a fair level of professionalism.
w Ronald Harwood novel Seven Men at Daybreak by Alan Burgess d Lewis Gilbert ph Henri Decaë m David Hentschel
☆ Timothy Bottoms, Martin Shaw, Joss Ackland, Nicola Pagett, Anthony Andrews, Anton Diffring, Carl Duering, Diana Coupland

Operation Delta Force

US 1997 93m colour
Nu Image/Monodfin (Danny Lerner, Boaz Davidson)

An elite military team deals with South African terrorists who threaten to unleash the Ebola virus upon the world.
Episodic action movie that consists of one long chase filled with gun battles and explosions; there are many better (and few worse) ways of passing the time than watching this.
w David Sparling d Sam Firstenberg ph Yossi Wein m Serge Colbert pd Richard Varod ed Omer Tal, Henry Richardson
☆ Jeff Fahey (Lang), Ernie Hudson (Tipton), Rob Stewart (Sparks), Frank Zagarino (McKinney), Joe Lara (Nash), Todd Jensen (Hutch), Natasha Sunderland (Marie), Hal Holbrook (Henshaw), Gideon Emery (Bowers), Tshepo Nzimande (DiBlase), Dan Robbertse (Pretorius)

Operation Delta Force II: Mayday

US 1998 98m colour
Nu Image/New World Services (Danny Lerner)

An elite US military team are called into action after a terrorist hijacks a Russian submarine and threatens nuclear destruction of American and Russian cities.
Dull and confusing action pic, with a sentimental subplot about father-son bonding; it is needlessly loud and violent, with much macho posturing.
w David Sparling d Yossi Wein ph Peter Belcher m Russell Stirling, Wessel van Rensburg pd David Varod ed Felix Meyburgh Jnr
☆ Michael McGrady (Capt Skip Lang), J. Kenneth Campbell (Lukash), Dale Dye (Admiral Halsey Lang), Greg Melvill-Smith (Sergei), Robert Whitehead (Mikhail), Simon Jones (Vickers), Robert Patteri (McKinney), Todd Jensen (Lombardi), Spencer Rochfort (Hutch), Gavin Hood (Sparks), James Whyle (Bagley), Brian O'Shaughnessy (Admiral Henshaw)

Operation Delta Force III: Clear Target

US 1998 96m colour
Nu Image/Nu World (Danny Lerner)

Delta Force deals with a Colombian drug baron who hijacks a US submarine so he can fire biological weapons at the UN headquarters in New York.
An action film reduced to its bare essentials: characterisation is minimal, dialogue is no more than shouted commands and the occasional grunt through clenched teeth, and the narrative is one long gun-battle, during which the enemy body count is high, and our heroes endure the odd scratch.
w David Sparling story Danny Lerner d Mark Roper ph Johan Scheepers m Serge Colbert pd David Varod ed Gerard Jakubowicz
☆ Jim Fitzpatrick (Skip Lang), Greg Collins (McKinney), Danny Keogh (Salvatore), Simon Jones (Vickers), Gavin Hood (Sparks), Darcy La Pier (Ariana Decker), Bryan Genesse (Hutch), David Dukas (Lombardi), Brian O'Shaughnessy (Admiral Norman Henshaw)

Operation Delta Force IV: Deep Fault

US 1999 104m colour
Nu Image (Danny Lerner, David Varod)

US special forces deal with a double-crossing Serbian general and a Cuban-American who plans to use a nucelar weapon to cause a major earthquake along the San Andreas fault..
The threadbare franchise continues with a movie that is one long gun-battle in various locations; the topicality of the scenario adds nothing to the predictable gung-ho action.
w David Sparling story Danny Lerner d Mark Roper ph Adolfo Bartoli m Serge Colbert pd David Varod ed Omer Tal
☆ Joe Lara (McKinney), Greg Collins (Skip Lang), Justin Williams, Gary Hudson, Johnny Messner, Hayley Du Mond, John Laughlin

'They are back again with a vengeance.'

Operation Delta Force V: Random Fire

US 1999 94m colour
Nu Image/Do (Marlow De Mardt, Brigid Olen, Danny Lerner)

After African troops kill two American ambassadors and their families and send a suicide bomber to a Boston conference, Delta Force go into action to kill the rebel leader.
The stupefying mixture as before: tough guy dialogue ("Goodbyes are for women"), gung ho action, mindless heroics and endless explosions - to which is added some absurd brain-washing by a dastardly Russian psychiatrist.
w Bernard Stone story Danny Lerner d Yossi Wein ph Peter Belcher m Serge Colbert pd Zack Grobler ed Amanda I. Kirpaul ☆ Trae Thomas (Brad Kennedy), Pepper Sweeney (Charlie), Todd Jensen (Bob Johnson), Emily Whitfield (Karen Sommers), Ron Smerczak (General Thompson), Toni Caprari (Jafari Bin Kasim), Anthony Bishop (Skip Loomis)

Operation Disaster: see Morning Departure

Operation Dumbo Drop

US 1995 107m colour
Panavision
Buena Vista/Walt Disney (Diane Nabatoff, David Madden)

US soldiers in Vietnam have five days to deliver an elephant to villagers whose beast was killed by the Vietcong.
Amiable movie that ignores the realities of war for the story of an appealing animal.
w Gene Quintano, Jim Kouf story Jim Morris d Simon Wincer ph Russell Boyd

m David Newman pd Paul Peters ed O. Nicholas Brown ☆ Danny Glover, Ray Liotta, Denis Leary, Doug E. Doug, Corin Nemec, Dinh Thien Le, Tcheky Karyo
'A well-crafted and entertaining pic with broad, cross-generational appeal.' – Variety

Operation Eichmann
US 1961 94m bw
Allied Artists

After the war, the Nazi who exterminated six million Jews escapes from Europe but is eventually recaptured.
Crude exploitation item designed to cash in on Eichmann's trial, a documentary on which would have been much more interesting.
w Lewis Copley (Lester Cole) d R. G. Springsteen ph Joseph Biroc m Alex Alexander ☆ Werner Klemperer (Eichmann), Ruta Lee, Donald Buka, John Banner
† Lewis Copley was a pseudonym used by Lester Cole after he was blacklisted.

Operation Golden Phoenix
Canada 1994 95m colour
Le Monde/Film One (Jalal Merhi)

Double-crossed by a friend, a security agent is robbed of a pendant that reveals the whereabouts of the lost treasure of the Ottoman Empire.
Trivial, slow-moving thriller with a feeble script and barely adequate performances.
w J. Stephen Maunder, Kevin Ward story Samir Ghouseine d Jalal Merhi ph Mark Willis, Curtis Petersen m Varouje pd Jasna Stefanovic ed Kevin Schjerning ☆ Jalal Merhi (Mark Assante), Loren Avedon (Ivan Jones), James Hong (Mr Chang), Karen Sheperd (Princess Tara), Al Waxman (Chief Gordon), Joseph Nano (Professor Amid), Ala'a Zalzali (Walter), Guylaine St Onge (Princess Angelica)

Operation Kid Brother
Italy 1967 105m Techniscope
Dario Sabatello

aka: OK Connery
007's brother defeats an international mastermind with the help of a Scottish archery team.
Very elementary James Bond spoof, with a confusing array of old and new elements but less than the required minimum of style.
w Paolo Levi, Vincenzo Mannino, Carlo Tritto d Alberto de Martino ph Alejandro Ulloa m Ennio Morricone
☆ Neil Connery, Daniela Bianchi, Adolfo Celi, Bernard Lee, Lois Maxwell, Agata Flori
'A grotesque parody of a parody ... bad enough to be hysterically funny.' – MFB † Neil Connery is Sean's kid brother.

Operation Mad Ball ★
US 1957 105m bw
Columbia (Jed Harris)

American troops in Normandy are forbidden to fraternize with nurses, but a clandestine dance is arranged.
Madcap army farce which keeps promising to be funnier than it is.
w Arthur Carter, Jed Harris, Blake Edwards play Arthur Carter d Richard Quine ph Charles Lawton Jnr m George Duning ☆ Jack Lemmon, Ernie Kovacs, Kathryn Grant, Mickey Rooney, James Darren, Arthur O'Connell
'A routine regimental farce, but fast and snafurious.' – Time

Operation Pacific
US 1950 109m bw
Warner (Louis F. Edelman)

Adventures of a submarine commander in the Pacific war.
Routine war heroics, tolerably done but overstretched.
wd George Waggner ph Bert Glennon m Max Steiner
☆ John Wayne, Patricia Neal, Ward Bond, Scott Forbes, Phil Carey, Paul Picerni, William Campbell, Martin Milner

Operation Petticoat ★
US 1959 124m Eastmancolor
Universal/Granart (Robert Arthur)

During World War II, a crippled submarine is refloated by fair means and foul, and a party of nurses is taken aboard.
Flabby comedy with good moments, but not many.
w Stanley Shapiro, Maurice Richlin story Paul King, Joseph Stone d Blake Edwards ph Russell Harlan m David Rose ad Alexander Golitzen, Robert E. Smith ed Ted J. Kent, Frank Gross ☆ Cary Grant, Tony Curtis, Joan O'Brien, Dina Merrill, Gene Evans, Arthur O'Connell, Richard Sargent, Virginia Gregg
'Grant is a living lesson in getting laughs without lines.' – Variety story and screenplay

Operation St Peter's
Italy 1968 100m colour
Paramount/Turi Vasile

Three thieves steal Michelangelo's Pietà and sell it for forty dollars to an American gangster.
Rather surprisingly watchable comedy chase, with the star parodying his past roles.
w Ennio de Concini, Adriano Baracco, Roberto Gianviti, Lucio Fulci d Lucio Fulci
☆ Edward G. Robinson, Lando Buzzanca, Heinz Ruhmann, Jean-Claude Brialy

Operation Secret
US 1952 108m bw
Warner (Henry Blanke)

A traitor in the French resistance movement shoots a colleague, and the wrong man is accused.
Belated World War II adventure which gives the impression of having been discarded by Errol Flynn.
w James R. Webb, Harold Medford d Lewis Seiler ph Ted McCord m Roy Webb ed Clarence Kolster
☆ Cornel Wilde, Steve Cochran, Paul Picerni, Karl Malden

Operation Snafu: see On the Fiddle

Operation Thunderbolt ★
Israel 1977 117m Eastmancolor
Panavision
GS Films (Menahem Golan, Yoram Globus)

aka: Entebbe: Operation Thunderbolt
An account of the rescue of Israeli hostages from terrorists who have hijacked their plane to Entebbe.
Victory at Entebbe and Raid on Entebbe were made with all-star casts for American television. This home-grown account of a famous deed is more modest yet more authoritative.
w Clarke Reynolds d Menahem Golan ph Adam Greenberg m Dov Seltzer ☆ Klaus Kinski, Assaf Dayan, Ori Levy, Yehoram Geon, Mark Heath
best foreign film

Operation Undercover: see Report to the Commissioner

Operation X: see My Daughter Joy

Operator 13
US 1934 86m bw
MGM/Cosmopolitan (Lucien Hubbard)
GB title: Spy 13

During the Civil War an actress becomes a Union spy.
Elaborate period romance with action highlights.
w Harry Thew, Zelda Sears, Eve Greene d Richard Boleslawski ph George Folsey m William Axt
☆ Marion Davies, Gary Cooper, Jean Parker, Katherine Alexander, Ted Healy, Russell Hardie, Henry Wadsworth, Douglass Dumbrille
'Will please generally ... one of Davies' best.' – Variety
George Folsey

Opposing Force
US 1986 97m DeLuxe
Orion (Tamar E. Glaser, Daniel A. Berk)

aka: Hellcamp
The brutal, power-crazed commandant of a simulated prison camp, run as part of a military escape-and-evasion exercise, loses control after he rapes the only woman on the course.
An unpleasant and unconvincing action movie, stupidly violent.
w Gil Cowan d Eric Karson ph Michael A. Jones m Marc Donahue pd Art Nicdao ed Mark Conte
☆ Tom Skerritt, Lisa Eichhorn, Anthony Zerbe, Richard Roundtree, Robert Wightman, John Considine

'You'll laugh, you'll cry, you'll be offended.'

The Opposite of Sex ★★★
US 1998 105m Foto-Kem
Sony/Rysher (David Kirkpatrick, Michael Besman)

A teenager runs away from home, seduces her gay brother's boyfriend, and runs off with him to LA.
Tough, tart, smart movie, which makes fun of the usual rites-of-passage stories and has enough twists in its plot to provide a continual surprise.
wd Don Roos ph Hubert Taczanowski m Mason Daring pd Michael Clausen ed David Codron
☆ Christina Ricci (Dedee Truitt), Martin Donovan (Bill Truitt), Lisa Kudrow (Lucia Dalury), Lyle Lovett (Sheriff Carl Tippett), Johnny Galecki (Jason Bock), Ivan Sergei (Matt Mateo)
'A delight on every conceivable level.' – Andy Medhurst, Sight and Sound † Region 1 and 2 DVD releases include commentary by Don Roos.

The Opposite Sex
US 1956 116m Metrocolor
Cinemascope
MGM (Joe Pasternak)

A New York socialite divorces her unfaithful husband but finally takes him back.
Softened, musicalized version of The Women (qv); very patchy, shapeless, and not nearly sharp enough.
w Fay and Michael Kanin play Clare Boothe d David Miller ph Robert Bronner m Nicholas Brodszky songs Nicholas Brodszky, Sammy Cahn
☆ June Allyson, Dolores Gray, Joan Collins, Ann Sheridan, Agnes Moorehead, Joan Blondell, Barbara Jo Allen, Charlotte Greenwood

The Opposite Sex and How to Live with Them
US 1993 86m CFI color
Spelling/Outlaw/Once Upon A Time (Stanley M. Brooks, Robert Newmyer)

Two Jewish men court WASP women and insist on discussing their attitudes at length with the audience.
An experience akin to being buttonholed by a bore in a bar.
w Noah Stern d Matthew Meshekoff ph Jacek Laskus m Ira Newborn pd Alex Tavoularis ed Adam Weiss
☆ Arye Gross, Courteney Cox, Kevin Pollak, Julie Brown, Mitchell Ryan, Phil Bruns

The Optimists of Nine Elms ★
GB 1973 110m Eastmancolor
Cheetah/Sagittarius (Adrian Gaye, Victor Lyndon)

Children of a London slum make friends with an old busker.
Gentle, sentimental, quite well-observed piece of wistful melancholia, falsified by its star performance.
wd Anthony Simmons novel Anthony Simmons ph Larry Pizer m George Martin co-w Tudor Gates ☆ Peter Sellers, Donna Mullane, John Chaffey, David Daker, Marjorie Yates
'Told with economy and sensitivity, this underrated film establishes Tony Simmons as a first-rate director and justifies the risk Sellers took in tackling a difficult role in an offbeat subject.' – Ken Russell, Fire over England

The Oracle
GB 1952 83m bw
Group Three (Colin Lesslie)
US title: The Horse's Mouth

A reporter discovers that a village well in Ireland contains an oracle which can predict the future.
Weak sub-Ealing comedy which aims to please and gets a few laughs. All very British.
w Patrick Campbell d C. M. Pennington-Richards ph Wolfgang Suschitzky m Temple Abady ☆ Robert Beatty, Virginia McKenna, Mervyn Johns, Gilbert Harding

'It's not just a place. It's a state of mind.'

Orange County
US 2001 82m DeLuxe
Paramount/MTV (Scott Rudin, Van Toffler, David Gale, Scott Aversano)

A surfer refuses to accept his rejection by Stanford University, which will prevent him from realising his dream of becoming a writer.
Low key 'teen comedy, of interest only because it features some second generation Hollywood names behind and before the cameras (and let's hope their parents managed to enjoy it).
w Mike White d Jake Kasdan ph Greg Gardiner m Michael Andrews pd Gary Frutkoff ed Tara Timpone cos Debra McGuire
☆ Colin Hanks (Shaun Brumder), Jack Black (Lance), Catherine O'Hara (Cindy Beugler), Schuyler Fisk (Ashley), John

Lithgow (Bud Brumder), Harold Ramis (Don Durkett), Jane Adams (Mona), Garry Marshall (Arthur Gantner), Dana Ivey (Vera Gantner), Chevy Chase (Principal Harbert), Lily Tomlin (Charlotte Cobb)

'A very slight amusement that faintly echoes every other suburban teen comedy that's been made over the past 30 years.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

Orca – Killer Whale

US 1977 92m Technicolor Panavision
Famous Films/Dino de Laurentiis (Luciano Vincenzoni)

Off Newfoundland, a killer whale takes revenge for its mate's death.
A rather unpleasant attempt to mix horror and thrills with ecology: not very entertaining, and not for the squeamish.
w Luciano Vincenzoni, Sergio Donati d Michael Anderson ph Ted Moore, J. Barry Herron m Ennio Morricone
☆ Richard Harris, Charlotte Rampling, Will Sampson, Keenan Wynn

'The biggest load of cod imaginable.' – Philip Bergson, Sunday Times
'There are more thrills to be had in the average dolphinarium.' – Sight and Sound

Orchestra Seats ★ (7)

France 2006 105m
Pathé/Thelma Films / Alain Sarde / TF1 / StudioCanal (Christine Gozlan)

French theatrical: Fauteuils d'Orchestre
American theatrical: Avenue Montaigne
A fresh-faced young woman from the provinces comes to Paris, finds a job in a café on the Avenue Montaigne and discovers that beneath the veneer, life is not so glamorous for her clientele, among them a famous concert pianist, a business mogul and a TV and stage star.
An ensemble comedy that manages to discuss such portentous themes as life and art in an unpretentious way and is full of Gallic charm and joie de vivre.
w Danièle Thompson / Christopher Thompson d Danièle Thompson ph Jean-Marc Fabre m Nicola Piovani pd Michele Abbé ed Sylvie Landra
☆ Cécile de France (Jessica), Valérie Lemercier (Catherine Versen), Albert Dupontel (Jean-François Lefort), Claude Brasseur (Jacques Grumberg), Dani (Claudie), Suzanne Flon (Grandmother), Laura Morante (Valentine Lefort)
† Dedicated to the veteran French actress Suzanne Flon who died aged 87 shortly after the production wrapped.
Foreign Film

Orchestra Wives ★★

US 1942 97m bw
TCF (William Le Baron)

A small town girl marries the trumpet player of a travelling swing band.
Fresh and lively musical of its period, full of first-class music and amusing backstage backbiting.
w Karl Tunberg, Darrell Ware d Archie Mayo ph Lucien Ballard md Alfred Newman
☆ Ann Rutherford, George Montgomery, Lynn Bari, Glenn Miller and his Orchestra, Carole Landis, Jackie Gleason, Cesar Romero

'A natural for any theatre that hasn't got an ironclad rule against jive.' – Hollywood Reporter song 'I've Got a Girl in Kalamazoo' (m Harry Warren, ly Mack Gordon)

Orchids to You ★

US 1935 74m bw
Robert T. Kane/Fox

A florist pulls several strokes to prevent an attorney from taking over her lease.
Amusing comedy drama which failed through lack of strong names.
w William Hurlbut, Bartlett Cormack, Glenn Tryon, Howard Estabrook
d William A. Seiter
☆ John Boles, Jean Muir, Charles Butterworth, Ruthelma Stevens, Arthur Lake, Spring Byington

'One of those productions that just misses the top rung.' – Variety

The Ordeal: see Calvaire

Ordeal by Innocence

US 1985 88m Eastmancolor
Cannon (Jenny Craven)

An explorer returning from an Antarctic trip discovers that an acquaintance has been hanged for murder, and he might have saved him.
Rather dim Agatha Christie adaptation (though set in her favourite Devon from her favourite book), with workaday actors and a most unsuitable music score. By the time the end comes, nobody could possibly care who done it.
w Alexander Stuart d Desmond Davis ph Billy Williams m Dave Brubeck
☆ Donald Sutherland, Christopher Plummer, Faye Dunaway, Sarah Miles, Ian MacShane, Diana Quick, Annette Crosbie, Michael Elphick, Phoebe Nicholls

'Every soul has its price.'

The Order

Germany/US 2003 102m Cinecitta color Technovision
TCF/Baumgarten Merims/N1

GB title: The Sin Eater
Two priests from a secret Catholic order investigate the death of their leader by a creature who absorbs sins from the dying so that they can go to heaven.
Supernatural gibberish that makes no sort of sense at all.
wd Brian Helgeland ph Nicola Pecorini m David Torn pd Miljen Kreka Kljakovi ed Kevin Stitt sp Terence Glass; Asylum ☆ Heath Ledger (Alex), Shannyn Sossamon (Mara), Benno Furmann (Eden), Mark Addy (Thomas), Peter Weller (Driscoll), Francesco Carnelutti (Dominic)

'A load of risible, scarely intelligible piffle.' – Philip French, Observer
'Rubbish with delusions of grandeur.' – Edward Porter, Sunday Times
† The film cost $38m and took $7.6m at the US box-office.

Order of Death: see Cop Killer

Order of Death

Italy 1983 101m colour
New Line/Virgin/RAI (Elda Ferri)

A corrupt cop and a cop-killer form a sado-masochistic relationship.
Confused personalities battle it out in an exaggerated, bombastic psychological thriller.
w Ennio de Concini, Hugh Fleetwood novel Hugh Fleetwood d Roberto Faenza ph Giuseppe Pinori m Ennio Morricone ad Giantito Burchiellaro ed Nini Baragli
☆ Harvey Keitel, John Lydon, Nicole Garcia, Leonard Mann, Sylvia Sidney, Carlo Romanelli, Bob Kelly, Tony Mayer

Orders Are Orders

GB 1954 78m bw
Group 3 (Donald Taylor)

Flabby update of Orders Is Orders with an interesting cast below par.
w Donald Taylor, Geoffrey Orme d David Paltenghi ph Arthur Grant m Stanley Black ☆ Peter Sellers, Brian Reece, Sid James, Tony Hancock, Margot Grahame, Raymond Huntley, Maureen Johnson, June Thorburn, Bill Fraser

Orders Is Orders ★

GB 1933 88m bw
Gaumont British (Michael Balcon)

An army barracks is disrupted when an American film company gets permission to work there.
Breezy farce which pleased at the time.
w Leslie Arliss, Sidney Gilliat play Ian Hay, Anthony Armstrong d Walter Forde ph Glen MacWilliams
☆ Charlotte Greenwood, James Gleason, Cedric Hardwicke, Cyril Maude, Ian Hunter, Ray Milland, Jane Carr, Donald Calthrop, Eliot Makeham, Wally Patch, Finlay Currie

'A wow from start to finish.' – Variety

'They made this boy a cold-blooded killer!'

Orders to Kill ★

GB 1958 111m bw
British Lion/Lynx (Anthony Asquith, Anthony Havelock-Allan)

During World War II a bomber pilot undertakes a mission to parachute into occupied France and kill a double agent, who turns out afterwards to have been innocent.
Strong, hard-to-take but well made war story about the effect of war on conscience.
w Paul Dehn d Anthony Asquith ph Desmond Dickinson m Benjamin Frankel ☆ Paul Massie, Irene Worth, James Robertson Justice, Leslie French, Eddie Albert, Lillian Gish, John Crawford, Jacques Brunius, Lionel Jeffries
BAFTA Paul Dehn; Irene Worth; Paul Massie (newcomer)

Ordet ★★★

Denmark 1957 126m bw
Palladium (Carl Theodor Dreyer)

In a God-fearing village, a father and his three sons have various religious experiences.
Austere intellectual drama of the faith, very slow and austere but strangely compelling and difficult to dismiss.
wd Carl Theodor Dreyer ph Henning Bendtsen m Poul Schierbeck
☆ Henrik Malberg, Emil Hass Christensen, Preben Lerdorff-Rye, Caj Kristensen
† It is available on Region 1 DVD as part of a four-disc set from Criterion, together with Day of Wrath, Getrud, and a 94m documentary Carl Th. Dreyer – My Metier.

'A smash and grab masterpiece.'

Ordinary Decent Criminal

Ireland/GB/Germany/US 2000 90m Technicolor Super 35
Icon/Little Bird/Tatfilm/Trigger Street/Miramax/IFB/Greenlight/Filmstiftung (Jonathan Cavendish)

In Dublin, a notorious criminal runs rings around the police in a series of audacious thefts.
Partly based on the true-life exploits of Martin Cahill, this is a run-of-the-mill thriller with some unconvincing casting.
w Gerard Stembridge d Thaddeus O'Sullivan ph Andrew Dunn m Damon Albarn pd Tony Burrough ed William Anderson
☆ Kevin Spacey (Michael Lynch), Linda Fiorentino (Christine), Peter Mullan (Stevie), Stephen Dillane (Det. Sgt Noel Quigley), Helen Baxendale (Lisa), David Hayman (Tony), Patrick Malahide (Commissioner Daly), Gerard McSorley (Harrison)

'You just feel like you've seen it all before.' – Bob McCabe, Empire
† A better film dealing with Martin Cahill is John Boorman's The General (qv).

'Everything is in its proper place – except the past!'

Ordinary People ★★★

US 1980 124m Technicolor
Paramount/Wildwood (Ronald L. Schwary)

The eldest son of a well-heeled American family is drowned, and the survivors take stock and indulge in recriminations.
An actor's piece which on that level succeeds very well, and accurately pins down a certain species of modern American family.
w Alvin Sargent novel Judith Guest
d Robert Redford ph John Bailey
m Marvin Hamlisch ad Phillip Bennett, J. Michael Riva ed Jeff Kanew
☆ Donald Sutherland (Calvin), Mary Tyler Moore (Beth), Timothy Hutton (Conrad), Judd Hirsch (Berger), Elizabeth McGovern (Jeannine), M. Emmet Walsh (Swim Coach)

'This is an academic exercise in catharsis: it's earnest, it means to improve people, and it lasts a lifetime.' – New Yorker
Academy Award best film; Alvin Sargent; Robert Redford; Timothy Hutton Academy Award nomination Mary Tyler Moore; Judd Hirsch (supporting actor)

The Oregon Trail

US 1959 86m DeLuxe Cinemascope
TCF

A New York reporter in 1846 is sent to cover a westward trek.
Prototype settlers vs Indians Western with all the expected incident.
w Louis Vittes, Gene Fowler Jnr d Gene Fowler Jnr ph Kay Norton m Paul Dunlap
☆ Fred MacMurray, William Bishop, Nina Shipman, Gloria Talbott, Henry Hull, John Carradine, Elizabeth Patterson

Orfeu Negro: see Black Orpheus

The Organization

US 1971 108m DeLuxe
UA/Mirisch (Walter Mirisch)

San Francisco policemen combat an international drug smuggling organization.
The third and weakest adventure of Virgil Tibbs, black policeman of In the Heat of the Night. Absolutely routine.
w James R. Webb d Don Medford ph Joseph Biroc m Gil Melle
☆ Sidney Poitier, Barbara McNair, Sheree North, Gerald S. O'Loughlin

'Making sex safe again!'

Orgazmo

US 1997 90m colour
October/Kuzui Enterprises/MDP/Avenging Conscience (Fran Rubel Kuzui, Jason McHugh, Matt Stone)

A naïve Mormon actor is persuaded to take the leading role of Captain Orgazmo in a pornographic movie.

Drear and feeble send-up of porn and superheroes that is enough to give comedy a bad name.
wd Trey Parker ph Kenny Gioseffi m Paul Robb pd Tristan Paris Bourne ed Trey Parker, Michael R. Miller
☆ Trey Parker, Dian Bachar, Robyn Lynne, Michael Dean Jacobs, Ron Jeremy, Andrew W. Kemler
'Patchy, clumsy and almost unwatchable. The laughs are few, and feebly silly at best.' – Mark Sinker, Sight and Sound
'Massively inventive and spiked with perversely wicked humor.' – Emanuel Levy, Variety

Orient Express ★
US 1934 71m bw
Fox
Various stories conflict on the Orient Express.
Moderately successful multi-drama in the wake of Grand Hotel.
w Paul Martin, Carl Hovey, Oscar Levant, William Conselman novel Graham Greene d Paul Martin ☆ Heather Angel, Ralph Morgan, Norman Foster, Herbert Mundin, Una O'Connor, Irene Ware, Dorothy Burgess
'Rather too much story all of a sudden; auditors may be lulled to quiet by the easy, non-exciting early action.' – Variety

Oriental Dream: see Kismet (1944)

'It's time for some respect.'

Original Gangstas ★
US 1996 98m DeLuxe
Orion/Po' Boy (Fred Williamson)
A former gang leader, now a respected football coach, returns home to recruit some old friends to deal with the violent criminals who shot his father, a shopkeeper in Gary, Indiana, described as 'the city with the highest murder rate in the USA'.
Some of the originators of the blaxploitation movies of the 70s return in a brash, energetic action movie, fuelled by a righteous anger at urban degradation, mob rule, and the specious platitudes of politicians.
w Aubrey Rattan d Larry Cohen
ph Carlos Gonzalez m Vladimir Horunzhy pd Elayne Barbara Ceder ed David Kern, Peter B. Ellis
☆ Fred Williamson, Jim Brown, Pam Grier, Richard Roundtree, Paul Winfield, Isabel Sanford, Ron O'Neal, Robert Forster, Charles Napier, Wings Hauser, Frank Pesce, Dru Down, Shyheim
'Everyone involved gets a job done without much fuss and with the cool savvy that makes the film a satisfying diversion.' – Variety

'Love's A Killer'

Original Sin
US/France 2001 116m DeLuxe Super 35
TCF/MGM/Hyde Park (Denise Di Novi, Kate Guinzburg, Carol Lees)
In the 1880s, a Cuban plantation owner advertises for a wife and gets a con-woman.
Over-the-top, over-indulgent melodramatic hokum.
wd Michael Cristofer novel Waltz Into Darkness by Cornell Woolrich ph Rodrigo Prieto m Terence Blanchard pd David J. Bomba ed Eric Sears
☆ Antonio Banderas (Luis Antonio Vargas), Angelina Jolie (Julia Russell/Bonny Castle), Thomas Jane (Walter Downs), Jack Thompson (Alan Jordan), Gregory Itzin (Colonel Worth)
'Lavish and florid, the corny venture falls into so-bad-it's-good territory' – Lisa Nesselson, Variety
'It's hard to keep a straight face just thinking of Mr Banderas and Ms. Jolie in the same shot, but "Original Sin" will bore the giggles right out of you.' – Elvis Mitchell, New York Times † Cornell Woolrich's novel also formed the basis of François Truffaut's 1969 film Mississippi Mermaid (qv).

Orion's Belt
Norway 1985 103m Eastmancolor
Enterprise/Filmeffekt (Dag Alveberg, Petter Borgli) original title: Orions Belte
Three sailors discover a Soviet spy station.
Plodding Cold War thriller.
w Richard Harris novel Jon Michelet d Ola Solum ph Harald Paalgard m Geir Bohren, Bent Aserud ad Harald Egede-Nissen ed Bjorn Breigutu, Yngve Refseth
☆ Helge Jordal, Sverre Anker Ousdal, Hans Ola Sorlie, Kjersti Holmen, Vidar Sandem, Nils Johnson

Orlando ★★
GB/Russia/France/Italy/Netherlands 1992 93m Eastmancolor
Electric/Adventure Pictures/Lenfilm/Mikado/Sigma/British Screen (Christopher Sheppard)
In a life that lasts for 400 years, a male favourite of Queen Elizabeth I undergoes a sex change and becomes a 20th-century woman.
A divertingly different romp, amusing and occasionally provocative in its examination of identity and gender.
wd Sally Potter novel Virginia Woolf ph Alexsei Rodionov m David Motion, Sally Potter pd Ben Van Os, Jan Roelfs ed Herve Schneid
☆ Tilda Swinton, Billy Zane, Lothaire Bluteau, John Wood, Charlotte Valandrey, Heathcote Williams, Quentin Crisp, Peter Eyre, Thom Hoffman, Jimmy Somerville, Dudley Sutton, Anna Healy
'Exciting, wonderfully witty entertainment for discriminating auds.' – Variety
Ben Van Os, Jan Roelfs; costume design (Sally Potter)

L'Oro di Napoli: see Gold of Naples

O'Rourke of the Royal Mounted: see Saskatchewan

Orphans
US 1987 120m colour
Lorimar
Two outcast brothers have their lives transformed by a gangster.
Photographed talk-piece which could hope for few takers among the general audience: one for actor-fanciers.
w Lyle Kessler play Lyle Kessler d Alan J. Pakula ph Donald McAlpine m Michael Small ☆ Albert Finney, Matthew Modine, Kevin Anderson, John Kellogg

'Are Your Parents A Burden?'

Orphans ★★
GB 1999 95m colour
Downtown/Channel 4 (Frances Higson)
Three brothers and their handicapped sister mourn the death of their mother in different ways.
A raw-edged, energetic, dark comedy of working-class life in Glasgow; it takes some imaginative risks as it veers between knockabout comedy and stark tragedy.
wd Peter Mullan ph Grant Scott Cameron m Craig Armstrong pd Campbell Gordon ed Colin Monie
☆ Gary Lewis, Douglas Henshall, Rosemarie Stevenson, Stephen McCole, Frank Gallagher, Malcolm Shields
'The milk of human kindness hasn't merely soured in Peter Mullan's transcendentally nasty comedy ... It has so poisoned the air of Glasgow that its clammy atmosphere seems charged with petty malice.' – Stephen Holden, New York Times

'Can a woman love more than one man?'

Orphans of the Storm ★
US 1921 124m (24 fps) bw silent
D. W. Griffith
Two sisters are caught up in the French revolution of 1789.
Half melodrama, half epic, this celebrated film survives chiefly by its careful attention to historical detail and by the excitement of its crowd scenes.
w D. W. Griffith play Adolph Ennery d D. W. Griffith ph Henrick Sartov ☆ Lillian Gish, Dorothy Gish, Joseph Schildkraut, Lucille La Verne, Morgan Wallace, Frank Puglia, Creighton Hale
'There is scarcely a scene or an effect in the entire production that is not beautiful to look upon, and there is scarcely a moment that is not charged with intense dramatic power.' – Robert E. Sherwood, Life

Orphée ★★★★
France 1949 112m bw
André Paulvé 1/Films du Palais Royal
Death, represented by a princess, falls in love with Orpheus, a poet, and helps him when he goes into hell in pursuit of his dead love.
Fascinating poetic fantasy which may have been finally unintelligible but was filled to overflowing with memorable scenes and cinematic tricks, from the entry to the hereafter through a mirror to intercepted code messages such as 'L'oiseau compte avec ses doigts'. The closest the cinema has got to poetry.
wd Jean Cocteau play Jean Cocteau ph Nicolas Hayer m Georges Auric ad Jean d'Eaubonne ed Jacqueline Sadoul
☆ Jean Marais (Orpheus), François Périer (Heurtebise), Maria Casarès (The Princess), Marie Déa (Eurydice), Edouard Dermithe (Cegeste), Juliette Greco (Aglaonice)
'It is a drama of the visible and the invisible ... I interwove many myths. Death condemns herself in order to help the man she is duty bound to destroy. The man is saved but Death dies: it is the myth of immortality.' – Jean Cocteau
† See the sequel Le Testament d'Orphée.
†† The film was dedicated to its designer Christian Bérard (1902–49).

Osama ★★ (7)
Afghanistan/Japan/Ireland 2003 82m colour
ICA/A Barmak/NHK/LeBrocquy Fraser
During the Taliban's rule in Afghanistan, a 12-year-old girl suffers from being disguised as a boy by her mother so that she can find work.
Engrossing agitprop, about female oppression by religious zealots, that never slackens its tragic grip.
wd Siddiq Barmak ph Ebrahim Ghafuri m Mohammad Reza Darwishi pd Akbar Meshkini ed Siddiq Barmak ☆ Marina Golbahari ('Osama'), Arif Herati (Espandi), Zubaida Sahar (Mother)
'We are certainly entitled to marvel at its very existence, but that isn't enough. The work itself is extraordinary.' – Stanley Kauffmann, New Republic
'Challenging, full-throttle cinema, uncompromisingly engaged with the contemporary world.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

The Oscar ★
US 1966 118m Pathécolor
Paramount/Greene-Rouse (Russel Rouse)
On the night of the Academy Awards his friend recalls a heel's rise to stardom.
Squalid, sensationalist account of Hollywood mores; one hopes it isn't quite true.
w Harlan Ellison, Russel Rouse, Clarence Greene novel Richard Sale d Russel Rouse ph Joseph Ruttenberg m Percy Faith
☆ Stephen Boyd, Elke Sommer, Tony Bennett, Eleanor Parker, Milton Berle, Joseph Cotten, Jill St John, Edie Adams, Ernest Borgnine, Ed Begley, Walter Brennan, Broderick Crawford, James Dunn, Peter Lawford, Edith Head and also Hedda Hopper, Merle Oberon, Bob Hope, Frank Sinatra
'This is the sort of film that only Hollywood could make, and on that level it is preposterously enjoyable.' – David Wilson
'That true movie rarity – a picture that attains a perfection of ineptitude quite beyond the power of words to describe.' – Richard Schickel

'When Chicago's Toughest Gangster Promises to Go Straight... Everybody Gets Into The Act!'

Oscar
US 1991 109m Technicolor
Warner/Touchstone/Silver Screen Partners IV (Leslie Belzberg)
A gangster who is trying to reform attempts to sort out the marital problems of his daughters.
Leaden attempt at a screwball comedy, and one that sinks under its own witlessness.
w Michael Barrie, Jim Mulholland play Claude Magnier d John Landis ph Mac Ahlberg m Elmer Bernstein pd Bill Kenney ed Dale Beldin, Michael R. Miller
☆ Sylvester Stallone, Ornella Muti, Kirk Douglas, Peter Riegert, Chazz Palminteri, Vincent Spano, Marisa Tomei, Tim Curry, Don Ameche, Yvonne DeCarlo, Linda Gray
'Zany farce generates a fair share of laughs but still probably remains too creaky a conceit for modern audiences to go for in a big way.' – Variety
† Magnier's play was first filmed in France in 1967, directed by Eduardo Molinaro and starring Louis de Funes.

Oscar and Lucinda ★★
Australia 1997 132m Atlab Pamavision
Fox/AFFC/Meridian (Robin Dalton, Timothy White)
A gambling-mad English missionary makes one last bet with a wealthy Australian woman: that he can transport a glass chapel she has designed to a remote part of the country.

An imaginative, flawed attempt to encompass a strange and obsessive drama of the varieties of faith.
w Laura Jones novel Peter Carey d Gillian Armstrong ph Geoffrey Simpson
m Thomas Newman pd Luciana Arrighi ed Nicholas Beauman
☆ Ralph Fiennes, Cate Blanchett, Ciaran Hinds, Tom Wilkinson, Richard Roxburgh, Clive Russell, Barry Otto, Geoffrey Rush

Oscar Wilde ★★
GB 1959 96m bw
Vantage (William Kirby)
Scandal strikes Oscar Wilde through his involvement with Lord Alfred Douglas.
Competent, well acted version of well-known events of the 1890s, with Morley in his original stage role; generally more satisfactory than The Trials of Oscar Wilde which was shot simultaneously.
w Jo Eisinger d Gregory Ratoff
ph Georges Périnal m Kenneth V. Jones
☆ Robert Morley, John Neville, Phyllis Calvert, Ralph Richardson, Dennis Price, Alexander Knox, Edward Chapman, Martin Benson, Robert Harris, Henry Oscar, William Devlin

O'Shaughnessy's Boy
US 1935 88m bw
MGM
A circus performer is reunited with the son his wife took away in childhood.
Shameless sentiment which failed to repeat for its stars the success of The Champ.
w Leonard Praskins, Otis Garrett
d Richard Boleslawski
☆ Wallace Beery, Jackie Cooper, Leona Maricle, Sara Haden, Henry Stephenson, Spanky MacFarland
'Far too much crying. Good production will help.' – Variety

'Every Body Needs A Hero.'
'He's one cell of a guy.'

Osmosis Jones ★
US 2001 96m Technicolor
Warner/Conundrum (Bradley Thomas, Peter Farrelly, Bobby Farrelly, Zak Penn, Dennis Edwards)
A maverick white blood cell cop and his buddy, a cold pill, track down a killer virus in the human they inhabit.
A comedy that mixes some dull live action with much more inventive animation, in which the body is seen as a vast metropolis of different districts, giving the opportunity for parodies of many movie genres.
w Marc Hyman Animation Directors Piet Kroon, Tom Sito d Peter Farrelly, Bobby Farrelly ph Mark Irwin m Randy Edelman pd Steve Pilchar, Sidney Jackson Bartholomew Jnr ed Lois Freeman-Fox, Stephen R. Schaffer, Sam Seig
☆ Bill Murray (Frank), Molly Shannon (Mrs Boyd), Chris Elliott (Bob), Elena Franklin (Shane), Danny Murphy (Zookeeper Superintendent), voices of: Chris Rock (Osmosis Jones), Laurence Fishburne (Thrax), David Hyde Pierce (Drix), Brandy Norwood (Leah), William Shatner (The Mayor), Ron Howard (Tom Colonic)
'Likely to entertain kids, who seem to like jokes about anatomical plumbing. For adults, there is the exuberance of the animation and the energy of the whole movie, which is just plain clever.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times

Ososhiki: see Death Japanese Style

Ossessione ★★★★
Italy 1942 135m bw
ICI
A wanderer falls for the wife of an innkeeper and they murder him, but fate takes a hand.
Unofficial remake of The Postman Always Rings Twice, barely released outside Italy. A powerful melodrama credited with starting the neo-realist school.
w Antonio Pietrangeli, Giuseppe de Santis, Gianni Puccini, Luchino Visconti, Mario Alicata d Luchino Visconti ph Aldo Tonti, Domenico Scala m Giuseppe Rosati ad Gino Rosati ed James M. Cain ☆ Massimo Girotti (Gino), Clara Calamai (Giovanna), Elio Marcuzzo (Lo Spagnuolo)
† Other versions: Le Dernier Tournant (France 1939); The Postman Always Rings Twice (US 1945); The Postman Always Rings Twice (US 1981).

Ostatni Etap: see The Last Stage

The Osterman Weekend
US 1983 102m DeLuxe
Davis-Panzer/Fox
A CIA chief tries to convince a powerful TV journalist that several of his trusted informants are Soviet agents.
Convoluted bloodbath with absolutely nothing new in its locker.
w Alan Sharp, Ian Masters novel Robert Ludlum d Sam Peckinpah ph John Coquillon m Lalo Schifrin ☆ Rutger Hauer, John Hurt, Burt Lancaster, Craig T. Nelson, Dennis Hopper, Chris Sarandon, Meg Foster, Helen Shaver
'A competent, professional, but thoroughly impersonal meller.' – Variety

Otac Na Sluäbenom Putu: see When Father Was Away On Business

Otello ★
US/Italy 1986 120m Eastmancolor
Cannon/RAI (John Thompson, Fulvio Lucisano)
An adaptation of Verdi's opera, based on Shakespeare's play.
A visually splendid transcription, which however did not hit the mark with audiences.
wd Franco Zeffirelli ph Ennio Guarnieri m Giuseppe Verdi ed Peter Taylor, Franca Silvi
☆ Placido Domingo, Katia Ricciarelli, Justino Diaz, Petra Malakova
♟ costumes (Anna Anni, Maurizio Millenotti)

Otenki Onesan: see A Weatherwoman

Otesanek ★
Czech Republic/GB/Japan 2000 132m colour
Film4/Athanor/Illuminations/Barrandov
Biografia (Jaromir Kallista, Jan Svankmajer, Keith Griffiths)
aka: Little Otik
A childless couple adopt a tree stump which comes to voracious life.
An overlong black comedy, with the insistent repetition of a grim fairy-tale.
wd Jan Svankmajer ph Juraj Galvanek ad Eva and Jan Svankmajer ed Marie Zemanova ☆ Veronika Zilkova (Bozena), Jan Hartl (Karel), Kristina Adamcova (Alzbetka), Jaroslava Kretschmerova (Her mother), Pavel Novy (Her father)
'Boldly bizarre, darkly funny but poignant.' – Kevin Thomas, Los Angeles Times

Otets I Syn: see Father and Son (2003)

Othello ★
US/France 1951 91m bw
Mercury/Films Marceau (Orson Welles)
Shakespeare's play as rearranged by Orson Welles at the start of his European wanderings; modest budget, flashes of brilliance, poor technical quality, variable acting.
Not really the best way to film Shakespeare.
wd Orson Welles play William Shakespeare ph Anchise Brizzi, George Fanto, Obadan Troania, Roberto Fusi, G. Araldo m Francesco Lavagnino, Alberto Barberis ad Alexander Trauner ☆ Orson Welles, Michael MacLiammoir, Fay Compton, Robert Cook, Suzanne Cloutier, Michael Laurence, Hilton Edwards, Doris Dowling
† Michael MacLiammoir's book Put Money in Thy Purse is a witty account of the sporadic, poverty-stricken making of the film.
††† Lea Padovani was originally cast as Desdemona; she was replaced by Betsy Blair, until Welles decided she was too modern for the role.

Othello ★
GB 1965 166m Technicolor Panavision
BHE (Richard Godwin)
A record of the National Theatre production, disappointing in terms of cinema but a valuable record of a famous performance.
d Stuart Burge ph Geoffrey Unsworth md Richard Hampton
☆ Laurence Olivier, Frank Finlay, Joyce Redman, Maggie Smith, Derek Jacobi, Robert Lang, Anthony Nicholls
'What the director does is keep the camera moving among the actors with the most intelligent precision.' – Observer
Laurence Olivier; Frank Finlay; Joyce Redman; Maggie Smith

'Envy greed jealousy and love.'

Othello ★
US 1995 124m Technicolor
Columbia/Castle Rock/Dakota/Imminent (Luc Roeg, David Barron)
A black soldier woos, wins and loses the love of his life.
A good-looking version of Shakespeare's play but hampered by some inadequate speaking of the verse. Othello is robbed of much of his charisma by having his speeches, the means by which he won Desdemona, cut short. Branagh survives the experience best.
wd Oliver Parker ph David Johnson m Charlie Mole pd Tim Harvey ed Tony Lawson
☆ Laurence Fishburne (Othello), Irene Jacob (Desdemona), Kenneth Branagh (Iago), Nathaniel Parker, Michael Maloney, Anna Patrick, Nicholas Farrell, Indra Ove
'Colorful and intimate production is relatively conventional and unremarkable as an interpretation, but is well performed by its two male leads and clearly staged and enunciated for ready comprehension by a mass audience.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety
'Pitched at audiences as a sort of psychological thriller about sexual jealousy: Basic Instinct with better dialogue and a handkerchief instead of an ice pick.' – Tom Shone, Sunday Times
† The film's trailer went: 'In the time of heroes there was but one great general. His bravery in battle was legendary, his devotion to his love unchallenged. His name was Othello. Under the cover of darkness and against her father's will, he took Desdemona into his heart. The great general and his true love were secretly wed. Some men die for glory, some men fight for love. One man lives for revenge. His was the soul of a traitor, and the opportunity he seized will change their lives forever...'
†† Only a third of Shakespeare's dialogue remains in this version. The director explained, 'I thought it would be interesting to make it more of a punchy, pacey number.'

The Other ★
US 1972 100m DeLuxe
TCF/Rex-Benchmark (Tom Tryon)
A boy insists that his dead twin is responsible for several unexplained deaths.
Subtle family ghost story for intellectuals; a bit pretentious and restrained for popular success.
w Tom Tryon novel Tom Tryon d Robert Mulligan ph Robert Surtees m Jerry Goldsmith pd Albert Brenner
☆ Uta Hagen, Diana Muldaur, Chris Connelly, Victor French

Other Halves
New Zealand 1984 95m Eastmancolor
Oringham/Galatea (Tom Finlayson, Dean Hill)
A middle-class woman, recovering from a breakdown and the end of her marriage, falls for a homeless and delinquent 16-year-old Maori youth.
Confused melodrama of racial intolerance and an unlikely love affair, unconvincing for the most part.
w Sue McCauley novel Sue McCauley d John Laing ph Leon Narbey m Don McGlashan pd Robert Gillies ed Harley Oliver
☆ Lisa Harrow, Mark Pilisi, Clare Clifford, Bruce Purchase, Emma Piper, Paul Gittins, John Bach

'Her every exciting moment was an unforgettable experience!'

The Other Love
US 1947 96m bw
Enterprise (David Lewis)
At a Swiss sanatorium, a lady concert pianist who is dying falls in love with her doctor.
Fairly icky 'woman's picture' with uncomfortable performances.
w Ladislas Fodor, Harry Brown story Erich Maria Remarque d André de Toth
ph Victor Milner m Miklos Rozsa
☆ Barbara Stanwyck, David Niven, Richard Conte, Gilbert Roland, Joan Lorring, Lenore Aubert

Other Men's Women
US 1931 70m bw
Warner
A train driver falls for his partner's wife.
Stilted heavy-breathing melodrama.
w William K. Wells d William A. Wellman
☆ Grant Withers, James Cagney, Mary Astor, Joan Blondell, Regis Toomey
'Good railroad melo for the lesser run theatres.' – Variety

'Meet Larry the Liquidator. Arrogant. Greedy. Self-centered. Ruthless. You gotta love the guy.'

Other People's Money ★
US 1991 101m Technicolor
Warner/Yorktown (Norman Jewison, Ric Kidney)
A selfish asset-stripper attempts to take over an old-established company and its attractive young lawyer.

Entertaining comedy of the conflict between big-city and small-town values in the modern manner: that is, greed wins.
w Alvin Sargent play Jerry Sterner
d Norman Jewison ph Haskell Wexler
m David Newman pd Philip Rosenberg
ed Lou Lombardo, Michael Pacek, Hubert de la Bouillerie ☆ Danny DeVito, Gregory Peck, Penelope Ann Miller, Piper Laurie, Dean Jones, R. D. Call, Mo Gaffney, Bette Henritze

'The romance of passion and power!'

The Other Side of Midnight

US 1977 166m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF/Frank Yablans, Martin Ransohoff (Howard W. Koch Jnr)

Before and after World War II a young Parisienne courts an American flyer, but her tycoon husband eventually exacts a grim revenge on both of them.
Turgid and interminable adaptation of a best-seller, with no likeable characters and several unpleasant sequences.
w Herman Raucher, Daniel Taradash novel Sidney Sheldon d Charles Jarrott ph Fred J. Koenekamp m Michel Legrand
pd John DeCuir
☆ Marie-France Pisier, John Beck, Susan Sarandon, Raf Vallone, Clu Gulager, Christian Marquand
'After 166 minutes the feeling that one has actually lived through it all is a little too real for comfort.' – David Badder, MFB
'A fatuous, money-spinning film from the fatuous, money-spinning book.' – New Yorker
'Right down to the nonsense title, this epic of schlock restores the era of Now Voyager ... the movie equivalent of a good bad read.' – Time Out

'Sometimes the game of love requires a little cheating...'

The Other Side of the Bed

Spain 2002 114m colour 'Scope
Telespan/Impala/Tele 5/Via Digital

original title: El Otro Lado de la Cama
US title: The Wrong Side of the Bed
Romantic complications ensue when a girl leaves her boyfriend for his best friend.
Pleasant bed-hopping farce let down by some dull songs and indifferent singing.
w David Serrano d Emilio Martinez Lazaro ph Juan Molina Temboury
m Roque Banos ad Julio Torrecilla
ed Angel Hernandez-Zoido
☆ Ernesto Alterio (Javier), Paz Vega (Sonia), Guillermo Toledo (Pedro), Natalia Verbeke (Paula), Alberto San Juan, Maria Esteve (Pilar), Ramon Barea (Sagaz)
'Charming, sexy, perfectly calibrated comedy – which also reps the unheralded return of that cinematic dodo, the Spanish musical.' – Jonathan Holland, Variety
'The numbers are terrible, the choreography primitive, the women attractive, the men dislikeable.' – Philip French, Observer

'Once in your life – may someone love you like this!'

The Other Side of the Mountain

US 1975 102m Technicolor
Universal/Filmways/Larry Peerce (Edward S. Feldman)

GB title: A Window to the Sky
A girl skiing champion is paralysed by polio.
Maudlin tearjerker based on a real case; altogether too much of a good thing.
w David Seltzer book A Long Way Up by E. G. Valens d Larry Peerce ph David M. Walsh m Charles Fox
☆ Marilyn Hassett, Beau Bridges, Belinda Montgomery, Nan Martin, William Bryant, Dabney Coleman
♫ song 'Richard's Window' (m Charles Fox, ly Norman Gimbel)

'For everyone who believes in happy endings!'

The Other Side of the Mountain Part Two

US 1977 99m Technicolor
Universal/Filmways (Edward S. Feldman)

Crippled skier Jill Kinmont becomes a teacher and falls in love again.
More true-life weepie material spun out from the first successful film; the sequel is quickly forgettable.
w Douglas Day Stewart d Larry Peerce
ph Ric Waite m Lee Holdridge
☆ Marilyn Hassett, Timothy Bottoms, Nan Martin, Belinda J. Montgomery

'A love story for the romantically challenged.'

The Other Sister

US 1999 129m Technicolor Panavision
Buena Vista/Touchstone (Mario Iscovich, Alexandra Rose)

In San Francisco, two mentally retarded young people fall in love.
Manipulative, sentimental romantic tale that resembles a couple of episodes from a TV soap opera.
w Garry Marshall, Bob Brunner, Alexandra Rose, Blair Richwood d Garry Marshall
ph Dante Spinotti m Rachel Portman
pd Stephen J. Lineweaver ed Bruce Green ☆ Juliette Lewis (Carla), Diane Keaton (Elizabeth), Tom Skerritt (Radley), Giovanni Ribisi (Danny), Poppy Montgomery (Caroline), Sarah Paulson (Heather), Linda Thorson (Drew), Joe Flanigan (Jeff), Juliet Mills (Winnie), Hector Elizondo (Ernie)
'The sentiments are so perniciously calculated to extract tears that it left me stone cold.' – James Christopher, Times

'The Heart Is Deceitful, Who Can Know It?'

Other Voices, Other Rooms ★

US 1995 98m colour
Dowtown/Golden Eye (Peter Wentworth, David Rocksavage)

A teenage boy is summoned by his cousin to a Southern mansion where his father lies paralysed.
Muted gothic romance, a work of intense, somewhat precious imagination that does not translate well to the screen.
w Sara Flanigan, David Rocksavage novel Truman Capote d David Rocksavage ph Paul Ryan m Chris Hajian pd Amy McGary ed Cynthia Scheider ☆ Lothaire Bluteau (Randolph Skully), Anna Thomson (Amy Skully), David Speck (Joel Sansom), April Turner (Missouri Fever), Frank Taylor (Edward R. Sansom), Leonard Watkins (Jesus Fever), Audrey Dollar (Idabell Thompkins), Elizabeth Byler (Florabell Thompkins), Moses Gibson (Little Sunshine), Bob Kingdom (narrator)
'A torturous experience at best.' – Film Review

'Sooner Or Later They Will Find You.'

The Others

Spain/US 2001 104m colour
Buena Vista/Miramax/Cruise-Wagner/Escorpion/Sogecine/Canal+ (Fernando Bovaira, Jose Luis Cuerda, Sunmin Park)

In the late 1940s, a worried mother experiences strange phenomena while trying to protect her two children, who are allergic to daylight.
Chilling little drama, set in the past when people had servant problems; sometimes predictable, it is held together by Kidman's performance as a neurotic woman on the edge of hysteria.
wd Alejandro Amenábar ph Javier Aguirresarobe m Alejandro Amenábar
pd Benjamin Fernandez ed Nacho Ruiz Capillas cos Sonia Grande ☆ Nicole Kidman (Grace), Christopher Eccleston (Charles), Fionnula Flanagan (Mrs Mills), Elaine Cassidy (Lydia), Eric Sykes (Mr Tuttle), Alakina Mann (Anne), James Bentley (Nicholas), Renée Asherson (Old lady)
'This is one scary movie, not because we see ghosts or monsters, but because Kidman makes us feel her fear as our own.' – Amy Taubin, Village Voice
'An unconvincing, pretentiously artsy pastiche of just about every hoary old gothic thriller you can think of.' – Lou Lumenick, New York Post

Otley ★★

GB 1968 91m Technicolor
Columbia/Open Road (Bruce Cohn Curtis)

An inoffensive Londoner falls in with spies and murderers.
Semi-spoof comedy thriller taking in James Bondery and the swinging London set. Generally pretty funny, but not entirely certain of its own motives.
w Ian La Frenais, Dick Clement novel Martin Waddell d Dick Clement ph Austin Dempster m Stanley Myers
☆ Tom Courtenay, Romy Schneider, Alan Badel, James Villiers, Leonard Rossiter, Freddie Jones, James Bolam, Fiona Lewis

Otogiriso: see St John's Wort

El Otro Lado de la Cama: see The Other Side of the Bed

Otto e Mezzo: see Eight and a Half

Our Betters ★

US 1933 83m bw
RKO (David O. Selznick)

An American woman in London finds her titled husband is unfaithful and sets about causing society scandals.
Dimly adapted West End success makes an interesting but unamusing film.
w Jane Murfin, Harry Wagstaff Gribble play W. Somerset Maugham d George Cukor ph Charles Rosher md Max Steiner ☆ Constance Bennett, Violet Kemble Cooper, Alan Mowbray, Gilbert Roland, Phoebe Foster, Charles Starrett, Grant Mitchell, Anita Louise, Minor Watson, Hugh Sinclair
'It's all very English and so sophisticated ... they will really have to go for Constance Bennett to go for this picture.' – Variety
'One of those familiar dreams of high life in which we are asked to admire even while we condemn the superb immorality of our almost godlike betters.' – The Times

Our Blushing Brides: see Our Dancing Daughters

Our Daily Bread ★

US 1934 80m bw
(UA)

A young couple in the Depression inherit a broken-down farm and make it work.
A rather drab sequel to The Crowd, with an irrigation ditch finale in clear imitation of Eisenstein.
w Elizabeth Hill story King Vidor d King Vidor ph Robert Planck m Alfred Newman ☆ Karen Morley, Tom Keene, John Qualen, Barbara Pepper, Addison Richards
'Regardless of the scepticism on the matter of box office, and its chances seem thin, it ranks as a fine effort.' – Variety
'With the arrival of the ditchdigging sequence, all that has gone before seems but buildup for this compelling climax.' – Eileen Bowser, Film Notes, 1969 † Vidor so desperately wanted to make the film that, discovering its theme to be unpopular with sponsors, he pawned everything he owned to finance it.

Our Dancing Daughters ★

US 1928 86m approx (24 fps) bw
silent
MGM/Cosmopolitan (Hunt Stromberg)

A wild young socialite knows when to stop, and makes a good marriage; her friend doesn't and falls to her death while drunk.
Mild exploitation piece of its time which swept Joan Crawford to stardom after her dance in her underwear.
w Josephine Lovett d Harry Beaumont
ph George Barnes
☆ Joan Crawford, John Mack Brown, Dorothy Sebastian, Anita Page, Nils Asther
† Sequels: Our Modern Maidens (silent, 1929) with JC, Rod La Rocque, Douglas Fairbanks Jnr, Anita Page, w Josephine Lovett; Our Blushing Brides (sound, 1930) with JC, Robert Montgomery, Anita Page, Dorothy Sebastian, Raymond Hackett, w Bess Meredyth and John Howard Lawson. Neither was remarkable.
♫ Josephine Lovett; George Barnes

Our Father: see Abouna

Our Fighting Navy

GB 1937 75m bw
Herbert Wilcox
US title: Torpedoed
In South America, a British naval captain saves the consul's daughter from a revolutionary.
Tuppenny blood heroics, unconvincingly staged.
w 'Bartimeus', Guy Pollock, H. T. Bishop, Gerald Elliott, Harrison Owens d Norman Walker
☆ Robert Douglas, H. B. Warner, Noah Beery, Richard Cromwell, Hazel Terry, Esme Percy

Our Girl Friday

GB 1953 87m Eastmancolor
Renown

US title: The Adventures of Sadie
Four shipwrecked survivors are washed up on a desert island.
Coy sex comedy for the family; pretty unbearable.
wd Noel Langley ph Wilkie Cooper
m Ronald Binge
☆ Kenneth More, Joan Collins, George Cole, Robertson Hare, Hermione Gingold, Walter Fitzgerald

Our Hearts Were Growing Up

US 1946 83m bw
Daniel Dare/Paramount

Our two heroines experience their college days during the roaring twenties.

Rather stiffly made but fitfully amusing sequel to the above.

w Norman Panama, Melvin Frank
d William D. Russell

☆ Gail Russell, Diana Lynn, Brian Donlevy, James Brown, William Demarest, Bill Edwards, Billy DeWolfe, Sara Haden

Our Hearts Were Young and Gay ★

US 1944 81m bw
Paramount (Sheridan Gibney)

Two well-to-do flappers of the twenties find fun and romance in Paris.

A pleasant, undemanding piece of nostalgia based on a popular biography.

w Sheridan Gibney book Cornelia Otis Skinner, Emily Kimbrough d Lewis Allen ph Theodor Sparkuhl m Werner Heymann

☆ Gail Russell, Diana Lynn, Charles Ruggles, Dorothy Gish, Beulah Bondi, James Brown, Bill Edwards, Jean Heather

Our Hospitality ★★★

US 1923 70m approx (24 fps) bw silent
Metro/Buster Keaton (Joseph M. Schenck)

Around 1830, a Southerner returns home to claim his bride and finds himself in the middle of a blood feud.

Charming rather than hilarious star comedy with a splendid ancient train and at least one incredible stunt by the star.

w Jean Havez, Joseph Mitchell, Clyde Bruckman d Buster Keaton, Jack Blystone ph Elgin Lessley, Gordon Jennings ad Fred Gabourie

☆ Buster Keaton (William McKay), Natalie Talmadge (Virginia Canfield), Joe Keaton (Lem Doolittle), Buster Keaton Jnr (William McKay as a Baby)

'A novelty mélange of dramatics, low comedy, laughs and thrills ... one of the best comedies ever produced.' – Variety

Our House: see Duplex

Our Leading Citizen

US 1939 87m bw
George Arthur/Paramount

A philosophical lawman tries to deal with labour unrest in his community.

Another attempt to make a star out of a character who appealed only in rural districts.

w John C. Moffitt stories Irvin S. Cobb d Alfred Santell

☆ Bob Burns, Susan Hayward, Joseph Allen, Charles Bickford, Elizabeth Patterson, Clarence Kolb, Paul Guilfoyle

'Confusing and burdensome script ... programme supporter.' – Variety

Our Little Girl

US 1935 63m bw
Fox (Edward Butcher)

A doctor's daughter brings her parents together.

One of the child star's thinner and more sentimental vehicles.

w Stephen Morehouse Avery, Allen Rivkin, Jack Yellen story Heaven's Gate by Florence Leighton Pfalzgraf d John Robertson ph John Seitz md Oscar Bradley

☆ Shirley Temple, Joel McCrea, Rosemary Ames, Lyle Talbot, Erin O'Brien-Moore

'She should easily satisfy her following and assure business.' – Variety

Our Man Flint ★

US 1965 108m DeLuxe Cinemascope
TCF (Saul David)

An American secret agent and super stud fights an organization bent on controlling the world through its weather.

Comic strip imitation of James Bond; in its wild way the first instalment scored a good many laughs, but the sequel, In Like Flint (qv), quickly ended the series.

w Hal Fimberg, Ben Starr d Daniel Mann ph Daniel L. Fapp m Jerry Goldsmith

☆ James Coburn, Lee J. Cobb, Gila Golan, Edward Mulhare, Benson Fong, Sigrid Valdis

'Despite the fact that everyone from designers to actors seems to be having a ball, the film somehow goes over the edge of parody – ultimately it looks suspiciously like a case of wish-fulfilment.' – John Gillett

Our Man in Havana ★

GB 1959 112m bw Cinemascope
Columbia/Kingsmead (Carol Reed)

A British vacuum cleaner salesman in Havana allows himself to be recruited as a spy, and wishes he hadn't.

The wry flavour of the novel does not really translate to the screen, and especially not to the wide screen, but a few lines and characters offer compensation.

w Graham Greene novel Graham Greene d Carol Reed ph Oswald Morris m Hermanos Deniz Cuban Rhythm Band

☆ Alec Guinness, Noël Coward, Burl Ives, Maureen O'Hara, Ernie Kovacs, Ralph Richardson, Jo Morrow, Paul Rogers, Grégoire Aslan, Duncan Macrae

'The main weakness is the absence of economic, expressive cutting and visual flow. As a result ... stretches of dialogue become tedious to watch; and the essential awareness of the writer's shifting tensions yields disappointingly to the easier mannerisms of any conventional comedy-thriller.' – Peter John Dyer

Our Man in Marrakesh

GB 1966 92m Technicolor
Harry Alan Towers
US title: Bang Bang, You're Dead

A tourist becomes involved with gangsters.

Thin comedy-thriller with exotic locations.

w Peter Yeldham d Don Sharp ph Michael Reed m Malcolm Lockyer

☆ Tony Randall, Senta Berger, Terry-Thomas, Herbert Lom, Wilfrid Hyde-White, Grégoire Aslan, Klaus Kinski

Our Miss Brooks

US 1955 85m bw
Warner

A lady teacher finds that the professor to whom she is engaged is tied to mother's apron strings.

Verbose comedy considerably less funny than the TV series from which it was spun off.

w Al Lewis, Joseph Quillan d Al Lewis

☆ Eve Arden, Gale Gordon, Robert Rockwell, Don Porter, Jane Morgan, Richard Crenna, Nick Adams

Our Miss Fred ★

GB 1972 96m Technicolor
EMI/Willis World Wide (Josephine Douglas)

In World War II France, an actor escapes in women's clothes when his troupe is captured by the Nazis.

A carefully nurtured vehicle for Britain's top female impersonator somehow doesn't come off; celluloid both constrains his range and reveals his inadequacies.

w Hugh Leonard d Bob Kellett ph Dick Bush m Peter Greenwell

☆ Danny La Rue, Alfred Marks, Lance Percival, Lally Bowers, Frances de la Tour, Walter Gotell

Our Modern Maidens: see Our Dancing Daughters

Our Mother's House

GB 1967 105m Metrocolor
MGM/Filmways (Jack Clayton)

When mother dies, seven children, who don't want to go to an orphanage, bury her in the garden. Then their ne'er-do-well father turns up.

Unpleasant and rather boring melodrama, too silly to have much dramatic impact.

w Jeremy Brooks, Haya Harareet novel Julian Gloag d Jack Clayton ph Larry Pizer m Georges Delerue

☆ Dirk Bogarde, Margaret Brooks, Pamela Franklin, Mark Lester, Yootha Joyce, Anthony Nicholls

'The children begin to display an alarming variety of accents ... and when Dirk Bogarde enters, doing a rich Bill Sykes act as the long lost wicked father to a predominantly genteel family, the whole structure collapses.' – Tom Milne

'Clayton succeeds where upstarts have failed in capturing the essence of the horror-suspense film – and that is the realization that the monsters among us are human.' – Judith Crist

Our Neighbours the Carters

US 1939 85m bw
Paramount

A small-town pharmacist is so poor that he considers an offer from a wealthy friend to adopt one of his children.

A small-town saga of smiles and tears, much appreciated at the time.

w S. K. Lauren, Renaud Hoffman d Ralph Murphy

☆ Fay Bainter, Frank Craven, Genevieve Tobin, Edmund Lowe

'Neatly set up as a programmer for the family trade.' – Variety

Our Relations ★★★

US 1936 65m bw
Hal Roach/Stan Laurel Productions

Two sailors entrusted with a diamond ring get mixed up with their long lost and happily married twin brothers.

A fast-moving comedy which contains some of Laurel and Hardy's most polished work as well as being their most satisfying production.

w Richard Connell, Felix Adler, Charles Rogers, Jack Jevne story The Money Box by W. W. Jacobs d Harry Lachman ph Rudolph Maté ad William Stevens, Arthur I. Royce ed Bert Jordan

☆ Stan Laurel (Himself/Alfie Laurel), Oliver Hardy (Himself/Bert Hardy), James Finlayson (Finn, the Chief Engineer), Alan Hale (Joe Groagan, the Waiter), Sidney Toler (Captain of the S.S. Periwinkle), Daphne Pollard (Mrs. Daphne Hardy), Iris Adrian (Alice, the Beer Garden Girl), Noel Madison (Gangster), Ralf Harolde (Gangster), Arthur Housman (Inebriated Stroller)

Our Story

France 1984 111m Eastmancolor
Artificial Eye/Adel Productions/Sara Films-A2 (Alain Sarde) original title: Notre Histoire

A boozy traveller falls for a beautiful woman he meets on a train.

Sub-Buñuel surrealism that is an irritant rather than a pleasure.

wd Bertrand Blier ph Jean Penzer m Martinu, Beethoven, Schubert and others ad Bernard Evien ed Claudine Merlin

☆ Alain Delon, Nathalie Baye, Michel Galabru, Geneviève Fontanel, Jean-Pierre Darroussin, Gérard Darmon

'The story of a love affair that lasted a lifetime!'

Our Town ★★

US 1940 90m bw
Principal Artists/Sol Lesser

Birth, life and death in a small New Hampshire community.

One of the main points of the play, the absence of scenery, is abandoned in this screen version, and the graveyard scene has to be presented as a dream, but the film retains the narrator and manages to make points of its own while absorbing the endearing qualities which made the play a classic.

w Thornton Wilder, Frank Craven, Harry Chantlee play Thornton Wilder d Sam Wood ph Bert Glennon m Aaron Copland pd William Cameron Menzies

☆ Frank Craven, William Holden, Martha Scott, Thomas Mitchell, Fay Bainter, Guy Kibbee, Beulah Bondi, Stuart Erwin

'You can nearly smell things cooking, and feel the night air.' – Otis Ferguson

♗ best picture; Aaron Copland; Martha Scott; art direction

Our Very Own

US 1950 93m bw
Samuel Goldwyn

A girl is shocked to discover that she is adopted.

Another Goldwyn foray into chintzy, middle-class, small-town America, but not a winning example.

w F. Hugh Herbert d David Miller ph Lee Garmes m Victor Young sp Richard Day

☆ Ann Blyth, Farley Granger, Joan Evans, Jane Wyatt, Ann Dvorak, Donald Cook, Natalie Wood, Gus Schilling, Phyllis Kirk

Our Vines Have Tender Grapes*

US 1945 105m bw
MGM (Robert Sisk)

Life in a Norwegian farm community in southern Wisconsin.

Unexceptionable family picture produced in MGM's best manner.

w Dalton Trumbo novel George Victor Martin d Roy Rowland ph Robert Surtees m Bronislau Kaper

☆ Edward G. Robinson, Margaret O'Brien, James Craig, Agnes Moorehead, Jackie 'Butch' Jenkins, Morris Carnovsky, Frances Gifford, Sara Haden

Our Wife ★

US 1931 20m bw
Hal Roach

Stan helps Ollie to elope.

Good standard star comedy with a rather disappointing third sequence as three people try to get into a car designed for one.

w H. M. Walker d James W. Horne ph Art Lloyd ed Richard Currier

☆ Stan Laurel, Oliver Hardy, James Finlayson, Jean London, Ben Turpin, Charley Rogers

Our Wife

US 1941 95m bw
Columbia (John M. Stahl)

A composer is romantically torn between a lady scientist and his own ex-wife.

Middling romantic comedy of a kind very familiar at the time.

w P. J. Wolfson play Lillian Day, Lyon Mearson d John M. Stahl ph Franz Planer m Leo Shuken

☆ Melvyn Douglas, Ruth Hussey, Ellen Drew, Charles Coburn, John Hubbard, Harvey Stephens

Ourselves Alone

GB 1936 87m bw
British International

An Irish colleen has a brother in the IRA and a lover in the British Army.

Rather tired hawking of a theme already treated in Beloved Enemy.

w Dudley Leslie, Marjorie Jeans, Dennis Johnstone play Dudley Sturrock, Noel Scott d Brian Desmond Hurst, Walter Summers

☆ Antoinette Cellier, Niall MacGinnis, John Lodge, John Loder, Clifford Evans

'Will find tough sledding because of the subject matter.' – Variety

'One of the silliest pictures which even an English studio has yet managed to turn out.' – Graham Greene, The Spectator

Out Cold

US 1989 92m CFI color
Hemdale (George G. Braunstein, Ron Hamady)

Believing that he has inadvertently killed his partner, a butcher covers up the crime with the help of the widow, who is the real murderer.

Limp comedy that quickly runs out of ideas.

w Leonard Glasser, George Malko d Malcolm Mowbray ph Tony Pierce-Roberts m Michel Colombier pd Linda Pearl ed Dennis M. Hill

☆ John Lithgow, Teri Garr, Randy Quaid, Bruce McGill, Lisa Blount, Alan Blumenfeld, Morgan Paull, Barbara Rhoades

Out for Justice

US 1991 91m Technicolor Panavision
Warner (Steven Seagal, Arnold Kopelson)

In Brooklyn, a cop hunts down the drug-crazed killer who murdered his best friend.

Despite the title, our hero is out for revenge, and the bloodier the better. The familiar theme is played out with the maximum amount of violence.

w David Lee Henry d John Flynn ph Ric Waite m David Michael Frank pd Gene Rudolf ed Robert A. Ferretti, Donald Brochu

☆ Steven Seagal, William Forsythe, Jerry Orbach, Jo Champa, Shareen Mitchell, Sal Richards, Gina Gershon, Jay Acovone

'Steven Seagal should snap off another hefty chunk of box-office with this latest lame-brained excuse to showcase his bone-breaking talents.' – Variety

Out in Fifty

US 1999 100m CFI
Amco/Urban (Ami Artzi, BoJesse Christopher, Scott Leet)

After he gets out of prison, an ex-convict is stalked by the vengeful LA cop whose wife he accidentally killed.

Another giant step in the disintegration of Rourke's career: you cannot go much lower, in cinematic terms, than starring in this crude, posturing, self-indulgent and badly-acted and -scripted thriller.

wd BoJesse Christopher, Scott Leet ph Sharon Meir m Steve Edwards pd Linda Keil ed Ross Guidici

☆ Mickey Rourke (Jack Bracken), BoJesse Christopher (Steven Fisher), Nina Ofenböck (Gloria Fisher), Nikki Bokal (Sarah Brawn), Scott Leet (Raymond Frye), Peter Greene (Tony Grayson), Christina Applegate (Lillah), Alexis Arquette (Kim), Balthazar Getty (Lefty), James Avery (Cappy), Abraham Benrubi (Spike)

Out of Africa ★★

US/GB 1985 150m Rank Colour Technovision
Mirage/Sydney Pollack

In 1914 Karen Blixen arrives in Africa for a marriage of convenience with a German baron who ignores her; a white hunter remedies the situation.

Heavy going but critically lauded transcription of a semi-classic which ambles along for an extremely long time without really getting anywhere.

w Kurt Luedtke writings Isak Dinesen (Karen Blixen) d Sydney Pollack ph David Watkin m John Barry pd Stephen Grimes ed Frederic Steinkamp, William Steinkamp

☆ Meryl Streep, Robert Redford, Klaus Maria Brandauer, Michael Kitchen, Michael Gough

'It's a long way to go for a downbeat ending.' – Variety

'The film purrs pleasantly along like one of its own big cats.' – Sight and Sound

best picture; Sydney Pollack; David Watkin; John Barry; Kurt Luedtke; Stephen Grimes; sound

Meryl Streep; Klaus Maria Brandauer; Frederic Steinkamp, William Steinkamp

Kurt Luedtke; David Watkin

Out of Depth

GB 1999 99m colour
Steon/Redbus (Stephen Cranny)

In London, a graphic designer becomes reluctantly involved with gangsters and drug dealers.

An unappetising slice of low-life, as predictable as it is dull.

wd Simon Marshall ph Adam Suschitzky m Barry Adamson pd Philip Robinson ed St John O'Rorke

☆ Sean Maguire (Paul), Danny Midwinter (Steve), Nicholas Ball (Lenny), Phil Cornwell (Ed), Josephine Butler (Sarah), Leigh Lawson (Tate), Clive Russell (Tinker), Rita Tushingham (Maggie)

'Banal, often risible crime movie that works in black and white with various familiar shades of Kray.' – Philip French, Observer

Out of Order ★

West Germany 1984 88m colour
Laura/Mutoskop (Thomas Schühly, Matthias Deyle)
original title: Abwärts

In an office block at night, four people are trapped in a lift with an alarm system that does not work.

Well-made, moderately gripping thriller, although it might have been better with a few more people trapped, to provide more variation on what threatens to stay close to cliché for most of its length.

w Carl Schenkel, Frank Göhre d Carl Schenkel ph Jacques Steyn m Jacques Zwart ed Norbert Herzner

☆ Götz George, Renee Soutendijk, Wolfgang Kieling, Hannes Jaenicke, Kurt Raab

Out of Rosenheim: see Bagdad Café

Out of Season ★

GB 1975 90m Technicolor
EMI/Lorimar (Robert Enders, Merv Adelson)

One winter in an English seaside resort, an old love is rekindled.

Restrained sexual fireworks in the old French manner, well enough done with excellent atmosphere but a shade overlong and marred by the need to indulge in modern tricks such as a deliberately ambiguous ending.

w Reuben Bercovitch, Eric Bercovici d Alan Bridges ph Arthur Ibbetson m John Cameron

☆ Cliff Robertson, Vanessa Redgrave, Susan George, Edward Evans

Out of Sight ★★★

US 1998 123m DeLuxe
Universal/Jersey (Danny de Vito, Michael Shamberg, Stacey Sher)

A bank robber and a federal marshal fall for each other, despite being on opposite sides of the law.

A thriller disguised as a romantic comedy, acted and directed with the necessary light touch.

w Scott Frank novel Elmore Leonard d Steven Soderbergh ph Elliot Davis m Cliff Martinez pd Gary Frutkoff ad Phil Messina ed Anne V. Coates

☆ George Clooney (Jack Foley), Jennifer Lopez (Karen Sisco), Vingh Rhames (Buddy Bragg), Don Cheadle (Maurice (Snoopy) Miller), Dennis Farina (Marshall Sisco), Albert Brooks (Richard Ripley)

'There's no getting away with the simplicity of its success – great script based on a good book, good actors working with great characters, a great director empowered to be great again.' – Ian Nathan, Empire

† Region 1 and 2 DVD releases include commentary by Steven Soderbergh and Scott Frank.

Scott Frank; Anne V. Coates

Out of the Blue

GB 1931 88m bw
BIP

An aristocrat's daughter loves the radio singer who is engaged to her sister.

Dated frou-frou with interesting talent.

w R. P. Weston, Frank Miller, Bert Lee play Little Tommy Tucker by Caswell Garth and Desmond Carter d Gene Gerrard, John Orton ph Ernest Palmer, Arthur Crabtree m Vivian Ellis

☆ Jessie Matthews, Gene Gerrard, Kay Hammond, Kenneth Kove, Binnie Barnes

Out of the Blue

US 1947 86m bw
Eagle Lion

A Greenwich village artist thinks a girl who has passed out in his apartment is dead, and tries to hide the body.

Tasteless and very unfunny farce.

w Vera Caspary, Walter Bullock, Edward Eliscu d Leigh Jason

☆ George Brent, Carole Landis, Ann Dvorak, Turhan Bey, Virginia Mayo, Elizabeth Patterson, Julia Dean, Richard Lane

'Her dad's in prison...Her mom's on drugs...The only adult she admires is Johnny Rotten.'

Out of the Blue

Canada 1980 94m colour
Sanctuary (Leonard Yakir, Gary Jules Jouvenat)

A wayward teenage punk, with a drug-addicted mother and a drunken, sexually abusive ex-convict for a father, finds her life unendurable.

At least she can count herself fortunate that she didn't have to sit through this film.

w Leonard Yakir, Brenda Nelson d Dennis Hopper ph Marc Champion m Tom Lavin, Neil Young ad David Hiscox ed Doris Dyck

☆ Linda Manz, Dennis Hopper, Sharon Farrell, Don Gordon, Raymond Burr

'"I've never endorsed anything before, but if a masterpiece comes along, people should see it," states Jack Nicholson...it's hard to disagree.' – Sight and Sound, 2002

Out of the Clouds

GB 1954 88m Eastmancolor
Ealing (Michael Balcon, Michael Relph)

Several personal stories mesh against a background of London airport during a fog.

A dull compendium of stories with a background of documentary detail which is now fascinating because it's so dated.

w John Eldridge, Michael Relph novel John Fores d Michael Relph, Basil Dearden ph Paul Beeson m Richard Addinsell

☆ Anthony Steel, Robert Beatty, David Knight, Margo Lorenz, James Robertson Justice, Eunice Gayson, Isabel Dean, Gordon Harker, Bernard Lee, Michael Howard, Marie Lohr, Esma Cannon, Abraham Sofaer

'The film relies considerably on small-time players and marginal incidents; the detail, however, never looks like adding up to a satisfactory whole.' – Penelope Houston

Out of the Dark

US 1988 89m colour
Medusa/Zel Films (Zane W. Levitt)

Cops investigate a series of sex-related murders by a man dressed as a clown.

Camp horror film, full of sniggers at its own nastiness.

w J. Gregory de Felice, Zane W. Levitt d Michael Schroeder ph Julio Macat m Paul F. Antonelli, David Wheatley pd Robert Schulenberg ed Mark Manos

☆ Cameron Dye, Karen Black, Lynn Danielson, Karen Witter, Tracey Walter, Silvana Gallardo, Bud Cort, Geoffrey Lewis, Divine, Paul Bartel, Tab Hunter

Out of the Fog ★

US 1941 86m bw
Warner (Henry Blanke)

Gangsters move in to terrorize an innocent Brooklyn family.

Standard exploration of a situation which became routine.

w Robert Rossen, Jerry Wald, Richard Macaulay play The Gentle People by Irwin Shaw d Anatole Litvak ph James Wong Howe

☆ Ida Lupino, John Garfield, Thomas Mitchell, Eddie Albert, George Tobias, Aline MacMahon, Jerome Cowan, John Qualen, Leo Gorcey

'Has succeeded in converting a disappointing stage work into a vastly entertaining motion picture.' – New York Herald Tribune

'You're no good and neither am I. We deserve each other!'

Out of the Past ★★

US 1947 97m bw
RKO (Warren Duff)

GB title: Build My Gallows High

A private detective is hired by a hoodlum to find his homicidal girlfriend; he does, and falls in love with her.

Moody film noir with Hollywood imitating French models; plenty of snarling and a death-strewn climax.

w Geoffrey Homes novel Build My Gallows High by Geoffrey Homes d Jacques Tourneur ph Nicholas Musuraca m Roy Webb

☆ Robert Mitchum, Jane Greer, Kirk Douglas, Rhonda Fleming, Richard Webb, Steve Brodie, Virginia Houston, Dickie Moore

'Is this not an outcrop of the national masochism induced by a quite aimless, newly industrialized society proceeding rapidly on its way to nowhere?' – Richard Winnington

'Mitchum is so sleepily self-confident with the women that when he slopes into clinches you expect him to snore in their faces.' – James Agee

'The First Film Made In Outer Space.'

Out of the Present ★

Germany/France/Belgium/Russia 1995 96m colour
Downtown/Bremer Institut/Fernsehen (Elke Peters)

A documentary about life on the Russian Mir space station in the early 90s.

Using film shot by Sergei Krikalev, who spent ten months aboard Mir, this is a fascinating glimpse of a confined life in space.

wd Andrei Ujica ph Vadim Yusov m Johann Strauss, Peter Lazonby ed Ralf Henninger, Heldi Leihbecher

☆ Anatoli Artesbarski, Sergei Krikalev, Helen Sharman, Viktor Afanasiev, Musa Monarov

'The laugh-a-minute lowdown on the birth of swoon!'

Out of this World

US 1945 96m bw
Paramount (Sam Coslow)

A Western Union messenger becomes a hit crooner and a national phenomenon.

Very mild comedy with the gimmick that Bing Crosby dubbed the singing.

w Walter de Leon, Arthur Phillips d Hal Walker ph Stuart Thompson m Victor Young

☆ Eddie Bracken, Veronica Lake, Diana Lynn, Cass Daley, Parkyakarkus, Donald MacBride, Florence Bates, Carmen Cavallero

'How do you solve a murder when all the evidence points to you?'

Out of Time ⑤

US 2003 105m DeLuxe
MGM/Original/Monarch (Neal H. Moritz, Jesse B'Franklin)

An adulterous small town police chief is framed for a double murder.

Unoriginal thriller, given a classier treatment than it merits.

w Dave Collard d Carl Franklin ph Theo Van de Sande m Graeme Revell pd Paul Peters ed Carole Kravetz Aykanian

☆ Denzel Washington (Matt Lee Whitlock), Eva Mendes (Alex Diaz Whitlock), Sanaa Lathan (Ann Merai Harrison), Dean Cain (Chris Harrison), John Billingsley (Chae), Robert Baker (Tony Dalton), Alex Carter (Cabot)

'Exactly the sort of programmer that passes the time pleasantly then self-destructs in the memory.' – Kim Newman, Sight and Sound

'When they take you for an out-of-towner, they really take you.'

The Out of Towners ★

US 1970 98m Movielab
Paramount/Jalem (Paul Nathan)

An executive and his wife fly into New York for an interview, but their encounter with the city is a mounting series of traumatic disasters.

A love-hate relationship with a city demonstrated by a resident is something of an in-joke and becomes increasingly hysterical and unsympathetic, but there are bright moments in this company.

w Neil Simon d Arthur Hiller ph Andrew Laszlo m Quincy Jones

☆ Jack Lemmon, Sandy Dennis

'Technically the sloppiest as well as the most witlessly uncomfortable movie for some time.' – Roger Greenspun, New York Times

Out on a Limb

US 1992 83m DeLuxe
Universal/Interscope (Michael Hertzberg)

Asked by her teacher to describe her summer vacation, a young girl tells a story involving mistaken indentity, kidnapping, murder and romance.

Witless black farce, neatly plotted but with a hapless, wimpish hero and a leaden pace.

w Daniel Goldin, Joshua Goldin d Francis Veber ph Donald E. Thorin m Van Dyke Parks pd Stephen Marsh ed Glenn Farr

☆ Matthew Broderick, Jeffrey Jones, Heidi Kling, John C. Reilly, Courtney Peldon, Nancy Lenehan, Marian Mercer, David Margulies, Michael Monks

Out to Sea

US 1997 109m DeLuxe
TCF (John Davis, David T. Friendly)

A gambler in search of a wealthy wife signs on as a dance host aboard a luxury liner and tricks his brother-in-law into accompanying him on the cruise.

Nostalgic, old-fashioned comedy that provides a modicum of amusement.

w Robert Nelson Jacobs d Martha Coolidge ph Lajos Koltai m David Newman pd James Spencer ed Anne V. Coates

☆ Jack Lemmon, Walter Matthau, Dyan Cannon, Gloria DeHaven, Brent Spiner, Elaine Stritch, Hal Linden, Donald O'Connor, Edward Mulhare, Rue McClanahan

'Mildly amusing and unabashedly retrograde trifle that, except for a few naughty words, resembles glossy studio product of a generation or so ago.' – Joe Leydon, Variety

'They fell in love 24 years ago ... and in the next 24 hours they'll remember why.'

The Out-of-Towners

US 1999 91m colour
Paramount (Robert Cort, David Madden, Robert Evans, Teri Schwartz)

A long-time married couple visit New York, where everything goes wrong except their feelings for one another.

Lamentably dull remake of a comedy that left much to be desired the first time around.

w Marc Lawrence play Neil Simon d Sam Weisman ph John Bailey m Marc Shaiman pd Ken Adam ed Kent Beyda

☆ Steve Martin, Goldie Hawn, John Cleese, Mayor Rudolph Giuliani (as himself)

'So feeble and unfocused as to make the Farrelly brothers of There's Something about Mary appear to have been suckled at the bosom of Aristophanes.' – Lawrence Van Gelder, New York Times

Outback ★

Australia 1970 109m Technicolor
NIT/Group W (George Willoughby)

A young teacher becomes involved in the rougher side of life in a remote Australian village.

A convincingly brutal picture of a community whose interests range from homosexuality to a bloody kangaroo hunt.

w Evan Jones novel Wake in Fright by Kenneth Cook d Ted Kotcheff ph Brian West m John Scott

☆ Gary Bond, Donald Pleasence, Chips Rafferty

Outback

Australia/US 1989 94m colour
Samuel Goldwyn/Burrowes (John Sexton)

In Australia at the turn of the century, a wealthy American entrepreneur and a drover both risk everything for the love of a young heiress threatened by an unscrupulous landowner.

Opulent period drama, enjoyable enough in its lush, romantic way but populated by stock characters.

w John Sexton d Ian Barry ph Ross Berryman m Mario Millo pd Owen Paterson ed Henry Dangar

☆ Jeff Fahey, Tushka Bergen, Steven Vidler, Richard Moir, Shane Briant, Drew Forsythe, Sandy Gore

'An animal carries a deadly virus ... And the greatest medical crisis in history begins.'
'Try to remain calm.'

Outbreak

US 1995 127m Technicolor
Warner/Punch (Arnold Kopelson, Wolfgang Petersen, Gail Katz)

A US Army expert saves the world from a deadly virus that spreads from Africa to the States and his own gung-ho generals.

An increasingly risible thriller that begins well and then becomes a fevered exercise in sub-James Bond heroics, with a military villain straight out of a comic book.

w Laurence Dworet, Robert Roy Pool d Wolfgang Petersen ph Michael Ballhaus m James Newton Howard pd William Sandell ed Neil Travis, Lynzee Klingman, William Hoy sp John Frazier; Boss Film Studios

☆ Dustin Hoffman, Rene Russo, Morgan Freeman, Kevin Spacey, Cuba Gooding Jnr, Donald Sutherland, Patrick Dempsey, Zakes Mokae, Malick Bowens

'The entire film has been put together with such skill and attention to viewer excitement that audiences will readily swallow the whole enchilada without a burp. A highly topical and alarming cautionary tale that's been socked over for maximum visceral impact.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

'A pallid epic about an appalling epidemic.' – Time

† Five other screenwriters worked uncredited on the script: Neil Jiminez, Ted Tally, Jeb Stuart, Carrie Fisher and Dan Gilroy.

The Outcast: see Man in the Saddle

The Outcast

US 1954 87m Trucolor
Republic (Herbert J. Yates)

A cowboy returns home to claim the ranch his uncle stole from him.

Fast-paced Western that relies on non-stop action to distract attention from its clichéd narrative.

w John K. Butler, Richard Wormser story Todhunter Ballard d William Witney ph Reggie Lanning m R. Dale Butts ad Frank Arrigo ed Tony Martinelli

☆ John Derek, Joan Evans, Jim Davis, Slim Pickens, Harry Carey Jnr

Outcast Lady

US 1934 79m bw
MGM

GB title: A Woman of the World

A spoilt rich girl goes from man to man but helps her drunken brother.

Modest remake of the Garbo vehicle A Woman of Affairs.

w Zoe Akins novel The Green Hat by Michael Arlen d Robert Z. Leonard

☆ Constance Bennett, Hugh Williams, Mrs Patrick Campbell, Elizabeth Allan, Henry Stephenson, Leo G. Carroll

'Even her love was primitive!'

Outcast of the Islands ★★

GB 1951 102m bw
London Films (Carol Reed)

A shiftless trader finds a secret Far Eastern trading post where he can be happy – but even here he becomes an outcast.

An interesting but not wholly successful attempt to dramatize a complex character study. It looks great and is well acted.

w William Fairchild novel Joseph Conrad d Carol Reed ph John Wilcox m Brian Easdale

☆ Trevor Howard, Ralph Richardson, Kerima, Robert Morley, Wendy Hiller, George Coulouris, Frederick Valk, Wilfrid Hyde-White, Betty Ann Davies

'The script is so overwhelmed by the narrative itself that the characters and relationships fail to crystallize ... while the handling is often intelligent, ingenious, and has its effective moments, no real conception emerges.' – Gavin Lambert

'Its sordidness is not veneered by the usual lyricism of Hollywood.' – London Evening News

'The most powerful film ever made in this country.' – Observer

The Outcasts of Poker Flat

US 1937 68m bw
RKO (Robert Sisk)

Four undesirables are run out of town and stuck in a mountain cabin during a snowstorm.

Overstretched anecdote with a predictably downbeat finale and not much action.

w John Twist, Harry Segall story Bret Harte d Christy Cabanne ph Robert de Grasse

☆ Preston Foster, Jean Muir, Van Heflin

The Outcasts of Poker Flat

US 1952 80m bw
TCF (Julian Blaustein)

Good-looking but equally undramatic remake of the above.

w Edmund H. North d Joseph M.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Newman ph Joseph LaShelle m Hugo Friedhofer
☆ Dale Robertson, Anne Baxter, Cameron Mitchell, Miriam Hopkins
'Fails badly either as dramatic or as western fare ... best where two features prevail.' – Variety

The Outfit ★

US 1974 103m Metrocolor
MGM (Carter de Haven)

A bank robber comes out of prison to discover that gangsters have murdered his brother and intend to kill him.
Slick, tough thriller with slick, tough dialogue and performances to match; the taut direction maintains suspense even when the action becomes predictable.
wd John Flynn novel Richard Stark
ph Bruce Surtees m Jerry Fielding ad Tambi Larsen ed Ralph E. Winters
☆ Robert Duvall, Karen Black, Joe Don Baker, Robert Ryan, Timothy Carey, Richard Jaeckel, Sheree North, Felice Orlandi, Joanna Cassidy, Elisha Cooke

'Even in space, the ultimate enemy is man!'
'On Jupiter's moon, something deadly is happening!'

Outland

GB 1981 109m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Ladd (Richard A. Roth)

The marshal of a mining base on the third moon of Jupiter waits for hired killers to arrive from Earth and try to assassinate him.
Ludicrous, over-plotted outer-space version of High Noon, in such thick colour that the action is hard to follow.
wd Peter Hyams ph Stephen Goldblatt
m Jerry Goldsmith pd Philip Harrison
☆ Sean Connery, Peter Boyle, Frances Sternhagen, James B. Sikking, Kika Markham, Clarke Peters
'Acres of footage are expended on the same old dreary electronic gadgetry and the same old hollowly echoing metalwork sets.' – Tom Milne, MFB

'Action! Thrills! Sensations! Primitive Love!'

The Outlaw ★

US 1943 126m bw
Howard Hughes

Billy the Kid, Doc Holliday and Pat Garrett meet up at a way station and quarrel over a half-breed girl.
Half-baked Western with much pretentious chat and the main interest squarely focused on the bosom of the producer's new discovery. This aspect kept censorship ballyhoo going for six years before the film was finally released in truncated form, and audiences found it not worth the wait, though it does look good.
w Jules Furthman d Howard Hughes
ph Gregg Toland md Victor Young ☆ Jack Beutel, Jane Russell, Thomas Mitchell, Walter Huston
'A Western employing every ingredient ever used in this brand of production, but in such a naive fashion that you will laugh – not with the picture but at it.' – Ewart Hodgson, News of the World
† Despite the controversy, the British Board of Film Censors gave the film a 'U' certificate, which meant that children could see it.

'Fighting back 2007.'

Outlaw ②

UK 2007 104m
Pathe/Ingenious Film Partners/Vertigo Films (Allan Niblo, James Richardson)

Crime and corruption impel six British males to become urban vigilantes.
Confused thriller with a social critique undermined by its evident relish for sadism and violence.
wd Nick Love ph Sam McCurdy m David Julyan pd Marcus Wookey ad Nick Dent ed Stuart Gazzard ☆ Sean Bean (Danny Bryant), Danny Dyer (Gene Dekker), Rupert Friend (Sandy Mardell), Lennie James (Cedric Munroe), Sean Harris (Simon Hillier), Bob Hoskins (Walter Lewis)
'Ugly, naive, and deeply unpleasant: crime-revenge-porn without any style or wit or convincing narrative.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian
'Appallingly simple-minded.' – Olly Richards, Empire

Outlaw Blues

US 1977 101m Technicolor
Warner/Fred Weintraub–Paul Heller (Steve Tisch)

An ex-con finds that a singing star has stolen his song.
Fashionable comedy-melodrama with no great entertainment value despite action scenes towards the end.
w B. W. L. Norton d Richard T. Heffron
ph Jules Brenner m Charles Bernstein
☆ Peter Fonda, Susan Saint James, John Crawford, James Callahan, Michael Lerner

The Outlaw Josey Wales ★

US 1976 135m DeLuxe Panavision
Warner/Malpaso (Robert Daley)

A Westerner gradually avenges the death of his wife at the hands of bandits.
Bloodthirsty actioner in the star's usual mould; likely to prove unintentionally funny for hardened addicts.
w Phil Kaufman, Sonia Chernus novel Gone to Texas by Forrest Carter
d Clint Eastwood ph Bruce Surtees
m Jerry Fielding
☆ Clint Eastwood, Chief Dan George, Sondra Locke, John Vernon, Bill McKinney
'If only the actors hadn't got in the way of the scenery, it would have been a very beautiful film indeed.' – Benny Green, Punch
♪ Jerry Fielding

Outpost in Malaya: see The Planter's Wife

Outpost in Morocco

US 1949 92m bw
Joseph N. Ermolieff

A romantic Foreign Legion officer falls for the daughter of an enemy Arab.
Despite authentic locations and the cooperation of the Legion this is a stolid piece of work, too dull even for children's matinees.
w Charles Grayson, Paul de St Columbe
d Robert Florey ph Lucien Andriot
☆ George Raft, Akim Tamiroff, Marie Windsor, John Litel, Eduard Franz

Outrage

US 1950 75m bw
Filmmakers (Collier Young)

A girl who has been raped is almost unhinged by the experience.
Well-meaning low-budgeter, thin in entertainment value.
w Ida Lupino, Collier Young, Malvin Wald d Ida Lupino ph Archie Stout m Paul Sawtell md Constantin Bakaleinikoff pd Harry Horner ☆ Mala Powers, Tod Andrews, Robert Clarke, Raymond Bond, Lilian Hamilton
'An unconvincing mixture of sensationalism, sentiment and half-baked sociology.' – MFB

The Outrage ★

US 1964 97m bw Panavision
MGM/Harvest/February/Ritt/Kayos (A. Ronald Lubin)

Conflicting views of a Western murder.
Wildly ineffective remake of Rashomon, with everyone strangely overacting and little sense of the West as it is normally depicted.
w Michael Kanin d Martin Ritt ph James Wong Howe m Alex North ☆ Paul Newman, Edward G. Robinson, Laurence Harvey, Claire Bloom, William Shatner, Albert Salmi Outrageous Fortune ★

US 1987 100m DeLuxe
Touchstone/Interscope (Ted Field, Robert Cort)

Two disparate women are in love with the same man, who is wanted by the CIA and the KGB.
Chase comedy with sex elements and plenty going on: old-fashioned jokes wrapped up in a modern package.
w Leslie Dixon d Arthur Hiller ph David M. Walsh m Alan Silvestri pd James D. Vance ☆ Shelley Long, Bette Midler, Peter Coyote, Robert Prosky, John Schuck 'Really a risqué film for a conservative audience.' – Daily Variety

The Outriders

US 1950 93m Technicolor
MGM (Richard Goldstone)

Three Confederate soldiers escape from a Yankee prison camp.
Competent star Western with solid production values.
w Irving Ravetch d Roy Rowland ph Charles Schoenbaum m André Previn
ed Robert J. Kern
☆ Joel McCrea (Will Owen), Arlene Dahl (Jen Gort), Barry Sullivan (Jesse Wallace), Claude Jarman Jnr (Roy Gort), Ramon Novarro (Don Antonio Chaves), James Whitmore (Clint Priest), Jeff Corey (Keeley), Ted de Corsia (Bye), Martin Garralaga (Father Damasco)

The Outside Man ★★

France/Italy 1972 104m DeLuxe
United Artists/Cité Films/Mondial TE.FI (Jacques Bar)

original title: Un Homme est Mort
After he has killed a Mafia boss in Los Angeles to pay off his debts, a Frenchman discovers that he is to be killed and goes on the run from his assassin.
Well-made thriller full of unexpected twists and turns, with some intriguing set-pieces, including a shoot-out at a funeral.
w Jean-Claude Carrière, Jacques Deray, Ian McLellan Hunter d Jacques Deray
ph Terry K. Meade, Silvano Ippoliti
m Michel Legrand pd Marvin March ed Henri Lanoe, William K. Chulack
☆ Jean-Louis Trintignant, Ann-Margret, Roy Scheider, Angie Dickinson, Georgia Engel, Felice Orlandi, Talia Shire
'A neat, intriguing thriller which never gets ambitions above its station.' – Tom Milne, MFB

Outside the Law

US 1930 76m bw
Universal

A girl becomes involved between two crooks planning a bank robbery.
Incompetent early talkie with some familiar talents all at sea.
w Tod Browning, Garrett Fort d Tod Browning
☆ Mary Nolan, Edward G. Robinson, Owen Moore, Edwin Sturgis
'One of the worst examples of claptrap since sound came in ... no continuity and the director lets the cast run wild.' – Variety

The Outsider

GB 1931 93m bw
Cinema House/MGM

A 'quack' osteopath is finally able to make a surgeon's crippled daughter walk.
Cast-iron theatre and a fairly successful quota quickie which was also released in America.
w Harry Lachman, Alma Reville play Dorothy Brandon d Harry Lachman ph Günther Krampf ad Wilfred Arnold
☆ Harold Huth, Joan Barry, Norman McKinnel, Frank Lawton, Mary Clare

The Outsider

GB 1939 90m bw
ABPC

Sturdy remake of the above.
w Dudley Leslie d Paul Stein
☆ George Sanders, Mary Maguire, Frederick Leister, Peter Murray Hill, Kathleen Harrison
'Up-to-date and should appeal to popular-priced audiences.' – Variety

The Outsider: see The Guinea Pig (1948)

The Outsider

US 1961 108m bw
U-I (Sy Bartlett)

Ira Hayes, a simple Red Indian, becomes a war hero but cannot reconcile himself to living in a white society.
Prolonged biopic which proves a shade too much for an eager star; it's all earnest and mildly interesting but not cinematically compulsive.
w Stewart Stern d Delbert Mann
ph Joseph LaShelle m Leonard Rosenman ☆ Tony Curtis, James Franciscus, Bruce Bennett, Gregory Walcott, Vivian Nathan, Edmund Hashim, Stanley Adams

The Outsider ★

France 1983 95m Eastmancolor
Cerito/Ariane (Dominique Rigaux) original title: Le Marginal

A tough and reckless Parisian cop runs into trouble when he is sent to Marseille to sort out the local drug smugglers.
Fast-moving low-life thriller, with a maverick hero patterned after Dirty Harry, but much dirtier.
w Jacques Deray, Jean Herman d Jacques Deray ph Xaver Schwarzenberger
m Ennio Morricone ad Eric Moulard
ed Albert Jurgenson
☆ Jean-Paul Belmondo, Henry Silva, Carlos Sotto Mayor, Pierre Vernier, Maurice Barrier, Tcheky Karyo, Claude Brosset

The Outsiders: see Bande à Part (1964)

The Outsiders

US 1983 91m Technicolor Panavision
Zoetrope/Warner

A young punk leads a high school gang against another rather higher in the social scale.

Oddball youth melodrama, a curious choice for a director with big successes behind him.
w Katherine Knutsen Rowell novel S. E. Hinton d Francis Ford Coppola ph Stephen H. Burum m Carmine Coppola pd Dean Tavoularis
☆ Matt Dillon, Ralph Macchio, C. Thomas Howell, Patrick Swayze, Rob Lowe, Emilio Estevez, Tom Cruise
'No more than a well-acted teen film.' – Motion Picture Guide

Outward Bound *

US 1930 82m bw
Warner
Passengers on a strange liner discover that they are all dead and heading for purgatory.
Early sound version of a popular twenties play which does not translate too well to cinematic forms and now seems very dated apart from a couple of performances; remade as Between Two Worlds (qv).
w J. Grubb Alexander play Sutton Vane d Robert Milton ph Hal Mohr ☆ Leslie Howard, Douglas Fairbanks Jnr, Alec B. Francis, Helen Chandler, Beryl Mercer, Alison Skipworth, Montagu Love, Dudley Digges
'Intelligentsia subject that must be spotted carefully ... seems to lack the essentials of mass entertainment.' – Variety

Over Her Dead Body: see Enid Is Sleeping

Over My Dead Body

US 1942 67m bw
Walter Morosco/TCF
A writer plans commercial success by pleading guilty to an imaginary crime, but truth is stranger than fiction.
Over-talkative crime comedy.
w Edward James novel James O'Hanlon d Malcolm St Clair ☆ Milton Berle, Mary Beth Hughes, Reginald Denny, Frank Orth, J. Pat O'Malley

Over She Goes *

GB 1937 74m bw
ABPC
An old friend helps a nobleman to thwart a blackmailer.
Lively comedy vehicle for a forgotten star.
w Elizabeth Meehan, Hugh Brooke play Stanley Lupino d Graham Cutts ph Otto Kanturek m Billy Mayerl
☆ Stanley Lupino, Laddie Cliff, Gina Malo, Claire Luce, Max Baer, Sally Gray, Syd Walker

Over the Brooklyn Bridge

US 1983 106m Metrocolor
Golan-Globus
Misadventures of a family-ridden Jewish restaurant owner in New York.
Frantic ethnic comedy with an unsympathetic hero.
w Arnold Somkin d Menahem Golan ph Adam Greenberg m Pino Donaggio ☆ Elliott Gould, Margaux Hemingway, Sid Caesar, Shelley Winters, Burt Young, Carol Kane
'The film's lip service to liberalism is offset by a blatantly sexist storyline.' – Ruth Baumgarten, MFB

Over the Edge *

US 1979 95m colour
Orion (George Litto)
In a new Colorado development, bored, affluent teenagers go on the rampage.
Slick, violent movie about the disaffected young that for some reason never found a responsive audience.
w Charlie Hass, Tom Hunter d Jonathan Kaplan ph Andrew Davis m Sol Kaplan pd Jim Newport ed Robert Bargere
☆ Michael Kramer, Pamela Ludwig, Matt Dillon, Vincent Spano, Tom Fergus, Harry Northup, Ellen Geer
'Sensationally effective ... exploitation movie. In their opportunistic way, the fellows who made it get at the social truths and middle-class nightmares more effectively than most "responsible" filmmakers would.' – David Denby, New York

'Taking back the neighbourhood, one snack at a time.'

Over the Hedge * (7)

US 2006 83m
UIP/DreamWorks Animation (Bonnie Arnold)
Woodland creatures threatened by an encroaching housing development learn to survive on pilfered junk food.
Lively cartoon with an eclectic voice cast; one of the more tolerable of the recent batch of animal-themed animations, though its environmental message is muddled.
w Len Blum, Lorne Cameron, David Hoselton, Karey Kirkpatrick comic strip Michael Fry, T. Lewis d Tim Johnson, Karey Kirkpatrick m Rupert Gregson-Williams m/ly Ben Folds (songs) pd Kathy Altieri ad Christian Schellewald, Paul Shardlow ed John K. Carr
☆ Featuring the voices of: Bruce Willis (RJ), Garry Shandling (Verne), Steve Carell (Hammy), William Shatner (Ozzie), Wanda Sykes (Stella), Nick Nolte (Vincent)
'If they were still making Looney Tunes, they'd look a lot like Over the Hedge.' – Kyle Smith, New York Post
'Cynics might itch for a large sack, a heavy brick and a deep pond.' – James Christopher, Times

Over the Hill

US 1931 87m bw
Fox
An ageing mother is sent to the poorhouse by her hard-hearted older son, but rescued by her ne'er-do-well younger one.
Sound remake of a silent success which in 1920 made a star of Mary Carr, who thereafter specialized in playing dear old ladies.
w Tom Barry, Jules Furthman poems Will Carleton d Henry King ☆ James Dunn, Sally Eilers, Mae Marsh, Edward Crandall, James Kirkwood
'There isn't a single overacted scene and there isn't a sequence that doesn't reach straight to the heart.' – Variety

Over the Hill *

Australia 1993 102m colour
Panavision
Rank/Village Roadshow/Glasshouse (Robert Caswell, Bernard Terry)
The adventures in the Australian outback of a 60-year-old American widow, who flees from a dull life in Maine to visit her estranged and ambitious daughter in Sydney.
A gentle road movie, enjoyably done, about a woman's refusal to give up on life.
w Robert Caswell book Alone in the Australian Outback by Gladys Taylor d George Miller ph David Connell m David McHugh pd Graham 'Grace' Walker ed Henry Dangar
☆ Olympia Dukakis, Sigrid Thornton, Derek Fowlds, Bill Kerr, Steve Bisley, Martin Jacobs, Gerry Connolly, Andrea Moore

Over the Moon

GB 1940 78m Technicolor London Films (Alexander Korda)
A poor girl comes into a fortune but this does not help her romance with a proud young doctor.
Insubstantial comedy which turns itself into a European travelogue before petering out.
w Anthony Pelissier, Arthur Wimperis, Alec Coppel d Thornton Freeland ph Harry Stradling m Mischa Spoliansky
☆ Merle Oberon, Rex Harrison, Ursula Jeans, Robert Douglas, Louis Borell, Zena Dare, Peter Haddon, David Tree
† Made in 1937–8, but not released.

Over the River: see One More River

Over the Top

US 1987 93m Metrocolor Panavision
Cannon (Menahem Golan, Yoram Globus)
An arm wrestler tries to win the love of his son.
Mundane melodrama which its star couldn't carry.
w Stirling Silliphant, Sylvester Stallone d Menahem Golan ph David Gurfinkel m Giorgio Moroder pd James Schoppe ed Don Zimmerman, James Symons
☆ Sylvester Stallone, Robert Loggia, Susan Blakely, Rick Zumwalt, David Mendenhall 'Routinely made in every respect.' – Daily Variety

Over the Wall

US 1938 72m bw
Warner
A man wrongly convicted of murder fights the prison system.
Predictable semi-documentary thriller from the prolific pen of Warden Lewis E. Lawes; just an efficient second feature.
w Crane Wilbur, George Bricker d Frank MacDonald
☆ Dick Foran, John Litel, June Travis, Dick Purcell, Veda Ann Borg, George E. Stone
'Authentic melodrama, headed for nice biz.' – Variety

Over Twenty-One

US 1945 102m bw
Columbia (Sidney Buchman)
A famous lady screenwriter copes with wartime domestic problems while her husband is off at the war.
Thin star comedy based on Ruth Gordon's play about her own predicament; not for the wider audience, and not very good anyway.
w Sidney Buchman play Ruth Gordon d Alexander Hall ph Rudolph Maté m Marlin Skiles
☆ Irene Dunne, Alexander Knox, Charles Coburn, Jeff Donnell, Lee Patrick, Phil Brown, Cora Witherspoon

Overboard

US 1987 112m colour
UIP/MGM (Alexandra Rose, Anthea Sylbert)
An heiress suffering from amnesia is claimed as a wife by a carpenter with three kids.
Mild amusement is provided by a predictable comedy.
w Leslie Dixon d Garry Marshall ph John A. Alonzo m Alan Silvestri ad James Shanahan, Jim Dultz ed Dov Hoenig, Sonny Baskin ☆ Goldie Hawn, Kurt Russell, Edward Herrmann, Katherine Helmond, Roddy McDowall, Michael Hagerty, Jeffrey Wiseman

Overdrive

US 1997 95m Foto-Kem
Pacific Trust/Libra (Cheryl Parnell, Darin Spillman)
An out-of-control racing driver becomes involved with a secret agent who is being stalked by the spy she is attempting to blackmail.
A truly terrible thriller that commits the crimes of being dull, amoral and cliché-ridden.
w Malcolm Stephens d Lev L. Spiro ph Christopher Baffa ed Dan Holland
☆ Steve Guttenberg, Robert Wagner, Kaela Dobkin, Stephen Meadows, Richard Arquette, Frantz Turner, Alex Hyde-White

The Overlanders **

Australia 1946 91m bw
Ealing (Ralph Smart)
In 1943 a drover saves a thousand head of cattle from the Japanese by taking them two thousand miles across country.
Attractive, easy-going semi-Western, the first and best of several films made by Ealing Studios in Australia.
wd Harry Watt ph Osmond Borradaile m John Ireland ☆ Chips Rafferty, John Nugent Hayward, Daphne Campbell
'Let us congratulate Harry Watt on the absence of kangaroos and camp-fire songs, items which few directors could have resisted.' – Richard Winnington

Overlord *

GB 1975 83m bw
EMI/Jowsend (James Quinn)
An eighteen-year-old is called up in early 1944 and killed in the D-Day landings.
Semi-documentary recreating a time in history (with much aid from newsreels) but making no discernible point. Interesting, though.
w Stuart Cooper, Christopher Hudson d Stuart Cooper ph John Alcott m Paul Glass
☆ Brian Stirner, Davyd Harries, Nicholas Ball, Julie Neesam

'There's More Than One Way To Shoot Yourself.'

Overnight  (7)

US 2003 115m bw/colour
Black & White (Tony Montana)
Documentary of Boston bartender Troy Duffy, who gets a million dollar deal from Miramax to direct his script; then it all goes wrong.
Fascinating story of the colossal ego of the arrogant and self-satisfied Troy Duffy in collison with the movie industry, and the fall-out, that exposes the destructive desire for celebrity and fame and the capricious ways of Hollywood
d Mark Brian Smith ph Mark Brian Smith m Troy Duffy, The Brood ed Mark Brian Smith, Tony Montana
☆ Troy Duffy, Jeff 'Skunk' Baxter, Willem Dafoe, Billy Connolly
TROY DUFFY: 'We have a deep cesspool of creativity here.'

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

'Horribly watchable documentary about people getting chewed up and spat out by the movie business.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

† Troy Duffy finally made his film The Boondock Saints (qv) as a low-budget independent production, but no Hollywood studio would buy or distribute it. It was finally given a limited release.

Owd Bob ★

GB 1938 78m bw
GFD/Gainsborough (Edward Black)
US title: To the Victor

A Cumberland farmer's faithful dog is accused of killing sheep.
Sentimental yarn with good location backgrounds; the plot was later reused as Thunder in the Valley.
w Michael Hogan, J. B. Williams novel Alfred Olivant d Robert Stevenson ph Jack Cox md Louis Levy ☆ Will Fyffe, John Loder, Margaret Lockwood, Moore Marriott, Graham Moffatt, Wilfred Walter, Elliot Mason

'When she starts mixing business with pleasure, she goes out of business'

The Owl and the Pussycat ★

US 1970 96m Eastmancolor Panavision
Columbia/Rastar (Ray Stark)

A bookstore assistant reports a fellow tenant for prostitution, and when she is evicted she moves in with him.
Wacky, bawdy double act which starts promisingly but outstays its welcome. A solid step forward in permissiveness, with kinky behaviour as well as four-letter words.
w Buck Henry play Bill Manhoff d Herbert Ross ph Harry Stradling, Andrew Laszlo m Richard Halligan ☆ Barbra Streisand, George Segal, Robert Klein, Allen Garfield

'If computers ever turn out romantic comedies, the results will look like this.' – Stanley Kauffmann

The Ox ★★

Sweden/Norway/Denmark 1992 92m Eastmancolor
Artificial Eye/Sweetland (Jean Doumanian)

original title: Oxen

In a time of famine, a man kills his employer's ox in order to feed his starving family and is condemned to hard labour in prison for life.
A harrowing and humane story of hardship and forgiveness, much in the Bergman manner and as visually striking as you'd expect from a great cinematographer in his directorial debut.
w Sven Nykvist, Lasse Summanen d Sven Nykvist ph Sven Nykvist m Greig and others pd Peter Høimark ed Lasse Summanen
☆ Max von Sydow, Stellan Skarsgård, Ewa Fröling, Erland Josephson, Liv Ullmann

'Much more than just another snowy Scandinavian tale, this infuses its bleakness with tenderness and compassion while remaining a million miles away from sentimentality.' – Empire

best foreign film

The Ox-Bow Incident ★★★

US 1943 75m bw
TCF (Lamar Trotti)

GB title: Strange Incident

A cowboy is unable to prevent three wandering travellers being unjustly lynched for murder.
Stark lynch law parable, beautifully made but very depressing.
w Lamar Trotti novel Walter Van Tilburg Clark d William Wellman ph Arthur Miller m Cyril Mockridge ad James Basevi, Richard Day ed Allen McNeil
☆ Henry Fonda (Gil Carter), Henry Morgan (Art Croft), Jane Darwell (Jenny Grier), Anthony Quinn (Juan Martinez/Francisco Morez), Dana Andrews (Donald Martin), Mary Beth Hughes (Rose Mapen/Rose Swanson), William Eythe (Gerald Tetley), Harry Davenport (Arthur Davies), Frank Conroy (Maj. Tetley)

'Realism that is as sharp and cold as a knife.' – Frank S. Nugent, New York Times
'Very firm, respectable, and sympathetic; but I still think it suffers from rigor artis.' – James Agee

best picture

Oxen: see The Ox

Oxford Blues

US 1984 97m colour
Winkast/Baltic Industrial (Peter Kohn, David Wimbury)

A Los Angeles casino worker wins enough to finance an Oxford education.
Sexed-up version of A Yank at Oxford*; only tolerable when the tone gets close to the original.*
wd Robert Boris ph John Stanier m John Du Prez
☆ Rob Lowe, Ally Sheedy, Alan Howard, Amanda Pays, Julian Sands, Julian Firth, Michael Gough, Aubrey Morris

Oxygen

US 1999 92m DeLuxe
Curb/Paddy Wagon/Abandon (Jonathan Stern, Richard Shepard, Carole Curb Nemoy, Mike Curb)

A female cop with a self-destructive, masochistic personality interrogates an arrogant young kidnapper who has buried alive the wife of a millionaire.
Slick, moderately engaging thriller that overuses a familiar device, suggesting that a cop and criminal are somehow similar; in the process, the suspense leaks away.
wd Richard Shepard ph Sarah Cawley m Rolfe Kent pd Rowena Rowling ed Adam Lichtenstein
☆ Adrien Brody (Harry), Maura Tierney (Madeline Foster), James Naughton (Clark Hannon), Terry Kinney (Tim), Laila Robins (Frances Hannon), Paul Calderon (Jesse), Dylan Baker (Jackson Lantham), Olek Krupa (Madeline's Lover)

'The more the film focuses on the psychological cat-and-mouse game... the more it loses momentum and its claims to credibility.' – Lawrence Van Gelder, New York Times

Øyenstikker: see Dragonflies

PCU
US 1994 95m DeLuxe
TVF (Paul Schiff)

A freshman at Port Chester University becomes involved with a group of students fighting the pervading atmosphere of political correctness and sensitivity to others.
Crude and boisterous romp for the young and unstudious.
w Adam Leff, Zak Penn d Hart Bochner ph Reynaldo Villalobos m Steve Vai pd Steven Jordan ed Nicholas C. Smith
☆ Jeremy Piven, Chris Young, David Spade, Megan Ward, Sarah Trigger, Jon Favreau, Jake Busey, Jessica Walter

'Gun in one hand – woman in the other!'

P.J.
US 1967 109m Techniscope
Universal (Edward J. Montagne)
GB title: New Face in Hell

A down-at-heel private eye takes a job as bodyguard to a boorish businessman.
Routine thick ear with a predictable turnabout plot.
w Philip Reisman Jnr story Edward J. Montagne d John Guillermin ph Loyal Griggs m Neal Hefti
☆ George Peppard, Gayle Hunnicutt, Raymond Burr, Susan St James, Coleen Gray, Jason Evers, Wilfrid Hyde-White, Severn Darden

'Enough action to keep you from noticing that the plot doesn't make any sense.' – Judith Crist

P.K. and the Kid
US 1982 89m CFI color
Sunn Classic (Joe Roth)

A teenager, running away from her brutal step-father, goes on the road with a contestant heading for the world arm-wrestling championships in Los Angeles.
Mundane teen pic with too much concentration on the world's least photogenic sport.
w Neal Barbera d Lou Lombardo ph Ed Koons m James Horner pd Chet Allen ed Tony Lombardo
☆ Paul Le Mat, Molly Ringwald, Alex Rocco, Charles Hallahan, John Di Santi, Fionnula Flanagan, Bert Remsen, Leigh Hamilton, Esther Rolle

PT 109
US 1963 140m Technicolor Panavision
Warner (Brian Foy)

Adventures of president-to-be John F. Kennedy when he was a naval lieutenant in the Pacific during World War II.
Extraordinarily protracted and very dull action story which seems to have been overawed by its subject.
w Richard L. Breen d Leslie H. Martinson ph Robert Surtees m William Lava, David Buttolph
☆ Cliff Robertson, Ty Hardin, James Gregory, Robert Blake

'A killer and a girl – trapped in America's first air raid!'

Pacific Blackout
US 1942 76m bw
Paramount (Sol C. Siegel)

An inventor escapes from jail and proves his innocence during a practice air raid blackout.
Minor melo which proved profitably topical, being released shortly after the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor.
w Lester Cole, W. P. Lipscomb d Ralph Murphy ph Theodor Sparkuhl ☆ Robert Preston, Martha O'Driscoll, Philip Merivale, Eva Gabor, Louis Jean Heydt, Thurston Hall

Pacific Destiny
GB 1956 97m Eastmancolor Cinemascope
James Lawrie

Experiences of a British colonial servant in the South Seas.
Pleasant episodic drama which needed a firmer hand all round.
w Richard Mason autobiography A Pattern of Islands by Sir Arthur Grimble d Wolf Rilla ph Martin Curtis m James Bernard ☆ Denholm Elliott, Susan Stephen, Michael Hordern

Pacific Heights ★
US 1990 104m DeLuxe
Fox/Morgan Creek (Scott Rudin, William Sackheim)

A young couple let part of their house to a dangerously unbalanced tenant.
A suburban horror that rapidly goes over the top into unconvincing melodrama.
w Daniel Pyne d John Schlesinger ph Amir Mokri m Hans Zimmer pd Neil Spisak ed Mark Warner, Steven Ramirez
☆ Melanie Griffith, Matthew Modine, Michael Keaton, Mako, Nobu McCarthy, Laurie Metcalf, Carl Lumbly, Dorian Harewood, Luca Bercovici, Tippi Hedren

Pacific Liner
US 1938 73m bw
RKO

Cholera breaks out on a ship bound from Shanghai to San Francisco.
Rather a depressing melodrama with all the action below decks, and very slow at that.
w John Twist, Anthony Coldeway, Henry Roberts Symonds d Lew Landers
☆ Victor McLaglen, Chester Morris, Wendy Barrie, Alan Hale, Barry Fitzgerald, Halliwell Hobbes, Cy Kendall

'Drab melodrama with little of interest to hold attention.' – Variety
♫ music (Robert Russell Bennett)

Pacific Rendezvous
US 1942 76m bw
MGM

A coding expert breaks up an enemy spy ring.
Competent propaganda potboiler, rehashed from the rather smarter Rendezvous, which was set one war earlier.
w Harry Kurnitz, P. J. Wolfson, George Oppenheimer d George Sidney ☆ Lee Bowman, Jean Rogers, Mona Maris, Carl Esmond, Paul Cavanagh, Blanche Yurka

'Prepare for bottle.'

The Pacifier ②
US 2005 95m Technicolor Panavision
Buena Vista/Walt Disney/Spyglass (Roger Birnbaum, Gary Barber, Jonathan Glickman)

After the scientist he was protecting is killed, a Navy S.E.A.L. is assigned to look after the man's five undisciplined children.
Following in the footsteps of Hulk Hogan and Arnold Schwarzenegger, Diesel eschews action heroics for a ghastly family-oriented comedy that should be shot on sight.
w Thomas Lennon, Robert Ben Garant d Adam Shankman ph Peter James m John Debney pd Linda DeScenna ed Christopher Greenbury
☆ Vin Diesel (Shane Wolfe), Lauren Graham (Principal Claire Fletcher), Faith Ford (Julie Plummer), Brittany Snow (Zoe), Max Thierio (Seth)

'If auds swallow this odoriferous exercise in calculated career repositioning, they'll swallow anything.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

Paciorki Jednego Różańca: see The Beads of One Rosary

The Pack
US 1977 99m colour
Warner (Fred Weintraub, Paul Heller)

Abandoned dogs on a remote island turn on holidaymakers.
The Birds becomes The Dogs; competently made but unsurprising thriller.
wd Robert Clouse novel Dave Fisher ph Ralph Woolsey m Lee Holdridge ed Peter Berger sp Milton Rice ☆ Joe Don Baker, Hope Alexander Willis, Richard B. Shull, R. G. Armstrong

Pack Up Your Troubles ★
US 1931 68m bw
Hal Roach

Two World War I veterans try to look after their late pal's orphan daughter.
Patchy comedy vehicle in which too many gags are not fully thought out or timed.
w H. M. Walker d George Marshall, Ray McCarey ph Art Lloyd ed Richard Currier
☆ Stan Laurel, Oliver Hardy, Donald Dillaway, Mary Carr, Charles Middleton, Dick Cramer, James Finlayson, Tom Kennedy, Billy Gilbert

Pack Up Your Troubles ★
US 1939 75m bw
TCF
GB title: We're in the Army Now

Exploits in Flanders of three zany soldiers.
Good slapstick antics in an unfamiliar venue.
w Lou Breslow, Owen Francis d H. Bruce Humberstone
☆ The Ritz Brothers, Jane Withers, Joseph Schildkraut, Lynn Bari, Stanley Fields

'A pretty good programmer in the B division.' – Variety

The Package
US 1989 108m DeLuxe
Rank/Orion (Beverly J. Camhe, Tobie Haggerty)

An army sergeant discovers an assassination plot after the escape of a prisoner he is escorting.
Unconvincing and melodramatic thriller that rarely grips the attention.
w John Bishop d Andrew Davis ph Frank Tidy m James Newton Howard pd Michael Levesque ed Don Zimmerman, Billy Weber ☆ Gene Hackman, Joanna Cassidy, Tommy Lee Jones, Dennis Franz, Reni Santoni, Pam Grier, Chelcie Ross, Ron Dean, Kevin Crowley

Le Pacte des Loups ★★
France 2001 142m colour 'Scope
Pathe/StudioCanal/Davis/TF1 (Richard Grandpierre, Samuel Hadida)

aka: Brotherhood of the Wolf

In the 1760s, a scientist and his Iroquois martial arts expert investigate a series of killings by a wolf-like creature in rural France.
A delirious mix of kung fu fighting, aristocratic shenanigans, Hammer horror and religious and political conspiracies; it is a stylish, enjoyable diversion.
w Christophe Gans, Stéphane Cabel d Christophe Gans ph Dan Laustsen m Joseph Lo Duca pd Guy Claude François ed David Wu, Sébastien Prangère sp beast designer: Igor Chevalier; beast fx Jim Henson's Creature Shop fight choreographer Philip Kwok
☆ Samuel Le Bihan (Grégoire de Fronsac), Mark Dacascos (Mani), Émilie Dequenne (Marianne de Morangias), Vincent Cassel (Jean-François de Morangias), Monica Bellucci (Sylvia), Jérémie Rénier (Thomas d'Apcher), Jean Yanne (Le Comte de Morangias), Jean-François Stévenin (Henri Sardis)

'You have to admire a movie that endeavors to moosh together every successful cross-cultural action picture ever made.' – David Edelstein, Slate
'Such a smooth amalgamation of hilariously disparate varieties of ripe cheese that the effect is brutely cheering.' – Michael Atkinson, Village Voice

'The truth behind the secret is a lie.'

Le Pacte du Silence

France 2003 95m colour
Légende/Canal+/TF1 (Alain Goldman)

A priest and doctor treats a young nun suffering from a psychosomatic illness and, after falling in love with her, discovers that she has a criminal twin sister.
Melodrama of identity and different kinds of love, in a sub-Hitchcock mode that occasionally suggests a reworking of Vertigo, but more often induces nausea.
w Roselyne Bosch novel Sacred and Profane by Marcelle Bernstein d Graham Guit ph Patrick Blossier m Alexandre Desplat pd Denis Renault ed Marie-Blanche Colonna ☆ Gérard Depardieu (Joachim), Élodie Bouchez (Gaëlle/Sarah), Carmen Maura (Mother Emmanuelle), Isaac Sharry (Morel), Isabelle Candelier (psychiatrist)

The Pad, and How to Use It ★

US 1966 86m Technicolor
Universal (Ross Hunter)

A shy young man has his first date.
Pleasant, odd little comedy apparently made in emulation of The Knack.
w Thomas C. Ryan, Ben Starr play The Private Ear by Peter Shaffer d Brian G. Hutton ph Ellsworth Fredericks m Russ Garcia ad Alexander Golitzen, George Webb ed Milton Carruth ☆ Brian Bedford, James Farentino, Julie Sommars, Edy Williams, Nick Navarro

Paddy O'Day

US 1935 73m bw
TCF (Sol M. Wurtzel)

An Irish child emigrates to America to find that her mother has died.
One of the more satisfactory vehicles for a child star maintained by the studio as an antidote to the cuter antics of Shirley Temple.
w Lou Breslow, Edward Eliscu story Sonya Levien d Lewis Seiler ph Arthur Miller m Harry Akst, Troy Sanders ☆ Jane Withers, Pinky Tomlin, Rita Hayworth, Jane Darwell, Francis Ford

Paddy the Next Best Thing

US 1933 75m bw
Fox

Adventures of an Irish tomboy in New York.
Modest star comedy from a popular play.
w Edwin Burke play Gertrude Page d Harry Lachman ph John Seitz ☆ Janet Gaynor, Warner Baxter, Walter Connolly, Harvey Stephens, Margaret Lindsay

'Easy entertainment: excellent, wholesome and amusing.' – Variety

Padella Calibro 38: see Panhandle Calibre 38

Padre Padrone ★★★

Italy 1977 113m Eastmancolor
Radiotelevisione Italia (Tonino Paoletti)

aka: Father and Master

The author recounts how he grew up with a violent and tyrannical father.
A vivid chunk of autobiography with food for thought on several levels, and a clever piece of film-making to boot.
wd Paolo Taviani, Vittorio Taviani book Gavino Ledda ph Mario Masini md Egisto Macchi pd Gianni Sbarra ad Gianni Sbarra ed Robert Perpignani ☆ Omero Antonutti (Gavino's Father), Saverio Marconi (Gavino), Marcella Michelangeli (Gavino's Mother), Fabrizio Forte (Gavino as a Child)

'Its sense of loneliness is frighteningly profound, while its simple, straightforward style depends on a shrewd choice of telling, sometimes surreal detail.' – David Kehr, Chicago Reader

The Pagan

US 1929 85m approx bw
MGM

A South Sea islander falls for the daughter of a white trader.
Highly commercial star vehicle apparently made as an afterthought to White Shadows in the South Seas.
w Dorothy Farnum d W. S. Van Dyke ☆ Ramon Novarro, Renee Adoree, Dorothy Janis, Donald Crisp

Pagan Lady

US 1931 70m bw
Columbia

A nice American boy in Havana falls for a girl who is no better than she should be.
Sultry melodrama reminiscent of Rain but of no intrinsic merit.
w Ben Glazer play William Dubois d John Francis Dillon ☆ Evelyn Brent, Conrad Nagel, Charles Bickford, Roland Young, William Farnum

'Something of a lightweight; the storm is quite the best thing in the picture.' – Variety

Pagan Love Song

US 1950 76m Technicolor
MGM (Arthur Freed)

An American schoolteacher marries a Tahitian girl.
Very mild musical potboiler using familiar talents.
w Robert Nathan, Jerry Davis d Robert Alton ph Charles Rosher m Harry Warren ly Arthur Freed
☆ Esther Williams, Howard Keel, Rita Moreno, Minna Gombell

Page Miss Glory ★

US 1935 90m bw
Warner/Cosmopolitan

A con man wins a beauty contest with a composite photograph of a non-existent girl.
Amusing comedy-musical, unjustly forgotten.
w Delmer Daves, Robert Lord play Joseph Schrank, Philip Dunning d Mervyn Le Roy ph George Folsey m/ly Harry Warren, Al Dubin
☆ Dick Powell, Marion Davies, Frank McHugh, Pat O'Brien, Mary Astor, Lyle Talbot, Patsy Kelly, Allen Jenkins, Barton MacLane

'All The Adventure Your Imagination Can Hold.'

The Pagemaster

US 1994 75m colour
TCF/Turner (David Kirschner, Paul Gertz)

A timid child takes refuge in a library and, changed into a cartoon figure, has to undergo three tests of courage before he can go home.
Intended as an encouragement for children to read books, the movie's more likely effect is to discourage them from going to the cinema; the lack of imagination in the script is deadening to the spirit as Long John Silver, Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde and others join in dull animated adventures.
w David Casci, David Kirschner, Ernie Contreras d Joe Johnston, Maurice Hunt (animation director) ph Alexandra Gruszynski m James Horner pd Gay Lawrence, Valeria Ventura ed Roy Forge Smith
☆ Macaulay Culkin, Christopher Lloyd, Ed Begley Jnr, Mel Harris and also the voices of Patrick Stewart, Whoopi Goldberg, Frank Welker, Leonard Nimoy

'Plays like a slickly produced afternoon special and should be limited in its appeal to the youngest of kids.' – Brian Lowry, Variety

The Page Turner ★★

France 2006 84m
Artificial Eye/Diaphana Films/France 3 Cinema/Les Films a Un Dollar (Michel Saint-Jean)

Original title: La Tourneuse de Pages

A former music student takes elaborate revenge on the concert pianist she blames for her failure to progress.
Sophisticated psychological thriller in the Hitchcockian mould; the kind of film Hollywood has forgotten how to make, or maybe just doesn't want to.
w Denis Dercourt, Jacques Sotty d Denis Dercourt ph Jerome Peyrebrune m Jerome Lemonnier ad Antoine Platteau ed Francois Gedigier
☆ Catherine Frot (Ariane Fouchécourt), Deborah Francois (Mélanie Prouvost), Pascal Greggory (Jean Fouchécourt), Clotilde Mollet (Virginie), Xavier de Guillebon (Laurent), Christine Citti (Madame Prouvost)

'A treat for lovers of intelligent cinema.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

Pagliacci ★

GB 1936 92m colour
Trafalgar

US title: A Clown Must Laugh

A jealous clown kills his wife and her lover.
A surprising British enterprise of the time which did fairly well at the box-office, presumably because of the colour.
w Monckton Hoffe, Roger Burford, Ernest Betts opera Ruggiero Leoncavallo d Karl Grune ph Otto Kanturek pd Oscar Werndorff ly John Drinkwater
☆ Richard Tauber, Steffi Duna, Diana Napier, Arthur Margetson, Esmond Knight, Jerry Verno

Pagliacci ★

Italy 1948 104m bw
Itala Film/Titanus (Mario Bisi)

The leader of a theatrical troupe kills his wife and her lover after he realizes that the performance they are staging resembles his own situation.
A slightly clumsy attempt to open up the opera by filming it in the open air and casting actors in the leading roles, with their singing dubbed. Worth seeing for the acting and singing of Tito Gobbi, who appears as the Prologue, as Nedda's would-be lover Tonio, and as her lover Silvio.
w Anton Giulio Majano, Mario Costa, Carlo Castelli d Mario Costa ph Mario Bava md Giuseppe Morelli ad Ottavio Scotti ed Otello Colangeli
☆ Tito Gobbi, Afro Poli (singing by Galliano Masini), Gina Lollobrigida (singing by Onella Fineschi), Filippo Morucci (singing by Gino Sinimberghi)

Paid ★

US 1930 80m bw
MGM

GB title: Within the Law

A woman sent to prison unjustly plots revenge on those responsible.
Reliable melodrama with the heroine eventually forgiving and forgetting.
w Charles MacArthur, Lucien Hubbard play Within the Law by Bayard Veiller d Sam Wood ph Charles Rosher
☆ Joan Crawford, Kent Douglass, Robert Armstrong, Marie Prévost, John Miljan, Polly Moran

Paid in Full

US 1949 105m bw
Paramount/Hal B. Wallis

A woman is responsible for the death of her sister's child, and becomes pregnant herself in the knowledge that giving birth will be fatal to her.
Stolid, contrived tearjerker.
w Robert Blees, Charles Schnee d William Dieterle ph Leo Tover m Victor Young ☆ Lizabeth Scott, Diana Lynn, Robert Cummings, Eve Arden, Ray Collins, Frank McHugh, Stanley Ridges, Louis Jean Heydt

'Aimed straight at the lachrymal glands, if it can be said to be aimed at anything. The dialogue is appalling.' – C. A. Lejeune

A Pain in the A–: see L'Emmerdeur

'Ben and pardner shared everything – even their wife!'

Paint Your Wagon ★

US 1969 164m Technicolor Panavision 70
Paramount/Alan Jay Lerner (Tom Shaw)

During the California Gold Rush, two prospectors set up a Mormon menage with the same wife.
Good-looking but uncinematic and monumentally long version of an old musical with a new plot and not much dancing. There are minor pleasures, but it really shouldn't have been allowed.
w Paddy Chayefsky musical play Alan Jay Lerner, Frederick Loewe d Joshua Logan ph William A. Fraker md Nelson Riddle pd John Truscott
☆ Lee Marvin, Clint Eastwood, Jean Seberg, Harve Presnell, Ray Walston

'One of those big movies in which the themes are undersized and the elements are juggled around until nothing fits together right and even the good bits of the original show you started with are shot to hell.' – Pauline Kael

† Jean Seberg's singing was dubbed by Anita Gordon.
Nelson Riddle

Painted Angels

GB/Canada 1998 109m colour
Artificial Eye/Shaftesbury/Greenpoint/Heartland/British Screen (Ann Scott, Christine Jennings, Stephen Onda)

Five prostitutes lead tawdry lives in a frontier-town brothel in the American West of the 1870s.
Glum portrait of unhappy working women in desperate circumstances; its depiction may well be accurate, but it is not involving.
w Anna Mottram, Jon Sanders d Jon Sanders ph Gerald Packer m Douglas Finch pd Hayden Griffin ed Maysoon Pachachi
☆ Brenda Fricker, Kelly McGillis, Meret Becker, Bronagh Gallagher, Lisa Jakub, Anna Mottram, Josiah Wu, Kent Allan

Painted Boats

GB 1945 63m bw
Ealing

US title: The Girl on the Canal

Romance among the bargees.
Excessively thin location drama, which nevertheless has an early place in the Ealing tradition.

w Louis MacNeice, Michael McCarthy
d Charles Crichton
☆ Jenny Laird, Bill Blewett, Robert Griffith, May Hallatt

Painted Desert

US 1938 59m bw
RKO (Bert Gilroy)

A rancher becomes a miner for romantic reasons but has to overcome a crooked banker and his followers.
A B-Western with B-picture acting and direction. A remake of a 1931 movie starring William Boyd, it contains footage from the earlier film.
w John Rathmell, Oliver Drake story Jack Cunningham d David Howard ph Harry Wild md Roy Webb ad Van Nest Polglase ed Frederic Knudtson
☆ George O'Brien, Laraine Day, Ray Whitley, Fred Kohler Snr, Stanley Fields, William V. Mong, Maude Allen

Painted Heart

US 1992 90m colour
Metro Tartan/Second Son (Mark Pollard, Randall Poster)

A house-painter suspects that his boss is the Lipstick Murderer, who kills old men and paints their faces.
Determinedly eccentric movie of small-town America, slow-moving whimsy in which even the sane residents behave in an odd manner.
wd Michael Taav ph Robert Yeoman
m John Wesley Harding, Jeff Charbonneau pd Mark Friedberg ed Nancy Richardson ☆ Will Patton, Bebe Neuwirth, Casey Siemaszko, Robert Pastorelli, Mark Boone Jnr, Richard Hamilton, Jayne Haynes

'It's ultimately hopelessly self-indulgent, and a little bit like watching paint dry.' – David Richardson, Film Review

The Painted Smile

GB 1962 60m bw
Planet/Mancunian (Tom Blakeley)
US title: Murder Can Be Deadly

A student who goes out for a celebration in a night-club becomes involved in a murder.
Dreary thriller that makes little sense, and is sadly lacking in suspense or interest.
w Pip and Jane Baker idea Brock Williams
d Lance Comfort ph Basil Emmot
m Martin Slavin ad George Provis
ed John Trumper
☆ Liz Fraser, Kenneth Griffith, Tony Wickert, Ray Smith, Nanette Newman, David Hemmings, Harold Berens, Peter Reynolds, Craig Douglas

The Painted Veil ★

US 1934 84m bw
MGM (Hunt Stromberg)

In China, a doctor's wife gives up her lover to join her husband fighting an epidemic.
Soulful melodrama which seemed much more acceptable in this version than in the summer stock style remake The Seventh Sin.
w John Meehan, Salka Viertel, Edith Fitzgerald novel W. Somerset Maugham
d Richard Boleslawski ph William Daniels
m Herbert Stothart
☆ Greta Garbo, George Brent, Herbert Marshall, Warner Oland, Jean Hersholt

'Confused and slow, but extra heavy name cast should get it by.' – Variety

'Sometimes the greatest journey is the distance between two people.'

The Painted Veil ★★★ (7)

US/China 2006 124m
Momentum/Warner Independent/Yari Group/Mark Gordon Company/ Syndicate Films International/Colleton Company/Class 5 Films/Dragon Studios (Jean-Francois Fonlupt, Sara Colleton, Bob Yari, Edward Norton, Naomi Watts)

In 1925 China, a stern idealistic English doctor takes his glamorous young wife on a mission to save a remote village ravaged by cholera, threatening to expose her adultery if she declines.
A large-scale epic, ravishing to behold. It's old-fashioned in so many ways; the code of behaviour that automatically links adultery with public shame is very much of its time. So are the body language and emotional reticence of Walter Fane, outstandingly played by Edward Norton with clipped accent and stiff-backed rectitude. His courtship of the frivolous Kitty (Watts) is rather sketchy; the bond that takes them together across the world together does not quite convince. But their fractured relationship shifts pleasingly when under duress; it's a sophisticated, grown-up view of human behaviour and forgiveness. The film has a majestic sweep; scenes shot along China's Li River are jaw-droppingly beautiful, proving that cinema can still stun without recourse to CGI trickery. Liev Schreiber as a raffish diplomat who seduces Kitty, and Toby Jones as a dissolute expat gone native, offer strong support.
w Ron Nyswaner novel W. Somerset Maugham d John Curran ph Stuart Dryburgh m Alexandre Desplat pd Tu Juhua ad Peta Lawson, Tu Xinran, Mei Kunping, Xing Yanrong ed Alexandre de Franceschi
☆ Edward Norton (Walter Fane), Naomi Watts (Kitty Fane), Liev Schreiber (Charlie Townsend), Toby Jones (Deputy Commissioner Waddington), Diana Rigg (Mother Superior), Anthony Wong (Colonel Yu)

'It bears almost no resemblance to the current crop of mostly rat-a-tat movies. To view it is to enter a time warp, and there is some pleasure in stepping back into the languor.' – Peter Rainer, Christian Science Monitor
'Combine(s) a strong-limbed narrative about marital frustration with a painstaking account of the British imperial presence in 1920s China.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

Painted Woman

US 1932 73m bw
Fox

A floozie stranded on a South Sea island resists offers of help from several men.
Another variation on Rain, and not the best.
w Guy Bolton, Leon Gordon novel After the Rain by A. C. Kennedy d John Blystone
☆ Spencer Tracy, Peggy Shannon, William 'Stage' Boyd, Irving Pichel, Raul Roulien

'It's hard to see how the studio figured a good picture would result from the material at hand.' – Variety

Painting the Clouds with Sunshine

US 1951 86m Technicolor
Warner (William Jacobs)

Three singing sisters go to Las Vegas in search of rich husbands.
Yet another revamp of the original Gold Diggers (qv), and not a very lively one.
w Harry Clork, Roland Kibbee, Peter Milne
d David Butler ph Wilfred Cline
☆ Virginia Mayo, Gene Nelson, Dennis Morgan, S. Z. Sakall, Lucille Norman, Tom Conway

A Pair of Briefs

GB 1961 90m bw
Rank/Betty E. Box-Ralph Thomas

Barristers Tony and Frances fall in love while opposing each other in court.
Adam's Rib need have no fears; this is the palest of imitations.
w Nicholas Phipps play How Say You by Harold Brooke, Kay Bannerman d Ralph Thomas ph Ernest Steward m Norrie Paramor
☆ Michael Craig, Mary Peach, Brenda de Banzie, James Robertson Justice, Roland Culver, Liz Fraser, Ron Moody, Jameson Clark, Charles Heslop

Paisà ★

Italy 1946 115m bw
Foreign Film Productions/OFI

Six episodes in the Battle of Italy between 1943 and 1945.
More important historically than dramatically, Paisà was always a somewhat disappointing experience, especially as the earlier episodes are stronger than the later ones. Like Open City, it was partly improvised and had a gritty documentary quality.
w Federico Fellini, Roberto Rossellini
d Roberto Rossellini ph Otello Martelli
m Renzo Rossellini
☆ William Tubbs, Gar Moore, Maria Michi and non-professionals

'It brings to the picture of war a pity at once savage and tender which is quite foreign to the studio-made film – or, come to that, the contemporary documentary film.' – Dilys Powell

script

The Pajama Game ★★★

US 1957 101m Warnercolor
Warner/George Abbott

Workers in a pajama factory demand a pay rise, but their lady negotiator falls for the new boss.
Brilliantly conceived musical on an unlikely subject, effectively concealing its Broadway origins and becoming an expert, fast-moving, hard-hitting piece of modern musical cinema.
w George Abbott, Richard Bissell book Seven and a Half Cents by Richard Bissell d Stanley Donen ph Harry Stradling m Buddy Bregman
m/ly Richard Adler, Jerry Ross ch Bob Fosse
ad Malcolm C. Bert ed William Ziegler
☆ Doris Day (Kate "Babe" Williams), John Raitt (Sid Sorokin), Eddie Foy Jnr (Vernon Hines), Reta Shaw (Mabel), Carol Haney (Gladys Hotchkiss)

'Unspoilt, splendidly performed and to my mind immensely enjoyable.' – Dilys Powell

♫ 'The Pajama Game'; 'Racing with the Clock'; 'I'm Not At All in Love'; 'I'll Be Jealous Again'; 'Hey There'; 'Once a Year Day'; 'Small Talk'; 'There Once Was a Man'; 'Steam Heat'; 'Hernando's Hideaway'; 'Seven and a Half Cents'

The Pajama Girl Case (dubbed)

Italy/Spain 1978 105m colour
Capitol (Giorgio Salvioni)

original title: La Ragazza dal Pigiama Giallo
aka: Pyjama Girl

A retired police inspector goes back to work to solve the murder of an unknown woman found on a beach.
Dull thriller, with Milland looking as though he would rather be somewhere else.
wd Flavio Mogherini ph Carlo Carlini
m Riz Ortolani pd Franco Velchi
ed Adriani Tagliavia
☆ Ray Milland, Dalila Di Lazzaro, Michele Placido, Howard Ross, Ramiro Oliveros, Rod Mullinar, Mel Ferrer

Pajama Party

US 1964 85m Pathécolor Panavision
AIP (James Nicholson, Samuel Z. Arkoff)

A Martian, a scout for an invasion of Earth, changes his mind after meeting some partying teenagers.
The beach party formula almost as usual, except that the beach is abandoned in this bland teen mix of romance and forgettable songs.
w Louis M. Heyward d Don Weis ph Floyd Crosby m Les Baxter m/ly Guy Hemric, Jerry Styner ch David Winters
ad Daniel Haller ed Fred R. Feitshans, Eve Newman
☆ Tommy Kirk, Annette Funicello, Elsa Lanchester, Buster Keaton, Harvey Lembeck, Jesse White, Jody McCrea, Dorothy Lamour, Candy Johnson
† It was a follow-up to Bikini Beach and was followed by Beach Blanket Bingo (qqv).

Pal Joey ★★

US 1957 109m Technicolor
Columbia/Essex-Sidney (Fred Kohlmar)

The rise of a night-club entertainer who is also a heel.
Smart musical which begins very brightly indeed but slides off alarmingly into conventional sentiment.
w Dorothy Kingsley play John O'Hara stories John O'Hara d George Sidney ph Harold Lipstein ad Walter Holscher
ed Viola Lawrence, Jerome Thomas
songs Richard Rodgers, Lorenz Hart
☆ Frank Sinatra, Rita Hayworth, Kim Novak, Bobby Sherwood, Hank Henry, Elizabeth Patterson, Barbara Nichols † Rita Hayworth's singing was dubbed by Jo Ann Greer, and Kim Novak's by Trudy Erwin.

Walter Holscher; editing

Pale Rider

US 1985 115m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Malpaso (Clint Eastwood)

Harassed gold prospecting families are helped by a mysterious avenger.
Unreeling like a supernatural Shane, this is a violent and pretentious Western with nothing to be pretentious about.
w Michael Butler, Dennis Shryack d Clint Eastwood ph Bruce Surtees m Lennie Niehaus pd Edward Carfagno ed Joel Cox
☆ Clint Eastwood, Michael Moriarty, Carrie Snodgress, Christopher Penn, Richard Dysart, Richard Kiel

The Paleface ★★★

US 1948 91m Technicolor
Paramount (Robert L. Welch)

Calamity Jane undertakes an undercover mission against desperadoes, and marries a timid dentist as a cover.
Splendid wagon train comedy Western with the stars in excellent form.

w Edmund Hartmann, Frank Tashlin d Norman Z. McLeod ph Ray Rennahan m Victor Young ad Hans Dreier, Earl Hedrick ed Ellsworth Hoagland
☆ Bob Hope ("Painless" Peter Potter), Jane Russell (Calamity Jane), Robert Armstrong (Terris), Iris Adrian (Pepper), Robert Watson (Toby Preston), Jackie Searl (Jasper Martin), Joe Vitale (Indian Scout), Clem Bevans (Hank Billings), Charles Trowbridge (Gov. Johnson)
† Sequel: Son of Paleface (qv); remake, The Shakiest Gun in the West (1968).
♟ song 'Buttons and Bows' (m Jay Livingston, ly Ray Evans)

Palindromes ★

US 2004 100m DuArt
Tartan/Extra Large Pictures (Mike S. Ryan, Derrick Tseng)

The adventures of a 12-year-old girl who, determined to have a baby, runs away from home
A movie divided into chapters, some of which work, notably a mother persuading her daughter to have an abortion, and some don't. The use of various actors to play the protagonist in search of love may show the universality of its theme, but means that none has the time to create a character; what we get is a series of turns.
wd Todd Solondz ph Tom Richmond m Nathan Larson pd Dave Doernberg ed Mollie Goldstein, Kevin Messman
☆ Ellen Barkin (Joyce Victor), Stephen Adly Guirgis (Joe/Earl/Bob), Jennifer Jason Leigh (Aviva), Emani Sledge (Aviva), Valerie Shusterov (Aviva), Hannah Freiman (Aviva), Rachel Corr (Aviva), Will Denton (Aviva), Sharon Wilkins (Aviva), Shayna Levine (Aviva), Richard Masur (Steve Victor), Debra Monk (Mama Sunshine)
'Solondz is testing the limitations of belief and identity, but his method is so roundabout and his purpose is so obscure that you begin to long for the straightforward tastelessness of his younger days.' – Anthony Quinn, Independent
'A fairytale in half a dozen chapters that keeps defying our expectations of where it's going with each new face.' – James Christopher, Times

The Pallbearer

US 1996 97m DeLuxe
Miramax (Jeffrey Abrams, Paul Webster)

An unemployed graduate, asked to be the pallbearer at the funeral of a friend whom he cannot remember, is seduced by the dead youth's mother.
A limp comedy that owes much to The Graduate, but remains no more than a very pale shadow of that film.
w Jason Katims, Matt Reeves d Matt Reeves ph Robert Elswit m Stewart Copeland pd Robert Standefer ed Stan Salfas
☆ David Schwimmer, Gwyneth Paltrow, Michael Rapaport, Toni Collette, Barbara Hershey, Carol Kane, Michael Vartan, Bitty Schram
'A passably entertaining seriocomedy.' – Variety
† The film flopped, taking $5.7m at the US box-office.

The Palm Beach Story ★★★

US 1942 88m bw
Paramount (Paul Jones)

The wife of a penurious engineer takes off for Florida to set her sights on a millionaire.
Flighty comedy, inconsequential in itself, but decorated with scenes, characters and zany touches typical of its creator, here at his most brilliant if uncontrolled.
wd Preston Sturges ph Victor Milner m Victor Young ad Hans Dreier, Ernst Fegte ed Stuart Gilmore
☆ Claudette Colbert (Gerry Jeffers), Joel McCrea (Tom Jeffers), Rudy Vallee (J.D. Hackensacker III), Mary Astor (Princess Centimillia), Sig Arno (Toto), Robert Warwick (Mr. Hinch), Torben Meyer (Dr. Kluck), Jimmy Conlin (Mr. Asweld), William Demarest (Member of Ale and Quail Club), Jack Norton (Member of Ale and Quail Club), Robert Greig (Member of Ale and Quail Club), Roscoe Ates (Member of Ale and Quail Club), Chester Conklin (Member of Ale and Quail Club), Franklin Pangborn (Manager), Alan Bridge (Conductor) and also Robert Dudley HACKENSACKER (RUDY VALLEE): 'That's one of the tragedies of this life, that the men most in need of a beating up are always enormous.'
WEENIE KING (ROBERT DUDLEY): 'Anyway, I'd be too old for you. Cold are the hands of time that creep along relentlessly, destroying slowly but without pity that which yesterday was young. Alone, our memories resist this disintegration and grow more lovely with the passing years. That's hard to say with false teeth.'
'Surprises and delights as though nothing of the kind had been known before … farce and tenderness are combined without a fault.' – William Whitebait
'Minus even a hint of the war … packed with delightful absurdities.' – Variety

Palm Springs

US 1936 74m bw
Paramount
GB title: Palm Springs Affair

An elderly Englishman becomes a gambler in order to give his daughter the appropriate upbringing.
Slight romantic comedy which gave a young Englishman a foothold in Hollywood.
w Joseph Fields d Aubrey Scotto
☆ David Niven, Sir Guy Standing, Frances Langford, Ernest Cossart, Spring Byington

Palm Springs Affair: see Palm Springs

Palm Springs Weekend

US 1963 100m Technicolor
Warner (Michael Hoey)

Various holidaymakers at Palm Springs get romantically involved.
Youth-oriented farce, better produced than most but basically a depressing experience.
w Earl Hamner Jnr d Norman Taurog ph Harold Lipstein m Frank Perkins
☆ Troy Donahue, Ty Hardin, Connie Stevens, Stefanie Powers, Robert Conrad, Jack Weston, Andrew Duggan

'In A Town This Bad It's No Use Being Good.'

Palmetto

US/Germany 1998 114m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Castle Rock/Rialto (Mathias Wendlandt)

An ex-journalist is hired by a seductive woman to stage the kidnapping of her daughter so that she can extort money from the girl's father, a dying millionaire.
A laboured attempt at a film noir, which is taken at too leisurely a pace to provide any thrills or suspense.
w E. Max Frye novel Just Another Sucker by James Hadley Chase d Volker Schlöndorff ph Thomas Kloss m Klaus Dolinger pd Clare Jenora Bowin ed Peter Przygodda
☆ Woody Harrelson, Elisabeth Shue, Gina Gershon, Rolf Hoppe, Michael Rapaport, Chloe Sevigny, Tom Wright, Marc Macauley
'May well have coined a new genre: the unthriller.' – Gaby Wood, Guardian
'The film deserves a new subgenre of its own, that of sitcom noir.' – Edward Porter, Sunday Times

Palmy Days

US 1932 77m bw
Samuel Goldwyn

Shady fortune tellers find a willing stooge.
Dated star comedy.
w Eddie Cantor, Morrie Ryskind, David Freedman, Keene Thompson d A. Edward Sutherland ph Gregg Toland ch Busby Berkeley
☆ Eddie Cantor, Charlotte Greenwood, Charles Middleton, George Raft, Walter Catlett 'Heavily hoked but funny throughout.' – Variety

Palooka

US 1934 80m bw
Reliance (Edward Small)

GB title: The Great Schnozzle
An eccentric manager makes a prizefighter of a country cousin.
Fairly amusing first-feature version of the strip cartoon hero Joe Palooka.
w Jack Jevne, Arthur Kober, Gertrude Purcell strip Ham Fisher d Ben Stoloff ☆ Jimmy Durante (Knobby Walsh), Stuart Erwin, Lupe Velez, Marjorie Rambeau, Robert Armstrong, Mary Carlisle, William Cagney, Thelma Todd
'A laugh riot, the nearest approach to a Marx picture that's been around.' – Variety

Palookaville ★

US 1995 92m DuArt
Metrodome/Playhouse International/Samuel Goldwyn/Redwave (Uberto Pasolini)

In New Jersey, three unemployed young men turn to crime with unpredictable results.
Amiable comic drama of incompetents failing to cope with the cost and problems of living.
w David Epstein d Alan Taylor ph John Thomas m Rachel Portman pd Anne Stuhler ed David Leonard ☆ William Forsythe, Vincent Gallo, Adam Trese, Gareth Williams, Lisa Gay Hamilton, Bridgit Ryan, Kim Dickens
'A refreshing and hilarious alternative to the cool-guys-with-guns flick.' – Empire

Paltoquet

France 1986 92m colour
Artificial Eye/Elefilm/Erato/Soprofilm/TF1/Sofia/Sofima (Rosalinde Damamme)

A detective tries to discover which habitué of a seedy bar, with its shiftless waiter, is a killer.
Intellectual thriller in which film theory has precedence over practice, resulting in tedium.
wd Michel Déville novel On A Tué Pendant L'Escale by Franz-Rudolf Falk ph André Diot m Dvořák, Janáček pd Thierry Leproust ed Raymonde Guyot
☆ Jeanne Moreau, Michel Piccoli, Fanny Ardant, Daniel Auteuil, Richard Bohringer, Philippe Léotard, Claude Piéplu, Jean Yanne

Pan-Americana ★

US 1945 85m bw
RKO (Sid Rogell)

A New York magazine sends editors around South America to choose the prettiest girl of each nation.
Slick, mindless musical with good numbers.
w Lawrence Kimble d John H. Auer ph Frank Redman md Constantin Bakaleinikoff ch Charles O'Curran
☆ Audrey Long, Phillip Terry, Robert Benchley, Eve Arden, Ernest Truex, Marc Cramer

Panama Hattie

US 1942 79m bw
MGM (Arthur Freed)

A showgirl in Panama helps to capture Nazis.
Dim film version of a Broadway musical, stripped of most of its music and more like a Maisie comedy.
w Jack McGowan, Wilkie Mahoney musical play Herbert Fields, B. G. de Sylva, Cole Porter d Norman Z. McLeod ph George Folsey md George Stoll
☆ Ann Sothern, Dan Dailey, Red Skelton, Marsha Hunt, Rags Ragland, Virginia O'Brien, Alan Mowbray, Ben Blue, Carl Esmond

Pancho Villa

Spain 1971 93m Technicolor
Granada Films (Bernard Gordon)

In 1916 Villa is rescued from execution and starts a reign of terror.
Mexican banditry played half for laughs and half for real; not a successful compromise.
w Julian Halevy (Julian Zimet) story Gene Martin d Eugenio Martin ph Alejandro Ulloa m Anton Garcia-Abril
☆ Telly Savalas, Clint Walker, Chuck Connors
† Screenwriter Zimet wrote under a pseudonym because of the blacklist.

'Their poems have crossed centuries, but now their secrets will be revealed.'

Pandaemonium

GB/US 2000 124m colour
Optimum/BBC/Mariner/Film Council/Moonstone (Jane Robertson)

In 1813, Samuel Taylor Coleridge recalls his long friendship with fellow poet William Wordsworth.
A bizarre attempt to suggest that romantic poets were the new rock'n'roll; a fervid, anachronistic romp, frequently risible, which casts Coleridge in the role of hero, and Wordsworth as the villain.
w Frank Cottrell Boyce d Julien Temple ph John Lynch m Dario Marianelli pd Laurence Dorman ed Niven Howie ☆ Linus Roache (Samuel Coleridge), John Hannah (William Wordsworth), Samantha Morton (Sara Coleridge), Emily Woof (Dorothy Wordsworth), Emma Fielding (Mary Wordsworth), Andy Serkis (John Thelwall), Samuel West (Robert Southey)
'Among the most vulgar travesties of English literature I've seen in years certainly since Ken Russell gave up the ghost.' – Alexander Walker
'Literate and handsome… As they have for centuries, writers like these make rewarding company.' – Lawrence Van Gelder, New York Times

Pandora and the Flying Dutchman ★

GB 1950 122m Technicolor
Romulus (Albert Lewin)

A cold but beautiful American woman in Spain falls for a mystery man who turns out to be a ghostly sea captain; she dies so as to be with him.
Pretentious, humourless, totally unpersuasive fantasy of the kind much better done in Portrait of Jennie. The writer-director wears Omar Khayyam's moving finger to the bone, and the actors look thoroughly unhappy; even the colour is a bit thick.
wd Albert Lewin ph Jack Cardiff m Alan Rawsthorne ad John Bryan
☆ James Mason, Ava Gardner, Harold Warrender, Nigel Patrick, Sheila Sim, Mario Cabre, John Laurie, Pamela Kellino, Marius Goring

'Conspicuous in its confident assumption of scholarship and its utter poverty of imagination and taste.' – C. A. Lejeune
'It might have been enjoyably silly but for Lewin's striving to be classy and an air of third-rate decadence that hangs about it. This is an Anglo-American co-production and one of the occasions, I think, when we might be generous and let Hollywood have all the credit.' – Richard Winnington

Pandora's Box ★

Germany 1929 97m approx (24 fps) bw silent
Nero Film

original title: Die Büchse der Pandora
aka: Lulu

A woman murders her lover, becomes a prostitute, and is murdered in London by Jack the Ripper.
Oddball fantasy on a few favourite German themes: very watchable, and benefiting from its star performance.
w G. W. Pabst, Laszlo Wajda plays 'Erdgeist' and 'Pandora's Box' by Franz Wedekind d G. W. Pabst ph Günther Krampf ☆ Louise Brooks (Lulu), Fritz Kortner (Dr Peter Schon), Franz Lederer (Alwa Schön), Gustav Diessl (Jack the Ripper)

'A disconnected melodramatic effusion.' – Mordaunt Hall, New York Times
† Remade in Austria in 1962 as No Orchids for Lulu, with Nadja Tiller.

Pane E Tulipani: see Bread and Tulips

Panhandle

US 1948 84m bw
Champion-Edwards/Allied Artists

A reformed gunman avenges the murder of his brother.
Solid co-feature Western.
w Blake Edwards, John C. Champion d Lesley Selander ph Harry Neumann ☆ Rod Cameron, Cathy Downs, Reed Hadley, Anne Gwynne, Blake Edwards

Panhandle Calibre 38 (dubbed)

Italy 1972 90m SPES colour
Cinegai (F. T. Gay)

original title: Padella Calibro 38

An ageing gunslinger and his convent-educated son are hired to take a million dollars of Confederate gold across bandit-filled country.
Coarse, slapstick spaghetti Western, taken at a very leisurely tempo.
w Mario Amendola, Massimo Franciosa, Luisa Montagnana, Toni Secchi d Toni Secchi ph Giorgio Regis m Franco Micalizzi ad Luciano Puccini ed Luciano Anconetani ☆ Scott Holden, Delia Boccardo, Keenan Wynn, Giorgio Trestini, Mimmo Palmara, Franco Fabrizi, Philippe Leroy

Panic Button

US 1963 98m bw
Gorton Associates

A has-been film star is hired by gangsters to star in a film which must lose money; but it wins the Venice Festival award.
Artless and padded comedy with good moments provided by an intriguing cast.
w Hal Biller d George Sherman ph Enzo Serafin m Georges Garvarentz ☆ Maurice Chevalier, Akim Tamiroff, Jayne Mansfield, Eleanor Parker, Michael Connors

The Panic in Needle Park

US 1971 110m DeLuxe
Gadd Productions (Dominick Dunne)

Drug addiction problems in a New York ghetto.
Vivid, intimate but overlong and unsympathetic account of a junkie and his mistress.
w Joan Didion, John Gregory Dunne novel James Mills d Jerry Schatzberg ph Adam Holender m none ☆ Al Pacino, Kitty Winn, Alan Vint, Richard Bright, Kiel Martin

Panic in the Parlor: see Sailor Beware (1956)

Panic in the Streets ★★★

US 1950 96m bw
TCF (Sol C. Siegel)

On the New Orleans waterfront, public health officials seek a carrier of bubonic plague.
Semi-documentary suspenser in the Naked City manner; location Hollywood at its best.
w Richard Murphy, Edward and Edna Anhalt d Elia Kazan ph Joe MacDonald m Alfred Newman ad Lyle Wheeler, Maurice Ransford ed Harmon Jones
☆ Richard Widmark (Clinton Reed), Jack Palance (Blackie), Paul Douglas (Police Capt. Tom Warren), Barbara Bel Geddes (Nancy Reed), Zero Mostel (Raymond Fitch)

'Elia Kazan directs this tough and unique story with the speed, imagination and ruthlessness that it needs.' – Milton Shulman
'A model of what an action story should be ... every department is admirably handled.' – Richard Mallett, Punch
original story (Edward and Edna Anhalt)

Panic in Year Zero ★

US 1962 93m bw Cinemascope
AIP (Lou Rusoff, Arnold Houghland)

Adventures of a family on a fishing trip in the mountains when Los Angeles is blasted by a nuclear attack.
Mildly interesting catalogue of predictable events – thugs, looting, fear of fall-out – in a simple-minded script finishing with a hopeful meeting of the UN.
w Jay Simms, John Morton d Ray Milland ph Gil Warrenton m Les Baxter ☆ Ray Milland, Jean Hagen, Frankie Avalon, Joan Freeman

Panic on the Trans-Siberian Express: see Horror Express

'It was supposed to be the safest room in the house.'

Panic Room

US 2002 112m DeLuxe Panavision
Columbia TriStar/Indelible (Gavin Polone, Judy Hofflund, David Koepp, Cean Chaffin)

Violent robbers break into a house to recover treasure hidden in an impregnable room where a mother and her young daughter have taken refuge.
The camera prowls, swoops, glides and slips through small spaces in an attempt to enliven this dingy, claustrophobic thriller that becomes increasingly clichéd, predictable and corny, so that all suspense quickly leaks away.
w David Koepp d David Fincher ph Conrad W. Hall, Darius Khondji m Howard Shore pd Arthur Max ed James Haygood, Angus Wall
☆ Jodie Foster (Meg Altman), Forest Whitaker (Burnham), Dwight Yoakam (Raoul), Jared Leto (Junior), Kristen Stewart (Sarah Altman), Ann Magnuson (Lydia Lynch), Ian Buchanan (Evan Kurlander), Patrick Bauchau (Stephen Altman)

'Smartly plotted, convincingly acted and brilliantly executed technically, this engrossing thriller adds some clever modern wrinkles to the time-tested formula of sinister intruders threatening innocents in their home.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety
'For all the script's self-referential pop-cultural popcorn, the skirmishes for power waged among victims and predators settle into an undistinguished rhythm of artificial suspense.' – Lisa Schwarzbaum, Entertainment Weekly † Jodie Foster replaced Nicole Kidman, who had to quit filming because of a knee injury. Cinematographer Darius Khondji also left, after creative differences with the director.

Pánico en el Transiberiano: see Horror Express

Panique ★

France 1946 98m bw
Filmsonor

A respectable man knows who committed a murder, and the murderer cunningly swings the blame onto him.
Careful suspenser with a twist ending.
w Charles Spaak, Julien Duvivier novel Georges Simenon d Julien Duvivier ph Nicolas Hayer ☆ Michel Simon, Viviane Romance, Paul Bernard

'Whether you like it or not, you may be forced to agree that it's a near-perfect movie.' – Pauline Kael, 1972

'Innocence has a power evil cannot imagine.'

Pan's Labyrinth ★★★ (10)

Spain/Mexico/US 2006 119m
Optimum/Estudios Picasso/ Tequila Gang/ Esperanto Filmoj (Bertha Navarro, Alfonso Cuaron, Frida Torresblanco, Alvaro Augustin)

Spanish theatrical title: El laberinto del fauno

In 1944 Spain, the imaginative young stepdaughter of a cruel Fascist army captain takes refuge in a fantasy world, and encounters a faun, a monstrous toad and a pale, death-like man.
A supernatural drama set against the real-life aftermath of the Spanish Civil War, when the victorious Fascists were hunting down resistance fighters near the French border. The fantasy elements, superbly realised through brilliant CGI work and visionary set design, truly illuminate the stark horrors, explicitly portrayed, that take place in Ofelia's 'real world.' Outstanding performances by Lopez and Baquero, and Verdu as the gallant, courageous housekeeper Mercedes. But the major credit is del Toro's; from disparate elements he has forged a monumental work of visually breathtaking art.
wd Guillermo del Toro ph Guillermo Navarro m Javier Navarrete pd Eugenio Caballero ed Bernat Vilaplana sp Reyes Abades ☆ Sergi Lopez (Captain Vidal), Maribel Verdu (Mercedes), Ivana Baquero (Ofelia), Alex Angulo (Dr. Ferreiro), Ariadna Gil (Carmen)

'A brilliant work of the imagination, capable of truly seizing and igniting our fantasies.' – Michael Wilmington, Chicago Tribune
'Few directors are so adept at conveying both the uncanny in the real and the recognisable in the fantastic.' – Ben Walters, Time Out
Art direction; cinematography; makeup (David Marti, Montse Ribe)
Foreign language film; original screenplay; original score.
Foreign language film; makeup and hair (Jose Quetglas, Blanca Sanchez); costume design (Lala Huete)

Panther

US 1995 124m DeLuxe/bw
Polygram/Working Title/Tribeca/MVP (Mario Van Peebles, Melvin Van Peebles, Preston L. Holmes)

A black Vietnam veteran recalls his role in the Black Panther Party, which was formed in the mid-60s and soon faced infiltration and attacks by the FBI, culminating in the Bureau's involvement in introducing cheap heroin to the ghettos.
A melodramatic account of the black rights struggle and the highly publicized activities of the Panthers which abandons fact to indulge in wild fiction, to the detriment of the film.
w Melvin Van Peebles novel Melvin Van Peebles d Mario Van Peebles ph Eddie Pei m Stanley Clarke pd Richard Hoover ed Earl Watson
☆ Kadeem Hardison, Bokeem Woodbine, Joe Don Baker, Courtney B. Vance, Tyrin Turner, Marcus Chong, James Russo, Chris Rock, Richard Dysart, M. Emmet Walsh, Jenifer Lewis, Wesley Johnson, Nefertiti

'A crudely schematic propaganda thriller.' – Alexander Walker

The Panther's Claw

US 1942 73m bw
PRC

Thatcher Colt solves a blackmail case which ends in murder.
Unassuming but efficient second-feature mystery.
w Martin Mooney, Anthony Abbott d William Beaudine
☆ Sidney Blackmer, Byron Foulger, Rick Vallin

Panther's Moon: see Spy Hunt

Paoda Shuang Deng: see Red Firecracker, Green Firecracker

'One good shot deserves another.'

Paparazzi

US 2004 84m colour
TCF/Icon (Mel Gibson, Bruce Davey, Stephen McEveety)

A Hollywood actor takes his revenge on the photographers who have made his life a misery.
Cheap and nasty thriller, seemingly motivated by the personal spite of its makers towards tabloid snappers.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

w Forrest Smith d Paul Abascal ph Daryn Okada m Brian Tyler pd Robb Wilson King ed Robin Russell
☆ Cole Hauser (Bo Laramie), Robin Tunney (Abby Laramie), Dennis Farina (Detective Burton), Daniel Baldwin (Wendell Stokes), Tom Hollander (Leonard Clark), Tom Sizemore (Rex Harper), Chris Rock (Pizza Delivery Guy)
'Visually uninspired and dramatically overheated.' – Variety

Papa's Delicate Condition

US 1963 98m Technicolor
Paramount/Amro (Jack Rose)

At the turn of the century in a small Texas town an amiable family man gets into scrapes when he drinks too much.
Basically pleasing period comedy which suffers from slow, stiff treatment.
w Jack Rose book Corinne Griffith d George Marshall ph Loyal Griggs m Joseph J. Lilley
☆ Jackie Gleason, Glynis Johns, Charles Ruggles, Charles Lane, Laurel Goodwin, Juanita Moore, Elisha Cook Jnr, Murray Hamilton
♪ song 'Call Me Irresponsible' (m James Van Heusen, ly Sammy Cahn)

'They put together New York's fastest moving newspaper. They search for truth, they strive for justice ... then print what they can get away with.'
'Never let the truth get in the way of a good story.'

The Paper ★★

US 1994 112m DeLuxe
Universal/Imagine (Brian Grazer, Frederick Zollo)

A day in the life of the metropolitan editor of a struggling New York tabloid, who has to sort out career and family problems, which include a job offer from a better paper, an emasculating managing editor and an anxious and pregnant wife.
Entertaining, though soft-centred, slice of journalism, but lacking that occupation's bracing cynicism, and somewhat remote from reality.
w David Koepp, Stephen Koepp d Ron Howard ph John Seale m Randy Newman pd Todd Hallowell ed Daniel Hanley, Michael Hill
☆ Michael Keaton, Glenn Close, Marisa Tomei, Robert Duvall, Randy Quaid, Jason Alexander, Spalding Gray, Catherine O'Hara, Lynne Thigpen
'Howard may take on large, semi-serious topics, but he always intends to make cotton candy of them in the end.' – Michael Atkinson, Sight and Sound
'It naturally lacks the edge of the great media farces, but there's a lot of sparkling fun to be had.' – Angie Errigo, Empire
♪ song 'Make Up Your Mind'

Paper Bullets

US 1941 69m bw
King Brothers/PRC

Three orphanage pals grow up to be involved in crime.
Fast-moving second feature.
w Martin Mooney d Phil Rosen
☆ Joan Woodbury, Jack La Rue, Alan Ladd, Linda Ware, Vince Barnett, Gavin Gordon, John Archer

The Paper Chase ★★

US 1973 111m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF (Robert C. Thompson, Rodrick Paul)

A Harvard law graduate falls in love with the divorced daughter of his tetchiest professor.
A thoughtful analysis of attitudes to learning turns into just another youth movie.
wd James Bridges novel John Jay Osborn Jnr ph Gordon Willis m John Williams ☆ Timothy Bottoms, Lindsay Wagner, John Houseman, Graham Bickel
'A slightly unfocused account of conformism and milk-mild rebellion on the campus.' – Sight and Sound
'A worthy film which engages the eye and the brain.' – Benny Green, Punch
♪ John Houseman
♪ James Bridges (as writer)

'It began as a lesson about prejudice... What happened next was a miracle.'

Paper Clips ⑦

US 2004 84m
Lionsgate UK/Miramax/The Johnson Group/ Ergo Entertainment (Joe Fab, Robert M Johnson, Ari Daniel Pinchot)

Pupils at a Tennessee school are inspired to mark the Holocaust by collecting a paper clip for each of its victims.
Heartfelt documentary whose good intentions are marred by excessive sentimentality.
w Joe Fab d Elliot Berlin, Joe Fab ph Michael Marton m Charlie Barnett ed Julia Dixon-Eddy
☆ Linda Hooper, David Smith, Sandra Roberts, Tom Bosley, Dagmar Schroeder-Hildebrand, Peter Schroeder
'Not a sophisticated or very challenging film, nor should it be.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times

Paper Lion

US 1968 105m colour
Stuart Millar/United Artist

The training of a professional football player.
Rather single-minded sporting biography from a book by George Plimpton.
w Lawrence Roman d Alex March ☆ Alan Alda, Lauren Hutton, David Doyle, Sugar Ray Robinson

'Trust me. I'm a doctor.'

Paper Mask ★★

GB 1990 105m colour
Enterprise/Film Four International (Christopher Morahan)

A hospital porter pretends to be a doctor.
Chilling and enjoyable small-scale thriller.
w John Collee d Christopher Morahan ph Nat Crosby m Richard Harvey pd Caroline Hanania ed Peter Coulson
☆ Paul McGann, Amanda Donohoe, Frederick Treves, Tom Wilkinson, Barbara Leigh-Hunt, Jimmy Yuill, Mark Lewis Jones, John Warnaby, Alexandra Mathie

'As P. T. Barnum put it, "There's a sucker born every minute".'

Paper Moon ★★

US 1973 103m bw
Paramount/Saticoy (Peter Bogdanovich)

In the American midwest in the thirties, a bible salesman and a plain little girl make a great con team.
Unusual but overrated comedy, imperfectly adapted from a very funny book, with careful but disappointing period sense and photography. A lot more style and gloss was required.
w Alvin Sargent novel Addie Pray by Joe David Brown d Peter Bogdanovich ph Laszlo Kovacs m popular songs and recordings
☆ Ryan O'Neal, Tatum O'Neal, Madeline Kahn, John Hillerman
'I've rarely seen a film that looked so unlike what it was about.' – Stanley Kauffmann
'At its best the film is only mildly amusing, and I'm not sure I could recall a few undeniable highlights if pressed on the point.' – Gary Arnold
'Bogdanovich once again deploys the armoury of nostalgia with relentless cunning to evoke the threadbare side of American life forty years ago ... one of those rare movies which engages at least two of the senses.' – Benny Green, Punch
'It is so enjoyable, so funny, so touching that I couldn't care less about its morals.' – Daily Telegraph
♪ Tatum O'Neal
♪ Alvin Sargent; Madeline Kahn

Paper Tiger

GB 1975 99m Technicolor
Maclean and Co (Euan Lloyd)

An ageing Englishman becomes tutor to the son of the Japanese ambassador in a Pacific state, and finds he has to live his heroic fantasies in reality.
Uneasy adventure comedy drama which might, given more skilled handling, have been much better than it is.
w Jack Davies d Ken Annakin ph John Cabrera m Roy Budd
☆ David Niven, Toshiro Mifune, Hardy Kruger, Ando, Ivan Desny, Irene Tsu, Miiko Taka, Ronald Fraser, Jeff Corey
'Makes no demands, except on 99 minutes of our time.' – Michael Billington, Illustrated London News

'He's hard, tough... and doesn't give a XXXX for anything... except romantic novels.'

Paperback Hero ★

Australia 1998 97m colour
AFFC/Paperback (Lance W. Reynolds, John Winter)

A truck driver who lives in the outback persuades a waitress to pose as the author of a best-selling romantic novel that he has written.
Amiable, though predictable, romantic comedy, with a few sideswipes at macho attitudes on the way.
wd Antony J. Bowman ph David Burr m Burkhard Dallwitz pd Jon Dowding ed Veronika Jenet
☆ Claudia Karvan (Ruby), Hugh Jackman (Jack), Angie Milliken (Ziggy), Andrew S. Gilbert (Hamish), Jeanie Drynan (Suzie), Bruce Venables (Artie), Barry Rugless (Mad Pete), Tony Barry (Mack)
'The pace is slow, the plot is predictable and all the characters are cardboard cutouts.' – Cosmo Landesman, Sunday Times

Paperhouse

GB 1988 92m Technicolor
Vestron/Working Title (Tim Bevan, Sarah Radcliffe)

An 11-year-old girl has fainting fits which take her into a dangerous fantasy world that resembles her drawings.
Slow-moving, shallow fantasy.
w Matthew Jacobs novel Marianne's Dream by Catherine Storr d Bernard Rose ph Mike Southon m Hans Zimmer, Stanley Myers pd Gemma Jackson ed Dan Rae ☆ Charlotte Burke, Ben Cross, Glenne Headly, Elliott Spiers, Gemma Jones

Papillon ★

US 1973 150m Technicolor Panavision
Papillon Partnership/Corona/General Production Co (Robert Dorfmann)

Filmed autobiography of life on Devil's Island.
Overlong and rather dreary film of a bestseller; it determinedly rubs the audience's nose in ordure from the start, and the final successful escape is one try too many.
w Dalton Trumbo, Lorenzo Semple Jnr book Henri Charrière d Franklin Schaffner ph Fred Koenekamp m Jerry Goldsmith
☆ Steve McQueen, Dustin Hoffman, Victor Jory, Don Gordon, Anthony Zerbe, George Coulouris, Woodrow Parfrey
'A 2½-hour epic trampling the corn growing round the theme of man's inhumanity to man.' – Sight and Sound
'Papillon offers torture as entertainment but winds up making entertainment a form of torture ... a tournament of brutality unrelieved by imagination.' – Paul D. Zimmermann
'So overloaded with details that the stars are almost lost in exposition, repetition and unfocused drama.' – Judith Crist, 1977
'So solemn one would think it the story of a pope at the very least.' – New Yorker, 1980
♪ Jerry Goldsmith

Parachute Jumper

US 1932 70m bw
Warner

Ex-flying Marines out of a job fall in with gangsters.
Easy-going adventure yarn with agreeable players.
w Rian James, John Francis Larkin d Alfred E. Green ☆ Douglas Fairbanks Jnr, Bette Davis, Leo Carrillo, Claire Dodd, Frank McHugh, Harold Huber
'Breezy treatment of a not very brilliant yarn.' – Variety

Parade ★

France/Sweden 1974 85m Technicolor
Gray Film/Sveriges Radio

Jacques Tati introduces a series of acts in a small-scale circus.
Pleasant, sometimes boring variety show, to be included in the Tati canon for completeness; it does include some of his unique pieces of mime.
wd Jacques Tati ph Jean Badal, Gunnar Fischer m Charles Dumont
'A curious, unresolved envoi.' – John Pym, MFB
'Moments of great good humour and flashes of incomparable magic.' – Sight and Sound

The Paradine Case ★★

US 1947 115m bw
Selznick

A barrister falls in love with his client, who is suspected of murder.
A stodgy and old-fashioned script is given gleaming treatment; this and the acting make it seem better thirty years later than it did on release.
w David O. Selznick novel Robert Hichens d Alfred Hitchcock ph Lee Garmes m Franz Waxman
☆ Gregory Peck, Alida Valli, Ann Todd, Louis Jourdan, Charles Laughton, Charles Coburn, Ethel Barrymore, Leo G. Carroll

'This is the wordiest script since the death of Edmund Burke.' – James Agee
'The characters and their problems don't make much imprint on a viewer; if you can't remember whether you've seen the picture or not, chances are you did and forgot it.' – New Yorker, 1976
† Original choices were Olivier instead of Peck, Garbo instead of Valli, and Robert Newton instead of Jourdan.
Ethel Barrymore

Paradise ★

US 1991 110m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Touchstone/Touchwood Pacific Partners I/Interscope/Jean-François Lepetit (Scott Kroopf, Patrick Palmer)

A ten-year-old boy makes friends with a young girl when he goes to spend the summer with a childless couple.
Sentimentality is kept at bay for the most part and charm predominates in a gently effective narrative.
wd Mary Agnes Donoghue ph Jerzy Zielinski m David Newman pd Evelyn Sakash, Marcia Hinds ed Eva Gardos, Debra McDermott ☆ Melanie Griffith, Don Johnson, Elijah Wood, Thora Birch, Sheila McCarthy, Eve Gordon, Louise Latham, Greg Travis, Sarah Trigger, Richard K. Olsen
'Excellent ensemble acting and a feel-good payoff to this bittersweet tale could produce a sleeper hit.' – Variety
† A remake of Le Grand Chemin (qv), directed in 1987 by Jean-Loup Hubert.

Paradise Alley

US 1978 107m Technicolor
Universal/Force Ten (John F. Roach, Ronald A. Suppa)

The adventures of three wrestling brothers in New York's Hell's Kitchen during the forties.
Fashionable update of the City for Conquest school, not in itself very interesting despite amusing bits.
wd Sylvester Stallone ph Laszlo Kovacs m Bill Conti pd John W. Corso ☆ Sylvester Stallone, Kevin Conway, Anne Archer, Joe Spinell, Armand Assante, Lee Canalito

Paradise for Three

US 1937 78m bw
MGM
GB title: Romance for Three
A businessman goes to Germany to find out how the workers live.
An interesting premise leads inevitably into a flimsy romantic comedy.
w George Oppenheimer, Harry Ruskin d Edward Buzzell
☆ Robert Young, Frank Morgan, Mary Astor, Edna May Oliver, Florence Rice, Reginald Owen, Henry Hull, Sig Rumann, Herman Bing

Paradise for Two

GB 1937 77m bw
Günther Stapenhorst/Denham
US title: Gaiety Girls
A millionaire posing as a reporter is asked to pose as a millionaire.
Cheerful comedy-romance.
w Robert Stevenson, Arthur Macrae d Thornton Freeland ph Gunther Krampf m Mischa Spoliansky ad Vincent Korda, Shamoon Nadir ed E. B. Jarvis
☆ Jack Hulbert, Patricia Ellis, Arthur Riscoe, Googie Withers, Sydney Fairbrother, Wylie Watson, David Tree

Paradise Hawaiian Style

US 1965 91m Technicolor
Paramount/Hal Wallis/Joseph H. Hazen

An amorous airline pilot returns to Hawaii and sets up a helicopter service.
Mindless musical vehicle for an increasingly resistible star.
w Allan Weiss, Anthony Lawrence d Michael Moore ph W. Wallace Kelley md Joseph J. Lilley
☆ Elvis Presley, Suzanna Leigh, James Shigeta, Irene Tsu

Paradise is Somewhere Else ★

Iran 2003 80m colour
Cima Film & Farabi Cinema Foundation (Mohammad Hossein Haghighi) original title: Behesht Ja-ye Digari Ast
A life of a restive shepherd boy is changed irrevocably by the sudden death of his father in a mining accident.
Simple tale of loyalty, honour and betrayal with a wide appeal.
wd Abdolrasoul Golbon ph Mohammad Davoudi m Saeed Ansari ed Hassan Hassandoust ☆ Yar-Mohammad Damanipour (Eidak), Jan Mohammad Tajik (Gol-Mahammad)
'Film's innate humanism is of a piece with that of the region's best movie output.' – Variety

Paradise Lagoon: see The Admirable Crichton

'Go Home.'
'You'll be Dying to Stay.'

Paradise Lost ★ (2)

USA 2006 93m
Lionsgate/Stone Village Pictures/2929 Productions/Boz Productions (Bo Zenga, Scott Steindorff, John Stockwell, Marc Butan)

US theatrical title: TURISTAS
Backpackers in Brazil are kidnapped by a sinister doctor wanting their body parts for illegal transplant operations.
A fun dream holiday-turned-nightmare filled with sharp shocks and grisly blood-spilling.
w Michael Arlen Ross d John Stockwell ph Enrique Chediak m Paul Haslinger pd Marlise Storchi ed Jeff McEvoy sp Mauricio Bevilacqua
☆ Josh Duhamel (Alex Trubituan), Melissa George (Pru Stagler), Olivia Wilde (Bea Trubituan), Desmond Askew (Finn Davies), Beau Garrett (Amy Hamilton)
'Once the gore and suspense take over, this becomes mechanical and unpleasant.' – Jonathan Rosenbaum, Chicago Reader

Paradise Now ★★

Netherlands/Israel/Germany/France 2005 91m colour
Warner/Augustus/Hazazah/Lama/Razor/Lumen/Arte France (Bero Beyer) original title: Al-Jenna-An
Two Palestinian suicide bombers prepare to blow themselves up in Tel Aviv.
A tense and valuable film that offers no judgement on the bombers' actions, other than an impassioned plea not to do it from the girlfriend of one of them; it leaves its audience to think the matter through for themselves.
w Hany Abu-Assad, Bero Beyer d Hany Abu-Assad ph Antoine Heberle pd Olivier Meidinger ed Sander Vos
☆ Kais Nashef (Said), Ali Suliman (Khaled), Lubna Azabal (Suha), Amer Hlehel (Jamal), Ashraf Barhoum (Abu-Karem)
'While nothing truly new or shocking emerges, the film does bring clarity and compassion to its depiction of an act that baffles, angers and sickens people the world over.' – Kirk Honeycutt, Hollywood Reporter
foreign film

'Courage echoes forever.'

Paradise Road ★ (2)

Australia/US 1997 115m colour
Panavision
TCF/YTC/Village Roadshow (Sue Milliken, Greg Coote)

During the Second World War, women survivors of a shipwreck are imprisoned by the Japanese; some keep their morale high by forming a vocal orchestra.
Based on a true story, this should be more affecting than it is; it is too often shallow and manipulative to be moving.
wd Bruce Beresford story David Giles, Martin Meader diaries by Betty Jeffrey in White Coolies ph Peter James m Ross Edwards pd Herbert Pinter ed Tim Wellburn
☆ Glenn Close, Pauline Collins, Cate Blanchett, Frances McDormand, Julianna Margulies, Jennifer Ehle, Wendy Hughes, Johanna Ter Steege, Elizabeth Spriggs, Clyde Kusatsu
'This powerful account of female friendship and bonding under the most cruel conditions lacks the narrative focus and dramatic shapeliness to generate emotional excitement.' – Emanuel Levy, Variety

'There is no conspiracy. Just twelve people dead.'

The Parallax View ★★★

US 1974 102m Technicolor Panavision
Paramount/Gus/Harbour/Doubleday (Alan J. Pakula)

Witnesses to a political assassination are systematically killed, despite the efforts of a crusading journalist.
Stylish, persuasive political thriller with a downbeat ending; the villains win.
w David Giler, Lorenzo Semple Jnr novel Loren Singer d Alan J. Pakula ph Gordon Willis m Michael Small pd George Jenkins ad George Jenkins ed Jack Wheeler ☆ Warren Beatty (Joseph Frady), Paula Prentiss (Lee Carter), William Daniels (Austin Tucker), Hume Cronyn (Editor Edgar Rintels), Walter McGinn (Parallax Agent Jack Younger)
'Pakula at his best ... the test sequence is one of the most celebrated, manipulating the audience as it bombards Beatty's psyche.' – Les Keyser, Hollywood in the Seventies
'It is terribly important to give an audience a lot of things they may not get as well as those they will, so that finally the film does take on a texture and is not just simplistic communication.' – Alan J. Pakula

Paramount on Parade ★

US 1930 102m bw (Technicolor sequence)
Paramount (Elsie Janis)

A revue featuring Paramount contract stars.
A ragged affair by any standard, but worth a look for a couple of Chevalier's numbers.
w various d Dorothy Arzner, Otto Brower, Edmund Goulding, Victor Heerman, Edwin H. Knopf, Rowland V. Lee, Ernst Lubitsch, Lothar Mendes, Victor Schertzinger, A. Edward Sutherland, Frank Tuttle ph Harry Fischbeck, Victor Milner m various ☆ Richard Arlen, Jean Arthur, George Bancroft, Clara Bow, Nancy Carroll, Ruth Chatterton, Maurice Chevalier, Gary Cooper, Leon Errol, Kay Francis, Harry Green, Mitzi Green, Dennis King, Fredric March, Nino Martini and also Jack Oakie, Charles 'Buddy' Rogers, Lillian Roth, Fay Wray, Clive Brook, Warner Oland, Eugene Pallette, William Powell
'Pip revue packed with laughs and talent.' – Variety
'It ran for less than two hours but I came out of the theater several years older.' – Robert Benchley

Paranoia

Italy/Spain 1969 88m Technicolor Techniscope
Eagle/Tritone/Medusa/D.I.A. aka: A Quiet Place to Kill
A jealous wife plots to murder her philandering husband with the help of his former wife.
Lacklustre thriller that seemingly failed to engage the interest of director or cast.
w Rafael Romero Marchent, Marcello Coscia, Bruno di Geronimo d Umberto Lenzi ph Guglie Imo Mancori m Gregorio Garcia Segura ad Wolfgang Burmann ed Antonio Ramirez, Enzo Alabiso
☆ Carroll Baker, Jean Sorel, Marina Coffa, Anna Proclemer, Alberto Dalbes
'A sun-struck little thriller so listlessly plotted – between Majorca beach and luxury poolside – that not even the occasional homicide can shake its mildly enervated holiday air.' – Richard Combs, MFB
† The film was cut to 77m on its British release.

'Suddenly, she knew the lips burning on hers did not belong to any normal man!'

Paranoiac ★

GB 1963 80m bw Cinemascope
U-I/Hammer (Anthony Hinds)
An heiress is saved from a suicide attempt by a young man claiming to be her dead brother.
A complex maze of disguise, mistaken identity, family curses and revelations of something nasty in the woodshed, out of Psycho by Taste of Fear. Not very good in itself, but interesting in its borrowings.
w Jimmy Sangster d Freddie Francis ph Arthur Grant m Elisabeth Lutyens
☆ Oliver Reed, Janette Scott, Alexander Davion, Sheila Burrell, Liliane Brousse, Maurice Denham, John Bonney

Les Parapluies de Cherbourg ★★

France/West Germany 1964 92m Eastmancolor
Parc/Madeleine/Beta

aka: The Umbrellas of Cherbourg
A shopgirl loves a gas station attendant. He goes on military service; she finds she is pregnant and marries for security. Years later they meet briefly by accident.
Unexpected, charming, pretty successful screen operetta with only sung dialogue. Careful acting and exquisite use of colour and camera movement paste over the thinner sections of the plot.
wd Jacques Demy ph Jean Rabier m Michel Legrand, Jacques Demy ad Bernard Evein
☆ Catherine Deneuve, Anne Vernon, Nino Castelnuovo
'Poetic neo-realism.' – Georges Sadoul
'We are told that in Paris the opening night audience wept and the critics were ecstatic. It would have made a little more sense the other way round.' – John Simon

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA best foreign film; script; Michel Legrand, Jacques Demy; song 'I Will Wait for You'; scoring

'The First Futristic Monster Movie In 3-D!'

Parasite

US 1982 85m Metrocolor Stereo-oVision 3-D
Embassy/Charles Band

In a post-holocaust 1992, a scientist battles to control a virulent flesh-eating parasite he has developed.
Silly sci-fi horror, in which three-dimensional effects take precedence over sense and logic.
w Alan J. Adler, Michael Shoob, Frank Levering d Charles Band ph Mac Ahlberg m Richard Band ad Pamela B. Warner ed Brad Arensman sp parasite effects: Stan Winston, James Kagel, Lance Anderson
☆ Robert Glaudini, Demi Moore, Luca Bercovici, James Davidson, Vivian Blaine, Al Fann, Tom Villard, Scott Thomson
† The film was a hit, owing mainly to its excellent 3-D and scenes such as one in which, in close-up so that it was right in the viewer's face, blood oozes out of the end of a pipe on which a man is impaled. A sequel was announced but never, so far, made.

The Parasite Murders

Canada 1974 87m colour
Target/Cinepix/Canadian Film Development Corp. (Ivan Reitman)

aka: Shivers
US title: They Came from Within
Parasites that turn people into diseased sex maniacs infect the inhabitants of a luxury hotel.
Bloody and violent horror movie, the first to explore its director's obsession with the alteration of the human body from one form to another.
wd David Cronenberg ph Robert Saad ad Erla Gliserman ed Patrick Dodd sp Joe Blasco
☆ Paul Hampton, Joe Silver, Lynn Lowry, Allan Migicovsky, Susan Petrie, Barbara Steele, Ronald Mlodzik
'A fresh and diverting variation of a hoary entertainment formula.' – Richard Combs, MFB
'I was saying "I love sex, but I love sex as a venereal disease. I am syphilis. I am enthusiastic about it, but in a very different way from you".' – David Cronenberg

Paratrooper: see The Red Beret

Pardners

US 1956 88m Technicolor Vistavision
Paramount (Paul Jones)

An incompetent idiot goes west and accidentally cleans up the town.
Stiff Western star burlesque, a remake of Rhythm on the Range.
w Sidney Sheldon d Norman Taurog ph Daniel Fapp songs Sammy Cahn, Jimmy Van Heusen
☆ Dean Martin, Jerry Lewis, Agnes Moorehead, Lori Nelson, John Baragrey, Jeff Morrow, Lon Chaney Jnr

Pardon Mon Affaire ★

France 1977 108m Eastmancolor
Gaumont/La Guéville (Daniel Deschamps)

aka: Un Eléphant ça Trompe Enormément
A middle-aged married man discovers that he is a very unsuccessful adulterer.
Unsubtle comedy that was successful in France, though it does not travel well.
w Jean-Loup Dabadie, Yves Robert d Yves Robert ph René Mathelin m Vladimir Cosma ad Jean-Pierre Kohut-Svelko ed Gérard Pollicand
☆ Jean Rochefort, Claude Brasseur, Guy Bedos, Victor Lanoux, Daniele Delorme, Anny Duperey
† The film was remade by Hollywood as The Woman In Red (qv), directed by Gene Wilder.

Pardon My Past ★

US 1945 88m bw
Columbia

A man unwittingly takes on the problems of his double, a shady playboy.
Amusing mistaken identity comedy.
w Earl Felton, Karl Kamb d Leslie Fenton ph Russell Metty m Dimitri Tiomkin
☆ Fred MacMurray, Marguerite Chapman, Akim Tamiroff, Rita Johnson, William Demarest, Harry Davenport

Pardon Us ★

US 1931 55m bw
Hal Roach

aka: Jailbirds
Two zany bootleggers find themselves in and out of prison.
Patchy star comedy which finds the boys on the whole not in quite their best form.
w H. M. Walker d James Parrott ph George Stevens ed Richard Currier ☆ Stan Laurel, Oliver Hardy, Wilfred Lucas, Walter Long, James Finlayson
'Their first full-length, with not over two reels of value.' – Variety † Boris Karloff replaced Walter Long in the French version of the film.

The Parent Trap ★

US 1961 129m Technicolor
Walt Disney (George Golitzen)

Twin daughters of separated parents determine to bring the family together again.
Quite bright but awesomely extended juvenile romp.
wd David Swift novel Das Doppelte Lottchen by Erich Kästner ph Lucien Ballard m Paul Smith
☆ Hayley Mills, Maureen O'Hara, Brian Keith, Charles Ruggles, Leo G. Carroll, Una Merkel, Joanna Barnes, Cathleen Nesbitt, Ruth McDevitt, Nancy Kulp

The Parent Trap ★

US 1998 127m
Buena Vista/Disney (Charles Shyer)

Twins separated when very young discover each other and decide to bring together again their divorced parents.
Overlong remake that is on the bland side, but also bright and cheerful.
w David Swift, Nancy Meyers, Charles Shyer book Das Doppelte Lottchen by Erich Kastner d Nancy Meyers ph Dean A. Cundey m Alan Silvestri pd Dean Tavoularis ed Stephen A. Rotter
☆ Lindsay Lohan, Dennis Quaid, Natasha Richardson, Elaine Hendrix, Lisa Ann Walter, Simon Kunz, Polly Holliday, Maggie Wheeler, Ronnie Stevens
'Slick, sentimental and exceptionally well cast.' – Variety

Parenthood ★★

US 1989 99m DeLuxe Panavision
UIP/Imagine Entertainment (Brian Grazer)

Three generations of fathers and sons try to come to terms with each other.
Expertly packaged, frequently funny, sometimes accurate, but more often sentimental, study of paternal relationships (maternal relationships are defined in terms of the absence of a father).
w Lowell Ganz, Babaloo Mandel d Ron Howard ph Donald McAlpine m Randy Newman pd Todd Hallowell ed Michael Hill, Daniel Hanley
☆ Steve Martin, Tom Hulce, Rick Moranis, Martha Plimpton, Keanu Reeves, Jason Robards, Mary Steenburgen, Dianne Wiest
Dianne Wiest; song 'I Love To See You Smile' (m/l Randy Newman)

'There's A New Name For Terror'

Parents

US 1988 82m colour
Vestron/Parents Productions (Bonnie Palef-Woolf)

A child in small-town America of the 1950s discovers that his parents are cannibals.
Black comedy all the more unsettling because of its resolutely suburban setting.
w Christopher Hawthorne d Bob Balaban ph Ernest Day, Robin Vidgeon m Angelo Badalamenti, Jonathan Elias ad Andris Hausmanis ed Bill Pankow
☆ Randy Quaid, Mary Beth Hurt, Sandy Dennis, Bryan Madorsky, Juno Mills-Cockell, Kathryn Grody, Deborah Rush, Graham Jarvis
'The most interesting and exciting directorial debut that I have encountered in some time – a "failure" that makes most recent successes seem like cold mush.' – Jonathan Rosenbaum, Chicago Reader

Les Parents Terribles ★★

France 1948 98m bw
Sirius

Life with a family in which the children are as neurotic as the parents.
Alternately hilarious and tragic, this is a fascinating two-set piece of filmed theatre, with every performance a pleasure.
wd Jean Cocteau play Jean Cocteau ph Michel Kelber m Georges Auric ad Christian Bérard, Guy de Gastyne
☆ Jean Marais, Yvonne de Bray, Gabrielle Dorziat, Marcel André, Josette Day
† In 1953 a curious and unsatisfactory British version was made by Charles Frank under the title Intimate Relations, with Marian Spencer, Russell Enoch, Ruth Dunning, Harold Warrender and Elsy Albiin.

Le Parfum d'Yvonne ★

France 1994 89m colour
Artificial Eye/Lambart/Zoulou/CECR-A/M6 (Thierry de Ganay)

aka: Yvonne's Perfume
A man remembers a holiday by Lake Geneva, when he was avoiding service in the Algerian war, one that changed his life after he became involved with a beautiful actress and her reckless friend, an elderly homosexual doctor.
Slight, leisurely, bitter-sweet romance among the idle, set against the background of privilege.
wd Patrice Leconte novel Villa Triste by Patrick Modiano ph Eduardo Serra m Pascal Estève ad Ivan Maussion ed Joëlle Hache
☆ Jean-Pierre Marielle, Hippolyte Girardot, Sandra Majani, Richard Bohringer, Paul Guers, Corinne Marchand, Philippe Magnan
'Good playing, particularly from Marielle, some fine widescreen camerawork and a certain sense of melancholy, even as the gaiety is outlined, prevents the film falling into bathos. But it's a near thing.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian
'Stunningly lensed widescreen memoir captured at the intersection of insouciance and longing.' – Variety

Paris

US 1929 88m bw/colour
Warner

An American stage star, her fiancé, her partner and her mother-in-law-to-be converge on the Champs Elysées.
Shaky musical with interesting talent, but bereft of its original Cole Porter score.
w Hope Loring d Clarence Badger
☆ Irene Bordoni, Jack Buchanan, Louise Closser Hale, Jason Robards

Paris after Dark

US 1943 85m bw
TCF

GB title: The Night Is Ending
In wartime Paris a doctor leads the resistance forces.
Propaganda potboiler, quite neatly made and cast.
w Howard Buchman d Leonide Moguy ph Lucien Andriot
☆ George Sanders, Philip Dorn, Brenda Marshall, Marcel Dalio, Madeleine LeBeau

Paris Belongs to Us

France 1961 140m bw
AJYM/Films du Carrosse (Roland Nonia) original title: Paris Nous Appartient
A student becomes involved with a group unsuccessfully rehearsing a Shakespearean play who fear a conspiracy to take over the world.
Overlong, often pretentious and frequently amateurish, Rivette's first feature reflects an adolescent despair of the future.
w Jacques Rivette, Jean Gruault d Jacques Rivette ph Charles Bitsch m Philippe Arthuys ed Denise de Casablanca
☆ Betty Schneider, Gianni Esposito, Françoise Prévost, Daniel Crohem, François Maistre, Jean-Marie Robain, Hans Lucas, Jean-Claude Brialy

Paris Blues ★

US 1961 98m Technicolor
UA/Pennebaker/Diane/Jason/Monica/Monmouth (Sam Shaw)

Two jazz musicians have romantic problems in Paris.
Semi-serious mini-drama with emphasis on the music; one is not quite sure what the actors thought they were up to.
w Jack Sher, Irene Kamp, Walter Bernstein novel Harold Flender d Martin Ritt ph Christian Matras m Duke Ellington
☆ Paul Newman, Joanne Woodward, Sidney Poitier, Louis Armstrong, Diahann Carroll, Serge Reggiani, Barbara Laage
'All wrong from beginning to end.' – Sidney Poitier
Duke Ellington

Paris by Night

GB 1988 103m Eastmancolor
Virgin/British Screen/Film Four International/Zenith

Harassed by personal problems, a Conservative MP in the European Parliament is driven to extreme actions.
Unsatisfactory political drama, intended to expose social and moral hypocrisies but rarely rising above melodrama.

wd David Hare ph Roger Pratt
m Georges Delerue pd Anthony Pratt
ed George Akers
☆ Charlotte Rampling, Michael Gambon, Robert Hardy, Iain Glen, Jane Asher, Andrew Ray, Niamh Cusack, Jonathan White, Linda Bassett, Robert Flemyng, Robert David MacDonald

Paris Express: see The Man Who Watched Trains Go By

'Sometimes the most erotic place to go is inside yourself.'

Paris France

Canada 1993 105m Eastmancolor/bw
Feature Film/Alliance/Lightshow (Eric Norlen, Allan Levine)

A writer comes between a publisher and his wife.
An absurd mishmash of sex and literary musings, resembling a pornographer's fantasy of the artistic life in which coupling and writing are seen as complementary activities.
w Tom Walmsley novel Tom Walmsley
d Gerard Ciccoritti ph Barry Stone
m John McCarthy pd Marian Wihak
ed Roushell Goldstein
☆ Leslie Hope, Peter Outerbridge, Victor Ertmanis, Dan Lett, Raoul Trujillo
'A pretentiously steamy piece of Canadian erotica.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian
'An unerotic bonkathon chock-full of unintentional laughs, hysterical performances and flaccid members.' – Film Review

Paris Holiday ★

US 1957 101m Technirama
UA/Tolda (Bob Hope)

An American comedian meets a French one in Paris, and both have narrow escapes because their script contains the clue to a gang of counterfeiters.
Amiable location romp with the stars in pretty good form.
w Edmund Beloin, Dean Riesner d Gerd Oswald ph Roger Hubert m Joseph J. Lilley
☆ Bob Hope, Fernandel, Anita Ekberg, Martha Hyer, André Morell, Maurice Teynac, Jean Murat, Preston Sturges

Paris Honeymoon

US 1938 85m bw
Paramount

An American in Paris persuades his fiancée to forget a French nobleman.
Candy floss musical for star fans.
w Frank Butler, Don Hartman d Frank Tuttle ph Karl Struss m/ly Leo Robin md Boris Morros ☆ Bing Crosby, Franciska Gaal, Akim Tamiroff
'Entertaining offering that will click substantially at the box office.' – Variety

Paris in Spring

US 1935 81m bw
Paramount
GB title: Paris Love Song

Four visitors change partners in the romantic city.
Predictable romance with good ingredients.
w Samuel Hoffenstein, Franz Schulz, Keene Thompson play Dwight Taylor d Lewis Milestone ☆ Mary Ellis, Tullio Carminati, Lynne Overman, Ida Lupino
'In everything except the unhappy choice of narrative it comes close to being an ideal production.' – Variety

Paris Interlude

US 1934 72m bw
MGM

American newspapermen hang out in a Paris bar.
Aimless comedy-drama which fails to achieve the intended mood of world-weariness.
w Wells Root play All Good Americans by S. J. and Laura Perelman d Edwin L. Marin ☆ Madge Evans, Otto Kruger, Robert Young, Una Merkel, Ted Healy, Louise Henry, Edward Brophy
'60 minutes instead of 72 would still have left something to be desired – further cutting.' – Variety

Paris Is Burning ★★

US 1990 78m colour
ICA/OffWhite (Jennie Livingston)

Documentary about gay black men who compete for prizes at drag balls.
Fascinating glimpse of an enclosed world, reported with insight and sensitivity.
d Jennie Livingston ph Paul Gibson
ed Jonathan Oppenheim
☆ Paris Dupree, Andre Christian, Dorian Corey, Pepper Labeija, Willi Ninja
'A masterpiece of underworld reportage.' – Sight and Sound

Paris Love Song: see Paris in Spring

Paris Model

US 1953 88m bw
Albert Zugsmith/Columbia

Stories involving four copies of the same Paris gown.
Depressing dramatic package with production values at a low ebb and some pleasant talents going awry.
w Robert Smith d Alfred E. Green
ph William Bradford m Albert Glasser
☆ Paulette Goddard, Eva Gabor, Marilyn Maxwell, Barbara Lawrence, Tom Conway, Leif Erickson, Florence Bates, Cecil Kellaway, Robert Hutton
'Wasn't it dreadful?' – Marilyn Maxwell

Paris Nous Appartient: see Paris Belongs to Us

Paris Qui Dort ★

France 1923 40m approx (24 fps) bw silent
Films Diamant (Maurice Diamant-Berger)
aka: The Crazy Ray

A mad scientist invents a ray which brings everyone but six people in Paris to a halt.
Mildly entertaining semi-professional comedy showing several of its director's most engaging traits.
ph Maurice Défassiaux, Paul Guichard wd/ed René Clair ☆ Henri Rollan, Albert Préjean, Marcel Vallée, Madeleine Rodrigue

Paris, Texas ★★★

West Germany/France 1984 148m colour
Road Movies/Argos (Don Guest, Anatole Dauman)

After separating from his wife a man goes missing and is later found in the small town where he was born.
Long, enigmatic but generally fascinating puzzle-without-a-solution, about people who never find what they want.
w Sam Shepard d Wim Wenders
ph Robby Müller m Ry Cooder ad Kate Altman ed Peter Pryzgodda
☆ Harry Dean Stanton (Travis Clay Henderson), Dean Stockwell (Walt Henderson), Aurore Clement (Anne), Hunter Carson (Hunter), Nastassja Kinski (Jane), Bernhard Wicki (Dr. Ulmer)
† Filmed in English.
BAFTA best director

Paris Trout ★★

US 1991 99m CFI color Panavision
Palace/Viacom (Frank Konigsberg, Larry Sanitsky)

In the 1940s, in a small town in Georgia, a bigoted white store-owner is amazed to be tried for shooting a black girl and wounding her mother in a dispute over a car.
Powerful if predictable drama of racial hatred and a disintegrating marriage, though not helped by a portentous voice-over narration.
w Pete Dexter novel Pete Dexter
d Stephen Gyllenhaal ph Robert Elswit
m David Shire pd Richard Sherman
ed Harvey Rosenstock
☆ Dennis Hopper, Barbara Hershey, Ed Harris, Ray McKinnon, Tina Lifford, Darnita Henry, Eric Ware, Ronreaco Lee, Gary Bullock

Paris Underground

US 1945 97m bw
(UA)
GB title: Madame Pimpernel

Two women caught in Paris when the Nazis invade continue their resistance activities.
Artificial and not very exciting flagwaver.
w Boris Ingster, Gertrude Purcell novel Etta Shiber d Gregory Ratoff
ph Lee Garmes m Alexander Tansman
☆ Constance Bennett, Gracie Fields, George Rigaud, Kurt Kreuger, Leslie Vincent 'Mainly trash, involving enough handsome young men, in various poses of gallant gratitude, to satisfy Mae West in her prime.' – James Agee
♪ Alexander Tansman

Paris Vu Par... ★★

France 1965 98m colour
Films du Losange/Les Films du Cyprès/Barbet Schroeder

aka: Six in Paris

Six short stories set in different parts of Paris: in Douchet's 'Saint Germain-des-Prés', an American girl is seduced by appearances. In Rouch's 'Gard du Nord', a discontented wife is offered the freedom that she thinks she desires. In Pollet's 'Rue St Denis', a dull dishwasher takes a prostitute back to his dingy flat. In Rohmer's 'Place de l'étoile', a fastidious shirt-salesman thinks he has killed someone in a roadside brawl. In Godard's 'Montparnasse et Levallois', a girl believes she has mixed up telegrams sent to her two lovers. In Chabrol's 'La Muette Chabrol', a young boy buys ear-plugs to avoid listening to his parents' quarrel and so misses a vital cry for help.
Enjoyable, ironic anecdotes by six French 'New Wave' directors, originally shot in 16mm using hand-held cameras and natural lighting to achieve an appropriately offhand style.
wd Jean Douchet; Jean Rouch; Jean-Daniel Pollet; Eric Rohmer; Jean-Luc Godard; Claude Chabrol ph Nestor Almendros; Etienne Becker; Alain Levent; Albert Maysles; Jean Rabier ed Jacqueline Raynal
☆ Barbara Wilkind, Jean-François Chappey, Jean-Pierre Andréani; Nadine Ballot, Barbet Schroeder, Gilles Quéant; Micheline Dax, Claude Melki; Jean-Michel Rouzière, Marcel Gallon; Joanna Shimkus, Philippe Hiquily, Serge Davri; Stéphane Audran, Gilles Chusseau, Claude Chabrol

Paris When It Sizzles

US 1963 110m Technicolor
Paramount (Richard Quine, George Axelrod)

A film writer tries out several script ideas with his secretary as heroine and himself as hero or villain.
As a French film called La Fête à Henriette this was a charming whimsy, but Hollywood made it heavy-handed and boring, especially as no one in it seems to be having much fun.
w George Axelrod screenplay Julien Duvivier, Henri Jeanson d Richard Quine ph Charles Lang Jnr m Nelson Riddle ad Jean d'Eaubonne ed Archie Marshek cos Hubert de Givenchy, Christian Dior
☆ William Holden (Richard Benson), Audrey Hepburn (Gabrielle Simpson), Grégoire Aslan (Police Inspector), Noël Coward (Alexander Meyerheimer), Raymond Bussières (Gangster), Tony Curtis (Second policeman), Marlene Dietrich, Mel Ferrer
'The new script embalms the original instead of reviving it.' – Stanley Kauffmann, New Republic

Une Parisienne ★

France/Italy 1957 86m Technicolor
Ariane/Cinetel/Filmsonor/Rizzoli (Francis Cosne)

A newly-married woman turns the tables on her philandering husband.
Light-hearted bedroom farce designed as a vehicle for the attractions of Bardot.
w Michel Boisrond, Jean Aurel, Annette Wadement, Jacques Emmanuel d Michel Boisrond ph Marcel Grignon m Hubert Rostaing ad Jean Andre ed Claudine Bouche ☆ Brigitte Bardot (Brigitte), Charles Boyer (Prince Charles), Henri Vidal (Michel), Andre Luquet (Premier Laurier), Nadia Gray (Queen Greta)

Park Row ★

US 1952 83m bw
UA/Samuel Fuller

Conflict breaks out between two newspapers in 1886 New York.
Earnest but flat low-budgeter of a rather unusual kind.
wd Samuel Fuller ph Jack Russell m Paul Dunlap ad Theobold Holsopple ☆ Gene Evans, Mary Welch, Bela Kovacs, Herbert Heyes, Forrest Taylor

Parker

GB 1984 97m colour
Moving Picture Company (Nigel Stafford-Clark)

A British businessman turns up after claiming to have been kidnapped in Munich, but the police don't necessarily believe him.
Suspense thriller hampered by overblown bits of ambivalence which prevent sympathy from lodging in any quarter.
w Trevor Preston d Jim Goddard
ph Peter Jessop m Richard Hartley
☆ Bryan Brown, Cherie Lunghi, Kurt Raab, Bob Peck, Beate Finkh

Parlor, Bedroom and Bath

US 1931 72m bw
MGM

GB title: Romeo in Pyjamas

A mild-mannered husband has trouble when he becomes a landlord.
Rather flatfooted farce, on a par with the star's other talkies.
w Richard Schayer, Robert Hopkins

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♪ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

play Charles W. Bell, Mark Swan d Edward Sedgwick ☆ Buster Keaton, Charlotte Greenwood, Reginald Denny, Cliff Edwards
'Funny, clean enough for kids, and generally well made.' – Variety
† The film was largely shot on location in Keaton's own house.

'As though torn from life's pages!'

Parnell ★

US 1937 115m bw
MGM (John M. Stahl)
A 19th-century Irish politician comes to grief through his love for a married woman.
Well made but miscast biopic, a resounding thud at the box-office.
w John Van Druten, S. N. Behrman play Elsie T. Schauffler d John M. Stahl
ph Karl Freund m William Axt
☆ Clark Gable, Myrna Loy, Edmund Gwenn, Edna May Oliver, Alan Marshal, Donald Crisp, Billie Burke, Berton Churchill, Donald Meek, Montagu Love, George Zucco
'Dull and overlong historical drama … word of mouth is likely to be poor.' – Variety
'A singularly pallid, tedious and unconvincing drama.' – Frank Nugent
'Poor though the picture may be, it is pleasing to think how clean a film magnate's wish-fulfilments are, how virginal and high-minded the tawdry pathetic human past becomes when the Mayers and Goldwyns turn the magic ring.' – Graham Greene

'Fighting Crime The Only Way He Knows How Badly.'

The Parole Officer

GB 2001 93m Technicolor
UIP/DNA/Universal/Film Council/Figment/Toledo (Duncan Kenworthy, Andrew Macdonald, Callum McDougall)
A probation officer is forced to stage a bank robbery so that he can clear himself of being framed for murder.
Slapdash, bumbling comedy of low ambition.
w Steve Coogan, Henry Normal d John Duigan ph John Daly m Alex Heffes pd Tom Brown ed David Freeman
☆ Steve Coogan (Simon Garden), Lena Headey (Emma), Stephen Dillane (Det. Insp. Burton), Om Puri (George), Steven Waddington (Jeff), Ben Miller (Colin), Jenny Agutter (Sarah), Emma Williams (Kirsty), Omar Sharif (Victor Bonderenko)
'A bog-standard caper comedy with deviations into gross-out interludes to please the American teens and any dumbed-down Brits.' – Alexander Walker, London Evening Standard

Parrish

US 1961 137m Technicolor
Warner (Delmer Daves)
A young tobacco plantation worker has an ample sex life and the luck to become boss.
Predictable trudge through scenes from a bestselling novel, less offensive than most such adaptations.
wd Delmer Daves novel Mildred Savage
ph Harry Stradling m Max Steiner
☆ Troy Donahue, Claudette Colbert, Karl Malden, Dean Jagger, Connie Stevens, Diane McBain, Sharon Hugueny

Parsifal ★★

West Germany 1982 255m colour
Artificial Eye/Gaumont/TMS
Cinematic version of Wagner's opera of the knights of the Holy Grail.
Imaginative treatment, set around the composer's death mask, with a youth and a girl playing Parsifal; its actors are dubbed by singers.
d Hans Jürgen Syberberg ph Igor Luther m Richard Wagner md Armin Jordan ed Jutta Brandstaedter, Marianne Fehrenberg
☆ Michael Kutter, Karin Krick, Edith Clever, Armin Jordan, Robert Lloyd, Aage Haugland, Martin Sperr and also the voices of Rainer Goldberg, Yvonne Minton and Wolfgang Schöne

Une Partie de Campagne ★★★

France 1936 40m bw
Pantheon/Pierre Braunberger
aka: A Day in the Country
Around 1880, a Parisian tradesman and his family picnic one Sunday in the country, and one of the daughters falls in love.
An unfinished film which was much admired for its local colour, like an impressionist picture come to life.
wd Jean Renoir story Guy de Maupassant ph Claude Renoir, Jean Bourgoin
m Joseph Kosma ad Robert Gys
ed Marinette Cadix, Marguerite Renoir
☆ Sylvia Bataille (Henriette Dufour), Georges Darnoul (Henri), Jane Marken (Mme. Juliette Dufour), Paul Temps (Anatole)
'Nothing can tarnish the intense lyrical simplicity underlaid with an aching irony and made almost unbearable by the yearning musical score of Kosma. This is everybody's lost love.' – Richard Winnington

Une Partie de Plaisir ★

France 1975 100m colour
La Boétie/Sunchild/Gerico (André Génoves)
The analysis of a divorce.
Bitter comedy drama, with the director's usual scriptwriter playing out his own life story. A little too incestuous for its own good, but with striking moments.
w Paul Gegauff d Claude Chabrol
ph Jean Rabier m Beethoven, Brahms, Schubert ad Guy Littaye ed Jacques Gaillard ☆ Paul Gegauff, Danielle Gegauff, Paula Moore, Michel Valette, Cecile Vassort, Pierre Santini

Parting Glances ★

US 1986 90m DuArt
Rondo (Yoran Mandel, Arthur Silverman)
A gay couple, one of whom is going to work in Africa, spend their last day together with friends.
A low-key drama of love, death and companionship in a community haunted by the fear of death; it was one of the first movies to confront the trauma of AIDS.
wd Bill Sherwood ph Jacek Laskus
pd John Loggia
☆ Richard Ganoung, John Bolger, Steve Buscemi, Kathy Kinney, Adam Nathan, Yolande Bavan, Patrick Tull
'Is skilfully constructed and artfully shot, and boasts impressive acting.' – MFB
† Bill Sherwood died of AIDS in 1990.

Parting Shots

GB 1998 98m colour
UIP/Scimitar/Michael Winner
Told that he has only six weeks to live, a photographer decides to kill all the people who have humiliated him.
An extravagant waste of talent; with a miscast lead and a leaden script, it reworks the director's Death Wish as a comedy, but isn't as funny.
w Michael Winner, Nick Mead d Michael Winner ph Ousama Rawi m Les Reed
pd Crispian Sallis ed Chris Barnes, Arnold Crust (Michael Winner)
☆ Chris Rea, Felicity Kendall, Bob Hoskins, Ben Kingsley, Joanna Lumley, Oliver Reed, Diana Rigg, John Cleese, Gareth Hunt, Peter Davison, Patrick Ryecart, Nicky Henson, Edward Hardwicke
'Sucks on every conceivable level. Its technical ineptitude and dramatic impotence simply beggar belief.' – Andrew Collins, Empire
'A thoroughbred contender for the crown "Worst Film Ever Made".' – Observer

Partners

US 1982 98m Movielab
Titan (Aaron Russo)
Two Los Angeles police officers, one straight and one gay, investigate the murder of a homosexual.
Uneasy comedy-melodrama of somewhat mysterious purpose.
w Francis Veber d James Burrows ph Victor J. Kemper m Georges Delerue
☆ John Hurt, Ryan O'Neal, Kenneth McMillan, Robyn Douglass, Jay Robinson

Partners in Crime

US 1937 66m bw
Paramount
A private eye stumbles on a plot to victimize the reform candidate in a local election.
Reliable second feature with few surprises.
w Garnett Weston novel Kurt Steel
d Ralph Murphy
☆ Lynne Overman, Roscoe Karns, Muriel Hutchinson, Anthony Quinn, Inez Courtney, Charles Halton, Lucien Littlefield
'A cockeyed affair, perforated with surprises.' – Variety

'He is on the trail of a killer… that leads directly to him.'

Partners in Crime

US 1999 90m CFI
Davis/Partners in Crime (Ram Bergman, J. Todd Harris, Dana Lustig)
A small-town detective needs the help of his ex-wife, an FBI agent, to prove that he is not a murderer.
Routine thriller that provides few surprises: the narrative twists and turns are all too predictable.
w Brett Lewis d Jennifer Warren
ph Stevan Larner m Larry Seymour
pd Cosmas A. Demetriou ed Caroline Ross ☆ Rutger Hauer (Gene Reardon), Paulina Porizkova (Wallis P. Longsworth), Andrew Dolan (Lloyd Dyer), Frank Gerrish (Buster Cummins), Dalion Christiansen (Mike Pelton), Sara Ashley Williams (Stacey Reardon)

The Party ★

US 1968 98m DeLuxe
Panavision
UA/Mirisch/Geoffrey (Blake Edwards)
An accident-prone Indian actor is accidentally invited to a swank Hollywood party and wrecks it.
Would-be Tatiesque comedy of disaster, occasionally well-timed but far too long for all its gloss.
w Blake Edwards, Tom and Frank Waldman
d Blake Edwards ph Lucien Ballard
m Henry Mancini pd Fernando Carrere
☆ Peter Sellers, Claudine Longet, Marge Champion, Fay McKenzie, Steve Franken, Buddy Lester
'One thing the old movie makers did know is that two reels is more than enough of this stuff.' – Wilfred Sheed
'It is only rarely that one laughs or even smiles; mostly one just chalks up another point for ingenuity.' – Tom Milne

The Party and the Guests ★

Czechoslovakia 1966 71m bw Barrandov Studio
original title: O Slavnosti A Hostech
A reluctant guest at an outdoor birthday and wedding party refuses to join in the celebrations.
Biting political allegory on the nature of tyranny.
w Ester Krumbachová, Jan Němec d Jan Němec ph Jaromir Šofr m Karel Mares ☆ Helena Pejsková, Jana Pracharova, Zdena Skvorecká, Pavel Bosek, Karel Mares, Evald Schorm, Jan Klusak, Jiří Němec, Wan Vyskocil

Party Girl

US 1958 98m Metrocolor
Cinemascope
MGM/Euterpe (Joe Pasternak)
In twenties Chicago, a lawyer wins a girl from a gangster.
Heavy-handed Scarface-style saga which at one time won a curious reputation for being a satire.
w George Wells d Nicholas Ray
ph Robert Bronner m Jeff Alexander
☆ Robert Taylor, Cyd Charisse, Lee J. Cobb, John Ireland, Kent Smith, Claire Kelly, Corey Allen

'Good. evil. fun.'

Party Monster ②

US/Netherlands 2003 99m CFI
Metro Tartan/ContentFilm/Fortissimo/Killer/John Wells and World of Wonder (Jon Marcus, Bradford Simpson, Christine Vachon, Fenton Bailey, Randy Barbato)
The rise and fall of 'club kid' and party organiser Michael Alig, who went from New York celebrity to drugs to murder.
Based on fact and an earlier documentary by the same directors, a gaudy look back at the drug-fuelled excesses of the early 80s that is knowingly shallow.
wd Fenton Bailey, Randy Barbato book Disco Bloodbath by James St James ph Teodoro Maniaci m Jimmy Harry pd Andrea Stanley ed Jeremy Simmons
☆ Macaulay Culkin (Michael Alig), Seth Green (James St James), Chloe Sevigny (Gitsie), Natasha Lyonne (Brooke), Justin Hagan (Freez), Wilson Cruz (Angel), Wilmer Valderrama (Keoki), Dylan McDermott (Peter Gatien)
'Colorful, lurid and ultimately so-what look at obnoxious personalities careening down their own road to ruin.' – Dennis Harvey, Variety

Party, Party

GB 1983 98m colour
A & M Records
A teenager throws a drunken party while his parents are out.
Ghastly British rubbish: no plot and nothing to laugh at at all, just young people making asses of themselves.

w Daniel Peacock, Terry Winsor d Terry Winsor ph Syd Macartney ☆ Daniel Peacock, Karl Howman, Perry Fenwick, Sean Chapman, Phoebe Nicholls, Caroline Quentin

Party Wire

US 1935 70m bw
Columbia
Small-town gossipers listen in on party wires and draw the wrong conclusions.
Multi-stranded comedy-drama; not important but quite pleasant.
w Ethel Hill, John Howard Lawson, Bruce Manning d Erle C. Kenton
☆ Jean Arthur, Victor Jory, Helen Lowell, Charley Grapewin, Clara Blandick, Maude Eburne 'Entertaining for the family trade.' – Variety

The Party's Over

GB 1963 94m bw
Tricastle (Anthony Perry)
An American girl joins a group of Chelsea beatniks and dies in a fall from a balcony; her father investigates.
Tasteless and boring swinging London trash which became notorious when its producers (Rank) disowned it because it features a party at which a man makes love to a dead girl. An unattractive display of moral squalor.
w Marc Behm d Guy Hamilton ph Larry Pizer m John Barry
☆ Oliver Reed, Eddie Albert, Ann Lynn, Louise Sorel

Pas de Problème: see No Problem!

Un Pasaje de Ida

Dominican Republic 1988 90m colour
Producciones Testimonio (Agliberto Melendez)
aka: A One-Way Ticket
A ship's captain, who is smuggling 40 men to America, panics when police come aboard to search the vessel.
A competent exposé of high-level corruption and low-level greed which gains some resonance from its harrowing climax, based as it is on a true story.
w Agliberto Melendez, Adelso Cass, Danilo Taveras d Agliberto Melendez ph Pedro Guzman Cordero m Rafael Solano pd Orlando Menicucci ed Pericles Mejia ☆ Horacio Veloz, Miguel Buccarelli, Victor Checo, Felix German, Pepito Guerra, Nini German, Giovanni Cruz, Delta Soto

Pasazerka: see Passenger

Pascali's Island ★

GB 1988 104m Metrocolor
Virgin/Avenue Pictures/Initial/Film Four International
On an Aegean island, a Turkish spy and an English con man attempt to double-cross one another.
Elegant period drama full of an understated sexual tension.
wd James Dearden novel Barry Unsworth ph Roger Deakins m Loek Dikker pd Andrew Mollo ed Edward Marnier
☆ Ben Kingsley, Charles Dance, Helen Mirren, Stefan Gryff, George Murcell, Nadim Sawalha, T. P. McKenna, Sheila Allan

Pasqualino Settebellezze: see Seven Beauties

The Passage

GB 1978 98m Eastmancolor
Technovision
Hemdale/Passage/Lester Goldsmith-Maurice Binder (John Quested)
A Basque shepherd guides a scientist and his family from occupied France over the mountains into Spain.
Routine war suspenser given an unnecessary taint of sadism. Only those addicted to unpleasant detail will enjoy it.
w Bruce Micolaysen novel The Perilous Passage by Bruce Micolaysen d J. Lee Thompson ph Michael Reed m Michael J. Lewis
☆ Anthony Quinn, James Mason, Malcolm McDowell, Patricia Neal, Kay Lenz, Paul Clemens, Christopher Lee
'Utter rubbish.' – Malcolm McDowell

Le Passage du Rhin: see The Crossing of the Rhine

Passage Home

GB 1955 102m bw
GFD/Group Films (Julian Wintle)
In 1931, tensions run high on a merchant ship when the captain accepts an attractive girl as passenger from South America.
Obvious melodrama complete with drunken captain and storm at sea; not badly done if it must be done at all.
w William Fairchild novel Richard Armstrong d Roy Baker ph Geoffrey Unsworth m Clifton Parker
☆ Peter Finch, Anthony Steel, Diane Cilento, Cyril Cusack, Geoffrey Keen, Hugh Griffith, Duncan Lamont, Bryan Forbes, Gordon Jackson, Michael Craig

A Passage to India ★★

GB 1984 163m Technicolor
EMI/John Brabourne-Richard Goodwin/HBO/John Heyman/Edward Sands
An English girl in India accuses an Indian doctor of rape.
Another film about India under the Raj seems somewhat redundant after The Jewel in the Crown, Gandhi and The Far Pavilions, but at least under David Lean's direction this is intelligent and good to look at.
novel E. M. Forster play Santha Rama Rau ph Ernest Day m Maurice Jarre pd John Box wd/ed David Lean cos Judith Moorcroft
☆ Judy Davis, Alec Guinness, Victor Banerjee, Peggy Ashcroft, James Fox, Nigel Havers, Richard Wilson, Antonia Pemberton, Michael Culver, Art Malik, Saeed Jaffrey, Ann Firbank, Clive Swift, Sandra Hotz
Peggy Ashcroft (supporting actress); music best picture; direction; Judy Davis; adapted screenplay; photography; editing; art direction
Peggy Ashcroft

Passage to Marseilles ★

US 1944 110m bw
Warner (Hal B. Wallis)
Convicts escape from Devil's Island and join the Free French.
A rare example of a film boasting flashbacks within flashbacks within flashbacks, this confusing if sometimes entertaining all-star saga is done to death by its unconvincing flagwaving endpapers which prevent it from being at all comparable with Casablanca, as was clearly intended.
w Casey Robinson, Jack Moffitt story Charles Nordhoff, James Hall d Michael Curtiz ph James Wong Howe m Max Steiner
☆ Humphrey Bogart, Michèle Morgan, Claude Rains, Philip Dorn, Sydney Greenstreet, Peter Lorre, Helmut Dantine, George Tobias, John Loder, Victor Francen, Eduardo Ciannelli
'Invincibly second rate.' – Richard Mallet, Punch

Passage West

US 1951 81m Technicolor
Pine-Thomas/Paramount
Religious pioneers headed west are menaced by escaped convicts.
Entertaining minor Western.
w Lewis R. Foster story Nedrick Young (Alvah Bessie) d Lewis R. Foster ph Loyal Griggs m Mahlon Merrick
☆ John Payne, Dennis O'Keefe, Arleen Whelan, Peter Hanson
† Because Bessie had been blacklisted, Nedrick Young fronted for him until he, too, was blacklisted.

Passager de la Pluie: see Rider on the Rain

Passe-Passe: see Quicker than the Eye

Passed Away

US 1992 96m Technicolor
Hollywood/Touchwood (Larry Brezner, Timothy Marx)
After his elderly father dies, and the family gathers for a wake, the eldest son decides it is time to take risks with his life.
Mundane domestic comedy, too predictable to be enjoyable; like its central character it settles for safety and familiarity.
wd Charlie Peters ph Arthur Albert m Richard Gibbs pd Catherine Hardwicke ed Harry Keramidas ☆ Bob Hoskins (Johnny Scanlan), Blair Brown (Amy Scanlan), Tim Curry (Boyd Pinter), Frances McDormand (Nora Scanlan), William Petersen (Frank Scanlan), Pamela Reed (Terry Scanlan), Peter Riegert (Peter Syracusa), Maureen Stapleton (Mary Scanlan), Nancy Travis (Cassie Slocombe), Jack Warden (Jack Scanlan)

Passenger ★

Poland 1963 63m bw Dyaliscope
Kadr original title: Pasazerka
A German woman on a liner sees a woman she thinks she recognizes, and realizes that it is one of her charges when she was an official in a concentration camp.
Minor but effective character drama, in essence an investigation of guilt. The director died during its making, so some scenes are replaced by still photographs.
wd Andrzej Munk play Zofia Posmysz-Piasecka ph Krzysztof Winiewicz ☆ Aleksandra Slaska, Anna Ciepielewska

'I used to be somebody else; but I traded myself in...'

The Passenger ★

Italy/France/Spain 1975 119m
Metrocolor
MGM/CCC/Concordia/CIPI (Carlo Ponti)
aka: Profession: Reporter
A TV reporter in a desert hotel changes identities with a dead man and finds he is now an African gun runner being drawn irresistibly towards his own death.
Pretty much in the style of Blow Up, but this time with no frills of fashion or nudity to bring the public in. After this, Antonioni was given up by the commercial cinema.
w Mark Peploe, Peter Wollen, Michelangelo Antonioni d Michelangelo Antonioni ph Luciano Tovoli md Ivan Vandor
☆ Jack Nicholson, Maria Schneider, Jenny Runacre, Ian Hendry

'A film of real romance, depth and power ... the very quintessence of cinema.' – Michael Billington, Illustrated London News

'He's an ex-cop with a bad mouth, a bad attitude, and a bad seat. For the terrorists on flight 163 ... he's very bad news.'

Passenger 57

US 1992 84m Technicolor
Warner (Lee Rich, Dan Paulson, Dylan Sellers)
An ex-cop goes into action when terrorists hijack his plane.
A Die Hard-style thriller, entertaining enough although inevitably predictable.
w David Loughery, Dan Gordon, Stewart Raffill d Kevin Hooks ph Mark Irwin m Stanley Clarke pd Jaymes Hinkle ed Richard Nord ☆ Wesley Snipes, Bruce Payne, Tom Sizemore, Alex Datcher, Bruce Greenwood, Robert Hooks, Elizabeth Hurley, Michael Horse
'About as fresh as an in-flight meal. Even so, it has a certain appetizing quality about it.' – Guardian

Passing Clouds: see Spellbound

The Passing of the Third Floor Back ★

GB 1935 90m bw
Gaumont (Ivor Montagu)
A Christ-like visitor stays at a London boarding house and changes the lives of the inmates.
Competent film version of a famous, sentimental, dated play.
w Michael Hogan, Alma Reville play Jerome K. Jerome d Berthold Viertel ph Curt Courant m Hubert Bath
☆ Conrad Veidt, René Ray, Anna Lee, Frank Cellier, Mary Clare, Beatrix Lehmann, Cathleen Nesbitt, Sara Allgood
'Drawing power of the book, the play, the picturization and the star should, on form, be invincible.' – Variety
'The pious note has been toned down, the milk of human kindness has been agreeably watered, and the types in the small London private hotel are observed with malicious realism.' – Graham Greene

Passion: see Madame Dubarry (1919)

Passion

US 1954 84m Technicolor
Benedict Bogeaus/RKO
Jealousy erupts between ranchers in Spanish California.
Peculiarly titled Western of no merit whatsoever.
w Beatrice A. Dresher, Joseph Leytes d Allan Dwan ph John Alton m Louis Forbes
☆ Yvonne de Carlo, Cornel Wilde, Raymond Burr, Lon Chaney Jnr, Rodolfo Acosta, John Qualen

Passion ★

France 1982 88m Eastmancolor
Artificial Eye/Sonimage/Sara Films/A2/Film et Video Productions (Alain Sarde)
A Polish film director has an affair with the wife of a factory owner who is trying to cope with a threatened strike.
Visually complex examination of film-making, work, love and betrayal.
wd Jean-Luc Godard ph Raoul Coutard m Ravel, Mozart and others ad Serge Marzolff
☆ Isabelle Huppert, Hanna Schygulla, Michel Piccoli, Jerzy Radziwilowicz, László

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Szabó, Jean-François Stevenin, Patrick Bonnel, Sophie Loucachevsky

Passion Fish

US 1992 134m DuArt
Atchafalaya (Sarah Green, Maggie Renzi)

A new nurse with problems of her own gives a crippled TV actress a reason to live.
A well-acted but constricting domestic drama.
wd John Sayles ph Roger Deakins
m Mason Daring pd Dan Bishop, Dianna Freas ed John Sayles
☆ Mary McDonnell, Alfre Woodard, David Strathairn, Vondie Curtis-Hall, Nora Dunn, Sheila Kelley, Angela Bassett, Leo Burmester

'Pic has a measure of charm, plenty of validity and some fine scenes, but lacks the intensity that would have made it galvanizing or transcendent.' – Variety

Mary McDonnell; John Sayles

Passion Flower

US 1930 78m bw
MGM

Two rich girls marry beneath them.
Tedious romantic drama about class and true love.
w Martin Flavin, L. E. Johnson, Edith Fitzgerald novel Kathleen Norris
d William de Mille
☆ Kay Francis, Kay Johnson, Charles Bickford, Lewis Stone, ZaSu Pitts, Dickie Moore, Winter Hall

'A flock of talent, but talent doesn't always count on a marquee.' – Variety

A Passion for Murder

Canada 1992 92m colour
The Fare/Actra (Robert Vince, Vonnie von Helmont)

aka: Black Ice

Following the death of the corrupt politician who was her lover, a female secret agent enlists the help of a friendly taxi driver when she is stalked by a killer from the CIA.
A chase thriller taken at a too-leisurely pace, and demonstrating too great an interest in the passing landscape, to maintain much suspense.
w Arne Olsen, John Alan Schwartz d Neill Fearnley ph David Geddes m Asmin Bahtia pd Deanna Rhode ed Alan Lee ☆ Joanna Pacula, Michael Nouri, Michael Ironside, Lee J. Campbell, Victor Cowie, Mickey Jones

'When nature divides, the spirit unites.'

Passion in the Desert ★

US 1997 93m colour
Fine Line/Roland (Jamil Dehlavi, Lavinia Currier)

Lost in the Sahara, a Napoleonic officer forms a loving relationship with a female leopard.
An unusual and imaginative movie that manages without much dialogue to raise philosophical questions of man's place within the natural world.
w Lavinia Currier, Martin Edmunds novella Honoré de Balzac d Lavinia Currier ph Alexei Rodionov m Joseph Nieto pd Amanda McArthur ed Nicolas Gaster
☆ Ben Daniels, Michel Piccoli, Paul Meston, Kenneth Collard, Nadi Odeh

'If You Go Down To The Woods Tonight...'

The Passion of Darkly Noon

GB/Germany/Belgium 1995 101m colour
Entertainment/Fugitive/Die Hauskunst/Keytsman (Dominic Anciano, Frank Henschke, Alain Keytsman)

A 17-year-old runaway from a strict religious community is given shelter by a carpenter and the woman he lives with.
Portentous and overwrought fable, involving incest and murder, full of symbols that will no doubt mean something to someone.
wd Philip Ridley ph John de Borman
m Nick Bicât pd Hubert Pouillé ed Leslie Healey ☆ Brendan Fraser, Ashley Judd, Viggo Mortensen, Loren Dean, Grace Zabriskie, Lou Myers, Kate Harper

'Looks and sounds like a B-movie with symbolic pretensions.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

The Passion of Joan of Arc ★★★★

France 1928 110m bw silent
Société Générale des Films

original title: La Passion de Jeanne d'Arc

On her last day on Earth, Joan of Arc is subjected to five increasingly threatening interrogations before being burned at the stake.
Austerely moving drama, using close-ups to give intense scrutiny to Joan and her accusers, drawing in the audience to become involved in the action.
w Carl Dreyer, Joseph Delteil d Carl Dreyer ph Rudolph Maté ad Hermann Warm, Jean Hugo ed Carl Dreyer
☆ Renée Falconetti (Joan of Arc), Eugène Silvain (Bishop Cauchon), Maurice Schutz (Nicholas Loyseleur), Michel Simon (Jean Lemaitre), Antonin Artaud (Jean Massieu), Louis Ravet (Jean Beaupere), André Berley (Jean d'Estivet), Jean d'Yd (Guillaume Erard)

'One of the greatest of all movies ... Falconetti's Joan may be the finest performance ever recorded on film.' – Pauline Kael

'Isn't worth a dollar to any commercial regular picture theatre in the US.' – Variety

† Lilian Gish was first considered for the role of Joan. Falconetti never made another film. After its first showing the film was cut by the French authorities and was banned by the British until 1930.
†† A Region 1 DVD release includes commentary by Dreyer scholar Casper Tybjerg.

The Passion of The Christ ★ ④

US 2004 126m DeLuxe Panavision
Icon/Newmarket (Mel Gibson, Bruce Davey, Stephen McEveety)

After being taunted by the Devil and betrayed by Judas, Jesus is arrested, tried, beaten and crucified; he rises from the dead.
A film that is inaccessible to criticism, preaching to the converted; its relentless concentration on brutality and torture numbs the mind, while much of its imagery derives from horror movies. Make of it what you will.
w Benedict Fitzgerald, Mel Gibson d Mel Gibson ph Caleb Deschanel m John Debney pd Francesco Frigeri ed John Wright sp makeup fx: Greg Cannom
☆ Jim Caviezel (Jesus), Monica Bellucci (Magdalen), Hristo Naumov Shopov (Pontius Pilate), Maia Morgenstern (Mary), Francesco De Vito (Peter), Luca Lionello (Judas), Mattia Sbragia (Caiaphas), Rosalinda Celentano (Satan)

'A personal message movie of the most radical kind, attempting to re-create events of personal urgency to Gibson. The filmmaker has put his artistry and fortune at the service of his conviction and belief, and that doesn't happen often.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times

'A serious, handsome, excruciating film that radiates total commitment.' – Richard Corliss, Time

'Contains little to learn from, unless one is unfamiliar with basic Christian history.' – David Sterrit, Christian Science Monitor

'Instead of being moved by Christ's suffering, or awed by his sacrifice, I felt abused by a filmmaker intent on punishing an audience, for who knows what sins.' – David Ansen, Newsweek

'Gibson's film, like the desolate kitsch icons of pure pain in Spanish country churches and Bavarian baroque chapels, is made for zealots by a zealot: it's propaganda.' – Richard Eyre, Guardian

† The dialogue is in Aramaic and Latin, with English subtitles.
†† The film was an astonishing box-office success, taking more than $370m at the US box-office.
††† It was reissued in 2005 as The Passion Recut, running at 121m, with some of the gore removed.

Caleb Deschanel; John Debney; makeup (Keith Vanderlaan, Christien Tinsley)

Passion: The Story of Percy Grainger ★

Australia/US 1999 98m Technicolor
AFFC/Hollywood Partners/Movie Network (Matt Carroll)

In 1914, the Australian pianist and composer Percy Grainger enjoys success in London while involved in a seemingly-incestuous relationship with his domineering, syphilitic mother, and a sado-masochistic one with a young musician who wants to marry him.
Good acting and some attractive locations enliven a drama that seems constrained by its period setting; the narrative requires a more flamboyant approach.
w Don Watson screenplay George and Peter Goldsworthy play Percy & Rose by Rob George d Peter Duncan ph Martin McGrath md Christine Woodruff pd Murray Picknett ed Simon Martin cos Terry Ryan ☆ Barbara Hershey (Rose), Richard Roxburgh (Percy), Emily Woof (Karen Holten), Claudia Karvan (Alfhild de Luce), Simon Burke (Herman Sandby), Linda Cropper (Mrs Lowery), Julia Blake (Queen Alexandra), Bille Brown (John Grainger)

'A seductive mix for broad-minded buffs of Grainger's oeuvre, but likely to prove of limited appeal to general auds.' – Derek Elley, Variety

† John Bird's biography Percy Grainger was also used for research.

A Passion to Kill

US 1994 93m colour
A-Pix/Rysher (Bruce Cohn Curtis)

aka: Rules of Obsession

A psychiatrist falls for his best friend's wife, who may be a killer.
Dull, totally predictable thriller that is most likely to turn up as a filler on late-night TV; even there, it is best avoided.
w William Delligan d Rick King ph Paul Ryan m Robert Sprayberry pd Ivo Cristante ed David H. Lloyd
☆ Scott Bakula (David), Chelsea Field (Diana), Sheila Kelley (Beth), John Getz (Jerry), Rex Smith (Ted), Eddie Vélez (Morales), Michael Warren (Martindale), Michael Cavanaugh (Robinson), France Nuyen (Lou Mazaud)

'An entirely formulaic soft-sex soap'n'slasher indistinguishable from the hundreds of cable-ready pix already clogging up the airwaves.' – Steven Gaydos, Variety

The Passionate Friends ★★

GB 1948 91m bw
GFD/Cineguild (Ronald Neame)

US title: One Woman's Story

A woman marries an older man, then meets again her young lover.
A simple and obvious dramatic situation is tricked out with flashbacks and the inimitable high style of its director to make a satisfying entertainment.
w Eric Ambler novel H. G. Wells d David Lean ph Guy Green m Richard Addinsell
☆ Ann Todd, Trevor Howard, Claude Rains, Betty Ann Davies, Isabel Dean, Arthur Howard, Wilfrid Hyde-White

'Mr Lean plants his clues with the certainty of a master of the detective story, and heightens their effect with a sure handling of camera and sound track.' – The Times

† Ronald Neame began as director, but was replaced by David Lean, his partner in Cineguild, and instead took over the role of producer from Eric Ambler. Lean replaced Marius Goring with Trevor Howard.

The Passionate Plumber

US 1932 73m bw
MGM

A woman hires a professional lover to fend off the man she really loves but thinks she shouldn't have.
Much revamped farce version of a comedy made straight in 1927 and 1942. All flopped, but this is the worst.
w Laurence E. Johnson play Her Cardboard Lover by Frederick Lonsdale
d Edward Sedgwick
☆ Buster Keaton, Jimmy Durante, Irene Purcell, Polly Moran, Gilbert Roland, Mona Maris, Maude Eburne

'Another lay-me-down-to-sleeper for box offices.' – Variety

The Passionate Sentry: see Who Goes There?

The Passionate Stranger

GB 1956 97m bw/Eastmancolor
British Lion/Beaconsfield (Peter Rogers, Gerald Thomas)

US title: A Novel Affair

A lady novelist bases a character on her virile chauffeur; he reads the book and thinks she fancies him.
Feeble comedy, half of it consisting of a dramatization of the heroine's very dull novel.
w Muriel and Sydney Box d Muriel Box ph Otto Heller m Humphrey Searle
☆ Ralph Richardson, Margaret Leighton, Carlo Justini, Patricia Dainton, Marjorie Rhodes, Thorley Walters, Frederick Piper

Passionate Summer

GB 1958 104m Eastmancolor
Briar/Kenneth Harper

A divorced headmaster at a Jamaican school is loved by three women.
Silly melodrama with splendid backgrounds ruined by poor colour.
w Joan Henry novel The Shadow and the Peak by Richard Mason d Rudolph Cartier ph Ernest Steward m Angelo Lavagnino
☆ Virginia McKenna, Bill Travers, Yvonne Mitchell, Alexander Knox, Ellen Barrie, Carl Mohner

'The climactic hurricane does little to dispel the overall feeling of emotional suffocation.' – MFB

La Passione

GB 1996 109m colour
Warner/Fugitive (Chris Rea)

A working-class boy makes a fortune with a secret family formula and becomes a racing driver, but does not find happiness.

A movie of quite startling banality, little more than an elongated music video.

w Chris Rea d John B. Hobbs ph Roger Bonnici m Chris Rea pd Garry Freeman ed Paul Endacott

☆ Shirley Bassey, Sean Gallagher, Thomas Orange, Paul Shane, Jan Ravens, Carmen Silvera, Keith Barron

'The style is strained and vacuous.' – George Perry, Sunday Times

Passione d'Amore

Italy/France 1982 119m Eastmancolor
Connoisseur/Rizzoli Films/Massfilm/Marceau Cocinor (Franco Committou, Gino Santarelli)

A neurotic and unattractive woman becomes infatuated with a handsome young army captain.

Turgid 19th-century melodrama.

w Ruggero Maccari, Ettore Scola novel Fosca by Ignio Ugo Tarchetti d Ettore Scola ph Claudio Ragona m Armando Trovagoli ad Fiorenzo Senese ed Raimondo Crociani

☆ Valeria D'Obici, Bernard Giraudeau, Jean-Louis Trintignant, Massimo Girotti, Bernard Blier, Laura Antonelli

Passport to Destiny

US 1943 65m bw
RKO (Herman Schlom)

During the Second World War, a London charlady takes her scrubbing brush and bucket and makes her way to Berlin to assassinate Hitler, protected by her dead husband's lucky charm.

One of the silliest movies ever made, even by the standards of wartime propaganda: the risible narrative makes no sense at all, though Lanchester acts as if her life depended upon her performance.

w Val Burton, Muriel Roy Bolton d Ray McCarey ph Jack Mackenzie m Roy Webb md C. Bakaleinikoff ad Albert D'Agostino, Jack Okey ed Robert Swink

☆ Elsa Lanchester, Gordon Oliver, Lenore Aubert, Lionel Royce, Fritz Feld, Joseph Vitale, Gavin Muir, Lloyd Corrigan, Anita Bolster, Lumsden Hare

† Charles Laughton appears in a photograph as Elsa Lanchester's husband.

Passport to Fame: see The Whole Town's Talking

Passport to Hell

US 1932 72m bw
Fox

A woman tainted by scandal moves from country to country and marries a German commandant in the Cameroons to avoid internment.

Reasonably lively drama which ends less well than it began.

w Bradley King, Leon Gordon, Harry Hervey d Frank Lloyd

☆ Elissa Landi, Paul Lukas, Warner Oland, Alexander Kirkland, Donald Crisp

'Not a de luxer; Broadway spotted because of the product shortage.' – Variety

Passport to Pimlico ★★★★

GB 1949 84m bw
Ealing (E. V. H. Emmett)

Part of a London district is discovered to belong to Burgundy, and the inhabitants find themselves free of rationing restrictions.

A cleverly detailed little comedy which inaugurated the best period of Ealing, its preoccupation with suburban man and his foibles. Not exactly satire, but great fun, and kindly with it.

w T. E. B. Clarke d Henry Cornelius ph Lionel Banes m Georges Auric ad Roy Oxley ed Michael Truman

☆ Stanley Holloway (Arthur Pemberton), Margaret Rutherford (Prof. Hatton-Jones), Basil Radford (Gregg), Naunton Wayne (Straker), Hermione Baddeley (Eddie Randall), John Slater (Frank Huggins), Paul Dupuis (Duke of Burgundy), Jane Hylton (Molly), Raymond Huntley (Mr. Wix), Betty Warren (Connie Pemberton), Barbara Murray (Shirley Pemberton), Sydney Tafler (Fred Cowan)

'One of the most felicitous and funny films since the age of the René Clair comedies.' – C. A. Lejeune

† The film was based on a genuine news item. The Canadian government presented to the Netherlands the room in which Princess Juliana was to bear a child.

†† The Region 2 DVD release is available only as part of four-disc set, Ealing Comedy Classics 2.

T. E. B. Clarke

Passport to Shame

GB 1959 88m bw
United/Cory/Eros
US title: Room 43

A taxi driver rescues his girl from the white slave business.

Would-be seamy melodrama which just about serves its purpose.

w Patrick Alexander d Alvin Rakoff ph Jack Asher m Ken Jones

☆ Eddie Constantine, Diana Dors, Odile Versois, Herbert Lom, Brenda de Banzie, Robert Brown

Passport to Suez

US 1943 71m bw
Columbia (Wallace MacDonald)

In Alexandria, the Lone Wolf foils Nazi spies who steal British plans that will enable them to destroy the Suez canal.

An over-complicated minor thriller, more interested in propaganda than suspense.

w John Stone story Alden Nash d André de Toth ph L. W. O'Connell md M. W. Stoloff ad Lionel Banks ed Mel Thorsen

☆ Warren William, Eric Blore, Ann Savage, Robert Stanford, Sheldon Leonard, Lloyd Bridges, Gavin Muir

† It was André de Toth's first feature in the US. According to Fragments, his autobiography, he was told 'the script stinks, but do the best you can'. The film had a seven-day shooting schedule and he finished it seven days late.

Passport to Treason

GB 1956 80m bw
Mid Century/Eros

A detective traces the death of his colleague to fascists working within an alleged peace group.

Stock melodramatic situations straightforwardly presented make this a watchable support.

w Kenneth Hales, Norman Hudis d Robert S. Baker ph Monty Berman m Stanley Black ☆ Rod Cameron, Lois Maxwell, Clifford Evans, John Colicos, Ballard Berkeley

The Password Is Courage ★

GB 1962 116m bw
MGM/Andrew and Virginia Stone

In Europe during World War II, Sgt-Major Charles Coward has a career of escapes and audacious anti-Nazi exploits.

Lively, slightly over-humorous account of one man's war, well mounted and shot entirely on location.

wd Andrew L. Stone biography John Castle ph David Boulton

☆ Dirk Bogarde, Maria Perschy, Alfred Lynch, Nigel Stock, Reginald Beckwith

'The experiences are, it seems, mainly true but they do not seem so.' – Guardian

Past Midnight

US 1991 96m Foto-Kem
Cinetel (Lisa M. Hansen)

A social worker begins an affair with a paroled prisoner, convicted of murdering his pregnant wife.

Utterly predictable thriller, taken at a slow pace that does nothing to disguise its deficiencies.

w Frank Norwood d Jan Eliasberg ph Robert Yeoman m Steve Barteck pd Sharon Seymour ed Christopher Rouse

☆ Rutger Hauer, Natasha Richardson, Clancy Brown, Guy Bond, Ernie Lively, Tom Wright

Pastor Hall ★

GB 1940 97m bw
Charter (John Boulting)

The story of a German village pastor shot for denouncing the Nazis. Inspired by the life of Martin Niemöller (1892–1984), who survived eight years in concentration camps.

A courageous film of its time, not very interesting dramatically or cinematically.

w Leslie Arliss, Haworth Bromley, Anna Reiner play Ernst Toller d Roy Boulting ph Max Greene

☆ Wilfrid Lawson, Nova Pilbeam, Seymour Hicks, Marius Goring, Percy Walsh, Brian Worth, Peter Cotes, Hay Petrie

'Not much meat on her, but what there is is cherce!'

Pat and Mike ★★

US 1952 95m bw
MGM (Lawrence Weingarten)

A small-time sports promoter takes on a female intellectual multi-champion.

A comedy which amuses because of its star playing, but doesn't really develop. All very easy going, with guest appearances from sporting personalities.

w Ruth Gordon, Garson Kanin d George Cukor ph William Daniels m David Raksin

☆ Spencer Tracy, Katharine Hepburn, Aldo Ray, William Ching, Sammy White, Jim Backus, Phyllis Povah

'They do not, like the Lunts, give the impression of a rigid calculated effect; rather, they complement and stimulate each other.' – MFB

script

Pat Garrett and Billy the Kid

US 1973 106m Metrocolor Panavision
MGM (Gordon Carroll)

An outlaw-turned-sheriff tracks down his former partner.

Blood-spattered version of a Western legend, with violence always to the fore, accentuated by the impossibility of listening to the dialogue because of poor direction and recording.

w Rudolph Wurlitzer d Sam Peckinpah ph John Coquillon m Bob Dylan

☆ James Coburn, Kris Kristofferson, Bob Dylan, Richard Jaeckel, Katy Jurado, Slim Pickens, Chill Wills, Jason Robards Jnr

'A sombre, intense, downbeat essay on the truth behind the legend and the legend behind the truth.' – Sight and Sound

'Shows what Peckinpah can do when he doesn't put his mind to it.' – Stanley Kauffmann

'A rash adventure in inadvertent self-parody.' – William S. Pechter

'Ambitious, erotic, peculiarly unrealized…' – Pauline Kael, New Yorker

'Laughter is contagious.'

Patch Adams

US 1998 115m DeLuxe
Universal/Blue Wolf-Farrell/Minoff-Bungalow 78 (Barry Kemp, Mike Farrell, Marvin Minoff, Charles Newirth)

A doctor discovers that clowning promotes health, and sets up his own hospital to prove it.

Cloyingly sweet drama that is based on a true story but here bears no resemblance to any reality; it is merely an opportunity for Williams to be alternately manic and misty-eyed.

w Steve Oedekerk book Gesundheit – Good Health Is a Laughing Matter by Hunter Doherty Adams with Maureen Mylander d Tom Shadyac ph Phedon Papamichael m Marc Shaiman pd Linda DeScenna ed Don Zimmerman

☆ Robin Williams, Daniel London, Monica Potter, Philip Seymour Hoffman, Bob Gunton, Peter Coyote, Josef Sommer, Irma P. Hall, Frances Lee McCain, Harvey Presnell, Daniella Kuhn, Jake Bowen, Michael Jeter, Harold Gould, Richard Kiley

'A comedy that neglects the humble task of making an audience laugh in favour of the more vainglorious task of delivering a 90-minute lecture on the positive benefits laughter has for your kidneys.' – Tom Shone, Sunday Times

Marc Shaiman

A Patch of Blue ★

US 1965 105m bw Panavision
MGM/Pandro S. Berman

A blind girl who lives in a slum is helped by a Negro with whom she falls in love without realizing his colour.

Polished tearjerker with racial overtones; nicely done for those who can take it.

wd Guy Green novel Be Ready with Bells and Drums by Elizabeth Kata ph Robert Burks m Jerry Goldsmith

☆ Sidney Poitier, Elizabeth Hartman, Shelley Winters, Wallace Ford, Ivan Dixon, Elisabeth Fraser, John Qualen

Shelley Winters

Robert Burks; Jerry Goldsmith; Elizabeth Hartman

'He wants YOU to have his baby!'

Paternity

US 1981 93m Movielab
Paramount (Jerry Tokofsky)

A middle-aged bachelor decides to father a son via a hired mother, who will then return the child to him.

Tastelessly up-dated Hollywood romance with predictable complications. Not worth sitting through.

w Charlie Peters d David Steinberg ph Bobby Byrne m David Shire

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

☆ Burt Reynolds, Beverly D'Angelo, Norman Fell, Paul Dooley, Elizabeth Ashley, Lauren Hutton, Juanita Moore

Pather Panchali ★★★★

India 1955 115m bw
Government of West Bengal (Satyajit Ray)

In a small Bengal village, the son of a would-be writer grows up in poverty and tragedy before setting off with what remains of the family to seek a living in Benares.

A remarkable first film of a director now famous, showing that people are much the same though the details of their daily lives may be different. The pace may be slow but the content is mainly absorbing.

wd Satyajit Ray novels Bhibuti Bashan Bannerjee ph Subrata Mitra m Ravi Shankar ad Banshi Chandragupta ed Dulal Dutta

☆ Kanu Banerjee (Harihar), Karuna Banerjee (Sarbajaya), Uma Das Gupta (Durga), Subir Bannerjee (Apu), Chunibala (Indir Thakrun)

'It has been left to the Indian cinema to give us a picture of a childhood which preserves under the shadow of experience not only its innocence but its gaiety.' – Dilys Powell

'Not to have seen the cinema of Ray means existing in the world without seeing the sun or the moon.' – Akira Kurosawa

'His picture has the quality of intimate, unforgettable experience.' – Lindsay Anderson

'Any picture as loose in structure or as listless in tempo as this one is would barely pass as a "rough cut" with the editors in Hollywood.' – Bosley Crowther, New York Times

† The film was the first part of a trilogy and was followed by Aparajito (1956) and The World of Apu (1959).

Pathfinder ★★

Norway 1987 86m colour
Guild/Filmkameratene/Norsk Film (John M. Jacobson)

original title: Ofelas

A gang of ruthless raiders capture a 16-year-old boy and force him to lead them to his village so that they may plunder it.

Based on an ancient Lapp folk-tale, this is a simple, direct, marvellously exciting adventure shot in a snow- and ice-bound landscape.

wd Nils Gaup ph Erling Thurmann-Andersen m Nils-Aslak Valkeapaa pd Harald Egede-Nissen ed Niels Pagh Andersen

☆ Mikkel Gaup, Nils Utsi, Svein Scharffenberg, Helgi Skulason, Sverre Porsanger, Svein Birger Olsen

♗ best foreign film

'Two Worlds. One War. The Ultimate Battle Begins.'

Pathfinder ★ (2)

US 2007 100m
TCF/Phoenix Pictures/Dune Entertainment (Mike Medavoy, Arnold W. Messer, Marcus Nispel)

US promotional title: The Legend of the Ghost Warrior

A Viking boy left behind in primordial America by his brutal clan is raised within a native tribe to become their saviour when the Norsemen return to conquer years later.

A clichéd legend given an over-the-top treatment for a vaguely graphic novel texture, this Norse nonsense is a predictable, badly edited mess of blurry action, cartoon blood and violence.

w Laeta Kalogridis screenplay 'Veiviseren' (1987) by Nils Gaup d Marcus Nispel ph Daniel C. Pearl m Jonathan Elias pd Greg Blair ad Geoff Wallace ed Jay Friedkin, Glen Scantlebury sp Masters FX

☆ Karl Urban (Ghost), Russell Means (Pathfinder), Moon Bloodgood (Starfire), Jay Tavare (Blackwing), Clancy Brown (Gunnar)

'After the first 1,000 or so beheadings, impalements and severed limbs, Pathfinder's slash may just induce sleep.' – Robert Dominguez, New York Daily News

Paths of Glory ★★★★

US 1957 86m bw
UA/Bryna (James B. Harris)

In 1916 in the French trenches, three soldiers are courtmartialled for cowardice.

Incisive melodrama chiefly depicting the corruption and incompetence of the high command; the plight of the soldiers is less interesting. The trench scenes are the most vivid ever made, and the rest is shot in genuine castles, with resultant difficulties of lighting and recording; the overall result is an overpowering piece of cinema.

w Stanley Kubrick, Calder Willingham, Jim Thompson novel Humphrey Cobb d Stanley Kubrick ph Georg Krause m Gerald Fried ad Ludwig Reiber ed Eva Kroll

☆ Kirk Douglas (Col. Dax), Adolphe Menjou (Gen. Broulard), George Macready (Gen. Mireau), Wayne Morris (Lt. Roget), Richard Anderson (Maj. Saint-Auban), Ralph Meeker (Cpl. Paris), Timothy Carey (Pvt. Ferol)

'A bitter and biting tale, told with stunning point and nerve-racking intensity.' – Judith Crist

'Beautifully performed, staged, photographed, cut and scored.' – Colin Young

The Patient Vanishes: see This Man Is Dangerous

Patrick

Australia 1978 110m colour
AIFC (Anthony I. Ginnane, Richard Franklin)

A new nurse discovers that an apparently comatose young man, hospitalized after killing his mother and her lover, possesses psychic powers that can kill those he dislikes.

Slick but derivative thriller, well enough done in its low-budget way but lacking suspense as well as originality.

w Everett de Roche d Richard Franklin ph Don McAlpine m Brian May ad Leslie Binns ed Edward McQueen-Mason

☆ Susan Penhaligon, Robert Helpmann, Rod Mullinar, Bruce Barry, Julia Blake, Helen Hemingway, Robert Thompson

'The film's intrinsic interest is minimal.' – MFB

† The US release ran for 96m.

Patrick the Great ★

US 1944 88m bw
Universal (Howard Benedict)

An actor whose career is waning is jealous of his young son.

Slick teenage family comedy, virtually a one-man show for O'Connor.

w Jane Hall, Bertram Millhauser, Dorothy Bennett, Frederick Kohner, Ralph Block d Frank Ryan ph Frank Redman m Hans Salter ad John B. Goodman, Abraham Grossman ed Ted J. Kent

☆ Donald O'Connor, Donald Cook, Peggy Ryan, Frances Dee, Eve Arden, Thomas Gomez, Gavin Muir, Andrew Tombes

The Patriot ★★

US 1928 110m approx (24 fps) bw silent
Paramount (Ernst Lubitsch)

Mad Czar Paul I is assassinated by his chief adviser for the good of the state.

Historical melodrama with a good many comedy touches: the director makes the most of both aspects, but they don't in the end hang together despite bravura acting.

w Hans Kraly novel Alfred Neumann d Ernst Lubitsch ph Bert Glennon ad Hans Dreier

☆ Emil Jannings, Lewis Stone, Florence Vidor, Neil Hamilton

'I believe this picture the most suggestive we ever ran. Just another reason why we need censorship. Small-town exhibitors need clean pictures.' – Ohio exhibitor's report in Motion Picture Herald

♗ Hans Kraly

♗ best picture; Ernst Lubitsch; Lewis Stone; Hans Dreier

The Patriot

West Germany 1979 120m bw/colour
The Other Cinema/Kairos Film/ZDF (Alexander Kluge)

original title: Die Patriotin

A schoolteacher looks for new ways of presenting the history of Germany.

Intellectually austere examination of Germany's past and future, using newsreels, commentary and documentary footage; as cinema it is inert and condescending.

wd Alexander Kluge ph Thomas Mauch, Jörg Schmidt-Reitwein, Werner Lring, Gunther Hörmann ed Beate Mainka-Jellinghaus

☆ Hannelore Hoger, Alfred Edel, Alexander von Eschwege, Hans Heckel, Beate Holle, Curt Jürgens, Dieter Mainka, Willi Münch

The Patriot

US 1986 88m Foto-Kem
Crown International/Patriot (Michael Bennett)

A former commando, now a diver on oil rigs, rejoins the navy to track down terrorists who have stolen some nuclear warheads.

Dull and jingoistic action movie which is always predictable, and also clumsy and contrived.

w Andy Ruben, Katt Shea Ruben d Frank Harris ph Frank Harris m Jay Ferguson ad Brad Einhorn ed Richard E. Westover

☆ Gregg Henry, Simone Griffeth, Michael J. Pollard, Jeff Conaway, Stack Pierce, Leslie Nielsen

The Patriot ★

US/Germany 2000 165m DeLuxe Panavision
Columbia/Mutual/Centropolis (Dean Devlin, Mark Gordon, Gary Levinsohn)

In the 1770s, after one of his sons is killed and another wounded, a Southern plantation owner joins the war of independence against the British.

Simple-minded and inaccurate history, in which Gibson does his familiar Mad Max turn, as an out-of-control action hero; but the movie, though overlong, has a commendable energy and verve.

w Robert Rodat d Roland Emmerich ph Caleb Deschanel m John Williams pd Kirk M. Petruccelli ed David Brenner cos Deborah L. Scott

☆ Mel Gibson (Benjamin Martin), Heath Ledger (Gabriel Martin), Joely Richardson (Charlotte Selton), Jason Isaacs (Col William Tavington), Chris Cooper (Col Harry Burwell), Tcheky Karyo (Jean Villeneuve), Rene Auberjonois (Rev Oliver), Lisa Brenner (Anne Howard), Tom Wilkinson (Gen Cornwallis), Donal Logue (Dan Scott), Leon Rippy (John Billings), Adam Baldwin (Loyalist/Captain Wilkins), Gregory Smith (Thomas Martin), Mika Boorem (Margaret Martin)

'If Nazis had won the war in Europe, and their propaganda ministry had decided to make a film about the American Revolution, The Patriot is the sort of movie you could expect to see.' – Jonathan Foreman, Salon.com

'Begins brightly, concludes on a tiresome and formulaic note. A shame.' – James Mottram, Film Review

♗ Caleb Deschanel; John Williams; sound (Kevin O'Connell, Greg P. Russell, Lee Orloff)

'Not for honour. Not for country. For his wife and child.'

Patriot Games

US 1992 117m Technicolor Panavision
UIP/Paramount (Mace Neufeld, Robert Rehme)

In London, a former CIA agent shoots an IRA terrorist in a street battle and becomes a target for the organization's revenge on his return to the States.

Muddled and melodramatic, it relies on nationalistic clichés and violent set-pieces rather than narrative coherence; it is certainly not for posterity.

w W. Peter Iliff, Donald Stewart, Steven Zaillian novel Tom Clancy d Phillip Noyce ph Donald McAlpine m James Horner pd Joseph Nemec III ed Neil Travis, William Hoy

☆ Harrison Ford, Anne Archer, Patrick Bergin, Sean Bean, Thora Birch, James Fox, Samuel L. Jackson, Polly Walker, J. E. Freeman, James Earl Jones, Richard Harris, Hugh Fraser, David Threlfall, Alun Armstrong

'A star turn and smart action sequences enliven an otherwise abstract film.' – Time

'It flounders from one absurdity to another, with results that are hilarious when they aren't insulting.' – Adam Mars-Jones, Independent

'Mindless, morally repugnant and ineptly directed to boot.' – Variety

El Patrullero: see Highway Patrolman

The Patsy ★

US 1928 80m approx (24 fps) bw silent
MGM (Irving Thalberg)
GB title: The Politic Flapper

Tired of being taken for granted, a girl puts on a surprising show for her family.

Amusing comedy which, in sound, might have made Miss Davies a bigger star than she ever became.

w Agnes Christine Johnston play Barry Connors d King Vidor

☆ Marion Davies, Marie Dressler, Lawrence Gray, Del Henderson, Jane Winton

'Marion Davies is in my opinion Filmland's Funniest Female, the only one I would mention in the same breath as Charlie Chaplin.' – A. P. Herbert, Punch

The Patsy
US 1964 101m Technicolor
Paramount/Jerry Lewis (E. J. Glucksman)

Hollywood executives try to mould a bellboy to replace a deceased comedian.
A few mildly funny scenes scarcely atone for a long raucous comedy in which the star upstages his betters.
wd Jerry Lewis ph Wallace Kelley
m David Raksin
☆ Jerry Lewis, Everett Sloane, Peter Lorre, John Carradine, Phil Harris, Hans Conried, Ina Balin

'Inside the skyscraper jungle! Ruthless men and ambitious women clawing for control of a billion-dollar empire!'

Patterns ★★★
US 1956 88m bw
UA/Jed Harris, Michael Myerberg

GB title: Patterns of Power
The tough boss of a New York corporation forces a showdown between a young executive and the older ineffectual man who he hopes will resign.
Tense little boardroom melodrama with domestic asides, one of the best of the filmed TV plays of the mid-fifties.
w Rod Serling play Rod Serling d Fielder Cook ph Boris Kaufman ad Richard Sylbert ed Carl Lerner, David Kummins
☆ Van Heflin (Fred Staples), Everett Sloane (Walter Ramsey), Ed Begley (William Briggs), Beatrice Straight (Nancy Staples), Elizabeth Wilson (Marge Fleming)

Patterns of Power: see Patterns

Patti Rocks ★
US 1987 87m colour
Premier/FilmDallas (Gwen Field, Gregory M. Cummins)

A married man takes an old, but estranged, friend on a long car ride to the home of his pregnant girlfriend.
Low-budget movie concentrating on character development, though the likelihood of the slobbish male and the sensitive woman ever being attracted to one another seems remote.
w David Burton Morris, Chris Mulkey, John Jenkins, Karen Landry d David Burton Morris ph Gregory M. Cummins
m Doug Maynard ad Charlotte Whitaker
ed Gregory M. Cummins
☆ Chris Mulkey, John Jenkins, Karen Landry, David L. Turk, Stephen Yoakam

'Nobody ever won a war by dying for his country. He won it by making the other poor dumb bastard die for his country!'

Patton ★★★
US 1969 171m DeLuxe Dimension 150
TCF (Frank McCarthy)

GB title: Patton – Lust for Glory
World War II adventures of an aggressive American general.
Brilliantly handled wartime character study which is also a spectacle and tries too hard to have it both ways, but as a piece of film-making is hard to beat.
w Francis Ford Coppola, Edmund H. North d Franklin Schaffner ph Fred Koenekamp m Jerry Goldsmith ad Urie McCleary, Gil Parrondo ed Hugh S. Fowler
☆ George C. Scott (Gen. George S. Patton Jr.), Karl Malden (Gen. Omar N. Bradley), Michael Bates (Field Marshal Sir Bernard Law Montgomery), Stephen Young (Capt. Chester B. Hansen), Michael Strong (Brig. Gen. Hobart Carver), Frank Latimore (Lt. Col. Henry Davenport)

'Here is an actor so totally immersed in his part that he almost makes you believe he is the man himself.' – John Gillett best picture; script; Franklin Schaffner; George C. Scott; art direction; editing; sound (Douglas Williams, Don Bassman)
Fred Koenekamp; Jerry Goldsmith; special visual effects

Patton – Lust for Glory: see Patton

Patty Hearst ★
US/GB 1988 104m DeLuxe
Entertainment/Atlantic Entertainment/Zenith (Marvin Worth)

After being kidnapped and imprisoned by a revolutionary group, a wealthy, privileged teenager joins in their terrorist activities.
Based on fact, though impressionistic in approach, it concerns itself, not always successfully, with questions of identity and personal responsibility.
w Nicholas Kazan book Every Secret Thing by Patricia Campbell Hearst with Alvin Moscow d Paul Schrader ph Bojan Bazelli, Stuart Barbee m Scott Johnson pd Jane Musky ed Michael R. Miller
☆ Natasha Richardson, William Forsythe, Ving Rhames, Frances Fisher, Jodi Long, Olivia Barash, Dana Delany, Marek Johnson, Kitty Swink, Peter Kowanko

Paula: see Framed (1947)

Paula
US 1952 80m bw
Columbia (Buddy Adler)
GB title: The Silent Voice
A barren wife causes a boy's deafness in an accident; she cures and adopts him.
Adequate woman's picture, a vehicle for a star and a luxuriant wardrobe.
w James Poe, William Sackheim
d Rudolph Maté ph Charles Lawton Jnr
m George Duning
☆ Loretta Young, Kent Smith, Alexander Knox, Tommy Rettig

'The journey of a thousand miles begins with a single parrot'

Paulie
US 1998 91m Technicolor
DreamWorks/Mutual Film (Mark Gordon, Gary Levinsohn, Allison Lyon Segan)

A wisecracking parrot explains to a cleaner how he came to be shut in the basement of an LA animal-study institute.
Intermittently enjoyable movie, though its style may not suit the kids for whom it is presumably intended.
w Laurie Craig d John Roberts ph Tony Pierce-Roberts m John Debney
pd Dennis Washington ed Bruce Cannon sp animatronics: Stan Winston ☆ Gena Rowlands, Tony Shalhoub, Cheech Marin, Bruce Davison, Jay Mohr (voice), Trini Alvarado, Buddy Hackett, Hallie Kate Eisenberg, Matt Craven
'The script, intent on fable status, cannot stop wading into territory and language unsuitable for toddlers.' – Geoff Brown, The Times

Pauline at the Beach ★★
France 1983 94m colour
Gala/Les Films Du Losange/Les Films Ariane (Margaret Menegoz)

original title: Pauline à la Plage
A young girl observes her older cousin's disastrous holiday romances.
Delicately witty, eminently civilized entertainment.
wd Eric Rohmer ph Nestor Almendros
m Jean-Louis Valero ed Cécile Decugis
☆ Arielle Dombasle, Amanda Langlet, Pascal Greggory, Féodor Atkine, Simon de la Brosse, Rosette

Pauline et Paulette ★
Belgium/Netherlands/France 2001 78m colour
Columbia TriStar/K2/RTBF/VRT/K-Star/TF1/NCRV (Dominique Janne)

aka: Pauline and Paulette
Two elderly sisters squabble over which of them should care for their mentally retarded sibling.
Cool and detached account of provincial Belgian life that eschews easy answers in favour of flawed humanity.
w Lieven Debrauwer, Jacques Boon
d Lieven Debrauwer ph Michel van Laer
m Frederic Devreese ad Hilde Duyck
ed Philippe Ravoet
☆ Dora van der Groen (Pauline), Ann Petersen (Paulette), Rosemarie Bergmans (Cecile), Idwig Stephane (Albert), Julienne De Bruyn (Martha)
'Rather than assaulting you with self-congratulatory tears, it leaves you with a bittersweet glow of wisdom and an appreciation of the small triumphs and difficult labors of love.' – A. O. Scott, New York Times
'A charmless, thoughtless movie.' – Sight and Sound

Paura e Amcre: see Three Sisters

Paura nella Città dei Morti Viventi: see City of The Living Dead

The Pawnbroker ★★
US 1965 114m bw
Landau-Unger (Worthington Miner)

A Jew in slummy New York is haunted by his experiences in Nazi prison camps.
Engrossing, somewhat over-melodramatic character study, generally well done.
w David Friedkin, Morton Fine novel Edward Lewis Wallant d Sidney Lumet ph Boris Kaufman m Quincy Jones ☆ Rod Steiger, Brock Peters, Geraldine Fitzgerald, Jaime Sanchez, Thelma Oliver, Juano Hernandez
'Might have been a great film had the director been able to restrain his dual tendency towards artiness and towards slickness.' – Judith Crist
'The film is trite, and you can see the big pushes for powerful effects, yet it isn't negligible.' – Pauline Kael
Rod Steiger
Rod Steiger

Paws ★
GB/Australia 1997 84m Atlab
Polygram/AFFC/Latent Image/NSWFTO (Andrena Finlay, Vicki Watson)

A Jack Russell terrier with the power of speech leads his new-found family to hidden wealth.
Pleasant, tail-wagging family film that is eager to please.
w Harry Crips d Karl Zwicky ph Geoff Burton m Mario Millo pd Stephen Jones-Evans ed Nicholas Holmes sp D-Film Services
☆ Billy Connolly (voice), Nathan Cavaleri, Emile Francois, Jon Petruzzi, Caroline Gillmer, Rachel Blake, Sandy Gore, Norman Kaye
'It's really quite lovable, not to mention fully housebroken of anything that might disturb younger viewers.' – Leslie Felperin, Sight and Sound

'Sometimes The Simplest Idea Can Make The Biggest Difference.'

Pay It Forward
US 2000 122m Technicolor
Warner/Bel Air/Tapestry (Steven Reuther, Peter Abrams, Robert Levy)

Asked to think of an idea to change the world, a young schoolboy suggests that each person do a good turn for three other people, each of whom must do a kind act to three others.
Here is a concept looking for a dramatic context to give it life, and finding only a fatal sentimental contrivance.
w Leslie Dixon book Catherine Ryan Hyde
d Mimi Leder ph Oliver Stapleton
m Thomas Newman pd Leslie Dilley
ed David Rosenbloom cos Renee Ehrlich Kalfus
☆ Kevin Spacey (Eugene Simonet), Helen Hunt (Arlene McKinney), Haley Joel Osment (Trevor McKinney), Chris Chandler (Jay Mohr), James Caviezel (Jerry), Jon Bon Jovi (Ricki), Angie Dickinson (Grace), David Ramsey (Sidney), Gary Werntz (Thorsen)
'An unusual film that intelligently avoids numerous potential pitfalls even if its central earnestness is ultimately inescapable.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety
'Some of us are bound to take umbrage at the film's vulgar manipulations. Set in terminally tacky Las Vegas, Pay It Forward is as rigged as a casino slot machine, preying on people's hopes but paying off only for the house.' – Richard Schickel, Time

Pay or Die! ★
US 1960 109m bw
Allied Artists (Richard Wilson)

In 1906, a New York Italian police detective forms a special squad to combat the Black Hand.
Tough, convincing period melodrama.
w Richard Wilson, Bertram Millhauser
d Richard Wilson ph Lucien Ballard
m David Raksin ad Fernando Carrere
☆ Ernest Borgnine, Alan Austin, Zohra Lampert, Robert F. Simon, Renata Vanni

'Get Ready To Root For The Bad Guy.'

Payback
US 1999 101m DeLuxe
Paramount/Icon (Bruce Davey)

Betrayed by his fellow crooks, a robber decides to get his revenge and his share of the loot.
Ugly, brutish thriller with drawn-out scenes of gratuitous violence.
w Brian Helgeland, Terry Hayes novel The Hunter by Richard Stark d Brian Helgeland ph Ericson Core m Chris Boardman
pd Richard Hoover ed Kevin Stitt
☆ Mel Gibson (Porter), Gregg Henry (Val), Maria Bello (Rosie), Deborah Kara Unger (Lynn), David Paymer (Stegman), Bill Duke (Detective Hicks), Jack Conley (Detective Leary), William Devane (Carter), Kris Kristofferson (Bronson), John Glover (Phil), Lucy Alexis Liu (Pearl)
'A passable, intermittently enjoyable entertainment.' – Variety
'What one word might best describe Payback. How about "loathsome"?' – Stephen Holden, New York Times
† John Boorman's 1967 Point Blank (qv) is based on the same novel.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

†† Gibson, whose company produced the movie, had a quarter of it remade by an unnamed director because he thought Helgeland's version lacked impact. In order to achieve its dark look, an image of the film in black and white was overlaid on the colour print.

'Remember the future.'

Paycheck ④

US 2003 119m DeLuxe Panavision
Paramount/Dreamworks/Lion Rock (John Davis, Michael Hackett, John Woo, Terence Chang)

In the future, a computer expert, who has had his memory erased of the last three years of his life, finds himself accused of murder.
A drama of corporate skullduggery and identity loss that turns out to be just another forgettable action movie.
w Dean Georgaris story Philip K. Dick d John Woo ph Jeffrey L. Kimball m John Powell pd William Sandell ed Kevin Sitt, Christopher Rouse
☆ Ben Affleck (Jennings), Aaron Eckhart (Rethrick), Uma Thurman (Rachel), Paul Giamatti (Shorty), Colm Feore (Wolfe), Joe Morton (Agent Dodge), Michael C. Hall (Agent Klein)
'Represents such a professional nadir for each of its principals that you wish better for them in the new year.' – Washington Post, Stephen Hunter

Payday

US 1972 103m colour
Cinerama/Pumice/Fantasy (Ralph J. Gleason)

An over-age pop singer has personal problems which erupt into violence.
Well made, dislikeable melodrama.
w Don Carpenter d Daryl Duke ph Richard C. Glouner md Ed Bogas ☆ Rip Torn, Ahna Capri, Elayne Heilveil, Michael C. Gwynne
'Explores the Nashville-centered world of country with an easy authenticity which makes this nothing like a repetition of what has been before.' – Charles Champlin

Paydirt: see There Goes the Neighborhood

Paying the Penalty: see Underworld

Payment Deferred ★

US 1932 75m bw
MGM (Irving Thalberg)

A man desperate for money poisons his wealthy nephew.
Watchable photographed play.
w Ernest Vajda, Claudine West play Jeffrey Dell d Lothar Mendes ph Merritt Gerstad
☆ Charles Laughton, Maureen O'Sullivan, Ray Milland, Dorothy Peterson, Verree Teasdale, Billy Bevan, Halliwell Hobbes
'In spite of its excellence, it will probably prove indifferent box office.' – Variety

Payment on Demand ★

US 1951 90m bw
RKO/Jack H. Skirball

A happy wife and mother is appalled when her husband asks for a divorce.
A star suffers her way through luxury to a happy ending; good enough stuff for its intended audience.
w Bruce Manning, Curtis Bernhardt d Curtis Bernhardt ph Leo Tover m Victor Young ☆ Bette Davis, Barry Sullivan, Jane Cowl, Kent Taylor, Betty Lynn, John Sutton, Frances Dee, Otto Kruger
'An absolutely typical Joan Crawford picture except that Bette Davis happens to be in the Joan Crawford part.' – Richard Mallett, Punch

The Payoff

US 1943 74m bw
PRC/Jack Schwarz

A star reporter nabs the killer of a prosecuting attorney.
A fading star in a role he had played several times before.
w Edward Dein d Arthur Dreifuss
☆ Lee Tracy, Tom Brown, Tina Thayer, Evelyn Brent, Jack La Rue Payroll ★

GB 1961 105m bw
Anglo Amalgamated/Lynx (Norman Priggen)

Small-time crooks snatch £100,000, but after the getaway things begin to go wrong.
Tense, vivid, thoroughly predictable Riffifi-style thriller, handled with solid professionalism.
w George Baxt novel Derek Bickerton d Sidney Hayers ph Ernest Steward m Reg Owen
☆ Michael Craig, Billie Whitelaw, Françoise Prévost, Kenneth Griffith, William Lucas, Tom Bell, Barry Keegan, Joan Rice, Glyn Houston

'In the fall of 1997, every nuclear device in the world will be accounted for ... Except one.'

The Peacemaker ③

US 1997 123m Technicolor 'Scope
DreamWorks (Walter Parkes, Branko Lustig)

An American scientist and a military agent reluctantly team up to track down a stolen nuclear warhead in New York.
Frantic attempt at a topical thriller, set against the background of Russian gangsters and Bosnian unrest; it fails to deliver.
w Michael Schiffer article Leslie Cockburn, Andrew Cockburn d Mimi Leder ph Dietrich Lohmann m Hans Zimmer pd Leslie Dilley ed David Rosenbloom
☆ George Clooney, Nicole Kidman, Marcel Iures, Alexander Baluev, Rene Medvesek, Gary Werntz, Randall Batinkoff, Jim Haynie, Armin Mueller-Stahl
'Another machine-tooled slab of Hollywood brutality.' – Sunday Times
'Standard action-film stuff.' – Time
† It was the first release from the new studio DreamWorks SKG (initials which stand for Steven Spielberg, Jeffrey Katzenberg and David Geffen).

Peach O'Reno

US 1931 66m bw
RKO-Pathé

Two incompetent lawyers work on a divorce case.
Burlesque-style comedy with cabaret asides. Thin stuff.
w Ralph Spence, Tim Whelan d William Seiter
☆ Bert Wheeler, Robert Woolsey, Dorothy Lee, Joseph Cawthorn, Cora Witherspoon, Zelma O'Neal
'Less than average; low comedy laughs for the minor spots.' – Variety

'Get Your Priorities Straight.'

Peaches

Ireland 2000 86m colour
Optimum/Stone Ridge/IFB (Ronan Glennane)

A failing student spends the summer living in London and trying to sleep with as many girls as possible before discovering true love.
A successful play about a callow youth makes an unsuccessful transition to the screen, where it seems as unfinished as its protagonist.
wd Nick Grosso play Nick Grosso
ph Brendan Galvin pd Jessica Coyle ed Niamh Fagan ☆ Matthew Rhys (Frank), Kelly Reilly (Cherry), Justin Salinger (Johnny), Matthew Dunster (Pete), Sophie Okonedo (Pippa), Emily Hillier (Niki), Stephanie Bagshaw (Linda)
'Watching this film is like being whinged at for an hour and a half.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

The Pearl ★

US/Mexico 1948 72m bw
RKO/Oscar Dancigers

In a remote Mexican village, a simple shell diver finds a pearl of great price, but finds his life complicated as a result.
A fable which at the time seemed to have considerable quality, being the first Mexican film to receive international distribution.
w John Steinbeck, Emilio Fernandez, Jack Wagner d Emilio Fernandez ph Gabriel Figueroa m Antonio Diaz Conde
☆ Pedro Armendariz, Maria Elena Marques, Alfonso Bedoya

'It was the end of innocence, and the dawn of a nation's greatest glory.'
'Not Since Titantic Have The Critics Been So Out Of Touch With Their Readers.'

Pearl Harbor

US 2001 182m Technicolor Panavision
Buena Vista/Touchstone (Jerry Bruckheimer, Michael Bay)

Two farmboys, childhood friends, grow up to become Army pilots, fall in love with the same woman, survive the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor, and take part in a retaliatory bombing raid on Tokyo.
Mountainous labours have resulted in a simple-minded, flagwaving mouse of a movie, glib, glossy and frequently banal: the central romance is bad soap opera, and is acted that way, while the action has all the reality of a video game.
w Randall Wallace d Michael Bay
ph John Schwartzman m Hans Zimmer pd Nigel Phelps ed Chris Lebenzon, Steven Rosenblum, Mark Goldblatt, Roger Barton sp Industrial Light & Magic cos Michael Kaplan
☆ Ben Affleck (Rafe McCawley), Josh Hartnett (Danny Walker), Kate Beckinsale (Evelyn Johnson), Cuba Gooding Jnr (Doris 'Dorie' Miller), Tom Sizemore (Earl), Jon Voight (President Roosevelt), Admiral Kimmel (Colm Feore), Mako (Admiral Yamamoto), Alec Baldwin (Doolittle), William Lee Scott (Billy), Michael Shannon (Gooz), Scott Wilson (General Marshall), Peter Firth (Captain of the West Virginia), Catherine Kellner (Barbara), Dan Aykroyd (Captain Thurman)
'Rarely, perhaps never, in the field of movies about human conflict has so much money, effort and technical expertise resulted in such a vapid piece of schmaltz.' – Ian Buruma, Guardian
'Has as little interest in character as it does, ultimately, in history. For all its epic pretensions (as if epic were a matter of running time, tumescent music and earnest voice-over pronouncements), the movie works best as a bang-and-boom action picture.' – A.O. Scott, New York Times
'The film has been directed without grace, vision, or originality, and although you may walk out quoting lines of dialog, it will not be because you admire them.' – Rogert Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times
'Features a script that Jack Warner would have found wanting even for a propaganda meller at the time, along with a cast perfectly in tune with its shallowness.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety
'A blockbuster entertainment that has passion, valor and tremendous action.' – Kevin Thomas, LA Times
† The film cost $135m, with another $5m being spent on its premiere aboard an aircraft carrier.
†† It took $75.1m at the US box-office in its first four days, the second biggest four-day opening in cinema history.
sound editing (George Watters II, Christopher Boyes) song 'There You'll Be' (m/l Diane Warren); sound (Kevin O'Connell, Greg P. Russell, Peter J. Devlin); visual effects (Eric Brevig, John Frazier, Ed Hirsh, Ben Snow)

'The Master Minds Tackle The Master Crimes!'

The Pearl of Death ★★

US 1944 67m bw
Universal (Howard S. Benedict)

When a valuable pearl is stolen, Sherlock Holmes has only his own cleverness to blame; but he redeems himself by trapping 'The Creeper'.
An amusing picturization of Doyle's The Six Napoleons, with the addition of a horror figure; it plays very well and is certainly among the best of this series.
w Bertram Millhauser d Roy William Neill ph Virgil Miller m Paul Sawtell
☆ Basil Rathbone, Nigel Bruce, Dennis Hoey, Miles Mander, Rondo Hatton, Evelyn Ankers

Peau d'Espion: see To Commit A Murder

La Peau Douce: see Silken Skin

The Pebble and the Penguin

US 1995 74m Technicolor
Warner/Don Bluth Ireland (Russell Boland)

A shy penguin searches for the perfect pebble to give to his intended.
Unadventurous animated film that lacks a captivating story, substituting a string of unconnected episodes of varying interest.
w Rachel Koretsky, Steve Whitestone d Don Bluth m Mark Watters m/ly Barry Manilow, Bruce Sussman
☆ Featuring the voices of: Martin Short, Annie Golden, Tim Curry, James Belushi, Shani Wallis, Scott Bullock
'A sweet, enjoyable romantic tale more likely to succeed as an afternoon diversion on home video than on the big screen.' – Variety

Pecker

US 1998 87m Technicolor
Fine Line/Polar Entertainment (John Fiedler, Mark Tarlov)

A Baltimore amateur photographer, who takes snapshots of his friends, is fêted by the New York art establishment, while the subjects of his work are humiliated.
Blandly camp satire on big-city tastes and people, though what it offers in its place is even less enticing.
wd John Waters ph Robert Stevens m Stewart Copeland pd Vincent Peranio ed Janice Hampton

☆ Edward Furlong (Pecker), Christina Ricci (Shelley), Lili Taylor (Rorey), Mary Kay Place (Joyce), Martha Plimpton (Tina), Brendan Sexton III (Matt), Mark Joy (Jimmy), Mink Stole (Precinct Captain)

'A pleasant but ephemeral spoof that may disappoint Waters' hardcore fans while not recruiting many new devotees.' – Emanuel Levy, Variety

Peck's Bad Boy

US 1934 70m bw
Fox/Sol Lesser

Adventures of a well-intentioned but accident-prone boy in a midwestern town.
Old-fashioned American juvenile classic, modestly well done.
w Bernard Schubert, Marguerite Roberts story G. W. Peck d Edward F. Cline
☆ Jackie Cooper, Jackie Searl, Dorothy Peterson, Thomas Meighan
† Previously made in 1921 with Jackie Coogan. Cline also directed a sequel, Peck's Bad Boy with the Circus starring Tommy Kelly, in 1938.

Pee-wee's Big Adventure ★

US 1985 92m colour
Mainline/Aspen Film Society/Robert Shapiro

Pee-wee Herman loses his red bicycle and goes looking for it.
Starring an American TV comedian who acts like a small child, this offbeat, episodic comedy has some amusing moments.
w Phil Hartman, Paul Reubens, Michael Varhol d Tim Burton ph Victor J. Kemper m Danny Elfman pd David L. Snyder ed Billy Weber
☆ Paul Reubens, Elizabeth Daily, Mark Holton, Diane Salinger, Judd Omen, Jon Harris, Carmen Filpi, Tony Bill, James Brolin, Morgan Fairchild

'This slapstick fantasy has the bouncing-along inventiveness of a good cartoon.' – Pauline Kael, New Yorker

Peeper

US 1975 87m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF/Chartoff-Winkler (Ron Buck)

In 1947 Los Angeles, a poor British private eye gets into trouble when he seeks a man's lost daughter.
Semi-spoofing Chandleresque caper which is never quite funny or quite thrilling enough.
w W. D. Richter novel Deadfall by Keith Laumer d Peter Hyams ph Earl Rath m Richard Clements
☆ Michael Caine, Natalie Wood, Kitty Winn, Thayer David, Liam Dunn

'Flimsy whimsy.' – Variety

'More horrible than horror! More terrible than terror!'

Peeping Tom ★★★

GB 1959 109m Eastmancolor
Anglo Amalgamated/Michael Powell

A film studio focus puller is obsessed by the lust to murder beautiful women and photograph the fear on their faces.
Thoroughly disagreeable suspenser, a kind of compendium of the bad taste the director showed in flashes during his career.
w Leo Marks d Michael Powell ph Otto Heller m Brian Easdale ad Arthur Lawrence ed Noreen Ackland
☆ Carl Boehm (Mark Lewis), Moira Shearer (Vivian), Anna Massey (Helen Stephens), Maxine Audley (Mrs. Stephens), Esmond Knight (Arthur Baden), Michael Goodliffe (Don Jarvis), Shirley Anne Field (Diane Ashley), Jack Watson (Inspector Gregg)

'Perhaps one would not be so disagreeably affected by this exercise in the lower regions of the psychopathic were it handled in a more bluntly debased fashion.' – Dilys Powell

'Of enormous and deserved reputation.' – Time Out, 1982

Peg o' My Heart

US 1933 86m bw
MGM

To the concern of his family, an English nobleman falls for an Irish colleen.
Half-hearted version of a famous lavender-tinted stage hit previously filmed in the twenties with its original star Laurette Taylor; but by 1933 its time was past.
w Frances Marion play J. Hartley Manners d Robert Z. Leonard ☆ Marion Davies, Onslow Stevens, Alan Mowbray, Robert Greig, Irene Browne, J. Farrell MacDonald, Juliette Compton

'Just an 86-minute Irish monologue ... undeservedly flattered by an almost perfect production.' – Variety

Peg of Old Drury ★

GB 1935 76m bw
British and Dominions/Herbert Wilcox

The romance of 18th-century actress Peg Woffington with David Garrick.
Primitive but vivacious historical romp with adequate star performances.
w Miles Malleson play Masks and Faces by Charles Reade, Tom Taylor d Herbert Wilcox ph F. A. Young ☆ Anna Neagle, Cedric Hardwicke, Jack Hawkins, Margaretta Scott, Hay Petrie

'I never tired of Miss Neagle's physical appearance, which was as pretty as a Chelsea figure. The whole film indeed is very pretty, with the sentiment neatly handled. But prettiness is a quality one wants, if at all, in small quantities.' – Graham Greene, The Spectator

Peggy Sue Got Married ★★

US 1986 104m DeLuxe
Tri-Star/Rastar (Paul R. Gurian)

A disillusioned woman goes to her 25th high school reunion and finds herself reliving her young life.
It plays like an extended Twilight Zone, but with plenty of interesting details to back up an excellent leading performance.
w Jerry Leichtling, Arlene Sarner d Francis Coppola ph Jordan Cronenweth m John Barry pd Dean Tavoularis ed Barry Malkin
☆ Kathleen Turner, Nicolas Cage, Barry Miller, Catherine Hicks, Maureen O'Sullivan, Leon Ames, Helen Hunt, Don Murray, Barbara Harris, Kevin J. O'Connor

'Provocative, well acted, stylish and uneven.' – Variety

§ Jordan Cronenweth; Theodora Van Runkle (costumes); Kathleen Turner

Peking Express

US 1951 90m bw
Paramount/Hal B. Wallis

In communist China, an assortment of people are aboard a train which is diverted by outlaws.
Pot-boiling remake of Shanghai Express (qv); an adequate time-passer.
w John Meredyth Lucas d William Dieterle ph Charles Lang m Dimitri Tiomkin
☆ Joseph Cotten, Corinne Calvet, Edmund Gwenn, Marvin Miller

'Lacks flavour or distinction.' – Leonard Maltin

The Peking Medallion

Italy/Germany/France 1966 87m Technicolor
CCC/Criterion/Senior (Artur Brauner) original title: Il Sigillo di Pechino
US title: The Corrupt Ones

A freelance photographer searches for buried treasure while fighting off the attentions of two rival gangs.
Routine chase thriller with a cast that tries to get the most out of a pedestrian script.
w Brian Clemens story Ladislas Fodor d James Hill ph Heinz Pehlke m Georges Garvarentz ad Hans-Jürgen Kiebach ed Alfred Srp
☆ Robert Stack, Elke Sommer, Nancy Kwan, Christian Marquand, Werner Peters, Maurizio Arena, Dean Heyde, Marisa Merlini

'Two Supreme Court Justices have been assassinated. One lone law student has stumbled upon the truth. An investigative journalist wants her story. Everyone else wants her dead.'

The Pelican Brief

US 1993 141m Technicolor
Warner (Alan J. Pakula, Pieter Jan Brugge)

A law student is stalked by hitmen after she speculates on the reasons behind the killings of two leading judges.
Mundane chase movie, a paranoid thriller that rarely rings true and mainly consists of Julia Roberts being chased but not caught. Her fans may enjoy it.
wd Alan J. Pakula novel John Grisham ph Stephen Goldblatt m James Horner pd Philip Rosenberg ed Tom Rolf, Trudy Ship
☆ Julia Roberts, Denzel Washington, Sam Shepard, John Heard, Tony Goldwyn, James B. Sikking, William Atherton, Robert Culp, Stanley Tucci, Hume Cronyn, John Lithgow

'This crackling thriller will have a long, prosperous box-office flight.' – Variety

'Pakula allows everyone to be briefly implicated, with menace poured on by the gallon, but fails to raise a spark of interest.' – Lizzie Francke, Sight and Sound

Pelle Erobreren: see Pelle the Conqueror

Pelle the Conqueror ★★★★

Denmark/Sweden 1987 150m colour
Curzon/Danish Film Institute/Swedish Film Institute/Svensk Filmindustri/Per Holst

original title: Pelle Erobreren

In the early 1900s, the young son of a Swedish immigrant worker enduring hardship on a Danish farm learns to be self-sufficient.
Winner of the Palme D'Or at the Cannes Film Festival in 1988, it matches an epic scope with domestic detail in a finely acted, beautifully photographed movie.
wd Bille August novel Martin Andersen Nexö ph Jörgen Persson m Stefan Nilsson pd Anna Asp ed Janus Billeskov Jansen
☆ Max von Sydow (Pappa Lasse), Pelle Hvenegaard (Pelle), Erik Paaske (Farm Foreman), Kristina Tornqvist (Little Anna), Morten Jørgensen (Farming trainee), Alex Strøbye (Kongstrup), Astrid Villaume (Mrs. Kongstrup), Björn Granath (Farmhand Erik)

'A vividly recreated, minutely detailed panorama of a particular time (the turn of the century), place (rural Denmark), and circumstance (life on a great farm) in the course of four seasons.' – Vincent Canby

† It won the Palme D'Or at the 1988 Cannes Film Festival.
†† It was released on video in two versions, one subtitled, one dubbed by American actors.
best foreign film
§ Max von Sydow

Pellet: see El Bola

The Penalty

US 1941 81m bw
MGM (Jack Chertok)

The son of a gangster is regenerated by farm life and turns against his father.
Antediluvian sweetness and light which wastes a good cast.
w Harry Ruskin, John C. Higgins d Harold S. Bucquet ph Harold Rosson m David Snell
☆ Edward Arnold, Lionel Barrymore, Marsha Hunt, Robert Sterling, Gene Reynolds

Penalty of Fame: see Okay America

Pendulum ★

US 1969 102m Technicolor
Columbia/Pendulum (Stanley Niss)

A convicted murderer and rapist is freed on appeal and kills the wife of the detective who arrested him.
Heavy-going police melodrama, efficient but not very interesting.
w Stanley Niss d George Schaefer ph Lionel Lindon m Walter Scharf
☆ George Peppard, Jean Seberg, Richard Kiley, Charles McGraw, Robert F. Lyons, Madeleine Sherwood

Penelope

US 1966 98m Metrocolor Panavision
MGM/Euterpe (Joe Pasternak, Arthur Loew Jnr)

The wife of a bank vice-president is a bank robber and kleptomaniac.
Would-be cute comedy which only sickens one for wasting its talent.
w George Wells novel E. V. Cunningham d Arthur Hiller ph Harry Stradling m Johnny Williams
☆ Natalie Wood, Ian Bannen, Dick Shawn, Peter Falk, Jonathan Winters, Lila Kedrova, Lou Jacobi, Norma Crane, Arthur Malet, Jerome Cowan

Penguin Pool Murder

US 1932 70m bw
RKO (Kenneth Macgowan)

A spinster schoolteacher helps a police inspector solve the murder of a man found floating in the penguin pool.
Enjoyable minor mystery with the emphasis on the tart relationship between teacher and cop.
w Willis Goldbeck novel Stuart Palmer story Lowell Brentano d George Archainbaud ph Henry Gerrard m Max Steiner ed Jack Kitchin
☆ Edna May Oliver, James Gleason, Robert Armstrong, Mae Clarke, Donald Cook, Edgar Kennedy, Clarence H. Wilson, James Donlan, Gustav von Seyffertitz
† It was the first of three films featuring Edna Mae Oliver as Hildegarde Withers, and was followed by Murder on the Blackboard and Murder on a Honeymoon (qqv).

Penitentiary

US 1938 78m bw
Columbia

A district attorney becomes prison warden, and his daughter falls for a convict.
Scene-for-scene remake of The Criminal

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · § Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Code (qv) but considerably less dynamic.
w Fred Niblo Jnr, Seton I. Miller play Martin Flavin d John Brahm
☆ Walter Connolly, John Howard, Jean Parker, Robert Barrat, Marc Lawrence, Arthur Hohl, Paul Fix

Penn of Pennsylvania

GB 1941 79m bw
British National (Richard Vernon)

US title: The Courageous Mr Penn
Persecuted Quakers leave England for America.
Stodgily fictionalized history.
w Anatole de Grunwald book William Penn by C. E. Vulliamy d Lance Comfort ph Ernest Palmer m William Alwyn ad R. Holmes Paul ed Sidney Cole ☆ Clifford Evans (William Penn), Deborah Kerr (Guglielma Springelt), Denis Arundell (Charles II), Aubrey Mallalieu (Chaplain), Henry Oscar (Samuel Pepys), Max Adrian (Elton)

Pennies from Heaven

US 1936 81m bw
Columbia (Emanuel Cohen)

A wanderer protects a homeless little girl from the truant officer.
Mild star musical, lucky enough to have a hit title song.
w Jo Swerling novel The Peacock Feather by Katharine Leslie Moore story William Rankin d Norman Z. McLeod ph Robert Pittack m Arthur Johnston
☆ Bing Crosby, Edith Fellows, Madge Evans, Donald Meek, Louis Armstrong and his band ♪ song 'Pennies from Heaven' (m Arthur Johnson, ly Sidney Mitchell)

Pennies from Heaven ★

US 1981 108m Metrocolor
MGM/Hera (Nora Kaye, Herbert Ross)

In 1934 Chicago, a sheet music salesman consoles himself for his drab and tragic life by fantasies induced by his songs.
The essence of Dennis Potter's British TV serial was hard enough to get at; transposed to America it becomes unattractive nonsense, and the song sequences are not even well staged despite the enormous expense.
w Dennis Potter d Herbert Ross
ph Gordon Willis md Marvin Hamlisch, Billy May pd Ken Adam ☆ Steve Martin, Bernadette Peters, Christopher Walken, Jessica Harper, John McMartin
'All flash and style and no heart.' – Roger Ebert
♪ Dennis Potter

Penny Gold

GB 1973 90m colour
Fanfare (George H. Brown)

Police investigate the murder of a young woman involved in dealing in rare stamps.
Direly unimaginative thriller, all dull talk and no action; any audience is likely to have anticipated its final twist within the first ten minutes.
w David Osborn, Liz Charles-Williams d Jack Cardiff ph Ken Hodges m John Scott ad Bert Davey ed John Trumper
☆ James Booth, Francesca Annis, Nicky Henson, Joss Ackland, Richard Heffer, Sue Lloyd, Joseph O'Conor, Una Stubbs, Penelope Keith

Penny Paradise

GB 1938 72m bw
ATP (Basil Dean)

A tugboat captain thinks he has won the football pools; but the coupon wasn't posted.
An old, old story, put over with modest effectiveness.
w Tommy Thompson, W. L. Meade, Thomas Browne d Carol Reed ph Ronald Neame, Gordon Dines m/ly Harry Parr-Davies, Harry O'Donovan ad Wilfrid Shingleton ed Ernest Aldridge
☆ Edmund Gwenn, Betty Driver, Jimmy O'Dea, Maire O'Neill, Jack Livesey

Penny Points to Paradise

GB 1951 77m bw
Advance/Adelphi

A pools winner takes cash but nearly loses it to a forger.
Abysmally made comedy, only interesting as an early teaming of the Goons.
w John Ormonde d Tony Young ph Bert Mason m Spike Milligan
☆ Harry Secombe, Peter Sellers, Spike Milligan, Alfred Marks, Bill Kerr, Freddie Frinton, Paddie O'Neil

The Penny Pool

GB 1937 85m bw
Mancunian (John Blakeley)

A store foreman tries to cheat one of the workers out of her football pool winnings.
Threadbare comedy, subtitled 'A Merry Musical Burlesque', with musical interludes that preserve the slapstick music-hall act of Duggie Wakefield, which does not wear well, and some of the lesser performers of the era, including a yodelling accordion band.
w Arthur Mertz d George Black Jnr
ph James Burger m Julian Niman
m/ly Arthur Mertz, Albert Stanbury
ad George Ward ed B. Bayley
☆ Duggie Wakefield, Billy Nelson, Chuck O'Neil, Jack Butler, Tommy Fields, Luanne Shaw, Charles Sewell, Harry Terry, Howard Douglas

Penny Princess

GB 1952 94m Technicolor
Rank/Conquest (Frank Godwin)

A New York shopgirl inherits a tiny European state and boosts its economy by marketing a mixture of cheese and schnapps.
Thin, spoofy comedy with mild moments of fun.
wd Val Guest ph Geoffrey Unsworth
m Ronald Hammer
☆ Dirk Bogarde, Yolande Donlan, A. E. Matthews, Anthony Oliver, Edwin Styles, Reginald Beckwith, Kynaston Reeves, Peter Butterworth, Laurence Naismith, Mary Clare, Desmond Walter-Ellis

Penny Serenade ★

US 1941 120m bw
Columbia (Fred Guiol)

Courtship, marriage and the death of two children are recollected by a woman contemplating divorce.
Well-played but uneasy film which veers suddenly and disconcertingly from light comedy into tragedy.
w Morrie Ryskind d George Stevens
ph Joseph Walker m W. Franke Harling ☆ Cary Grant, Irene Dunne, Beulah Bondi, Edgar Buchanan, Ann Doran
'To make something out of very little, and that so near at hand, is one of the tests of artistry.' – Otis Ferguson
'A tear compeller showing how Cary Grant and Irene Dunne lose first their own baby and then the one they adopt. Which, as Lady Bracknell would certainly have observed, looks like carelessness.' – James Agate
♪ Cary Grant

Penrod and Sam

US 1937 68m bw
Warner

Exploits of a club for juvenile sleuths.
Start of a second feature series which had little to do with the original period characters but was generally well received. Later the same year came Penrod and his Twin Brother, and in 1938 Penrod's Double Trouble.
w Lillie Hayward, Hugh Cummings from the characters created by Booth Tarkington
d William McGann
☆ Billy Mauch, Frank Craven, Spring Byington, Craig Reynolds, Charles Halton
'Should serve as a nucleus for swell exploitation tie-ups.' – Variety
† There had been an earlier version in 1931, starring Leon Janney; and the family turned up again in the Doris Day musicals On Moonlight Bay and By the Light of the Silvery Moon.

'The Most Challenging Sport Has Just Become The Deadliest Game.'

Pentathlon

Germany 1994 97m Foto-Kem
First Independent/Live/PFG (Martin E. Caan, Dolph Lundgren)

The East German Olympic pentathlon gold medallist defects to the US, where, following the fall of the Berlin Wall, he is followed by his former trainer and a gang of neo-Nazi assassins.
Risible melodrama which swiftly runs out of ideas; you keep thinking it cannot get any worse, but it does, with David Soul cackling manfully as the villain of the piece.
w William Stadiem, Gary McDonald, Gary DeVore, Bruce Malmuth d Bruce Malmuth
ph Misha Suslov m David Spear
pd Jaymes Hinkle ed Richard Nord, Joseph Gutowski
☆ Dolph Lundgren, David Soul, Renee Coleman, Daniel Riordan, David Drummond, Philip Bruns, Roger E. Mosley Penthouse ★

US 1933 90m bw
MGM/Hunt Stromberg

GB title: Crooks in Clover
When he outlives his usefulness to the underworld, a lawyer is framed for murder.
Sprightly murder comedy-drama which plays like a try-out for The Thin Man.
w Frances Goodrich, Albert Hackett d W. S. Van Dyke ☆ Warner Baxter, Myrna Loy, C. Henry Gordon, Nat Pendleton, Charles Butterworth, George E. Stone
'Well-sustained crime solution with smashing climax and arresting title.' – Variety

The Penthouse

GB 1967 96m Eastmancolor
Paramount/Tahiti (Harry Fine)

Illicit lovers in an unfinished block of flats are terrorized by intruders.
Thoroughly objectionable and unpleasant melodrama with no attractive characters and no attempt to explain itself.
wd Peter Collinson play The Meter Man by J. Scott Forbes ph Arthur Lavis m John Hawkesworth ☆ Suzy Kendall, Terence Morgan, Tony Beckley, Norman Rodway, Martine Beswick
'Pornography in Pinter's clothing.' – MFB

The People against O'Hara ★

US 1951 102m bw
MGM (William H. Wright)

An ex-alcoholic defence lawyer sacrifices himself to prove his client's innocence.
Formula drama, well made and entertainingly performed, with snatches of bright dialogue.
w John Monks Jnr novel Eleazar Lipsky
d John Sturges ph John Alton m Carmen Dragon
☆ Spencer Tracy, Diana Lynn, Pat O'Brien, John Hodiak, James Arness, Arthur Shields, Eduardo Ciannelli, Louise Lorimer

'He thought he'd seen it all, until the night he saw too much.'

People I Know ★

US 2002 95m FotoKem
Momentum/Myriad/South Fork/Galena/Greenestreet/Chal/In-Motion/WMF V (Michael Nozik, Leslie Urdang, Karen Tenkhoff)

Attempting to organised a benefit for immigrants, a once idealistic press agent finds himself embroiled in celebrity and corruption.
A study of a character in the process of disintegration, set against political chicanery in New York.
w Jon Robin Baitz d Dan Algrant ph Peter Deming m Terence Blanchard
pd Michael Shaw ed Suzy Elmiger
☆ Al Pacino (Eli Wurman), Kim Basinger (Victoria Gray), Téa Leoni (Jilli Hopper), Ryan O'Neal (Cary Launer), Bill Nunn (Lyle Blunt), Richard Schiff (Elliot Sharansky), Robert Klein (Sandy Napier)
'A downbeat film, not bad, but not too good, either.' – Philip French, Observer
† The film was finished before the events of September 11, 2001, and a shot showing, in the anti-hero's drugged vision, the World Trade Center's towers lying on their side was removed before its delayed release.

The People Next Door

US 1970 93m DeLuxe
Avco Embassy (Herb Brodkin)

Suburban parents have trouble with their drug-addicted teenage daughter.
Hysterical melodrama with good credentials.
w J. P. Miller TV play J. P. Miller d David Greene ph Gordon Willis m Don Sebesky ☆ Eli Wallach, Julie Harris, Hal Holbrook, Cloris Leachman, Stephen McHattie, Nehemiah Persoff
'As unlovely a picture of suburban living as one is likely to see.' – Judith Crist

People on Sunday ★★

Germany 1929 72m approx (24 fps) bw silent
Filmstudio 1929

original title: Menschen am Sonntag
Two couples spend a flirtatious day in Berlin's countryside.
Influential semi-documentary with fascinating credits, using amateur actors playing themselves.
w Billy Wilder, Curt Siodmak d Robert Siodmak, Fred Zinnemann, Edgar G. Ulmer ph Eugen Schüfftan
☆ Brigitte Borchert, Christl Ehlers, Annie Schreyer, Wolfgang von Waltershausen

The People that Time Forgot

GB 1977 90m Technicolor
AIP/Amicus (John Dark)

Major McBride tries to rescue his old friend from a prehistoric island on which he disappeared in 1916.
Tepid sequel to The Land that Time Forgot: even the dinosaurs don't rise to the occasion.
w Patrick Tilley d Kevin Connor ph Alan Hume m John Scott pd Maurice Carter ☆ Patrick Wayne, Sarah Douglas, Dana Gillespie, Doug McClure, Thorley Walters, Shane Rimmer, Tony Britton

'They'll devour everything but your screams.'

The People under the Stairs ★

US 1991 102m DeLuxe
UIP/Universal/Alive (Marianne Maddalena, Stuart M. Besser)

A 13-year-old boy discovers that the wealthy couple he attempts to rob have imprisoned in their cellar kidnapped youths who have become damaged mutants.
An effective horror film, or possibly a less effective allegory about the exploitation of the urban poor.
wd Wes Craven ph Sandi Sissel m Don Peake pd Bryan Jones ed James Coblentz, Tom Walls sp Image Engineering Inc.
☆ Brandon Adams, Everett McGill, Wendy Robie, A. J. Langer, Ving Rhames, Sean Whalen, Bill Cobbs, Kelly Jo Minter, Jeremy Roberts

'This revival of the plot-driven, exhausting, funny-pointed, suspense-horror picture is a welcome change.' – Kim Newman, Sight and Sound

The People vs. Larry Flynt ★★★ (7)

US 1996 130m Technicolor Panavision
Columbia TriStar/Ixtlan/Phoenix (Oliver Stone, Janet Yang, Michael Hausman)

A poor Kentucky boy grows up to be a successful publisher of porn magazines, and takes his fight to protect his business and freedom of speech to the Supreme Court.
Biopic of the publisher of Hustler that also manages to be a witty, engaging portrait of the extremes and excesses – sexual, religious, judicial and political – of modern American society.
w Scott Alexander, Larry Karaszewski d Milos Forman ph Philippe Rousselot m Thomas Newman pd Patrizia von Brandenstein ad Shawn Hausman, James Nezda ed Christopher Tellefsen
☆ Woody Harrelson (Larry Flynt), Courtney Love (Althea Leasure), Edward Norton (Isaacman), James Cromwell (Charles Keating), Crispin Glover (Arlo), James Carville (Simon Leis), Brett Harrelson (Jimmy Flynt), Donna Hanover (Ruth Carter Stapleton)

'That Forman has found the raucous, satirical side of Larry Flynt's story doesn't surprise us; that he has uncovered its pathos, and something that could even be considered its patriotism, is a stunning achievement.' – David Ansen, Newsweek
'Makes it OK to take your brain to the movies again. Not just OK, but necessary; you'll need all the skepticism and relish for irony that you can muster.' – Joe Morgenstern, Wall Street Journal
'For all its virtues of writing, direction and performance, the film still leaves a brackish taste in the mouth and seems very much less than wholly satisfactory.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

† Larry Flynt himself appears as the judge who sentenced him early in his career to 25 years' imprisonment on charges of obscenity and links to organized crime.
†† Regions 1 and 2 special edition DVDs include commentary by Woody Harrelson, Edward Norton and Courtney Love, Scott Alexander and Larry Karaszewski.
Milos Forman; Woody Harrelson

People Will Talk

US 1935 60m bw
Paramount

Mr and Mrs Wilton try to patch up their daughter's failing marriage.
Slight domestic comedy with popular leads.
w Herbert Fields, Sophie Kerr, F. Hugh Herbert d Alfred Santell
☆ Charles Ruggles, Mary Boland, Leila Hyams, Dean Jagger, Edward Brophy

'Strictly light summer fare and not solid enough to stand alone.' – Variety

People Will Talk ★★

US 1951 110m bw
TCF (Darryl F. Zanuck)

A surgeon's unorthodox psychological methods cause jealousy among his colleagues, especially when he falls in love with a pregnant patient.
Oddly entertaining jumble of melodrama, comedy, romance, speeches and a little mystery, all quite typical of its director.
wd Joseph L. Mankiewicz play Dr Praetorius by Curt Goetz ph Milton Krasner md Alfred Newman
☆ Cary Grant, Jeanne Crain, Finlay Currie, Hume Cronyn, Walter Slezak, Sidney Blackmer, Basil Ruysdael

'A picture so mature and refreshingly frank as to hold that an erring young woman might be rewarded with a wise and loving mate is most certainly a significant milestone in the moral emancipation of American films.' – New York Times

'The Most Fabulous Fun Show Ever On The Screen! So Hilarious! So Heartwarming! You'll Glow All Over!'

Pepe

US 1960 195m Eastmancolor
Cinemascope
Columbia/George Sidney (Jacques Gelman)

A Mexican peasant in Hollywood gets help from the stars.
Feeble and seemingly endless extravaganza in which the boring stretches far outnumber the rest, and few of the guests have anything worthwhile to do.
w Dorothy Kingsley, Claude Binyon d George Sidney ph Joe MacDonald md Johnny Green ed Viola Lawrence, Al Clark ☆ Cantinflas, Dan Dailey, Shirley Jones, Ernie Kovacs, Jay North, William Demarest, Michael Callan, Maurice Chevalier, Bing Crosby, Richard Conte, Bobby Darin, Sammy Davis Jnr, Jimmy Durante, Zsa Zsa Gabor, Judy Garland and also Hedda Hopper, Joey Bishop, Peter Lawford, Janet Leigh, Jack Lemmon, Kim Novak, André Previn, Donna Reed, Debbie Reynolds, Greer Garson, Edward G. Robinson, Cesar Romero, Frank Sinatra, Billie Burke, Tony Curtis, Dean Martin, Charles Coburn

'A joyous production crammed with delightful entertainment.' – New York Daily News

Joe MacDonald; Johnny Green; song 'Faraway Part of Town' (m André Previn, ly Dory Langdon); editing

Pépé le Moko ★★

France 1936 90m bw
Paris Film

A Parisian gangster lives in the Algerian casbah where the police can't get at him; but love causes him to emerge and be shot.
Romantic melodrama modelled on the American gangster film but with a decided poetic quality of its own: the Americans promptly paid it the compliment of remaking it as the not-too-bad Algiers.
w Henri Jeanson, Roger d'Ashelbe novel Roger d'Ashelbe (Henri La Barthe) d Julien Duvivier ph Jules Kruger m Vincent Scotto ad Jacques Krauss
☆ Jean Gabin, Mireille Ballin, Gabriel Gabrio, Lucas Gridoux

'One of the most compelling of all French films.' – New Yorker, 1977
'Perhaps there have been pictures as exciting on the thriller level ... but I cannot remember one which has succeeded so admirably in raising the thriller to a poetic level.' – Graham Greene

Pepi, Luci, Bom

Spain 1980 80m colour
Metro/Figaro (Pepon Corominas)

original title: Pepi, Luci, Bom y otras chicas del montón

A woman raped by a policeman takes her revenge by encouraging his wife to form a lesbian relationship with a sadistic singer.
Almodóvar's first full-length feature attempts to shock and surprise with a kitsch mix of sex, cruelty and eccentricity.
wd Pedro Almodóvar ph Paco Femenia ed Pepe Salcedo
☆ Carmen Maura, Félix Rotaeta, Olvido 'Alaska' Gara, Eva Siva, Diego Alvarez, Pedro Almodóvar

'The roots of Almodóvar's down-and-dirty, intentionally amoral and often disgusting films are abundant in Pepi, Luci, Bom.' – Variety

Perceval Le Gallois

France 1978 140m colour Panavision
Les Films du Losange/Barbet Schroeder/FR3/ARD/SSR/RAI/Gaumont (Margaret Menegoz)

A naïve Welsh youth becomes a knight at the court of King Arthur and meets the Fisher King.
This is less a film than an interesting, though not engrossing, illustrated accompaniment, against stylized backgrounds, to a long medieval poem.
wd Eric Rohmer poem Chrétien de Troyes ph Nestor Almendros m Guy Robert ad Jean-Pierre Kohut-Svelko ed Cecile Decugis
☆ Fabrice Luchini, André Dussollier, Solange Boulanger, Catherine Schroeder, Francisco Orozco, Deborah Nathan, Pascale Ogier

'Combines real people and real horses with toy castles and small, stylized trees, and the effect is just the opposite of what Rohmer could have wanted: it's cute. And it's cute for only a short time because nothing can be cute for a long time.' – Stanley Kauffmann

Percy

GB 1971 103m Eastmancolor
Anglo EMI/Welbeck (Betty E. Box)

After an unfortunate accident, a young man undergoes a successful penis transplant, and sets out to discover who the donor was.
Barrage of phallic jokes, some quite funny, but mostly as witless as the whole idea.
w Hugh Leonard novel Raymond Hitchcock d Ralph Thomas ph Ernest Steward m Ray Davies
☆ Hywel Bennett, Elke Sommer, Denholm Elliott, Britt Ekland, Cyd Hayman

Percy's Progress

GB 1974 101m Eastmancolor
EMI (Betty E. Box)

US title: It's Not the Size that Counts

A chemical causes impotence in all males except the owner of the first transplanted penis.
Percy dug deep, but this is really the bottom of the barrel.
w Sid Colin d Ralph Thomas ph Tony Imi m Tony Macauley
☆ Leigh Lawson, Elke Sommer, Denholm Elliott, Judy Geeson, Harry H. Corbett, Vincent Price, Adrienne Posta, Julie Ege, James Booth

Perdita Durango

Spain/Mexico 1997 126m colour
'Scope
Sogetel/Lolafilms/Mirador/Canal+/Imcine (Andres Vicente Gomez)

A whore teams up with a drug dealer for a life of crime and murder.
Energetic, sex-obsessed thriller that would have benefited by being much shorter; it falls short of the mythic status it aims for.
w Barry Gifford, Jorge Guerricaechevarria, David Trueba, Alex de la Iglesia novel 59 Degrees and Raining: The Story of Perdita Durango by Barry Gifford d Alex de la Iglesia ph Flavio Martinez Labiano m Simon Boswell pd Jose Luis Arrizabalaga, Arturo Garcia ed Teresa Font ☆ Rosie Perez, Javier Bardem, Harley Cross, Aimee Graham, James Gandolfini, Screamin' Jay Hawkins, Carlos Bardem, Santiago Segura, Don Stroud, Alex Cox

'A well-scripted, well-directed and mostly enjoyable story.' – Empire

The Perez Family

US 1995 113m DeLuxe
Film Four/Samuel Goldwyn (Michael Nozik, Lydia Dean Pilcher)

After 20 years in a Cuban jail, a former plantation owner goes to Miami to be reunited with his family, but finds a new life instead.
Uncertain domestic drama, with comic undertones, about breaking free from the past.
w Robin Swicord novel Christine Bell d Mira Nair ph Stuart Dryburgh m Alan Silvestri pd Mark Friedberg ed Robert Estrin
☆ Marisa Tomei, Alfred Molina, Chazz Palminteri, Anjelica Huston, Trini Alvarado, Celia Cruz, Diego Wallraff, Angela Lanza

'A disappointingly messy picture that seldom finds its dramatic or emotional core.' – Variety

'Health clubs – more sex than sweat?'

Perfect

US 1985 115m Technicolor
Columbia/Delphi III (James Bridges)

An aerobics instructor (female) meets a reporter (male) doing a story on health clubs, but it isn't love at first sight.
Nervy, unattractive drama which didn't find an audience.
w Aaron Latham, James Bridges d James Bridges ph Gordon Willis m Ralph Burns

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

☆ John Travolta, Jamie Lee Curtis, Anne de Salvo, Marilu Henner, Laraine Newman

'Guilty of the sins it condemns – superficiality, manipulation and smugness.' – Variety

Perfect Alibi

US 1994 96m
Rysher (Bruce Cohn Curtis)

A doctor's wealthy wife discovers that the new French au pair is not what she seems to be.

Involved, implausible thriller about uninteresting people.

wd Kevin Meyer novel Where's Mommy Now? by Rochelle Majer Krich ph Doyle Smith m Amotz Plessner pd Elayne Barbara Ceder ed David H. Lloyd

☆ Teri Garr (Laney Tolbert), Hector Elizondo (Det Ryker), Alex McArthur (Keith Bauers), Lydie Denier (Janine), Kathleen Quinlan (Melanie Bauers), Charles Martin Smith (Franklin Dupard), Anne Ramsay (Paula Simpson), Gedde Watanabe (Det Onoda), Bruce McGill (Det Spivak), Rex Linn (Bartender), Estelle Harris (Aunt Dorothy)

Perfect Blue ★

Japan 1997 80m colour
Manga Entertainment/Rex (Hiroaki Inoue, Masao Maruyama)

A member of a girl pop group, who quits to become a soap opera actress, begins to lose her reason as she is assailed by doubts and anxieties, and stalked by an obsessive fan.

Intriguing thriller that deals with the downside of celebrity and the excesses of fandom; the ideas are more interesting than the often rudimentary animation.

w Sadyuki Murai novel Yoshikazu Takeuchi d Satoshi Kon ph Hisao Shirai m Masahiro Ikumi pd Mitsusuke Hayakawa ed Harutoshi Ogata animation director and character design Hideki Hamazu original character design Hiashi Eguchi special advisor Katsuhiro Otomo

☆ voices of: Junko Iwao (Mima), Rica Matsumoto (Rumi), Shinpachi Tsuji (Tadokoro), Masaaki Okura (Uchida the fan)

'A psychological thriller that intrigues without quite hitting the bull's-eye.' – Dennis Harvey, Variety

† The DVD release includes two versions of the movie, one subtitled, the other dubbed into English.

†† Yoshikazu Takeuchi's novel was made into a live action movie Perfect Blue/Yume Nara Samete in 2002, directed by Toshiki Sato.

A Perfect Couple ★

US 1979 112m DeLuxe
TCF/Lions Gate (Robert Altman)

A middle-aged Greek much dependent on his family meets a jazz singer through a dating service.

A free-speaking update of Marty, featuring the Altman repertory company; intelligent sequences are muffled by the familiar Altman messiness of approach.

w Robert Altman, Allan Nicholls d Robert Altman ph Edmond L. Koons md Tom Pierson, Tony Berg

☆ Paul Dooley, Marta Heflin, Titos Vandis, Belita Moreno, Henry Gibson, Dimitra Arliss

'Has the usual Altman assets: technical deftness, idiosyncrasy, unexpected subject. But the deftness rattles around in a vacuum, the idiosyncrasy – because unsupported in theme or dynamics – degenerates quickly into egotism, and the unexpected subject is so poorly developed that it quickly becomes sterile.' – Stanley Kauffmann

Perfect Day ★

US 1929 20m bw
Hal Roach

Various problems delay a family's departure for a picnic.

Technically a most adept star comedy but its repetition can annoy.

w Hal Roach, Leo McCarey, H. M. Walker d James Parrott ed Richard Currier

☆ Stan Laurel, Oliver Hardy, Edgar Kennedy

† The picnic was originally to have occupied the second reel, but the departure gags swelled to occupy the entire footage.

Perfect Friday ★

GB 1970 95m Eastmancolor
London Screenplays/Sunnymede (Jack Smith)

A bank manager engages aristocratic help to rob his own bank.

Middling comedy caper.

w Anthony Greville-Bell, J. Scott Forbes d Peter Hall ph Alan Hume m Johnny Dankworth pd Terence Marsh ed Rex Pyke

☆ Stanley Baker, Ursula Andress, David Warner, Patience Collier, T. P. McKenna, David Waller, Joan Benham, Julian Orchard

The Perfect Furlough

US 1958 93m Eastmancolor
Cinemascope
U-I (Robert Arthur)

GB title: Strictly for Pleasure

To help morale at a remote Arctic army unit, one of the men is selected to enjoy the perfect leave in Paris on behalf of the others.

Amiable farce which entertains while it's on but is quickly forgotten.

w Stanley Shapiro d Blake Edwards ph Philip Lathrop m Frank Skinner ad Alexander Golitzen ed Milton Carruth

☆ Tony Curtis, Janet Leigh, Elaine Stritch, Keenan Wynn, Troy Donahue, King Donovan, Linda Cristal

The Perfect Gentleman

US 1935 73m bw
MGM

GB title: The Imperfect Lady

A retired officer helps an actress make a comeback.

Genial comedy which didn't quite work well enough to make an English variety star popular on both sides of the Atlantic.

w Edward Childs Carpenter d Tim Whelan

☆ Cicely Courtneidge, Frank Morgan, Heather Angel, Herbert Mundin, Henry Stephenson

The Perfect Marriage

US 1946 88m bw
Paramount/Hal B. Wallis

On their tenth wedding anniversary, a happy couple have a row and start divorce proceedings.

Wispy comedy, unmemorable and rather tiresome.

w Leonard Spigelgass play Samson Raphaelson d Lewis Allen ph Russell Metty m Frederick Hollander

☆ David Niven, Loretta Young, Eddie Albert, Nona Griffith, Virginia Field, Jerome Cowan, Rita Johnson, Charles Ruggles, Nana Bryant, ZaSu Pitts

'Another film about disillusionment and reconciliation in a mansion with constant evening dress.' – Sunday Times

The Perfect Murder

India 1988 95m colour
Enterprise/Merchant Ivory (Wahid Chowhan)

A Bombay detective investigates an attempted murder, with a little diamond smuggling on the side.

Keating's fictional Inspector Ghote transfers poorly to the screen in a film that is more slapstick than thriller.

w Zafar Hai, H. R. F. Keating novel H. R. F. Keating d Zafar Hai ph Walter Lassally m Richard Robbins pd Kiran Patki, Sartaj Noorani ed Charles Rees

☆ Naseeruddin Shah, Stellan Skarsgard, Dalip Tahil, Madhur Jaffrey, Sakeena Jaffrey, Dinshaw Daji

A Perfect Murder

US 1998 105m Technicolor
Warner (Arnold Kopelson, Anne Kopelson, Christopher Mankiewicz, Peter Macgregor-Scott)

To kill his wealthy wife a husband hires the artist and ex-convict with whom she is having an affair.

Slick, glossy thriller that fails to involve an audience on an emotional level.

w Patrick Smith Kelly play Dial M for Murder by Frederick Knott d Andrew Davis ph Dariusz Wolski m James Newton Howard pd Philip Rosenberg ed Dennis Virkler, Dov Hoenig

☆ Michael Douglas, Gwyneth Paltrow, Viggo Mortensen, David Suchet, Sarita Choudhury, Constance Towers, Michael P. Moran, Novella Nelson

'A fast-moving, logically thought-out and beautifully crafted thriller ... both psychologically and socially sharp.' – Philip French, Observer

'An artistic misdemeanor.' – Variety

† Knott's play was filmed by Alfred Hitchcock as Dial M for Murder (qv).

'The S.A.T is hard to take. It's even harder to steal.'

The Perfect Score

Germany/US/Canada 2003 93m DeLuxe
Paramount/MTV (Roger Birnbaum, Jonathan Glickman, Brian Robbins, Mike Tollin)

Six high school students decide to steal the answers to a forthcoming college SAT test so that they can get full marks.

Teen caper movie that recycles the clichés from more adult movies to no great effect.

w Mark Schwahn, Marc Hyman, Jon Zack d Brian Robbins ph Clark Mathis m John Murphy pd Jaymes Hinkle ed Ned Bastille

☆ Erika Christensen (Anna), Chris Evans (Kyle), Bryan Greenberg (Matty), Scarlett Johansson (Francesca), Darius Miles (Desmond), Leonardo Nam (Roy), Tyra Ferrell (Desmond's Mother), Matthew Lillard (Larry)

'Thin, pleasant teenage heist comedy with a chewy nugget of social criticism buried inside it.' – A. O. Scott, New York Times

The Perfect Snob

US 1941 63m bw
Walter Morosco/TCF

A woman tosses her daughter at millionaires. The girl settles on a poor boy ... who turns out to be a millionaire after all.

Predictable comedy with competent cast.

w Lee Loeb, Harold Buchman d Ray McCarey

☆ Charles Ruggles, Charlotte Greenwood, Lynn Bari, Cornel Wilde, Anthony Quinn, Alan Mowbray

'...They Thought He Was A "Mamma's Boy" ... But When He Broke Loose! ... Wow!'

The Perfect Specimen

US 1937 82m bw
Warner (Harry Joe Brown)

The grandmother of a rich young man brings him up uncontaminated by the world, but when a girl crashes her car into his fence he proves fitted to deal with the situation.

Fantasticated comedy a long way after Mr Deeds and too slow by half.

w Norman Reilly Raine, Lawrence Riley, Brewster Morse, Fritz Falkenstein, Samuel Hopkins Adams d Michael Curtiz ph Charles Rosher

☆ Errol Flynn, Joan Blondell, Hugh Herbert, Edward Everett Horton, May Robson, Dick Foran, Beverly Roberts, Allen Jenkins

'Upper bracket comedy for the family trade.' – Variety

The Perfect Storm ★

US 2000 129m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Baltimore Spring Creek/Radiant (Paula Weinstein, Wolfgang Petersen, Gail Katz)

The crew of a small fishing boat, the Andrea Gail, is caught in unprecedently violent storms in the North Atlantic.

There are some astonishing visual moments here – notably the small boat attempting to climb an impossibly high wave – but the crew members, each equipped with a personal crisis to fill in the gaps between the waves, are no more than stereotypes so that their elemental struggle remains uninvolving.

w Bill Wittliff book Sebastian Junger d Wolfgang Petersen ph John Seale m James Horner pd William Sandell ed Richard Francis-Bruce sp Industrial Light & Magic

☆ George Clooney (Billy Tyne), Mark Wahlberg (Bobby Shatford), John C. Reilly (Dale 'Murph' Murphy), Diane Lane (Christine Cotter), William Fichtner (David 'Sully' Sullivan), John Hawkes (Michael 'Bugsy' Moran), Allen Payne (Alfred Pierre), Mary Elizabeth Mastrantonio (Linda Greenlaw), Karen Allen (Melissa Brown), Cherry Jones (Edie Bailey), Bob Gunton (Alexander McAnally III), Christopher McDonald (Todd Gross), Michael Ironside (Bob Brown)

'Lies stranded in the shallows of its genre. What we're left with is the story of an adventure which people happen not to survive.' – Adam Mars-Jones, Times

† The film took $323m at the most office worldwide.

♗ visual effects (Stefen Fangmeier, Habib Zargarpour, John Frazier, Walt Conti) ; sound (John Reitz, Gregg Rudloff, David Campbell, Keith A. Wester)

♈ visual effects

'How far would you go to keep a secret?'

Perfect Stranger

US 2007 108m
Sony Pictures/Revolution Studios (Elaine Goldsmith-Thomas)

A reporter goes undercover at an advertising agency to investigate the death of a childhood friend.

Ludicrously plotted, semi-erotic thriller that makes no sense from any angle.
w Todd Komarnicki d James Foley
ph Anastas Michos m Antonio Pinto pd Bill Groom ad Charley Beal
ed Christopher Tellefsen
☆ Halle Berry (Rowena Price), Bruce Willis (Harrison Hill), Giovanni Ribisi (Miles Haley), Gary Dourdan (Cameron), Richard Portnow (Narron), Nicki Aycox (Grace Clayton)
'A disorienting cocktail of illogic and hysteria that requires an 11th-hour soliloquy just to explain what's happened.' – John Anderson, Variety
'As convoluted and implausible as a unicorn's horn.' – Philip French, Observer † Three different endings were reportedly filmed, each revealing a different character to be the killer.

Perfect Strangers ★★

GB 1945 102m bw
MGM/London Films (Alexander Korda)
US title: Vacation from Marriage
A downtrodden clerk and his dowdy wife go to war, and come back unrecognizably improved.
Pleasant comedy with good actors; but the turnabout of two such caricatures really strains credibility.
w Clemence Dane, Anthony Pelissier
d Alexander Korda ph Georges Périnal
m Clifton Parker
☆ Robert Donat, Deborah Kerr, Glynis Johns, Ann Todd, Roland Culver, Elliot Mason, Eliot Makeham, Brefni O'Rorke, Edward Rigby
'War is supposed to be the catalyst, the sportsman's bracer; and the film's chief weakness is its failure to show the briefly exalted couple sinking back, uncontrollably, under their peacetime stone.' – James Agee
'It glows with laughter and honest sentiment.' – New York Times
♟ original story (Clemence Dane)

'They met by chance, and once they kissed, they knew they never should have!'

Perfect Strangers

US 1950 87m bw
Warner (Jerry Wald)
GB title: Too Dangerous to Love
Two jurors on a murder case fall in love.
Talkative, unlikely, and rather boring potboiler.
w Edith Sommer play Ladies and Gentlemen by Charles MacArthur, Ben Hecht d Bretaigne Windust ph Peverell Marley m Ginger Harline
☆ Ginger Rogers, Dennis Morgan, Thelma Ritter, Margalo Gillmore, Howard Freeman, Alan Reed, Paul Ford, George Chandler

Perfect Strangers: see Blind Alley (1984)

Perfect Understanding ★

GB 1933 80m bw
Gloria Swanson British Pictures Ltd
A couple agree to marry on condition that they will never disagree with each other.
Silly comedy with a unique star combination looking acutely uncomfortable.
w Miles Malleson, Michael Powell d Cyril Gardner ph Curt Courant ☆ Gloria Swanson, Laurence Olivier, John Halliday, Nigel Playfair, Michael Farmer, Genevieve Tobin, Nora Swinburne
'Dull and talky picture, done in the uninspiring British style.' – Variety

The Perfect Weapon

US 1991 85m Technicolor
Paramount (Mark DiSalle, Pierre David)
A Kenpo karate expert returns home to avenge the death of his friend at the hands of the drug-dealing Korean mafia.
The usual revenge plot and the usual fight sequences of American martial arts movies are done with a small attempt at style, but otherwise it is strictly an assembly-line product.
w David C. Wilson d Mark DiSalle ph Russell Carpenter m Gary Chang
pd Curtis A. Schnell ed Wayne Wahrman
☆ Jeff Speakman, John Dye, Mako, James Hong, Mariska Hargitay, Dante Basco, Beau Starr, Seth Sakai, Clyde Kusatsu, Cary-Hiroyuki Tagawa
† The British TV version runs for 65m.

A Perfect Weekend: see The St Louis Kid

The Perfect Woman ★

GB 1949 89m bw
GFD/Two Cities (George and Alfred Black)
A girl changes places with her inventor uncle's robot woman.
Described as a romp, this is in fact a pretty good farce, very fast moving and well played after the usual expository start.
w George Black, Bernard Knowles, J. B. Boothroyd play Wallace Geoffrey, Basil Mitchell d Bernard Knowles ph Jack Hildyard m Arthur Wilkinson
☆ Patricia Roc, Nigel Patrick, Stanley Holloway, David Hurst, Miles Malleson, Irene Handl

A Perfect World ★

US 1993 138m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Malpaso (Mark Johnson, David Valdes)
A father–son relationship develops between an escaped convict and the seven-year-old boy he takes as a hostage.
A very American mix of male bonding, road movie and thriller that every now and then reveals a few signs of originality.
w John Lee Hancock d Clint Eastwood
ph Jack N. Green m Lennie Niehaus
pd Henry Bumstead ed Joel Cox, Ron Spang
☆ Kevin Costner, Clint Eastwood, Laura Dern, T. J. Lowther, Keith Szarabajka, Leo Burmester, Paul Hewitt, Bradley Whitford
'A somber, subtly nuanced study of an escaped con's complex relationship with an abducted boy that carries a bit too much narrative flab for its own good.' – Variety
'As jarring and fundamentally goofy as the movie is, it never feels like an ordinary, generic Hollywood product: at every moment, there's something to gape at – sometimes in admiration, often in disbelief.' – Terrence Rafferty, New Yorker

Perfectly Normal ★

Canada 1990 105m colour
Palace/Bialystock & Bloom/Téléfilm Canada/BSB/Skyhost/British Screen (Michael Burns)
An ice hockey-playing brewery worker teams up with a dubious chef to open an operatic restaurant.
Bizarre comedy of eccentric lives in a small-town setting.
w Eugene Lipinski, Paul Quarrington
d Yves Simoneau ph Alain Dostie
m Richard Gregoire pd Anne Pritchard
ed Ronald Sanders
☆ Robbie Coltrane, Michael Riley, Deborah Duchene, Eugene Lipinski, Jack Nichols, Elizabeth Harpur, Patricia Gage, Kenneth Welsh
'The movie is too eager to be loved, but has its moments.' – Philip French, Observer

'See them all in a film about fantasy. And reality. Vice. And versa.'

Performance ★★★

GB 1970 105m Technicolor
Warner/Goodtimes (Donald Cammell)
A vicious gangster moves in with an ex-pop star.
Dense, Pinterish melodrama about alter egos.
w Donald Cammell d Nicolas Roeg, Donald Cammell ph Nicolas Roeg m Jack Nitzsche md Randy Newman ad John Clark ed Antony Gibbs, Brian Smedley-Aston
☆ James Fox (Chas Devlin), Mick Jagger (Turner), Anita Pallenberg (Pherber), Michèle Breton (Lucy), Stanley Meadows (Rosebloom), Allan Cuthbertson (The Lawyer)
'A humourless, messy mixture of crime and decadence and drug-induced hallucination.' – New Yorker, 1980
'You don't have to be a drug addict, pederast, sado-masochist or nitwit to enjoy it, but being one or more of these things would help.' – John Simon

Perfume of the Cyclone: see Night of the Cyclone

'He lived to find beauty. He killed to possess it.'

Perfume: The Story of a Murderer ★ (5)

Germany/France/Spain/US 2006 147m
Pathe/Constantin/VIP Medienfonds (Bernd Eichinger)
A young man learns he has been born with an extraordinary sense of smell, and sets out to create the most beautiful scent known to man – using his murderous instincts to achieve his aim.
Given the impossibility of evoking the sense of smell in a medium of sight and sound, Perfume must count as a noble failure. There's some compensation in its lustrous appearance, but film has a way of chopping off literary conceits at the knees, and Patrick Süskind's novel also created a specific internal world that cannot easily be reproduced on the big screen. Shorn of its imaginative prose, the story starts to resemble a grisly thriller, with Grenouille slaughtering young virgins to capture their scents.
w Andrew Birkin, Tom Tykwer, Bernd Eichinger novel Patrick Süskind d Tom Tykwer ph Frank Griebe m Tom Tykwer, Johnny Klimek, Reinhold Heil pd Uli Hanisch ad Laia Colet ed Alexander Berner
☆ Ben Whishaw (Jean-Baptiste Grenouille), Alan Rickman (Antoine Richis), Rachel Hurd-Wood (Laura), Dustin Hoffman (Giuseppe Baldini)
'The odd conclusion renders it somewhat oblique, but Perfume is a feast for the senses. Smell it with your eyes.' – Dan Jolin, Empire
'Weaves a sensual spell of extraordinary delicacy, then sustains it – up to a point.' – Joe Morgenstern, Wall Street Journal

Péril: see Death in a French Garden

Péril en la Demeure: see Death in a French Garden

Perilous Holiday

US 1946 89m bw
Columbia
A newly acquainted couple become involved with counterfeiters in Mexico City.
Passable comedy-crime programme filler.
w Robert Carson, Roy Chanslor d Edward H. Griffith
☆ Pat O'Brien, Ruth Warrick, Alan Hale, Minna Gombell

A Perilous Journey

US 1953 87m bw
Republic (W. J. O'Sullivan)
A party of women sail to the California goldfields to sell themselves into marriage.
Reasonably lively action drama.
w Richard Wormser novel The Golden Tide by Virgie Roe d R. G. Springsteen ph Jack Marta m Victor Young ☆ Vera Ralston, David Brian, Charles Winninger, Scott Brady, Virginia Grey, Ben Cooper

The Perils of Pauline

US 1934 bw serial: 12 eps
Universal
The daughter of a noted scientist seeks a deadly gas formula in Indo-China.
Semi-remake of the famous silent serial.
d Ray Taylor
☆ Evalyn Knapp, Robert Allan, James Durkin, Sonny Ray, Frank Lackteen

The Perils of Pauline ★

US 1947 96m Technicolor
Paramount (Sol C. Siegel)
The career of silent serial queen Pearl White.
An agreeable recreation of old time Hollywood, with plenty of slapstick chases but a shade too much sentiment also.
w P. J. Wolfson d George Marshall ph Ray Rennahan md Robert Emmett Dolan ☆ Betty Hutton, John Lund, Billy de Wolfe, William Demarest, Constance Collier, Frank Faylen, William Farnum, Paul Panzer, Snub Pollard, Creighton Hale, Chester Conklin, James Finlayson, Hank Mann, Bert Roach, Francis McDonald and also Chester Clute
'People who can accept such stuff as solid gold have either forgotten a lot, or never knew first-rate slapstick when they saw it, twenty or thirty years ago, when it was one of the wonders of the world.' – James Agee
♫ song 'I Wish I Didn't Love You So' (m/ly Frank Loesser)

Period of Adjustment

US 1962 122m bw Panavision
MGM/Marton (Lawrence Weingarten)
A Korean War veteran has the shakes and his sexual adequacy is affected, as his wife furiously discovers.
Comedy of maladjustment, tolerably witty but unsuitably widescreened.
w Isobel Lennart play Tennessee Williams
d George Roy Hill ph Paul C. Vogel
m Lyn Murray
☆ Tony Franciosa, Jane Fonda, Jim Hutton, Lois Nettleton

Les Perles de la Couronne ★

France 1937 118m bw
Serge Sandburg/Tobis
The history over four centuries of seven pearls given by Pope Clement VII to Catherine de Medici.
Generally amusing series of historical sketches in Guitry's inimitable style.
w Sacha Guitry d Sacha Guitry, Christian-Jaque
☆ Sacha Guitry, Renée Saint-Cyr, Lyn

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · ♟ Academy Award · ♗ Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Harding, Percy Marmont, Arletty, Claude Dauphin, Raimu, Jean-Louis Barrault, Jacqueline Delubac

'Headed to bring in returns both at home and abroad.' – Variety

† The picture tried, but failed, to be intelligible without sub-titles to all language-speakers.

Permanent Midnight

US 1998 85m DeLuxe
Artisan (Jane Hamsher, Don Murphy)

A successful TV scriptwriter becomes a heroin addict, to the detriment of his relationships and career.

Based on an autobiography, a glum account of enslavement to drugs.

wd David Veloz book Jerry Stahl ph Robert Yeoman m Daniel Licht pd Jerry Fleming ed Steven Weisberg, Cara Silverman

☆ Ben Stiller, Elizabeth Hurley, Mario Bello, Owen Wilson, Lourdes Benedicto, Cheryl Ladd, Peter Greene, Janeane Garofalo, Jerry Stahl

'Exactly the kind of affliction-of-the-week babble the talented Stahl rails against in his bestselling memoir.' – Glenn Lovell, Variety

Permanent Record

US 1988 91m Technicolor
Paramount (Frank Mancuso Jnr)

The unexpected suicide of a popular high school student has a traumatic effect on his friends.

Well-meaning but dull drama of teenage angst.

w Jarre Fees, Alice Liddle, Larry Ketron d Marisa Silver ph Frederick Elmes m Joe Strummer pd Michel Levesque ed Robert Brown

☆ Keanu Reeves, Alan Boyce, Michelle Meyrink, Jennifer Rubin, Barry Corbin, Kathy Baker, Pamela Gidley, Richard Bradford

Permission to Kill

US/Austria 1975 97m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Sascha (Paul Mills)

British agents try to stop a communist returning home from the west.

Prolonged, confusing and boring spy melodrama in which everyone looks understandably glum.

w Robin Estridge novel Robin Estridge d Cyril Frankel ph Freddie Young m Richard Rodney Bennett

☆ Bekim Fehmiu, Dirk Bogarde, Ava Gardner, Timothy Dalton, Frederic Forrest

'Pretentious political mishmash.' – MFB

Permissive

GB 1970 86m colour
Shonteff Films (Jack Shulton)

A provincial girl goes to London and becomes a groupie.

Dull exploitation movie of sex and rock, with too much footage given over to uninteresting groups of the period.

w Jeremy Craig Dryden d Lindsay Shonteff ph John C. Taylor m Forever More, Comus ed Jackson J. Bowdell

☆ Maggie Stride, Gay Singleton, Gilbert Wynne, Debbie Bowen, Robert Daubigny, Titus Groan, Nicola Austin

'Probably because of the shoestring budget, the squalor of life on the streets comes across quite well.' – David McGillivray, Dark Side

Perri ★★

US 1957 75m Technicolor
Walt Disney (Winston Hibler)

The life of a squirrel.

Disney's first True Life Fantasy, in which live footage of animals is manipulated against artificial backgrounds to produce an effect as charming and unreal as a cartoon.

w Ralph Wright, Winston Hibler novel Felix Salten d Ralph Wright ph various m Paul Smith

Paul Smith

El Perro ★★ (8)

Argentina/Spain 2004 93m colour
TCF/Guacamole/OK/Wanda Vision/Chemo-Romikin (Oscar Kramer)

video title: Bombón El Perro

In Patagonia, a middle-aged, out-of-work garage mechanic discovers new possibilities to life when he is given an Argentinian mastiff.

Sweet-natured shaggy-dog story in a documentary style, using non-professional actors, that takes a leisurely, good-humoured walk around the lives of the poor and dispossessed, offering a little hope for the future.

w Santiago Calori, Salvador Roselli, Carlos Sorin d Carlos Sorin ph Hugo Colace m Nicolas Sorin ed Mohamed Rajid

☆ Juan Villegas (Juan), Walter Donado (Walter), Rosa Valsecchi (Susana), Gregorio (Bombon)

Persecution

GB 1974 96m Eastmancolor
Fanfare/Tyburn (Kevin Francis)

US title: The Terror of Sheba
aka: The Graveyard

A rich American woman in England is hated by her son and fearful that her murky past will be revealed.

Rich but not engrossing nonsense, somewhat à la Baby Jane, with hazy script and stolid production.

w Robert B. Hutton, Rosemary Wootten d Don Chaffey ph Ken Talbot m Paul Ferris

☆ Lana Turner, Ralph Bates, Olga Georges-Picot, Trevor Howard, Suzan Farmer, Ronald Howard, Patrick Allen

'Gives off the unmistakable odour of damp mothballs.' – Michael Billington, Illustrated London News

The Persecution and Assassination of Jean-Paul Marat: see The Marat/Sade

Persona ★★★★

Sweden 1966 81m bw
Svensk Filmindustri (Lars-Owe Carlberg)

A nurse begins to identify with her mentally ill patient, and herself has a nervous breakdown.

Intense clinical study presented in a very complex cinematic manner which tends to obscure the main theme while providing endless fascination for cinéastes.

wd Ingmar Bergman ph Sven Nykvist m Lars Johan Werle ad Bibi Lindström ed Ulla Ryghe

☆ Liv Ullmann (Actress Elisabeth Vogler), Bibi Andersson (Nurse Alma), Margaretha Krook (Dr. Lakaren), Gunnar Björnstrand (Mr. Vogler)

'Reactions have ranged from incomprehension to irritation with what is dismissed as a characteristic piece of self-indulgence on Bergman's part – Bergman talking to himself again.' – David Wilson, MFB

'A puzzling, obsessive film that Bergman seems not so much to have worked out as to have torn from himself.' – New Yorker, 1977

Personal Affair

GB 1953 83m bw
Rank/Two Cities (Anthony Darnborough)

A schoolmaster and his neurotic wife run into trouble when a girl pupil develops a crush on him.

Preposterous domestic drama making much ado about nothing.

w Lesley Storm play Lesley Storm d Anthony Pelissier ph Reg Wyer m William Alwyn

☆ Leo Genn, Gene Tierney, Glynis Johns, Pamela Brown

Personal Best

US 1982 122m Technicolor
Warner (Robert Towne)

A female Olympic track star has a lesbian relationship.

So what, is the response to two numbing hours of tedium.

wd Robert Towne ph Michael Chapman m Jack Nitzsche

☆ Mariel Hemingway, Scott Glenn, Patrice Donnelly, Kenny Moore, Jim Moody

'There's an undercurrent of flabbergasted awe in this celebration of women's bodies, and everything in the movie is physically charged.' – Pauline Kael, New Yorker

Personal Choice: see Beyond the Stars

Personal Column: see Lured

Personal Column: see Pièges (1939)

Personal Maid's Secret

US 1935 60m bw
Warner/Bryan Foy

A maid's financial tips keep her master and mistress solvent.

Modest comedy which was well liked at the time.

w F. Hugh Herbert, Lillie Hayward story Lillian Day d Arthur Greville Collins

☆ Ruth Donnelly, Anita Louise, Warren Hull, Margaret Lindsay, Frank Albertson, Arthur Treacher

Personal Property ★

US 1937 84m bw
MGM (John W. Considine Jnr)

GB title: The Man in Possession

An American widow in England, in financial straits, falls for the bailiff sent to keep an eye on her.

Moderate star comedy which still amuses.

w Hugh Mills, Ernest Vajda play The Man in Possession by H. M. Harwood d W. S. Van Dyke II ph William Daniels m Franz Waxman

☆ Jean Harlow, Robert Taylor, Reginald Owen, Una O'Connor, Henrietta Crosman, E. E. Clive, Cora Witherspoon, Barnett Parker

'Harmless boudoir farce, for the undergraduates.' – Variety

Personal Services ★

GB 1987 105m Eastmancolor
Zenith (Tim Bevan)

Adventures of a London madam.

Rather astonishing study of British attitudes to sex; not for Aunt Edna, but with a fair measure of interest for many.

w David Leland d Terry Jones ph Roger Deakins ed George Akers

☆ Julie Walters, Alec McCowen, Shirley Stelfox, Danny Schiller, Victoria Hardcastle Personal Velocity: Three Portraits ★

US 2001 86m colour
Optimum/IFC/InDigEnt/Goldheart/Blue Magic (Gary Winick, Lemore Syvan, Alexis Alexanian)

Three short films: a woman takes her three children and leaves her abusive husband; a copy editor realises she must excise her husband from her life; a young woman picks up a hitchhiker with unexpected consequences.

A portmanteau movie in which women take actions that change their lives, though whether for the better or worse is open to debate; sharp performances get the most out of the material.

wd Rebecca Miller short stories Rebecca Miller ph Ellen Kuras m Michael Rohaytn pd Judy Becker ed Sabine Hoffman

☆ Jon Ventimiglia (Narrator), Kyra Sedgwick (Delia), David Warshofsky (Kurt), Brian Tarantina (Pete), Parker Posey (Greta), Tim Guinee (Lee), Wallace Shawn (Mr Gelb), Joel de la Fuente (Thavi), Fairuza Balk (Paula), Lou Taylor Pucci (Kevin), Seth Gilliam (Vincent), David Patrick Kelly (Peter), Patti D'Urbanville (Celia)

'Often saddled with excruciating political and emotional correctness and earnestly imagined blue collar/rural settings. Miller's creative-writing-school prose is preserved in a droning voiceover.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

'Artistic and moving, with a lovely moment of clarity and insight as the pay-off in each life lesson. Its literary origin is undisguised, with extensive and effective use of narration.' – Angie Errigo, Empire

The Personals ★★

Taiwan 1998 105m colour
Zoom Hunt (Hsu Li-kung)

original title: Zhenghun Qishi

A young, single eye-doctor advertises for a husband and interviews the applicants.

Gently amusing and melancholic search for a soul-mate, as an earnest woman chats over a restaurant table to inadequate men (one silent suitor is accompanied by his loquacious mother), all searching for a meaningful connection with the world.

w Chen Kuo-fu, Chen Shih-chieh story Chen Yu-hui d Chen Kuo-fu ph Ho Nan-hung m Liu Sze-wei ad Wang Yi-pai ed Chang Te-lung

☆ Rene Liu, Chen Chao-jung, Wu Pai, Chin Shih-chieh, Ku Pao-ming

'Funny, sad, beautifully observed study of modern-day sexual relationships.' – Derek Elley, Variety

'She's the woman behind the killer behind the gun!'

Persons in Hiding ★

US 1939 71m bw
Paramount

A bored girl absconds with gangsters and becomes a public enemy.

Interesting programmer which led to several sequels using the same book as source; this one was vaguely inspired by the story of Bonnie and Clyde.

w William R. Lipman, Horace McCoy

book J. Edgar Hoover d Louis King ph Harry Fischbeck m Boris Morros ☆ Patricia Morison, J. Carrol Naish, Lynne Overman, William Henry, Helen Twelvetrees, William Frawley

'Strong supporter for the duals ... will depend entirely on rep of J. Edgar Hoover to attract.' – Variety

'A little on the tame side, but distinguished by the presence of a crooked and merciless heroine.' – Graham Greene

Persons Unknown ★

Italy 1958 105m bw
Lux/Vides/Cinecittà (Franco Cristaldi)

original title: I Soliti Ignoti
US title: Big Deal on Madonna Street

Adventures of a gang of incompetent thieves, who get arrested more often than they get away, and finally, elaborately drill through a wall into the bank ... only to find it's the wrong wall and they are in another room of the same flat.

Spoof black comedy working up to an elaborate take-off of Riffi; a great success in Italy and the USA, mildly received elsewhere.

w Age Scarpelli, Suso Cecchi d'Amico, Mario Monicelli d Mario Monicelli ph Gianni di Venanzo m Piero Umiliani ☆ Vittorio Gassman, Renato Salvatori, Toto, Marcello Mastroianni, Memmo Carotenuto, Carla Gravina, Rossana Rory

Persons Unknown

US 1996 99m Foto-Kem
Metro/Tartan/Guild/Promark/Spectacor/Videal (David Lancaster)

A crooked ex-cop helps two sisters who are being hunted down by Colombian drug dealers.

A downbeat thriller, set among sleazy two-timers; only occasional moments elevate it out of the ordinary.

w Craig Smith d George Hickenlooper ph Richard Crudo m Ed Tomney pd Jerry Fleming ed Suzanne Pettit
☆ Joe Mantegna, Kelly Lynch, Naomi Watts, J. T. Walsh, Xander Berkeley, Jon Favreau

'For those who like their thrillers hard-boiled, Persons Unknown is about as tough as it gets.' – Jake Hamilton, Empire

'It's never too late for true love.'

Persuasion ★

GB 1995 102m colour
BBC-TV/WGBH/Boston and Millesime/France2 (Fiona Finlay)

A naval officer and the woman who was persuaded to reject his proposal some years before get a second chance at romance.

A lively but coarse adaptation that strives too hard to avoid gentility and to add action to a largely static, domestic drama.

w Nick Dear novel Jane Austen d Roger Michell ph John Daly m Jeremy Sams pd William Dudley ed Kate Evans
☆ Amanda Root (Anne Elliot), Ciaran Hinds (Captain Wentworth), Susan Fleetwood, Corin Redgrave, Fiona Shaw, John Woodvine, Samuel West, Phoebe Nicholls, Judy Cornwell

'A Jane Austen movie that is never pretty and only occasionally charming; instead it is troubled, astringent and touched with melancholy – not unlike the novel.' – Anthony Lane, New Yorker

† The film was originally made for BBC-TV and later given a cinema release.

La Perversa Caricia De Satan: see The Devil's Kiss

The Pest

US 1997 82m DeLuxe
Columbia TriStar/Bubble Factory (Sid, John and Bill Sheinberg)

A con man tries a multitude of disguises to escape from a gang of Scottish crooks, and a big-game hunter who plans to hunt him.

A cartoon-style comic variation on The Most Dangerous Game, featuring frenetic gags that depend for their humour on flatulence and vomit

w David Bar Katz d Paul Miller ph Roy H. Wagner m Kevin Kiner pd Rodger E. Maus ed Ross Albert, David Rawlins
☆ John Leguizamo, Jeffrey Jones, Edoardo Ballerini, Freddy Rodriguez, Tommy Townsend, Aries Spears, Joe Morton, Charles Hallahan

Pet Sematary

US 1989 103m Technicolor Panavision
UIP/Paramount (Richard P. Rubinstein)

A doctor and his family move into a house near a burial ground where the dead can be brought back to life.

Turgid horror, lacking in suspense and excitement.

w Stephen King novel Stephen King d Mary Lambert ph Peter Stein m Elliot Goldenthal pd Michael Z. Hanan ed Michael Hill, Daniel Hanley
☆ Dale Midkiff, Fred Gwynne, Denise Crosby, Brad Greenquist, Michael Lombard, Miko Hughes, Blaze Berdahl

'If all the usual excesses of the genre are well exercised, King's old-dark-house clichés have come up with far more edge and shine than he deserved.' – Philip Strick, MFB

'Raise some hell.'

Pet Sematary Two

US 1992 102m DuArt
Paramount (Ralph S. Singleton)

A father and son move to a new house, next to a cemetery where the dead can be resurrected.

Nasty little shocker, with no redeeming features.

w Richard Outten novel Stephen King d Mary Lambert ph Russell Carpenter m Mark Governor pd Michelle Minch ed Tom Finan sp Peter Chesney, Steve Johnson
☆ Edward Furlong, Anthony Edwards, Clancy Brown, Jared Rushton, Darlanne Fluegel, Jason McGuire, Sarah Trigger, Lisa Waltz

'About 50% better than its predecessor, which is to say it's not very good at all.' – Variety

'A complete waste of time.' – Nigel Floyd, The Dark Side

Pétain

France 1992 133m colour
Gala/Mod/France 2 (Jacques Kirsner)

In 1940, the ageing Marshall Pétain becomes the leader of France; in Vichy, he makes peace with the invading German army and, under the influence of Laval, collaborates with the Nazis.

Mundane biopic that plods through the facts without making them seem particularly relevant.

w Jean-Pierre Marchand book Marc Ferro d Jean Marboeuf ph Dominique Bouilleret m Georges Garvarentz pd Jerome Clément ed Anne-France Lebrun ☆ Jacques Dufilho, Jean Yanne, Jean-Pierre Cassel, Jean-Claude Dreyfus, Antoinette Moya, Julie Marboeuf, Ludwig Haas (Hitler)

'A major accomplishment. Taboo-breaking and ideologically irreproachable pic about Vichy and its legacy is a clear and nuanced – and long overdue – view of crucial French history. Unfailingly cinematic, intelligently structured and beautifully cast, pic is essential viewing for Gallic auds and deserves to be shown everywhere.' – Variety

'The film plods along, serenely untroubled by anything that would justify its 133 minutes. Quiet days in Vichy indeed.' – Sheila Johnston, Independent

'The story of a jazz-man of the wide-open 20s caught in the crossfire of its blazing .38s!'

Pete Kelly's Blues ★

US 1955 95m Warnercolor Cinemascope
(Warner) Mark VII Ltd (Jack Webb)

Jazz musicians in the twenties get involved with gangsters.

Minor cult film, mainly for the score; dramatically it is not exactly compelling.

w Richard L. Breen d Jack Webb ph Harper Goff m Sammy Cahn, Ray Heindorf, Arthur Hamilton, Matty Matlock
☆ Jack Webb, Edmond O'Brien, Janet Leigh, Peggy Lee, Andy Devine, Ella Fitzgerald, Lee Marvin, Martin Milner

'Concerned with striking attitudes and establishing an atmosphere rather than developing anything very coherent in the way of narrative ... one remains aware of an over-deliberate straining after effect.' – Penelope Houston

Peggy Lee

'Honeymoon's over – time to get married!'

Pete 'n Tillie ★

US 1972 100m Technicolor Panavision
Universal (Julius J. Epstein)

The tragi-comic marriage of two eccentrics.

Curious: plain drama treated as comedy, with surprisingly satisfactory results, but not an example to be followed.

w Julius J. Epstein novel Witch's Milk by Peter de Vries d Martin Ritt ph John Alonzo m John T. Williams
☆ Walter Matthau, Carol Burnett, Geraldine Page, René Auberjonois, Barry Nelson, Henry Jones

'For the most part an amusing, moving, sentimental comedy. The wisecracks stay on this side of human possibility – that is, we don't feel, as we do so often with Neil Simon, that the characters have private gag writers in their homes.' – Stanley Kauffmann

Julius J. Epstein; Geraldine Page
Walter Matthau

'The most beautiful romance in all modern literature!'

Peter Ibbetson ★

US 1935 85m bw
Paramount (Louis D. Lighton)

Childhood sweethearts meet again as adults, are separated when he is imprisoned for her husband's murder, but are reunited in heaven.

Downright peculiar romantic fantasy, even more oddly cast, but extremely well produced.

w Vincent Lawrence, Waldemar Young, Constance Collier novel George du Maurier d Henry Hathaway ph Charles Lang m Ernst Toch
☆ Gary Cooper, Ann Harding, Ida Lupino, John Halliday, Douglass Dumbrille, Virginia Weidler, Dickie Moore, Doris Lloyd

'In a day and a world hard-boiled and realistic Paramount hopes to sell a picture about dreams and beauty and love. It just isn't in the cards.' – Variety

'A triumph of surrealist thought.' – André Breton

'One of the world's ten best films.' – Luis Buñuel

Ernst Toch

Peter Pan ★★

US 1953 76m Technicolor
Walt Disney

Three London children are taken into fairyland by a magic flying boy who cannot grow up.

Solidly crafted cartoon version of a famous children's play; not Disney's best work, but still miles ahead of the competition.

d Wilfred Jackson, Clyde Geronimi, Hamilton Luske m Oliver Wallace supervisor Ben Sharpsteen
☆ Featuring the voices of Bobby Driscoll, Kathryn Beaumont, Hans Conried, Bill Thompson, Heather Angel

'A painful travesty.' – C. A. Lejeune

'The legend you thought you knew becomes the adventure you never imagined.'

Peter Pan ★

US 2003 113m Technicolor Panavision
UIP/Columbia/Universal/Revolution/Allied Stars (Douglas Wick, Lucy Fisher, Patrick McCormick)

Three children are enticed to fly away from their London home to Neverland by a boy who can never grow up.

Faithful in spirit to the original, this spectacular movie overwhelms its cast with its special effects and is short on mischief and magic.

w P.J. Hogan, Michael Goldenberg play and books J.M. Barrie d P.J. Hogan ph Donald M. McAlpine m James Newton Howard pd Roger Ford ed Garth Craven, Michael Kahn sp Scott Farrar; ILM; John Cox's Creature Workshop cos Janet Patterson
☆ Jason Isaacs (Mr Darling/Captain Hook), Jeremy Sumpter (Peter Pan), Rachel Hurd-Wood (Wendy Darling), Olivia Williams (Mrs Darling), Ludivine Sagnier (Tink), Richard Briers (Smee), Lynn Redgrave (Aunt Millicent), Geoffrey Palmer (Sir Edward Quiller Couch), Harry Newell (John Darling), Freddie Popplewell (Michael Darling), Saffron Burrows (Narrator)

'Occasionally succeeds in delivering a truly impressive state-of-the-art spectacle, there is something curiously sterile about a perfunctory film that utterly, utterly fails to capture the enduring charm of this Edwardian saga of eternal youth.' – Kevin O'Sullivan, Daily Mirror

'Being a child is frightening – there are certainly scenes here that will jolt the sensitivities of young children – but growing up is painful. Like Barrie, Mr Hogan grasps these difficult truths, and knows how to spin them into utter, uncomplicated delight.' – A. O. Scott, New York Times

Peter Rabbit and the Tales of Beatrix Potter: see Tales of Beatrix Potter

Peter the Great ★

USSR 1937 96m bw
Lenfilm

The rise to power of the famous autocrat.

Standard Russian first feature with plenty of action and striking composition, but not really memorable.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

w Alexei Tolstoy, Vladimir Petrov
d Vladimir Petrov
☆ Nikolai Simonov, Nikolai Cherkassov, Alla Tarasova, M. Zharov
'Surprisingly strong: a cinch in Russian-languagers.' – Variety

'A comedy about love, friendship and other natural disasters.'

Peter's Friends ★★

GB 1992 101m Technicolor
Entertainment/Renaissance/Samuel Goldwyn/Channel 4 (Kenneth Branagh)

A decade after they left university, a group of former friends get together for a New Year's reunion at a country mansion.
A British variation on The Big Chill that is a good deal chillier, with a cast too familiar from innumerable television comedies to be entirely convincing in their roles.
w Martin Bergman, Rita Rudner
d Kenneth Branagh ph Roger Lanser
m Gavin Greenaway pd Tim Harvey
ed Andrew Marcus
☆ Kenneth Branagh, Alphonsia Emmanuel, Stephen Fry, Hugh Laurie, Phyllida Law, Alex Lowe, Rita Rudner, Tony Slattery, Imelda Staunton, Emma Thompson, Richard Briers
'Well written, beautifully performed and highly entertaining.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian
'A lot more work is called for all round before these likeable people produce something worthy to be called disposable film entertainment.' – Adam Mars-Jones, Independent
'Awful, with glimpses of wit. The script is hopelessly schematic: one long, drawing-room chat in which people dish each other, then leave the room so they can be talked about.' – Richard Corliss, Time

The Peterville Diamond

GB 1942 85m bw
Warner (A. H. Salomon)

A bored wife revives her husband's interest by cultivating the advances of a jewel thief.
Modest comedy-drama, smoothly presented: the same play formed the basis of Dieterle's Jewel Robbery.
w Brock Williams, Gordon Wellesley play Jewel Robbery by Ladislas Fodor
d Walter Forde ph Basil Emmott md Jack Beaver ☆ Anne Crawford, Donald Stewart, Renee Houston, Oliver Wakefield, Charles Heslop, William Hartnell, Felix Aylmer, Charles Victor

Pete's Dragon

US 1977 127m Technicolor
Walt Disney (Ron Miller, Jerome Courtland)

In Maine in 1900, a nine-year-old boy escapes from grasping foster-parents with his pet dragon, which no one but himself can see.
A kind of juvenile rewrite of Harvey. The dragon is drawn (rather poorly) and the human characters are not exactly three-dimensional. A long way from Mary Poppins.
w Malcolm Marmorstein story Seton I. Miller, S. S. Field d Don Chaffey ph Frank Phillips md Irwin Kostal ch Onna White animation Ken Anderson songs Al Kasha, Joel Hirschhorn
☆ Sean Marshall, Mickey Rooney, Jim Dale, Helen Reddy, Red Buttons, Shelley Winters, Jim Backus, Joe E. Ross, Ben Wrigley
'For a Disney film it's terribly badly made, in parts so clumsy that it looks like the work of the Burbank Amateur Camera Club.' – Barry Took, Punch
♫ music; song 'Candle on the Water'

La Petite Bande ★★

France 1983 91m colour
Squirrel/Gaumont-Stand'Art/FR3/Hamster Productions (Denis Mermet)

A gang of English children stow away to France where they cause mayhem and save the world from a gang of wicked adults before ending up on a desert island.
Lively and subversive entertainment intended for children.
w Gilles Perrault, Michel Déville, Yan Appas, Joan Népami d Michel Déville
ph Claude Lecompte m Edgar Cosma pd Michel Guyot, Régis Des Plas
ed Raymonde Guyot
☆ Andrew Chandler, Hélène Dassule, Nicole Palmer, Hamish Scrimgeour, Katherine Scrimgeour, Nicolas Sireau; Rémi Usquin, Valérie Gauthier

La Petite Voleuse ★

France 1988 109m Fujicolour
Pathé/Orly Films/Renn Productions/Ciné Cinq/Les Films du Carrosse/Sedif (Jean-José Richer)

A young girl becomes the lover and accomplice of a thief.
Moderately engaging account of a defiant, amoral outlaw determined to make her own way in the world.
w François Truffaut, Claude de Givray
d Claude Miller ph Dominique Chapuis ad Jean-Pierre Kohut Svelko ed Albert Jurgenson
☆ Charlotte Gainsbourg, Didier Bazace, Simon de la Brosse, Raoul Billerey, Chantal Banlier, Nathalie Cardone, Clotilde de Bayser

Petites Coupures

France/GB 2003 95m colour
Artificial Eye/Rezo/Axiom/France 2/Rhone Alpes (Jean-Michel Rey, Philippe Liegeois)

aka: Small Cuts

Encumbered with a wife and a mistress he dislikes, a journalist goes to help his Communist uncle fight an election and begins an affair with the wife of his aunt's lover.
Dreary account of a disillusioned left-wing intellectual and serial seducer's encounters with unhinged women.
wd Pascal Bonitzer ph William Lubtchansky m John Scott pd Emmanuel de Chauvigny ed Suzanne Koch
☆ Daniel Auteuil (Bruno), Kristin Scott Thomas (Beatrice), Ludivine Sagnier (Nathalie), Pascale Bussières (Mathilde), Catherine Mouchet (Anne), Emmanuelle Devos (Gaelle), Dinara Droukarova (Marie), Jean Yanne (Gerard)
'Difficult not to be frustrated by a film which has a kind of attention deficit disorder, building intrigúe only to lose interest and veer off in another direction.' – Anthony Quinn, Independent

Les Petites Filles Modèles

France 1971 88m Eastmancolor
Plan-Film/Studio du Dragon/Labrador/Tanagra (Louis Duchesne)

aka: Good Little Girls

The amorous adventures of a wealthy aristocratic widow and her two nubile daughters.
Lively comic carry-on, updating a novel about well-brought-up young girls behaving badly.
w François de Bernis novel Comtesse de Ségur d Jean-Claude Roy ph Claude Saunier m Maurice Lecoeur ed Florence Eymon
☆ Jessica Dorn, Marie-Georges Pascal, Cathy Reghin, Sylvie Lafontaine, Michèle Girardon, Bella Darvi, Béatrice Arnac, François Guerin, Dominique Paturel (narrator)
'This crudely unsubtle adaptation, which reduces the story to the level of a mild exploitation picture, full of coy nudity and doubles entendres, and made without any grace or humour.' – John Gillett, MFB

The Petrified Forest ★★

US 1936 83m bw
Warner (Henry Blanke)

Travellers at a way station in the Arizona desert are held up by gangsters.
Rather faded melodrama (it always was), which is important to Hollywood for introducing such well used figures as the poet idealist hero and the gangster anti-hero, and for giving Bogart his first meaty role. Otherwise, the settings are artificial, the acting theatrical, the development predictable and the dialogue pretentious.
w Charles Kenyon, Delmer Daves play Robert E. Sherwood d Archie Mayo
ph Sol Polito md Leo F. Forbstein
☆ Leslie Howard, Bette Davis, Humphrey Bogart, Genevieve Tobin, Dick Foran, Joe Sawyer, Porter Hall, Charley Grapewin
ALAN SQUIER (LESLIE HOWARD): 'Let there be killing. All this evening I've had a feeling of destiny closing in.'
JACKIE (JOE SAWYER): 'Now, just behave yourself and nobody'll get hurt. This is Duke Mantee, the world-famous killer, and he's hungry.'
'Marquee draft should offset the philosophic meanderings which minimize appeal.' – Variety
'Drama slackens under the weight of Mr Sherwood's rather half-baked philosophy.' – Alistair Cooke
'There is good dramatic material here, but Mr Sherwood doesn't see his play as certain things happening, but as ideas being expressed, "significant" cosmic ideas ... Life itself, which crept in during the opening scene, embarrassed perhaps at hearing itself so explicitly discussed, crept out again, leaving us only with the symbols, the too pasteboard desert, the stunted cardboard studio trees.' – Graham Greene † Remade as Escape in the Desert (qv).

Petticoat Fever

US 1936 80m bw
MGM (Frank Davis)

A girl and her stuffy fiancé crash land their plane in sub-Arctic Labrador and are helped by a wireless operator who has not seen a woman for two years.
Pert, slightly unusual comedy which comes off pretty well.
w Harold Goldman play Mark Reed
d George Fitzmaurice ph Ernest Haller
m William Axt
☆ Robert Montgomery, Myrna Loy, Reginald Owen, Winifred Shotter

The Petty Girl

US 1950 88m Technicolor
Columbia (Nat Perrin)
GB title: Girl of the Year

A calendar artist takes a staid college professor as his model, and causes a scandal.
Witless comedy musical which barely lingers in the memory.
w Nat Perrin story Mary McCarthy
d Henry Levin ph William Snyder
m George Duning songs Harold Arlen, Johnny Mercer
☆ Robert Cummings, Joan Caulfield, Melville Cooper, Elsa Lanchester, Audrey Long, Mary Wickes, Frank Orth

Petulia ★

US 1968 105m Technicolor
Warner/Petersham (Raymond Wagner)

A doctor's life is disrupted by his meeting and loving a kooky girl who has family problems.
Swinging London melodrama which happens to be set in San Francisco. All very flashy, and occasionally arresting or well acted, but adding up to nothing.
w Lawrence B. Marcus novel Me and the Arch Kook Petulia by John Haase d Richard Lester ph Nicolas Roeg m John Barry
☆ George C. Scott, Julie Christie, Richard Chamberlain, Joseph Cotten, Arthur Hill, Shirley Knight, Kathleen Widdoes, Pippa Scott
'A sad and savage comment on the ways we waste our time and ourselves in upper-middle-class America.' – Richard Schickel
'A soulless, arbitrary, attitudinizing piece of claptrap.' – John Simon

Peur sur la Ville: see Night Caller

'Everybody in this town hides behind plain wrappers!'

Peyton Place ★★

US 1957 157m DeLuxe Cinemascope
TCF (Jerry Wald)

Sex, frustration and violence ferment under the placid surface of a small New England town.
Well-made film of what was at the time a scandalous bestseller, one of the first to reveal those nasty secrets of 'ordinary people'.
w John Michael Hayes novel Grace Metalious d Mark Robson ph William Mellor m Franz Waxman
☆ Lana Turner, Arthur Kennedy, Hope Lange, Lee Philips, Lloyd Nolan, Diane Varsi, Russ Tamblyn, Terry Moore, Barry Coe, David Nelson, Betty Field, Mildred Dunnock, Leon Ames, Lorne Greene
♗ best picture; John Michael Hayes; Mark Robson; William Mellor; Lana Turner; Arthur Kennedy; Hope Lange; Diane Varsi; Russ Tamblyn

Phaedra ★

US/Greece 1961 116m bw
UA/Melinafilm (Jules Dassin)

A tycoon's wife falls in love with her stepson.
Ludicrous, awesomely folly-filled attempt to modernize and sex up Greek tragedy.
wd Jules Dassin ph Jacques Natteau
m Mikis Theodorakis
☆ Melina Mercouri, Anthony Perkins, Raf Vallone, Elizabeth Ercy
'Unfortunately unforgettable.' – John Simon

'If this one doesn't scare you ... you're already dead!'

Phantasm

US 1979 90m Technicolor
Avco Embassy

A 16-year-old has nightmares which seem to come true.
Cleverly assembled horror comic with many nasty moments. Not for the squeamish, and with no real merit except the power to frighten.
wd Don Coscarelli (who was 20 at the time)
ph Don Coscarelli ed Don Coscarelli

☆ Michael Baldwin, Bill Thornbury, Reggie Bannister, Angus Scrimm

Phantasm II

US 1988 97m colour
Guild/Starway International (Roberto A. Quezada)

A creature from another dimension who brings corpses back to life is thwarted by a teenager and his old adversary.
In the nine years separating this sequel from the original, its director has retained his ability to shock but still cannot tell a story convincingly.
wd Don Coscarelli ph Dayn Okada m Fred Myrow, Christopher L. Stone pd Philip J. C. Duffin ed Peter Teschner
☆ James Le Gros, Reggie Bannister, Angus Scrimm, Paula Irvine, Samantha Phillips, Kenneth Tigar, Ruth C. Engel, Mark Anthony Major, Rubin Kushner

'A slick-looking but uninvolving, uncertain picture.' – MFB

The Phantom

US/Australia 1996 100m DeLuxe
Paramount/Ladd Company/Village Roadshow (Robert Evans, Alan Ladd Jnr)

A pirate's plan to make himself dictator of America by obtaining three skulls with supernatural powers is thwarted by a masked hero.
A limp action movie featuring a dull superhero, this is below-par Saturday matinée stuff.
w Jeffrey Boam comic strip Lee Falk d Simon Wincer ph David Burr m David Newman pd Paul Peters ed O. Nicholas Brown, Bryan H. Carroll
☆ Billy Zane, Kristy Swanson, Treat Williams, Catherine Zeta Jones, James Remar, Jon Teney, Cary-Hiroyuki Tagawa, Patrick McGoohan, Bill Smitrovich, Samantha Eggar

'Brings a light touch to appealingly old-fashioned action material, creating a fast-moving yarn.' – Variety

The Phantom Baron: see Le Baron Fantôme

The Phantom Carriage: see Thy Soul Shall Bear Witness

The Phantom Fiend: see The Lodger

Phantom Killer

US 1942 57m bw
A. W. Hackel/Monogram

A young district attorney uncovers an ingenious criminal ruse by twin brothers.
Better-than-average crime filler.
w Karl Brown d William Beaudine
☆ Dick Purcell, Joan Woodbury, John Hamilton, Warren Hymer, J. Farrell MacDonald, Mantan Moreland

Phantom Lady ★★

US 1944 87m bw
Universal (Joan Harrison)

A man is accused of murder and his only alibi is a mysterious lady he met in a bar.
Odd little thriller which doesn't really hold together but is made for the most part with great style.
w Bernard C. Schoenfeld novel William Irish d Robert Siodmak ph Woody Bredell m Hans Salter ☆ Franchot Tone, Alan Curtis, Ella Raines, Elisha Cook Jnr, Fay Helm, Andrew Tombes

The Phantom Light

GB 1935 76m bw
Gaumont British/Gainsborough (Jerome Jackson)

A new keeper takes over at a remote Welsh lighthouse which is reputed to be haunted.
An old-fashioned and stagey melodrama, a sort of seafaring Ghost Train, which defeats the director's best efforts to create something more realistic.
w Ralph Smart, J. Jefferson Farjeon, Austin Melford play The Haunted Light by Evadne Price, Joan Roy Byford d Michael Powell ph Roy Kellino md Louis Levy ad A. Vetchinsky ed D. N. Twist ☆ Binnie Hale, Gordon Harker, Donald Calthrop, Milton Rosmer, Ian Hunter, Herbert Lomas

Phantom Love: see Ai No Borei

Phantom of 42nd Street

US 1945 58m bw
PRC/Mooney-Herman

A young Broadway star is suspected when her uncle is murdered backstage.
Lightweight but amiable mystery.
w Milton Raison d Albert Herman
☆ Dave O'Brien, Kay Aldridge, Alan Mowbray, Frank Jenks, Jack Mulhall

Phantom of Crestwood ★

US 1932 77m bw
RKO (David O. Selznick)

Murder strikes when a blackmailer assembles her victims.
Lively mystery with spoof elements.
w Bartlett Cormack, J. Walter Ruben d J. Walter Ruben ph Henry Gerrard m Max Steiner
☆ Ricardo Cortez, H. B. Warner, Anita Louise, Karen Morley, Pauline Frederick, Robert McWade, Skeets Gallagher

'Below the deluxe classification it should give a good account of itself.' – Variety

The Phantom of Liberty ★★★

France 1974 104m Eastmancolor
Fox-Rank/Greenwich (Serge Silberman)

original title: Le Fantôme de la Liberté

Surrealist episodes in the lives of various loosely linked individuals that range from a firing squad in 1808 to modern-day Paris where a dead woman phones her brother to offer him consolation and the police prepare to suppress a revolt.
A hit and miss affair in its treatment of middle-class hypocrites, often funny, but sometimes no more than bizarre, although you keep watching, just to see what happens next.
w Luis Buñuel, Jean-Claude Carrière d Luis Buñuel ph Edmond Richard ad Pierre Guffroy ed Hélène Plemiannikov
☆ Monica Vitti (Mme. Foucauld), Jean-Claude Brialy (M. Foucauld), Michel Piccoli (2nd Prefect of Police), Jean Rochefort (M. Legendre), Adolfo Celi (Dr. Pasolini), Michel Lonsdale (Jean Bermans), Adriana Asti (Woman in Black/Prefect's Sister), Bernard Verley (Captain of Dragoons), Maxence Mailfort (Lt. of Dragoons), Muni (Foucauld's Nanny), Philippe Brigaud (Sinister Stranger)

'A magnificent film ... one of Buñuel's masterpieces.' – Tom Milne, Sight and Sound

'Buñuel has a great spare, tonic style, but the domesticated surrealism of this picture has no sting and no after-effect. The film drifts out of your head before it's over.' – Pauline Kael, New Yorker

Phantom of Paris

US 1931 73m bw
MGM

A magician proves by a complex plan that he did not kill his fiancée's father.
Unusual but tortuous thriller which fails to thrill.
w Bess Meredyth, John Meehan, Edwin Justus Mayer d John S. Robertson
☆ John Gilbert, Leila Hyams, Ian Keith, C. Aubrey Smith, Lewis Stone, Jean Hersholt

'It isn't Gilbert that makes the picture, it makes itself. Merits above-average gross.' – Variety

Phantom of the Opera ★★★

US 1925 94m (24 fps) bw (Technicolor sequence) silent
Universal

A disfigured man in a mask abducts the prima donna of the Paris Opera House to his lair in the sewers below.
Patchy but often splendid piece of Grand Guignol which not only provided its star with a famous role but was notable for its magnificent visual style.
w Raymond Schrock, Elliott Clawson novel Gaston Leroux d Rupert Julian ph Charles Van Enger, Virgil Miller ad Dan Hall ed Maurice Pivar
☆ Lon Chaney (The Phantom), Mary Philbin (Christine Daae), Norman Kerry (Raoul de Chagny), Gibson Gowland (Simon)

'The greatest inducement to nightmare that has yet been screened.' – Variety

† The chase was directed by Edward Sedgwick.

†† In 1930 an 89m talkie version was issued with approximately 35% dialogue which had been recorded by the surviving actors, and some new footage.

††† The Region 1 two-disc ultimate edition includes both the original 1925 version and the 1929 restored version, commentary by film historian Scott MacQueen, and the Carl Davis orchestral score.

The Phantom of the Opera ★

US 1943 92m Technicolor
Universal (George Waggner)

A shy violinist, obsessed with a chorus girl, haunts the sewers of the opera house after he is disfigured by having acid thrown in his face by a jealous rival.
This version of the familiar story is more decorous and gentlemanly than most, with much attention paid to the music, but it certainly has its moments.
w Erich Taylor, Samuel Hoffenstein d Arthur Lubin ph Hal Mohr, W. Howard Greene m Edward Ward ad John B. Goodman, Alexander Golitzen
☆ Claude Rains, Nelson Eddy, Susanna Foster, Edgar Barrier, Leo Carrillo, J. Edward Bromberg, Jane Farrar, Hume Cronyn

'A grand and gaudy entertainment.' – Manchester Guardian

♟ Hal Mohr, W. Howard Greene; John B. Goodman, Alexander Golitzen; Edward Ward

Phantom of the Opera

GB 1962 90m Technicolor
U-I/Hammer (Anthony Hinds)

A disfigured composer lurks beneath an opera house with his hunchbacked assistant and kidnaps the singer he loves to coach her in a leading role.
Stodgy remake with the accent on shock. Its box-office failure was attributed to treating the phantom too sympathetically.
w John Elder (Anthony Hinds) d Terence Fisher ph Arthur Grant m Edwin Astley md John Hollingsworth ad Bernard Robinson, Don Mingaye ed Alfred Cox
☆ Herbert Lom, Edward de Souza, Heather Sears, Thorley Walters, Michael Gough, Ian Wilson, Martin Miller, John Harvey, Miriam Karlin

'The only shock is that the British, who could have had a field day with this antique, have simply wafted it back with a lick and a promise.' – New York Times

Phantom of the Opera

US 1989 93m colour
Castle Premier/21st Century/Breton Film (Harry Alan Towers)

Struck on the head, a singer finds herself back in Victorian England, where she falls under the influence of a disfigured musical genius who has sold his soul to the devil.
Undistinguished variation on a familiar story, cashing in on the popularity of the actor who plays 'Freddy' in the Nightmare On Elm Street series.
w Duke Sandefur, Gerry O'Hara d Dwight H. Little ph Elemer Ragalyi m Misha Segal ad Tivadar Bertalan ed Charles Bornstein
☆ Robert Englund, Jill Schoelen, Alex Hyde-White, Bill Nighy, Terence Harvey, Stephanie Lawrence, Nathan Lewis, Peter Clapham

'The world's biggest musical!'

The Phantom of the Opera ★ 4

GB/US 2004 143m Technicolor
Warner/Odyssey/Really Useful/Scion (Andrew Lloyd Webber)

A disfigured composer, who lives beneath the Paris Opera, encourages a young girl to become its star, but grows jealous when she is wooed by a handsome aristocrat.
Filmed without much wit or invention, this is an inert, kitsch version of a much-filmed work that gains neither romance nor spectacular drama from its musical treatment; unmasked, the Phantom appears to have a slight case of acne, and the singing is as undistinguished as the lyrics.
w Andrew Lloyd Webber, Joel Schumacher novel Gaston Leroux d Joel Schumacher ph John Mathieson m/ly Andrew Lloyd Webber; Charles Hart, Richard Stilgoe ch Peter Darling pd Anthony Pratt ed Terry Rawlings cos Alexandra Byrne
☆ Gerard Butler (The Phantom), Emmy Rossum (Christine Daae), Patrick Wilson (Raoul de Chagny), Miranda Richardson (Madame Giry), Minnie Driver (Carlotta), Simon Callow (André), Ciaran Hinds (Firmin)

'A film so lifeless and soulless it's almost scary, with actors who glide slowly around, warbling away in their silly outfits, as if being towed on roller-skates.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

'Emerges as one of those queer works of art that actually improve somehow as they get tackier and more removed from the original.' – Phillip Kennicott, Washington Post

'Schumacher's principal debt is to the higher reaches of the textile industry, and if you ever longed to know what it feels like to be asphyxiated by brocade, here is your chance.' – Anthony Lane, New Yorker

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · ♟ Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

† Minnie Driver's singing voice was dubbed by Margaret Preece.
♗ John Mathieson; art direction; song 'Learn to be Lonely' (m Andrew Lloyd Webber, l Charles Hart)

Phantom of the Paradise ★

US 1974 91m Movielab
TCF/Pressman Williams (Edward R. Pressman)

A modern satirical remake of Phantom of the Opera in rock opera terms, set in a pop music palace.
Not bad in spots, but it doesn't really know where it's going.
wd Brian de Palma ph Larry Pizer m Paul Williams pd Jack Fisk
☆ Paul Williams, William Finley, Jessica Harper, George Memmoli, Gerrit Graham
'Too broad in its effects and too bloated in style to cut very deeply as a parody ... closer to the anything goes mode of a Mad magazine lampoon.' – Richard Combs
♗ Paul Williams

'It Strikes, Vanishes, Then Lunges Out Again And Again!'
'Nothing like it was ever known before...let's hope nothing like its terror will ever happen again!'

Phantom of the Rue Morgue

US 1954 84m Warnercolor 3-D
Warner (Henry Blanke)

In old Paris, a killer of pretty girls turns out to be an ape.
Dull revamping of a rather dull story, with boring characters and little horror.
w Harold Medford, James R. Webb story Murders in the Rue Morgue by Edgar Allan Poe d Roy del Ruth ph Peverell Marley m David Buttolph md Ray Heindorf ad Bertram Tuttle ed James C. Moore ☆ Karl Malden (Dr Maraio), Claude Dauphin (Inspector Bonnard), Steve Forrest (Prof. Paul Dupin), Patricia Medina (Jeanette Bouvere), Allyn McLerie (Yvonne), Dolores Dorn (Camille), Anthony Caruso (Jacques), Veola Vonn (Arlette), Merv Griffin (Georges Brevert)

The Phantom President ★

US 1932 78m bw
Paramount

A fast-talking quack doubles for a lacklustre presidential candidate.
A likely but in fact unsuccessful film début for a famous Broadway star: many points of interest.
w Walter de Leon, Harlan Thompson
d Norman Taurog ph David Abel
songs Richard Rodgers, Lorenz Hart
☆ George M. Cohan, Claudette Colbert, Jimmy Durante, George Barbier, Sidney Toler, Jameson Thomas, Paul Hurst, Alan Mowbray
'A lot of smart stuff is packed into the footage ... should do well without threatening to rate itself a smash.' – Variety
'For anyone who cares about American theatrical history, it's an indispensable record of Cohan's style.' – New Yorker, 1978

Phantom Ship: see The Mystery of the Marie Celeste

The Phantom Strikes: see The Gaunt Stranger

The Phantom Tollbooth

US 1969 89m Metrocolor
MGM/Animation/Visual Arts (Abe Levitow, Les Goldman)

A bored young boy, oblivious to his surroundings, is transported into a world of the imagination, where words and numbers battle for supremacy.
A witty, literate children's story, depending on wordplay, becomes a conventional animated film, constraining the antic imagination of Chuck Jones.
w Chuck Jones, Sam Rosen novel Norton Juster d Chuck Jones, Abe Levitow (animation); David Monahan (live action)
ph Lester Shorr m Dean Elliott
m/ly Norman Gimbel, Lee Pockriss, Paul Vance pd Maurice Noble ed Jim Faris ☆ Butch Patrick and also the voices of Mel Blanc, Daws Butler, Candy Candido, Hans Conried, June Foray, Patti Gilbert
'Chuck Jones and Abe Levitow have approached Juster with an appalling condescension – manifested partly in the snail's pace and constant over-emphasis, and partly in the sickening cuteness, reminiscent of Disney at his worst.' – Tom Milne, MFB

'For centuries they told us the terror would come from above. We've been looking the wrong way.'

Phantoms ②

US 1998 95m FotoKem
Dimension/Neo Motion/Raven House (Joel Soisson, Michael Leahy, Robert Pringle, Steve Lane)

FBI agents and a maverick expert in the occult investigate the happenings in a small town where all the inhabitants have been slaughtered.
The true horror here is seeing O'Toole reduced to appearing in this cheap and miserable mess, though he adds a little welcome gravitas; it is otherwise direly unimaginative, slackly directed and, for the most parts, badly acted.
w Dean Koontz novel Dean Koontz d Joe Chappelle ph Richard Clabaugh m David Williams pd Deborah Raymond, Dorian Vernacchio ed Randolph K. Bricker
☆ Peter O'Toole (Timothy Flyte), Rose McGowan (Lisa Pailey), Joanna Going (Jenny Pailey), Liev Schreiber (Deputy Stu Wargle), Ben Affleck (Sheriff Bryce Hammond), Nicky Katt (Deputy Steve Shanning), Clifton Powell (General Copperfield), Rick Otto (Scientist Lockland)
'A horror movie that has the distinction of not even being scary.' – Ruthe Stein, San Francisco Chronicle
'Nearly unwatchable, a farrago of confusing direction, stupid plot coincidences, and banal dialogue.' – Ty Burr, Entertainment Weekly

Phar Lap

Australia 1983 118m colour
Panavision
TCF/Michael Edgley International (John Sexton)

GB title: Phar Lap – Heart of a Nation
The story of a crack racehorse which was the talk of the world in the early thirties but died of a mysterious disease.
The film, though adequately textured, won't win any races.
w David Williamson d Simon Wincer
ph Russell Boyd m Bruce Rowland
☆ Tom Burlinson, Martin Vaughan, Judy Morris, Celia de Burgh, Ron Liebman, Vincent Ball

'The day the earth was turned into a cemetery!'

Phase IV ★

GB 1973 84m Technicolor
Paramount/Alced (Paul B. Radin)

In the Arizona desert, ants attack a scientific installation.
Oddly effective if repulsive science fiction; the ants are all the more unpleasant because they stay the normal size.
w Mayo Simon d Saul Bass ph Dick Bush
m Brian Gascoigne
☆ Nigel Davenport, Lynne Frederick, Michael Murphy, Alan Gifford

'Sin City of Alabama!'

The Phenix City Story ★

US 1955 100m bw
Allied Artists (Sam Bischoff, David Diamond)

A young lawyer fights the racketeers who control his town.
Goodish example of the semi-documentary melodramas of small-town corruption which swarmed out of Hollywood following the Kefauver investigations.
w Crane Wilbur, Dan Mainwaring d Phil Karlson ph Harry Neumann m Harry Sukman
☆ Richard Kiley, Edward Andrews, John McIntire, Kathryn Grant

Phenomena: see Creepers

'Some Things In Life Just Can't Be Explained.'

Phenomenon

US 1996 124m Technicolor Panavision
Buena Vista/Touchstone (Barbara Boyle, Michael Taylor)

A dim-witted mechanic becomes a genius after he is knocked out by seeing a bright light in the sky.
Sentimental weepie with the message that it's good to conform.
w Gerald DiPego d Jon Turteltaub ph Phedon Papamichael m Thomas Newton pd Garreth Stover ed Bruce Green ☆ John Travolta, Kyra Sedgwick, Forest Whitaker, Jeffrey DeMunn, Robert Duvall, Richard Kiley, Brent Spiner
'Suggests that, in late-20th-century America, to work at gaining knowledge is to be weird – a freak to be feared. The film would be unbearable were Travolta not so consistently charming.' – Ken Tucker, Entertainment Weekly

'Don't Say it. See it!'

Phffft

US 1954 91m bw
Columbia (Fred Kohlmar)

The title refers to the sound of an expiring match; the story tells of a couple who get divorced and try to find out what they have been missing.
Champagne comedy with no bubbles.
w George Axelrod d Mark Robson
ph Charles Lang m Frederick Hollander
☆ Jack Lemmon, Judy Holliday, Kim Novak, Jack Carson, Luella Gear, Donald Randolph, Donald Curtis, Merry Anders
'At best, moderate entertainment.' – Saturday Review
'The director was miscast.' – George Axelrod

'No One Would Take On His Case ... Until One Man Was Willing To Take On The System.'

Philadelphia ★★

US 1993 125m Technicolor
TriStar/Clinca Estetico (Edward Saxon, Jonathan Demme)

A successful homosexual lawyer with AIDS sues his firm for unfair dismissal after he is sacked for 'an attitude problem'.
A feel-good film about AIDS, set within a standard Hollywood courtroom drama; it is well made and absorbing, given its limits.
w Ron Nyswaner d Jonathan Demme ph Tak Fujimoto m Howard Shore
pd Kristi Zea ed Craig McKay
☆ Tom Hanks, Denzel Washington, Jason Robards, Mary Steenburgen, Antonio Banderas, Ron Vawter, Robert Ridgely, Charles Napier, Joanne Woodward
'An ideal film for people who have never known anyone with AIDS ... extremely well-made message picture.' – Variety
'The film ultimately becomes a documentary on the ravages of AIDS – and on the masochistic machismo of Method acting.' – Richard Corliss, Time
'A heartbreakingly mediocre film. It's dishonest, it's often legally, medically and politically inaccurate, and it breaks my heart that I must say it's simply not good enough and I'd rather people not see it at all.' – Larry Kramer
♟ Tom Hanks; song 'Streets of Philadelphia' (m/ly Bruce Springsteen)
♗ Ron Nyswaner; song 'Philadelphia' (m/ly Neil Young); make-up

The Philadelphia Experiment ★

US 1984 101m CFI color
New World/Cinema Group (Joel B. Michaels, Douglas Curtis)

Seamen on a 1943 destroyer fall through a time warp into 1984, and have one hell of a job getting back.
Science fiction, Outer Limits/Final Countdown style; quite watchable, and technically proficient, but the claim that it was based on an actual incident seems a bit tall.
w William Gray, Michael Janover book William I. Moore, Charles Berlitz
d Stewart Raffill ph Dick Bush m Ken Wannberg ad Chris Campbell ed Neil Travis, William Hoy
☆ Michael Paré, Nancy Allen, Eric Christmas, Bobby Di Cicco, Louise Latham

The Philadelphia Experiment 2

US 1993 97m colour
Trimark (Mark Levinson, Doug Curtis)

An experiment goes wrong and a modern bomber-plane goes through the space-time continuum into a place of dictatorship and concentration camps.
Undemanding action fare that does little with its science-fiction elements.
w Kevin Rock, Nick Paine d Stephen Cornwell ph Ronn Schmidt m Gerald Couriet pd Armin Ganz ed Nina Gilberti
sp Frank Ceglia
☆ Brad Johnson, Marjean Holden, Gerrit Graham, James Greene, Geoffrey Blake, Cyril O'Reilly, John Christian Grass
'An old idea, passably reworked.' – Sight and Sound
† The film was released direct to video in Britain.

'Uncle Leo's bedtime story for you older tots! The things they do among the playful rich – oh, boy!'

The Philadelphia Story ★★★★

US 1940 112m bw
MGM (Joseph L. Mankiewicz)

A stuffy heiress, about to be married for the second time, turns human and returns gratefully to number one.
Hollywood's most wise and sparkling comedy, with a script which is even an improvement on the original play. Cukor's direction is so discreet you can hardly sense it, and all the performances are just perfect.

w Donald Ogden Stewart play Philip Barry d George Cukor ph Joseph Ruttenberg m Franz Waxman ad Cedric Gibbons ed Frank Sullivan ☆ Katharine Hepburn (Tracy Lord), Cary Grant (C.K. Dexter Haven), James Stewart (Macauley Connor), Ruth Hussey (Elizabeth Imbrie), Roland Young (Uncle Willie), John Halliday (Seth Lord), Mary Nash (Margaret Lord), Virginia Weidler (Dinah Lord), John Howard (George Kittredge), Henry Daniell (Sidney Kidd)
'There are just not enough superlatives sufficiently to appreciate this show.' – Hollywood Reporter
'An exceptionally bright job of screenplay writing ... though films like this do little to advance the art of motion pictures, they may help to convince some of the more discerning among cultural slugabeds that when movies want to turn their hand to anything, they can turn it.' – Otis Ferguson
† Cary Grant donated his salary to war relief.
Donald Ogden Stewart; James Stewart best picture; George Cukor; Katharine Hepburn; Ruth Hussey

Philo Vance

The smooth sleuth created by S. S. Van Dine was a popular film hero of the thirties, for several different companies and with several different actors. As a series it was very variable indeed.
1929 The Canary Murder Case (Paramount: William Powell), The Greene Murder Case (Paramount: William Powell)
1930 The Bishop Murder Case (MGM: Basil Rathbone), The Benson Murder Case (Paramount: William Powell)
1933 The Kennel Murder Case (qv) (Warner: William Powell)
1934 The Dragon Murder Case (Warner: Warren William)
1935 The Casino Murder Case (MGM: Paul Lukas)
1936 The Garden Murder Case (MGM: Edmund Lowe)
1937 Night of Mystery (Paramount: Grant Richards), The Scarab Murder Case (British: Wilfrid Hyde-White)
1939 The Gracie Allen Murder Case (Paramount: Warren William), Calling Philo Vance (Warner: James Stephenson)
1947 Philo Vance Returns (PRC: William Wright), Philo Vance's Gamble (PRC: Alan Curtis), Philo Vance's Secret Mission (PRC: Alan Curtis)

Der Philosoph

West Germany 1988 83m colour
Mainline/Moana Film Produktion (Rudolf Thome)
aka: Three Women in Love
A writer finds three women to love and look after him.
Updating of Greek myth to male fantasy.
wd Rudolf Thome ph Reinhold Vorschneider m Hanno Rinne ad Eve Schaenen ed Dörte Völz-Mannarell ☆ Johannes Herrschmann, Adriana Altaras, Friederike Tiefenbacher, Claudia Matschulla, Jürgen Wink, Werner Gerber, Anton Rey

Phobia

Canada 1980 90m colour
Borough Park (Zale Magder)
Five volunteer phobics, released from jail for experiments, are killed one by one.
Unprepossessing whodunnit with horror touches but none of the style one might expect from its director.
w Lew Lehman, Jimmy Sangster, Peter Bellwood d John Huston ph Reginald H. Morris m Andre Gagnon
☆ Paul Michael Glaser, John Colicos, Susan Hogan, Alexandra Stewart, David Bolt

'The androids on Titus 4 have taken over the asylum.'

Phoenix

US 1995 96m colour
Triad (Jimmy Lifton, Dan Bates, Troy Cook)
An élite team, sent down to a mining planet to deal with revolting androids, discovers that things are not what they seem.
Unoriginal action movie with dull dialogue, clichéd characters and a predictable plot.
w Jimmy Lifton, Troy Cook d Troy Cook ph T. Alexander m Lisa Bloom pd James Scanlon ed Paulette Renée Victor sp Stargate Films
☆ Brad Dourif, Billy Drago, Stephen Nichols, Denice Duff, Peter Murnik, William Sanderson, Robert Gossett, Betsy Soo

'It May Be Crooked. It May Be Deadly. But It's The Only Game In Town.'

Phoenix

US 1998 103m colour
Lakeshore (Victoria Nevinny, Tracie Graham Rice)
A detective risks everything to pay off his gambling debts.
Gritty thriller of corrupt cops and villains, efficiently made and acted, but less than engrossing.
w Eddie Richey d Danny Cannon ph James L. Carter m Graeme Revel pd Charles Breen ed Zach Staenberg
☆ Ray Liotta (Harry Collins), Anthony Lapaglia (Mike Henshaw), Anjelica Huston (Leila), Daniel Baldwin (James Nutter), Jeremy Piven (Fred Shuster), Tom Noonan (Chicago), Giancarlo Esposito (Louie)
'For patient viewers who enjoy amusing conversation and substantive portrayals.' – Lawrence Van Gelder, New York Times

Phone

South Korea 2002 100m colour
(Ki Young Dae)
After she changes her telephone number, a reporter begins to receive disturbing calls and discovers that those who had the number before her have all died.
Nothing in this psychological horror movie is as scary as the mobile phone in everyday use, with streetsful of people apparently murmuring mundanities to themselves, but it manages to conjure an atmosphere of menace in a ghost story much influenced by The Ring cycle (qv).
wd Ahn Byeong-ki ph Lee You Jin, Moon Yong Sik m Lee Sang Ho
☆ Ha Ji-won (Ji-won), Choi Woo-jae (Chang-hoon), Kim Yu-mi (Ho-jung), Choi i-yeon (Jin-hie), Eun Seo-woo (Yeong-ju)
'While it will cause a shiver or two there is something predictable about it.' – Anthony Quinn, Independent

'Your life is on the line.'

Phone Booth ★

US 2002 80m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF/Fox 2000 (Gil Netter, David Zucker)
A publicity agent is trapped in a telephone booth by a sniper who threatens to kill him if he hangs up.
A B feature in all but name: short, claustrophobic and moderately tense.
w Larry Cohen d Joel Schumacher ph Matthew Libatique m Harry Gregson-Williams pd Andrew Laws ed Mark Stevens
☆ Colin Farrell (Stu Shepard), Kiefer Sutherland (The Caller), Forest Whitaker (Captain Ramey), Radha Mitchell (Kelly Shepard), Katie Holmes (Pamela McFadden), Richard T. Jones (Sergeant Cole)
'A half-hour TV slot, or even a short, might have proved the best format for this simple and surprise-deficient tale.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

Phone Call from a Stranger

US 1952 96m bw
TCF (Nunnally Johnson)
Of four airplane acquaintances, only one survives a crash; he visits the families of the others.
Four stories with an unlikely link. (The compendium craze, which had started in 1948 with Quartet, was now straining itself.) Nothing to remember except Miss Davis.
w Nunnally Johnson d Jean Negulesco ph Milton Krasner m Franz Waxman ☆ Bette Davis, Gary Merrill, Michael Rennie, Shelley Winters, Keenan Wynn, Evelyn Varden, Warren Stevens, Craig Stevens
'A cinematic party line on which several conversations are going at once, none of them coming across very distinctly.' – Time

Phŏrpa: see The Cup

The Photograph ★

Greece/France 1986 120m colour
Two expatriate Greeks living in Paris encourage each other's hopes for the future with tragic results.
Dour, skilfully made film of people unable to alter the trajectory of their lives.
wd Nicos Papatakis ph Aris Stavrou m Christodoulos Chalaris ☆ Aris Retsos, Christos Tsangas

'Another World ... As Close As The Beat Of Your Heart.'

Photographing Fairies ★ ③

GB 1997 104m Technicolor
Entertainment/Starry Night/Polygram (Michele Camarda)
A photographic expert, devastated by the death of his wife and his experiences in the First World War, investigates photographs of fairies taken by two young girls and concludes that they are genuine.
An odd, obsessive film, about love and death and how people cope with loss; while not entirely successful, it has its moments.
w Nick Willing, Chris Harrald novel Steve Szilagyi d Nick Willing ph John de Borman m Simon Boswell pd Laurence Dorman ed Sean Barton
☆ Toby Stephens, Ben Kingsley, Emily Woof, Frances Barber, Philip Davis, Rachel Shelley, Edward Hardwicke (Sir Arthur Conan Doyle), Hannah Bould
'The cinematic equivalent of the well-made play, the made-for-television film. It's intriguing, occasionally moving, but to magnify its impact it would be better seen on the smaller screen.' – Nick Kimberley, Sight and Sound
† The story of the Cottingley Fairies was also the basis for another film, Fairytale: A True Story (qv).
†† The script for the film is said to have gone through 23 drafts.

Physical Evidence

US 1988 99m colour
Rank/Columbia (Martin Ransohoff)
An ex-cop, accused of murder, begins to have doubts about the female lawyer hired to defend him.
Dull thriller with an unnecessarily convoluted plot.
w Bill Phillips story Steve Ransohoff, Bill Phillips d Michael Crichton ph John A. Alonzo m Henry Mancini pd Dan Yarhi ed Glenn Farr
☆ Burt Reynolds, Theresa Russell, Ned Beatty, Kay Lenz, Ted McGinley, Tom O'Brien, Kenneth Welsh, Ray Baker, Ken James, Michael P. Moran
'The whole exercise, while never quite collapsing, contrives to look and sound peculiarly futile.' – Philip Strick, MFB

'Faith in chaos.'

Pi ★★

US 1998 85m bw
Live Entertainment/Truth & Soul/Harvest/Plantain/Protozoa (Eric Watson)
An obsessive mathematician seeks to find a number that will explain the universe.
Gripping, clever theological and psychological thriller, which is less about explanations than observing varieties of monomania in action.
wd Darren Aronofsky ph Matthew Libatique m Clint Mansell pd Matthew Marraffi ed Oren Sach
☆ Sean Gullette, Mark Margolis, Ben Shenkman, Pamela Hart, Stephen Pearlman, Samia Shoaib
'If his film leaves one unsatisfied, it's still remarkable to what extent Aronofsky has rendered the cerebral kinetically intense. The film's imaginative, diverse images create a mind's-eye urban claustrophobia; such intensity may exhaust over 85 minutes' course, but it's never less than impressive.' – Dennis Harvey, Variety

Il Piacere: see The Pleasure

'Music was his passion. Survival was his masterpiece.'

The Pianist ★★★

France/Poland/Germany/GB 2002 148m colour
Pathé/RP/Heritage/Babelsberg/Runteam (Roman Polanski, Robert Benmussa, Alain Sarde)
In Warsaw after the Nazi invasion, a Jewish pianist escapes from the ghetto and goes into hiding in a ruined part of the city.
A moving, dispassionate account of survival, based on a true story, and told in the style of 1950s war movie with often searing imagery. It becomes digressive and over-long, but still retains a haunting power.
w Ronald Harwood book Wladyslaw Szpilman d Roman Polanski ph Pawel Edelman m Wojciech Kilar pd Allan Starski ed Hervé de Luze cos Anna B. Sheppard ☆ Adrien Brody (Wladyslaw Szpilman), Thomas Kretschmann (Captain Wilm Hosenfeld), Frank Finlay (The Father), Maureen Lipman (The Mother), Emilia Fox (Dorota), Ed Stoppard (Henryk), Julia Rayner (Regina), Jessica Kate Meyer (Halina), Ruth Platt (Janina)
'Polanski has never directed better. Life in the Warsaw ghetto under the Germans is put before us with a kind of terrible patience.' – Stanley Kaufmann, New Republic

'Surprisingly lacks a feeling of personal urgency and insight that would have made it a distinctive, even unique contribution to the considerable number of films that deal with the war in general and Holocaust in particular.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

† It won the Palme D'Or at the Cannes Film Festival.

Ronald Harwood; Roman Polanski; Adrien Brody

picture; Pawel Edelman; Anna B. Sheppard; Hervé de Luze film; Roman Polanski

La Pianiste

France/Austria 2001 130m colour
Artificial Eye/Wega/MK2/Alain Sarde/Arte (Veit Heiduschka)

aka: The Piano Teacher

A talented piano teacher relieves the tensions of her life by voyeurism, self-mutilation and a sado-masochistic affair with one of her students.

A gifted director and actress go astray in this intense, unlovely drama: if it has a point, it is that sex and music make unreasonable demands on those who take them seriously.

wd Michael Haneke novel Elfriede Jelinek ph Christian Berger pd Christoph Kanter ed Monika Willi, Nadine Muse

☆ Isabelle Huppert (Erika Kohut), Annie Girardot (The Mother), Benoit Magimel (Walter Klemmer), Anna Sigalevitch (Anna Schober), Susanne Lothar (Mrs Schober), Udo Samel (Dr Blonskij)

'Misguided and hilariously awful.' – Times

'There can be no doubt of Haneke's extraordinary ability to generate scenes of nerve-jangling disquiet and intimately unpleasant trauma. He can simply put you in a place you don't want to be, and keep you there.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian † Benoit Magimel won the best actor award, and Isabel Huppert the best actress award at the Cannes Film Festival in 2001.

The Piano ★★★★

Australia 1993 120m Eastmancolor
Entertainment/CIBY 2000/Jan Chapman

A mute Scottish widow travels with her young daughter for an arranged marriage to a landowner in New Zealand, where she is forced to leave her most-treasured possession, her piano, on a beach.

A complex drama of lust, love and a woman emerging from an emotional silence in a repressive community into a self-determined and fulfilled life; beautifully photographed and impeccably acted, it is powerful and moving.

wd Jane Campion ph Stuart Dryburgh m Michael Nyman pd Andrew McAlpine ed Veronika Jenet

☆ Holly Hunter (Ada McGrath), Harvey Keitel (George Baines), Sam Neill (Stewart), Anna Paquin (Fiona McGrath), Kerry Walker (Aunt Morag), Genevieve Lemon (Nessie), Tungla Baker (Hira), Ian Mune (Reverend)

'A riveting excursion into 19th-century sexuality, a movie that takes the conventions of the Gothic romance and refracts them through a dark contemporary lens.' – David Ansen, Newsweek

'Not since the early days of cinema, when audiences trampled over each other towards the exit to avoid the train emerging from the screen, could I imagine the medium of film to be so powerful.' – Lizzie Francke, Sight and Sound

'An emotionally devastating tour de force, both heart-rending and heart-warming.' – Film Review

† The film shared the Palme d'Or as best film, and Holly Hunter won the award as best actress, at the Cannes Film Festival in 1993.

Holly Hunter; Anna Paquin; Jane Campion (as writer)

best picture; Jane Campion (as director); Stuart Dryburgh; Veronika Jenet; costume design (Janet Patterson)

Holly Hunter; Andrew McAlpine

The Piano Teacher: see La Pianiste

The Piano Tuner of Earthquakes ★

GB/France/Germany/Japan/Switzerland 2005 99m colour
Artificial Eye/Mitteldeutsche Medienfoerderung/UKFC/Medienboard Berlin Brandenburgh/Koninck/Mediopolis/ZDF/ARTE/Lumen (Keith Griffiths, Alexander Ris, Hengameh Panahi)

Killed and abducted on the eve of her wedding by a mad inventor, an opera singer is raised from the dead and falls in love with a piano tuner who repairs the inventor's musical automata.

Strange, occasionally compelling fairy tale, mixing live action and animation; its slow pace tells against it.

w Alan Passes, Quay Brothers d Quay Brothers ph Nic Knowland m Trevor Duncan, Christopher Slaski ad Eric Veenstra ed Simon Laurie animation designers Quay Brothers

☆ Amira Casar (Malvina van Stille), Gottfriend John (Dr Emmanuel Droz), Assumpta Serna (Assumptas), Cesar Sarachu (Adolfo/Felisberto)

'Visually exquisite, rigorously intellectual but dauntingly obscurantist fable.' – Leslie Felperin, Variety

Piatka z Ulicy Barskiej: see Five Boys from Barska Street

Piccadilly ★

GB 1929 105m (24 fps) bw silent
BIP (E. A. Dupont)

A club owner's fiancée is accused of killing his Chinese mistress.

Sub-Edgar Wallace melodrama, no longer watchable with a straight face.

w Arnold Bennett d E. A. Dupont ph Werner Brandes

☆ Gilda Gray, Anna May Wong, Jameson Thomas, Cyril Ritchard, Ellen Pollock, Charles Laughton, Debroy Somers and his Band

† Sound added in 1930.

Piccadilly Incident ★

GB 1946 102m bw
ABP (Herbert Wilcox)

During World War II, a girl believed drowned returns from the front to find her husband remarried.

The Enoch Arden theme again, and the first of the Wilcox-Neagle 'London' films, though untypically a melodrama with a sad ending. Efficient enough for its chosen audience.

w Nicholas Phipps d Herbert Wilcox ph Max Greene m Anthony Collins

☆ Anna Neagle, Michael Wilding, Michael Laurence, Frances Mercer, Coral Browne, A. E. Matthews, Edward Rigby, Brenda Bruce

† Michael Wilding was cast only after Rex Harrison and John Mills had proved unavailable.

Piccadilly Jim ★

US 1936 100m bw
MGM (Harry Rapf)

A cartoonist helps his father to marry by making the bride's stuffy family objects of ridicule.

Amiable comedy with a diverting London setting.

w Charles Brackett, Edwin Knopf novel P. G. Wodehouse d Robert Z. Leonard ph Joseph Ruttenberg m William Axt

☆ Robert Montgomery, Madge Evans, Frank Morgan, Billie Burke, Eric Blore, Robert Benchley, Ralph Forbes, Cora Witherspoon, E. E. Clive

Piccadilly Third Stop

GB 1960 90m bw
Rank/Sydney Box/Ethiro (Norman Williams)

A smooth crook seduces the daughter of an eastern ambassador in London to gain entry to the embassy and rob it.

Boring and rather unpleasant thriller partly redeemed by a final chase through the Underground.

w Leigh Vance d Wolf Rilla ph Ernest Steward m Philip Green

☆ Terence Morgan, Yoko Tani, John Crawford, William Hartnell, Mai Zetterling, Dennis Price, Ann Lynn

Pick a Star

US 1937 76m bw
MGM/Hal Roach

An innocent girl in Hollywood achieves stardom with the help of a publicity man.

Perfectly awful Cinderella story with interesting glimpses behind the studio scenes and (if you can wait that long) a couple of good Laurel and Hardy sequences.

w Richard Flournoy, Arthur Vernon Jones, Thomas J. Dugan d Edward Sedgwick ph Norbert Brodine m Marvin Hatley, Arthur Morton ed William Terhune

☆ Rosina Lawrence, Jack Haley, Patsy Kelly, Mischa Auer, Stan Laurel, Oliver Hardy, Charles Halton, Lyda Roberti

'Part farce, part comedy, part musical and three parts dull.' – Variety

Pick Up

US 1933 80m bw
B. P. Schulberg/Paramount

A girl released from jail picks up with a truck driver, but her crooked husband reappears.

Sob story of the Peg's Paper type; a yawn.

w S. K. Lauren, Agnes Leahy, Vina Delmar d Marion Gering

☆ Sylvia Sidney, George Raft, William Harrigan, Lillian Bond

'Good title and cast, weakish film.' – Variety

Pick Up

US 1951 78m bw
Columbia (Hugo Haas)

A lonely middle-aged man falls for a tart who is interested only in his money.

Modest variation on The Blue Angel, the first of several second features made by Haas to feature himself as a second Emil Jannings. They got progressively more maudlin.

wd Hugo Haas ph Paul Ivano m Harold Byrns

☆ Hugo Haas, Beverly Michaels, Allan Nixon, Howland Chamberlin

The Pick-Up Artist

US 1987 81m colour
TCF (David L. Macleod)

A smug, compulsively womanizing teacher falls for the daughter of an alcoholic in trouble with gangsters.

A romantic comedy short on laughs and romance; what excites the director is gambling, which is no fun either.

wd James Toback ph Gordon Willis m Georges Delerue pd Paul Sylbert ed David Bretherton, Angelo Corrao

☆ Molly Ringwald, Robert Downey Jnr, Dennis Hopper, Harvey Keitel, Danny Aiello, Mildred Dunnock, Victoria Jackson, Bob Gunton, Frederick Koehler

'Full of spangly good humor. In its own irrepressible way it's sustained. It's not heady enough, not a lift-off, but it's bright and convivial, like the sound of the sixties girl groups on the track. It keeps you laughing.' – Pauline Kael

Picking Up The Pieces

US 2000 120m colour
Kushner Locke/Comala/Ostensible (Paul L. Sandberg)

Religious fervour grips a Mexican village, where miracles occur after the discovery of a dismembered hand, which is part of the body of an adulterous wife who has been butchered by her Texan husband.

Dismal and witless farce, in which its miscast actors, mostly at odds with their roles and the ramshackle script, flounder helplessly and hopelessly.

w Bill Wilson d Alfonso Arau ph Vittorio Storaro m Ruy Folguera pd Denise Pizzini ed Michael R. Miller cos Marilyn Matthews

☆ Woody Allen (Tex Cowley), David Schwimmer (Leo Jerome), Maria Gracia Cucinotta (Desi), Cheech Marin (Mayor Machado), Kiefer Sutherland (Bobo), Lou Diamond Phillips (Officer Alonso), Alfonso Arau (Dr Amado), Fran Drescher (Sister Frida), Elliott Gould (Father LaCage), Sharon Stone (Candy), Andy Dick (Father Buñuel), Joseph Gordon-Levitt (Flaco)

'A tawdry misfire of the lowest order.' – Stephen Oxman, Variety

The Pickle

US 1993 100m Technicolor/bw
Columbia (Paul Mazursky)

A middle-aged, once admired film director returns from France for the premiere of a science-fiction movie he made for the money, about farm boys who fly a giant cucumber to another planet.

Sour and self-referential movie about Hollywood; it's a measure of its failure that the deliberately banal excerpts from the sf movie are more entertaining than the soul-searchings of its central character.

wd Paul Mazursky ph Fred Murphy m Michel Legrand pd James Bissell ed Stuart Papp

☆ Danny Aiello, Dyan Cannon, Clotilde Courau, Shelley Winters, Barry Miller, Jerry Stiller, Chris Penn, Little Richard, Jodi Long, Rebecca Miller, Ally Sheedy

'Aims for comedy and poignance that never come, and feels wearily disenchanted and out of touch.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

Pickpocket ★★★

France 1959 80m bw
Lux

A lonely, compulsive pickpocket is redeemed through love.
Based on the themes of Dostoevsky's Crime and Punishment, an austere but moving and complex drama, notable for its scenes of thievery.
wd Robert Bresson ph Léonce-Henry Burel m Jean-Bapiste Lully ed Raymond Lamy
☆ Martin Lassalle, Marika Green, Pierre Leymarie, Jean Pelegri, Pierre Etaix, Kassagi, Dolly Scal, César Gattegno

'The style of the film is characteristic of the director. It is one of persistent concentration: the camera will not be deflected from its close stare at the silent face, the tense figure in the foreground. But this time the method defeats itself. In rejecting every irrelevant action, in ruthlessly refining away every decoration, Bresson has thrown away the motives as well.' – Dilys Powell

Pickup Alley: see Interpol

'Anybody's back seat will do – as long as he's going her way!'

Pickup on 101

US 1972 93m Movielab
AIP

A lady hitchhiker picks up with an old hobo and an unemployed rock 'n' roller.
Sentimental rather than sensational is this small drama which starts slowly and goes nowhere.
w Anthony Blake d John Florea ph Brick Marquard m Stu Phillips
☆ Lesley Warren, Jack Albertson, Martin Sheen, Michael Ontkean

'How the law took a chance on a B-girl... and won!'

Pickup on South Street ★★★

US 1953 80m bw
TCF (Jules Schermer)

A pickpocket steals a girl's wallet and finds himself up to his neck in espionage.
Over-rich mixture of crime, violence and anti-communism, smartly made.
wd Samuel Fuller story Dwight Taylor ph Joe MacDonald m Leigh Harline ad Lyle R. Wheeler, George Patrick ed Nick de Maggio
☆ Richard Widmark (Skip McCoy), Jean Peters (Candy), Thelma Ritter (Moe), Richard Kiley (Joey), Murvyn Vye (Captain Dan Tiger) † Remade 1968 as Capetown Affair.
Thelma Ritter

The Pickwick Papers ★

GB 1952 115m bw
George Minter (Bob McNaught)

Various adventures of the Pickwick Club culminate in Mrs Bardell's suit for breach of promise.
Flatly conceived and loosely constructed Dickensian comedy; good humour and lots of well-known faces do not entirely atone for lack of artifice.
wd Noel Langley ph Wilkie Cooper m Antony Hopkins ad Fred Pusey
☆ James Hayter, James Donald, Donald Wolfit, Hermione Baddeley, Hermione Gingold, Kathleen Harrison, Nigel Patrick, Alexander Gauge, Lionel Murton

'As welcome as the sun in the morning and as British as a cup of tea.' – Daily Mirror

'A town – a stranger – and the things he does to its people! Especially its women!'

Picnic ★★★

US 1955 113m Technicolor
Cinemascope
Columbia (Fred Kohlmar)

A brawny wanderer causes sexual havoc one summer in a small American town.
Seminal melodrama setting new directions for Hollywood and illustrating the side of life the Hardy family never showed. Generally quite compulsive despite some overacting.
w Daniel Taradash play William Inge
d Joshua Logan ph James Wong Howe
m George Duning pd Jo Mielziner
ad William Flannery ed Charles Nelson, William A. Lyon
☆ William Holden (Hal Carter), Kim Novak (Madge Owens), Rosalind Russell (Rosemary Sydney), Susan Strasberg (Millie Owens), Arthur O'Connell (Howard Bevans), Cliff Robertson (Alan), Betty Field (Flo Owens), Verna Felton (Mrs. Helen Potts), Reta Shaw (Linda Sue Breckenridge)

'Mr Logan's idea of an outing in the corn country includes a choir of at least a hundred voices, a camera so alert that it can pick up the significance of the reflection of a Japanese lantern in a pool (futility, wistfulness, the general transience of life, as I get it) and a sound track let loose in the most formidable music I've heard in my time at the movies.' – New Yorker

art direction; editing best picture; Joshua Logan; George Duning; Arthur O'Connell

'A recollection of evil...'

Picnic at Hanging Rock ★★★★

Australia 1975 115m Eastmancolor
Picnic Productions/Australia Film Corporation (Hal and Jim McElroy)

In 1900, schoolgirls set out for a picnic; some disappear and are never found.
A film that ventures successfully into the mystic and bravely offers no answer to its central puzzle, just a question that continues to haunt the mind. Whether you want to regard it as a parable of sexual awakening or of colonial repression, it successfully retains its own mystery.
w Cliff Green novel Joan Lindsay d Peter Weir ph Russell Boyd m Bruce Smeaton
ad David Copping ed Max Lemon
☆ Rachel Roberts (Mrs. Appleyard), Dominic Guard (Michael Fitzhubert), Helen Morse (Dianne De Poiters), Jacki Weaver (Minnie), Vivean Gray (Miss Greta McGraw), Kirsty Child (Dora Lumley)

'Atmospherically vivid, beautifully shot, and palpably haunting.' – Michael Billington, Illustrated London News

'If this film had a rational and tidy conclusion, it would be a good deal less interesting. But as a tantalizing puzzle, a tease, a suggestion of forbidden answer just out of earshot, it works hypnotically and very nicely indeed.' – Roger Ebert

Russell Boyd

'Hawaii, 1918. She left Japan for a man she had never met, in a new world she could not imagine America.'

Picture Bride

US 1995 95m Foto-Kem
Artificial Eye/Thousand Cranes/Miramax (Lisa Onodera, Cellin Glick)

An 18-year-old Japanese woman comes gradually to love the middle-aged man in Hawaii that she is tricked into marrying.
Effective domestic drama along predictable lines.
w Kayo Hatta, Mari Hatta d Kayo Hatta ph Claudio Rocha m Mark Adler pd Paul Guncheon ed Lynzee Klingman, Mallory Gottlieb ☆ Youki Kudoh, Akaira Takayama, Tamlyn Tomita, Cary-Hiroyuki Tagawa, Toshiro Mifune, Yoko Sugi

'However predictable the story-line, the film-makers succeed in making us care about the characters right from the start.' – Philip Kemp, Sight and Sound

Picture Mommy Dead

US 1966 88m Pathécolor
Embassy/Berkeley (Bert I. Gordon)

A girl who has been hospitalized following the death of her mother in a fire returns home to find, apparently, that her father's new wife is trying to kill her.
Twist-ending shocker with tired stars, from the tag end of the Baby Jane cycle.
w Robert Sherman d Bert I. Gordon
ph Ellsworth Fredericks m Robert Drasnin ☆ Don Ameche, Martha Hyer, Zsa Zsa Gabor, Susan Gordon, Maxwell Reed, Signe Hasso, Wendell Corey

The Picture of Dorian Gray ★★★

US 1945 110m bw (Technicolor inserts)
MGM (Pandro S. Berman)

A Victorian gentleman keeps in the attic a picture of himself, which shows his age and depravity while he stays eternally young.
Elegant variation on Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde, presented in portentous style which suits the subject admirably.
wd Albert Lewin novel Oscar Wilde
ph Harry Stradling m Herbert Stothart
ad Cedric Gibbons, Hans Peters ed Ferris Webster
☆ George Sanders (Lord Henry Wotton), Hurd Hatfield (Dorian Gray), Donna Reed (Gladys Hallward), Angela Lansbury (Sybil Vane), Peter Lawford (David Stone)
SIR HENRY (GEORGE SANDERS): 'If I could get back my youth, I'd do anything in the world – except get up early, take exercise or be respectable.'
SIR HENRY: 'I apologize for the intelligence of my remarks, Sir Thomas, I had forgotten that you were a Member of Parliament.'
DORIAN (HURD HATFIELD): 'If only the picture could change and I could be always what I am now. For that, I would give anything. Yes, there's nothing in the whole world I wouldn't give. I'd give my soul for that.'

'Respectful, earnest, and, I'm afraid, dead.' – James Agee

'Loving and practised hands have really improved Wilde's original, cutting down the epigrammatic flow ... and rooting out all the preciousness which gets in the way of the melodrama.' – Richard Winnington

Harry Stradling
Angela Lansbury; art direction

'Kate always lived her life by the rules ... some rules were meant to be broken.'

Picture Perfect ④

US 1997 100m Technicolor
TCF/3 Arts (Erwin Stoff)

In order to succeed in her job, a female advertising executive pretends to be engaged to a man she briefly met.
Slight, enervated romantic comedy that might have made a passable half-hour television sitcom.
w Arleen Sorkin, Paul Slansky, Glenn Gordon Caron d Glenn Gordon Caron ph Paul Sarossy m Carter Burwell
pd Larry Fulton ed Robert Reitano
☆ Jennifer Aniston, Jay Mohr, Kevin Bacon, Olympia Dukakis, Illeana Douglas, Kevin Dunn, Faith Prince, Anne Twomey

'Too ineffectual to tickle either the funnybone or the heartstrings.' – Variety

The Picture Show Man ★

Australia 1977 98m Eastmancolor
Limelight (Joan Long)

Adventures of a travelling picture show troupe in the 1920s.
Agreeably nostalgic incidents, not very dramatically connected.
w Joan Long d John Power ph Geoffrey Burton m Peter Best ☆ Rod Taylor, John Meillon, John Ewart, Harold Hopkins, Judy Morris, Patrick Cargill

The Picture Snatcher ★

US 1933 77m bw
Warner

An ex-racketeer just out of prison becomes a scandal photographer.
Lively star vehicle, interesting for period detail.
w Allen Rivkin, P. J. Wolfson d Lloyd Bacon ph Sol Polito md Leo F. Forbstein
☆ James Cagney, Ralph Bellamy, Patricia Ellis, Alice White, Ralf Harolde, Robert Emmett O'Connor, Robert Barrat

'A vulgar but generally funny collection of blackouts.' – Time

'Fast, snappy, tough and packed with action.' – New York Herald Tribune † Remade 1947 as Escape from Crime, with Richard Travis.

Pidä Huivista Kiinni, Tatjana: see Take Care of Your Scarf, Tatjana

Pie in the Sky

US 1995 95m Foto-Kem
New Line (Denise Shaw, Allan Mindel)

Boy obsessed with traffic meets girl, loses girl, gets girl.
An offbeat romantic comedy about an unlikely couple; it attempts to overwhelm with its charm, which proves resistible well before the end.
wd Bryan Gordon ph Bernd Heinl
m Michael Convertino pd Linda Pearl
ed Colleen Halsey
☆ Josh Charles, Anne Heche, Peter Riegert, Christine Ebersole, Wil Wheaton, Christine Lahti, John Goodman, Bob Balaban

'For all its manifest flaws (structural, directional and dramatic), it serves as a cheeky reminder of how formulaic and orthodox most Hollywood teen romance flicks are.' – Sight and Sound

A Piece of the Action

US 1977 135m Metrocolor
Warner/First Artists/Verdon (Melville Tucker)

Crooks are blackmailed into helping rebellious adolescents.
A black version, at immense length, of the hoodlum comedies in which the Dead End Kids so often featured. Not badly made, but out of date without being nostalgic.
w Charles Blackwell story Timothy March d Sidney Poitier ph Don Morgan
m Curtis Mayfield
☆ Sidney Poitier, James Earl Jones, Bill

Cosby, Denise Nicholas, Hope Clarke, Tracy Reed, Jason Evers, Marc Lawrence

'She's the one in every family.'

Pieces of April ★ 6

US 2003 80m colour
Optimum/InDigEnt/Kalkaska (John Lyons, Gary Winick, Alexis Alexanian)

A terminally ill woman, her husband and children drive to New York for a Thanksgiving dinner being cooked by her rebellious daughter.

Occasionally engaging drama of a dysfunctional family – one that allows a dying woman to be abrasive, making a change from the standard Hollywood serenity – though it settles for easy sentimentality at the end.

wd Peter Hedges ph Tami Reiker
m Stephin Merritt pd Rick Butler
ed Mark Livolsi

☆ Katie Holmes (April Burns), Patricia Clarkson (Joy Burns), Oliver Platt (Jim Burns), Derek Luke (Bobby), Alison Pill (Beth Burns), John Gallagher Jnr (Timmy Burns), Alice Drummond (Grandma Dottie)

'Sparkles with acerbic wit, original characters and genuine heart.' – David Rooney, Variety

Patricia Clarkson

The Pied Piper ★★

US 1942 86m bw
TCF (Nunnally Johnson)

An elderly man who hates children finds himself smuggling several of them out of occupied France.

Smart, sentimental, occasionally funny war adventure.

w Nunnally Johnson novel Nevil Shute
d Irving Pichel ph Edward Cronjager
m Alfred Newman

☆ Monty Woolley, Anne Baxter, Roddy McDowall, Otto Preminger, J. Carrol Naish, Lester Matthews, Jill Esmond, Peggy Ann Garner best picture; Edward Cronjager; Monty Woolley

The Pied Piper

GB 1971 90m Eastmancolor Panavision
Sagittarius/Goodtimes (David Puttnam, Sanford Lieberson)

In 1349 a strolling minstrel rids Hamelin of a plague of rats.

Paceless, slightly too horrific, and generally disappointing fantasy, especially from this director; poor sets and restricted action.

w Jacques Demy, Mark Peploe, Andrew Birkin d Jacques Demy ph Peter Suschitsky m Donovan pd Assheton Gorton

☆ Donovan, Donald Pleasence, Michael Hordern, Jack Wild, Diana Dors, John Hurt

Pièges

France 1939 120m bw
Speva (Michel Safra)
US title: Personal Column
aka: Snares

A dancer acts as a decoy to trap a serial killer murdering women who answer lonely hearts advertisements.

A thriller that finds it hard to accommodate murders and leave room for its debonair singing star.

w Jacques Companeez, Ernest Neuville, Simon Gantillon d Robert Siodmak
m Michelet ad G. Wakhevitch ed Yvonne Martin

☆ Maurice Chevalier, Pierre Renoir, Marie Déa, Erich von Stroheim, Jean Temerson, André Brunot

† This was Siodmak's last French film before he left for Hollywood. It was remade in Hollywood in 1947 as Lured (qv), directed by Douglas Sirk.

Pier 13: see Me and My Gal (1932)

Pierre of the Plains

US 1942 66m bw
MGM

Adventures of a cheerful trapper in Canada's northwest territory.

Unashamed second-feature version of a play which its producer, Edgar Selwyn, had written in 1907 and which had been filmed in 1918 (as Hearts of the Wild*) and in 1922 (as* Over the Border*). (Selwyn was the man who once merged with Goldfish to form Goldwyn, a name which Goldfish then kept.)*

w Bertram Millhauser, Lawrence Kimble
d George B. Seitz

☆ John Carroll, Ruth Hussey, Bruce Cabot, Reginald Owen, Henry Travers, Evelyn Ankers

Pierrepoint ★

GB/US 2005 95m colour
Lionsgate/UKFC/Capitol/Granada (Christine Langan)
US title: The Last Hangman

A van driver and pub landlord's second job is, as it was his father's and uncle's, being the public hangman.

A biographical movie of Britain's last hangman that suffers from the fact that, when not putting people to death, he led a quiet life; it gains from Spall's excellent performance.

w Jeff Pope, Bob Mills d Adrian Shergold
ph Danny Cohen m Martin Phipps
pd Candida Otton ed Tania Reddin

☆ Timothy Spall (Albert Pierrepoint), Juliet Stevenson (Annie Pierrepoint), Cavan Clerkin (George Cooper), Eddie Marsan (James 'Tish' Corbitt)

'Always watchable, even if total package has the unmistakable air of upmarket TV with better-than-average dialogue.' – Leslie Felperin, Variety

Pierrot Le Fou ★★

France/Italy 1968 110m Eastmancolor Techniscope
Rome/Paris/SNC (Reneé Pigneres, Gerard Beytout)

Bored by his marriage, a Frenchman leaves his wife at a party and takes off with an old flame, now involved in gun-running and crime.

A pulp thriller re-told in terms of farce and artifice, and a playful and enjoyably intellectual romp through pop culture, though it is difficult to take it as seriously as its maker intended.

wd Jean-Luc Godard novel Obsession by Lionel White ph Raoul Coutard
m Antoine Duhamel ad Pierre Guffroy
ed Françoise Colin

☆ Jean-Paul Belmondo, Anna Karina, Dirk Sanders, Raymond Devos, Graziella Galvani

'Godard has reached a stage at which self-confidence and self-indulgence join hands to lead him into a disaster area.' – Dilys Powell

'Purports to be against a world of advertising and conspicuous consumption; yet what it offers as an alternative, the mindless, feckless, and finally feelingless relationship of its hero and heroine, is at least as repugnant.' – John Simon

The Pigeon that Took Rome

US 1962 101m bw Panavision
Paramount/Llenroc (Melville Shavelson)

American undercover agents are smuggled into Rome during the German occupation.

Heavy-going war comedy-drama with bright sequences countered by too little wit and too many voluble Italians.

wd Melville Shavelson novel The Easter Dinner by Donald Downes ph Daniel Fapp
m Alessandro Cicognini

☆ Charlton Heston, Elsa Martinelli, Brian Donlevy, Harry Guardino, Baccaloni

Pigeons

US 1970 87m Movielab
Saturn/Lois Holland Callaway/Plaza (Richard Lewis)
aka: The Sidelong Glances of a Pigeon Kicker

A Princeton graduate turned New York taxi driver thinks himself superior to all those he meets.

Dim would-be satirical drama making fun of conformity. With its pretentious and unlikeable protagonist, the fun is flat when it should be fizzy. Its style derives from the cycle of dull 'swinging London' movies, probably because of its British director.

w Ron Whyte novel David Boyer d John Dexter ph Urs Furrer m Pat Williams, Lee Holdridge, Edd Kaleroff, Chris Dedrick, Warren Marley ad Manny Gerard ed John Oettinger

☆ Jordan Christopher, Jill O'Hara, Robert Walden, William Redfield, Kate Reid, Lois Nettleton, Riggs O'Hara, Boni Enten, David Doyle, Elaine Stritch, Melba Moore, Pat Ast

'A tale you'll never forget.'

Piglet's Big Movie 7

US 2003 75m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Walt Disney (Michelle Pappalardo-Robinson)

As they search for the missing Piglet, Winnie the Pooh and his friends recall the times he came to their rescue.

Disney long ago leached the charm and wit from A. A. Milne's stories, replacing them with something far more vapid and sentimental, a tradition that continues here.

w Brian Hohlfeld adapted from the works of A. A. Milne d Francis Glebas m Carl Johnson m/ly Carly Simon; ad Fred Warter ed Ivan Bilancio

☆ voices of: John Fiedler (Piglet), Jim Cummings (Winnie the Pooh/Tigger), Andre Stojka (Owl), Kath Soucie (Kanga), Nikita Hopkins (Roo), Peter Cullen (Eeyore), Ken Sansom (Rabbit), Tom Wheatley (Christopher Robin)

'An oasis of gentleness and wit.' – Stephen Holden, New York Times

Pigskin Parade

US 1936 93m bw
TCF (Bogart Rogers)

GB title: Harmony Parade

A country farmer becomes a college football hero.

Livelier-than-average college comedy.

w Harry Tugend, Jack Yellen, William Conselman d David Butler ph Arthur Miller m/ly Sidney Mitchell, Lew Pollack md David Buttolph

☆ Stuart Erwin, Patsy Kelly, Jack Haley, Johnny Downs, Betty Grable, Arline Judge, Dixie Dunbar, Judy Garland, Tony Martin, Elisha Cook Jnr

♫ 'You're Slightly Terrific'; 'You Do the Darndest Things Baby'; 'Texas Tornado'; 'It's Love I'm After'

Stuart Erwin

The Pilgrim ★

US 1923 38m approx (24 fps) bw silent
First National/Charles Chaplin

An escaped convict disguises himself as a minister and does a few good deeds.

Star comedy with more sentiment than laughter.

wd Charles Chaplin ph Rollie Totheroh

☆ Charles Chaplin, Edna Purviance, Kitty Bradbury, Mack Swain Pilgrimage ★

US 1933 95m bw
Fox

A selfish mother sees the error of her ways when she makes a post-war journey to her son's grave.

Strong character study, put across with style.

w Dudley Nichols, Philip Klein, Barry Conners story I. A. R. Wylie d John Ford

☆ Henrietta Crosman, Heather Angel, Norman Foster, Marian Nixon, Maurice Murphy, Charley Grapewin, Hedda Hopper

'A natural for residential clienteles: mother love from a new angle.' – Variety

Pillars of the Sky

US 1956 95m Technicolor Cinemascope
U-I (Robert Arthur)
GB title: The Tomahawk and the Cross

An Indian scout and a missionary help bring peace between cavalry and Indians.

Modest Western, adequately done.

w Sam Rolfe novel Frontier Fury by Will Henry d George Marshall ph Harold Lipstein m Joseph Gershenson ad Alexander Golitzen, Bill Newberry
ed Milton Carruth

☆ Jeff Chandler, Dorothy Malone, Ward Bond, Keith Andes, Lee Marvin, Sydney Chaplin, Michael Ansara, Willis Bouchey

'Things that make the heart beat faster.'

The Pillow Book ★★ 6

GB/Netherlands/France 1995 126m colour
Film Four/Kasander & Wigman/Alpha/Woodline (Kees Kasander)

A Japanese woman with a fetish for being written upon takes an elaborate revenge on the homosexual publisher who humiliated her father.

A complex narrative that gives a sexual edge to the act of writing, it is ravishing to watch, especially in its split-screen recreations of pleasures listed in The Pillow Book of Sei Shonagon*, but too often seems little more than an elaborate literary conceit.*

wd Peter Greenaway ph Sacha Vierny
pd Wilbert van Dorp, Andree Putman
ed Chris Wyatt, Peter Greenaway

☆ Vivian Wu, Yoshi Oida, Ken Ogata, Hideko Yoshida, Ewan McGregor, Judy Ongg, Ken Mitsuishi

'Decidely not everyone's cup of sake, but for Greenaway fans and filmgoers willing to be seduced by a mature and richly decorative slice of Asian culture, The Pillow Book will be a treat, albeit at times a demanding one.' – David Stratton, Variety

Pillow of Death

US 1945 66m bw
Universal

A lawyer is suspected when his wife is murdered.

First fumbling story in the Inner Sanctum series, of which the title sequence was always the most entertaining portion.

w George Bricker d Wallace Fox

☆ Lon Chaney Jnr, Brenda Joyce, J. Edward Bromberg, Rosalind Ivan, Clara Blandick

Pillow Talk ★★

US 1959 110m Eastmancolor Cinemascope
Universal/Arwin (Ross Hunter, Martin Melcher)

Two people who can't stand each other fall in love via a party line.
Slightly elephantine romantic comedy which nevertheless contains a number of funny scenes and was notable for starting off the Hudson–Day partnership and a run of similar comedies which survived the sixties.
w Stanley Shapiro, Maurice Richlin, Russell Rouse, Clarence Greene d Michael Gordon ph Arthur E. Arling m Frank de Vol ad Richard H. Riedel ed Milton Carruth
☆ Doris Day, Rock Hudson, Tony Randall, Thelma Ritter, Nick Adams, Julia Meade, Allen Jenkins, Marcel Dalio, Lee Patrick
🏆 Stanley Shapiro, Maurice Richlin, Russell Rouse, Clarence Greene
🎗 Frank de Vol; Doris Day; Thelma Ritter; art direction

Pillow to Post

US 1945 96m bw
Warner (Alex Gottlieb)

A girl poses as a soldier's wife to get a hotel room.
World War II comedy on a familiar theme (The More the Merrier, Standing Room Only, The Doughgirls, etc). Uninspired.
w Charles Hoffman play Pillar to Post by Rose Simon Kohn d Vincent Sherman ph Wesley Anderson m Frederick Hollander
☆ Ida Lupino, Sydney Greenstreet, William Prince, Stuart Erwin, Ruth Donnelly, Barbara Brown, Frank Orth

The Pilot ★

US 1979 92m colour
Summit/New Line

A once great pilot insists on working despite an alcohol problem.
Not enough meat on the story bones is enough to ground this dismal drama, but the air scenes look terrific and the actors seem to believe in what they're doing.
wd Cliff Robertson novel Robert P. Davis ph Walter Lassally m John Addison ☆ Cliff Robertson, Frank Converse, Diane Baker, Gordon MacRae, Dana Andrews, Milo O'Shea

Pimpernel Smith ★★

GB 1941 121m bw
British National (Leslie Howard)

US title: Mister V
aka: The Fighting Pimpernel

A professor of archaeology goes into war-torn Europe to rescue refugees.
The Scarlet Pimpernel unassumingly and quite effectively brought up to date, with memorable scenes after a slow start.
w Anatole de Grunwald, Roland Pertwee, Ian Dalrymple d Leslie Howard ph Max Greene m John Greenwood
☆ Leslie Howard, Mary Morris, Francis L. Sullivan, Hugh McDermott, Raymond Huntley, Manning Whiley, Peter Gawthorne, David Tomlinson
'Funny, touching, imaginative, and enormously exciting.' – C. A. Lejeune
'Just an amusing piece of hokum.' – Leslie Howard

A Pin for the Butterfly ★

GB/Czechoslovakia 1994 113m colour
Heureka/Channel 4/British Screen/Skreba (James Crawford)

Life in the 50s under a Stalinist regime, as seen through the eyes of a young girl, who, unlike the adults around her, tries to tell the truth.
An uneven drama that begins in an exaggerated and grotesque style before settling for a more absorbing account of compromise and betrayal.
wd Hannah Kodicek ph Ivan Slapeta m Ilona Sekacz pd Jiri Matolin ed Kant Pan
☆ Joan Plowright, Ian Bannen, Hugh Laurie, Imogen Stubbs, Ian Hogg, Florence Hoath
'In a market crammed with bloody vengeance tales and erotica, Pin deserves points for its seriousness of purpose and willingness to make a tough family film.' – Variety

Pin Up Girl

US 1944 83m Technicolor
TCF (William Le Baron)

A Washington secretary becomes a national celebrity when she meets a navy hero.
Adequate star flagwaver, mildly interesting for its new streamlined set designs.
w Robert Ellis, Helen Logan, Earl Baldwin story Libbie Block d H. Bruce Humberstone ph Ernest Palmer md Emil Newman, Charles Henderson ch Hermes Pan ad James Basevi, Joseph C. Wright songs James V. Monaco, Mack Gordon
☆ Betty Grable, John Harvey, Martha Raye, Joe E. Brown, Eugene Pallette, Dave Willock, Charles Spivak and his Orchestra
'A spiritless blob of a musical, and a desecration of a most inviting theme.' – Bosley Crowther

Ping Pong ★★

Japan 2002 114m colour
Ace/Shogakukan/TBS/BS-1/magica/Asmik/Nippon Shuppan Hanbai (Shinji Ogawa, Sanae Suzuki, Fumihiko Inoue)

Two troubled high school friends ultimately find salvation through taking part in table tennis tournaments.
Engaging movie about the pains, pleasures and transcendence of sport, set among extremely competitive high school teams and with some dazzling photography of the games.
w Kankuro Kudo manga Taiyou Matsumoto d Sori ph Akira Sakou pd Kouichi Kanekatsu ed Souichi Ueno sp video fx: Sori ☆ Yosuke Kubozuka (Peco), AratаArata (Smile), Sam Lee (China), Shidou Nakamura (Dragon), Koji Ohkura (Akuma)
'The "Matrix" of table tennis.' – Variety

Pink Cadillac ★

US 1989 122m Technicolor
Warner/Malpaso (David Valdes)

A bounty hunter goes in search of a mother who has disappeared with her baby and a pink Cadillac containing $250,000 belonging to a bunch of neo-Nazis.
Amiable,if somewhat aimless, comedy with unsubtle performances.
w John Eskow d Buddy Van Horn ph Jack N. Green m Steve Dorff pd Edward C. Carfagno ed Joel Cox
☆ Clint Eastwood, Bernadette Peters, Timothy Carhart, John Dennis Johnston, Michael Des Barres, Geoffrey Lewis

Pink Floyd The Wall ★

GB 1982 95m Metrocolor
MGM/Tin Blue/Goldcrest (Alan Marshall)

A washed-up pop star finds his life a mixture of fact and fiction, of reality and animation.
Dislikeable self-pitying dirge, accompanied by animation which will not be to everybody's taste but is sometimes brilliantly arranged.
w Roger Waters d Alan Parker ph Peter Biziou m Roger Waters animation designer Gerald Scarfe
☆ Bob Geldof, Christine Hargreaves, James Laurenson, Eleanor David, Kevin McKeon, Bob Hoskins
'A vacuous, bombastic and humourless piece of self-indulgence.' – Steve Jenkins, MFB
'Roger Waters flounders in woman-hating self-pity; Gerald Scarfe turns up particularly weedy examples of his animated savagery; and Alan Parker revels in the chance to make a feature-length TV commercial.' – Sight and Sound

The Pink Jungle

US 1968 104m Techniscope
Universal/Cherokee (Stan Margulies)

A photographer and his model are stranded in a South American village and become involved in a diamond hunt.
Curious mixture of adventure and light comedy that works only in patches.
w Charles Williams novel Snake Water by Alan Williams d Delbert Mann ph Russell Metty m Ernie Freeman ☆ James Garner, Eva Renzi, George Kennedy, Nigel Green, Michael Ansara, George Rose
'Another backlot cheapie.' – Robert Windeler

'A unique experience in visual fantasy.'

Pink Narcissus

US 1971 102m colour
Smerpix/Les Folies des Hommes

A young hustler, trying to escape the sordid reality of his life, imagines a series of mainly masturbatory homosexual encounters: as a matador, a Roman slave, a harem boy in the tent of a sheik, a wood nymph, and as his own, ageing client.
A once-notorious gaudily coloured exploitation film aimed at gay audiences which is very much of its time, being almost a definitive example of camp and kitsch. It received its first large-scale British showing in a grainy video release in 1993.
w Anonymous d Anonymous ph Anonymous md Martin Jay Sadoff, Gary Goch ed Martin Jay Sadoff
☆ Bobby Kendall
'We are expected to be drooling, aroused, captivated – and weak enough to approve this celebration of the bottomless Narcissistic pit – instead of damning it as the oafish indulgence it really is. One would care less if it were content to be pornography, but instead it operates smugly within the "decadent" underground style of Anger et al.' – Shock Xpress
† Although the film and the video release list the producer, director and writer as anonymous, some prints credit 'Jim Bidgood' as director.

The Pink Panther ★★

US 1963 113m Technirama
UA/Mirisch (Martin Jurow)

An incompetent Sûreté inspector is in Switzerland on the trail of a jewel thief called The Phantom.
Sporadically engaging mixture of pratfalls, Raffles, and Monsieur Hulot, all dressed to kill and quite palatable for the uncritical.
w Maurice Richlin, Blake Edwards d Blake Edwards ph Philip Lathrop m Henry Mancini ad Fernando Carrere animation De Patie-Freleng
☆ David Niven, Peter Sellers, Capucine, Claudia Cardinale, Robert Wagner, Brenda de Banzie, Colin Gordon
† Peter Ustinov had been offered the role of Clouseau first, but backed out. Inspector Clouseau later became a cartoon character and also provoked six sequels: A Shot in the Dark, Inspector Clouseau, The Return of the Pink Panther, The Pink Panther Strikes Again, The Revenge of the Pink Panther and Son of the Pink Panther.
🎗 Henry Mancini

'Get a clue!'

The Pink Panther ③

US 2005 93m colour
TCF (Robert Simonds)

An incompetent detective is deliberately chosen to investigate a murder and the theft of a famous diamond.
Forty-three years on, Steve Martin takes up where Peter Sellers began as the hapless Inspector Clouseau, somewhat too soon; there are a few laughs, when Martin's customarily smug persona is punctured, but otherwise it's just another unnecessary remake.
w Len Blum, Steve Martin d Shawn Levy ph Jonathan Brown m Christophe Beck pd Lily Kilvert ed George Folsey Jnr, Brad E. Wilhite
☆ Steve Martin (Insp. Clouseau), Kevin Kline (Chief Insp. Dreyfus), Beyoncé Knowles (Xania), Jean Reno (Gendarme Ponton), Emily Mortimer (Nicole), Henry Czerny (Yuri), Roger Rees (Larocque)
'Flat and spiritless. With any luck this retread will not see any further sequels perpetrated.' – Sam Davies, Sight & Sound

The Pink Panther Strikes Again ★

GB 1976 103m DeLuxe Panavision
United Artists/Amjo (Blake Edwards)

After a nervous breakdown, Chief Inspector Dreyfus builds up a vast criminal organization devoted to the extermination of Inspector Clouseau.
Zany pratfall farce with signs of over-confidence since the success of The Return of the Pink Panther. But some gags are funny, despite a rather boring star.
w Frank Waldman, Blake Edwards d Blake Edwards ph Harry Waxman m Henry Mancini
☆ Peter Sellers, Herbert Lom, Colin Blakely, Leonard Rossiter, Lesley-Anne Down, Burt Kwouk
🎗 song 'Come To Me' (m Henry Mancini, ly Don Black) Pink String and Sealing Wax ★

GB 1945 89m bw
Ealing (Michael Balcon)

In 1880 Brighton, a publican's wife plans to have her husband poisoned.
Unusual, carefully handled period crime melodrama which needed a slightly firmer grip.
w Diana Morgan, Robert Hamer play Roland Pertwee d Robert Hamer ph Richard S. Pavey m Norman Demuth

☆ Googie Withers, Mervyn Johns, Gordon Jackson, Sally Ann Howes, Mary Merrall, John Carol, Catherine Lacey, Garry Marsh

The Pink Telephone

France 1975 93m colour
Gaumont International/Les Productions 2000 (Alain Poire)
aka: Le Téléphone Rose

An old-fashioned, provincial businessman becomes involved with an expensive Parisian call-girl.

Satire on big business, sexual politics and middle-aged angst that runs out of steam before the end.

w Francis Véber d Edouard Molinaro ph Gérard Hameline m Vladimir Cosma pd Robert Sussfeld, Michel Choquet ed Robert and Monique Isnardon ☆ Mireille Darc, Pierre Mondy, Michel Lonsdale, Daniel Ceccaldi, Françoise Prevost, Gérard Hérold

'She passed for white!'

Pinky ★★

US 1949 102m bw
TCF (Darryl F. Zanuck)

In the American South, a Negro girl who passes for white has romantic problems.

Rather blah problem picture which seemed brave at the time; a highly professional piece of work nevertheless.

w Philip Dunne, Dudley Nichols novel Quality by Cid Ricketts Summer d Elia Kazan ph Joe MacDonald m Alfred Newman
☆ Jeanne Crain, Ethel Barrymore, Ethel Waters, William Lundigan, Basil Ruysdael, Nina Mae McKinney, Frederick O'Neal, Evelyn Varden

'It has about as much daring as a cheese-mite. It is careful to affront no particular section of the public, to draw no particular conclusion, to outrage no particular code of cinema ethics, to challenge no particular box-office convention.' – C. A. Lejeune

Jeanne Crain; Ethel Barrymore; Ethel Waters

'Out of a dream world into yours!'

Pinocchio ★★★★

US 1940 77m Technicolor
Walt Disney

The blue fairy breathes life into a puppet, which has to prove itself before it can turn into a real boy.

Charming, fascinating, superbly organized and streamlined cartoon feature without a single second of boredom.

d Hamilton Luske, Ben Sharpsteen m/ly Leigh Harline, Ned Washington, Paul J. Smith ad Al Zinnen, Ken Anderson, Thor Putnam, Charles Philippi, McLaren Stewart, Kendall O'Connor, Hugh Hennesy, John Hubley, Terrell Stapp, Dick Kelsey supervisors Ben Sharpsteen, Hamilton Luske
☆ voices of: Dickie Jones (Pinocchio), Christian Rub (Geppetto), Cliff Edwards (Jiminy Cricket), Evelyn Venable (The Blue Fairy), Walter Catlett (J. Worthington Foulfellow), Frankie Darro (Lampwick)

'A film of amazing detail and brilliant conception.' – Leonard Maltin
'A work that gives you almost every possible kind of pleasure to be got from a motion picture.' – Richard Mallett, Punch
'The limits of the animated cartoon have been blown so wide open that some of the original wonder of pictures has been restored.' – Otis Ferguson

♫ 'When You Wish Upon A Star'; 'Give a Little Whistle'; 'Hi-Diddle-Dee-Dee (An Actor's Life for Me)'; 'I've Got No Strings'
Leigh Harline, Ned Washington, Paul J. Smith (m); song 'When You Wish Upon a Star' (m Leigh Harline, ly Ned Washington)

Pinocchio and the Emperor of the Night

US 1987 90m colour
Palace/Filmation (Lou Scheimer)

Pinocchio continues his adventures as a real boy.

Sugary confection that cannot stand comparison with Disney's classic.

w Robby London d Hal Sutherland m Anthony Marinelli, Brian Banks songs Will Jennings, Barry Mann, Steve Tyrell
☆ Featuring the voices of Ed Asner, Lana Beeson, Tom Bosley, Linda Gary, Scott Grimes, James Earl Jones, Rickie Lee Jones, Don Knotts

Pioneer Builders: see The Conquerors

Pippi in the South Seas (dubbed)

Sweden/Germany 1974 100m Movielab
Beta/Iduna/K B Nordart (Olle Nordemar)

Pippi, a girl with superhuman strength, sets off with two friends to rescue her father who has been captured by pirates.

An atrocious children's film, cheap and shoddy and so badly dubbed as to be unwatchable.

novel Astrid Lindgren d Olle Hellbom ph Kalle Bergholm m George Riedel ed Jan Persson, Jutte Schweden ☆ Inger Nilsson, Maria Persson, Par Sundberg, Alfred Schieske, Wolfgang Volz, Nikolaus Schilling

Pippi Longstocking

Sweden/Germany/Canada 1997 78m colour
Optimum/Nelvana/TFC/Iduna (Hasmi Giakoumis, Merle-Anne Ridley)

Thieves try to steal the gold belonging to the strongest girl in the world, who sets up home alone while waiting for the return of her sea-faring father.

Yet another dud film made from a favourite children's book, with substandard animation and a dull story.

w Catherine Stackelberb, Ken Sobol, Frank Nissen books Astrid Lindgren d Clive Smith m Anders Berglund ad Clive Powsey ed Noda Tsamardos
☆ Featuring voices of: Melissa Altro, Catherine O'Hara, Dave Thomas, Gordon Pinsent, Wayne Robson, Carole Pope, Richard Binsley, Rick Jones

'Here, Pippi's dislike of conformity, attractive on the printed page, seems selfish and tiresome rather than spirited.' – Sight and Sound

'Lost River Lake was a thriving resort – until they discovered...'

Piranha ★

US 1978 92m Metrocolor
New World (Roger Corman, Jeff Schechtman, Jon Davison)

A mad doctor's stock of man-eating fish is accidentally released into the local rivers.

Slightly spoofy thriller with a high death rate and a better than usual script. On the whole, an improvement on Jaws.

w John Sayles d Joe Dante ph Jamie Anderson m Pino Donaggio sp Jon Berg
☆ Bradford Dillman, Heather Menzies, Kevin McCarthy, Bruce Gordon, Barbara Steele, Keenan Wynn, Dick Miller

'They bred the ultimate killing machine ... Now you're not safe OUT of the water!'

Piranha II: The Spawning

Italy/US 1982 94m Technicolor
Columbia/Chako (Chako van Leevwew, Jeff Schechtman)

aka: Piranha II: Flying Killers

Holiday-makers are attacked by mutant flying fish.

Feeble low-budget sequel, the first feature of a director who went on to make more successful action movies, including Terminator and Terminator 2.

w H. A. Milton d James Cameron ph Roberto D'Ettore Piazzoli m Steve Powder ed Robert Silvi
☆ Tricia O'Neil, Steve Marachuk, Lance Henriksen, Ricky G. Paull, Ted Richert, Leslie Graves

The Pirate ★★

US 1948 102m Technicolor
MGM (Arthur Freed)

In a West Indian port, a girl imagines that a wandering player is a famous pirate, who in fact is her despised and elderly suitor.

Minor MGM musical with vivid moments and some intimation of the greatness shortly to come; all very set-bound, but the star quality is infectious.

w Albert Hackett, Frances Goodrich play S. N. Behrman d Vincente Minnelli ph Harry Stradling m/ly Cole Porter md Lennie Hayton
☆ Gene Kelly, Judy Garland, Walter Slezak, Gladys Cooper, Reginald Owen, George Zucco, the Nicholas Brothers

'Most of the considerable artistry that has gone into this production collides head-on with artiness or is spoiled by simpler kinds of miscalculation.' – James Agee
'A $5,000,000 Hollywood picture that was unspeakably wretched, the worst that money could buy.' – Cole Porter

♫ 'Mack the Black'; 'Nina'; 'You Can Do No Wrong'; 'Be a Clown'; 'Love of My Life'
Lennie Hayton

The Pirate Movie

Australia 1982 105m Colorfilm
Fox/Joseph Hamilton International

A girl dreams herself back into The Pirates of Penzance but changes some of the details.

Galumphing fantasy which suggests that Australian film-makers had better stick to Botany Bay, Gallipoli and sheep shearing.

w Trevor Farrant d Ken Annakin ph Robin Copping pd Tony Woollard ed Kenneth W. Zemke
☆ Kristy McNichol, Christopher Atkins, Ted Hamilton, Bill Kerr, Maggie Kirkpatrick, Garry Macdonald

'The slapstick and the swordplay are as ineptly choreographed as the production numbers.' – Kim Newman, MFB

Pirates

France/Tunisia 1986 124m Eclaircolor Panavision
Cannon/Carthago/Accent Dominco (Tarak Ben Ammar)

A British buccaneer, cast adrift on a raft, is taken aboard a Spanish galleon and causes mayhem.

A disaster from a director who should never be allowed to attempt comedy. This one is revolting when it is not a crashing bore.

w Gerard Brach, Roman Polanski d Roman Polanski ph Witold Sobocinski m Philippe Sarde
☆ Walter Matthau, Damien Thomas, Richard Pearson, Roy Kinnear, Ferdy Mayne, Charlotte Lewis
† The galleon, which cost 8 million dollars, was not wasted. It was given to the municipality of Cannes and became a tourist attraction.
costumes (Anthony Powell)

Pirates of Blood River ★

GB 1961 84m Technicolor Hammerscope
Hammer (Anthony Nelson Keys)

Pirates in search of gold terrorize a Huguenot settlement.

Land-locked blood and thunder for tough schoolboys.

w John Hunter, John Gilling d John Gilling ph Arthur Grant ☆ Christopher Lee, Andrew Keir, Kerwin Mathews, Glenn Corbett, Peter Arne, Oliver Reed, Marla Landi, Michael Ripper

The Pirates of Penzance

GB 1982 112m Technicolor Panavision
Universal (Joseph Papp, Timothy Burrill)

An adaptation of the Gilbert and Sullivan operetta in the form of the Joseph Papp Broadway revival.

What was tolerably pretty and witty on the stage is a great bore on wide film.

wd Wilford Leach ph Douglas Slocombe m Gilbert and Sullivan pd Elliott Scott ed Anne V. Coates
☆ Kevin Kline, Angela Lansbury, Linda Ronstadt, George Rose, Tony Azito, Rex Smith

'Not the slightest trace of imagination.' – MFB
'Anyone who thinks Gilbert and Sullivan indestructible should see this.' – Observer

'At the end of the world, the adventure begins.'

Pirates of the Caribbean: At World's End (5)

US 2007 168m
Buena Vista/Walt Disney Pictures/Jerry Bruckheimer Films (Jerry Bruckheimer)

Former enemies unite to rescue Jack Sparrow from Davy Jones' locker and save the Caribbean from the East India Trade Company.

The longest Pirates to date corrects some of its immediate predecessor's deficiencies but still falls some way short of the 2003 original. Plotting is incoherent, though having an ending in sight at least ensures momentum; a shame Keith Richards' much-vaunted cameo as Johnny Depp's father turns out to be a damp squib.

w Ted Elliott, Terry Rossio d Gore Verbinski ph Dariusz Wolski m Hans Zimmer pd Rick Heinrichs ad John Dexter ed Craig Wood, Stephen Rivkin sp Industrial Light & Magic ☆ Johnny Depp (Jack Sparrow), Orlando Bloom (Will Turner), Keira Knightley (Elizabeth Swann), Chow Yun-Fat (Captain Sao Feng), Geoffrey Rush (Barbossa), Stellan Skarsgard (Bootstrap Bill), Bill Nighy (Davy Jones), Naomie Harris (Tia Dalma)

'While it still lacks the giddy zip of Curse of the Black Pearl, the new edition delivers its share of entertaining sequences.' – Michael Rechtshaffen, Hollywood Reporter
'The story is so convoluted and impenetrable, so impossible to grasp hold of, that viewers sit there wondering if they've had a stroke.' – Mick LaSalle, San Francisco Chronicle

Pirates of the Caribbean: Dead Man's Chest ⑤

US 2006 150m
Buena Vista/Walt Disney Pictures/Jerry Bruckheimer Films (Jerry Bruckheimer)

Wily pirate Jack Sparrow attempts to free himself from a debt to Davy Jones, octopus-faced ruler of the sea.

The same again, only more so; extravagant set-pieces with a smattering of wit, shackled together by a plot that doesn't bear close inspection. Overall result is wearying, and even longer than its predecessor.

w Ted Elliott, Terry Rossio d Gore Verbinski ph Dariusz Wolski m Hans Zimmer pd Rick Heinrichs ad John Dexter ed Craig Wood, Stephen Rivkin sp Industrial Light & Magic

☆ Johnny Depp (Jack Sparrow), Orlando Bloom (Will Turner), Keira Knightley (Elizabeth Swann), Stellan Skarsgard (Bootstrap Bill), Bill Nighy (Davy Jones), Jack Davenport (Norrington), Kevin R. McNally (Joshamee Gibbs), Jonathan Pryce (Governor Weatherby Swann)

'There is a sense of bloat and where-do-we-go-from here aimlessness to this unconscionably protracted undertaking.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

'A pirate could braid his beard in the time it takes for Jerry Bruckheimer's floating franchise to cut loose from the shoals of plot incoherence and put a wind in its sails.' – Peter Travers, Rolling Stone

† The film was shot at the same time as Pirates of the Caribbean: At World's End (qv).

†† It cost $225m and took $423.3m at the US box-office. Its total worldwide gross is just over $1 billion.

♟ visual effects

§ art direction; sound editing; sound mixing

♉ visual effects

'Prepare to be blown out of the water.'

Pirates of the Caribbean: The Curse of the Black Pearl ★ ⑥

US 2003 143m Technicolor Panavision
Buena Vista/Walt Disney (Jerry Bruckheimer)

In the Caribbean, a carefree pirate offers to rescue the British governor's daughter, who has been kidnapped by his former shipmates.

Over-long romp, based on a Disney theme-park ride, that wears out its welcome; it doesn't know when to end and takes a long time to start, but in between offers a few thrills.

w Ted Elliott, Terry Rossio d Gore Verbinski ph Dariusz Wolski m Klaus Badelt pd Brian Morris ed Craig Wood, Stephen Rivkin, Arthur Schmidt sp Industrial Light & Magic cos Penny Rose

☆ Johnny Depp (Jack Sparrow), Geoffrey Rush (Barbossa), Orlando Bloom (Will Turner), Keira Knightley (Elizabeth Swann), Jack Davenport (Norrington), Kevin R. McNally (Joshamee Gibbs), Zoe Saldana (Anamaria), Jonathan Pryce (Governor Weatherby Swann)

'Except for the headache its boisterous sound level leaves you with, as forgettable as a bad day in the Disneyland parking lot.' – Kenneth Turan, Los Angeles Times

'The law of commerce worked this time around: One terrific thrill ride has begotten another.' – Peter Rainer, New York

† In a Gallup poll of US filmgoers, it was voted the most popular movie of 2003.

†† Johnny Depp is said to have modelled his performance on the Rolling Stones' Keith Richards, though Boy George more often comes to mind.

††† It cost $125m and took $305.4m at the US box-office.

§ Johnny Depp; visual effects (John Knoll, Hal T. Hickel, Charles Gibson, Terry D. Frazee); makeup (Ve Neill, Martin Samuel); sound (Christopher Boyes, David Parker, David E. Campbell, Lee Orloff; sound editing (Christopher Boyes, George Watters II)

♉ makeup

Pirates of Tortuga

US 1961 97m DeLuxe Cinemascope
Sam Katzman/TCF

In the 17th-century Caribbean, a privateer is ordered by the king to go undercover and rout Sir Henry Morgan.

Listless swashbuckler with inferior talent.

w Melvin Levy, Jesse L. Lasky Jnr, Pat Silver d Robert D. Webb

☆ Ken Scott, Dave King, Letitia Roman, John Richardson, Robert Stephens, Edgar Barrier

Pirates of Tripoli

US 1955 72m Technicolor
Columbia (Sam Katzman)

A pirate captain comes to the aid of an oriental princess.

More akin to the Arabian Knights than Blackbeard, but not bad for a double-biller.

w Allen March d Felix Feist ph Henry Freulich md Mischa Bakaleinikoff

☆ Paul Henreid, Patricia Medina, Paul Newland, John Miljan, Lillian Bond

Pisma Myortovovo Cheloveka: see Letters from a Dead Man

A Pistol for Ringo ★

Italy/Spain 1965 99m colour
PCM/Balcàzar (Alberto Pugliese, Luciano Ercoli) original title: Una Pistola per Ringo

A wandering gunman goes to the aid of a Texan family whose ranch has been taken over by Mexican bandits.

Above-average spaghetti Western, much influenced by the work of John Ford and Howard Hawks.

wd Duccio Tessari ph Francisco Marin m Ennio Morricone ad Juan Alberto Soler ed Lucia Quaglia

☆ Giuliano Gemma, Fernando Sancho, Hally Hammond (Lorella de Luca), Nieves Navarro, Antonio Casas, Jorge Martin

† It was followed by a sequel, The Return of Ringo (qv).

Pistola di Deo: see God's Gun

The Pit and the Pendulum ★

US 1961 85m Pathécolor Panavision
AIP/Alta Vista (Roger Corman)

Lovers plan to drive her brother mad; he responds by locking them in his torture chamber.

The centrepiece only is borrowed from Poe; the rest is lurid but mostly ineffective. Still, its commercial success started the Poe cycle of the sixties.

w Richard Matheson d Roger Corman ph Floyd Crosby m Les Baxter

☆ Vincent Price, Barbara Steele, John Kerr

'As in House of Usher, the quality of the film is its full-blooded feeling for Gothic horror – storms and lightning, mouldering castles and cobwebbed torture chambers, bleeding brides trying to tear the lids from their untimely tombs.' – David Robinson

Pitch Black

US 2000 108m colour
UIP/Gramercy/Interscope (Tom Engelman)

After their spaceship crashes on an unknown planet, the survivors, who include a hardened killer, find that it is too hot to move except at night, when the place is crawling with fierce creatures.

Essentially a 'B' movie with a few pretensions, this delivers its shocks efficiently enough, but is otherwise in need of a better script and a bigger budget.

w Jim Wheat, Ken Wheat, David Twohy d David Twohy ph David Eggby m Graeme Revell pd Graham 'Grace' Walker ed Rick Shaine sp Patrick Tatopoulos

☆ Radha Mitchell (Fry), Vin Diesel (Riddick), Cole Hauser (Johns), Keith David (Imam), Lewis Fitz-Gerald (Paris), Claudia Black (Shazza), Rhiana Griffith (Jack), John Moore (Zeke), Simon Burke (Owens)

'Mildly scary but not particularly engaging on any other level.' – Emanuel Levy, Variety

Pitfall

US 1948 85m bw
Samuel Bischoff

An insurance investigator proves easy prey for a grasping woman.

Modest suspenser, quite efficiently made.

w Jay Dratler novel Jay Dratler d André de Toth ph Harry Wild md Louis Forbes

☆ Dick Powell, Lizabeth Scott, Jane Wyatt, Raymond Burr, John Litel, Byron Barr, Ann Doran Pittsburgh

US 1942 91m bw
Universal (Charles K. Feldman)

A coal miner's daughter has two loves, all of them trying to improve their social status as Pittsburgh becomes a world centre of steel production.

Routine melodrama ending as a flagwaver, and allowing none of its stars any opportunity.

w Kenneth Gamet, Tom Reed d Lewis Seiler ph Robert de Grasse m Hans Salter

☆ Marlene Dietrich, Randolph Scott, John Wayne, Frank Craven, Louise Allbritton, Shemp Howard, Ludwig Stossel, Thomas Gomez

Pixote ★★★

Brazil 1981 127m colour
Palace/Embrafilme

A 10-year-old living on the streets of São Paulo tries to survive by pimping, drug-dealing and murder.

Grim and sensational exposé of a social problem, using actual homeless children to add to its reality.

w Hector Babenco, Jorge Duran novel Infancia dos Mortos by José Louzeiro d Hector Babenco ph Rodolfo Sanches m John Neschling ad Clovis Bueno ed Luiz Elias

☆ Fernando Ramos da Silva (Pixote), Jorge Julião (Lilica), Gilberto Moura (Dito), Edilson Lino (Chico), Zenildo Oliveira Santos (Fumaca), Claudio Bernardo (Garatao), Marilia Pera (Sueli), José Nilson Dos Santos (Diego)

† Fernando Ramos da Silva, who played Pixote, had roles in two subsequent films, but his career was limited as he could neither read nor write. He became involved in petty crime and, at the age of 19, was shot dead in his home by police.

The Pizza Triangle: see Jealousy Italian Style

Le Placard ★

France 2000 80m colour 'Scope
Optimum/Gaumont/EFVE/TF1 (Alain Poire)
aka: The Closet

About to be fired, a heterosexual office-worker keeps his job by pretending to be gay.

One joke comedy that has a couple of hilarious moments.

wd Francis Veber ph Luciano Tovoli m Vladimir Cosma ad Hugues Tissandier ed Georges Klotz

☆ Daniel Auteuil (Francois Pignon), Gerard Depardieu (Felix Santini), Thierry Lhermitte (Guillaume), Michele Laroque (Miss Bertrand), Michel Aumont (Belone), Jean Rochefort (Kopel), Alexandra Vandernoot (Christine)

'Worth a look, but not a detour or a journey.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times

'They do it in the name of love!'

A Place for Lovers

US 1969 102m colour
MGM

A dying American fashion designer retires to her Italian villa and has a high old time with an Italian engineer.

Incomparably crass tearjerker which seems eager to offer too many morals about life and love and art.

w Peter Baldwin, Ennio de Concini, Tonino Guerra, Julian Halevy (Julian Zimet), Cesare Zavattini story Brunello Rondi d Vittorio de Sica

☆ Faye Dunaway, Marcello Mastroianni, Caroline Mortimer, Karin Engh

'The most God-awful piece of pseudo-romantic slop I've ever seen.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun Times

'The worst movie I have seen all year and possibly since 1926.' – Charles Champlin, L.A. Times

'The five scriptwriters who supposedly worked on the film must have spent time enough at the watercooler to flood a camel.' – Time

† Screenwriter Zimet wrote under a pseudonym because of the blacklist.

'Seldom has the screen so captured the fire and fever of today's youth! Seldom has a film boasted three such exciting star performances!'

A Place in the Sun ★★

US 1951 122m bw
Paramount/George Stevens

A poor young man, offered the chance of a rich wife, allows himself to be convicted and executed for the accidental death of his former fiancée.

Overblown, overlong and over-praised melodrama from a monumental novel of social guilt; sometimes visually striking, this version alters the stresses of the plot and leaves no time for sociological detail. A film so clearly intended as a masterpiece could hardly fail to be boring.

w Michael Wilson, Harry Brown novel An American Tragedy by Theodore Dreiser

d George Stevens ph William C. Mellor
m Franz Waxman ad Hans Dreier, Walter Tyler ed William Hornbeck
☆ Montgomery Clift, Elizabeth Taylor, Shelley Winters, Anne Revere, Keefe Brasselle, Fred Clark, Raymond Burr, Frieda Inescort, Shepperd Strudwick, Kathryn Givney, Walter Sande

'An almost incredibly painstaking work … mannered enough for a very fancy Gothic murder mystery. This version gives the story a modern setting, but the town is an arrangement of symbols of wealth, glamour and power versus symbols of poor, drab helplessness – an arrangement far more suitable to the thirties than to the fifties.' – Pauline Kael

'As slick a piece of bogus self-importance as you'll ever see.' – Raymond Chandler

🏆 script; George Stevens; William C. Mellor; Franz Waxman; editing 🎗 best picture; Montgomery Clift; Shelley Winters

A Place of One's Own ★★

GB 1944 92m bw
GFD/Gainsborough (R. J. Minney)

In Edwardian times, an old house is taken over by an elderly couple, and their young companion is possessed by the spirit of a murdered girl.
Charming little ghost story, not quite detailed enough to be totally effective.
w Brock Williams novel Osbert Sitwell d Bernard Knowles ph Stephen Dade
m Hubert Bath md Louis Levy
☆ James Mason, Barbara Mullen, Margaret Lockwood, Dennis Price, Helen Haye, Michael Shepley, Dulcie Gray, Moore Marriott

'A fine piece of work … gripping, marvellous, outstanding, eerie, perky, beautiful, lovely and different.' – C. A. Lejeune

'One comes away with an impression of elegance which has not so far been frequent in the British cinema.' – Dilys Powell

Place Vendôme ★★

France/Belgium/GB 1998 118m colour Technovision
Artificial Eye/TF1/l'Etang/Alhena/Angel's Co. (Alain Sarde)

The alcoholic widow of a near-bankrupt jeweller tries to protect the business from its importunate creditors.
Elegant, intriguing French thriller that provides Deneuve with probably her best role for years, as a pressured woman recovering her dignity and abilities.
w Jacques Fieschi, Nicole Garcia d Nicole Garcia ph Laurent Dailland m Richard Robbins ad Thierry Flamand ed Luc Barnier, Francoise Bonnot cos Nathalie du Roscoat, Elisabeth Tavernier
☆ Catherine Deneuve (Marianne), Jean-Pierre Bacri (Jean-Pierre), Emmanuelle Seigner (Nathalie), Jacques Dutronc (Battistelli), Bernard Fresson (Vincent Malivert), François Berléand (Eric Malivert), Philippe Clévenot (Kleiser)

'A rhinestone rather than a gem, this is a drama that looks sophisticated and deep, but proves hollow.' – Angie Errigo, Empire

Places in the Heart

US 1984 111m Technicolor
Tri-Star/Delphi (Arlene Donovan)

In 1935 Texas, the sheriff's widow struggles to maintain the family farm.
All-American saga with asides including the Ku Klux Klan; though based on the author's recollections of childhood, it all seems predictable.
wd Robert Benton ph Nestor Almendros
m John Kander pd Gene Callahan
☆ Sally Field, Lindsay Crouse, Ed Harris, Amy Madigan, John Malkovich, Danny Glover

'Basically just another calculated tug at the heartstrings.' – Tom Milne, MFB

🏆 Sally Field; original screenplay
🎗 best picture; John Malkovich (supporting actor); Lindsay Crouse (supporting actress); direction

Plaff! Or Too Afraid of Life ★

Cuba 1988 92m colour
Metro/ICAIC (Ricardo Avila)
original title: Desmasiado Miedo A La Vida, O Plaff

A superstitious mother tries to get rid of her scientific daughter-in-law.
Deliberately ramshackle political comedy – the beginning of the film is kept to the end – which is not without a certain surrealist charm.
w Daniel Chavarría, Juan Carlos Tabío d Juan Carlos Tabío ph Julio Valdés ad Raúl Oliva ed Roberto Bravo, Osvaldo M. Donatien
☆ Daisy Granados, Thais Valdés, Luis Alberto Garcia, Raúl Pamares, Alicia Bustamente, Jorge Cao

'A wittily cynical exercise in alienation which oozes awkwardness and provokes uncomfortable laughter.' – MFB

La Plage des Enfants Perdus: see The Beach of Lost Children

The Plague Dogs

GB/US 1982 103m Technicolor
Nepenthe Productions

Two dogs escape from a research laboratory and are in danger of infecting the country with a deadly virus.
Misguided and woefully overlong attempt to preach a message through a cartoon. Like Watership Down, it needs the printed word and is deflected by the inevitably cuddly look of the animated animals.
wd Martin Rosen novel Richard Adams
☆ Featuring the voices of John Hurt, James Bolam, Christopher Benjamin, Judy Geeson, Barbara Leigh-Hunt

The Plague of the Zombies ★

GB 1965 91m Technicolor
Hammer (Anthony Nelson Keys)

A voodoo-practising Cornish squire raises zombies from the dead and uses them to work his tin mine.
They don't explain why he didn't simply hire the living; apart from that this is Hammer on its better side, with a charming elderly hero and good suspense sequences.
w Peter Bryan d John Gilling ph Arthur Grant m James Bernard ☆ André Morell, John Carson, Diane Clare, Brook Williams, Jacqueline Pearce, Alex Davion, Michael Ripper

'Visually the film is splendid … the script manages several offbeat strokes.' – MFB

Plain Clothes

US 1988 98m CFI color
Paramount (Richard Wechsler, Michael Manheim)

After his brother is accused of murdering a teacher, a cop, who is suspended from the force, decides to go undercover as a high-school student to find the real killer.
An occasionally amusing comedy, though it is doubtful whether there are enough laughs, or even smiles, to make watching it worthwhile.
w A. Scott Frank d Martha Coolidge ph Daniel Hainey m Scott Wilk
pd Michel Levesque ed Patrick Kennedy, Edward Abroms ☆ Arliss Howard, Suzy Amis, George Wendt, Diane Ladd, Seymour Cassel, Larry Pine, Jackie Gayle, Abe Vigoda, Robert Stack

'Grandest love story ever told!'

The Plainsman ★★

US 1936 113m bw
Paramount/Cecil B. de Mille

The life of Wild Bill Hickok and his friends Buffalo Bill and Calamity Jane.
Standard big-scale 30s Western; narrative lumpy, characters idealized, spectacle impressive, technical credits high.
w Waldemar Young, Lynn Riggs, Harold Lamb d Cecil B. de Mille ph Victor Milner, George Robinson m George Antheil md Boris Morros
☆ Gary Cooper, James Ellison, Jean Arthur, Charles Bickford, Helen Burgess, Porter Hall, Paul Harvey, Victor Varconi

'It should do all right for business, ranging from big to good, possibly irregular in spots.' – Variety

'Certainly the finest western since The Virginian; perhaps the finest western in the history of the film.' – Graham Greene

† The story was remade as a TV movie in 1966, with Don Murray.

The Plainsman and the Lady

US 1946 84m bw
Republic

In 1847, the Pony Express is threatened by stagecoach owners.
Moderate Western for family consumption.
w Richard Wormser d Joseph Kane
☆ William Elliott, Gail Patrick, Vera Ralston, Joseph Schildkraut

Le Plaisir ★

France 1952 97m bw
Stera/CCFC

Three stories by Guy de Maupassant, about the search for pleasure: 'Le Masque', 'La Maison Tellier', 'Le Modèle'.
Stylish but rather subdued compendium, with no highlights to stay in the memory.
w Jacques Natanson, Max Ophüls d Max Ophüls ph Christian Matras, Philippe Agostini m Joe Hajos ad Max Ophuls
☆ Claude Dauphin, Gaby Morlay; Madeleine Renaud, Danielle Darrieux, Ginette Leclerc, Jean Gabin, Pierre Brasseur; Simone Simon, Daniel Gélin

'An attractive theme tune, good performances, and the pleasure itself of virtuosity.' – Gavin Lambert, MFB

🎗 art direction

'There comes a time in every man's life when he just can't believe his eyes!'

Plan 9 from Outer Space

US 1958 79m bw
Wade Williams Productions (Edward D. Wood Jnr)

aka: Grave Robbers from Outer Space

Space people try to resurrect the Earth's dead and turn them against the world.
Inept mini-budgeter often hailed as the worst film ever made. It is certainly among the most boring.
wd Edward D. Wood Jnr ph William C. Thompson md Gordon Zahler ad Tom Kemp sp Charles Duncan ☆ Bela Lugosi, Tor Johnson, Gregory Walcott, Mona McKinnon, Vampira, Lyle Talbot

SAMPLE DIALOGUE: 'One thing's sure, Inspector Clay's dead. Murdered. And somebody's responsible.'

† Lugosi died after four days of shooting and is mostly represented by a double, who keeps his cape up so that it covers his face.

Planes, Trains and Automobiles ★

US 1987 93m colour
UIP/Paramount (John Hughes)

An advertising executive, trying to get home for Thanksgiving, finds many obstacles hampering his progress, including an insufferable companion.
Cheerful farce that allows some room for characterization.
wd John Hughes ph Don Peterman m Ira Newborn pd John W. Corso ed Paul Hirsch
☆ Steve Martin, John Candy, Michael McKean, Kevin Bacon, Dylan Baker, Carol Bruce, Olivia Burnette, Diana Douglas, William Windom

'Somewhere in the universe, there must be something better than man!'

Planet of the Apes ★★★

US 1968 119m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF/Apjac (Mort Abrahams)

Astronauts caught in a time warp land on a planet which turns out to be Earth in the distant future, when men have become beasts and the apes have taken over.
Stylish, thoughtful science fiction which starts and finishes splendidly but suffers from a sag in the middle. The ape make-up is great.
Sequels, in roughly descending order of interest, were:
1969 Beneath the Planet of the Apes
1970 Escape from the Planet of the Apes
1972 Conquest of the Planet of the Apes
1973 Battle for the Planet of the Apes.
A TV series followed in 1974, and a cartoon series in 1975.
w Michael Wilson, Rod Serling novel Monkey Planet by Pierre Boulle
d Franklin Schaffner ph Leon Shamroy
m Jerry Goldsmith ad William Creber, Jack Martin Smith ed Hugh S. Fowler sp L.B. Abbott, John Chambers, Art Cruickshank, Emil Kosa Jnr
☆ Charlton Heston (George Taylor), Roddy McDowall (Cornelius), Kim Hunter (Dr. Zira), Maurice Evans (Dr. Zaius), James Whitmore (President of the Assembly), James Daly (Honorius), Linda Harrison (Nova)

'One of the most telling science fiction films to date.' – Tom Milne

† John Chambers was awarded an honorary Oscar for 'outstanding make-up achievement'.

🏆 make-up (John Chambers)
🎗 Jerry Goldsmith; costumes (Morton Haack)

'Rule the planet.'

Planet of the Apes

US 2001 120m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF/Zanuck Co. (Richard D. Zanuck)

An astronaut goes forward in time to a world where talking apes rule over a slave population of humans.

Burton claimed this was a 're-imagining' of the original movie; with its glum hero and turgid action, all it demonstrates is the poverty of his imagination.
w William Broyles Jnr, Lawrence Konner, Mark Rosenthal novel Pierre Boulle d Tim Burton ph Philippe Rousselot m Danny Elfman pd Rick Heinrichs ed Chris Lebenzon sp Rick Baker; ILM
☆ Mark Wahlberg (Captain Leo Davidson), Tim Roth (Thade), Helena Bonham Carter (Ari), Michael Clarke Duncan (Attar), Paul Giamatti (Limbo), Estella Warren (Daena), Cary-Hiroyuki Tagawa (Krull), David Warner (Sandar), Kris Kristofferson (Karubi), Erick Avari (Tival)
'A film whose knuckles scrape along the ground, when it should be swinging through the trees.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian
'A bad let down after the wait for it, ridiculous without being witty enough and laboured without achieving suspense.' – Alexander Walker, London Evening Standard
† It cost around $100m to make and took more than $180m at the US box-office.

Planet Outlaws: see Buck Rogers (1939) (1959)

The Planter's Wife
GB 1952 91m bw
Rank/Pinnacle (John Stafford)
US title: Outpost in Malaya original title: White Blood
Malaya under the terrorists. A wife is planning to leave but changes her mind after she and her husband defend their home in a siege.
Superficial studio-bound melodrama unworthy of its subject but a good star vehicle.
w Peter Proud, Guy Elmes d Ken Annakin ph Geoffrey Unsworth m Allan Gray ☆ Claudette Colbert, Jack Hawkins, Ram Gopal, Jeremy Spenser, Tom Macauley, Helen Goss

Plata Quemada: see Burnt Money

Platform
Hong Kong/Japan/France/Nethlands/Switzerland 2000 155m colour
Artificial Eye/Hu-Tong/T-Mark/Artcam/Office Kitano/Bandai (Li Kit-ming, Shozo Ichiyama) original title: Zhantai
A theatrical troupe in a remote Chinese province experience cultural changes in the decade that began in 1979.
From Maoist plays to performances of Western rock, the movie charts shifts in Chinese society, but does so in such a distanced way, mainly viewing the action in static long-shot, that it becomes difficult to be involved in what ought to be interesting times.
wd Jia Zhang-ke ph Yu Lik-wai m Yoshihiro Hanno ad Qiu Sheng ed Kong Jing-lei ☆ Wang Hong-wei (Minliang), Zhao Tao (Ruijuan), Liang Jing-dong (Chang Jun), Yang Tian-yi (Zhong Pin), Wang Bo (Yao Eryong)
'It takes itself to the very limit of unwatchability. And, very often, two or three shattering steps beyond.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian
† The film was originally shown at the Venice Film Festival in a version running for 195m.

Platinum Blonde ★
US 1931 92m bw
Columbia
A newspaper reporter falls for an heiress.
Limp romantic comedy with interesting performances: the film which established Jean Harlow.
w Robert Riskin, Jo Swerling story Harry E. Chandler, Doug Churchill d Frank Capra ph Joseph Walker
☆ Robert Williams, Loretta Young, Jean Harlow, Halliwell Hobbes, Reginald Owen
'A programmer that fully entertains, is laughy and represents what cast, dialogue and direction can do with a lean story.' – Variety

Platinum High School
US 1960 96m bw
MGM (Red Doff)
GB title: Rich, Young and Deadly
A father investigates his son's death at a military academy for rich juvenile delinquents.
Hilarious serial-like melodrama with the worm turning to some effect.
w Robert Smith d Charles Haas ph Russell Metty m Van Alexander ☆ Mickey Rooney, Dan Duryea, Terry Moore, Warren Berlinger, Yvette Mimieux, Conway Twitty, Elisha Cook Jnr, Richard Jaeckel

'The first casualty of war is innocence.'

Platoon ★★
US 1986 120m CFI color
Hemdale/Arnold Kopelson
Experiences of infantrymen during the Vietnam war.
Not badly done in the style of Bataan (plus brutality and gore). One would have thought it too late to do it at all, but the American public made it a box-office hit.
wd Oliver Stone ph Robert Richardson m Georges Delerue ed Claire Simpson
☆ Tom Berenger, Willem Dafoe, Charlie Sheen, Forest Whitaker, Francesco Quinn
'It is fundamentally an entirely formulaic war movie, more "artistic" than many of its genre but true to conventions in both characters and narrative.' – Judith Williamson, New Statesman
best picture; Oliver Stone as director; Claire Simpson
Tom Berenger, Willem Dafoe; Oliver Stone for original screenplay; Robert Richardson
Oliver Stone (as director)

Play Dirty ★
GB 1969 118m Technicolor Panavision
UA/Lowndes (Harry Saltzman)
During World War II, a squad of ex-criminals is given the job of destroying an enemy oil depot in North Africa.
Small-scale Dirty Dozen with would-be ironic twists; well made entertainment for the stout-hearted.
w Lotte Colin, Melvyn Bragg d André de Toth ph Edward Scaife m Michel Legrand
☆ Michael Caine, Nigel Davenport, Nigel Green, Harry Andrews, Bernard Archard, Daniel Pilon

Play It Again Sam ★
US 1972 86m Technicolor Panavision
Paramount/APJAC/Rollins-Joffe (Arthur P. Jacobs)
A neurotic film critic is abandoned by his wife and seeks fresh companionship, with help from the shade of Humphrey Bogart.
Random comedy for star fans, mainly quite lively and painless.
w Woody Allen play Woody Allen d Herbert Ross ph Owen Roizman m Billy Goldenberg
☆ Woody Allen, Diane Keaton, Jerry Lacy, Susan Anspach

Play It as It Lays
US 1972 94m Technicolor Panavision
Universal
An unsuccessful actress takes stock of her wrecked life.
With-it melodrama which audiences preferred to be without.
w Joan Didion, John Gregory Dunne novel Joan Didion d Frank Perry ☆ Anthony Perkins, Tuesday Weld, Tammy Grimes, Adam Roarke, Ruth Ford

Play It Cool
GB 1962 81m bw
Independent Artists/Coronado (David Deutsch)
An unsuccessful rock group, twisting around London's clubs, saves an heiress from the clutches of an unscrupulous singer.
A slight, unsubtle comedy hampered by a lack of memorable songs, and intended to showcase the talents of Britain's best Elvis-styled rocker, which do not extend to acting; other singers featured include Helen Shapiro, Bobby Vee, Danny Williams, Shane Fenton and the Fentones, and Jimmy Crawford.
w Jack Henry d Michael Winner ph Reginald Wyer m Norrie Paramor m/ly Norrie Paramor, Richard B. Rowe, Bernard Jewry, Norman Newell, Ron Fraser, Bob Barratt, Larry Parnes ad Lionel Couch ed Tristam Cones
☆ Billy Fury, Michael Anderson Jnr, Dennis Price, Richard Wattis, Ray Brooks, Maurice Kaufman, Peter Barkworth, Max Bacon, Lionel Blair

'Two Best Friends Take A Shot At Hitting It Big.'

Play It To The Bone
US 1999 124m Technicolor Panavision
Buena Vista/Touchstone/Shanghai'd (Stephen Chin)
Two friends, unsuccessful Los Angeles boxers, get a last chance to make good in Las Vegas, fighting one another.
Episodic account of a couple of would-be contenders that goes nowhere; it is understandably cynical about professional boxing, but at the same time suggests its participants are to be admired.
wd Ron Shelton ph Mark Vargo m Alex Wurman pd Claire Jenora Bowin ed Paul Seydor, Patrick Flannery cos Kathryn Morrison ☆ Antonio Banderas (Cesar Dominguez), Woody Harrelson (Vince Boudreau), Lolita Davidovich (Grace Pasic), Tom Sizemore (Joe Domino), Lucy Liu (Lia), Robert Wagner (Hank Goody), Richard Masur (Artie), Willie Garson (Cappie Caplan), Cylk Cozart (Rudy), Jack Carter (Dante Solomon)
'The characters are coarse, but the film itself is coarser, as well as overlong and poorly written.' – Philip French, Observer

Play Me Something
GB 1989 72m bw/colour
BFI/Film Four International/Scottish Film Production Fund/Grampian TV (Kate Swan)
On a small Scottish island, a group of passengers waiting for a plane listen to a story about an Italian peasant leaving his village to go to Venice.
An intellectual endeavour that never quite comes alive on the screen.
w John Berger, Timothy Neat story Once in Europe by John Berger d Timothy Neat ph Chris Cox m Jim Sutherland ad Annette Gillies ed Russell Fenton ☆ Lucia Lanzarini, Charlie Barron, John Berger, Hamish Henderson, Tilda Swinton, Stewart Ennis, Robert Carr, Liz Lochhead

'The scream you hear may be your own!'

Play Misty for Me ★
US 1971 102m Technicolor
Universal/Malpaso (Robert Daley)
A radio disc jockey is pestered by a girl who turns out to be homicidally jealous.
Smartly made if over-extended psycho melodrama with good suspense sequences and a fair quota of shocks.
w Jo Heims, Dean Riesner d Clint Eastwood ph Bruce Surtees m Dee Barton
☆ Clint Eastwood, Jessica Walter, Donna Mills, John Larch

The Playboy: see Kicking the Moon Around

'Maurice brings a new kind of love to you!'

Playboy of Paris
US 1930 82m bw
Paramount
A waiter inherits a million but finds he can't leave his job, so he becomes a playboy by night only.
Rather rickety star vehicle which demands attention only when he is on screen.
w Percy Heath play The Little Café by Tristan Bernard d Ludwig Berger ☆ Maurice Chevalier, Frances Dee, O. P. Heggie, Stuart Erwin, Eugene Pallette
'Light, amusing farce story doesn't help and may hurt ... Chevalier's the only draw.' – Variety

'In a small community, love is never a private affair.'

The Playboys ★
GB 1992 109m Technicolor
Samuel Goldwyn/Green Umbrella (William P. Cartlidge, Simon Perry)
In an Irish village in the 1950s, the alcoholic local policeman and a strolling player both fall in love with an unmarried mother.
A soap opera-style narrative of thwarted love, of interest mainly for its performances.
w Shane Connaughton, Kerry Crabbe d Gillies MacKinnon ph Jack Conroy m Jean-Claude Petit pd Andy Harris ed Humphrey Dixon
☆ Albert Finney, Aidan Quinn, Robin Wright, Milo O'Shea, Alan Devlin, Niamh Cusack, Niall Buggy, Adrian Dunbar
'A heartbreak tragedy wrapped up inside an ingratiating comedy.' – Alexander Walker, London Evening Standard

The Player ★★★★
US 1992 124m DeLuxe
Guild/Avenue (David Brown, Michael Tolkin, Nick Wechsler)
A Hollywood studio executive gets away with murder.
A deft and dazzling satire on the film industry – witty, surprising and intelligent.
w Michael Tolkin novel Michael Tolkin d Robert Altman ph Jean Lepine m Thomas Newman pd Stephen Altman ad Jerry Fleming ed Geraldine Peroni, Maysie Hoy
☆ Tim Robbins (Griffin Mill), Greta Scacchi (June Gudmundsdottir), Fred Ward (Walter Stuckel), Whoopi Goldberg (Detective Avery), Peter Gallagher (Larry Levy), Brion James (Joel Levison), Cynthia Stevenson (Bonnie Sherow), Vincent D'Onofrio (David Kahane), Dean Stockwell

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

(Andy Civella), Richard E. Grant (Tom Oakley), Sydney Pollack (Dick Mellen)
'The movie has the exhilarating nonchalance of the director's seventies classics, and its tone is volatile, elusive: with breathtaking assurance, it veers from psychological-thriller suspense to goofball comedy to icy satire.' – Terrence Rafferty, New Yorker
† The film featured more than 60 stars playing themselves, including Harry Belafonte, James Coburn, Peter Falk, Teri Garr, Angelica Huston, Jack Lemmon, Nick Nolte, Burt Reynolds, Julia Roberts, Susan Sarandon, Rod Steiger and Bruce Willis.
†† The Region 1 and 2 DVD releases include commentary by Robert Altman and Michael Tolkin.
Robert Altman; Michael Tolkin; Geraldine Peroni
Robert Altman; Michael Tolkin

Players: see The Club

Players
US 1979 120m Metrocolor
Paramount (Robert Evans)

A pro tennis player is trained for top stardom by a sculptress with a mysterious past.
Entirely uninvolving romantic dráma stretched around a Wimbledon match; slickness does not compensate for a gaping hole at the centre.
w Arnold Schulman d Anthony Harvey ph James Crabe m Jerry Goldsmith pd Richard Sylbert ☆ Ali MacGraw, Dean-Paul Martin, Maximilian Schell, Pancho Gonzalez

The Players Club
US 1998 104m DeLuxe
New Line (Patricia Charbonnet)

A single mother works as a stripper to pay her way through college.
Energetic, uneven drama with a comic tone and an uncertain attitude towards sex and gender.
wd Ice Cube ph Malik Sayeed m Hidden Faces pd Dina Lipton ed Suzanne Hines
☆ Lisa Raye, Bernie Mac, Monica Calhoun, A. J. Johnson, Ice Cube, Alex Thomas, Jamie Foxx, Chrystale Wilson, Adele Givens, Larry McCoy
'A messy but lively B-movie that recalls the more spirited comedic dramas of the '70s blaxploitation era.' – Joe Leydon, Variety

Playgirl
US 1954 85m bw
Universal-International

A small-town girl becomes a good-time girl in the big city.
Totally unsurprising melodrama.
w Robert Blees d Joseph Pevney ph Carl Guthrie m Joseph Gershenson
☆ Shelley Winters, Barry Sullivan, Colleen Miller, Gregg Palmer, Richard Long, Kent Taylor

The Playgirl and the War Minister: see The Amorous Prawn

'To live and love in LA.'
Playing By Heart
US 1998 121m DeLuxe Panavision
Buena Vista/Miramax/Intermedia/Morpheus/Hyperion (Willard Carroll, Meg Liberman, Tom Wilhite)

In Los Angeles, a group of loosely-connected people look for love.
Garrulous romantic drama that never quite conveys true emotion.
wd Willard Carroll ph Vilmos Zsigmond m John Barry pd Melissa Stewart ed Pietro Scalia
☆ Gillian Anderson (Meredith), Angelina Jolie (Joan), Madeleine Stowe (Gracie), Anthony Edwards (Roger), Ryan Phillippe (Keenan), Gena Rowlands (Hannah), Sean Connery (Paul), Dennis Quaid (Hugh), Ellen Burstyn (Mildred), Jay Mohr (Mark), Jon Stewart (Trent), Patricia Clarkson (Allison), Nastassja Kinski (Melanie)
'A rather wearisome and sentimental film, with uneven acting.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

'Power to beat. Power to kill. Hell to pay.'
Playing God
US 1997 94m DeLuxe
Blue Dolphin/Touchstone/Beacon (Marc Abraham, Laura Bickford)

A disgraced, drug-addicted surgeon goes to work for a gangster.
A lugubrious central performance sinks this sluggish, predictable thriller.
w Mark Haskell Smith d Andy Wilson ph Anthony B. Richmond m Richard Hartley pd Naomi Shohan ed Louise Rubacky
☆ David Duchovny, Timothy Hutton, Angelina Jolie, Michael Massee, Peter Stormare, Andrew Tiernan, Gary Dourdan, John Hawkes
'This trashy thriller aspires to flip black comedy but manages only moments of unintentional hilarity.' – Liese Spencer, Sight and Sound

Playmates ★
US 1941 96m bw
RKO (Cliff Reid)

For the sake of a lucrative radio contract, John Barrymore agrees to turn bandleader Kay Kyser into a Shakespearian actor.
Barrymore's last film is a weird comedy concoction, awesome in its waste of his talents but fairly funny in a high school kind of way.
w James V. Kern d David Butler ph Frank Redman songs James Van Heusen, Johnny Burke
☆ Kay Kyser and his Band, John Barrymore, Ginny Simms, Lupe Velez, May Robson, Patsy Kelly, Peter Lind Hayes, George Cleveland

Playtime ★★★
France 1968 152m Eastmancolor 70mm
Specta Films (René Silvera)

Hulot and a group of American tourists are bewildered by life in an airport, a business block and a restaurant.
Incredibly extended series of sketches, none of which is devastatingly funny. The irritation is that the talent is clearly there but needs control.
w Jacques Tati, Jacques Lagrange d Jacques Tati ph Jean Badal, Andreas Winding m Francis Lemarque pd Eugène Roman ☆ Jacques Tati, Barbara Dennek, Jacqueline Lecomte, Henri Piccoli
'Tati still seems the wrong distance from his audience: not so far that we cannot see his gifts, not close enough so that they really touch.' – Stanley Kauffmann
'How sad that the result of all this, though it includes a great deal of intermittent pleasure, comes at times so dangerously close to boredom.' – Brenda Davies, MFB
'A series of brilliant doodles by an artist who has earned the right to indulge himself on such a scale.' – Alexander Walker

Plaza Suite ★
US 1971 114m Technicolor
Paramount (Howard B. Koch)

Three sketches set in the same suite at New York's Plaza Hotel, with Walter Matthau appearing in all three but in different character.
A highly theatrical entertainment which was bound to seem flattened on the screen, but emerges with at least some of its laughs intact.
w Neil Simon play Neil Simon d Arthur Hiller ph Jack Marta m Maurice Jarre
☆ Walter Matthau, Maureen Stapleton, Barbara Harris, Lee Grant, Louise Sorel
† In the play, Maureen Stapleton played all three female roles.

'Nothing is as simple as black and white.'
Pleasantville ★★
US 1998 124m DeLuxe/bw
New Line/Larger Than Life (Gary Ross, Jon Kilik, Robert J. Degus, Steven Soderbergh)

Two colourful teenagers of the 90s are sucked back through the television into the black-and-white, hygienic world of a 50s sitcom.
Engaging fantasy that makes fun of the repressions and restrictions of the past, takes pleasure in the uncertainties of living, and uses special effects with wit.
wd Gary Ross ph John Lindley m Randy Newman pd Jeannine Oppewall ed William Goldenberg ☆ Tobey Maguire, Jeff Daniels, Joan Allen, William H. Macy, J. T. Walsh, Don Knotts, Reese Witherspoon
'A provocative, complex and surprisingly anti-nostalgic parable wrapped in the beguiling guise of a commercial high-concept comedy.' – Joe Leydon, Variety
Randy Newman; Jeannine Oppewall; Judianna Makovsky (costumes)

Please Believe Me
US 1950 87m bw
MGM (Val Lewton)

An English girl inherits an American ranch and is chased by a millionaire, a con man and a lawyer.
Dullsville comedy which failed to establish its star in America.
w Nathaniel Curtis d Norman Taurog ph Robert Planck m Hans Salter
☆ Deborah Kerr, Robert Walker, Mark Stevens, Peter Lawford, James Whitmore, Spring Byington

Please Don't Eat the Daisies
US 1960 111m Metrocolor Panavision
MGM (Joe Pasternak)

The family of a drama critic move to the country.
Thin, obvious comedy, all dressed up but with nowhere to go.
w Isobel Lennart book Jean Kerr d Charles Walters ph Robert Bronner m David Rose ☆ Doris Day, David Niven, Janis Paige, Spring Byington, Patsy Kelly, Richard Haydn, Jack Weston, John Harding, Margaret Lindsay

Please Sir
GB 1971 101m Eastmancolor
Rank/LWI/Leslie Grade (Andrew Mitchell)

The masters and pupils of Fenn Street school go on an annual camp.
Grossly inflated, occasionally funny big-screen version of the TV series.
w John Esmonde, Bob Larbey d Mark Stuart ph Wilkie Cooper m Mike Vickers ☆ John Alderton, Deryck Guyler, Joan Sanderson, Noel Howlett, Eric Chitty, Richard Davies

Please Teacher
GB 1937 75m bw
Associated British

An heir tries to find his bequest in the country house he has sold as a girls' school.
Cheerful star farce with songs.
wd Stafford Dickens musical K. R. G. Browne, R. P. Weston ☆ Bobby Howes, René Ray, Vera Pearce, Wylie Watson, Bertha Belmore, Lyn Harding
'Plenty of laughs.' – Variety

Please Turn Over
GB 1959 87m bw
Beaconsfield/Anglo Amalgamated

A teenager writes a sexy best-seller clearly featuring her family and friends.
Acceptable but uninspired comedy from a West End success.
w Norman Hudis play Book of the Month by Basil Thomas d Gerald Thomas ph Ted Scaife m Bruce Montgomery
☆ Ted Ray, Jean Kent, Leslie Phillips, Joan Sims, Julia Lockwood, Charles Hawtrey, Lionel Jeffries

The Pleasure (dubbed)
Italy 1985 94m colour
Filmirage

original title: Il Piacere
In 30s Venice a woman models herself on her dead mother in order to lose her virginity to her mother's aristocratic lover.
Dreary sub-pornographic nonsense, with the cast appearing as bored as its likely spectators.
w Homerus S. Zweitag, Clyde Anderson d Joe D'Amato (Aristide Massaccesi) ph Aristide Massaccesi m Cluster ad Italo Focacci ed Franco Alessandre
☆ Steve Wyler, Laura Gemser, Isabelle Andréa Guzon, Marco Mattioli, Lillie Carati
† The version released in British cinemas ran for 90m.

The Pleasure Garden
GB/Germany 1925 74m approx (24 fps) bw silent
Gainsborough/Emelka (Michael Balcon, Erich Pommer)

A chorus girl marries a rich colonial who goes native.
Boring melodrama with a few touches typical of its director, whose first film it is.
w Eliot Stannard novel Oliver Sandys d Alfred Hitchcock ph Baron Ventigmilia
☆ Virginia Valli, John Stuart, Miles Mander, Carmelita Geraghty

The Pleasure of His Company
US 1961 114m Technicolor
Paramount/Perlberg-Seaton

An ageing playboy arrives unexpectedly in San Francisco for his daughter's wedding.
Tame family comedy, very flatly adapted from the stage; dressed to kill, but with no narrative or cinematic drive.
w Samuel Taylor play Samuel Taylor, Cornelia Otis Skinner d George Seaton ph Robert Burks m Alfred Newman
☆ Fred Astaire, Lilli Palmer, Debbie Reynolds, Charles Ruggles, Tab Hunter, Gary Merrill, Harold Fong
'Smart comedy in its most diluted form.' – MFB

'Do Men Deserve Everything They Get?'

The Pleasure Principle

GB 1991 100m Metrocolor
Palace/Psychology News (David Cohen)

A medical journalist, divorced from his lesbian wife, tries to keep three affairs on the go at once.
Flaccid farce of sexual misadventures, performed with perfunctory interest.
wd David Cohen ph Andrew Spellar m Sonny Southon pd Cecilia Brereton ed Joe McAllister
☆ Peter Firth, Lynsey Baxter, Haydn Gwynne, Lysette Anthony, Sara Mair-Thomas, Ian Hogg, Francesca Folan, Liam McDermott

'A refreshing light comedy that simply asks its audience to lie back and enjoy.' – Variety
'It does not stimulate as it simulates and is essentially a throwback to those sleazy British soft-core comedies of the mid-Seventies.' – Philip French, Observer

† The film was made for £200,000, which its producer-director borrowed from his bank.

The Pleasure Seekers

US 1964 107m DeLuxe Cinemascope
TCF (David Weisbart)

Three girls in Madrid find boyfriends.
Dim remake of Three Coins in the Fountain, adequate but unstimulating on all levels.
w Edith Sommer d Jean Negulesco ph Daniel L. Fapp m Lionel Newman, Alexander Courage
☆ Ann-Margret, Tony Franciosa, Carol Lynley, Gene Tierney, Brian Keith, Gardner McKay, Isobel Elsom ♫ Lionel Newman, Alexander Courage

'Detective Jerry Black has made a promise he can't break, to catch a killer he can't find.'

The Pledge ★★

US 2000 123m DeLuxe 'Scope
Warner/Morgan Creek/Franchise/Clyde Is Hungry (Michael Fitzgerald, Sean Penn, Elie Samaha)

A retired cop is obsessed by a promise he made to a mother: to find the man who raped and killed her child.
Bleak drama of a man's disintegration in his quest for justice and order in a world of chance.
w Jerzy Kromolowski, Mary Olson-Kromolowski novel Friedrich Dürrenmatt d Sean Penn ph Chris Menges m Hans Zimmer, Klaus Badelt pd Bill Groom ed Jay Cassidy
☆ Jack Nicholson (Jerry Black), Patricia Clarkson (Margaret Larsen), Benicio Del Toro (Toby Jay Wadenah), Dale Dickey (Strom), Aaron Eckhart (Stan Krolak), Costas Mandylor (Monash Deputy), Helen Mirren (Doctor), Robin Wright Penn (Lori), Vanessa Redgrave (Annalise Hansen), Mickey Rourke (Jim Olstand), Sam Shepard (Eric Pollack), Lois Smith (Helen Jackson), Harry Dean Stanton (Floyd Cage)

'Penn fulfills the promises of his first two pictures. He never takes a false directorial step.' – Stanley Kaufmann, New Republic
'A compelling drama, part psychological thriller, part parable, part tragedy.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

Plein Soleil ★★

France/Italy 1960 115m colour
Paris/Panitalia/Titanus (Robert and Raymond Hakim)

aka: Purple Noon
aka: Lust for Evil

Hired to bring a rich friend back home to his father, a young wastrel decides to kill him instead and assume his identity.
Sparkling variation on an American film noir, glowing in the Mediterranean sun and maintaining suspense as well as a sense of sexual ambiguity.
w René Clément, Paul Gégauff novel The Talented Mr Ripley by Patricia Highsmith d René Clément ph Henri Decaë m Nino Rota ad Paul Bertrand ed Françoise Javet ☆ Alain Delon, Marie Laforêt, Maurice Ronet, Elvire Popesco, Erno Crisa, Frank Latimore, Bill Kearns

'All it has going for it is this sensuous kicky atmosphere: you feel as if you're breathing something beautiful and rotten.' – Pauline Kael

† Highsmith's novel was remade in 2000 by Anthony Minghella under its original title, The Talented Mr Ripley (qv).

Plenty ★

US 1985 124m Technicolor Panavision
TCF/RKO/Edward R. Pressman

After World War II, the career of a neurotic society woman has parallels with the problems of western Europe.
Heavy-going allegory which should have stayed on the stage.
w David Hare play David Hare d Fred Schepisi ph Ian Baker m Bruce Smeaton pd Richard MacDonald ed Peter Honess ☆ Meryl Streep, Charles Dance, Tracey Ullman, John Gielgud, Sting, Ian McKellen, Sam Neill

'The press tell us that this film is an allegory of the fall of the British Empire. No wonder it is dreary!' – Quentin Crisp

The Plot Against Harry

US 1969 81m bw
Electric/Contemporary/King Screen (Robert Young, Michael Roemer)

Out of jail on parole, a gangster finds that business and his family are not what they were.
Put on the shelf for twenty years before its eventual release and hailed by some as a comic masterpiece, it turns out to be a moderately amusing movie that shows its age.
wd Michael Roemer ph Robert Young m Frank Lewin ad Howard Mandel ed Maurice Schell
☆ Martin Priest, Ben Lang, Maxine Woods, Henry Nemo, Jacques Taylor, Jean Leslie, Ellen Herbert, Sandra Kazan

'Harry's wit looks less deadpan than stone dead.' – Kevin Jackson, Independent

The Plot Thickens

US 1936 69m bw
RKO/William Sistrom

A murder proves to be connected with an art swindle.
Another minor case for Hildegarde Withers.
w Clarence Upson Young, Jack Townley novel Stuart Palmer d Ben Holmes ☆ James Gleason, ZaSu Pitts, Owen Davis Jnr, Louise Latimer

The Plot to Kill Roosevelt: see Teheran

The Plough and the Stars ★

US 1936 72m bw
RKO (Cliff Reid, Robert Sisk)

In 1916, a Dublin marriage is threatened by the husband's appointment as commander of the citizen army.
Rather elementary film version of the play about the Troubles; interesting for effort rather than performance, and for the talent involved.
w Dudley Nichols play Sean O'Casey d John Ford ph Joseph August m Roy Webb ☆ Barbara Stanwyck, Preston Foster, Barry Fitzgerald, Denis O'Dea, Eileen Crowe, F. J. McCormick, Arthur Shields, Una O'Connor, Moroni Olsen, J. M. Kerrigan, Bonita Granville

'Skilfully made but not impressive as a money entry.' – Variety

The Ploughman's Lunch ★★★

GB 1983 107m colour
Goldcrest/Greenpoint/AC & D (Simon Relph, Ann Scott)

Media people find their cynicism deepened after the Falklands War.
Tough and intelligent, with nice observation and twists of detail.
w Ian McEwan d Richard Eyre ph Clive Tickner m Dominic Muldowney pd Luciana Arrighi ad Michael Pickwoad ed David Martin ☆ Jonathan Pryce (James Penfield), Tim Curry (Jeremy Hancock), Rosemary Harris (Ann Barrington), Frank Finlay (Matthew Fox), Charlie Dore (Susan Barrington), David de Keyser (Gold), Nat Jackley (Mr. Penfield)

'You don't have to agree with it, but you can't ignore it.' – Daily Mail
'It quietly and persuasively suggests that we get precisely the media we deserve.' – Guardian

Plovec: see The Swimmer

The Plow that Broke the Plains ★★

US 1936 28m bw
Resettlement Administration Film Unit

The story of how overcultivation of America's Great Plains resulted in the Dust Bowl.
Classic documentary which inevitably means less now than it did at the time but is still an impressive counterpoint to The Grapes of Wrath.
wd Pare Lorenz m Virgil Thomson

Pluck of the Irish: see Great Guy

Plucking the Daisy (dubbed) ★

France 1956 100m bw
EGE/Hoche

original title: En Effeuillant la Marguerite
aka: Mam'selle Striptease

A general's daughter is forced to become a striptease performer in order to raise some much-needed money.
Pleasing comedy, designed to show off the body of Brigitte Bardot, at which it succeeds admirably.
w Marc Allégret, Roger Vadim d Marc Allégret ph Louis Page m Paul Misraki ad Alexandre Trauner ed Suzanne de Troeye
☆ Brigitte Bardot, Daniel Gélin, Robert Hirsch, Darry Cowl, Nadine Tallier, Mischa Auer Plunder ★

GB 1930 98m bw
Herbert Wilcox/British and Dominions

Two society friends turn jewel thieves to help an heiress.
Primitive talkie version of a Ben Travers farce which veered towards melodrama but had a successful stage revival at the National Theatre in 1978; valuable as a record of the original performances.
w W. P. Lipscomb d Tom Walls ph Freddie Young ☆ Tom Walls, Ralph Lynn, Robertson Hare, Winifred Shotter, Sydney Lynn, Ethel Coleridge

'Just a photographic record of the stage success.' – Variety

Plunder of the Sun ★

US 1953 81m bw
Warner (Robert Fellows)

Various criminal elements seek buried treasure among the Mexican Aztec ruins.
Interestingly located, well made, unconvincingly scripted melodrama, yet another borrowing from The Maltese Falcon.
w Jonathan Latimer novel David Dodge d John Farrow ph Jack Draper m Antonio D. Conde
☆ Glenn Ford, Diana Lynn, Francis L. Sullivan, Patricia Medina, Sean McClory, Douglass Dumbrille, Eduardo Noriega

The Plunderers

US 1948 87m bw
Republic

An undercover cavalry officer becomes friends with an outlaw who saves his life.
Routine Western, just about watchable.
w Gerald Geraghty, Gerald Drayson Adams d Joseph Kane ☆ Rod Cameron, Ilona Massey, Adrian Booth

The Plunderers

US 1960 94m bw
Allied Artists/August (Joseph Pevney)

In the old west, four juvenile delinquents take over a town.
The Wild One in period dress. Nothing in particular.
w Bob Barbash d Joseph Pevney ph Eugene Polito m Leonard Rosenman
☆ Jeff Chandler, John Saxon, Ray Stricklyn, Roger Torrey, Dee Pollock, Marsha Hunt, Dolores Hart, Jay C. Flippen, James Westerfield

'They rob the rich and ... that's it.'

Plunkett & Macleane

GB 1999 101m Technicolor
Polygram/Working Title/Arts Council (Tim Bevan, Eric Fellner, Rupert Harvey)

In 18th-century London, a highwayman teams up with a penurious aristocrat to rob the rich.
A period romp with all the class and style of a Carry On movie, though its humour is on a lower level; crass, anachronistic and trivial, it has the narrative coherence of a pop video.
w Robert Wade, Neal Purvis, Charles McKeown screenplay Selwyn Roberts d Jake Scott ph John Mathieson m Craig Armstrong pd Norris Spencer ed Oral Norrie Ottey
☆ Robert Carlyle, Jonny Lee Miller, Liv Tyler, Ken Stott, Michael Gambin, Alan Cumming, Iain Robertson, Tommy Flanagan, Stephen Walters, James Thornton, Terence Rigby

'Was this film part of some new experiment to test the lower limits of audience expectation to see how little we would accept, and how much its makers could get away with? Talk about daylight robbery.' – Tom Shone, Sunday Times

La Plus Longue Nuit du Diable: see The Devil's Nightmare

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Pluto Nash: see The Adventures of Pluto Nash

Plymouth Adventure ★

US 1952 105m Technicolor
MGM (Dore Schary)

The Pilgrim Fathers sail from Plymouth on the Mayflower and spend their first months ashore on the coast of America.
Well-meaning schoolbook history, totally unconvincing and very dull despite obvious effort all round. One or two of the actors have their moments.
w Helen Deutsch novel Ernest Gebler d Clarence Brown ph William Daniels m Miklos Rozsa
☆ Spencer Tracy, Gene Tierney, Van Johnson, Leo Genn, Dawn Addams
'It demonstrates how Hollywood can dull down as well as jazz up history.' – Judith Crist, 1973

Pocahontas

US 1995 81m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Walt Disney (James Pentecost)

Pocahontas falls in love with the British settler Captain John Smith and saves him from death.
Bad history, indifferent animation, dull songs, and an unexciting story all combine to produce a poor film, a disappointment after Disney's recent return to top form, though it still drew the crowds at the box-office and Disney stores.
w Carl Binder, Susannah Grant, Philip Lazebnik idea Mike Gabriel d Mike Gabriel, Eric Goldberg m Hawk Pope m/ly Alan Menken, Stephen Schwartz md Danny Troob, David Friedman ad Michael Giaimo ed H. Lee Patterson
☆ Featuring the voices of: Irene Bedard, Judy Kuhn, Mel Gibson, David Ogden Stiers, John Kassir, Russell Means, Christian Bale, Linda Hunt, Danny Mann, Billy Connolly
'Disney's fable of an arcadian American history wrecked by incursions from the Old World is obviously a means of allaying a bad conscience, while voicing xenophobic resentments about corrupt Europeans.' – Roy Porter, Sunday Times
'Pleasant to look at, and it will probably satisfy very small kiddies, but virtually everything in the movie is as generic as the two hygienic lovers.' – Owen Gleiberman, Entertainment Weekly
'The dullest Disney animation for years.' – Empire
† Twelve people contributed to the film's story.
†† The film took more than $317m at the box-office worldwide.
††† In real life Pocahontas was 12 when she met the 27-year-old Smith. She became the wife of a member of her tribe before leaving him when she converted to Christianity to marry John Rolfe, who took her and their son to England, where she died of smallpox.
Alan Menken (score and music), Stephen Schwartz (lyrics); song 'Colors of the Wind' (m/ly Alan Menken, Stephen Schwartz)

Pocket Money

US 1972 100m Technicolor
First Artists/Coleytown (John Foreman)

Two slow-thinking Arizona cowboys try to make money herding cattle.
Peculiar modern Western comedy drama which doesn't work.
w Terrence Malick novel Jim Kane by J. K. S. Brown d Stuart Rosenberg ph Laszlo Kovacs m Alex North ☆ Paul Newman, Lee Marvin, Strother Martin, Kelly Jean Peters, Wayne Rogers

Pocketful of Miracles

US 1961 136m Technicolor Panavision
UA/Franton (Frank Capra)

Kindly gangsters help an old apple seller to persuade her long lost daughter that she is a lady of means.
Boring, overlong remake of Lady for a Day, showing that Capra's touch simply doesn't work on the wide screen, that his themes are dated anyway, and that all the fine character actors in Hollywood are a liability unless you find them something to do.
w Hal Kanter, Harry Tugend story Damon Runyon scenario Robert Riskin d Frank Capra ph Robert Bronner m Walter Scharf
☆ Bette Davis, Glenn Ford, Hope Lange, Arthur O'Connell, Peter Falk, Thomas Mitchell, Edward Everett Horton, Sheldon Leonard, Barton MacLane, Jerome Cowan, Fritz Feld, Snub Pollard, David Brian, Ann-Margret, John Litel and also Jay Novello, Willis Bouchey, George E. Stone, Mike Mazurki, Jack Elam, Mickey Shaughnessy, Peter Mann, Frank Ferguson
'The effect is less one of whimsy than of being bludgeoned to death with a toffee apple.' – Peter John Dyer
'The story has enough cracks in it for the syrup to leak through.' – Playboy
♫ title song (m James Van Heusen, ly Sammy Cahn); Peter Falk

Poetic Justice

US 1993 109m Technicolor
Columbia TriStar (Steve Nicolaides, John Singleton)

In South Central Los Angeles, a poetry-writing beautician, upset by the murder of her boyfriend, becomes involved with a mailman and his young daughter.
A disappointing second film from the director of Boyz N The Hood, much closer to a conventional soap opera and with a clumsy and contrived narrative.
wd John Singleton ph Peter Lyons Collister m Stanley Clarke pd Keith Brian Burns ed Bruce Cannon ☆ Janet Jackson, Tupac Shakur, Regina King, Joe Torry, Tyra Ferrell, Roger Guenveur Smith, Maya Angelou, Billy Zane, Lori Petty
'The film still deals too much in stereotypes to be convincing, and can't get away from the fact that it needs a stronger storyline than this to be properly effective.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

Poet's Pub

GB 1949 79m bw
GFD/Aquila (Donald B. Wilson)

A rowing blue takes over a Tudor inn and discovers a priceless jewelled gauntlet, the wearer of which is kidnapped during the performance of a pageant.
Very thin, naïve treatment of a whimsical novel. The last film to use the Independent Frame process.
w Diana Morgan novel Eric Linklater d Frederick Wilson ph George Stretton m Clifton Parker
☆ Derek Bond, Rona Anderson, Barbara Murray, Leslie Dwyer, Joyce Grenfell

Poil de Carotte ★★★

France 1932 94m bw
Legrand Majestic/Marcel Vandal-Charles Delac

aka: The Redhead

A red-haired boy, neglected by his father and tormented by his mother, attempts suicide.
A moving and unsentimental account of childhood, notable for the performances of Baur and Lynen as father and son.
wd Julien Duvivier story Jules Renard ph Armand Thirard m Alexandre Tansman ed Marthe Poncin
☆ Harry Baur (M. Lepic), Robert Lynen (Francois, "Poil de Carotte"), Catherine Fonteney (Mme. Lepic), Louis Gouthier (Uncle), Simone Aubry (Ernestine Lepic), Maxime Fromiot (Felix Lepic), Colette Segall (Mathilde), Christiane Dor (Annette)
† The British censors banned the film for a time and in America it was restricted to adult audiences. Duvivier had made a silent version of the story in 1925. There were less successful remakes by Paul Mesnier in 1951 and Henri Graziani in 1973.

Point Blank ★

US 1967 92m Metrocolor Panavision
MGM/Judd Bernard, Irwin Winkler

A gangster takes an elaborate revenge on his cheating partner.
Extremely violent gangster thriller, well shot on location and something of a cult, but with irritating pretentiousness and obscure plot points.
w Alexander Jacobs, David Newhouse, Rafe Newhouse novel The Hunter by Richard Stark d John Boorman ph Philip Lathrop m Johnny Mandel
☆ Lee Marvin, Angie Dickinson, Keenan Wynn, Carroll O'Connor, Lloyd Bochner, Michael Strong, John Vernon, Sharon Acker
'The fragmentation was necessary to give the characters and the situation ambiguity, to suggest another meaning beyond the immediate plot.' – John Boorman
† The Outfit (qv) is a kind of sequel/reprise.

'Every Friendship Has Its Limits. Every Man Has His Breaking Point. Together They Take Adventure Past The Point Of No Return.'

Point Break

US 1991 122m DeLuxe
TCF/Largo/Tapestry (Peter Abrams, Robert L. Levy)

An FBI agent goes undercover among Californian surfers and skydivers to investigate a series of bank robberies.
Ridiculous thriller, with convoluted and unbelievable plot and a great deal of masculine posturing.
w W. Peter Iliff d Kathryn Bigelow ph Donald Peterman m Mark Isham pd Peter Jamison ed Howard Smith, Scott Conrad, Burt Lovitt
☆ Patrick Swayze, Keanu Reeves, Gary Busey, Lori Petty, John McGinley, James Le Gros, John Philbin, Bojesse Christopher, Julian Reyes
'Acts like a huge, nasty wave, picking up viewers for a few major thrills but ultimately grinding them into the sand via overkill and absurdity.' – Variety

'The Government Gave Her A Choice. Death. Or Life As An Assassin. Now, There's No Turning Back.'

Point of No Return

US 1993 108m Technicolor Panavision
Warner (Art Linson)

GB title: The Assassin

A drug addict captured by the police during a robbery is given a choice between dying or becoming a government assassin.
A remake of the French movie Nikita which apes the original in virtually every respect, yet fails to match it in interest; it says much about Hollywood, and American attitudes to subtitles, that such a pointless exercise should ever have been carried out.
w Robert Getchell, Alexandra Seros d John Badham ph Michael Watkins m Hans Zimmer, Nick Glennie-Smith pd Philip Harrison ed Frank Morriss ☆ Bridget Fonda, Gabriel Byrne, Dermot Mulroney, Miguel Ferrer, Harvey Keitel, Olivia D'Abo, Richard Romanus, Geoffrey Lewis
'A soulless, efficiently slavish remake.' – Variety

'The Film That Shocked America! Denounced As "Obscene" and "Pornographic" by the Moral Majority.'

Poison ★

US 1990 85m colour/bw
Mainline/Bronze Eye (Christine Vachon)

Three stories are interwoven: 'Hero', in which a seven-year-old boy kills his father and flies away; 'Homo', in which a jealous prisoner rapes another; 'Horror', in which a doctor creates a serum containing the sex drive, drinks it and becomes a monster.
Cleverly dealing with deviance, sexual and social, and inspired by the work of Jean Genet, it ranges in style from the risible to the repugnant.
wd Todd Haynes ph Maryse Alberti m James Bennett pd Sarah Stollman ed James Lyons, Todd Haynes
☆ 'Hero': Edith Meeks, Millie White, Buck Smith, Anne Giotta;, 'Homo': Scott Renderer, James Lyons, John R. Lombardi, Tony Pemberton, Andrew Harpending, Tony Gigante;', 'Horror': Larry Maxwell, Susan Norman, Al Quagliata, Michelle Sullivan
'A provocative look at societal outcasts and twisted behavior that can be read in ways both artistic and political.' – Variety
'A whole that is often uneven but, in less than 90 minutes, says more about desire and transgression than most more straightforward movies on that theme.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

Poison Ivy

US 1992 89m colour
New Line (Andy Ruben)

A teenage schoolgirl decides she wants the father of her best friend, which means getting rid of his invalid wife.
A heady brew of incest, lesbianism, drunkenness and death which quickly goes flat.
w Katt Shea Ruben, Andy Ruben d Katt Shea Ruben ph Phedon Papamichael m Aaron Davies pd Virginia Lee ed Gina Mittleman ☆ Drew Barrymore, Sara Gilbert, Tom Skerritt, Cheryl Ladd
'Will make audiences itch to get out of the theater and into the open.' – Variety
'The film, distinguished by a complete absence of thrills, is too turgid even to qualify as camp.' – Stephen Farber, Movieline

Poison Pen ★

GB 1939 79m bw
ABP (Walter C. Mycroft)

A village community is set at odds by a writer of vindictive anonymous letters.
Effective minor drama, with good location atmosphere.

w Doreen Montgomery, William Freshman, N. C. Hunter, Esther McCracken play Richard Llewellyn d Paul Stein
☆ Flora Robson, Reginald Tate, Robert Newton, Ann Todd, Geoffrey Toone, Belle Chrystal, Edward Chapman, Edward Rigby

'Sordid theme makes it doubtful film fare.' – Variety

'A lamentably artificial piece.' – Richard Mallett, Punch

'One boy can save the world.'

Pokémon 2: The Power of One

Japan 2000 81m DeLuxe
Pikachu Project '99-Shogakukan/4Kids (Norman J. Grossfeld, Choji Yoshikawa, Yukako Matsusako, Takemoto Mori)

A Pokémon collector upsets the balance of nature by his greed.
Another instalment of crude animation and an incomprehensible story; for fans only.
w Takeshi Shudo d Kunihiko Yuyama ph Hisao Shirai m Ralph Schuckett, John Loeffler ad Katsuyoshi Kanemura ed Jay Film ☆ voices of: Veronica Taylor, Rachael Lillis, Addie Blaustein, Eric Stuart, Ed Paul, Michelle Goguen, Eric Rath, Neil Stewart, Ikue Otani

'This film will astonish and insult you with its staggeringly poor animation.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

'This Spring The Unknown Spells Adventure'

Pokémon 3 the Movie: Spell of the Unown (dubbed)

Japan 2001 73m colour
Warner/Pikachu/Shogakukan/4Kids (Norman J. Grossfeld, Choji Yoshikawa, Yukako Matsusako, Takemoto Mori)

A professor's daughter summons up an imaginary monster to replace her father, who has been kidnapped by an abstract entity that has turned his home into crystal.
Trying to follow the convoluted narrative of a Pokemon movie is enough to give any adult a severe headache; unfortunately the only distraction offered to non-believers is substandard animation.
w Takeshi Shudo, Hideki Sonoda d Kunihiko Yuyama ph Hisao Shirai m Ralph Schuckett ad Katsuyoshi Kanemura ed Jay Film, Toshio Henmi ☆ voices of: Veronica Taylor, Rachael Lillis, Eric Stuart, Ikue Otani, Maddie Blaustein, Amy Birnbaum, Dan Green, Stan Hart

'It's doubtful that the franchise can be sustained much longer as its original fans have left for fresher anime thrills.' – Robert Koehler, Variety

Pokémon: The First Movie

Japan/US 1999 75m DeLuxe
Warner/Pikachu Project '98-Shogakukan/4Kids (Norman J. Grossfeld, Choji Yoshikawa, Tomoyuki Igarashi, Takemoto Mori)

A Pokémon trainer is invited to a championship match on an island, and discovers that it is a trap set by Mewto, a rogue Pokémon who plans to rule the world.
A critic-proof movie: the millions of Pokémon collectors will love it; all others will cringe from a poorly animated, incomprehensible, confusing story featuring oddly unpleasant creatures (and that's just the strangely-drawn human participants).
w Takeshi Shudo (English adaptation: Norman J. Grossfeld, Michael Haigney, John Touhey) characters created by Satoshi Tajiri d Kunihiko Yuyama (English adaptation d Michael Haigney) ph Hisao Shirai m Ralph Schuckett, John Loeffle ed Toshio Henmi,Yutaka Ito ☆ Featuring voices of: Veronica Taylor, Philip Bartlett, Rachael Lillis, Eric Stuart, Addie Blaustein, Ikue Otani

'Humourless, boring, impenetrable and with animation of such staggeringly low quality that it constitutes an insult to cinemagoers of all ages.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

† The film took more than $85.5m at the US box office.

Pokjaniye, Monanieba: see Repentance

Pokolenie: see Generation

Pola X

France/Germany/Japan/Switzerland 1999 134m colour
Pathe/Arena/Pola/Theo/France2/Pandora/EuroSpace/Vega (Bruno Pesery)

A wealthy young novelist gives up his privileged life after he becomes involved with a homeless immigrant who claims to be his father's illegitimate daughter.
A romantic melodrama that risks absurdity and achieves it; it cannot long sustain its level of hysteria about the horrors of modern life.
w Leos Carax, Lauren Sedofsky, Jean-Pol Fargeau novel Pierre, or, the Ambiguities by Herman Melville d Leos Carax ph Eric Gautier m Scott Walker ad Laurent Allaire ed Nelly Quettier cos Esther Walz ☆ Guillaume Depardieu (Pierre), Katerina Golubeva (Isabelle), Catherine Deneuve (Marie), Delphine Chuillot (Lucie), Petruta Catana (Razerka), Mihaella Silaghi (Little Girl), Laurent Lucas (Thibault), Patachou (Marguerite)

'An often intriguing, sometimes hypnotic work, but one that quickly starts to unravel in the final hour as it becomes clear there's not much beneath the emperor's clothes.' – Derek Elley, Variety

'Journey Beyond Your Imagination.'

The Polar Express ★

US 2004 100m Technicolor 'Scope
Warner/Castle Rock/Shangri-La/Playtone/ImageMovers/Golden Mean (Steve Starkey, Robert Zemeckis, Gary Goetzman, William Teitler)

A boy who has doubts about Santa Claus is taken on a magic train ride to the North Pole to meet him.
A technically fascinating movie for its use of 'performance capture' animation techniques to digitally create and alter its actors and sets, this weakly scripted tale about uninteresting characters soon runs out of steam.
w Robert Zemeckis, William Broyles Jnr book Chris Van Allsburg d Robert Zemeckis ph Don Burgess, Robert Presley m Alan Silvestri m/ly Glen Ballard, Alan Silvestri ch John Carrafa pd Rick Carter, Doug Chiang ed Jeremiah O'Driscoll, R. Orlando Duenas character designer Vladimir Todorov
☆ Tom Hanks (Hero Boy/Father/Conductor/ Hobo/Scrooge/Santa Claus), Michael Jeter (Smokey/Steamer), Nona Gaye (Hero Girl), Peter Scolari (Lonely Boy), Eddie Deezen (Know-it-All), Charles Fleischer (Elf General), Steven Tyler (Elf Lieutenant/Elf Singer)

'It will become a perennial, shared by the generations. It has a haunting, magical quality because it has imagined its world freshly and played true to it.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times

'A train wreck of mind-numbing proportions.' – Joe Morgenstern, Wall Street Journal

† It cost some $165m to make and took around the same amount at the US box-office.
♫ song 'Believe' (m/l Glen Ballard, Alan Silvestri); sound editing (Randy Thom, Dennis Leonard); sound mixing (Randy Thom, Tom Johnson, Dennis Sands, William B. Kaplan)

Police ★

France 1985 113m colour Panavision
Artificial Eye/Gaumont/TF1

A tough and bigoted cop, investigating Tunisian drug-dealers, falls for a suspect.
Well-directed thriller, filmed in documentary style, that was a box-office hit in France, though it offers nothing that has not been seen before.
w Catherine Breillat, Sylvie Danton, Jacques Fieschi, Maurice Pialat d Maurice Pialat ph Luciano Tovoli m Henryk Mikolaj Gorecki ad Constantin Mejinksy ed Yann Dedet, Helene Viard, Nathalie Letrosne ☆ Gérard Depardieu, Sophie Marceau, Richard Ancanina, Pascale Rocard, Sandrine Bonnaire, Franck Karoul, Jonathan Leina

'Call them what you like. Just don't call them when you're in trouble!'

Police Academy

US 1984 96m Technicolor
Paul Maslansky/Ladd Company/Warner Brothers

The mayor of an American city lifts all restrictions on entry to the police force.
Appallingly unfunny series of snippets about police training, like an American Carry On with few jokes leading to a punch line and occasional resorting to dirty bits.
w Neal Israel, Pat Proft, Hugh Wilson d Hugh Wilson
☆ Steve Guttenberg, Kim Cattrall, G. W. Bailey, Bubba Smith, Donovan Scott, George Gaynes

'Hit or miss comic juvenilia ... pure popcorn fantasy fodder.' – Paul Taylor, MFB

Police Academy 2: Their First Assignment

US 1985 87m Technicolor
Warner/Ladd (Paul Maslansky)

The new recruits foil attempts from an ambitious lieutenant to take over command.
An unambitious and dull sequel.
w Barry Blaustein, David Sheffield d Jerry Paris ph James Crabe m Robert Folk pd Trevor Williams ed Bob Wyman
☆ Steve Guttenberg, Bubba Smith, David Graf, Michael Winslow, Art Metrano, Marion Ramsey, George Gaynes

Police Academy 3: Back in Training

US 1986 82m colour
Warner (Paul Maslansky)

Rival police academies vie for survival.
Plodding comedy that recycles a few familiar, unfunny routines.
w Gene Quintano d Jerry Paris ph Robert Saad m Robert Folk pd Trevor Williams ed Bud Malin
☆ Steve Guttenberg, Bubba Smith, David Graf, Michael Winslow, Marion Ramsey, Leslie Easterbrook, George Gaynes, Bobcat Goldthwait, Art Metrano

Police Academy 4: Citizens on Patrol

US 1987 87m colour
Warner (Paul Maslansky)

A police commandant attempts to involve ordinary people in law enforcement.
A feeble comedy that makes it impossible to understand the apparent popularity of this turgid series.
w Gene Quintano d Jim Drake ph Robert Saad m Robert Folk pd Trevor Williams ed David Rawlins
☆ Steve Guttenberg, Bubba Smith, David Graf, Michael Winslow, Sharon Stone, Leslie Easterbrook, Bobcat Goldthwait, George Gaynes

'Carries the banner of tasteless humor to new heights of insipidness.' – Variety

Police Academy 5: Assignment: Miami Beach

US 1988 90m colour
Warner (Paul Maslansky)

Cops on holiday in Miami help foil a gang of jewel thieves.
Witlessness reaches a new low in a comedy devoid of laughs.
w Stephen J. Curwick d Alan Myerson ph Jim Pergola m Robert Folk pd Trevor Williams ed Hubert de la Bouillerie
☆ Matt McCoy, Janet Jones, George Gaynes, G. W. Bailey, Rene Auberjonois, Bubba Smith, David Graf, Michael Winslow, Leslie Easterbrook

Police Academy 6: City Under Siege

US 1989 84m Technicolor
Warner (Paul Maslansky)

The police squad track down a criminal mastermind responsible for a massive crime wave.
Farcical, broadly acted comedy that does raise an occasional smile.
w Stephen J. Curwick d Peter Bonerz ph Charles Rosher Jnr m Robert Folk pd Tho E. Azzari ed Hubert de la Bouillerie
☆ Bubba Smith, David Graf, Michael Winslow, Leslie Easterbrook, Marion Ramsey, Lance Kinsey, Matt McCoy, Bruce Mahler, G. W. Bailey, George Gaynes, Kenneth Mars

Police Academy 7: Mission to Moscow

US 1994 83m colour
Warner (Paul Maslansky)

Members of the Police Academy go to Moscow to deal with the Russian mafia's plans to take over the world.
Witless romp that is by far the worst of the series, and they don't come any worse than that.
w Randolph Davis, Michele S. Chodos d Alan Metter ph Ian Jones m Robert Folk pd Frederic Weiler ed Denise Hill, Suzanne Hines
☆ George Gaynes, Michael Winslow, David Graf, Leslie Easterbrook, G. W. Bailey, Charlie Schlatter, Christopher Lee, Ron Perlman, Claire Forlani

'An inept, geriatric romp that's for completists only.' – Variety

† The film flopped at the box-office.

Police Dog
GB 1955 70m bw
Westridge (Harold Huth)
A policeman trains a stray to become a police dog and tracks down the thief who murdered his friend.
Semi-documentary on the theme that our police dogs are wonderful; Christopher Lee makes a brief appearance as a frightened constable.
wd Derek Twist ph Cedric Williams md Bretton Byrd ad Duncan Sutherland ed Gordon Pilkington
☆ Joan Rice, Tim Turner, Sandra Dorne, Charles Victor, Nora Gordon, Cecil Brock, John Le Mesurier, James Gilbert, Christopher Lee, Rex III

Police Force: see Police Story (1985)

Police Story (dubbed) ★
Hong Kong 1985 85m colour
Golden Harvest/Paragon (Leonard Ho)
original title: Jingcha Gushi
US title: Police Force
A cop is given the task of guarding a witness who is the girlfriend of a drug-dealing gangster.
Standard cops and robbers martial arts mayhem, enlivened by some spectacular stunts and chases.
w Edward Tang d Jackie Chan ph Cheung Yiu Joe m Kevin Bassingson ad Oliver Wong ed Peter Cheung
☆ Jackie Chan, Brigitte Lin, Maggie Cheung, Cho Yuen, Bill Tung, Kenneth Tong
† The film was cut by 15 minutes for its release on video cassette.

Police Story II (dubbed)
Hong Kong 1988 92m colour
Golden Harvest/Paragon (Leonard Ho)
Demoted to traffic cop, a former detective is re-instated to combat a gang extorting money from big business.
The mixture as before: elaborately choreographed fights and broad comedy, but lacking the set-pieces of the first film.
w Jackie Chan, Edward Tang d Jackie Chan ph Cheung Yiu Joe, Lee Yau Tong m Michael Lai pd Oliver Wong ed Peter Cheung
☆ Jackie Chan, Maggie Cheung, Bill Tung, Lam Kwok Hung, Charles Chao, Cho Yuen

Police Story III: Supercop
Hong Kong 1992 93m colour
Golden Way (Willie Chan, Tang King-Sung)
An undercover Hong Kong cop infiltrates a gang of drug smugglers with the aid of the Chinese police and a glamorous inspector.
Some spectacular stunts add interest to a familiar story, which is given an extra topical twist with its references to the takeover of Hong Kong by mainland China.
w Tang King-Sung, Ma Mei-Ping, Lee Wei-Yee d Stanley Tong ph Lam Kwok-Wah m Lee Chung Sing ad Oliver Wong ed Cheung Yaeo-Chung, Cheung Kai Fei
☆ Jackie Chan, Michelle Yeaoh, Maggie Cheung, Tsang Kong, Yuen Wah, Lo Lieh
'An okay adventure.' – Variety

The Polish Bride ★★
Netherlands 1998 90m
Artificial Eye/Motel/IJswater/VPRO (Marc Bary, Ilana Netiv, Jeroen Beker, Frans van Gestel) original title: De Poolse Bruid
A farmer shelters a fugitive Polish woman, on the run from her brutal employers.
A spare film, of affection developing between two isolated people amid a flat landscape. The dialogue is minimal, but much is conveyed by simple gestures; it yields quiet pleasures.
w Kees van de Hulst d Karim Traidia ph Jacques Laureys m Fons Merkies ad Anne Winterink ed Chris Teerink ☆ Jaap Spijkers (Henk Woldring), Monic Hendricks (Anna), Rudi Falkenhagen (Father), Roef Ragas (Son), Hakim Traidia (Postman), Soraya Traidia (Krystyna)
'The surprise is how tightly all-of-a-piece it is, and, from the first to the last shot, how totally absorbing.' – Alexander Walker, London Evening Standard

Polish Wedding
US 1998 107m DeLuxe
Fox Searchlight/Lakeshore (Tom Rosenberg, Julia Chasman, Geoff Stier)
Tensions erupt in a large working-class Polish family in Detroit when the only daughter becomes pregnant.
Boisterous comic drama, full of a forced vitality and soap opera situations; its cast tries hard to elevate it above triteness.
wd Theresa Connelly ph Guy Dufaux m Luis Bacalov pd Kara Lindstrom ed Curtiss Clayton, Suzanne Fenn ☆ Lena Olin, Gabriel Byrne, Claire Danes, Adam Trese, Mili Avital, Daniel Lapaine, Steven Petrarca, Jeffrey Nordling, Ramsey Krull, Rade Serbedzija
'A movie of gratifying small moments, some of which are hilariously funny and charged with healthy eroticism.' – Emanuel Levy, Variety

The Politic Flapper: see The Patsy

Politics
US 1931 71m bw
MGM
Two small-town women get into politics to fight racketeers.
Scrappy star comedy which probably seemed funnier at the time.
w Robert E. Hopkins, Wells Root, Zelda Sears, Malcolm Stuart Boylan d Charles F. Reisner
☆ Marie Dressler, Polly Moran, Roscoe Ates, Karen Morley, William Bakewell, John Miljan
'Loaded with technical faults, but it has too many laugh moments to fail to sock the b.o.' – Variety

Pollock ★★
US 2000 122m colour
Columbia TriStar/Brant-Allen/Zeke Films/Ed Harris, Fred Berner Films
Biopic of artist Jackson Pollock from his early struggles, his success as an action painter, and untimely death.
Pollock's life, as a man who embraced painting, women and drink wuth great passion, suits this formulaic movie approach to the artist as tormented genius; an abrasive script and committed performances lift it above the ordinary.
w Barbara Turner, Susan J. Emshwiller book Jackson Pollock: An American Saga by Steven Naifeh, Gregory White Smith d Ed Harris ph Lisa Rinzler m Jeff Beal pd Mark Friedberg ed Kathryn Himoff
☆ Ed Harris (Jackson Pollock), Marcia Gay Harden (Lee Krasner), Amy Madigan (Peggy Guggenheim), Jennifer Connelly (Ruth Kligman), Jeffrey Tambor (Clement Greenberg), Bud Cort (Howard Putzel), John Heard (Tony Smith), Val Kilmer (William DeKooning)
'Admirable. It reminds us that great art isn't about creating beauty out of misty-eyed Hallmark moments but about discovering and communicating messy truths that spill all over the place, just like the lives of the artists driven to uncover them.' – Stephen Holden, New York Times
Marcia Gay Harden
Ed Harris

Polly Fulton: see BF's Daughter

Polly of the Circus
US 1932 72m bw
MGM (Paul Bern)
A trapeze artiste falls for the local minister, but incurs disapproval from his bishop.
Elementary romance reminiscent of silent drama.
w Carey Wilson play Margaret Mayo d Alfred Santell ph George Barnes m William Axt
☆ Marion Davies, Clark Gable, C. Aubrey Smith, Raymond Hatton, David Landau, Maude Eburne, Guinn Williams, Ray Milland 'Frail entertainment with both leads miscast.' – Variety

Pollyanna ★
US 1960 134m Technicolor
Walt Disney (George Golitzen)
A 12-year-old orphan girl cheers up the grumps of the small town where she comes to live.
Well cast but overlong and rather humourless remake of a children's classic from an earlier age.
wd David Swift novel Eleanor Porter ph Russell Harlan m Paul Smith ad Carroll Clark, Robert Clatworthy ☆ Hayley Mills, Jane Wyman, Karl Malden, Nancy Olson, Adolphe Menjou, Donald Crisp, Agnes Moorehead, Richard Egan, Kevin Corcoran, James Drury, Reta Shaw, Leora Dana
'Even Hayley Mills can neither prevent one from sympathizing with the crusty aunts, hermits, vicars and hypochondriacs who get so forcibly cheered up, nor from feverishly speculating whether films like this don't run the risk of inciting normally kind and gentle people into certain excesses of violent crime – child murder, for instance.' – MFB
special award to Hayley Mills for 'the most outstanding juvenile performance'

'It knows what scares you!'

Poltergeist ★★
US 1982 114m Metrocolor Panavision
MGM/SLM (Steven Spielberg)
Suburban life is disrupted when through her TV set a young girl releases unpleasant forces from the cemetery over which the modern estate was built.
Skilful but dramatically thin and sometimes rather nasty horror movie in which the producer's hand seems often to have controlled the director's. Misjudgment must be the reason that it was not the huge success intended.
w Steven Spielberg, Michael Grais, Mark Victor d Tobe Hooper ph Matthew F. Leonetti m Jerry Goldsmith ed Michael Kahn ☆ JoBeth Williams, Craig T. Nelson, Beatrice Straight, Dominique Dunne, Oliver Robbins music, visual effects (Richard Edlund, Michael Wood, Bruce Nicholson)

Poltergeist II
US 1986 90m Metrocolor Panavision
MGM-UA/Freddie Fields/Victor-Grais
The family from Poltergeist is in for more trouble when Grandma dies and they begin receiving phone messages from the other side.
More pointless spine-shivering: good technical effects but no message of any kind, not even entertainment.
w Mark Victor, Michael Grais d Brian Gibson ph Andrew Laszlo pd Ted Haworth ☆ JoBeth Williams, Craig T. Nelson, Heather O'Rourke, Oliver Robins, Julian Beck

'He's found her.'

Poltergeist III
US 1988 98m Astrocolor
UIP/MGM-UA (Barry Bernardi)
A young child living in Chicago is haunted by an evil ghost who takes her and others into another dimension.
Lacklustre sequel, with only the occasional effective shock to recommend it.
w Gary Shearman, Brian Taggert d Gary Shearman ph Alex Nepomniaschy m Joe Renzetti pd Paul Eads ed Ross Albert
☆ Tom Skerritt, Nancy Allen, Heather O'Rourke, Zelda Rubinstein, Lara Flynn Boyle, Kip Wentz, Richard Fire

Polyester
US 1981 86m colour Odorama
New Line (John Waters)
A Baltimore housewife with a dysfunctional family finds true love elsewhere.
Camp comedy, where the fun, such as it is, lies in the exaggerated performances.
wd John Waters ph David Insley m Chris Stein, Michael Kamen ad Vincent Paranio ed Charles Roggero ☆ Divine, Tab Hunter, Edith Massey, Mink Stole, David Samson, Joni Ruth White, May Garlington, Stiv Bators, Ken King, Hans Kramm

Ponette ★
France 1996 97m colour
Les Films Alain Sarde/Rhône-Alpes Cinéma
A four-year-old girl tries to come to terms with the death of her mother in a car crash.
An unsettling film, partly because of doubts over the methods used to extract such an astonishing, emotional, tearful performance from its young protagonist, but also because of the harshness it exhibits – all the adults behave inappropriately – and its final lurch into banal fantasy.
wd Jacques Doillon ph Caroline Champetier m Philippe Sarde ad Henri Berthon ed Jacqueline Lecompte ☆ Victoire Thivisol, Marie Trintignant, Claire Nebout, Xavier Beauvois, Matiaz Bureau Caton, Delphine Schiltz, Léopoldine Serre, Luckie Royer, Carla Ibled, Antoine du Merle
'A magical, poetic and, at times, surreal psychological study of a child's emotional landscape.' – Helen Van Kruyssen, Film Review † Victoire Thivisol won the best actress award at the Venice Film Festival in 1996.

Pontiac Moon
US 1994 107m DeLuxe
Paramount (Robert Schaffel, Youssef Vahabzadeh)

In 1969, a teacher, worried about his agoraphobic wife's effect on his young son, decides to drive him on a 1,776-mile journey, which will bring his Pontiac car's mileage up to 238,857 miles, the distance to the moon, and so celebrate the Apollo landing and moonwalk.
Flimsy road movie that settles for easy sentimentality.
w Finn Taylor, Jeffrey Brown d Peter Medak ph Thomas Kloss m Randy Edelman pd Jeffrey Beecroft ed Anne V. Coates
☆ Ted Danson, Mary Steenburgen, Ryan Todd, Eric Schweig, Cathy Moriarty, Max Gail, Lisa Jane Persky
'Inane whimsy.' – Sight and Sound

Pontius Pilate
Italy/France 1961 100m Technicolor
Glomer Film/Lux (Enzo Merolle) original title: Ponzio Pilato
Pontius Pilate runs into political and personal problems while trying to govern Israel.
Pilate's love-life is given prominence over Jesus's trial and crucifixion, although both receive standard Italian sword-and-sandals treatment to reduce them to banality. Barrymore doubles as Judas and Jesus (who is seen only from the back).
w Gino de Santis, Ivo Perilli, Oreste Biancoli, Gian Paolo Callegari, Guglielmo Santangelo, Josette France, Guy Elmes d Irving Rapper ph Massimo Dallamano m A. Francesco Lavagnino
☆ Jean Marais, Jeanne Crain, Basil Rathbone, Letitia Roman, John Drew Barrymore, Massimo Serato

Pony Express ★
US 1953 101m Technicolor
Paramount (Nat Holt)
In 1860 Buffalo Bill Cody and Wild Bill Hickok are sent to establish pony express stations across California.
Standard Western which tells a factual tale adequately if rather slowly.
w Charles Marquis Warren d Jerry Hopper ph Ray Rennahan m Paul Sawtell ☆ Charlton Heston, Forrest Tucker, Rhonda Fleming, Jan Sterling

Pony Soldier
US 1952 82m Technicolor
TCF (Samuel G. Engel)
GB title: MacDonald of the Canadian Mounties
The Mounties settle the hash of Canadian Indian renegades who have been causing trouble on the American border.
Mediocre outdoor adventure.
w John C. Higgins d Joseph M. Newman ph Harry Jackson m Alex North ☆ Tyrone Power, Cameron Mitchell, Robert Horton, Thomas Gomez, Penny Edwards, Adeline de Walt Reynolds

Ponzio Pilato: see Pontius Pilate

'Heffa nice day.'

Pooh's Heffalump Movie
US 2005 68m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Walt Disney (Jessica Koplos-Miller)
Pooh and his friends are worried that a heffalump has invaded their territory.
Disney has sucked all the charm and humour from Milne's creations, substituting flimsy, garishly coloured creations that only the very small and easily pleased will be able to tolerate.
w Brian Hohlfeld, Evan Spiliotopoulos characters created by A. A. Milne d Frank Nissen m Joel McNeely m/ly Carly Simon ad Tony Pulham ed Robert Fisher Jnr, Anthony F. Rocco ☆ voices of: Jim Cummings (Winnie the Pooh/ Tigger), John Fiedler (Piglet), Nikita Hopkins (Roo), Kath Soucie (Kanga), Ken Sansom (Rabbit), Peter Cullen (Eeyore), Brenda Blethyn (Mama Heffalump)
'So insubstantial that it practically evaporates on screen.' – Joe Leydon, Variety

Pookie: see The Sterile Cuckoo

Pool of London
GB 1950 85m bw
Ealing (Michael Relph)
A smuggling sailor gets involved in murder.
Routine semi-documentary police thriller with locations in London docks decorating a standard piece of thick ear.
w Jack Whittingham, John Eldridge d Basil Dearden ph Gordon Dines m John Addison ☆ Bonar Colleano, Susan Shaw, Earl Cameron, Renée Asherson, Moira Lister, Max Adrian, James Robertson Justice, Joan Dowling
'Done with such imagination, humour and visual attractiveness as to hold the pleased attention of all who like to use their eyes and their ears.' – Richard Mallett, Punch

De Poolse Bruid: see The Polish Bride

'A love story about a girl, the man she is living for, and the man she is living with.'

Poor Cow ★
GB 1967 101m Eastmancolor
Anglo Amalgamated/Vic/Fenchurch (Joe Janni)
The dismal life of a young London mother who lives in squalor with her criminal husband.
Television-style fictional documentary determined to rub one's nose in the mire. Innovative and occasionally striking but not very likeable.
w Nell Dunn, Ken Loach novel Nell Dunn d Ken Loach ph Brian Probyn m Donovan ☆ Carol White, Terence Stamp, John Bindon, Kate Williams, Queenie Watts
'A superficial, slightly patronizing excursion into the nether realms of social realism.' – Jan Dawson

Poor Little Rich Girl ★
US 1936 79m bw
TCF (Darryl F. Zanuck)
A child is separated from her father and joins a radio singing act.
Pleasing star vehicle with all the expected elements, adapted from a Mary Pickford vehicle of 1917.
w Sam Hellman, Gladys Lehman, Harry Tugend d Irving Cummings ph John Seitz songs Mack Gordon, Harry Revel ☆ Shirley Temple, Jack Haley, Alice Faye, Gloria Stuart, Michael Whalen, Sara Haden, Jane Darwell, Claude Gillingwater, Henry Armetta

'Too cool for words.'

Pootie Tang
US 2001 81m DeLuxe
Paramount/MTV/Alphaville/3 Arts (Chris Rock, David Gale, Ali LeRoi, Cotty Chubb)
Adventures of a street-wise superhero who talks in a black vernacular no one can understand.
Based on a TV sketch, this is humour that doesn't travel far, particularly in such a ramshackle vehicle as this.
wd Louis C. K. ph Willy Kurant m QD3, Prince Paul pd Amy Silver ed Doug Abel, David Lewis Smith
☆ Lance Crouther (Pootie Tang), Jennifer Coolidge (Ireenie), Wanda Sykes (Biggie Shorty), Robert Vaughn (Dick Lecter), Chris Rock (J. B.), Dave Attell (Frank), Reg E. Cathey (Dirty Dee), J. B. Smoove (Trucky)
'You watch in puzzlement: How did this train wreck happen? How was this movie assembled out of such ill-fitting pieces? Who thought it was funny? Who thought it was finished? For that matter, was it finished?' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times
'Has the distinction of being one of the most amateurish features ever released by a major studio.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

Pop Always Pays
US 1940 65m bw
RKO/Bert Gilroy
Pop promises to match his future son-in-law's savings, but runs into a business slump.
Minor comedy which accelerates into frantic farce, but the star was always funnier at two-reel length.
w Charles E. Roberts d Leslie Goodwins ph Jack MacKenzie md Paul Sawtell ☆ Leon Errol, Dennis O'Keefe, Adele Pearce, Walter Catlett, Marjorie Gateson, Tom Kennedy

'It's cinema, but not as you know it.'

Popcorn
UK 2007 88m
Miracle/Spark/DMS/The Content Providers/Screen East/Moviehouse Entertainment (Daniel M. San, Darren Paul Fisher)
A teenage boy has a crush on an usherette at his local multiplex and takes a job there to pursue her.
Lame British rom-com, devoid of wit and one that portrays going to the cinema as a pointless experience.
wd Darren Paul Fisher ph Nemone Mercer m Paul Leonard-Morgan pd Katie Carter ad Mari Lucaccini ed Christopher Mill
☆ Jack Ryder (Danny), Jodi Albert (Suki), Andrew Lee Potts (Kris), Luke de Wolfson (Zak), Kate Maberly (Annie)
'It seems unlikely that many ushers and usherettes will be kept busy by this one.' – Anna Smith, Sight & Sound

Pope Joan
GB 1972 132m Eastmancolor
Panavision
Big City Productions/Kurt Unger
aka: The Devil's Impostor
The legend of a ninth-century German semi-prostitute who discovered a vocation to preach and was made Pope.
Uninspiring pageant, brutish and rather silly, full of would-be medieval sensationalism.
w John Briley d Michael Anderson ph Billy Williams m Maurice Jarre pd Elliott Scott
☆ Liv Ullmann, Trevor Howard, Olivia de Havilland, Maximilian Schell, Keir Dullea, Robert Beatty, Franco Nero, Patrick Magee

'In the tradition of the great religious epics, Ben Hur, The Greatest Story Ever Told and 9½ Weeks, comes a film that breaks all Ten Commandments and a few laws of nature.'

The Pope Must Die
GB 1991 99m colour
Palace/Michael White/Miramax/British Film/Film Four (Stephen Woolley)
US title: The Pope Must Diet
Through an error, a former car mechanic, rock singer and inept priest becomes Pope and tries to clean up a Vatican infiltrated by the Mafia.
Farcical and misfiring comedy, a poor attempt at a parody of gangster films.
w Peter Richardson, Pete Richens d Peter Richardson ph Frank Gell m Anne Dudley, Jeff Beck pd John Ebden ed Katharine Wenning
☆ Robbie Coltrane, Beverly D'Angelo, Herbert Lom, Alex Rocco, Paul Bartel, Balthazar Getty, William Hootkins, Robert Stephens, Annette Crosbie, Steve O'Donnell, John Sessions

The Pope of Greenwich Village
US 1984 120m Metrocolor
MGM-UA/Koch-Kirkwood (Benjy Rosenberg)
In New York, Charlie and his cousin Paulie become thieves and fall foul of the Mafia.
Back again to the mean streets of the east side, but with nothing at all new to add to the scores of indistinguishable real-life melodramas of this kind.
w Vincent Patrick novel Vincent Patrick d Stuart Rosenberg ph John Bailey m Dave Grusin pd Paul Sylbert
☆ Eric Roberts, Mickey Rourke, Daryl Hannah, Geraldine Page, Kenneth McMillan, Tony Musante, M. Emmet Walsh, Burt Young Geraldine Page (supporting actress)

Popeye
US 1980 114m colour
Paramount/Disney (Robert Evans)
Popeye returns to Sweethaven in search of the father who abandoned him.
Lamentable attempt by an ill-chosen director to humanize and sentimentalize a celebrated cartoon character who doesn't get into the expected physical action until the film is nearly over.
w Jules Feiffer, from characters created by E. C. Segar d Robert Altman ph Giuseppe Rotunno m/ly Harry Nilsson pd Wolf Kroeger
☆ Robin Williams, Shelley Duvall, Ray Walston, Paul Dooley
'The picture doesn't come together, and much of it is cluttered, squawky, and eerily unfunny.' – Pauline Kael, New Yorker

Popi ★
US 1969 113m DeLuxe
UA/Leonard Films (Herbert B. Leonard)
Adventures of a cheerful inhabitant of New York's Puerto Rican ghetto.
Ethnic comedy-drama of the kind that has since found its way in abundance into American TV series. Very competently done for those who like it, e.g. Puerto Ricans.
w Tina and Lester Pine d Arthur Hiller ph Ross Lowell m Dominic Frontière ☆ Alan Arkin, Rita Moreno, Miguel Alejandro, Ruben Figuero
'An appropriately disenchanted view of an immigrant's struggling ambitions in the Promised Land.' – Richard Combs

Popiol y Diament: see Ashes and Diamonds

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Poppy ★

US 1936 74m bw
Paramount (Paul Jones)
An itinerant medicine-seller sets up his stall in a small town where his daughter falls in love with the mayor's son.
Clumsily but heavily plotted vehicle for W. C. Fields, who as usual has great moments but seems to rob the show of its proper pace.
w Waldemar Young, Virginia Van Upp play Dorothy Donnelly d A. Edward Sutherland ph William Mellor m Frederick Hollander
☆ W. C. Fields, Rochelle Hudson, Richard Cromwell, Granville Bates, Catherine Doucet, Lynne Overman, Maude Eburne
'Antique hokum trussed up for a Fields vehicle.' – Literary Digest
'To watch Mr Fields, as Dickensian as anything Dickens ever wrote, is a form of escape for poor human creatures: we who are haunted by pity, by fear, by our sense of right and wrong, who are tongue-tied by conscience, watch with envious love this free spirit robbing the gardener of ten dollars, cheating the country yokels by his own variant of the three-card trick, faking a marriage certificate, and keeping up all the time, in the least worthy and the most embarrassing circumstances, his amazing flow of inflated sentiments.' – Graham Greene, The Spectator

Porgy and Bess ★

US 1959 138m Technicolor Todd-AO
Columbia/Samuel Goldwyn
A slum girl falls in love with a crippled beggar.
Negro opera about the inhabitants of Catfish Row; full of interest for music lovers, but not lending itself very readily to screen treatment.
w N. Richard Nash play Porgy by DuBose and Dorothy Heyward libretto DuBose Heyward d Otto Preminger ph Leon Shamroy m George Gershwin md André Previn, Ken Darby ch Hermes Pan ly DuBose Heyward, Ira Gershwin
☆ Sidney Poitier, Dorothy Dandridge, Sammy Davis Jnr, Pearl Bailey, Brock Peters, Diahann Carroll, Clarence Muse
† Diahann Carroll's vocals were dubbed by Loulie Jean Norman, Dorothy Dandridge's by Adele Addison, and Sidney Poitier's by Robert McFerrin.
♟ André Previn, Ken Darby
♙ Leon Shamroy

'Bold! blunt! blustering! the battle picture without equal!'

Pork Chop Hill ★

US 1959 97m bw
United Artists/Melville/Lewis Milestone
The Americans in Korea take a vital hill but the colonel in command finds it difficult to hold.
Ironic war film with vivid spectacle separated by much talk.
w James R. Webb d Lewis Milestone ph Sam Leavitt m Leonard Rosenman pd Nicolai Remisoff ☆ Gregory Peck, Harry Guardino, George Shibata, Woody Strode, James Edwards, Rip Torn, George Peppard, Barry Atwater, Robert Blake

Porky's

Canada 1982 98m colour
Melvin Simon/Astral Bellevue Pathé/Porky's Productions/ (Don Carmody, Bob Clark)
In Florida in the early fifties, high school boys try to get into a local brothel.
Ghastly teenage goings-on taking cinema bad taste just about as far as it will get.
wd Bob Clark ph Reginald H. Morris m Carl Zittrer, Paul Zaza pd Reuben Freed ☆ Dan Monahan, Mark Herrier, Wyatt Knight, Roger Wilson, Kim Cattrall, Art Hindle, Wayne Maunder, Alex Karras, Nancy Parsons
'It is difficult to say which is the more depressing: the technical expertise with which this mind-numbing tripe has been put together, or its great success at the US box office.' – Jo Imeson, MFB
'One of those movies that makes you weep for the state of the contemporary commercial cinema – and, even more, for the gullibility of the public that pays to see it.' – Margaret Hinxman, Daily Mail
† Porky's 2 followed in 1983 and was even worse. 1985 brought Porky's Revenge, about which there is nothing to be said.

Le Pornographe

France/Canada 2001 111m colour
Metro Tartan/Haut & Court/In Extremis (Carole Scotta)
aka: The Pornographer
A retired pornographic film maker returns to work in order to sort out his life.
Gloomy, pretentious, solemn and extremely boring, this is the sort of production that gives arthouse films a bad name.
wd Bertrand Bonello ph Josée Deshaies m Laurie Markovitch ad Romain Denis ed Fabrice Rouaud cos Romane Bohringer
☆ Jean-Pierre Léaud (Jacques), Jérémie Renier (Joseph), Dominique Blanc (Jeanne), Thibault De Montalembert (Richard), André Marcon (Louis), Catherine Mouchet (Olivia Riochet)
'A laboured affair, lacking humour and insight.' – Philip French, Observer
† The BBFC cut some 11 seconds from the British release.

The Pornographer: see Le Pornographe

The Pornographer

US 1999 86m colour
Integrity (Doug Atchison)
A 25 year-old sex-obsessed legal executive who is a failure with women decides to make his own pornographic movies.
Risibly simple-minded cautionary tale that is unconvincing on every level.
wd Doug Atchison ph Christopher Mosio m Warner David Jansen pd Dan Haberkorn
☆ Michael DeGood (Paul Ryan), Craig Wasson (Spano), Monique Parent (Charise), Katheryn Cain (Kate), Todd Feder (Randy), Marjorie Harris (Teresa), Kelly Stone (Natalie), George Hertzberg (Tom)
'Extremely naive... a film that has little new to say.' – Emanuel Levy, Variety

Porridge ★

GB 1979 93m Eastmancolor
Black Lion/Witzend
US title: Doing Time
Two convicts at Slade Prison become unwilling participants in a break-out.
Genial expansion of a successful TV series to the big screen; alas, as usual the material is stretched to snapping point, and the welcome irony of the original becomes sentimentality. Still, the film is a valuable record of memorable characters.
w Dick Clement, Ian La Frenais d Dick Clement ph Bob Huke md Terry Oates ☆ Ronnie Barker, Richard Beckinsale, Fulton Mackay, Brian Wilde, Peter Vaughan, Geoffrey Bayldon, Julian Holloway

Port Afrique

GB 1956 92m Technicolor
David E. Rose/Columbia
In Morocco, an American pilot solves the shooting of his wife.
Tropical variation on The Maltese Falcon and The Blue Dahlia; not much cop on its own account.
w Frank Partos, John Cresswell novel Bernard Victor Dyer d Rudolph Maté ph Wilkie Cooper m Malcolm Arnold
☆ Phil Carey, Pier Angeli, Dennis Price, Eugene Deckers, James Hayter, Rachel Gurney, Anthony Newley

Port of Call ★

Sweden 1948 99m bw
Svensk Filmindustri
original title: Hamnstad
A sailor who quits the sea begins an affair with a lonely and unhappy girl recently released from reform school.
A tough and perceptive drama of class, conventions and relationships, particularly a destructive one between mother and daughter, shot in a documentary style against a background of docks.
wd Ingmar Bergman story Olle Länsberg ph Gunnar Fischer m Erland von Koch ad Nils Svenwall ed Oscar Rosander
☆ Nine Christine Jönsson, Bengt Eklund, Berta Hall, Mimi Nelson, Birgitta Valberg, Sif Ruud, Else Merete Heiberg

Port of New York ★

US 1949 82m bw
Eagle Lion (Aubrey Schenck)
A woman narcotics smuggler determines to betray her colleagues to the authorities.
Good routine semi-documentary thick ear, notable for an early appearance by Yul Brynner as villain-in-chief.
w Eugene Ling d Laslo Benedek ph George E. Diskant m Sol Kaplan
☆ Scott Brady, Richard Rober, K. T. Stevens, Yul Brynner

Port of Seven Seas ★

US 1938 81m bw
MGM (Henry Henigson)
Love on the Marseilles waterfront.
Stagey Hollywoodization of Pagnol's Marius trilogy: some vigour shows through.
w Preston Sturges d James Whale ph Karl Freund m Franz Waxman ☆ Wallace Beery, Frank Morgan, Maureen O'Sullivan, John Beal, Jessie Ralph, Cora Witherspoon
'Genuine and touching drama ... strong solo biller.' – Variety

Port of Shadows: see Quai des Brumes

Porte des Lilas ★

France/Italy 1957 95m bw Filmsonor/Rizzoli (Jacques Plante)
aka: Gate of Lilacs
A gangster on the run shelters in a poor quarter of Paris, but his treachery is his undoing.
Atmospheric comedy-drama put across with the expected style but providing very little to smile at.
w René Clair, Jean Aurel novel La Grande Ceinture by René Fallet d René Clair ph Robert Le Fèbvre m Georges Brassens
☆ Pierre Brasseur, Georges Brassens, Henri Vidal, Dany Carrel, Raymond Bussières, Amedée, Alain Bouvette

Les Portes de la Nuit ★

France 1946 106m bw
Pathé Cinema
aka: Gates of Night
Various people in post-war Paris are drawn into a pattern woven by Destiny – who appears as a melancholy tramp.
A polished piece of post-war gloom, and the archetype of all films noirs of the period. The beginning, also, of its director's decline.
w Jacques Prévert d Marcel Carné ph Philippe Agostini m Joseph Kosma ad Alexander Trauner
☆ Pierre Brasseur, Yves Montand, Nathalie Nattier, Serge Reggiani, Jean Vilar, Saturnin Fabre, Mady Berry, Dany Robin
† One of the few films to have been based on a ballet – Le Rendezvous by Prévert. Oddly enough its realistic scenes of daily life are among its most successful elements.

Les Portes Tournantes: see The Revolving Doors

'From the pages of Faith Baldwin's greatest story comes this tense, moving drama of a woman who faced the world, alone, for love...'

Portia on Trial ★

US 1937 83m bw
Republic
GB title: The Trial of Portia Merriman
A lady lawyer uses her skills in the courtroom to right the personal wrongs done to her years before.
Efficient tearjerker, Madame X style, and one of the comparatively big productions Republic occasionally tried.
w Sam Ornitz, E. E. Paramore Jnr novel Faith Baldwin d George Nicholls Jnr m Alberto Colombo ☆ Frieda Inescort, Walter Abel, Neil Hamilton, Heather Angel, Ruth Donnelly, Barbara Pepper, Clarence Kolb
'A distinguished production: exploitation required to overcome title and no-name handicap.' – Variety
♙ Alberto Colombo

Portnoy's Complaint

US 1972 101m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Chehnault (Ernest Lehman)
A young New York Jewish boy has mother and masturbation problems.
Foolhardy attempt to film a fashionably sensational literary exercise; one of Hollywood's last attempts – thank goodness – to be 'with it'.
wd Ernest Lehman novel Philip Roth ph Philip Lathrop m Michel Legrand ☆ Richard Benjamin, Karen Black, Lee Grant, Jack Somack, Jill Clayburgh, Jeannie Berlin
'The spectator is forced into the doubly uncomfortable position of a voyeur who can't actually see anything.' – Jan Dawson

Portrait from Life

GB 1948 90m bw
GFD/Gainsborough (Antony Darnborough)
US title: The Girl in the Painting
In an art gallery, a German professor recognizes a portrait as that of his daughter, lost during the war in Germany, and after a search discovers her to have been an amnesiac under the protection of a leading Nazi.
Tolerable melodrama with similarities to The Seventh Veil (the girl has to choose between four men).
w Frank Harvey Jnr, Muriel and Sydney Box

d Terence Fisher ph Jack Asher
m Benjamin Frankel
☆ Mai Zetterling, Robert Beatty, Guy Rolfe, Herbert Lom, Patrick Holt

Portrait in Black ★

US 1960 113m Eastmancolor
U-I/Ross Hunter

An elderly shipping tycoon is murdered by his wife and doctor, but they are blackmailed.

Absurd old-fashioned melodrama of dark doings among the idle rich. Quite entertaining for addicts.

w Ivan Goff, Ben Roberts d Michael Gordon ph Russell Metty m Frank Skinner ad Richard H. Riedel ed Milton Carruth
☆ Lana Turner, Anthony Quinn, Richard Basehart, Anna May Wong, Lloyd Nolan, Sandra Dee, John Saxon, Ray Walston, Virginia Grey

'Connoisseurs of the higher tosh should find it irresistible.' – Penelope Houston

Portrait in Smoke: see Wicked as They Come

Portrait of a Hitman: see Jim Buck

The Portrait of a Lady ★ ③

GB/US 1996 144m Technicolor Panavision
Polygram/Propaganda (Monty Montgomery, Steve Golin)

In Europe in the 1870s, an American heiress makes an unhappy marriage.

Cool and uninvolving version of a classic novel which never quite gets to grips with its drama of a woman who unexpectedly loses her independence to a domineering husband, not helped by the miscasting of its central roles.

w Laura Jones novel Henry James d Jane Campion ph Stuart Dryburgh
m Wojciech Kilar pd Janet Patterson ed Veronika Jenet
☆ Nicole Kidman, John Malkovich, Martin Donovan, Barbara Hershey, Mary-Louise Parker, Shelley Winters, Richard E. Grant, Shelley Duvall, Viggo Mortensen, Christian Bale, John Gielgud

'Like a Merchant Ivory movie where there's nothing you'd want to buy; it's one of those movies where I want Pauly Shore to suddenly run on-screen and start rubbing himself against someone.' – Libby Gelman-Waxner, Premiere

Barbara Hershey; Jane Patterson (costumes)

Portrait of a Mobster

US 1961 108m bw
Warner

The career of twenties gangster Dutch Schultz.

Over-familiar, warmed over racketeering stuff with no particular edge or style.

w Howard Browne d Joseph Pevney ph Eugene Polito m Max Steiner ☆ Vic Morrow, Leslie Parrish, Peter Breck, Ray Danton (Legs Diamond), Norman Alden, Ken Lynch † Danton also played the title role in The Rise and Fall of Legs Diamond (qv).

Portrait of a Sinner: see The Rough and the Smooth

Portrait of Alison ★

GB 1955 84m bw
Anglo-Amalgamated/Insignia (Frank Godwin)
aka: Postmark for Danger

A journalist dies while investigating an international smuggling ring, and his brother takes up the case.

Solidly carpentered mystery with all the twists expected from this source.

w Guy Green, Ken Hughes radio serial Francis Durbridge d Guy Green ph Wilkie Cooper m John Veale
☆ Robert Beatty, Terry Moore, William Sylvester, Josephine Griffin, Geoffrey Keen, Allan Cuthbertson, Henry Oscar

Portrait of Clare

GB 1950 98m bw
ABPC (Leslie Landau)

In 1900, a woman looks back on her three marriages.

High school novelette for easily pleased female audiences.

w Leslie Landau, Adrian Arlington novel Francis Brett Young d Lance Comfort ph Günther Krampf ad Don Ashton ☆ Margaret Johnston, Richard Todd, Robin Bailey, Ronald Howard, Mary Clare, Marjorie Fielding, Anthony Nicholls, Lloyd Pearson

Portrait of Jennie ★★★

US 1948 86m bw (tinted sequence)
David O. Selznick

GB title: Jennie

A penniless artist meets a strange girl who seems to age each time he sees her; they fall in love and he discovers that she has long been dead, though she finally comes to life once more during a sea storm like the one in which she perished.

A splendid example of the higher Hollywood lunacy: a silly story with pretensions about life and death and time and art, presented with superb persuasiveness by a first-class team of actors and technicians.

w Peter Berneis, Paul Osborn, Leonard Bernovici novel Robert Nathan d William Dieterle ph Joseph August m Dimitri Tiomkin, after Debussy ad J. McMillan Johnson ed William Morgan, Gerald Wilson
☆ Jennifer Jones, Joseph Cotten, Ethel Barrymore, David Wayne, Lillian Gish, Henry Hull, Florence Bates

PROLOGUE: 'Since time began man has looked into the awesome reaches of infinity and asked the eternal questions: What is time? What is life? What is space? What is death? Through a hundred civilizations, philosophers and scientists have come together with answers, but the bewilderment remains ... Science tells us that nothing ever dies but only changes, that time itself does not pass but curves around us, and that the past and the future are together at our side for ever. Out of the shadows of knowledge, and out of a painting that hung on a museum wall, comes our story, the truth of which lies not on our screen but in your hearts.'

JENNIE'S SONG: 'Where I come from, nobody knows ... And where I'm going, everything goes ... The wind blows The sea flows ... And nobody knows...'

EBEN (JOSEPH COTTEN): 'I want you, not dreams of you.'

JENNIE (JENNIFER JONES): 'There is no life, my darling, until you love and have been loved. And then there is no death.'

'Easily the Selznick masterpiece, rich in superb performances, tasteful direction and superb photography.' – Motion Picture Herald

'One of the most exquisite fantasy films ever made ... a milieu rich in visual and aural imagery ... a sensuous evocation of time and timelessness.' – Cinefantastique

'Though the story may not make sense, the pyrotechnics, joined to the dumbfounded silliness, keep one watching.' – New Yorker, 1976

special effects
Joseph August

'Auteur. Couturier. Actor. Author. Shopper. Friend.'
'Whatever they do, they do with style.'

Portraits Chinois

France/GB 1996 123m colour
Film Four/IMA/U&GC/France2/Polar (Georges Benyoun)

An English fashion designer in Paris loses her boyfriend and her job to a newcomer.

The tangled love lives of twentysomethings, in which art is shown as mirroring life, something this slight movie significantly fails to do.

w Martine Dugowson, Peter Chase
d Martine Dugowson ph Antoine Roch
m Peter Chase ad Pierre Guffroy
ed Martine Barraque, Noëlle Boisson
☆ Helena Bonham Carter, Romane Bohringer, Marie Trintignant, Elsa Zylberstein, Yvan Attal, Sergio Castellitto, Jean-Philippe Ecoffey, Jean-Claude Brialy

'A smart look at the way we live. Sassy as hell and funny in a covert way, it's terrific.' – Marianne Gray, Film Review

Poseidon ④

US 2006 98m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Virtual Studios/Radiant/Next Entertainment/Irwin Allen/Synthesis (Wolfgang Petersen, Duncan Henderson, Mike Fleiss, Akiva Goldsman)

Passengers on a cruise liner fight for survival when a giant wave turns their ship upside down.

Old-fashioned disaster movie that dispenses with such fripperies as character development, dialogue and narrative surprise; its cast is so devoid of personality that it becomes difficult to remember who's dead and who's alive.

w Mark Protosevich novel Paul Gallico
d Wolfgang Petersen ph John Seale
m Klaus Badelt pd William Sandell
ed Peter Honess
☆ Josh Lucas (Dylan Johns), Kurt Russell (Robert Ramsey), Jacinda Barrett (Maggie James), Richard Dreyfuss (Richard Nelson), Emmy Rossum (Jennifer Ramsey), Mia Maestro (Elena), Kevin Dillon (Lucky Larry)

'You'll end up entertained if you forgive the cliches and let Petersen grab you with the visuals.' – Peter Travers, Rolling Stone

'Poseidon isn't cute, funny, warm, nice, inspirational or uplifting. It's about the incredible labor of survival in a world turned totally sociopathic in an instant.' – Stephen Hunter, Washington Post

'It's hard to think of a big-budget Hollywood picture with less reason for existing.' – A. O. Scott, New York Times

† The film cost around $160m.

The Poseidon Adventure ★★

US 1972 117m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF/Kent (Irwin Allen)

A luxury liner is capsized, and trapped passengers have to find their way to freedom via an upside down world.

Tedious disaster movie which caught the public fancy and started a cycle. Spectacular moments, cardboard characters, flashes of imagination.

w Stirling Silliphant, Wendell Mayes novel Paul Gallico d Ronald Neame ph Harold Stine m John Williams pd William Creber
☆ Gene Hackman, Ernest Borgnine, Shelley Winters, Red Buttons, Carol Lynley, Leslie Nielsen, Arthur O'Connell, Pamela Sue Martin, Roddy McDowall, Eric Shea, Jack Albertson, Stella Stevens

'The script is the only cataclysm in this waterlogged Grand Hotel.' – New Yorker

† See also: Beyond the Poseidon Adventure and Poseidon. A TV film of The Poseidon Adventure was also made in 2005, starring Adam Baldwin, Rutger Hauer and C. Thomas Howell.

song 'The Morning After' (m/ly Al Kasha, Joel Hirschhorn)
Harold Stine; John Williams; Shelley Winters
Gene Hackman

Posse ★★

US 1975 93m Technicolor Panavision
Paramount/Bryna (Kirk Douglas)

A US marshal seeking higher office vows to capture a railroad bandit, but the tables are smartly turned.

Unusual minor Western, quite pleasing in all departments and neither mindless nor violent.

w William Roberts, Christopher Knopf
d Kirk Douglas ph Fred Koenekamp
m Maurice Jarre
☆ Kirk Douglas, Bruce Dern, Bo Hopkins, James Stacy, Luke Askew, David Canary

'The untold story of the wild west.'

Posse

GB/US 1993 111m Technicolor
Rank/Polygram/Working Title (Preston Holmes, Jim Steel)

In the 1890s, a group of black cowboys defeat the Ku Klux Klan and other dastardly whites.

An undistinguished Western in the Italian manner, but lacking style and substance.

w Sy Richardson, Dario Scardapane
d Mario Van Peebles ph Peter Menzies Jnr
m Michel Colombier pd Catherine Hardwicke ed Mark Conte, Seth Flaum ☆ Mario Van Peebles, Stephen Baldwin, Charles Lane, Tiny Lister, Big Daddy Kane, Billy Zane, Blair Underwood, Melvin Van Peebles, Tone Loc, Isaac Hayes

'Races through its paces with little attention to nuance or characterization, but its action, hip attitude, and cool cast should score with youthful general auds as well as blacks.' – Variety

Posse from Hell

US 1961 89m Technicolor
Universal-International

Four killers escape from jail and take over a town.

Moderate Western programmer with more violence than usual.

w Clair Huffaker novel Clair Huffaker
d Herbert Coleman ph Clifford Stine
m Joseph Gershenson
☆ Audie Murphy, John Saxon, Zohra Lampert, Vic Morrow, Robert Keith

Possessed ★

US 1931 76m bw
MGM

A factory girl goes to New York in search of riches.

Reasonably gutsy Depression melodrama which moves at a fair pace.

w Lenore Coffee play The Mirage by Edgar

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Selwyn d Clarence Brown ph Oliver T. Marsh
☆ Joan Crawford, Clark Gable, Wallace Ford, Skeets Gallagher, Frank Conroy, Marjorie White, John Miljan
'Lots of luxury; lots of charm; lots of smooth talk about courage and marriage and what women want.' – James R. Quirk

'You'll be possessed by its love madness!'

Possessed ★

US 1947 108m bw
Warner (Jerry Wald)

An emotionally unstable nurse marries her employer but retains a passionate love for an engineer whom she kills when he does not respond.
Extremely heavy, almost Germanic, flashback melodrama with everyone tearing hammer and tongs at the rather ailing script. Fun if you're in that mood, and an interesting example of the American film noir of the forties.
w Silvia Richards, Ranald MacDougall novel One Man's Secret by Rita Weiman d Curtis Bernhardt ph Joseph Valentine m Franz Waxman
☆ Joan Crawford, Raymond Massey, Van Heflin, Geraldine Brooks, Stanley Ridges, John Ridgely, Moroni Olsen
'Acting with bells on.' – Richard Winnington
'Miss Crawford performs with the passion and intelligence of an actress who is not content with just one Oscar.' – James Agee
Joan Crawford

Possession

France/West Germany 1981 127m colour
Olianne/Marianne/Soma (Marie-Laure Reyre)

An unhappy woman leaves her husband and lover and gives birth to a monster.
Extraordinary horror movie pitched at a level of hysteria and, with its setting of a divided Berlin, no doubt is intended as an allegory, though of what, among the blood and gore, attitudinizing and demented performances, is anybody's guess.
wd Andrzej Zulkawski ph Bruno Nuytten m Andrzej Korzynski, Art Phillips ad Holger Gross sp Carlo Rambaldi
☆ Isabelle Adjani, Sam Neill, Margit Carstensen, Heinz Bennent, Johanna Hofer, Michael Hogben, Shaun Lawton
† It was released in the US in a 97m version.
†† Isabelle Adjani was adjudged best actress in the French equivalent of the Oscars in 1982.

'The past will connect them. The passion will possess them.'
'Human passion is the ultimate mystery.'

Possession

US/GB 2002 102m Technicolor
Warner/Baltimore/Spring Creek/Contagious (Paula Weinstein, Barry Levinson)

Two academics become attracted to one another as they discover a secret and tragic affair between two Victorian writers.
Inert adaptation of a complex novel, too genteel in tone to convey either the rivalries and excitements of literary discovery or the overpowering emotions of hidden love.
w David Henry Hwang, Laura Jones, Neil LaBute novel A. S. Byatt d Neil LaBute ph Jean Yves Escoffier m Gabriel Yared pd Luciana Arrighi ed Claire Simpson
☆ Gwyneth Paltrow (Maud Bailey), Aaron Eckhart (Roland Michell), Jeremy Northam (Randolph Henry Ash), Jennifer Ehle (Christabel LaMotte), Lena Headey (Blanche Glover), Toby Stephens (Fergus Wolfe), Tom Hickey (Blackadder), Trevor Eve (Cropper), Tom Hollander (Euan), Graham Crowden (Sir George), Anna Massey (Lady Bailey)
'One of the stupidest, most badly acted and clumsily directed films I have ever seen. And did I mention boring.' – Peter Bradshaw Guardian
'I was wooed by its sexy romanticism all the way through to the mysterious and beautiful coda.' – Johnathan Rosenbaum, Chicago Reader

The Possession of Joel Delaney

US 1971 108m Eastmancolor
ITC/Haworth (George Justin)

A wealthy New York divorcee tries to save her brother from death at the hands of a Puerto Rican occult group who believe in ritual murder and demonic possession.
Unpleasant, frightening and overlong horror film with some kind of message struggling to get out but precious little entertainment value.
w Matt Robinson, Grimes Grice novel Ramona Stewart d Waris Hussein ph Arthur J. Ornitz m Joe Ragoso
☆ Shirley MacLaine, Perry King, Lisa Kohane, David Elliott
'Some see the film as a political allegory; I see it as a piece of political tosh.' – Michael Billington, Illustrated London News

Possible Worlds ★★

Canada 2000 92m colour
Momentum/In Extremis Images/East Side (Sandra Cunningham, Bruno Jobin)

A man, who may be dead, appears to live in several different worlds at the same time, with differing relationships with the same woman.
A puzzle of a film that begins promisingly, with the discovery of a corpse without a brain, but then develops into a movie without much sense.
w John Mighton, Robert Lepage play John Mighton d Robert Lepage ph Jonathan Freeman m Ron Proulx pd François Seguin ed Susan Shipton ☆ Tilda Swinton (Joyce), Tom McCamus (George Barber), Sean McCann (Inspector Berkley), Gabriel Gascon (Scientist), Rick Miller (Williams)
'A pile-up of pretentious illustrations about the nature of consciousness and the multiplicity of personality' – Alexander Walker

Postcards from America ★

US/GB 1995 93m colour
Islet/Channel 4/Normal (Christine Vachon, Craig Paul)

Adapted from two semi-autobiographical books by an artist and writer who died from AIDS in 1992, this fragmentary work concentrates on a loveless childhood with a violent father and adult years as a petty thief and hustler.
A highly stylized, episodic account of a man's remembrance of his search for affection and love and finding only disappointment and disease; the approach emphasizes the alienation of not only the protagonist, but of his audience.
wd Steve McLean novels Close to the Knives and Memories that Smell Like Gasoline by David Wojnarowicz ph Ellen Kuras m Stephen Endelman pd Thérèse Deprez ed Elizabeth Gazzara ☆ James Lyons, Michael Tighe, Olmo Tighe, Michael Imperiolo, Michael Ringer, Maggie Low

'Having a wonderful time, wish I were here.'

Postcards from the Edge ★

US 1990 101m Technicolor
Columbia (Mike Nichols, John Calley)

A drug-addicted actress is forced to live with her unstable mother, an ageing film star.
Entertaining parade of Hollywood egos, enjoyable providing you do not take it seriously.
w Carrie Fisher novel Carrie Fisher d Mike Nichols ph Michael Ballhaus m Carly Simon pd Patrizia von Brandenstein ed Sam O'Steen ☆ Meryl Streep, Shirley MacLaine, Dennis Quaid, Gene Hackman, Richard Dreyfuss, Rob Reiner, Mary Wickes, Conrad Bain, Annette Bening, Simon Callow
'Packs a fair amount of emotional wallop in its dark-hued comic take on a chemically dependent Hollywood mother and daughter.' – Variety
Meryl Streep; original song 'I'm Checkin' Out' (m/ly Shel Silverstein)

'A shy postman didn't stand a chance with the island's most beautiful woman until the great poet of love gave him the courage to follow his dreams ... and the words to win her heart.'

Il Postino ★★

Italy/France 1994 100m Eastmancolor
Buena Vista/Cecchi Gori/Tiger/Pentafilm/Mediterraneo/Blue Dahlia/Canal

aka: The Postman
An Italian postman is inspired by the exiled Chilean poet Pablo Neruda to woo and win a beautiful woman.
A gentle comedy that gains a great deal from Troisi's contained performance, which illumines the sometimes clumsy narrative, so that it becomes genuinely moving despite its obvious manipulation.
w Anna Pavignano, Michael Radford, Furio Scarpelli, Giacomo Scarpelli, Massimo Troisi novel Il Postino di Neruda by Antonio Skarmeta d Michael Radford ph Franco di Giacomo m Luis Enrique Bacalov pd Lorenzo Baraldi ed Roberto Perpignani ☆ Massimo Troisi, Philippe Noiret, Maria Grazia Cucinotta, Linda Moretti, Renato Scarpa, Anna Bonaiuto, Bruno Alessandro
'A tender and wistful comedy.' – Kenneth Turan, Los Angeles Times
† Massimo Troisi died of a heart attack within days of finishing the film.
Luis Enrique Bacalov best picture; Michael Radford; Massimo Troisi; screenplay adaptation best foreign-language film; Michael Radford

The Postman: see Il Postino (1994)

The Postman

US 1997 177m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Tig (Jim Wilson, Steve Tisch, Kevin Costner)

In 2013, after a world war, a man tries to keep scattered communities together by setting up a postal service.
An apocalyptic Western, lost in a wilderness of its own making.
w Eric Roth, Brian Helgeland novel David Brin d Kevin Costner ph Stephen Windon m James Newton Howard pd Ida Random ed Peter Boyle
☆ Kevin Costner, Will Patton, Larenz Tate, Olivia Williams, James Russo, Daniel von Bargen, Tom Petty, Scott Bairstow
'A rare epic film that is actually about something.' – Variety
'This lacks both the visual and verbal stimuli to keep you watching for three hours.' – David Eimer, Empire
† The film cost $80m and took around $17.4m at the US box-office.

The Postman Always Rings Twice ★

US 1946 113m bw
MGM (Carey Wilson)

A guilty couple murder her husband but get their come-uppance.
Pale shadow of Double Indemnity, efficient but not interesting or very suspenseful.
w Harry Ruskin, Niven Busch novel James M. Cain d Tay Garnett ph Sidney Wagner m George Bassman ☆ Lana Turner, John Garfield, Cecil Kellaway, Hume Cronyn, Leon Ames, Audrey Totter, Alan Reed
'It was a real chore to do Postman under the Hays Office, but I think I managed to get the sex across.' – Tay Garnett

'You will feel the heat!'
'Their love was a war that destroyed!'

The Postman Always Rings Twice ★

US 1981 121m Metrocolor
Lorimar/Northstar International (Charles Mulvehill, Bob Rafelson)

A remake of the above with more heavy breathing and some table-ending.
Not otherwise any better, but an interesting measure of the times.
w David Mamet novel James M. Cain d Bob Rafelson ph Sven Nykvist m Michael Small pd George Jenkins ed Graeme Clifford ☆ Jack Nicholson, Jessica Lange, John Colicos, Michael Lerner, John P. Ryan, Anjelica Huston
'Too cheerless to be erotic, too charmless to be titillating.' – Margaret Hinxman, Daily Mail

Postman's Knock ★

GB 1961 88m bw
MGM (Ronald Kinnoch)

A village postman is transferred to London, finds life and work bewildering, but captures some crooks and ends up a hero.
Mildly amusing star vehicle rising to good comic climaxes.
w John Briley, Jack Trevor Story d Robert Lynn ph Gerald Moss m Ron Goodwin ☆ Spike Milligan, Barbara Shelley, Wilfrid Lawson

Postmark for Danger: see Portrait of Alison

'The only way to trap a serial killer is to know what he feels, what he thinks and when he'll strike again.'

Postmortem

US 1997 105m Foto-Kem
Imperial/Filmwerks/Wild Side (Gary Schmoeller, Tom Karnowski)

A depressed, heavy-drinking, best-selling author, a former San Francisco homicide detective, moves to Glasgow, where his help is sought in catching a serial killer.
Downbeat thriller, shot in sickly hues of blue, green and orange, and noteworthy only for lacking its director's usual action-packed, explosive manner.
w John Lowry Lamb, Robert McDonnell

d Albert Pyun ph George Mooradian
m Tony Riparetti pd Pat Campbell
ed Natasha Gjurokovic
☆ Charles Sheen, Michael Halsey, Ivana Milicevic, Stephen McCole, Gary Lewis

Il Posto: see The Job

Pot Luck ★

GB 1936 71m bw
Gainsborough (Michael Balcon)

A Scotland Yard inspector enlists the aid of department store staff to recover a stolen Chinese vase.
Surprisingly not from a stage original, this action farce gets better as it goes along and finds time for a quick spoof of The Old Dark House.
w Ben Travers d Tom Walls ph Roy Kellino, Arthur Crabtree md Louis Levy
☆ Tom Walls, Ralph Lynn, Robertson Hare, Diana Churchill, Gordon James, Martita Hunt

'There is too much melodrama, too little Hare, and, of course, as always to my mind, too much Lynn, too much of the scaly tortoise face and hollow imbecility.' – Graham Greene

Pot o' Gold

US 1941 87m bw
Globe/James Roosevelt

GB title: The Golden Hour

A radio giveaway show finds work for idle musicians.
Thin Capraesque comedy which needed more determined handling.
w Walter de Leon d George Marshall ph Hal Mohr md Lou Forbes
☆ James Stewart, Paulette Goddard, Horace Heidt, Charles Winninger, Mary Gordon, Frank Melton, Jed Prouty

Pote tin Kyriaki: see Never on Sunday

Potemkin: see The Battleship Potemkin

Potomok Chingis-Khana: see Storm over Asia

Poulet au Vinaigre: see Cop au Vin

Pourquoi Pas Moi?

France/Spain/Switzerland 1998 94m colour
Millivres/Elzevir/M6/Glozel/Maestranza/Sogedasa/Alhena (Marie Masmonteil, Caroline Adrian)

Three gay friends decide to come out to their parents at a country house weekend.
An amusing camp comedy that climaxes with the Virgin Mary singing along to a Patsy Cline song.
wd Stéphane Giusti ph Antoine Roch
pd Rosa Ros ed Catherine Schwartz ☆ Amira Casar (Camille), Julie Gayet (Eva), Bruno Putzulu (Nico), Alexandra London (Ariane), Carmen Chaplin (Lili), Johnny Hallyday (José), Marie-France Pisier (Irene), Brigitte Roüan (Josepha), Assumpta Serna (Diane), Elli Medeiros (Malou), Vittoria Scognamiglio (Sara), Jean-Claude Dauphin (Alain), Joan Crosas (Tony)

'Amiable but predictable, chic but superficial.' – Empire

Powaqqatsi ★

US 1988 97m colour
Cannon/Golan-Globus (Mel Lawrence, Godfrey Reggio, Lawrence Taub)

Montage of images of back-breaking labour in the Third World.
A sequel to Koyaanisqatsi, silent apart from the hypnotic score, its beautifully composed images detract from the undignified labour it shows.
w Godfrey Reggio, Ken Richards
d Godfrey Reggio ph Graham Berry, Leonidas Zourdoumis m Philip Glass ed Iris Cahn, Alton Walpole

Powder

US 1995 112m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Hollywood/Caravan (Roger Birnbaum, Daniel Grodnik)

When an old man dies, locals discover the existence of his freakish grandson, a hairless, white-skinned boy with strange powers and a powerful intellect.
A familiar story of a misunderstood teenager, tricked out with some hocus-pocus of mysterious powers, and undermined by its sentimentality.
wd Victor Salva ph Jerzy Zielinski
m Jerry Goldsmith pd Waldemar Kalinowski ed Dennis M. Hill
☆ Mary Steenburgen, Sean Patrick Flanery, Lance Henriksen, Jeff Goldblum, Brandon Smith, Bradford Tatum, Susan Tyrrell

'Features some fine performances, an imaginative premise and a couple of go-for-broke emotional scenes. But the muddled script plays like a first draft, the continuity is jagged and the climax is a cop-out of sappy mysticism.' – Joe Leydon, Variety

Power: see Jew Suss (1934)

The Power ★

US 1967 109m Metrocolor Cinemascope
MGM/George Pal

Scientists researching into human endurance are menaced by one of their number who has developed the ability to kill by will power.
Interesting but finally unexciting and exasperating science fiction which badly lacks a gimmick one can actually see.
w John Gay novel Frank M. Robinson
d Byron Haskin ph Ellsworth Fredericks
m Miklos Rozsa
☆ Michael Rennie, George Hamilton, Suzanne Pleshette, Nehemiah Persoff, Earl Holliman, Arthur O'Connell, Aldo Ray, Barbara Nichols, Yvonne de Carlo, Richard Carlson, Gary Merrill, Ken Murray, Miiko Taka, Celia Lovsky

'The movie takes itself very seriously. We don't have to.' – Robert Windeler

Power

US 1986 111m Technicolor
TCF/Lorimar/Polar (Reene Schisgal, Mark Tarlov)

A political PR man takes on an industrialist of dubious background.
Slick and punchy but somewhat unnecessary investigation of corruption in the media, an American version of The Ploughman's Lunch.
w David Himmelstein d Sidney Lumet
ph Andrzej Bartkowiak m Cy Coleman
pd Peter Larkin ed Andrew Mondsheim
☆ Richard Gere, Julie Christie, Gene Hackman, Kate Capshaw, Denzel Washington, E. G. Marshall, Beatrice Straight, Fritz Weaver, Michael Learned

The Power and the Glory ★

US 1933 76m bw
Fox (Jesse L. Lasky)

The flashback story of a tycoon who rose from nothing and was corrupted by power.
Often noted as a forerunner of Citizen Kane, this is in fact a disappointing film with a very thin script and a general sense of aimlessness. 'Presented in narratage' meant that the characters voice their unspoken thoughts. Most interesting for its credits.
w Preston Sturges d William K. Howard
ph James Wong Howe
☆ Spencer Tracy, Colleen Moore, Ralph Morgan, Helen Vinson

'Débuting at two dollars on Broadway. Not two dollars but decidedly above-average film fare. Packs plenty of appeal, even with a not too punch marquee cast.' – Variety

The Power and the Prize ★

US 1956 98m bw Cinemascope
MGM (Nicholas Nayfack)

An ambitious company executive is criticized by his president for wanting to marry a European refugee, but the other executives support him.
Unconvincing big business fairy tale which passes the time competently enough, though Taylor is a humourless hero.
w Robert Ardrey novel Howard Swiggett
d Henry Koster ph George Folsey
m Bronislau Kaper
☆ Robert Taylor, Elisabeth Mueller, Mary Astor, Burl Ives, Charles Coburn, Cedric Hardwicke

'He's had to fight all his life. Now he's fighting for theirs.'

The Power of One

US 1991 127m Technicolor
Warner (Arnon Milchan)

In South Africa in the 1930s, an English boy, who witnesses the brutality of the Afrikaners and is taught boxing by a black prisoner, decides to dedicate his life to the cause of racial equality.
Sentimental and unconvincing account of an African childhood, with Rocky*-like moments thrown in for good measure.*
w Robert Mark Kamen novel Bryce Courtenay d John G. Avildsen ph Dean Semler m Hans Zimmer, Lebo M
pd Roger Hall ed John G. Avildsen
☆ Stephen Dorff, John Gielgud, Armin Mueller-Stahl, Morgan Freeman, Guy Witcher, Simon Fenton

'Crude, patronising and mawkish, sure, but rescued by excellent performances, beautiful landscape photography, and hard-to-argue-with themes of natural justice, delivered with a punch.' – Angie Errigo, Empire

Power of the Press

US 1943 63m bw
Columbia

The owner of a New York paper kills to maintain its isolationist line.
Hard-hitting melodrama which overdoes the propaganda.
w Samuel Fuller, Robert D. Andrews
d Lew Landers
☆ Lee Tracy, Guy Kibbee, Otto Kruger, Gloria Dickson

Power Play

GB/Canada 1978 109m colour
Robert Cooper/Canada United Kingdom (Christopher Dalton)

In a mythical country, a tank commander joins the leaders of a coup d'état only to doublecross them.
Uninteresting mixture of violent action and verbosity.
wd Martyn Burke ph Ousama Rawi
m Ken Thorne
☆ Peter O'Toole, David Hemmings, Donald Pleasence, Barry Morse

The Power Within

US 1995 97m colour
PM (Joseph Merhi, Richard Pepin)

A high-school student is all that prevents a vicious thief from obtaining an ancient ring that will give him immense power.
Violent, childish, teenage wish fulfilment about a nerd who takes on the bad guys.
w Jacobsen Hart, Scott McAboy d Art Camacho ph Ken Blakey m Jim Halfpenny pd Chris Blocker ed Chris Worland
☆ Ted Jan Roberts (Stan), Karen Valentine (Clyda), Keith Coogan (Eric), John O'Hurley (Lt Cabrell), Gerald Okamura (Yung), Tracy Lindsey (Sandy), P. J. Soles (Mrs Applegate), Ed O'Ross (Deriva), Jacob Parker (Deke), William Zabka (Raymond Vonn)

'Saving the world before bedtime!'

Powerpuff Girls ★

US 2002 74m colour
Warner/Cartoon Network (Donna Castricone)

When a scientist's experiment to make the perfect girl goes wrong, he creates instead three bug-eyed girls with superpowers.
A TV favourite among the very young transfers to the big screen. Its relentless energy is wearing after a while, but it will appeal to its many fans – though it's possibly less entertaining than an average TV episode.
w Charlie Bean, Lauren Faust, Craig McCracken, Paul Rudish, Don Shank
d Craig McCracken ad Mike Moon
ed Rob DeSales
☆ voices of: Catherine Cavadini (Blossom), Tara Strong (Bubbles), E.G. Daily (Buttercup), Roger L. Jackson (Mojo Jojo), Tom Kane (Professor Utonium), Tom Kenny (Mayor/Narrator)

'What's really so appealing about the characters is their resemblance to everyday children. They're wildly energetic, competitive and (sometimes dangerously) impulsive. But they also learn from their mistakes, and their instincts are good.' – Stephen Holden, New York Times

The Powers Girl

US 1942 92m bw
UA/Charles R. Rogers

GB title: Hello Beautiful

Girls come to New York to become models for John Robert Powers.
Extremely thin and forgettable musical.
w Edwin Moran, Harry Segall book John Robert Powers d Norman Z. McLeod ph Stanley Cortez md Louis Silvers
☆ George Murphy, Anne Shirley, Carole Landis, Alan Mowbray (John Robert Powers), Dennis Day, Benny Goodman and his Orchestra, Mary Treen

Powwow Highway

GB 1988 91m Technicolor
Handmade (Jan Wieringa)

A militant American Indian leaves the reservation with his simple friend to make a long journey to rescue his sister, imprisoned on a trumped-up drugs charge.
Rambling road movie that comes to the conclusion that it is morally justifiable for the exploited to lie, cheat and steal.
w Janet Heaney, Jean Stawarz novel David Seals d Jonathan Wacks ph Toyomichi

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Kurita m Barry Goldberg pd Cynthia Sowder ed Hilarie Roope
☆ A. Martinez, Gary Farmer, Joanelle Nadine Romero, Geoff Rivas, Roscoe Born, Wayne Waterman, Margo Kane, Amanda Wyss, Sam Vlanos
'Settles for the affirmations of the buddy movie, without achieving either a consistently manic tone or a convincing balance between character, humour and suspense.' – Farrah Anwar, MFB

'Falling in love is the trickiest spell of all.'

Practical Magic

US 1998 105m Technicolor
Warner/Village Roadshow/Di Novi/Fortis

Two young witches deal with an ancient curse that any man who falls in love with them will die.
Like one of those spells where you throw everything into a cauldron and stir hopefully, this has ingredients of a feminist tract, a romantic comedy, a thriller, and domestic drama; nothing works.
w Robin Swicord, Akiva Goldsman, Adam Brooks novel Alice Hoffman d Griffin Dunne ph Andrew Dunn m Alan Silvestri pd Robin Standefer ed Elizabeth Kling, Craig McKay sp Cinesite Digital Studios
☆ Sandra Bullock, Nicole Kidman, Dianne Wiest, Stockard Channing, Aidan Quinn, Goran Visnic, Evan Rachel Wood, Alexandra Astrip, Mark Feuerstein
'A chick movie with multiple personality disorder.' – Angie Errigo, Empire

Practically Yours

US 1944 89m bw
Paramount (Mitchell Leisen)

A war hero comes back after being supposed dead, and finds himself with a fiancée he never met.
Silly romantic comedy which never gets going.
w Norman Krasna d Mitchell Leisen ph Charles Lang Jnr m Victor Young ☆ Claudette Colbert, Fred MacMurray, Gil Lamb, Cecil Kellaway, Robert Benchley, Rosemary de Camp, Tom Powers, Jane Frazee
'It's a one-joke story, that's the problem with it.' – Mitchell Leisen

'It Started With A Kiss.'

Prague ★

GB/France 1991 89m Eastmancolor
Winstone/BBC/Constellation/UGC Hachette-Premiere/British Screen/Canal (Christopher Young)

A Scot goes to Prague in search of a wartime newsreel that will reveal information about his mother and her family.
Moderately interesting account of a shared European past that illumines the present, but lacking narrative drive.
wd Ian Sellar ph Darius Khondji m Jonathan Dove pd Jiri Matolin ed John Bloom ☆ Alan Cumming, Sandrine Bonnaire, Bruno Ganz, Raphael Meiss, Henri Meiss, Hana Gregorova
'A decent Euro-movie that makes good use of the idea of film as collective memory.' – Philip French, Observer
'Comes across like a collection of ideas for a Euro co-production to be lensed in a photogenic city rather than an accomplished vital picture.' – Variety

'Radio like you've never seen it before.'

A Prairie Home Companion ★★ (8)

US 2006 105m
The Works/GreeneStreet/River Road/Sandcastle 5 (Robert Altman, Wren Arthur, Joshua Astrachan, Tony Judge, David Levy)

Frenetic comings and goings backstage as the last-ever performance of a long-running radio show, featuring country music and variety acts, gets under way.
A delectable swan song to the career of its great director Robert Altman, who died in November 2006. A work that's minor in both key and stature, it's corny, good-natured and old-fashioned, rather like Garrison Keillor's real radio show that gives the film its title. Still, it has a decent story: the show is about to be taken over by a philistine Texas corporation and closed down. Fittingly, the shadow of death hovers gently over the film. It looks faintly shambolic, but Altman's camera drifts around backstage, eavesdropping, peeking through curtains, nosing into nooks and crannies – a systematic way to divulge information. Impeccable timing and effortless grace is on display here; it's a gentle, middlebrow delight.
w Garrison Keillor d Robert Altman ph Ed Lachman m Richard Dworsky pd Dina Goldman ad Jeffrey Schoen ed Jacob Craycroft
☆ Garrison Keillor (Garrison Keillor), Meryl Streep (Yolanda Johnson), Lily Tomlin (Rhonda Johnson), Lindsay Lohan (Lola Johnson), Tommy Lee Jones (The Axeman), Woody Harrelson (Dusty), John C. Reilly (Lefty), Kevin Kline (Guy Noir), Virginia Madsen (The Dangerous Woman)
'What a lovely film this is, so gentle and whimsical, so simple and profound.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times
'Both magical and consistently joyous.' – Joe Morgenstern, Wall Street Journal

Prancer ★

US 1989 102m Film House colour
Orion/Nelson/Cineplex Odeon (Raffaella de Laurentiis)

The eight-year-old daughter of a widowed, taciturn, near-bankrupt farmer takes care of an injured reindeer which she believes belongs to Father Christmas.
Pleasing family drama that for the most part avoids cuteness and sentimentality.
w Greg Taylor d John Hancock ph Misha Suslov m Maurice Jarre pd Chester Kaczenski ed Dennis O'Connor
☆ Sam Elliott, Rebecca Harrell, Cloris Leachman, Rutanya Alda, Abe Vigoda, Ariana Richards, Michael Constantine

A Prayer for the Dying

GB 1987 107m Metrocolor
Peter Snell/Samuel Goldwyn Co

An ex-IRA gunman feels unable to silence a priest witness of a killing, and confesses his sins instead.
Convoluted melodrama which kills its chances as a thriller by striving to say something meaningful.
w Edmund Ward, Martin Lynch novel Jack Higgins d Mike Hodges (who disowned the version released) m Bill Conti
☆ Mickey Rourke, Bob Hoskins, Alan Bates, Sammi Davis, Christopher Fulford

Prayer of the Rollerboys

US 1990 94m colour
First Independent/Gaga/Fox Lorber/Academy/JVC/TV Tokyo (Robert Mickelson)

In a future bankrupt America, a youth, working undercover for the police, infiltrates a vicious gang of young, skating drug dealers.
Dull, paranoid science fiction aimed at a teenage audience.
w W. Peter Iliff d Rick King ph Phedon Papamichael m Stacy Widelitz pd Thomas A. Walsh ed Daniel Loewenthal
☆ Corey Haim, Patricia Arquette, Christopher Collet, J. C. Quinn, Julius Harris, Devin Clark, Mark Pellegrino, Morgan Weisser 'Offers blood-pumping entertainment in a pulpy, cartoonish mode.' – Variety

The Preacher's Wife

US 1996 124m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Touchstone/Samuel Goldwyn

An angel helps sort out the troubled marriage of a preacher.
Bland and gruesomely sentimental comedy that is out of touch with the modern world, and lacks the charm to persuade an audience otherwise; its sole point seems to have been to sell the soundtrack songs by Houston.
w Nat Maudlin, Allan Scott d Penny Marshall ph Miroslav Ondricek m Hans Zimmer pd Bill Groom ed Stephen A. Rotter, George Bowers ☆ Denzel Washington, Whitney Houston, Courtney B. Vance, Gregory Hines, Jenifer Lewis, Loretta Devine, Lionel Ritchie
'Marshall's marshmallow world and her heavy-handedness in trying so hard to win your approval every step of the way simply grate on the nerves.' – Alan Jones, Film Review
† It is a remake of The Bishop's Wife (qv), directed by Henry Koster in 1947 and starring Cary Grant.
♫ Hans Zimmer

Preaching to the Perverted

GB 1997 100m Fujicolour
Victor/Cyclops (Stuart Urban)

The young aide to a campaigning, puritanical politician infiltrates a London sex club run by an American dominatrix.
Fetishistic images predominate in this coarse and dispiriting satire that may appeal to masochists: certainly, watching it is torture.
wd Stuart Urban ph Sam McCurdy m Maya and Magnus Fiennes pd James Hendy ed Julian Rodd
☆ Guinevere Turner, Christien Anholt, Tom Bell, Julie Graham, Julian Wadham, Ricky Tomlinson, Georgina Hale, Sue Johnston, Roger Lloyd Pack, Keith Allen
'The film's impact is blunted by the decision to downplay its serious intent in favour of a comic approach which aims at satire, but swiftly descends into Carry On territory.' – Sheila Johnston, Screen International
† The credits include 'Ms Turner's Nipple Double', 'Ms Turner's Tongue Double', 'Ms Graham's Bottom Double' and 'Mr Anholt's Nipple Double', as well as the statement: 'The Producers wish to point out that no animals were improperly treated during the making of this motion picture; however, all the submissives were.'

Precinct 45: Los Angeles Police: see The New Centurions

Pred dozdot: see Before the Rain

Predator

US 1987 107m DeLuxe
TCF/Lawrence Gordon/Joel Silver/John Davis

An allied military rescue team gets into trouble in South America.
Lethargic action thriller with unpleasant moments.
w Jim and John Thomas d John McTiernan ph Donald McAlpine, Leon Sanchez m Alan Silvestri pd John Vallone ed John F. Link, Mark Helfrich
☆ Arnold Schwarzenegger, Carl Weathers, Bill Duke, Elpidia Carrillo, Jesse Ventura

'Silent. Invisible. Invincible.'
'He's Coming To Town With A Few Days To Kill.'

Predator 2

US 1990 108m DeLuxe
Fox/Lawrence Gordon/Joel Silver/John Davis

A heavily armed alien killer visits Earth.
Violent and gore-filled, filmed in a frenetic style that soon wearies.
w Jim Thomas, John Thomas d Stephen Hopkins ph Peter Levy m Alan Silvestri pd Lawrence G. Paull ed Mark Goldblatt
☆ Danny Glover, Gary Busey, Ruben Blades, Maria Conchita Alonso, Bill Paxton, Kevin Peter Hall
'In terms of overall excitement, it outdoes its first safari in start-to-finish hysteria.' – Variety

Prefontaine

US 1997 107m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Hollywood (Irby Smith, Jon Lutz, Mark Doonan, Peter Gilbert)

Biopic of the record-breaking American athlete who died young.
Documentary-style movie that never quite gets to grips with the charismatic track star, who liked to run from the front but never had the time to live up to his own high expectations.
w Steve James, Eugene Corr d Steve James ph Peter Gilbert m Mason Daring pd Carol Winstead Wood ed Peter Frank
☆ Jared Leto (Steve Prefontaine), R. Lee Ermey (Bill Bowerman), Ed O'Neill (Bill Dellinger), Amy Locane (Nancy Alleman), Lindsay Crouse (Elfriede Prefontaine), Laurel Holloman (Elaine Finley), Breckin Meyer (Pat Tyson), Brian McGovern (Mac Wilkins), Kurtwood Smith (Curtis Cunningham), Peter Anthony Jacobs (Ray Prefontaine)
'The film never strays sufficiently beyond the straight-line narrative to allow the potential character relationships to breathe or take on much resonance.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety † Without Limits (qv), another biopic of Prefontaine, was released in 1998.

Prehistoric Women: see Slave Girls

Prelude to a Kiss

US 1992 106m DuArt
TCF (Michael Gruskoff, Michael I. Levy)

After his bride kisses a mysterious old man at her wedding, her husband discovers that she has become a stranger to him.
An oddly uncompelling romantic fantasy; charm is laid on with a trowel, but it is otherwise thin and unconvincing.
w Craig Lucas play Craig Lucas d Norman René ph Stefan Czapsky m Howard Shore pd Andrew Jackness ed Stephen A. Rotter

☆ Alec Baldwin, Meg Ryan, Kathy Bates, Ned Beatty, Patty Duke, Sydney Walker, Stanley Tucci

'Back in the 1930s or '40s, this sort of sophisticated, literary-oriented treatment of a simple romantic idea would have been the norm. Today's general audiences, however, may be put off by the quick-witted talk and mildly confused by the central device.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

† The play ran on Broadway in 1990, with Alec Baldwin playing the same role. Alec Guinness was originally offered the role of the old man. It was released direct to video in Britain in 1994.

Prelude to Fame

GB 1950 88m bw
Rank/Two Cities (Donald B. Wilson)

The health of a child musical prodigy is endangered by an ambitious woman who pushes him to the top.

Banal drama with classical music, generally overacted by the adults.

w Robert Westerby, Bridget Boland story Young Archimedes by Aldous Huxley
d Fergus McDonell ph George Stretton
ad Fred Pusey ed Sid Hayers
☆ Jeremy Spenser, Guy Rolfe, Kathleen Ryan, Kathleen Byron, James Robertson Justice, Henry Oscar, Rosalie Crutchley

Prelude to War ★★★

US 1943 53m bw
US Signal Corps (Frank Capra)

First in the Why We Fight series.

A brilliant assemblage of newsreel, diagrams, and March of Time techniques which pointed a new way for documentary.

'There isn't a dull second.' – Variety

The Premature Burial

US 1961 81m Eastmancolor Panavision
AIP (Roger Corman)

A man afraid of being buried alive suffers just that fate, but later comes to and wreaks revenge on his tormentors.

Gloomy Gothic horror based vaguely on Edgar Allan Poe: the ultimate in graveyard ghoulishness.

w Charles Beaumont, Ray Russell d Roger Corman ph Floyd Crosby m Ronald Stein ad Daniel Haller
☆ Ray Milland, Heather Angel, Hazel Court, Richard Ney, Alan Napier, John Dierkes

Premiere

GB 1938 71m bw
ABPC

The principal backer of a stage show is shot during the first performance.

Slightly unusual mystery drama.

w F. McGrew Willis d Walter Summers ph Otto Kanturek m Peter Fenn ☆ John Lodge, Judy Kelly, Joan Marion, Hugh Williams, Edmund Breon, Steven Geray, Edward Chapman

'It's Halloween Night All Over Again ... Be Warned.'

The Premonition

Sweden 1992 114m colour
Svensk Filmindustri (Waldemar Bergendahl)

original title: Svart Lucia aka: Black Lucia

A girl's dreams of sex and death, which she records in her diary, begin to come true on the longest night of the year.

A psychological thriller with voyeuristic overtones, stronger on disturbing images than narrative interest; it owes much to American examples, from Hitchcock to Carpenter.

w Carina Rydberg, Rumle Hammerich d Rumle Hammerich ph Jens Fischer m Jacob Groth pd Gert Wibe ed Camilla Skousen
☆ Tova Magnusson, Lars Green, Agneta Ekmanner, Figge Norling, Björn Kjellman, Liv Alsterland, Malin Berghagen, Niklas Hjulström

'More interested in atmosphere than action, with character insights instead of suspense, this isn't going to satisfy fans of Freddy and Jason.' – Kim Newman, Empire

'Reality is only a nightmare away.'

Premonition ②

US/UK 2007 96m
Entertainment/Hyde Park Films/MGM/TriStar Pictures (Ashok Amritraj, Jennifer Gibgot, Jon Jashni, Sunil Perkash, Adam Shankman)

A housewife starts experiencing time in random order, so when she arrives at the week of her husband's fatal car crash, she tries to reshuffle events to save him.

Giant gaps in logic, inane harbingers of doom and meaningless clues spiral downwards rapidly into nonsense in a lame supernatural thriller complete with a laughable explanation.

w Bill Kelly d Mennan Yapo ph Torsten Lippstock m Klaus Badelt pd J. Dennis Washington ad Thomas T. Taylor ed Neil Travis sp KNB EFX Group
☆ Sandra Bullock (Linda Quinn Hanson), Julian McMahon (Jim Hanson), Shyann McClure (Megan Hanson), Courtney Taylor Burness (Bridgette Hanson), Kate Nelligan (Joanne), Peter Stormare (Dr. Norman Roth)

'Both dreary and absurd, suffering from a lack of intrinsic logic and terrible pacing.' – Claudia Puig, USA Today

'I have a premonition you won't give a damn. I sure as hell didn't.' – Peter Travers, Rolling Stone

Préparez Vos Mouchoirs: see Get Out Your Handkerchiefs

Present Arms: see Leathernecking

Presenting Lily Mars ★

US 1943 104m bw
MGM (Joe Pasternak)

A girl from the sticks hits it big on Broadway.

No, the plot wasn't new, but some of the numbers were nice.

w Richard Connell, Gladys Lehman novel Booth Tarkington d Norman Taurog ph Joseph Ruttenberg md George Stoll
☆ Judy Garland, Van Heflin, Fay Bainter, Richard Carlson, Marta Eggerth, Spring Byington, Bob Crosby and his band, Tommy Dorsey and his band ♫ 'Presenting Lily Mars'; 'Is It Really Love?'; 'Tom Tom the Piper's Son'; 'Tovaritch'; 'Russian Rhapsody'; 'Kulebiaka'; 'Where There's Music'; 'Every Little Movement'; Three O'Clock in the Morning'; 'Broadway Rhythm'; 'Think of Me'

The President Vanishes

US 1934 80m bw
Walter Wanger (Paramount)
GB title: Strange Conspiracy

The president of the US agrees to drop out of sight for a few days, pretending to have been kidnapped, so that his country will not be drawn into a European war.

Reasonably intriguing political fantasy with good production and performances.

w Lynn Starling, Carey Wilson, Cedric Worth novel anonymous d William A. Wellman
☆ Arthur Byron, Janet Beecher, Paul Kelly, Peggy Conklin, Rosalind Russell, Sidney Blackmer, Walter Kingsford, Charley Grapewin, Edward Arnold

'Provocative topical meller, but likely to be spotty.' – Variety

The President's Analyst ★

US 1967 104m Technicolor Panavision
Paramount/Panpiper (Stanley Rubin)

A psychiatrist who has been asked to treat the president is pursued by spies of every nationality.

Wild political satirical farce which finally unmasks as its chief villain the telephone company. Laughs along the way, but it's all rather too much.

wd Theodore J. Flicker ph William A. Fraker m Lalo Schifrin pd Pato Guzman
☆ James Coburn, Godfrey Cambridge, Severn Darden, Joan Delaney, Pat Harrington, Eduard Franz, Will Geer

'Free-wheeling, outrageous and very funny, laced with a sophisticated zaniness that is sheer delight.' – Judith Crist

The President's Lady ★

US 1953 96m bw
TCF (Sol C. Siegel)

An account of the early career of Andrew Jackson, a lawyer whose frail wife died shortly after he became president.

Well-produced political historical romance.

w John Patrick novel Irving Stone
d Henry Levin ph Leo Tover m Alfred Newman ad Lyle Wheeler, Leland Fuller ☆ Charlton Heston, Susan Hayward, John McIntire, Fay Bainter, Carl Betz

'History plays a curious second fiddle to love's old sweet song.' – New York Times

art direction

The Presidio

US 1988 98m Technicolor Panavision
UIP/Paramount (D. Constantine Conte)

An army officer and a former cop, who are old adversaries, investigate a murder at an army base.

Tame and uninvolving action movie.

w Larry Ferguson d Peter Hyams ph Peter Hyams m Bruce Broughton pd Albert Brenner ed James Mitchell, Diane Adler, Beau Barthel-Blair
☆ Sean Connery, Mark Harmon, Meg Ryan, Jack Warden, Mark Blum, Dana Gladstone, Jenette Goldstein, Marvin J. McIntyre, Don Calfa, John DiSanti

Presque Rien

France/Belgium 2001 97m Telecipro
Peccadillo/Lancelot/Man's Films/Arte France/RTBF (Jean-Christophe Colson, Cecile Amillat, Christian Tison)

GB and US title: Come Undone

A teenage student recalls his despair over his first summer love affair with another youth.

Slight account, reticent to the point of inscrutability, of the rehabilitation of a sensitive boy over an unhappy love.

w Sebastien Lifshitz, Stephane Bouquet d Sebastien Lifshitz ph Pascal Poucet m Perry Blake pd Roseanna Sacco ed Yann Dedet ☆ Jeremie Elkaim (Mathieu), Stephane Rideau (Cedric), Marie Matheron (Annick), Dominique Reymond (Mother), Laetitia Legrix (Sarah), Nils Ohlund (Pierre), Rejane Kerdaffrec (Psychiatrist)

'Perhaps the greatest achievement... of this modest masterpiece is that a film that looks so incomplete should be so technically and emotionally accomplished.' – Paul Julian Smith, Sight & Sound

Press for Time

GB 1966 102m Eastmancolor
Rank/Ivy/Titan (Robert Hartford Davis, Peter Newbrook)

The prime minister's grandson is a newspaper seller, and is quietly promoted to be a journalist in a seaside town where it is thought he can do no harm.

The star's last comedy in his original style; competent but nothing special.

w Norman Wisdom, Eddie Leslie novel Yea Yea Yea by Angus McGill
d Robert Asher ph Peter Newbrook
m Mike Vickers
☆ Norman Wisdom, Derek Bond, Angela Browne, Derek Francis, Noel Dyson, Peter Jones, David Lodge Pressure Point ★

US 1962 89m bw
UA/Larcas/Stanley Kramer

A black prison psychiatrist has longstanding trouble with a violent racist inmate.

Curious, quite compelling case history, told in pointless and confusing flashback; sharply made and photographed, melodramatically acted.

w Hubert Cornfield, S. Lee Pogostin
d Hubert Cornfield ph Ernest Haller
m Ernest Gold
☆ Sidney Poitier, Bobby Darin, Peter Falk, Carl Benton Reid

Prestige

US 1932 71m bw
RKO

A woman follows her fiancé to a Malayan prison colony where he is on the staff, and finds he has become an alcoholic.

Tediously stilted romantic melodrama which seems at least twice as long as its actual running time.

w Francis Edward Faragoh novel Lips of Steel by Harry Hervey d Tay Garnett ph Lucien Andriot md Arthur Lange ☆ Ann Harding, Melvyn Douglas, Adolphe Menjou, Guy Bates Post, Clarence Muse

'Are you watching closely?'

The Prestige ★ ⑦

UK/US 2006 130m
Warner/Newmarket Films/Syncopy (Emma Thomas, Aaron Ryder, Christopher Nolan)

Two magicians in Victorian London battle to outperform each other.

Intriguing character study which blurs the line between theatrical artifice and speculative fantasy; that neither protagonist is sympathetic need not trouble us unduly.

w Jonathan Nolan, Christopher Nolan novel Christopher Priest d Christopher Nolan ph Wally Pfister m David Julyan pd Nathan Crowley ad Kevin Kavanaugh ed Lee Smith
☆ Hugh Jackman (Robert Angier), Christian Bale (Alfred Borden), Scarlett Johansson (Olivia Wenscombe), Michael Caine (Cutter), Rebecca Hall (Sarah), David Bowie (Tesla)

CUTTER: 'You're looking for the secret... but you won't find it because you're not really looking. You don't really want to know the secret... You want to be fooled.'

'So in love with the romance, wonder and ability to fool of stage illusion that it becomes something of a magic trick in

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

and of itself.' – Kenneth Turan, Los Angeles Times

'The key characters are such single-minded, calculating individuals that the real magic would be to find any heart in this tale.' – Kirk Honeycutt, Hollywood Reporter

art direction; cinematography

'Attraction. Desire. Deception. Murder. No one is ever completely innocent.'

Presumed Innocent ★★

US 1990 127m DuArt
Warner/Mirage (Sydney Pollack, Mark Rosenberg)

A public prosecutor is accused of murdering a colleague.

Gripping courtroom drama in which very little is what it seems.

w Frank Pierson, Alan J. Pakula novel Scott Turow d Alan J. Pakula ph Gordon Willis m John Williams pd George Jenkins ed Evan Lottman

☆ Harrison Ford, Brian Dennehy, Raul Julia, Bonnie Bedelia, Paul Winfield, Greta Scacchi, John Spencer, Joe Grifasi, Sab Shimono, Jesse Bradford

'A demanding, disturbing javelin of a courtroom murder mystery.' – Variety

'The fashion world laid bare.'

Prêt-à-Porter

US 1994 133m Technicolor Panavision
Buena Vista/Miramax (Robert Altman)

aka: Ready to Wear

Journalists and fashion designers converge upon Paris for the week of ready-to-wear fashion shows.

About as revealing of the cut-throat world of the fashion business as the Emperor's new clothes, this wastes a great many talents on a ramshackle affair, connected neither to the fantasy nor the reality of the world it depicts; it needed a much stronger narrative structure to knit together its disparate elements.

w Robert Altman, Barbara Shulgasser d Robert Altman ph Pierre Mignot, Jean Lépine m Michel Legrand pd Stephen Altman ed Geraldine Peroni

☆ Anouk Aimée, Lauren Bacall, Kim Basinger, Michael Blanc, Sophia Loren, Marcello Mastroianni, Anne Canovas, Jean-Pierre Cassel, Rossy de Palma, François Cluzet, Rupert Everett, Teri Garr, Richard E. Grant, Sally Kellerman, Ute Lemper and also Linda Hunt, Lyle Lovett, Stephen Rea, Tim Robbins, Julia Roberts, Jean Rochefort, Tracey Ullman, Forest Whitaker

'A flaccid mess, missing its easy targets. It is also undiluted Altman – a movie that sums up his attitude toward actors, audiences, the press, humanity. When one hears the word contempt, one thinks of Robert Altman.' – Richard Corliss, Time

'A supremely slack satire on the fashion business.' – Adam Mars-Jones, Independent

Pretty Baby ★

US 1950 92m bw
Warner (Harry Kurnitz)

A girl finds it easier to get a seat on the subway if she is carrying a (dummy) baby, but gets into complications when she meets a baby food king.

Silly but quite pleasant comedy variation on Bachelor Mother.

w Everett Freeman, Harry Kurnitz d Bretaigne Windust ph Peverell Marley m David Buttolph

☆ Betsy Drake, Edmund Gwenn, Dennis Morgan, Zachary Scott, William Frawley

Pretty Baby ★★

US 1978 109m Metrocolor
Paramount (Louis Malle)

A 12-year-old girl grows up in a New Orleans brothel in the 1910s.

A teasing exploration of adult hypocrisies as seen through the eyes of a child, beautifully composed in the manner of French paintings of the period.

w Polly Platt, Louis Malle d Louis Malle ph Sven Nykvist md Jerry Wexler

☆ Keith Carradine, Susan Sarandon, Brooke Shields, Francis Faye, Antonio Fargas

'The picture is too rotten to be worth much of a fuss; it's worth just enough attention to show why it's rotten.' – Stanley Kauffmann

Jerry Wexler

Pretty in Pink

US 1986 96m Technicolor
Paramount (Lauren Shuler-Donner)

A pretty girl from the wrong side of the tracks begins to find herself when she goes to a classy high school.

Slick but not very interesting look at the insecurities of American adolescents.

w John Hughes d Howard Deutch ph Tak Fujimoto m Michael Gore

☆ Molly Ringwald, Harry Dean Stanton, Jon Cryer, Andrew McCarthy, Annie Potts

Pretty Ladies

US 1925 70m (24 fps) bw silent
MGM

The husband of a Broadway actress leaves her for a chorus girl.

Heavy-going melodrama with a star who later turned comedienne and a couple of stars-to-be playing bits.

w Adela Rogers St Johns d Monta Bell

☆ ZaSu Pitts, Tom Moore, Norma Shearer, Lilyan Tashman, Conrad Nagel, George K. Arthur, Myrna Loy, Joan Crawford

Pretty Maids All in a Row

US 1971 95m Metrocolor
MGM (Gene Roddenberry)

High school girl students are being murdered by their guidance counsellor.

Uneasy murder comedy with few laughs, casting its star as a most unlikely villain. An interesting if unsuccessful attempt to be different.

w Gene Roddenberry novel Francis Pollini d Roger Vadim ph Charles Rosher m Lalo Schifrin

☆ Rock Hudson, Angie Dickinson, Telly Savalas, Roddy McDowall, Keenan Wynn

'Revenge knows no mercy.'

'The devil wears a grey skirt and her name is Kimberly Joyce.'

Pretty Persuasion ★ ③

US 2005 110m colour Panavision
Prospect (Todd Dagres, Carl Levin, Marcos Siega, Matthew Weaver)

At an exclusive private school in Beverly Hills, a manipulative 15-year-old girl persuades two of her friends to join her in accusing their drama teacher of sexual abuse.

Extraordinarily mean-spirited satire on personal fullfilment, selfishness and celebrity worship that manages to be both funny and unpleasant.

w Skander Halim d Marcos Siega ph Ramsey Nickell m Gilad Benamram pd Paul Oberman ed Nicholas Erasmnus

☆ Evan Rachel Wood (Kimberly Joyce), Ron Livingston (Percy Anderson), James Woods (Hank Joyce), Jane Krakowski (Emily Klein), Elisabeth Harnois (Brittany), Selma Blair (Grace Anderson), Danny Comden (Roger Nicholl), Adi Schnall (Randa)

'An exercise in bad taste that takes itself just seriously enough to be offensive.' – Dennis Harvey, Variety

'Not a nice movie, and it's not as funny as it should be. But it's a fresh achievement: a dirty-minded poison-pen letter to a country swollen with self-esteem.' – David Denby, New Yorker

Pretty Poison ★

US 1968 89m DeLuxe
TCF/Lawrence Turman/Mollino (Marshal Backlar, Noel Black)

A psychotic arsonist enlists the aid of a teenager but soon discovers she is kinkier than he and has murder in mind.

Bizarre black comedy-melodrama, quite successfully mixed and served.

w Lorenzo Semple Jnr novel She Let Him Continue by Stephen Geller d Noel Black ph David Quaid m Johnny Mandel

☆ Anthony Perkins, Tuesday Weld, Beverly Garland, John Randolph, Dick O'Neill, Clarice Blackburn

Pretty Polly

GB 1967 102m Techniscope
Universal/George W. George, Frank Granat
US title: A Matter of Innocence

On a world tour with her vulgar aunt, a timid maiden finds romance in Singapore.

Slight romantic fable decked out with travel guide backgrounds and at odds with the cynicism of the short story from which it originates.

w Keith Waterhouse, Willis Hall story Noël Coward d Guy Green ph Arthur Ibbetson m Michel Legrand

☆ Hayley Mills, Trevor Howard, Shashi Kapoor, Brenda de Banzie, Dick Patterson, Peter Bayliss, Patricia Routledge, Dorothy Alison

'It came and went this winter, leaving a slight trace of camphor and old knitting needles.' – Wilfrid Sheed

Pretty Village Pretty Flame ★★★

Serbia 1996 129m colour 'Scope
Guild Pathé/Cobra/RTV/MCRC (Goran Bjelogrlic, Dragan Bjelogrlic, Nikola Kojo, Milko Josifov)

original title: Lepa Sela Lepo Gore

Two friends from boyhood, one Serbian, the other Muslim, find themselves on opposite sides in a civil war.

An angry, bitter film about the madness of the conflict that overwhelmed Yugoslavia, shifting back and forth in time to illuminate the lives of those caught up in the craziness.

w Vanja Bulic, Srdan Dragojevic, Nikola Pejakovic d Srdan Dragojevic ph Dusan Joksimovic m Aleksandar Sasa Habic pd Milenko Jeremic ed Petar Markovic

☆ Dragan Bjelogrlic (Milan), Nikola Kojo (Velja), Dragan Maksimovic (Petar), Velimir Bata Zivojlinovic (Gvozden), Zoran Cvijanovic (Brzi), Milorad Mandic (Gavra), Dragan Petrovic (Laza)

'It's enough to know this one has plenty of action, a witty script, buckets of blood, a couple of sex scenes and is pretty darned good.' – Jake Hamilton, Empire

Pretty Woman ★

US 1990 119m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Touchstone (Arnon Milchan, Steven Reuther)

A wealthy workaholic asset stripper picks up a hooker and invites her to spend a week with him.

Shameless Hollywood concoction of romance and glossy fantasy that was an immense popular success in 1990, proving that there remains an insatiable demand for escapist fairy tales.

w J. F. Lawton d Garry Marshall ph Charles Minsky m James Newton Howard pd Albert Brenner ed Priscilla Nedd

☆ Richard Gere, Julia Roberts, Ralph Bellamy, Jason Alexander, Laura San Giacomo, Hector Elizondo

'Despite its obvious flaws, Garry Marshall's sentimental pic hits the right emotional targets to shape up as a monster hit.' – Variety

Julia Roberts

'The Extraterrestrial Triangle'

Prey

GB 1977 85m Eastmancolor
Supreme/Tymar (Terence Marcel, David Wimbury)

An alien, who likes to eat the flesh of humans, takes over the body of a young man and is invited to stay the night by two lesbians, one of whom is a murderer.

Absurd mix of sexploitation and science fiction, treated with the utmost seriousness by director and cast.

w Max Cuff story Quinn Donoghue d Norman J. Warren ph Derek V. Brown m Ivor Slaney ad Hayden Pearce ed Alan Jones

☆ Glory Annen, Sally Faulkner, Barry Stokes, Sandy Chinney, Eddie Stacey

'Shabby low-budget exploitation pic with a ludicrous storyline.' – Sight and Sound

† The version released in the British cinemas was cut to 83m.

A Price above Rubies

US 1998 116m DeLuxe
Film4/Miramax (Lawrence Bender, John Penotti)

An Orthodox Jewish wife feels oppressed by the Brooklyn community she inhabits, and seeks freedom elsewhere.

An earnest soap opera with a feminist slant, as a woman seeks her identity in a male-dominated world.

wd Boaz Yakin ph Adam Holender m Lesley Barber pd Dan Leigh ed Arthur Coburn

☆ Renee Zellweger, Christopher Eccleston, Glenn Fitzgerald, Allen Payne, Julianna Margulies, Kathleen Chalfant, Edie Falco, John Randolph, Kim Hunter, Jackie Ryan, Shelton Dane

'It's an awful big dung-heap to wade through for those small gems.' – Ceri Thomas, Total Film

'For every dream there is a sacrifice.'

Price of Glory

US 2000 117m DeLuxe
Metrodome/New Line (Moctesuma Esparza, Robert Katz, Arthur E. Friedman)

A former boxer forces his three sons into the sport in the hope that they will achieve the success denied him.

Dull, plodding drama that cannot sustain interest in the sport or the family dynamics.

w Phil Berger d Carlos Avila ph Affonso Beato m Joseph Julian Gonzalez pd Robb Wilson King ed Gary Karr

☆ Jimmy Smits (Arturo Ortega), Jon Seda (Sonny Ortega), Clifton Collins Jnr (Jimmy

Ortega), Maria del Mar (Rita Ortega), Sal Lopez (Hector Salmon), Louis Mandylor (Davey Lane), Danielle Camastra (Mariella Cruz), Ron Perlman (Nick Everson)

'Not particularly well acted, it overstays its welcome and proves simultaneously predictable as a sports film and unconvincing as family drama.' – Lawrence Van Gelder, New York Times

Prick up Your Ears ★★

GB 1987 108m Eastmancolor
Zenith/Civilhand (Andrew Brown)

The life and violent death of Joe Orton, playwright.

Raunchy homosexual saga of a writer who became a cult figure with the sophisticated; treatment full of vigour for those who can take the pace.

w Alan Bennett biography John Lahr d Stephen Frears ph Oliver Stapleton m Stanley Myers pd Hugo Luczyc-Wyhowski

☆ Gary Oldman, Alfred Molina, Vanessa Redgrave, Wallace Shawn, Julie Walters, James Grant

'Five charming sisters on the gayest, merriest manhunt that ever snared a bewildered bachelor! Girls! take a lesson from these husband hunters!'

Pride and Prejudice ★★★

US 1940 116m bw
MGM (Hunt Stromberg)

An opinionated young lady of the early 19th century wins herself a rich husband she had at first despised for his pride.

A pretty respectable version of Jane Austen's splendid romantic comedy, with a generally excellent cast; full of pleasurable moments.

w Aldous Huxley, Jane Murfin play Helen Jerome novel Jane Austen d Robert Z. Leonard ph Karl Freund m Herbert Stothart ad Cedric Gibbons, Paul Groesse ed Robert J. Kern

☆ Laurence Olivier (Mr. Darcy), Greer Garson (Elizabeth Bennet), Edmund Gwenn (Mr. Bennet), Mary Boland (Mrs. Bennet), Melville Cooper (Mr. Collins), Edna May Oliver (Lady Catherine de Bourgh), Karen Morley (Charlotte Lucas), Frieda Inescort (Miss Caroline Bingley), Bruce Lester (Mr. Bingley), Edward Ashley (Mr. Wickham), Ann Rutherford (Lydia Bennet), Maureen O'Sullivan (Jane Bennet), E. E. Clive (Sir William Lucas), Heather Angel (Kitty Bennet), Marsha Hunt (Mary Bennet)

'The most deliciously pert comedy of old manners, the most crisp and crackling satire in costume that we can remember ever having seen on the screen.' – Bosley Crowther

'Animated and bouncing, the movie is more Dickens than Austen; once one adjusts to this, it's a happy and carefree viewing experience.' – New Yorker, 1980

† Norma Shearer and Robert Donat had been the first choices for the stars, with George Cukor directing.

♟ art direction

'A romance ahead of its time.'

Pride & Prejudice ★★ (7)

US/GB/France 2005 127m DeLuxe
UIP/Focus/StudioCanal/Working Title (Tim Bevan, Eric Fellner, Paul Webster)

A mother is determined to find wealthy husbands for her five daughters.

Jane Austen-lite, with the original's wit and satire toned down in favour of a romantic comedy with a contemporary feel, as if the cast had just left Notting Hill for a fancy dress party in the country; on its own terms, it is enjoyable.

w Deborah Moggach novel Jane Austen d Joe Wright ph Roman Osin m Dario Marianelli pd Sarah Greenwood ed Paul Tothill cos Jacqueline Durran

☆ Keira Knightley (Elizabeth Bennet), Matthew Macfadyen (Darcy), Brenda Blethyn (Mrs Bennet), Donald Sutherland (Mr Bennet), Tom Hollander (William Collins), Judi Dench (Lady Catherine de Bourg), Rosamund Pike (Jane Bennet), Jena Malone (Lydia Bennet)

'Gathers you up on its white horse and gallops off into the sunset. Along the way, it serves a continuing banquet of high-end comfort food perfectly cooked and seasoned.' – Stephen Holden, New York Times

'A brisk affair with a narrative drive that finds relatively little time for reflection.' – Phillip French, Observer

♟ Keira Knightley; Dario Marianelli; Jacqueline Durran; art direction

Ⓣ Joe Wright

The Pride and the Passion ★

US 1957 131m Technicolor
Vistavision
UA/Stanley Kramer

In 1810 Spain a British naval officer helps Spanish guerrillas, by reactivating an old cannon, to win their fight against Napoleon.

Stolid, miscast adventure spectacle, its main interest being the deployment of the gun across country by surging throngs of peasants.

w Edna and Edward Anhalt novel The Gun by C. S. Forester d Stanley Kramer ph Franz Planer m Georges Antheil

☆ Cary Grant, Sophia Loren, Frank Sinatra, Theodore Bikel, John Wengraf, Jay Novello, Philip Van Zandt

'The whirr of the cameras often seems as loud as the thunderous cannonades. It evidently takes more than dedication, cooperative multitudes and four million dollars to shoot history in the face.' – Time

Pride of Kentucky: see The Story of Seabiscuit

The Pride of St Louis

US 1952 93m bw
TCF (Jules Schermer)

The life of baseball star Dizzy Dean, who injured himself and became a commentator.

Sporting biopic of clearly restricted interest; modestly well done.

w Herman J. Mankiewicz d Harmon Jones ph Leo Tover m Arthur Lange

☆ Dan Dailey, Joanne Dru, Richard Haydn, Richard Crenna, Hugh Sanders

♟ original story (Guy Trosper)

Pride of the Bowery

US 1941 61m bw
Savoy/Monogram/Banner (Sam Katzman)

The East Side Kids go to a Civilian Conservation Corps camp, so that Muggsy can train for a boxing championship; but, in trying to help a friend, he is accused of theft.

One of the Kids' less comic and more earnest efforts, emphasizing good works rather than their usual high spirits.

w George Plympton story Steven Clensos, William Lively d Joseph H. Lewis ph Robert Kline md Lange and Porter ed Robert Golden

☆ Leo Gorcey, Bobby Jordan, Kenneth Howell, Mary Ainslee, Bobby Stone, Donald Haines, David Gorcey, Sunshine Sammy Morrison, Kenneth Harlan, Nick Stuart, Lloyd Ingraham

Pride of the Marines ★

US 1945 120m bw
Warner (Jerry Wald)
GB title: Forever in Love

The story of Marine Al Schmid, blinded while fighting the Japanese.

Over-dramatic, sudsy biopic which is well enough mounted to carry quite an impact in the flagwaving Hollywood style.

w Albert Maltz d Delmer Daves ph Peverell Marley m Franz Waxman

☆ John Garfield, Eleanor Parker, Dane Clark, John Ridgely, Rosemary de Camp, Ann Doran, Warren Douglas, Tom D'Andrea

'Long drawn out and never inspired, but very respectably honest and dogged.' – James Agee

♟ Albert Maltz

'The most wonderful story America ever took to its heart!'

The Pride of the Yankees ★

US 1942 128m bw
Samuel Goldwyn

The story of baseball star Lou Gehrig, who died of amytropic lateral sclerosis at the height of his powers.

Standard sporting biopic ending on Gehrig's famous speech to the crowd; emotion covers the film's other deficiencies.

w Jo Swerling, Herman J. Mankiewicz story Paul Gallico d Sam Wood ph Rudolph Maté m Leigh Harline pd William Cameron Menzies ed Daniel Mandell

☆ Gary Cooper, Teresa Wright, Babe Ruth, Walter Brennan, Dan Duryea, Elsa Janssen, Ludwig Stossel, Virginia Gilmore

'A simple, tender, meticulous and explicitly narrative film ... a real saga of American life, homey, humorous, sentimental, and composed in patient detail.' – New York Times

† In order to show Cooper batting left-handed, the prints were reversed for these sequences. Elsewhere in the movie, he is right-handed.

♟ Daniel Mandell

♟ best picture; script; Paul Gallico; Rudolph Maté; Leigh Harline; Gary Cooper; Teresa Wright

'In A World Of Rituals, In A Place Of Secrets, A Man Must Choose Between Keeping The Faith And Exposing The Truth.'

'One man is about to challenge two thousand years of tradition.'

Priest ★★

GB 1994 109m colour
Electric/BBC/Polygram (George Faber, Josephine Ward)

A young Catholic priest goes to work in a working-class Liverpool parish where his faith and his ability to deal with problems are tested and his homosexuality is made public.

Powerful drama examining the attitudes of the Catholic hierarchy to sexuality and social ills which is didactic and sometimes lacking in logic – the young priest, priggish and disapproving of sexual activity, cruises a gay bar for a pick-up with the accustomed ease of an habitué of such places – but compelling viewing, nevertheless.

w Jimmy McGovern d Antonia Bird ph Fred Tammes m Andy Roberts pd Raymond Langhorn ed Susan Spivey

☆ Linus Roache, Tom Wilkinson, Cathy Tyson, Robert Carlyle, James Ellis, Lesley Sharp, Robert Pugh, Christine Tremarco

'Can only be really recommended to people who have never heard the phrases "piss off" and "out of my diocese" in the same sentence, and are anxious to rectify the omission.' – Adam Mars-Jones, Independent

'What the film delivers is naked emotion and a powerful sense of drama that often strays into melodrama. What it fails to do is make you think, since it's so intent on telling us what to think itself.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

† The US Catholic League for Religious and Civil Rights condemned the film as 'designed to stick it to the Catholic Church' and attempted to prevent its distribution. French Catholics also attempted to have it banned.

'Their extravagant romance was more tempestuous than anything he wrote!'

Priest of Love

GB 1981 125m colour
Ronceval/Milesian (Stanley J. Seeger)

The last years of D. H. Lawrence, when his books were banned and he was seeking warmer climes to help his TB.

An extremely disappointing film, seeming to consist of aimless travelling by fractious people who never have anything interesting to say. Stilted in all departments.

w Alan Plater d Christopher Miles ph Ted Moore m Joseph James

☆ Ian McKellen, Janet Suzman, Helen Mirren, Penelope Keith, Jorge Rivero, John Gielgud

'Miles has assigned himself a missionary role but he is just not up to the task.' – Jill Forbes, MFB

The Priest's Wife (dubbed)

Italy/France 1970 106m Technicolor
Warner/Champion/ECF (Carlo Ponti)
original title: La Moglie del Prete

A pop singer seduces a priest who attempts to save her from suicide.

Dreary treatment of the topical theme of celibacy.

w Ruggero Maccari, Bernardino Zapponi d Dino Risi ph Alfio Contini m Armando Trovaioli ad Gianni Polidori ed Alberto Gallitti

☆ Sophia Loren, Marcello Mastroianni, Venantino Venantini, Jacques Stany, Pippo Starnazza

'Vulgar, fence-sitting charade.' – John Gillett, MFB

† The film was cut to 103m on its British release.

Prima della Rivoluzione: see Before the Revolution

'Sooner or later a man who wears two faces forgets which one is real.'

Primal Fear

US 1996 129m DeLuxe
UIP/Paramount/Rysher (Gary Lucchesi)

A slick lawyer defends a shy choirboy accused of murdering an archbishop.

An implausible thriller with a twist at its end, but one that diminishes all that has gone before, so that an audience is more likely to feel cheated than surprised.

w Steve Shagan, Ann Biderman novel William Diehl d Gregory Hoblit ph Michael Chapman m James Newton Howard pd Jeannine Oppewall ed David Rosenbloom

☆ Richard Gere, Laura Linney, John Mahoney, Alfre Woodard, Frances McDormand, Edward Norton, Terry O'Quinn, Andre Braugher

'This frail thriller has a clean, unfussed-over look – which is about all one can say for it.' – Peter Matthews, Sight and Sound

Edward Norton

'What Went Down On The Way To The Top.'

Primary Colors ★★

US 1998 143m DeLuxe 'Scope
Universal/Mutual/Icarus (Mike Nichols)

A manipulative and womanizing governor from a Southern state, aided by his tough-talking wife, runs for the job of President of the United States.

A tart, knowing account of American politics, based on a bestselling novel that was itself based on Bill Clinton's first presidential campaign; it both entertains and, in its exposure of the backstage mechanics of massaging public opinion, appals.

w Elaine May novel Anonymous (Joe Klein) d Mike Nichols ph Michael Ballhaus m Ry Cooder pd Bo Welch ed Arthur Schmidt

☆ John Travolta, Emma Thompson, Billy Bob Thornton, Adrian Lester, Maura Tierney, Paul Guilfoyle, Larry Hagman, Kathy Bates, Diane Ladd, Caroline Aaron, Mykelti Williamson

'Frequently funny, wonderfully performed, eerily evocative of recent history and gratifyingly blunt in its assessment of what it takes to get to the top in modern American politics, pic also lacks something crucial at its center that prevents it from being an entirely credible portrait of its subject.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

Kathy Bates; Elaine May

Elaine May

'A therapeutic new comedy.'

Prime ★ (5)

US 2005 106m Technicolor
Universal/Stratus/Team Todd/Younger Than You

An unhappy thirty-something divorcee begins an affair with a younger man, who turns out to be the son of her Jewish psychoanalyst.

Romantic comedy, hampered by a weak script, about callowness in collision with sophistication, and a Jewish mother whose private and professional views conflict.

wd Ben Younger ph William Rexer m Ryan Shore pd Mark Ricker ed Kristina Boden

☆ Meryl Streep (Lisa Metzger), Uma Thurman (Rafi Gardet), Bryan Greenberg (David Bloomberg), Jon Abrahams (Morris), Zak Orth (Randall), Annie Parisse (Katherine)

'This romantic comedy's predictability and rather dull love story make it the cinematic equivalent of a slightly stale hamburger.' – Claudia Puig, USA Today

Prime Cut

US 1972 91m Technicolor Panavision
Cinema Center (Joe Wizan)

A Kansas gangster incurs the wrath of his Chicago bosses, and a hired killer is sent to eliminate him.

Gory cat-and-mouse chase melodrama with no interest save its excesses.

w Robert Dillon d Michael Ritchie ph Gene Polito m Lalo Schifrin

☆ Gene Hackman, Lee Marvin, Angel Tompkins, Sissy Spacek

The Prime Minister ★

GB 1941 109m bw
Warner (Max Milder)

Episodes in the life of Disraeli.

Modestly budgeted historical pageant notable only for performances.

w Brock Williams, Michael Hogan d Thorold Dickinson ph Basil Emmott

☆ John Gielgud, Diana Wynyard, Will Fyffe, Stephen Murray, Owen Nares, Fay Compton (Queen Victoria), Lyn Harding, Leslie Perrins

The Prime of Miss Jean Brodie ★

GB 1969 116m DeLuxe
TCF (Robert Fryer)

A sharp-minded Edinburgh schoolmistress of the thirties is a bad influence on her more easily-swayed pupils.

Interesting but slackly handled and maddeningly played character drama.

w Jay Presson Allen novel Muriel Spark d Ronald Neame ph Ted Moore m/ly Rod McKuen pd John Howell

☆ Maggie Smith, Robert Stephens, Pamela Franklin, Celia Johnson, Gordon Jackson, Jane Carr

'The novel lost a good deal in its stage simplification, and loses still more in its movie reduction of that stage version.' – John Simon

Maggie Smith

song 'Jean' (m/ly Rod McKuen)

Maggie Smith; Celia Johnson

'If you always want what you can't have, what do you want when you can have anything?'

Primer ★★ (6)

US 2004 77m colour
Tartan/Primer Movie (Shane Carruth)

Two young engineers discover that the machine they and two friends have constructed allows them to travel in time.

Clever, original low-budget production that manges to disguise its limitations by a torrent of talk.

wd Shane Carruth ph Anand Upadhyaya, Daniel Bueche m Shane Carruth pd Shane Carruth ed Shane Carruth

☆ Shane Carruth (Aaron), David Sullivan (Abe), Casey Gooden (Robert), Anand Upadhyaya, Carrie Crawford

'Ingenious guerrilla reinvention of cinematic science fiction: its analog-egghead approach may be the freshest thing the genre has seen since 2001.' – Dennis Lim, Village Voice

The Primrose Path

US 1940 92m bw
RKO (Gregory La Cava)

The youngest of a family of shanty-town prostitutes falls in love with an honest hamburger stand proprietor.

Downright peculiar melodrama for its day and age, and not very entertaining either, spending most of its time being evasive.

w Allan Scott, Gregory La Cava play Robert Buckner, Walter Hart novel February Hill by Victoria Lincoln d Gregory La Cava ph Joseph H. August m Werner Heymann

☆ Ginger Rogers, Joel McCrea, Marjorie Rambeau, Henry Travers, Miles Mander, Queenie Vassar, Joan Carroll

'The story isn't good enough, the direction isn't sincere enough, to give any pain to the lumps in the throat which its designers obviously had in mind.' – Richard Mallett, Punch

Marjorie Rambeau

'This fairy tale is about to get real'

The Prince & Me

US 2004 110m DeLuxe
Paramount/Lions Gate/Sobini (Mark Amin)

The heir to the throne of Denmark goes to study incognito in America and falls for a student.

A tired old romantic plot seems even more wearisome and predictable here, with its stars unable to generate any spark.

w Jack Amiel, Michael Begler, Katherine Fugate d Martha Coolidge ph Alex Nepomniaschy m Jennie Muskett pd James Spencer ed Steven Cohen

☆ Julia Stiles (Paige Morgan), Luke Mably (Prince Edvard/Eddie), Ben Miller (Soren), James Fox (King Harold), Miranda Richardson (Queen Rosalind), Alberta Watson (Amy Morgan), John Bourgeois (Ben Morgan), Eliza Bennett (Princess Arabella)

'Ghastly... mindless froth.' – James Christopher, Times

'In One Thrill-Packed Night You'll Live The Adventures Of A Lifetime!'

The Prince and the Pauper ★

US 1937 118m bw
Warner (Robert Lord)

In Tudor London, young Edward VI changes places with a street urchin who happens to be his double.

Well-produced version of a famous story; it never quite seems to hit the right style or pace, but is satisfying in patches.

w Laird Doyle novel Mark Twain d William Keighley ph Sol Polito m Erich Wolfgang Korngold

☆ Errol Flynn (Miles Hendon), Claude Rains (Earl of Hertford), Billy Mauch (Tom Canty), Bobby Mauch (Prince Edward), Henry Stephenson (Duke of Norfolk), Barton MacLane (John Canty), Alan Hale (Captain of the Guard), Eric Portman (1st Lord), Montagu Love (Henry VIII), Lionel Pape, Halliwell Hobbes, Fritz Leiber

'Lavish but not convincing. Doubtful box office: the commercial aspect seems wholly concerned in the timeliness of a Coronation sequence and the name of Errol Flynn. It is not enough.' – Variety

The Prince and the Pauper ★

Panama 1977 121m Technicolor Panavision
International Film Production/Ilya and Alexander Salkind (Pierre Spengler)

US title: Crossed Swords

Young Edward VI changes place with a beggar, who helps to expose a traitor.

Moderately well-made swashbuckler with an old-fashioned air, not really helped by stars in cameo roles or by the poor playing of the title roles.

w George MacDonald Fraser novel Mark Twain d Richard Fleischer ph Jack Cardiff m Maurice Jarre pd Anthony Pratt ad Tony Pratt ed Ernest Walter

☆ Mark Lester, Oliver Reed, Raquel Welch, Ernest Borgnine, George C. Scott, Rex Harrison, David Hemmings, Charlton Heston (Henry VIII), Harry Andrews, Murray Melvin, Julian Orchard

The Prince and the Showgirl ★

GB 1957 117m Technicolor
Warner/Marilyn Monroe Productions (Laurence Olivier)

In London for the 1911 coronation, a Ruritanian prince picks up a chorus girl and they come to understand and respect each other.

Heavy-going comedy, rich in production values but weak in dramatic style and impact.

w Terence Rattigan play The Sleeping Prince by Terence Rattigan d Laurence Olivier ph Jack Cardiff m Richard Addinsell pd Roger Furse ad Carmen Dillon

☆ Laurence Olivier, Marilyn Monroe, Sybil Thorndike, Richard Wattis, Jeremy Spenser, Esmond Knight, Rosamund Greenwood, Maxine Audley

† Colin Clark's book The Prince, the Showgirl and Me is an entertaining account of the behind-the-screen story of the making of the film, as seen from the viewpoint of its 3rd assistant director.

Prince of Darkness

US 1987 101m colour
Guild/Alive (Larry Franco)

Scientists are called in by a priest to deal with a canister containing the spirit of Satan.

Risible horror that never arouses any interest.

w Martin Quatermass (John Carpenter) d John Carpenter ph Gary B. Kibbe m John Carpenter, Alan Howarth pd Daniel Lomino ed Steve Mirkovich

☆ Donald Pleasence, Victor Wong, Lisa Blount, Dennis Dun, Jameson Parker, Susan Blanchard, Anne Howard, Ann Yen, Ken Wright

'The Power Is Real. The Story Is Forever. The Time Is Now.'

The Prince of Egypt ★★

US 1998 97m colour
DreamWorks (Penney Finkelman Cox, Sandra Rabins)

In Ancient Egypt, the baby Moses escapes death, is adopted by the Queen, and grows up to lead the Israelites from slavery.

An animated feature that mistakenly apes the epic spectacle of a Cecil B. de Mille – while a real cast of thousands or vast sets may appeal, the effect is diminished when drawn, since anything is possible with pencil and paper. For a rival to Disney, it sticks very close to that studio's prevailing style of pop musicals.

w Philip LaZebnik d Brenda Chapman, Steve Hickner, Simon Wells m Hans Zimmer m/ly Stephen Schwartz pd Darek Gogol ed Nick Fletcher

☆ Featuring the voices of: Val Kilmer, Ralph Fiennes, Michelle Pfeiffer, Sandra Bullock, Jeff Goldblum, Danny Glover, Patrick Stewart, Helen Mirren, Steve Martin, Martin Short

'Epic storytelling on the grandest scale. Big imagery, big themes, big emotions – all met head-on and accomplished triumphantly within a film that is in essence a live action movie – more precisely, a Steven Spielberg live action movie – writ cartoon.' – Ian Freer, Empire

song 'When You Believe' (m/ly Stephen Schwartz)

Stephen Schwartz, Hans Zimmer

'A saga of scoundrels in a century of infamy!'

Prince of Foxes ★

US 1949 107m bw
TCF (Sol. C. Siegel)

A wandering adventurer in medieval Italy gets mixed up with the Borgias.

Good-looking historical fiction with a slight edge to it.

w Milton Krims novel Samuel Shellabarger d Henry King ph Leon Shamroy m Alfred Newman

☆ Tyrone Power, Orson Welles, Wanda Hendrix, Felix Aylmer, Everett Sloane, Katina Paxinou, Marina Berti

'Plot, counterplot, action and vengeance.' – MFB

'This pretentious chapter of pseudo-history never rises above the merely spectacular, hovers mostly around the conventionally banal, and descends once to the unpardonably crude.' – Richard Mallett, Punch

Leon Shamroy

Prince of Jutland

Denmark/France/Germany/Netherlands/GB 1994 107m colour
Allarts/Ariane/Woodline/Eurimages/Roses/Kenneth Madsen

A prince avenges the death of his father.

Given the talents involved, a disappointing version of the story of Hamlet, based on the original legend from The Exploits of the Danes, written early in the 13th century by the secretary to the Archbishop of Lund.

w Gabriel Axel, Erik Kjersgard book Saxo Grammaticus d Gabriel Axel ph Henning Kristiansen m Per Norgaard pd Sven Wichmann ed Jean-François Naudon

☆ Gabriel Byrne, Helen Mirren, Christian Bale, Tony Haygarth, Steven Waddington, Freddie Jones, Brian Cox, Kate Beckinsale

'Looks like a made-for-TV film, meandering from the mildly diverting to the mundane.' – Sight and Sound

The Prince of Pennsylvania ★

US 1988 93m Technicolor
Palace/New Line Cinema (Joan Fishman)

A rebellious teenager has problems with his father.

Sensitive, downbeat tale of a boy's alienation from his family that avoids easy conclusions.

wd Ron Nyswaner ph Frank Prinzi m Thomas Newman pd Tony Corbett ed William Scharf

☆ Fred Ward, Keanu Reeves, Bonnie Bedelia, Amy Madigan, Jeff Hayenga, Tracey Ellis, Joseph de Lisi, Jay O. Sanders, Kari Keegan

Prince of Pirates

US 1953 80m Technicolor
Columbia (Sam Katzman)

A young prince of the Netherlands turns pirate when his brother allies with the Spanish invader.

Fast-moving costume potboiler with lavish use of action scenes from Joan of Arc.

w John O'Dea, Samuel Newman d Sidney Salkow ph Henry Freulich md Mischa Bakaleinikoff

☆ John Derek, Barbara Rush, Carla Balenda, Whitfield Connor, Edgar Barrier

Prince of Players ★

US 1955 102m DeLuxe Cinemascope
TCF (Philip Dunne)

Episodes in the life of actor Edwin Booth, brother of the man who killed Abraham Lincoln.

Earnest but ham-fisted biopic more notable, as a Hollywood entertainment, for its dollops of straight Shakespeare than for any dramatic interest.

w Moss Hart book Eleanor Ruggles d Philip Dunne ph Charles G. Clarke m Bernard Herrmann

☆ Richard Burton, Eva Le Gallienne, Maggie McNamara, John Derek, Raymond Massey, Charles Bickford, Elizabeth Sellars, Ian Keith

Prince of Shadows: see Beltenebros

Prince of the City ★

US 1981 167m Technicolor
Warner/Orion (Jay Presson Allen)

A New York policeman on the drug beat is induced to inform on his corrupt colleagues.

Punishingly long police semi-documentary based on real events and apparently filmed with a political motive. Excellent acting and production detail do not prevent the enterprise from seeming like a half-speed version of Serpico.

w Jay Presson Allen, Sidney Lumet book Robert Daley d Sidney Lumet

☆ Treat Williams, Jerry Orbach, Don Billett, Richard Foronjy, Carmine Caridi, Kenny Marino

screenplay

Prince of Thieves

US 1948 72m bw
Sam Katzman/Columbia

Robin Hood saves a nobleman's intended from Baron Tristram.

Tatty second-feature version of a legendary figure.

w Maurice Tombragel d Howard Bretherton

☆ Jon Hall, Patricia Morison, Alan Mowbray, Michael Duane, Adele Jergens

'A story about the memories that haunt us, and the truth that sets us free.'

The Prince of Tides ★★

US 1991 132m Technicolor
Columbia/Barwood/Longfellow (Barbra Streisand, Andrew Karsch)

A married psychiatrist falls in love with the unhappy brother of her catatonic patient.

Excellent performances enliven a lushly romantic melodrama.

w Pat Conroy, Becky Johnston novel Pat Conroy d Barbra Streisand ph Stephen Goldblatt m James Newton Howard pd Paul Sylbert ed Don Zimmerman

☆ Barbra Streisand, Nick Nolte, Blythe Danner, Kate Nelligan, Jeroen Krabbé, Melinda Dillon, George Carlin, Jason Gould, Brad Sullivan

'Has a passion seldom found in contempo US films and a quality not usually associated with Barbra Streisand – self-effacement.' – Variety

'This phoney overblown movie ... is the king of soaps.' – Philip French, Observer

film; Nick Nolte; Kate Nelligan; Pat Conroy, Becky Johnston; Stephen Goldblatt; James Newton Howard; Paul Sylbert

Prince Valiant ★

US 1954 100m Technicolor Cinemascope
TCF (Robert L. Jacks)

The son of the exiled king of Scandia seeks King Arthur's help against the usurper, and becomes involved in a court plot.

Agreeable historical nonsense for teenagers, admittedly and sometimes hilariously from a comic strip.

w Dudley Nichols comic strip Hal Foster d Henry Hathaway ph Lucien Ballard m Franz Waxman

☆ Robert Wagner, James Mason, Debra Paget, Janet Leigh, Sterling Hayden, Victor McLaglen, Donald Crisp, Brian Aherne, Barry Jones, Primo Carnera

Prince Valiant

US/GB/Ireland/Germany 1997 91m colour Super 35
Entertainment/Paramount/Constantin/Lakeshore/Legacy (Carsten Lorenz)

The adventures of Prince Valiant, Sir Gawain's royal squire, against the Vikings in the time of King Arthur.

A lively, old-fashioned medieval romp, in appropriate comic-book style, but one that may not have much appeal these days.

w Michael Frost Beckner, Anthony Hickox, Carsten Laurenz comic strip Harold R. Foster d Anthony Hickox ph Roger Lanser m David Bergeaud pd Crispian Sallis ed Martin Hunter

☆ Stephen Moyer, Katherine Heigl, Thomas Kretschmann, Edward Fox, Udo Kier, Warwick Davis, Gavan O'Herlihy, Ben Pullen, Walter Gotell, Zach Galligan, Chesney Hawkes, Joanna Lumley, Ron Perlman, Anthony Hickox

The Prince Who Was a Thief

US 1951 88m Technicolor
U-I (Leonard Goldstein)

An Arabian Nights prince is lost as a baby and brought up by thieves, but finally fights back to his rightful throne.

Given the synopsis, any viewer can write the script himself. Standard eastern Western romp.

w Gerald Drayson Adams, Aeneas Mackenzie story Theodore Dreiser d Rudolph Maté ph Irving Glassberg m Hans Salter

☆ Tony Curtis, Piper Laurie, Everett Sloane, Jeff Corey

The Princess ★

Hungary 1982 113m bw
Cinegate/Tarsulas Studio/Mafilm (Pal Erdoss) original title: Adj Király Katonát!

A 15-year-old girl moves to Budapest to discover that life is tougher than she expected.

Downbeat, documentary-style examination of a teenager facing a succession of disappointments; the film, though, manages to suggest that there is hope for the future.

w Istvan Kardos d Pál Erdöss ph Ferenc Pap, Lajos Koltai, Gabor Szabo pd Andras Gyurki ed Klara Majoros

☆ Erika Ozda, Andrea Szendrei, Denes Diczhazi, Arpad Toth, Juli Nyako, Lajos Soltis

The Princess and the Goblin

GB/Hungary 1992 111m colour
Entertainment/Siriol/Pannonia/SC4/NHK Enterprises (Robin Lyons)

A miner's son saves a princess from being kidnapped by goblins.

Uninteresting animated feature, with a dull fairy-tale plot dully executed.

w Robin Lyons novel George MacDonald d József Gémes ph Arpad Lessecry, Gyergy Verga, Ede Pagner, Nick Smith, Pete Turner, Steve Turner, Andreas Klawsz m István Lerch ed Magda Hap

☆ Featuring the voices of: Joss Ackland, Claire Bloom, Roy Kinnear, Sally Ann Marsh, Rik Mayall, Peggy Mount, Peter Murray, Victor Spinetti, Mollie Sugden

'A potentially charming medieval cartoon let down by so-so technique and unimaginative plotting.' – Variety

The Princess and the Pirate ★

US 1944 94m Technicolor
Samuel Goldwyn (Don Hartman)

An impostor is on the run from a vicious pirate.

Typical star costume extravaganza with fewer laughs than you'd expect.

w Don Hartman, Melville Shavelson, Everett Freeman d David Butler ph William Snyder, Victor Milner m David Rose ad Ernst Fegte

☆ Bob Hope, Virginia Mayo, Victor McLaglen, Walter Slezak, Walter Brennan, Marc Lawrence, Hugo Haas, Maude Eburne

'From start to finish, Hope dominates the action with well-timed colloquial nifties.' – Variety

David Rose; Ernst Fegte

The Princess and the Warrior: see Der Krieger und die Kaiserin

The Princess Blade

Japan 2002 92m colour
Kadokawa Shoten/Oz (Taka Ichise)

original title: Shurayuki Hime

In a totalitarian Asian country isolated from the rest of the world for 500 years, a betrayed warrior princess runs away from the clan of government assassins to which she belongs.

A Japanese movie with a Hong Kong gloss on its violent action sequences; its theme of rebellion against expedient authority is poorly developed and it ends inconclusively, as if in the expectation of a sequel.

w Shinsuke Sato, Kei Kunii manga Kazuo Koike, Kazuo Kamimura d Shinsuke Sato ph Taro Kawazu m Kenji Kawai pd Tomoyuki Maruo ed Hirohide Abe action choreographer Donnie Yen

☆ Hideaki Ito (Takashi), Yumiko Shaku (Yuki), Shiro Sano (Kidokoro), Yoichi Numata (Kuka), Kyusaku Shimada (Byakurai), Yoko Maki (Aya)

'Not quite good enough to jump out of the pack of Asian swordplay movies but is too well crafted to sink into utter anonymity.' – David Kehr, New York Times

† The movie is an updated version of the manga first filmed as Lady Snowblood (qv).

The Princess Bride ★

US 1987 98m DeLuxe
Act III (Andrew Scheinmann, Rob Reiner)

Grandfather tells a fairy tale of good and evil.

Rather strained fantasy with occasional bright moments.

w William Goldman novel William Goldman d Rob Reiner ph Adrian Biddle m Mark Knopfler pd Norman Garwood

☆ Cary Elwes, Mandy Patinkin, Chris Sarandon, Christopher Guest, Peter Falk, Wallace Shawn

song 'Storybook Love'

'She was everything they dreamed of ... And nothing they expected.'

Princess Caraboo ★

US 1994 97m colour
Entertainment/Beacon/TriStar/J&M/Longfellow/Artisan (Andy Karsch, Simon Bosanquet)

In the early 18th century, a woman found wandering in Devon claims to be a Javanese princess who has escaped from pirates and is taken up by the aristocracy.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

A moderately entertaining comedy of identity that has its basis in fact and is blessed with a better cast than it deserves, even if their performances are well below their best.
w Michael Austin, John Wells d Michael Austin ph Freddie Francis m Richard Hartley pd Michael Howells ed George Akers
☆ Phoebe Cates, Jim Broadbent, Wendy Hughes, Kevin Kline, John Lithgow, Stephen Rea, Peter Eyre, Roger Lloyd Pack, John Sessions, John Lynch
'Delve deeper into this period meringue and the whole concoction deflates into fluffy nothingness.' – Colin Brown, Screen International

Princess Charming
GB 1934 78m bw
Gainsborough
A Ruritanian revolution forces a princess to escape in disguise.
Light operetta with an intriguing cast.
w L. DuGarde Peach, Arthur Wimperis, Lauri Wylie play Alexandra by F. Martos d Maurice Elvey ph Max Greene songs Ray Noble, Max Kester
☆ Evelyn Laye, Yvonne Arnaud, George Grossmith, Max Miller, Henry Wilcoxon, Ivor Barnard, Francis L. Sullivan
'Still just below the peak of excellence for which Hollywood is noted.' – Variety

The Princess Comes Across ★
US 1936 76m bw
Paramount (Arthur Hornblow Jnr)
A starstruck Brooklyn girl makes a transatlantic liner voyage disguised as a princess, and finds herself involved in a murder mystery.
Zany comedy thriller with plenty of jokes.
w Walter de Leon, Francis Martin, Frank Butler, Don Hartman, Philip MacDonald novel Louis Lucien Rogger d William K. Howard ph Ted Tetzlaff m Phil Boutelje ☆ Carole Lombard, Fred MacMurray, Alison Skipworth, Douglass Dumbrille, William Frawley, Porter Hall, George Barbier, Lumsden Hare, Sig Rumann, Mischa Auer, Tetsu Komai

'She rocks. She rules. She reigns.'

The Princess Diaries
US 2001 114m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Walt Disney/Brownhouse (Whitney Houston, Debra Martin Chase, Mario Iscovich)
Told that she is in reality princess of a tiny European country, an American teenager has a royal makeover by her grandmother.
Ghastly comedy, so vapid and ridiculous that it is hard to believe that it was ever made, or released.
w Gina Wendkos novel Meg Cabot d Garry Marshall ph Karl Walter Lindenlaub m John Debney pd Mayne Berke ed Bruce Green ☆ Julie Andrews (Queen Clarisse Renaldi), Anne Hathaway (Mia Thermopolis), Hector Elizondo (Joe), Heather Matarazzo (Lilly Moscovitz), Mandy Moore (Lana Thomas), Caroline Goodall (Helen), Robert Schwartzman (Michael Moscovitz), Erik Von Detten (Josh Bryant)
'What a very silly film! Even technically it is deficient.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian
'Has all the political sophistication of a Barbie doll.' – Christopher Tookey, Daily Mail
'To get the kingdom of Genovia... There's just a little hitch.'

Princess Diaries 2: Royal Engagement
US 2004 113m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Walt Disney/Brownhouse (Debra Martin Chase, Whitney Houston, Mario Iscovich)
After graduating from Princeton, a princess returns home to learn that she must marry within a month or lose her kingdom.
Five years on from the time period of the first film and the law of diminishing returns has made a quantum leap; this is insufferable stuff, bland beyond endurance.
w Shonda Rhimes, Gina Wendkos d Garry Marshall ph Charles Minsky m John Debney pd Albert Brenner ed Bruce Green
☆ Anne Hathaway (Mia Thermopolis), Julie Andrews (Queen Clarisse Renaldi), Hector Elizondo (Joe), John Rhys-Davies (Viscount Mabrey), Heather Matarazzo (Lilly Moscovitz), Chris Pine (Nicholas Devereaux), Andrew Jacoby (Callum Blue)
'Perhaps the best film ever aimed at eight year-old girls to be directed by a 69 year-old man.' – Ian Freer, Empire

Princess Mononoke: see Mononoke-hime (1997)

Princess of the Nile
US 1954 71m Technicolor
TCF
An Egyptian princess of the middle ages leads her country against the invasion of a bedouin prince.
Lethargic costume piece with hopelessly miscast actors.
w Gerald Drayson Adams d Harmon Jones ph Lloyd Ahern m Lionel Newman
☆ Debra Paget, Michael Rennie, Jeffrey Hunter, Dona Drake, Edgar Barrier, Jack Elam, Lee Van Cleef

Princess O'Hara
US 1935 79m bw
Universal
In her father's memory a girl steals the racehorse he loved.
Sentimental comedy from Damon Runyon, later remade for Abbott and Costello as It Ain't Hay. Not up to much in either version.
w Doris Malloy, Harry Clork d David Burton
☆ Jean Parker, Chester Morris, Leon Errol, Vince Barnett, Henry Armetta, Ralph Remley, Clara Blandick
'Poor construction limits this one's chances ... not likely to go above average grosses.' – Variety

Princess O'Rourke
US 1943 94m bw
Warner (Hal B. Wallis)
An ace pilot falls for a princess and causes diplomatic complications.
Very thin wartime comedy with a propaganda ending involving Franklin Roosevelt.
wd Norman Krasna ph Ernest Haller m Frederick Hollander ☆ Olivia de Havilland, Robert Cummings, Charles Coburn, Jack Carson, Jane Wyman, Harry Davenport, Gladys Cooper, Minor Watson, Curt Bois
Norman Krasna (as writer)

Princess Raccoon ★ (5)
Japan 2005 111m
Yume/Geneon Entertainment / Dentsu / Nippon Herald Films / Shochiku. (Nobuyuki Tohya, Satoru Ogura, Ikki Tatashima)
Japanese theatrical: Operetta Tanuki Goten
A banished prince falls in love with a mystical princess who is also a tanuki (a magical Japanese raccoon that can transform itself into a human) and is whisked back to her castle.
Veteran Suzuki's musical takes a ride on the wild side with spectacular production design, pop opera, hip-hop, dancing and general wackiness. Kitschy and semi-serious at the same time.
w Yoshio Urasawa d Seijun Suzuki ph Yonezo Maeda m Michiru Oshima, Ryomei Shirai pd Takeo Kimura
☆ Zhang Ziyi (Princess Raccoon), Joe Odagiri (Amechiyo), Hiroko Yakushimaru (Hagi), Mikijiro Hira (Azuchi Momoyama)
† At 82, Seijun Suzuki is considered as the grand old renegade of Japanese cinema.

Princesse de l'Erotisme: see Virgin among the Living Dead

Il Principe Di Homburg ★
Italy 1996 85m Eastmancolor
Filmalbatross/Istituto Luce (Pier Giorgio Bellocchio) aka: The Prince of Homburg
A headstrong cavalry commander is condemned to death for disobeying orders.
Intriguing psychological drama, somewhat underpowered in this version; its theme--that discipline and obedience matter more than individual liberty--lacks popular appeal.
wd Marco Bellocchio play Heinrich von Kleist ph Giuseppe Lanci m Carlo Crivelli md Rinaldo Muratori pd Giantito Burchiellaro ed Francesca Calvelli
☆ Andrea Di Stefano, Barbara Bobulova, Toni Bertorelli, Anita Laurenzi, Fabio Camilli, Gianluigi Fogacci, Italo Dall'Orto, Bruno Corazzari

The Principles of Lust
GB 2003 108m colour
Pathé/Blast! (Madonna Baptiste)
In Sheffield, an aspiring novelist becomes involved with a wild photographer who introduces him to an underground world of bare-knuckle fighting and swinging sex.
Against a gritty urban background, an equally gritty drama about a naive man who has to choose between responsible love and a violent hedonistic existence; neither here rings true.
wd Penny Woolcock ph Graham Smith m Andy Cowton pd Jo Baker ed Brand Thumim ☆ Alec Newman (Paul), Sienna Guillory (Juliette), Marc Warren (Billy), Lara Clifton (Hole), Julian Barratt (Phillip)
'Dares to be confrontational, asking questions about society, libido and the male malaise.' – Jonathan Romney, Independent
'A fundamentally silly and posturing drama.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

La Prise de Pouvoir par Louis XIV: see The Rise of Louis XIV

Prison: see The Devil's Wanton

Prison
US 1988 103m colour
Entertainment/Empire (Irwin Yablans)
The spirit of a long-dead prisoner returns for revenge against the prison's new governor.
Energetic horror movie, re-animating all the clichés of prison dramas.
w C. Courtney Joyner story Irwin Yablans d Renny Harlin ph Michael Ballhaus m Richard Band, Christopher Stone pd Phillip Duffin ed Ray Lovejoy ☆ Viggo Mortensen, Chelsea Field, Lane Smith, Lincoln Kilpatrick, Tom Everett, Ivan Kane

Prison Farm
US 1938 69m bw
Paramount
A girl denounces her boyfriend when he is wanted for robbery and murder.
Good example of this studio's tour of criminals and penal institutions.
w Eddie Welch, Robert Yost, Stuart Anthony d Louis King ph Harry Fishbeck md Boris Morros ed Edward Dmytryk
☆ Lloyd Nolan, Shirley Ross, John Howard, J. Carrol Naish, Porter Hall, Anna Q. Nilsson, Esther Dale, May Boley
'First-rate entertainment despite lightweight star names.' – Variety

Prison without Bars
GB 1938 80m bw
Columbia/London Films (Arnold Pressburger)
The newest inmate of a reform school for girls vies with the superintendent for the love of the doctor.
Basically paperback trash, this film of a notorious original was shot in three languages, but the English version at least omitted the lesbianism, except by implication. Cinematically it was without style.
w Hans Wilhelm, Margaret Kennedy, Arthur Wimperis play Prison sans Barreau by Gina Kaus, E. and O. Eis, Hilde Koveloff d Brian Desmond Hurst ph Georges Périnal m John Greenwood ad Vincent Korda ed Charles Crichton
☆ Edna Best, Corinne Luchaire, Barry K. Barnes, Mary Morris, Lorraine Clewes, Martita Hunt, Glynis Johns

The Prisoner ★
GB 1955 91m bw
(Columbia) Facet/London Independent Producers (Vivian A. Cox)
In a European totalitarian state, a Cardinal is tortured and brainwashed.
Virtually a two-character talkpiece from an offbeat play which should have stayed in the theatre.
w Bridget Boland play Bridget Boland d Peter Glenville ph Reg Wyer m Benjamin Frankel ☆ Alec Guinness, Jack Hawkins, Wilfrid Lawson, Kenneth Griffith, Ronald Lewis, Raymond Huntley

'An undercover cop. An investigation. A mistake ... he's dead meat.'

The Prisoner (dubbed) ★
Hong Kong 1991 91m colour
Golden Harvest/Blaine & Blake (Jimmy Wang Yu)
An episodic film set in a tough prison ruled by thuggish warders, where an undercover cop is sent to discover the assassin of his elderly mentor, a prisoner keeps escaping to see his young son, and a gangster arrives to murder the man who accidentally killed his brother.
Interlocking plots give this downbeat martial arts movie a greater narrative appeal than most of its kind, though its morality is hardly endearing and Jackie Chan fans may be disappointed that he plays only a minor role, despite his star billing.
w Fu Li, Yeh Yuen Chin d Chu Yen Ping m Fu Lap ad Cheung Sau Ping ed Chow Tak Yeung
☆ Jackie Chan, Andy Lau, Samo Hung, Tony Leung, Jimmy Wang Yu, Ko Chuen Hsiung, Tao Chung Hwa

'Surprisingly good entertainment.' – Impact
'Unsurprising but enjoyable chop-sockey fodder.' – Sight and Sound

Prisoner of Rio

Brazil 1988 105m colour
Palace/Doisirmaos Producioes (Klaus Pagh, Michael Lunderskoff)
A British policeman goes to Brazil to bring back to justice one of the Great Train Robbers.
Special pleading on behalf of Ronald Biggs, one of the thieves involved in the robbery in 1963, which even he may find embarrassing to watch.
w Lech Majewski, Ronald Biggs, Julia Frankel d Lech Majewski ph George Mooradian m Luis Bonfa, Hans Zimmer, Luciano Perrone ad Oscar Ramos ed Darren Kloomok ☆ Steven Berkoff, Paul Freeman, Peter Firth, Florinda Bolkan, Jose Wilker, Zeze Mota, Desmond Llewelyn, Breno Mello

'And you think you've got problems?'

The Prisoner of Second Avenue ★

US 1975 98m Technicolor Panavision
Warner (Melvin Frank)
A New York clerk and his wife are driven to distraction by the problems of urban living.
Gloomier-than-usual (from this author) collection of one-liners which almost turns into a psychopathic melodrama and causes its amiable leading players to overact horrendously.
w Neil Simon play Neil Simon d Melvin Frank ph Philip Lathrop m Marvin Hamlisch
☆ Jack Lemmon, Anne Bancroft, Gene Saks, Elizabeth Wilson

The Prisoner of Shark Island★★

US 1936 95m bw
TCF (Darryl F. Zanuck)
The story of the doctor who treated the assassin of President Lincoln.
Well-mounted historical semi-fiction with excellent detail.
w Nunnally Johnson d John Ford ph Bert Glennon md Louis Silvers ☆ Warner Baxter, Gloria Stuart, Joyce Kay, Claude Gillingwater, Douglas Wood, Harry Carey, Paul Fix, John Carradine
'Strong film fare for men; will have to be sold for femme appeal.' – Variety
'A powerful film, rarely false or slow, maintaining the relentless cumulative pressure, the logical falling of one thing into another, until the audience is included in the movement and carried along with it in some definite emotional life that is peculiar to the art of motion pictures at its best.' – Otis Ferguson

Prisoner of the Cannibal God: see La Montagna del Dio Cannibale

Prisoner of the Mountains ★★

Russia/Kazakhstan 1996 99m colour
Metro/Tartan/Karavan/BG (Boris Giller, Sergei Bodrov)
original title: Kavkazskii Plennik
In the Caucasus, two Russian soldiers escape from their Muslim captors, who want to exchange them for a prisoner held by the Russians.
An engaging and tragic account of growing respect and affection across ethnic divides by people trapped in a conflict they simply wish to survive.
w Arif Aliev, Sergei Bodrov, Boris Giller d Sergei Bodrov m Leonid Desiatnikov pd Valerii Kostrin ed Olga Grinshpun, Vera Kruglova, Alan Baril
☆ Oleg Men'shikov, Sergei Bodrov Jnr, Susanna Mekhralieva, Dzhemal Sikharulidze, Alesandr Bureev, Valentina Fedotova, Aleksei Zharkov
'A powerful war story, with confused loyalties and moral codes at its centre.' – Film Review
foreign language film

Prisoner of the Volga

Italy/France 1959 102m Eastmancolor
Fides/Transmonde/Rialto (Arnaldo Genoino) original title: I Battellieri del Volga
aka: The Boatmen
A cavalry officer discovers that his newly married wife is pregnant as the result of having been raped by his commanding officer.
Revenge melodrama of an unremarkable kind.
w Mario Damiani, Arnaldo Genoino screenplay Salka Viertel, Al Lyx d Viktor Tourjansky, Arnaldo Genoino ph Mario Montuori m Norbert Glanzberg ed Roberto Cinquini
☆ John Derek, Elsa Martinelli, Dawn Adams, Gert Frobe, Charles Vanel, Ingmar Zeisberg, Rik Battaglia, Feodor Chaliapin Jnr

Prisoner of War

US 1954 81m bw
MGM (Henry Berman)
Life in a communist prison camp in Korea.
Sensational propaganda, reduced to comic strip level.
w Allen Rivkin d Andrew Marton ph Robert Planck m Jeff Alexander ☆ Ronald Reagan, Steve Forrest, Dewey Martin, Oscar Homolka, Robert Horton, Paul Stewart, Henry Morgan, Stephen Bekassy
'It presents its catalogue of horrors in a manner unworthy of the cause it attempts to uphold.' – John Gillett

'The Immortal Lovers All The World Loves!'

The Prisoner of Zenda ★★★

US 1937 101m bw
David O. Selznick
An Englishman on holiday in Ruritania finds himself helping to defeat a rebel plot by impersonating the kidnapped king at his coronation.
A splendid schoolboy adventure story is perfectly transferred to the screen in this exhilarating swashbuckler, one of the most entertaining films to come out of Hollywood.
w John Balderston, Wells Root, Donald Ogden Stewart novel Anthony Hope d John Cromwell ph James Wong Howe m Alfred Newman ad Lyle Wheeler ed Hal C. Kern, James E. Newcom
☆ Ronald Colman (Rudolph Rassendyl/King Rudolf V), Douglas Fairbanks Jnr (Rupert of Hentzau), Madeleine Carroll (Princess Flavia), David Niven (Capt. Fritz von Tarlenheim), Raymond Massey (Black Michael), Mary Astor (Antoinette De Mauban), C. Aubrey Smith (Col. Zapt), Byron Foulger (Johann), Montagu Love (Detchard)
'The most pleasing film that has come along in ages.' – New York Times
'One of those rare movies that seem, by some magic trick, to become more fascinating and beguiling with each passing year.' – John Cutts, 1971
† Previously filmed in 1913 and 1922.
Alfred Newman; Lyle Wheeler

The Prisoner of Zenda ★

US 1952 100m Technicolor
MGM (Pandro S. Berman)
A costly scene-for-scene remake which only goes to show that care and discretion are no match for the happy inspiration of the original.
w John Balderston, Noel Langley, Donald Ogden Stewart d Richard Thorpe ph Joseph Ruttenberg m Alfred Newman
☆ Stewart Granger, James Mason, Deborah Kerr, Robert Coote, Robert Douglas, Jane Greer, Louis Calhern, Francis Pierlot, Lewis Stone
† Donald Ogden Stewart, blacklisted during the 50s, had his name restored to the writing credits in 1999.

The Prisoner of Zenda

US 1979 108m Technicolor
Universal (Walter Mirisch)
Palpably uneasy version of the above which teeters between comedy and straight romance, with barely a moment of real zest creeping in. The star is way off form in both roles.
w Dick Clement, Ian La Frenais d Richard Quine ph Arthur Ibbetson m Henry Mancini pd John J. Lloyd ☆ Peter Sellers, Lynne Frederick, Lionel Jeffries, Elke Sommer, Gregory Sierra, Stuart Wilson, Jeremy Kemp, Catherine Schell, Simon Williams, Norman Rossington, John Laurie
'Flatly directed, leadenly unfunny.' – Paul Taylor, MFB

Prisoners of the Casbah

US 1953 78m Technicolor
Columbia (Sam Katzman)
An Eastern princess and her lover take refuge from the evil Grand Vizier in the Casbah, a haven for outcasts.
Inept sword and sandal actioner; you can almost smell the Turkish delight.
w DeVallon Scott d Richard Bare ph Henry Freulich md Mischa Bakaleinikoff
☆ Gloria Grahame, Cesar Romero, Turhan Bey, Nestor Paiva

'All women take to men who have the appearance of wickedness!'

The Private Affairs of Bel Ami*

US 1946 119m bw
UA/David L. Loew (Ray Heinz)
In 1890s Paris, a career journalist climbs to fame over the ruined lives of his friends.
Tame and stuffy adaptation of an incisive novel, rather poorly produced.
wd Albert Lewin novel Guy de Maupassant ph Russell Metty m Darius Milhaud
☆ George Sanders, Angela Lansbury, Ann Dvorak, Frances Dee, John Carradine, Hugo Haas, Marie Wilson, Albert Basserman, Warren William

Private Angelo

GB 1949 106m bw
Pilgrim (Peter Ustinov)
An Italian soldier hates war and spends World War II on the run from both sides.
Listless satirical comedy that just isn't funny enough.
w Peter Ustinov, Michael Anderson novel Eric Linklater d Peter Ustinov ph Erwin Hillier
☆ Peter Ustinov, Godfrey Tearle, Robin Bailey, Maria Denis, Marjorie Rhodes, James Robertson Justice, Moyna McGill

Private Benjamin

US 1980 110m Technicolor
Warner/Hawn-Myers-Shyer-Miller
A well-heeled Jewish widow, at a crossroads in her life, joins the army.
Half-assed attempt at combining slapstick, character study, sentiment, sex and a recruiting poster. Some funny moments don't really make it worth sitting through.
w Nancy Meyers, Charles Shyer, Harvey Miller d Howard Zieff ph David M. Walsh m Bill Conti ☆ Goldie Hawn, Eileen Brennan, Armand Assante, Robert Webber, Sam Wanamaker, Barbara Barrie, Harry Dean Stanton screenplay; Goldie Hawn; Eileen Brennan (supporting actress)

Private Buckaroo

US 1942 68m bw
Universal
The difficulties of putting on shows for soldiers.
Slaphappy second feature worth preserving for the talent.
w Edmund Kelso, Edward James d Edward F. Cline ph Woody Bredell md Harry James ch John Mattison ad Jack Otterson ed Milton Carruth
☆ The Andrews Sisters, Harry James and his Orchestra, Joe E. Lewis, Donald O'Connor, Peggy Ryan, Huntz Hall, Ernest Truex, Shemp Howard

A Private Conversation ★★★

USSR 1983 96m colour
Contemporary/Mosfilm
original title: Bez Svidetelei
aka: Without Witnesses
A party hack visits his ex-wife for an evening of recrimination and raking over the past.
A two-character movie in the limited setting of a small flat, but one that succeeds in its searing portrait of a failed marriage and a wasted life.
w Nikita Mikhalkov, Sofia Prokofieva, Ramiz Fataliev play Sofia Prokofieva d Nikita Mikhalkov ph Pavel Lebeshev m Eduard Artemiev ad Alexander Adabashian, Igor Makarov, Alexander Samulekin ed Eleonora Praksina ☆ Mikhail Ulyanov, Irina Kupchenko

The Private Files of J. Edgar Hoover ★

US 1978 112m Movielab
AIP/Larco (Larry Cohen)
The supposedly true facts of the career of the longtime head of the FBI.
Unreliable exposé with some interesting bits.
wd Larry Cohen ph Paul Glickman m Miklos Rozsa ☆ Broderick Crawford, José Ferrer, Michael Parks, Ronee Blakley, Rip Torn, Celeste Holm, Dan Dailey, Raymond St Jacques, Howard Da Silva, June Havoc, John Marley, Andrew Duggan, Lloyd Nolan

A Private Function ★★★

GB 1984 94m colour
Handmade (Mark Shivas)
In 1947 Yorkshire, a chiropodist and his family secretly fatten an unlicensed pig.
Sharply-detailed comedy typical of its author, but less likeable than many.
w Alan Bennett d Malcolm Mowbray

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

ph Tony Pierce-Roberts m John Du Prez pd Stuart Walker ad Michael Porter, Judith Lang ed Barrie Vince
☆ Michael Palin (Gilbert Chilvers), Maggie Smith (Joyce Chilvers), Denholm Elliott (Dr. Swaby), Richard Griffiths (Allardyce), Tony Haygarth (Sutcliff), Liz Smith (Mother), John Normington (Lockwood)
'A comedy of immense if often scatalogical charm.' – Vincent Canby
Maggie Smith; Liz Smith (supporting actress); Denholm Elliott (supporting actor)

Private Hell 36 ★
US 1954 81m bw
Filmakers
Two cops on a robbery trail find the loot and keep it for themselves.
Predictable but stylish film noir, still moderately watchable.
w Collier Young, Ida Lupino d Don Siegel ph Burnett Guffey m Leith Stevens ☆ Ida Lupino, Steve Cochran, Howard Duff, Dean Jagger, Dorothy Malone

Private Izzy Murphy
US 1926 80m approx (24 fps) bw silent
Warner
A Jewish boy loves a Catholic girl.
Dreary variant on Abie's Irish Rose, popular enough for a 1927 sequel called Sailor Izzy Murphy.
w Philip Lonergan d Lloyd Bacon
☆ George Jessel, Patsy Ruth Miller, Vera Gordon

Private Lessons
US 1981 87m Metrocolor
Barry & Enright (R. Ben Efraim)
When his father goes away on business, a rich 15-year-old boy is left in the care of a seductive housekeeper and a crooked chauffeur.
Tedious mixture of schoolboy smut and feeble comedy.
w Dan Greenburg novel Philly by Dan Greenburg d Alan Myerson ph Jan de Bont ad Linda Pearl ed Fred Chulack ☆ Sylvia Kristel, Howard Hesseman, Eric Brown, Patrick Piccininni, Ed Begley Jnr, Pamela Bryant, Meredith Baer, Dan Greenburg

Private Life ★
USSR 1982 104m colour
Contemporary/Mosfilm
original title: Chastnaya Zhizn
A businessman, retiring in his fifties, discovers that he has drifted away from his wife and children.
Perceptive, occasionally ponderous, study of a man in crisis.
w Anatoly Grebnyev, Yuli Raizman d Yuli Raizman ph Nikolai Olonovsky ad Tatyana Lapshina ☆ Mikhail Ulyanov, Iya Savvina, Irina Gubanova, Tatyana Dogileva, Aleksei Blokhin, Elena Sanayeva, Liliya Gritsenko
best foreign film

The Private Life of Don Juan
GB 1934 90m bw
London Films (Alexander Korda)
In 17th-century Spain, the famous lover fakes death and makes a comeback in disguise.
Lacklustre frolic by an overage star through dismal sets. The production was meant to extend the success of The Private Life of Henry VIII, but totally failed to do so.
w Lajos Biro, Frederick Lonsdale play Henri Bataille d Alexander Korda ph Georges Périnal m Ernst Toch
☆ Douglas Fairbanks, Merle Oberon, Binnie Barnes, Benita Hume, Joan Gardner, Melville Cooper, Athene Seyler, Owen Nares
'Technically it has so much in its favour that it's too bad it doesn't promise solid b.o. attraction.' – Variety
'One of those ideas that never really take off.' – New Yorker, 1977

'The things I do for England!'

The Private Life of Henry VIII ★★★
GB 1933 97m bw
London Films (Alexander Korda)
How Henry beheaded his second wife and acquired four more.
This never was a perfect film, but certain scenes are very funny and its sheer sauciness established the possibility of British films making money abroad, as well as starting several star careers. It now looks very dated and even amateurish in parts.
w Lajos Biro, Arthur Wimperis d Alexander Korda ph Georges Périnal m Kurt Schroeder ad Vincent Korda ed Harold Young, Stephen Harrison
☆ Charles Laughton (Henry VIII), Elsa Lanchester (Anne of Cleves), Robert Donat (Thomas Culpepper), Merle Oberon (Anne Boleyn), Binnie Barnes (Katherine Howard), Franklin Dyall (Thomas Cromwell), Miles Mander (Wriothesley), Wendy Barrie (Jane Seymour), Claud Allister (Cornell), Everley Gregg (Catherine Parr)
'Among the best anywhere and by far the top British picture ... figures a sock entry, especially for the best houses.' – Variety
Charles Laughton
best picture

The Private Life of Sherlock Holmes ★★★
GB 1970 125m DeLuxe Panavision
UA/Phalanx/Mirisch/Sir Nigel (Billy Wilder)
A secret Watson manuscript reveals cases in which Sherlock Holmes became involved with women.
What started as four stories is reduced to two, one brightly satirical and the other no more than a careful and discreet recreation, with the occasional jocular aside, of the flavour of the stories themselves. A very civilized and pleasing entertainment except for the hurried rounding-off which is a let-down.
w Billy Wilder, I. A. L. Diamond d Billy Wilder ph Christopher Challis m Miklos Rozsa ad Alexander Trauner ed Ernest Walter ☆ Robert Stephens (Sherlock Holmes), Colin Blakely (Dr. John H. Watson), Genevieve Page (Gabrielle Valladon), Clive Revill (Rogozhin), Christopher Lee (Mycroft Holmes), Catherine Lacey (Old Lady), Stanley Holloway (1st Gravedigger)
'Affectionately conceived and flawlessly executed.' – NFT, 1974
'Wilder's least embittered film, and by far his most moving. Great.' – Time Out, 1984

Private Lives ★
US 1931 82m bw
MGM (Albert Lewin)
Ex-marrieds desert their intended new spouses to try each other again.
An essentially theatrical comedy, and a great one, seems somewhat slow-witted on film.
w Hans Kraly, Richard Schayer play Noël Coward d Sidney Franklin ph Ray Binger ☆ Norma Shearer, Robert Montgomery, Reginald Denny, Una Merkel, Jean Hersholt
'Stars are a big asset to this parlour comedy which will amuse the women more than the men.' – Variety
'For polish, few comedies of the thirties can equal this early alliance of cinema and stage.' – John Baxter, 1968

The Private Lives of Elizabeth and Essex ★★
US 1939 106m Technicolor
Warner (Robert Lord)
reissue title: Elizabeth the Queen
Elizabeth I falls in love with the Earl of Essex, but events turn him into a rebel and she has to order his execution.
Unhistorical history given the grand treatment; a Hollywood picture book, not quite satisfying dramatically despite all the effort.
w Norman Reilly Raine, Aeneas Mackenzie play Elizabeth the Queen by Maxwell Anderson d Michael Curtiz ph Sol Polito, W. Howard Greene m Erich Wolfgang Korngold ad Anton Grot
☆ Bette Davis, Errol Flynn, Olivia de Havilland, Donald Crisp, Vincent Price, Alan Hale, Henry Stephenson, Henry Daniell, Leo G. Carroll, Nanette Fabray, Robert Warwick, John Sutton
'Solid box office material, with fine grosses and holdovers indicated ... in all technical departments, picture has received topnotch investiture.' – Variety
'A rather stately, rigorously posed and artistically technicolored production.' – Frank S. Nugent
Sol Polito, W. Howard Greene; Erich Wolfgang Korngold; Anton Grot

The Private Navy of Sergeant O'Farrell
US 1968 92m Technicolor
Hope Enterprises (John Beck)
After World War II, military personnel congregate on an island which has been by-passed by hostilities.
Nothing much wrong with the plot, but at this time in his career Hope seemed unable to do anything right, and the film was barely released.
wd Frank Tashlin ph Alan Stensvold m Harry Stikman
☆ Bob Hope, Gina Lollobrigida, Phyllis Diller, Jeffrey Hunter, Mylene Demongeot, Henry Wilcoxon

Private Number
US 1936 80m bw
TCF (Raymond Griffith)
GB title: Secret Interlude
A wealthy young man keeps a secret of his marriage to a housemaid.
Warmed-over class melodrama previously filmed in 1930 as Common Clay. Adequate within its lights.
w Gene Markey, William Conselman play Common Clay by Cleves Kinkead d Roy del Ruth ph Peverell Marley m Louis Silvers ☆ Loretta Young, Robert Taylor, Basil Rathbone, Patsy Kelly, Marjorie Gateson, Paul Harvey, Monroe Owsley, John Miljan

'He turned on everyone who tuned in!'

Private Parts ⑥
US 1997 109m DeLuxe
Paramount/Rysher (Ivan Reitman)
New York radio personality Howard Stern tells how, although he wants to be loved by everyone, he is always misunderstood.
Unlikable, self-regarding biopic of a notorious 'shock jock', famed for his outrageousness, though there's little evidence of it in this anodyne confection, in which he is about as abrasive as cotton wool; he limits himself to a few farting jokes and a great deal of mock humility.
w Len Blum, Michael Kalesniko book Howard Stern d Betty Thomas ph Walt Lloyd m Van Dyke Parks pd Charles Rosen ed Peter Teschner
☆ Howard Stern, Robin Quivers, Mary McCormack, Fred Norris, Paul Giamatti, Gary Dell'Abate, Jackie Martling, Carol Alt
'The Stern on display here wants to go Hollywood and so has turned in a bland cookie-cutter biopic about a vulnerable, misunderstood young man eager to make it in showbiz.' – Mark Steyn, Spectator

Private Potter
GB 1962 89m bw
MGM/Ben Arbeid
A young soldier is court-martialled for cowardice but claims he had a vision of God.
Stilted morality play, unpersuasively made and acted.
w Ronald Harwood TV play Ronald Harwood d Caspar Wrede ph Arthur Lavis m George Hall
☆ Tom Courtenay, Mogens Wieth, Ronald Fraser, James Maxwell, Ralph Michael, Brewster Mason

'He chased her... 'til she caught him!'

The Private Secretary
GB 1935 70m bw
Twickenham
A clerical gentleman is duped into protecting a rich young idler from his creditors.
Moderately effective filming of a popular stage farce from a German original.
w Arthur Macrae, George Broadhurst, H. Fowler Mear play Van Moser d Henry Edwards
☆ Edward Everett Horton, Barry Mackay, Judy Gunn, Oscar Asche, Sydney Fairbrother, Alastair Sim, Michael Shepley

The Private War of Major Benson
US 1955 105m Technicolor Cinemascope
U-I (Howard Pine)
A soldier with outspoken views is sent to cool off as commander of a military academy run by an order of nuns.
Cute and sentimental nonsense with unlikely situations, a martinet becoming soft-centred and a happy-ever-after finale.
w William Roberts, Richard Alan Simmons d Jerry Hopper ph Harold Lipstein m Henry Mancini, Herman Stein md Joseph Gershenson ad Robert Boyle, Alexander Golitzen ed Ted J. Kent ☆ Charlton Heston, Julie Adams, Tim Hovey, William Demarest, Tim Considine, Sal Mineo, Nana Bryant, Milburn Stone, Mary Field
original story (Bob Mosher, Joe Connelly)

The Private Wore Skirts: see Never Wave at a WAC

'She loved a man who did not exist except in her own private world!'

Private Worlds ★

US 1935 84m bw
Paramount (Walter Wanger)

Romance among the doctors at a mental hospital.

Melodrama treated with what was at the time unexpected seriousness.

w Lynn Starling novel Phyllis Bottome d Gregory La Cava ph Leon Shamroy m Heinz Roemheld

☆ Claudette Colbert, Charles Boyer, Joel McCrea, Joan Bennett, Helen Vinson, Esther Dale, Samuel S. Hinds

'Fine but not too artistic production woman's picture of fair b.o. potentialities.' – Variety

♗ Claudette Colbert

A Private's Affair

US 1959 92m DeLuxe Cinemascope
TCF (David Weisbart)

Three army recruits form a close harmony trio and get into various scrapes.

Thin service comedy for the 'new' youth audience.

w Winston Miller d Raoul Walsh ph Charles G. Clarke m Cyril Mockridge

☆ Sal Mineo, Christine Carere, Barry Coe, Barbara Eden, Gary Crosby, Terry Moore, Jim Backus, Jessie Royce Landis

Privates on Parade ★

GB 1982 113m colour
Handmade (Simon Relph)

Farcical and serious incidents in the lives of an army concert party in 1948 Singapore.

Rather heavy-going comedy with much bad language and an overdose of effeminacy; on the whole no funnier than It Ain't Half Hot, Mum.

w Peter Nichols play Peter Nichols d Michael Blakemore ph Ian Wilson m Denis King

☆ John Cleese, Denis Quilley, Michael Elphick, Nicola Pagett, Bruce Payne, Joe Melia Private's Progress ★★★

GB 1956 97m bw
British Lion/Charter (Roy Boulting)

An extremely innocent young national serviceman is taught a few army dodges and becomes a dupe for art thieves.

Celebrated army farce with satirical pretensions; when released it had something to make everyone in Britain laugh.

w Frank Harvey, John Boulting novel Alan Hackney d John Boulting ph Eric Cross m John Addison ad Allan Harris ed Anthony Harvey

☆ Ian Carmichael (Stanley Windrush), Terry-Thomas (Maj. Hitchcock), Richard Attenborough (Pvt. Cox), Dennis Price (Brigadier Bertram Tracepurcel), Peter Jones (Egan), William Hartnell (Sgt. Sutton), Thorley Walters (Capt. Bootle), Ian Bannen (Pvt. Horrocks), Jill Adams (Prudence Greenslade), Victor Maddern (Pvt. George Blake), Kenneth Griffith (Pvt. Dai Jones), Miles Malleson (Mr. Windrush), John Le Mesurier (Psychiatrist)

Prividenie, Kotoroe ne Vozvrashchaetsya: see The Ghost That Never Returns

Privilege ★

GB 1967 103m Technicolor
Universal/Worldfilm/Memorial (John Heyman)

The publicity campaign for a pop star turns him into a religious messiah.

Rather hysterical fable for our time, undeniably forceful in spots and yawnful in others.

w Norman Bogner story Johnny Speight d Peter Watkins ph Peter Suschitsky m Mike Leander

☆ Paul Jones, Jean Shrimpton, Mark London, Max Bacon, Jeremy Child, James Cossins, Victor Henry

'Everything in it goes wrong, and one can do little but catalogue the failures.' – MFB

Privileged ★

GB 1982 96m Technicolor
ITC/The Oxford Film Company (Richard Stevenson)

Oxford undergraduates rehearsing The Duchess of Malfi become involved in sexual intrigues which result in suicide.

Highly unusual because made and funded by the students themselves, this melodrama has vivid patches but generally lacks a professional eye.

w Michael Hoffman, David Woollcombe, Rupert Walters d Michael Hoffman ph Fiona Cunningham Reid m Rachel Portman ad Peter Schwabach ed Derek Goldman

☆ Robert Woolley, Diana Katis, Hugh Grant, Victoria Studd, James Wilby

Le Prix du Danger: see The Prize of Peril

The Prize ★★★

US 1963 135m Metrocolor Panavision
MGM/Roxbury (Pandro S. Berman)

In Stockholm during the Nobel Prize awards, a drunken American author stumbles on a spy plot.

Whatever the original novel is like, the film is a Hitchcock pastiche which works better than most Hitchcocks: suspenseful, well characterized, fast moving and funny from beginning to end.

w Ernest Lehman novel Irving Wallace d Mark Robson ph William Daniels m Jerry Goldsmith ad George W. Davis, Urie McCleary ed Adrienne Fazan

☆ Paul Newman (Andrew Craig), Elke Sommer (Inger Lisa Andersen), Edward G. Robinson (Dr. Max Stratman), Diane Baker (Emily Stratman), Kevin McCarthy (Dr. John Garrett), Leo G. Carroll (Count Bertil Jacobssen), Micheline Presle (Dr. Denise Marceau)

'Suspense melodrama played for laughs. Trouble is the basic comedy approach clashes with the political-topical framework of the story.' – Variety

A Prize of Arms

GB 1961 105m bw
British Lion/Interstate (George Maynard)

An ex-army officer and an explosives expert plan to steal an army payroll.

Standard, pacy caper melodrama offering nothing at all new.

w Paul Ryder d Cliff Owen ph Gilbert Taylor m Robert Sharples

☆ Stanley Baker, Tom Bell, Helmut Schmid, John Phillips

A Prize of Gold

GB 1955 100m Technicolor
Columbia/Warwick (Phil C. Samuel)

An American army sergeant in Berlin decides to steal a cargo of Nazi loot.

Routine caper thriller with sentimental leanings.

w Robert Buckner, John Paxton novel Max Catto d Mark Robson ph Ted Moore m Malcolm Arnold

☆ Richard Widmark, Mai Zetterling, Nigel Patrick, George Cole, Donald Wolfit, Andrew Ray, Joseph Tomelty, Karel Stepanek

The Prize of Peril

France/Yugoslavia 1983 88m
Eastmancolor
Brent Walker/Swanie Productions/ TF1/UGC/Top 1/Avala (Norbert Saada) original title: Le Prix du Danger

A man volunteers to enter a TV contest, where the prize goes to the person who can survive being hunted across Paris by armed killers.

An interesting idea, badly executed.

w Yves Boisset, Jean Curtelin story Robert Sheckley d Yves Boisset ph Pierre-William Glenn m Vladimir Cosmo ad Aleksandar Milovic ed Michelle David

☆ Gérard Lanvin, Michel Piccoli, Marie-France Pisier, Bruno Cremer, Andréa Ferréol, Jean Rougerie, Jean-Claude Dreyfus

The Prizefighter and the Lady

US 1933 102m bw
MGM (Hunt Stromberg)

GB title: Every Woman's Man

A boxer falls for a high-class gangster's girl.

Plodding romantic melodrama, popular because it starred a real boxer.

w John Meehan, John Lee Mahin d W. S. Van Dyke ph Lester White m David Snell

☆ Myrna Loy, Max Baer, Otto Kruger, Walter Huston, Jack Dempsey, Primo Carnera

'Freak Max Baer starrer, a picture that entertains in high-pressure manner.' – Variety

♗ original story (Frances Marion)

Prizzi's Honor ★

US 1985 129m DeLuxe
ABC/John Foreman

Male and female hired killers for Mafia families fall in love but are assigned to 'hit' each other.

Critically lauded but puzzling and unsatisfactory black comedy which takes far too long to get going, is muddled in narrative, and leaves an unpleasant taste.

w Richard Condon, Janet Roach novel Richard Condon d John Huston ph Andrzej Bartkowiak m Alex North pd Dennis Washington ed Rudi and Kaja Fehr

☆ Jack Nicholson, Kathleen Turner, Robert Loggia, William Hickey, John Randolph, Anjelica Huston

'Certainly one of the most curious films to kick off the summer season by an American major.' – Variety

♗ Anjelica Huston (supporting actress)

♗ best picture; direction; Jack Nicholson; William Hickey; adapted screenplay; editing

♉ adapted screenplay

Problem Child

US 1990 81m DeLuxe
UIP/Universal/Imagine Entertainment (Robert Simonds)

A badly behaved boy is adopted by a small-town couple.

Broadly played, predictable comedy of mayhem and misunderstandings.

w Scott Alexander, Larry Karaszewski d Dennis Dugan ph Peter Lyons Collister m Miles Goodman pd George Costello ed Daniel Hanley, Michael Hill

☆ John Ritter, Jack Warden, Michael Oliver, Gilbert Gottfried, Amy Yasbeck, Michael Richards, Peter Jurasik, Charlotte Akin

'Universal took a step in the right direction by whittling it down to just 81 minutes but didn't go far enough. The studio should have excised another 75 minutes and released this unbelievable mess as a short.' – Variety

'Now, Junior has a brand new friend. He's bad. She's worse.'

Problem Child 2

US 1991 91m DeLuxe
UIP/Universal/Imagine (Robert Simonds)

An ill-behaved boy decides that his father should marry the mother of his friend, a badly behaved girl.

Nasty-minded, witless slapstick with an anal fixation.

w Scott Alexander, Larry Karaszewski d Brian Levant ph Peter Smokler m David Kitay pd Maria Caso ed Lois Freeman-Fox, Robert P. Seppey

☆ John Ritter, Michael Oliver, Jack Warden, Laraine Newman, Amy Yasbeck, Ivyann Schwan, Gilbert Gottfried, Paul Wilson

'No seam of bad taste is left unmined as the screenwriters sink to impossibly low depths in pursuit of anything vaguely resembling a laugh.' – Mark Salisbury, Empire

Le Procès: see The Trial

Procès de Jeanne d'Arc ★★

France 1962 65m bw
Agnès Delahaie

aka: The Trial of Joan of Arc

Joan of Arc is tried for heresy at the University of Paris and, under pressure from the English, burned at the stake.

An austere, almost ritualistic retelling of the trial, based on the actual documents and eye-witness accounts; its non-judgmental approach, letting the drama speak for itself, is ultimately more moving and engrossing than the usual sensationalist approaches.

wd Robert Bresson ph Léonce-Henry Burel m Francis Seyrig ad Pierre Charbonnier ed Germaine Artus

☆ Florence Carrez, Jean-Claude Fourneau, Roger Honorat, Marc Jacquier, Jean Gillibert, Michel Herubel, André Régnier, Arthur Le Bau

'Little good can be said about Bresson's catatonic Trial of Joan of Arc.' – John Simon

'Terse, spare, and oddly perfunctory.' – Pauline Kael

† The film won the Special Jury Prize at the Cannes Film Festival of 1962.

The Prodigal

US 1931 76m bw
MGM

The scion of a Southern plantation becomes a tramp.

Pleasant minor musical with a star who never really caught on.

w Bess Meredyth, Wells Root d Harry Pollard

☆ Lawrence Tibbett, Esther Ralston, Roland Young, Cliff Edwards, Purnell Pratt, Hedda Hopper, Stepin Fetchit

'Between average and good ... should top the normal gross.' – Variety

'The story of woman's beauty and man's temptation!'

The Prodigal

US 1955 115m Eastmancolor Cinemascope
MGM (Charles Schnee)

The son of a Hebrew farmer falls for the high priestess of a pagan cult.

Wildly apocryphal 'biblical' story of obvious expensiveness but no merit.
w Maurice Zimm d Richard Thorpe ph Joseph Ruttenberg m Bronislau Kaper ☆ Lana Turner, Edmund Purdom, Louis Calhern, James Mitchell, Walter Hampden, Francis L. Sullivan, Joseph Wiseman, Audrey Dalton, Taina Elg, Neville Brand, Cecil Kellaway
'A few lines of dialogue derive from the Bible; the rest is pure Hollywood, but Hollywood in its mood of sham solemnity when even the unintentional jokes are not funny.' – MFB
'A costume stinker ... it should have played Disneyland!' – Lana Turner

The Prodigal Son (dubbed)
Hong Kong 1981 90m colour
Paragon (Raymond Chow)
original title: Bai Ga Jai
A spoilt, rich young man, determined to become a kung fu master, attaches himself to a fighter who is also the star of a Chinese opera troupe, with fatal results for many.
By Western standards, an unsettling mix of broad comedy and bloody violence, but done with some style.
w Samo Hung, Wong Bing Yiu d Samo Hung ph Lau Kwun Wai m Frankie Chan, Chan Pui Lap ad Chien Sum ed Cheung Yiu Chung ☆ Samo Hung, Yuen Biao, Frankie Chan, Lam Chen Ying, Chung Fat, Dick Wai, Wai Pak, Chan Lung

The Producers ★★★
US 1968 88m Pathécolor
Avco/Springtime/Crossbow (Sidney Glazier)
A Broadway producer seduces elderly widows to obtain finance for his new play, sells 25,000 per cent in the expectation that it will flop, and is horrified when it succeeds.
A cult success that is not always as funny as it thinks it is, but is nonetheless enjoyable; the terrible musical Springtime for Hitler, is neatly done.
wd Mel Brooks ph Joseph Coffey m John Morris ch Alan Johnson ad Charles Rosen ed Ralph Rosenbloom ☆ Zero Mostel (Max Bialystock), Gene Wilder (Leo Bloom), Kenneth Mars (Franz Liebkind), Estelle Winwood (Old Lady), Renee Taylor (Eva Braun), Dick Shawn (Lorenzo St. Du Bois)
'One of the funniest movies ever made.' – Roger Ebert
'An almost flawless triumph of bad taste, unredeemed by wit or style.' – Arthur Schlesinger Jnr
'Over and over again promising ideas are killed off, either by over-exposure or bad timing.' – Tom Milne
Mel Brooks (as writer)
Gene Wilder

The Producers ★★ (5)
US 2005 134m DeLuxe Panavision
Universal/Columbia/Brooksfilms (Mel Brooks, Jonathan Sanger)
With the aid of a timid accountant, a producer attempts to recoup his losses by staging a flop.
The movie version of the Broadway musical of Mel Brooks' film has plenty of vaudeville-style fun, though the direction is unimaginative.
w Mel Brooks, Thomas Meehan musical and film Mel Brooks d Susan Stroman ph John Bailey, Charles Minsky m/ly Mel Brooks ch Susan Stroman pd Mark Friedberg ed Steven Weisberg cos William Ivey Long ☆ Nathan Lane (Max Bialystock), Matthew Broderick (Leo Bloom), Uma Thurman (Ulla), Will Ferrell (Franz Liebkind), Gary Beach (Roger De Bris), Roger Bart (Carmen Ghia), Eileen Essell (Hold Me-Touch Me)
'So determinedly old-fashioned it makes a strong claim to being the best film musical of 1959.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety
'It's too long to be great and it's too square to be great and it's too loud to be great and it finds homosexual effeminacy too funny to ever be called great, but I can't imagine anyone coming out sadder than they went in.' – Stephen Hunter, Washington Post

Profession: Reporter: see The Passenger

The Professional
France 1981 111m colour
Les Films Ariane/Cerito (Alain Belmondo) original title: Le Professionnel
A French hitman, betrayed by his superiors, escapes from an African prison to seek revenge by carrying out his original assignment.
Routine action adventure, influenced by spaghetti Westerns; it has its occasional moments, including a car chase around the steps of Paris.
w Georges Lautner, Jacques Audiard, Michel Audiard novel Death of a Thin-Skinned Animal by Patrick Alexander d Georges Lautner ph Henri Decae m Ennio Morricone ad Eric Moulard éd Michelle David ☆ Jean-Paul Belmondo, Jean Desailly, Marie-Christine Descouard, Cyrielle Claire, Robert Hossein, Elisabeth Marconi, Jean-Louis Richard, Michel Beaune

The Professional: see Leon (1994)

A Professional Gun: see The Mercenary

Professional Soldier
US 1936 75m bw
TCF (Darryl F. Zanuck)
A kidnapper befriends the young prince who is his victim.
Predictable, polished family film.
w Gene Fowler, Howard Ellis Smith story Damon Runyon d Tay Garnett ph Rudolph Maté m Louis Silvers ☆ Victor McLaglen, Freddie Bartholomew, Constance Collier, Gloria Stuart, Michael Whalen
'Some of the sequences are amusing; some of the action is very fast. But fundamentally the story is not believable.' – Variety

Professional Sweetheart
US 1933 70m bw
RKO (Merian C. Cooper)
GB title: Imaginary Sweetheart
A radio 'purity girl' seeks some real life romance.
Modestly smart comedy of no lasting merit.
w Maurine Watkins d William Seiter ph Edward Cronjager m Max Steiner
☆ Ginger Rogers, Betty Furness, Gregory Ratoff, Sterling Holloway, Frank McHugh, ZaSu Pitts, Allen Jenkins, Norman Foster, Edgar Kennedy, Franklin Pangborn
'After a fast start this radio satire loses a lot of ground ... but comedy's there all the way.' – Variety

The Professionals ★★
US 1966 123m Technicolor Panavision
Columbia/Pax (Richard Brooks)
Skilled soldiers of fortune are hired by a millionaire rancher to get back his kidnapped wife.
Strong-flavoured star Western with good suspense sequences.
wd Richard Brooks novel A Mule for the Marquesa by Frank O'Rourke ph Conrad Hall m Maurice Jarre
☆ Burt Lancaster, Lee Marvin, Robert Ryan, Jack Palance, Ralph Bellamy, Claudia Cardinale, Woody Strode
'After the Lord Jim excursion, it is good to see Brooks back on his own professional form, filming the tight, laconic sort of adventure which usually seems to bring out the best in Hollywood veterans.' – Penelope Houston
'It has the expertise of a cold old whore with practised hands and no thoughts of love.' – Pauline Kael, 1968
Richard Brooks (as writer and as director); Conrad Hall

Professor Beware ★
US 1938 93m bw
Paramount
A staid professor finds himself on the run across America in pursuit of an Egyptian artefact.
Slow-starting comedy with only moments of the comedian at his best.
w Delmer Daves, Jack Cunningham story Crampton Harris, Francis M. and Marian B. Cockrell d Elliott Nugent ph Archie Stout ☆ Harold Lloyd, Phyllis Welch, Raymond Walburn, Lionel Stander, William Frawley, Thurston Hall, Cora Witherspoon, Sterling Holloway
'Both Lloyd and the audience are out of breath after 3000 miles cross country, but most of it is exhaustion from laughing.' – Variety

Professor Mamlock ★★
USSR 1938 100m bw
Lenfilm
The leading surgeon of a Berlin hospital is driven to attempt suicide because he is a Jew.
Ironic in all kinds of ways, this quite devastating film was a unique attack by one government on a neighbouring one.
w Friedrich Wolf, Adolph Minkin, Herbert Rappaport d Adolph Minkin, Herbert Rappaport
☆ Sergei Mezhinski, E. Nikitina, Oleg Zhakov, Nina Shaternikova, Vasili Merkuriev
'An arresting picture which is sure to arouse strenuous comment.' – Variety
'The theme of a story should never be expressed so plainly; argument is valueless in fiction unless it is dramatic and individualized.' – Graham Greene, The Spectator

Profondo Rosso: see Deep Red

Profundo Carmesi: see Deep Crimson

Progeny
US 1998 100m colour
Fries (Jack F. Murphy, Henry Seggerman)
A Californian doctor fears that his wife is going to give birth to an alien baby.
Slow-paced psychological horror with some gruesome moments; after a long, dull opening, it becomes more interesting and suspenseful.
w Aubrey Solomon, Stuart Gordon d Brian Yuzna ph James Hawkinson m Steven Morrell pd Anthony Tremblay ed Christopher Roth, Harry B. Miller III sp make-up: Anthony C. Ferrante; visual fx: Marcus Keys; creature: Screaming Mad George ☆ Arnold Vosloo, Jillian McWhirter, Brad Dourif, Lindsay Crouse, Wilford Brimley, Willard E. Pugh, David Wells

The Program
US 1993 114m colour
Buena Vista/Touchstone/Samuel Goldwyn (Samuel Goldwyn Jnr)
A college coach, faced with losing his job unless his team improves, recruits some dubious new players.
The problems of college football have never seemed less interesting; the movie retains a slight anthropological interest for audiences outside North America.
w David S. Ward, Aaron Latham d David S. Ward ph Victor Hammer m Michel Colombier pd Albert Brenner ed Paul Seydor, Kimberly Ray
☆ James Caan, Halle Berry, Omar Epps, Craig Sheffer, Kristy Swanson, Abraham Benrubi, Duane Davis, Andrew Bryniarski, J. Leon Pridgen II

Il Proiezionista: see The Inner Circle

Project A ★
Hong Kong 1984 108m colour
Golden Harvest (Leonard K. C. Ho)
In 1903 a Chinese coastguard quits the force in order to track down pirates that his superiors tolerate.
One of the better kung-fu movies, mixing humour with spectacular stunts and frenetically choreographed fights.
wd Jackie Chan
☆ Jackie Chan, Samo Hung, Li Hai Sheng, Yuan Baio

Project A-Ko (dubbed)
Japan 1986 120m colour
Soeishinsha/APPP (Kazufumu Nomura)
While aliens try to kidnap her, a 16-year-old girl with superhuman powers fights a rival for the friendship of another girl.
Bizarre animated parody of high-tech science fantasy and high-school romance.
w Yuji Moriyama, Katsuhiko Nishijima, Tomoko Kawasaki d Katsuhiko Nishijima ph Takafumi Arai m Richie Zito, Joey Carbone, Toji Akasaka ad Shinji Kimura
☆ Featuring the voices of: Stacey Gregg, Denica Fairman, Julia Brahms, Marc Smith, Jay Benedict, Lisa Ross

Project M 7: see The Net

Project X ★
US 1968 97m Technicolor
Paramount/William Castle
In the year 2118, a man is scientifically induced to think he lives in the 1960s so that he can recover a lost secret.
Fearsomely complex science fiction, cheaply made but on the whole intriguingly imagined.
w Edmund Morris novel Leslie P. Davies d William Castle ph Harold Stine m Van Cleave ☆ Christopher George, Greta Baldwin, Henry Jones, Monte Markham, Harold Gould

Project X
US 1987 108m DeLuxe
TCF (Walter F. Parkes, Lawrence Lasker)
A pilot rebels when he is assigned a new job

teaching chimps to fly and then discovers the real purpose of the project.
An odd little film that raises questions about the morality of experimenting on animals and then retreats into fantasy instead of confronting them. Some attractive performances from the apes hardly compensate.
w Stanley Weiser d Jonathan Kaplan ph Dean Cundey m James Horner pd Lawrence G. Paull ed O. Nicholas Brown
☆ Matthew Broderick, Helen Hunt, Bill Sadler, Johnny Ray McGhee, Jonathan Stark, Robin Gammell, Stephen Lang, Jean Smart

The Projected Man
GB 1966 90m Technicolor Techniscope
Compton (John Croydon, Maurice Foster)
A scientist working on a matter transmitter experiments on himself and turns monster.
Low-budget shocker with a narrative that owes more than a little to The Fly*; the acting and direction are ponderous at best, and the subplot, involving love and jealousy, is uninteresting.*
w John C. Cooper, Peter Bryan story Frank Quattrocchi d Ian Curteis ph Stanley Pavey m Kenneth V. Jones ad Peter Mullins ed Derek Holding sp Flo Nordhoff, Robert Hedges, Mike Hope ☆ Mary Peach, Norman Wooland, Derek Farr, Bryant Haliday, Ronald Allen, Tracey Crisp, Derrick de Marney, Sam Kydd, Gerard Heinz

'Don't go there alone!'

Promenons-Nous Dans Les Bois
France 2000 90m colour
Canal+/Fidelelite/Glozel/Cofimage/Gimages/Images6 (Olivier Delbosc, Marc Missonnier)
GB title: Deep in the Woods
An aristocrat invites a troupe of young actors to his remote chateau in order to stage a performance of Red Riding Hood for his grandson; then the killings begin...
Glib, glossy and gory horror that is derivative of recent Hollywood teen slasher movies.
w Annabelle Perrichon, Lionel Delplanque d Lionel Delplanque ph Denis Rouden m Jérôme Coullet pd Arnaud de Moléron ed Pomme Zhed ☆ Clotilde Courau (Sophie), Clément Sibony (Matthieu), Vincent Lecoeur (Wilfried), Alexia Stresi (Jeanne), Maud Buquet (Mathilde), François Berléand (Axel de Fersen), Denis Lavant (Stéphane)
'Despite its enthusiastic and liberal doses of gore and naked flesh, Delplanque's crude feature debut fails to either excite or scare.' – Chris Wiegand, Boxoffice

The Promise
GB 1969 98m Eastmancolor
Commonwealth United/Howard and Wyndham
Two young men and a girl share a flat after the 1942 siege of Leningrad; thirteen years later, their dreams of life considerably modified, they meet again and change partners.
Talky and too carefully budgeted screen version of a somewhat pretentious play.
w Michael Hayes play Aleksei Arbuzov d Michael Hayes ph Brendan Stafford m Iwan Williams pd William McCrow
☆ Ian McKellen, John Castle, Susan Macready, Mary Jones, David Mettheim

The Promise
US 1979 97m Technicolor Panavision
Universal (Fred Weintraub, Paul Heller)
GB TV title: Face of a Stranger
A young man fails to recognize his lost love when her face has been rebuilt after an accident.
Rambling teenage variation on Random Harvest*, not very well done and about forty years behind its proper times.*
w Garry Michael White d Gilbert Cates ph Ralph Woolsey m David Shire ☆ Kathleen Quinlan, Stephen Collins, Beatrice Straight, Laurence Luckinbill, William Prince 'Appalling romantic tushery by any standards.' – Tom Milne, MFB
♫ song 'I'll Never Say Goodbye' (m David Shire, ly Alan and Marilyn Bergman)

The Promise ★
Germany/France 1994 110m Eastmancolor
Artificial Eye/Bioskop/Odessa/MH/WDR (Eberhard Junkersdorf) original title: Das Versprechen
Lovers are separated for more than 20 years by the Berlin Wall.
Slow-moving, intermittently engaging, small-scale drama of the effect of the Cold War on individual lives.
w Peter Schneider, Margarethe von Trotta idea Francesco Laudadio d Margarethe von Trotta ph Franz Rath m Jürgen Knieper pd Martin Dostal ed Suzanne Baron ☆ Meret Becker, Corinna Harfouch, Anian Zollner, August Zirner, Susann Ugé, Eva Mattes, Jean-Yves Gaultier
'Plods doggedly through the bitter years, underlining its metaphorical points heavy-handedly.' – George Perry

Promise at Dawn
US/France 1970 102m DeLuxe
Avco/Nathalie (Jules Dassin)
The boyhood of novelist Romain Gary and the last years of his fearsome Russian Jewish actress mother with whom he traipses around Europe.
Scrappy star vehicle and unnecessary biopic in a variety of indulgent styles.
w Jules Dassin play First Love by Samuel Taylor d Jules Dassin ph Jean Badal m Georges Delerue ☆ Melina Mercouri, Assaf Dayan

Promise Her Anything
GB 1966 97m Technicolor
Seven Arts (Stanley Rubin)
A mail order movie maker falls for a young French widow in the next flat.
Scatty comedy set in Greenwich Village and aiming in vain for a kind of frantic bohemian charm, with a baby as deus ex machina.
w William Peter Blatty d Arthur Hiller ph Douglas Slocombe m Lyn Murray
☆ Warren Beatty, Leslie Caron, Hermione Gingold, Lionel Stander, Robert Cummings, Keenan Wynn, Cathleen Nesbitt
'Good-natured bounce the picture has, but the going gets mighty bumpy and frantic in this harmless story.' – New York Times

Promised Land
US 1988 103m colour
Vestron/Wildwood/Oxford Film Company
Two high-school friends meet a couple of years later, when one is a cop and the other a robber.
Atmospheric, downbeat tale of thwarted hopes.
wd Michael Hoffman ph Ueli Steiger, Alexander Gruszynski m James Newton Howard pd Eugenio Zanetti ed David Spiers
☆ Kiefer Sutherland, Meg Ryan, Jason Gedrick, Tracy Pollan, Googy Gress, Deborah Richter

Promises in the Dark
US 1979 115m Metrocolor
Warner/Orion (Jerome Hellman)
A young girl dies of cancer.
Depressing and not particularly well done case history, a curious enterprise in view of the hundreds of television movies relentlessly exploring the same field.
w Loring Mandel d Jerome Hellman ph Adam Holender m Leonard Rosenman
☆ Marsha Mason, Ned Beatty, Susan Clark, Michael Brandon, Kathleen Beller, Paul Clemens

The Promoter: see The Card

'Before Love Comes Trust. Before Trust Comes...'

Proof ★★
Australia 1991 90m colour
Artificial Eye/House & Moorhouse Films/Australian Film Commission/Film Victoria (Lynda House)
A blind photographer spurns the love of his housekeeper and forms a friendship with a restaurant worker who describes his photographs to him.
A complex story of betrayal that was a notable debut for its director.
wd Jocelyn Moorhouse ph Martin McGrath m Not Drowning, Waving pd Patrick Reardon ed Ken Sallows ☆ Hugo Weaving, Genevieve Picot, Heather Mitchell, Jeffrey Walker, Daniel Pollock, Frankie J. Holden, Frank Gallacher, Saskia Post
'An imaginative ethical and psychological drama that is as gripping as a thriller.' – Philip French, Observer
'One of this or any year's most confident and original writer-director debuts ... a breakthrough in concept and technique.' – Alexander Walker, London Evening Standard

'The biggest risk in life is not taking one.'

Proof ★ (6)
US/GB 2004 100m colour
Buena Vista/Hart Sharp Entertainment (Jeffrey Sharp, John N. Hart Jnr, Robert Kessel, Alison Owen)
The brilliant daughter of a brilliant mathematician, who cared for him during his illness, fears that, like him, she may be going mad.
A successful play looks a little lost on screen, particularly when photographed in close-up, and its central character comes across as self-obsessed and shows little evidence of intellect.
w David Auburn, Rebecca Miller play David Auburn d John Madden ph Alwin Kuchler m Stephen Warbeck pd Alice Normington ed Mick Audsley
☆ Gwyneth Paltrow (Catherine), Anthony Hopkins (Robert), Jake Gyllenhaal (Hal), Hope Davis (Claire), Gary Houston (Prof Jay Barrow), Roshan Seth (Prof Bhandari)
'The movie unfolds in a mood of worrisome glumness... as is so often the case, what struck theatre audiences as smart and provoking winds up onscreen looking smug.' – Anthony Lane, New Yorker
'Against considerable odds and despite a shaky start, Proof proves itself in every area.' – Kenneth Turan, Los Angeles Times

Proof of Life
US/GB 2000 135m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Castle Rock/Bel-Air/Anvil (Taylor Hackford, Charles Mulvehill)
After her husband is kidnapped in South America, a wife hires an ex-SAS officer to negotiate his release.
A movie that fails to make an audience care for the people involved, for all its attempts to update Casablanca with its repressed romance and world-weary airs.
w Tony Gilroy Vanity Fair article Adventures in the Ransom Trade by William Prochnau book Long March to Freedom by Thomas Hargrove d Taylor Hackford ph Slawomir Idzak m Danny Elfman pd Bruno Rubeo ed John Smith, Sheldon Kahn cos Ruth Myers ☆ Meg Ryan (Alice Bowman), Russell Crowe (Terry Thorne), David Morse (Peter Bowman), Pamela Reed (Janis Goodman), David Caruso (Dino), Anthony Heald (Ted Fellner), Stanley Anderson (Jerry), Gottfried John (Eric Kessler), Alun Armstrong (Wyatt), Michael Kitchen (Ian Havery), Margo Martindale (Ivy)
'A complete no-brainer.' – Guardian
'A disappointingly routine thriller that prefers to lean on tired Hollywood conventions rather than to explore fresh dramatic and stylistic territory.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

'It lives. Don't move. Don't breathe. There's nowhere to run. It will find you.'

Prophecy
US 1979 102m Movielab Panavision
Paramount (Robert L. Rosen)
In rural Maine, mercury poisoning produces huge animal mutants.
Unpleasant ecological shocker with no particular talent in evidence.
w David Seltzer d John Frankenheimer ph Harry Stradling Jnr m Leonard Rosenman pd William Craig Smith ☆ Talia Shire, Robert Foxworth, Armand Assante, Richard Dysart

The Prophecy
US 1995 96m colour
Neo Motion (Joel Soisson)
aka: God's Army
A former priest turned detective discovers that the angel Gabriel is revolting against God and, to help with strategy, is seeking the soul of a dead general that has been hidden in a living girl.
Bizarre low-budget chase thriller that is enjoyable in an over-the-top way; it's helpful to discover that bad angels wear black leather trousers.
wd Gregory Widen ph Bruce D. Johnson, Richard Clabaugh m David C. Williams pd Clark Hunter ed Sonny Baskin sp Jor van Kline
☆ Christopher Walken, Elias Koteas, Eric Stoltz, Virginia Madsen, Moriah Snyder, Amanda Plummer, Viggo Mortensen, Adam Goldberg
'An occult freakshow so inert it seems to have been pasted together out of stock footage.' – Owen Gleiberman, Entertainment Weekly

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

'Their mistake was trusting her.'

The Proposal

US 1999 91m colour
Curb/Front Street (Carole Curb Nemoy/Mike Curb, Harvey Kahn)

A paranoid undercover cop investigating a ruthless gangster reluctantly accepts a female partner when he needs to pretend to be married.
A slow-paced thriller with not many thrills and an inevitable romance; it never achieves any feeling of place or reality.
w Maurice Hurley d Richard Gale ph Curtis Petersen m Joseph Conlan pd Ilya Obretenov ed Richard Benwick, Pamela Benwuck
☆ Jennifer Esposito (Susan Reese), Nick Moran (Terry Martin), Stephen Lang (Simon Bacig), William B. Davis (Agent Frank Gruning), Michael Kopsa (Zack Mallette), Alex Daikun (Jimmy), Brian Jensen (Ray), Mark Acheson (Jules), Ted Kozma (Jojo), Jerry Walliser (Ice)

'One man gave up everything he owned. The other, everything he believed in.'

The Proposition

US 1998 110m Technicolor
Polygram/Interscope (Ted Field, Diane Nabatoff, Scott Kroopf)

In Boston in the 30s, a man falls in love with the wife of an impotent lawyer after he is hired to impregnate her.
A lurid melodrama of sudden deaths, overwhelming passions and a priest behaving badly, it hovers on the edge of risibility.
w Rick Ramage d Lesli Linka Glatter ph Peter Sova m Stephen Endelman pd David Brisbin ed Jacqueline Cambas
☆ Kenneth Branagh, Madeleine Stowe, William Hurt, Neil Patrick Harris, Robert Loggia, Josef Sommer, Blythe Danner, David Byrd
'The Proposition is an offer most people will be able to refuse.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

The Proposition ★★ ⑥

GB/Australia 2004 104m colour
Tartan/UKFC/Surefire/Autonomous Pictures in Paradise

In the Australian bush in the 1880s, an outlaw is given a choice of hunting down and killing his violent elder brother or seeing his younger one, aged 14, hanged.
Bleak, brutal Western of the attempted taming of the outback and the failure of colonisation.
w Nick Cave d John Hillcoat ph Benoit Delhomme m Nick Cave, Warren Ellis pd Chris Kennedy ed John Gregory, Ian Seymour
☆ Guy Pearce (Charlie Burns), Ray Winstone (Captain Stanley), Danny Huston (Arthur Burns), John Hurt (Jellon Lamb), David Wenham (Eden Fletcher), Emily Watson (Martha Stanley), Noah Taylor (Brian O'Leary), David Gulpilil (Jacko)
'One of the most powerful frontier films I've seen. Lyrical too.' – James Christopher, Times
'A fatuous melodrama that tries to make up in cheap pathos what it lacks in narrative presence.' – Catherine Shoard, Sunday Telegraph
'With its fevered performances, it's not a film that wants to be cared for; it wants to drive us into an enforced communion with the blood, the heatstroke, and the drought. It wants to bruise our faith in cultural harmony.' – Anthony Lane, New Yorker

The Proprietor

GB/France/Turkey/US 1996 113m
Fujicolour
Warner/Merchant Ivory/Ognon/Fez (Humbert Balsan, Donald Rosenfeld)

A Jewish writer returns from New York to buy a hotel in Paris as a means of investigating her past and her mother's death at the hands of the Nazis.
Unsuccessful and meandering exploration of multi-culturalism; it never quite comes into focus, whether dealing with highbrow or with popular culture.
w Jean-Marie Besset, George Trow, Andrew Litvak d Ismail Merchant ph Larry Pizer m Richard Robbins pd Bruno Santini, Kevin Thompson ed William Webb ☆ Jeanne Moreau, Sean Young, Sam Waterston, Christopher Cazenove, Nell Carter, Jean-Pierre Aumont, Austin Pendleton
'For once, even Moreau's magic is not enough to save a film.' – George Perry

Proshchanie: see Farewell

Prosperity

US 1932 90m bw
MGM

Mothers-in-law disagree about the marriage of their children.
Reliable comedy of the Depression, marking the last teaming of its popular stars.
w Eve Greene, Zelda Sears d Sam Wood
☆ Marie Dressler, Polly Moran, Anita Page, Norman Foster, Henry Armetta
'Sure-fire money picture ... could stand a little cutting but on the whole it's a workmanlike production.' – Variety

'A magician's spell, the innocence of young love and a dream of revenge unite to create a tempest.'

Prospero's Books ★★★

Netherlands/France/Italy 1991 120m colour
Palace/Allarts/Cinea/Camera One/Penta/Elsevier Vendex/Film Four/VPRO/Canal Plus/NHK (Kees Kasander, Denis Wigman)

Abandoned with his daughter on an island, the former Duke of Milan invokes a storm to wreck the ship carrying those who betrayed him and so regain his dukedom.
A free and exuberant adaptation of Shakespeare, using the techniques of High Definition Television and computer technology to create dense, rich, bookish images and with Gielgud speaking virtually all of the verse. It may be best watched on video, where you can rewind the film or freeze-frame images to take it all in.
wd Peter Greenaway play The Tempest by William Shakespeare ph Sacha Vierny m Michael Nyman pd Ben van Os, Jan Roelfs ed Marina Bodbyl
☆ John Gielgud (Prospero), Michael Clark (Caliban), Michel Blanc (Alonso), Erland Josephson (Gonzalo), Isabelle Pasco (Miranda), Tom Bell (Antonio), Kenneth Cranham (Sebastian), Mark Rylance (Ferdinand), Gérard Thoolen (Adrian), Pierre Bokma (Francisco), Michiel Romeyn (Stephano)
'An intellectually and erotically rampaging meditation on the arrogance and value of the artistic process.' – Variety
'A remarkable feast, taking in the video revolution at one level and a highly literate interpretation of Shakespeare at another. Nothing quite like it has been seen before, let alone from a British director.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

Prostitute

GB 1980 96m colour
Kestrel (Tony Garnett)

A provincial tart moves into the West End.
Downbeat, supposedly realistic documentary drama which ends up being depressing but not in the least titillating.
wd Tony Garnett ph Charles Stewart m The Gangsters
☆ Eleanor Forsythe, Kate Crutchley, Kim Lockett, Nancy Samuels

'There's something funny going on in the world of diplomacy!'

Protocol

US 1984 96m Technicolor
Warner (Anthea Sylbert)

A cocktail waitress thwarts an assassination and becomes a career diplomat.
Star comedy with Something to Say and not much to laugh at; a step down even from Private Benjamin.
w Buck Henry d Herbert Ross ph William A. Fraker m Basil Poledouris pd Bill Malley ed Paul Hirsch ☆ Goldie Hawn, Chris Sarandon, Gail Strickland, Richard Romanus, André Gregory, Cliff de Young

Prototype

US 1992 94m colour
Filmtown (Gian-Carlo Scandiuzzi, Phillip Roth)

In Los Angeles in the 21st century, a cripple is transformed into an indestructible cybernetic robot in order to eliminate the last of the Omegas, human beings altered to become the new leaders of civilization.
Post-apocalyptic science fiction, cheap in every respect, indifferently acted and where the future looks much like the present, only dirtier and with no-smoking rules relaxed.
wd Phillip Roth ph Mark W. Gray m Emilio Kauderer ed Daniel Lawrence ☆ Lane Lenhart, Robert Tossberg, Brenda Swanson, Paul Coulj, Mitchell Cox, Sebastien Scandiuzzi
'Dingy visuals, murky scripting, vague characters and a lack of actual action render the whole thing remarkably unexciting.' – Empire

The Proud and Profane

US 1956 112m bw Vistavision
Paramount (William Perlberg)

In the Pacific War a Roman Catholic widow falls for a tough lieutenant colonel. ('My pleasure is physical; my men call me The Beast.') Unlikely romantic melodrama with a certain amount of plain speaking, otherwise routine.
wd George Seaton novel The Magnificent Bastards by Lucy Herndon Crockett ph John F. Warren m Victor Young ad Hal Pereira, A. Earl Hedrick ☆ William Holden, Deborah Kerr, Thelma Ritter, Dewey Martin, William Redfield
art direction

The Proud and the Beautiful

France 1953 90m bw
C.I.C.C./Chrysaor/Iena/Reforma (Louis Wipf, Felipe Subervielle)

original title: Les Orgueilleux
aka: The Proud Ones
In a small Mexican town, a drunken doctor is redeemed by the love of a tourist unexpectedly detained by the sudden death of her husband from a contagious disease.
Ineffably silly, poorly acted and unconvincing romance.
w Jean Aurenche, Yves Allegret novel L'Amour Rédempteur by Jean-Paul Sartre d Yves Allégret ph Alex Phillips m Paul Misraki ad Gunther Gerszo ed Claude Nicole ☆ Michele Morgan, Gérard Philipe, Victor Manuel Mendoza, Carlos Lopez Moctezuma, Michele Cordoue, Andre Toffel, Arturo Soto Rangel
Jean-Paul Sartre

The Proud Ones: see The Proud and the Beautiful (1953)

The Proud Ones

US 1956 94m Eastmancolor
Cinemascope
TCF (Robert L. Jacks)

A marshal cleans up a crooked town despite the hazards of his own physical disability and a deputy who hates him.
Entertaining though rather foolishly scripted Western.
w Edmund North, Joseph Patracca d Robert D. Webb ph Lucien Ballard m Lionel Newman
☆ Robert Ryan, Jeffrey Hunter, Virginia Mayo, Robert Middleton
'One has only to look at a first-rate Western to recognise the makeshift quality of The Proud Ones.' – Dilys Powell

The Proud Ones ★

France 1980 118m Eastmancolor
Gala/Production Bela/TF1 (Georges de Beauregard)

original title: Le Cheval d'Orgueil
In the early years of the century, a young boy grows up in a peasant community in Brittany.
Lovingly observed and glossy exercise in nostalgia, ravishing to look at, but somewhat stilted.
w Daniel Boulanger, Claude Chabrol book Pierre-Jakez Helias d Claude Chabrol ph Jean Rabier m Pierre Jansen ad Hilton McConnico ed Monique Fardoulis ☆ Jacques Dufilho, Bernadette Lesache, François Cluzet, Ronan Hubert, Paul Leperson, Pierre Le Rumeur, Michel Blanc

The Proud Rebel

US 1958 103m Technicolor
MGM/Sam Goldwyn Jnr

After the Civil War, a Southerner wanders the Yankee states in search of a doctor to cure his mute son; he falls for a lady farmer and his son finds his voice at a crucial moment.
Pretty dim family Western for pretty dim families; everything happens precisely according to plan.
w Joseph Patracca, Lillie Hayward d Michael Curtiz ph Ted McCord m Jerome Moross ☆ Alan Ladd, Olivia de Havilland, David Ladd, Dean Jagger, Cecil Kellaway, Harry Dean Stanton, Henry Hull, John Carradine, James Westerfield

The Proud Valley ★

GB 1939 76m bw
Ealing (Sergei Nolbandov)

A black stoker helps unemployed Welsh miners reopen their pits.
Neat little propaganda drama.
w Roland Pertwee, Louis Golding, Jack Jones d Pen Tennyson ph Roy Kellino, Glen MacWilliams m Ernest Irving ☆ Paul Robeson, Edward Chapman,

Edward Rigby, Rachel Thomas, Simon Lack, Clifford Evans, Allan Jeayes

'The direction of the quiet documentary scenes is good, but Mr Pen Tennyson, who may have been handicapped by an undistinguished cast and a wobbly script, seems ill at ease with drama.' – Graham Greene, The Spectator

Providence ★

France/Switzerland 1977 107m
Eastmancolor
Action Film/Société Française de Production/FR3/Citel (Philippe Dussart)

A famous writer, dying, spends a painful night in unpleasant and sometimes fantastic recollections of his sons and their women; but the reality, when they come to lunch next day, is somewhat different.

Despite its cast and other credits, this is a repellent and not too well acted study in the lack of communication, told at undue length and in turgid colour.

w David Mercer d Alain Resnais ph Ricardo Aronovich m Miklos Rozsa ad Jacques Saulnier

☆ John Gielgud, Dirk Bogarde, Ellen Burstyn, David Warner, Elaine Stritch

'The movie is peculiarly fastidious and static: you feel as if it were going to dry up and blow away.' – New Yorker

La Provinciale: see A Girl from Lorraine

'In prison she found her freedom.'

Provoked ③

UK/India 2007 110m
Eros/Media One Global Entertainment/Motion Picture Partners Intl./British Media Fund Intl. (Sunanda Murali Manohar)

aka: Provoked: A True Story

A Punjabi woman in London is battered and abused by her husband and after 10 years finally murders him. She is sentenced to prison, but freed in a ground-breaking case that claims provocation as a defence.

Well-intentioned film of a remarkable story, but totally undermined by leaden, clumsy dialogue and acting that's indifferent at best.

w Carl Austin, Rahila Gupta book Circle of Light by Rahila Gupta, Kiranjit Ahluwaila d Jag Mundhra ph Madhu Ambat m A.R. Rahman pd Peter Joyce ad Emily Straight ed Jag Mundhra, Sanjeev Mirajkar

☆ Aishwarya Rai (Kiranjit Ahluwalia), Miranda Richardson (Veronica Scott), Naveen Andrews (Deepak Ahluwalia), Nandita Das (Radha Dalal), Rebecca Pidgeon (Miriam), Robbie Coltrane (Lord Foster)

The Prowler ★

US 1950 92m bw
Horizon (Sam Spiegel)

A discontented wife thinks she sees a prowler and calls a cop; they have an affair and murder her husband.

Another variant on Double Indemnity and The Postman Always Rings Twice; the script is terse and the actors well-handled.

w Hugo Butler d Joseph Losey ph Arthur Miller m Lyn Murray

☆ Van Heflin, Evelyn Keyes, John Maxwell, Katharine Warren

'A film in which the spectator is repelled by the characters, finds in them no curiosity of nature to overcome his repugnance, and is therefore indifferent to their fate; and I call that a nauseating film.' – Dilys Powell

'A rivetingly cool, clean thriller.' – NFT, 1973

Prudence and the Pill ★

GB 1968 92m DeLuxe
TCF/Kenneth Harper, Ronald Kahn

A girl borrows her mother's contraceptive pills and replaces them with aspirin, causing no end of complications.

Self-consciously naughty sex comedy with a long dénouement and some stiff patches to affect one's enjoyment of the brighter moments.

w Hugh Mills play Hugh Mills d Fielder Cook ph Ted Moore m Bernard Ebbinghouse

☆ David Niven, Deborah Kerr, Edith Evans, Keith Michell, Robert Coote, Irina Demick, Joyce Redman, Judy Geeson

'Everybody winds up pregnant to clutter the earth, apparently, with people as obnoxious as their progenitors.' – Judith Crist

Psyche 59

GB 1964 94m bw
Columbia/Troy/Schenck (Philip Hazelton)

A wife recovers from blindness after realizing that her husband is in love with her sister.

Pretentious melodrama with stuffy dialogue, pompous direction and irritating characters.

w Julian Halevy (Julian Zimet) novel Françoise de Ligneris d Alexander Singer ph Walter Lassally m Kenneth V. Jones

☆ Patricia Neal, Curt Jurgens, Samantha Eggar, Ian Bannen, Beatrix Lehmann

† Screenwriter Zimet wrote under a pseudonym because he was blacklisted at the time.

Psychic Killer

US 1975 90m
Avco Embassy (Mardi Rustam)

A man released from an asylum kills those who put him there by the power of his mind.

Low-budget exploitation movie that draws heavily on Hitchcock, even if it substitutes heavy-handedness for his teasing style.

w Mike Angel, Greydon Clark, Raymond Danton d Raymond Danton ph Herb Pearl m William Kraft ad Joel Leonard ed Mike Brown

☆ Jim Hutton, Paul Burke, Julie Adams, Nehemiah Persoff, Neville Brand, Aldo Ray, Della Reese, Rod Cameron

'The screen's master of suspense moves his camera into the icy blackness of the unexplained!'

'Don't give away the ending – it's the only one we have!'

Psycho ★★★★

US 1960 109m bw
Shamley/Alfred Hitchcock

At a lonely motel vicious murders take place and are attributed to the manic mother of the young owner.

Curious shocker devised by Hitchcock as a tease and received by most critics as an unpleasant horror piece in which the main scene, the shower stabbing, was allegedly directed not by Hitchcock but by Saul Bass. After enormous commercial success it achieved classic status over the years; despite effective moments of fright, it has a childish plot and script, and its interest is that of a tremendously successful confidence trick, made for very little money by a TV crew.

w Joseph Stefano novel Robert Bloch d Alfred Hitchcock (and Saul Bass) ph John L. Russell m Bernard Herrmann ad Joseph Hurley, Robert Clatworthy ed George Tomasini

☆ Anthony Perkins (Norman Bates), Vera Miles (Lila Crane), John Gavin (Sam Loomis), Janet Leigh (Marion Crane), John McIntire (Sheriff Chambers), Martin Balsam (Milton Arbogast), Simon Oakland (Dr. Richmond)

'Probably the most visual, most cinematic picture he has ever made.' – Peter Bogdanovich

'I think the film is a reflection of a most unpleasant mind, a mean, sly, sadistic little mind.' – Dwight MacDonald

† When asked by the press what he used for the blood in the bath, Mr Hitchcock said: 'Chocolate sauce.'

†† This is the whole text of Hitchcock's trailer, in which he audaciously wandered round the sets and practically gave away the entire plot: Here we have a quiet little motel, tucked away off the main highway, and as you see perfectly harmless looking, whereas it has now become known as the scene of a crime ... This motel also has an adjunct, an old house which is, if I may say so, a little more sinister looking. And in this house the most dire, horrible events took place. I think we can go inside because the place is up for sale – though I don't know who would buy it now. In that window in the second floor, the one in front, that's where the woman was first seen. Let's go inside. You see, even in daylight this place looks a bit sinister. It was at the top of these stairs that the second murder took place. She came out of that door there and met the victim at the top. Of course in a flash there was the knife, and in no time the victim tumbled and fell with a horrible crash ... I think the back broke immediately it hit the floor. It's difficult to describe the way ... the twisting of the ... I won't dwell on it. Come upstairs. Of course the victim, or should I say victims, hadn't any idea of the kind of people they'd be confronted with in this house. Especially the woman. She was the weirdest and the most ... well, let's go into her bedroom. Here's the woman's room, still beautifully preserved. And the imprint of her body on the bed where she used to lie. I think some of her clothes are still in the wardrobe. (He looks, and shakes his head.) Bathroom. This was the son's room but we won't go in there because his favourite spot was the little parlour behind the office in the motel. Let's go down there. This young man ... you have to feel sorry for him. After all, being dominated by an almost maniacal woman was enough to ... well, let's go in. I suppose you'd call this his hideaway. His hobby was taxidermy. A crow here, an owl there. An important scene took place in this room. There was a private supper here. By the way, this picture has great significance because let's go along into cabin number one. I want to show you something there. All tidied up. The bathroom. Oh, they've cleaned all this up now. Big difference. You should have seen the blood. The whole place was ... well, it's too horrible to describe. Dreadful. And I tell you, a very important clue was found here. (Shows toilet.) Down there. Well, the murderer, you see, crept in here very slowly – of course, the shower was on, there was no sound, and ...

Music wells up fiercely, shower curtain swishes across, blackout.

Voice: The picture you must see from the beginning – or not at all.

Janet Leigh's book Psycho: Behind the Scenes of the Classic Thriller (1995) chronicles the making of the film.

♗ Alfred Hitchcock; John L. Russell; Janet Leigh; art direction

'A New Vision Of The Most Frightening Movie Experience Of All Time.'

Psycho

US 1998 104m DeLuxe
Universal/Imagine (Brian Grazer, Gus Van Sant)

A mother's boy murders a woman who visits his isolated motel.

A genuine curiosity, though, unfortunately, not a very interesting one: a remake of Hitchcock's thriller that hardly deviates from the original, except that it is in colour, the acting is inferior, and the content is a little tired.

w Josef Stefano novel Robert Bloch d Gus Van Sant ph Chris Doyle m Bernard Herrmann, Danny Elfman pd Tom Foden ed Amy Duddleston

☆ Vince Vaughn, Julianne Moore, Viggo Mortensen, William H. Macy, Anne Heche

'This version isn't a sacrilege – it's just pointless.' – Anthony Quinn, Independent

'However low-yield the shift in meaning Van Sant accomplishes proves to be, it's enough to justify the experiment: same film, different meaning. Where Hitchcock's Norman is conclusively Other, Van Sant's is one of us.' – Gavin Smith, Sight and Sound

'It's 22 years later and Norman Bates is coming home!'

Psycho 2 ★

US 1983 113m Technicolor
Universal/Oak (Hilton A. Green)

Despite protests from the sister of one of his victims, Norman Bates is released after 22 years in a mental institution ... and the murders begin again.

A reasonably inventive sequel, if on the gory side. It probably holds the record for the longest delayed follow-up.

w Tom Holland d Richard Franklin ph Dean Cundey m Jerry Goldsmith pd John W. Corso

☆ Anthony Perkins, Vera Miles, Meg Tilly, Robert Loggia, Dennis Franz

'It's all very well having your tongue in your cheek, but it helps to have a brain in your head.' – Sunday Times

Psycho 3

US 1986 93m colour
Universal/Hilton A. Green

A suicidal novice flees after unwittingly causing the death of another nun, and takes refuge at the Bates Motel.

More variations on the original Psycho murders, with invention wearing a bit thin by now.

w Charles Edward Pogue d Anthony Perkins ph Bruce Surtees m Carter Burwell pd Henry Bumstead ed David Blewitt

☆ Anthony Perkins, Diana Scarwid, Jeff Fahey, Roberta Maxwell

Psycho Sex Fiend: see Scream ... and Die!

Psycho-Circus: see Circus of Fear

Psychomania

GB 1972 91m Technicolor
Benmar (Andrew Donally)

A Hells Angels motor cyclist commits

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA suicide and returns from the dead an invulnerable monster.

Arrant nonsense of the macabre sort, sometimes irresistibly amusing.
w Armand d'Usseau d Don Sharp ph Ted Moore m David Whitaker
☆ George Sanders, Nicky Henson, Beryl Reid, Robert Hardy

The Psychopath

GB 1966 83m Techniscope
Paramount/Amicus (Milton Subotsky)
Men are found dead in London, each with a doll beside him.
Complicated horror thriller in which the actors go further over the top the more the plot winds down.
w Robert Bloch d Freddie Francis ph John Wilcox m Philip Martell
☆ Patrick Wymark, Margaret Johnston, John Standing, Alexander Knox, Judy Huxtable, Don Borisenko, Thorley Walters, Colin Gordon

Puberty Blues

Australia 1982 81m Eastmancolor Panavision
Limelight

Teenage girls aim to become beach groupies.
Both repellent and boring, this mindless sex movie has little more to offer than the beach extravaganzas of the sixties.
w Margaret Kelly novel Kathy Lette, Gabrielle Carey d Bruce Beresford
ph Donald McAlpine pd David Copping ☆ Nell Schofield, Jad Capelja, Geoff Rhoe, Tony Hughes, Sandy Paul

Public Access

US/Japan 1993 87m DeLuxe
Cinemabeam (Kenneth Kokin, Adam Ripp)

A new broadcaster in town begins a telephone chat show that causes intense controversy.
An interesting film that promises more than it delivers: it hovers tensely on the edge of revelation for most of its length, but then ends disappointingly.
w Christopher McQuarrie, Michael Feit Dougan, Bryan Singer d Bryan Singer
ph Bruce Douglas Johnson m John Ottman pd Jan Sessler ed John Ottman ☆ Ron Marquette, Dina Brooks, Burt Williams, Larry Maxwell, Charles Kavanaugh, Brandon Boyce
'Serious-minded and bounces around some provocative ideas, but is vague about such important matters as key story points, motivation and overriding theme.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety
'It's an arresting beginning, shot in a baroque style that defies a puny budget.' – Adam Mars-Jones, Independent

Public Deb Number One

US 1940 80m bw
TCF

A waiter spanks a spoiled society girl at a communist rally, and accepts a job which makes him a capitalist.
Lively comedy packed with familiar faces.
w Karl Tunberg, Darrell Ware d Gregory Ratoff
☆ Brenda Joyce, George Murphy, Ralph Bellamy, Elsa Maxwell, Mischa Auer, Charles Ruggles, Maxie Rosenbloom, Berton Churchill, Franklin Pangborn, Hobart Cavanaugh, Lloyd Corrigan, Elisha Cook Jnr

'Drama that hurls a mighty challenge to all humanity!'

Public Enemy ★★★

US 1931 84m bw
Warner

GB title: Enemies of the Public
Two slum boys begin as bootleggers, get too big for their boots, and wind up dead.
Although it doesn't flow as a narrative, this early gangster film still has vivid and startling scenes and was most influential in the development of the urban American crime film.
w Harvey Thew story Kubec Glasmon, John Bright d William Wellman ph Dev Jennings m David Mendoza ad Max Parker ed Ed McCormic k
☆ James Cagney (Tom Powers), Edward Woods (Matt Doyle), Jean Harlow (Gwen Allen), Joan Blondell (Mamie), Beryl Mercer (Ma Powers), Donald Cook (Mike Powers), Mae Clarke (Kitty), Leslie Fenton (Nails Nathan)
'Roughest, most powerful and best gang picture to date. So strong as to be repulsive in some aspects, plus a revolting climax. No strong cast names but a lot of merit.' – Variety
'The real power of The Public Enemy lies in its vigorous and brutal assault on the nerves and in the stunning acting of James Cagney.' – James Shelley Hamilton
'A postscript said that the producers wanted to "depict honestly an environment that exists today in certain strata of American life, rather than glorify the hoodlum or the criminal". The film had a different effect: Cagney was playful and dynamic, and so much more appealing than the characters opposed to him that audiences rooted for him in spite of themselves.' – Martin Quigley Jnr, 1970
'What not many people know is that right up to two days before shooting started, I was going to play the good guy, the pal. Edward Woods played it in the end.' – James Cagney
Kubec Glasmon, John Bright

Public Enemy's Wife

US 1936 78m bw
Warner (Sam Bischoff)
GB title: G-Man's Wife
A girl agrees to marry an escaped convict so that the FBI can track him down.
Lower-berth gangster thrills culminating in a chase climax; neatly enough done.
w Abem Finkel, Harold Buckley story David O. Selznick, P. J. Wolfson
d Nick Grinde ph Ernest Haller
☆ Pat O'Brien, Margaret Lindsay, Robert Armstrong, Cesar Romero, Dick Foran, Dick Purcell
† Remade as Bullets for O'Hara (1942).

The Public Eye: see Follow Me

'Murder. Scandal. Crime. No matter what he was shooting, Bernzy never took sides he only took pictures ... Except once.'

The Public Eye

US 1992 99m colour
UIP/Universal (Sue Baden-Powell)

A tabloid newspaper photographer becomes involved with a beautiful woman who runs a night-club and is in trouble with the Mafia.
A modern attempt at a film noir set in the 1940s that works only intermittently.
wd Howard Franklin ph Peter Suschitzky
m Mark Isham pd Marcia Hinds-Johnson
ed Evan Lottman sp Industrial Light and Magic ☆ Joe Pesci, Barbara Hershey, Stanley Tucci, Jerry Adler, Jared Harris, Richard Riehle, Bryan Travis Smith
'Never quite takes off, either as romantic melodrama or as a consideration of one very eccentric man's means of self-expression.' – Vincent Canby, New York Times
† The film was based in part on the New York photographer Weegee, whose book of photographs of the seamier side of life inspired the movie The Naked City (qv).

Public Hero Number One

US 1935 89m bw
MGM (Lucien Hubbard)

A G-man goes undercover to track down the Purple Gang.
Moderate thick ear dating from the time when studios tried to smother public outcry against gangster films by presenting the cop as the hero.
w Wells Root d J. Walter Ruben ph Gregg Toland
☆ Chester Morris, Jean Arthur, Joseph Calleia, Lionel Barrymore, Paul Kelly, Lewis Stone, Paul Hurst
'Rates with the best of the G-men pictures.' – Variety
'The best picture on criminal life I've seen.' – Otis Ferguson

'Knowing where to draw the line'

Puckoon

GB/Ireland/Germany 2002 83m Technicolor
Guerilla/MPB/Y2K/Insight/Distinguished Features (Ken Tuohy, Terence Ryan)
In 1924, a small village is divided by the border between the Irish Republic and Northern Ireland, which cuts through the pub and the church.
Valiant attempt to bring to the screen Spike Milligan's surreal humour, but it's watered down into the usual Irish whimsy.
wd Terence Ryan novel Spike Milligan
ph Peter Hannan m Richard Hartley, Pol Brennan pd John Bunker ed Dermot Diskin
☆ Sean Hughes (Dan Madigan), Elliott Gould (Dr Goldstein), Daragh O'Malley (Father Rudden), John Lynch (O'Brien), Griff Rhys Jones (Col Stokes), Nickolas Grace (Foggerty), B. J. Hogg (Rafferty), David Kelly (O'Toole), Milo O'Shea (Sgt McGillikuddie), Freddie Jones (Sir John Meredith), Richard Attenborough (Writer-Director)
'There's a lot to enjoy in this tall tale.' – David Stratton, Variety

Puerto Escondido

Italy 1993 125m colour
Mayfair/Pentafilm/Colorado (Maurizio Totti, Mario and Vittorio Cecchi Gori)

A Milanese bank manager drops out and goes to Mexico after seeing a policeman murder a colleague and then try to kill him, but his troubles follow him.
Amiable comedy, but one that never comes close to making any point, other than a vague approval of escapism.
w Enzo Monteleone, Diego Abatantuono, Gabriele Salvatores d Gabriele Salvatores ph Italo Petriccione m Mauro Pagani, Federico de Robertis ad Marco Belluzzu, Alejandro Olmas ed Nino Baragli ☆ Diego Abatantuono, Valeria Golino, Claudio Bisio, Renato Carpentieri, Antonio Catania
'So drawn out it will take a very mellow-minded viewer not to lose patience with the cartoonish characters and their unconnected adventures.' – Variety

Pufnstuf

US 1970 98m Technicolor
Universal/Krofft Enterprises

A dejected boy is led by his talking flute on a talking boat to Living Island, full of strange but friendly animals in fear of an incompetent witch.
Amalgam of a TV series using life-size puppets to project a mildly pleasing variation on The Wizard of Oz, without quite achieving the right blend of wit and charm.
w John Fenton Murray, Si Rose
d Hollingsworth Morse ph Kenneth Peach
m Charles Fox ad Alexander Golitzen
☆ Jack Wild, Billie Hayes, Martha Raye, Mama Cass

I Pugni in Tasca: see Fists in the Pocket

Pulp ★

GB 1972 95m colour
UA/Klinger-Caine-Hodges (Michael Klinger)

An ex-funeral director now living in the Mediterranean as a successful pulp fiction writer gets involved with gangsters and weirdos.
Occasionally funny pastiche which sorely lacks shape and is sustained by guest appearances and zany ideas.
wd Mike Hodges ph Ousama Rawi
m George Martin
☆ Michael Caine, Mickey Rooney, Lizabeth Scott, Lionel Stander, Nadia Cassini, Al Lettieri, Dennis Price
'Various eccentrics act out their "turns", but never quite lift a light comedy-thriller through the more playful and productive inversions of parody.' – Richard Combs

Pulp Fiction ★★★

US 1994 153m DeLuxe Panavision
Buena Vista/Miramax/A Band Apart/Jersey (Lawrence Bender)

Four interlocking stories with unexpected twists involve a gangster, his two hitmen, his wife, a mysterious briefcase, and a boxer who refuses to throw a fight after being paid to do so.
Clever, witty, violent celebration of junk culture, drawing rather too heavily on past thrillers but blessed with some excellent performances which crackle with menace.
w Quentin Tarantino, Roger Avary
d Quentin Tarantino ph Andrzej Sekula pd David Wasco ad Charles Collum
ed Sally Menke
☆ John Travolta (Vincent Vega), Samuel L. Jackson (Jules Winfield), Uma Thurman (Mia Wallace), Harvey Keitel (The Wolf), Tim Roth (Pumpkin), Amanda Plummer (Honey Bunny), Ving Rhames (Marsellus Wallace), Maria de Madeiros (Fabienne), Eric Stoltz (Lance), Rosanna Arquette (Jody), Christopher Walken (Captain Koons), Bruce Willis (Butch Coolidge)
'Tarantino's adrenaline rush of an American melodrama is a brash dare to Hollywood filmmakers in their current slough of timidity. Let's see, he says, if you can be this smart about going this far.' – Time
'A spectacularly entertaining piece of pop culture.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety
'A very funky, American sort of pop masterpiece, improbable, uproarious, with bright colors and danger and blood right on the surface.' – David Denby, New York
† In a poll conducted by the Sunday Times in April 1995, its readers voted it the seventh-best film of all time, and Tarantino the seventh-best director, ahead of Martin Scorsese, Orson Welles and Stanley Kubrick but behind David Lean, Alfred Hitchcock, Michael Curtiz, Billy Wilder and Francis Ford Coppola.

Quentin Tarantino, Roger Avary (screenplay)

best picture; Quentin Tarantino; John Travolta; Samuel L. Jackson; film editing

Quentin Tarantino, Roger Avary; Samuel L. Jackson

Pulse

US 1988 95m DeLuxe
Columbia/Aspen (Patricia A. Stallone)

Visiting his father, a small boy discovers that there is a malevolent force affecting the electrical equipment in the home.

Tepid thriller, a tame variation on Poltergeist.

wd Paul Golding ph Peter Lyons Collister m Jay Ferguson pd Holger Gross ed Gib Jaffe

☆ Joey Lawrence, Cliff de Young, Roxanne Hart, Charles Tyner, Myron Healey

'You are now Infected.'

Pulse

USA 2006 90m
Dimension Films (Michael Leahy & Joel Soisson)

Suicide victims communicate from beyond the grave via their computers.

Loud noises and depressingly dark visual effects are poor substitutes for scares in an atrocious remake of the Japanese film Kairo.

w Kiyoshi Kurosawa, Wes Craven, Ray Wright d Jim Sonzero ph Mark Plummer m Elia Cmiral pd Emmano di Febo-Orsini & Gary B. Matteson ad Sorin Popescu ed Robert K. Lambert, Bob Mori, Kirk M. Morri sp Thomas R. Dickens

☆ Kristen Bell (Mattie Webber), Ian Somerhalder (Dexter McCarthy), Christina Milian (Isabel Fuentes), Rick Gonzalez (Stone), Jonathan Tucker (Josh Ockmann), Sam Levine (Tim Steinberg)

'As scary as watching your hard drive crash.' – Hollywood Reporter

Pummaro

Italy 1990 102m Video Lux
Numero Uno/RAI/Cineuropa '92 (Claudio Bonivento)

A Ghanaian studying to be a doctor travels around Italy looking for his brother, who, after working in Naples, is on the run from the police and the Camorra.

A bleak, episodic account of the lives of immigrant workers and the dispossessed, which modulates into a melodramatic interracial romance; drama is too often replaced by earnestness.

w Sandro Petraglia, Stefano Rulli, Michele Placido d Michele Placido ph Vilko Filac m Lucio Dalla, Mauro Malavasi ad Lorenzo Baraldi ed Ruggero Mastroianni

☆ Thywill A. K. Amenya, Pamela Villoresi, Jacqueline Williams, Gerardo Scala, Nicola di Pinto, Franco Interlenghi

Pump Up the Volume ★

US 1990 105m
New Line/SC Entertainment (Rupert Harvey, Sandy Stern)

A discontented student starts his own pirate radio station.

Loud and raucous and aimed at an audience that reveres rebellion and rock music.

wd Allan Moyle ph Walt Lloyd md Nicole Freegard pd Bruce Bolander ed Wendy Bricmont, Ric Keeley, Kurt Hathaway

☆ Christian Slater, Ellen Greene, Annie Ross, Samantha Mathis, Scott Paulin

'It could appeal not only to '90s teens, but to sympathetic young adults who remember the stormy passage through adolescence.' – Variety

Pumping Iron ★★

US 1976 81m colour
White Mountain Films (George Butler, Jerome Gary)

Documentary on body-builders' contest for the title of Mr Olympia.

Well-observed study in competitiveness and obsession that first brought Arnold Schwarzenegger to the general attention.

book Pumping Iron by Charles Gaines, George Butler d George Butler, Robert Fiore ph Robert Fiore m Michael Small ed Larry Silk, Geof Bartz

☆ Arnold Schwarzenegger, Louis Ferrigno, Natty and Victoria Ferrigno, Mike Katz, Franco Columbu

Pumping Iron II: The Women ★

US 1984 107m colour
Blue Dolphin/Cinecom (George Butler)

Documentary on a 1983 contest and its preliminaries in Las Vegas, with the male judges trying to decide at what point musculation ceases to be feminine.

Enjoyable and sometimes witty, though it has an air of contrivance about it.

w Charles Gaines, George Butler book Pumping Iron II: The Unprecedented Women by Charles Gains, George Butler d George Butler ph Dyanna Taylor m David McHugh, Michael Montes ed Paul Barnes, Susan Crutcher, Jane Kurson

☆ Lori Bowen, Carla Dunlop, Bev Francis, Rachel McLish, Kris Alexander, Lydia Cheng

The Pumpkin Eater ★★★

GB 1964 118m bw
Columbia/Romulus (James Woolf)

A compulsive mother (of eight children) finds her third marriage rocking when she gets evidence of her husband's affairs.

Brilliantly made if basically rather irritating kaleidoscope of vivid scenes about silly people, all quite recognizable as sixties Londoners; very well acted.

w Harold Pinter novel Penelope Mortimer d Jack Clayton ph Oswald Morris m Georges Delerue ad Edward Marshall ed Jim Clark

☆ Anne Bancroft (Jo Armitage), Peter Finch (Jake Armitage), James Mason (Bob Conway), Maggie Smith (Philpot), Cedric Hardwicke (Mr. James, Jo's Father), Richard Johnson (Giles), Eric Porter (Psychiatrist)

'There never was a film so rawly memorable.' – Evening Standard

'It is solid, serious, intelligent, stylish. It is also, for the most part, quite dead.' – The Times

'It plays like a house afire.' – Time

Anne Bancroft

Anne Bancroft; Oswald Morris

Pumpkinhead ★

US 1988 86m Technicolor
UA (Howard Smith, Richard C. Weinman)

aka: Vengeance: The Demon

A farmer summons an earth demon to destroy the teenagers who accidentally kill his son and finds that he gets more than he expected.

Effective and chilling little shocker, gaining much from the intensity of Henriksen's performance and from its superior monster.

w Mark Patrick Carducci, Gary Gerani poem Ed Justin d Stan Winston ph Bojan Bazelli m Richard Stone pd Cynthia Kay Charette ed Marcus Manton sp Alec Gillis, Richard Landon, Shane Patrick Mahan, John Rosengrant, Tim Woodruff Jnr

☆ Lance Henriksen, Jeff East, John DiAguino, Kimberly Ross, Joel Hoffman, Cynthia Bain, Kerry Remsen

'An elegant and unforgettable tale of backwoods terror that will keep you enthralled.' – John McCarty, Splatter Movie Guide

† A dull sequel, Pumpkinhead II (aka The Revenge of Pumpkinhead II: Blood Wings), followed in 1993, directed by Jeff Burr and starring Ami Dolenz and Andrew Robinson; it was released on video.

The Punch and Judy Man ★

GB 1962 96m bw
(ABP) Macconkey (Gordon L. T. Scott)

A seashore children's entertainer tries and fails to establish himself as an important citizen.

Melancholy comedy of failure which did not please its star's adherents and indeed just missed the style it was seeking.

w Philip Oakes, Tony Hancock d Jeremy Summers ph Gilbert Taylor m Derek Scott, Don Banks

☆ Tony Hancock, Sylvia Syms, Ronald Fraser, Barbara Murray, John Le Mesurier, Hugh Lloyd Punch-Drunk Love ★

US 2002 95m colour Panavision
Columbia/Revolution/New Line (Joanne Sellar, Daniel Lupi, Paul Thomas Anderson)

A depressed and sometimes violent dealer in novelty toilet products finds his romance threatened by the owner of a phone-sex business.

This curious combination of lowbrow comic with mass appeal and offbeat director works in fits and starts, but is unlikely to satisfy admirers of either or even, if such there be, both.

'Essentially a one-trick pony that, hampered by an undeveloped script, ultimately pulls up lame.' – J. Hoberman, Village Voice

'It's very cute, very weird and madly diverting. Anderson has a firm grip on Sandler's dangerous essence and draws it out in an astonishing performance.' – Angie Errigo, Empire

'Dying's easy. Comedy's hard'

Punchline ★

US 1988 122m DeLuxe
Columbia TriStar (Daniel Melnick, Michael Rachmil)

A housewife and aspiring stand-up comedienne is helped by another comedian with personality problems.

A serious look at the business of being funny.

wd David Seltzer ph Reynaldo Villalobos m Charles Gross pd Jack Degovia ed Bruce Green

☆ Sally Field, Tom Hanks, John Goodman, Mark Rydell, Kim Greist, Paul Mazursky, Pam Matteson

'Is there a limit to revenge?'

The Punisher

Australia 1989 90m Eastmancolor
Castle Premier/New World International/Marvel Entertainment (Robert Mark Kamen)

A former policeman, who lives in the sewers, takes revenge on the gangsters who killed his family.

Undistinguished, excessively violent action movie based on a comic-book character.

w Robert Mark Kamen, Boaz Yakin d Mark Goldblatt ph Ian Baker m Dennis Dreith pd Norma Moriceau ed Tim Wellburn

☆ Dolph Lundgren, Louis Gossett Jnr, Jeroen Krabbe, Kim Miyori, Bryan Marshall, Nancy Everhard, Barry Otto, Brian Rooney, Zoshka Mizak, Todd Boyce

The Punisher

Germany/US 2004 124m DeLuxe
Columbia TriStar/Marvel/Valhalla/VIP2/VIP3/Artisan (Avi Arad, Gale Anne Hurd)

A former FBI agent takes his revenge when an arms-dealing and money-laundering tycoon has his wife and child killed.

Another in a current wave of vigilante movies – a genre that could do with a death wish; this is the second attempt to make a hero of the comicbook avenger and it is no more successful than the first.

w Jonathan Hensleigh, Michael France based on Marvel Comic Book character d Jonathan Hensleigh m Carlo Siliotto pd Michael Z. Hanan ed Conrad W. Hall

☆ Tom Jane (Frank Castle/The Punisher), John Travolta (Howard Saint), Will Patton (Quentin Glass), Roy Scheider (Frank Castle Snr), Laura Harring (Livia Saint), Ben Foster (Spacker Dave), Samantha Mathis (Maria Castle)

'Plays like a paint-by-numbers pilot for bygone basic-cable teleseries.' – Variety

The Punk and the Princess

GB 1993 96m Technicolor
Feature Film/Videodrome/M2 (Mike Sarne, Robin Mahoney)

aka: The Punk

A young punk leaves home and falls in love with a wealthy American actress.

An odd little fable, vaguely updating Romeo and Juliet, which strings together a series of incidents of interest to its presumed audience – rows with parents and pub fights predominating – and does not bother with characterization or motivation.

wd Mike Sarne novel The Punk by Gideon Sams ph Alan M. Trow m Claudia Sarne, Charlie Creed-Miles, Nigel Powell ed Gwyn Jones, Matthew Salkeld

☆ Charlie Creed-Miles, Vanessa Hadaway, David Shawyer, Jess Conrad, Yolanda Mason, Jacqueline Skarvellis, Peter Miles

'Featuring some of the most unforgivably trite "street" dialogue, contrived working-class relationships and one-dimensional performances from its two leads, it's difficult to see, post-Slacker generation, exactly where its appeal might lie.' – Karen McLuskey, Empire

† The film is based on a novel written by a 14-year-old.

Puppet Master

US 1990 90m colour
Full Moon (Hope Perello)

Four psychics who go to investigate strange happenings at an isolated hotel find themselves being attacked by living puppets.

A twist on the Frankenstein story, with some clever special effects adding a little interest to the usual slasher narrative.

w Joseph G. Collodi story Charles Band, Kenneth J. Hall d David Schmoeller ph Sergio Salvati m Richard Band
pd John Myhre ed Tom Meshelski
sp David Allen Productions
☆ Paul Le Mat, Irene Miracle, Matt Roe, Kathryn O'Reilly, Robert Frates, Merrya Small, William Hickey

Puppet Master II

US 1991 88m DeLuxe
Full Moon (David DeCoteau, John Schouweiler)

Puppets who have been brought to life, each with their own special weapon, stalk and slay a group of psychic researchers staying in a supposedly haunted hotel.
All that distinguishes this sequel from the original is the addition of some new puppets with different and gory ways of killing. They, unlike the remainder of the cast, are effectively animated.
w David Pabian story Charles Band
d David Allen ph Thomas F. DeNove
m Richard Band pd Kathleen Coates
ed Peter Teschner, Bert Glatstein sp David Allen, David Barton, Steve Neill ☆ Elizabeth MacClellan, Collin Bernsen, Gregory Webb, Charlie Spradling, Steve Welles, Jeff Weston, Nita Talbot
'Gruesome thrills.' – Variety

The Puppet Masters ★

US 1994 108m Technicolor
Hollywood Pictures (Ralph Winter)

aka: Robert A. Heinlein's The Puppet Masters
Parasitical aliens, who share the same mind, invade the Earth and begin to take over the population.
Slick low-budget science-fiction thriller, done with a little style and more intelligence than usual, though the three Invasion of the Bodysnatchers movies have made the narrative somewhat familiar.
w Ted Elliott, Terry Rossio, David S. Goyer novel Robert A. Heinlein d Stuart Orme ph Clive Tickner m Colin Towns
pd Daniel A. Lomino ed William Goldenberg
☆ Donald Sutherland, Eric Thal, Julie Warner, Keith David, Will Patton, Richard Belzer, Marshall Bell, Yaphet Kotto
'A thoroughly undistinguished if inoffensive telling of Heinlein's classic tale.' – Variety
'Deliriously entertaining.' – Sight and Sound
† The film was released direct to video in Britain.

Puppet on a Chain ★

GB 1970 98m Technicolor
Big City (Kurt Unger)

An American Interpol agent hunts down drug smugglers in Amsterdam.
Sadistic adventure thriller, a toughened version of James Bond, climaxing in a splendid boat chase through Amsterdam.
w Alistair MacLean, Don Sharp, Paul Wheeler novel Alistair MacLean
d Geoffrey Reeve, Don Sharp ph Jack Hildyard, Skeets Kelly m Piero Piccioni ☆ Sven Bertil Taube, Barbara Parkins, Patrick Allen, Alexander Knox, Vladek Sheybal
'One suspects that a marionette also sat in for Alistair MacLean.' – Judith Crist

'There is always someone pulling the strings.'

The Puppetmaster ★★

Taiwan 1993 142m colour
Electric Pictures/Nian Dai (Qiu Fusheng)

original title: Hsimeng Rensheng
A Chinese boy grows to manhood and becomes a celebrated puppeteer during the 50-year occupation of Taiwan by the Japanese, which finished at the end of the Second World War.
An austere biopic, narrated by the 84-year-old Li Tienlu himself, exploring with restraint the life of an actor and puppetmaster during interesting times. The often motionless camera, the long takes and the lack of close-ups frame the action in a theatrical way, celebrating a life full of harshness, and an ancient and vanishing culture, without nostalgia.
w Wu Nianzhen, Zhu Tianwen story Li Tienlu d Hou Hsiao-Hsien ph Lee Pingbin m Chen Mingzhang, Zhang Hongda pd Zhan Hongzhi ed Liao Qingsong
☆ Li Tienlu, Lim Giong, Chen Kuizhong
'Those not attuned to Hou's distanced, controlled style will be turned off; enthusiasts, however, will relish its greater refinement, painterly visuals and deeply humanistic style.' – Derek Elley, Variety
'Stubbornly sluggish and as serious as a final-term dissertation.' – Empire

Pure Country

US 1992 112m Technicolor
Warner/Jerry Weintraub

A country singer grows tired of showbiz trappings and tries to return to his roots.
Rambling and pleasant enough meander through an urban jungle and a rural paradise, though only likely to interest fans of its star.
w Rex McGee d Christopher Cain
ph Richard Bowen m Steve Dorff
pd Jeffrey Howard ed Jack Hofstra
☆ George Strait, Lesley Ann Warren, Isabel Glasser, Kyle Chandler, John Doe, Rory Calhoun, Molly McClure
'An effective vehicle for amiable country star George Strait.' – Variety

The Pure Hell of St Trinian's ★

GB 1960 94m bw
British Lion/Hallmark/Tudor (Frank Launder, Sidney Gilliat)

After the girls burn down St Trinian's, a dubious headmaster offers to create a new school for them.
Bright comedy performances from some of the best character actors add a gloss to familiar material.
w Frank Launder, Sidney Gilliat, Val Valentine d Frank Launder ph Gerald Gibbs m Malcolm Arnold ad Wilfred Shingleton ed Thelma Connell
☆ Cecil Parker, Joyce Grenfell, George Cole, Thorley Walters, Irene Handl, Eric Barker, Dennis Price, Raymond Huntley, Julie Alexander, John Le Mesurier, Liz Fraser, George Benson, Michael Ripper, Nicholas Phipps, Sidney James

Pure Luck

US 1991 96m DeLuxe
Universal/Silver Lion (Lance Hool, Sean Daniel)

A cop and his hapless assistant go to Mexico in search of a missing accident-prone heiress.
Broad and unsubtle comedy that relies for its humour on obvious and mistimed slapstick; it never rises above well-intentioned mediocrity.
w Herschel Weingrod, Timothy Harris
d Nadia Tass ph David Parker
m Jonathan Sheffer, Danny Elfman
pd Peter Wooley ed Billy Weber
☆ Martin Short, Danny Glover, Sheila Kelley, Sam Wanamaker, Scott Wilson, Harry Shearer, Jorge Russek
† It is a remake of the French Le Chevre, directed by François Veber.

'They're a couple of zeros short of a grand.'

Purely Belter ★

GB 2000 99m DeLuxe
Film4/Mumbo Jumbo (Elizabeth Karlsen)

Two young fans of Newcastle United football team dream of having season tickets to the team's games.
Pleasing comedy of youthful aspirations that strives too hard for a feel-good finale.
wd Mark Herman novel The Season Ticket by Jonathan Tulloch ph Andy Collins
m Ian Broudie, Michael Gibbs pd Don Taylor ed Michael Ellis ☆ Chris Beattie (Gerry McCarten), Greg McLane (Sewell), Charlie Hardwick (Mrs McCarten), Jody Baldwin (Gemma), Kerry Ann Christiansen (Bridget), Tracy Whitwell (Clare), Roy Hudd (Mr Sewell), Tim Healy (Mr McCarten), Kevin Whatley (Mr Caird), Alan Shearer (Himself)
'Watchable, easy-going and at times genuinely moving stuff.' – Empire

'The New Generation Of Warriors.'

The Purifiers

GB 2004 81m colour 'Scope
WT2/Bill Kenwright/First Choice/Scottish Screen/Park/Vestry

In a future Glasgow, where karate clubs protect their own neighbourhoods, one group finds itself trapped in enemy territory and threatened by criminal gangs.
Derivative and pretentious action movie with excruciating dialogue.
wd Richard Jobson ph John Rhodes
m Steven Severin pd Erik Rehl ed Yannis Sakaridis Fight choreographer Gordon Alexander ☆ Kevin McKidd (Moses), Gordon Alexander (John), Dominic Monaghan (Sol), Amber Sainsbury (Frances), Rachel Grant (Li), Fraser James (Sam), Jamie Chow (Raz)
'It's narratively challenged and the dialogue is a tad over-the-top, but the fight choreography is ass-kickingly good.' – Alan Morrison, Empire
'Cuss-free, almost bloodless pic is headlocked by lame scripting, amateur perfs and, worst of all, lackluster, repetitive action.' – Derek Elley, Variety

Puritan ★ (2)

UK 2005 93m
Parliament Films/Parliament Films (Hadi Hajaig, David Sumnall)

A fake medium offers comfort to the bereaved until one fateful rendezvous becomes an appointment with death.
A tense supernatural film noir, inspired by Victorian Gothic melodrama.
wd Hadi Hadjaig ph Peter Ellmore
m Simon Lambros pd Stephane Collonge ad Julian Nagel ed Pierre Haberer, Hadi Hajaig sp Edward Smith ☆ Nick Moran (Simon Puritan), Georgina Rylance (Ann Bridges), David Soul (Eric Bridges), Ralph Brown (Mickey Conway), Pete Hodge (Jonathan Grey)
'There are hints of real talent and style behind this addled piece.' – Philip French, The Observer

The Purple Gang

US 1960 85m bw
Allied Artists

In Detroit during prohibition a gang of juvenile delinquents becomes as powerful as the gangsters.
Unpleasant detail mars this cops-and-robbers subject; twenty years later it would have been even more of a shocker, but it's bad enough as it is.
w Jack DeWitt d Frank McDonald
ph Ellis Carter m Paul Dunlap
☆ Robert Blake, Barry Sullivan, Elaine Edwards, Marc Cavell, Jody Lawrance, Susie Marquette, Paul Dubov

'The "Inside Japan" Story Of Yanks Bombing Tokyo ... Taken Jap Prisoners ... Put On Trial For "Murder"!'

The Purple Heart ★

US 1944 99m bw
TCF (Darryl F. Zanuck)

American prisoners of war in Japan are tried and executed.
Relentlessly sombre flagwaver, extremely persuasively presented.
w Jerome Cady, Darryl F. Zanuck d Lewis Milestone ph Arthur Miller m Alfred Newman
☆ Dana Andrews, Richard Conte, Farley Granger, Kevin O'Shea, Sam Levene, Don Barry, Richard Loo
'It is unusually edged, well organized and solidly acted. But I feel extremely queasy watching fiction – especially persuasive fiction – which pretends to clarify facts that are not clear, and may never become so.' – James Agee

Purple Heart Diary

US 1951 73m bw
Columbia (Sam Katzman)
GB title: No Time for Tears

Entertainers tour war zones and bring various comforts.
Sentimental piece which the USO picked up as useful propaganda.
w William Sackheim d Richard Quine
ph William Whitley m Ross Di Maggio
☆ Frances Langford, Ben Lessy, Tony Romano, Judd Holdren

Purple Hearts

US 1984 116m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/The Ladd Company (Sidney J. Furie)

In Vietnam, a naval surgeon falls for a nurse but the course of true romance is interrupted by the war.
Conventional war heroics with time out for a trite love story; it gets sillier as it goes on.
w Rick Natkin, Sidney J. Furie d Sidney J. Furie ph Jan Kiesser m Robert Folk ad Francisco Balangue ed George Grenville
☆ Ken Wahl, Cheryl Ladd, Stephen Lee, Annie McEnroe, Paul McCrane, Cyril O'Reilly, David Harris, R. Lee Ermey, Drew Snyder

The Purple Mask

US 1955 82m Technicolor Cinemascope
U-I (Howard Christie)

In 1802 Paris the Royalist resistance to Napoleon is led by the mysterious Purple Mask, who also disguises himself as a foppish dandy.

Cheeky rewrite of The Scarlet Pimpernel, with plenty of gusto but not much style.
w Oscar Brodney d H. Bruce Humberstone ph Irving Glassberg m Joseph Gershenson ad Alexander Golitzen, Eric Orbom ed Ted J. Kent
☆ Tony Curtis, Dan O'Herlihy, Colleen Miller, Gene Barry, Angela Lansbury, George Dolenz, John Hoyt
'Sir Percy, one feels, would have personally conducted this lot to the guillotine.' – MFB

The Purple Monster Strikes
US 1945 bw serial: 15 eps
Republic
A Martian kills a great scientist and enters his body.
Early example of unpleasant aliens, a precursor of It Came from Outer Space and Invasion of the Body Snatchers.
d Spencer Bennet, Fred Brannon
☆ Dennis Moore, Linda Stirling, Roy Barcroft

Purple Noon: see Plein Soleil

Purple People Eater
US 1988 91m colour
MPCA/Vertex (Brad Krevoy, Steve Stabler)
A purple one-eyed alien helps a lonely boy learn confidence by forming a rock group and helping elderly people threatened with eviction from their homes.
Feeble kids' film based on a witless novelty hit of the late 50s; an embarrassment for all those involved.
wd Linda Shayne ph Peter Deming m Dennis Dreith pd Stephen Greenberg ed Cari Ellen Coughlin song Sheb Wooley ☆ Ned Beatty, Shelley Winters, Neil Patrick Harris, Peggy Lipton, James Houghton, John Brumfield, Chubby Checker, Little Richard, Sheb Wooley

The Purple Plain ★
GB 1954 100m Technicolor
GFD/Two Cities (John Bryan)
During the Burma campaign, a Canadian squadron leader regains his shattered nerves during an arduous trek across country.
Psychological study and eastern adventure combined; not the best of either, but a potent crowd-puller.
w Eric Ambler novel H. E. Bates d Robert Parrish ph Geoffrey Unsworth m John Veale
☆ Gregory Peck, Maurice Denham, Win Min Than, Lyndon Brook, Brenda de Banzie, Bernard Lee, Anthony Bushell, Ram Gopal

The Purple Rose of Cairo ★
US 1984 82m DeLuxe
Orion/Jack Rollins-Charles H. Joffe (Robert Greenhut)
In the thirties, a film-struck woman is confronted in reality by the hero of her dreams.
Amusing but slight comedy: several good jokes, but in sum no more than an elongated sketch.
wd Woody Allen ph Gordon Willis m Dick Hyman pd Stuart Wurtzel ed Susan E. Morse ☆ Mia Farrow, Jeff Daniels, Danny Aiello, Dianne Wiest, Van Johnson, Zoe Caldwell, John Wood, Milo O'Shea best picture, original screenplay

Pursued ★
US 1947 101m bw
(Warner) United States (Milton Sperling)
A revenge-seeking cowboy accidentally causes a tragedy in his adopted family.
Glum, good-looking revenge Western.
w Niven Busch d Raoul Walsh ph James Wong Howe m Max Steiner
☆ Robert Mitchum, Teresa Wright, Judith Anderson, Dean Jagger, Alan Hale, Harry Carey Jnr

'The executive headhunter with a killer instict.'

Pursued
US/Canada 2004 95m colour
Artisan/Insight/Andrew Stevens (James Shavick, Kirk Shaw)
An executive recruiter is prepared to use blackmail and murder to get his man.
Preposterous thriller, in which Christian Slater cackles away like a pantomime villain in the worst performance of his career, though the movie does nobody any favours.
w Peter Lenkov d Kristoffer Tabori ph Mike Southon m Joey Newman pd Phil Schmidt
☆ Christian Slater (Vincent Palmer), Gil Bellows (Ben Keats), Conchita Campbell (Alison Keats), Michael Clarke Duncan (Franklin), Estella Warren (Emily Keats)

Pursuit
US 1935 73m bw
Lucien Hubbard-Ned Marin/MGM
A child is kidnapped, and several people want the reward for restoring him.
Rather frantic chase thriller with insufficient variety.
w Wells Root, Lawrence G. Blochman d Edwin L. Marin
☆ Chester Morris, Sally Eilers, Scotty Beckett, Henry Travers, C. Henry Gordon, Dorothy Peterson, Harold Huber

The Pursuit of D. B. Cooper
US 1981 100m Metrocolor
Polygram (Daniel Wigutow, Michael Taylor)
A skyjacker bails out with his loot and is chased by various people after the reward.
Fantasy variation on a real case which was never solved; of no interest whatever despite the talent involved.
w Jeffrey Alan Fiskin book Free Fall by J. D. Reed d Roger Spottiswoode (also John Frankenheimer, Buzz Kulik) ph Harry Stradling Jnr m James Horner pd Preston Ames
☆ Robert Duvall, Treat Williams, Kathryn Harrold, Ed Flanders, Paul Gleason, R. G. Armstrong
'Doubtless a law-enforcement ploy to lure the skyjacker out of hiding; surely after seeing this mess he will want to surface and sue somebody.' – Variety

The Pursuit of Happiness
US 1934 75m bw
Paramount (Arthur Hornblow Jnr)
In 1776 Connecticut a Puritan maid falls for a Hessian soldier.
Mildly pleasing romantic comedy centring on the ancient practice of 'bundling' in which betrothed couples might sleep together fully clothed.
w Stephen Morehouse Avery, Jack Cunningham, J. P. McEvoy, Virginia Van Upp play Lawrence Langner, Armina Marshall d Alexander Hall ph Karl Struss
☆ Francis Lederer, Joan Bennett, Charles Ruggles, Mary Boland, Walter Kingsford, Minor Watson
'A comedy that will entertain and merits business.' – Variety

The Pursuit of Happiness ★
US 1970 98m Eastmancolor
Columbia/TA Films/Norton-Simon (David Susskind)
A New York college dropout is sent to prison after a hit and run accident.
Smooth, watchable but empty youth movie.
w Sidney Carroll, George L. Sherman d Robert Mulligan ph Dick Kratina m Dave Grusin
☆ Michael Sarrazin, Barbara Hershey, Robert Klein, Ruth White, E. G. Marshall, Arthur Hill

'Inspired by a true story.'

The Pursuit of Happyness ★ 6
US 2006 117m
Sony Pictures/Columbia Pictures/Relativity Media/Overbrook Entertainment/Escape Artists (Todd Black, Jason Blumenthal, Steve Tisch, James Lassiter, Will Smith)
In San Francisco in the early 1980s, a single father with a young son battles poverty and homelessness while training to become a stockbroker.
Aspirational, Capra-influenced fable with a lot of hardship to suffer before its feel-good ending; its real-life father-son double-act does feel like a gimmick, however.
w Steven Conrad d Gabriele Muccino ph Phedon Papamichael m Andrea Guerra pd J. Michael Riva ad David F. Klassen ed Hughes Winborne
☆ Will Smith (Chris Gardner), Thandie Newton (Linda), Jaden Christopher Syre Smith (Christopher), Brian Howe (Jay Twistle), James Karen (Martin Frohm), Dan Castellaneta (Alan Frakesh)
CHRIS GARDNER: 'You got a dream, you gotta protect it. People can't do something themselves, they wanna tell you that you can't do it. You want something? Go get it. Period.'
'Will Smith's new film is an old-fashioned Hollywood heart-warmer.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian
'A fairy tale in realist drag.' – Manohla Dargis, New York Times
† The misspelt title is intentional, referring to a mural on the wall of the hero's son's day care centre.
†† The film is based on the life of US millionaire Chris Gardner but takes considerable liberties with the facts.
Will Smith

Pursuit of the Graf Spee: see The Battle of the River Plate

Pursuit to Algiers
US 1945 65m bw
Universal (Roy William Neill)
Sherlock Holmes guards the young king of Ruritania on a sea voyage.
After an amiably lunatic first reel, this settles down as one of the dullest of the series, but it never entirely taxes the patience.
w Leonard Lee d Roy William Neill ph Paul Ivano m Hans Salter md Edgar Fairchild ☆ Basil Rathbone, Nigel Bruce, Martin Kosleck, Marjorie Riordan, Rosalind Ivan, John Abbott, Frederic Worlock, Morton Lowry

Pusher ★
Denmark 1996 110m colour
Metrodome/Balboa (Henrik Danstrup)
In Copenhagen, a heroin dealer is prepared to cheat anyone in order to pay off his debt to a local gangster.
A week in the life of a loser, a tough and gritty account of a trapped, petty criminal going round in ever-diminishing circles, fiercely directed.
w Nicolas Winding Refn, Jens Dahl d Nicolas Winding Refn ph Morten Soborg m various pd Kim Lovetand Julebaek ed Anne Osterud
☆ Kim Bodnia, Zlatko Buric, Laura Drasbaek, Slavko Labovic, Mads Mikkelsen, Peter Andersson, Vanja Bajicic
'Brutal, upsetting and impressive in its refusal to tart itself up with the modish tricks of Quentin Tarantino or Abel Ferrara. There are no cute monologues here. No one has the time to indulge in existential reveries.' – Richard Williams, Guardian

'I'm the Angel of Death.'

Pusher 3 ★ 5
Denmark 2005 103m
Vertigo/NWR Films/Nordisk Film (Henrik Danstrup)
Ultra-gritty crime drama, set in Copenhagen, featuring a Serbian drug dealer, human trafficking, violent deaths, corrupt cops and butchered corpses.
Grim to the point of very dark comedy, and decidedly not for the squeamish, yet shot with verve and expertise.
wd Nicolas Winding Refn ph Morten Soborg m PeterPeter ad Rasmus Thjellesen ed Anne Osterud, Miriam Norgaard
☆ Zlatko Buric (Milo), Marinela Dekic (Milena), Slavko Labovic (Radovan), Ramadan Huseini (Rexho), Kujtim Loki (Luan)
'You're left deeply uneasy, yet longing for more.' – Nick Funnell, Time Out

Pushing Tin ★★
US 1999 124m DeLuxe Super 35
TCF/Fox 2000, Regency (Art Linson)
Rivalry develops between a top, long-established New York air-traffic controller and a newcomer.
Often engrossing social comedy set in a fascinating environment, with two men giving each other, and their wives, a bumpy ride; unfortunately it crash-lands half-an-hour before it ends.
w Glen Charles, Les Charles article Something's Got to Give by Darcy Frey d Mike Newell ph Gale Tattersall m Anne Dudley pd Bruno Rubeo ed Jon Gregory
☆ John Cusack (Nick Falzone), Billy Bob Thornton (Russell Bell), Cate Blanchett (Connie Falzone), Angelina Jolie (Mary Bell), Tina Leary (Vicki Lewis), Kurt Fuller (Barry Plotkin), Matt Ross (Ron Hewitt), Jerry Grayson (Leo Morton), Michael Willis (Pat Feeney)
'An adherence to the conventions of slick Hollywood comedy-drama goes down as smoothly as a bout of clear air turbulence.' – Simon Braund, Empire

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

'One of the most consistently enjoyable US films of the year.' – Andrew O'Hehir, Sight and Sound

Pushover ★

US 1954 91m bw
Columbia (Jules Schermer)

An honest policeman involves himself in murder for loot.
Another variation on Double Indemnity, smoothly carpentered as the first appearance of newly-groomed star Kim Novak. The events of a night were familiar and watchable.
w Roy Huggins novels The Night Watch by Thomas Walsh, Rafferty by William S. Ballinger d Richard Quine ph Lester B. White m Arthur Morton
☆ Fred MacMurray, Kim Novak, Phil Carey, Dorothy Malone, E. G. Marshall

Puss och Kram: see Hugs and Kisses

Pussycat Alley: see The World Ten Times Over

Pussycat, Pussycat, I Love You

US 1970 100m DeLuxe
UA/Three Pictures (Jerry Bresler)

A sex-mad writer tells a doctor how he lost his wife to a film-star.
Tedious chase comedy that goes nowhere in particular.
wd Rod Amateau ph Tonino Delli Colli m Lalo Schifrin ad Toni Sarzi-Braga ed Larry Heath
☆ Ian McShane, Anna Calder-Marshall, Severn Darden, Joyce Van Patten, John Gavin, Beba Loncar

'The gags, both visual and verbal, strain and creak, giving the impression of being made up on the spur of the moment.' – David McGillivray, MFB

Putney Swope ★

US 1969 85m bw/Eastmancolor
Contemporary/Herald

A black adman takes over an agency, renaming it Truth and Soul Inc. and staffing it with black militants.
Anarchic, intermittently funny comedy, stuffed with jokes at the expense of most institutions.
wd Robert Downey ph Gerald Cotts m Charley Cuva ad Gary Weist ed Bud Smith ☆ Arnold Johnson, Antonio Fargas, Laura Greene, Eric Krupnik, Pepi Hermine, Ruth Hermine

'Visual graffiti of this order don't merit public exposure.' – David Wilson, MFB

Puttin' on the Ritz

US 1930 88m bw (colour sequence)
UA/Joseph M. Schenck (John W. Considine Jnr)

A has-been vaudevillian gets a second chance but succumbs to the demon rum.
Primitive early musical melodrama valuable only as an example of the work of its star.
w John W. Considine Jnr d Edward Sloman ph Ray June ad William Cameron Menzies
☆ Harry Richman, Joan Bennett, James Gleason, Aileen Pringle, Lilyan Tashman, Purnell Pratt

'Entertaining backstage story with ultra production values.' – Variety

Putting Pants on Philip ★

US 1927 20m bw silent
Hal Roach

A respectable man meets his randy Scottish nephew who wears nothing under his kilt.
Early star comedy, allegedly their first as a team but before their more recognizable characteristics had developed. Not at all bad in its way, though developing into one long chase.
w H. M. Walker d Clyde Bruckman
☆ Laurel and Hardy, Sam Lufkin, Harvey Clark

Puzzle of a Downfall Child

US 1970 104m Technicolor
Universal/Newman-Foreman

Fantasy reminiscences of a top fashion model.
Pretentious, fashionable, seemingly interminable collage of sex and high living.
w Adrien Joyce (Carole Eastman) d Jerry Schatzberg ph Adam Holender m Michael Small ☆ Faye Dunaway, Barry Primus, Viveca Lindfors, Barry Morse, Roy Scheider

Pygmalion ★★★★

GB 1938 96m bw
Gabriel Pascal

A professor of phonetics takes a bet that he can turn a Cockney flower seller in six months into a lady who can pass as a duchess.
Perfectly splendid Shavian comedy of bad manners, extremely well filmed and containing memorable lines and performances; subsequently turned into the musical My Fair Lady (qv). One of the most heartening and adult British films of the thirties.
w Anatole de Grunwald, W. P. Lipscomb, Cecil Lewis, Ian Dalrymple play Bernard Shaw d Anthony Asquith, Leslie Howard ph Harry Stradling m Arthur Honegger ad Laurence Irving ed David Lean ☆ Leslie Howard (Henry Higgins), Wendy Hiller (Eliza Doolittle), Wilfrid Lawson (Alfred Doolittle), Scott Sunderland (Colonel Pickering), Marie Lohr (Mrs Higgins), David Tree (Freddy Eynsford-Hill), Esmé Percy (Count Aristid Karpathy), Everley Gregg (Mrs Eynsford-Hill), Jean Cadell (Mrs Pearce)
HIGGINS (LESLIE HOWARD): 'Yes, you squashed cabbage leaf, you disgrace to the noble architecture of these columns, you incarnate insult to the English language, I can pass you off as the Queen of Sheba.'
HIGGINS: 'Where the devil are my slippers, Eliza?'

'Ought to have big potentialities in the US, with some cutting ... An introductory title briefly gives the source of the play, which was Shakespeare's Pygmalion.' (!) – Variety

'An exhibition of real movie-making – of a sound score woven in and out of tense scenes, creating mood and tempo and characterization.' – Pare Lorentz

'Every possible care has been taken in the presentation of what may well prove to have a significant effect on future British film production, for it is live, human entertainment, flawlessly presented and making an obvious appeal to all kinds of audiences.' – The Cinema

Bernard Shaw; Ian Dalrymple, Cecil Lewis, W. P. Lipscomb best picture; Leslie Howard; Wendy Hiller

Pyjama Girl: see The Pajama Girl Case

Pyrates

US 1991 95m colour
Rank/Act III/Mixed Breed (Jonathan Furie)

The passion of two lovers is so incendiary that they literally set the world alight.
Odd and risible little movie, with a great deal of uninteresting chat about love.
wd Noah Stern ph Janusz Kaminski m Peter Himmelman pd Sherman Williams ed Gib Jaffe
☆ Kevin Bacon, Kyra Sedgwick, Bruce Martyn Payne, Kristin Dattilo

'Warning: This is only a love story. Do not try this at home.'

A Pyromaniac's Love Story

US 1995 94m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Hollywood (Mark Gordon)

After the neighbourhood baker's shop burns down, many people confess to starting the fire.
Genial, gently farcical fable of love that becomes too whimsical for its own good.
w Morgan Ward d Joshua Brand ph John Schwartzman m Rachel Portman pd Dan Davis ed David Rosenbloom
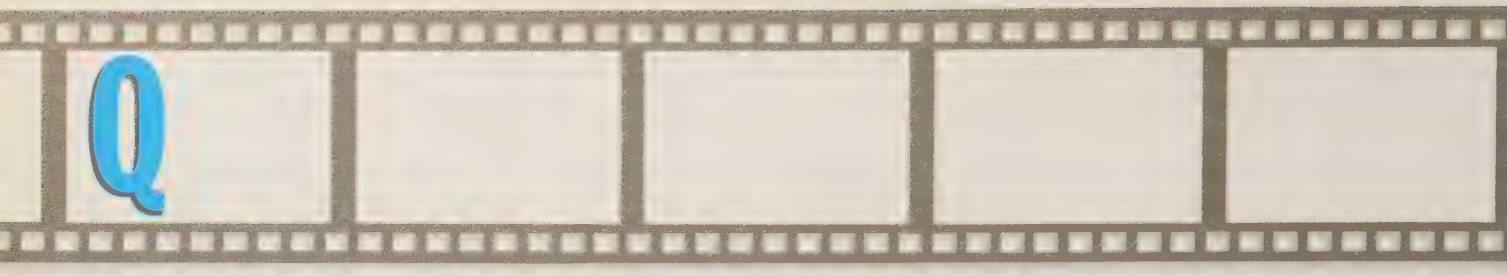
☆ William Baldwin, John Leguizamo, Sadie Frost, Erika Eleniak, Michael Lerner, Mike Starr, Julio Oscar Mechoso, Joan Plowright, Armin Mueller-Stahl, Richard Crenna



Q & A ★

US 1990 132m Technicolor
Virgin/Regency/Odyssey (Arnon Milchan, Burtt Harris)

An inexperienced assistant D.A. investigates the killing of a Puerto Rican crook by a veteran policeman and uncovers widespread corruption.
Increasingly ponderous and predictable drama of an innocent struggling in a moral quicksand.
wd Sidney Lumet novel Judge Edwin Torres ph Andrezej Bartkowiak m Ruben Blades pd Philip Rosenberg ed Richard Cirincione
☆ Nick Nolte, Timothy Hutton, Armand Assante, Patrick O'Neal, Lee Richardson, Luis Guzman, Charles Dutton, Jenny Lumet, Paul Calderon

'One is left reflecting sadly on the miscalculations ... that make a film which opens with the bang of a superb first half gradually tail away to a whimper.' – Tom Milne, MFB

Q Planes ★★

GB 1939 82m bw
Harefield/London Films (Irving Asher, Alexander Korda)

US title: Clouds over Europe
A secret ray helps spies to steal test aircraft during proving flights.
Lively comedy thriller distinguished by a droll leading performance.
w Ian Dalrymple, Brock Williams, Jack Whittingham, Arthur Wimperis d Tim Whelan ph Harry Stradling md Muir Mathieson
☆ Ralph Richardson, Laurence Olivier, Valerie Hobson, George Merritt, George Curzon, Gus McNaughton, David Tree

'A bright vigorous little picture, and Mr Richardson's Major is the brightest thing in it. You should see it. You'll like it. It has savour.' – C. A. Lejeune

Q – The Winged Serpent ★★

US 1982 93m colour Panavision
Larco/Larry Cohen

aka: The Winged Serpent
An ex-con on the run finds a monstrous Aztec god, a flying serpent, nesting in the spire of the Chrysler building.
Quirky, above-average horror film with flashes of brightness.
wd Larry Cohen ph Fred Murphy m Robert O. Ragland ed Armand Lebowitz
☆ Michael Moriarty, Candy Clark, David Carradine, Richard Roundtree, James Dixon

Qi Jian: see Seven Swords

Qiu Ju Da Guansi: see The Story of Qiu Ju

Qiuyue: see Autumn Moon

Quackser Fortune Has a Cousin in the Bronx ★

US 1970 90m Eastmancolor
UMC (John H. Cushingham)

An Irish layabout strikes up an acquaintance with an American student.
Likeable if plotless Dublin comedy, pleasantly photographed.
w Gabriel Walsh d Waris Hussein ph Gil Taylor m Michael Dress ad Herbert Smith ed Bill Blunden ☆ Gene Wilder, Margot Kidder, Eileen Colgan, Seamus Ford, May Ollis, Liz Davis, Caroline Tully, David Kelly

Quadrophenia

GB 1979 120m Eastmancolor
Brent-Walker/Polytel (Roy Baird, Bill Curbishley)

A drama of bitter rivalry between Mods and Rockers on the Brighton beaches in 1964.
What passed for a successful musical at the end of the seventies is typified by this violent, screaming and wholly unattractive amalgam of noise, violence, sex and profanity.
w Dave Humphries, Martin Stellman, Franc Roddam d Franc Roddam ph Brian Tufano m The Who md John Entwistle, Pete Townshend pd Simon Holland ed Mike Taylor
☆ Phil Daniels, Mark Wingett, Philip Davis, Leslie Ash, Garry Cooper, Toyah Wilcox, Sting

Quai des Brumes ★★★

France 1938 89m bw
Rabinovitch

US title: Port of Shadows
An army deserter rescues a girl from crooks but is killed before they can escape.
Artificial, set-bound, but at the time wholly persuasive melodrama which became one of the archetypal French films of the thirties, its doomed lovers syndrome not being picked up by Hollywood until after World War II.
w Jacques Prévert novel Pierre MacOrlan d Marcel Carné ph Eugen Schüfftan m Maurice Jaubert ad Alexander Trauner ed René Le Hénaff
☆ Jean Gabin (Jean), Michèle Morgan (Nelly), Michel Simon (Zabel), Pierre Brasseur (Lucien Laugardier)

'Unity of space, time and action give the film a classical finish.' – Georges Sadoul
'The sort of powerful and joyless film that the French do so well – a study in foetid atmosphere, in which the one beauty is its uncompromising honesty.' – C. A. Lejeune
† The plot was in fact almost identical with that of Pépé le Moko. The romantic pessimism of these films, plus Le Jour Se Lève, so suited the mood of France that Vichy officials later said: 'If we have lost the war it is because of Quai des Brumes.'

Quai des Orfèvres ★

France 1947 105m bw
Majestic

A music hall artiste is accused of murdering the man he took to be seducing his mistress.
The equivalent of many a British Scotland Yard thriller, but a good one, with excellent acting, atmosphere and suspense.
w Henri-Georges Clouzot, Jean Ferry novel Légitime Défense by Stanislas-André Steeman d Henri-Georges Clouzot ph Armand Thirard m Francis Lopez
☆ Louis Jouvet, Bernard Blier, Suzy Delair, Pierre Larquey, Simone Rennant

'The wonder of Quai des Orfèvres is the way Clouzot has pricked it with life.' – Guardian
'A stunningly well made entertainment.' – New Yorker, 1982

'Two love experts in a daring game of hearts!'

Quality Street ★

US 1937 84m bw
RKO (Pandro S. Berman)

When an officer returns from the Napoleonic wars, he does not recognize his sweetheart, whose beauty has faded, so she masquerades as her own capricious niece.
Fairly successful attempt to capture on screen the essence of Barrie whimsy; everyone tries hard, anyway.
w Mortimer Offner, Allan Scott play J. M. Barrie d George Stevens ph Robert de Grasse m Roy Webb
☆ Katharine Hepburn, Franchot Tone, Fay Bainter, Eric Blore, Cora Witherspoon, Estelle Winwood, Florence Lake, Joan Fontaine

'Hepburn and Tone unable to instil any life, and little entertainment, into this old-timer from legit ... one for the bonnet and shawl trade.' – Variety
'It is strictly a self-propelled picture, tearing breathlessly, even hysterically, through Barrie's quizzical account of a man-hunt ... But we were exhausted by the intensity of Miss Hepburn's concentration on it. Her Phoebe needs a neurologist far more than a husband. Such flutterings and jitterings and twitchings, such hand-wringings and mouth-quiverings, such runnings-about and eyebrow-raisings have not been on the screen in many a moon.' – Frank Nugent, New York Times
'Actually quite repulsive.' – Katharine Hepburn
† Previously made by MGM in 1927 (silent), with Marion Davies and Conrad Nagel; directed by Sidney Franklin.
♗ Roy Webb

Quante Volte... Quella Notte

(dubbed)
Italy/Germany 1972 90m colour
Delfino/Hape (Zeljko Kunkera, Claudio Rainis)
aka: Four Times That Night
Four people tell what happened after a playboy picked up a girl.

Italian fluff that copies Rashomon with its central conceit of the same event seen from differing viewpoints, but is mainly concerned with undressing its female star, a former Miss Italy.
w Mario Moroni, Carl Ross, Guido Leoni d Mario Bava ph Antonio Rinaldi m Lallo Gori pd Andrea Crisanti ed Otello Colangeli
☆ Daniela Giordano, Brett Halsey, Dick Randall, Valeria Sabel, Michael Hinz, Rainer Basedow, Pascale Petit, Brigitte Skay, Calisto Calisti

Quantez

US 1957 80m Eastmancolor
Cinemascope
Universal-International

Robbers hiding for the night in a frontier town become involved in an Indian attack.
Curious, slow-paced attempt to redo The Gunfight with inferior materials; not a profitable experience.
w R. Wright Campbell d Harry Keller ph Carl Guthrie m Herman Stein
☆ Fred MacMurray, Dorothy Malone, James Barton, Sydney Chaplin, John Gavin, John Larch, Michael Ansara

Quantrill's Raiders

US 1958 68m DeLuxe Cinemascope
Allied Artists (Ben Schwalb)

A Southern agent seeks the help of Quantrill's gang to attack an army arsenal at Lawrence, Kansas, and regrets it.
Uninteresting, conventional Western with a flimsy narrative and dull characterization.
w Polly James d Edward Bernds ph William Whitley m Marlin Skiles ad David Milton ed William Austin
☆ Steve Cochran, Diane Brewster, Leo Gordon, Gale Robbins, Will Wright, Kim Charney, Myron Healey

The Quare Fellow

GB 1962 90m bw
BLC/Bryanston (Anthony Havelock-Allan)

Life in a Dublin prison when two men are to be hanged, as experienced by a new young warder.
Watered-down version of a rumbustious stage tragi-comedy, with not much but the gloom left.
wd Arthur Dreifuss play Brendan Behan ph Peter Hennessey m Alexander Faris ☆ Patrick McGoohan, Sylvia Syms, Walter Macken, Dermot Kelly, Hilton Edwards Quartet ★★★

GB 1948 120m bw
GFD/Gainsborough (Anthony Darnborough)

Four stories introduced by the author.
This entertaining production began the compendium fashion (Full House, Phone Call from a Stranger, etc.) and is fondly remembered, though all the stories had softened endings and the middle two did not work very well as drama. Subsequent

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Maugham compilations were Trio and Encore (both qv).
The Facts of Life:
d Ralph Smart ph Ray Elton with Basil Radford, Naunton Wayne, Mai Zetterling, Jack Watling, James Robertson Justice
The Alien Corn:
d Harold French ph Ray Elton with Dirk Bogarde, Françoise Rosay, Raymond Lovell, Honor Blackman, Irene Browne
The Kite:
d Arthur Crabtree ph Ray Elton with George Cole, Hermione Baddeley, Susan Shaw, Mervyn Johns, Bernard Lee
The Colonel's Lady:
d Ken Annakin ph Reg Wyer with Cecil Parker, Linden Travers, Nora Swinburne, Ernest Thesiger, Felix Aylmer, Henry Edwards, Wilfrid Hyde-White
w R. C. Sherriff stories W. Somerset Maugham m John Greenwood

'Has been made without concessions to the bubble-gum trade, but the picture is somewhat uneven; the first and last parts are consistently amusing, and the middle ones tend to be a bit laggard.' – John McCarten, New Yorker

Quartet ★

GB/France 1981 101m GTC colour
TCF/Merchant Ivory (Ismail Merchant, Jean Pierre Mahot de la Querantonnais)

In 1927 Paris, a convict's wife finds herself part of a ménage à trois.
Slow-moving, good-looking study of characters in a milieu; as usual with films from this stable, it has nothing to please the majority.
w Ruth Prawer Jhabvala novel Jean Rhys d James Ivory ph Pierre Lhomme m Richard Robbins
☆ Isabelle Adjani, Maggie Smith, Alan Bates, Anthony Higgins

'See women defiled by monsters from outer space! Men turned killers by mysterious power more incredible than anything today's science or fiction ever imagined!'

Quatermass and the Pit ★★

GB 1967 97m Technicolor
Hammer/Anthony Nelson Keys

US title: Five Million Years to Earth
Prehistoric skulls are unearthed during London Underground excavations, and a weird and deadly force makes itself felt.
The third film of a Quatermass serial is the most ambitious, and in many ways inventive and enjoyable, yet spoiled by the very fertility of the author's imagination: the concepts are simply too intellectual to be easily followed in what should be a visual thriller. The climax, in which the devil rears over London and iś 'earthed', is satisfactorily harrowing.
w Nigel Kneale TV serial Nigel Kneale d Roy Ward Baker ph Arthur Grant m Tristram Cary
☆ Andrew Keir, James Donald, Barbara Shelley, Julian Glover, Duncan Lamont, Edwin Richfield, Peter Copley

'You Can't Escape It! Nothing Can Destroy It! It's Coming For You From Space To Wipe All Living Things From The Face Of The Earth! Can It Be Stopped?'

The Quatermass Experiment ★★

GB 1955 82m bw
Exclusive/Hammer (Anthony Hinds)

US title: The Creeping Unknown
When a rocketship returns from space, two of its three crew members have disappeared and the third is slowly taken over by a fungus which thrives on blood.
Intelligent science fiction based on a highly successful BBC TV serial; the film version is generally workmanlike despite its obvious low budget.
w Richard Landau, Val Guest serial Nigel Kneale d Val Guest ph Jimmy Harvey ☆ Brian Donlevy, Jack Warner, Margia Dean, Richard Wordsworth, David King Wood, Thora Hird, Gordon Jackson

Quatermass II ★★

GB 1957 85m bw
Hammer (Anthony Hinds)

US title: Enemy from Space
A research station operating under military secrecy is supposed to be making synthetic foods, but is in fact an acclimatization centre for invaders from outer space.
Simplified version of a TV serial, a bit stodgy in the talk scenes, but building into sequences of genuine alarm and based on an idea of lingering persuasiveness.
w Nigel Kneale, Val Guest serial Nigel Kneale d Val Guest ph Gerald Gibbs m James Bernard
☆ Brian Donlevy, John Longden, Sidney James, Bryan Forbes, William Franklyn, Charles Lloyd Pack, Percy Herbert, Tom Chatto

Quatre Aventures de Reinette et Mirabelle: see Four Adventures of Reinette and Mirabelle

Les Quatre Cents Coups: see The Four Hundred Blows

Quattro Passi fra le Nuvole: see Four Steps in the Clouds

Que He Hecho Yo Para Merecer Esto?: see What Have I Done to Deserve This?

Que la Bête Meure ★★★

France/Italy 1969 110m colour
La Boétie/Rizzoli (André Génovés)

US title: This Man Must Die
aka: The Beast Must Die; Killer!
A father decides to find and murder the hit-and-run driver who killed his young son.
A complex and engrossing psychological study that ignores the thriller aspects of the story to concentrate on relationships of love and hatred, with a memorable performance from Yanne as an uncouth villain.
w Paul Gégauff novel The Beast Must Die by Nicholas Blake d Claude Chabrol ph Jean Rabier m Pierre Jansen, Brahms ad Guy Littaye ed Jacques Gaillard
☆ Michel Duchaussoy (Charles Thenier), Caroline Cellier (Helene Lanson), Jean Yanne (Paul Decourt), Anouk Ferjac (Jeanne), Marc di Napoli (Philippe Decourt), Maurice Pialat (Police Inspector), Jean-Louis Maury (Peasant/Charles' Friend), Louise Chevalier (Mme. Levenes), Guy Marly (Jacques Ferrand)

'The movie is so attenuated and unhurried that it dies on the screen.' – Pauline Kael

Quebec

US 1951 85m Technicolor
Paramount

The wife of the loyalist governor of Quebec is in love with the leader of the rebels.
Ho-hum period actioner with some pretty backgrounds and not much personality.
w Alan Le May d George Templeton ph W. Howard Greene m Van Cleave ☆ Corinne Calvet, John Barrymore Jnr, Barbara Rush, Patric Knowles, John Hoyt, Arnold Moss

'Tradition prepared her. Change will define her.'

The Queen ★★★ (9)

UK/USA/France/Italy 2006 102m
Pathe/Granada/Miramax/Pathe/BIM Distribuzione/Canal +/France 3 (Andy Harries, Christine Langan, Tracey Seaward)

In the days following Princess Diana's death, Queen Elizabeth tries to maintain a dignified silence, staying within the grounds of Balmoral Castle without meeting her subjects and joining in their grief. But with the persuasion of the new young Prime Minister Tony Blair she comes to accept that times have changed.
Intriguing, provocative piece, with a brilliant script by Peter Morgan that takes as its template the Shakespearean history play: the staging of known public facts and events, combined with deliciously imagined conversations behind closed doors. Director Frears maintains a brisk pace, interspersing depictions of events in that remarkable week with TV news footage. The story shifts subtly: the Queen reluctantly accepts that an outpouring of public emotion is the modern mode of mass mourning, while Tony Blair, initially suspicious of the monarch, comes to admire her –and maybe to empathise with another person set apart by the power a title can bestow. It's about the changing of the guard: tradition is undermined by modernisers, class and privilege are threatened by reform, and stoicism crumbles in waves of hitherto un-British grief. The two lead actors are unimprovable: Helen Mirren offers an astonishing performance, suggesting multiple facets of the Queen's personality, including vulnerability, pathos and humanity beneath a forbidding surface. As for Michael Sheen, he captures Blair's eager-to-please manner and Cheshire-cat grin perfectly. Perhaps the only gripe about the film is that its TV origins are a little too obvious. But remarkably, it conveys the complex, contradictory feelings shared by British subjects of The Queen, irrespective of their opinions about the monarchy.
w Peter Morgan d Stephen Frears ph Alfonso Beato m Alexandre Desplat pd Alan MacDonald ad Ben Smith ed Lucia Zucchetti
☆ Helen Mirren (The Queen), Michael Sheen (Tony Blair), James Cromwell (Prince Philip), Helen McCrory (Cherie Blair), Alex Jennings (Prince Charles), Roger Allam (Robin Janvrin), Sylvia Syms (Queen Mother)

'An immensely entertaining and seemingly acute chronicle of the week Diana died.' – Richard Corliss, Time
'It is intelligent, hilariously funny and ultimately rather moving.' – Philip French, Observer
'Helen Mirren gives the most subtly expressive performance based on a living historical figure that I've ever seen.' – Peter Rainer, Christian Science Monitor
'It's a film of delicious performances and great wit.' – Dave Calhoun, Time Out

Helen Mirren,
Stephen Frears, Alexandre Desplat, Peter Morgan; best picture; costume design (Consolata Boyle)
Best film; Helen Mirren

'She's so excitingly good when she's so wonderfully bad!'

Queen Bee ★

US 1955 95m bw
Columbia (Jerry Wald)

A wealthy woman has a compulsion to dominate everyone around her.
Claustrophobic Southern-set melodrama obviously created for its star.
wd Ranald MacDougall novel Edna Lee ph Charles Lang m George Duning md Morris Stoloff
☆ Joan Crawford, Barry Sullivan, Betsy Palmer, John Ireland, Lucy Marlow, William Leslie, Fay Wray
Charles Lang

Queen Christina ★★★

US 1933 101m bw
MGM (Walter Wanger)

The queen of 17th-century Sweden, distressed at the thought of a political marriage, goes wandering through her country in men's clothes and falls in love with the new Spanish ambassador.
The star vehicle par excellence, superb to look at and one of its star's most fondly remembered films. Historically it's nonsense, but put across with great style.
w Salka Viertel, H. M. Harwood, S. N. Behrman d Rouben Mamoulian ph William Daniels m Herbert Stothart ad Alexander Toluboff ed Blanche Sewell cos Adrian ☆ Greta Garbo (Queen Christina), John Gilbert (Don Antonio De la Prada), Ian Keith (Magnus), Lewis Stone (Chancellor Oxenstierna), C. Aubrey Smith (Aage), Reginald Owen (Prince Charles), Elizabeth Young (Ebba Sparre)
ANTONIO (JOHN GILBERT): 'It's all a question of climate. You cannot serenade a woman in a snowstorm. All the graces in the art of love – elaborate approaches that will make the game of love amusing – can only be practised in those countries that quiver in the heat of the sun.'
CHRISTINA (GRETA GARBO): 'I have been memorizing this room. In the future, in my memory, I shall live a great deal in this room.'

'The shortcomings, such as they are, are so far overshadowed by the potency of the premier satellite, the sterling support, the Mamoulian montage and the Behrman crisp dialogue that they're relatively unimportant; for Christina is cinch b.o.' – Variety
'Garbo, as enchanting as ever, is still enveloped by her unfathomable mystery.' – Photoplay
'An unending series of exceptional scenes.' – Modern Screen

† The leading male role was announced in turn for Leslie Howard, Franchot Tone, Nils Asther, Bruce Cabot and Laurence Olivier: Garbo turned them all down.

Queen Elizabeth ★

France 1912 35m approx (24 fps) bw silent
Histrionic Film original title: Les Amours de la Reine Elisabeth
Scenes from the life of the queen.
Abysmally boring now, this film is important in several ways. It is our best record of Sarah Bernhardt. It was immensely successful throughout the world. It made cinema interesting to all classes, not just the hoi polloi. It made the fortunes of Adolph Zukor, who bought it cheaply and went on to found Paramount Pictures. (Bernhardt is said to have remarked to him: 'You have put me in pickle for all time!')
w Eugène Moreau d Henri Desfontaines, Louis Mercanton
☆ Sarah Bernhardt, Lou Tellegen

Queen Kelly ★★

US 1928 100m approx (24 fps) bw silent
United Artists/Gloria Productions/Joseph Kennedy

A convent girl goes to the bad, is ill-used by a prince, becomes a white slave in Africa but finally inherits a fortune.
Sexually-oriented extravaganza, the last great folly of its director but never finished by him. Various versions exist: in all of them individual scenes are more entertaining than the whole. Extracts were shown in Sunset Boulevard.
wd Erich von Stroheim ph Gordon Pollock, Paul Ivano, Ben Reynolds. m Adolf Tandler ad Harry Miles
☆ Gloria Swanson, Walter Byron, Seena Owen
† The version released on video in 1994 is the European version of 1931, which runs for 115m.

Queen Margot: see La Reine Margot

Queen of Atlantis: see L'Atlantide

Queen of Destiny: see Sixty Glorious Years

Queen of Hearts ★

GB 1936 80m bw
ATP (Basil Dean)

A working girl poses as a socialite and wins a matinée idol.
Stalwart romantic comedy with its star slightly more glamorized than usual.
w Clifford Grey, H. F. Maltby, Douglas Furber, Anthony Kimmins, Gordon Wellesley d Monty Banks ph John W. Boyle md Ernest Irving ad J. Elder Wills ☆ Gracie Fields, John Loder, Enid Stamp Taylor, Fred Duprez, Edward Rigby, Hal Gordon

Queen of Hearts ★

GB 1989 112m colour
Enterprise/TVS Films/Nelson Entertainment/Film Four International/Telso International (John Hardy)

A ten-year-old, part of a large and happy Italian family living in London, watches while his father risks everything by gambling.
Odd and ultimately unsatisfactory mix of fantasy and reality, contrasting Italian warmth and British cool to the detriment of both.
w Tony Grisoni d Jon Amiel ph Mike Southon m Michael Convertino pd Jim Clay ed Peter Boyle
☆ Vittorio Duse, Joseph Long, Anita Zagaria, Eileen Way, Vittorio Amandola, Roberto Scateni, Stefano Spagnoli, Alec Bregonzi

Queen of Outer Space

US 1958 79m DeLuxe Cinemascope
Allied Artists (Ben Schwalb)

The man-hating Queen of Venus is thwarted in her plans to destroy the Earth with a powerful ray by astronauts who crash-land on the planet.
Ludicrously inept science fiction that borrows from Flight to Mars, World without End and Forbidden Planet for many of its props and special effects. No film that casts a heavily accented Zsa Zsa Gabor as a Venusian scientist in sequins, silk and gold high heels can have been intended as entirely serious, but most of the laughter is at the expense of the acting, dialogue and aliens, who look as if they have just stepped out of a chorus line.
w Charles Beaumont story Ben Hecht d Edward Bernds ph William Whitley m Marlin Skiles ad David Milton ed William Austin ☆ Zsa Zsa Gabor, Eric Fleming, Dave Willock, Laurie Mitchell, Lisa Davis, Patrick Waltz, Paul Birch, Barbara Darrow, Marilyn Buferd

The Queen of Spades ★★

GB 1948 96m bw
ABP/World Screen Plays (Anatole de Grunwald)

A Russian officer tries to wrest from an ancient countess the secret of winning at cards, in return for which he has sold his soul to the devil; but she dies of fright and haunts him.
Disappointingly slow-moving but splendidly atmospheric recreation of an old Russian story with all the decorative stops out; the chills when they come are quite frightening, the style is impressionist and the acting suitably extravagant.
w Rodney Ackland, Arthur Boys novel Alexander Pushkin d Thorold Dickinson ph Otto Heller m Georges Auric ad Oliver Messel
☆ Anton Walbrook, Edith Evans, Ronald Howard, Yvonne Mitchell, Mary Jerrold
'The photography is adventurous, the cutting imaginative and the sets startling.' – Evening Standard
'It is fine to come across such distinguished filmcraft.' – Evening News

The Queen of Spies: see Joan of Ozark

'All She Wants Is Hell On Earth.'

Queen of the Damned

US/Australia 2002 101m Technicolor
Warner/Village Roadshow/NPV/Material (Jorge Saralegui)

A vampire rock singer angers his fellow creatures by calling them to come out of hiding, and awakens their destructive queen.
Feeble and listless movie that offers nothing in the way of satisfaction.
w Scott Abbott, Michael Petroni novels The Vampire Chronicles by Anne Rice d Michael Rymer ph Ian Baker m Richard Gibbs, Jonathan Davis pd Graham 'Grace' Walker ed Dany Cooper sp Bob McCarron ☆ Stuart Townsend (Lestat), Aaliyah (Akasha), Marguerite Moreau (Jesse Reeves), Vincent Perez (Marius), Paul McGann (David Talbot), Lena Olin (Maharet), Christian Manon (Mael), Claudia Black (Pandora), Bruce Spence (Khayman)
'It isn't great entertainment or camp, but pic sets its ambitions so low, it can't help partially delivering on them.' – Scott Foundas, Variety

Queen of the Mob ★

US 1940 61m bw
Paramount

A murderess and her three sons are captured by the FBI.
Pacy crime melodrama from the Persons in Hiding series, based on the exploits of Ma Barker.
w Horace McCoy, William Lipman d James Hogan ph Theodor Sparkuhl
☆ Blanche Yurka, Ralph Bellamy, Jack Carson, Richard Denning, Paul Kelly, J. Carrol Naish, Jeanne Cagney, William Henry, James Seay, Hedda Hopper

Queen of the Nile: see Nefertite, Queen of the Nile

Queen of the Road

Australia 1984 96m colour
JNP (James Davern)

A daughter inherits trouble when she takes over her father's truck haulage business.
A dull comedy of mishap and misadventure, interspersed with country and western songs and relying for the most part on the old joke (though it may be new to Australia) that women are poor drivers.
w Tom Mitchell d Bruce Best ph Joseph Pickering m Mike Perjanik ad Michael Ralph ed Zsolt Kollanyi
☆ Joanne Samuel, Amanda Muggleton, Shane Worthington, Jonathan Sweet, Chris Hession

The Queen's Guards

GB 1960 112m Technicolor
Cinemascope
TCF/Imperial (Michael Powell)

Reminiscences during trooping the colour of father and son guardsmen.
Incredibly old-fashioned family melodrama complete with skeleton in family closet; despite its date it has a decidedly pre-war air, except that it might have been more smartly done then.
w Roger Milner d Michael Powell ph Gerald Turpin m Brian Easdale
☆ Raymond Massey, Daniel Massey, Robert Stephens, Ursula Jeans, Judith Stott, Elizabeth Shepherd, Duncan Lamont, Ian Hunter, Jack Watling
'This flagwaving museum piece would be distressing if it weren't so inept ... [the actors] battle manfully with dialogue and characters as dated as a Crimean cavalry charge. The film could scarcely be taken as a tribute to the Guards except, just possibly, by elderly aunts in Cheltenham.' – MFB

The Queen's Husband: see The Royal Bed

Queens Logic ★

US 1991 116m DeLuxe
New Visions (Stuart Oken, Russ Smith)

Friends from boyhood offer each other support and succour at a moment of marital crisis.
Energetically acted domestic drama that covers familiar ground but does so in an enjoyably high-spirited manner.
w Tony Spiridakis story Tony Spiridakis, Joseph W. Savino d Steve Rash ph Amir Mokri m Joe Jackson pd Edward Pisoni ed Patrick Kennedy
☆ Kevin Bacon, Linda Fiorentino, John Malkovich, Joe Mantegna, Ken Olin, Tony Spiridakis, Tom Waits, Chloe Webb, Jamie Lee Curtis
'This deadpan midlife crisis comedy-drama is undeniably compulsive in its simplified TV fashion, thanks to a cleverly worked script and some heartening acting.' – John Lyttle, Independent

Queimada!

France/Italy 1968 132m DeLuxe
PEA/PPA (Alberto Grimaldi)

aka: Burn!
A diplomat is sent to a Caribbean island to break the Portuguese sugar monopoly and becomes involved with revolutionaries.
An indigestible attempt to combine adventure with the film of ideas; very tedious.
w Franco Solinas, Giorgio Arlorio d Gillo Pontecorvo ph Marcello Gatti m Ennio Morricone
☆ Marlon Brando, Renato Salvatori, Norman Hill, Evaristo Marquez

'Theirs was a time of love and violence!'

Quentin Durward ★

GB 1955 101m Eastmancolor Cinemascope
MGM (Pandro S. Berman)
aka: The Adventures of Quentin Durward

An elderly English lord sends his nephew to woo a French lady on his behalf; but the boy falls in love with her himself.
Haphazardly constructed and produced, but quite enjoyable, period romp, with a bold black villain and several rousing set-pieces including a final set-to on bell ropes.
w Robert Ardrey novel Sir Walter Scott d Richard Thorpe ph Christopher Challis m Bronislau Kaper ed Ernest Walter ☆ Robert Taylor, Kay Kendall, Robert Morley, Alec Clunes, Marius Goring, Wilfrid Hyde-White, Ernest Thesiger, Duncan Lamont, Harcourt Williams, Laya Raki, George Cole

Querelle

West Germany/France 1982 108m Eastmancolor
Planet/Albatross/Gaumont

A homosexual sailor has a mystical quest which involves murder.
Overheated fantasy which may have something to say to gays, but not much to other audiences.
wd Rainer Werner Fassbinder book Jean Genet ph Xaver Schwarzenberger m Peer Raben ☆ Brad Davis, Franco Nero, Jeanne Moreau, Laurent Malet

The Quest

US 1996 95m DeLuxe 'Scope
Universal/MDP (Moshe Diamant)

A petty thief takes part in a martial arts championship in Tibet in the 20s.
Trivial martial arts flick, serving up the same old narrative as usual; this time it is woodenly directed as well as acted.
w Steve Klein, Paul Mones story Frank Dux, Jean-Claude Van Damme d Jean-Claude Van Damme ph David Gribble m Randy Edelman pd Steve Spence ed John F. Link, William J. Meshover
☆ Jean-Claude Van Damme, Roger Moore, James Remar, Janet Gunn, Jack McGee, Aki Aleong, Abdel Qissi, Louis Mandylor
'Dull stuff, except perhaps for martial-arts fanatics.' – George Perry

Quest for Camelot

US 1998 86m Technicolor
Warner (Dalisa Cooper Cohen)

GB title: The Magic Sword: Quest for Camelot
The daughter of a murdered knight goes in search of King Arthur's sword Excalibur, which has been stolen and lost in a magic forest.
Like Mulan, this is one of the current cycle of animated movies with heroines who take on male roles; maybe boys no longer watch cartoons, which in this case is the sensible option.
w Kirk de Micco, William Schifrin, Jacqueline Feather, David Seidler novel The King's Damosel by Vera Chapman d Frederick Du Chau ph Mark Dinicola m Patrick Doyle pd Steve Pilcher ed Stanford C. Allen ☆ Featuring the voices of: Jessalyn Gilsig (sung by Andrea Corr), Cary Elwes (sung by Bryan White), Gary Oldman, Eric Idle, Don

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Rickles, Jane Seymour, Celine Dion, Pierce Brosnan (sung by Steve Perry), Bronson Pinchot, Jaleel White, Gabriel Byrne, John Gielgud
♪ song 'The Prayer' (m Carole Bayer Sager, David Foster, l Carole Bayer Sager, David Foster, Tony Renis, Alberto Testa)

Quest for Fire
Canada/France 1981 100m Bellevue-Pathé Panavision
ICC/Cine Trail/Belstar/Stephan (Michael Gruskoff)

Eighty thousand years ago, a primitive tribe uses the discovery of fire to defeat its enemies.
Scientifically cosseted but sometimes unintentionally funny attempt to make us care about the problems of primitive man. Lively sequences are separated by longueurs.
w Gérard Brach novel La Guerre du Feu by J. H. Rosny d Jean-Jacques Annaud ph Claude Agostini m Philippe Sarde pd Guy Comtois, Brian Morris special language Anthony Burgess body movement Desmond Morris ☆ Everett McGill, Ron Perlman, Rae Dawn Chong, Nameer El-Kadi

'He had seen her, felt her touch, knew she existed...'

Quest for Love ★
GB 1971 90m Eastmancolor
Rank/Peter Rogers Productions (Peter Eton)

After an explosion during an experiment, a young physicist finds himself living a different life, in love with a dying girl; returning to normal, he finds the girl and saves her.
Pleasing variation on Berkeley Square, quite well staged and played.
w Terence Feely story Random Quest by John Wyndham d Ralph Thomas ph Ernest Steward m Eric Rogers
☆ Tom Bell, Joan Collins, Denholm Elliott, Laurence Naismith, Lyn Ashley

A Question of Adultery
GB 1958 84m bw
Eros/Connaught Place/Raymond Stross

When a husband is discovered to be sterile, his wife suggests artificial insemination, but when she seems to have a lover he institutes divorce proceedings.
Opportunist melodrama from the headlines. Not even interesting then.
w Anne Edwards play Breach of Marriage by Dan Sutherland d Don Chaffey ph Stephen Dale m Philip Green ☆ Julie London, Anthony Steel, Basil Sydney, Donald Houston, Anton Diffring, Andrew Cruickshank, Conrad Phillips, Kynaston Reeves

A Question of Silence ★
Netherlands 1982 96m colour
C.O.W./Sigma Films (Matthijs van Heijningen) original title: De Stilte Rond Christine M

A lawyer, defending three women who commit a gratuitous act of murder of a male boutique owner, claims that their action is the result of masculine oppression.
Stylish feminist thriller that skilfully wraps its propagandist message.
wd Marleen Gorris ph Frans Bromet m Lodewijk de Boer, Martijn Hasebos ad Harry Ammerlaan ed Hans van Dongen ☆ Edda Barends, Nelly Frijda, Henriette Tol, Cox Habbema, Eddy Brugman, Hans Croiset, Erik Plooyer

'The Wild West Just Got A Little Wilder'

The Quick and the Dead ★
US 1995 108m Technicolor
Columbia TriStar (Joshua Donen, Allen Shapiro, Patrick Markey)

Gunmen and one vengeful woman congregate in a Western town run by a psychotic killer for a gunfighting contest in which the winner is the last man left alive.
The Western genre taken to a logical conclusion: as a succession of quick-draw contests; the influence here is Sergio Leone, to which the director adds his trademark convulsive camerawork.
w Simon Moore d Sam Raimi ph Dante Spinotti m Alan Silvestri pd Patrizia von Brandenstein ed Pietro Scalia
☆ Gene Hackman, Sharon Stone, Leonardo DiCaprio, Russell Crowe, Tobin Bell, Roberts Blossom, Lance Henriksen, Pat Hingle, Gary Sinise, Woody Strode

'Take it as parody or take it seriously, the effect is the same: extreme boredom.' – Geoff Brown, The Times
'The definitive postmodern, postfeminist, post-what-have-you western – for what it's worth.' – Premiere

Quick Before It Melts
US 1964 97m Metrocolor Panavision
MGM/Biography (Douglas Lawrence, Delbert Mann)

A journalist is sent to cover a naval enterprise in the Antarctic, and gets a scoop despite his shyness.
Noisy service comedy with precious little plot.
w Dale Wasserman novel Philip Benjamin d Delbert Mann ph Russell Harlan m David Rose ☆ George Maharis, Robert Morse, Anjanette Comer, James Gregory, Howard St John, Janine Gray, Michael Constantine

'The combination of romantic dalliance, service high jinks and hectic journalism remains uniformly flat all through.' – MFB

Quick Change
US 1990 88m DuArt Panavision
Warner/Devoted (Robert Greenhut, Bill Murray)

Two men and a woman stage a flawless bank robbery and then have trouble making their getaway from New York.
Farcical comedy taken at a decorous pace and with the joke of an escalating series of disasters too often mistimed to produce any amusement.
w Howard Franklin novel Jay Cronley d Howard Franklin, Bill Murray ph Michael Chapman m Randy Edelman ad Speed Hopkins ed Alan Heim ☆ Bill Murray, Geena Davis, Randy Quaid, Jason Robards, Bob Elliott, Kimberleigh Aarn, Ron Ryan, Brian McConnachie, Jack Gilpin

The Quick Gun
US 1964 88m Techniscope
Admiral/Columbia

A gunfighter gets an icy welcome when he returns home to claim his father's farm.
Standard Western with the hero redeemed and elected sheriff at the end.
w Robert E. Kent d Sidney Salkow ph Lester Shorr m Richard La Salle ☆ Audie Murphy, Merry Anders, James Best, Ted de Corsia, Walter Sande, Frank Ferguson

Quick Let's Get Married
US 1965 100m colour
Golden Eagle (William Marshall)
aka: The Confession, Seven Different Ways

The voice of a sneak thief in a ruined church is taken by an unwed mother as a miracle.
Downright peculiar mishmash wasting interesting stars; an independent production by Rogers and husband in Jamaica.
w Allan Scott d William Dieterle ph Robert Bronner m Michael Colicchio
